Tornado, Hail, Rain, Leave Heavy Damage

Tornado Leaves Destruction In Its Path

A tornado moving in from the northwest unleashed its main force on the A. J. Garland farm about six miles northwest of Ashtola last Thursday afternoon, destroying or damaging practically every building, machinery and other exposed objects around the farm home. Mr. and Mrs. Garland and sons, Marion and Jimmy came out of the storm uninjured.

Mr. Garland reported the tornado struck at 6:20 p. m. and that he had been watching the cloud only a few minutes before it hit and didn't see the funnel. All were in the house when a torrent of rain turned loose and the next thing we knew it was as dark as the blackest night and the thing hit. We were all huddled in a corner next to the west wall and that part of our home received the least damage, Garland stated. We have a storm cellar only a few feet from our back door but we didn't have time to make it, he added.

The tornado came to the ground northwest of the Garland place but very little was in its path before it reached the Garland farm. It damaged a barn and trailers at the McAnear place directly south of Garland, tore up a barn and did considerable damage around the Claude Spivey farm near highway 287, twisted a steel TV tower at the Lloyd Reid place across the highway, mutilated trees along the highway; and to the east it carried off a granary at the Grady Henson farm. To the southeast about two miles, it unroofed part of the Hall Hardin garage and dumped part of it in the road directly in front of his house but the main force of the storm passed to the south of his dwelling, snapped off power poles and ripped out telephone lines.

From this point the tornado lifted up more and moved on toward Clarendon; several funnels were visible at various times, peeping in and out of the cloud. Clarendon residents had been put on the alert and practically everyone was watching or in a protected place. When the cloud arrived over town, it became very still, then the cloud dumped cold air and then hot—and to the pleasure of everyone it dissipated over town with clouds traveling in every direction.

Damage to the Garland farm amounted into the thousands of dollars as can be seen in the pictures on this page. The tornado came to the ground a short distance west of the cotton trailers pictured at the upper left. It destroyed granaries and blew a new combine several hundred yards and it was a tangled mass of steel. Five trailers were all parked together. It picked one up and bashed it to shambles farther north in the pasture and the trailer pictured on top was set down so gently on top of the other that the top trailer was hardly damaged.

The two top center pictures show the Garland home; first is an east view and the other is a southwest view. The right hand picture is what formerly had been a two car garage and a bunk house behind. A car and pickup were heavily damaged but left where they were parked in the garage.

Pictured lower left is the corral with the roof stripped from the barn. The horse and cow were put in the pen a short time before the storm. After it was over the horse and cow were on the outside wanting in. The fence was all intact and the gates were closed. They apparently were picked up and dropped outside. Pictured left center is Garland (right) and a neighbor discussing clean-up procedure. The overhead tank shown here was not damaged.

The right center picture shows an example of the neighborly spirit which is prevalent in this area. Neighbors and friends gathered at the Garland place early Friday morning to help with the tremendous job of cleaning up. Tractors and trailers were used to roam over the fields for quite a distance around and gather up the pieces. Some were unloading the trailer as it came in; others were tearing down objects that had been damaged; others were removing rubble from what was left of the house.

Everything was a terrible mess and we want our friends and neighbors to know we appreciate everything. Words can not express our true feeling, Mr. Garland stated.

The lower righthand picture is the Hall Hardin place where the storm struck his garage but missed his home.

Crops in the area were wiped out also.

Outline of Events Shaping Up Fine For Annual Celebration Next Week End

L. T. Shelton, president of the Outdoor Entertainment Association, gave us a last minute breakdown of events preceding and during the celebration, Tuesday morning of this week. He stated that everything, as far as he knew, was in grand order for the celebration all the way through.

The Celebration will be advertised over TV next Wednesday afternoon when a large group of local residents journey to Amarillo and KGNC-TV studios to take over during Cotton John's Farm Program at 6 o'clock. If you can make the trip and help make up the audience, we sure want you to go, this means everyone, Shelton stated. Everyone is asked to be at the studio not later than 5:30 on the 29th. Those on the program are asked to be there by 5 o'clock. All queen contestants are requested to go if they possibly can.

More Moisture Added To Total This Week

Tommy Saxe, official weather observer reports that it won't be long until we catch up with the 1954 yearly total on moisture. The grand total for the year thru Tuesday was 13.38 and the yearly total for 1954 was 16.01. Saxe reported .42 on the 15th; .22 on the 17th; 2.03 on the 19th (no hail included) and .07 on the 20th. If a measurement could have been made on the hail, our total would probably be beyond the 16 inch mark.

He reported the 16th as the hottest day with a high of 94 degrees, the lowest was 47 on the 10th with a high of 60 the same day.

We would hesitate to put an estimate on the totals at various points around Clarendon as some areas have already passed the 20 inch mark.

Royce Morris Drowns In California

Word was received here by Mrs. Carl Barker the first of the week that a son-in-law, Royce Morris, was drowned early Monday morning in California. Morris was out with a group fishing on rocks along the ocean when he was swept away by a big wave. At last report his body had not been recovered.

The Morris home was in Rodeo, California where they had lived most of the time since leaving here in 1951. Royce was a former employee of the Leader office. He received his education here.

He is survived by his wife, the former Mary Lou Barker, one daughter Judy Morris, Rodeo, Calif., his father, L. O. Morris, Berkeley, Calif.; two brothers, Ray Morris, Rodeo and Russell Morris, Calif.; one sister, Mrs. Eulan Higdon, Portland, Oregon; also an uncle, Cap Morris, Clarendon.

Hail Storm Sun. Morning Termed Worst In History

According to some of our old-timers, the hail storm which moved across Clarendon about 2:15 Sunday morning was the worst in the history of the town. It received this title on account of the wide scope that it covered and the overall damage. It will take insurance adjusters several days to get around as everyone in town received a minimum of damage to property.

All flowers, gardens, etc., that were exposed, were wiped out. Shrubs and trees were beat up pitifully and many may never recover. Thousands of window panes were knocked out and water damage was heavy in homes and in many business places.

In addition to the damage here, the rural area northwest and southeast took a terrible beating also. Crops were wiped out, fields leveled or turned into gullies and homes and trees were damaged like they were here in town. Some areas received heavy rain damage but not too much hail. At any rate, it destroyed their crops and damaged their land.

The storm moved across Clarendon from the northwest and moved out across the Chamberlain community with the full force of the storm going across the John Heathington farm. It followed the southeasterly course (See HAIL STORM, page 8)

GABIE BETTS BURTON
 LIBRARY NOTES

By May L. Prewitt

This week the boys' book shelf has two new editions: "The Story of Medicine" by Arthur L. Murphy was ordered for Easter by Mrs. Kitty Martin of Dallas in memory of Tom Goodner. She is Tom's aunt, and then his mother ordered for his June memorial "Attack from Atlantis" by Lester Del Ray.

There is a gift book, "The Moment of the Rose" by Lucy Kennedy, and two other gift editions "Condensed Readers' Digest" winter 1955 selections, and the Spring 1955 selections, that were each given by Mrs. Thornberry. From Mrs. C. B. Morris we received in exchange for two duplicate books "Indigo Bend" by Alice Walworth Graham, a story of carpet bagger days—a story of rare courage told with humor, and understanding and written from a deep knowledge of the people and times. "Only Parent" by Louise Dickinson Rich who wrote "We Took to the Woods." It is a story of a widow with two children who eventually left their cabin home in the Maine woods for her home town in Massachusetts where she and her children had some difficult experiences adapting themselves to community life. A third book is "The Autumn's Brightness" by Daisy Newman. This is a love story and adventure of two mature people. It is a rare and captivating story.

"Very Truly Yours" by Chester Sevot is a devotional book given in memory of Mrs. J. M. Ray by Dr. Joe Goldston and Mrs. Goldston.

There are three Golden books a friend gave us. They are: "Robert and His New Friends", "The Friendly Book," and "Smoky The Bear."

Another friend gave us a $1.00, so that we might purchase a few more little books to entertain these little people. They surely crowd in here for reading material.

DONLEY COUNTY
 SOIL CONSERVATION
 DISTRICT NEWS

Grow Dead Cover Now

Now is the time to take the first step in getting ready to plant grass in the Spring of 1956, says Carman Rhode of the Soil Conservation Service.

In order to have dead cover in which to plant grass, close-drilled sorghums should be seeded during the next month on lands which are planned to be planted to perennial grasses next year.

A dead cover of close-drilled sorghums stubble is by far the best seedbed preparation for planting grass on once-cultivated land in the Donley County Soil Conservation District. In the spring this undisturbed stubble gives protection from winds and water erosion, rapid surface drying and soil crusting.

Based upon experience through the years, reports Rhode, the following steps are considered the most dependable for successful grass plantings:

1. Have the ground clean and in a good condition for planting sorghums.

Smith - Mayo Nuptials Read In Baptist Church

In a double-ring ceremony held recently at the Goodnight Baptist Church, Laura Lou Smith, 831 Louisiana, became the bride of George Thomas Mayo, 820 Virginia, Amarillo, Texas.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. C. A. Smith and the late Mr. Smith of Goodnight, and the bridegroom's mother is Mrs. Dolly Mayo of Clarendon. The Rev. J. D. Mansfield, pastor, read the service.

Traditional nuptial selections were played by Miss Vivian Newberry, pianist. Miss Elena Donald sang "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life" and "O Promise Me," and Clyde Hudson sang "Because." Miss Donald sang "Wedding Prayer" as a benediction.

Arrangements of white and blue Marconi daisies, backed by fern and flanked by candelabra, formed the altar setting. An arch of greenery completed the decor and pews on the bridal aisle were marked with white satin bows.

Candles were lighted by Miss Elizabeth Ann Smith, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Obie Jac Covington, cousin of the bride, who wore dresses of pink net over taffeta and headpieces of blue carnations.

Attending her twin sister as maid-of-honor, Miss Sue Smith wore a waltz length dress of blue lace, styled with a fitted bodice, scooped neckline and full skirt. Her hat was of matching flowers and she carried a colonial bouquet of blue and white feathered carnations.

Dan Whitsell of Clarendon was best man. Serving as ushers were Joe C. Smith, brother of the bride, and Tommy Lemmon.

Given in marriage by her brother, Billy Smith of Dallas, the bride was attired in a waltz length dress of white lace and nylon tulle over satin. Only Week Left To Vote In Queen Contest

Only a week remains to cast your votes in the Rodeo Queen contest as the final count will be made at 6 p. m. the afternoon of July 1st. At the present time the number of contestants has trimmed down to a total of 31 and the competition is growing keener.

Glenna Dingler was still holding the lead in the count Tuesday of this week with a total of 1307; Margaret Cushing moved into second place and Linda Lamberth in third.

Beginning next Tuesday morning the counting place will be moved to the Donley County Leader office, so all girls are requested to come here with your boxes for the remaining counts instead of the Palmer Motor Co. A count will be made on Tuesday, again on Thursday and the final Friday afternoon. The standing of each contestant will be posted in the window at the Bob Moss Pharmacy after each count so you can keep up with your favorite.

All queen contestants, along with their families, etc., are asked to try to go to Amarillo Wednesday afternoon, June 29 for the TV show that will be presented over KGNC-TV.

The winner of the queen contest will be crowned with a 3X Stetson on the night of the Fourth. The 2nd place winner will receive a fancy belt and buckle and the 3rd will receive a blouse. The three top winners will be announced at the Rodeo the night of July 1st so the Queen may reign over the entire celebration. All contestants will be admitted to the Legion Dances free but must be wearing their ribbons.

1956 WHEAT MARKETING QUOTA REFERENDUM

Do wheat farmers want to use marketing quotas for their wheat crop next year? This question will be decided by growers in a referendum on Saturday, June 25. Any farmer whose farm will have more than 15 acres of wheat for grain in 1956 is eligible to vote. Casting a free ballot is the American way of deciding issues. The date is June 25 for the wheat marketing quota referendum.

Wheat growers will decide some important questions in the marketing quota referendum on Saturday, June 25. If at least two-thirds of the voters approve quotas, they will remain in effect for the 1956 wheat crop; if more than one-third of the voters do not approve quotas will be "out the window". The vote will also be a factor in determining the level of price support for the '56 wheat crop.

According to word from the U. S. Department of Agriculture, this country's wheat supply is enough to fill all domestic and export needs for 2 years at current levels. That's why a referendum has been called for Saturday, June 25, to determine whether farmers will use marketing quotas for their 1956 wheat crop.

STRIP CROPPING

Hail Storm-

 down by Lakeview and areas beyond. Usually a severe hail storm covers only a small area but this went whole-hog about it.
 The hail was accompanied by a heavy rain which measured 2 inches upward. The hail was estimated at 3 to 6 inches on the level. The water floated the hail away and it clogged drainage channels causing flood damage to areas that ordinarily would not have been touched. Mutt's Cafe received the blunt of the flood waters here as the hail clogged the ditch west of the building where it meets the highway. Water and hail filled the cafe to several feet deep. Damage was heavy and hail four feet deep was left along the bank of the ditch when the water drained out. This overflow of hail and water covered yards all along the street south of Mutt's Cafe.

 The big ditch coming thru town got on the biggest rise in several years and went out of its banks in several places. Everyone is thankful that the network of dams south of town held; otherwise the entire business section would have been flooded. A big lake was formed across highway 287 between Martin and Ashtola on the Cap Morris and Van Knox farms. Traffic was halted for some time but is moving thru the lake at present. Another lake was formed about a mile east of town and extends across the road going north. The city lake and other lakes in the area are at a high peak.

 The storm was accompanied by a high wind that took its toll in TV aerials and made the water damage worse where window panes were broken out. The entire ordeal wrecked many a set of nerves also. The noise created by the falling hail was deafening and the thought of being blown away was prevalent in many minds. Most of us were just plain "happy to be here" when it was all over. No loss of lives or serious injury was reported, and that's what counts most.
 The big cleanup job started Sunday. Hundreds of tons of leaves, limbs, etc. have been raked up or still remain to be rounded up. Window panes have been replaced or are now being replaced and major repair work will follow. Effects of the storm will be felt for some time to come. Hope we don't have any more like it.
 An area between Ashtola and Goodnight received a 4 to 6 inch downpour Sunday night which added to the damage in that area.

Dusters To Play Hedley Here Sunday

The Clarendon Dusters will play the team from Hedley here next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in Duster Park. This is expected to be the top game in the Caprock League play this week as the Hedley boys defeated the top team, Rath's Blackhawks of Amarillo, last Sunday which is considered quite a feat the way things have been going, and on the other hand, the Dusters gave Hedley a sound battering at Hedley two weeks ago, 8-3; the Dusters also have a proud win over Wheeler last Sunday. It was a tight affair with the final score being 4 to 1 in favor of the locals.

gin at 9 a. m. on the Fourth and program will be concluded by serving time. C. Boone McClure, director of Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum, Canyon, will speak on Early Panhandle History. Other special guests include Mrs. Jack Hughes, feature writer of Canyon who will be here with tape recorded to record voices of old timers; Mrs. Howard Puckett, Amarillo, president of the Panhandle Panswomen Association. Old-timers will include all those who have lived in this area 35 years or longer. All old-timers and as many generations are urged to attend. Miss Ethel Harvey will have her collection of history and pictures of early years of Clarendon College on display also.

 The Free Barbecue, handled by the Legion, will be served beginning at 11 a. m. on the 4th. The Parade is scheduled for 1 p. m. R. E. Drennan, J. G. McAnear and Pete Borden are in charge of the parade. See one of these fellows if you want to be in it.
 Following the afternoon rodeo performance, an old fiddlers contest will be held in front of the Legion Hall. All interested in competing are asked to contact Gene Aldridge or Ray David.

 Pete Kunz reports local ranchers and individuals have already donated 13 beeves and local merchants have donated the trimmings. Flip Breedlove, Donley County's barbecue King will be in charge of the barbecuing and W. W. Sandifer, the Bean King, will be in charge of the beans and fruit. These boys and their helpers always do a wonderful job.

VISITS MOTHER HERE

Joseph N. Jones of Chataanooga, Tenn. visited his mother, Mrs. N. L. Jones, and other relatives here recently. Mrs. Jones had a heart attack some two weeks ago but is reported improving satisfactorily at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Chamberlain of Memphis, accompanied by Lt. and Mrs. Vernon Goldston and Mrs. John Goldston, met Mrs. Henry Miller and daughter Susan Ellen of Williamsport, Penn., who arrived in Amarillo by TWA Saturday morning. Mrs. Miller and daughter will visit two weeks with her mother, Mrs. Goldston and other members of the Goldston family.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Gattis and daughter returned to their home at Earth, Texas Sunday after visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Landers and Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Gattis.

Mr. and Mrs. Theron Holland and boys of Amarillo and Rocky Risenhoover visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Martin and with other relatives and friends Sunday. Rocky is in the service and has been stationed in Japan.

On top of everything else, both teams, Clarendon and Hedley, do some of their best ball-playing when the two teams get together. You can be assured of seeing a good ball game if you make it a point to be out Sunday afternoon at Duster Park. One of the Dusters made the remark this week that not even a half decent crowd had been out for a Duster game so far this season. That's quite a slam when so many around here keep their ears trained to the radio listening to major league games most every day. It will make you feel proud of the Dusters' efforts to go out and watch them Sunday afternoon and let them know they have your support.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. White and children of Phoenix, Arizona visited a short time Sunday night in the Victor Smith home.

PLOWIN' Out the CORNERS
by Uncle Zeb

We read the following little unsigned poem someplace and it had a bit of encouragement for us, so we pass it on to you. It is called:

BAIT AND BAIT AND BAIT AGAIN

Supposin' fish don't bite at first, What are you goin' to do? Throw down your pole, chuck out your bait, And say your fishin's through?

You bet you ain't, you're goin' to fish, An' fish, an' fish, an' wait, Until you've ketch'd a bucketfull Or used up all your bait. Suppose success don't come at first, What are you goin' to do? Throw up the sponge and kick yourself, And growl, and fret, and stew? You bet you ain't, you're goin' to fish, And bait, and bait ag'in Until success will bite your hook, For grit is sure to win.

Last year the state and federal government took in over a billion more in taxes from tobacco that the farmers made profit in growing the weed. Speaking of taxes on such items one fellow brought out the following comparison. Tobacco is taxed on the state level for 28% of the total. Gasoline at the same level is taxed 21%. Beer by contrast is soaked for a measly 8% of its retail price by our state. This in the face of all the hue and cry by the brewers about taxes. Except for a stubborn fight by a handful of legislators beer would have sneaked by without any raise this year even at that.

Often we see a fellow that seems to have real courage. We speak about him not being afraid of anything. This is usually not the case at all. It is only the normal and sensible thing for us to fear the things that can destroy or hurt us. Would it be courage for us to pick up a rattlesnake, or sit calmly by when the news of a bad storm was given out?

No, we will never find real courage by trying to lose all fear. But, the answer will come when we can learn to master our fear. When we can learn to act wisely in the face of fearful experiences. Only the foolish could say: "I'm not afraid of the devil himself".

The wise would say, "He is a terrible creature, I will build a stronghold against him. I will change my course to miss all the storms possible. But, if one catches me in its path then we will act wisely, and because we did fear this thing ahead of time we will take the prepared and pre-thought out course of action." It's not that some people never fall, The fact that they bounce, counts most of all.

Many times we worry, and rightly so, about all the misleading and lying advertising put out by the liquor and other worthless industries. Worst of all is the kind directed toward our young people; trying to teach them that such and such is all the go and "Really Belongs." Not long ago the lesson asked that we have the Juniors bring some of these ads to class and take them apart and explain the lies and false statements to the others. The results were amazing. It proved pretty definitely that if the influence in the home is as it should be, the children from this home will be told the truth, and even though we may not be able to keep them from seeing and hearing these lies we can keep most of it from taking root in their hearts. This is one point that we can stress while we continue to fight the other.

cultural forecasts say.

The King Ranch, famous Texas cattle outfit, has attained a new degree of international fame.

The ranch's Centennial Conference last year, at which scientists from over the world gathered to discuss the breeding of cattle for unfavorable conditions, resulted in a publication on this subject. The University of Texas Press published the book and great interest is reported from scientists in all parts of the world.

"Give Pop a real break," urges the Texas Beef Council in its merchandising of the national "Beef for Father's Day" program. "Be practical: please his pocketbook as well as his palate with tasty — but inexpensive — pot-roasts!" Restaurants, hotels and meat counters throughout the state are pledging support to the pot-roast push.

Some Texas dairymen are adopting a practice that has gained much popularity among dairymen in Wisconsin and other northern states. They confine their cattle, cut the forage from the fields and deliver it to the lot, preventing tramping, assuring full use of all production. G. R. Wittig of Fredericksburg will use a forage cutter in his sudan fields. He is using four acres of post oak land with ample shade for his holding pen.

Five varieties of wheat proved to be best for bth production and milling qualities in tests conducted for 14 years at the Amarillo Experiment Station.

Westar, Concho, Comanche, Wichita and Triumph will best serve the needs of the area, reports Kenneth Porter, agronomist, who conducted the test.

Concho is a new variety, will be released to Texas certified seed growers this year.

Iowa State College researchers have just wound up a cattle feeding test in which the hormone substance, stilbesterol, was used. These tests were conducted to see if the hormone affected the carcass quality of the animal.

Iowa State says the carcasses of the hormone-fed steers were equally as good as those which did not receive it in a check lot.

Recent rains have greatly improved crop conditions over Texas. In some areas the rains assured a crop. In other areas it will make possible planting of a crop.

The improved situation has called attention to the fact that Texas likely will have a big milo crop this year.

EXECUTIVE HEARINGS

Executive sessions of committees are not held for the purpose of hiding anything from the public. Some people think that such is the purpose. If the information to be gathered is of a highly classified variety, the committee session will be executive or secret for the simple reason that the country's interest is at stake and must be protected. There are other committee sessions that are executive in nature, but these are not intended to keep information from the public. They are executive for the reason that much more work can be accomplished in assembling the facts and information that has been gathered together in public sessions. The final draft of the legislation being worked on can be prepared and submitted to the full congressional membership with the least possible delay. The legislation is then debated on the House

Floor, and this debate is open to the public at all times.

Many people are beginning to wonder why there is any sense in holding executive sessions, because it seems that everything that transpires in one is published in the newspapers within a few hours after the meeting is closed. How the columnists and radio commentators obtain their information has long been a mystery to many. Usually they come forward with a complete recount of what transpired at a secret White House meeting, or at an executive session of a committee of the Senate or House of Representatives, or a secret meeting of lobbyists held in some hotel room. I am frank to tell you that I don't know how they get the information. Only recently during the gas hearings when we were in executive session trying to finish the bill and get it ready for debate in the full House, a vote was taken. We were in executive session and no one was supposed to know about the vote. However, within thirty minutes after I had returned to my office, I had a telephone call from a party who asked me about the committee's action. I told him that it was an executive session and that I was honor bound not to give him any such information. I told him to confer with the Chairman of the committee who would act as spokesman for the committee members. He told me that he did not want to talk to the Chairman because he had all of the information he needed, and proceeded to tell me the exact issue on which the vote was taken, the exact vote, and even named the members who voted for the proposition and those who voted against it. He was mistaken only in one particular, and that concerned an absent member. He asked me if I would tell him whether or not his information was correct. I told him that I could not violate a confidence concerning others, but that I would tell him how I voted on the proposition as an individual if he wanted to know. As I said before, I don't know how he got his information, but it was certainly pretty close to the truth. Personally, I have never refused to divulge how I voted on any issue and do not intend to do so. However, I have enough business to attend to without attempting to attend to the business of other members. I am sure that they appreciate their right to speak for themselves just as I do. Certainly, that right in each member should be honored. If any of you can find out how some of these folks got the information that they come up with, I wish you would let me know. I am sure it would be most interesting.

HEALTH NOTES

Texas State Dept. of Health

AUSTIN—The summer season always brings an increase in the incidence of dysentery, diarrhea and enteritis, all of which are major menaces to the lives of small children, annually causing the death or illness of hundreds of Texas youngsters.

Dr. Henry Holle, Commissioner of Health, declares that the chief cause of these intestinal diseases are contaminated milk, water or food; allowing the child to get over heated or exhausted; excessive sugar in the infant's formula and foods that have been improperly refrigerated.

All foods should be clean and fresh and all leftovers should be refrigerated so as to avoid spoilage. The utmost care should be used in preparing the infant's formula which should, of course, be prescribed by a physician and his recommendations as to sanitation precautions and correct refrigeration should be implicitly followed.

The Commissioner of Health warned parents especially of the disease transmission by flies.

Children in any home that is not free from flies are in danger of contracting dysentery or other intestinal diseases which may be fatal.

If dysentery or diarrhea symptoms appear in your child, call your doctor immediately. Dr. Holle advises. His treatment of the disease is your best insurance against fatal results, since such diseases are really a very serious threat to the child's life. Do not depend on home remedies for diarrhea or dysentery; consult a competent physician and let him start the safest and best treatment which medical science has available for combating these diseases.

By PRICE DANIEL
U. S. Senator

The Texas City disaster of 1947 is being related and relived before the Judiciary Committee of the Congress as they consider legislation to compensate the families of 570 persons who were killed and the 3500 who suffered injuries. Senator Johnson and I and Congressman Clark Thompson of Galveston have introduced bills for this purpose. Our bills were passed by the House and Senate last year, but the two Houses did not agree upon the final form of the legislation before Congress adjourned.

The United States Government has a responsibility in this matter because the ammonium nitrate fertilizer which exploded in Texas City harbor was manufactured and shipped according to government specifications and under the supervision of our government as part of our foreign aid program. This particular fertilizer was destined for France. Both the House and the Senate committees last year were convinced that the government officials were negligent in not warning those who handled this fertilizer of its explosive characteristics.

Relief for the Victims

Since 1947 the families of the deceased and the injured have been trying to collect damages. They went through the courts up to the United States Supreme Court and were turned down on a technicality in the law. That threw the matter in the lap of the Congress. Although it will never be possible to repay in money the suffering caused by the explosion, the government, having set this chain of events in motion, owes a duty to do all it can. Every effort will be made to get prompt action on this measure to help the widows and orphans and those who bear the scars of the effort of our country to help the unfortunate of the world.

Citizens of foreign nations injured in their person or property by reason of the acts of agents of our country are immediately compensated for their damages. The most recent example of this is the payment made to Japanese citizens injured as a result of the hydrogen bomb tests in the Marshall Islands on March 1, 1954. The United States on January 4, 1955, paid $2,000,000 in damages to the Japanese government for the persons who suffered injuries as well as for the fishing interests which suffered damage as a result of many tons of fish proclaimed unfit for consumption because of radioactive content. We can do no less for our own people.

Central Texas Military Affairs Committee

Roy Smith of Killeen and four other members of the Central Texas Military Affairs Committee were in Washington last week to discuss with the Secretary of the Army methods for the payment of damages to owners of land used in connection with maneuvers held at Fort Hood. Some time ago Operation Longhorn, one of the largest maneuvers ever held, was conducted at Fort Hood and the surrounding territory. Many of the farmers in the area suffered damages to their land as a result of this activity and payment of damages was very involved and took too much time. At present representatives of the landowners in the area are trying to work out a way which will make it easier to permit the Defense Department to use this valuable Texas land for conducting the most important practice warfare which is necessary for the training program.

Texan Promoted In Justice Department

David B. Irons of Austin, formerly of Fort Worth, was recently elevated to the position of top assistant to Warren Olney III, chief of the Criminal Division of the Department of Justice. Irons was my administrative assistant when I was Attorney General of Texas. Previous to his recent promotion he served as head of the Subversive Organization section which brought to trial actions against Communist front organizations before the Subversive Activities Control Board. During World War II Dave Irons and I served together in the Army. He was my top sergeant. After being elected Attorney General, I asked him to come to Austin to serve as my administrative assistant. After six years there, he came to Washington to head up the investigation of Communists and Communist front organizations. He has done such a good job in that capacity that in recognition of his fine work he was promoted to his present position.

Irons, his wife Kay, and 10-months-old daughter Karen Anne live just across the District line in Maryland. He is an excellent addition to the Texans serving their government in responsible positions here in Washington and will do a good job in the important place he now occupies.

tendance has been interrupted by the summer vacation or for some other excusable reason.

Such an excusable interruption would be the up-to-12-month suspension of training allowed by the law. In some cases the suspension may last even longer, if the veteran can show VA, it was impossible to have resumed training within the 12-month limit. Special rules go into effect for veterans in Korean GI training courses after their starting deadlines, VA said.

Before the starting deadline, there is no requirement for continuous training. But after that date, there is; training must be continuous, except for the up-to-12-month suspensions that are permitted.

Also, before the deadline, the veteran-trainee has the right to make one change of course. He could switch, for example, from carpentry to shoemaking. After the starting deadline, however, he no longer may make a free change of course.

If he has not changed courses before the deadline, he may be allowed to change afterwards only if:

1. The new course that he wants is a normal progression from the course he already is taking, or
2. He is not making satisfactory progress in his current course, due to no fault of his own, and vocational counseling discloses that he would make a better go of it in a different course.

Highlights and Sidelights FROM Your State CAPITOL

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association
AUSTIN—Now that the legislature has adjourned—all eyes are turned to the next political campaign. It is anyone's guess who will be in the 1956 races, but many are guessing.
Hardly had the gavels of Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey and House

Speaker Jim Lindsey sounded the end of the 54th legislative session, when one widely known political figure took the adjournment as the starting signal for the 1956 races. He is former Speaker of the House Reuben Senterfitt, of San Saba.
Senterfitt was the first announced candidate for Governor in 1954. But he withdrew when his father passed away, and Governor Allan Shivers announced for re-election. He took no sides in the bitterly contested campaign last year, nor in the presidential campaign of 1952.

Senterfitt's announced intention to run in 1956 set tongues wagging about other possible contenders for the Governorship. Mentioned were Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey of San Augustine; Atty. Gen. John Ben Shepperd of Gladewater; U. S. Senator Price Daniel of Liberty; Associate Justice of the Texas Supreme Court Will Wilson of Dallas; Commissioner of Agriculture John C. White of Wichita Falls; and State Senators Otis Lock of Lufkin, Jimmy Phillips of Angleton, and Jerry Sadler of Pecos.

Labor publications have said that Ralph Yarborough of Austin will make a third attempt to land the job. He campaigned against Shivers in 1952 and 1954.

Others talked as "possibles" include Mrs. Oveta Culp Hobby of Houston, wife of Ex-Governor W. P. Hobby, and present Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare; Roy Hofheinz, mayor of Houston; Robert B. Anderson of Vernon, U. S. Secretary of Defense; and County Judge Jim Sewell of Corsicana.

Prospects appear strong that State Senator A. M. Aikin Jr. of Paris will run for lieutenant governor if Ramsey does not seek re-election. Probably in the running for that same office will be Sen. Searcy Bracewell of Houston.
Mentioned frequently as a candidate for Attorney General is House Speaker Jim Lindsey of Texarkana.

Capitol talk continues on the subject that Governor Shivers may step out of office before the end of his present term to accept a high federal appointment. This rumor cropped up again after Shivers' first assistant, Maurice Acers, was appointed by the Governor to serve on the Texas Employment Commission.

Should Shivers resign, Ramsey would become governor automatically. He then would have the inside track in the 1956 campaign.

Waggoner Carr of Lubbock, third-term member of the House, emerged as the uncontested prospect for Speaker of the 55th Legislature. When the 54th session adjourned, Representative Carr held signed pledges of support from more than 100 members of the present legislature. No opponent had announced.

Sen. Neveille Colson of Navasota, only woman in the Texas

Senate, was elected President Pro Tem of the upper chamber for the period between sessions. This means that she will have an opportunity, under precedent, to sit in as acting Governor for a day. When this happens, she will become the second woman in Texas history to serve as chief executive.

Texas' first and only elected woman Governor, Miriam A. Ferguson, was honored with a birthday party by a statewide gathering of dignitaries.

Renominated and confirmed for new terms during the closing hours of the 1955 legislature were Adjutant General K. L. Berry, for a third term, and Mark Wentz, fire insurance commissioner, for his first full six-year term.

Session adjournment meant that the new tax law and hundreds of other statutes will go into effect on Sept. 6 or 90 days after adjournment.

Completed as one of the sessions final acts was a law bringing 30,000 state employees under Federal Social Security as well as the state retirement system. Another bill permitted college faculty members to enter Federal Social Security coverage.

Laws correcting and tightening up state regulation of insurance, increasing capital and surplus requirements on insurance companies, and subjecting insurance securities to state regulation, were termed probably the session's top achievements.

And the legislature left behind issues which promise to figure in state politics.

It projected investigations into the future on the scandal-ridden veterans' land program.

It failed to pass the key measure of the administration's water program — the $100,000,000 state aid to local projects.

It left untouched the issue of school desegregation.

A golden spike, driven at Ogden, Utah in 1869, marked the completion of the first transcontinental railway.

THE 1954 TEXAS TRAFFIC SCORE

Texas Dept. of Public Safety

AUSTIN — Of the 71 cities in Texas with population of 10,000 or more, only 15 did not have a traffic death in 1954. Seven of these 15 have not had a traffic death in 2 years and 3 have gone 3 years without a traffic death. Every Texas city with 25,000 population or more had at least 2 traffic deaths during 1954. The 71 cities had 478 fatal accidents killing 515 people during 1954.

The makers of Super-Refined No-Nox, the clean-burning gasoline, now bring you a new super-refined motor oil...

New Gulfpride H.D. Select

Available in 3 grades—SAE 10W, SAE 20/20W, SAE 30. Lets you follow your car manufacturer's recommendation for each season.

...the only motor oil in the world super-refined by the Alchlor Process for modern high-compression engines.

Not a compromise, multi-viscosity oil that tries to be an "all-season," "three-grades-in-one" oil. Contains no artificial thickeners that break down in your engine and increase oil consumption.

This completely new kind of motor oil—made possible by Gulf's exclusive Alchlor Process—is available in 3 grades to give you the finest protection, the best oil mileage for your make of car—in every season.

- Controls carbon—cause of knock, pre-ignition, valve failure and loss of power in high-compression engines.
- Combats corrosive acids, rust and deposits that build up on engine parts. Keeps hydraulic valve lifters quiet and free-acting.
- Assures lower oil consumption than the multi-viscosity "all-season" motor oils, because it has natural viscosity and contains no artificial thickeners that break down in your engine.
- Provides the toughest protective film ever developed in a motor oil... assures better engine protection for all cars under all driving conditions.

Now! For the ultimate in working octane performance and engine protection, always use Gulf's super-refined gas-oil team...
New Gulf No-Nox Gasoline
New Gulfpride H.D. Select Motor Oil

"Coked" valve "A" is from engine using a so-called "all-season," multi-grade oil. Coke-like carbon deposit is a cause of sluggish performance and ultimate valve failure. Clean valve "B" is from engine using new Gulfpride.

See how Gulfpride H.D. Select holds its "body" (viscosity). This new oil contains no artificial thickeners that break down under heat and pressure. But note how quickly a typical multi-viscosity 10W-30 oil starts to lose its body.
