Why Visit Amarillo? - - - Phooey!!

 (An Editorial) ***

As far as the trip to visit the Amarillo Downtown Lions Club was concerned, we were treated swell and the trip was fine, except for a flat tire enroute. . . .

The trip brought to a head several things we have wanted to point out for some time, and right now is the time to blow off a little steam.

Wes Izzard, editor of the Amarillo News, was scheduled to write our Lions Tale column this week but for some reason or other, Wes didn't show up at the meeting. In fact, the Amarillo News didn't even have a reporter, much less a photographer on hand to cover the meeting. Boss Lion McCully and Dub Nelson of Childress, wanted pictures of the meeting to send to Lions International but no photographer, no pictures. Don't think we are blaming Wes, we're including the whole lot.

Numerous Lions making the trip were quite disappointed when no mention what so ever was made in the Amarillo paper Wednesday morning regarding the visit. The only mention at any time was eleven lines in Izzard's column Tuesday morning saying the Clarendon Lions were supposed to be there. These same Lions seemed to think that it was news worth some sort of mention when eighty business and professional men left their businesses, some closing up, to make the trip, parade down Polk street in a car caravan and make a visit of this nature. Maybe it would have made a bigger impression if the Clarendon delegation had made a big "ballehoo" on Polk urging Amarillo residents to come to Clarendon to spend their dollars. That seems to be the only interest Amarillo has in the little towns near the Golden Spread Capital - - just come to Amarillo where we can remove those dollars from your pocketbook - - we don't care what takes place in your community just as long as you pour thousands of shopping dollars into our POT each year. Naturally, Clarendon dollars spent in Amarillo don't help the progress of Clarendon, help support Clarendon schools, help support city development and many other things; they help Amarillo to grow a little bigger with the hopes of out-doing Lubbock.

It's not that we were overlooked this time, but it has happened so many times before. Only last week, a picture and information regarding our College girl who was named queen of the National AAU Tournament in St. Joseph, Mo., was sent to David Rascoe of the Amarillo News. As usual, it wasn't used. Their sports section was crammed too full of stuff that took place hundreds of miles from this area, but they still like our Clarendon dollars. Last week end, a picture and story about our Lions Queen was sent up there and nothing has been printed to date. We could go on and on and it would be the same story. They are 100 percent for Amarillo as far as publicity goes but they sure put on the promotions to get that Clarendon dollar in their POT.

We have the idea that at least 80 others have the same feeling about this whole matter as we do and plenty of others. We say, spend your dollars at home where they will be appreciated in a different way, will do more good for all of us and our Home Community.

Governor Allan Shivers named March 10 to April 10 the "Month for Crippled Children" in a proclamation issued from the State executive office, March 7, in Austin, Texas.

The Proclamation was issued in support of the 1955 Easter Seal campaign, scheduled to open in Texas on March 10, and continue through Easter Sunday.

"It is a privilege for me to proclaim this month for Crippled Children", Governor Shivers said in a statement accompanying the proclamation. "No greater work can we engage in than giving aid to crippled and handicapped children."

"I urge every citizen of the State to have a part in this worthy humanitarian program. Let each of us individually do what we can to help a crippled child attain his rightful place in society."

"Also, let us all contribute liberally to the Easter Seal campaign, so that the services of the Texas Society for Crippled Children can be expanded to reach every handicapped individual who needs care and treatment."

"May we not slacken our efforts until our goal is reached."

Eighty Local Lions Make Trip To Visit Downtown Amarillo Lions Club Tues.

A caravan of twenty-six cars loaded with eighty Clarendon Lions, the Lions Beauty Queen, the college quartet and accompanist, a grand total of 86, pulled out of Clarendon at 10:30 Tuesday morning at 10:30 to make the 58 mile trip to Amarillo to visit the Downtown Lions Club in the Herring Hotel. In addition to the Clarendon delegation, three Childress Lions joined the group here. The main purpose of the trip was to repay a visit of the Amarillo Lions 33 years ago at which time the Amarillo Club chartered the local club.

Upon reaching Amarillo, the caravan paraded down Polk street and made the circle to the Herring where the group was met by a very hospitable group of Downtown Lions. The luncheon held in the Crystal Ball Room was very enjoyable. Boss Lion Mike McCully and Downtown Boss Lion C. T. Davis Jr., presided over the joint meeting of the two clubs. The Clarendon Lions carried along their own program with the exception of the speech made by District Governor Jim Ed Waller of Plainview. The members of the Amarillo Lions Club were very appreciative of the visit and showed their hospitality in every way to make the Clarendon Lions feel right at home.

New Red River Bridge Due For Open Traffic This Week End

Carroll Hudson, Highway engineer in charge of construction, announced this week that if everything goes well, the new 575 foot bridge across Salt Fork of Red River, five miles north of town, will be open to traffic sometime the latter part of this week. The bridge itself, has been completed and work on the approaches is due to be completed any day now.

The new bridge replaced the one washed out by the flood some nine months ago. It is 175 feet longer than the old bridge and five feet higher. The old bridge had 40 feet spans all the way across but the new bridge has three wider spans over the main channel, the first span is 70 feet, the second 90, the third 70 and the remainder are 40 foot spans which should remove future possibility of another wash-out. The total cost of the bridge and approaches amounted to around $114,000, Hudson stated. This does not include Highway Department and Engineering costs, he added.

Fireman's Ball Tonight

Very few have to be reminded that today is St. Patrick's Day, but the local volunteer firemen want to remind everyone again that the Fireman's Annual Ball will be held tonight (Thursday) at the Moose Hall beginning at 9 o'clock. The dance will be open to the public and everyone who enjoys dancing is urged to attend. Admission will be $1.00 per person. The Tom Dunham Orchestra of Pampa will furnish the music for the dance. Remember the tickets you buy will be a step toward better protection against fire damage as money from this annual ball is used to help maintain the fire fighting equipment, used by the local volunteer fire department.

Iva Jean McAnear Is Lions Queen

Miss Iva Jean McAnear, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. McAnear, was named Lions Queen in the contest held at the College Auditorium last Friday night. There were eleven other very attractive young ladies in the contest which made it a difficult job for the judges making the selection.

Miss McAnear, high school sophomore, will represent the Clarendon Lions Club in the contest at Lubbock April 24-26th during the District convention there.

County Agent Warns For Close Watch On 'Hopper Hatches'

The grasshopper situation could be severe in Donley County this spring says county agent H. M. Breedlove. The bureau of entomology made checks in the county on ranges and farm land and found sufficient eggs to cause a severe outbreak if they all hatch.

Breedlove warns all farmers and ranchers to be on the lookout for early hatches of hoppers and to poison them while they are small and still in the hatch areas before they become large enough to migrate. The hatch areas will usually be found around fence rows, around lakes and low places where water has stood or in protected places of a great deal of vegetation. The small hoppers stay in bunches in the hatch areas until they become large enough to migrate and that is the time to get them because they are all together and less poison is needed and spray can be used on tender vegetation on which the hoppers are feeding.

Breedlove says that toxaphene, chlorodane and aldrin are the best sprays to use while the vegetation is green. Every one is urged to keep a lookout for the small hoppers and poison at once because early poisoning can save you severe damage later on in the summer after crops are up and the hoppers become large enough to migrate into the fields.

Anyone wishing additional information should call by the office of the county agent.

BENTLEY'S OPEN NEIGHBORHOOD GROCERY

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bentley are announcing in this issue of the Leader, the opening of a neighborhood grocery business in the Thomas Feed Store building across the highway north of Matt's Cafe. The business will feature the usual line of groceries, etc.

Earl Gulpin and Berry Hodge of Highland, Calif. visited Sunday night in the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Hodge and family.

Lelia Lake Juniors and Seniors To Present Musical and Negro Minstrel

A combination musical and negro minstrel will be presented by members of the junior-senior classes of the Lelia Lake schools, Thursday, March 24th at 8 P. M. Twenty songs, western, popular, and negro spiritual type will be presented in addition to the negro minstrel. The juniors and seniors will be assisted in the program by Miss Thelma Moss, music instructor in the Donley County School System.

The program will be presented for the benefit of the annual junior-senior trip to be taken immediately after graduation exercises this spring. The two classes will appreciate your attendance at the program.

NOTICE

City Water Superintendent, Orville Housden announced yesterday the following information regarding city water service for the week end.

Saturday afternoon, March 19, at 1 o'clock, a fire hydrant will be repaired at 3rd and Koogle. Plans are for cutting service to users in that immediate area only but in event of unforeseen difficulties, a cut-off effecting a larger area may be necessary.

On Sunday morning, March 20, at 9 a. m., the water will be cut-off on Gorst St. which will effect the entire east side of town in order to complete work at Browning & Carhart Street. They plan to have the water back on by 12 noon. In case you should not have service at that time, you are requested to call 229-J and a serviceman will check your meter to see if it is air-locked. Gorst street is the street that runs north and south between the First Baptist Church and the First Christian Church, so remember that all service east of this street will be discontinued between 9 a. m. and noon Sunday. Make a note or some type of reminder to draw up enough water to run you during this time, Housden added.

BAND PARENTS TO MEET

Parents of Band students will hold their regular monthly meeting, Monday evening, March 21, at the Band Hall, Dale Hill, president, has called the meeting for 8:00 p. m. All parents of band students are invited to attend.

MOTHERS STUDY CLUB TO HOLD BAKE SALE

The Mothers Study Club will hold a Bake Sale, Saturday, March 19, at Junior's Food Market. Food will be ready at 8 a. m. with a variety of cakes and pies to choose from. These ladies invite you to shop with them for your week end sweets.

Red Cross Campaign To Continue Until Last of March

The 1955 Red Cross campaign for funds continues in Donley County and will end the last of March. Progress towards the goal this year for a 100 per cent membership from the county is slow, says one official. Contributions are expected to increase the last two weeks.

County chairmen, city volunteer workers, and local clubs are all participating in the drive. Contributions can be made at the First National Bank, Farmers State Bank and the Donley County State Bank.

Red Cross gives financial assistance for blood to save lives and for defense; for servicemen for help in crises, contact with families and recreation, and for disaster for food, clothing, shelter, and help in rebuilding homes and lives.

Each dollar an individual gives helps someone who is desperate and in need of help.

Typical disaster duties of National Guardsmen are shown in inset as Kansas Air Guard pilot has delivered badly needed food to isolated farm family and (below) Indiana Guardsmen sandbag flood swollen Calumet River near Hammond.

Drouth Hay Program Survey

John White, Commissioner Texas Dept. of Agriculture

Half a loaf appears to be better than none as far as the drouth relief hay program for Texas is concerned...

March 31st marks the final phase of the present program inaugurated jointly by the state and federal governments...

Some 200 hundred replies to the first question "Should the program be continued?" leaned heavily towards extension beyond March 31...

Judging from the answers and other sources, many of the counties have fair to good prospects for spring grass at this time...

Was the hay program adequate? Fifty-seven flatly stated "no", 91 said "yes", and another 57 said some benefits were derived from it...

Most of the criticism was directed at the price of hay by the time it reached the drouth areas. Any benefits derived from the reduced freight rates was absorbed by the increased cost of the hay...

In reply to suggestions for program improvement, a Palo Pinto man summed up the general feeling by requesting a cheaper source or supply of hay with less red tape and more aid in freight rates...

But a Stonewall farmer recommended that the department take the only sure method of drouth relief.

"Have it rain more!", he said. The Metropolitan Opera House in New York opened in 1883.

New Cotton Insecticide Tests

John White, Commissioner Texas Dept. of Agriculture

Two new experimental insecticides for possible future use on cotton are showing good promise in tests being performed in Texas at present.

The organic phosphorus chemicals have proved deadly to the boll weevil, pink bollworm, cotton aphid, spider mites, cotton leafworms, flower thrips and cotton flea-hopper in control tests.

Chemically the materials are: (1) benzol triazine derivative of a dithio-phosphoric acid ethyl ester, and (2), equally impressive, is benzol triazine derivative of a dithio-phosphoric acid methyl ester...

In tests at College Station, compound 17147 provided 100 percent kills of the boll weevil at spray rates as low as one-fourth a pound per acre.

One of the most promising features is attributed to compound 17147. It may prove effective against the pink bollworm which has defied most poisons for many years.

Early tests with this compound under laboratory conditions showed such promise that it was field-tested against heavy infestations in south-central Texas during the cotton season last fall.

Seven applications of DDT, at two rates, and 17147 were dusted on infested cotton during a month-long trial. Six days after the first application, 11 percent of the cotton bolls were found damaged in plots treated with 17147...

A few weeks later, the number of insect-damaged bolls on the 17147 treated plot had dropped to less than one percent while on the DDT plots damage had climbed to 17 to 20 percent, and on untreated plots to 34 percent.

Compound 17147 also prevented a damaging buildup of the cotton aphid and the plants remained green and luxuriant during the test.

Health Notes

AUSTIN — You catch a cold from a person who has a cold when you take in more of his cold germs than your body defenses can destroy. This is apt to happen when you are tired, and somebody is coughing or sneezing around you, says Dr. Henry A. Holle, State Health Officer.

Avoid taking in large masses of the germs by staying away from the person who has a cold; by staying out of crowded places during a cold epidemic; by washing your hands before you eat and after contact with a cold-infected person, or articles he has handled.

Keep your general health high by getting plenty of sleep; by eating regular well-balanced meals and drinking plenty of water; by getting some outdoor exercise every day; and by letting sunshine and fresh air into your home, office or factory.

Don't lower your resistance by getting too tired, over-heated or chilled. Avoid sitting in dried out, smoke-, dust- or chemical-laden air. Dress according to the weather and the temperature in which you must work.

Go to bed if you possibly can at the first sign of a cold. If you can't stay in bed, get as much rest as possible. Protect others by covering your mouth and nose when you cough or sneeze, and by washing your hands frequently, especially before handling food, cooking utensils or dishes.

Don't try to treat yourself. If your cold symptoms persist or if you develop fever or chest pain, call your doctor and follow his advice.

YOUR 1954 Income Tax

Sickness and Disability Benefits

The provisions of the law relating to employer-financed health and accident plans are new. There are three principal types of exclusions.

The first type of exclusion is where you are reimbursed for medical care of yourself, your spouse, or a dependent. This type of benefit is not taxable except to the extent that you have taken a medical deduction for the expense.

The second type of exclusion consists of payments for permanent loss of a member or function of the body, or for permanent disfigurement of you, your spouse or a dependent. The payments to be excluded must be computed with reference to the injury and without regard to the period you are absent from work.

The third type of exclusion is referred to in the new law as "Wage Continuation Plan." In general, this section of the new law provides that gross income does not include amounts paid to you if such amounts constitute wages or payments in lieu of wages for a period when you are absent from work on account of personal injuries or sickness. The amount to be excluded can never exceed $100.00 per week. The benefits of this section vary depending upon the cause of your absence from work. If your absence is occasioned by injury sustained by you, the exclusion applies from the first day of absence. If your absence is caused by illness requiring hospitalization, the exclusion likewise applies from the first day of absence. However, if your absence is caused by illness and you are not hospitalized, the exclusion applies only after the first seven calendar days. The amount to be excluded is the amount received, but such amount may not exceed a weekly rate of $100.00.

Brucellosis Seriously Threatening Texas Livestock Industry

AUSTIN—The Texas livestock industry stands in danger of being paralyzed by a federal quarantine on cattle leaving the state, unless something is done to eradicate Brucellosis (infectious abortion) in cattle within the next three years, Sen. Andy Rogers, District 30, of Childress, said today.

The quarantine would be imposed as a result of an ordinance issued by the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare and adopted in 1953 by the State Health Officer, Rogers said. That ordinance would require Texas and its livestock industry—beef and dairy—to eradicate the disease by 1958. Else, no cattle, beef, or dairy products can be shipped out of the state once the quarantine is imposed.

In commenting on Senate Bill 172, which he introduced in the current legislative session, Sen. Rogers said the widespread infection of beef and dairy animals in Texas "is the most serious of our health-livestock problems." He pointed out that the problem is also an economic one, since eradication would necessarily entail eventually ridding herds of infected animals.

"All my life I've been, in a modest way, in the livestock business," Rogers said, "and I know what a financial hardship it is at times to lose a producing animal. But this cure—painful though it may be—would save the industry from the death that the quarantine would surely cause."

Commonly known as Bang's Disease and infectious abortion in cattle, the disease occurs in humans as "undulant fever," and it has made tremendous gains since the strict eradication measures of the 1930s were discontinued.

"This problem, and the time limit imposed by the federal government deserves our serious attention, since either of the plans suggested by the government would require at least three years to execute," he said. He described the plan as follows:
 Plan A—Test and slaughter, with or without calf-vaccination, where the immediate removal of reactors (infected animals) would not cause serious economic loss to the owners.

Plan B—Testing and calf-vaccination, and temporary retention of reactors until it is economically possible to slaughter them without excessive loss to the owner.

Sen. Rogers emphasized that the problem has numerous economic and health aspects. The efficient management of a livestock operation requires that every animal produce at capacity. Brucellosis-infected cattle are not economically efficient in reproduction, he said.

"Either of these plans requires—for success—that each owner be aware of the danger and economic impracticality of continued milk and meat production from infected animals," he said. "And in either case it is a moral responsibility for the owner to cooperate in ridding his herd, and thus the state, of this dangerous disease."

Sen. Rogers said that the bill he introduced contains the necessary instruments to set in motion one of the programs of eradication. It would set up administrative and inspection machinery, he said, and would qualify the state for an approximate $1,000,000 slice of a total $15 million in federal funds set up to combat the disease.

Texas Junior College Teachers Association

The Texas Junior College Teachers Association met for its eighth annual convention in the Baker Hotel, Mineral Wells, Texas, March 10, 11, and 12th. Representatives from the Clarendon College were Mrs. Marguerite Goodner, and Misses Naomi Allison and Lucile Polk. Registration was in the Main Lobby from 7:30 to 9:30 P. M. Thursday, followed by an executive meeting in the president's suite.

Friday morning's activities opened with a coffee on the South Terrace honoring the past presidents of the association. The first general session began at 10:30 on the West Terrace with President A. C. Pierce presiding. The music for the program was furnished by the Cisco Junior College choir with Jack Chambliss directing. Dr. W. R. Woolrich, Dean of the College of Engineering, University of Texas, gave the address, "Essential Studies for Modern Living." Dr. Woolrich stressed the fact that mass education was good in many ways but that America needed to place greater emphasis upon scientific and technical education; that we have been living too much on borrowed brains as most of the outstanding scientists were educated in Europe.

Section meetings were scheduled for Friday afternoon. Mrs. Goodner attended the English division, Miss Allison the Speech, and Miss Polk the Social Studies. Through symposiums conducted by members and addresses by noted educators, problems were discussed and worthwhile suggestions offered.

The annual banquet and the second general session began at 7:30 P. M. on the West Terrace. Burton Mason from Paris Junior College presided as toastmaster. The music for this occasion was furnished by the Weatherford College choir directed by Mrs. Elizabeth Kutchbach. Dr. Thomas Hale Hamilton, Dean of the Michigan State College, gave the principal address. Dr. Hamilton is a most gifted speaker and is much in demand throughout the United States. He spoke on "The Problem of the Partial Answer," emphasizing the fact that the next 25 years would show unusual growth and expansion; therefore it should be expedient for the educators of this nation to train the youth to become a class of stable citizens; to enable them to better understand the nature of their responsibilities, and to use their capacities in the interest of the community.

The final session of the convention met again on the West Terrace Saturday morning. The program was in the form of a panel discussion and included such subjects as "Pending Legislation Affecting Junior Colleges", "Requirements for Future Teachers and the College Curriculum", "Professional Ethics for the Junior College Personnel", and "Counseling and Guidance of Students."

The Texas Junior College Teachers Association is growing rapidly and has approximately 600 members at the present time. Amarillo, Frank Phillips, and Clarendon Junior Colleges extended an invitation for the association to meet in Amarillo next year. It is hoped that the Executive Board will accept Amarillo's invitation so that more of the Texas teachers may have an opportunity to enjoy the hospitality of the "Golden Spread".

PLOWIN' Out the CORNERS

by Uncle Zeb

Motto on the desk of Judge W. M. Adams of Amarillo: "Why be difficult when with just a little effort you can be impossible." Another: "Don't go away mad—just go away." We don't see how anyone could go away mad from this friendly sort of a fellow.

Ralph J. Hudgins, who travels for an office supply company says that the following is one of his favorite sayings: "If you look under a high hat, you will usually find a low brow." Now, ain't that the truth?

We quote the following from 4 Corners, a column written by one of our favorite people, Lewis Nordyke, who by the way has a new book out right about now we believe. If we could think of the name of same we would give it a "Plug." Anyway, for the quote from his column:

"The other day a minister told how a person can get a cross in his life. He said it took two pieces, one short, one long to make a cross. The long one is the will of God. The short one is the will of man. As long as the wills are parallel, there is no cross.

But when man's will goes against that of God this forms a cross in the man's life." Thanks Lewis for sharing this wonderful thought with all of us.

Someone has said: "Wouldn't it be nice if everyone who pointed a finger would instead hold out a hand."

Someone else pointed out: "Just because we are in Who's Who, doesn't necessarily mean we know What's What."

I can't believe this one: "A new groom sweeps clean, and pretty soon he is also washing the dishes." At least I doubt the first part.

Out good friend John Luther accuses us of saying the following: "Work won't kill anyone, but it might scare us to death." Even though we may seem to fit the description perfectly we deny making the statement. I do remember that a little negro boy that picked cotton for us once was always making that statement in referring to ghosts. The older ones would get a kick out of scaring him and my mother would try to soothe him down by telling him that Ghosts couldn't hurt anyone because in the first place they were supposed to be dead people. "Oh, I know that," he would say, "Deny won't hurt you, fo' sure, but dat don't keep dem from scaring you and making you hurt yo'self." Anyhow, I guess most of us are a little bit afraid of both work and ghosts. Mr. Luther also gave us the following which is supposed to be a prayer of an old negro preacher in a little country church back in Alabama. It is called;

SLOW ME DOWN

"Slow me down, Lord, Ah's a goin' too fast, Ah can't see mah brudder when he's walkin' past. Ah misses a lot O' good things day by day; Ah don't know a blessin' when it comes my way.

Slow me down, Lord, Ah wants to see

A little more of what's good for me.

A little less of me, an a mite more o' you.

Ah wants more Heavenly atmosphere to trickle through.

Let me help my brudder when the goings rough.

When folks work together it ain't so tough.

Slow me down, so wid some of yo' angels I can talk,

Slow me down, Lord, Jes slow me down to a walk.

Thanks for all the good material that we have received from our readers this time. We often ask ourselves what on earth we would do without this help. Actually, what would we do without our friends and neighbors that so often and so many times come to our aid in a thousand and one different ways. We should each of us never pass a day without thanking our Maker for those that He has placed so near; so close to us here in this world.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. (Joe) Wood have been selected to receive free movie tickets to the Mulkey Theatre this week. Please pick them up at the Leader office.

Wildlife Conservation

By Donaven Houdashell

In the early beginning of America, wildlife was destroyed by man as a must for food and clothing. However, America has progressed into an era where we do not need wildlife as a means for food and clothing, but we do need to practice wildlife conservation. Conservation is a necessity to restore and protect Nature's beauty. Since big industries and big cities have developed, the young boy of today does not have the privilege of hunting as did our forefathers. As Americans, we must practice the conservation of wildlife so that the future generations will know what Nature has unfolded for them.

Extensive conservation programs need to be started by the smaller communities to save wildlife. If the people will back conservationists to the limit, wildlife conservation will catch a firm hold onto the goal of cooperative progress. Every sportsman and citizen of our great nation should read and learn the Conservation Pledge.

CONSERVATION PLEDGE

I Give My Pledge As An American To Save And Faithfully To Defend From Waste The Natural Resources Of My Country—Its Soil And Minerals, Its Forests, Waters, And Wildlife.

GABIE BETTS BURTON LIBRARY NOTES

By May L. Prewitt

We found it necessary to purchase some light fiction for the girls. These are "Morning Is For Joy" by Ruth Livingston Hill, "The Patch of Blue", Grace Livingston Hill, "In Tune With Wedding Bells," by Grace Livingston Hill, "Coming Thru the Rye," by Hill, "Where Two Ways Met" by Hill. Then we have a new Caroline Keene book, "The Scarlet Slipper Mystery."

Dale Evans Rogers new book is "My Spiritual Diary." Van Wyck Mason's new book is "Blue Hurricane," and John Jennings' book is "Shadows In the Dust."

For the boys I secured some Tarzan editions: "Tarzan The Magnificent," "Tarzan The Invincible," "Tarzan The Lion Man," "Tarzan The Leopard Man," "Tarzan at the Earth's Core." "A Pass and a Prayer" by Clair Bee is a Chip Hilton Edition.

It has become necessary to re-fuse books to children who are habitually late returning them, and those who neglect their fine money or lose and destroy books an ddo not pay for them. Our books are expensive and it takes stamps for reminder cards and unlimited time to keep reminding over telephone to "Please return your books."

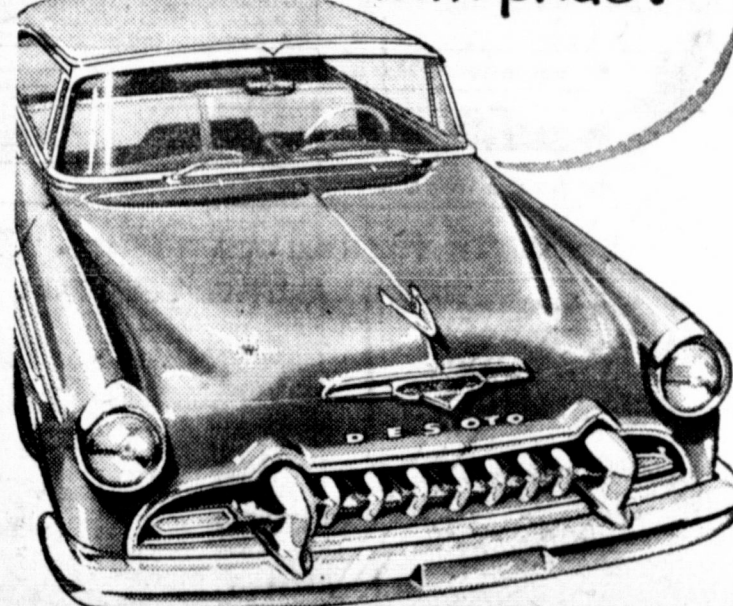

Our patrons have been generous with book gifts this year and several help us with magazines. We appreciate this co-operation.

CARD OF THANKS

Our heartfelt thanks to all who extended comforting sympathy, prepared food, and helped in our recent sorrow. For the beautiful service, floral offerings, and other kindnesses, we are deeply grateful.

By PRICE DANIEL
U. S. Senator

Many Texans were made happy with nominations to West Point, Annapolis, and the new Air Academy during the past week. Members of Congress appoint one or more principals and several alternates to receive the entrance examinations to West Point and the Naval Academy. Each senator and representative is permitted to have 4 cadets at West Point and 5 midshipmen at Annapolis during each year.

Most members of Congress base their nominations on preliminary examinations given by the Civil Service Commission. The writer's quota at West Point is full this year, but his Annapolis appointments went to Barry Packard of Austin, Charles LeSueur of Abilene, and Bridgman MacDonald of Houston, with nominations as alternates to Farrald Belote of Garland, Frank Jones of Mineral Wells, George Forbes of San Antonio, Eugene Tippet of Dayton, Mark Magnussen of Fort Worth, James Stephenson of Dallas, Dorsey Baker of Dallas, Frederick Mills of Monroe City and David Williams of Houston.

The Air Academy

Nominations to the Air Academy are handled on an entirely different basis. Each State is allowed a certain number of appointments for the first class. Texas will receive 12 appointments. Each member of Congress may nominate 10 students to receive entrance examinations—a total of 230 for Texas' two Senators and 21 Representatives. From this number the Air Force itself will select the 12 Texas cadets on the basis of the entrance examinations.

The writer's 10 Air Academy nominations were Winfield Ulmer of Houston, Gerald Brooks of El Paso, Guy Floyd of San Antonio, Joe Roady of San Marcos, John Cannon of Port Arthur, John Skeldon of San Antonio, Harry Culler of Dallas, James Vester of Sherman, Charles Griffin of Anahuac, and Jack Williamson of Corpus Christi.

Texans Show Interest In Academies

From all reports there are more Texans interested in the Air, Military and Naval Academies than from any other State. Air applicants rate high on their preliminary civil service examinations and above average on the entrance exams. Joseph Coreth of Dallas is reported to have made the second highest grade in the nation on the recent exams given by the Civil Service Commission.

There were many other applicants whose grades would have qualified them for one of my nominations; but either Senator Johnson or their Congressman had already selected them. When a boy applies to more than one office, we try to prevent duplicate nominations so that as many Texans as possible may have the opportunity to take the entrance examinations.

New Interstate Commerce Commissioner

Everett Hutchinson of Hempstead and Austin has assumed his duties as a member of the Interstate Commerce Commission. Recently appointed to this important post by President Eisenhower, Hutchinson and his family moved to Washington last week.

Stafford, 9-year-old son of the Hutchinsons, placed his brand new Texas flag on a pole in the front yard of their Washington home on Texas Independence Day. A woman and three children called at the front door and asked Mrs. Hutchinson what time the auction would be held. In all sincerity, the lady thought a private sale was on, because, as she explained to Mrs. Hutchinson, "Your flag was out, and that means an auction in my country, South Africa." Instead, the visitor received a lesson in Texas history.

More Texans in Washington

Last week the Senate confirmed Dean Charles N. Shepardson of Bryan as a member of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System. Until this appointment by the President, Dr. Shepardson was dean of agriculture at Texas A&M College.

Baylor University sent its Rhapsody in White girls' choral group and the Bards, the men's choral group, to Washington for appearances at the Chevy Chase Baptist Church and Metropolitan Baptist Church. They were on an extended tour of the East and brought some fine music to Washington and New York.

Thirty-seven representatives of the Farmers Union from West Texas and the Panhandle were here last week to urge an increase in the price support on grain sorghum. Under the chairmanship of Vernon Tiryey of Texline, they presented an impressive argument to the Department of Agriculture and received the support of Texas members of Congress.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Allmond may pick up their free movie tickets at the Leader office.

WTSC Professors Write New Texas History Text Book

CANYON—A new Texas history for junior high school students by Dr. L. F. Sheffy and Dr. Ina Barlow, West Texas State College professors of history, "described as "the most interesting since Pennybacker's," has been adopted for use by the State Text Book Commission. Recently published, the book will be available for the 1955 school year.

"Texas," published by Banks Upshaw & Company, is one of five texts adopted by the commission and approved for use in the sixth and seventh grades. Schools adopt their texts for four years.

The West Texas State authors had planned the book for a number of years, and spent the summer of 1953 putting the final touches on the text. They had submitted chapters and mimeographed units to teachers throughout the state to determine vocabulary and subject approach for children in the sixth and seventh grades.

Enlisting the aid of Miss Alyce McWilliams, supervisor of social studies for Beaumont's public schools and who teaches Texas History in the Beaumont junior high school, Dr. Barlow and Dr. Sheffy were able to make their book readable for children from 12 to 15 years of age. Several units and chapters were tried in classes and suggestions from teachers and pupils alike were incorporated in the book. Miss McWilliams also compiled a list of study aids at the end of each chapter. Drawings in the book were by Mrs. Ann Conner, formerly of Canyon. "We have taken a narrative approach in the book," Dr. Sheffy said. "It will be easy to read and will not be a strictly factual approach. Of course, we don't depart from facts, rather the dry statistical method of telling the story of the state's history."

The book is liberally illustrated with photographs, drawings and maps. A color picture on the cover of a modern cowboy on a palomino horse in a field of Texas bluebonnets sets the theme of the book. Opening chapter of the book, titled "Why Texas Brags," relates a tourist's view of the state, making a trip around the perimeters of its borders and across its width.

Illustrating the departure from standard historical writing, the two authors discuss only the expeditions of Cabeza de Vaca and Coronado in their chapters of Spanish discovery, avoiding the many minor explorers. In their recitation of the political history under Texas' governors, the administration of James Stephen Hogg is the central point of discussion.

They selected Hogg because he represented the transition from the old post-Civil War governors to a modern government, and Hogg was the first native-born governor of the state.

Dr. Barlow said that they had tried to tie the history of Texas in with the history of the United States and Mexico, viewing Texas in its historical setting rather than confining the narrative to a record of Texas.

Dr. Sheffy, head of the WT history department and chairman of the social sciences division, has been professor of WT since 1918. Before coming to the college, he had taught in a number of Panhandle high schools. Dr. Barlow has been a member of the WT faculty since 1930. Both have written books and numerous historical articles, but "Texas" is their first effort at writing for public school children.

A "Small Car" price makes it yours —delivered and ready to roll

WE keep coming across a good many people who still are surprised when they see the low delivered price of the Buick shown here.

They're surprised because they know that this price is just about what a lot of the smaller cars are asking—if not more.

But that's just the point.

What's making the 1955 Buick the hottest one in all Buick sales history is the simple fact that its low delivered price buys so much more automobile.

Much more automobile when it comes to the lift and life of great V8 power—Buick power in record might.

Much more automobile when it comes to style and size and room and ride steadiness—and the integrity of construction that comes of Buick building.

Much more, too, when it comes to matching your motoring needs to the simple practicality of your budget—because Buick offers you

DID YOU KNOW—

- that the Buick SPECIAL is priced below any other car of 188 horsepower and 122-inch wheelbase?
- that the Buick SPECIAL is priced below some models of the three best-known smaller cars?
- that the Buick SPECIAL gives you more pounds of automobile than any other car at its low price?

a stunning choice in just about every price class...

Like the rock-bottom-priced SPECIAL—the high-powered CENTURY—the extra-spacious SUPER—the magnificent and custom-built ROADMASTER. Each is a Buick through and through—and each is a big reason why Buick sales are soaring as never before.

Why not drop in on us this week and see how much your new-car dollars can really buy—in thrills and fun and comfort and deep satisfaction—when you buy Buick.

VETERANS HOSPITAL

The Hoover Commission Task

Force recommendation that the Amarillo Veterans Hospital be closed is understandably causing quite a furor. My immediate reaction to the report was carried in the Amarillo paper. I want to here and now state that the newspaper report was an exact reflection of my feeling on the matter at the time the report came to my notice, and my reaction has been confirmed and fully supported after reading the report. It is a very simple thing for a few individuals to take a group of facts and figures and add, subtract and multiply them. Such practice will, no doubt, produce a mathematical answer that might be difficult to challenge. However, the thing that seems to be forgotten is the fact that we are dealing with human problems, and in so doing, the human equation must be applied before the end result will be correct. Frankly, I am completely astounded at the recommendations of this task force. To me, it represents how quickly the debts that we owe the veterans of this nation can be forgotten. This report reflects a cold-blooded attempt to justify the closing of some veterans hospitals on a strictly facts-and-figures basis without regard to the human beings involved. It no doubt represents a coldly efficient approach. The thing that occurs to me is that the men who caused the need for hospitals for veterans in this country were the dictators who could be rightfully called the most coldly efficient men in our time. In other words, these dictators placed efficiency first and last. The human beings to whom they were merely cogs in the wheels to create their efficient machine that they hoped would rule the world. When these human beings reached the point or the condition that they could not produce, they became expendable and were disposed of. It must be remembered that it was the veterans of this country, many of whom are patients in these veterans hospitals, who destroyed these dictators and protected and preserved the freedoms and the human dignities that we in America so dearly love.

If the recommendations of the Hoover Commission Task Force concerning the closing of the Amarillo Hospital is any indication of the type of recommendations that we can expect from the Hoover Commission from now on, it is my recommendation that the Hoover Commission be closed, rather than the veterans hospitals.

HEALTH, EDUCATION AND WELFARE

Secretary Oveta Culp Hobby testified before the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce on March 2nd concerning the omnibus health proposal of this administration, to wit, H. R. 3458 and H. R. 3720. This was the beginning of the hearings on this controversial legislation. The reason it is controversial is because many feel that it is the opening of the door for socialized medicine. I pointed this out to Mrs. Hobby during the hearings, and she seemed to be very much surprised that the Members had received any communications indicating that this health legislation was even closely akin to socialized medicine. Her surprise to the contrary notwithstanding, I have received quite a number of communications referring to these administration health proposals as the opening wedge for the final socialization of medicine. Whether or not these accusations are true will, of course, depend upon what develops in the hearings. Mrs. Hobby takes the position that this is the voluntary approach. In answer to a direct question of mine, she advised the committee that neither she nor the administration had had any plans or discussion to move into the field of compulsory health insurance should the proposed voluntary plan be unsuccessful. Her statement concerning this feature was "The objective of this proposal is to accelerate the extension of voluntary health insurance." In other words, this bill would create a situation where the federal government would give certain guarantees to health insurance companies so that these companies would write health insurance that they now refuse to write. That is, the federal government would protect them to a certain degree against any loss they might suffer because of the policies they had written. It is a very complex situation and involves several other features besides the re-insurance feature.

One of the alarming things that was pointed out in Secretary Hobby's testimony was her statement that "There are an estimated 9 million persons in the United States with serious mental disorders, most of them untreated, and those who are receiving institutional care or treatment occupy nearly half of the nation's hospital beds." I say "alarming", because this figure constitutes approximately six percent of the population of this country. Many of these mental disorders are the direct result of nervous disorders traceable to war service. It occurs to me that the Task Force of the Hoover Commission might do well to discuss some of these matters with the Secretary of Health.

Triumphs and Sidelights State CAPITOL

AUSTIN — Top news of the week is the arrest of Bascom Giles.

The former land commissioner was charged with conspiracy to commit theft of $83,500 in state funds.

Giles' indictment was issued by the Travis County grand jury following investigation of alleged

DENTIST
Goldston Bldg.
Clarendon, Texas Phone 46

irregularities in the veterans' land program.

He was released after posting a $60,000 bond—first set at $100,000 and later reduced.

Strict secrecy has shrouded Travis County's land fraud indictments.

An unknown number of them have been made. Names of others indicted will be announced as arrests are made.

District Attorney Les Proctor said the indictments were sealed "in the interest of law enforcement." He would not estimate how long it might be before the names could be made public. Proctor also had asked for a special jury to prevent any let-up in the investigation.

District Judge Charles O. Betts signed an order calling a special grand jury into session on March 10. His order does not limit the jury to land investigations, although that is its actual purpose.

Betts' order will keep the jury in session until the last Saturday in July. The previous grand jury's session expired March 5th.

Rumors in Capitol corridors have it that the most outstanding breaks in the land investigation are yet to come.

McLarty Returns

T. J. McLarty of Denver, Colo., one of several real estate promoters indicted in connection with veterans' land transactions, returned to Texas to post a $26,400 bond and talk to legislative investigators.

He has asked the privilege of having other witnesses and records subpoenaed.

Shepperd Busy

A report from the Attorney General's office reveals that since the beginning of the veterans' land investigation in October of last year, John Ben Shepperd's office has been a beehive of activity.

Shepperd estimates he and his assistants have traveled over 18,000 miles and have put in over 41,000 man-hours of time on the veterans land investigation.

Shepperd has met with grand juries almost daily.

Thus far, the Bexar and DeWitt Co. grand juries have returned a total of 188 indictments against eight persons involved in veterans' land sales.

In addition, the State has filed three criminal complaints in Travis County.

Ten civil suits have been filed against 25 separate promoters. The total recovery sought by Shepperd in these 10 suits is $1,604,000.

Attorney General Shepperd plans to meet with 13 different grand juries during the month of March. He forecasts that this month will see the returning of "hundreds of criminal indictments against most of the persons involved."

Shepperd has added a complete new division to his department to process veterans' land civil and criminal cases. It is head by Cecil E. Burney of Corpus Christi, an ex-prosecutor and former president of the State Bar of Texas.

Session Passing

Half of the regular session of the 54th Legislature is gone.

Governor Shivers said he wasn't perturbed at the slow start on important tax, water, appropriations and other legislation. He hadn't expected lawmakers to finish much legislation in the first half of the session.

There still is plenty of time, the Governor believes, to complete the program.

Minor Water Bills

Two minor water bills got an okay in the House.

One gives the State Water Board power to review proposals for federal projects. Veto power for the governor, originally in the bill, was stricken out.

The other requires water districts to register with the state board.

Important water conservation measures, involving millions of dollars, have not reached a vote in either house.

Insurance Bills

Two big insurance bills were hung in committee. Rep. Floyd Bradshaw's omnibus bill would regulate fire and casualty companies of all kinds. Sen. Searcy Bracewell's would regulate life companies.

Regulations in Bradshaw's bills would: Raise minimum capital and surplus requirements (combined) to $200,000 for fire companies; $300,000 for casualty; and $500,000 for companies writing more than one line.

One advocate of his bill said,

"Insurance companies have to be born big."

Governor Shivers, on the other hand, said that just because an insurance company is small doesn't mean it isn't sound.

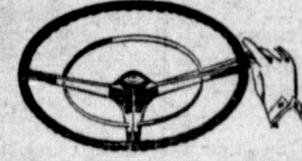

Bracewell's bill would raise minimum capital and surplus requirements of life companies to $200,000 and require that it be kept in cash or bonds, not in real estate.

Rep. Vernon Smith charged that "vicious and false propaganda" by out-of-state insurance companies had impaired confidence in Texas insurance.

Mrs. Jim Aldridge, Eugene, and Mary Lee visited with Mrs. R. L. Van Huss and Doris, also Mr. and Mrs. George Van Huss and family of McLean Thursday night.

Are you a "Do-It-Yourself" Driver?

Or would you rather be waited on hand and foot?

Rather shift for yourself . . .

Shifting's smooth and easy with Chevrolet's new and finer Synchro-Mesh transmission. A flick of your wrist is all it takes to shift gears.

or let Powerglide do it?

Powerglide, too, is better than ever this year. Even smoother and sturdier. It's the most popular automatic transmission* in Chevrolet's field!

Want standard steering . . . or extra-easy Power Steering?

Try this easy new Chevrolet steering. Only Chevrolet and some higher-priced cars use a ball bearing system to cut friction to a minimum.

There's nothing quite so easy as Power Steering, of course. Good news: Chevrolet's new linkage-type Power Steering* carries a reduced price!

Apply the brakes like this . . . or have power make it easier?

Improved brakes and new swing-type pedals make stopping a cinch. And Chevrolet's exclusive Anti-Dive control gives you "heads up" stops!

Chevrolet Power Brakes* are better than ever this year—let you stop by a simple pivot of your foot from accelerator to swing-type brake pedal.

Position the seat yourself . . . or let electricity do it?

Chevrolet's big, beautifully upholstered front seat moves up and forward or down and back into your most comfortable driving position.

No worry about your battery in a new Chevrolet. It's the only car in its field with the reserve power of a 12-volt electrical system!

Automatically—

Chevrolet's stealing the thunder from the high-priced cars! What's a high-priced car got that Chevrolet hasn't? Not automatic power features. Not style—just look below. Not performance—just try out Chevrolet's new V8 or one of the new 6's. Not ride —perhaps the thing that will surprise you most is Chevrolet's fine, solid feel on the road. Come put it to the test. See how Chevrolet's stealing the thunder from the high-priced cars in every way!
