Broncs To Meet Traditional Rivals Here Friday Nite

The Clarendon Bronchos will meet their traditional rivals, the Memphis Cyclones here Friday night in their final game of the season. The game is scheduled to start at 7:30 at the College Park.

The Bronchos have had two weeks rest in preparation for the game and coach Naylor states that most of his boys are in perfect shape for the game. Harp and Mayo will probably see very little action due to previous injuries, but Bulman will be back in there with that old fighting spirit to make up for all the games that he has had to watch from the bench. The team as a whole has been putting in hard practice hours in order to iron out the kinks especially for this game and they say they are going to win this one.

The Cyclones are a pretty good bunch of boys and promise plenty of opposition for the Bronchos. They defeated the McLean Tigers last Friday night by three touchdowns and according to the score are two and a half touchdowns better than the Bronchos as the locals only beat the Tigers 10-6.

Regardless of previous data, etc., this is always the top game for the Bronchos and most anything can happen between these two ball clubs when they come together.

Let's all be out there at the College Park Friday night backing the Bronchos and help them win this traditional and last game of the season.

The Band Parents will have those good 'ole hot dogs and other eats, so be sure and skip your supper and eat at the ball game.

TIME FOR SEEDING CLOVER IN PASTURES

Now that cooler weather is here, clover can be seeded in Texas pastures as moisture permits. Fall is a good time for sowing clover for the seeds germinate better when cool nights alternate with warm days, explains R. R. Lancaster, pasture specialist for A.M. College Extension Service. Clovers generally make good stands in short, thin turf, in fields where crop litter or trash remains on the ground, or in well-prepared seed beds. A straw mulch is especially valuable for dry weather planting.

The philosophy "Every grassland needs a clover and every clover a grass" is worth ordering by Texas farmers, Lancaster believes. In addition to the bunch grasses, the running ones such as Bermuda, buffalo, and Johnson grass all offer room for clovers.

Unfortunately, clovers won't do well on deep, coarse, sand, acid or wet land. They don't like poor land and they can't stand wet feet, Lancaster says. On the other hand, they respond well to phosphate and to potash, and usually they'll do well on drained upland pasture.

There are plenty of adapted clovers you can choose from—the true clovers, the bur clovers and the sweet clovers. Whatever the variety, these legumes should be inoculated for best results.

Lancaster suggests that farmers consult their county agricultural agents on varieties, rates of seeding, soil preparation and fertilizing. And if they need any sales talk on clover they can ponder these facts: Clover with grass restores organic matter to worn-out soil. It provides pasture in the early spring when this is badly needed. It is high in phosphorous and in other mineral nutrients. Livestock on a good clover and grass pasture, for instance, do not need bonemeal.

Yellow Blossom sweet clover and white blossom sweet clover are best adapted to Donley County. These clovers live 2 years, but usually make sufficient seed to keep plants growing each year.

GOOD NEWS FOR KIDD FAMILY

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Kidd had quite a pleasant shock last Friday afternoon. They received a telegram from their son, Earl D., stating that he had just arrived in New Port News, Va. and would be home in a few days. Within a few minutes, they received another such telegram from their daughter, Mary, saying that she had just landed in New York and also would be home soon. Community Center Nearing Reality

Clarendon Lions Club

By Edith McCrary

Members of the Clarendon Lions Club met in the First Christian Church Tuesday, Nov. 13, 1945. Minutes of the Board of Director's meeting which was held on Thursday evening, Nov. 6, were read and approved. Issues discussed during this session were finances, carnival dates, and the road projects.

After the reading of the minutes of the Lions meeting for last week, roll call was answered by forty-three members, giving a percentage of sixty-seven.

Guests present included Mr. Laufkin, Charlie Robinson and Kenneth Marriot.

Boss Lion Lowell displayed a picture of the proposed Community Center building, asking that all suggestions and alterations be given to Lion Charlie Lowry, Lion R. E. Drennan urged support for the game with Memphis, Friday night at 7:30 in the local stadium. Monday night, also at 7:30, the football boys are sponsoring a magician show in the high school auditorium. Proceeds from this will be used in purchasing letter awards for the boys. Lion Naylor asked attendance for this program. Lion C. O. Reed stated films were available for use in bond drives and that he would give further details to anyone desiring them.

Carnival details have been set as November 30, December 1 and December 7, 8. Boss Lion Lowell reminded the members that this undertaking would need their wholehearted support.

Lion Cap Morris gave an informative talk on price control, its value during the war and during the readjustment period. A few words in regard to conditions after World War I were given by Lion Rayburn Smith. He emphasized the need of a better system to keep down inflation.

Lion Patrick added much to the program by stressing what would happen if inflation became rampant. He stated that buying war bonds would help keep down inflation more than anything, since this would take money out of circulation and give production a chance to catch up with public demand.

Concerning OPA, Mrs. Harold Phelps gave some concluding remarks, stressing the fact that changes are being made every day. She said that it was difficult sometimes for people to understand the rules and regulations, and that anyone wishing to make suggestions or needing help that the local Board would be glad to oblige.

The meeting was adjourned, dispensing with the final song.

METHODIST CONFERENCE MAKES NO CHANGE IN PASTOR HERE

The public in general as well as members of the First Methodist Church are elated over the fact that Rev. H. W. Hanks will begin his third year as pastor of the local church.

Rev. Elmer D. Landreth, a former pastor here, will continue as Superintendent of this district, a position he has filled with much credit to himself and to his church.

Rev. W. F. Gaede was returned as pastor at Hedley; Rev. P. E. Yarbrough is the Memphis pastor. The Clarendon circuit is to be supplied.

Pvt. Samuel Tolert has a discharge from the Army and is back home with his family at Vernon.

The proposed Community Center is forging ahead at a rapid rate at this time and should be a reality within a short time.

A few of the facts about the Community Center:

It will accommodate 500 persons for a convention, show or general entertainment and 250 persons for a banquet and will also contain a stage in the main auditorium. A public library to contain 10,000 volumes of books with reading space to accommodate 10 to 15 persons. This will be combined with the city library to make a more complete library for the entire county. A club room to accommodate 75 to 100 persons for parties, youth center, clubs and various organizations. Museum to house the fine specimens in the present museum and additions that will come later. This room will be constructed in a manner in which it may be enlarged as the demand arises.

There will be a modern kitchen to take care of the banquets and club rooms and is to be fully equipped with the most modern equipment.

There will be tennis courts and play grounds and a wading pool for 25 children.

These are just a few of the many things and uses that will be combined into this one particular set-up. It is so designed to give the people of this community the things they have been in need of for many years—a community meeting place.

Lions To Sponsor Carnival

In order to keep the money coming in toward this project, the local Lions club will hold their annual Carnival here Friday and Saturday, Nov. 30th and Dec. 1st, and again the next week end, December 7 and 8th. All the proceeds will go to the Community Center Fund and at this time the bank account is growing steadily, and this project will become a structural reality before long.

Make your plans now to take in the carnival both week ends. You can have a wonderful time and at the same time be supporting something for yourself and your community.

Band To Sponsor Cake Walk

The Clarendon High School Band will sponsor a cake walk on Main Street Saturday evening at 7:30 for its benefit, where some thirty or forty cakes will be sold to the lucky winners who participate.

The cakes are to be made by the Band parents and donated to the band. Every band parent is urged to make one for the occasion. Free sugar, furnished by the band, can be obtained upon calling for it at Ruby's Beauty Shop.

Cake contributors are asked to have their cakes at Bryan's Clothing Store before six o'clock Saturday so that the sponsors can have ample time to organize things for the event. The band will play throughout the sale, so that means plenty of entertainment.

Don't fail to come down and join in the fun. You stand a good chance of winning a delicious cake for a little of nothing, and without having to stand over a hot oven all day long worried to death as to whether the cake you're attempting to bake will rise properly, be light in texture, and delicious to the taste. Don't miss it!

T. E. L. CLASS SPONSORING USED CLOTHING DRIVE

The T. E. L. Class of the Baptist Church is sponsoring a used clothing drive for European people. You are asked to leave all clean mended clothing with Mrs. Clyde Butler, Mrs. Lola Barns or Mrs. Tom Tucker.

United Gas Co. Inviting New Industry to South

Aiming to stimulate industrialization in the Gulf South, United Gas Pipe Line Company is devoting its national advertising to a direct invitation to American industry to locate in this region.

The new series of direct-appeal advertisements urge industrialists to investigate the industrial opportunities of the Gulf South for post-war expansion.

United Gas has been carrying on this advertising program since 1939 in National publications totaling more than a million and a half circulation. Included in the group of publications currently used are Time, Business Week and Wall Street Journal. The sole purpose of the national advertising at the outset was to build greater payrolls, more jobs, and greater prosperity for the people of this state and its surrounding area. During the war years, however, the company turned from industrial development advertising to stimulating war production in the Gulf South, on behalf of the national war effort. For nearly four years, the advertisements, running monthly told of the vast resources and facilities of the Gulf South dedicated to war and the story of Gulf South workmen serving their country on the home front.

Now, with the victory won and reconversion under way, United is returning to its original program to help develop its area, the Gulf South industrially and so hasten the day when it will become one of the great industrial sections of the United States.

Texas Tech May Use Pantex Buildings

Directors of Texas Technological College have voted to ask the Reconstruction Finance Corporation for use of the now idle $35,000,000 Pantex ordnance plant which is located 17 miles north-east of Amarillo. The idea which prompted the request envisions use of the vast 1600-acre property as an adjunct of the college.

Texas Tech's president, Dr. William M. Whyburn, in conference with various college officials, has been busy preparing a brief which will show to the RFC the various uses to which the property could be put by the college. These plans would include vocational short course training for veterans and provide a "proving ground" for agricultural and research projects on a long-range basis.

Request for the property was made with the understanding that no money was to be paid for the project and that there would be "no strings" attached to its operation, according to President Whyburn. The entire matter, he pointed out, is in a very preliminary stage but, he added, "if the project is something with which Tevh can do a better job for the student seeking educational training, the college is definitely interested."

The Amarillo Chamber of Commerce through a Tech board member, Chanslor Weymouth of Amarillo, presented the proposition to the Tech directorate. On the expansive project there are 424 buildings with housing facilities available to accommodate 800 persons. The project is served by 36 miles of railroad spur track from the Santa Fe and Rock Island railroads.

Mrs. Estella Hearne and daughter, Mrs. Gordon Finley of Seattle, Wash. are visiting in the home of Mr. John Bugbee and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Massengale have taken their son Bill to Dallas for medical treatment.

The fifth and last of the series of lectures will be held at the ballroom of the Amarillo Hotel in Amarillo on November 24th.

Farmers, ranchers and stockmen are urged to hear these talks. The meeting places have been set up at various localities across the state so as to accommodate a greater portion of the farm population of Texas.

"IS THAT IN THE RULE BOOK?"

Whether it's football or business, Americans expect fair play all down the line. In football, the referee is there to see that the game is played according to the rules. But he's not supposed to run with the ball. In business, the referee is the government, which establishes regulations and fair practices. But when government goes into business and competes with its own citizens, the American tradition of fair play is set aside. The referee then becomes a player, and he enjoys advantages that are denied to all the other players in the game. Government-owned electric power systems, for example, pay no taxes. When they need capital, they get your tax money at little or no interest from the U. S. Treasury. To cover operating losses—an accepted political condition—you, as a taxpayer, will take care of that. Business-managed power systems—unlike tax subsidized political methods—do not have these special privileges. They are not tax dodgers, they pay their full share of taxes, pay fair interest on public loans. Fortunately for you and your tax bill, over 80 per cent of all the electric power in this country is produced by tax-paying, self-supporting electric companies, owned and operated by several million folks like you.

ASHTOLA SCHOOL NEWS

The primary children were out on the school yard playing last Wednesday when all of a sudden they saw a witch and a ghost peek around the corner of the school building. Some got brave enough to ride on the "Old Witch's broom" before time to go in the house.

In the club room they found all kinds of good things to eat and drink. Those present were as follows: Doyce Graham Jr., Delma Graham, Claude De Bord, Mary Lynn Briggs, Patricia Knox, Don Ray, J. R. Graham, Jimmie Boren Joyce Eddings, Charlotte Wilson, Mary Ruth Myers, Don Carroll Springer, Jimmie Myers, Bobby Preston Wilson, Harold Holland, Lillie Lee Barker.

Ghosts, witches and goblins were present at a Halloween party given for the intermediate grades at Mrs. Ralph Davis' house. Those that came out alive were: James King, Jaquetta Briggs, Sandra Bownds, Wanda Graham, Bobby Holland, Harry Cox, Allen Ray Graham, Shirley Wilson, Lovell Myers, Jerry King, Ervin Corbell, Reba Cox, Patsy Wallace, A. K. King, Leota Marshall, Glyndol Henderson, Hazel Brandon and Loy and Jimmie Taylor from Hedley. There were only three absent the next day from school. We wonder if this wasn't because they ate some cake Mrs. Hickey baked!

Wrong Lunch
Lovell, Jimmie, and Mary Ruth Myers are the first ones to get on the bus every morning. Their mother had their lunches fixed the children might grab them in a hurry. Lovell snatched his sack and ran off. When he got to school, he discovered he had a sack of onions.

Love Bug
The love bug has been flying around our school. He gave an extra big dose to one of our fifth grade boys. His class was having reading when he got up and walked to the blackboard and declared he didn't know his class was having reading.

Leota Marshall spent Sunday with Patsy Wallace.

Reba Earl Cox's grandpa Branch came to see her Sat.

Claude King and family spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. B. H. King.

Garland Holland of Amarillo spent the week end with his mother, Mrs. Eleanor Holland.

Sandra Bownds spent Sunday with Mary Evelyn Brinson.

Tongue Twister
Lovell Myers made a tongue twister from some of his words he had in his spelling lesson. This is it: "The force of fifty four firemen fought the fourteen blaxes of fire."

Rhymes
The third grade Language made some rhymes.

Jimmie Myers
I had a little dog; his name was blue.
I put him on a track and he fairly flew.

Don Ray

He jumps and plays all over the court.

Lillie Lee Barker
I have a little dog.
He sleeps behind a log.
He comes in the house,
And sits on the mat.

His name is Jerry,
And he's not a bit scary.

Reserved Place
J. R. Graham always makes a dash to be the first one in line. He was standing in his favorite place when the teacher reminded him that he had better run and get his empty soda pop bottle from the other side of the building. He replied, "O.K., you keep my place for me!"

A Hard Day
The end of another school day had come and the children had boarded the school bus. Patricia Knox, a first grader, placed her head in her hands and groaned, "Oh, me, I have had a hard day!"

New Fad
Allen Ray Graham created a bit of excitement last Friday. Everyone was supposed to be studying, when all of a sudden a riot of giggling was heard. The teacher looked up in time to see Allen Ray Graham pretending to be piercing his ears with a paper punch.

Flash!
Glyndol Henderson told us that he went to "kinney garden" before he started to school.

Mary Lynn Briggs spent Sunday with Reba Earl Cox.

Jaquetta Briggs spent the day with Mary Evelyn Brinson Mon.

Sandra Bownds reported a grand time at a slumber party at Joan Ritter's home Friday nite.

REV. JOHN S. ELLIS HONORED WITH FAREWELL SUPPER

The congregation of the Presbyterian Church gave a farewell supper Tuesday night for their pastor, Rev. John S. Ellis and his family.

Mrs. Geo. Green, president of the Ladies Auxiliary acted as toastmistress, and Mr. Howard Stewart and Miss Mary Howren had charge of a short sing-song.

After the ladies had served supper, Mrs. Green called on Chaplain Charles Robinson from Sherman, Texas. Mr. Robinson expressed his pleasure at visiting in the church, and the town, and gave great praise to Mr. Ellis for his fine work which had increased the membership of the church 40 percent. He explained to the congregation that when a minister felt a strong call to "greener pastures" the church must of necessity lose its pastor.

Mr. Robinson went on to tell of some of his experiences in the army relating them to church and civic work.

Mr. Ellis then disclaimed credit for the increase in church membership, saying that it was due, in great part to the work of the congregation. He expressed his thanks and affectionate regard to the church and all others who had helped to make his 16 months in Clarendon a happy period in his life.

Mrs. Green, speaking in behalf of the church, paid high tribute to Mr. Ellis, telling of the love the congregation, as a whole, had for him and his family, and the great regret at losing them.

The outstanding ability and scholarship of Mr. Ellis has been recognized by church leaders and he has been called to a much larger field at Trinity Heights in Dallas.

Chaplain Robinson was invited to visit the church by Mr. Ellis and the congregation, with a view to taking the pastorate. Mr. Robinson has been in the army almost 5 years and previous to that, held pastorates in both Texas and Oklahoma. He also did some evangelistic work in Louisiana. He is a graduate of Arkansas College and Louisville Seminary. If satisfactory arrangements can be made for all concerned, there is a possibility that Mr. Robinson and his family might make their home in Clarendon.

Picture of a Man Building a House
Why, you say, he's just putting something in his safe deposit box! That's right, he is just putting a Victory Bond away. He has bought—and held—War Bonds regularly, ever since the war started. And he's adding regularly to his bank account, too.
He is building his house, just as sure as you're born.
He and his wife came in not long ago and told us how they had planned their saving. Everything was worked out in black and white. They want to be ready to build when prices are right and materials are available. They wondered if we would help them finance the completion of their house. We answered "Yes," of course. We are glad to go along with folks who plan their spending, plan their saving.
Isn't this a good formula for building a house, or buying a car or paying for a college education? Steady bond buying, regular saving, plus a plan to spend at that future time when your dollars will buy more, adds up to future family security. Your family deserves no less.
Help the nation's efforts to keep your living costs DOWN, the buying power of your dollar UP.

MOOS OF THE MOMENT
BY UNCLE BOB
of the Kraft Dairy Farm Service

I told a few hundred friends of mine at a dairy day meeting this fall about a farmer who lugged a milk can up to a Victory Bond drive, saying the can held $15,000, which he claimed was his life's savings and which he wanted to turn into bonds. When they counted the money, they found only $12,500 in the can. "Shucks," said the farmer, "Guess I brought the wrong can."

There's gold in your milk cans, without any fooling, but sometimes things happen to the milk which turn that gold into ashes. As I pointed out a couple of weeks ago, high quality dairy products get their start on the farm.

And the primary starting point is right in your barn. Sanitation begins with a clean barn. Keeping it clean is just a matter of setting up good habits, setting regular times to brush down walls, clean floors, sweep rafters, wipe down stanchions and stalls.

The USDA says that farmers lose millions of dollars every year because of milk which does not reach quality standards and cannot be used to make good dairy products. These quality standards probably will be higher in 1946.

Whitewashing the inside helps greatly and makes a lighter, more cheerful place to work in. I'll repeat a couple of simple whitewash formulas which I mentioned a few months ago:

Use one pound of lye, 2½ pounds of water-slaked lime. Dissolve in 5½ gallons of water. This solution should be used immediately. Another—use five parts of cream of lime, one part kerosene, one-half part coal-tar disinfectant and 6½ parts boiling water.

That 8-pointed star to guide you through another year has just been announced in Washington by the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Emphasizing that "Efficiency and Quality Pay", the 1946 8-point Dairy Program is as follows:

1. Feed Each Cow for Economical Production.
2. Improve Grasslands to Save Milk Dollars.
3. Use Best Methods of Curing Roughage to Retain Feed Value.

4. Keep Production Records for Better Herd Management.

5. Breed for Improved Herd Replacements.

6. Produce Quality Milk and Cream for Greater Returns.

7. Plan Lay-Outs, Equipment and Methods to Cut Labor Costs.

8. Maintain Herd Health for Maximum Efficiency.

You'll be hearing more about these eight points in the weeks to come.

Dairymen can out do bird hunters in at least one department. This time of year, the biggest kick a hunter gets is when a covey of birds flushes ahead of his dog. But a dairyman can have his "flush" twice.

You can have two flush milk production periods by fall freshening. There is an increase in milk production in the fall right after cows freshen and another in the spring when grass pasturing starts.

There are several advantages to fall freshening for cows. Colleges which have checked hundreds of animals find that total milk production is greater when a cow freshens in the fall than when it freshens in spring or summer.

Calves born in the fall seem to be healthier than those born at other times of the year. Fall calves generally get better care and protection against weather, which helps them grow strong and healthy.

All of these add up to the idea that right now is the time to shop around for the best available sire for your cows, with a view to breeding in the next few weeks for fall calves.

You can get some additional information on this subject by writing for the following bulletins: Bulletin 179, Extension Service, Purdue University, Lafayette, Ind.; Bulletin 378, Extension Service, University of Minnesota, St. Paul, Minn.

*NOTE: There usually is a 5c charge for pamphlets mailed to non-residents of a state; but possibly your own state has a free pamphlet on the same subject. Ask your county agent.

When they come back...

United Gas employes, serving in our armed forces, have been notified that we have jobs for them, when they return. . . . In reply to a questionnaire sent them, hundreds of answers already received indicate a deep appreciation of the Companies' interest, and practically all of them want to come back to us.

We asked if they thought their military experience had fitted them for special work in our organization. Many indicated a preference. We will do everything possible to give them the work they desire. . . . To all of those who have served or are serving in our armed forces, we all owe an everlasting debt of gratitude.
