Dusters To Play Turkey Here Sunday

The Clarendon Dusters will play a post-season baseball game here at Duster Park Sunday afternoon with the ball club from Turkey as their opponents. Game time will be 3 p. m.

The main purpose of this game in addition to offering additional entertainment for baseball fans, is to raise money to pay for equipment purchased during the regular Caprock League season. At the present time the local team is in the red and they want to wipe the slate clean instead of carrying over an indebtedness like they did last year.

The Dusters wound up in fourth place in Caprock League play, losing to Rath's Blackhaws of Amarillo last Sunday.

If you want to see a good game and help the local ball club remove their indebtedness, then be sure to come out to Duster Park Sunday afternoon. Price of admission will be 50 cents per person.

Dusters Lose To Blackhaws 11-2

The Clarendon Dusters lost their "Sudden Death" Play-off Game to Rath's Blackhaws at Amarillo last Sunday afternoon 11 to 2. This was the game which determined which team would play the winner of the Wheeler-Hedley game in the season's Caprock League championship play-off. Hedley was defeated by Wheeler, so Amarillo and Wheeler will start their three game series this coming Sunday.

State Dept. of Education Approves Fourth Year Vocational Agriculture And Fourth Year Home Economics

The state board of education in its July meeting at Austin approved Fourth Year Vocational Agriculture and Fourth Year Vocational Home Economics as a regular part of the curriculum in schools offering vocational education, according to the Texas Education Agency. In the past only three years of either vocational agriculture or vocational home economics has been approved by the state agency.

According to M. A. Browning, assistant commissioner for vocational education, the new courses were created to fill a need long recognized in farming and rural areas. The new course in agriculture will enable boys and girls planning a career in the rapidly expanding agriculture and home economics fields an opportunity to secure a better background for either college preparation or for entrance into farm or homemaking fields upon their graduation from high school. A goodly number of graduates of the local high school and college during recent years have completed their college work in the field of agriculture and the new course will be of great benefit to any student planning to do his college major in the field of agriculture.

Week end visitors in the J. A. Ivey home were Mr. and Mrs. W. F. McDonald and son, Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Hatfield and family, Masterson; Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Hatfield, Amarillo, and Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Hatfield of Perico, Texas.

Speaking of vacations we often wonder; we drive hundreds of miles, sleep on knotty beds, chase some unfriendly fish all the way up high mountains, trudge 100 yards up a rocky path, and then hvae to skip the bath due to a rush on at the community bath; all this sounds discouraging, but when the season rolls around we always are ready to go again. On the other side however we find lots of favorable argument.

Anyway, it was lots of fun again this year as we along with our neighbors the Nelsons took off for the Rockies and the banks of the Conejos river. We never did get to where we could pronounce the name Conejos but along its banks are some of the most beautiful trees and mountains in all of Colorado. As to its fish they were sort of unfriendly to the likes of us. A few times we had to let someone give us a few to finish out. This last thing is terribly hard on a fisherman's pride. It didn't bother me so much to do it though; me not being really a fisherman.

On the way up we passed the Cimarron country and here we visited with the Claude Scouts of Troup 17. They are a wonderful group and would have put us up if we could have stayed. Just before reaching these beautiful canyons we talked with a group of scouts from far away in Pennsylvania coming all this distance to spend a few days among this beauty. They were a happy bunch; travelling with their scoutmasters in a large bus were about 33 in all. Making this long trip staying in army barracks along the way had been a thrill for all of them. I can't imagine how they ever decided on such a long trip or for that matter ever financed it. Fisherman Nelson asked the boys where they were from. "From Pennsylvania," said one young fellow, "the greatest state in all the U. S." "Imagine that!" remarked our friend later, "People raising their children up in such ignorance. Not even knowing which of all is the grandest state."

Anyhow we had fun and next week we will tell more about our trip. I wonder how we can say we had so much fun when we had to scramble for several days to get our work caught up so we could go at all and then when we got back we have to hustle to catch up, but we still maintain that it was good for us as well as doing us a lot of good. Better for sure than the doctors medicine. Next week we will tell a lot more about it; most of which should be true. We may even include a poem about the mountains.

Gosh, it's good to get back where the shower bath hits in the right spot, and where the knots in the bed fits the crooks in our spine. As Old Tack used to say; "We Ain't Ever Going Away Again," - - Not until next year at least.

Highway Patrol Jobs Now Open For Young Texans

AUSTIN—Homer Garrison, Jr., Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, announced today that the Texas Highway Patrol will accept applications between now and July 25th from young Texans for appointment to the Texas Highway Patrol.

Garrison said that examinations for appointment to the Patrol recruit training school will be given at various points in the state early in August. Some 100 vacancies, due to the action of the Texas Legislature in increasing the Texas Highway Patrol personnel, will be filled from the roster of those qualified.

The Public Safety Director invites all young men who are interested in a career of law enforcement to make application as early as possible. He pointed out that they must be between 21 and 35 years of age, inclusive, have a high school education, be at least 5 feet 8 inches in height and weight not less than two nor more than three and one-half pounds per inch of height.

Garrison emphasized, too, that applicants must have been citizens of Texas for at least a year and they must be of good moral character and in perfect physical condition and able to withstand a rigid character investigation.

Garrison further emphasized that these applicants, if accepted for this Service, will receive vacation time, sick leave, if necessary, and will be covered by the State Retirement Act and the Federal Social Security Act.

Application forms, Garrison said, may be obtained from all Texas Highway Patrol District Offices or by writing directly to W. J. Elliott, Chief, Texas Highway Patrol, at Austin.

FURNITURE SIGNS OF THE TIMES—A giant chaise lounge, five feet in diameter, was a show stopper at the recent Southwest Furniture Market in Dallas. This lounge and other king-sized upholstered furniture are expected to be shown in Southwestern furniture stores in months to come. More and more extra-large furniture is being manufactured to meet consumer demand for greater seating capacity in television-equipped rooms. And, as the attractive model shows here, there is plenty of room for more than one person on this lounge manufactured by the Davis Upholstering Company, Inc., of Fort Worth. The fabric is tan matelasse nub.

LOCAL LADY ON PROGRAM AT BAYLOR MEETING FOR THE BLIND

The fourth annual meeting of the Texas Texas Christian Conference for the Blind met Friday through Sunday, the nineteenth through the twenty-first, on the Campus of Baylor University.

A highlight of the Saturday morning program was a talk by Miss Velma Lemons from Brice. Her subject was very timely, for it was entitled, "The Christian." The scriptural background was Ephesians 2-8-9 and Hebrews 2-1-3.

Her closing words were "Let us strive to live a life pleasing to God and we will find a pot of gold at the foot of the Cross."

U of T Extension Loan Library To Have Help In Cost Of Operation

AUSTIN—Individuals and organizations served by the University of Texas Extension Loan Library will share part of the cost of its operation, beginning September 1st.

Budgetary pressures have necessitated a new service charge for loans. University officials explained. Borrowers may use a $10 annual subscription plan or pay $1 per subject requested.

For $10, an individual, organization or institution may have unlimited use of library services, so far as may be reasonably provided, for all or any part of the fiscal year, September 1 — August 31. Schools, clubs and libraries will be major users of the subscription plan, it is expected.

"If you are likely to use more than 10 packages per year, we urge you to send us $10 for the annual subscription fee before September 1st so that we can have your account set up ready to serve you without interruption," Miss Imogene Thompson, Extension Loan Library director, said.

The library's service has been free since its beginning in 1914. Borrowers have paid two-way postage for "package libraries" they requested. Under the new plans, the Extension Loan Library will pay outgoing postage and the borrower will continue to pay return postage.

Rising costs of operation brought a request for voluntary contributions four years ago. Although many borrowers responded, total contributions have not kept pace with increased cost of the service.

THE LION'S TALE

By Carl Allmond

All members were back from their vacations Tuesday, and hankering for a good meal, which they got! Fried chicken, green beans, mashed potatoes and gravy, iced tea, and coconut pie.

Drennan came "out of his shell" (school starts next week), and picked out a couple of songs we could sing. He thought we did right well.

Homer Estlack advised us that as of right now, all vacancies have been filled in the school system. Tuesday the hall was full of teachers, new and old.

Both Tail Twisters were on the job and things were under better control than usual, until one Twister found a glass of iced tea in his rear pocket.

Frank Phelan Jr. announced that after lunch, his house committee would meet. Don't know what they talked about, but after our rain, the weeds and grass are going to get out of hand, and we might have to walk on the sidewalks. Phelan's committee consists of Flip Breedlove, Jr. Spier, and Sandy Sandifer. Wouldn't they look good cutting the grass and weeds?

Last year's quartet was down to three Tuesday, Jane Mosley, Shirley Bulman and Shirley Barker. We have a sneaking idea these girls stay in practice, as Drennan never gives them more than thirty minutes notice, and they always have something good. For the past several weeks we have been having one preacher after another telling us what not to do, and where we were going if we did; now these girls give it to us in song—"It's a Sin to Tell a Lie." The reputation of the Club must be bad!

Guests Tuesday were: Tom Jinks assistant coach, Clarendon, (formerly Canyon), Stina Cain, Principal of Jr. High, and son Bobby, Clarendon, (forgot to ask where they came from), W. W. Williamson, Lubbock; Allen Homer Estlack and Frank White III, Clarendon.

Mrs. W. C. Barton of Sweetwater and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bennink of Pampa were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Hefner Sunday.

Now & Tomorrow With The Atom
By BILL JURY
General Electric News Bureau
Hanford Atomic Plant
(The following is the fifth of a series of seven articles disclosing the highlights and sidelights which have accompanied the nation's development of atomic energy. Prepared at the Hanford atomic energy plant, the series deals with the human things which followed in the wake of the first historic announcement that man had harnessed the atom. It touches upon the things which lie ahead.)
The cast of characters vital to the development of atomic energy lists many players; scientists, engineers, designers, research teams, laborers, clerks, and strangely enough—sheep. Sheep and other domestic animals are an important part of a plan to probe into the many unknowns of the atomic age. In tidy pens in the shadow of the huge Hanford atomic energy plant near Richland, Wash., sheep are being studied by some of the world's foremost biologists to determine how they react to radioactive isotopes. Findings from these studies already have helped scientists take long strides in the field of veterinary medicine, and have provided answers to perplexing problems pertaining to atomic energy. What happens to livestock exposed to excessive radiation, and for that matter, what amount is excessive? Those questions are being answered at the Hanford plant today by General Electric company scientists whose chief laboratories are clean brick barns where their purebred Suffolk sheep are housed. Countless experiments proved that highly radioactive waste particles from the plutonium-producing Hanford Works are not harmful to animals or humans after they have been dispelled in the atmosphere, despite the fact that many of the particles eventually fall to the earth and settle on grazing lands. However, suppose the plant facilities were altered or increased; suppose another plant were built elsewhere in the nation where wind currents swooped the parti-

Bills Affecting Retailers Signed Into Law

AUSTIN — A review of bills passed at the recent session of the 54th Texas Legislature, compiled by the Retail Merchants Association of Texas, shows that more than a score of measures affecting retailers of the state have been signed into law.
Charles T. Lux, RMA executive vice-president, said bills relating to collections, wage assignments, sale prices (grocery items), and taxes were among the more important enacted. A breakdown by subjects of the laws passed follows:
Unfair Sales — Effective September 6 a new law prohibits grocers from limiting purchases on merchandise offered for sale below cost.
Collections—The Small Claims Courts Act has been amended to provide for a fee of $1 to the citation serving officer and authorizes the usual court fees for levying executions to enforce judgments.
Holidays — November 11 has been officially designated Veteran's Day. Bank and Trust Companies are given permission to close on Saturdays.
State taxes—A one-cent a gallon additional tax on gasoline. A one-cent a package additional tax on cigarettes. A $2.30 per barrel increase in the tax on beer. A 25-cent additional levy per $1,000 on corporate capitalization.
Collection of State taxes—The method of collecting a 2.2 per cent tax on radio and TV sales has been amended in a measure that will become effective September 1st. The tax remains on the seller making the final sale and requires wholesalers to pay the tax on sales to institutions, hotels and others. The retailer is required to file a quarterly report showing a starting and ending inventory on both TVs and radios. The bill further requires TV and radio dealers to be bonded to guarantee payment of the tax and requires retailers to secure a permit and authorizes the State Comptroller to collect audit fees from the dealers.
Effective October 1 the maximum weekly unemployment compensation benefits will be raised from $20 to $28.
Assignment of wages—Employers, under terms of a new law, are exempt from legal action in cases where an employee's wages are pledged to a creditor, if the employer can prove that he was not notified in writing of such an assignment and did not assent to such an assignment in writing.
Assignment of accounts receivable—A bill that has already become law protects assignments of accounts receivable regardless of whether such accounts are in existence at the time notice of assignment was filed, provided, however, that the recording of such notices constitute constructive notice and regardless of whether the contract out of which the accounts arose was in the contemplation of the assignor and assignee when the notice of assignment was executed.
The Retail Merchants Association of Texas review noted that an effort was made during the latter part of the Legislative session to have a gross receipts tax on retail sales passed. The proposal was defeated in committee.
Maggie Morrow is visiting this week at Truscott, Texas with her sister and family, Mrs. O. L. Myers.
Rosemary Taylor of Pampa spent last week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Morrow.
Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Thurman of Randlett, Okla. were week end guests in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Caraway and Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Smith.

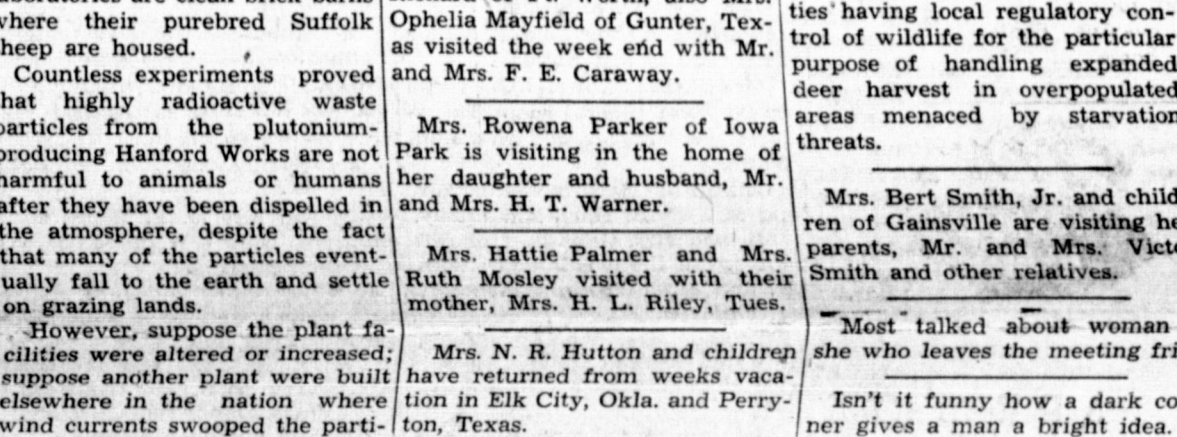

Quail Plan Is Advanced
GALVESTON—The Texas Game and Fish Commission has tentatively adopted distribution rules for the new experimental state quail hatchery at Tyler, including a proposed provision that recipients of the seed quail share part of the production costs. The hatchery, authorized by the Commission at a cost of $200,000 is designed as a key unit in the statewide movement to restore habitat for the popular game birds. Other parts of the suggested routine provide that release sites for the quail would have to be approved by Commission personnel; that organized sportsmen and conservation groups receive first priority in distribution and that the quail would be released by coveys. The hatchery is expected to be completed in August of this year and be ready for production next spring. Up to 50,000 quail are expected to be hatched for distribution each year. The Commission considered recommendations for handling the annual antelope hunts, affecting both landowner and hunters, and decided to discontinue the South Texas predator control work during summer months. The Commission authorized an additional $168,000 to halt erosion of the banks of the new $200,000 Rollover Pass across Bolivar Peninsula, which already has stimulated sports fishing in East Galveston Bay. The Marine biologists described plans for restoring the coastal oyster industry through re-seeding and by expansion of commercial reefs. The Commission voted to push immediate contact work with Commissioners' Courts in counties having local regulatory control of wildlife for the particular purpose of handling expanded deer harvest in overpopulated areas menaced by starvation threats. Mrs. Bert Smith, Jr. and children of Gainsville are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Smith and other relatives. Most talked about woman is she who leaves the meeting first. Isn't it funny how a dark corner gives a man a bright idea.

GABIE BETTS BURTON LIBRARY NOTES

By May L. Prewitt

The boys and girls are "school conscious" this week, so are not checking so many books. Quite a few have used their 3 month's Library membership, and will patronize the school Libraries until they complete the reading list there.

We have rearranged the tables for the Bible and dictionary. I painted an extra table and a case for the reference books. Each addition increases the appearance of the Library. As the readers lessen in numbers we can clean the shelves and enhance the general appearance of our Library.

The Bible Educational Comics of the Old and New Testament that Mrs. Bray ordered for us are here. There are two copies of each. The copies are 65c and 50c each. The children are eager to check them out.

Miss Loula Grace Erdman is autographing her new book "The Far Journey" at "Brown's House of Books" today. I'll order my copy from Cokesbury so as to secure my discount.

There is a new book for the boys—"Tom Swift Jr. and His Rocket Ship" by Victor Appleton II. We have a few writers who take up the work of the father or mother after they pass on. Two familiar ones are Zane Gray's son and Grace Livingston Hill's daughter, Ruth.

The architect of the White House was James Hoban.

UNDESIRABLE WHEAT VARIETIES FOR DISCOUNT UNDER 1956 WHEAT PRICE SUPPORT PROGRAM

The U. S. Department of Agriculture announced on August 12, 1955, a discount of 20 cents per bushel in 1956 support rates for 23 varieties designated as undesirable because of inferior milling or baking qualities. This announcement is being made in advance of planting time for 1956-crop of winter wheat to give producers ample notice of the new support provisions. The discount is limited to specific varieties in specific States. The 23 varieties are from the five major classes of wheat produced in the U. S. and 21 States are involved. The 20-cent per bushel discount is designed to discourage planting of these varieties.

A LISTING OF UNDESIRABLE VARIETIES BY CLASSES FOR TEXAS ARE AS FOLLOWS: HARD RED WINTER: Red Chief, Red Jacket, Kankin, Chiefkan, Early Blackhull, New Chief, and Yogo.

Officials hope that this step will lessen the possibility of U.S. wheat of inferior quality finding its way into domestic and export channels. Representatives of crop improvement association have strongly urged this action to help improve the quality of commercial baking type wheats. Even though some of the undesirable varieties might have protein content high enough for a premium, no protein premiums will apply to any of the undesirable varieties.

Clarendon Furniture First Here With 64 Hour Marathon Sales Event

Frank Thomas, owner of the Clarendon Furniture Store, is joining with hundreds of Maytag dealers throughout Texas in an ambitious sales program tagged "Operation 64", a part of the big "Maytag Marathon". For 64 exciting hours the sales staff of Clarendon Furniture Store will be on hand day and night, starting Thursday morning (today) August 25th at 8 a. m. and continuing through Saturday midnight. This is the first Marathon event to be staged here of this nature by a local business. Robert Talley, who joined the personnel of Clarendon Furniture Monday of this week, will receive his initiation by losing lots of sleep but enjoying the opportunity of meeting the many customers who will be shopping during this 64 hour sale, Thomas stated.

The Maytag dealers of Texas, in preparation for this event, ordered 6400 Maytag appliances, an unequalled number for a single sales event. The Maytag factory at Newton, Iowa, is sending the entire shipment by supervan convoy, 64 giant trailer trucks, the largest truck shipment ever made, according to the 25 participating transit lines.

The portion of this special convoy shipment will reach Clarendon Furniture Store prior to the zero hour Thursday morning. Turn to page three of this issue of the Leader and read the page ad featured by the Clarendon Furniture for more complete details.

Boys' Ranch Rodeo September 4-5th

It's Rodeo time for 220 young cowhands at America's First Boys' Ranch, Amarillo, Texas.

The boys have been practicing for several weeks now and excitement is running high at the Ranch as the date approaches.

Two shows will be held this year at Boys' Ranch, located 40 miles northwest of Amarillo, Labor Day weekend, Sept. 4 and 5 at 2:30 each afternoon.

Every boy at the Ranch will have a chance to show his abilities. The little fellows ride calves and the older boys put on as good a show as professionals atop the broncs and bulls. The Ranchers will be participating for the top cowhand award and prizes will be given in each division. Special clown and trick roping and riding acts will be presented by the boys.

The Rodeo will be a homecoming and reunion for many of the 1200 boys who have lived at the Ranch in the past 16 years. Many of the boys are in service, some are attending colleges and others are all over the United States in different occupations. Many have already responded and all ex-Ranchers are urged to attend the reunion and bring their families. They should write or contact Boys' Ranch, Box 1890, Amarillo, Texas, Phone DRake 44687.

DONLEY COUNTY SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

Farm land as a rule is used either for production of crops, which require tillage, or for some form of permanent vegetation (usually grass, or other forage plants) which require little or no tillage. But all land is not alike.

Some land never was suitable for cultivation. Part of this land is so steep that when natural plant cover is removed, running water rapidly takes the soil away. Much of it may not be steep at all, but it is so sandy that the soil is so easily carried by wind that it too erodes rapidly once the plant cover is gone.

In the Donley District as well as in other parts of the county we have cleared and plowed many acres of land that never should have had the plant cover removed. As a result much land that could have still been excellent pasture or range land has been seriously damaged for further productive use.

Many farmers in the Donley Soil Conservation District, watching muddy water flow from their fields or seeing the wind carry the soil away, have appreciated how valuable and how irreplaceable their thin layer of topsoil grazing crops. Any farmer might ask himself the following questions when classifying his land for its best use:

1. Can the land be used to produce moderate to high yields without causing soil erosion?
2. What land use will make me and my family the most money, not just this year or the next few years, but for years to come?
3. Is the safe and permanent use of the land limited to the production of permanent vegetation?

Assisting farmers in answering these questions and doing something about them is one of the functions of the Donley County Soil Conservation District and the local agricultural agencies assisting the District.

Many more farmers should take advantage of the local financial, technical, and educational services available in your soil conservation program on your farm.

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18TH DISTRICT

By Congressman Walter Rogers

QUIETER WASHINGTON

As the Rogers family pulls out of Washington for the Panhandle, the City is as quiet and calm as I have ever seen it. The fanfare and trumpet blowing that always accompanies a session of Congress has all leveled off and peace seems to prevail. The highly combustible and controversial issues that faced the first session of the 84th Congress no doubt accounted for the general talk on both sides of the aisle that this was one of history's toughest sessions. The tremendous pressure from both the extreme left and the extreme right was constant during the session, both in committee meetings and in House sessions. This builds up a tension and a strain on an individual that is not noticeable until it is relieved. It is probably the reason that so many members were on their way out of Washington within 24 hours after adjournment. The Rogers family would have been gone in the same amount of time, but it takes us about a week to gather the children up from around the neighborhood.

The respite from the controversial issues will be short, because many of them are not settled and must be faced during the early days of the next session. Some that are left pending are the natural gas bill (it passed the House but not the Senate), the highway bill, the school construction bill, additional legislation concerning the polio vaccine and several others. In addition there will be new ones. One of these will be the surface transportation issue. Much pressure is being built up in this particular segment of the economy and a tough conflict will probably ensue. In any event the respite is most welcome, because it will give all the members a chance to re-evaluate the problems and to obtain the grass roots advice on them that is so essential to their proper solution. They will be refreshed both mentally and physically for the renewed attack on these problems in January.

OPERATION DEEP FREEZE

In association with several other Members of Congress. I had a very pleasant visit with Admiral Richard E. Byrd, of both North and South Pole fame, and a group of those who have worked closely with him in his explorations. The Admiral expects to return to the South Pole in connection with the Antarctic Expedition announced by the President on March 28th. The expedition is to be in conjunction with the International Geophysical Year, a cooperative worldwide effort. A thorough briefing on the subject clearly points up the tremendous importance of Antarctica. The great mysteries that have been locked in this ice-bound continent may prove to be the greatest boons to mankind in future generations. As Dr. Siple, one of the leaders in these expeditions, puts it of specific interest in Antarctica:

"The intensity of the electromagnetic phenomena, such as those related to geomagnetism, aurora and airglow, cosmic rays, ionospheric physics, and solar activity, are directly or indirectly influenced by the earth's magnetic and geomagnetic poles. Evidence is inconclusive that the observed responses are similar at both poles, and it is scientifically desirable to make simultaneous observations for comparative and analytic reasons and to check theories based on unipolar evidence."

You can see from this clear and concise treatment of the matter that all is not yet known. Incidentally, such portions of Antarctica as would be claimed by the USA, would be under the jurisdiction of the Department of Interior as public lands. This, of course, would come under the jurisdiction of one of my committees, to wit, the Committee on Interior and Insular Affairs. After viewing some of the pictures of this continent and hearing of the hardships encountered by the men, I advised Admiral Byrd that I did not think he need expect any Congressional visitors in that area until things warm up a bit. He told me that the discoveries proved that this area was at one time tropical, and that present indications point toward a warming up cycle. However, this will require quite a few years, say several thousand.

Some couples think that they are stuck on each other; when after all they are only plastered.

Field Day To Be Held At Woodward, Oklahoma, Oct. 5th.

The 19th Annual Range Improvement Field Day will start at 9:00 a. m., October 5, 1955, at the station headquarters one mile southwest of Woodward.

Due to a shortage of funds the free barbecue, which was an interesting feature of past field days, will not be held.

A ranch tour of the applied results of brush control, reseeding, and improvement through grazing management will be made during the morning. The afternoon program will be devoted to studying experimental animals and their grazing effects on the vegetation of the Southern Plains Experimental Range north of Fort Supply, Oklahoma.

The effects of the current severe drought and ways to minimize these effects will be the theme of this year's field day.

Cars are headed for the beaches these days, bumper to bumper, and when they arrive the crowd is so great the people sit the same way.

Anytime a man opens the door and helps his wife into the car, you can bet that he has just acquired one or the other.

STATE FAIR OF TEXAS

Nine foreign countries will exhibit at the 1955 State Fair of Texas, Oct. 7-23, imparting a world's fair spirit to America's largest annual exposition. The nations which have reserved space in the fair's new International Center are Japan, Belgium, India, Egypt, Sweden, France, Great Britain, Finland and the Federal Republic of Germany (West Germany), Fair General Manager James H. Stewart has announced.

Many of the foreign governments are making elaborate plans for their exhibits. Products for which their countries are best known will form the nucleus of most of the exhibits. For example, Sweden plans to display business machines, sewing machines, high-powered rifles, hand tools, clocks, and gift items made of glass, copper, brass and ceramics.

Belgium will show a wide variety of goods ranging from delicate table crystal and kitchenware to electric motors and barbed wire. Japan will feature its new precision-made cameras and India will concentrate on textiles. One entire end of the General Exhibits Building, second largest on the fairgrounds, is being completely redecorated to house the International Center.

Adjacent to the governmental exhibits in the International Center will be a series of model rooms decorated with furnishings and art objects collected on a world-wide shopping tour by William Parker McFadden, who designed the rooms to illustrate how Texans can be "at home with the world".

The nine foreign exhibits will be more than any other state fair in America has ever had before. In 1949, Great Britain, Belgium and the Philippines had exhibits at the State Fair of Texas, first foreign representation at any U. S. state fair. Last year, Great Britain and Finland were represented.

Japan will be represented with two exhibits at the 1955 fair. In addition to the government-sponsored exhibit in the International Center, there will be a display in the Women's Building sponsored by the Japan Trade Center.

AUSTIN—In 1954 Texas traffic losses were 2,431 killed, 102,726 injured (estimated) and $141,788,750 (estimated) from a total of 208,552 (estimated) accidents. The average loss per day was 6.6 persons killed, 281 injured and $388,462.33. There were only 2 days in 1954 on which no one was killed on the streets and highways of Texas.

Davy Crockett may not have shot an Indian, killed a bear, or saved the Alamo—but in 1955 he sure did wipe the spacemen off the map.

Highlights and Sidelights FROM Your State CAPITOL

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

AUSTIN — Despite "go slow" warnings from top state officials, 26 or more Texas schools have announced plans for complete or partial racial integration.

Gov. Allan Shivers, in setting up a statewide advisory committee, cautioned against "hasty, ill-considered action." Earlier Atty. Gen. John Ben Shepperd had warned schools against "rushing headlong" into desegregation ahead of legislative action.

Though the Texas Education Agency makes no recommendations to schools, it is keeping tabs on locally-decided policies. Its file of newspaper clippings from over the state shows that about 36 schools have definite plans, either pro or con.

In numerous other districts studies are being made by bi-racial committees. Questionnaires are measuring sentiment in some areas.

Texas Citizens Councils, similar to an anti-integration organization in Mississippi, have sprung up in some East Texas areas. Dallas and Kilgore have councils pledged to "fight desegregation by every legal means."

Austin last week was the largest city with a high percentage of Negro students to plan integration this fall. It will begin in the top three grades which are 15 per cent Negro. A liberal transfer policy is expected to ease adjustment.

San Antonio, with 7.7 per cent Negro students, is the largest school system to plan immediate integration. All grades will be included here.

Other towns adopting immediate, across-the-board integration include Corpus Christi, Lubbock, San Angelo, El Paso, Crystal City, Carrizo Springs, LaFeria, Mission and Brownsville.

More popular is a partial desegregation policy, such as Austin's. It begins usually on the high school level with a staggered schedule for lower grades.

Cities favoring this include San Marcos, Robstown, Bishop, Port Lavaca, Brownwood, Kerrville, Weslaco, Harlingen, Sinton, Amarillo, Kingsville, Friona, Rockport, Aransas Pass, Karnes City, Kenedy and Runge.

When it nears of a school planning to desegregate, the Education Agency writes local officials for a blueprint of the plan. These are made available to undecided school leaders who want to know how others are solving the problem.

Vaccine Shipment Expected

Arrival of 50,838 shots of Salk polio vaccine was expected by the State Health Department this week.

This is part of Texas allotment of 1,177,069 shots in addition to the vaccine given free to first and second grade school children.

Under the "volunteer control" plan adopted by the State Polio Vaccine Committee, 83 per cent will be allocated for commercial use, 17 per cent for public agencies.

This week's shipment was to come from the Wyeth Laboratories in Marietta, Pa.

Meanwhile, Health Department figures showed polio on the increase. Forty-five new cases were reported during the past week, bringing the 1955 total to 939.

Of the victims 45 had received Salk vaccine.

Crop Prospects Improve

August predictions for 1955 Texas farm production, though improved since early summer, fell below 1954 figures.

US Department of Agriculture forecasts showed a probable cotton crop of 3.9 million bales—one per cent lower than 1954.

But the prospective 278-pound yield per acre is the highest since 1866. Improved soil moisture, irrigation and new yield-increasing practices by growers are credited for the high figure.

Texas cotton acreage is nearly one million acres less than for 1954.

Widespread summer rains have upped the estimated wheat crop by more than two million bushels. In June the USDA forecast a total of 11,883,000 bushels; by August the figure was raised to 14,212,000.

Even with the improved outlook the 1955 crop will be less than half that in 1954.

High yields of hay also were foreseen as a result of showers. Sorghum, corn and peanuts were aided.

On the unfavorable side, rains delayed insect control programs and created a critical problem in cotton fields.

Nowadays the manufacturers who advertise "a car to fit your purse" must be selling the small, foreign makes.

Real Chuck Wagons To Serve Meals At Old Settler Reunion

Real chuck from real chuck wagons will be served at Roaring Springs August 25-26, when Old Settlers hold their 32nd annual reunion at Pioneer Park. Range wagons from the Matador ranch and the Red Lake Cattle Co., ranges will be camped on the grounds. Meals will be served at $1.00 with the proceeds going to the Old Settler association.

Rep. Elbert Reeves, president of the association said recently that advance interest in the two-day meeting indicates the large attendance in the history of the Motley-Dickens counties old-timers association.

One of the outstanding features of the reunion will be the two afternoons and evenings of rodeo performances. Two hand-made saddles top the prize lists. One of the saddles was made by H. H. Schweitzer of Matador and will go to the top hand in the calf roping contest. Carl Darr of Paducah made the other saddle which will go as top prize in the "Old Men's" (55-years or older) break-away roping contest. Both saddles are appropriately stamped for the event. All events are strictly amateur.

The reunion will start Thursday morning (Aug. 25) with a pioneer parade at 10 a. m. to be followed at 11 o'clock by the memorial service.

Three attractive silver and gold belt buckles, three pairs of spurs, three bridle bits and a Navajo saddle blanket are among the rodeo prizes. The belt buckles are engraved. The matinee roping will be held daily at 2 p. m. with main rodeo events starting each evening at 7:30. Cash prizes up to $60. will be offered in the roping contests each evening.

Other features of the rodeo include bronc riding, junior boy's flag races, bull riding, girl's barrel race, and wild mare race. Omar Parks of Roaring Springs is president of the rodeo division and Jinks Wilson of Matador is vice-president.

After-Dinner Speaker Gets His "Deserts"

"Red" Thomas tells about a dinner party he and his Missus went to in Center City last week. He said it was a wonderful party—except for one guest who was a real "know-it-all," right from the start.

Whatever the subject, this fellow considered himself an "expert." Waan't quiet about it, either. He told different people what automobile to buy, what books to read—even told some who they "just had" to vote for.

When it came time to leave, this fellow must've felt a pang of conscience. He turned to the hostess and said: "I suppose I was a bit outspoken tonight." Quickly she replied, "Of course not. No one could have out-spoken you."

From where I sit, it's all right to have opinions as long as you don't try to force them on neighbors. Take those who would deny me an occasional glass of beer simply because they prefer something else. They're welcome to their choice but shouldn't try to force me to be a "party" to it!
