FIFTH GRADERS ENJOY SAFETY PROGRAM

Mrs. W. W. Sandifer's fifth grade Health class now studying a unit on "Safety" invited the two other fifth grade classes to join them Tuesday, March 8, for a Safety program. Mr. McNeil, a member of the Safety Patrol out of Amarillo, brought a film and spoke to the group.

The film was titled "The Safest Way Home" and was enjoyed by everyone. Mr. McNeil stressed safety measures, street crossings, stop signs, and the safest routes home from school, church, etc. Having seen the large number of bicycles parked at school, he discussed bicycle traffic.

In closing, Mr. McNeil assured the students that policemen and patrols were their friends and at all times had the child's best interests and safety in mind, as well as that of the adult. He left the thought that all pupils should be encouraged to take a driver's education course.

Students would like to thank Mrs. Sandifer and Patrolman S. R. Bain for providing them with this good program.

Education Week Being Observed Here—Ends Today

Visiting and programs today will complete observance here of Public Education Week in the local schools. Lee Bell, chairman of Education Week activities, reported yesterday that a large number of parents have visited the local schools this week and enjoyed the various programs. Visiting has been heavier so far in the Jr. High and Elizabeth Stevens Ward classes than in the high school but we are looking forward to a larger number of visitors today, Mr. Bell stated. No school will be held Friday as local teachers will be attending the Texas State Teachers Association meeting in Amarillo.

The Senior Class will present the last program observing Public Education Week this morning at the College Auditorium at 10 o'clock. The public is invited and encouraged to attend the program and visit the schools.

Another program which ties in with Education week, will be the Lions Queen contest tonight at 7:30 in the College Auditorium.

Tuesday morning, Prof. Lewis Cooper, professor of Sociology and Education at Texas Tech, and former Dean of Clarendon College, was guest speaker in a program at the high school and also at the Lions Club luncheon. His subject was "What Keeps America Great and Free." He stated that our public schools is the main factor in erasing ignorance, superstition and fear, and that our schools help keep America great. He pointed out further that a cultivated mind is the guardian of independence.

Remember, today is the last day you can visit the local schools during Public Education Week, so make an effort to visit one of the schools and let our youngsters and teachers know you are interested. Even though today is the last day school will be in session during this observance, we want to extend a cordial invitation to everyone to visit our schools anytime you can and will, was the statement made by Supt. H. W. Truitt. We certainly appreciate the interest and cooperation we have received in the observance of Public Education Week, he added.

DONATIONS NEEDED FOR CEMETERY UP-KEEP

The Trustees of the Citizens Cemetery Association have mailed out their Spring letters asking for donations for the general up-keep of the Cemetery. They ask that donations be made by all lot owners and others interested in this worthy cause.

The Cemetery has grown so large that it requires the employment of one man the year around, and one or two additional men during the growing season of the year; this necessitates a considerable amount of money. As no other requests for donations during the year will be made, all interested folks are urged to make their donations as generous as possible.

Troy Harrison To Show Steer At Odessa

Donley County 4-H Club Boys made a good record at the Amarillo Fat Stock Show says county agent H. M. Breedlove. Troy Harrison and Johnny Nash had third and fourth place steers in the light class and Johnny Nash won sixth on his group of two steers fed by one boy. Troy Harrison won the coveted showmanship and herdman award over 120 other boys at the show showing steers.

All steers from Donley County sold at Amarillo except the Harrison steer and he was taken out of the sale and will be shown at the Sand Hills Hereford show at Odessa this week. Troy Harrison and his dad are in Odessa now with the steer and county agent Breedlove will be in Odessa Tuesday and Wednesday of this week to show the steer. Breedlove will return on Thursday and Troy will remain at the show to sell the steer on Saturday. Breedlove reports there's a fairly good sale on the steers.

4-H Club steers are now being put on feed for next year and Breedlove says that around twenty steers will be fed by 4-H Club members. Boys who want to feed and have not been contacted should contact the county agent.

NEW GAS AND TRUCKING SERVICE ANNOUNCED

A new business being announced in the Leader this week under the firm name of Farm & Ranch Supply Co. will be operated here by I. N. (Newt) Elam and Sam Tomlinson. The new firm will feature farm delivery of Butane and Propane Gas and will maintain a trucking service. Read their advertisement in this issue for complete details.

Thirty-three years ago, the Downtown Lions Club of Amarillo chartered the Clarendon Lions Club, so after these 33 years have passed, Boss Lion Mike McCully decided it was about time for the entire local club to repay that visit.

W. W. Sandifer, general chairman in charge of arrangements, is looking forward to a 100 percent attendance of the local club to make the trip. Cars to make the trip will be lined up on the highway, both sides, between the First National Bank and the City Hall early Tuesday morning and all Lions are requested to be on hand no later than 10:30 and be ready to leave at that time as the cars will be painted to let everyone know where they are from and will make the trip in one caravan. When the caravan reaches Amarillo, it will turn down Polk street to third and on to the Herring Hotel where the Downtown Lions Club meets.

Wes Izzard will be a guest of the Clarendon Lions Club at the Amarillo Downtown Club meeting and is scheduled to write the Lions Tale column for the Leader next week.

A delegation of Childress Lions headed by Dub Nelson, who is a candidate for governor of District 2-T-1, will join the local club here and make the trip also. The local club is co-sponsoring Nelson for governor. Jim Ed Waller of Plainview, who is present district governor, will be present for the meeting also.

Chairman Sandifer has requested that all Lions who can not possibly make the trip, to make an effort to see that someone else go in their place. The group will return home immediately after the meeting is over.

TAX RELIEF

This letter is being written during the heated debate on the tax bill that provides for a one year extension of the existing corporate normal rate and certain excise tax rates and PROVIDES a $20.00 DEDUCTION FOR EACH INDIVIDUAL AND DEPENDENT ON INCOME TAXES AFTER JANUARY 1, 1956. This simply means that if you are single and owe a tax bill of $100 for the year 1956, you will be allowed to deduct $20.00 from that leaving a balance owed by you of $80.00. If you are married and have two children, you will be allowed to deduct $80.00 from your tax bill. If your tax bill is less than $20.00 times the personal exemptions that you claim (yourself, your wife and your children), then you will owe no taxes at all. This method of relief was chosen because it would bring tax relief to those in the low income groups who so badly need every cent they can get their hands on to provide the necessities of life for themselves and their family. The same identical relief would be granted to those in the higher income brackets, but they would not receive more relief than the little man, as many of them did last year. The tax relief bill that received so much publicity last year was designed to bring primary and effective benefits to a very few people. For instance, the tax concessions that brought relief to those owning stocks in corporations would affect only 4.3% of the people of this country for the simple reason that all the corporate stocks of this country are owned by that small percentage of the population. You will recall that many of us tried to force an amendment to the 1954 tax bill that would bring relief to the low income groups. We were defeated in this attempt by a very few votes. We were again this year up against the same group who want to bring tax relief to the few and let the many continue to bear their burdens. No one begrudges tax relief to anyone, whether he is rich or poor, but it seems to me that there should be at least some degree of fairness in the tax relief approach. I can never subscribe to the policy that tax relief for a privileged few is statesmanship, but that tax relief for the little man with a low income is fiscal irresponsibility.

CONGRESSIONAL PRAYER ROOM

Shortly after I came to Congress, a move was started to provide a prayer room for Members of Congress. This movement has borne fruit and there is presently available the solitude, the quiet, and the peace of a room where a Member of Congress can go and commune with his Maker. No doubt, this room will be a great source of strength and courage for the men who are called upon daily to make the decisions that determine the fate of this great nation. If the decisions that are made are the result of a communion with God, we need never fear for the fate of this nation or our people.

"Well, if we have to go to the poorhouse at least I'd have something decent to wear on the trip!"

THE OCCUPATION FORCES IN GERMANY

The Panhandle is making another great contribution to the United States Occupation Forces in Germany in the person of Lieutenant Thomas S. Jones, III, of Canadian, Texas. His mother and father will bid him "so long and good sailing" at New York sometime this week. Young Tom has made an outstanding record in the Signal Corps School at Fort Monmouth, New Jersey. He will be stationed in Stuttgart or Wiesbaden, Germany. We are all proud of him and know he will demean himself well wherever he is. Any of you good Panhandle people who happen to be in Stuttgart or Wiesbaden be sure to look him up.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Uses His Head Saves His Feet

Nobody around here can remember when Pop Turner wasn't our town's postman. He must have been toting that big, heavy mail sack since Pony Express days. That's why it's sometimes a shock to see him these days pulling his mail bag around in a "caddy cart," a sort of light wagon that golfers use so they don't have to carry their clubs. "Polks sometimes holler 'fore' at me and ask me how my game is," Pop reports, "but I'm not ashamed to learn something new. Just wish I'd thought about these golf gadgets years ago!" From where I sit, it's good to see someone come up with a new wrinkle—keeps us from feeling too regimented. For instance, perhaps you've always felt that hot milk is the only thing to drink at bedtime. Then someday you meet a fellow who prefers a cold glass of beer. Well, that's his choice—and certainly he's entitled to it. We can't expect everyone to follow our old habits to the "letter."

Whooper Show In Winter Run

AUSTWELL—Julian Howard, Manager of the Aransas National Wildlife Refuge near here, reports the celebrated Whooping Cranes are drawing "substantial crowds" now that an observation tower has been provided overlooking an accessible stretch of habitat.

He said many winter tourists to the Gulf Coast area have been observing the Whoopers, some from as far away as Canada, and that Texans come individually and by groups to see the giant birds.

The principal observation tower, which is shielded within the brush line, provides a good view of Mustang Lake where at least one pair of the big white birds usually feed.

Howard said binoculars are indispensable since it was necessary to place the tower practically beyond ordinary eyesight range to provide maximum protection for the rare cranes.

Visitors are allowed to visit the tower area without escort. But signs emphasize the need for strict discipline, and the approaches are patrolled by refuge staffers.

Howard said only a small part of the observers could be called "professional bird watchers" and that the general public has been attracted to the Blackjack Peninsula setting by the widespread conservation education program linked to efforts to save the Whoopers.

The Refuge manager said hopes "have not been abandoned entirely about another Whooping Crane or so showing up somewhere."

The fall flight to the refuge, which is the Whooper's ancestral wintering grounds, totaled only twenty-one. This was a loss of three birds compared with the twenty-four that flew north last spring.

"Time is running out—or has run out—on checking any others in," said Howard. "But the impossible could happen. About five years ago one Whooper was reliably reported to have wintered in Mexico."

The curtailed migration movement followed the exciting summer reports that Whoopers had been seen nesting near Great Slave Lake in Buffalo Woods National Park in Northwest Territories. But no young birds came south with the fall flight.

Authorities speculate that some of the birds were shot by hunters who may have mistaken the huge cranes for game birds. This occurs despite the fact the Whoopers are several times the size of the greater snow goose which is the largest legal species that uses the two thousand mile route followed by the Whoopers.

FARM NEWS

from the County ASC Committee

WHEAT MEASUREMENT

The reporters have started to measure wheat, or in some cases the ground where the wheat was. When the reporter measures your farm be sure to show him all the ground that was in wheat and is still in wheat. This will be important to you, because of wheat history. As you know the wheat allotment is figured on a history basis and if part of the seeded wheat is not measured it will lower the history figure for your farm. All volunteer wheat will be measured at the time the reporter visits the farm and soon after May 15, 1955, (which is the deadline for destroying excess wheat) the farms that have excess wheat and volunteer will be visited again.

PLANTING TIME

The time to plant vegetable seeds can be determined from one of the charts that each State extension service puts out. The average date of the last killing frost in the spring is also a good guide to follow. Old experienced gardeners often watch the development of trees and shrubs and make their planting accordingly. Planting a given crop before the soil has warmed to the minimum temperature for germination does not produce an earlier crop and may result in a greatly reduced stand. We, the Donley County ASC office employees and Donley County Committee, wish to express our deepest sympathy to the Sam Dale family. We enjoyed working with Mr. Dale while he served as a member of the County Committee. We feel that Donley County has lost a valuable citizen and the ASC has lost a good friend and able worker. Sam Dale will be missed for a long time.

JOB FOR THE MIRACLE MAN

Church of Christ Remodels Interior

Extensive remodeling has been underway the past few weeks at the Church of Christ, at 3rd & Carhart Streets. Brethren of the church met in a special business meeting just after Christmas to make definite plans for redecorating the auditorium, and instigate other material improvements at the church. By the time the work was finished last week enough money was on hand, which was contributed by the members, to pay the entire cost. A new, modern, white celotex ceiling has taken the place of the old high ceiling. It is some six feet lower than the old ceiling, and the acoustics are greatly improved. The walls in the auditorium were done over in a beautiful seafoam green. The tile floor was thoroughly cleaned, and waxed. Work now is going on in getting the pews refinished. The church members are elated with the bright appearance of the renovated church house. Plans already are in the making to paint the five Bible class rooms at the church, and to repaint the entire outside of the church building.

Mr. C. L. McCrary, Mr. George Reeves and Mr. Henry Mann did the carpenter work on the job, and Mr. Reeves, Mr. Charley Hearn, and Mr. Glenn Adkins did the painting. Brethren Carl Saye, and Clyde Gilbert supervised

Former Resident Dies At Pampa

Funeral services were held at Pampa Saturday afternoon for Mr. R. H. Elkins, 92, long-time resident of the Panhandle and former Clarendon resident. Rev. Woodrow Adcock officiated at the service in the Duenkel-Carmichael Funeral Chapel, and burial was in Fairview Cemetery in Pampa.

Mr. Elkins was born in Parker county and was engaged in ranching there for many years, later moving to Clarendon where he ranched for ten years, and then operated a ranch at Miami for 16 years before moving back to Clarendon and to Pampa.

Survivors are the widow, Mrs. Lem Elkins, Pampa; one daughter, Mrs. J. H. Kelley, Pampa; one son, R. H. Elkins Jr., Dallas; three brothers, Henry and Mark Elkins, Grants, N. M., and Sam of Justiceburg; five sisters, Mrs. Jennie Boren, Mrs. Pattie Moore, and Mrs. Bonnie Moore, all of Snyder; Mrs. Lillie Nance, Kent county; and Mrs. Annie Deats, Albany; 20 grandchildren and five great great grandchildren. We are still collecting material for an article on planting in the moon, or any other information regarding doing this or that at a certain stage of the moon. Send us what you believe about it and we will keep it for future use to ourselves and others.

We include the following poem which was handed to us by a friend of ours, who happens to be a good friend of the lady who wrote it. In making it our scrap book suggestion we are hoping that it will inspire you as it did us to do a little more visiting among our friends who are sick or shut-in. It is called:

I KNELT TO PRAY
By Mrs. Ruby Callahan
Lawton, Okla.
I knelt to pray when day was done
And prayed, "O Lord bless every-one,
Lift from each saddened heart the pain
And let the sick be well again."
And then I woke another day
And carelessly went on my way.

The whole day long I did not try
To wipe a tear from any eye.

I did not try to share the load
Of any brother along the road.
I did not even go to see
The sick man just next door to me.
Yet once again when day was done
I prayed, "O Lord bless every-one,"
But as I prayed into my ear
There came a voice that whispered clear.

"Pause hypocrite, before you pray.
Whom have you tried to bless today?
God's sweetest blessings always go
By hands that serve Him here below."

And then I hid my face and cried
Forgive me, God, for I have lied.
Let me but live another day,
And I will live the way I pray.

Speaking of visiting the sick and also those that are permanently shut-in we have always found this a greater blessing to our own lives than it could possibly be to those we visit. We do of course find it hard to find time and in all the hurry and scurry of this day of speed we do so many times rush and push here and there until we do not have time for many things that we should do. But, I think we can all agree that when we do visit and share with each other some of God's love for us all we do find a blessing. Too, I really feel that those who have some misfortune here in this life so very many times develop a close relation with their God that excels that of the average person. They have a need that God alone can fill and are drawn to Him by this need.

Speaking of one's troubles we thought of the following which in our way of thinking sort of explains some things.

"The Love of Good shining on the storm clouds of life may create a rainbow of hope for someone else.

A shut-in that we hear from rather often is Mrs. Marion Irons Box 6123 Tulsa, Okla. She does hand tinting of photographs in her home and writes to many that are like herself, sort of shut-in from the world. She would like a letter from each of you. Anyhow she sends me the following that her little son Rich asked her one day: "Did you ever hear about the people toed-ed pige-on?" Could there be one?

Wouldn't it be terrible if God should make us feel as badly on some Sunday morning as we sometimes tell folks we feel?

LIBRARY NOTES

By May L. Prewitt

Recently Mrs. Nathan Cox gave us "House Plants for Every Window" by Jenkins & Wilson. This book will fascinate many of our indoor gardeners. The Library friends have helped us generously this year.

We have been given the following: "Crimson Is the Eastern Sky" by Don Tracy, "Cloud on the Land" by Julia Davis, "New Heaven, New Earth" by Artemuse Goertz, "Freedom's Way," by Theodora McCormick, "Leaving Home" by Elizabeth Janeway, "So Long as Love Remembers" by Russell Janney, and a friend gave some old edition that may be readable: "Lisa Vale" by Olive Higgins Prouty, "The Vine With the Iron Door" by Harold Bell Wright, "The Mormon Trail" by Geo. B. Rodney. We purchased "My Dearest Love" by Emilie Loring. Her books appeal to teenage girls and busy housewives.

The little people have some new editions: "Let's Go To School," "Donald Duck and the Witch," "The Little Red Hen," "Dale Evans and the Lost Gold Mine," "The Little Fire Engine," "Tiger's Adventures," "Mighty Mouse and the Scared Scarecrow," "Come Visit My Ranch." These are good material for parents to read to the little people.

There is a new sport book for the boys, "Tuchdown Pass". This is a Chip Hilton series.

We have Carl Sandberg's "Abraham Lincoln" that was given us, and all five editions of Carl Sandberg's "Abraham Lincoln and the War" that the Dr. Cowan family gave us when they moved.

There are several copies of recent books screened that are on our shelves. Should you have time for a membership - look these over.

There's even more to Chevrolet styling than meets the eye!

This is beauty with a bonus . . . for Chevrolet styling is designed to add safety and comfort while you drive, and to return greater value when you trade.

Truly modern lines are shaped by usefulness. You can see what we mean in the deep crystal curve of Chevrolet's Sweep-Sight windshield . . . a dramatic style note, certainly, but one that stems from the need for wider, safer vision. Or take high-set taillights—they add to the impressive length of line . . . but they are up where they can be seen for safety's sake.

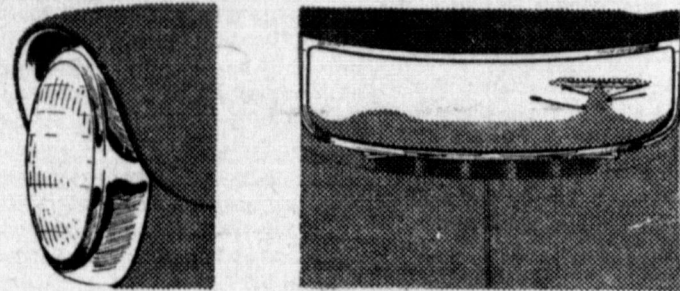

The smart louvers across the hood aren't just decoration . . . they mark the intake for the High-Level ventilation system for cleaner, fresher air. And the whole shape of the body—its lowness, the dipped belt line—is merely a reflection of a lowered center of gravity, the added stability.

This is truly functional styling that serves you better every mile, and preserves its value against the distant day when you trade. This is Body by Fisher—another Chevrolet exclusive in the low-price field. Come in and let us demonstrate that this new Chevrolet is just as exciting to drive as to look at!

Just like flying—
with NEW Shamrock CLOUD MASTER

MADE WITH AVIATION COMPONENTS

For driving that feels like flying, try Shamrock's new Cloud Master gasoline. And that comparison is more than accidental because the octane rating of new Cloud Master is way up and the octane is raised with the same aviation alkylate that was heretofore used only in the highest grade aviation fuels. This means an octane rating that exceeds the requirements of your car (no matter what car you drive). And it means that you get and keep getting power you paid for because new Cloud Master burns with fewer deposits. For new speed, new power, for all around top performance from your car, try Shamrock's new Cloud Master gasoline for 1955.

YOUR 1954 Income Tax

Trade and Business Deductions of Employees

Salesmen and other employees often incur expense in connection with their occupation, such as travel expenses away from home, transportation expenses locally, entertainment, telephone, stationery, and others. Several income tax questions arise with respect to these expenses—principally, are they deductible and, if so, where on the return are they to be deducted?

In order to be deductible, the expenses must be in connection with the trade or business of the employee. In short, they must be business expenses. Any travel between a residence and a place of work is personal expense and, therefore, not deductible.

Once the expense has been determined to constitute a business expense and, therefore, an allowable deduction under the Code, then it must be determined whether the item is deductible in arriving at adjusted gross income, or in computing taxable income. The deductions for adjusted gross income available to employees in connection with their employment include:

Reimbursed expenses other than for travel and transportation: If your employer pays you an "expense account" or otherwise reimburses you for money spent for him in connection with your employment (other than "travel and transportation"), you should add these payments to your wages, and then subtract your actual allowable expenses of this type but not more than the reimbursement. Attach a detailed statement in explanation. Any allowable expense in excess of the reimbursed amount may be deducted as miscellaneous expenses on Page 3 of your return, if you itemize your deductions.

Out-of-town travel expenses: The law provides special deductions for the expenses of travel while away from home in connection with your employer's business. Traveling "away from home" means going away from the city or town where you normally work and remaining away at least overnight. "Travel expenses" means the cost of transportation fares, meals, and lodging, and includes porters' tips, hire of public stenographers, baggage charges, and similar expenses necessary to travel. Travel expenses do not include any entertainment expenses or any personal expenses such as laundry. Any amount paid to you to cover these expenses must be included in your wages. You can deduct your actual "travel expenses" from your wages before writing the balance of your wages in Item 2, Page 1.

Other transportation expenses: Even though you do not travel away from home, as explained above, you may deduct from your wages or other compensation before entering the balance on Page 1, transportation expenses paid in connection with the performance of services for your employer. Transportation expenses include payments for actual travel or, if you use your own car, the business portion of the cost of operation, including fuel, repairs, and depreciation. Any reimbursement of these expenses must be included in your income.

Going to and from work: The law regards the cost of transportation between your residence and your principal place of employment as personal expenses and does not allow you to deduct such cost, no matter how far you live from work, or how expensive the transportation may be.

Expenses of outside salesmen: The new law allows "outside salesmen" to deduct all their ordinary and necessary business expenses from their compensation before entering the balance in Item 2, Page 1 of the return. This applies only to salesmen who are engaged full-time in soliciting business for their employers away from their employer's place of business. The term does not include one whose principal activities consist of service and delivery such as a milk-driver salesman.

Other expenses of employees: The expenses set forth above are the only ones which may be deducted from salaries and wages on Page 1 of Form 1040 by employees. If you file a Short-Form 1040, or if you take the standard deduction on a Long-Form 1040, you automatically receive an allowance for a deduction which takes the place of all other employment expenses and non-business deductions. On the other hand, if you itemize your deductions on a Long-Form 1040, you can deduct the cost of tools, materials, dues to unions, and professional societies, entertaining customers, and other expenses which are ordinary and necessary in connection with your employment. These items may be itemized and deducted on Page 3 under the heading "Miscellaneous".

HOTTEST BUICK IN HISTORY

No wonder you see so many 1955 Buicks on the highways—they're rolling up bigger sales than ever before in history—topping the popularity that has already made Buick one of the "Big Three" in total national sales.

Who says you can't have getaway and gas saving too?

(maybe you'd better try Variable Pitch Dynaflo!)

As any automotive engineer will tell you, the goal in automatic transmissions has long been a design that would give top acceleration and top gas mileage—and still be absolutely smooth.

Well, it's easy to step up acceleration, or gas mileage—but tough to do both together—unless a lot of gearshifting takes place, which cuts down on smoothness.

So Buick engineers looked to aviation for the answer—and brother! what a wondrous new magic they came up with!

They took a leaf from today's plane propeller—which switches the pitch of its blades one way for quick take-off—and another way for better gas mileage aloft.

They brought the same principle to Dynaflo Drive*—to the twenty propeller-like blades in the Dynaflo "stator." They engineered these blades to swivel like the blades of the plane propeller—and with the same results.

In cruising and all normal driving, the blades are angled for economy—and you get a lot more miles from a tankful of gas.

But when you have to move instantly—when you need quick getaway, or a sudden burst of safety-surge power to get out of a tight spot—you just press down that gas pedal, and you're off in a split second.

You've never felt anything like it before—because there's never been anything like it before in an automobile.

It's action that's sheer thrill—action that's backed by the highest V8 horsepower in Buick history—action that's sending Buick sales soaring to record-high levels.

Come in and try it, at the wheel of a Buick SPECIAL, CENTURY, SUPER or ROADMASTER. You have nothing to lose—and the year's most thrilling buy to meet.

*Dynaflo Drive is standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

Federal court officials and grand juries in Texas may be responsible for a nationwide investigation of the narcotics traffic and related law violations.

Through Federal Judge Joe Ingraham the grand jury at Galveston reported to your senators that narcotics law violations constituted the main portion of its business, except for immigration cases. The jurors urged more attention to the subject and better enforcement.

Narcotics Crime Ring

Former United States District Attorney Charles F. Herring of Austin sent a report which was even stronger. He said that "a deadly, multi-million dollar narcotic business flourishes in the United States as the largest criminal operation in the world."

It appears now that either a House or Senate committee will be authorized to study the problem so as to devise means for better enforcement of present narcotic laws and to recommend improvements and changes in existing laws and procedures.

Texas Women Are Leaders Too

This column has previously reported on the places of leadership that two sons of Texas hold in both houses of Congress. This week we hasten to add that a Texas woman has been chosen to preside over the organization composed of the wives of members and former members of Congress.

Mrs. Omar Bureson, wife of the Congressman from Anson, is this year's president of the Congressional Club. It sponsors some of the outstanding events in Washington each year, including the annual reception for the President and First Lady.

Newspaper Women

Liz Carpenter of Austin, who with her husband, Les, corresponds for various Texas and Arkansas newspapers, is president of the Women's National Press Club.

This husband and wife team is very popular in Washington, but the wife took the honors this year with her leadership of the 365 newspaper women who report the news from Washington.

Other Texas newspaper women who cover the Capital scene are Sarah McClendon of Tyler, correspondent for 8 Texas newspapers; Ruth Schumm of Dallas, on the staff of the Dallas News; and Martha Cole of Temple, who is with the Associated Press.

Texas Independence Day

Texans in Washington celebrated Texas Independence Day by meeting for dinner at the National Press Club. The event was sponsored by the University of Texas Ex-Students Association. Congressman Homer Thornberry is president of the organization. The entertainment was supplied by students at the University who came especially for the occasion.

thur, Sweetheart of the University, was here, and there was folk singing by Miss Marilyn Bronson of Austin, piano numbers by Ben Richard Di Tosti of San Marcos, and juggling by Fred Whitaker of Carthage.

University of Texas Ex-Students Association

As in many other cities in the United States and throughout the world, the University of Texas has a strong ex-students group in Washington. There are about 500 members here. Thus the Texas traditions are preserved by the folks who have to be away from home on our holidays.

Cotton Allotments

The bill to provide extra cotton acreage for hardship cases, which we mentioned last week, has passed the House of Representatives. This gives hope that final action may be had in time to help during the present planting season. Senator Johnson and I are continuing to press for prompt action by the Senate Committee and it is working on the subject now. It is believed that some type of relief will be enacted to help those whose cuts have been so drastic. In the meantime, every farmer who will not use his allotment should turn it in to the county committee both to protect himself for future years and to help someone who needs it this year.

Free movie tickets to the Mulkey Theatre are waiting at the Leader office for Mr. and Mrs. Homer Thomas.

The days are growing much shorter—just like the funds of the man who has been on vacation.

AUSTIN—Insurance bills have lagged. Water conservation measures are embroiled in dispute. And virtually no start has been made on a taxing program in the legislature.

As a result, lawmakers are eyeing a possible special session. Theoretical date for such a session is May 11. On that date the legislators' pay for the regular session stops.

It has been suggested that Governor Shivers may have foreseen a bog-down in the regular session, and therefore has not pushed his administration program. During a special session, he would have full control of subject matter which may be introduced.

Tax Bill
Rep. Jerry Sadler of Percilla introduced the biggest tax bill of all.

Promising a lot of controversy, the bill would levy a one-cent per gallon processing tax on all gasoline and distillates produced in Texas. It would: Raise an estimated $160,000,000 a year, repeal the present four-cent gas sales tax, and head off the administration's two-cent gasoline tax increase.

Sadler said its effect would be to reduce the price of gasoline to Texans three cents a gallon. Sixty per cent of the gasoline is exported, tax-free, he said.

Meantime, Rep. Charles Murphy explained he hadn't yet asked for committee hearing on the administration's two-cent gas tax bill, wanting sentiment to jell.

Some Fared Better
Passed by the House were bills outlawing sale of lewd and depraved comic books; permitting women to serve on juries; and regulating leasing for uranium and hard metals.

Amendments to the women's jury service bill narrowed considerably, the list of those who may be called to serve.

Furiously debated, the uranium bill was attacked as a "give away." Rep. Walling of Wichita Falls added two amendments. One will limit each lease to 80 acres to prevent one minor development from freezing exploration on large tracts. Another limits the primary term of leases to five years.

Interest was heightened by reports of a real uranium ore strike in Karnes County.

Rep. Maury Maverick's bill to prohibit cross filing of candidates by two political parties won a favorable report to the House.

Also favorably reported was Rep. Tom Joseph's bill to bring trust companies under supervision of the State Banking Department.

Not Faring So Well
Stymied in a House committee was a bill to increase the filing fee of candidates for the Legislature to $300.

Killed by a Senate committee was Sen. Crawford C. Martin's omnibus water conservation bill. It embraced nine subjects carried in the series of administration bills offered by Chairman D. B. Hardeman of the water resources committee.

Martin warned that unless the Senate reconsidered and kept his bill alive, all others would be subject to being knocked out on a constitutional point of order.

Grand Juries Take Over
Meanwhile, three Grand Juries have stepped in on the veterans' land investigations.

Bexar County's grand jury was quickest on the draw, with two felony indictments. Then the DeWitt Co. grand jury at Cuero fired a double-barrel broadside of 195 indictments against six persons. DeWitt County Attorney Wiley Cheatham started the whole land inquiry.

Travis County grand jury, with venue in every veterans' land transaction, had piles of ammunition and District Attorney Les Proctor had his thumb on the hammer. Grand Juries in 10 other counties have had some contact with the question.

Work by the Senate investigating committee had dribbled down to a schedule of sessions only every other Thursday.

In intensive hearings each week end, the House committee approached the question of administration and operations in the Land Office and Veterans Land Board.

Attorney General Shepperd predicted there will be "hundreds of indictments," and indicated more civil suits were in prospect.

Education
UT President Logan Wilson told the legislature finance and appropriations committee the university must have more money, or face the problem of halting its growth or lowering standards. Requested, for two years for its main establishment, was $9,700,-

000. The governor's budget recommendation cut this by $2,400,-000.

University and college students were to gather in protest of a bill by Senator Otis Lock. Hearing was set for March 2. The bill would authorize a compulsory $20 per semester student activities fee.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Webb will receive free movie tickets at the Leader office this week.
