March Term District Court Docket Light

B. & P. W. AND LIONS CLUBS ENTERTAIN HERE THIS WEEK AND NEXT

DISTRICT COURT TO OPEN MONDAY

AFTER ILLNESS OF SEVERAL WEEKS, JUDGE FIRES AGAIN TAKES UP DUTIES.

When Judge A. J. Fires, of Childress, opens district court in Clarendon Monday, March 25, a light criminal docket awaits his attention, and a civil docket which is expected to require about two to three weeks to hear.

The number of divorce cases increased one over the last district court original civil docket when eight were listed, however at the last term several divorce cases were presented the court after the beginning of the hearing of civil suits. This term of court will hear nine divorce suits.

The remaining of the civil docket is as follows:

Realty Trust Company vs. Sam M. Braswell, et al, paving lien.

W. H. Cooke, Jr., vs. E. D. McAdams, et al, suit on note.

H. B. Kerbow vs. Cullum & Boren, et al, injunction.

Panhandle Construction Co., vs. R. H. Beville, et al, F. C. paving lien.

Panhandle Construction Co., vs. Katie Chamberlain, et al, F. C. paving lien.

Lockney Cotton Oil Co., vs. W. J. Lewis, et al, suit on note.

Mrs. Oreta Evans, vs. United Fidelity Life Ins. Co., suit on insurance policy.

D. Laurel Beville vs. W. R. Hayden and Eva M. Hayden, F. C. notes.

Panhandle Construction Co., vs. Arizona P. Kerbow, et al, F. C. paving lien.

Claudia Bigger vs. American Bankers Commercial Life Club, suit on insurance policy.

Security State Bank vs. M. A. Josey, et al, suit on note.

Farmers State Bank vs. A. Vinyard, Mrs. A. Vinyard and Mary W. Miller, suit on note.

D. C. Camp vs. W. A. Roach, et al, F. C.

State of Texas vs. unknown heirs of Mrs. Ellen Thomas, deceased, escheat.

Mrs. Z. T. Beaty vs. W. W. Beaty, suit on note.

R. J. Dillard vs. City of Clarendon, mandamus.

SEEDS AVAILABLE FOR HOME GARDENS

PERSONS ON RELIEF ROLLS TO DERIVE BENEFIT OF NEW DONLEY PROJECT.

"A home garden project recently approved for Donley county will begin operation within the near future," stated Keith Stegall, who has been appointed supervisor for Donley county in the project, "and seeds will be furnished to those persons who wish to avail themselves of the undertaking in cooperation with the government, in planting gardens not exceeding five acres in size."

The project is not that of a community garden but for individual family garden plots, where by the county supervisor will assist the family in obtaining seeds such as beans, potatoes, onions, radishes, okra, peas, beets, squash, and greens; supervise the operations and endeavor to have the family can as many foods as possible.

The home garden project under the direction of the government will continue as long as the garden is producing.

No proceeds of the garden goes to the government but is for the maintenance of the individual families, according to officials in the local relief office except toll exacted by the government in foods canned at the cannery.

Seeds under this project are not available for rehabilitation clients, as their allotments are handled through the county rehabilitation supervisor.

Centennial Coins Sell Slowly Here

According to Van Kennedy, Assistant Cashier of the Farmers State Bank and who records the number of Centennial coins sold in this city, fifty-four half-dollars have been purchased from the three local banks.

The silver half-dollars, 1,500,000 of which were coined under a special act of Congress and which are being sold under the auspices of the Texas department of the American Legion to provide funds for a state memorial museum at the University of Texas, sell for one dollar each. Fifty cents of each coin sold goes to the memorial fund, the remaining fifty cents going to the Treasury Department to pay for the coins.

Citizens are urged to buy these coins, both as a souvenir and to enable the building of the memorial museum.

Mrs. Ed Teer left this week for Memphis where she will remain until the end of the school term doing substitute teaching in the Smith school.

LEGION PLAY IN TWO NIGHT STAND

MUSICAL COMEDY DRAMA SETS NEW RECORD FOR HOME TALENT HERE.

"A Bold Front," presented Thursday and Friday evenings at the college auditorium under the auspices of the Aubyn E. Clark Post of the American Legion and directed by Mrs. Ira Merchant, was well attended and received much favorable comment from those attending the performance.

The two-act play had its setting in the lobby of the Summertime Beach Club. The lead role, that of Sally Pembroke, was capably played by Miss Marjorie White, who, though having never before taken a lead in a play, exhibited unusual ability. Winfred Gattis, who played the role of Sam McGrek, a colored porter, was reported as having stolen the show.

Miss Rhoda Wiedman as Priscilla Bodkins, a social gadfly, was outstanding in her role, together with Miss Eunice Johnson, as Lois Parker, a young college girl.

Joseph Wm. Reynolds, a young man of large ideas, was played by Ira Merchant. Jo Reynolds successfully climbed the social ladder from a five-and-ten-cent store clerk to Summertime Beach Club where he posed as the son of a bank president.

Jefferson Pembroke, Chas Trent, and Mrs. Pembroke, Miss Norma Rhodes, together with Hamilton Webster, Jerome Stocking, and Mrs. Webster, Ruth Teat, vied for favor in sight of Jo, presumably the son of America's foremost financier. Carroll Hudson, as John Wesley Roberts, the real but timid son of the bank president, arrived at the crucial moment, but desired to remain in obscurity and gain the hand of his ladylove, Lois Parker.

The choruses, composed of Eugenia Noland, Vera Noland, Carroll Holder, Evelyn Murphy, Jean Bourland, Frances Sanford, Kedron Evans, Emma Lee Johnson, Dorothy Jo Ryan, Willard Hudson, Lloyd Martin, Hollis Leathers, Alex Cooke, Tony Watson, Price Whitlock, Billy Jo Terrell, Harry McCracken, and Paul Greene, were under the direction of Miss Mary Cooke and were reported the best ever seen on the local stage.

Costumes were designed by Mrs. Ira Merchant and Miss Lillian Murphy and Mrs. Park Chamberlain assisted in the dressing room.

The opening chorus, at once drew the audience into the spirit of the play, the girls being dressed in brilliantly colored beach costumes and capes.

The "Stars and Stripes Forever" chorus was led by Billy Cooke, who exhibited skill as a dancer in this clever but difficult mili-

COUNTRY CLUB IN ANNUAL MEETING

OLD DIRECTORS RETURNED BY UNANIMOUS VOTE—OFFICERS RE-ELECTED.

Monday evening at the Antro Hotel was held the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Clarendon Country Club, with H. T. Burton, President, presiding.

The detailed financial report for the past year was presented by Secretary F. W. Taylor and was enthusiastically approved by the members present. The club has had a good year with all indebtedness on the new pump equipment paid with the exception of one small note not yet due. Very few members show any delinquency in dues, and a small cash balance is on hand. There are forty-nine members at present, which leaves only one share of stock to sell to fill up the charter quota of fifty.

Anticipating the passage on a new fishing season law for the Panhandle section, the club voted to close the season in May this year. No fishing whatever will be permitted until June 1st. Rifles, targets and pistols may not be fired on the club grounds, according to a motion passed at the meeting.

Guest privileges set forth in the constitution and by-laws will remain the same this year, except that recognized clubs and organizations may entertain on the club premises at a fee of $25 per day or fraction thereof, with no fishing privileges.

Committees were named in relays of three to begin at once a drive to rid the lake of turtles before the fishing season begins.

Rowe of London Visits City With Companion

Alfred Rowe, Jr., of London, son of the former owner and establisher of the Rowe Ranch, together with Patrick Devenish, also of London, visited Clarendon Monday to view the ranch which attracted his father, as a lad of 24, to leave England and try his luck at ranching in the Panhandle in 1880.

The two youth arrived in this country about ten days ago, landing in New York where they purchased a car. They returned to Fort Worth Monday evening and intend to drive to the Pacific coast, returning across the continent to New York and then embarking for their homeland.

While in Clarendon, they stopped at the Antro Hotel.

Alfred Rowe, owner of the ranch, made frequent trips to Clarendon and is well-known here to many of the old timers. The last he made, however, was in 1912. A year later, after visiting his people in London, he boarded the fated Titanic for the return voyage.

According to Rowe, who is twenty-three, and a blonde with a small mustache, the trip to this city was an enjoyable one and in regard to the recent dust storms he said they were "something to go through." Devenish, his companion, quite readily denounced the plains country saying "I don't want it. You can have it."

The chorus girls were dressed in West Point Effect in costumes of blue and white. In the "Tall, Dark, and Handsome" chorus, led by Miss Marjorie White, the girls wore evening gowns of pastel organdy.

Especially worthy of note was the specialty dance, a variation of the Continental, given by Miss Dorothy Jo Ryan and Alex Cooke, followed by the "I'll Be the Boy, I'll Be the Girl" chorus with both boy and girl members, participating. "Lucky" was danced by the girl members of the chorus, dressed in green satin shorts and silver hats, and Carroll Hudson was lead singer for this concluding number.

Music was furnished by Mrs. Simmons Powell, Glenn A. Traux, and Gus Stevenson.

B. & P. W. CLUBBERS ENTERTAIN BOSSES

"NATIONAL BUSINESS WOMENS WEEK" CELEBRATED BY LOCAL CLUB.

The highlight of the National Business Women's Week in Clarendon will be the Bosses banquet on Thursday evening at the Clarendon Hotel when the members of the Business and Professional Women's Club will entertain their bosses.

The banquet committee, composed of Misses Fannie Perry, Lottie Lane, Opal Pyle, and Layna Taylor, have arranged an interesting program with President Mantie Graves as toastmistress.

Decorations will be of blue and white with Texas maps, flags, blue bonnets, and flowers used as favors in appointing the tables.

Miss Maude M. McClung of Amarillo and who is chairman of Public Relations of the Amarillo B. & P. W. Club, will give the address of the evening on the Texas Centennial.

The invocation will be given by Miss Lotta Bourland, and the welcome address will be extended by Miss Ruth Hartzog. Olof Caraway will give the response.

In a unique way, Mrs. O. C. Watson, Jr., and Miss Ruth Donnell will introduce the guests of the members. "Texas, Our Texas" will be sung in unison as the concluding number on the program. The program will be interspersed with orchestra music.

The delicious menu of Texas foods will include:

- Fruit Cocktail
- Virginia Baked Ham
- Candied Yams
- Asparagus Tips
- Vegetable Salad
- Hot Rolls

Apple Pie Cheese Mints Coffee

In connection with the banquet, many other activities have been planned in observance of the National Business Women's Week of which "Opportunity" and "Economic Security for All" is the theme. The Clarendon Club will celebrate the eighth annual National Business Women's Week in common with 1,400 clubs in the forty-eight states, Alaska, and Hawaii.

From the President of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, Mrs. Geline MacDonald Bowman, comes this message: "It is appropriate indeed that 'Opportunity' is our watchword for National Business Women's Week. Certainly the members of the National Federation are making the most of the opportunities afforded by these stirring times, to develop sound leadership and intelligent fellowship."

Our members are enlarging their vision, stirring their thinking and energizing their idealism in seeking, as a unit, to promote social and economic well-being for all citizens of this country through our Ten-Year Objective, a part of which is our platform for this year, 'Economic Security for All,' a challenging answer, indeed, to the needs of the hour."

Mayor J. W. Martin has given official recognition to the Clarendon celebration by issuing a proclamation for the observance of National Business Women's Week.

The program of the local Business and Professional Women's Club was opened last week with an advertising campaign which furnished sufficient funds to enable the members to place plaques in the Club Hospital room and in their Club Room and to contribute to the beautification project offered to this city by the Highway department.

Two club members attended a Public Relations dinner given by the Amarillo club Saturday evening in honor of the state president, Mrs. Faye Gordon, who was principal speaker of the evening.

The entire club membership enjoyed a theatre party at the Pastime Theatre Tuesday evening and were entertained by the president and past presidents of the club with a party at the Bon Ton Con-

ROBBERY RAMPANT IN DONLEY COUNTY

PAST WEEK BRINGS UNUSUAL RUN OF THIEVERY THROUGHOUT COUNTY.

According to Sheriff Guy Pierce and Deputy Sheriff Guy Wright, reports have been received this week of thievery throughout the county. Officials are of the opinion that the majority of the robberies reported as occurring on Thursday evening were committed by the same person, but have insufficient evidence to make any arrests.

On Thursday evening, twenty-five gallons of gas was stolen from Wes Linders, Donley tractor farmer; Walter Lowe was relieved of two dressed hogs; R. L. Foster reported two whole dressed hogs, three collars, a half a harness, lines, and a pair of bridles as missing; and C. L. Knight reported a set of harness and a saddle stolen.

James Henry King, colored man, was arrested Sunday and charged with burglarizing the Clarendon Grain Company on Thursday night. King signed a confession and his bond was set at $500.00.

Mrs. Thomas Eanes reported that she saw a negro leave Huffman's Bakery Saturday evening by way of the Kearney Street door sometime between eight and nine o'clock, the same hour the bakery was robbed of four dollars. King was also charged with this burglary, but insufficient evidence was presented and the charge was removed. King, however, is lodged in the county jail pending trial for the burglary on Thursday evening.

Two boys, both of this city, were arrested Monday and charged with stealing chickens from the home of Wm. Spitzer. The youths signed a confession shortly after arrest and the elder was lodged in jail pending bond; the younger, who is under age, was released awaiting the next session of the grand jury.

Preach Goldston reports a two-wheel trailer stolen from his farm on Sunday night.

For information concerning the person or persons who were connected with these robberies, Sheriff Guy Pierce announces that he will give a cash reward.

Bond Holders Invited To Make Exchange

With only a few days left in which to take advantage of the liberal offer the Federal government is making for the exchange of Fourth Liberty Bonds for the new issue of treasury bonds, the Treasury Department has wired banks over the country asking that they co-operate in calling their customers' attention to the offer.

The last day on which this exchange can be made is Wednesday, March 27th, and The Clarendon News has been asked to print this information for the benefit of Fourth Liberty Bond holders who might be interested.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Andis spent Sunday in Memphis visiting their daughter, Mrs. Bill Wickline.

Reactionary following the theatre party.

Fifteen members of the club organized a class in English the past week in keeping with the National slogan, "Better business women for a better business world."

Lieut. Lloyd Benson and Lieut. Bill Greene of New Mexico Military Institute at Roswell spent the week-end in Clarendon visiting their parents and friends. The two boys were accompanied as far as Amarillo Monday morning by Paul Greene and Misses Dorothy Jo Ryan and Marjorie White.

Dr. Oscar Jenkens left for Dallas Sunday to return Friday after attending the Southern Medical Clinic.

Road Construction In Rapid Progress

Both divisions of highway construction from Clarendon to Hedley and from Hedley to the Hall county line are making very satisfactory progress and already certain portions of the new right-of-way are open to traffic.

A detour at Lelia Lake is in use while the new road is being built through that center—one of the few places in Donley where the new right-of-way is open to Hedley, and a ride over it Monday afternoon proved its saving in distance and its scenic attractions.

From the Hall county line West the construction crew has about conquered all the deep fills and cuts and is working now opposite Giles. From this point more rapid progress will be made West to Hedley.

Only one or two culverts are yet to be built and the bridges are almost completed.

The inspection Monday gave a new insight to the unusual scenic charm of the new route, and Donley county is due to become famed for the beauty of its highway route, unsurpassed in this section.

LOCAL ARTISTS ENTERTAIN LIONS

LEGION SHOW HEADLINERS ENLIVEN TUESDAY WEEKLY PROGRAM HOUR.

Lion members had a change of arrangements Tuesday when at their regular weekly luncheon they found small tables accommodating six, instead of the usual "U"-shaped banquet table. Aside from the entertainers, Verde Morris, was introduced as a guest of Lion Mulkey.

At roll call, each member was required to answer to his name by stating whether or not he would be present at Ladies Night next Tuesday evening with his wife or sweetheart. Response indicated that a heavy attendance would be on hand to enjoy the occasion and hear District Governor E. L. Pitts from Lubbock bring the address of the evening.

Lion Eddie Teed for the program committee introduced Miss Dorothy Jo Ryan and Mr. Alex Cooke, pupils of Miss Mary Cooke, who gave a novelty duo dance from the Legion play, "A Bold Front," staged here last week. Mrs. Simmons Powell was at the piano. After an encore from these talented young Terpischoeans, Lion Ira Merchant was presented to give advice on just how to "flirt," in his popular solo which won much applause in the same production. He got lots of applause from the Lions—that is nearly all of them—except those who tried to razz their fellow-member in a good natured way.

Lion Teer announced the presentation of the play, "A Bold Front," at Hedley next Saturday evening.

Lion Kerby gave a short resume of the high school football situation and urged that members be giving attention to the project of electrically lighting the football field here before the season begins next fall. He said the Bronchos would play seven conference games under the schedule recently announced.

Supt. Burton seconded what Lion Kerby had to say about the need for the lighted field if football was to be made a profitable sport in Clarendon, and said one of the principal reasons for the project was that no time would be lost by the student body or players if night games were played, and a great percent of falling grades in the fall would be thus averted.

Lion Drennan mentioned a project to send a representative to the junior college track meet at the Fat Stock Show in Fort Worth next week-end and urged the members to give what aid in the matter they could, as an advertisement for C. J. C.

CANNERY PUTS OUT 66,000 CANS FOOD

ENVIABLE RECORD MADE FOR FOUR AND ONE-HALF MONTHS OF OPERATION.

The operation of the Donley county relief cannery under the capable direction of Mrs. J. M. Acord, which closed February 1, attained a record which places it among one of the leading Texas canneries during the period of operation.

A grand total of 66,235 cans of foods were put up during the four and one-half months of operation, which figured down to 69 cans per hour or 1.9 cans per minute, according to records compiled by the local relief office, with a cost slightly over 13 cents per can.

The foods canned and the total number of cans is as follows:

- Chili, 7,538; steak, 4,005; roast, 9,712; liver, 49; soup stock, 4,074; hash, 4,967; hamburger, 6,464; stew, 3,059; chicken, 64; liver paste, 55; head, 40; ribs, 27; backbone, 60; sausage, 260; heart, 9; tongue, 6; ham hock, 12; pork chops, 15; egg plant, 25; akra, 210; corn, 144; tomatoes, 232; peas, 4,059; beans, 1,259; greens, 7,906; sweet potatoes, 2,208; turnips, 4,564; pumpkin, 1,494; citron, 1,407; hominy, 777; peaches, 255; pears, 412; apples, 435.

A sewing room is now being operated in the cannery building and will continue until garden products are ready for canning, at which time the cannery will be opened for operation.

RELATIVES ATTEND FUNERAL OF FREDRICK MAN

W. N. Matheson, relative of Mrs. George Matheson, Mrs. Glenn Rieger, and J. P. Matheson of this city, died at his home in Fredrick, Oklahoma, on Saturday, March 9th, as a result of a car accident on March 8th.

Surviving are his wife and four daughters and Clarendon relatives, all of whom attended the funeral services.

The last rites were conducted Wednesday at the Fredrick Baptist Church with the pastor of that church officiating. Interment was made in the Fredrick Cemetery.

LIONS CELEBRATE ON TUESDAY NIGHT

NEXT TUESDAY EVENING IS SEMI-ANNUAL LADIES NIGHT OCCASION HERE.

Next Tuesday night at the Lions Club Room at the Antro Hotel, will be held the regular semi-annual Ladies Night program of the Clarendon Lions Club. The program and banquet will begin promptly at seven-thirty o'clock, and a special menu has been arranged for the occasion.

District Governor E. L. Pitts of Lubbock will be present to make his official visit to the local club, and will deliver the address of the evening. Governor Pitts has been a visitor here before and his addresses are always full of inspiration and counsel.

President J. T. Patman has announced a tentative program as follows: Welcome Address by Group Chairman W. H. Patrick. Introduction of guests and visitors. Solo, Mrs. E. D. Landreth. "Accidental" Quartette (male), identity unknown. Steel Guitar Solo, I. B. Pierce. Address, District Governor E. L. Pitts.

Lions and ladies will assemble in the lobby of the Antro at 7:15 so that there will be no delay in marching to the club room promptly at 7:30.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade Hilliard spent the week-end in Childress visiting Mr. Hilliard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Hilliard.

GOVERNOR ALLRED IS A CONSCIENTIOUS EXECUTIVE

Governor Allred's action in employing the strong and efficient arm of the Texas Rangers to stamp out open and defiant liquor selling, open and insulting gambling establishments is another proof that when the voters of this state placed him in the governor's chair at Austin they put power into the hands of a conscientious executive.

There is no such thing as any effective law enforcement without the aid and direction of the governor. No attorney-general, no adjutant-general can do any sustained, effective work for law enforcement without the sympathy of the governor. Nobody knows this better than Governor Allred, for as attorney-general he found himself powerless when the then governor refused the use of Rangers, and the administration adjutant stood with the governor and not with the attorney-general.

Citizens of Texas, generally and in a heavy majority applaud Governor Allred's swift and convincing move in cleaning up the worst centers on liquor and gambling, and it goes without saying that the smaller offenders will have attention just as soon as they can be reached.

The News is proud to have championed the candidacy of Jimmy Allred for Governor of Texas, and it is happier now that he is proving the clean, courageous, conscientious executive that we believed him to be.

Honor and power to Governor Allred.

RIGHTING INJUSTICE IN THE CENTENNIAL PERIOD

There has been introduced into the senate at Austin, proposed amendments to the state constitution raising the salaries of six important state officials, thereby righting a wrong that has come about by economic changes in Texas over the past fifty years.

The proposed resolutions would increase the governor's salary from $4,000 to $12,000; the secretary of state from $2,000 to $6,000; the attorney general from $4,000 to $10,000; the comptroller, the treasurer, the land commissioner, from $2,000 to $6,000.

No intelligent citizen will argue that important posts as enumerated above are not entitled to pay somewhat on a par with other responsible positions in our commercial structure, and surely the time has now arrived for an adjustment in this matter.

No time could be more appropriate than the Centennial period for righting this constitutional wrong, which the growth of Texas and our natural development has brought upon us.

This matter along with many other items in our governmental, political, economic and moral establishment, should be brought down to date—set to rights—and the Centennial period is the time to do it.

THE SCIENTISTS ARE SURPRISED

For a generation we have heard so-called "higher-critics" and "scientists" prate about the disproval of Biblical history by "science." These high-browed gentlemen have apparently pitied the millions of honest, sincere, believers in religion who stand on the doctrine that God is the great Builder of the universe, and his Word the true account of its origin and all the subsequent development of mankind.

Now in recent years there have been many "discoveries" by these "scientists" which prove the Biblical account of many episodes of history and development, and there has been expressions of "surprise" from their ranks.

But no greater surprise has come, and no stronger blow has been struck the crumbling platform of "critics" than the recent discoveries in Egypt of ancient writings and tablets which bear out in every particular certain Biblical accounts of the doings of the human race in an era long lost to other authentic history.

They dug up the evidence, the Bible has again been vindicated, and the scientists are "surprised."

WANTED—A GOOD CLEAN SANDSTORM

Last week when devilishly, dusty demons from a distant district descended devastatingly on the depressed denizens of the Panhandle, said Panhandle people prayfully and persistently proposed the proper and precise peregrinations of punishing sandstorms from their own particular plains.

In other words, they wanted a good clean sandstorm instead of a Nebraska dust storm.

FIRE IS NEVER A TEA PARTY

According to news reports from New York City, firemen there recently attended a $75,000 tea party.

They responded to an early morning alarm and found flames engulfing a five-story warehouse stocked with tea. With characteristic skill, they attacked the fire, using several hose streams. As the water heated in the flames and filtered down through the packages, a fine brew of tea ran out into the gutter.

Firemen will tell you, however, that there never was a fire that could be considered a "tea party." Fires bring hard work, danger—death.

The National Board of Fire Underwriters report that thousands of people lose their lives in fires annually, while the property loss runs into hundreds of millions of dollars.

This loss directly concerns everyone—fire may strike anywhere without warning, unless proper precautions are taken. Check over your property today. Look for fire hazards in connection with the chimney, the furnace or stove, the heating pipes, hot ashes, rubbish and papers, paint or oil-soaked rags, and electric wiring and appliances. Check up on careless habits that invite fire—especially in connection with matches and smoking materials. Train children to be careful. Substitute safe habits for your old careless ones.

Remember—a fire is never a "tea party."

TIME NOW TO THINK OF "SOFT BALL"

A look at the calendar suggests that it isn't long, now, until the vacation and recreational period of the year will be with us, and with it comes a thought of organized "soft ball," as one of the best forms of general recreation yet to be introduced in America.

Clarendon has had some fine "soft ball" sport in years past, and The News believes that there should be early plans laid for greater and more general participation in it this coming summer.

A league set up with more teams than ever will be one way of bringing more and better recreation to Clarendon. It will be good for the players and will provide good sport for the fans.

Let's have "soft ball" and lots of it this summer.

A "SOP" TO THE UNSUSPECTING

Within the last few days Texas counties have received checks for $200 out of the race-track gambling split with the state, which leads one to suspect that there is some connection between the mailing out of these checks just now when the repeal of the race-track gambling law is being considered in the legislature.

So transparent a piece of maneuvering, so pitiful a piece of pie, can hardly be anything else but a "sop" to the unsuspecting.

"Trying to force recovery by statute is like standing up in a sailboat and blowing on the sails. The speed of the boat is determined by forces outside it."—Neil Carothers, Professor of Economics, Lehigh University.

LIGHTING ... Yesterday and Today

DID YOU KNOW THAT—musical compositions, frequently dwelling on candle light, are but recollections of a luxury in bygone days?

That such spectacular illumination from candles would compare as only modest electric illumination today?

That one modern electric lamp (50-watt size) gives the same illumination as 48 candle light give?

That the wax candle will burn about 4 hours, necessitating 250 replacements to one replacement of the electric lamp?

That an average home today has the equivalent of approximately ten such electric lamps (50-watt size) in use, and with 24 months or 1,000 burning hours as their useful life, the two-year total lighting costs, including cost of lamps and cost of electric service, is only $27?

That a comparable illumination from wax candles (not considering the inferior light or the danger accompanying any flame, its fine soot floating or gaseous odors) would necessitate consumption of 120,000 wax candles over such a two-year period at a cost to you of more than $2,400, yet complete electric "lighting" service is supplied by this company and enjoyed by all members of your household for less daily costs than a cigar to one member of the household.

ELECTRIC SERVICE IS CHEAP! YOU SHOULD USE MORE OF IT!

Texas Heroes Formed First Masonic Lodge in Texas, 1835

Brazoria, Texas, March 2 (Special).—Commemorating the 100th anniversary of the first Masonic lodge meeting in Texas, Masons of the state gathered here at the site of that first meeting, Saturday, March 15, for a Statewide convocation. Many of those who figured notably in the early historic events of Texas were members of Masonic lodges, so it is fitting perhaps that Texas Masonry's centennial should be observed when Texas is in the throes of preparation for its own Centennial in 1936.

It was early in March, 1835, that Anson Jones and his Masonic brethren first met under a live oak tree, which still stands in the town of Brazoria. Aside from Jones, those at that meeting were John D. Wharton, Asa Brigham, A. E. Phelps, Alexander Russell and J. B. Caldwell.

The old oak tree since has been named "The Masonic Charter Oak," owing to its marking the spot where these men formulated the petition for a Masonic lodge, which was sent to John H. Holland, then Most Worshipful Grand Master of Louisiana, and being granted resulted in the formation of Holland Lodge No. 36. At that time there were only 35 Masonic lodges in Louisiana.

Officers named included Anson Jones, Worshipful Master; Asa Brigham, Senior Warden; J. P. Caldwell, Junior Warden; James A. E. Phelps, Treasurer and M.

C. Patton, Secretary. The lodge held its meetings in the second story of the old court house at Brazoria until, in March 1836, due to the Texas Revolution, the lodge and Brazoria were abandoned.

General Urrea, taking possession of the place, destroyed all of the books, records, jewels and property of the lodge. The lodge members scattered in every direction with Wharton, Phelps and Jones joining the Texas troops on the Colorado. However, March 18, 1836, the Grand Lodge of Louisiana granted a permanent charter to Holland Lodge No. 36, which was brought to Texas by John M. Allen.

Inasmuch as the Masons had been reduced in numbers at Brazoria, Holland Lodge was never reopened there. In October, 1837, however, Anson Jones and other Masons reopened it in Houston.

Soon lodges were organized at Nacogdoches and at San Augustine and in 1837-38 the Grand Lodge of the Republic of Texas was organized. With the formation of the Texas Grand Lodge, Holland Lodge became Holland Lodge No. 1, Milam Lodge of Nacogdoches, No. 2; and the lodge at San Augustine, known as Redland Lodge, became Redland Lodge No. 3. Gen. Sam Houston presided over the Masonic convention which resulted in the formation of the Grand Lodge of Texas and Anson Jones was chosen as the first Grand Master.

I Buy At Home

Because my interests are here

Because the community good enough for me to live in is good enough for me to buy in.

Because I believe in transacting business with my friends.

Because I want to see the merchandise.

Because I want to get what I want when I pay for it.

Because every dollar I spend at home works for the community in which I live.

Because the man I buy from stands back of the goods.

Because here I live and here I hope to die.

Because the man I buy from pays his part of the town, county and state taxes.

Because the man I buy from helps support my school, my lodge, my church, my home.

Because when ill luck, misfortune or bereavement come, the man I buy from is here with his kindly greeting, his pocketbook, if need be.

MUSEUM HAS RARE BUFFALO PICTURES

SEARCH OF COPYRIGHT FILES IN WASHINGTON REVEALS FIVE PICTURES.

Canyon.—Four of the most authentic pictures of Buffalo in existence are the possession of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society, according to information recently received by Professor L. F. Sheffy, secretary of the organization.

Recently an advertising agency sought photographs of buffalo to be used in material they were preparing for one of their customers. A search of the copyright registered at Washington, D. C. showed only five pictures of the Buffalo as they once existed in the Panhandle. All five of the pictures are found in the museum at Canyon.

Among these pictures are "The End" and "The Herd" registered in the name of Martin S. Garretson, president of the American Bison Society. Of "The Herd" Colonel Goodnight said, "The picture showing the front of the bull herd going South is a very fine thing and very natural." Colonel Goodnight was once a frontier ranger and has seen vast herds of buffalo.

The pictures of the Buffalo herds and the bones which were all that was left a few years later hang in Pioneer Hall of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society Museum.

THE WRITER. Luke the beloved physician, the writer of the gospel which bears his name. Acts in some sense is a sequel to the Gospel of Luke, and it is addressed to the same unknown person, Theophilus. See chapter 1:1.

THE MAIN THEME. It gives the history of the establishment and development of the early church, from the day of its beginning to the imprisonment of Paul in Rome. In this book we find when, where and how the church was established, and we know that this record is in harmony with the prophecies that pointed toward the new or Christian dispensation. In this book we find the beginning of the dispensation of the Holy Spirit and how He led men to answer the question regarding salvation of souls. The departing Christ makes the announcement of the establishment of His church and a great campaign of world-wide missions, through human agencies under the power and leadership of the Holy Spirit. He told His disciples to tarry in Jerusalem until the Spirit arrived, they were obedient to Christ's command and on the day of Pentecost the Spirit began its operation and the church was established according to prophecies. Jerusalem being the place, Pentecost being the proper time and many other conditions working out to show that the work was begun as God would have it. Several cases of conversion are recorded to show how the work must be carried on today. (To be continued next week.)

"Analyses of Bible—Acts"

The narratives of Matthew, Mark, Luke and John are arguments designed to prove that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, (John 20:30, 31). They summon witnesses from all positions of life to testify to this fact. They prove His divinity, by His fulfillment of Old Testament expectations, by His mighty teaching and miracles, by His perfect life and by His miraculous conception and resurrection. These four gospels lead us to a study of the greatest theme of all ages, "What shall we do to be saved?" They tell us there is a Savior that can and will save us from our sins, but there is not but one book in the Bible that answers this all important question. That book is the book we call The Acts of the Apostles. We will study this book for the next few weeks

239,470 Tourists

Visit Texas in 1934

The popularity of Texas as a Mecca for automobile vacationists from all parts of the country is indicated by a report just released by the Conoco Travel Bureau, Denver, a branch of Continental Oil Company and America's largest free travel service. According to the report, 239,470 Travel Bureau tourists spent more than $9,852,480 in this state last year.

It was also revealed that motor travel throughout the entire United States was unusually heavy during 1934. Hotels, tourist camps, restaurants and many other types of business took in more money from tourists than during any other year since 1929. The Bureau supplied detailed trip services to 969,485 vacationists, a figure 41 percent greater than the organization's total for 1933. Statistics also show that Travel Bureau tourists spent in excess of 40 million dollars while they were away from home.

Credit System for Agriculture
The Farm Credit Administration provides a complete credit system for agriculture. The needs of the farm and ranch are different from the needs of business.

This is the first time in any country that a complete credit structure has been set up for the farm and ranch separate from the commercial credit structure.

It has greatly reduced the interest rates, and within sixteen months has refinanced and saved more than half a million farm homes.

In our own district, approximately 25 million dollars in farm credit loans have already been made, including about three million dollars in crop and feed loans.

Parallel to Business Structure
The farm credit system should completely parallel the business credit structure, and I have therefore introduced a measure giving the Intermediate Credit Banks, which are the discount banks for farm credit, the same reserve note issuing privilege which the Federal Reserve Banks now have.

This would be done on a perfectly sound basis.

The forty percent reserve would be provided, and the sixty percent farm and ranch paper would be used just as the commercial paper is now used for Federal Reserve notes.

This would do away with the necessity of selling tax-exempt bonds, and would substitute another method just as sound as the Federal Reserve notes—in fact, the same character of notes.

This plan would still further reduce the interest rates on all types of farm paper.

Purchase of Farm Homes

The bill also would encourage small farm owners by providing loans in limited amounts at a low rate of interest. This provision would apply only to existing indebtedness and purchasing money. Any time the borrower transfers to other than an actual farmer-owner, the interest rate would be increased automatically to the regular rate. This would prevent speculation. Many persons not otherwise able would thus be in a position to buy and pay for a home.

"Poultry pays" according to Mrs. L. M. Davidson of Jefferson county who is food administrator for the LaBelle Home Demonstration Club. It does for her because she makes it by good management.

To begin with she traded a cow for a flock numbering 105. These she culled down and keeps culled down to a flock of 70 hens which produce an average of 60 eggs per day.

She estimates that 18 of these eggs pay the feed cost per day, leaving three dozen and a half to sell at a profit. Marketing is a part of the job of making the flock pay. Mrs. Davidson grades the eggs strictly and sells all that she has for sale either to passers by or at a special store in Port Arthur.

CHURCHES

At The First Baptist Church

There is always Worship—Fellowship—Service

I have come to the conclusion that God did not mean to compliment man when He said, "for dust thou art, and unto dust shalt thou return." If our lives at best are as offensive and stifling as these dust storms, how we ought to try to improve them. Remember that a man by his own acts goes down and down, or up and up, as the digger of a well or the builder of a wall. God told Jacob that he loved the gates of Zion more than all the dwelling places of his people. Surely then you will enter her gates next Lord's day and spend at least one hour in obedience to His command to forsake not the assembling of ourselves together as the manner of some is.

Another thing, these quill pushers who are trying to glorify sandstorms are having about as much success as a man without Christ has of commending himself to God. Honestly, I see nothing that fascinates or exhilarates me when I see one coming. There is no halo of glory clustering around a dust storm. Neither is there anything in man to commend himself to God. There is nothing that will purify and glorify a sandstorm more thoroughly than a good three inch rain. Nor is there anything that will wash a man thoroughly from his sins but the blood of Christ. Commit thy way unto the Lord, trust also in him; and he shall bring it to pass. GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Entertain

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Morris were genial host and hostess Saturday evening in their home when they entertained with a dinner and bridge party.

The tables where the guests were served a three-course dinner were appointed in St. Patrick Day colors, and the same color note was used in the dinner.

In the games of auction which furnished entertainment for the evening, Mrs. Seldon Bagby and Edlie Crabtree received high score awards, while Mrs. Fred Chamberlain received the consolation prize. Low score prizes were awarded at each table.

Participating were Messrs. and Mesdames Fred Chamberlain, Phillips Gentry, Meredith Gentry, Seldon Bagby, Edlie Crabtree, C. B. Morris, L. B. Merrell, and R. L. Bigger, and Dr. and Mrs. T. H. Ellis.

Little Miss Craig Complimented

Little Miss Mary Jo Craig of Amarillo was complimented Tuesday afternoon at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Patching, on the occasion of her third birthday.

Balloons were awarded the children as favors when they arrived, and the afternoon was spent in playing games and contests suitable for the occasion.

Many lovely gifts were presented the honoree, and delicious refreshments were served from the dining table decorated in pink and white. A large white cake, gleaming with three pink candles, graced the table, and pink tapers, flanking the centerpiece, added to the charm. Favors using the same color note were presented the little guests.

Honoring Miss Craig were little Misses Jean Dale Porter, Sammy Jo Lowe, Charlotte Ann Merchant, Marilyn Merchant, Mae Morris, and Masters Forest Buckley of Amarillo, Calvin Merchant, Verhmen Breining of LeFors, and Miller Morris.

Miss Lotta Bourland cordially entertained the members of the Contract Club Saturday afternoon in her home.

Mrs. Floyd Lumpkin received the high score award in the games of bridge.

A lovely two-course afternoon luncheon, using the St. Patrick Day colors, was served to Mesdames Basil Kirtley, Chas. Trent, Floyd Lumpkin, Park Chamberlain, Forest Sawyer, Forest Taylor, Simmons Powell, and Miss Mildred Martin.

The Mother's Self Culture Club will meet in the Club Rooms Tuesday at 3:30 o'clock with Mesdames Roy Ingram and Harrison Simpson as hostesses.

Mrs. Benson Hostess To H. D. Club

The Home Demonstration Club met Friday afternoon in the home of Mrs. C. L. Benson.

President Mrs. C. D. McDowell called the club to order, and the Lord's Prayer was repeated in unison.

The making of hot rolls was demonstrated by Mesdames J. A. Tomb and J. C. Estlack, after which the hostess served delicious refreshments.

Guests present were Mesdames Walter Liles and N. D. Hudson. Members present were Mesdames G. A. Anderson, A. H. Baker, Sloan Baker, A. L. Chase, M. T. Crabtree, J. C. Estlack, M. A. Hahn, Major Hudson, N. M. Lawler, C. D. McDowell, O. H. Jackson, Carl Adams, Ed Speed, J. A. Tomb, W. D. Van Eaton, Ross Scott, and the hostess, Mrs. C. L. Benson.

The club will meet April 5th with Mrs. M. T. Crabtree. Mesdames Walter Liles and C. L. Benson will have charge of the program.

The Parent-Teacher Association met Thursday afternoon in the South Ward building with a good attendance for their regular monthly business meeting and program.

During the business session, it was voted that the association should send a delegate to the District P.-T. A. convention to be held this week in Canyon. A change from May to April was made in the date for the election of officers.

The fourth grade, under the instruction of Misses Pauline Clark and Martha Bell Logan, had charge of the program on "Health."

Dean R. E. Drennen, guest speaker, addressed the organization on "The New Curriculum."

The concluding number on the program was a piano solo by little Miss Dorothy Nell Baker.

The prize, awarded monthly to the room having the largest attendance, was awarded to Miss Pauline Clark's section of the fourth grade.

Mr. Paul M. Bruce and Mrs. Ethel Meador were united in marriage Sunday, March 10th, at Duffau, the ceremony being read by the Methodist pastor.

Mrs. Bruce is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Cox of Stephenville and is a graduate of the Stephenville High School.

The groom is a former resident of Clarendon and is well-known here. He is owner of the Bruce Nursery at Alameed where the couple will make their home.

The members of the Jolly Group Club met Tuesday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Bain.

Following several games of forty-two the hostess served refreshments to Mr. and Mrs. Sloan Baker, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Kerby, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Homer McElvaney, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Russell.

Mrs. W. A. Land entertained the members and guests of the KilKare Kneedle Klub on Thursday afternoon in her home.

Mrs. Marvin Land assisted the hostess in entertaining.

The afternoon passed pleasantly for the guests, and needle work and conversation furnished entertainment.

Green and white were the colors effectively used in the delicious afternoon luncheon which was served to Mesdames A. T. Cole and M. E. Thornton, guests, and Mesdames S. M. Braswell, H. C. Brumley, Joe Cluck, Eva Draffen, E. A. Massie, Buel Sanford, W. B. Sims, J. R. Bartlett, Cap Land, W. C. Stewart, and Misses Ida and Etta Harned, members.

Mrs. U. Z. Patterson was hostess to the members of the 1930 Needle Club Tuesday afternoon in her home.

At the close of an enjoyable afternoon, a dainty salad course was served to Mrs. Ben Buck, guest, and Mesdames Carl Peabody, Joe Bownds, Carl Tyree, Guy Pierce, Vadie Carpenter, and Ralph Andis, guests.

W. C. Stewart spent Friday in Amarillo.

PROMINENT HALL COUNTY MAN DIES

DAVID A. GRUNDY, WEST TEXAS PIONEER SUCCUMBS; SERVICES HELD SUNDAY.

David A. Grundy, 72, one of West Texas' real pioneers and one of the first and staunchest builders and backers of Memphis and Hall county, died Saturday morning at 1:45 o'clock at a Memphis hospital, following a brief illness. Death followed a stroke of apoplexy.

The funeral rites were held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the First Presbyterian Church, Memphis, with Dr. John Angus MacMillan, pastor in charge, assisted by Rev. O. K. Webb, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

Interment was in Fairview Cemetery.

A native of Kentucky, Mr. Grundy was born on December 11, 1863. He came to Texas 45 years ago and resided in Cooke county a short time before moving to Hall county. He was married to Miss Belle Adams on December 25, 1895, at Owensboro, Kentucky.

He had been a member of the Presbyterian Church since childhood and was an elder in the Memphis church from the time it was organized. He also was a Mason since his 21st year and attained the 32nd degree. He was a charter member of the Memphis lodge and held all offices in the lodge at some time. The Knights Templar acted as escort at the services.

Attending the funeral from Clarendon were M. R. Allensworth, Cap orris, Flem Caraway, Frank Whitlock, H. Mulkey, Miss Anna Mores, and Mesdames J. D. Swift, M. E. Thornton, A. T. Cole, J. P. King, W. C. Stewart, and J. T. Warren.

W. H. Patrick was an honorary pallbearer.

The Reverend Newton Smith of Amarillo spent from Sunday until Wednesday in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Huffman spent Wednesday and Thursday in Oklahoma City attending to business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Lawson of Fort Worth were guests Friday evening of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. White.

Mr. and Mrs. John Frasier, Jr., and little daughter of Groom spent Sunday in Clarendon as guests of Mrs. Frasier's sister, Mrs. Tom Goldston.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Mulkey returned Saturday from Oklahoma City where they carried little Miss Evelyn Reid to an Oklahoma clinic for treatment. On the return trip, Mr. and Mrs. Mulkey visited Mr. Mulkey's sister, Mrs. Verna Morris of Rush Springs. Verna Morris, nephew of Mr. Mulkey, returned to Clarendon with them to assist in the local theatre.

A simple but impressive ceremony united in marriage Saturday evening at eight o'clock at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. J. O. Vineyard of this city, and Miss Elizabeth Williams of Bowie. The Reverend J. Perry King, pastor of the First Baptist Church, read the ring ceremony.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Z. Williams of Bowie, was attired in a lovely creation of powder blue crepe with accessories of white. She is a graduate of the Bowie High School.

Mrs. Dalby Fleming, sister to the groom, attended the bride. Mrs. Fleming was attired in a suit of navy blue tree-bark crepe with harmonizing accessories.

The groom is the son of John Vineyard of this city and is a graduate of Clarendon High School. He is employed by the Spear Contract Company.

The young couple will reside in the Vineyard Apartments.

MR. GEORGE STOCKING TO SPEND SUMMER IN EUROPE

Mrs. George Stocking of Washington, D. C., and two sons, George, Jr., and Myron, will sail on the vessel Koenigstein of the Albert Bernstien line on March 26th, for Europe. They will arrive in Antherp, April 6th, going to Madrid, Spain, by way of Paris and San Sebastian. They will remain in Madrid until the first of June at which time they will take an apartment with friends in San Sebastian on the Bay of Biscay and will return to America the latter part of August.

Mrs. Stocking has made several visits to Clarendon in the home of her husband's mother, Mrs. J. D. Stocking.

Chas. H. Bugbee spent Tuesday in Amarillo.

The body of Mrs. Mary Beatrice Picture, 72, was brought to Clarendon Wednesday afternoon for funeral services and burial. Services were conducted at the funeral chapel by the Reverend E. D. Landreth.

Mrs. Picture died at Magenta, Tuesday night. She was a widow of J. S. Picture and a former resident of this county. For the past 14 years she has been a resident of Magenta.

Survivors include four sons and four daughters, W. T. and W. C. Picture, both of Wichita Falls; Frank Picture, Magenta, and Fred Picture, Los Angeles, and Mrs. W. S. Pigford, Newlin; Mrs. E. W. Blake, Galveston, and Mrs. C. W. Parker, Los Angeles, and Mrs. N. R. Rich, Houston.

Contestants Selected For League Meeting

Local plans and preparations for the big Interscholastic League Meet, March 29 and 30 have been practically completed, and most of the local contestants for the various divisions of the Meet have been selected.

Miss Harris announces that out of twenty-seven Spelling contestants, Maxine Oller and Avis Lee McElvany have been chosen to represent this school. In case of sickness or any other accident to these two contestants, Mickey Ferrel and Helen Louise Greene have been selected as alternates.

In Extemporaneous Speaking, which is sponsored by Miss Hall, the contestants will be Jean McDonald and Wilfred Hott.

The Declamation eliminations for both the junior and senior high schools were held last night in the junior high auditorium, but it was too late to get the results in this week's paper. Those contesting in the senior high group were Nell Cook, Rosalyn Bass, and Grace Hardie, in the girl's division, and since there was no competition in the boy's group, R. W. Bingham will be the contestant in that group.

Eloise Hill and Lillie Jewel Barns will be the girl's team and Jimmy Bourland and Sam Barrow the boy's team in debating. Miss Hendrick, who has been coaching the teams, is very encouraged over the work that these debaters are doing.

In track and tennis no contestants have been chosen as yet. They will be announced next week.

Senior Personalities

Catherine Brown is one of the most studious members of the senior class. She is low, has dark hair and complexion, and rides to school on the Ashtola school bus. Catherine's ambition is to become a nurse, and her intentions are to attend a nurses' training school after graduation.

Jimmie Lee Cole is from Windy Valley, and in the senior class is one of the most popular members. She has dark hair and complexion, and is noted for her witty remarks. Jimmie Lee's friends consider her one of the best sports in the crowd, which is saying plenty.

Athlyn Drennon, a senior from Ashtola, is reporter for her class. She is a small attractive girl who has made lots of friends since the first of the school year. Athlyn is noted for her voice, and she has appeared in chapel singing popular songs. A radio station offered her a contract to sing next summer, but Athlyn has other plans—not publicly known.

Norris Dewey, a dark, tall, quiet young man, has spent most of his school life in Clarendon schools although he resides at Ashtola. Typing is one of his favorite subjects, and he is an ardent fan of tennis.

Ila Deal is a tall, red headed senior whose favorite avocation is giving finger waves for pleasure and profit. She is quiet, pleasant, and makes good grades in all subjects. Ila plays volleyball and likes to very much.

J. B. Duckett is responsible for getting that Ford full of Chamberlain boys and girls to school on time every morning. J. B. is a very good basketball player, and on the team from Clarendon who ever won over Hedley's cagers, he played the position of guard. J. B. is a very well liked senior who is apt to succeed in life if he keeps ambitious.

Cleo Eanes is a tall girl who likes loud colors, anklets, and good jokes. She hails from Chamberlain, wears glasses, has a set of pert bangs, and is well liked by everybody. Cleo likes volleyball and home ec better than other things.

SOPHOMORE SALLIES

While digging out of one sandstorm the sophs were buried under another, but they have decided to emerge for this week anyway.

Several girls are sporting spring dresses and white shoes. Rebecca Welch wore an attractive green striped dress the other day.

Campus Capers

GRACE HARDIE is in favor of bigger and better hamburgers for bigger and better girls. Her lunch every day consists of two or three hamburgers, usually accompanied by onions. Fridays and other days of heavy dates, Grace leaves off the onions.

CHARLIE WORD is being rushed lately because it has been discovered he has an unusually fine tenor voice.

DOROTHY JO RYAN and ALEX COOKE are being lauded as the Ginger Rogers and Fred Astaire team of Clarendon since their recent exhibition dance in "A Bold Front," stage show presented here.

WILMA DEE SMITH was called upon to judge declamations at a country school not long ago. Now Pee Wee knows how the judges used to feel when they listened to her declaim years and years ago.

REV. FERRELL ADDRESSES STUDENTS THURSDAY

Reverend Ferrell of the First Christian Church talked to the student body Thursday on people and their lives compared to clocks. He said that our hearts are our mainsprings and our consciences the regulators. His illustrations were especially clear, and the talk was inspiring to all the students.

After this interesting talk, some declaimers rehearsed their speeches for the county meet. Rosalyn Bass, Grace Hardie, and R. W. Bingham were those who practiced with the students for audience.

Madalyn Taylor is wearing some white sandals which are the envy of all. Claudine Pearson and Jean Piercy have been wearing very pretty white oxfords.

Pat Slavin spent Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of last week in Amarillo attending the Fat Stock Show. Incidentally, he got several dollars for his calf which sold for third high.

Ruth Tucker is one person who didn't enjoy "The Merchant of Venice" which one English class has just finished studying. No amount of asking or talking by Miss Thornton and other members of the class could convince her that it was interesting.

When Charlie Murphy and Alton Rogers get to the home room before the bell rings or when it rings, something has really happened.

The other day when the weather was very nice, everyone is Miss Howren's room was present. She told us that the next sandstorm that came, half the class would be absent, sure enough, when a sandstorm hit next day there were several absent. Why can't the Sophs take it? Are they pansies?

C.J.C. Sophs Discuss Graduation Plans

A meeting of college sophomores was held Wednesday morning of last week, and plans for commencement exercises to be held May 23rd were discussed by Mr. Drennan and students. All persons expecting to graduate were reminded to check up on their hours in the office; sixty hours with an average grade of C or more are the major requirements for graduation.

The usual controversy over a speaker for the occasion ensued, and at the present time no one has been definitely chosen. About thirteen expect to graduate.

A suitable date for annual college day was also a subject for argument. A suggestion was made that this custom be dropped, but those who attended the picnic last year are anxious that this annual holiday be observed as always by the freshmen and sophomores.

Palo Duro

In order to prepare the members of the Palo Duro Society for the motion picture, "David Copperfield," a program on the life and works of Charles Dickens was presented Wednesday, March 13, at the society room in the dormitory. In answer to the roll call, each member answered with the name of one of Dickens' characters. After the reading of the minutes of the last meeting, the program was turned over to the leader, Wilson Kutch.

The youth of Dickens was described by Arthur Chase, who used an article in the Forum of October, 1928, as his reference. The article, "Dickens as a Novelist" from the November, 1928, issue of the Forum was discussed by Dorothy Powell. Wilson Kutch read a letter from Charles Dickens to Hans Christian Anderson, which was printed in the Golden Book of June, 1929. Ardis Patman then gave an interesting account of the experiences and hardships of the producers of the motion picture version of "David Copperfield." On conclusion of his talk, material for which was found in the March, 1935, issue of the American Girl, the meeting was adjourned, after which a number of the members attended the moving picture which had been the subject of the program.

Cheerful Chatter

Wilson Kutch recently received a copy of the Lakeview High School newspaper, a neat four page edition of which Houston Gattis is the business manager. Houston formerly lived and attended school here. In a section of the paper a column of rhymes described some students, the following one being a character sketch of Houston himself. Now this merry one:

Is a preacher's son;
He's a senior
At Lakeview High, and he is very spry.

Football is his favorite sport,
And he is always on the court.
Who is he?

All the teachers of Clarendon are going to attend a convention in Canyon Friday, and everybody is rejoicing over the holiday. Next week-end the county meet will be held, and that means another Friday to rest in.

The English IV class has recently been making a study of words, among which was "comely." Miss Hendrick asked what was meant when a girl was spoken of as comely. We think a comely girl is one who specializes in "come hither" looks.

The librarian wants to re-tention picture version of "David Copperfield." On conclusion of his talk, material for which was found in the March, 1935, issue of the American Girl, the meeting was adjourned, after which a number of the members attended the moving picture which had been the subject of the program.

mind book borrowers that when they sign green cards it means they are checking out reserve books to be returned the next period. White cards bear the date when books are to be returned.

That blonde has enough notes to blackmail Socrates if she takes the notion.

Frances Sanford creates some excitement in home ec the other day when she was trying to cook muffins. Thinking she was cooking biscuits, she put an excess of flour in the dough, resulting in a terrible failure; she became so muddled that she scalded the dishes with cold water.

Mysterious Mike

A certain fellow from the fair city of Ashtola (drives a red wheel '34 Chevy sedan) seems to be much interested in Cole here lately. The Lady Cole and he were seen at "Bordertown" last Friday night. The lad seems to be deserting his home town. The Ashtola lad with the yellow shirt and blue suspenders seems to be much happier since a certain co-ed returned to this Institution of Higher Learning. Perhaps Big Brown Eyes sees a chance to get his worldly goods back. The Duke of Leche (Dairyman Acord) is said to live so far from his "desire" that it takes a nickle to send her a post card. Perhaps the reason for the V8 is to get there and back before Leap Year catches him. What has become of "Can You Guess?" Has this great characterizer of students taken a walk-out just when everyone was getting a good appetite for the column? Socrates should view the Bronchos when they are practicing before giving the Owls any points. Coach Kerby should keep Clarendon track record clear with the material he has. Did you know that a certain tennis player tossed the discus further than the regular discus men of the track team. Some of the Aggies are suffering from a strange malady known as "squinny eye." The victims seem to be those that run the level on terracing trips. Some of the college students are wondering about College Day, where to go and what to do. We advise them to wait until the sand stays put before going on any excursions into the country. They might get lost. The Seniors are looking forward to Senior Day and its pleasures. The Seniors will probably take the Juniors to the well known horse race when the annual fight takes place. Ho, hum, Spring must be here at last or the nights are just too short for the students, for yawns are in the public eye these days.

Robert Nichols and Wilma Dee Smith enjoyed last Monday evening in Goldston, judging declamations and viewing a play presented by the pupils of that school.

Geraldine Pratt went to Pampa Sunday.

Wanda Mayfield spent the week-end in Wichita Falls visiting relatives.

Rosalie Grady was rather seriously burned in a chemistry accident Tuesday. Her arms were blistered and her dress ruined when some acid was spilled on her.

Plans for terracing in 1935 are general recognition of the necessity for this work had been at least achieved. People are terracing for soil conservation; for water conservation; and for flood control. They are terracing crop and pasture lands. Gardens orchards, and even yards are being terraced to preserve the fertility of the soil, save the moisture, and prevent gully washing.

We are in A New Automobile Era!

Cars built since 1931 have twice the power and speed of ten years ago!

Continental offers you better lubrication for modern cars
—an *Alloyed Oil with twice the film strength of other oils!

IT'S hard to realize how improved cars of the '30s are over those we drove ten years ago. We are in a new automobile era! Power and speed have almost doubled in a decade, with little increase in motor size.

Increased power has brought enormous increases in bearing pressures and crankcase temperatures. In making motor parts that will stand up under these severe conditions, car manufacturers have turned to new alloy metals of extra strength and durability. For the same reason, you must have oil with enough extra oiliness and film strength to protect your motor under extreme pressures!

Yet motor oils generally have no more oiliness and film strength now than they had ten years ago. New refining methods have recently come into use to make oils free from carbon and sludge. But these new refining processes have actually lowered instead of increased oiliness and film strength!

There is one exception—Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil. It, too, is free from carbon and sludge troubles, as its users know after millions of trouble-free miles of driving. But more important, Timken machine tests prove that the new Germ Process* puts into this oil 2 to 4 times the film strength of any straight mineral oil! That extra film strength protects your motor under the most extreme pressures and heat.

Germ Processing gives other valuable advantages. Because Germ Processed Oil penetrates and combines with metal surfaces, a "Hidden Quart" stays up in your motor and cuts down starting wear. Germ Processed Oil gives longer mileage with greater motor protection, as proved by the famous Indianapolis Destruction Test.

Plain mineral oils were all right ten years ago—today they are becoming obsolete. Say "O.K.—Drain"—fill with Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil and drive with the comfortable assurance that your oil meets your motor's needs!

Some are beginning to farm such as stalk cutting and listing.

MARTIN

(By Mrs. Jim Baker)

Mrs. Walter Morrow is very happy to have her mother with her for a visit. Mrs. T. J. Conner arrived the early part of the week from California. Louise Patterson, Margaret and Fred Easterling, Emily and Henry Davis were pleasant callers in the Sam Rundell home Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Dave Patterson and daughter, Louise, Mrs. John Turnbow and Mrs. A. C. Arnold called on Mrs. Claude Easterling Friday afternoon. They report the very young man who arrived there last Monday as being a very fine boy indeed. His name is Phil Carroll. Mrs. Wes Sullivan spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. McClenny. Mr. and Mrs. George Kavanaugh and family were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Pittman Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Rankin of Clarendon were pleasant callers in the afternoon. We are very sorry to report that little Juanita Wilkerson has been moved to the Amarillo Hospital where her condition is rather serious. The entire community extends their sympathy to the family in her illness and Juanita's little class mates are especially interested in her improvement. Mr. A. J. Sibley spent Sunday in the Bob Mason home. Mr. and Mrs. Odell Barker and family of Brice, and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Barker spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Goodman. Mrs. Sowell returned from Mineral Wells in the early part of the week where she has been enjoying a rest and visit with her brother. Mr. J. H. Easterling also returned from there later in the week. Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Easterling and daughter and Johnnie LaFon spent Sunday in the A. J. Sibley home. The community enjoyed a party at the school building Saturday night. Our Sunday School enrollment is increasing each Sunday now and we feel that we have a really lively one. We extend a cordial invitation to each and every one in the community to attend.

Midway

(By Mrs. P. H. Longan)

Bro. McKee gave us another one of his good sermons Sunday. There was a small gain over last Sunday for Sunday School. We are glad to have the Arnold family back with us. There are several more we are hoping will be back soon. Mr. and Mrs. Nelse Robinson and Mrs. J. C. Longan visited Mr. and Mrs. Homer Beach in Amarillo Wednesday and returned home Thursday morning. We are glad to report Mrs. W. W. Moreland as being able to be taken to Dallas Wednesday morning. It is too high here for Mrs. Moreland. She can't stay here long at a time. Mesdames Jack Whitt, Hugh Riley and Elmer Palmer visited Mrs. Longan Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Hal Riley and Mrs. Elmer Palmer visited Mrs. Jiggs Mosley Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Deurris Smith spent Sunday in the Jones home. Mrs. Lee Usrey received a telephone message Friday night telling her of the serious illness of her granddaughter who lives near Muleshoe. Mrs. Usrey has a great-granddaughter living in Oklahoma.

Mrs. Longan visited in the Potter home Tuesday afternoon. Otha Koontz met with a pleasant surprise Saturday afternoon. She was invited to spend the afternoon with Leva Mae Seaton. Several of her friends had gathered there and arranged several games. Rachel Edith Longan made the birthday cake that was decorated with 12 candles. After the games, punch and cake was served to the honoree, Otha Koontz, Betty John Goldston, Lois Clifford, Bonita Arnold, Fern and Dean Lewis, Rachel Edith Longan, and the hostess, Leva Mae Seaton, also the next to have a birthday.

There was a large crowd enjoyed the singing at the school house Sunday night. The Singing Club elected officers. Mr. Lee Usrey, president; Deurris Smith, secretary. Mr. Earthman has a good class out here and is doing some long-needed teaching along that line. Some of these youngsters have never attended singing school. They are showing great interest and are learning a great deal. Grandma Arnold leaves Wednesday for Stratford for an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. Hall. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Naylor and children spent Sunday in the Porter Arnold home. Mr. and Mrs. Longan visited in the Davis home until bed time Saturday night.

Hugh Riley is nursing a sprained ankle caused from a step breaking in the ladder while working on the school house. Misses Dorothy Riley and Irma Faye Moreland visited Midway school Thursday. They had a holiday while they were repairing their school building. Allan Hardin, Jack Lamberson, Donald Harlin and Boyce Pierce spent Sunday with the Longan boys.

Several from here attended and enjoyed the play at Fairview Friday night. Robby Zoe Moreland spent Saturday night with Leva Jean Meaders.

Bro. Gulley from Lelia Lake will preach for us Sunday. This will be his first time. So let's all go and hear him.

Mrs. Gus Williams entertained Sunday for her mother, Mrs. Thomas, whose birthday was Saturday and her cousin, Mrs. Evans from Mobeetie, whose was Sunday. They all attended Sunday School in the afternoon.

Buster and H. L. Riley went to Fort Worth Monday morning to attend the Stock Show.

The Doughboys said in their broadcast that Fort Worth had invited the farmers to town but had not asked them to bring their farms with them. That sounds like the sand must be blowing down there.

Mrs. J. C. Longan spent Monday afternoon with Mrs. Pat Longan. Dempsey Robinson has been out of school the past two weeks with a bad cold. He is better and we think will soon be back in school.

Hereford.—A section of land chiseled last summer to prepare the soil to receive whatever rains might fall and to throw up clouds to help prevent the soil from blowing has held enough moisture to keep the wheat growing on the farm of DuBois Walker of Deaf Smith county despite the continued drought, according to Dewey Reed, farm demonstration agent. Other land just across the road which was cultivated in the manner common to wheat growing sections did not hold enough moisture to produce a good stand of wheat, and what wheat came up has been destroyed because of the blowing of the soil.

Mr. Walker used chisels to make furrows from 10 to 188 inches deep and 42 inches apart, breaking the hard soil underneath the finely pulverized top soil. This subsoil was cracked from furrow to furrow thus enabling the soil to hold the moisture.

County agent terracing in Texas has 12,769 farms amounted to 484,495 acres in the 193 counties reporting at the end of 1934, according to figures compiled by M. R. Bentley, Extension Eng.

LIBRARY NOTES

(By Mrs. C. A. Burton)

"Now in November" by Josephine Johnson was first printed about eight months ago, and has had four printings since. It is a most unusual story. After going through the story, a publisher's reader said of it, "If Emily Dickinson had turned to prose she would have written a book like this. It has that indefinable authority, that area of hidden reserve strength and beauty that strike right to the core of things. It is the most beautiful and moving book I have been fortunate enough to read in years."

Caroline Miller, author of "Lamb In His Bosom," says, "Indeed I do like 'Now in November.' The book quite fulfills the promise of the lovely title."

Harvey Allen, author of "Anthony Adverse" says, "Now in November" is the kind of art that fits instead of concealing life."

Lewis Gannett, literary critic of the New York Herald-Tribune says, "It is almost incredible that this book, so mellow in its philosophy, so rich in its poetic texture, should be the work of a girl twenty-four. It is a book that sings."

And Dorothy Canfield says, "As you read on—and read on you will—fascinated by the beauty of the style and the narrative power of the author—in this sad-colored book of hopeless man and women, frustrated by their own inharmonious natures as well as by drought and debt and destiny, you will say to yourself, 'Why this is the American Withering

Heights.' The comparison is not exact, as such comparisons never are, but 'Now in November' does have something of the same sort of ominous, before-a-storm tension, something of the same vitality, other-worldly rather than human, some of the same relishing concentration on misery. A very fine, really quite beautiful harmony in mourning purples and blue and blacks." This quotation taken from the Book-of-the-Month Club News.

Herschel Brickell of the New York Evening Post says, "Terror and beauty perfectly conveyed. It is quiet and intense at the same time."

These last two criticisms are to my mind the truth. It is not what I should call a "pretty" story—but it is beautiful in its truthfulness. It is the story of the Haldarines—three daughters and the father and mother. It is called a "farm story"—a type of story which has been very popular during the past year. The father brings his family to the ancestral midwestern farm after having lost all his savings, in an effort to provide security for them. Not till the creaking wagon which holds all they kept of the former home has almost reached the run-down farm does his wife know that it is mortgaged. The story is told by the middle daughter, Marget Haldarime after ten years of struggle with drought and disaster.

It is not a book of action nor excitement. It deals with unchanging things—love and bitterness and death, and the abiding, beautiful consolation of nature. Miss Johnson's prose is lovely in its quiet intensity, its wisdom and clarity. It has been compared with that of Elizabeth Madox Roberts and Katherine Mansfield. It is the author's first novel, though she has had stories in leading magazines for a number of years. In the midst of her writing she has found time to complete a college course and to attend the Washington University Art School in St. Louis. For the past few years she has lived on a farm in St. Louis county, Missouri, and she knows at first hand the people and the way of life she describes in "Now in November." She says, "I wanted to give a beautiful and yet not incongruous form to the ordinary living of life—to write, as I once said, poetry with its feet on the ground. I have tried to make life into an art instead of making art see malive. I wanted to sketch these characters in a sort of plain idyl, beautiful only in so far as life itself is beautiful."

Lloyd T. Shelton spent Sunday in Fort Worth.

Mr. and Mrs. Buel Sanford spent Sunday in Amarillo visiting their daughter, Miss Pauline of Canyon, and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Keener.

A BANK'S STRENGTH Banking strength is the combination of a sound ratio of assets to liabilities, capital sensibly invested and a conservative policy of skilled management. True banking strength is none of these things alone, yet all of them. No single attribute alone makes for financial impregnability. That results, rather, from a fusing of them into the structure, direction and operation of a given bank. Member Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation Donley County State Bank

$10 In Prizes NEWS PROVERB CONTEST

COUPON The Proverb Answer is: My Name is: My Address is: (Save Until Complete Series Appears)

HERE ARE THE RULES! Each week for a period of six weeks The Clarendon News will print one of a series of cartoons representing some well-known proverb or saying. Contestants solve the picture puzzles by writing the proverb that the cartoon suggests or illustrates in the blanks below the picture. It is simple. The prizes, totaling $10 in cash, will be awarded those sending in complete or near complete picture sets with the best and most appropriate answers to the pictures published, and either paying their own subscription for a period of one year or securing one new one year subscription to The Clarendon News. Cartoons should not be sent to the paper until the series is complete. Only one answer may be given to a picture. Only one member of a family will be given a prize, the award going to the person in that family submitting the best set. The answers may be written in pen, pencil, printed or typewritten. In case of a tie, neatness and spelling will be the deciding factor. The judges will be announced at a later date and their decision must be accepted as final. No sets will be returned, nor will we enter into correspondence regarding the contest. Remember the first prize is $5.00 in cash; the second prize is $3.00 in cash and the third prize is $2.00 in cash. Watch Next Week's Clarendon News for the Third Cartoon.

Permanent Transient Camp May Be Secured

City officials were approached here this week on a proposition to locate a permanent transient camp here of from 125 to 250 men, provided the city will furnish materials for barracks on a tract of land outside the populated area of the town.

A mass meeting was held Wednesday afternoon at the city hall of city officials and citizens, presided over by Bill Ray, president of the chamber of commerce, and the matter was discussed at length. It was disclosed that the bureau wanted to give Clarendon one of six new unit camps to be established in the state, and would furnish army trucks and labor for building the proposed barracks if the proposition was accepted. They offered to build any kind of building the city wanted and it would be turned back to the community for general use when it was no longer needed.

The city has hopes of making such arrangements as will give them the benefit of a larger crew of men for flood control and street work here. The chamber of commerce will co-operate with the city commission in trying to work out some practical plan on which to finance the site and building materials. Suggestions have been made for building something suitable for a county fair exhibit building, a golf club house, auditorium, etc.

AAA Checks for $8,506.40 Is Total

On another page of this issue is listed a total of $4,310.59 in checks received by the county agent. At a later hour the agent received another consignment of cotton parity checks of $4,195.81, which brought the total for the week up to $8,506.40.

Cards have been mailed to the farmers who are to receive checks, so they may come to the county agent's office to get them.

According to T. M. Breedlove, county agent, Wednesday, March 27th has been set as the final day for cotton contracts to be signed.

Dick Chunn returned Wednesday from Dallas where he carried his mother who was forced to leave Clarendon for a lower altitude.

Father of Mrs. Hunt Dies in Claude Home

James Monroe Scoggins, father of Mrs. Earnest Hunt of this city, died at 11:30 o'clock Tuesday morning at his home fifteen miles South of Claude where he has lived for thirty years. Mr. Scoggins, pioneer rancher and farmer, died at the age of 62.

The deceased, a pioneer stock farmer and a Mason, was well-known in Clarendon.

Surviving are his wife, his daughter, Mrs. Earnest Hunt of this city, and three sons.

Funeral services will be held at three o'clock Thursday afternoon in the Baptist Church at Claude with the Reverend P. A. Russell, pastor, conducting the last rites.

Interment will be made in the Claude Cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Bryan and children left Monday and returned Wednesday after a visit in Lubbock.

Mrs. Georgia Burrell had as her guest Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Breinning and family of LeFors.

City Engineer Says Terracing and Retarding Dams Best Flood Control

Mayor J. W. Martin received this week a letter from Engineer W. J. Williams of Plainview, who drew the plans for Clarendon's flood control projects, which is in the nature of a report on his recent inspection of the work here. The letter compliments the work of Chamber of Commerce Secretary J. M. Hill, who is in active charge of carrying out the plans as submitted by Engineer Williams, and recites several systems of flood control, but declares the combination of terraces in the water-shed and retarding dams is the best system for local needs.

The letter is dated at Plainview, March 18th, inst., and reads as follows: Mr. J. W. Martin, Mayor, Clarendon, Texas. Dear Sir:

I have to report that I went to Clarendon last Tuesday, and inspected the work being done to control flood waters which pass through Clarendon.

I was well pleased with the progress which has been made, and Mr. Hill is doing the engineering part, that is the levels instrument work on the ground, has the matter well in mind and will handle it satisfactorily.

I also inspected the terracing that is being done and found the work being done well. Mr. Hill's practice of beginning at the top of the slope and making wider terraces, is the best way to do it.

There are at least three ways that will control the floods that bother you.

One is to make canals or conduits through or under the town which will carry the water without overflowing. This would be very expensive and result in allowing all the farms in the valley above town to finally erode until they would be abandoned and of course is not a satisfactory solution.

The second way is as you are doing, to build dams that will hold the water back and feed it through as fast as it can be carried by the present canal through town, making the dams high in the middle so if they fail to hold all the water that comes, the flow will be around the ends of the dams and the damage not expensive to repair. This is the less expensive and also preserves the soil, but still allows "leaching" of plant food from the soil. Government experts estimate that 21 times as much plant food is lost each year as is used.

The third and ideal way would be to have all the land terraced making the terraces wide and heavy as is now being done in your work, then each farmer watch terraces for "leakes" and patch them as he would a hole in his roof.

The combination of the last two methods, each protecting the weakness of the other, is the least expensive and will result in more prosperity for the farmers and their descendants.

At the Spur Experiment Farm, two plats were compared, one with the terraces which the water could not pass over and around, and one not terraced. The terraced plat made about twenty times as many pounds of grain as the other.

The plan you are using, terracing and retarding dams together, is the best that can be done.

Yours truly, W. J. Williams, Engineer.

Goodnight Resident Dies in Auto Crash

Funeral rites for Mrs. Ruth Justiss, 44 year old Goodnight resident, were held this afternoon from the Goodnight Baptist Church.

Rev. P. A. Russell, pastor of the Claude Baptist Church, conducted the services.

Mrs. Justiss, wife of J. J. Justiss, prominent ranchman who resides five miles South of Goodnight, died at Claude Wednesday morning from injuries received in an automobile crash during a dust storm Tuesday night, when the car in which she was riding with Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Hudson, also of Goodnight, crashed on Highway 5 with a car driven by Miss Roberta Carroll of Claude. Two girls from Denver were riding with Miss Carroll, all of which received painful injuries.

Surviving besides the husband are two sons, Mack and Ralph Justiss, both of Goodnight; two sisters, Mrs. D. B. Shelton, Hamman, Texas, and Mrs. Sam Thompson, Honey Grove; Murray Trout, Los Angeles, and Floyd Trout, Chicago.

The Reverend E. D. Landreth left Wednesday evening for Fort Worth to attend an evangelical meeting in that city today.

Sarah Jane Darken Dies Here Sunday

Sarah Jane Darken, 73, passed away Sunday morning at nine-thirty o'clock at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Finis Harp, after an attack of flu and complications.

The deceased was born Sarah Jane Thompson in Arkansas on January 13th, 1862. She was married forty-eight years ago to C. B. Darken, who died in their Arkansas home eleven years ago.

For the past ten years, Sarah Darken has lived in Texas, having lived eight years of this time at Goodnight, Texas. The deceased is well known throughout the county and in this city, as she has resided with her daughter for the past eight months.

Early in her life she placed her membership with the Church of Jehovah's Witness which she served faithfully until the date of her death.

The deceased is survived by two sons, Hank Darken of Darwin, Oklahoma, Walter Welch; and three daughters, Mrs. Finis Harp of this city, Mrs. M. J. Lawley of Wynwood Oklahoma, and Mrs. Claude Garner of Alamosa, Colorado.

Funeral services were conducted Monday afternoon at two-thirty o'clock at the Citizens Cemetery. The Reverend W. T. Lackey conducted the last rites assisted by the Reverend J. Perry King, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

Pallbearers were D. W. Clappitt, G. F. Lane, W. E. Davis, and A. J. Harp.

Esckridge of Monahans To Direct Local Band

Chas. S. Esckridge arrived here Tuesday from San Antonio to direct the local band.

Esckridge has been director of the Monahans High School band for the past four and one-half years, and comes to this city highly recommended as a director. The last two years Esckridge was director of the Monahans band, the band was awarded first place in the state contest at Abilene.

Director Esckridge received his training at the Southwest Band and Orchestra Conservatory at Dallas and the band departments of Texas Tech and Simmons University.

Mrs. Esckridge, who is teaching in the Monahans school, will move to this city sometime in May, after the end of the school term.

Dr. and Mrs. Oscar Jenkins attended a meeting of the doctors and their wives from four Panhandle counties, Childress, Donley, Hall and Collinsworth, at the Memphis Hotel Friday evening. After a dinner attended both by the doctors and their wives, the ladies met in special session and organized a four-county medical auxiliary with Mrs. Winfred Wilson of Memphis as president. Mrs. Jenkins was appointed chairman of the membership committee.

Miss Mary Frances Caraway of Paducah spent the week-end in Clarendon visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Odos Caraway.
