A Trunk Load of Scouting Adventure

Bob Perin, Assistant to the Director, Scouting Services, Boy Scouts of America, with his trunk-load of adventure will be in Shamrock, Texas, February 16, 1950, to bring to the Scouters (Scoutmasters, Troop Committees and Explorer Advisers) of the Southern District of the Adobe Walls Area Council, new ideas and skills in the outdoor adventures of the Scouting Program. While in Shamrock, Mr. Perin will work with the Training men of the Southern District, and with the Commissioners as well as Troop and Explorer Leaders.

The "Trunk Load of Adventure" that "Bob" packs around the country with him is a result of years of outdoor experience and adventure in his own life. His early life was spent on a ranch high in the mountains of Utah near Bryce Canyon. During his high school days, he worked as a wrangler at the Grand Canyon and Zion National Parks, guiding Dudes and visitors through the many trails of these great natural wonderlands.

After leaving the University of New Mexico, Mr. Perin went to live with the Mescalero Apache Indians during which time he had opportunity to learn the ways of the Indian in hunting and woodcraft. This interest in the Indian people later led him to do some work with the University of New Mexico at the Indian ruins at Chaco Canyon and Jemez Springs where the University has two Archeological Schools. The next few years found him in Arizona where he hunted the Lost Dutchman's Gold Mine in the Superstition Mountains, and deer, bear and mountain lions under the Tonto Rim of Zane Grey fame.

"Many times during these years of adventure and excitement, I used the skills and knowledge that I learned as a Boy Scout to make life easier and safer in the big outdoor country of the West," Perin says, "and boys all over America can get this same fun in Scouting if the men know how to give it to them." Perin started as a Scout and obtained the rank of Eagle Scout in Terquerville, Utah, and later entered professional Scouting, serving in Cincinnati, Ohio; Albuquerque, New Mexico; Phoenix, Arizona; and Safford, Ariz.

He is well qualified in all respects to bring to the Scouters of the Southern District a "trunk load of adventure" in the Scout Program of the Adobe Walls Area Council

4-H Club Boys Make Tour To See What Others Are Doing

The Donley County 4-H Club boys who are feeding beef calves and swine made a tour of the demonstrates this past Saturday, Feb. 4th. H. M. Breedlove, county agent, was in charge of the tour.

Twenty-six boys and their dads went on the tour. Some of the boys were unable to make the tour due to illness and farm work. The tour started in front of the county agent's office at twelve o'clock noon and the first stop was south of Alanreed; then stops were scheduled all along the way back to the Hudgins community. The entire trip covered just about 150 miles.

The entire group was treated to hot chocolate and home-made cookies at the D. B. Koen farm. Mrs. Koen called the group in the yard for the pleasant surprise.

All of the boys and their dads expressed the idea that the 1950 Donley County Fat Stock Show was going to offer a lot of competition, and after the tours the boys will work harder because they know what they have to show against this year.

The Show in Clarendon will be held on March 3rd and then the entire livestock will be moved into Amarillo where it will be shown in the Amarillo Livestock Exposition. Breedlove says that his boys will be in there giving a lot of competition and the boys have done a wonderful feeding job this year.

The program consisted of a short talk by Lion Fry who is soon to leave us to make his home in Louisiana. Thanks to Lion Fry for this talk and the entire club wishes him success in his new home.

NEWSLETTER:
 The office force is getting out a newsletter this week to every producer in the county. The subject of the letter consists of our financial situation. We'd be pleased if all the producers would carefully read and study this letter. We think you will find it very interesting.

BUDGET:
 We mentioned our financial situation in the above letter, but we'd like to go into detail now. At the present time our budget stands at only $4,824.00. This isn't much money considering that most of our approvals for terraces, and other mechanical practices amount to about $400.00 each. We have a long list of applicants for such practices, and we are going to try to do our best to stretch the budget to take care of them. If you have a practice in mind that you would like to carry out, it (See FARM NEWS, page Eight)

Charges were filed at Amarillo yesterday against Mrs. Diana Hearney Johnson and her husband Evald Johnson in connection with the murder of W. A. (Tex) Thornton, oil field explosive expert, on June 22nd of last year.

The case broke when the attractive young blond revealed the murder story to Washington, D. C. officials yesterday. Her husband, Evald Johnson, was reported to have been picked up early today in a Michigan city.

The solving of the Thornton murder case began unfolding Tuesday when Chief Sid Harper of Amarillo received a telegram from the Chief in Washington, D. Both the murder suspects will probably be brought back to Amarillo within a short time and will also face several other charges along with the Thornton case.

NEWS PATCHES FROM THE PATCHING CLUB HOUSE

By Mae Morris
The club room board met in the Patching Club House last Monday afternoon. Mrs. Emmett Simmons, the president, started the meeting off with a call for aid in the improvements of the club house. It was decided that the various women's clubs were to divide the responsibility of making improvements on the different rooms according to their membership. Furthermore this year's improvements are to be completed by June.

The board also decided to have an open house the first Monday in March at the club house. All women club members and their husbands are invited to attend. The ladies are asked to bring a covered dish and it will be quite acceptable for the gentlemen to bring open pocketbooks.

However it is not necessary to be the husband of a club member. All donations will be appreciated. Watch your paper for other news patches from the Patching Club House.

Mr. and Mrs. Puett of Amarillo came by Sunday for her mother, Mrs. W. D. Martin, and they spent Sunday with Mrs. Griswold and Jack and wife at Shamrock.

Minimum Wage Legislation And Increased Social Security Taxes May Boost Telephone Rates

The new Minimum Wage Legislation, which was passed by Congress and signed by President Truman during October, 1949, became effective on January 25, 1950. The new law increases minimum wages from forty cents to seventy-five cents.

Mr. Brewer, District Manager for the Telephone Company, pointed out that the telephone companies are going to be hit hard by the extra operating costs resulting from the changes in the minimum wage law. Telephone service is a round-the-clock business, with three shifts every twenty-four hours, seven days a week. This means the new law will hit the telephone companies harder than the average business covered by the act.

In addition, Social Security Taxes were advanced on January 1, 1950, from one percent to 1 1/2 percent. As in the past, the employer matches the amount deducted from each employee's pay check and deposits these funds with the Social Security Administration. During 1949, the tax paid on an annual income of $2,500 amounted to $25.00. During 1950, the same income will require a Social Security Tax of $37.50.

Telephone companies have only one source of revenue from which to pay their costs of operation—that is from the rates paid by subscribers to the service. Mr. Brewer stated that he could see no way the Company could avoid increasing rates in months ahead to offset these and other rising costs of providing telephone service.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Emmons had for weekend guests his brothers and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Coy Johnson and their grandson Jerry of Long Beach, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Jim Emmons, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Emmons, Mrs. Claude Pool and Mrs. Bernie Fiddle, all of Littlefield.

Health Notes

AUSTIN—We do not all grow, develop, mature—nor do our organs degenerate—at the same rate says Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

"Today, a man of 60 may be as young, vigorous and vital as the average man of 40. On the other hand, he may look and act like a man of 80, old, weak and miserable. A man of 60 may have a 40 year old heart, 50 year old kidneys and an 80 year old liver.

"The physical changes which come with age alone are not entirely decline, either. Speed of reaction does diminish, but endurance increases in certain capacities. As speed declines, skill is increased with practice, and as strength declines, judgement increases. Automobile driving ability, for example, improves from 24 to 43 in the average individual and at 65 is superior to that of the 20's.

"Normal human beings can grow mentally at any age. The worst of all old-age diseases is neglect. Many factors that help make a healthy, happy old age are (1) eating right; (2) regular physical examinations and (3) keeping physically and mentally active without overtaxing ourselves. There is a rapidly growing branch of medicine, known as geriatrics, that specializes in disease and conditions of the ageing.

"Don't wait until you deteriorate - - consult your physician now!"

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lee Kerbow of Los Angeles were here Tuesday and visited his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Rhoads.

ed magazines are given us—current copies where families complete the reading of them within a brief time. The magazine section is used as frequently as periodicals arrive. Cold days we have several patrons who stay at the reading table several hours. Quite often the transients who are detained for car service inquire for a daily paper which we seldom have. We shall eventually become as progressive as a city library. Of course, there is no possible chance at present to acquire modern reference books as these vary in price from $100 to $200. The College and High School Library are efficiently equipped to supply the demand of the students, so we do not worry too much about this lack of material.
 Some of our recent books, you will enjoy are: Mauldin's "A Sort of Saga," Nelson's "Back Woods Teacher," Kirkebride's "Spring Is Not Gentle," Soundburg's "Remembrance Rock," Stevenson's "Young Mrs. Savage," and Weinstein's "Barbed Wire Surgeon." There are various non-fiction editions that are recommended by the commentators in the Book Review readings.
 The Library of Congress is nearing its 150th Birthday. It was April 24, 1800 that the Library was established. The history of the World's Largest Library is intertwined with the lives and achievements of the men who have directed its operations. In its long history there were only nine librarians prior to Dr. Luther H. Evans who is Texas-born and reared. During its existence a hundred million dollars has been appreciated for the Library in its 150 years of existence; it would be impossible to place a value on its contents—it is a marvelous asset to our nation.

The State of Texas says Butane and Propane Dealers MUST KNOW GAS

The Law of the State of Texas REQUIRES that EVERY PERSON or FIRM—EVERY ONE—who installs or connects butane and propane (liquefied petroleum) gas systems, equipment or appliances MUST BE LICENSED by the Gas Utilities Division of the State Railroad Commission. These licenses are issued ONLY AFTER an applicant has taken a WRITTEN examination and PROVED his knowledge of the characteristics of butane and propane gases and his experience in handling such equipment and his knowledge of the State's Rules and Regulations governing ALL butane and propane installations.

BUTANE and PROPANE LICENSES ARE SEPARATE and DISTINCT

NO OTHER license of ANY kind permits ANY person or firm to make such installations or connections. Plumbers and Master Plumbers ARE NOT PERMITTED by Law to perform such work UNLESS they have this Specific, Separate and Distinct License issued by the Gas Utilities Division of the Railroad Commission. Because a merchant SELLS appliances for the use of butane and propane gas DOES NOT mean that merchant or any of his employees may LEGALLY installed or connect this equipment for you.

Some plumbers, some merchants and their employees HAVE passed this examination and are properly licensed to do such work. But ALL have not. And the Law of Texas says the man who installs or connects ANY butane or propane equipment MUST have this particular and specific license. This law was passed to protect YOU and YOUR FAMILY.

NO OTHERS ARE QUALIFIED

The man who holds a license as a butane and propane installer—this license issued by the Gas Utilities Division of the State Railroad Commission—is experienced in this work. He is trained for his job. He KNOWS the rules and regulations set up by the State for YOUR protection. He has PROVED his qualifications by written examination. HIS work will be done in full accordance with the Law. He—and ONLY he—can do this work LEGALLY.

BE SURE You're Sure

Don't take a chance. Don't let 'just anybody' tamper with or work on your butane or propane equipment. Be SURE the man who does is PROPERLY AND LEGALLY LICENSED TO DO THIS WORK. Be SURE You're Sure!

If you are not absolutely and positively SURE you can find out quickly and easily by asking the undersigned Association (the state-wide organization of Licensed and Qualified Butane and Propane dealers).

There is a LEGAL installer near you. His name will be supplied on request.

CITY-COUNTY LIBRARY NOTES
 By May L. Prewitt
 A number of new books have been received recently. In fact the donations have been exceedingly generous. We had a real book feast as the colorful new jackets of books that have been desired for six months, were viewed on books that were actually to be a part of this Library. Quite a few of these were given us by Rev. Warrin Fry. This is the second time that he has helped us with an immensely generous book donation of recent editions.
 The Pathfinder Club is the Library sponsor and sent their cash donation, also received a cash donation from another patron who is desirous of our shelves being replenished.

 demonstrates new earth-gripping traction

Extra traction when you need it... automatically. That is how the Model WD's hydraulic Traction Booster increases the pulling power of the tractor.

The 4-cylinder hydraulic pump automatically shifts weight to the rear wheels as the load increases. The WD's quick-mounted plow, with two 16-inch bottoms at your control, bites deep and stays deep. The Traction Booster also works with other rear-mounted implements.

And here are additional WD advantages. Adjusts its own rear wheel spacing with engine power. Has new two-clutch system to control power take-off driven machines independent of forward travel.

Here is down-to-earth power for your farm. Stop in and talk to us.

FARM NEWS --

(Continued from Front page) might be a good idea to come to the office now and put your application in for this practice. The County Committee have asked for an additional allocation so that we may continue issuing approvals.

APPLICATION FOR PAYMENT:
 We hate to admit it, but we still have a few "stragglers" who have not yet been in to the office to sign their Applications for Payment. We have sent out several notices to them and will continue to do so until we get every one of them signed. The longer a producer waits to come sign his application, the longer it takes to receive his check. Are you a "straggler?"

THIS 'N THAT:
 R. M. Fedric, R. W. Moore, T. B. Deleashaw, W. H. Johnson, D. R. Lindley, R. O. Shannon, Hurlie Moreman, Melvin Rumpy, Tom and W. T. Hunnicutt are some more Donley County producers planning to build terraces. Charles Bogard has received his approval from the County Committee to drill a well. Floyd I. Garrison and H. A. Harrison, Sr. have their application in for drainage ditches. Carman Rhode and J. G. Gould have their application in to sow some grass seed, and if and when we can once more issue approvals for subsoiling, Paul McCarty and Al Casey want to do subsoiling.

Speaking of Subsoiling, we still have a lot of producers in the county who do not know that the county committee have stopped us from issuing approvals for this practice. We have issued so much of our money on approvals for this particular practice that one might say we were broke before we knew it. The County Committee stopped us from issuing approvals the later part of this past week on subsoiling.

La Nelle White, one of the clerks in the office is out of the office this week on her vacation. We envy her, but still we hope she has a good time.

Ward M. Taylor, our district field officer, was in the office last week. Mr. Taylor went with all the community and county committeemen out into the county to look at several farms where deep plowing and subsoiling were being done. The trip was an interesting one, and everyone reported a good time.

TO THE VOTERS OF PRECINCT NO. 2:

I, Neal Bogard, wish to announce my candidacy for Commissioner Precinct No. 2, in which I have been a resident for the past 44 years, with the exception of the time I was in World War I. If you see fit to support me in this coming election, I will appreciate your support and will try to make you the best commissioner you have had.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. White, Mr. and Mrs. Frank White Jr. and Frank III, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Benson and Janice and Bernie, Mr. & Mrs. Rufus White attended a big turkey birthday dinner at Shamrock Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn White, to help their son and brother, Glenn, celebrate his birthday.

Visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Warren here Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Warren, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Mandril and Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Warren of Borger.

A Common Paper for Common People

Most of the folks in the Panhandle seem to be so proud of Senator Grady Hazelwood and his appointment to Lt. Governor. Anyway, if we do the thing that is right, and work hard at the job, the law of average says that we will go places. Grady has met the above requirements, and quoting from the column written by Dr. Hill, we agree: "Hats off to Grady Hazelwood", and also to his wife - - -

Am mailing an honorary membership in the Ain't Smoking Right Now Society to Brother J. F. Michael, who used to be here at Claude. Anyhow, I just the other day found out the reason for Brother Michael's success as a preacher and as a friend to man. From his own lips he admits that Mrs. Michael is the real reason. It does out heart good every time we meet this Soldier of Zion. There is something about his life that radiates into the lives of others; cheering them along the way - - - Anyway, a good man, a good woman, and God's help, what a combination. Thanks brother Michael for everytime that you come our way - - -

Another new member is Dr. Charles A. Thompson of Dalhart, Texas. He is recommended for membership by our old neighbor Brother Lester Parker, who used to live down the street a-ways. As you remember he is the Papa of the two cute little red-heads that I used to write about so much. I will always cherish and remember how they would always wave at me as I passed by; will remember how they could quote from the Bible so many verses and chapters before they could hardly talk plain. The Parkers and the girls (Annie and Sybil Leah) are now living in California. We were so happy the other night that Lester brought the girls by to say Hello to Uncle Zeb. And to think that after a year or more they would remember me. Thanks to these our friends for coming by, and so glad to have for a member this new friend, and to see our old friends again.

Doyle Catching, J. R. Porter Jr., and Jim Hooker all had something to do with my getting the following poem about quitting smoking. Shame on them anyhow.

WE QUIT SMOKING
It's tough from the weed to part again.
But worth it when we start again.
Shame, Shame On You.

A nice card from Mr. Al Gerner; the political observer from Lelia Lake. In answer to my request for some suggestions as to a probable candidate for Congress, he goes on record as favoring Lewis Nordyke. This makes one for Nordyke, one for Grady Hazelwood, and one for Uncle Zeb, to be heard from so far. Thanks Mr. Gerner for writing in, and I hope some more of you will take the time to let us know your opinions.

Some weeks all I have to do is put together the help I get from the readers; no thinking to do myself at all - - - Anyway, such is the case this week; plenty of notes and cards and letters from the readers. The following was handed to me by R. L. (Tubby) Hood, and is a clipping from one of his favorite papers or publications. It is a clever little poem and carries a challenge to all of us.

WHICH ARE YOU?
I watched them tearing a building down,
A gang of men in a busy town;
With a ho-heave-ho and a lusty yell
They swung a beam and the sidewalk fell.

I asked the foreman; "Are these men skilled,
Like the men you'd hire if you had to build?"
He gave me a laugh and said;
"No indeed,
Just common labor is all I need.
I can easily wreck in a day or two
What builders have taken a year to do."

And I thought to myself as I went my way,
Which of these roles have I tried to play?

Am I a builder who works with care,
Measuring life by the rule and square?

Am I shaping my deeds to a well made plan,
Patiently doing the best I can?
Or am I a wrecker, who walks the town,
Content with the labor of tearing down.

The author of the above seems to be unknown, but he did understand the game of living. Thanks, Tubby for the swell thought.

In 1910 the membership of the Boy Scouts of America was approximately 50,000 Scouts and Leaders. The grand total during Boy Scout Week 1950 is in excess of 2,300,000.

WHAT sterling is to silver, the Fashion Academy of New York is to the world of fashion—the last word! The girls and boys jackets are alike and the students are very proud of them.

POLIO DRIVE WON BY SENIOR CLASS

A contest was run by the Lelia Lake High School to see who could collect the most money for the March of Dimes. The seniors won with $22.01; the sophomores next with $21.50; the freshmen with $8.06 and the juniors, $7.69. All together they collected $59.36. The losers are to entertain the other classes with a party.

EDITORIAL

By Joanne Christal and Marilyn Butler

If the Lelia Lake seventh and eighth graders are a cross-section of the future citizens of this United States who are interested in polio, we feel that this disease will soon be conquered. The 40 students of the seventh and eighth grades gave and collected $91.62 which is $2.30 per person.

The two classes ran a contest to see who could raise the most money for this worthy cause. The one collecting the most money was to be entertained by the losing class. The seventh grade raised $46.54 and the eighth grade collected $45.07. However, the race was so close that both classes decided to sponsor the party.

They worked hard and Lelia Lake school is proud of these students and their spirit. Space will not permit us to list the names of the people who contributed to this worthy cause, however, we feel sure that the patrons of this school district will be interested to know that $170.61 was collected in Lelia Lake School. This averaged over $1.00 per student.

SHIELDS ENTERTAIN FRESHMAN CLASS

The Freshman class was entertained with a class party in the J. W. Shields home recently. Games were played by the guests.

Telephones and Talking Dogs

Telephone traffic is so heavy today that we sometimes think even the fabled talking dogs have switched to the telephone.

Seriously, though, this increased telephone traffic does prove two important points of progress: the growth of the community—and the expansion of telephone service. More people are using more telephones today than ever before. Each new telephone installed increases traffic—but at the same time it increases the range of usefulness of every other telephone. This means your telephone service has reached its greatest value to date—and it's growing every day.

See where a bank in Denver is putting in left-handed checkbooks. They figure their southpaw depositors deserve just as much consideration as the right handers.

Time was when it was believed that left-handed people had no right to exist at all. If a youngster showed signs of using his left hand, his parents were supposed to break him of the habit—to force him to use his right.

But today most doctors will tell you that changing a child's natural left-handed tendency usually causes more harm than good.

Stammering and other nervous disorders often get their start that way with children.

From where I sit, if a man wants to use his left hand—that's his business. It's not such a good idea to make anyone do things our way, just because we think it's right. Personally, I think a mellow glass of beer is the finest beverage on earth. If you happen to prefer a Coke—why, go to it! Only leave me the same freedom of choice, won't you?

THE ANNUAL ADDRESS
The President of the American Farm Bureau
Federation
ALLAN B. KLINE
Before the 31st Annual Convention of the American Farm Bureau Federation

Chicago, Illinois
December 13, 1949
EDITORS NOTE — Due to its length, the following address by Allan B. Kline, President of the American Farm Bureau Federation, will be run in serial form until the address has been published in its entirety.

are to get the products for what they will sell for in an overloaded market. Congress is to appropriate money to make up to farmers the difference between market prices and guaranteed prices. Where does this get farmers? They will be a minority group, asking a whale of an appropriation to keep their income at peak level. Given any little adversity and that sort of appropriation will have about the same chance, if you will permit a slight paraphrase of an old saying, as a snowball in the street in Bakersfield, California, in July.

A few minutes ago, I mentioned the shortcomings of the high guaranteed price policy as applying to a farmer who is short of capital, land, everything, and the need for a new approach to this problem, which is truly designed to give the farmer a fair break. Let's see what this price thing does to the farmer who needs land and machinery and opportunity, say one who gets $750 gross in an average year. Some of you may say, well we haven't such farmers. Oh yes, we have; many, many thousands of them. They may get a higher price than before but, of course, they have to be content with less production. We must, of course, have controls to make such guaranteed prices effective. This leaves them about the same income, or at the very best, only a very little more. This is not good enough for America. These people need a progressive society most of all — new capital, education, better health, new opportunity. Also, they need new industries in which some of them may find more profitable and useful employment. It is unnecessary in this country to stabilize and perpetuate poverty thus, and it is cruelly dishonest to hold out price guarantees to these farmers as an answer to their problem. We must and we can, working together, restore creative opportunity. This way lies progress, prosperity, personal liberty.

While on that point, this business of guaranteeing high and profitable prices at all times by government is the beginning of the end of personal liberty for our farmers. Supposing we were to guarantee hog prices high enough to get 20 or 25 percent more hogs; we'd get 25 to 35 percent less for the hogs in the market, and all our net income as hog raisers would be tied up in that government check. If I were seeking a method for control, I'd use that one. When that time came, the farmer would do as he was told or he would fold up for lack of the subsidy check.

In passing, let's note this business of the place of the Farm Bureau as an independent farm organization, supported and controlled by farmers. One of their jobs is to protect their own interests in a legislative way. If the Farm Bureau doesn't do it, who will?

Let us ask ourselves whether it is safe to have bureaucrats and politicians, and those working in administrative agencies of the Department of Agriculture lobbying for farm programs on government time and on government expense accounts. Those of us who survived the "Schooler" incident in the Mid-west know that it is not. This is the road to tyranny. Let me say again in the interests of farmers and of America, we ourselves need to hold the initiative in farm legislation. We decry despotic government, and the seductive promise of something for nothing does not make it more acceptable. As Ben Franklin said, writing in the Historical Review of Pennsylvania, "They that can give up essential liberty to obtain a little temporary safety, deserve neither liberty nor safety." The word for today is not safety; just substitute security.

But there are those who say that things go so badly in America that only bigger and bigger government can save us. I say, look at the record. Six to seven percent of the world's population which lives in these United States, a here handful, are the envy of the whole world in popular education, in housing, in food and health, and in industrial production. Actually we are said to consume over 30 percent of all the production of the world. Our record doesn't need documenting. It is well known. Our technical experts in agriculture, in engineering services, are tops everywhere. Our machine tools, our power equipment are depended upon to improve the lives of countless hordes of people throughout the world.

Then there are those who say resources are responsible. We had so much in natural wealth we couldn't help but do well. I say no. Western Europe has greater resources in metals, in land. It had the industrial revolution first. It had higher education first, which always points the way to progress. It has a vast horde of skilled workmen. No, it is not just resources. A book was recently published by Dr. Harold G. Moulton, retiring director of the Brookings Research Institution, under the title "Controlling Factors in Economic Development." Dr. Moulton has surveyed the last hundred years, or somewhat more, to see how we have done; surveyed the present to see what is going on, and analyzed our resources and our possibilities for the future. He arrives at the conclusion that a hundred years from now, the middle of the twenty-first century, we might have twice the population and eight times the standard of living.

As a recent record of what goes on in America, he points out that whereas in 1929, 27 percent of our total income was earned by those making $1,000 or less, in 1946 it was 17 percent. Likewise in the same period, the percent of income earned by those making from $1,000 to $2,000 declined from 38 percent to 23 percent of the total. At the same time there was a deeply significant and encouraging change in the distribution of income in the great middle class in America, the $2,000-to-$5,000 class. Families making from $2,000 to $5,000 increased from 28 percent of the total to approximately 50 percent of the total. This is the American way. Then he visualizes various systems under which these possibilities might be achieved—Fascism, Marxism, Communism—no, these are too static. These leave too little free rein to the ordinary citizen to achieve such astonishing results. Regulated free enterprise? Ah yes, he says, and it is in the record.

Abraham was elected of God to be the father of the faithful, in whose seed all families of the earth were to be blessed in Jesus Christ. Gal 3: 16. But as Abraham had more sons than one, it was necessary that an election take place in his family, for Ishmael and Isaac could not both be the father of the family from which Jesus the promised seed should come; hence God said, "In Isaac shall thy seed be called." Gen 21: 12. Rom 9: 7. Isaac had two sons, Esau and Jacob, both of whom could not be the father of the royal family; hence God said, "Thou Israel, art my servant, Jacob whom I have chosen, the seed of Abraham my friend." Isa 41: 8. Jacob had twelve sons; Judah was elected. And so election has been a necessity all the way from Abraham to Jesus the promised seed—not to benefit the elected exclusively, but to benefit the world through them. When God determined to deliver the children of Israel from Egyptian bondage, He elected Moses for their leader and law giver; "Therefore he said he would destroy them, had not Moses his chosen stood before him." Ps 106: 23. But Aaron was elected as speaker for Moses; hence "He sent Moses his servant, and Aaron whom he had chosen." Notwithstanding Moses and Aaron were elected—chosen of God to conduct the Hebrews from Egypt to Canaan, a type of the final home of the righteous; and Moses was the Jewish law giver, in this respect a type of Christ our law giver; and Aaron was anointed high priest, in this respect a type of Christ our High Priest; and he was permitted to enter the most holy place, which was typical of Heaven, where Jesus our High Priest hath for us entered—yet they both sinned, and incurred the displeasure of God, in consequence of which neither of them were permitted to enter the land of Canaan, the type of the Christians home in heaven. "And the Lord spake unto Moses and Aaron, because ye believed me not, to sanctify me in eyes of the children of Israel, therefore ye shall not bring this congregation into the land which I have given them." Num 20: 12. Concerning this decree, Moses said: "The Lord was angry with me for your sakes, and swore that I should not go over Jordan, and that I should not go in unto that good land, which the Lord thy God giveth thee for an inheritance; but I must die in this land, I must not go over Jordan: but ye shall go over, and possess that good land." Deut 4: 21: 22.

After taking Moses to the top of mount Pisgah and showing him the beauties of the land the Lord said to him: "This is the land which I swear unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, saying, I will give it unto thy seed; I have caused thee to see it with thine eyes, but thou shalt not go over thither. So Moses the servant of the Lord died there in the land of Moab, according to the word of the Lord" Deut 34: 4, 5. (Continued)

CROSS-SECTION OF AMERICA
The Boy Scouts of America is observing its 40th Anniversary. Although it began with a small membership in 1910 it caught on rapidly. By 1916 Boy Scouts had rolled up so creditable a record of service to their communities that the Congress of the United States granted the Boy Scouts of America a Federal Charter. The record shows that the current active membership is two and a half million boys and leaders. During the organization's forty years, more than sixteen million, five hundred thousand have been influenced by the Scout Oath and Law. As a matter of fact, nearly twenty per cent of the male population of America today has been identified with the Boy Scouts of America. The purpose of Scouting, reads the Federal Charter, "shall be to promote, through organization and cooperation with other agencies, the ability of boys to do things for themselves and others, to train them in Scoutcraft, and to teach them patriotism, courage, self-reliance, and kindred virtues." Today, the Boy Scouts, virtually a cross-section of American life, are at the midpoint of a two-that's strictly inside stuff!

TWO-WAY STRETCH

Look! Whop-around rear windows and top-side styling in the Riviera manner.

Here's the new 1950 Buick Super 126, companion body-type to the equally new Roadmaster 130. Both are shorter than last year's 4-door Sedans—yet 4 inches longer in wheelbase. In both, the difference is used to give you real stretch-out room in the rear seat.

What the boys did here really calls for some medals. We gave them the job of coming up with something that was bigger inside—for room and comfort—longer in wheelbase—always important to good riding qualities—yet unbulky and easy-handling in over-all dimensions. Just look how well this tidy number meets these "impossible" specifications!

Item one—rear-seat cushions are a full foot wider than last year's SUPERS and ROADMASTERS.

Item two—in every dimension—leg-room, head-room, hip-room, shoulder-room—this rear-seat compartment is bigger than previous models—and nearly four inches longer, fore and aft, than other 1950 Buick interiors.

Item three—wheelbases are the longest of our 1950 line. On the SUPER, it is 125½" instead of 121½"—on the ROADMASTER 130¼" instead of 126¾".

Yet—and here's where the magic comes in—the whole car is shorter over-all. Actually less from bumper to bumper than previous Buicks in these series.

That means easier parking, easier tucking away in family garages, easier maneuvering in crowded traffic.

There are some other things too: An extra rear-quarter window not found in standard 4-door Sedans. A different upperstructure styling that makes this body-type stand out as something pretty special.

Even special names that let you say, "I drive a SUPER 126" or "Mine's a ROADMASTER 130," just by way of being different.

Yes, we think we hit on a happy idea in the "Longfellows," as they're coming to be known. They are not longer, on the outside, but there's a two-way stretch—in width and length—in the rear compartment.

You're going to like that—as you'll see by calling on your own Buick dealer. If he doesn't have one on hand, he can get it pretty promptly—and at a price and on a deal you'll have trouble matching, much less beating, anywhere else.

See him now, will you—about placing an order?
