Local Youth And English Instructor Receive Awards

Bert Barns received the following letter this week informing him that he was the winner of a trip to Europe for an essay he submitted, and Mrs. Marguerite C. Goodner received a $25.00 U. S. Savings Bond as the teacher of the winning student. Bert is a son of Mrs. Lola Barns of this city.

We are publishing both letters in full which are self-explanatory. This is quite an honor for a Clarendon youth to win a nation-wide contest of this type.

May 17, 1947

Mr. Bert Barns
 Clarendon High School
 Clarendon, Texas

I am happy to report that the paper you submitted "The American Merchant Marine and World Commerce" has been selected as First Prize winner in the entire contest.

Your paper was selected from those received by the Houston Propeller Club as being the best paper and was entered accordingly in the competition amongst the best paper and received by the other ports sponsoring the contest, they being New Orleans, Boston, Brunswick, Jacksonville, Mobile, New London, Portland, Me., Savannah and the Sabine District. Your paper was selected as the best among these, and, as above mentioned, it was considered the top of the entire contest.

Your prize for this is a trip to Europe on one of the United States Lines' vessels whenever it is convenient for that company to arrange it. I have asked if this could not be done this summer, assuming you would want to continue school in September. The United States Lines will arrange for your room and board while you are aboard the ship and you will be permitted to use the ship as a hotel while it is in the ports of Europe. It is not known at this moment the name of the vessel or whether you will require passport for the trip, however will get this information as soon as possible.

The Houston Propeller Club will provide you with funds to get to New York and return from Clarendon.

The Houston Propeller Club has its Maritime Day meeting on May 22nd, and if you can get down to Houston for this meeting which is to be held at the Golfcrest Country Club at 8:00 P. M. that day, we would be happy to have you as our guest at this dinner and at which time the prize would be formally awarded. Your father and mother are included in this invitation to be included in this dinner. We are sorry the expense of your trip to Houston cannot be assumed by the Club.

Very truly yours,
 J. M. Lykes, Jr.
 Chairman Essay Contest Committee

cc-Mrs. Marguerite C. Goodner
 Dear Mrs. Goodner:

As the teacher of the student winning the First Prize of the entire contest it is our pleasure to present you with a $25.00 U. S. Savings Bond which will be forwarded to you next week.

I am sure you are proud of having a student of yours win the top honor. The Houston Propeller Club is gratified that a Texan was the one to do it.

8.35 Inches Moisture So Far In May

Up until press time last Thursday morning, the local weather station had reported a total of 7.59 inches moisture for the month of May, and since that time the station has reported an additional .76 inches to bring the total for the month to 8.35 inches. The recording last Thursday was .18; Saturday .16; Monday .30 and Tuesday .12.

Some parts of the county report a much heavier rainfall over the same period of time and have plenty of proof to back up their reports as there are a number of fields that are covered with water and lakes are certainly bountiful everywhere.

The Ashtola section and the east part of the county in spots have received several hard downpours that have damaged land considerably. In most sections, fields are much too soggy to try to enter with a tractor and planting is going to be delayed until we have a number of hot sunny days. Those who had crops up from an early planting either lost them or have a very poor stand. The wheat in the area is reported to be holding its own very well and has been spared in most instances as far as the hail was concerned. There were several sections of forty bushel wheat wiped out up on the plains just outside of Donley County and the local growers are hoping for a long sunny spell with no more rain.

Red Cross Helps Support VA Hospital In Amarillo

"Amarillo Veterans Hospital is the best Red Cross supported hospital in the entire area," Dr. Geo. O. Pratt, the manager told members of the North Plains Community Service to Camps and Hospitals of the American Red Cross at the groups monthly meeting.

The hospital manager visited the Council meeting to thank members for their immediate response to numerous requests for service and materials made by staff members. He especially commended the Council for financing the construction of a lighted sports arena on the hospital grounds.

The sports arena was erected at a cost of $1500.00, contributed by Pampa, Huthinson, Donley, Armstrong, Randall, Swisher, Castro, Deaf Smith, and Potter County chapters, and was formally dedicated with a field lighting ceremonial Monday night, May 5th.

On behalf of the North Plains Community Service to Camps and Hospitals, Mrs. E. S. Ballew, chairman of Clarendon, Texas, presented the field to the Veterans and personnel of the V. A. hospital. Dr. Pratt, manager, accepted and expressed his thanks to all counties connected with the work. Mr. Lawrence Hagy, mayor of Amarillo in a short speech praised the group for the many gifts and supplies sent the hospital. These gifts are many and varied, ranging in scope from cookies and watermelons to collapsible wheel chairs for amputees, stage lighting and pool tables. Each county also furnishes entertainment at intervals throughout the year.

The occupational therapy department is growing, so is the service work shop, and supplies were allowed both these departments at the May meeting. The nurses quarters were given funds for furniture to make their porches more enjoyable thru the hot months.

At this time labor to help construct a miniature golf course, croquet ground and horse shoe pitching field is needed. Flowers for the dining rooms and wards are always deeply appreciated.

Poppy Brings Help To Disabled Veterans

Help and hope is being brought to thousands of disabled war veterans throughout the country by the American Legion Auxiliary's memorial poppy program. Mrs. Dale Hill, Poppy Chairman of Clarendon Unit of the Auxiliary reported at the Unit's April meeting.

Plans for the annual distribution of poppies here on Poppy Day, May 24, were outlined by Mrs. Hill.

"Help from the poppy has been going to disabled veterans all through the winter and spring," the Poppy Chairman said. "Months ago the Auxiliary went into the hospitals and convalescent workrooms with materials for making crepe paper poppies and gave gainful employment to thousands of veterans. These veterans have been making poppies ever since, with more than 25,000,000 expected to be completed before Poppy Day.

"By making poppies, veterans helpless from wounds or illness discover that they can do something useful. The Auxiliary uses the crepe paper poppy because it must be made by hand and its completion is more of an accomplishment than assembling a cloth flower. As the veterans shape the little red blooms, they gain confidence that they can do other useful things.

"Hospital hours are not long and empty when there are poppies to be made. Hands are busy and muscles gain strength from the gentle exercise. Minds are occupied and recovery is aided.

"Pay day is an encouraging experience for the disabled. They find that they actually have been able to earn money again and they gain new hope for the future. The money the Auxiliary pays the veterans goes for little comforts to brighten hospital days; for a nest egg for the difficult days of rehabilitation, or it is hurried home to help support the veteran's wife and children."

Poppies will be sold on the streets of Clarendon Saturday, May 24 by the Auxiliary members. Poppies to be distributed here are being made at Legion, Texas.

Dodgers Lose To Memphis 8 to 10

The Clarendon Dodgers met defeat again last Sunday afternoon and this time it was to the boys from Memphis. The game went for 10 innings and the score ended 8 to 10 in favor of the visitors.

A large crowd was on hand to see the game and also see Clyde Futman put the locals in the game by connecting a homer with the bases loaded. Billy Mooring also connected one with one man on base. Bonnie Mooring led the locals for hits with three to his credit and Lee Head went all the way on the mound and pitched a very good game. A few errors on the part of the Dodgers accounted for the defeat, for they had a good lead and let it slip.

They are not discouraged a bit though, and plan to do their very best to bring home a win from Childress this next Sunday. They will leave Clarendon for the game at 12:30 Sunday afternoon. Go along and give them all the support you can.

COUNTY AGENT PASSES INFORMATION ON TO ROSE GARDENERS

Owners of rose gardens in Donley county have made many calls at the office of county agent H. M. Breedlove in regard to black spots and dying of leaves on their roses. The "Black Spot" disease on roses can be controlled by dusting the roses with wettable sulphur. The best method to use is to wet the roses with the garden hose and dust the sulphur over the roses while still wet and the sulphur will stick to the leaves of the branches.

"Black Spot", a fungus disease, appears principally on the leaves, originating and spreading mostly when the leaves are wet during heavy rainy seasons. One pound of wettable sulphur will dust approximately 75 rose bushes.

LIBRARY NOTES

By Mrs. C. A. Burton

North Texas State Teachers

College at Denton is sending out invitations to librarians to attend their Eighth Annual Clinic for Librarians to be held June 13-14.

The principal speaker is John A.

Lomax, internationally known as a collector of ballads. He has a new book just off the press "Adventures of a Ballad Hunter."

Mrs. C. B. Morris, who passes on quite a few worth-while books to us, sent us two the past week,

"Try and Stop Me," by Bennett

Cerf, and "Independent People" by Halldor Laxness, translated from the Icelandic by J. A. Thompson. We have been trying to get stories of other lands—this is our first on Iceland.

Besides this gift, we have several new books, several non-fiction, a few for the small people who are depending on us now that the school libraries are closed. For instance Mrs. Donald Ballew gave each of the children from her school a summer membership in the library and quite a number of them began checking out books Saturday. We are delighted to have them. We want so much to have the people all over the county to enjoy the library.

In addition to these we have

"U. S. Naval Academy"—a history

sponsored by the Naval Academy;

"Invitation to Learning, The Significance of Great

Books and Their Authors," by Cairns, Tate and Van Doren; "A

Lincoln," a life of Lincoln for young people by Lockridge; "Jan

Son of Finn" by A. J. Dawson, a new dog story; "America's Fighting Planes in Action," Reed Kernert; "The Founders of Modern Medicine—Pasteur, Koch, Lister" by Elie Metchnikoff; "Oklahoma-

broes" by E. D. Nix, former U. S. Marshall of Oklahoma Territory;

"Sixteen Famous American Plays" including those which have been well known in the past few years; "Alice in Letterland," Joe De Meers; "Clover," by Fritz Willis.

To be released this month is a new Ernie Pyle book, called "Home Country." Before he went overseas on his last trip from which there was no returning he said he hoped they would some day, publish this book—he thought it was the best thing he had ever written. So now it is to be published.

The author of "The Black Rose," Thomas Costain, will have published a new book in July—"The Moneyman." It has been chosen by the Book-of-the-Month Club. The "Black Rose" has sold over 1,500,000 copies.

Erich Moria Remarque, who became famous as a writer in World War I still writes, and he recently sold to Enterprise a synopsis of "The Other Love," but he says they used so little of it that he will expand it into a full novel.

Thirty students from Latin America visited the Library of Congress one day recently.

Princeton University expects to complete its new $4,000,000

Harvey S. Firestone Memorial Library soon. It will have a book capacity of 1,800,000 volumes, and will provide work space for 1,875 persons.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

When Ed's Crops Failed

Three years ago Ed Smith's luck went bad. His crops failed, and it wasn't long before Ed's home and furnishings were up for auction.

Half the town turned out, and Ed must have thought his neighbors were a bunch of hungry vultures—buying up all his precious possessions for a song.

When it was over, and the auctioneer had left, Sam Abernathy turns to the crowd and says: "All right, folks, let's take time out for a glass of beer, and then put this stuff back where it belongs!"

Two hours later, Ed was in possession of his home and furnishings; and the folks who'd paid for them were sitting around Ed's fire enjoying a neighborly glass of beer—to show their friendship and their confidence in Ed.

Today, Ed's back on his feet—another constructive member of the community. And from where I sit, we've all been well repaid—a good investment in a good man.

BOWLING with the BOWLERS

The rains have come and gone but the bowling still goes on. The bowlers are still blowing and going in strong tide. Two weeks ago an Individual Sweepstakes tourney was held on the local lanes with no one barred from entry. The Sweepstakes was for the total pins of any three games rolled in succession.

First to set up an interesting score to shoot at was Gayle Pyeatt with a total of 644 pins in three games which is not bad. Jack Owens then crowded this score with 640 pins and others were shooting all around this score which stayed up for 5 days then the pressure became too intense so Pyeatt just decided to relieve the pressure from his back and rolled 680 pins Saturday night for the boys to shoot at with only Sunday afternoon left to play. It ended up with Pyeatt taking first prize and Jack Owens second.

Last week we tried the Rag-time Doubles where you can choose a partner and bowl three games in succession and total both pins for your score. In this you can choose as many partners as you like, but never the same partner twice.

Through Friday 1174 pins for high was held by Jimmie Jenkins and Gayle Pyeatt. Jimmy was also holding second place with H. G. Bobbitt with 1169 pins. Then Saturday evening Jimmie and Paul Schull partnered off and set a new high of 1241. This score remained in first place but Dr. Beck and Schull were knocking at the door with 1240 pins which took second place.

These scores are mighty good and right up there with the top notchers. It is understood that the American Bowling Congress held once yearly for the big boys was won this year with a total of 740 pins in three games on the singles, which was made up of thousands of professionals from all over the world with $10,000.00 for the prize.

If you people want to see some good bowling and sportsmanship with lots of fun just turn out any night and join the bowlers.

Rich soil—rich people. So goes the topsoil, so goes the people.

MOTHER'S (DAZE) DAYS

Lena Antrobus

When mother was a little girl As every body knows— She learned to knit, to cook and sew And how to make her clothes.

So when she went to keeping house She knew just how it goes; It was not any thing but fun And she made all her clothes.

One day a neighbor passing by Stopped in to beg a rose, And what was her surprise to see Her making baby clothes.

Soon children filled the house with joy, And troubles too I s'pose; But mother just kept calm and sweet, And kept on making clothes.

When friends and neighbors round about Had troubles, griefs and woes— She went right in and helped them out

By fixing up their clothes. The children soon were growing up And catching all the beaux

So mother tried to help them out By making pretty clothes. Now wedding bells are ringing out

For Ruth and little sister Rose; So mother did her very best In making wedding clothes.

Ah, me! now mother's work is done; She needs a calm repose, But if there comes an S.O.S.

"Grandma" will make the clothes.

WARREN-BUTLER

In an impressive wedding ceremony, Ardith Warren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Warren, Clarendon, became the bride of Jimmy Lee Butler, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Butler of Lelia Lake, on Saturday evening, May 17th, in the home of the bride's parents.

Rev. Hal Upchurch, pastor of the First Baptist Church, read the single ring service. The ceremony began when Marilyn Butler, sister of the groom, lighted the tapers while Miss Nita Heath, pianist, played "Let the Rest of the World Go By." Other pre-nuptial music played by Miss Heath was "Clair de Lune" by Claude Debussy and Arvazene Smith sang "Indian Love Call" by Friml. As a soft accompaniment for the exchange of vows Miss Heath played "Always" by Irving Berlin.

The bride and groom stood before an arch banked with Huckleberry and white wedding bells. Candelabra bearing cathedral tapers and arrangements of white lilies and orange blossoms completed the decorative appointments.

Attending the bride as a maid-of-honor, Miss Louise Underdown was attired in a white eyelet dress. Her corsage was of red rose buds.

Ray Rumpy attended the groom as best man.

The bride was attired in a dress of beige crepe, fashioned with a plain bodice and softly pleated skirt. She carried a single orchid arranged with net and streamers on a white Bible. Following the ceremony a reception was held in the home.

The bride's table, covered with a lace cloth, bore the three tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom. Mrs. V. L. Smith presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. Ed Speed served the cake, assisted by Misses Jo Kidd and Sue Smith. Miss Delene Blair served at the Bride's Book.

After a short wedding trip to Oklahoma, the couple is to be at home in Clarendon.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding were Messrs. and Mesdames O. D. Roberts, Richard Roberts and Miss Mary Roberts, all of Amarillo; Andrew Womack of Memphis, W. M. Mace of Lelia Lake and L. D. Aten Jr. of Hereford.

Put Cream In Your Coffee

CHICAGO—If you want to do yourself a favor, put cream in your coffee.

Because the cream will give you a 40 per cent better chance of avoiding coffee-induced ulcers.

"Research has shown," declares the National Dairy Council, "that cream is good for you. But the value of putting cream in coffee is one of those mighty important little things that many men and women ignore, or forget, or don't know about.

"Yet thousands and thousands of adults are worried about ulcers, or are trying to get rid of them.

"So here's a simple little thing that you can do, if you are a coffee drinker, that might add greatly to your health and happiness: use cream in your coffee.

"It works this way: The caffeine in coffee provokes an unusually heavy and prolonged flow of digestive juices. That heavy flow may contribute to the tendency to ulcers, or may aggravate an existing ulcer. But add cream to the coffee and the cream reduces by 40 per cent the flow of digestive juices that is caused by caffeine.

"So, to safeguard your health, use cream in your coffee."

Cancer Fund Drive Time Extended

HOUSTON — With 13 Texas counties already "over the top" with their quotas, the campaign of the American Cancer Society to raise funds to fight the menace of cancer has been extended through the month of May, Frank C. Smith, Houston, president of the Texas Division, American Cancer Society, announced today. Mr. Smith sent congratulations to the counties which have exceeded their quotas and urged the other counties to continue their campaign until their goal is reached.

"I salute the workers," said Mr. Smith, "for their outstanding and unselfish work. We are far ahead of last year's record and I am sure we can meet our objectives with the combined help of all of our workers."

The national campaign also has been extended until all divisions have achieved their initial objectives. The national goal is $12,000,000, of which $3,114,995.79 has been raised. The Texas goal is $432,240.

The funds are badly needed to help fight cancer which is on the increase in Texas, 6,343 deaths having been reported from cancer in 1946 as compared with 5,948 in 1945.

Soil feeds our nation—conserve it.

There should be more teaching of land use and management.

More Soil Conservation Means BETTER FARMS and BETTER LIVING

"Conserve the Soil" has been the advice given by experts for many years. And the soil conservation practices which have been carried out in this county have proven to be worthwhile, and more and more farmers are taking part.

We think this soil building program is one of the most important steps which has been undertaken to improve conditions of the farms. It means that the fertility of the soil will not be depleted as in some other sections, and production will be increased by these practices.

Veterans' News

1. Medicine in the Veterans Administration has advanced until today it ranks as the outstanding medical program in the world. Veterans entering our hospitals are assured of treatment at the hands of physicians who are among the most qualified in the nation. This goal has been achieved primarily because the doctors of this country responded whole-heartedly to our call for help and brought into our hospitals the vast resources of their skills, training and knowledge. We met this crisis, not because we depended upon ourselves, but because we said, "This is not a problem for the Veterans Administration. It is a problem for American medicine. More than that, it is a problem for the American people." This achievement, made possible through the fullest use of outside resources, is our best example of the new thinking and the new technique that should guide all operations in the Veterans Administration.

2. In twenty months we have discharged more than 685,000 patients from our rapidly growing hospital system. With improved medical care we have more than doubled the rate of turnover in patients. We have added more than 23,000 hospital beds in VA hospitals alone. We have provided almost 8,000,000 out-patient examinations. We have given almost 6,000,000 out-patient treatments.

3. We have established thirteen branch offices for supervision and control of local operations. We have opened fourteen new regional offices and have moved 28 regional offices from remote locations to downtown centers of metropolitan areas. We have established 721 contact offices in the smaller towns and 305 advisement and guidance centers. We have opened 29 additional hospitals, including surplus Army and Navy institutions. We have opened 152 out-patient clinics and 31 clinics for mental hygiene. 4. During this same period we have handled more than 5,500,000 pension and compensation cases for veterans and their dependents. We have paid more than $1,865,000,000 in disability benefits.

5. In twenty months we have guaranteed $3,875,000,000 worth of veterans' loans on homes, businesses and farms.

6. We have paid out more than $2,000,000,000 in readjustment allowances.

7. In twenty months we have handled almost 6,500,000 applications for education and training. We have paid out more than $2,000,000,000 in subsistence and tuition. Most important, we have been able to meet with only rare exceptions the demands of more than 14,000,000 veterans of World War II during the critical period of their readjustment. We can take some satisfaction in knowing that our work has substantially aided the rapid return of more than 11,000,000 veterans to jobs and the enrollment at one time or another of approximately 3,200,000 veterans in education and training. All this has been accomplished without any significant failure or serious breakdown within the Veterans Administration.

We have now completed this emergency growth. The emergency phase of our work is ended; a new high-production period has just begun.

Although we have leveled off in size, there has been no slow-up in our work. We have reached the point where we can put greater emphasis on more efficient production and strive for steadily increasing quality.

For the duration of the Servicemen's Readjustment Act, there is little likelihood of any substantial cut-back in our need for personnel funds. However, when the life of this Act eventually runs out, we can anticipate sizable reductions in both employees and in costs. This will signal the start of a third or peacetime cycle in our work. Even during that period, however, reductions in readjustment services will be offset partially by increases in the medical and compensation programs provided by existing laws.

During the new high-production period we have entered, the tempo of our activity will be governed considerably by the economic climate of the nation. As long as we maintain prosperity levels of employment and income, veterans will have lesser need for their readjustment benefits. However, if an economic recession should strike the nation, the veterans Administration will be confronted with a new and critical period of emergency. Readjustment allowances would be called upon to support jobless veterans during their period of unemployment. And it is probable that education and training benefits would be sought by many other veterans in their effort to ride out a recession.

In spite of the rapid strides we have made in the Veterans Administration during the emergency readjustment period, I am disturbed by reports of failure to render service I know that in an undertaking as huge as this, we can never reach perfection. But too often when I am called before Congress to explain our personnel requirements, I am confronted with examples of carelessness and delay in the performance of our work. We must remember that we shall be judged not so much by our accomplishments as by our deficiencies.

Now more than ever before we must concentrate on prompt and direct service to veterans. We are dealing with men, not procedures; with their problems, not ours. We must constantly seek to understand those personal problems and exercise the imagination to solve them. We cannot permit administrative difficulties to obscure the objectives of our work. We shall not do our job as it should be done until we remember that the end is more important than the means, that every bit of work must contribute something to the welfare of the veteran.

When I came into this agency on V-J Day, I recognized that we faced a period of crisis which we could not survive without the trust and confidence of the American people. We asked them to be patient with us and to endure delays while we sought to modernize and expand the machinery for this job. I can no longer ask for more patience. The public has a right to expect prompt, courteous, and efficient service from the Veterans Administration. More than ever before, I must hold each assistant and deputy administrator individually responsible for the efficiency of services under his direction. I am not at all unmindful of the strenuous effort most of you have already put into this job. But I doubt that any of you are as yet satisfied—any more than I—with what we have achieved.

PLOWIN' Out the CORNERS by Uncle Zeb

I believe everybody likes a man that is friendly, and that goes down the street hollering Hello Joe, or Bill, or Uncle Zeb to all of his friends, but there are some fellows like this that make me just a little unhappy; they are the fellows that always say "Hello Big Boy" or "Shorty or Slim or Kid." Some of them will even call you "Short Stuff, Big Shot, or Little Squirt". I know their intentions are good, but I had still much rather be called by my proper handle. I don't care anything about being called Mister or anything fancy, but just plain old Joe or Bill, or Uncle Zeb. I may be the only person in the world that feels this way for all I know. Anyway, if they offer to buy me a "Coke" or call me in time for dinner, I don't get very mad, it just kinda rubs me the wrong way.

Heard a Mother quoting the following as an old time saying. I had never heard it before, and I don't quite understand it. Some of you Mothers please explain it to me, or maybe some of you Fathers could explain it, but it strikes me that a Father just wouldn't understand it. Anyway for what it's worth, "here it is; A Son is a Son, until he gets a Wife; A Daughter is a Daughter, all her life. Remember I didn't say anything either way, as I was only quoting.

I understand they accepted me as a member of "The Country Boys Club", and it so far, hasn't cost me a penny. Thanks Boys, I was afraid maybe I was too polished to become a member. If there is one thing in the world that I like to do better than anything else, it is join something.

and the less it costs, the better I like it. Anyway, thanks for "Taking me in", and if there is ever a vacancy in the Third Vice-Presidency I would like to run for the job.

I still would like to have some "Old Time Sayings", or better still a letter from all the Readers of the Leader (I am taking for granted that if you read the rest of the paper, you read my column too), giving me your ideas on things in general. Write me in care of the Leader, and I won't use your name, unless you say that it's alright.

Austrian Winter Peas Gaining Popularity

Thirty-five farmers and ranchers attended a result demonstration of Austrian winter peas on the R. E. Drennan farm, held by county agent H. M. Breedlove this past Friday. The group looked over the fifty acres of peas and Breedlove explained the planting and use of the peas as pasture and soil building crop for Donley County. Mr. C. J. Minnick, farmer in Donley County also explained to the group his experience with Austrian winter peas in previous years. Mr. Minnick has 550 acres of the peas on his farm north of Hedley and will turn them under for soil building crop. Thirty thousand pounds of Winter peas were planted in the county this year and good reports come from farmers and ranchers all over the county.

From all indications at this time there will be several car loads of Austrian Winter pea seed planted in the county this fall. This will give us a good winter cover crop and also pasture. The peas can be turned under in the spring for a green manure crop or harvested for hay.

My nieces and nephews know that figures tell the truth when the figures deal with the results of systematic savings through the Payroll Savings Plan. Take a look at this chart. Circle the figure you need to achieve some goal for yourself or your family. Then move over to the column which tells you how much you need to save each week in U. S. Savings Bonds to attain your objective. The whole thing is as simple as adding one to three, because your Uncle Sam pays you an extra dollar for every $3 you put in Series E Savings Bonds when you hold the Bonds to maturity 10 years hence.
