EDITOR'S CORNER

Often there is little of interest to write about in this column, but occasionally I find a few items that might prove interesting to someone...

On inquiring of Dean Drennan in the office last week, I found that the college enrollment now stands at the all high total of one hundred and twenty-five students.

There were several new students to enroll with the beginning of the second semester. Among these are Arvin White, Chillicothe; Edward Smith, Memphis; Wilburn Lynch, formerly of McLean; Byrdine Wallis, Memphis; Alma Avery, and Eugenia Noland.

Walking by the tennis courts every day, I can't help but wish that some good "upstanding gentlemen" would be so kind as to sink posts and put up nets on the courts. The courts might well be rolled and lined off, also.

It will not be long, however, before practice will begin for the annual interscholastic league meet which is scheduled for April 10th and 17th.

C.J.C. STUDENTS FORM TENNIS ASSOCIATION

C.J.C. students interested in playing tennis this coming semester met in the auditorium Monday and at the suggestion of Mr. Kerby decided to form a College Tennis Association.

The organization will soon attempt to improve the condition of the courts by rolling and laying them off and putting them in playing condition. After some practice, matches will be made with a few of the neighboring colleges and possibly other terms.

PITCHES FROM THE BRONCHO

They are with us again! We mean the sandstorms. Since they seem inclined to be a weekly rather than daily occurrence, however, we may be able to stand them a little better.

The football boys' sweaters have arrived at last, and the boys are certainly strutting. A few of the boys who already had two sweaters which were plenty for them and their girls both, got leather jackets with the maroon and white insignia and the number of stripes indicated on them.

The girls certainly got Mary Charlotte Wood down the other day. Her suede jacket shows the results in a big way.

In a bad spot: The students who cannot go into the library but who are required to do outside reading there.

All newspaper articles to the contrary, the Curtain Club has not met yet. Dorothy McCormick wishes that meeting would be held when scheduled for she's tired of writing up meetings to be only to have them postponed.

The Seniors apparently have a president who stands up for the class as a whole, and refuses to let committees rule it. We compliment him on his action in putting the selection of officers for the annual class to a vote of the class, for the annual is the publication of the whole class and should represent the desires of the majority.

Hints that spring is just around the corner are seen in the many printed and light colored suits and dresses being worn. Some of

C.H.S. BRONCHOS RECEIVE SHIPMENT OF SWEATERS

The Clarendon High School Bronchos received a shipment of football sweaters on Monday of this week.

The sweater is a very attractive one; it is of the usual maroon color with a large white "C" bordered by a maroon edge on a white surface, thus showing it up well against the maroon background.

C.H.S. boys receiving sweaters and were lettermen of the '36-'37 Broncho squad are Cornell, Holtzclaw, McGowan, McCleeny, Noble, Robinson, Slavin, Cooke Grady, Murphy. Others on the squad who did not buy sweaters were Rolls, Butler, Watters, and Cole.

BAND NEWS

It will be only a few weeks now before C.H.S. band members will be equipped with new uniforms. The Band Parents Association is making a very spirited drive for funds with which to purchase the uniforms.

There was no band practice Monday night, as Band Director Ray Robbins was in charge of music at the Annual Chamber of Commerce banquet.

Among those to leave during the Christmas holidays were Arline Goodson and Everett Parker. The two were very much liked by their class mates.

From the number of songs of the more sentimental type and the way they are making the Hit Parade, people must like the dreamy sort better than the jazzy swing music.

Texas Planning Board statistics estimate that the 1937 Texas crop of grapefruit will be 6,790,000 boxes out of a national crop of 27,523,000 boxes.

Assistant Attorney General R. A. Stolt has been assigned to help the Texas Planning Board redraft sections of the Texas mining laws which tend to discourage the prospecting for minerals.

HOW TO SUCCEED

The following formula is said to be a good one, by which to make "A" while in school. Sift well the value of A's and cut into small pieces six dances, two theater parties, and one dozen correspondences.

POSTSCRIPTS

Jessie May Lynch ran into a telephone post and now she's wearing a disguise. A patch across the upper lip is a result of Tuesday's escapade.

Lois Marie Taylor is another young lady—"Gone With the Wind". Ben Hill is the wind.

Lucky stiff, that Billy Patman! He was exempted in everything! Dwight Tombs visited back in dear old C.H.S. recently.

Among those to leave during the Christmas holidays were Arline Goodson and Everett Parker.

Gold, silver, copper and lead mined in Texas last year had a gross value of $1,141,573, compared with $781,614 in 1935.

MEN OF COLLEGE GO IN FOR PIPES

The main object of interest to members of the masculine sex at present is not football, basketball, exams, or girls.

Wesley Powell, who is a connoisseur of smoking tobacco and pipes, recently purchased from a mail-order house a nice shiny pipe for thirty-nine cents.

OUR BOOK SHELF

With the January 1937 issue, Scribner's Magazine celebrates its fiftieth anniversary.

The change of styles shown in the article When Broadway Was the Avenue by Katherine Kent seems more acute than any other change.

were not to publish any competing material for five years. At the end of the prescribed prohibition in 1887, Scribner's Magazine came into being.

The first article in the jubilee number, Fifty Years of Scribner's Magazine, by Frederick Allen, not only gives the progress of the magazine alone, but it accurately describes America, its society, its governmental policies, its literature, and many other items of interest during the period from 1887 to 1937.

Glancing through the pages of the magazine one's notice is attracted by the names of such authors as: Bret Harte, Stephen Crane, Laul Leicester Ford, Edith Wharton, John Galsworthy, Ernest Hemingway, and many others.

Pathfinder Reception Marks Twenty-Sixth Year of Club

The twenty-sixth anniversary of the Pathfinder Club was observed Friday afternoon with the most brilliant social of the year, a reception held in the home of Dr. and Mrs. B. L. Jenkins from three-thirty until five-thirty o'clock.

Guests were received by Mrs. Jenkins, hostess, Mrs. Nathan Cox, president, and Mrs. Joe Goldston, president-elect. Mrs. Jenkins wore an afternoon frock of sheer figured chiffon and Mrs. Cox and Mrs. Goldston wore becoming formal gowns of green. Each member of the Pathfinder Club assisted in entertaining and were gowned in lovely afternoon frocks. Mrs. Charles T. McMurtry was general chairman for the reception.

Mrs. C. A. Burton and Mrs. Wm. Grey presided over the book where the guests registered. Bouquets of carnations and greenery in graceful arrangements adorned the living room where an interesting and varied program was presented under the direction of Mrs. U. J. Boston and Mrs. Simmons Powell.

Throughout the entertainment a maritime theme was carried out. Introductory to the program, Misses Athlyn Drennan and June McMurtry, dressed in white and blue sailor suits of satin, tap danced. Little Miss Juanita Carpenter and Master Jimmy Dean Howze entertained with a character and tap dance, with Mrs. J. D. Howze at the piano. Accompaniment to all other dance numbers was played by Mrs. Allen Bryan. Mrs. E. D. Landreth pleasingly sang Lohr's "Little Grey Home in the West", with Mrs. J. L. McMurtry at the piano. A piano solo, "Valse Caprice" by Newland was played by Bobby Leathers and Mrs. Frank White, Jr., read "Patterns".

One of the outstanding features on the afternoon's program was readings by Miss Thessia Webb, program guest from Hedley. Miss Webb, during the first hour of the reception read "The Last Leaf" by O'Henry with a Scotch dialect poem, "And She Liked Him Real Well" as an encore number. During the last hour of the program, she read, "Fight the Good Fight" by Alice Garland Steel and another Scottish dialect number, "Drap of Dew". Two dance numbers, novelty taps, were given by little Miss Margaret Ann Jenkins, who was attired in a suit of red and white velvet.

The College Quartet, composed of Alfred Hott, Bobby Leathers, Hugh Baker, and Frank Mahaffey, delightfully sang, "Kentucky Babe" with Miss Mary Howren playing the accompaniment.

Miss Geraldine Clayton, cleverly costumed in black taffeta shorts, danced a novelty rhythm tap number and Mrs. Frank White, Jr., gave two readings, "Man" by Lola Patterson and "Company is Coming", following which Mrs. E. D. Landreth sang two soli, "Let Me Live in the House by the Side of the Road" from Foss, and "My Heart is a Haven" by Hall. Concluding the program was a dance specialty by Misses June McMurtry and Athlyn Drennan.

Guests were invited to the dining room for tea, where a clever maritime arrangement was used. A large silver ship on a blue reflector centered the lace-covered dining table. Water lilies, in shades of pink, were placed on the large blue reflector and the room was lighted with blue tapers in silver holders. The tapers were placed at vantage points on the table. Misses Athlyn Drennan, June McMurtry Phoebe Ann Buntin, and Jean Thompson were dressed in satin sailor suits of white and blue and assisted in serving. Presiding over the services were Mesdames E. D. Landreth and Thomas S. Barcus during the first hour and Miss Willard Clayton and Mrs. R. E. Drennan during the last hour.

Plate favors were tiny blue and white ships, placed on a blue card, with white engraving—"Pathfinders, 1937."

Out-of-town guests present were Mrs. J. W. Webb, Miss Thessia Webb, Hedley; Mrs. D. J. Barnett; Mrs. A. J. Montgomery, Miami; Mrs. B. L. Jenkins, Jr., and Master Britt Jenkins, Amarillo; Mrs. W. C. Dickey, Memphis; Miss Lotta Bourland, Lamesa; and Mrs. C. L. Craig, Binger.

More than 150 were present for the occasion.

Among those from Clarendon who went to Amarillo Tuesday to see "Romeo and Juliette" were Mr. and Mrs. George Ryan, Mesdames C. G. Stricklin, C. T. McMurtry, J. L. McMurtry, Mr. and Mrs. Meredith Gentry, and Misses Anna Moores and June McMurtry.

PRESIDENT-ELECT

MRS. JOE GOLDSTON

Mrs. Goldston was elected as president of the Pathfinders for the club year of 1937-1938. Mrs. Goldston is the thirtieth president of this club, which was federated in 1911 and is among the oldest clubs of the Panhandle.

Wellington Couple Marry In City

Miss Frances McNeal and Mr. A. B. Clark, both of Wellington were married here Saturday evening at 7 o'clock at the parsonage of the First Baptist Church. The Reverend J. Perry King, pastor, read the ceremony.

Attending the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Baten of Brice.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. McNeal of Clarendon, was dressed in blue crepe with accessories of black. Mrs. Clark has made her home in Wellington for the past year, where she was training in the Wellington Hospital.

The young couple will live in Wellington.

Baptist Class Has Entertainment

The Dorcas-Alathean Sunday School Class of the First Baptist Church held its regular monthly meeting and social Thursday in the home of Mrs. Olin Bain with Mesdames G. V. Sherman and Ralph Keys as assistant hostesses.

Mrs. H. T. Burton, teacher of the class, was present. After a business meeting, linens were made for the Adair Hospital. Dainty refreshments were served to Mesdames H. T. Burton, Sam Cauthen, Leslie Carlile, Ralph Andis, U. Z. Patterson, Ben Buck, J. Perry King, C. Huffman, Marvin Land, Walter Clifford, Ralph Keys, G. V. Sherman, and Olin Bain.

Mrs. Gentry Is Luncheon Hostess

Mrs. Sella Gentry was hostess to the 1912 Needle Club members and guests Thursday with a one o'clock luncheon at her home. Five Amarillo women were guests.

The dining table and small tables, where the guests were served a turkey luncheon, were attractive with centerpieces of Indian currants and corralberry.

During the afternoon, conversation and sewing was the order of entertainment.

Guests from Amarillo were Mesdames Willard Smith, DeGrassie, Pinkerton, Reeves, and Ida Atterbury. Clarendon guests were Mesdames Wm. Grey, Newton C. Smith and Odos Caraway, while club members present were Mesdames Ed Dishman, J. W. Evans, L. S. Bagby, A. L. Chase, A. A. Mayes, A. R. Letts, B. L. Jenkins, Homer Glascoe, J. T. Patman, W. B. Sims, C. W. Taylor, and the hostess, Mrs. Gentry.

Pastors Honored At Friendship Luncheon

Clarendon church pastors and their wives were honor guests Thursday at a one o'clock luncheon given by the members of the Friendship Club in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hayter.

A lovely turkey dinner was served from the large dining table, which was brightened with blooming pot plants. A color scheme of pink and green was used in the luncheon and place cards were in the spring motif. An array of blooming plants decorated the living room. Presiding over the coffee service was the hostess, Mrs. Hayter.

The invocation was given by the Reverend Newton C. Smith, rector of the Episcopal Church. Mrs. Skinner extended the welcome to the guests and each pastor and minister present responded with a toast.

Mrs. Robert E. Austin entertained with selected piano numbers during the luncheon and Mrs. E. D. Landreth gave a vocal solo.

Honor guests were Reverend and Mrs. Newton C. Smith from the Episcopal Church; Minister and Mrs. Robert E. Austin of the First Christian Church; Minister Wallace Layton from the Church of Christ; Mrs. E. D. Landreth and Mrs. Thomas S. Barcus from the First Methodist Church; Reverend and Mrs. J. Perry King from the First Baptist Church; and Reverend and Mrs. Robert S. McKee from the First Presbyterian Church. W. T. Hayter, the host, was present.

Friendship club members present were Mesdames L. Ballew, C. R. Skinner, Aileen Skinner, G. J. Teel, Bill Meaders, H. Tyree, U. S. Absher, M. E. Thornton, J. E. Mongole, J. W. Rowland, Eva Womack, Claude Lindsey, J. L. Allison, and W. T. Hayter.

Citizens May Meet At Clarendon News

Several repairs have been made in the front office of the Clarendon News recently, namely a new floor and new office equipment.

The office floor, deteriorated from water damage in years past, was replaced and a new covering of linoleum laid. A new desk has been added to the office equipment and a general re-arrangement has taken place.

Editor Braswell has reserved an office for committee meetings and a meeting place. Adequate desk space, chairs and writing materials, as well as typewriters will be furnished anyone who wishes to call a committee meeting or meeting of any sort at the News office. Because The News is centrally located, Editor Braswell invites townspeople to use this office.

Dewey Tom Heath Has Birthday

Dewey Tom Heath was eight years old Wednesday and celebrated the occasion with a birthday party.

His little friends were presented with balloons as favors upon arrival. Dewey Tom received birthday tokens from all present.

The afternoon passed quickly as the youngsters enjoyed games and contests conducted by his mother, Mrs. D. T. Heath. Margaret Ann Jenkins and Billy Ray Benard were winners in the contests.

Eight candles burned for Dewey Tom on a white cake which was served with other refreshments to little Misses Margaret Ann Jenkins, Melba Ruth Grady, Elise Norwood, Dorothy Jean Tatum, Ada Sue Smith, and Masters Manley Bryan, Max Keys, Billy Ray Bernard, James Wesley Palmer, Jimmy Douglas, and Billy Marvin Land.

Mrs. Sam Cauthen Is Bridge Hostess

Mrs. Sam Cauthen was hostess to members and guests of the Justamere Bridge Club on Monday evening at her home in the Griggs apartments.

Spring colors were used in the bridge appointments. In the games of auction, Miss Eugenia Noland won high score award. Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the games.

Guests present were Mesdames

George Norwood, Archie Watters, Joe Bownds, and Misses Berkeley Ryan and Thurzia Turner; Members present were Mesdames John McClelland, Lloyd Benson, Misses Paula Sanford, Evelyn Murphy, Vera Noland, Eugenia Noland, Jo Ella Stewart, and the hostess, Mrs. Cauthen.

Bishop and Mrs. E. Cecil Seaman and son, Henry, of Amarillo were guests yesterday of Reverend and Mrs. Newton C. Smith.

LIBRARY NOTES

(By Mrs. C. A. Burton)

Keep our second-hand magazines in mind—wonderful bargains in splendid reading matter. Our patronage is growing, but slowly. And if any of our friends have scientific magazines or late copies of the Readers' Digest to give us, we shall be glad to have them.

We added a few more books to our shelves the past week from another bargain list. Among them was "Junior and Senior Declamations" by Johnson. The state prize winning declamation last year was taken from this book. Another was "Milton's Paradise Lost" in the College Classic edition, and still another was "The Golden Stallion, an anthology of Southwestern verse edited by Mr. Bushby, himself a poet from Flagstaff, Arizona. Largely as a result of the Centennial, the interest in the history of the Southwest has grown, and it has come to be a recognized fact that most of the best poetry of the time is coming from this section.

Never again shall I see pictured an old-time sail boat without my mind going back to that splendid story by Mary Allen Chase, "Mary Peters". Those who have read it from our shelves will not forget its quiet charm. Harry Hansen in Harper's said of it, "New England courage—strength to face the trials of life and to make the most of those radiant moments that are touched with glamour—shines forth from "Mary Peters". This novel, written in a lovely prose that restores our faith in writing as a fine art, is comparable to a portrait painted by a master."

Because of this, I was especially happy to secure "Silas Crockett," Mary Ellen Chase's later book, which I have long wanted. This too, is a New England story, taking a family through four generations: handsome young Captain Silas Crockett in 1830; his son, Nicholas, first officer of a later ship; his grandson, Reuben, captain of a passenger steamer on the Maine coast, and his great-grandson, Silas, in 1930. Besides giving a vivid picture of the Crockett men, she skillfully depicts the woman whom they married and in so doing depicts the times in which they lived with its shifting scenes of New England life, the fine native qualities of its people. It is not only a story of the Crockett family, a story of adventure and heroism on deep water, but an absorbing character study.

Some of the classics of our literature are school stories. One thinks of the "Tom Brown" stories, of Dickens' school stories, and many others. Geoffrey Dennis has added another to this list in "Bloody Mary's", which we mentioned last week. One critic said he was rather dismayed when he found it was just a schoolboy biography, but by the time he had read fifty pages he pronounced it an unqualified gem. This same critic says, "It combines a vivid recreation of the schoolboy's subjective reactions with the grown man's assessment of his schoolboy self in a way that approaches miracle. I suppose that is why it is so amazingly actual." Geoffrey Dennis wrote "Mary Lee" in 1922, which has had reprintings; "The End of the World" which won the Hawthornden prize in 1930; a few others between, and then "Bloody Mary's" in 1933.

Perhaps no travel book is quite so well known as Richard Haliburton's "Royal Road to Romance." Those who have read and enjoyed the book will be interested to know that Mr. Haliburton is on a lecture tour which will bring him to Dallas in February. Hugh Walpole, E. M. Delafield, and P. L. Travers are among the English authors who are on lecture tours in this country at this time.

No post-war story was more popular than Eric Remarque's "All Quiet on the Western Front". As a result of this fact much interest is felt by the reading public in the statement that he will have a new book published this spring. It will be a story of Germany be-

Practices Entitling Ranchmen to Payment Under Range Conservation

College Station—Practices which will entitle ranchmen to payment under the range conservation program include deferred grazing from re-seeding ranges, contour listing, construction of terrace ridges, spreader terraces, spreader dams, earthen tanks, and reservoirs; establishment of fire guards; eradication of prairie dogs and kangaroo rats; and rescuing range land from prickly pear, cactus, cedar, mesquite, and lechuguilla.

Of special interest to range, pasture, and livestock specialists of the Extension Service is the provision for payment for re-seeding ranges by deferred grazing. Under this plan, up to 25 percent of the open range of ranch may be withheld from grazing for a period of six months, beginning May 1. Specialists pointed out that the rotation grazing had been advocated in the past as a means of re-establishing desirable grasses on range land.

Provision has been made for construction of range fences to permit deferred grazing. Officials in charge of the Texas program indicated that payments would be based on a range-building allowance" which establishes the limit on the amount of money which may be earned for carrying out range-building practices on individual ranches.

The practices for which payment will be made in connection with the range conservation program have been proved workable in government and by practical application on ranches.

Ben Hill made a business trip to Amarillo Monday. Miss Lotta Bourland of Lamesa has returned to make her home in Clarendon.

for the war, before the Nazi regime, and the title has not yet been decided on. Of course we have "All Quiet on the Western Front" on our shelves.

No English writer has done more for the cause of peace than Sir Philip Gibbs, who was given his title by the British government because of his brilliant war correspondence from 1914 to 1918. Since then he has become widely known as novelist, editor and lecturer. He has a new book which is a story of the White Russians, beginning with Sebastopol in 1916. The story covers twenty years and such characters as Grand Duchess Marie, Prince Matchabelli and many others give a sense of reality to the story. We do not have this new story, but we do have several others by Sir Philip Gibbs, as well as some by his two brothers who are residents of the United States, A. Hamilton Gibbs and George Gibbs. We had only three of Christopher Morley's books on our shelves—"Pernassus On Wheels," the Haunted Book Shop", and "Off the Deep End", so we were very glad to add "Swiss Family Manhattan."

The first published volume of the American Guide Series is "Idaho: A Guide in Word and Picture", which was published this month. It was prepared by the Idaho Writer's Project under the direction of Vardis Fisher and was a WPA project.

MIDWAY

(By Pearl Derrick)

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Stephenson moved to the farm where Mr. and Mrs. Gus Williams have lived for several years. Mr. and Mrs. Williams have moved to Sunnyview.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Williams, Miss Jane Williams and Mrs. J. A. Meaders shopped in Amarillo Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Naylor and Carl Naylor went to Wichita Monday afternoon to be with their father, T. L. Naylor, who has pneumonia in one lung.

Mr. and Mrs. Raybourn Smith and family visited in the John Goldston home Sunday afternoon. Harley Longan had the misfortune of finding his club calf dead in the stall Thursday morning, but for the untiring efforts of the County Agent and Mr. Puttman Sunday and Sunday night the boys would have lost another one. They thought it might be caused from feeding too rich feed.

Mr. and Mrs. Potter, Mrs. Ormie Harlen and Donald Harlen were callers in the Longan home Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Beach of Plainview spent the week-end in the Nelse Robinson home. Mrs. George Kettle from Wichita visited her brothers, John and Carl Naylor, several days last week. Description Of Panhandle Given

The following description of the Panhandle was taken from "State Press" of the Dallas News, January 9, 1887, and mentions the Clarendon News, one of the oldest papers in the State and the oldest in the Panhandle:

The Hardeman Mirror says of the region known as the Panhandle: The Panhandle proper is composed of 27 counties, and has a total area of 14,000 square miles, or 8,960,000 acres. Only three of these counties are organized, viz: Donley, Wheeler, and Oldham, and the other 24 counties are attached to these for

LELLA LAKE-CLARENDON CIRCUIT

W. T. Lackey, Pastor Following is the schedule of appointments for preaching at the several points on the circuit:

- 1st Sunday—Ashtola. 2nd Sunday—McKnight. Afternoon, 3 o'clock—Naylor. 3rd Sunday—Goldston. Morning and Afternoon. 4th Sunday—Lella Lake. Afternoon 3 o'clock—Naylor. All are invited to come and worship with us.

judicial purposes. There are only three towns in this vast country at the present writing (Dec. 25, 1886)—Clarendon in Donley, Mockett in Wheeler, and Tascosa in Oldham County, with a live newspaper published at each place. There is a country post office called Palo Duro in Armstrong County, Springer Ranch in Hemphill County, Lulu n Hansford County, Wheeler in Potter County, and Lipscomb in Lipscomb County. In the latter colony some enterprising genius has just started a weekly newspaper known as the Lipscomb Nester. It is estimated that there are only 5,000 people now occupying the Panhandle, but ere another 12 months this number will be greatly multiplied. Panhandle lands are in demand. Col. J. W. Lanem & Son, of Austin, sold 20,000 acres a few days ago for $30,000 cash. The Houston & Texas Central Railway Company sold 15,000 acres last week at $2.75 per acre.

I Mellinger left this week for Dallas, where he is attending spring market.

Funeral Service For Thomas Clark

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the First Baptist Church for Thomas Lee Clark, 68, who died suddenly at his home here Monday morning at 8 o'clock. A heart attack was the contributing cause of his death.

The Reverend J. Perry King, pastor, was in charge of the service and interment was in the Citizen's Cemetery with the Buntin Funeral Home officiating.

Pallbearers were J. H. Taylor, J. R. Dillard, T. L. Melton, John Carlile, G. J. Lane and Si Blackburn.

T. L. Clark was born January 30, 1868, in Kaufman County. He moved to Clarendon September 20, 1929. He was married to Miss Maggie June Gray on June 8, 1900 and to this union were born ten children, five boys and five girls, two of whom are deceased.

Survivors are his wife; five daughters, Mrs. Gracie Chaffin, Mrs. Ruby Henson of Aspermont, Mrs. Odessa Wendt and Mrs. Roberta Looney, Amarillo; and three sons, Claude Clark, Aspermont, Lester Clark, Kermit, and J. B. Clark, Clarendon. All members of the family were present for the last rites.

Relative of Mr. Behrens Buried

F. L. Behrens returned Wednesday morning from Dallas, where he attended the last rites of a brother, Herman Behrens, who died Sunday night. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon from the First Baptist Church in Garland.

Mr. Behrens, 64 years of age, was a prominent citizen of that section and a member of a pioneer family. For fifty-eight years the family lived on the tract of land where Buckner's Orphans Home now stands.

The deceased leaves a family of five children, eleven grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

RELATIVE OF MRS. GUY ANDIS IS IMPROVED

Last Saturday Ray Hermes-meyer was witness to a scene that was very pleasing to him. He drove out to the Guy Andis home and was met by Uncle Bob Couch who is Mrs. Andis' father. Uncle Bob has been blind for several years and Mr. and Mrs. Andis made it possible for cataracts to be removed from his eyes recently and now Uncle Bob can see again. Ray tells us that he was jumping around like a school boy and pointing out things that were pleasing to his eyes. Uncle Bob was proud of his returned eyesight for two reasons, first that he could now see beautiful women once more and second that he could see his favorite of all animals, the horse.—Groom News.

Rev. Austin Will Conduct Revival

Robert E. Austin, minister of the First Christian Church, will leave Monday for Fairview, Oklahoma, where he will conduct a three-week meeting. Mrs. Austin will accompany her husband and will play the piano for the song services.

The Reverend Austin will exchange pulpits with Gilbert Cays, minister at Fairview, who will be in Clarendon May 3, to conduct a meeting of two-weeks duration. During the absence of Rev. Austin, the pulpit will be filled on February 14 by his father, J. W. Austin of Childress. Although a layman, Mr. Austin is a frequent speaker in Panhandle pulpits and was formerly an evangelistic singer.

Accompanying Mr. Austin will be Elvin Watkins, also of Childress, who will have charge of the song services. Mr. Watkins is a graduate of Baylor and the New York Conservatory of Music. Mr. Austin is now superintendent of the Sunday School of Childress' First Christian Church.

Rev. Austin will be in his pulpit here again February 21.

Injuries Slight In Car Accident

Ross Spencer of Memphis sustained a broken arm and Howard Hall of San Francisco, California, suffered bruises and lacerations after a car accident occurring one and one-fourth miles east of Lelia Lake Tuesday night near 11:30 o'clock.

A pickup, occupied by J. H. Logston and E. L. Hartless of Lelia Lake stopped on the highway to render aid to Hall, who was changing a tire. A V8 driven by Chester Grimes and Ross Spencer of Memphis, crashed into the parked pickup. Dense fog obstructed Grimes' view and caused the accident.

The pickup was loaded with peanuts and pop corn and the wreck scene closely resembled a circus ground after the crash. Peanuts and pop corn were scattered in all directions from the smashed pickup.

Spencer was taken to Memphis where he was given treatment and Hall was brought here to the Adair hospital and released immediately after being given treatment for the cuts. Hall was injured in the accident as he stood by the side of the pickup when the V8 crashed into it. The V8 was demolished.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Mulkey attended the last rites of W. H. Dockery, held from the Griggs Funeral Chapel in Amarillo Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Mr. Dockery was an intimate friend of Mr. and Mrs. Mulkey.

Every farmer should see "Ace of Action" big free show at the Cozy Theatre Monday at 2:30.

Chas. Lowry left this morning for Fort Worth, where he will attend a Frigidaire meeting.

Faculty Changes Made This Week

Two changes have occurred in Donley County schools this week and Mrs. Evans of Texas Technological College arrived Monday to teach the first grade of the Clarendon school. Jean Sligar resigned to accept a position in the Fort Worth schools.

Mr. King, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. King of Lelia Lake was given the position of Intermediate grade teacher at Martin to fill the vacancy made when Miss Gladys Wright resigned to accept a position with the Resettlement Administration. Mr. King was attending West Texas State Teachers College at Canyon.

Date Changed For Mid-Week Services

W. Wallace Layton, minister of the Church of Christ, announced this week that a change had been made in the mid-week program, changing the service from Wednesday night to Thursday night each week. This change was made to enable people from other churches to attend.

Special lectures are to be conducted each Thursday night on some phase of the church, which will be followed by a general round-table discussion. All present will be asked to have a part in the discussions.

A hearty welcome is extended the townspeople to be present, as Minister Layton pointed out the services will be educational as well as beneficial to all.

Free Picture To Be Given Monday

"Aces of Action," a moving talky will be shown here free Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the Cozy Theatre. The show sponsored by M-M, Twin City Implement Company, is being brought to Clarendon by W. C. Stewart.

There is no admission charge and the show will be of interest to both young and old in the county. Together with an interesting picture, showing farming methods, contrasting the old with the new, and explaining farming in countries all over the world, the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra will furnish the musical arrangement.

School Taxes Are Coming In Slowly

Only forty-three percent of the total assessment for school taxes has been collected to date, C. C. Powell, collector and assessor of school taxes said yesterday. A total of $10,696 has been collected.

This year the school board, in need of funds to operate, is making a special effort to collect delinquent school taxes. The total assessment this year was $24,414.

The amount collected to date is a small percentage of delinquent and current school taxes, Mr. Powell said. The final date for payment to avoid penalty is Saturday.

NEW RECIPES STARTING IN THE CLARENDON NEWS

C. C. Huffman, owner of the Home Bakery, starts an interesting series of advertisements in The News this week on the value of bread in the diet.

These advertisements, prepared by the National Bakers, will be of much interest to Donley housewives and each advertisement will contain a new and different recipe. It is suggested that the series be clipped from week to week and made into a recipe book.

Judge J. R. Porter will return today after a business trip to Linden, Texas.
