District Court Will Open Fall Term Monday

Williams Tells
By Fred L. Williams

Broncos Win, Tie and Lose—
The final score was Clarendon 0, Wheeler 0. Clarendon lost, Clarendon won.
All of which may seem a bit befuddled. But nevertheless, each of the statements is a fact.
The score was 0-0. Each team had one 20-yard penetration to its credit. And Wheeler had nine first downs, to eight for Clarendon, and was awarded the conference game for this reason. But Clarendon won because the vaunted Mustang delegation was doped to plaster them by at least three touchdowns.

Best Game In Two Years—
Incidentally, those fans who stayed away from that game at College Field missed the best exhibition of football that has been seen here in the past two seasons.
Those Broncos went in there with the intention of winning the game. And such a rough-and-ready crew you have never seen! They went into each play as if it were a matter of life and death, and through sheer determination overpowered the hard-charging visiting delegation.

Butler and Robinson Shine—
Butler at guard, and Robinson at tackle, played the best defensive game in the line that this writer has witnessed since he has been following the Broncos. They broke through time after time to throw the gargantuan Ford, and the flashy jack rabbit backs, Norman and Graves, for losses. And their play on the offense left little to be desired, opening the way for the line thrusts of Cornell, Grady and Holtzclaw.
One of the most spectacular plays of the game came when Watters, playing his first year at center, rushed in from his defensive halfback position and smacked the 186-pound Ford for a seven-yard loss when the Mustangs were threatening to score from the 11-yard line on fourth down.

Passing Combination Clicks—
One of the most gratifying developments of the game was the disclosure that an effective passing combination has been developed. Cornell has long been rated as one of the best passers in the district, but he has had the misfortune of being unable to get his mates to hold the ball after he places it in their arms. In the game with Wheeler, Grady proved to be a very effective pass-snatcher, and the combination, Cornell to Grady, counted for a large percentage of the yardage gained by the Broncos.
Coach Jones made another wise move in placing Grady in the safety position, moving Cornell up to back up the line. Cornell showed remarkable proficiency in his new assignment, and Grady seems to have developed into one of the most elusive hip-twisters on the squad. He turned in some

Stalling Gets $7.50 Job Done For Nothing

D. O. Stallings owes somebody a vote of thanks.
His safe at his coal office near the Simpson Mill & Feed Company had been very stubborn for some time. The door absolutely refused to be opened, in fact.
Stallings contacted a man who claimed he could open the door. The man said his fee would be $7.50. Stallings said he'd just leave it stuck.
But he got it opened for nothing!
The safe crackers who paid him a visit Tuesday morning obligingly knocked the knob off for him.

Only 19 Cases Appear On Docket; Judge A. J. Fires Will Pre-side At Session.

With a very light docket, district court will open here Monday, October 12. Only 19 cases will confront Judge A. J. Fires who will be on the bench. Out of this number 14 are included in the civil docket, four are suits on delinquent taxes and one is a felony.
The felony case, styled The State of Texas vs. O. D. Leisburg, who is charged with the murder of R. A. Cox on October 2, 1935, was continued from the spring term of court. The grand jury will be in session during the term, but it is reported their findings will be light.
Cases filed include: The State

DONLEY COUNTY IN NEW RA DISTRICT

AMARILLO TO BE DISTRICT HEADQUARTERS AFTER OCTOBER 16.
Eleven West Texas counties of the Dallas district of the Resettlement Administration, of which Donley County is a part, have been transferred to the Amarillo district with the change effective October 16, according to R. C. Land, rural supervisor for Donley, Armstrong and Hall counties.
Land said the transfer would enable quick service on loan applications as the counties would be nearer the district office. Practically all of the counties which are designated as the dust bowl were included in the change.
The counties are Armstrong, Donley, Hall, Wheeler, Collingsworth, Gray, Floyd, Briscoe, Motley, Childress, and Cottle.

WORK IN PLOECENE DEPOSITS RESUMED

EXPEDITION RETURNS TO SEARCH FOR FOSSIL REMAINS NEAR HERE.
An expedition from New York City representing the American Museum of Natural History in search of fossil remains has returned to Donley County.
The party, which is headed by John Lynch, includes also Charles Sternberg and Everett DeGroot, active aides in the field of scientific research, who will resume their winter labors in the rich plocene deposits in the bad lands bordering the north fork of Red River near here. General supervision will be in charge of Charles Faulkenback attached to the Frick laboratories at the museum.
The same pit in which the expedition worked for nearly two years will be reopened. The scientific party came here from Luck, Wyoming, where they spent the summer in search of fossils of animals which roamed that part of the earth millions of years ago.

Rep. Worley Gives Analysis of Old Age Assistance Situation In Donley

A total of 418 applications have been made by Donley County residents to the Texas Old Age Assistance Commission for old age assistance, according to a communication from State Representative Eugene Worley of Shamrock, who said that of this number nine have been denied, 98 are receiving payment, and 311 are pending.
Of the nine applications denied, two were listed as being under age and seven could not show that need was reflected, Worley said.
Worley submitted the following analysis of the payments in Donley County: Three persons receive from $25 to $30 a month, 36 get $20 to $25, 36 get $15 to $20, and 17 receive $10 to $15. Six persons receive less than $10 a month. Two of those receiving $10 to $15 are negroes.
Total monthly payments in the county aggregate $1,725, which is an average of $17.61 a person.
Distribution of ages is as follows: Sixty-five to 70 years, 30; 70 to 75 years, 30; 75 to 80 years, 28; 80 to 85 years, 7; over 85 years, 3.

BRONCHOS BATTLE VAUNTED WHEELER SQUAD TO 0-0 TIE

MUSTANGS WIN GAME BY NARROW MARGIN OF ONE FIRST DOWN.
A battling bunch of Clarendon High school Bronchos lost a heart-breaking conference game to the Wheeler Mustangs here Friday night, when a single first-down gave the visitors the edge after 60 minutes of fierce fighting in which neither team scored.
Wheeler was awarded the game with nine first downs to Clarendon's eight, after each club had made one twenty-yard line penetration.
Clarendon missed a golden opportunity for victory in the second period when they came within one yard of pay dirt. With two downs and one yard to go for the counter, Cornell was thrown for a six yard loss as he attempted to skirt right end. The threat was ended when he heaved the leather over the end zone on the fourth down.
Wheeler also muffed a touchdown chance when they reached the Bronco's six-yard stripe in the

75 Donley Farmers See Demonstration

Over 75 farmers were present at the trench silo demonstration which was held at the H. W. Stogner farm, one mile south of the Windy Valley school, under the direction of County Agent H. M. Breedlove, Tuesday, October 6.
Mr. E. R. Eudaly, who was the principal speaker, pointed out in his talk, the value of silage for feed. He also discussed the digging of the silo and explained how to fill and seal it.

CLARENDON PEOPLE SING OVER KPND

CHURCH OF CHRIST QUARTET BROADCASTS OVER PAMPA RADIO STATION.
A quartet from the Clarendon Church of Christ participated in the Congregational song service at Pampa Sunday afternoon from 3:15 to 3:30 o'clock. The program was broadcast over station KPND by remote control from the Central Church of Christ in Pampa.
Six towns, including Amarillo, Kellerville, Pampa, Borger, and Clarendon were represented at the service.
R. E. Duncan led the following songs for Clarendon: "The Old Rugged Cross," "What a Friend We Have in Jesus," "Take Time to Be Holy," and "Jesus Hold My Hand." Brother W. Wallace Layton gave a talk on singing.
Making the trip were Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Duncan, W. Wallace Layton, Mrs. Jim Newman of

ORGANIZATION OF LOCAL RED CROSS CHAPTER STARTED

FIELD REPRESENTATIVE IS HERE THIS WEEK; DR. HICKS ROLL CALL HEAD.
E. G. Griffin, field representative for the American Red Cross, from the St. Louis office, was in Clarendon Monday and Tuesday, making arrangements for the organization of the annual roll call.
Griffin stated that Dr. A. W. Hicks will again be roll call chairman for Donley County, and that the roll call drive was the only method the local chapter had of raising funds. He urged that every citizen of the county join during the drive. An attempt will be made this year to work the entire county, he said.

Donley Flower Show Held Here Saturday

The annual flower show sponsored by Les Beaux Arts Club of this city was held Saturday afternoon at the club rooms in the city hall. Although the display was not quite as large as in previous years, the flowers shown were unusually beautiful. Because of the exceedingly hot and dry summer, flowers in Clarendon are not so abundant as they usually are at this season.
The show was well attended and comments from all sides were indicative of the interest shown in the affair and of the appreciation accorded Les Beaux Arts Club for its efforts in sponsoring the show. Gardens of Clarendon compare very favorably with those of any city of its size in the Panhandle, and this annual show gives the gardeners an opportunity to compare notes, and citizens of the county the privilege of seeing what is really being done. The committee in charge of the show expressed its especial gratitude and pleasure in the number of men who came to view the display.
The flowers were judged by Mesdames Dirskin, Poole and Tutt of Pampa. Following is a list of the awards made:
Dahlias—First, Mrs. U. J. Boston; second, Mrs. C. B. McCann; third, Mrs. Lon Rundell. Mixed bouquet, dahlias—First, Mrs. Bill Greene; second, Mrs. C. B. McCann; third, Mrs. Joe Goldston. FAIL TO GET CASH WHEN SAFES ARE CRACKED TUESDAY

OFFICERS SEEKING BURG-LARS WHO TRIED TO ROB LOCAL FIRMS.
Safe crackers tried a dual robbery here early Wednesday morning when they knocked the knob off the Stallings Coal Company safe and blew the door off of the vault of the Clarendon Grain Company. Both attempts were unsuccessful as the Stallings safe contained only papers and the inner door of the Clarendon Grain Company withstood the force of the blow. About $50 was said to have been in the safe of the Grain Company.
Ben and Ralph Andis, local truckers, were in their office about one-half block away from the grain company, and heard the explosion. They fixed the time at between 5:30 and 6 a. m.
Photographs of fingerprints taken from the grain company's safe were being enlarged today, but Marion Quisenberry, fingerprint expert of the sheriff's department, had not finished checking by press time.
No prints were obtained from the Stallings office, although officers connected the two attempted robberies.
Sheriff Guy Pierce said this morning that he linked the jobs with two of three criminals who were committed to the penitentiary for burglary two or three years ago. The men have served their time, Pierce said, and quoted them as saying that they would be back to Donley County.
Ralph Andis, who summoned the officers, said that he was in his office with his brother, Ben, and Ernest Taylor, when the explosion occurred. Andis said that they thought an oil stove had exploded and started to investigate.
"We took our pick-up and drove around by the light plant," Andis stated. "We passed the grain company building and continued on to main street where we met the night watchman, who had also heard the blast and was investigating. We turned around, and when our lights flashed on the grain company's building we saw the shattered windows."
Andis said that he returned to the office and called the sheriff. When the officers arrived they found the office in chaos. Both windows were shattered and one screen was completely torn away. Debris littered the floor and the top of a heavy wood desk which stood about 15 feet away from the safe was deeply cut where it had been struck by the door of the safe. The office door was split and nearly torn loose from the hinges.

YOUNG DEMOS IN DRIVE FOR FUNDS

PURPOSE IS TO ASSIST NATIONAL COMMITTEE IN CAMPAIGN.
Young Democrats of Donley County are sponsoring a movement to raise funds for the national committee, campaign expenses and to further the interest of their party here.
A committee composed of J. H. Morris, C. B. Morris, and Charles Bairfield are soliciting the money and distributing stickers and buttons bearing the picture of President Roosevelt.
Almost $50 had been donated to the fund in the first three days of solicitation, according to C. B. Morris, who said the quota for Donley County is $400.

Over $21,000 To Be Paid To Farmers

More than $21,000 will be paid to Donley County farmers for certificates placed in the national pool for sale, County Agent H. M. Breedlove said Wednesday.
The checks have not arrived, but the office has received the approvals, which indicates that they should be received in the near future, Breedlove said.
Farmers will be notified upon the arrival of the checks, he added.

COTTON PICKERS ARE NEEDED HERE

CROP IS HALF OPEN AT PRESENT; OVER 200 LABORERS ARE WANTED.
Late rains and chilling weather are not the only hindrance to Donley County cotton producers, according to J. M. Hill, secretary of the Clarendon Chamber of Commerce, who said Wednesday that a severe shortage of cotton pickers has developed here.
The current cotton crop in this county is about 50 per cent open, Hill said, and over 200 pickers are badly needed at the present time.
Farmers are becoming alarmed over the situation, Hill stated, as they wish to get their cotton out of the field before more bad weather sets in.
The present price for pulling bolls is 50c a hundred pounds, he added.

BRONCHOS GO TO SHAMROCK FRIDAY

WILL TANGLE WITH IRISH ELEVEN IN THIRD CONFERENCE TILT.
The Clarendon High School Bronchos will break their home stand when they journey to Shamrock to meet the Fighting Irish there Friday night. The game will mark the first away-from-home tilt for the locals this season.
Although they lost a gruelling battle to the Wheeler Mustangs by the narrowest of margins Friday night, the Broncos snapped through peppy workouts this week and are confident of an even chance of breaking into the win column.
The Clarendon hopes of victory were boosted this week-end, not only because they held Wheeler, conference favorites, scoreless, but because Shamrock barely eked out

MERCURY DROPS AS MORE RAIN FALLS

42 DEGREES REGISTERED WEDNESDAY; 1.20 INCHES RAINFALL RECORDED.
Accompanied by a raw, cold north wind, rains which had left over 6 inches of moisture in Donley County in September, returned this week and by this morning 1.20 of rainfall had been officially recorded. The chilling winds cut short the warm weather which had prevailed throughout the first five days of the month when the temperature had stood around 80 degrees. Monday was recorded as the warmest day, with the mercury reaching a maximum of 87 degrees.
A light drizzle Tuesday afternoon following on the heels of the norther which had sent the mercury down to 43, developed into a downpour Tuesday night which was measured at 1.05 inches.

$750 Bond Posted In Drunk Driving Case

J. B. Anderson posted a $750 bond in Justice W. A. Davis' court last week and was bound over to the grand jury on a charge of driving while intoxicated.
Anderson was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Marion Quisenberry last Thursday.

Donley County Is Designated Drouth Area By Agricultural Department

Donley County was designated as being in the emergency drouth area Saturday by the Agricultural Department at Washington, according to a telegram received by County Agent H. M. Breedlove from G. E. Adams, assistant state agent at College Station.
Counties in the drouth area are allowed discounts on freight rates for feed shipped into the county by farmers and ranchers for their own use. Cattlemen may also ship stock to pasture land at reduced rates.
"This does not mean that feed on Government rented acres can be harvested," Breedlove said. "It is to be remembered that all restrictions on rented acres are still in force," he pointed out.
Donley County was admitted with eleven other counties in five states.
Other Panhandle counties which have been designated by the department of agriculture as drouth areas are: Dallam, Sherman, Hansford, Ochiltree, Lipscomb, Hartley, Moore, Hutchinson, Roberts, Hemphill, Oldham, Potter, Carson, Randall, Gray, Wheeler, Armstrong, Collingsworth, Bailey, Briscoe, Hall, Childress, Borden, Dickens, King, Cottle, and Hardeman.

What Is A Boy Without A Dog?

Kenneth Rape, Chester Talley and Frankie Rape, three very manly young fellows, handed in the following article with the request that it be printed in The News. The article is headed, "A Trus Storey About Our Dog and Clubhouse," and bears the signatures of all three of the little shavers:
"One day my daddy brought us a little dog named curly. He is brown with white around the end of his tail and in front of his head and around his neck. He has little stocken legs and a pink nose and he is three or four months old and seven inches high and 12 1/2 inches tall. He likes to play with our cat. He likes to chew on our hiles. We have a bed for him in our clubhouse and he is one of the main boys in our club." All right, youngsters, there you are! It's printed in the paper. And very cute it is, too. The News hopes that your dog will continue to be a great pal.

NOBODY'S BUSINESS

By JULIAN CAPRELL JR.

Austin.—A roar of protest at the recommendation of Gov. Jimmie Allred to the legislature that the solons "borrow" $3,000,000 from the highway fund to help pay old age pensions for the next three months filled Austin this week-end, and reverberated to far corners of the state. Protestants included members of the legislature, good roads advocates, county officials, newspapers. They pointed to Allred's statement of policy made last spring, and repeated again during the campaign, in which he said:

"I have no patience with any scheme to divert any further funds for any purpose from the revenues now collected from motorists to pay for highways." Three significant facts made it appear that the highway funds will be raided for pension money only after a most strenuous and vigorous battle, if at all. These included:

1. A statement by Speaker Coke Stevenson of Junction, that he regarded such a transfer as in violation of the Texas constitution, and unless shown "strong authorities" to the contrary, would sustain a constitutional point of order against the bill in the house.

2. An unofficial newspaper poll which indicated that a substantial majority in the house would vote against the proposal, and a similar indication in the senate.

3. A financial statement by the highway department, denying it had any substantial unallocated funds, and that the $3,000,000 raid if carried out, will cause postponement of the state-federal highway program for this year until April, 1937, and leave the department with a deficit of $161,982 by January 31. The department has been on a cash basis for nine years.

SOME POLITICS?

Some observers here professed to see in the governor's recommendation a political stroke in retaliation for the highway department's announced plan to allocate virtually all of the federal-state money available for the next three years in a three-year construction program. They declared this would leave the governor's chairman, Harry Hines, and his new highway commission appointee, next February, without any money to spend until after Allred goes out of office, and indicated a belief that Allred's "borrow" proposal was intended to block this scheme. Meanwhile, the governor's message has thrown the department into turmoil, and no action has been taken by the commission on either the three-year program, or the state-federal joint road program for 1936-37.

HOUSE INSTALLING

The house did practically nothing toward refinancing old age assistance during the first week of the special session, but went off on a tangent, with two investigations launched, and a third in prospect. The solons spent the week probing the old age pension set-up, and hearing Orville S. Carpenter, and two officials of the federal social security board. They heard Carpenter estimate that probably 150,000 pensioners eventually will be on the roll, under the present liberal law. The federal representatives said the federal government would continue to match Texas' pension money dollar for dollar as long as its appropriation of $85,000,000 lasted, but of course they could not foretell what congress would do after next June 30. They also said the federal money could not be used to pay retroactive grants, as provided by the state law for those applicants whose cases have not yet been acted upon. Carpenter advised "deliberation" of the Texas law to shut off those not in actual need or with other means of support, saying the total should be cut to between 50,000 and 80,000 pensioners. Texas, it was shown, pensions four times as many persons out of each 1,000 population, as New Mexico.

With the pension probe concluded, the house, after a spirited fight, voted to investigate alleged teaching of Communism and other radical "isms" in Texas University, with President Benedict of the university urging the probe be made and denying the charges.

Rep. Roy Hofheinz of Houston, county judge-elect of Harris-co, sponsored an investigation of the confining of insane in jails, to be acted upon later.

Committee hearings on tax bills, including a sales tax, were to get under way at the opening of the second week. Lobbyists here are beginning to urge tax action, realizing their employers must take some additional taxes, and believing that they may get more charitable treatment from the "lame duck" session than from the 45th legislature in January. An Austin newspaper estimates that the total cost to Texas of the complete federal social security program, when carried out by this state, may run $100,000,000 a year—virtually doubling the present cost of state government.

WOODUL'S SALARY PLEA

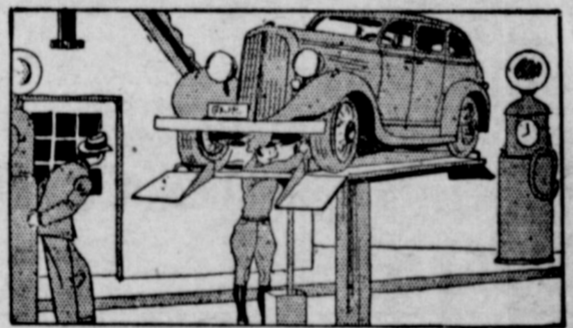

Walter Woodul of Houston lieutenant governor, has won high praise from many sources for the vigorous campaign he has been conducting, almost single-handed, in favor of the constitutional amendment to be voted in November, to raise the salaries of the governor, attorney general, comptroller, land commissioner, treasurer, and secretary of state, to a decent level. The raise would increase state expenses only $28,000 a year. Says Lieut. Gov. Woodul:

"There are only three states that pay their governors as small a salary as does Texas. To have a public official commence worrying on the 15th of the month where he is going to borrow the money to pay the month's bills does not leave such official in a good position to concentrate his thinking on affairs of state. On Nov. 3 the people will be given an opportunity to right the present injustice and they can do so by voting in favor of constitutional amendment No. 5. From every section of Texas I hear there is no opposition, and that the people realize their duty and will do it by voting for this amendment. Nevertheless, every true Texan, who loves the honor of his state, should do everything honorable to see that the amendment is adopted. The present pitifully inadequate salaries were fixed in 1876. Today, these unfair salaries are not sound governmental policy and should be adjusted fairly."

Making the Job More Difficult

By IRVIN S. COBB

IN MISSOURI there used to be a judge who had one abiding fear. He was desperately afraid of lightning. The first suggestion of a gathering thunderstorm changed him from a dignified and competent citizen into a quivering refugee. One jagged bolt from the clouds, one rolling reverberation, and he would flee into hiding. On a certain summer evening he was entertaining guests at dinner. Suddenly the skies became overcast. There came a gash of lightning and a louder crash. The judge tore out of the dining-room and plunged head-long into a coat-closet under a flight of stairs and buried his head in the folds of a raincoat.

His mortified wife excused herself from the company and trailed him to his hiding-place. She rapped upon the door of the closet. "Who is it?" sounded a quivering, muffled voice, "and what do you want?" "Judge Robinson," said the humiliated lady, "I'm ashamed of you—you, a Christian and a grown man and a judge on the bench behaving like this! Don't you know if the good Lord wants to kill you with a bolt of lightning He can find you, no matter where you hide?" "That may be, Madam," he answered, "but by Gum, I'll put Him to as much trouble as possible!" (American News Features, Inc.)

For commentation on last week's game see Williams Tells. That department covers every interesting angle more thoroughly than could ever be brought to light in this column.

Editor Williams still sticks to his prediction that Wheeler will cop this year's flag. (No comment on this only to remind you of his prediction.) Personally, I do no forecasting, and his accusation that I picked Memphis for the championship is not quite on the line. I made the statement that Memphis would be hard to beat, and it wouldn't be surprising if they bowled over some of the favorites. And I gave them a chance at the crown.

I now have a staunch ally in this prediction. Without benefit of prompting, Bob Clark, coach of the Wheeler Mustangs, when asked for a statement concerning different teams' chances for the championship, said before the game here Friday night: "Memphis is a lot tougher than they are credited. They have a good chance to come through near the top, and it is not improbable that they will win the district." Clark also went on to say that Shamrock was nobody's set-up.

Anyway, I do not wish to enter into a literary debate with my editor. I would, of course, come out second best. And even if we barred the writing rules he would still win for he has a greater public. If I were to omit this column for one week, I probably would get no more than 500 letters, telegrams, phone calls and cards, while when he misses, Postmaster Forrest Taylor puts on extra clerks not to speak of the strain on the telephone and telegraph companies.

It has, at times, been rumored that he was working hand in glove with the postmaster. That is, when the postoffice revenue is low, Williams leaves out his column for a week and the matter is corrected.

And now let's take a look at how they stack up in the conference standing after the third week.

At The First Baptist Church

THERE IS ALWAYS WORSHIP—FELLOWSHIP—SERVICE

Attention! Christians, everywhere! Will you dare do your duty just one day in your lives? Then be in all the services of your church next Sunday. Robert E. Lee said to the students at West Point: "Duty, young men, is the sublimest word in the English language. You cannot do do more. You should not wish to do less. Do, then, your simple duty." It is harder not to do one's duty than it is to do it. A little girl, when asked if it were not hard to carry the little boy up a hill, answered: "No, he's my brother." Your brother Christian needs you to help him carry the load. It will be easy for you to help him. It will be easy for him to help you if you meet together on a common level in the worship service of your church. All pulling together lightens the load and makes what would otherwise be a task a delightful undertaking. Do then your simple duty and be happy and make others happy.

Things are moving along at The Baptist Church. Not as well as we would like, but they are moving. We are making progress. Two great crowds greeted each other at the preaching services. The Sunday School was well attended, and we had 69 in the Training Service for Young People last Sunday. It would delight our hearts for you to join in making all the services profitable on the next Lord's Day.

J. Perry King, pastor.

third frame. Starting a series of downs on the Clarendon's eight, they advanced to the six on the first play. Another try at the line failed to gain and a five-yard penalty for off-side set them back to the eleven. A beautiful tackle of big Ford, who was the spearhead of the Mustang attack, by Broncho Watters, for a seven-yard loss wrote finis to the Wheeler threat and the ball went over on downs on Clarendon's 18.

The small band of Clarendon warriors threw up the strongest defense seen this season. Led by Robinson and Butler in the line, time and again they stopped the formidable Wheeler offense for no gain.

Throughout most of the game the Broncho offense clicked like well-oiled machinery, but numerous penalties stopped their drive more surely than Wheeler tacklers.

With the exception of a beautiful 22-yard sprint through the middle of the line by Broncho Cornell in the fourth quarter, no individual starring was seen for Clarendon backs as Cornell, Holtzclaw, Baxter, Grady and Slavin turned in beautiful performances of ball carrying and blocking.

Although the game featured many breaks for both elevens, the first disappointment for the locals came when safety Grady took a Wheeler punt on the Clarendon 15 and with a beautiful bit of broken field running raced the ball back to Wheeler's 42 before he was pulled down. The play was called back and Clarendon was penalized five yards which gave the Mustangs a first down.

Running account of the game:

Wheeler won the toss and chose to defend the east goal. Cornell kicked to Maxwell of Wheeler who returned to the Mustang 31 yard line. Ford went around left end for three yards. Groves skirted right end for 2 1/2 yards, Cole making the tackle. Ford hit the line for 4 yards. Ford punted to Clarendon's 15 where the ball was taken by Grady who returned to Wheeler's 42. The play was called back and Clarendon was penalized five yards for off side, giving Wheeler a first down on their own 44. Ford hit the line and was smothered by Clarendon's forward wall for no gain. Ford went off right tackle for 1 1/2 yards. Ford got another yard around right end, leaving fourth down with inches to go. Ford punted out of bounds on Clarendon's 25-yard stripe.

Grady plowed through right tackle for 9 yards. Grady handed the ball to Cornell who twisted through left tackle for 6 yards and a first down on the Bronco's 40. Holtzclaw lost one at right tackle but Clarendon was penalized 5 yards for jumping the gun. Cornell punted from his 35 to the Mustangs 27 and the Bronchos recovered the fumble at that point.

Cornell handed the ball to Holtzclaw who made one yard. Cornell hit the line for 4 yards. Cornell again went into the line and picked up 3 yards but the play was ruled out and Clarendon drew a 15 yard penalty for using the hands on the offense. With the ball resting on Wheeler's 36, Cornell tried right end but lost 3 yards. Cornell kicked to Wheeler's 16.

Ford made 4 around left end, he was stopped with a smashing tackle by Cole. McGowen went in for McClenny at right guard for Clarendon. Ford was piled up at the line for no gain and Wheeler drew a five-yard penalty. Ford picked up seven around right end. Ford's wobbly punt was taken up by Grady who was downed on the Wheeler 37.

Norman skirted left end for two yards. Groves was stopped at the line by Butler. Ford punted out of bounds on Clarendon's 20. Holtzclaw tried the line but was downed by Groves for no gain. Cornell was also stopped at the line, and the Bronchos drew a five yard penalty. Cornell punted but the play was called back and Wheeler was penalized five yards, leaving the ball on Clarendon's 20. Cornell skipped around right end for seven yards, Dearyberry making the tackle. Holtzclaw hit the line for 3 and a first down on Clarendon's 30. Cornell slashed off right tackle for 4 yards and Grady got 4 more around left end. Cornell made it a first down on Clarendon's 41 when he rammed center for 3 yards. Holtzclaw netted 6 around right end but the play was brought back and Clarendon received another 15 yard penalty and the quarter ended.

Second Quarter

Ford sprinted around right end for 13 yards and a first down before being chased out of bounds on the Wheeler 35. Groves was hit by Robinson for a six-yard loss. Robinson again sifted through the line to nail the Wheeler ball carrier for an additional 2-yard loss. Ford got seven before Robinson again made the tackle, aided by Cornell. Ford punted to Clarendon's 46 and Wheeler recovered the ball struck by a Broncho player. Norman took the ball from Groves and picked up two yards. Butler was injured on the play. Groves handed the ball to Dearyberry, who gave it to Norman who was smothered by Robinson for a three-yard loss. Ford galloped around right end for seven yards. He was stopped by Butler. Ford punted out of bounds on Clarendon's 31.

Cornell hit the line on a fake punt but failed to gain. Cornell kicked to Ford on Wheeler's 16. Ford returned to the 25.

Cornell made 4 yards off left tackle. Cornell went off left tackle for three yards, placing the ball on Wheeler's 2-yard line. Cornell lost six yards at right end. Cornell's pass went over the end zone for a touchback, and Wheeler received the ball on their own 20.

Ford went off tackle for 2 yards stopped by Butler. Ford made three yards through the line and was injured on the play. Groves skipped around left end for two yards again being tackled by Butler. Groves punted from his 27 to Clarendon's 44.

Cornell faked a pass and went around right end for 2 yards. Cooke replaced Slavin at left half. Cornell's pass to Grady was incomplete. Cornell's pass to Grady was good for two yards. Cornell passed out of bounds as the half ended. Score 0-0.

Third Quarter
Grady took the Wheeler kick-off on the 10 and returned to Clarendon's 47. Cornell tried right tackle for no gain. Cornell again hit right tackle and picked up one yard. Cornell punted to Wheeler's 19. First and 10 for the Mustangs.

Groves made one yard at left end. Ford went off right tackle for 4 yards before being pulled down by Robinson. Ford plunged through center for 5 yards, stopped by Robinson and Grady. First and 10 for Wheeler on their own 29. Norman went through center for 4 yards and was tackled by Butler. On a reverse, Cole made one yard. On the same play Norman picked up five yards and a first down on Wheeler's 39. Groves went around left end for two yards. Groves handed the ball to Norman who picked up three yards before being spilled by Butler. On the next play Butler again stopped Norman after a one-yard gain. Ford punted out of bounds on Clarendon's 20.

Cornell hit the center for 13, but Clarendon received a 15-yard penalty for holding, placing the ball on Clarendon's 18. Cornell punted and Wheeler returned to Clarendon's 30.

Norman picked up 8 yards on a reverse, Butler making the tackle. Norman, on the same play, made 4 yards, stopped by Cole. Again on the same play Norman got 4 yards; second down and six to go with the ball resting on Clarendon's 14. Ford hit tackle for six yards. First down on Clarendon's 8. Groves plowed through right tackle for 2 yards. Groves hit center, stopped by McGowen for no gain. McClenny went in for McGowen at right guard for Clarendon. Norman failed to gain at the line. Ford kicked to Grady on Clarendon's 15, who was downed on the 19. End of the third quarter, score 0-0.

Mrs. Bryan and Mrs. Heath Hostesses

The 1926 Book Club met Tuesday afternoon, October 6, at the home of Mrs. Allen Bryan with Mrs. Bryan and Mrs. Frank Heath as hostesses.

The president, Thelma Bairfield, opened the meeting and presided at the business session. Seventeen members answered roll call and there was one guest present, Mrs. Simmons Powell.

The program leader for the afternoon was Gladys Hill, and she gave a brief biographical sketch of Anne Morrow Lindbergh. This was followed by a review of Mrs. Lindbergh's book, "North to the Orient," given by Mary Thornberry in a very comprehensive manner. A short pronunciation drill led by Nita Williams concluded the program for the afternoon.

The hostesses served a delectable salad course, with the appointments carrying out the Halloween motif.

Clever Party Given For Bride Elect

Tuesday afternoon, October 6, at the basement of the Methodist Church of Hedley, Mrs. Bill Ray of Clarendon and Myrtle Reeves of Hedley entertained with a miscellaneous shower for Dannie Mae Battle, who is soon to become the bride of Winton Bernardin of Taos, New Mexico.

The darkened room was attractively arranged to represent an outdoor scene. Trees and flowers were placed about and near the center a bright camp fire glowed, on which a pot of coffee brewed. Logs and stones completed the setting with Navajo blankets in bright colors for background effect.

The setting was particularly appropriate since the bride elect will live in the mountains after her marriage.

Mrs. Clifford Johnson had charge of the bride's book and about 50 guests registered. Mrs. Easterling, dressed in an effective costume, supervised the writing of favorite recipes.

Mrs. Louie Thompson played "Here Comes the Bride" as the honoree, with her mother, Mrs. J. B. Masterson and her sister, Mrs. Alva Alexander, entered. As they were seated the music changed to "Good Old Mountain Music." Mrs. Alva Simmons and Odie Wadkins sang, "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life." Two piano numbers were then given by Mrs. Thompson. "Springtime In the Rockies" was sung by Mrs. Alva Simmons, Mrs. Lake Dishman, Mrs. E. R. Hooker and Odie Wadkins. An original and very entertaining skit was given by Theresa Webb, Don Pickett and Sue Beth Edwards, dressed as mountaineers who chanced to stop and warm by the camp fire.

Don carried a guitar and played gaily while they all sang mountain melodies. After bits of conversation about the "bride-to-be" Theresa read original and appropriate verses of rhyme and presented the honoree with the gifts in a novel way.

Doughnuts were passed and coffee from the pot on the fire was served by Pauline Boliver and Hazel Stewart, who were charming in their old-fashioned costumes.

Out of town guests were Mesdames Henry Wilson, T. T. Harrison, Zeb Moore and T. R. Easterling, all of Memphis, Mesdames Gene Herd, Louie Thompson, Bill Bromley and U. J. Boston of Clarendon and Mrs. Alva Alexander from Amarillo.

B. P. R. 42 Club Has Chilli Supper

The members who participated in the evening's pleasures were Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Powell, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rathjen, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Burton, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Porter, and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hill. Mr. and Mrs. Cap Morris, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Nobles, Nelda Sue Burton and Freddy Rathjen were guests for the evening.

Contract Club Meets With Mrs. Sawyer

Mrs. Forrest Sawyer entertained the members of the Thursday Afternoon Contract Club at her home Thursday afternoon, October 1. Garden flowers were profusely used throughout the home and added their brightness to the occasion.

Those enjoying the afternoon of bridge were Mesdames Ed Teer, B. F. Kirtley, Floyd Lumpkin, Forrest Taylor, J. M. Hill, Clyde Price, and Simmons Powell. Mrs. Kirtley was awarded the prize for high score for the afternoon.

The hostess served a delicious afternoon luncheon in two courses.

Mrs. Aduddell Has H. D. Club

Mrs. Ed Aduddell was hostess to the members of the Chamberlain Home Demonstration Club Thursday afternoon, October 1.

The president, Mrs. Will Barbee, called the meeting to order, and Mrs. T. W. Eanes led in prayer. The new officers elected at this meeting were Mrs. O. B. Rappy, president; Mrs. H. M. Reid, vice president; Mrs. C. L. Mann, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. R. P. Wilson, reporter.

The afternoon was pleasantly spent in quilting and chatting.

Refreshments were served to Mesdames J. L. Goodman, Aileen Skinner, O. B. Rappy, Ed Aduddell, J. B. Duckett, Frank Reid, George Eanes, Will Barbee, T. W. Eanes, H. M. Reid, John Aduddell, and R. P. Wilson.

The next meeting of the club will be with Mrs. John Aduddell on Thursday, October 15.

Mrs. Land Entertains Needle Club

The 1930 Needle Club met Tuesday afternoon, October 6, with Mrs. Marvin Land as hostess.

The members present were Mesdames Alvin Landers, Carl Peabody, U. Z. Patterson, Bill Hilliard, Russion, Phil Couch, Haskell Hays, Ernest Hunt, Turner Kirby, Ralph Andis, and there was one guest, Mrs. Bailiss.

The hostess served a salad course to her guests.

The club will meet next with Mrs. Turner Kirby as hostess.

Mrs. Chamberlain Has Needle Club

Garden flowers, effectively arranged, added cheer to the afternoon when Mrs. R. A. Chamberlain entertained the members of her Needle Club in her home, Thursday afternoon, October 1.

The hostess served a pretty and delicious salad course to her guests near the close of the afternoon pleasantly spent in sewing and visiting.

Clarendon H. D. Club Holds Meeting

It was voted to change the time of meeting from 2:00 to 2:30 p. m. Mrs. John Clark and Mrs. Cap Lane will have charge of the program at the next meeting, October 16, with Misses Ida and Edna Harned as hostesses. The club will meet at the club rooms.

After adjournments refreshments were served to a guest, Mrs. Francis M. Neaves and to members, Mesdames A. H. Baker, C. L. Benson, A. L. Chase, John Clark, J. C. Estlack, G. L. Green, M. A. Hahn, C. D. McDowell, Ed Speed, and the hostesses, Mrs. Tomb and Mrs. McAdams.

EDITOR'S CORNER

The Bronchos came through with a fine exhibition of football last Friday night, I understand. A real fighting spirit and a real football atmosphere pervaded throughout the game. Tomorrow night, as you probably know, we meet Shamrock, a team who has beaten Clarendon for the last four years. This year, however, I believe the Bronchos have a good chance to break this string of losses. Let's everyone go over to Shamrock tomorrow night and back the Bronchos in the crucial game.

The Amateur Hour to be presented tonight, Thursday, is being sponsored by the senior class in an effort to raise money to help pay for this year's annuals. With the cost of the annuals at a minimum this year, it seems advisable to have them, for all students like to have a high-school annual. At present, there have been quite a few to signify their intentions to enter the contest, so there will be plenty of entertainment offered and a variety of acts throughout the evening.

A goodly number of high school and college students took advantage of the special excursion rate and made the trip to Dallas and the Centennial Exposition last Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. These days were set aside by Governor Allred for all high school students in District One to visit the Exposition, and many students were there last weekend. A story about the trip is carried on this page.

WE SAW

Jimmy Bourland giving a very enlightening illustration of a growing tree. This was interpreted with his usual gestures. Perhaps he should go in for ballet dancing.

Bob Wilson strutting around with a protruding chest Friday night at the ball game. Uh Huh, Bob, could it have been the Wheeler Pep Squad?

Pauline Carlile, Saturday night, exhibiting a tall, dark, and handsome boy friend who hails from Hall county.

George Seaton laughing heartily in Algebra Class at something Durward Jones told him.

Mr. Drennan saying that some adults have no more sense about some things than a mere baby. After an explanation as to what things, we agree.

David McClesky amusing himself in General Science class by drawing cartoons with Nellie Grady's crayolas.

Three college freshmen (girls) on the Wheeler side Friday night yelling for the Bronchos in a big way. Atta girls!

Dorothy McCormack reclining gracefully on a table in the library, reading a newspaper.

A. V. Hendricks having spasms over a bread-mold in Biology Lab. He evidently enjoys such things.

Nick Stewart with a newspaper about two inches from his nose. He looked as if he were trying to eat it.

An article in last week's paper written by a local sport scribe, predicting that the Bronchos didn't have a chance against the Memphis Cyclones. What crust!

She was from Dalhart; and she wore a red ribbon around her

Clarendon Students Make Trip to Centennial

The excursion trip to Dallas and the Centennial Exposition last week was a real trip, no fooling! Everyone had a great time.

Students going down on the noon train Wednesday included Virginia Cluck, Drew Wilkerson, Woodrow Bulls, Linwood Betts, and Lowell LaFon. The latter three fellows stopped off Wednesday night in Fort Worth and attended the Frontier Centennial.

Most of the Clarendon delegation went down on the 11:01 train Wednesday night. Those students aboard this train were Sarah V. McGowen, Nellie Grady, Pauline Betts, Julia Earthman, Frances Morris, Jean Teat, Margaret Wilkerson, Lola Bryant, Mary Graham, Sarah Hendricks, Jack Lackey, Ray Palmer, Dudie Gentry, and James Bartlett. County Superintendent Sloan Baker accompanied the party.

On arriving in Dallas Thursday morning, some of the students went out to Tent City, the would-be home of part of the group while in Dallas. The remainder proceeded to various points over the city.

The group was scattered then until Friday night when everyone gathered at Union Station to make the return trip home.

The following are a few of the musings of the scribe who was aboard the Dallas Special:

We wonder why Virginia Cluck was waiting outside The Streets of All Nations (or was it The Streets of Paris) for Drew W.

Saw Jean Teat and Dudie Gentry one night. Jean had a ring on every finger and a bracelet or two for good measure.

Lowell LaFon wonders why more brunettes don't wear little red ribbons in their hair like the cute girl he met from Dalhart on this trip.

Julia Earthman, it seems, was the only one who got much sleep on the train, for the seats made her a good bed.

We wonder why Linwood Betts was in such a hurry to get out of Sally Rand's Nude Ranch. Could it have been that the tennis game wasn't interesting?

Sarah V. Mc and Nellie Grady, it seems, couldn't get up the nerve to ride the thriller. We also wonder how Nellie managed to get home after losing her R. R. ticket in Dallas.

POSTSCRIPTS

Think of it! The students of biology were given an excellent treat last Wednesday when Mr. Stults tuned in the World Series. It seems we weren't the only ones who enjoyed it. Truet Holtzclaw wandered in and took a seat in the biology grandstand. Jesse Cornell was assistant to Mr. Stults. Billie Cooke looked interested for the first time.

Does Joe Williams ever say anything?
Yours truly personally adores Lois Marie Taylor, but she begs me never to write anything about her. (I don't know whether it's because of an extreme inferiority complex, or because she's read my work.)

Ben Hill, while reposing in Mrs. Goodner's room, accidentally fell backward. Tsk, Tsk, Ben, why head. It was the ribbon that took Curley LaFon's heart. Red fascinates him, but the girl wasn't bad looking, so we hear.

THE RANGE RIDER

After that snappy playing the Broncos did against the Wheeler teams, I could say, "I told you so." Or shall I wait until after the game with Shamrock? It was a real game last Friday except that the Broncos failed to score. I think it is safe to say that the tie with Wheeler was the biggest upset of the season. Wheeler, you know, was doped to win by three touchdowns. By the dope this week the Broncos are on equal ground with the Shamrock Irishmen.

The best performance of the season was turned in by Grady who made several long gains. This is the first game that Grady has played safely, but it looks as if that will be his position for the remainder of the season. Cornell played good ball all through the game. He also completed more of his passes than usual.

Holtzclaw showed what power and drive he really possesses. Baxter didn't play all the game, but he made a swell showing while he was playing. In the line Rolls and Butler tackled the Wheeler ball carrier most consistently. At times the Clarendon team was weak at tackle position (to the pleasure of the Wheeler team). At other times those tackles played stellar ball.

That big boy from Wheeler, whose name is Ford, did just what was expected of him. He split the Clarendon line wide open at times.

The crowd at the game was smaller than that of the preceding game. Let's everybody go to Shamrock and back the boys that represent Clarendon.

don't you grow up?
Freddie Chamberlain and Phillips Gentry went to the Centennial. Hope they enjoyed it.

We will certainly miss Edith Earthman, for she is leaving us. Next stop, Memphis.

Mr. Burton says that if your picture isn't real pretty, it might not be the fault of the photographer. Wisely spoken, Mr. Burton, wisely spoken.

Junior High News South Ward News

There were a large number of pupils from South Ward and from Junior High who took advantage of the splendid rate to the Centennial.

The Sims Parent-Teachers Association of South Ward met Thursday afternoon from 3 until 4 o'clock. Mrs. U. J. Boston gave an interesting and instructive talk on the meaning of P-T. A. Mrs. L. E. Thompson played two piano solos. There was a large attendance. Miss Stephens' room won the reward for the largest number of representatives present. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting with members of the executive board acting as hostesses.

Some bricks were placed before it last night. Right in the path of its clear, square light. And I wonder if he who placed them there. Had a conscience who didn't care if he should pick them up, take aim, and throw a brick through the plate-glass window.

AN AMBITION

When I walk down a certain street
Where one paved road and another meet,
I stop at a place where I really should go
And a disturbed conscience tells me, "no"
As I gaze and gaze at them row on row
Huge, shiny, plate-glass windows.

There's one especially that I like
Its frame is made of gleaming white.
I know its size is twenty feet square
And it's not over half an inch thick, I'd swear.
But by conscience whispers "Goodness, no."
As I stare at the plate-glass window.

Some bricks were placed before it last night
Right in the path of its clear, square light.
And I wonder if he who placed them there
Had a conscience who didn't care
If he should pick them up, take aim, and throw
A brick through the plate-glass window.

Senior Subjects

The pictures of the high school students arrived last Friday. The problem of solving the puzzle, "Who's Who" was given the Senior Class officers. The only words that could be distinguished from the laughter in Miss Harris' room were, "Who's this?" Some of the pictures were very good—lucky faces—but most of us weren't quite so fortunate. We looked like ourselves. The absence of Mr. Drennan's picture was noticed. Could the fact that he had the box first have had anything to do with this?

The seniors appreciate the cooperation of all students who bought their pictures. Fifteen percent of the sales and a picture of each student (you can't escape by destroying all six pictures) goes to the Seniors for their annual.

The excitement and confusion among the Seniors last Friday was caused by the arrival of the class rings. Gerald Noble's ring will be worn by Frances Grady and Dorothy Kerbow and Louise Tucker. That may not be in order of possession, but this ring is getting around. Jesse Cornell is more sedate. Kathleen Ryan is in full possession of his ring. Ralph Grady says he doesn't know for how long or why but Gene Teat is wearing his ring. Pat Slavin enjoyed wearing his ring and now Dorothy McCormack is enjoying it.

Senior class enemy number one—Dorothy McCormack, English assistant.

The seniors chose their graduation invitations Tuesday. The invitation selected is on white leatherette paper with a bronze medallion seal on the front and a modernist lightning bolt under the seal. Inside a calling (Continued on Page Seven.)

JEFFERSONIAN DEMOCRATS

Offer Proof of Anti-New Deal Charges

We recently made charges in this paper that Mr. Roosevelt and his administration were not Democrats, and had no claim to Democratic loyalty. We charged that continuation of his administration would undermine the economy of the nation, and threaten its institutions. We charged that he had opened the sluice-gates of the federal treasury, and, through Boss Farley, had Tammanized the nation. We charged that he had surrounded himself with radicals, and had more nearly discharged their radical platforms than his own. We are offering the proof of our charges through our paper, the Jeffersonian Democrat.

We reassert that we are regular Democrats. We would prefer to vote the regular ticket. But we refuse to put party loyalty above our loyalty to America. In scratching Roosevelt we violate no party pledge, for the primary ballot contained a pledge to vote for the nominees of that primary. Mr. Roosevelt's name was not on that ballot. Furthermore, the Texas law instructs the voter how to cast a mixed ballot, and the Supreme Court has upheld that right.

We ask all true Democrats to weigh the proof before voting for a continuation of government by irresponsible radicals. Unlike the New Deal, we have no ready-made organization to spread our propaganda and raise money for our campaign. We will appreciate your support and whatever donations you can make us.

Write us for copies of The Jeffersonian Democrat, and help us distribute it throughout your county.

J. EVETTS HALEY, Chairman Jeffersonian Democrats of Texas, Austin, Texas.

CURTAIN CLUB

Prepare yourself, for you are going to hear quite a bit about the Clarendon College Curtain Club from now on. But you won't get tired of hearing about it; in fact you'll hardly be able to wait until the next report. For the purpose of the organization is to entertain and every attempt will be made to provide amusement. Be on the lookout for all sorts of entertainment, such as long plays, short plays, mystery plays, comedies, musical revues, and skits.

But first comes the big election and campaign. This is going to be a real presidential campaign, too. It will last several days. There will be campaign managers and speeches, and there might even be mud-slinging of a harmless kind. The big election day is October 15, and the poll tax is fifty cents for all members.

As you probably know, the Curtain Club this year will take the place of the Palo Duro and Alpha Delta Psi societies. Not only will the club present plays, revues, and skits, but it will meet once a month for a program on some phase of dramatics.

very nice punt returns in addition to playing bang-up football in every respect.

"Little Horsie" Is Tough—

"Little Horsie" Holtzclaw lived up to his reputation as one of the hardest-tackling little men in these parts. I've seen quite a few football games, but I don't think I have ever seen a man of Horses' size who tackles with anything like the ferocity of the diminutive halfback. His defensive play was spectacular in this respect.

One of his most effective demonstrations was a hard-driving smash at the knees of the big Wheeler star, Ford, which stood that worthy completely on his ear while his feet were waving up toward the moon.

Whole Team Stars—

To those readers who did not see the game, I want it understood that Cornell, Holtzclaw, Grady, Butler, Robinson and Walters were not the only Bronces in the game. The rest of the boys were out there battling for all they were worth, and it is difficult to say that anyone

Clarendon Food Store Is In New Location

The Clarendon Food Store, which recently moved into its new location on Sully Street, the building formerly occupied by the Farmers Exchange, will hold its formal opening in the new location Saturday, according to an announcement in an advertisement in this issue of The News. Special favors will be extended to patrons on this day, the announcement states.

starred in the game. The team worked well as a unit, and vicious blocking and tackling, combined with heads-up football, was evident in the line from end to end, as well as in the backfield. Rolls, at end, played his usual steady game, as did Cole at the other end, McClenny and McGowan at guard, Noble at tackle, and Slav-in in the backfield.

This writer, if asked to pick the outstanding star for the Bronchos, would name the fighting little guard, Butler, who, if he keeps up his present pace, is almost a cinch for the mythical all-district eleven.

Will Beat Shamrock!—

The Bronces journey to Shamrock Friday to meet the Fighting Irishmen. And this writer is getting out on a limb right here by picking the locals to avenge the stinging defeat they suffered at the hands of the Irish last year.

The locals are earning the reputation of a "hard luck" eleven. Nearly all of the breaks in last week's game were against them. If they can break the jinx Friday, those Shamrockers are going to be embarrassed.

Still Like Wheeler—

It will be remembered that this writer picked the Wheeler eleven to win the district championship, and the tough sledding they encountered here has not changed that opinion. I do not believe there is a team in the district that would have done better against the Bronces last week, because those boys were really out for blood.

I am becoming somewhat dubious of my selection, however, because I am kinda scared of that McLean eleven. Anyway, I still like Wheeler, and I'm sticking to my prediction.

Wheeler has one of the hardest charging backs in the district in the person of the mammoth Ford. Norman and Groves, two light-weight backs, are fast as lightning and plenty slippery. And in addition to this, they are exceptionally good blockers for little men. And their line is plenty tough.

Several months were required to gather the large number.

Anyway, we shall see what we shall see.

"Sooner" Than What?—
Now the Amarillo Daily News has moved Clarendon over into Oklahoma. A headline in a recent issue reads as follows: "Wheeler Holds Sooner Eleven To 0-0 Tie." And, believe it or not, the article was about the Clarendon game.

The headline was wrong in the first place when it intimated that Wheeler held the Bronces. Inasmuch as Wheeler was supposed to win the game by a large margin, it would have been much more appropriate to say that the "Sooner" eleven held Wheeler.

And here is a real stickler, which appeared in the story under the heading: "Both teams showed excellent form on offensive and defensive play. Each eleven penetrated the end zone, but neither could get beyond the four."

Will somebody please explain to this bewildered party how in the world two teams can play a 0-0 tie when each team penetrates the end zone? And how can each team penetrate the end zone without passing the four-yard line?

P. S.—Note to the circulation manager of The Amarillo News: Clarendon subscribers to The News will appreciate it if you will continue to send their papers to them here in the United States.
