Utility Strike Bill Introduced By Rep. Gilmer

Among the many bills dropped in the legislative hopper at Austin seeking to cure the evils inherent in strikes is one relating to strikes by utility employees introduced by the Honorable Claud Gilmer of Rock Springs, Speaker of the House of Representatives during the last regular session.

Mr. Gilmer's bill applies only to water, gas, and electric utilities and proceeds on the theory that the maintenance of water, gas and electric services are absolutely essential to the life, health and safety of the people, and that it is the duty of the state to prevent any person or group of persons from wilfully destroying or damaging the facilities used in rendering the service.

His bill further provides that although any employee or group of employees have the right to strike or quit work at will, it shall be unlawful for any person or persons, whether employees or not, to interfere with the ingress or egress of any employees to or from any property of any utility by picketing, or to harass or intimidate any employees who are willing to work in order that the service may be maintained.

Under the terms of the Gilmer bill, it is a felony punishable by a penitentiary sentence for any person to wilfully wreck, destroy, or sabotage any plant, equipment or facility of a water, gas, or electric utility.

Mr. Gilmer's bill applies to utilities furnishing water, gas and electric service whether the utility be a private corporation, a municipality or a state agency, such as a River Authority.

This is to take care of such situations as happened to the L.C.R.A. this past year when service to a good many towns there was interrupted and also such situations as the Pittsburgh power strike.

HIGH BROW STUFF.
Diplomacy is the art of cutting the other fellow's throat without using a knife.

THE PENALTY.
The poorest man in the world is the one who is always wanting more than he has.

GARDEN GUESS.
New York state claims to grow most cabbages, and yet Florida produces most cigars. How do you reconcile this mess?

SMART PUPIL.
When asked to name and define two kinds of milk, the bright pupil stated that pasteurized milk was obtained from cows that grazed in a pasture, and that homogenized milk was obtained from homing pigeons. Well, folks, we have all heard about pigeon milk before, but never before had it fully explained.

FORGOTTEN MAN.

LIVING LONGER.
The principal objection to old age is that there is no future to it. Old folks who have been through the roughs are more inclined to enlighten us as to just how to live longest. An old lady in the malaria belt of east Oklahoma at 107 suggests that wearing two petticoats has enabled her to slap the grim reaper away from her doorstep. But the remedy lets most of us out. What man would be content to become a walking circus troupe? Then an old lady down in ole Alabama at 116 comes to the rescue by saying eating cornbread, ribbon cane lasses, and plenty of hard work has pulled her past the century mark. I had begun to think she had something there in her testimony until she spoke of the work portion. Then on the other hand, we do know that lazy people seldom live to a ripe old age. They rust out at around middle life or before. Those who lead a busy life live the longest, we are told, and one old man right here above 90, tells me that when a fellow lets down and retires from an active life, that he is a goner in a few months. All I got to say is that the present generation of kids are destined to kick off at around 40 unless we can get them interested in gymnasium games, foot races, boxing and open air exercise if the testimony of our old folks is of any value in checking up on longevity.

Farm Placement Service Causing Hardships

The present farm placement service, as now operated by the U. S. Department of Agriculture through the extension service and county agents in Texas, is causing considerable unnecessary hardships to job-seeking veterans in small communities, Robt. M. McKinley, member of the Texas Unemployment Compensation Commission, declared today.

McKinley said that the present system sets up absurd barriers between unemployed veterans and agricultural jobs they would be qualified to fill. As a direct result, veteran unemployment in Texas is now largely the problem of small agricultural communities even though they have local employment offices staffed to serve workers and employers, whether agricultural or non-agricultural. The Employment Service, although created by Texas and federal law to benefit all unemployed and all employers seeking workers, is powerless to aid the agricultural worker because of an artificial dividing line.

The Texas Commissioner recently returned from a series of conferences in Washington held by the Legislative Committee of Employment Security Agencies. At those conferences plans were adopted by which every state will urge Congress to return the farm placement service to the Employment Service where the agencies believe it can be efficiently handled. In most of the smaller communities of Texas veteran unemployment is still the largest problem, McKinley went on to explain. These veterans formerly worked on farms. Although they may be reporting to the local Employment Service offices seeking work and although farmers in those areas may need workers, we can not get veterans jobs on farms.

Under the present system, the veteran must seek out the county agent and apply to him for farm work, return to the employment office to file a second application for work, and then file a claim for readjustment allowances. From then on he may draw his $20 a week payments because the Employment Service can not refer him to an agricultural job and there is no system of control by which the Unemployment Compensation Commission may be advised should the veteran refuse suitable agricultural work.

McKinley pointed out that the present county agent system creates a number of absurd artificial barriers. For instance, the Employment Service can refer an individual to a job in a cotton gin, but cannot place him on a job to plow the field surrounding the gin. The Employment Service can get a job for a worker at a packing shed, but at the end of a packing season cannot refer him to a job with a fruit or vegetable grower just across the road.

Commissioner McKinley went on to say that for a smaller community to have a balanced economy it was necessary that there be a normal, seasonal flow of workers between in-town, especially rural, industries and farms surrounding the town. The artificial barrier of the TUCC's not being able to handle farm placements in many instances often shuts off half the local labor market. This causes excessive payments of unemployment insurance which may affect local employers' taxes as well as payments of G. I. readjustment allowances to individuals from whom the Employment Service division of the TUCC could find agricultural jobs if allowed to do so.

This artificially divided program is costing taxpayers thousands of unnecessary dollars each year, McKinley concluded.

American cheese represented the only single item increase with a gain of 14 per cent over November and 43 per cent over December, 1945.

Farm Cash Income

For Texas farmers 1946 was a year of prosperity from the standpoint of farm cash income which totaled $1,246,883,000 for an increase of 9 per cent over 1945 according to The University of Texas Bureau of Business Research. In dollars and cents this set a new record and smashed all previous yearly intakes.

December income reached $92,346,000 to dip 32 per cent from November but was 13 per cent above income in December 1945.

The Bureau's seasonally adjusted index for December rose to 260.3 compared with November's index of 252.7. This means that December farm cash income was 160.8 per cent above the pre-war level when the 1935-39 monthly average index stood at 100.

Compared with December 1945, farm cash income increased on an average of 13 per cent with gains in every district except the Lower Rio Grande Valley, where a late-starting fruit and vegetable season brought income down 34 per cent for the year.

That Ring Around the Bathtub

Jeb Crowell blew his top the other day. Seems that for weeks he's been trying to get his youngsters to scrub out the bathtub after using it. And this night he sees two rings around it—one where young Sonny left off, and another about Pinky's level.

He raves and rants—and takes it out on the missus for her lack of discipline. And later that evening he sees her quietly polishing the hardwood table that's right by his chair. She's removing the rings he's left there with his evening glass of beer!

From now on, Jeb's careful to put his glass down on the table cover—like the missus does. And I hear he's a little more forgiving about rings around the bathtub. Just keeps on patiently reminding.

From where I sit, there are little annoyances in every family—conflicting habits and opinions in every community. A little patience—a little more "forgive and let live" is the only antidote.

Manufacture Of Dairy Products

Manufacturers of dairy products in Texas suffered an 11 per cent drop in production coming on top of the 27 per cent dip in November manufacture according to The University of Texas Bureau of Business Research.

Production totaled 49,857,000 pounds (milk equivalent consumed) to gain 9 per cent over December, 1945.

Ice cream production, including sherbets and ices, was up 18 per cent for the year, setting an all-time record for December ice cream manufacture.

Creamery butter consumed 45 per cent of the milk used in dairy manufacturing plants but sustained a slump of 16 per cent from November and 10 per cent from December, 1945.

Mrs. Brodie hits the roof!

No, no, this isn't a new Atom Bomb! It's merely Mrs. Brodie, after a quiet family conference with Mr. Brodie. Mr. B. made a few sharp remarks about their family budget.

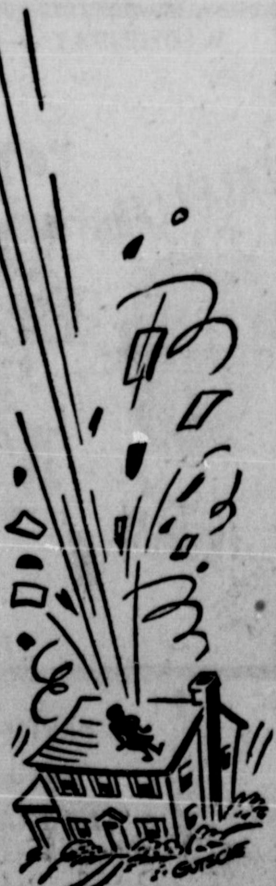

Naturally, Mrs. Brodie hit the roof! And, like the cost of living, her temper kept right on going up and UP!

On the other hand, the cost of electricity, like Mr. Brodie's popularity at home, is going down and DOWN!

The Brodies (and you, too, if yours is an average family) get plenty of electricity for every budget dollar—more than twice as much as 20 years ago!

This domestic bargain took plenty of practical planning and technical skill on the part of your friends and neighbors in this company, under sound business management.

Auto Owners Must Have Current Registration

If your Texas auto license has expired before March 1, or if you have established a business or residence in Texas from out of state, you must have a current Texas registration in order to qualify for a 1947 license, the highway patrolman's office emphasized today.

Car owners should check their registration papers, and automobiles should be checked. A number of accidents have been caused in this area recently by automobiles not in proper operating condition, the highway patrolman said.

A Texas dealer's license is restricted for use only by a demonstrator, or by a purchaser of a new car, who may use the license to drive to his home county for registration, the patrolman emphasized.

The tax collector's office now has 1947 license plates, and these may be purchased at any time, but may not be attached before March 1, it was announced.

Veterans' News

All former members of the armed forces who had active service between October 8, 1940, and September 2, 1945, are eligible to apply for National Service Life Insurance, the Veterans Administration reports.

The only exception is when a person was specifically ordered to active duty for 30 days or less in the case of a few Reserve Officers, VA said.

A large majority of service men and women took out NSLI policies during their military service, but there were many who did not avail themselves of the government insurance and who are still eligible for the benefit, VA said.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Landers and children Don and Mary Ann returned home Sunday afternoon from a nice visit with her brother Mr. and Mrs. Dorr Ellis and her father C. H. Ellis at Eagle Pass, Texas and also visited Mr. Landers' relatives at Lampasas.

AMERICAN LEGION TO HOLD OPENING OF NEW HOME AT McLEAN

McLEAN, Feb. 12 — Formal opening of the new home of the Andrew H. Floyd post of the American Legion in this city will be held Thursday night, Feb. 20, Ernest Beck, commander of the post, announced today.

The new Legion hall—once the commissioned officers' mess at the McLean Prisoner of War camp—has been moved into town, redecorated, and will be put into operation as the home for McLean Legionnaires following the formal opening.

The opening will be in the form of a dance, with music by the well-known orchestra, Victor Diaz and his Sextet, from Pampa. Highlighting the evening's entertainment will be a floor show presented by Marie and Margaret, Spanish dancers.

The new hall has hardwood floors throughout, a ladies powder room, and other facilities. About 3,000 square feet comprise the dancing area.

Dancers from a number of surrounding towns, including Pampa, Shamrock, Wheeler, Wellington, and Clarendon, have already signified their intentions of attending the opening dance, Commander Beck said, as he urged other towns to send representatives to give a "big send-off" to the local post.

Admission charges will be $5.00 per couple. All proceeds will go to the Legion's building fund.

Mrs. Redell Henson and baby are home from the Memphis hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Edlin and Mrs. C. C. Gilbert of Amarillo visited Mrs. Clyde Gilbert Sat.

DONLEY COUNTY CONSUMERS FROZEN FOOD LOCKERS TO HOLD OPEN HOUSE SAT.

The people of Clarendon and surrounding territory can be justly proud of one of the finest, most modern locker plants anywhere in the Southwest. This new plant, Donley County Consumers Frozen Food Lockers, includes every feature that could be incorporated in any plant to give you a complete service, and will be open for public inspection this Saturday, Feb. 15th.

This plant has a complete killing floor where you may bring your animals to be slaughtered in a sanitary, slaughter house. Every precaution is taken to see that they are dressed to comply with all State regulations. After the carcass is dressed, it is placed in a chill room where all animal heat is removed. This chill room must be kept for state inspection at any time. Each half of the animal is placed on an individual hook in chill room on a track where no two pieces of the carcass touch. After it has been properly chilled, it is rolled into the age room to be aged to your specifications.

Another feature of this locker service is the pork curing department where adequate facilities are installed to sugar cure, smoke cure or salt cure your pork, render your lard and grind your sausage. You will find this department to be ultra modern in every respect to give you the best service available.

In the poultry department you will be interested in seeing a new electric chicken picker with the capacity of picking 100 chickens an hour. You may bring your chickens in alive, have them killed, picked, dressed, and placed in cartons where they are kept perfectly from one season to another.

In the processing department your meat is brought out of the age room and cut up with an electric saw, wrapped first in wax paper where it is completely vapor-sealed and double wrapped for additional safety. Each individual customer's meat is placed in a separate container going into the sharp freeze where it is quick frozen before being placed in the locker. It is absolutely necessary that each package go through the sharp-freeze room before going into the locker in order to assure that your product is quick frozen to prevent any breaking down of the cell tissue. This is necessary of fruits and vegetables as well as meats.

The finest machinery that money can buy has been acquired by the Donley County Consumers Frozen Food Locker Plant, incorporating blast freezing which assures freezing your products much quicker than old methods. You will find in this modern plant the newest type of steel lockers, providing 6 cubic feet in any easy accessible locker, being 24" wide, 30" long and 15" deep. These lockers face a wide spacious aisle.

A new safety ladder is provided which locks to the floor when you step on it. It is equipped with a basket, assuring you of the most convenient as well as safe means of using your locker.

This new plant is constructed of brick and tile and insulated with corkboard, which is the standard of fine insulation. This assures you that when your products are placed in your locker they will remain in perfect condition as long as you leave them there.

You are fortunate in having a plant of this type in Clarendon. You are invited to visit this modern plant Saturday, February 15. Lawrence Neece, manager of the plant, will be assisted by an able staff who will serve you coffee and doughnuts, and show you through this new plant and explain every detail of its operation.

Once upon a time a man got up early on a Saturday morning to let the iceman in and not being able to find his bathrobe, slipped on his wife's kimona. When he opened the door he was greeted with a big kiss from the iceman. And the only way he could figure it out was that the iceman's wife had a kimona just like the one he was wearing.

Mrs. A. C. Walker of Amarillo is visiting in the W. B. Sims home this week.

warded a certificate. He was selected as one of eleven for the special class, because of his high rating in the aptitude test given by the company and satisfactory work he had done in previous studies and field work.

Mr. McClure is a member of the Eli Gregg Agency of Lubbock. Because of his good record thus far, he has been invited to return to the home office for two more schools during the coming year, for training in advanced underwriting.

Weekly SURPLUS NEWS WAA

About three billion dollars' worth of surplus capital and producer goods and $164,483,311 worth of surplus consumer goods will go on sale through out the nation under WAA's "Second Operational Program" beginning Feb. 1st. Thirty-six national sales of capital and producers goods and forty eight national sales of consumer goods will be launched through regional offices, during the first few weeks of the over all, four-month program for February, March, April and May.

Approximately 300,000 surplus used coats for which the government paid $1,929,200 will be offered for sale soon to all trade levels at new reduced prices of 80 cents each. The coats are covered with white or olive drab canvas duck. They have hard wood rails, ends and legs. They will be sold folded and loose, f.o.b. location and will be offered in minimum lots of $50 to small retailers and $500 to wholesalers and large retailers. Detailed information may be had from the Dallas regional office, Post Office Box 6030, Dallas.

The Fort Worth regional office is holding a bargain sale of paints, varnish and shellac. Purchasers are limited to holders of HH priority certificates, buying for use in veterans' housing program. The items are in lots ranging from one to 3,290 gallons, mostly in small lots. They include pure gum shellac, enamels and vari-colored paints. All merchandise is located at the WAA warehouse, Fort Worth. Further information may be had from WAA, Post Office Box 1407, Ft. Worth.

Special types of surplus fire-fighting equipment will be channeled to municipal and volunteer fire departments to combat rising fire losses throughout the nation, WAA has announced. Surplus equipment such as ladder trucks, pumping engines, crash trucks and office of civilian defense type pumps is urgently needed by municipal fire departments to replace old and worn equipment, WAA said. Federal agencies will continue to exercise their priority rights; however, since these agencies do not normally purchase this type of property, municipal and volunteer fire departments will have, in practice, exclusive access to surplus fire-fighting equipment.

More than 7,700,000 pairs of surplus half soles will be offered for sale by WAA at new reduced fixed prices ranging from six cents to eight cents a pair for the various trade levels. Orders will be accepted concurrently from priority claimants and other buyers including exporters, from February 15 to March 7, 1947. The half soles are black, made of composition rubber, one-quarter inch thick, in sizes six to 11, inclusive. Any WAA regional office will supply detailed information on the offering.

The Fort Worth regional office of WAA is holding one of the largest sales of electrical equipment and supplies yet to be held in the region. Hundreds of different items of electrical merchandise are included in the sale, which closes Feb. 24. Further information may be obtained from WAA, P. O. Box 1407, Ft. Worth.

WAA is currently distributing a 16-page booklet entitled, "How to Buy or Lease Surplus Real Estate". The purpose of the pamphlet is to guide business, political subdivisions, institutions, banks and other interested organizations and individuals in taking the steps necessary to acquire government owned surplus real property. Copies of the booklet may be obtained from any WAA regional office of real property disposal.

Your earning power should determine the amount of your life insurance. A definite portion of income should go into insurance each year as long as you earn. We elect mostly lawyers to the State Legislature. We pay them a daily salary for the two year term of One Dollar and Sixty-Four Cents. The average salary of the profession is around Fifteen Dollars a day. According to those figures they wouldn't be supposed to work but about Thirty minutes a day for us. They probably do better than that. I understand it was supposed to be an office of honor, but most of our honorable men (of course, you have to die first), had to live. Just felt a little bad about some of the things I said about them.

Cottonseed received in Texas mills dropped abruptly to total 51,052 tons for a decline of 56 per cent from November and a 19 per cent slump from December 1945. Stocks at the end of the month followed the pattern, dipped 19 per cent below stocks at the end of November and 18 per cent below December, 1945.

PELOWIN' Out the CORNERS by Uncle Zeb

Last week I told you about my little Niece and the worm, and within two days one of my nephews came thru with the following, as if to not let the fairer sex get ahead. Anyway last week my brother-in-law was reading the Star-Telegram, and came across the following letter to the Editor. Dear Editor: I can't help but think what a better world this would be if people only were friendlier toward one another. It takes only a second to say "Hello" and the warmth it creates in the person himself and the people around him make it worth it. A person should be himself and work at what he likes even though he may make less money, for if a person is not contented he won't be friendly, and success will not be his if he isn't friendly. To achieve world wide peace we must begin at home, and it can all be started by a simple "Hello." Signed Robert Lee. He called his wife and had her read it, and she said "Well, it's good but it doesn't apply to me. I speak to everyone I see." So he asked her to read it again. She did and this time she really told him not to accuse her of not speaking to people. When she finally noticed the name, it was written by her seventeen year old son, who was attending a nearby college as a freshman. And by Heck, if that is the kind of stuff our children are learning in college, I wish I could go. It makes me wonder why us "Old Fellows" get to worrying what this younger generation is coming to.

Kinda feel bad today anyway; almost knocked myself out the last week or two trying to write something that I thought you would like. But no letters from anybody. How about you folks that didn't like it writing me, even that would help; better than thinking no one read it at all.

What do you think? What, more sugar for us this year! Maybe this will help us Democrats swallow that bitter Republican Pill.

Gov. Jester ought to have a nice honeymoon for awhile with the Hundred million dollars Dowry, that came with his new job. He can really "Pass The Biscuits" for awhile.

Believe we ought to make up our mind which U. S. Senator we like the best and get rid of the other one. This "Patronage Fussing" is not getting us anywhere fast.

I needed a photo to send in with some papers, so I went to one of these three for a dime places (three for two dimes now), and the cutest and the prettiest lady was in charge. She said I ought to take a cute picture, and when it was finished she really raved about it, and said it would be a shame not to tint it good as it was, and I let her do that. She bragged on it and me some more, and I bought a frame for it. I believe I have already said that she was cute, and then she bragged on me some more—what fine features I had, etc. I was already late for an appointment with the Doctor to see about my rheumatism, so I had to go. Wish now I had cancelled my date with the

LIBRARY NOTES

By Mrs. C. A. Burton
An article in the Daily Press recently was interesting in contrasts. The statement was made that World War II had inspired no great poems—at least none as great as "In Flanders Field" by John McCrae and "I Have a Rendezvous With Death" by Alan Seeger. Few of the songs of War I seem fair to live—as has "Over There" of War I. War II has brought many books both fiction and non-fiction, and it is predicted that probably within the next few years the great book of the war may be written. "All Quiet on the Western Front," written by a German soldier, and published in 1927. 11 years after war, still is considered the outstanding book of War I.

In a recent list of the 10 best sellers of 1946, we find we have 6 of them on our shelves: "The Black Rose," by Costain; "The Egg and I," by Betty MacDonald; "The Hucksters," by Frederick Wakeman; "The King's General," by Daphne du Maurier; "The Miracle of the Bells" by Russell Janney; "This Side of Innocence" by Taylor Caldwell.

Three new books have been added the past week: "Duel in the Sun" by Niven Busch, the dramatic novel of the American Southwest from which the technical film was made; "The Art of Living" by Norman Vincent Peale, the youngest minister ever to be called to a Fifth Avenue church in New York City, and a radio minister who has influenced the world. Born in Ohio, Dr. Peale holds degrees from a long list of Universities. The third is a historical book of unusual interest, "The Last Trek of the Indians" by Grant Foreman. Forty-six years ago this author began his long search to recapture the history of the American Indians. He found his chosen field by accident, when after practicing law in Chicago, he moved to Oklahoma and began doing field work for the Dawes Commission. His work demanded knowledge of the Indians. He resigned from the Dawes Commission and has devoted his time to research—taking the Indian from 1778 to the present.

George Bernard Shaw at 90 years of age, has finished a new play, but he refuses to say what it's about except that it's a topical comedy.

When lovers of the poetry of Robert Browning and Elizabeth Barrett Browning filled the little church of St. Morylebone in London to celebrate the marriage of the Victorian poets, readings were given from the poetry of both. In New York the occasion was marked by a display of first editions, manuscripts, and autograph letters of the Brownings, arranged by the New York Public Library to give a general picture of the literary history, courtship and marriage of the famous pair. Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's secret wartime recreation has recently been revealed—the editing a new Chinese translation of the New Testament. Three revisions of the manuscript which ran over 200,000 Chinese characters, were made by the Generalissimo.

Mrs. O. C. Watson brought us the Life of McKinley recently—fine for our reference department.

Willard Knox and Homer Bonnes, flying the Lazy-8 Club Aronca, and William Green and L. L. Wallace, flying the Funk, visited the new Memphis airport Sunday afternoon.

Everyone at the DCA club party caught the spirit of informality and fun—wonder if Mr. Koontz chews on his cigar as constantly when he flies as when he plays "42". Thanks to Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Wallace for a very pleasant evening.

SKYLINE TIDINGS

The Clarendon Flying Service has done very little flying the past two weeks, because of the strong winds, and no private licenses have been issued.

A North American Navion being ferried from Dallas to Denver, and a Republic Ceebee being ferried from Houston to Desert City, Nev., landed at the airport last week for refueling. The planes were scheduled to refuel at Amarillo, but the strong headwinds cut their mileage average. The airport personnel witnessed some cool headed and expert piloting when the Republic amphibian took off in the 35 mile gusty wind Thursday afternoon.

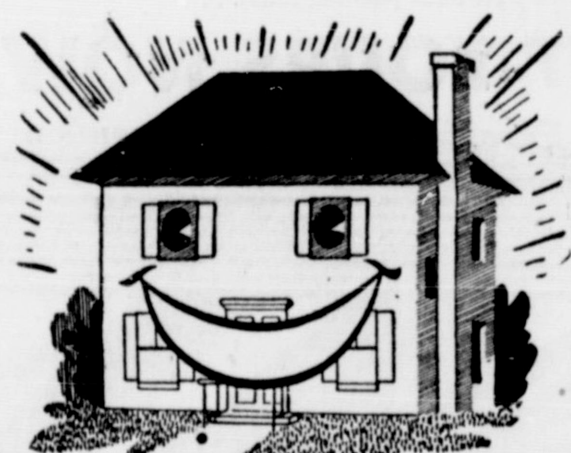

Mr. Hurst's Interstate L-6 is ready to be relicensed, as soon as a CAA inspector comes down from Amarillo and looks it over. To be relicensed, a plane must pass CAA inspection, however there is no charge for an airplane license.

Joe Jones, A&E mechanic at the airport, and J. F. Claunch, manager of the Clarendon Grain Co., made a business trip to Okmulgee, Okla. Sunday, in a BT-13.
