TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18TH DISTRICT

By Congressman Walter Rogers

FARM INCOME INCREASE NECESSARY

The Secretary of Agriculture is now advertising that he is moving into the second phase of his soil bank program. Many are wondering what happened to the first phase. It reminds you of the story of the fellow who reported that he was now working on, getting together his second million dollars. It seems he gave up on the first.

The second phase of the soil bank program, referred to by Mr. Benson, is that portion of the program providing for the laying out of land on a long term contract basis. The return from this land is relatively small, and there are requirements that it be planted in grass or trees. Very few farmers will be able to lay out very much land on a long term basis, unless they have an outside income.

Strange as it may seem to some of the present day bureaucrats, very few farmers have an outside income. They must depend upon their land for a living. As the matter presently stands, they are barely able to eke out food and clothing in many instances on the acreage they now have available. If they cease to farm a portion of this, it simply means that their income will be proportionately reduced.

It is argued, by the present bureaucrats, that the trouble lies in "surpluses", and that the only way to reduce the surpluses is for the farmers to stop growing some of the products. A more fantastic argument could hardly be imagined. In the first place, the surpluses have no effect whatever on the price that must be paid by the farmer for the processed or manufactured products. It is true that the surpluses have been used as a sorry excuse for flogging the farmer. He has been led to believe that this terrible economic "satan", to wit, surpluses, must be done away with; that as soon as this is done, he, the farmer, can live in a land of milk and honey, and butter his bread on both sides. In other words, these heavy thinkers have figured out that, if they do away with the surpluses and reduce production, there will be a scarcity of food and the price of farm products will increase. This may be true, but the stupidity of this approach lies in the fact that it will not solve the problem, but serve only to increase it. The present difficulty of the farmer has been caused by a measurable reduction in his income. On his present income he cannot buy the manufactured and processed articles that he and his family need to live and carry on farm operations. Therefore, the farmer must have an increase in his present income without an increase in the cost of those things that he must purchase to stay in business.

Under the Benson Plan, there are two glaring defects that seem to have been overlooked by the brainy boys.

In the first place, if a farmer has 100 acres of land under production, puts 25 acres in the soil bank, and is paid such amount of money as would equal the profit he would make off these 25 acres if he had planted them, his income will not be increased one cent. Therefore, he is in no better position, from an income standpoint, before or after the soil bank. The only benefit he receives from the soil bank is that it amounts to a sort of crop insurance on the land placed in the soil bank. He is assured of being paid on that acreage, even though he has a subsequent crop failure during the year.

In the second place, the increasing of the cost of farm products, by the creation of a scarcity in those particular commodities, will not serve to benefit the farmer, but will tend to harm him. Under such a plan, the increase in price going to the farmers will be reflected in the price tied to the end manufactured or processed product, and instead of solving the farm problem, there will be an additional problem of inflation.

The income of the American farmer has been allowed to get out of balance in our economic structure. This imbalance is transmitted to and sorely affects small businesses all over the nation—especially in the rural areas and the areas depending upon agriculture for subsistence.

Many of the economic ills of this country, in several segments of the economy, could be quickly solved by facing up to and doing something about the present farm tragedy.

During the War of 1812 a Blow-down sailor, Captain Sam Reid, blew up a British invasion fleet bound for New Orleans. This daring attack delayed the enemy fleet long enough to cost the enemy Louisiana.

Davis - Wilson

Miss Sandra Davis of Hedley, Texas became the bride of Jim Wilson of Wellington, Wednesday evening, August 29, in a ceremony read in Fellowship Hall of the First Baptist Church. Rev. J. S. Tipton officiated. Attending the couple were Retha Ranson and Don Rayborn of Wellington.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Elmer Dishman, of Lelia Lake. She wore a street length dress of mauve pink with matching accessories. Her corsage was of feathered carnations. For something borrowed and old she wore a ruby ring belonging to Retha Ranson's grandmother.

Retha chose a blue street length dress with matching accessories and a corsage of blue carnations. Mrs. Elva Davis, the bride's mother, wore aqua blue with black accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations. Mrs. Wilson, the groom's mother, chose black with white accessories and a white corsage.

After the ceremony, a reception was held for the wedding party and guests. The table was decorated to carry out the bride's chosen colors of pink and white. Mrs. Barbara Hamel Strand of Amarillo, sister of the bride, served the cake and Retha Ranson ladled punch.

Relatives and close friends attended.

Sidelight FROM THE State CAPITOL

AUSTIN—National party candidates have been decided. State Democratic primaries are over. Texas' political focus now shifts to the upcoming state Democratic convention.

Nervous tension is apparent in Liberal-Loyalist ranks. They are fearful of losing control of the Sept. 11 meeting through the Conservatives' executive committee left in power last spring. That committee decides which of numerous contesting delegations will gain seats.

Navarro County Judge Jim Sewell, Liberal-Loyalist spokesman, asked recall of the "recessed" spring convention on the eve of the new convention.

It was apparently without hope. Permanent Chairman Raymond Buck of Fort Worth said he could see no reason for it. Executive Committee Chairman George Sandlin termed the Liberal demands "the cry of the vanquished." He has promised all contestants a fair shake in credentials hearings.

SHEFFIELD GETS 10 YEARS
 B. R. Sheffield of Brady is the second person to be convicted in the veterans land scandals. Sentence was assessed at 10 years.

Former Land Commissioner Bascom Giles is now serving a six-year sentence.

A Lubbock district court jury found Sheffield guilty of passing a forged instrument. No conviction was sought on a second count of aiding a notary public in making a false acknowledgment.

Prediction was made, meanwhile, that the state may end up making a profit instead of losing money from its veterans land troubles.

D. S. Meredith, assistant attorney general in charge of civil recovery suits, voiced the opinion. Losers in the suits filed by the state are being required to return the money paid to them by the state plus three per cent interest. Texas, however, pays only 2 1/2 per cent interest on the bond issues which financed the $100,000,000 lending program.

Recoveries now total roughly $1,800,000.

NEW DROUGHT PLAN READY
 A new drought aid plan now is ready to help Texas farmers and ranchers buy roughage for livestock.

Applications for roughage should be filed with County Farmers Home Administration offices. If determined eligible by the local FHA committee, the farmer is issued certificates valued at $7.50 a ton. Certificates may be applied on the purchase of roughage from any dealer.

Another phase of the expanded federal relief program also is moving forward. Texas Drought Emergency Committee has recommended that 106 counties be made eligible for increased aid in grain buying.

At present farmers in 185 counties may get $1 for each 100 pounds of grain bought for livestock feed. If approved by the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, the 106 counties would receive 50 cents extra per 100 pounds.

WATER TEST CASE SLATED
 Texas water laws will be tested in a suit filed by the state in behalf of 15 domestic and livestock users in South Texas.

Suit was filed by the State Board of Water Engineers in district court at Karnes City. It seeks to protect riparian owners along Cibolo Creek from withdrawals by irrigators. Hearing is to begin Wednesday.

Board Chairman R. M. Dixon said irrigators have rights only to the storm and flood waters from the creek. These have been non-existent for a long time, he said.

Since the suit is the first of its kind ever filed, the decision is expected to set state-wide precedent.

SUITS BLOCK US TRUST PAYMENTS
 Pending lawsuits are blocking distribution of some $2,000,000 among US Trust and Guaranty Co. creditors.

State liquidator J. D. Wheeler said he had hoped to start making payments shortly after July 1. But now, he said, payment must await a decision on two suits making special claims.

One group, known as the Preferred Depositors Assn., seeks priority in payment. PDA is made up of some 300 or 400 people who bought "investment certificates" from the defunct firm. They claim about $6,000,000 is due them. Waco creditors also have filed suit. Their claims total $1,000,000.

Both suits are in Judge Charles O. Betts' district court in Austin. They are expected to come up in late September.

Mrs. John Hatley of Brice visited Mrs. Clyde Butler Tuesday.

Offers Wonderful Opportunity For Registered Nurses

GONZALES—The Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation offers a wonderful opportunity for registered nurses in rehabilitation nursing, Miss Geraldine Ballard, director of nurses, said today.

"Rehabilitation nursing is one of the up and coming fields, and any nurse who is interested can obtain an interview by contacting us here at the Foundation," Miss Ballard said. "They do not have to have polio nursing experience."

Miss Ballard, who says she can always use good nurses, tries to maintain a staff of 20 of the women in white.

They are assisted with the care of the patients by a large group of nurses aides. The entire Foundation staff operates on a 40 hour work week basis.

"We get many interesting cases here, and rehabilitate patients with many other types of crippling diseases, as well as those who are victims of polio," the director of nurses added.

The patients are in the nurses care, directly or indirectly, 60 to 70 per cent of the time, and it gives the nurse an excellent opportunity to assist in the progress of the patient.

The hospital also maintains a full staff of therapist, who of course work under the Foundation's doctors instructions, in the re-education of the paralyzed muscles," Miss Ballard said.

She added that all work was done in modern up to date buildings which are air-conditioned.

"Our starting salaries are comparable to other hospitals," the director of nurses said. "And our hospital is fully accredited by the Joint Commission of Accreditation For Hospitals."

danger of emergency quackery.

One photo shows would-be rescuers working over a drowned man lying on his back, with one "resuscitator" kneeling between the victim's legs, with the volunteer's hands on the lower part of his chest. Meanwhile, an inhalator is connected with the man's mouth.

Another photo taken in another section of the state shows a drowned man face down on an ambulance cot but with his head tilted upward while a person applies artificial respiration.

Mrs. Dorothy Lundell of State Red Cross headquarters in Austin, said both routines were "tragically wrong in more ways than can be told in short space."

Persons overcome in the water, she pointed out, should always be placed face downward for first aid, with the head lowered slightly. She described the position of the man applying restorative methods to the lower front torso of another's body as "futile and practically criminal."

The Executive Secretary joined Mrs. Lundell in urging persons to familiarize themselves with orthodox first aid methods especially since the Fourth of July holiday approaches with its traditional toll of drowning victims.

INCOME TAX EXEMPTION
 If you expect to claim itemized deductions for contributions, taxes, interest, medical expense, etc. on your 1936 income tax return, then you had better keep a daily record of the exact amounts paid, according to Mr. Pearce of the Internal Revenue Service in Amarillo.

"The reason for this is clear," Mr. Pearce said, "since the taxpayer must be able to substantiate in full each deduction claimed if his return is selected for audit."

"The record need not be complicated," Mr. Pearce explained. "A simple pocket diary or desk calendar pad is sufficient to list deductible expenses. This record, supported by receipts, is worth many times the cost of keeping it. Ordinary records should not be destroyed for at least three years after you file your return, since all income tax returns are subject to examination," Mr. Pearce cautioned.

DONLEY COUNTY SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

Another good report on the value of guar as a soil improving crop has been received. Harold White, who is farming the O. C. Sargent's place, one and one-half miles south of Hedley, planted the north part of the field south and east of the house to guar last year, and combined the seed. The south part of the same field was planted to cotton. Last December when White was listing the field, he was surprised at the difference in the soil where the guar had been grown, and the cotton land. He reported that he ran his tractor in second and low on the cotton land because the soil was so hard and compact, and on the guar land he could do a better job of listing and only needed third gear.

The present cotton crop growing on the land also reflects a difference in the soil, and he thinks that the land where the guar was grown will produce at least a half bale per acre, even without additional rain, as compared to a quarter where cotton followed cotton.

According to Mr. White, a person can tell to the row where last year's guar stopped and the cotton began, by the looks of this year's crop.

Mr. White is strip cropping his cotton this year. On the Sargent place he has 4 rows of cotton, 1 blank row, 2 rows of Brahma peas, 1 blank row and 4 rows of cotton. On the Bill Harris place, about 1 mile south of Hedley, he is also using the same strip pattern but has 2 row strips of guar instead of the strips of Brahma peas.

It is hoped that a comparative yield on cotton can be obtained this fall between the guar land and cotton land, and that those interested in soil improving crops will note the result.

Reports of results of Conservation and Soil Improving measures will be appreciated by your Soil Conservation District and the Soil Conservation Service Technicians assisting the District, as it is through such results that better recommendations to other District cooperators can be made.

"Slow Down And Live" Campaign Stressed

The tsetse fly is a small thing—a pest that would hardly be worth a swat if it weren't for the fact that it carries, and passes to man, the dread sleeping sickness. But because of this mankind has devoted masses of money and manpower to seeking ways to control the fly and to cure the disease. Small things often have a habit of causing major concern to the human race. This is particularly true in our auto-centric modern America. The seemingly smallest violations of the rules of the road are the causes of most of our highway misfortunes and tragedies.

Ninety percent of all highway accidents are caused by such "little" temptations as exceeding the posted speed limit, driving too fast for road and weather conditions, passing without caution, following the car ahead too closely and failing to yield the right-of-way.

Control of these little villains of the highway is the aim of the nation-wide "Slow Down and Live" campaign conducted by the National Conference of State Safety Coordinators from Memorial Day through Labor Day and endorsed by Governors of all states and the Territory of Puerto Rico and by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia.

These five all-too-common violations are all associated with speed and "in-a-hurry" driving. "Slow Down and Live" aims at curbing them through increased enforcement efforts on the part of state and local traffic law enforcement agencies and through an appeal to the public for increased voluntary compliance with traffic laws and common sense.

It is good to know that there is a massive, well planned program that will help discover and remove chronic violators from the road. And it is good to know that this program is also aimed at the rest of the driving public. We can all stand to be reminded that those actions of chronic violators that all of us so much fear are no less to be feared because they are committed by an "occasional" violator or by a careless motorist.

"Slow Down and Live", says the Texas Safety Association, offers every motorist two choices: to the thoughtful a chance for self-regulation; to the heedless, the threat of official action. To all of us, it offers the promise of happier motoring and a safer, longer life.

Uncle Zeb
"Thy words have upholden him that was falling, and Thou hast strengthened the feeble knees"

Job 4:4.
Not long ago we read a little sermonette on the above scripture which was a comment about Job made by one of his friends. Anyway, it put us to thinking about just how important are the words that we speak. We know that a word from our children could turn our thought to panic or to joy. We know that a good word about someone that we know could set off a whole series of good comments on this individual and on the other hand a bad word spoken by us will grow and grow into a character damaging rumor that will ruin someone's good name.

We see folks about us every day that just one kind word would add much to their lonely day and yet we hurry about our own worries and never find time to speak that kind word. A bad speech can ruin the best banquet and a meal of corn-pone and red beans can be a feast if we are surrounded with kind and loving people speaking friendly and helpful words.

Someone has said: "Words are living things. Remember that they live on and on after we speak them. A kind word spoken with love is a monument to any person. An evil word is like a boomerang; it eventually strikes back against the one who delivers it. Say all the good things you know about people. Let all the words that damage and hurt people flee from your memory because you did not use them." The above seemed so worthwhile to pass along to others and how we wish that it was possible to abide by this rule, our own selfish self.

The following sayings were contributed by a good friend and we hope a regular reader; "These days there are too many people in too many cars in too much of a hurry going in too many directions to nowhere for nothing." Now ain't that the truth?

"Success is a ladder that cannot be climbed with your hands in your pockets."

"He who watches the clock remains one of the hands."

"Work is not punishment but reward." Thanks for these good thoughts.

We liked the following little poem from "Food For Thought"

Father, Mother,
Sister, Brother,
All who live for one another,
Make a home that's full of beauty,
Built of love and not
from duty.
Though its void of
of costly treasures,
You will find it full
of pleasures;
Wealth in homes may cause attraction,
But it won't buy satisfaction.

titled;
IF WE KNEW EACH OTHER BETTER
If we knew each other better,
You and I and all the rest,
Seeing down beneath the surface
To sorrows all unguessed.
We would quit our cold complaining
And a hand of trust extend;
If we knew each other better,
We could count each one a friend.
We can know each other better
If we take the time to try.
Little deeds of loving kindness

Make a better by and by;
Just a look of Understanding
Brings a touch with all mankind.
We can know each other better—
Yes—seeking we shall find.

Push-button housekeeping?

Plenty of electricity can make your home of the future a house of marvels! From a central control panel, you may be able to wash your dishes, raise and lower windows, control the lighting in every room — even make your beds!

To really live electrically, you'll need much more power — and it will be there waiting. America's more than 400 independent electric light and power companies are planning and building now for years ahead.

Unlike federal government electric systems, these companies don't depend on tax money to build for your future. Carrying their full share of the tax-burden, and operating with private capital, the West Texas Utilities Company and other investor-owned electric companies will provide the dependable, low-cost electricity to help you Live Better Electrically.

In the future — as always — you will benefit most when you are served by independent electric companies like this one.

In a Home-Town Store ... Is Just Like*

Putting Money in the Bank

... a bank you can draw on for customers, a job, friends in time of trouble, schools for your children, churches for spiritual help ... and the good life in this community ... where everybody is Somebody

Every time you spend a dollar in this community for goods and services, a substantial part of that dollar automatically becomes an investment in an enriched social and business life for YOU and your family and friends.

It's an investment you can draw on every day of your life ... an investment that pays big dividends in happiness and prosperity, as it strengthens and builds up the vitality of this area in which you live ... and in which YOU are important.

Contrast this with what the community-building and supporting part of your dollar does for you when you spend it away from home, send it to some mail order house, or surrender it to some migratory peddler.

It's gone. To support some other area ... to build up wealth that YOU can never draw on ... and to strengthen those who aggressively drain off the trade of your community ... to weaken your business, your schools and churches, to eliminate your job, and devalue your property.

It Pays to Buy
where You Live

YOU get Everything that Your Money Pays for --- Merchandise and a trade-invigorated community to live in --- when you buy from your home town merchants ---
