TWO KILLED; FIVE INJURED IN CRASH

Williams Tells

By Fred L. Williams

Horses, Horses—
The Bronchos and the Mustangs are going to play football here Friday. That ought to be quite a "horsey" affair.

Baseball—
Drove over to Pampa Monday night to see the baseball game between the Pampa Road Runners and the famous Israelite House of David nine. The latter team, composed of bearded and long haired players, is one of the most famous baseball squads in the game today. Originating in the colony at Benton Harbor, Mich., the "bearded beauties" travel all over the United States every year meeting all classes of competition; and doing a right good job of it. They lived up to their reputation Monday night by trouncing the Road Runners 5 to 2, staging a four-run rally in the ninth to come from behind and win.

This writer was greatly disappointed, however, due to the absence of "Long John" Tucker, gigantic first baseman, from the House of David lineup. Tucker, Talley and Anderson put on a two or three minute exhibition at all of their games that is worth the price of admission to witness. They do everything with a baseball but eat it, and spectators believe at times they do that.

We'll travel a long way any day to watch that team play baseball.

He Was Safe—
Judging from a wisecrack we heard in the stands at the game the wheat crops in the Pampa section haven't been so hot lately. A couple of fellows were talking about being stopped by a highway patrolman while they were trucking wheat on the highway recently. The patrolman was interested in learning whether or not their load exceeded the weight permitted by the highway department, and asked:

"How much have you got on?"
"About half a section," was the reply.
"Oh, well. That's all right. Go ahead!"

Football Friday—
Coach Kerby's Bronchos will tangle with the Claude High School Mustangs in the first game of the season for the locals at College Field Friday afternoon.

The game gives promise of being rathery hotly contested, and should give local sports fans a pretty good idea as to what can be expected from the local eleven this year.

Let's all be on hand at this game, and give the boys a send-off.

False Economy—
The editor of one of our exchange papers comments that he overheard a father tell his small son to "take longer steps. It will save your shoes."
Yeah, but suppose he rips his pants!

Famous Last Words—
"Wanna buy a ticket to the Shamrock or Groom football game?"

Rural Children To Attend Fair Friday
Eight buses will leave Clarendon Friday morning to transport school children of the rural communities to the Tri-State Fair on Rural School Day, according to Sloan Baker, county superintendent of schools.

The children from Donley County will sing together with a chorus of Panhandle school children in a broadcast from KGNC, the Globe-News radio station of Amarillo at 10:30 o'clock Friday. The buses will leave at 6:30 o'clock a. m. and leave Amarillo at 10 o'clock p. m.
Districts from which the children, only the larger school children will go, are Giles, Bray, Midway, Goldston, Martin, Ashtola, Chamberlain, Windy Valley, and Skillet.

Football Lighting Equipment Being Installed

WORK IS EXPECTED TO BE COMPLETED BY SEPTEMBER 28

48,000-WATT PLANT WILL GIVE CLARENDON FIRST CLASS LIGHTED FIELD.

All materials for the construction of the football lighting system to be erected here arrived this week, according to C. M. Lowry, local manager of the West Texas Utilities Company, and work is being rushed on the project.
All of the poles, reflectors, wires, lamps, and other equipment with the exception of two transformers are here. Mr. Lowry stated, and the transformers are expected to arrive by the time they are needed. The job is expected to be completed not later than September 28.

Eight 60-foot poles will be used in the project, four on each side of the field. Each of the poles will support four reflectors and four 1500-watt lamps. This will give a total of 32 reflectors and 48,000 watts, which, it is said, fill provide an abundance of light for the night games.
The first game to be played under the lights is scheduled for October 4, when the Bronchos will meet the Groom High School eleven.

LITTLE 'EDDIE' GALLAWAY DIES

ILL ONLY ONE DAY; FUNERAL SERVICES HELD MONDAY IN CITY.

Edwin Erwin Gallaway, 4-year-old son of Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Gallaway, passed away shortly after midnight Saturday at the home of his parents as the result of an attack of interic toxemia.
Before the day of his death, little 'Eddie', as he was generally known, was seemingly in the best of health.

He was born in Amarillo, September 20, 1931, and would have celebrated his fourth birthday Friday. When Eddie was only a few months of age he came to Clarendon to make his home.
Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the First Methodist Church. The Reverend E. D. Landreth, assisted by the Reverend J. Perry King, pastor of the First Baptist Church and the Reverend Robt. S. McKee, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, conducted the services.

Mrs. Fred Buntin was in charge. (Continued on Page Eight)

Two Charged With Chicken Theft Here

Gene and Jeunus Rowe were jailed here this week by Sheriff Guy Pierce on a charge of stealing chickens from the Stem Bean farm in this county last Thursday night.

The alleged chicken thieves were jailed Tuesday morning. Gene Rowe was also charged with theft of rope and spurs from a horse belonging to Leo Thomas Friday night while the horse was staked in Clarendon.

Gene Rowe was fined $36 for theft of the rope and spurs or 12 days in jail, choosing the latter.

Bond for the two was set at $500.00.
Mrs. R. L. Bigger, Misses Geraldine and Willie Maud Pratt and Price Whitlock left yesterday morning for Austin where Miss Geraldine will attend the University of Texas. The other three will return to Clarendon Friday.

CONTRACT LET ON HEDLEY HIGHWAY

Federal and state highway agencies Saturday neared completion of preparations to put more than $6,000,000 of construction under contract and additional approved projects included an allotment for Donley County.

The Donley County project approved will include 12.7 miles of caliche base and triple asphalt surface from Clarendon to Hedley and three-tenths mile in Clarendon.

Cannery Operated On New Basis Now

According to Mrs. J. M. Acord, supervisor of the Donley County Cannery, the local cannery is now being operated on a new basis, a fifty-fifty basis.
Fifty per cent of the canned goods belongs to the producer, thirty per cent to the TRC, and twenty per cent to the laborer, according to Mrs. Acord.
Mrs. Acord further stated that at the present there was no pay labor in the cannery, the labor being furnished by workers who receive a percentage of foods canned.

PREFERENCE LIST OF PROJECTS IS MADE UP BY COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

At a meeting of the Donley County Commissioners Court Tuesday morning called at the request of R. W. Willis, Amarillo, WPA engineer, a preference list was made of the Donley County WPA projects establishing the order in which work will begin on them when approval is given in Washington.
The set-up on the preference list is as follows:
Streets of Hedley, Clarendon flood control, Lelia Lake school projects, Highway 88 south of Clarendon, and Clarendon public school projects.
It was stated that if sufficient labor was available work could be begun on all projects at once, or according to their order on the preference list after federal approval. If more than sufficient labor is available for the first projects, transfers would be made to other projects, it was said.
It has been learned that all of the above projects have been approved by the district WPA office at Amarillo and the state office in San Antonio, and have been forwarded to Washington for review and final approval.
Work on the projects would begin immediately after approval in Washington.
The selection of a county project manager has not been made.
It was also stated by an official of the county that if crop harvesting absorbed relief labor work on the several projects would be temporarily suspended until completion of such harvesting, and anyone refusing jobs offered by farmers would be dropped from the relief rolls.

LECTURE ON AAA ATTRACTS CROWD

M. A. PILLERS ADDRESSES ENTHUSIASTIC FARMERS AT COURT HOUSE.

Addressing one of the largest groups of farmers ever assembled in Donley County, approximately 500, who assembled at the county court house at 2 o'clock p. m. Tuesday, M. A. Pillers of Wheeler County and a member of the state cotton advisory committee No. 1, delivered a talk of one hour and a half duration explaining the new cotton loan and acquainting the farmers with some of the things regarding the future policy of the government in the farm program, encouraging (Continued on Page Eight)

'ALWAYS CAREFUL; NEVER CRIPPLED'

SHERIFF ISSUES WARNING TO MOTORISTS DUE TO ACCIDENT INCREASE HERE.

Following the increase, an increase of nearly 50 per cent, of accidents in Donley County over a period of the past several months, Sheriff Guy Pierce issued a statement to all motorists this week by quoting, "It is better with motorists to always be careful that to always be crippled."
"First," stated Sheriff Pierce, "motorists should never let a car out of their control; accidents are most frequently caused by speeding and cars cannot be held under perfect control if run above 50 miles per hour.
"The law says that if one drives a motor car while intoxicated to any degree, it is a violation of the law and the driver is subject to a penitentiary sentence. This law will be enforced in Donley County.
"Before driving a car, the motorists should make sure that the brakes, lights, and tires are in perfect condition. Always give a road hog all the road he wants. Always be ready to stop and give any motorist aid who is in trouble. Never pick up a hitch hiker unless he is known by the motorist."
In concluding his warning to motorists, Sheriff Guy Pierce quoted, "Always play safe, you'll never be sorry."

CIRCUS BRINGS CROWD TO TOWN

SONS OF AMERICAN LEGION DRUM AND BUGLE CORPS NET NEAR $40.

The Harley Sadler Bailey Brothers Circus, which showed at Clarendon Saturday, brought one of the largest crowds to this city since the July Fourth celebration and netted a sizeable sum for the Sons of American Legion Drum and Bugle Corps, who were instrumental in bringing the circus to town and under whose auspices the circus showed.
The corps made a profit of $38.90 from the circus and with the funds made the final payment on the classy new capes and uniforms which they recently purchased.
Merchants in town report Saturday as being a good business day due to the large crowd in town from the Clarendon trade district.

Coach Kerby's charges have not rounded out as expected during the past few days, due to the fact that quite a few of the boys have been unable to practice, and although they are hoped to trim the visitors, it is likely that a closely contested game will ensue. Reports state that the Claude team (Continued on Page Eight)

ANNUAL FACULTY PICNIC FRIDAY

TENTH ANNUAL PICNIC IS GIVEN TEACHERS BY MEMBERS OF BOARD.

The annual faculty picnic, given by members of the board of trustees of the Clarendon schools, was held Friday evening at the Country Club. Eighty-six faculty members, trustees, former board members and their families were in attendance.

The picnic was started as an annual affair 10 years ago by the Lions Club and was called the "McGee Picnic" after Mrs. Fred Rathjen, who was Miss Mary Beall McGee at that time. The function continued under this name for three years while Miss McGee was a member of the faculty and for the past seven years has been sponsored by the school board as an annual faculty picnic.
A chicken barbecue, together with salads, cakes, pies and coffee, was served by members of the board.
O. C. Watson, vice president of the board, acted as master of ceremonies. He introduced Whitfield Carhart of Greenville, an old-timer of the Panhandle and former Clarendon school board member. Watson also introduced Mayor Johnny Martin and C. C. Powell, both of whom are ex-trustees.

CCC WORKERS DIE AFTER CAR WRECK NEAR HERE FRIDAY

JOHN HOOTEN AND HARDY GRAVES OF MEMPHIS ARE FATALLY INJURED.

Two dead and five injured was the toll of a collision Friday night at 8 o'clock near Goodnight on Highway 5 when two Memphis cars, one driven by Raymond Ballew and the other by a Memphis CCC worker met in a head-on collision.

Hardy Graves, 44, Memphis CCC Camp worker from Amarillo, and driver of one of the machines was killed instantly.
John Hooten, CCC camp worker of Memphis died early Monday morning in St. Anthony's Hospital in Amarillo. He never regained consciousness after the accident.
The injured are Dave Barger, Memphis CCC Camp, broken arm; Dick Breedlove and H. Mullins, Memphis CCC Camp, minor injuries; Gerald Phipps, Medical Corps, U. S. Army, Fort Sill, minor injuries.
Buntin ambulances were summoned and Hooten and Barger were taken to Amarillo to St. Anthony's Hospital. Graves, who was killed instantaneously, was taken to his home in Amarillo where funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock. He was buried with military honors. Surviving is his wife.
Ballew and Phipps were brought to Clarendon to the Adair Hospital for treatment. Others injured were taken to Amarillo.
The two cars apparently met at high speed, striking each other about the left front wheels, side-swiped and skidded on past, coming to rest over 90 feet apart and each headed the opposite direction to which it was travelling when the collision occurred.
Ballew was enroute home from Amarillo where he had picked up Phipps. The five CCC boys, whose homes are in Amarillo, were enroute to Amarillo to spend the week-end with their families.
Both cars were completely demolished, Ballew's automobile catching fire soon after the occupants had extricated themselves.

Donley County Wins Many Fair Premiums

Donley County had a creditable exhibit at the Tri-State Fair in Amarillo this week, displaying a large variety of vegetables and farm products.
Causing more comment from spectators than perhaps any other product on exhibit in a county booth was the tobacco which is raised annually by P. A. Buntin in the garden of his Clarendon home.
Donley County citizens winning prizes on their products were Nelse Robinson, sunflower; Jess Cornell, white dent corn; John T. Sims, millet; H. M. Breedlove, native prairie hay; H. M. Breedlove, beans; Nelse Robinson, pumpkin; H. M. Breedlove, watermelon; T. B. Downing, cream peas; Frank Hardin, cantaloupe; Nelse Robinson, peaches.

WAR DRAWS CLOSER

The actual outbreak of war between Italy and Ethiopia will shortly take place. The Italian preparations, consisting of the transportation of men and supplies, have been going on recently at quicker pace.

The attitude of the Italian Dictator, Mussolini, to the efforts of the League of Nations to avoid the war has been quite positive and followed so far with no serious obstacle from the other nations. Il Duce does not hesitate to declare a firm decision to occupy Ethiopian country, regardless of opposition.

The League of Nations is considering the situation and taking very deliberate action. Many observers believe, however, that the actual outbreak of war will cause the League to definitely set in motion other steps to restrain the Italians. The League, however, is handicapped by the fact that the large powers are divided as to what should be done.

The prospects of trouble between Italy and Great Britain are somewhat alarming. The British are not apt to view with favor the establishment of a powerful Italian naval and military base east of the Suez, in a position to interfere with British trade to India and the Orient. When the British began strengthening their forces in the Mediterranean the reply of the Italians was to concentrate submarines and airplanes opposite Malta.

British prestige has been challenged by the unilateral act of Italy. It may not come immediately but sooner or later the British will see to it that the world understands that the British Navy intends to predominate in the Mediterranean and over the Indian trade routes.

LARGE TIDAL WAVE

The public generally regrets the heavy toll of life taken on the Florida Keys by the recent hurricane. The death of several hundred war veterans, who had been concentrated in camps, caused President Roosevelt to send two men to make an investigation of circumstances and to ascertain if anybody was responsible for the disaster.

These officials, Aubrey Williams, Assistant F.E.R.A. Administrator, and Colonel George E. Ijams, Assistant Veterans Administrator, visited Florida and conducted the inquiry. Their conclusion is that the tragedy was "an act of God" which was "beyond the power of man or instruments at his disposal to foresee sufficiently far enough in advance to permit the taking of adequate precautions."

It was brought out in the investigation that the assistant director of the camps on the Keys became alarmed a day and a half before a rescue train was actually sent to evacuate the veterans. This train while enroute to the location of the camps was overturned and wrecked by a huge tidal wave which accompanied the storm.

Of course, it is very easy to criticize after the event. As was well said by Mr. Williams, "this is a case in which the best wisdom is hind-wisdom. I would not have done any different from those in charge at the time." The investigators declared that "the loss of life and damage in the hurricane was caused principally by the tidal wave, which is reported to have reached the height of 18 feet. Such tidal waves occur very rarely and one of this height has not been experienced within the memory of Key residents."

DO YOUR TRADING AT HOME

The commercial growth of a community depends largely upon the extent of the stocks kept by its merchants. People do not come to a town to buy what the merchants do not sell. No merchant can enlarge his stocks until there is a demand for the goods. Merchandise bought from peddlers fails to create any demand.

Every local citizen should buy everything at home that is possible. Dollars sent away by money orders, or checks, seldom get back to home circulation. The carpenter who buys his tools by mail seldom thinks that a better business for the hardware merchant might mean more building activity. Every man and woman, working for a living in Clarendon, depends upon the money kept at home for pay-day prosperity.

No wonder a hen gets discouraged at times. She never can find things just where she laid them.

What father would like most to get out of his new car is the rest of the family.

DEFECTIVE EYES HURT STUDENTS

There are some people in Donley County who dismiss glasses for the eyes as a fad or a hobby. They say that nearly everybody nowadays needs them but that they remember when very few people used them. They are correct, but they do not realize that when many of us forsook the fields and came indoors to work, using artificial light in our homes and reading much finer print that we began to do things that were not the custom in the old days.

There can be little doubt but that the changing system of living in the present era requires greater strain on the eye than that organ was in the habit of bearing. No wonder many of us have poor eyesight, resulting from strain or defective vision.

It is said that more than 2,000,000 school children suffer in their school work from improper vision. Very often students who fail to make the marks that their parents want them to make do so because of the condition of their eyes, which consciously, or unconsciously, cause the pupil not to like to study.

The point of all this is that somewhere in this county there may be a child, berated for indolence or ignorance, when the fault lies with the parents who have not realized the need of correct vision and have allowed the little girl or boy to go to school improperly equipped. Instead of being blamed the little pupil should be comforted and the parents themselves censured.

Now, if by chance, some parent reads this article, and thinks of a child, and corrects the defective vision of the child then the space here used has not been wasted and we are glad to be able to call attention to the matter.

STRONGER BANKS

Not the least of the encouraging signs of the times is the sustained improvement in the banking situation. The last federal reports covering the first six months of 1935 show only 14 failures, involving deposits of only $2,700,000. This compares with 683 failures, involving total deposits of $420,000,000, in the first six months of 1931, and 816 failures, involving deposits of $489,000,000, in the first half of 1932. No comparable figures are available for 1933 and 1934, due to the general banking holiday in the former year and the subsequent reopening only of the strongest. Even during so prosperous a period as the first half of 1929, there were 365 bank failures, with total deposits of $103,000,000.

This remarkable reduction of failure figures demands explanation outside the field of general business conditions. Several factors contributed. One, of course, was the fact that most of the weaker institutions had been eliminated by the drastic shaking-out early in 1933. Success of the Federal Deposit Insurance plan was another. More than 14,000 banks with aggregate deposits of nearly $40,000,000,000, with 98 per cent under insurance, are now members of the FDIC. Meantime, the position of all banks has been greatly strengthened by the marked recent improvement in the value of their bonds, real estate and other assets.

This last factor has aided, also, in the further reorganization or liquidation of banks which were not permitted to reopen after the 1933 holiday. When banks were reopened in April of that year, the number held closed was 4,215, and their deposits aggregated nearly $4,000,000,000. The number still unlicensed is now only 68, and the amount of deposits still "frozen" is less than 1 per cent of the aggregate deposits of the banking system as a whole. All the other banks reopened, merged with stronger banks, or placed in liquidation.—Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

It's about time for the new calendars to begin to appear.

People still insist on trying to beat the engines to the crossings.

Odd But True By Anderson

Do You Remember Way Back When? FROM OUR EARLY FILES

From the Files of Sept. 9, 1920

Clarendon College will begin its twenty-fourth annual session September 14th with the brightest prospects. Already the enrollment is larger than ever before. Conservative estimates place the total at 500.

While crossing the street opposite the Cash & Carry Grocery Tuesday afternoon, Claude, the twelve year old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Price who reside on the Bennett & Sims farm north of town, was run down by a car driven by R. S. Moss. Faulty brakes was said to be the cause of the accident.

Due to the persistent efforts of the mayor by threats of injunction and devious other methods covering a long period, the Denver road began to fill up the historic old lake bed south of the depot today. Bathers, boaters and fishers viewed the action with extreme alarm.

There is always a reward to the long-suffering. That reward came to the citizens of Clarendon the past week when the local light plant put into operation a new engine. We now enjoy a full 24 hour light service for the first time in many months.

The following is a list of the public school teachers for the coming year: J. E. Nelson, Supt.; K. C. East, Miss Lorine Scott, Miss Stella D. Warren, Miss Eula Jackson, Miss Ruby Lu Harrison, Mrs. K. C. East, Miss Nancy Chrisman, Miss Ione Read, Miss Nancy Potter, Miss Elizabeth Stevens, Miss Mary Lumpkin, Miss Clara Chrisman, Miss Maud Shaw, Miss Mary Cooke, Miss Frances Cooke, and Miss Foy Rogers.

The boiler for the $20,000 heating plant of the college arrived Saturday.

Cleveland Hayter, formerly a merchant of Conway, has moved to this city and formed a partnership with Dubbs brothers realty company.

Homer Ellis of Lelia Lake has accepted a position with the Farmers State Bank.

Bob Baird, who punches cattle on the JA's, happened to a series of accidents during the week. While branding calves he had a finger almost jerked off by a rope, later was badly bitten by a calf. Nor was this all. He now has a large carbuncle on his face to help keep the other miseries company.

From the Files of Sept. 10, 1925

The News has been informed of the death of W. J. Parsons, pioneer citizen of this city, in Oklahoma City, Wednesday. Burial was in Clarendon.

J. E. Nelson, superintendent of public schools for the past five years, turned in his resignation to the Clarendon school board the fore part of the week. Mr. Nelson leaves the Clarendon school to take a position with the newly formed extension of the University of Texas at San Antonio.

Announcement was made the fore part of this week by the city council that the White Way of the city was to be extended to the front of the high school party in the south part of the city. Four new standards will be placed on the grounds and will light them in an admirable manner.

Dr. Lanham, representing the state department of health, was in the city last week and for some days made the rounds of the city testing the milk cows of the town and surrounding county adjacent to the city. The work was done in compliance to the state law requiring this work to be done and on call of Dr. B. L. Jenkins, county and city health officer.

Manager O. L. Fink of the Clarendon Telephone Company has been engaged this week in the installation of a new section of cable in the eastern part of the city down Second Street.

District Attorney Beville left Monday morning for Childress, where the term of district court opened the fore part of this week. Kelly Chamberlain left Sunday for Sherman where he will attend Austin College.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Ramsey of San Antonio visited friends here the past week-end.

Workmen were busily engaged the fore part of this week in finishing the concrete work of the ditch that runs to the rear of Main Street in the city of Clarendon. The work has been in progress for the past few weeks and has been rushed to an early completion on account of the damage that might be done to the walls of the ditch should further heavy rains fall before the work could be completed.

According to the report of Frank Houston, manager of the light plants of Clarendon, Hedley, Memphis and Childress, the high line work is progressing as nicely, as could be expected. To date about 10 miles of the line has been completed.

LIBRARY NOTES (By Mrs. C. A. Burton)

No novelist of the present day has a stronger hold on the American public than Booth Tarkington with his many stories which depict widely varied phases of our American life. Of these none has been more popular than his Pulitzer Prize winner of 1922, "Alice Adams." True to the present tendency in filmdom, this story is being presented as an unusual attraction on the screen today. It is said to be the most faithful translation since "David Copperfield," with Catherine Hepburn as "Alice." To many of us Catherine Hepburn will always be "Jo" in "Little Women." So different are the two characters that we find it difficult to picture her as "Alice."

The story is described by one critic as "the grim and competent novel which is a saga of small town snobbery." It is a cruelly frank discussion of what is to the Adams family the most tremendous problem in the world—how Alice, the young daughter of a $40 a week family, can keep afloat when out of her depth in the social seas. The story makes very vivid the frantic struggle of the socially ambitious mother, of whom the daughter is a true prototype. They are not merely everyday types, but everyday people with a tug at your heart-strings even while you find yourself provoked and irritated at their utter futility. This story, with a large number of Tarkington's other books, is on our shelves.

Anne Douglas Sedgwick, whose story, "The Little French Girl" instantly became a best seller on its publication a few years ago, died the latter part of July at Hampstead, England, at the age of sixty-two. She was an American, born in Englewood, New Jersey, of New England parents, but the family moved to England when she was only nine and she spent the rest of her life there. In private life she was Mrs. Basil de Selincourt. She was the author of 20 notable novels, four of which we have, "Philippa," "The Old Corentess," "Adrienne Toner," and "The Little French Girl."

Glenway Wescott whose best seller, "The Grandmothers," brought him into prominence, has returned home to the United States after a six week's tour of Europe. He is working on a new novel, "Deadly Friend," which will be published next spring, and will be his first book in three years. He says it is "a psychological love story" with its setting in New York where he now makes his home. He was born on a farm in Wisconsin in 1901. His family were anxious for him to become a minister, but his personal ambition was to be a musician. He became interested in literature while in college, his first interest being in poetry. His first novel was published in 1924. Since then he has lived much in France. "The Grandmothers" won the Harper Prize in 1928. "It is a family album in which each chapter is a portrait and each portrait a mirror of the days of his grandfather and grandmother. It is a presentation of the young American's attitude toward the background of America, the history of America, the love of the soil, and the feeling of belonging to America." Wescott has written several other books, but "The Grandmothers" is the only one we have in the library.

Mary Ellen Chase, author of "Mary Peters," has recently returned from a year's stay in England, bringing back the manuscript for a new novel, "Silas Crockett," which she will have published sometime this fall. While in England she lived in Rupert Brooke's Grantchester house near Cambridge.

The Harper Prize for 1934-35 was won by H. L. Davis for a first novel, "Honey in the Horn." It is a story of Oregon, and is said by one reviewer to be rather a complicated story.

Golfers are crowding the course daily to get in as many rounds as possible before old man winter wins the final match, with the completion of the tournament schedule, news is rather scarce, and while there are exceptionally good scores turned in, I am going to give everybody a rest. However Ira Merchant deserves mention for one of the most consistent rounds of 17 pars and one birdie, for an 18 hole medal of 71.

With the installation of lights for the football field, Clarendon schools have taken a decided step in the advancement of sports. The proposed $9,600 WPA project calls for beautification of the athletic field and building new tennis courts; which includes everything but golf. Golf, as a major sport, has spread to the Panhandle in the last few years. School heads, realizing its benefits are quick to adopt it in the schools. Golf affords the less vigorous pupils exercise in a milder form in the fresh air and sunshine. It teaches concentration in the most trying conditions, gentlemanly sportsmanship, and how to accept defeat, and to try harder for the next victory.

At The First Baptist Church

THERE IS ALWAYS WORSHIP—FELLOWSHIP—SERVICE

Maybe you have noticed it, too, the happiest people are also the busiest. Entirely too many Christians are looking for parking places in the church. The church is not a safety zone for pious people, but a place to work in the Master's vineyard. Paul's favorite picture of the Christian was that of a fighting man; one clad in the whole armour of God, ready to fight sin on every hand. If the Lord should courtmartial his soldiers for being absent without leave a great many Christians would be in court Monday morning. Nor do I believe that the penalty would be suspended. The church is both a school and an army, and can do little with absentees. No instructor can make scholars out of truants. No general can win a war with deserters. Let every Christian be in their place next Sunday morning and offer themselves for service. One trouble with the world today is that laziness is so seldom fatal. Be busy for Christ and you will be a happy Christian. The Sunday evening service at the Baptist Church will begin promptly at 7:30. This service will be for the benefit and in the interest of those who are not Christians. Bring your friends and neighbors and loved ones who are not Christians and let's try to show them the way of eternal life. The hour for the Training Service is 8:30. Mr. John Taylor is our new director, and earnestly solicits your presence and help in this his new undertaking. J. Perry King, Pastor.

CAMPUS DIRT

What boy coming in on one of the buses wears garters? We know but we are not going to tell. He lost one of them the other day and we saw it; that is how we came to know about it. He seems perfectly normal in other ways.

Norris Dewey, Jimmie Lee Cole, and Marvin Baker went to Amarillo Sunday to see the fair. They were not a little surprised to find that they had gone a day too early.

You may have already heard that (you were sound sleepers if you did not hear it), but the Palo Durans had a hayless hayride last Saturday night. Everyone reported having a nice time except Charlie Murphy. He fell off the wagon when he stood up to sing the national anthem.

We heard someone make the suggestion that the school should take up a donation to carry Mr. Drennan back to Old Virginia so that we can sing some other songs in chapel.

Some of the Clarendon girls might learn a thing or two from the Lelia Lake girls. Have you noticed that practically every one of them has a diamond ring or a gold watch or both? Come on and let us in on your secret, girls.

The chemistry students had their first laboratory period last Thursday. The experiment was to bend glass. Everyone seemed to get along all right—only a few got more burned fingers than others.

We nominate Junior Swift for chief rooster on the Goofus Nest. He went into the library one day last week and asked for an elastic book. Miss Parten finally figured out that he meant a scholastic book.

PEEK-A-BOO

By PEEK

(Editor's Note: This column, which was so popular last year is being taken up where it was dropped by its former writer, Wanda Mayfield, by a new columnist, whose identity you may guess.)

Irrelevant thoughts: Wilson Kutch talking in class. Mary Frances Dewey conscientiously plying her powder puff. Harold Hamms and Homer Estlack seeking a sponsor for the Alpha Delta Psi. Charlie Murphy's eloquent hands. Avis Lee learning to pronounce French.

All you lads and lassies tuck your tender spots under a wing to toughen, because the ever gracious Parten has removed my source of material, and even a new columnist must have something to scribble about, you know.

That mysterious bracelet on Ardis Patman's ankle arouses one question in the mind of this honorable writer, where did he find a bracelet large enough to put on his ankle? Been to see some Cannibal maiden, Ardis?

Our dear editor learned that everyone loves kittens, even black ones, but not enough to adopt them. Everyone is as well supplied as he.

The Palo Durans may call a hayless hayride a hayride, but Peek chooses to call it a blanket ride. I have even heard of stiff joints.

Information desired: Where are the demure Swift's thoughts when she gazes absently out the window? What is all this scandal about the Dewey girl being engaged to some lad in Dallas? Was it really fear when the little girl asked Alex to light her gas in the chemistry lab?

Carnival Manager—Where's the "Human Fly" today? He seems to be missing.

Helper—He can't perform today. His wife swatted him.

Teacher—What is velocity.
Student—It's what a person puts a hot plate down with.

Membership in the American Federation of Labor has increased to approximately 3,500,000, while membership in company unions has increased to over 2,500,000.

Bronchos Will Try To Tame Claude Mustangs Friday

The Clarendon High School Bronchos will open their season Friday, September 20, in a game with Claude. This game will be played here at 3:30 in the afternoon, whereas the remainder of the games on the schedule will be played at 8 p. m. under the football lights. Admission for this game will be 25 cents.

The schedule for the conference and non-conference games of this season is given here:
Sept. 20, Claude at Clarendon.
Sept. 27, Wellington at Wellington.
Oct. 4, Shamrock at Clarendon.
Oct. 11, Groom at Clarendon.
Oct. 18, LeFors at LeFors.
Oct. 25, Mobeetie at Clarendon.
Nov. 1, Open.
Nov. 8, Memphis at Clarendon.
Nov. 15, McLean at Clarendon.
Nov. 22, Wheeler at Wheeler.

Congratulations To Coach Kerby

Mr. Kerby, athletic coach, should be complimented upon the success of his efforts to obtain a lighted football field. As was announced in The Clarendon News last week, the installation of the lights has already been started, and will probably be completed by October 1st. It was only through this man's efforts that the town as well as the school was convinced of the necessity of this lighting system. Its advantages have been brought to the ears of the public so many times during the past few months that no one could help but realize that the football team, which is one of the most effective means of advertising the school, has been given a new lease on life by this necessary improvement in the equipment of the ball park.

Palo Durans Enjoy Hayride Saturday

On Saturday evening at 8 o'clock approximately 20 members of the Palo Duro Society gathered at the college to go on a hayride. The horses were driven almost immediately to the hills south of town where a bonfire was made over which weiners were roasted in such quantity that they were not quite all eaten. For a short while after eating the more undignified members enjoyed the exciting game of two-deep, which at least helped to jostle down the surplus of food. The Palo Durans then rode around the outskirts of town for about two hours, singing and generally enjoying the beautiful moonlight night.

Those going on the ride were Sarah Virginia McGowen, Dorothy Powell, Avis Lee McElvany, Jimmie Lee Cole, Mary Frances Dewey, Geraldine Pratt, Ardis Patman, Sam Barrow, Arthur Chase, Woodrow Bulls, Harold Daniels, Norris Dewey, Wilson Kutch, Charlie Murphy, Lowell LaFon, and the sponsor, Miss Hall.

Annual Faculty Picnic Friday

The members of the Clarendon school board with their wives were hosts to the faculty of the local schools on Friday evening, September 13, at the Country Club. After a picnic supper of barbecued chicken, salads, cakes, pies, and coffee, Mr. O. C. Watson introduced members of the board, certain guests who have been instrumental in promoting the progress of Clarendon schools, and all the members of the faculty. Each person introduced responded with a short talk outlined by the presiding member of the board, and in this amusing manner the evening was passed.

The chicken barbecue picnic is an annual entertainment given to the teachers and is both a means of presenting the new teachers to their employers and an occasion for renewing and furthering previous acquaintances. It is an event looked forward to and enjoyed each year.

Officers Elected By Junior Class

The junior class had its first meeting of the year September 11. The following officers were elected for the year: president, Truett Behrens; vice president, Eugene Butler; secretary-treasurer, Verlin Martin; pep leaders, Reba Nichols and Charlie Murphy; reporter, Lillie Jewell Barnes; sergeant-at-arms, Truett Holtzclaw.

The members of the junior class that have attended school here before want to become acquainted with the new students that come in from the rural districts. It is hoped that both old and new students will band together so closely that this year will see the liveliest junior class in history.

Pep Squad Prepares For Broncho Season

The members of the pep squad met Monday afternoon to prepare for the games during the coming year, and more particularly for the game with Claude next Friday. All of the members of the pep squad, both boys and girls, are urged to be present at this game.

The group discussed the type of suits that they will use this year. Of course, they will be unable to have the suits ready in time for the first game. It was also announced that the pep squad has a number of the "Broncho" automobile reflectors which must be sold. Mrs. J. L. Kerby has been elected to serve as pep squad sponsor for the year. Naturally, as the wife of Coach Kerby, Mrs. Kerby is an enthusiastic rooter for all football games and is sure to be an energetic adviser for this season's pep squad.

PALO DURO SOCIETY YEARBOOK SHOWS VARIETY OF PROGRAMS

Travel, modern history, the short story, music, art, Greek mythology, and miscellaneous topics will provide material for an interesting study program during the 1935-36 school year by the members of the Palo Duro Society, according to information from the program committee.

Unusual variety and breadth of scope are promised by the members of the yearbook committee who have spent the past week in an effort to plan programs that would be interesting as well as educational. The results of their labors will be presented in attractive yearbooks which will contain a complete schedule of programs for each meeting until the final session on May 13.

The month of October will be devoted to programs featuring the forthcoming Texas Centennial. The first meeting on October 2, will include enough Texas history to provide a background for the subject; subsequent meetings deal with the statewide preparation and the exposition at Dallas.

In November the society members will study music. First music of the opera will be discussed, and following the discussions there will be a piano solo taken from an opera, the story of which has been included in the discussion. Classical and popular music will each be treated in a like manner. For greater variety miscellaneous programs have been chosen for December and January.

Senior Class Has Meeting Tuesday

The senior class of 1935-36 met Tuesday, September 17, after school to select their invitations and cards for commencement at the end of the year. After a long session, the class finally decided upon an attractive invitation which will be bought from The Clarendon News. It will have a light cream background and the paper will have a silky texture. The cards, of which there will be two different styles, will also be bought from this newspaper.

The senior rings, the first shipment of which was ordered shortly before the end of school last year, will be available to the members of the class as soon as everyone who put in an order last year brings their money.

Right Out Of The Air

By R F SERVICE. A single guest star appearance on Al Jolson's program, earlier this season, was all that Nella Goodelle needed to sell three sponsors on her desirability for their radio programs. The first of the three sponsors who auditioned the pretty singing-pianist signed her immediately to a long term contract which brings Miss Goodelle to the NBC network on a series all her own commencing Sept. 8. A rich contralto voice, capable of wide variations in style, plus the melodies of her rhythmical piano renditions should make Miss Goodelle's recitals one of the most popular new series of programs to take to the air this fall. Her broadcasts will immediately follow Walter Winchell's period. He resumes his gossip in his old Sunday night period beginning September 1.

time, and capably directed, combine to give topnotch dramatic productions. Barry McKinley, youthful star of the "When Dreams Come True" broadcasts, has seen more than 50,000 letters come in on his program in the last five weeks. Yet the modest singer says he believes most of them are from women interested in the contest in which his sponsor is offering $1,000 a year for life as first prize. Connie Gates, dark eyed CBS songstress, has proven that a singer can change her style of delivery. When she came in from Cleveland several years ago, she was "typed" as a ballad singer, but when program creators demanded edgy tunes, she tossed aside the slow numbers and is now adding zip to the airwaves with her fast-moving dance tunes. And making good at it, too!

LAST RITES HELD FOR MRS. BOWEN

WIFE OF FORMER METHODIST PASTOR BURIED AT LAMESA TUESDAY.

Funeral services for Mrs. E. B. Bowen were held Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the First Methodist Church of Lamesa by the Reverend M. C. Pearce...

The body was laid to rest in the Lamesa Cemetery under a mound of floral offerings from friends throughout the state.

Mrs. Bowen, 47, wife of Reverend E. B. Bowen, pastor of the Clarendon First Methodist Church from 1930 until 1934, passed away Monday morning at 8 o'clock at her home in Lamesa where Rev. Bowen is pastor of the Methodist Church. She died of a heart attack.

Edna Bowen was born in Dallas and was married there July 11, 1905 to E. B. Bowen.

Mrs. Bowen's death was as serenely quiet and beautiful as the life she lived. Though in ill health for some time, Mrs. Bowen had been confined to her bed less than a week.

The deceased made a large number of friends during her four years in Clarendon. In the church, she worked together with Reverend Bowen, always putting first things first. She held a position of prominence in civic and social affairs of Clarendon, though never neglecting her church work for outside activities.

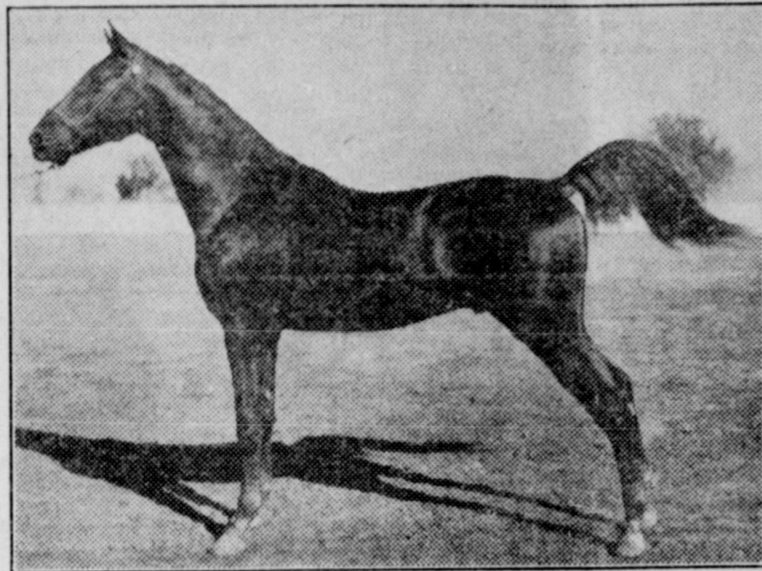

Survivors are her husband, Rev. Bowen; two daughters, Mrs. Clyde Naylor of Pampa and Mrs. Jack Rogers of Happy; a son, E. B. Bowen, Jr. of Silverton; and three grandchildren, Bobby Stark of Pampa; and Jack and Bill Bowen Rogers of Happy. Other survivors include several brothers and sisters.

Clarendon people to attend the last rites were D. R. Davis, Mrs. J. T. Patman, Mrs. W. A. Clark, Jr., Miss Lotta Bourland, Reverend E. D. Landreth, Mrs. John Blocker, Mrs. Cliff Chastain, John Blocker, Jr., and Miss Loree Ham.

Mrs. A. J. Parker and Thomas Perkins spent Sunday in Quanah visiting their mother, Mrs. T. J. Perkins.

Mrs. S. T. Sayre and Mrs. Cliff Chastain of Mineral Wells visited several days this week at the John Blocker ranch.

Clarendon King

Clarendon King, a three-year-old saddle horse owned by Judge S. W. Lowe, was given first place by the judges at a recent Saddle Horse Show in Amarillo.

Clarendon King is a good example of the fine breed of saddle horses in Donley County. Dr. Harry A. Burns of Tulsa, Oklahoma, who is recognized as one of the best judges of fine saddle horses in this country made the following statement concerning this particular young horse.

Lions Club Holds Regular Meeting

The Clarendon Lions Club held its regular meeting Tuesday afternoon in the Antro Hotel.

Lion Kerby called attention to the football game to be played here Friday afternoon with Claude, and urged a good attendance.

President Caraway reported that a telegram of condolence had been sent to Rev. E. B. Bowen, a former member of the local organization, upon the death of his wife.

Lion Watson reported that a wagon had been delivered to a crippled boy.

The program for the day was in charge of the finance committee Lions Patrick, Patman and Chamberlain. Lion Patman called attention to the comparatively small club of membership in the Lions Club and explained how the dues were divided between local and international.

Lion Patrick commented on the splendid financial condition of the club, praising the budget system and giving credit to all the committees and members for their cooperation. He stressed the vital importance of luncheon clubs to a community.

SHERIFF WARNS AGAINST WINDOW PEEPERS IN CITY

During the past week, several Clarendon citizens have been molested by "Peeping Toms." Sheriff Guy Pierce issued a warning Tuesday asking all citizens who find persons trespassing on their property to summons members of the sheriff's department immediately.

"The law allows one to protect his home," stated Sheriff Pierce, "and if necessary, a gun may be used to protect the home."

Lecture On—

Quoting Mr. Pillers, who held the court room, its jury box, windows, and halls packed with farmers eager to hear the lecture, intent upon his words, "The purpose of this meeting is to acquaint the farmers with what has been done, what is being done, and what is contemplated in the future; to bring the true attitude of the government toward agriculture to the farmers; and to show the farmers of this district that they could use most effectively the advisory committee as a connection between the farmer and the national government."

"It is realized that the attacks that are now being waged against the farm program are coming from sources other than the actual producer. It is also realized that this fight will be won or lost in the farmer's or local business man's mind. It is realized that a very inequitable condition exists when the farmer has to sell his products on an unprotected world market and then buy on a market that is protected by industry's protective tariff."

"The purpose of the agriculture adjustment act as set forth in the act itself is to place agriculture on an equal basis with other industries. The government efforts in cooperating with the farmer have been to reduce production and also reduce the heavy surplus and at the same time increase the buying power of the consuming farmer and public, bringing about a more balanced condition between supply and the man. Farmers themselves realize that it is a waste of natural soil resources to produce more than can be consumed at a profitable price. As long as industry and agriculture maintain their prices at any elastic levels, farmers believe that it will be necessary for them to control production in such a way as to cause their products to be a fair and equitable price."

"The attitude of the farmers as expressed in this meeting is unanimously in support of the present program as has also been manifest at all other meetings held," according to Mr. Pillers. "The same attitude was manifest at the Washington conference from the large group of farmers from every state that produces cotton. It has been my pleasure to observe the manifest determination of the farmers to defend this program against the attacks of those of non-agricultural interests, realizing that this is the first real recognition that a farmer has had in our federal government."
