Hail And Rain Damages Crops In West Side Of County Sunday

It seems that Donley county is on the marked list as far as crop destruction is concerned. Another heavy rain and hail hit the west side of the county late Sunday afternoon and took another heavy toll in wheat and young crops. The loss was estimated in the thousands of dollars to wheat nearly ready to harvest in Donley county and Armstrong, ranging in through the Goodnight area.

The heavy rain was certainly not welcome to those farmers who were washed out last Wednesday as it delayed their replanting again and some who had already started planting are having to go back over and scratch in order to help get the crop up.

A number of those in the Chamberlain and Hudgins area still have some nice lakes in their fields and plenty of broken terraces and gullies to fill in. In fact those fellows have a mighty big job ahead and one can hardly realize just what kind of a job until they drive out there and take a look for themselves.

The rainfall in Clarendon as reported by the official weather station was .82 inch. This brings our total for the year since Jan. 1st. up to about normal amount received here during an entire 12 month period. May and June alone have totaled more than 12 inches.

Harvest Hands Needed Now

Harvest of wheat will start in Donley county in the next few days and farmers will need labor to help harvest their crop. H. M. Breedlove, local county agent will assist in placing labor on farms and urges that all farmers needing laborers to leave their names at his office and the number of laborers and types that they will need. This is also true for all persons wishing to work in the harvest, Breedlove stated. "We are anxious for all persons wanting work in harvest to register at my office so that we can help them secure work on wheat farms during harvest. If both the farmer and the laborers will register in the office of the county agent then labor can very easily be placed and save both parties a lot of trouble and time. This should be done at once as wheat harvest is almost here."

DOG OWNERS MUST VACCINATE DOGS FOR RABIES

Mayor Cap Morris has asked the Leader to remind all dog owners that they must have their dogs vaccinated for Rabies. It has been over a year now since the majority of dogs have been vaccinated and this should be done right away before an uprising of rabies is reported he stated.

Mr. Morris added further that Ben Buck is equipped to render vaccinating service and is requesting that anyone wishing this service to contact him so he can get around to do the job June 22nd or 29th.

The Mayor is also reminding that this is not only a public safety measure but a protective measure for your own families as they are usually the first to be attacked if their dog should go mad.

LIONS DIST. GOVERNOR TO BE HERE JULY 1

Lee Bell, president of the local Lions club, announced yesterday that Frank Jordan, District Governor of District 2T, would be in Clarendon Tuesday, July 1st to install the new officers of the local club for 1947-48. This is to be Mr. Jordan's official visit for the year although his official term expires June 30th at which time the new district which is the north portion of the old District 2T will have a new District Governor.

N. W. Durham, Deputy District Governor of Memphis is planning to be here on the same date, so all Lions are urged to make their plans to be present.

Texas Editors Eat Turkey Steaks

AMARILLO, TEXAS, June 19. —Texas Editors in annual convention in this Panhandle City lunched here today on turkey steaks, a new taste treat, which is in the process of development in order to make turkey a year round instead of a seasonal delicacy. The editors, members of the Texas Press Association and the Texas Newspaper Publishers Association were guests at a luncheon at the Amarillo hotel.

Arrangements for the turkey steak luncheon were made by Ralph E. Janes, president of the National Turkey Federation, and C. S. Fryor, manager of the Amarillo Hotel. Shown above is Mrs. Oswald Wolf of the Alvin East Produce Co., of Austin, who processed the steaks.

"Turkey steaks are boneless and there is no waste. The steak was developed by Texas A. & M. College, the Luling Foundation, and officers of the National and Texas turkey federations.

Do You Want a Full Time Chamber of Commerce Secretary?

A decision must be reached by the citizens of Clarendon within the next few days as to whether or not they want to employ a full time secretary of the Chamber of Commerce at this time. For the past seventeen or eighteen years the secretary has been hired on a part time basis. A number of merchants feel that Clarendon can support a full time chamber of commerce secretary and that the benefits will more than offset the increased cost.

At the present time, the chamber of commerce operates on a budget of some $2200, which is used to pay the bandmaster $1140 per year, the secretary $750 per year, and the additional is used for telephone, telegraphs, highway hearings, etc. The budget for a full time secretary will call for some $6000 or more or approximately three times the amount now being paid. In order to carry this load, approximately 100 merchants will have to pay monthly membership fees of $5 or more.

Talk this matter over with your friends and co-workers so when the committee contacts you with regard to the matter you will be ready to give them your answer.

Dodgers Still On The Bottom

Well, the Dodgers lost again last Sunday. This time to the boys from Wellington by a score of 9 to 1. The locals are still lacking in hitting power to stay in the game with their rivals.

Next Sunday they will meet Kirkland on the baseball field at Childress. This is expected to be a pretty fair game as the latter is helping the locals hold up the list and are only one notch above Clarendon in the district standing.

All of the younger ball players who want to get in on the second string are urged to come out and practice with the boys who are already lined up each afternoon at 6 p. m. The second string is showing lots of pep and should make a good account of themselves on down the line.

Everyone who can go is urged to go along with the boys to Childress next Sunday and help the Dodgers bring back a different story.

The Lelia Lake area was hit again with a heavy rain and hail Wednesday afternoon causing additional damage to what few crops were still standing and a loss of several thousand dollars worth of seed that has been put into the ground the past two or three days by those who had to plant over from the damaging hail and rain of a week ago.

A rough estimate by some of the Lelia Lake residents placed the total rainfall at 5 inches and it fell in a very short time. The hail which was of small dimension stacked up to knee deep in places and trimmed many trees down to the bark.

Out of Lelia Lake the damaging hail ranged northwestward through the Sunnyview and Midway communities causing nearly a 100 percent loss to wheat and cotton on the Frank Hardin and Glenn Williams farms and others surrounding that area. The hail was reported to have fallen in streaks, wiping out some crops entirely and leaving others heavily damaged. Hardin reported that he had about 15 acres of cotton left out of 400 acres. Just how far north the hail reached could not be learned this morning but it took a heavy toll over a long and comparatively narrow strip.

A large number of the farmers in the area stated that they would not try again with cotton but would put everything back in feed. Some said they would cut their cotton acreage down and try again.

There is one thing that they are definite about and that is some other localities can have their share of the moisture for awhile as they have had more than they will need for quite some time.

Playground Equipment For City Park Has Arrived

SKELTON SELLS DRUG BUSINESS HERE

William E. Whitsell of Pampa is the new owner of the Skelton Drug, having purchased the business from Luke Skelton the past week. Mr. Whitsell took over the management of the business June 10th.

He stated that he had all new fountain and other equipment on order and plans to remodel the store in general within the near future.

Mr. Whitsell's family consists of his wife and young daughter Karen Ann. They stated that they liked Clarendon very well already and certainly appreciated the friendly attitude of all the people they have met here. The Leader joins in welcoming this new family to Clarendon and know they will enjoy living here.

JACK BROOKS IN CHARGE OF PARKING AT RODEO

The Rodeo committee announced this week that Jack Brooks would be in charge of the Parking set-up for the Rodeo, both afternoons and nights, and if you have any particular place you would like to park your car inside the grounds, you should see Mr. Brooks this weekend and pick out the tickets you want, for they are fixed to where you can get the same parking space for all events if you want them. Buying your tickets early makes it more convenient, also in case you should happen to be late for any of the events, you would still have your parking space regardless.

ALABAMA BOY SCOUTS SPEND NIGHT IN CLARENDON

Many of you who drove out west of town Tuesday evening probably wondered who had thrown up the group of tents just this side of the Underpass. Well, the ones responsible were the Boy Scout troop 15 from Anniston, Alabama and they had decided to stop over for the night here.

The group of Scouts comprised of 16 boys and three leaders are on an 8 weeks tour with Yellowstone National Park as their Northwest point of destination. Their trip so far has brought them through the southern states and they plan to return to Alabama by way of Nebraska and visit Boys Town. They were all in accord about Texas being the most friendly state that they had visited.

The scoutmaster in charge of the group is Cap Ezell who has been with the troop for the past 25 years and has taken his boys for trips 18 of the 25 years. The assistant scout master is Loyd Barber who is already familiar with this territory, having been stationed at Amarillo during the war. The Junior assistant is Richard Kilgore.

The group reported a very enjoyable trip so far and stated that they enjoyed their visit to Clarendon very much and appreciated the warm hospitality received here.

Mrs. M. H. Lemon and children of Childress are visiting her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Hill.

City officials announced yesterday that the playground equipment that was ordered some time ago to be placed on the City Park had arrived and that work was already in progress to install the larger merry-go-round and that all the equipment would probably be installed by the end of next week.

There are six different units of equipment. Two slides, two swings and two merry-go-rounds. The units were purchased by six different organizations and business firms. Those being the Lions Club, The City of Clarendon, County of Donley, Chamber of Commerce, School Board and the Clarendon Furniture Co. and Greene Dry Goods Co.

The new equipment will be a welcome sight to all the youngsters of the county as this is one thing our park has been needing for a long, long time, and will give the youngsters a place to play and something to occupy their time.

The Leader wishes to take this means of expressing to the above organizations and business firms the thanks of all youngsters and grown-ups alike for this equipment, for we know they will all appreciate it but not have the opportunity to express their thoughts.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Merchant and daughter Jacqueline of Pampa spent Father's Day with his father, Mr. Cal Merchant.

Mrs. Jett and two children from Dallas are visiting her uncle and aunt and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Beard.

Booster Trips Planned For Next Thursday & Friday

The July 4th Celebration Committee has made plans for two booster trips next week to advertise the celebration here July 3rd and 4th. R. E. Drennan and Dale Hill are in charge of the booster trips and are urging everyone in business or otherwise to plan on making one or both of the trips and to get out their cowboy regalia if they like, and make the trip more colorful. It is understood that there will be a string band and other entertainment to accompany the crowd that will extend a cordial invitation to all our neighboring towns to come to Clarendon for the oldest annual celebration in the Panhandle.

The first trip is scheduled for next Thursday, June 26. The route mapped out at this time is south and north through Memphis, Childress, Wellington, Shamrock, McLean and on back home. The trip Friday, June 27, will go west and north to Claude, Panhandle, Borger, Pampa, LeFors, etc.

The meeting place for both trips will be the south side of the court house square and everyone planning to make the trips are urged to be on hand between 8:30 and 9 a. m. as they want to get started not later than 9 o'clock, Mr. Drennan stated.

These booster trips are usually a bit warm but are sure lots of fun and it is good for our little city to advertise among our neighbors and invite them to Clarendon, so make your plans to go at least one, if not both days for the bigger the delegation, the bigger the crowd that will come to Clarendon.

LIBRARY NOTES

By Mrs. C. A. Burton

Let me remind you again of my request for canceled stamps, which I told you would help a Denver hospital in its fight against tuberculosis. Only one girl has remembered to bring me any as yet.

A novel of China which has attracted much attention is "Rickshaw Boy," by Lau Shaw, translated by Evan King. Peking, a thousand years old and more, is the setting of the story. Lau Shaw is rapidly becoming one of the most prominent of contemporary Chinese writers. This is the first of his novels to be published in this country, but some of his short stories have been very acceptable. Evan King, the translator, is an American who has lived in China many years, and knows the Chinese people.

"The Ballad and the Source" is the first novel by Rosamond Lehmann in eight years and this, like "Rickshaw Boy," is a Book-of-the-Month choice. She is an English writer and this latest book of hers is counted her best.

Bert Childers was saying, it's funny how so many of our wartime habits stick with us.

Bert likes plenty of butter on his bread, but even now he can't get over spreading it like it was scarce as hen's teeth. And as a war worker, Bert used to stick to a temperate glass of beer on time off; and he still holds fast to beer and moderation.

Same way with Bert's wife. She not only has no trouble saving used fats, and waste paper. She's learned from wartime necessity to save every single thing that might possibly be used again.

From where I sit, it's mighty good that so many of these common-sense habits like thrift and moderation have stayed with us. Because they belong in America—along with tolerance, and mutual respect for one another's rights. They're habits that have helped to make this country strong and neighborly and free.

Loula Grace Erdman, author of "Separate Star", found herself quite popular over this story. Since then, she has won the $10,000 prize on "Years of the Locust" and is English teacher in West Texas State Teachers College. She was a Missouri girl and began teaching after one year of college at Warrensburg Teachers' College in Missouri. Since that time, she has taken her Bachelor's Degree from Central Missouri State Teachers' College, her Master's degree at Columbia University as well as having studied at various universities.

A book which was quite a success was "Papa was a Preacher." It was soon followed by a similar story "Papa went to Congress" by Kenneth Horan, and this little humorous story was soon followed by "Mama Took up Travel" by the same author. All three were so full of fun and nonsense that they captivated the readers. Ika Chase follows in the same vein with "I Love Miss Tilly Bean."

Another of our new books is "Family Tree" by Florence Maple. This first novel won a major fiction award in the 1944 Avery Hopwood contest.

Another book which we hope you will like is "Soldier of Democracy", a full length biography of Dwight Eisenhower, by Kenneth S. Davis. You will remember that Eisenhower was born in Texas and this story of his life will bring you much pleasure.

A few other additions to our shelves are: "Cass Timberlane" by Sinclair Lewis, and "Three Men in New Suits"—the story of three GI's in civilian clothes.

"Sweeden the Middle Way" is the account of cooperative action in Sweeden which contains much of interest for our country.

American Agriculture At The Crossroads

EDITORS NOTE—The following is a continuation of the speech made by Congressman Eugene Worley during the debate on the Agricultural Appropriation Bill. MR. CHAIRMAN:

Admittedly, the war was a big factor in the booming prosperity many farmers have enjoyed these last five years. But prosperity was well on the way long before Pearl Harbor—long before war broke out in Europe. The growth of buying power of the American farmer started in 1933.

I am not going to recite the details of that climb and of the sweeping agricultural legislation that helped farmers to climb out of the depression. I am merely going to put into a few sentences the highlights of what has been accomplished, using my own State of Texas as an example.

1. The Agricultural Adjustment program helped farmers produce in accordance with the needs of the people. It enabled them to set up a complete Ever-Normal Granary program which supported prices of basic crops and maintained stable reserves. It made it possible for farmers to use soil conserving practices that added untold wealth to the nation's natural resources. Did that program pay dividends? I have heard it said that the Ever-Normal Granary alone meant as much to the Nation in the winning of the war as an extra army or an extra fleet of ships.

2. Under the national soil conservation program, 30 million acres have been devoted to organized conservation. In 1945 more than half the Nation's farms, containing three-quarters of our cropland, participated in carrying out soil-conserving or erosion-preventing practices. Under this program and the adjustment program, American farmers built up a "bank" of fertility and they drew upon it heavily to help win the war. Did it pay? In Texas alone some 40,000 farms covering 15 million acres, have been aided by the Soil Conservation Service in applying conservation plan. A survey of typical farmers showed that soil conservation enabled them to step up their yields per acre by an average of 26.5 percent.

3. The Farm Credit programs during the tough going of the 1930's helped farmers refinance their mortgages, reduce their interest payments, and keep their farms. Did that pay? In Texas 250,000 Farm Credit and Production Credit Association loans were made in amounts totalling 725 million dollars.

4. The Farm Security program helped farm tenants become owners and small farm owners to improve their economic position either by getting additional land or by more efficient farming. Did that pay? I wish the 87,000 Texas farmers who received rehabilitation loans were here to answer that question. I wish the 4,000 armers who took out farm ownership loans were here to tell you. Already nine-tenths of the principal of the rehabilitation loans has been repaid and the tenant purchase borrowers have paid up 86 percent more than would be required on the basis of equal annual installments to pay their loans in full in 40 years.

5. The Rural Electrification program brought power and light to millions of American farmers, helping them to increase their production efficiency and to improve their living standards. In Texas alone, from the beginning of the Rural Electrification Administration in 1935 until the end of 1945, a total of 53 1/2 million dollars was loaned to provide electric power to farmers. REA loans were used to construct 44,000 miles of distribution lines serving 114,000 consumers in rural Texas. At the end of 1945, REA borrowers in the State had met all interest and principal payments due on their loans and had paid $1,200,000 on principal ahead of due dates. Did it pay? Here is an interesting fact. Eleven years ago when the Rural Electrification program was started, only about one Texas farmer out of 50 had electrical service. That proportion has been stepped up to one out of three. For the whole nation, the proportion of farms with electricity has risen from about 10 percent to close to 50 percent.

I could go on for a long time talking about the marketing agreements, about water facilities, and flood control, about price supports, commodity loans, and conservation payments. I could talk about the farm labor program that in 1945 helped more than 77,000 Texas farmers secure workers. I could talk about the research programs which have paid such big dividends to the nation—hybrid corn seed, for example, or the production of penicillin in commercial quantities, or the development of dusts and sprays containing DDT.

But I am going to pass over all of those features and mention simply the protection farmers are given under the so-called Steagall Amendment, which assures price support for major agricultural

PORTER-RHEA

Miss Jean Dale Porter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Porter, Clarendon, and Burrell N. Rhea, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Rhea, Clarendon, were married in an impressive ceremony Sunday, June 15, at the First Methodist Church.

Dr. Stanley N. Hayne read the double-ring service before a white arch decorated with sprays of huckleberry and from which hung wedding bells tied with a white streamer. Altar rails were also covered with huckleberry. Large baskets of white gladioluses stood on each side of the archway. Two sets of candelabras flanked the arch while baskets of double larkspur filled in the background. White carpeting covered the floor in front of the altar and also marked the aisles. White ribbon designated the family section.

Before beginning the ceremony, Mrs. Rayburn Smith, organist, played "Traumeri" by Schumann, and "Salut d'Amour" by Elgar. During the service "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice" by Saint-Saens, the "Bridal March from Lohengrin" by Wagner and Mendelssohn's "Processional" were played. Miss Cora Lee Muse sang "Oh Promise Me" by Scott and De Koven and "The Lord's Prayer" by Emalotte.

Bridesmaids, Miss Patty Molesworth and Miss Vera Belle Glenn of Silver City, New Mexico, wore pink dresses with long tight-fitting waists and cap sleeves. They carried colonial nosegays of pink rosebuds and blue forget-me-nots, surrounded by baby breath. A corsage of these same flowers were worn in their hair.

Miss Helen Porter, maid-of-honor and sister of the bride, wore a cream colored dress with full net skirt and brocaded metallic bodice with the net inserted yoke. Her crescent-shaped bouquet was of yellow gladioluses tied with rich brown ribbon. Yellow and brown pansies were worn in her hair.

The ringbearer, Michael Linder, Amarillo, wore a palm beach suit and carried the white satin pillow on which the rings were placed. Candlelighters were Bill Porter, brother of the bride, and Inelle Cox, who wore a white satin dress and had a corsage of pink carnations.

Max Rhea, brother of the groom, from Lubbock, served as best man. Bill Lowe and Odell Davis, both of Clarendon, were groomsmen. Bob Bentley and Bob Parker of Clarendon and Jeff Glenn of Silver City, New Mexico were ushers.

The bride given in marriage by her father wore a bridal gown of white satin. The skirt which had a short train was gathered onto a tight-fitting bodice having a sweetheart neckline. Her fingertip veil was of illusion and was caught on each side with a gardenia. She carried a small white Bible covered by two gardenias. Around her neck she wore the pearls given to her by the groom as a wedding present.

The bride's mother wore a black crepe dress and a blue straw hat. Her corsage was of pink gladioluses.

The bridegroom's mother wore an aqua gabardine dress with a white hat. Her corsage also was of pink gladioluses.

Immediately after the ceremony the guests went into the reception hall of the church where they were greeted by the bride's mother, the bridegroom's mother, the bride and groom, Dr. and Mrs. Hayne, and the bridesmaids. The three-tiered cake decorated in pink, blue, and white was topped by an archway from which wedding bells hung. On the opposite end a punch bowl was placed. A bowl of small pink roses, pink larkspur, and baby breath completed the table settings which were placed on a blue satin damask table cloth.

Helping with the reception were Mrs. Raymond Johnson who served the cake, Mrs. Rhea, who poured punch, and Mrs. C. B. Morris, Mrs. Harice Green, and Misses Shirley Price, Ruth Patman, and Joan and Ramona Rhea. After the reception, the bride and groom left for Austin and planned to stop and spend several days at the lake just outside Cisco.

The bride traveled in a pink linen suit with white pique collar and cuffs. Her accessories were white and she wore a corsage of gardenias.

After June 20 the couple will be at home at Austin, Texas.

Mrs. Rhea finished the Clarendon Public Schools and attended Clarendon Jr. College a year and a half. She is now attending the University of Texas where she is majoring in education. At the University she is a member of the Wesley Foundation and of the Panhandle Club.

Mr. Rhea finished the Clarendon Public Schools and then served in the Navy for four years. He returned and attended Clarendon Jr. College for one year and is now enrolled in the University of Texas where he is majoring in pharmacy. He is a member of the Wesley Foundation and the Panhandle Club.

The vows were exchanged before an arch decorated with a garland of Plumous Fern and white wedding bells. Each side of the archway was banked with floor baskets of white gladioluses and pink Marconi daisies and palms.

Billie Lee Ramsay, nephew of the bride was best man. Leola Mae Poovey, niece of the bride was flower girl. She carried a bouquet of pink roses tied with pink satin ribbon. Patsy Darlene Wallace, also niece of the bride, was candle lighter.

Bobby Tate Poovey, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

Career Woman!

MEET the greatest career woman of all! She doesn't manage a business, write novels, paint portraits, or sing over the radio. But her job's big and, it's important—she runs a home!

What a job that is! In a year she washes more than 6 tons of dishes, cooks more than 1,000 meals, wades through mountains of laundry, trundles her vacuum cleaner across acres and acres of rugs!

The more Mom depends on electric service, the less work is in her housework. And how little electric service costs! A penny's worth a day will rescue Mom from the drudgery of dishwashing. A few more pennies will cook her meals. Electricity will help her wash and iron for less weekly than the cost of a bar of soap.

And when Mom balances her budget, she's bound to note that electricity is one of its smallest items. Actually, the average family now gets twice as much electricity for its money as it did about 20 years ago. This bargain comes to Mom—and to you, too—through the practical experience of your friends and neighbors in this company, under sound local business-management.

Noticed in the papers that "Pappy" O'Daniel is going to tour Texas this summer and tell us all about the "Skulduggery" going on in Washington. Somehow it made me think of the old song

"Who will take care of the Care-takers Daughter, while the Care-taker is busy taking care." I just never could go along with a fellow that thought everyone else in the world was wrong but him.

Probably no one in the Texas Senate promoted and "put over" more new bills than our own Grady Hazelwood. He is a hard worker, and a fighter for the things he thinks are right. And he seems to be highly respected by his fellow Senators, and that is important.

The following is another Quote from the boy's own life story.

about why he couldn't go straight written in a nearby jail: "As I left the hospital I was thinking if only I was sixteen years old so I could go to work for the N.Y.A.

I didn't have a thing to do so I just walked around for awhile, of course I stayed on a side street. It was about 3:30 in the afternoon and school was just letting out, and the children were running and playing and laughing. It made tears come in my eyes, to think that if I had a mother and father like they had, I could be running and playing too. I was lonesome. I have missed something that I can never go back and get, and that is a Mother, Father and a Home.

With tears in my eyes I got mad. I wanted things that other kids had, and I said in my heart that I would show them. I can laugh and have fun too, so I started stealing any and everything that I could sell or have fun with. It was in my heart to be like other kids. Did you ever go to school, and be the only one that did not have anything to eat; other kids look at you as if you were worse than a dog, or come to school with rags for clothes, and with no bottoms in your shoes? It is hard to take. One night I picked up a Bilge, and just as I started to ride it off a Cop grabbed me, and I was put in jail, and then sent back to Gatesville, and to know that I was going back to that, was worse than any night mare." End of quote.

We can build Churches for the Good boys, and Jails for the bad ones, but until we give the homeless boys, something as nearly like a home to grow up in, as possible, we can not hope for them to be anything else but criminals.

Send in your letters. Let me know the kind of things you had rather read about. I will also include some of the letters in this column (with or without your name), and you still can win a prize. Don't wait any longer.

Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Fricks and children of Dalhart spent Father's day with the lady's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Williams of near Ashtola. Her brother, Jimmy returned home with them for a few days visit.

Austrian Winter Pea Seed May Be Plentiful This Fall

Plenty of seed for planting of Austrian Winter peas should be available in Donley county this fall, county agent H. M. Breedlove said this morning. Due to rains and bad weather conditions most farmers were unable to hay many of the peas because it was late before they could start cutting. Nearly all persons who planted the peas plan to harvest the seed. The experiment of planting Austrian winter peas in Donley county for soil building and pasture proved very successful this past year and many farmers have been inquiring at Breedlove's office about seed for fall planting.

Breedlove asks that all persons desiring seed this fall to leave their names and amount of seed they will need so that he can keep a list and see that the seed is available for them. The proper time for planting is as soon after the first of September that moisture might be available. Thirty pounds of seed to the acre is about the proper amount for planting in this section.
