Insect Build Up In Cotton Shows Increase Over Last Week

The insect build up in cotton is considerable more than last week says County Agent H. M. Breedlove. This is especially true in irrigated cotton. In some of the older cotton, a few boll worms have made their appearance and also leaf worms in some sections. Farmers are already dusting and spraying in the places where infestations are building up.

Breedlove has inspected cotton on around fifty farms this past week and says that dry land cotton in most cases has flea hopper infestation but no boll worms or leaf worms. The big part of the infestation is in irrigated cotton. He says we can expect this because of the fast growing of the cotton and the tender foliage.

Farmers where insect infestations appear are getting the insects under control in a day or two after applying the poison. Cotton looks good, and if dry land cotton can get a rain soon and the irrigation boys apply the water and practice insect control, then we have a good chance for a crop, the County Agent stated.

Any one having insect trouble is urged to contact Breedlove so he can come to your place and look over your cotton with you. Keep a sharp eye on your cotton every day and start early on insects and avoid damage at a later date.

Texas Egg Law Becomes Effective August 22nd

The Texas Egg Law, which becomes effective August 22, may assure Texas consumers that high quality eggs are being placed on the market for sale.

The effect of the law will not only be felt by consumers, but by producers and other industry-men as well, according to H. M. Breedlove, County Agent.

This law, says Breedlove, provides primarily for inspection and careful labeling of all eggs that are to be sold on grade. The eggs are inspected primarily at retail outlets and if sold on grade are labeled according to size and quality. Ungraded eggs must be so labelled.

It shall also be unlawful to sell or advertise shell eggs below the quality of Grade A as "fresh", "selected", "cage", "infertile", "newlaid", or other words of similar import.

Producers of eggs who sell only the production of their own flock are exempt from the law unless they sell on the basis of grade, then their eggs must meet the standards specified by the law.

The deadline for obtaining licenses by dealers, retailers, wholesalers, brokers and processors is October 20. There is no fee to any retailer, as defined by the law—that is, any person selling or offering for sale, eggs to consumers only in this state.

Actual enforcement of the new law will start on February 17, 1958.

Mercury Passes Century Mark Again

Instead of a nice gentle rain, the weather department has turned on the heat again with the mercury climbing above the century mark with a very hot 103 recorded Monday. Clouds and spotted showers to the west have helped hold the temperature down some but more hot weather is forecast just when our farm neighbors need a good rain to hang on to beautiful crop prospects.

It has been hot here, but just think of that 110 degrees at Dallas Tuesday. With their humidity, it must have been very disagreeable.

GABIE BETTS BURTON LIBRARY NOTES

By May L. Prewitt

Some of our most enjoyed and widely read writers have died recently. Practically all of our adult readers remember Kenneth Robert's "Lydia Bailey". The men have each laughed heartily over the cartoons of J. R. Williams. Sholem Asch produced a number of books featuring Biblical characters. Most of the reading public have been familiar with all of his books. It is seldom that we have so many literary characters die in such a brief period of time.

Our book received from the Doubleday Dollar Club this month is "The Believers" by Janice Holt Giles. This is probably a continuation of the story of "Hannah Fowler", a previous book by this writer, as Rebecca Fowler is a daughter of Hannah. The theme is the study of the "Shaker Believers" in Kentucky. It is a religious faith that we do not hear too much about.

We have been given two used books. They are: "And So Victoria" by Vaughan Wilkins, and "Promised Land" by E. Thorbecke. While these books are not recent publications, you adults interested in the "Life of Queen Victoria" will enjoy the first mentioned, and some will appreciate the "Promised Land."

We need more adults who are library minded.

FROM THE OFFICE OF LYNDON B.

JOHNSON

U. S. SENATOR FROM TEXAS

"Come now, and let us reason together."

Dear Friend:

The debate on the so-called "civil rights" bill has been one of the most enlightening in Senate history.

The bill—written by Attorney General Herbert Brownell—came to us widely advertised as a "right to vote" bill. Thoughtful Senators trained in the law—Richard B. Russell, of Georgia, and Sam Ervin, of North Carolina—refused to take the advertising at face value. They discovered that it:

Resurrected a forgotten reconstruction statute passed in the days when Thaddeus Stevens was riding high.

Permitted the Attorney General to go into Federal courts and take out an injunction against anyone he considered to be infringing upon "civil rights."

Authorized the trial without jury of anyone accused of violating the injunction.

Authorized the President to call out the Army, the Navy and the militia to enforce the injunction.

In blunt language, this so-called "moderate" law would revive the blackest page in American history—the Reconstruction era.

Those backing the law claimed at first that these powers were not in the bill. But they had to back down under the weight of compelling arguments. They retreated to another line of defense. They insisted that the President would not "use" such powers.

This argument did not impress the Senate. Few members could see the wisdom of voting unwise powers to a President on the theory that he would save us from our own folly by inaction.

By a vote of 90 to 0, the Senate killed the "troops" section.

*At the time this is written, some backers of the bill are looking for a "face saving" compromise. But the mood of the Senate is to reduce the measure to a right-to-vote bill—which is what it was supposed to be anyway.

I wish you would write me and give me any suggestions you have about issues and problems we face. I get strength from your counsel.

June was named after Juno, goddess of marriage.

There shall be no bond for her to make,
 Or I'll do my best my corpse to wake.
 Believe it or not the will was
 So let her be the administratrix, legal, and his wishes were likely carried out.
 Speaking of wills, it is not supposed to be legal for the likes of me to be giving out legal advice through my column, but we can say this; it would be good for your estate and helpful to your family if you would see your lawyer and have him help you with a will if you have not already done so. It seems so remote and far away that most folks neglect to do it. But when the time comes it is so helpful and important that everyone leaves a will.

Last week we promised to tell about our trip to Red River, and I guess a promise is a promise. But, to tell the truth we can hardly get wound up in this short a space.

To say the least it was so very wonderful. Sometimes it seems that we are always prejudiced in favor of the last place that we have visited. This may be true because we do so love vacations and to just plain go places and see things.

Anyhow, we are trying to get the editor of Southwestern Crop and Stock to let us put a long article about the trip in next month's paper. If he does we will let you all know and you can see how we enjoyed every minute of it.

Actually, we sincerely believe that Red River has the ideal climate for a visit in July and August. It is also a fact that the people of this little community go all out to make you feel at home, welcome and to make you want to come back again. Then, just as a tip, the prices on accommodations are not as high as you will find in some of the more highly advertised places.

But, when God made the mountains, the rivers, the trees, and just all of the earthly glory that crowns this beautiful country He didn't leave anything out. Temperature in the 70's in daytime and down in the low 40's at night. Just right for two blankets and a sheet; so that you can sort of snuggle into the "Kivers".
 In the daytime you can blister in the direct sun mostly because you are so near. Then, if you move just a few feet into a shade even a coat will feel comfy.

As you drive down the side of the steep mountain of Red River Pass; dropping 2000 feet in seven short laps back and forth on an unpaved road you have already seen enough of beautiful creation to sell you on the beauty of this little town snuggled so nicely at 3700 feet above sea level in this beautiful mountain valley.

But the things that makes your visit all the more wonderful are the little extras that the fine and friendly folks of the community sort of throw in for good measure.

Most of the natives are folks who came to Red River on vacation; liked it and came back and back for several years and then went into a little business of their own; just to be doubly sure that they could stay on and on for the summers. Nearly everyone is from Texas and Oklahoma and the folks there like it that way. There is no objection to those who come from Kansas, Missouri, Colorado, and of course the native sons of New Mexico but there is sort of a love for having the place all full of these sort of home folks from this area of the nation. Not to be selfish but just that good neighborly feeling that comes from all being from the same general area. Sort of like meeting a friend from Home.

Since they shut out gambling back in 1947 the community has worked hard to make this a family vacation place. Where the whole family could come and find rest and enjoyment for their vacation.

Dozens of camps and lodges, and sometimes they are called ranches are in business to take care of our needs. Typical of these fine folks were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Head who run the Deer Lodge. They were so very gracious to us. Be sure and go up and spend awhile in this vacation spot sometime. But keep it sort of quiet so too many won't go and sort of crowd you and I out. We did love every minute of it.

In 1950 Texas' population was sixth in the nation.

NUMBER ONE ON THE BALLOT

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 5, 1957.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 37 proposing an amendment to Subsection (a) of Section 62, Article XVI of the Constitution of Texas, relating to establishment of a retirement, disability and death compensation fund for officers and employees of the State.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Subsection (a) of Section 62, Article XVI of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so as to read hereafter as follows:
 "Section 62. (a) The Legislature shall have the authority to levy taxes to provide a State Retirement, Disability and Death Compensation Fund for the officers and employees of the State, and may make such reasonable inclusions, exclusions, or classifications of officers and employees of the State as it deems advisable. The Legislature may also include officers and employees of judicial districts of the State who are or have been compensated in whole or in part directly or indirectly by the State, and may make such other reasonable inclusions, exclusions, or classifications of officers and employees of judicial districts of the State as it deems advisable. Persons participating in a retirement system created pursuant to Section 15a of Article V of this Constitution shall not be eligible to participate in the Fund authorized in this Subsection, and persons participating in a retirement system created pursuant to Section 48-a of Article III of this Constitution shall not be eligible to participate in the Fund authorized in this Subsection. Provided, however, any officer or employee of a county as provided for in Article XVI, Section 62, Subsections (b), (c), (d), (e), (f), (g), (h), (i), (j), (k), (l), (m), (n), (o), (p), (q), (r), (s), (t), (u), (v), (w), (x), (y), (z), shall not be eligible to participate in the Fund authorized in this Subsection, except as otherwise provided herein.
 The amount contributed by the State to such Fund shall be the amount paid for the same purpose from the income of each such person, and shall not exceed at any time five per cent (5%) of the compensation paid to each such person by the State.

"All funds provided from the compensation of such person or by the State of Texas for such Retirement, Disability and Death Compensation Fund, as are received by the Treasurer of the State of Texas, shall be invested in bonds of the United States, or in bonds issued by any agency of the United States Government, the payment of the principal of and interest on which is guaranteed by the United States; or in such other securities as are now or hereafter may be permitted by law as investments for the Permanent School Fund of this State, under the same limitations and restrictions imposed by the Constitution for investment of those funds and subject to such regulations as the Legislature may provide. However, a sufficient amount of said Fund shall be kept on hand to meet the immediate payment of the amount likely to become due each year out of said Fund, such amount of funds to be kept on hand to be determined by the agency which may be provided, or by law to administer said Fund.
 "Should the Legislature enact enabling laws in anticipation of the adoption of this Amendment, such legislation shall not be invalid by reason of its anticipatory character.

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at a special election to be held throughout the State on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1957, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following:
 "FOR the Constitutional Amendment amending Subsection (a) of Section 62, Article XVI of the State Constitution, relating to establishment of a retirement, disability and death compensation fund for officers and employees of the State."
 "AGAINST the Constitutional Amendment amending Subsection (a) of Section 62, Article XVI of the State Constitution, relating to establishment of a retirement, disability and death compensation fund for officers and employees of the State."
 Sec. 3. The Governor of the State of Texas is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for said special election and this Amendment shall be published and the election and laws of this State.

NUMBER TWO ON THE BALLOT

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 5, 1957.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 2 proposing an amendment to Article III, Section 51a of the Constitution of Texas, so as to increase the limit on the maximum monthly payment to needy aged persons from state funds and on the total yearly expenditure out of state funds for assistance to aged, needy blind and needy children; and allocating and appropriating additional sums, supplementing current legislative appropriations, for payment of assistance grants.

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18TH DISTRICT

By Congressman Walter Rogers

THE STORY OF THE LITTLE BOY WHO CRIED, "WOLF" (1957 VERSION)

You have all heard the story of the little boy who was left to watch the sheep and was told to call out if a wolf appeared. He called out several times when there was no wolf, to the dismay of the men who came to help. When a wolf finally appeared his cries for help went unheeded, and as the story goes, the wolf ate all the sheep, and some people say the little boy.

of this which would go something like this. Once upon a time there was a little boy named Val Peterson, who had a friend called the President. The President had many, many things to do. Inclusion among these was the responsibility of developing a warning system to protect the American people against a Russian bear. He thought the best way to do this would be to keep a sharp lookout, and whenever the bear attacked, he could warn the people so that they could scurry into safe places and protect themselves from the bear. So, he bought a large whistle with a long string on it. He then set his little friend, Val Peterson, by this whistle and told him that it was his duty to pull the string which would blow the whistle and warn the people that the Russian bear was coming.

Little boy Peterson was so fascinated with his job and so anxious to pull the string and blow the whistle that he devised a plan to blow the whistle even though there wasn't any Russian bear coming so that the people would scurry to places of safety. By this means he reasoned that a test could be run on whether or not there were enough places of safety for the people to scurry to and whether or not there were enough roads for the people to do the scurrying on. He advertised this plan widely, and on the appointed day pulled the string, and lo and behold the whistle blew. However, much to his dismay, the people didn't scurry. For some reason the people didn't understand that they were supposed to run and hide because the little boy had blown the whistle. However, the little boy was so enchanted by the sound of the whistle that he continued to pull the string each day, and it wasn't long before the people had become so accustomed to hearing the whistle it did not even cause comment.

In fact, the recent "Operation Alert", a mock air raid on the City of Washington and other major cities of the nation, designed to produce casualties of 54 million people, was executed. This operation even included the little boy's friend, Mr. President. He was provided with two helicopters which spirited him and the secret service men from the White House to a secret destination. As you can imagine, this was a major exercise of such proportions as to draw the attention of many millions of people, especially those who were supposed to be killed. The only catch was that the people had heard the whistle so many times they paid no attention to it and did not know anything about "Operation Alert" until they read about it in the newspaper after they were dead or maimed. This has caused a great deal of concern among those who conceived the plan, but it is rumored that a solution may have been found. It has been suggested that, since the little boy has blown the whistle so many times and the people have become so used to hearing it, the only effective warning, should the Russians approach, would be for the little boy NOT to blow the whistle.

The little boy was promoted recently to be Ambassador to Denmark. The moral seems to be—if you want to be an Ambassador, you don't have to toot your own whistle—you can toot the government's.

I apologize if this seems somewhat facetious, because I fully realize the great need for a proper warning system in the event this country is invaded. However, I think it is foolish to continue programs which cost the taxpayer lots of money and which are not producing the results that should be produced. I feel the plan or program should be weighed against the possible danger involved. I have never felt there was a great danger of this country being attacked by Russian planes dropping bombs or any other kind of bombs. There is no doubt that Russia could get some planes through to drop bombs on our major cities if she sent enough planes in the first place. However, this is not a one-way street. Russia realizes this country has the potential to retaliate on a ratio of at least 10 to 1 should anyone in Russia become foolish enough to attack this country. In the first place, the congested areas of Russia are so much more congested than in the United States that an equivalent bomb dropped on equivalent localities in both countries would do much more damage in Russia, in so far as taking human lives—the reason being that Russia has no residential districts. The people live in living quarters set aside in huge apartment type buildings. These living quarters are so small in many instances that the manner in which people are crowded in these buildings resembles stacked cordwood. The Russians have no private conveyances to speak of and would have no way in the world to depart from these congested areas should a war break out. For these and many other reasons, I do not believe that we are on the verge of war with Russia, and I do not think we should continue to spend tremendous sums on programs that could be considerably better, much more efficiently handled, and at a much cheaper price. If we continue to maintain our defenses as we have in the past and do not relax our vigilance, our country will be here for a long, long time.

Complete and permanent invalids or persons in the community so mentally deranged that they require continuous oversight to keep from harming themselves or others may soon be able to receive small monthly checks from their State Department of Public Welfare through the new state-federal program of Aid to the Permanently and Totally Disabled. The Constitutional Amendment, which was adopted by the voters in November, 1956, limiting the amount of money that can be appropriated for this program to 1.5 million dollars per year, makes aid possible only to those who are helpless and have no relatives able to support them.

Permanent Invalids And Mentally Deranged To Receive Small Monthly Checks From State

John B. Hessey, Welfare Supervisor for this area, pointed out this is the only welfare program which requires consideration of the ability of relatives to support. This law defines "responsible relatives" as spouses, children, parents, step-children, step-parents, brothers and sisters. John B. Hessey said that for the first time in nearly 20 years the Department's Field Workers will be required by law to determine the resources of relatives of persons who apply for aid.

The "permanency" and "totality" of the disability will be determined by a State Reviewing Physician after study of a complete physical or mental examination by the person's own private physician. Complete helplessness from a medical standpoint, rather than inability to work, is the criteria. The state will pay the private physician for his examination.

Funds for assistance payments will not be available until September 1, 1957, but applications will be taken after July 15. While the helpless individual will not be able to leave home, the persons responsible for his care may come to the local welfare office and acquaint the Department with his situation. A Field Worker will then call, as soon as possible, at the home to take the application.

Offices in this area are located at: The State Department of Public Welfare in the Courthouse Annex, with Mrs. Vivian Hardin as Field Worker, who accept applications on 2nd and 4th Mondays.

Texas' present Capitol building was dedicated in May, 1888.

AUSTIN — A big change is forthcoming in the operation of the largest law enforcement division of the State.

In keeping with recommendations of the Texas Research League, following a two-year study, the Texas Department of Public Safety will reorganize into six commands. Each command will be responsible to the central office in Austin.

Headquarters of the six regions will be Lubbock, Corpus Christi, Waco, Houston, Dallas and Midland. Two Highway Patrol districts will be within each command.

Col. Homer Garrison will continue in the Austin office, in overall charge, with the rank of major.

Capt. R. A. (Bob) Crowder will head the Lubbock region.

In addition to the regional reorganization, the new plan calls for four central divisions in Austin. Identification and intelligence services will be in charge of Chief Joel Tisdale. Motor vehicle records and services will be handled by Chief A. F. Temple. Personnel and staff services will be directed by Chief Glen McLaughlin. And inspection and planning will be headed by Chief G. W. Busby.

Colonel Garrison said the move would result in more efficient service and greater economies. "The Texas Rangers also will come under the regional grouping," Garrison stated. "A Ranger captain will be within each region, and responsible to the regional commander."

TO DAM OR NOT TO DAM
A slice of the sort of troubles that plague Texas water development planning is shown in the current problems of the Brazos River Authority.

At Gov. Price Daniel's request, BRA directors held a statewide conference in Austin. Purpose: to reconcile the numerous conflicting views on how best to use the waters of the 1300-mile stream. Scores of people came and spoke their minds, but reconciliation was hard to find.

BRA directors suggest a six-dam program on the Brazos. It would include raising the level of Pottsville Kingdom Dam and constructing six more dams between it and Whitney Dam. Cost is estimated at $183,000,000. BRA hopes to borrow $50,000,000 from the federal government, get the rest from private bond sales. All would eventually be repaid, according to the plan, by revenue from sale of power and water.

Net result: the BRA plan, first launched 21 years ago, still has troubles.

TEMPEST AT TECH
Gusts from a political-educational storm that swirled up out of the Plains blew into the State Capitol.

In a closed session, directors of

Texas Tech at Lubbock fired Professors Byron R. Abernethy and Herbert M. Greenberg and abolished the job of Dr. Per Stensland. In explanation, Board Member J. Evetts Haley said Drs. Abernethy and Greenberg "did not measure up to academic standards." He called the adult education program in which Stensland was engaged "boondoggling."

But numerous observers attributed the dismissals to the professors' liberal political views as contrasted to the ultra-conservative platform on which Haley ran for governor last summer. There were protests and demands for re-consideration.

Governor Daniel made no comment on the professors, but said he thought the secret session was "a mistake." Tech President Dr. E. N. Jones predicted the board would have another session on the subject soon.

Capitol reporters compared the case with the 1944 furore that resulted when Dr. Homer Price Rainey was fired as University of Texas president.

PENNY-PINCHING DUE

If the Legislature meets in special session this fall, members may have to ration every paper clip to get by financially.

State Treasury has hardly an extra nickel. There is, however, $460,000 appropriated last session for interim legislative expenses. But State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert has raised a question as to whether this could legally be used for special session expenses.

If the attorney general rules it cannot, legislators will have to amend the appropriation bill in order to get at the $460,000. Even so, it may be nip and tuck to get by. Previous special sessions have cost about $500,000.

Numerous economy measures have been proposed. Sen. David Ratliff suggested a swift three to six-day session with no pay. Rep. Louis Dugas proposed cutting the number of secretaries.

House Speaker Waggoner Carr is polling members as to whether they (1) favor a special session, (2) would serve without pay and (3) favor a tax to pay session costs.

Tipton - Schaffer Vows Exchanged

In a candlelight service at the First Methodist Church, Clarendon, Texas, Friday evening, July 19th, Miss Stella Anne Tipton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Tipton of Clarendon became the bride of Mr. David Leon Schaffer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Schaffer of Pampa, Texas.

Rev. Conrad Ryan, pastor, read the double-ring ceremony before an altar decorated with palm ferns and tiered candelabra. Family pews were marked with white satin ribbon.

Candles were lighted by Eddie Tipton, brother of the bride, and Richard Tipton of Amarillo, cousin of the bride. Mrs. John Frasier of Groom, Texas presided at the bride's book.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Mantie Graves, organist played a nuptial prelude and accompanied Miss Almeta Ruthart of Groom, Texas as she sang "Because" and "Walk Hand In Hand." The traditional wedding marches were used.

Miss Marlene Schaffer, sister of the groom, attended the bride as maid of honor. She wore a ballerina length dress of pink taffeta styled with an overskirt and sash. Her accessories were of the same shade of pink and she wore a headband of flowers. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

The groom's best man was Mr. John Frasier of Groom, Texas. Ushers were Jack Quirk and Jim McDowell of Amarillo, Texas, Cliff Frasier, Groom, Texas, and Ralph Harmon, Clarendon, Texas.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina length gown of lace and tulle over satin, fashioned with a lace jacket, sweetheart neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. Her shoulder length veil of illusion fell from a tiara studded with pearls, and she carried a bouquet of white carnations and pink tulle with white satin streamers tied in love knots. All of the traditions of something old, new, borrowed, and blue were carried out.

Mrs. Tipton, mother of the bride wore a dress of pale blue accented by pink accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. Mrs. Schaffer, mother of the groom, wore charcoal gray with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Following the ceremony the bride and groom were honored at a reception in Fellowship Hall. The refreshment table was laid with a white linen cloth. The tiered wedding cake was decorated with pink wedding bells and roses to carry out the bride's colors of pink and white, and was served by Miss Beth Gillham. Miss Nelda Tims presided at the crystal service.

For traveling and a short wedding trip to Raton, New Mexico and Colorado Springs, Colorado, Mrs. Schaffer wore a pearl gray fitted suit with white accessories and the corsage from her wedding bouquet.

Mrs. Schaffer is a senior in Clarendon High School while Mr. Schaffer is a graduate of Groom High School and Clarendon Junior College. The couple are at home in Pampa, Texas.

Glenn Wallace and his fiancée, Miss Pat Knox of Lubbock spent the week end with relatives here.

Earth Satellite Model Will Be Exhibited At State Fair of Texas

A full-size replica of the "man-made moon" which will be launched into space to circle the earth will be exhibited at the 1957 State Fair of Texas, Oct. 5-20th.

The Dallas Health Museum will display the earth satellite model, along with much of the IBM calculating equipment which will gauge its flight and record its reports. A model of the three-stage launching rocket which will carry the "moon" into space also will be on exhibit.

The exhibits will be furnished by the U. S. Naval Research Laboratory in Washington, D. C., where the technical program is being carried out for Project Vanguard.

"Vanguard" represents man's first real attempt to conquer space. The earth satellite, a sphere 20 inches in diameter, packed with intricate instruments, will be fired into outer space where it will circle the earth in an orbit some 300 miles out. Its instruments will send back data by radio which will assist scientists in their studies of space.

The launching of the "man-made moon" is one of the experiments to be carried out in the United States' scientific program for the current International Geophysical Year which began July 1.

It is estimated that the "Vanguard" project has already cost $57,000,000, with hundreds of the nation's scientists involved in work to perfect the satellite sphere, design the equipment to track it and build the giant rocket to take it up.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE NEWS

Lola Landers, Secretary

There was a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Clarendon Chamber of Commerce July 26, 1957. It was held at the Dixie Cafe at 7:00 A. M. Those present were Emmett Simmons, Frank White, Jr., Bill Goodman, Lynn Leathers, C. A. Pitts, Bill Todd, and Lola Landers, secretary.

It was authorized by the Board of Directors to clean the lot where the drawing for the Silver Harvest Day is held. The Board also agreed that they would work with the chairman, Bill Greene, Jr., and his committee, A. R. Henson, Tommy Saye, and Jack Clifford to work out a system whereby each member of the Silver Harvest Day Drawing will be notified in advance to be responsible on the given Saturday to assist in the drawing.

The Brochure for the City of Clarendon was discussed and plans are going along nicely for completion. A motion was made and seconded that the Chamber of Commerce of Clarendon, Texas, become a member of the Business Research Bureau being organized by West Texas Chamber of Commerce and being developed by Texas Tech. This could be a good thing for Clarendon in securing industries.

The breakfast was very nice, and our thanks to Jake Lamberth of the Dixie Cafe for the fine food he serves. Mrs. Dick Allen was the lucky winner last Saturday of the Silver Harvest Day Drawing. She drew 50%, which is $200.00.

DONLEY COUNTY SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

Many new irrigation wells in the Donley Soil Conservation District have changed dry land farmers to irrigation farmers—or as is more often the case—combination dry land and irrigation farmers. Few wells are furnishing sufficient water to properly irrigate all the land the farmer wants to irrigate, and as a result he is apt to apply his water to more acres than he can get over often enough—and the result will be a much lower production.

As an example of this, Heckle Stark is planning to cut the acres he was planning to water from over 100 to about 80 acres. In figuring with Mr. Stark, it was decided that the soil he is watering needs approximately 3 inches net application (it takes a 4.3 inch application to net 3 inches) every 12 days during the period of peak use of moisture by cotton. During this period, cotton uses moisture at the rate of about 1/4 inch per day, or 3 inches every 12 days.

Since most of the roots are located in the top two to 3 feet of soil, that is where most of the moisture will be drawn from—and should be the moisture replaced by irrigation. To keep cotton growing at its best rate, the moisture in this top 3 feet of soil should not be allowed to get below 50% of “Field Capacity” (the amount of moisture the soil will hold.) Failing to apply water soon enough will make a big difference in the yield. Therefore plan your irrigation system to water the amount of land your well is capable of watering, and water that land on schedule first. The other land may be watered during seasons other than that of peak use by the principal crop.

The local Soil Conservation Service office, as a part of its assistance to the Donley SCD can give assistance to Cooperators with the District on irrigation problems.

Martin Hendrix is spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. Luther Pittman, Ray and Billy in Amarillo.

Mrs. Joe Landreth and Jennie of Dumas came Tuesday to visit Mrs. J. R. Porter, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lowe, and other relatives.
