RELIEF OFFICE TO MAKE SEED LOANS

LOCAL RELIEF AGENCY TO MAKE LOANS UNTIL FERA CAN MEET NEEDS.

Special funds have been made available to the Texas Relief Commission by the Federal Emergency Relief Administration for the purpose of making emergency seed loans for spring planting of commercial and forage crops, it was announced Tuesday by Adam R. Johnson, State Relief Director.

"These funds have been made available to meet the emergency created by the temporary lack of funds in the Farm Credit Administration which heretofore has made such loans," Mr. Johnson said.

All applications will be passed upon by the local county committee which heretofore have functioned under the Farm Credit Administration. It was pointed out, however, that no loans would be made to farmers who are able to obtain credit through usual commercial channels and that in cases where existing crop or chattel liens existed, waivers and non-disturbance agreements from such lien holders will be required before any loans will be approved.

This consignment is a large percentage of the contracts in the county for 1935.

THE GREATEST REASON FOR DRIVERS LICENSE LAW

Down at Austin the legislature has an opportunity to pass a model automobile drivers license law—if they ever quit shadow-boxing over the demand for repeal of the race-track gambling law, prohibition repeal, etc.

Texas has before it the greatest reason on earth for the immediate adoption of a drivers license law with teeth in it for last year more people were killed and injured in automobile accidents than ever before in history.

The Travelers Insurance Company has analyzed the record in a graphic, illustrated booklet entitled "Thou Shalt Not Kill." It shows that the fatality total was around 36,000—and the injury total near the million mark. It is a fact that automobile registrations increased last year, as compared with 1933—but they increased but 6 percent, as did gasoline consumption, while the death record soared 16 percent.

The main reason for that ghastly record is excessive speed. Speed is not only responsible for the bulk of accidents—it also tends to make the consequences of each accident more serious. A heavy foot on the accelerator is the best friend that the Dark Angel has.

Last year, automobiles struck 337,000 pedestrians—and 16,000 died. There were 381,000 accidents in which two cars collided—resulting in the death of 8,500 people. Four thousand were killed as the result of cars striking fixed objects—and 1,100 perished in accidents involving cars and trains—a type of accident which is almost invariably the fault of the motorist.

Drivers who speed in improper places, who drive on the wrong side of the road, who usurp the right-of-way, who pass on hills and curves, who fail to give proper signals and who are otherwise reckless, menace the life, health and property of every American citizen. Are we to continue to permit such drivers to make a shambles of the public streets and highways?

Certainly we must have a drivers license law in Texas.

WE'RE PAYING FOR TOO MUCH POLITICAL CANDY

The American people cry louder over high-priced luxuries than they do ordinarily over high-priced necessities. Just now we are about to discover that we have been paying nearly double for certain political, red-stick candy.

We are developing a political philosophy that not only invites the people, but urges them to get their noses in the public trough on the theory that someone owes them a living.

It has become good politics to give the people a nice, red, five-cent stick of political candy for ten cents in taxes. So long as the people can be kept ignorant of the fact that they are really paying for the candy plus about 100 percent additional for political overhead to handle it, just so long will they clap their hands and cry for more.

But a lot of good folks are getting a stomach ache from too much political candy.

They are going to ask questions when they find what their candy is costing.

GREATER OPPORTUNITIES EXIST TODAY

The Saturday Evening Post had a fine editorial commenting on the time-worn argument of politicians that there is no more "free land" to be had from the government; hence, vast sums of money must be appropriated to provide "social services" for the people.

The Post pointed out that the "free land" story is misleading—that a man had to have courage, perseverance and great initiative to cross the deserts, mountains and forests for thousands of miles to gain the "free land." He generally paid a tremendous price in suffering, privation, endless labor and often death in order to acquire "free land."

"Social service" schemes at public expense, do not develop the type of citizens who crossed the plains and took up land to build a new empire in the West.

Greater opportunities are here today, but the individual is not encouraged to find them by paternalistic governmental policies which crush initiative and private enterprise.

A steady increase in the number of receding glaciers proves that the world temperature is gradually rising, scientists say.

LEARN TO SHIFT GEARS

While this writer disclaims any need for shifting gears on account of age and decrepitude as yet, nevertheless maturer wisdom that comes with a good, round number of sandstorm seasons, brings us to the thought that many a man and woman needs to begin to get ready, to contemplate the wisdom of learning to shift gears in lower ratio if they shall expect to descend the Western slopes of life in comfort and satisfaction.

In conversation with a gentleman recently, he remarked that a late hunting trip had called to his attention that "the Old Grey Mare Ain't What She Used to Be," and that the gear-shifting process must soon begin.

May we all approach that inevitable age and condition with a mind and spirit prepared for the graceful and amiable shifting into a lower gear, and may it be done with intelligent dexterity; with no sudden jerks and loud clashing.

This bit of philosophy is written with direct reference to certain elder members of the Panhandle Press Association—names to be released on application.

CHRISTIANITY

I cannot now remember where I read it, and at the time I did not give the statement much consideration, but it has kept bobbing up in my mind ever since. The line which lingers in my memory was something like this: "What the world needs today is good, old-fashioned Christianity."

A lot of folks who know me might figure that I do not have too much of that, and perhaps they are correct, but nevertheless I incline to the belief that the writer of the paragraph uttered a vital truth.

Try as I may I cannot get the idea that attendance and the support of the church constitutes complete Christianity for my conception of Christianity is something which can and should be used every waking hour.

Christianity should produce patience, kindness, honesty, charity and tolerance, in business as well as in social intercourse, and a Christianity which falls short of this is not going to make the world any better.

For, after all, Christianity is right living and right thinking. Thus he who lives right and thinks right will exhibit the attributes mentioned above.

I was talking to a business man a few days ago and he said that to his way of thinking selfishness was the outstanding sin of the age and in this I heartily agree. If we could banish selfishness we would go a long way toward reforming the world, and surely selfishness is not Christianity.—Pampa Advocate.

Of all our modern machinery, financial machinery is the most crude, primitive and inadequate. That seems to be what is holding us back.

NECESSARY SERVICE

Electricity has brought a new era of dependable service to West Texas in recent years. Twenty-four hours of the day, approximately 43,000 homes and places of business served by this Company in 160 towns and communities rely on this service in some way every minute of the day.

Its large variety of uses acclaim its acceptance as a necessary service. Homes employ it as a means of lighting, washing and ironing, refrigeration, cleaning, water heating, cooking, air conditioning; for the operation of the radio and many small appliances. The uses of electricity in industry are innumerable. Almost every task has in some way been lightened and more nearly perfected by this necessary service. It has truly served all the people in some way and has shared immeasurably in our progress.

The West Texas Utilities Company has provided this service practically uninterrupted and economically cheap. No greater words of praise could be spoken of this service than that our customers have become so accustomed to its reliability, until today it has become a commonplace item of the household and place of business.

Do you know that your increased use of Electric Service is billed on a surprisingly low rate schedule... and adds only a small amount to your total bill?

Sunday was one of the worst days of the year, yet everyone in our community put God first and came to Sunday School. We had 73 present. If people in every walk of life could only remember that God only asks for one day of the week, how much more happier they would be the other six days of the week from giving one day to God. Most of the men of the farms can now be seen out in the fields—spring has surely come. On the fruit trees the delicate pink of the blossoms has appeared. In every way nature has awakened after several brief "trys" at winter. Miss Frances Hott was a visitor

LIBRARY NOTES

(By Mrs. C. A. Burton)

Richard Haliburton, who will always be known for his "Royal Road to Romance," has promised his publishers the manuscript of a new book for publication next Fall. He is abroad in little-known places gathering material for the forthcoming book. The University of Texas is holding an exhibition of the books and manuscripts of Charles Lamb in commemoration of the centry of his death in December, 1834. R. H. Griffith has written and published a booklet describing the interesting items in the collection. March 12th has been set as the publication date for "Green Light," the new book by Lloyd Douglas, and the reviewers say it is a more powerful story than "The Magnificent Obsession," and more inspiring than "Forgive Us Our Trespases." This new story has been running as a serial, but the statement is made by the publishers that the book will contain almost twice as much as did the magazine. The theme is that man's progress through life is not steadily onward—but for all of us there comes a day when the light turns green and the road ahead is clear. One reviewer says, "It's a large slice of life, not in the raw, but told with complete realism and great emotional force; its inspired theme untainted by sentimentality, is magnificently unfolded." Lloyd Douglas lives and writes at Wellesley Hills, Mass. His two books mentioned above are still greatly in demand by our readers. The 1935 meeting of the Texas Library Association, will be held in Austin, April 25-27. Miss Lucia Powell is president of this association. Louis Bromfield has just returned from abroad, and will publish his new book, "The Man Who Had Everything," in May. Several of his books are on our shelves and one enjoyed by our readers. Will James whose "Smoky" and "Sand" have been so popular with our readers, particularly among the boys, has a new book, "In the Saddle with Uncle Bill," which will be published this month. It is said that at least a dozen books will be off the press in a few days giving the "true story" of the Lindbergh crime. I fancy that most of us will feel that we have had enough of it in the daily press.

A recent list of best sellers for February heads the list with "The Forty Days of Musa Dagh" by Franz Werfel, and contains "Good-Bye, Mr. Chips" by James Hilton, "So Red the Rose" by Stark Young, "Mary Peters" by Pearl Buck, all but the first of which we will soon have on our shelves. "Anthony Adverse" is still included in the list. We still have a waiting list on it.

Walter B. Pitkin whose "Life Begins at Forty," has been the most widely read inspirational book in the entire country for the past year, has a new book "The Secret of Happiness." The author says, "We know today that happy living can be attained by at least six or seven people out of every ten, simply by right education, the right organization of personal effort, and the right selection of one's life work and environment."

We all remember Alice Hegan Rice as the author of "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch." This little story with its immense human appeal went straight to the hearts of the people, and few characters in contemporary literature are better known than "Mrs. Wiggs" who "spent most of her time keeping the dust off her rose colored spectacles." Alice Hegan Rice promises a new book soon, "The Lark Legacy."

And Mazo De La Roche is soon to continue her Whiteoak saga with "Young Renny." We have the four previous books of this Whiteoak family.

Hardy shrubs proved their worth in the recent freeze according to the report of Miss Effie McClane, home demonstration agent, on the yard improvement work being carried on by rural women in Kleberg county. Plants that were acclimated by nature stood the cold as they stand the long dry spells, while tender though beloved shrubs lost out completely. These probably will be replaced by more hardy varieties to insure no future loss, Miss McClane says.

George E. Ragland went to Wichita Falls, Tuesday. Mrs. Ragland returned with him after making an extended visit there.

MARTIN

(By Mrs. Jim Baker)

Miss Lucile Polk entertained her Sunday School class Wednesday night with a party at the school building. After playing several games of forty-two and bridge the hostess served cake and hot chocolate to about thirty-six young people.

Mr. and Mrs. Stogner of Windy Valley spent Friday night with Mr. and Mrs. George Kavanaugh and attended the play.

The young people of the community enjoyed a party in the Wes Sullivan home Saturday night.

Mr. J. H. Easterling and son, Earl, left for Mineral Wells Wednesday where Mr. Easterling expected to become a patient in the Millings Hospital. We hope that he will be greatly benefited by his stay there.

Mrs. A. C. Arnold is spending the week with her daughter, Mrs. Jim Baker.

Brother Brister filled his appointments here the last week-end. There was a larger crowd out Sunday for Sunday School and services than there has been for some time. We hope to organize the Young Married Women's Class next Sunday so we want all these women especially to come.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Patterson and children, Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Wood and family, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Jordan and son, and Emily Davis were dinner guests in the J. H. Easterling home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Kavanaugh were pleasant callers in the afternoon.

Of this acreage 158,000 acres were terraced by the use of county tractor and road grader machinery, which indicates increasing use of this tax payer's investment.

A. L. Chase attended a district meeting of Continental Oil Co. dealers in Amarillo Monday.

Cold weather in Llano county was the signal for more pecan budding work there. On the ranch of F. H. Westerman, farmers, ranchmen and 4-H club boys gathered to take part in the pecan budding demonstration when Glen Patton, R. H. Nelson, and D. D. Steele, farm demonstration agent, "showed 'em how." Westerman plans to increase the number of top worked trees on his ranch gradually until he has the banks of the San Fernando bordered with fine pecans.

COTTON CONTRACT SIGNERS ASKED TO SPEED CHECKS

All cotton contract signers for 1934-35 cotton acreage reduction contracts who did not sign up for 1935 with their local committeeman will please come to the county agent's office as soon as possible and sign their contracts. We are expecting to get all of the contracts signed up within the next week and the longer that the producers wait to sign up their contracts then it will naturally be longer getting their checks. This office is urging that all producers who have not signed their 1935 contracts come to the county agent's office and do this at once.

The Washington office of the AAA has set a final closing date on the corn-hog application for contract. No applications will be accepted after April first.

Mr. Rathjen Speaks In Education Class

On Wednesday morning, March 6, students of first year Education had as guest speaker, Mr. Fred Rathjen, local shoe salesman, who spoke on modern education in Germany. A few weeks ago a pamphlet containing propaganda against Hitler's regime and the Nazi school system was discussed in this class.

Mr. Rathjen emphasized that German school children are taught the same principles of education that Americans are, but their rules are much more strict. A German child must prepare his lessons outside of school hours, as the eight hours spent at school are not interspersed with study periods.

School systems in America and other countries are patterned after those of Germany. California, who has one of the best educational systems in the United States, has a foundation based on the old schools of Prussia.

In the paper condemning German education, impressing upon the children's minds the importance of patriotism to the Fatherland is criticised. Mr. Rathjen reminded the class that in our country we too encourage loyalty to our government by singing "America" and the national anthem.

Socrates of Sports

The high school tracksters will have to do some hard training to get in top shape for the county meet on March 29 and 30. Perhaps they will not have to be in to form to defeat our friendly rivals, the Hedley Owls, but he thinks that they will. Soc doesn't like to talk against the home town team, but he predicts that Hedley will score more points this year against Clarendon than they have in any meet for the last five years.

Woodrow Bull's chief interest lies in Boy Scouting. He is also interested in science and makes top grades in Physics. In the senior play, "Antics of Andrew," Woodrow played the part of a Scotland Yards policeman. For Interscholastic League activity, Woodrow chose tennis and plays a good game.

Truman Folkes caused quite a disturbance the other day on the track when Kerby told him to put the shot awhile. Truman appeared a few minutes later coming from the dressing room and when asked where he had been replied that he had put the shot away in the locker room as per instructions.

Mary Lois Hayter was in Memphis Sunday. An additional 61,287 acres in 62 counties were terraced by 4-H club boys as part of their year's club work.

Round Robin Play Adopted For District 3 Class B Games

District 3 of Class B football will not be divided into sections as has been done the last few years, but there will be a round robin sort of play among the different teams of the district. The representatives of the eight schools of District 3 met in McLean last Thursday and made this decision. Another ruling made by the officials of this meeting was the deposit of $2.00 by each school whereby a list of the football players of each school for the past four years could be published and distributed to each team in the district.

In the election of officials for the next year, C. A. Cryer of McLean was elected chairman of the executive committee of the district, and H. T. Burton of this city was made vice-chairman. W. C. Perkins of Shamrock, Earl Chaudoin of Mobeetie, and G. L. Fraror of Wellington will act as directors.

The Clarendon Broncho football schedule for '35 was nearer completion by the actions of this meeting. The schedule thus far is as follows:

- *Conference games. Sept. 13-Open. Sept. 20-Open. *Sept. 27-Wellington, there. *Oct. 4-Shamrock, here. Oct. 11-Open. *Oct. 18-LeFors, there. *Oct. 25-Mobeetie, here. Nov. 1-Squad game. *Nov. 11-Memphis, here. *Nov. 15-McLean, here. *No. 22-Wheeler, there. Nov. 28-Open.

SENIOR PERSONALITIES

Marie Carlile is a short, blonde girl who is well known for pleasant nature and ability to get along with everybody. Her greatest school interest is Physics, although it is hard to understand, and she states her second preference as economics. Marie is on the volley ball team and puts plenty of punch behind her serves. Her highest ambition is to be a stenographer in a law office, and to prepare for this career, she plans to take a business course in Amarillo after graduation.

Linwood Betts is a slim blonde Senior who does not have definite plans for his life after graduating this spring. Linwood's favorite subject is Physics, and he makes fair grades in this. He likes to play tennis and is often seen on the local courts. Linwood played the part of a college professor in the recent play presented by Seniors, and he exhibited a superior performance.

Viola Barker is secretary and treasurer for the senior class of which she is a member. Viola is a small, dark girl who competed in the contest for carnival queen last fall. This is her first year to attend schools in Clarendon, and she has become quite popular during the short acquaintance with students of high school and college. She makes excellent grades in all subjects, coming out with a ninety-nine plus in typing last six weeks.

Woodrow Bull's chief interest lies in Boy Scouting. He is also interested in science and makes top grades in Physics. In the senior play, "Antics of Andrew," Woodrow played the part of a Scotland Yards policeman. For Interscholastic League activity, Woodrow chose tennis and plays a good game.

Tech Band Presented In Entertaining Program

'Antics of Andrew' Immense Success

The Texas Tech Band under the capable direction of E. O. Wiley was presented Thursday afternoon, March 7, at the auditorium. The small admission charge was for the benefit of the local band. A large number of local citizens and Junior High and South Ward pupils as well as high school and college students, were present at this unusual concert. The band was on a tour of a number of West Texas towns and had come from the Fat Stock Show in Amarillo.

The concert was opened with two typical march selections after which were presented a number of classical compositions. Among those numbers which were most enthusiastically received by the audience were a trumpet solo, a flute solo, and the band's interpretation of Schubert's "March Militaire."

Perhaps the final number of the program was enjoyed more than any of the others; at least this might be implied from the enthusiastic encores which were given to Billy Lewis, trick rope artist. Dressed in clothes which strongly resembled those which one would naturally expect to see on Will Rogers, he performed a number of rope tricks that might easily have made that famous humorist and master of the art of trick roping hang his head in shame, had he been present.

One of the most impressive of the tricks was the one in which he kept three small loops of rope going in a circle at one time; one in each of his hands, and the other between his teeth. During his entire performance, the band played a medley of tunes that were appropriate to his act. Every who attended the concert left with the feeling that the dime which it had cost was too little.

ALPHA DELTA PSI

Eighteen members responded to the interesting program planned by the Alpha Delta Psi's last Monday evening. A discussion of the life of Charles Dickens and his writings was given by Mary Francis Powell. Wanda Mayfield reviewed the movie production of "David Copperfield," an adaptation of the famous novel by Dickens. This talk was obtained from

Palo Duro

The members of the Palo Duro Literary Society met Wednesday, March 6, at their room in the dormitory to enjoy a program based on J. Frank Dobie's book of related short stories, "Coronado's Children." After the calling of the roll and reading of the minutes of the last meeting, the program was turned over to Vivian Taylor, leader. Avis Lee McElvany first gave a few incidents of the life of the author, and then Geraldine Pratt gave an interesting criticism of the book. The remainder of the program was made up with reviews of some of the shorter stories from "Coronado's Children."

The attendance was good, and the entire senior class of 1935 thanks all who came. Members of the class wish to thank Mrs. Bennett and Miss Thornton for their contributions to the success of the play.

Articles in recent issues of Scholastic and American Girl magazines. Featured music of the evening was played by Arthur Chase, Bill Walker, Nicky Stewart, and Hubert Reavis. The current popular numbers, "Object of My Affection" and "The Continental" were played, and the orchestra concluded with Wayne King's theme song.

Two groups of very attractive silver bracelets were exhibited by the president, and a type suitable to the wants of the members was a subject for debate. With the Greek initial letters of the society engraved on these bracelets, they will individualize each member who wears one. Everyone seems enthusiastic over buying identification bracelets.

After a short business discussion concerning dues and club room rules, the group adjourned for a lively session of ping pong. Athlyn Drennon was in Electra over the week-end.

Very Personal

Well, the Seniors of 1935 woke up and showed the citizens of Clarendon and incidentally some of those who have been remarking about them, a thing or two. In other words the play was a rousing success. Everyone fitted his part and did swell, if you will pardon the slang.

I heard several people asking the name of the senior who made the speech between acts, and was I surprised to learn that it was only Mr. Allison trying to make strangers believe that he was a schoolboy.

This week the home ec. girls are serving each other breakfast. They do not have any grudges; it is merely part of their lesson. A few of Vivian Taylor's best friends have begun to doubt her sanity. While walking home from church on a dark and rather cold night, she suddenly ran into the middle of the street, hailed down a nondescript Ford, and shouted at the bewildered face of the driver, and absolute stranger, "take me home—I am freezing to death." The catch is that she didn't know the driver was a stranger; she thought he was a well-known junior who has recently come into possession of a car answering the above description.

A BANK'S STRENGTH

Banking strength is the combination of a sound ratio of assets to liabilities, capital sensibly invested and a conservative policy of skilled management.

True banking strength is none of these things alone, yet all of them.

No single attribute alone makes for financial impregnability. That results, rather, from a fusing of them into the structure, direction and operation of a given bank.

The Broncho Range

Mysterious Mike Moseys Around

Cheerful Chatter should censor the material that appears in her column if she does not wish for a small war right in her own back yard. The Alpha Deltas are up in arms over the article that was so critical of them. The only thing that saved the day was a well founded report that the real Chatterer did not construct the column for last week but a Mysterious Unknown was the author. Well, good luck, Chatterer, and some good jests but lay off the Alpha Deltas for they only want criticism from the real Mc Coy.

Last week Mike's column went the way of all flesh and ran into the waste paper basket it seems. But still it is not bad to those that read the column (if any) that it did.

The boy with the untuned voice, H. W. Lovell, is said to have been put on the "spot" in the fair city of Goodnight by a couple of dames—facts are stranger than fiction. But someone said that Goodnight was very unpopular to the Clarendon Bronchos so perhaps there is a reason.

Puddle City is catching the Clarendon lads and lassies like the well talked of fly paper. Every week there are a dozen or so news items telling of "so and so" visiting someone there. From casual observation it is easily seen why the folks go there—is so much "space" none ever feels cramped.

The boys that are braving the elements to practice for track deserve a gold medal for fearlessness. Anyway they should have endurance for the more tiring events even though they lack speed. Mr. Jones' little boy still appears as the lad that the Clarendon sprinters must beat to get a first place in the forthcoming meet. Everywhere I go I hear Jones' name mentioned as a symbol of speed. Oh, well, the question will be settled before long and may Jones be a slow third in the dashes.

Someone on the bus has been wishing that Roycie Turnbow would get new tires for his battle wagon—it seems that the certain party was detained to a late hour by the unusual number of three flat tires. The girl with the black fiddle case that rides the bus is Grace Hardy, and it isn't a fiddle case; it contains a mandolin, and someone said she could play it—we forget who. Why is Do Little Baker called "Shadow" by his college cousin, and why is Do Little's credit so good at the school eat shop? It is reported that H. Lovell was put on the "spot" (X) at Goodnight, Texas, by a couple of dames—no particulars yet, however. Why is Dumb Cluck so dumb, and if she is so "dumb" why is she so cute? If Mr. Burton will get up in chapel and tell the tales he tells in Geography we guarantee him an interested audience, although they may doubt considerably. If this system of eliminating paragraphs doesn't send the English teachers into a rage, the editor of this column doesn't know his English teachers.

Cheerful Chatter

Overheard from Rosalyn Bass in a crowded cafeteria. "I noticed the music getting weaker, and I looked around, Mr. Kerby was standing between me and the radio, his bulk absorbing most of the sound."

It is certainly a full calendar the students and other people of Clarendon are keeping lately. Banquets, plays, good shows, and two excellent concerts have been well attended and thoroughly enjoyed during the past two weeks.

Can nothing be done about the perfume rising from the chemistry and invading the atmosphere of the other classrooms? Frankly terrible.

Nickey Stewart and Harold McDaniel have been working on a formula to take two girls to the show. The result is p-g-d, pop minus gas and cold drinks.

Wanda Mayfield was in Amarillo Saturday and Tuesday.

The cast includes Viola Barker, Athlyn Drennon, Dola Faye Graham, Geneva Collier, Pauline Shelton, Merrel Harp, Doris Barker.

Doyce Graham, Foster Gregg, H. W. Lovell, Marvin Baker, Horace McClelland, Lou McClelland, Earl Holley, Clyde Barker and Richard Hatley.

Mrs. W. H. Cooke and family left for Olton Monday where they will spend several days.

Mrs. John Bledsoe of Jasonville, Indiana, spent last week in Clarendon visiting her sister, Mrs. Henry Williams.

The funeral was held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the First Methodist Church with Rev. Robt. S. McKee, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Clarendon conducting, assisted by Dr. John Angus MacMillan, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Memphis; Rev. Irwin, pastor of the Presbyterian Church at McLean; and Rev. A. V. Hendricks, pastor of the Hedley Methodist Church.

Burial was made in Hedley Cemetery with the Buntin Funeral Home in charge. Pallbearers were: Zeb Mitchell, Carl Dixon, L. Spalding, Roy Jewel, J. P. Pool and P. L. Dishman.

Evans and resided until 1904 when he moved to Hedley where he made his home until his death. Beach of Hedley, Mrs. Bettie Davis of Abilene, Mrs. I. N. Whitaker of Avondale, Mo., and Mrs. Alice Simmons of Temple; two grandchildren, Mary Helyn and Billie Kinslow of Memphis.

GOOD ROADS BODY SOUNDS WARNING

TEXAS GOOD ROADS ASSOCIATION OPPOSES HIKE OF 1c GASOLINE TAX.

Members of the Texas Good Roads Association over the state received this week a warning letter on the proposed one-cent raise in gasoline taxes, and is urging all citizens who stand opposed to this playing into the hands of the bond scalpers at the expense of the tax payers, to communicate at once with Senator Clint Small and Representative Eugene Worley, asking them to vigorously oppose this bill. Here is the body of the letter: "If you don't want to pay an increase of one cent per gallon in your gasoline tax, bringing the total to six cents, a gallon, here's what you must do: "Write, wire or telephone your State Representative and your State Senator opposing any increase in the tax! "The Committee of the House of Representatives voted out the proposal favorably Thursday, night, March 17th. It will come before the House for vote some time this week. Therefore you must act quickly. "This proposal would boost your gasoline tax bill 20 percent without giving you a single mile of new highways. It will not give work to a single workman. "The entire increase will be used to retire all sorts of old county road bonds, good or bad, on all sorts of purely local roads, regardless of their present condition. No doubt many big bondholders who bought up such securities at from 35 to 50 cents on the dollar would be delighted to have them guaranteed by the motorists of Texas. But would YOU? "Regardless of how careful your own county has guarded its credit, you would have to help pay the road debts of the most extravagant counties, at exactly the same rate. "Increasing the gasoline tax will make evasion and bootlegging more profitable, vastly increasing the illegal traffic in tax-free motor fuel, and robbing the state of the entire tax on each gallon marketed through these racketeering channels. "The motorist already pays a 40 percent sales tax on his gasoline, and should not be further burdened. Act at once or pay the penalty!"

INTEREST SHOWN IN PROVERB CONTEST

$10 IN CASH AWARDS FOR SOLVING THE PROVERBS IN WEEKLY CARTOONS.

As stated in The News last week, a Proverb Contest would be started in this week's issue. True to prediction the contest has aroused much interest and scores of persons have signified their intentions of entering the contest.

Everybody knows what a proverb is. Some of the more famous perhaps, are: A Bird in the Hand is Worth Two in the Bush, A Rolling Stone Gathers No Moss, Birds of a Feather Flock Together, etc.

Now go to it! The first cartoon appears in this issue. Get the members of your family together for a few minutes each week, and see who can get the answers first.
