The factual material of this fascinating book was discovered from contact with the natives of Liberia while the writer was on a rubber plantation there with her husband. Quite a few of our readers prefer books of this type. We also received a copy of "Web of Days" by Edna Lee—in this exchange scheme. This is a period novel, and was written in long hand as the author commuted back and forth to work each day for 6 years. The reader will agree that this method of writing has produced excellent results.

CITY-COUNTY LIBRARY NOTES
 By May L. Prewitt

The Library has been fortunate this week as several friends remembered us. First a dozen assorted pocket editions from one reader, and another brought two nicely bound new Detective Book Club copies and six pocket editions. A patron exchanged two of her book-of-the-month editions for two duplicate copies we had. In this exchange we obtained Esther Warner's "New Song In

Our purchased book is "The Doctor Wears Three Faces" by Mary Bard who is a sister of Betty McDonald—author of "The Egg and I" and "The Plague and I." This book by Mary Bard has plenty of joyful experiences to set down for the reader's huge delight. You will greatly enjoy it.

Another surprise was two cash donations to purchase some books for little people. We shall select something from our catalogue at once, but it usually is three or four weeks after mailing the order before the books are received. These gifts are greatly appreciated as we never possess a sufficient number to supply the

TRIPLE A SUPERVISOR IS LIONS CLUB SPEAKER

What is said to have been the clearest picture of a subject painted with words is that of Mrs. Mildred Ritter, who appeared before the local Lions Club at their luncheon hour Tuesday noon as guest speaker. The speaker spoke fluently, plainly and distinctly, all of which was backed by her knowledge of the subject she wished to explain.

As supervisor of the AAA project in action in Donley county, Mrs. Ritter is well qualified by close study of her work and the many years that she has been identified with farm bureau work in this section.

The speaker explained the value of saving soil and saving the price of the product produced from the soil at the same time. She reviewed some of the progress made through the years to stabilize farm product prices, and the plan that is in the making right now that will soon be decided by the Washington lawmakers.

Clothes And The Equipment

COLLEGE STATION—Choosing the summer wardrobe to suit the home laundry equipment is an idea suggested by Gladys Darden, extension assistant home management specialist of Texas A&M College.
The Texas homemaker can save time and energy, especially in the summertime, if the family's clothes are well fitted to the washing and ironing equipment. By this, Miss Darden means that the homemaker can put an ironer to the fullest use if she chooses styles that are easy to iron flat—dresses that fasten all the way down the front, for instance.

In contrast, puffed sleeves, embroidery, lace and small ruffles are difficult to iron by machine.

Small, flat buttons on clothes will go through the wringer better than large buttons or buckles, and the smaller buttons are easier on the rubber rollers, too. There's less chance for deep creases in the thinner fabrics than in the heavy linens and the napped fabrics like bath towels and corduroy, Miss Darden says. Sashes and ties are extra trouble not only in the washer, but also in the wringer. Fold them inside the garment before wringing to keep them from catching and tearing.

Clothes which need little ironing—if any—save much tiresome labor in hot weather. These include terry cloth and corduroy robes and coats, seersucker dresses and suits, and knitwear, especially for children.

In an automatic dryer these fabrics keep their shape and avoid creasing. A dryer is excellent for fluffing any napped fabrics, says Miss Darden. But she warns that if the clothes are left too long in a dryer so that they become "bone-dry", the dryer may crease them, especially if there is a heavy load.

Time and labor may be saved by wearing clothes that fit the equipment.

Donley County ACA Farm News

FINAL NOTICE: This is the last chance that the producers in Donley County are going to have to turn in their acreage reports. We have to send in a report to the State Office by June 1st. Since last week we have made a lot of progress, but we still have a long way to go. If you live around the City Limits and have as much as a half acre that you plant to cotton, feed, or wheat, please come to the office and sign up. If you have some information about a farm near you that you know has not been signed up, please let us know about the place and who is farming it so that we may contact them. We are really getting desperate, and we need your help. We want you to know how important it is to you that you sign up for this program. SO PLEASE, PLEASE COME TO THE OFFICE TO SIGN UP!!! Those of you who haven't signed up know who you are. We have talked so much about it in the paper and news articles, and heard it over the radio. There are a lot of you who listen to Uncle Jay over the radio, and he reminds the farmers nearly every day to go to the AAA office in their community and sign up. So why not "kill two birds with one stone?" COME TO THE OFFICE AND HELP US SO THAT WE MAY HELP YOU. STRIP CROPPING: We are still issuing approvals for strip cropping. All you have to do is come to the office and ask for an approval. This practice pays fifty cents an acre, and those fifty cents soon add up to dollars. ATTENTION: Everyone that has an approval for grass seeding should begin to bring those approvals back to this office. We are going to send you a final notice in a few days. Please read this notice and bring your approval to the office so that you can make your report.

LOAN RATES: The Grain Sorghum Loan rate for No. 2 or better will be $2.03 per hundred. The final loan rate on wheat has not yet been set, but everything indicates it will be around $1.87 per bushel in Donley County. The final loan rates on wheat will be determined on the basis of the parity price of June 15, 1949 to reflect 90% of parity.

LOCAL GIRL RECEIVES APPOINTMENT IN HANSFORD COUNTY

Miss June C. Gibbs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Gibbs, receives her B. S. degree from W.T.S.C. at Canyon, June 2nd. She was elected to the Kappa Omicron Phi Honorary Society this year. Miss Gibbs is going into Home Demonstration work and has received her appointment for Hansford County, Texas. She will be located at Spearman, Texas. Her new work begins June 6, after her graduation June 2.

All Home Demonstrators will meet at College Station June 13 for a week of instruction.

June is a member of the largest class to graduate from the new building and her mother was a member of the first class to graduate in the new building in 1916 after the old building was destroyed by fire in 1913.

Mrs. A. J. Cherry and children of Sulphur Springs are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Heron this week.

4-H Club Boys Have 18 Beef Calves On Feed For Showing

Donley County 4-H Club Boys now have eighteen beef calves on feed for the spring shows. County agent H. M. Breedlove, in charge of 4-H Club work in the county, says that the calves now on feed are also on nurse cows. Other calves will be started on feed in the first part of June and will be calves already weaned and will be classed as dry lot calves. Boys intending dry lot calves will number about fifteen.

The beef calf show in Donley County next spring will be one of the largest in the past six years.

Twenty head of swine are on feed for the fall shows to be shown at the Donley County fair, Amarillo fair and the State fair at Dallas. These hogs are all Hampshires and were from sows bred on the E. S. Ballew registered Hampshire hog farm in Donley County.

The sows are under the Sears program for 4-H club boys. A boy is given a gilt by the county agent in the spring. He keeps the gilt until she is bred and brings pigs, and then gives a gilt back to the county agent who gives this pig to another club boy. The next boy getting the pig repeats the same process. This gets well bred hogs started all over the county and Breedlove says that it would surprise you how fast this type of program gets good hogs started and helps boys to get good hogs in the program on the farm.

The boys receiving gilts show them each year and county prizes are given by Sears-Roebuck & Company in the form of materials to be used on the farm for better handling of swine.

Patrolman To Spend Extra Time Here On Licenses

Patterson of Childress and patrolman in charge of the drivers license examinations here, announced that he would be in Clarendon every Monday for the next several weeks in addition to his usual days here in order to catch up on the drivers license needs that have been overflowing here. His regular visitations are on each 1st, 3rd and 5th Thursdays.

He stated that he would spend a portion of his time in re-newing drivers licenses and that if anyone's license had already expired they could come by the court house on any of the above dates and he would see if they could be renewed without taking the driving test.

born sorry and just staid that way. I first met up with him five years ago at Tucson. He wanted to go along but he looked hopeless. Last fall I met up with Dick at Lordsburg. He was dressed up, owned an eating joint of respectable appearance and was doing a good business. He told me of how he came to pull out of it after some questioning. Frankly, my curiosity was aroused. He related how he had joined the Alcoholic Anonymous, pulled himself together and got back on Main street. I was interested, but he gave me more to think about just before I left with happy congratulations. Here is how old Dick summed up the situation: "The trouble with a lot of us is that we have to soak under the table before we have sense enough to get that top of the world feeling." Dick was right as a rabbit, as the old cowpunchers used to say in these parts.

It is said now that the tuition in the school of experience is much higher for the night school courses.

Home Freezer At Home

COLLEGE STATION—In recognition of the increasing use of home freezers, specialists of the U. S. Department of Agriculture have been studying the operating characteristics of units in the household equipment laboratories of the Bureau of Human Nutrition and Home Economics.

"Their reports show that the home freezer will do a better job for the family if it is given a place in the home that suits it," Mrs. Bernice Claytor, extension home management specialist of Texas A&M College, said recently. "The freezer should be located in a cool, dry, well-ventilated spot. When there isn't room in the kitchen, an attached garage has proved to be a good location."

Some of the conditions to be avoided in locating the freezer as listed by Dr. Earl McCracken, USDA physicist, are:

A hot spot — the higher the room temperature, the more the motor must run.

Dampness — moisture is likely to condense on the freezer's outer walls and may even drip to form pools on the floor. It may damage exposed metal surfaces as well as the motor, motor supports and springs.

A tight spot — a small niche, with walls on three sides of the unit, prevents circulation of air needed to carry off the heat.

"Remember that a home freezer, even empty, is heavy," Mrs. Claytor pointed out. "Strong flooring is essential. An upright freezer puts more weight per square foot on a floor than a horizontal one of the same capacity."

It is always a wise precaution to ground the freezer, to prevent electrical shocks to the user, according to the specialist. "And if the freezer is to be carried through a doorway or up or down stairs, you'll be wise to take measurements before the freezer comes home," Mrs. Claytor concluded.

The aircraft carrier USS Independence, which withstood both Bikini atom bomb blasts, is now in San Francisco.

When you gotta stop - you wanta stop!
"It can stop on a dime," the salesman promised you, "—and leave nine cents change!"
And your Buick did—when it was new and brake linings unworn and everything factory-tight and fresh.
But brake linings wear—lights grow dim with time—tires can lose their bite and traction.
And with a whole summer's driving ahead, what better time than this to bring your Buick back to new-car peak in all those details that mean so much to safety?

Our men, trained in Buick ways, will give you brakes that stop you as Buicks should, with new brake linings that are right in size and brake drums turned to perfect round.
They can replace sealed-beam headlights to give you new-bulb brilliance—and while they're at it, check battery, voltage, wiring and headlamp-aim to boot.
They'll check tires, switch them as needed, look into wheel alignment for easy steering.
In a word, they'll renew your Buick with the same care and interest they would lavish on their own—and do it at no greater cost than for just ordinary service.
So drop in. Get set for some summer fun that's up to lively Buick standard.

from the vicinity of Arlington, Va. has come up with a plan to catch all the water that comes off the East side of the Rockies with some form of erosion control. He argues that the water can be caught in tanks and sink holes thereby saving erosion and floods down the Mississippi at a cost of less than half of what we are donating to Europe in one year. This would develop into a huge canal system and Claude and Clarendon would practically be on the banks. I wonder.

Received a nice letter from the Lester Parkers — my used to be neighbors. They are the parents of those two cute little red-heads that was all the time waving at me when I passed by, and they were also the champion scripture quoting gals of my acquaintances, Annie and Sibyl Leah Parker. Anyway, Bro. Parker is in the fishery for fish business and also in the fishing for men business up around Winslow, Ariz. Glad to hear from them and thanks for the cute pictures of my two little favorite red-heads.

Also had a nice letter this week from our new found friend at Washburn; Uncle Bob Robertson. He was still a little nettled about me telling off on him for using the piece of wrapping paper so many times in order to prove that the Scotch were saving. Anyway, he tells me one to try to get even with me about the time over in Glasgow, Scotland after the other war was just barely over. A crowd of soldiers were passing by the delivery window receiving their mail. A Scotch soldier came to the window and was taking his time, looking at his mail and in general killing time before he moved on out of the way. Behind were several Yanks and one of them yelled for him to move on—that he had rather have fifty Americans in front of him than one Scotchman. The Scotchman turned and replied: "Ay that's what the Germans said too." Uncle Bob says that this joke will even up his score with me. Thanks Uncle Bob.

The other night I awoke from a terrible dream. I was so worried and humiliated. It seemed that Uncle Zeb; the Supreme Agitator of the Ain't Smoking Right Now Society had gone back to smoking. It seemed in the dream that I had already smoked five or six packages and had the habit bad as ever. I was puffing one right after the other, in my dream worrying because I had let all the members down. When I awoke I looked all around to see if it was so. It was so real. Imagine my relief when I found that I was still faithful, still eligible to be the head mogul in the Society. I musn't ever even dream such a thing again; I hope everyone can forgive me.

The Nicotine habit will keep you broke, So join our club 'cause we don't smoke.

The above was sent in by a member of the ASRNS. She is an Honorary member and gained a membership mostly on her ability to write poetry. However, she Ain't Never Smoked - - - Here's another from this poet. Gentleman that smoke please take heed; Don't ruin your health with a filthy weed.

Thanks for the poetry and for the taking the time to help out our little column. I wonder if I should try to keep writing thru the summer or should I give the readers a rest.

Minister
Church of Christ

But why are there unbelievers? Surely there must be some existing reasons, rational, or irrational, as to why men oppose Christianity. Let us examine some of these reasons.

The spirit of anarchy is one cause of infidelity. There is a spirit of rebellion and revolt against purity and righteousness, permeating the entire fabric of our civilization today. Such a spirit is no respecter of persons. It invades the school, the home, the church, and society in general. Many who have thrown overboard standards that have been heretofore approved and accepted, do so in the name of "Liberty of thought", but in reality such is nothing more than a license toward lawlessness. When a child succeeds in removing parental authority, that child is on the way to rebellion. When a man disregards and oversteps the authority of the civil law, he soon becomes a criminal. When the authority of the elders to rule over the flock of God has been ignored, the majority rule takes over, and chaos, schism, and faction follow.

When men get rid of the idea of God, they are then free to follow their own pernicious way. With God out of their thinking, there is no heaven to be desired and no hell to be feared.

This diabolical spirit of anarchy and rebellion can only be removed by diligently teaching the lesson of obedience. Man was created to obey God. Shortly after man was created, it is said; "And the Lord commanded the man." Genesis 2; 16. Solomon says: "Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments, for this is the whole duty of man." Eccl-12: 13. The writer of Hebrews says of Christ: "Though he were a son, yet learned he obedience by the things which he suffered; and being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him." Heb.- 5: 8, 9. Let us teach, preach, and practice the principle of obedience; obedience toward parents, toward civil authority, and above all, toward the supreme authority of Christ, to whom is given "All authority . . . in heaven and on earth". Matt. 28, 18. (Adv.)

West Texas Utility To Double Capacity At Lake Pauline

QUANAH — The West Texas Utilities Company today announced plans for doubling the generating capacity of the Lake Pauline power plant. A 27,000 horse power turbo-generator is to be added to the present generating equipment making available more than 47,000 horse power for electric power generation.

"This generator will provide additional electric power for the industrial and agricultural development of this region," said Price Campbell, WTUCo. president. The Pauline plant expansion is a basic part of the Company's $20,000,000 construction program to provide more and better electric service for the area we serve.

The turbo-generator, which will require more than five freight cars to transport from the factory, was ordered in April, 1947 and Company plans and work predated that order by many months. The manufacturer has promised delivery of the unit in the fall of 1950. When the unit goes into operation in April, 1951, it will have taken more than four years overall since the start to complete the project.

"The installation of the new generating unit is but a small part of the necessary work," Campbell pointed out. An addition, 75 feet by 63 feet, equivalent to a steel framed masonry and concrete building 4 stories high will be built to house the new unit. Thousands of cubic yards of concrete will be poured and millions of pounds of steel set in place to prepare the foundation for the generating unit alone. In addition, a huge boiler 40 feet by 59 feet by 39 feet, capable of generating 250,000 pounds of steam per hour, will be installed as a separate unit south of the present plant building.

The West Texas Utilities Company will, before September, erect a construction office and a warehouse for the construction superintendent and his staff. The actual plant construction will begin in October.

"One of the most difficult jobs a utility company faces," said Campbell, "is predicting future power needs. The industrial expansion and growth of this area makes accurate forecasting of anticipated power needs a number one project of our engineering department."
