Hedley Baptist Church Dedicated

Sunday, June 22 the all day service was a dedication for the new and remodeled First Baptist Church of Hedley. Following a disastrous fire May 19, 1957, the second floor of the educational building was remodeled. The remainder of the building was completely remodeled. The new Sanctuary was built and furnished, valued at $35,000.00. Sunday the dedication theme was: "In His Name."

A large crowd attended the services. Quite a large group of town, former members and friends registered. Only charter members living are Mr. and Mrs. John Blankenship.

The family of Mr. and Mrs. Milt Mosley had their annual reunion Sunday June 22 at the Lion Den in Hedley. Much visiting and reliving the families' ups and downs was enjoyed before noon. At the noon hour a bountiful meal of ham, and everything good cooks can put on a table was enjoyed.

GABIE BETTS BURTON LIBRARY NOTES

By May L. Prewitt

There has been no new books this week. A few replacements of worn out copies, and several gifts from children of books they had "out grown." Some of the children bring boxes of comics and five or ten copies of their individual books that are apparently new, and others can take a new book from the library and return it with mending to be done.

There are quite a few books here that are movies now, "The Young Lions" "Raintree County", etc.

We have felt rather "inflated" to issue 14,000 books per year. Dallas has a circulation now of one million books per year, and Austin 780,000 and Austin's population is one third that of Dallas. The state of Texas is divided into five Library Areas. We are in No. 1 which is much larger than the other four areas, but our area has a sparse population when compared to the others. The Texas State Library Journal is very well informed on Library conditions in our state. We shall likely have some books to announce next week. We can use them. This past Saturday we issued 184 copies.

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18TH DISTRICT

By Congressman Walter Rogers

RECIPROCAL TRADE

Last week there were two matters of extremely vital importance to the future of this nation debated in the House of Representatives. The first was the proposal to extend the Reciprocal Trade Agreements Act for a period of five years. It appeared for sometime prior to the debate that there would be a very close vote on this measure. The reason was that many who subscribed to reciprocal trade policies felt that there should be some effective restraints retained by the Congress to at least, partially, control the activities of an Administration, whether it be Republican or Democrat, in the administration of the foreign trade policy. The need for this control in the hands of the elected officials of the people has been brought into sharp focus since the end of World War II and the Korean conflict. This country, through its foreign aid activities, has provided the means for many countries throughout the world, both former allies and former enemies, to rebuild their economies—industrial, agricultural, etc. Many countries that had not enjoyed an industrial economy, and a very poor agricultural economy, have been helped to move into the industrial economy area and to greatly improve their agricultural economy. In carrying out this program, this country has also engaged in the most liberal trade policies. As these countries recovered and developed, as the case might be, they began to search for markets for the products which we had helped them to become able to produce. This search did produce markets for those countries—markets which formerly had been supplied by the production of this country. This meant these lost markets had to be recovered by American business, or the productive capacity of American business had to be cut back. This, of course, would result in unemployment in many areas, as it has to a limited extent in ours. The larger business groups, who operate internationally, are able to protect themselves, generally, in the shifting market developments. However, the same is not true of the small businesses in this country that are dependent on a strong and vigorous domestic purchasing power. It is the economic situation that develops with relation to the average and small business in this country that brings into focus the real problem. That is, the extent to which we can go in foreign relation activities in order to satisfy the demands of some countries. The State Department works diligently and hard to maintain good and friendly relationships between this and other countries. But, when these relationships require the bankruptcy of many small and independent businesses as a sacrificial lamb on the altar of foreign policy, the need for a re-evaluation of this country's position by its duly elected Representatives becomes indispensable. No one denies the need for flexibility in the administration of our foreign trade policies, but when past experience reflects an abuse by the Executive Department of the powers that have heretofore provided that flexibility, then the law itself should provide an effective limitation on how far the President can go in yielding to the demands of foreign countries on trade matters.

Defense Reorganization Act

The House of Representatives last week passed the Defense Reorganization Bill by a vote of 402 to 1. This was after bitter debate as to the language of the bill with reference to 3 amendments asked by the President. The fact is that the bill, as written by the Armed Services Committee, constituted a compromise between the White House and the

DONLEY COUNTY SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

A conservation practice that is becoming established and liked by many farmers in the Donley County Soil Conservation District is the practice of stubble mulching; known to some as sub surface tillage.

Instead of burying the stubble and dead stalks of previous crops, sub-surface tillage leaves it on top of the soil. The crop residues made up of leaves and stalks of previous crops form a mulch on top of the soil. The common name for this practice is stubble mulching, thus using farm equipment in such a way to leave all crop residues on the top of the soil is called stubble mulch farming.

Stubble mulch farming will benefit farming operations in many ways. It provides cover for the land to help prevent blowing dust, protect against water erosion,

A shy, slight Boys Rancher, Ernest Adams, receives the thanks of Pete Martinez, a buddy whose life he saved recently, and Cal Farley, founder and president of Cal Farley's famous Boys Ranch, near Amarillo, Texas.

At the nationally-known haven for homeless boys, the older boys frequently supervise groups of younger boys during leisure or play periods, and during such a period, Pete was taking four small boys for a walk.

Because swimming season was approaching and because the little boys were excited that they were going to be in this summer's beginners swimming class, they asked Pete to take them for a look at the swimming pool. As they were walking across the rock dam there, Pete explained to them that the bigger boys like to take hold of the rope hanging from one of the giant cottonwoods that border the pool, swing out over the water, then drop into the water.

Like all youngsters, the little boys were delighted with this idea, and begged Pete to "show us". Amiable and obliging Pete took the rope and executed a demonstration swing, but just before he reached the dam, the rope broke and Pete, falling, struck his head against the embankment and plunged unconscious into the water. The little boys, terror-stricken when their buddy didn't come to the surface, started screaming. A group of older boys who were working on their saddles in the nearby barn heard them and came on the run to help, Ernest Adams in the lead.

Without breaking his stride, Ernest kicked off his boots and, fully clothed, dived into the water and brought Pete to the surface. By this time the older boys and their instructor had also reached the dam and the staff member immediately gave Pete artificial respiration, after which the boy was rushed to a hospital.

Pete and Ernest have been friends at Boys Ranch for several years, and Ernest, although reluctant to discuss his feat of heroism, says,

"Well, sure, anybody's going to help out a buddy, if he can."

THE LIONS DEN or The Roar of the Lions

By the Liantamer

The writer has been out of town the past two weeks and unable to get the column in print outlining the progress of the Club. However upon return I learn the Club has been very active in assisting the Rodeo association in their preparation for the barbecue and celebration for the 3rd, 4th and 5th of July. They also have sponsored a Rapid Fire fire extinguisher sale as a fund raising project to keep the Lions Civic Program financed. Lion Homer Bones and Lion Clyde Price with the help of some very enthusiastic team members have done an outstanding job. Anyone who hasn't had an opportunity to secure a home use fire extinguisher call or see Lion Bones or Lion Price; they're anxious for every home to be equipped with a usable fire extinguisher.

Tuesday's meeting was devoted to the installation of the new officers to serve the local club for the next twelve months. Lion W. F. Vanderburg did a masterful job of MC'ing the installation. The following Lions were installed: J. H. Spier Jr., Boss Lion; Bob Moss, Bill Todd, C. A. Pitts, vice-presidents; A. R. Henson, secretary; Joe Bownds, treasurer; Bill Goodman and Clyde Price Jr., Homer Bones, W. W. Pinkerton, directors; John Gillham, Tail Twister; Oliver J. Abel, Liantamer.

The above newly installed officers pledged themselves to serve to the best of their ability while all members present gave a standing vote of confidence and pledge of cooperation. With that kind of spirit, the work of the club should be continued in the same fine fashion that it has functioned the past year.

The club hosted Bill Schroeder of Amarillo, a guest of Frank White Jr., Joe Phelan of Perryton religious education and Jimmie Johnson, Humble Service Station guest of Lion Vanderburg and Charlie Deyhle, guest of Lion Chuck Deyhle.

Following the regular meeting, the board of directors were called into special session by Boss Lion Estlack. This will be recorded as his last official act as Boss Lion for the past 12 months. Business discussed was plans for operating a novelty concession stand downtown during the Fourth of July Celebration and a report on the fire extinguisher sales. Plans to continue until every item is sold were considered.

The installation of officers Tuesday and the early appointment of committee members may well furnish the impetus to project a bigger, better program for 1958-59.

Mrs. Lawrence Snodgrass of Salt Lake City spent the weekend with her sister Mrs. Clyde Butler and both ladies had dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Bob Williams Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Thomas and daughter of San Bernardino, Calif. visited last week in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. McHenry Lane of Pampa visited Sunday with her mother, Mrs. E. L. Lewis.

Troop 38 Boy Scouts Schedule Court Of Honor

Scoutmaster Oliver J. Abel praised the assistant scoutmasters and commended the cooperation of the parents and troop committee for making the camp a huge success for the new troop.

Boy Scouts of America Troop 38, the newest troop in Clarendon sponsored by the Lions Club, has scheduled their first "Court of Honor" to recognize the achievement made by its members.

The new troop receiving their charter about May 1st with seven members has added one new member, Gregory Adams from Lakeview. The charter members were Douglas Bradshaw, Gary Clinton, B. H. Cokk, Roger Finch, David McAnear, Jimmie Roberts and Dwayne Wilkinson.

Every member of the troop has advanced one rank since the charter was received and will be honored with tenderfoot badges next Tuesday night. Invited to participate in the ceremony are the parents of the scouts, the institutional representative, the troop committee, the adult leaders and a number of boys who desire membership in Troop 38.

A troop committee meeting is scheduled following the "Court of Honor" to plan a summer program for the troop and organize the troop for the operation of concession rights during the Fourth of July Celebration.

Troop 38 honored themselves and their sponsoring institution by attending summer camp 100% and in the first summer camp ever attended by any member of the troop, gained top rating in camping every day during camp and rating fourth place in all camp competition against a dozen troops and about 130 boys. Royce E. Wood, minister of the First Christian Church and assistant Scoutmaster, guided the boys through their successful competition and camp rating.

Include Safety In Your Holiday-Vacation Plans Says Capt. Blackwell

Going to have a bang-up Fourth?
 "I hope not!" remarked Captain J. W. Blackwell today, when he heard the question put to the Region 5-B motorists who are planning to be on the highways over the July Fourth Holiday.

Speaking on behalf of the Texas Highway Patrol and the National Safety Council, Captain Blackwell reminded drivers that 426 persons were killed in traffic crashes during the four day July Fourth week end last year. "However, only one was killed in this district; and that sets a high standard for us to better this year — by not having a single fatality", Captain Blackwell said.

"One way every one can help to back the attack on traffic accidents is to include safety in his holiday and vacation plans", Captain Blackwell said.

He reminded motorists that the Texas Highway Patrol, police and other traffic officials are doing all they can in Region 5-B and all across the state to protect summer travelers. Captain Blackwell said that a more firm enforcement policy by the Texas Highway Patrol and courts means a safer vacation for those traveling our highways.

"The highways are loaded with people who want to 'get away from it all' and if they aren't careful they won't live to come back to it all", said Captain Blackwell. "If every driver realizes that traffic accidents don't always happen to the other guy, he will make it his business to take extra care and caution when behind the wheel".

Captain Blackwell asked all citizens of the Hi-Plains to really strengthen the attack on traffic accidents by backing the Highway Patrol, Courts, and other official agencies in their efforts to crack down on reckless or negligent holiday drivers. He suggests every motorist know his car, the highway and himself, and that he make every effort possible to drive carefully.

AUSTIN — If a fire-breathing dragon were loose on the Texas countryside — smashing cars and their occupants, slapping down pedestrians — there'd be no question about the need to get rid of the monster.

the starting point for a campaign which, for the first time, brought the official power and prestige of state government to bear on a growing problem.

Governor Daniel called it a public emergency.
With only a skeleton organization, the Council hammered through 1957 at tightening enforcement, organizing holiday safety campaigns.

In February of this year the governor appointed the state's first full-time traffic safety director. He is Brad H. Smith, veteran South Texas newspaper, radio and television man and past president of the Texas Press Association, who has for many years been a volunteer worker in traffic safety.

First move was to acquaint Texans with the enormity of the problem. In this Smith says he's had unstinting help from mass news media and volunteer assistance from every type of civic group.

In April Governor Daniel climaxed publicity efforts with a statewide broadcast calling for a "crack down" on two major traffic evils — speeding and driving while intoxicated.

Formation of the Council was the starting point for a campaign which, for the first time, brought the official power and prestige of state government to bear on a growing problem.

STATE NEWS
The crops in Wood county, we learn from the Quitman Herald, are very promising.

The Waco Southerner has been shown a beet which measured 30 inches in length, 27 inches in circumference, and weighed 25 lbs.

The same paper has hoisted at its mast head the name of John A. Quitman, as a candidate for the Presidency in 1860.

The "bloody flux," we learn from the Liberty Gazette, has of late been prevailing in Tyler county, baffling the will of the physicians.

The Liberty Gazette, of the 14th, says two large droves of fat beeves passed through that place, a few days previous, for the New Orleans market.

I. G. Williams, Esq., of Galveston, who has been traveling extensively through the wheat growing portion of Texas, puts the wheat crop of the State down at 3,500,000 bushels.

The Jefferson Gazette of the 5th inst., speaks of dry weather in that section, but says the crops are not yet suffering. It reports the health of the county as being very good.

The Victoria Herald, of the 19th says watermelons, muskmelons and roasting ears are plenty in that region, and the prospects for good living and good times generally, were never more promising.

A severe storm passed over Corpus Christi on the 12th inst., which leveled with the ground outhouses and fences without number, blew down one unfinished dwelling and wrenched off the first part of two other buildings.

The Columbia Democrat has heard from all portions of Brazoria, and says there never was a finer prospect for abundant crops in that country.

estimated 5,000 people participated.
Meanwhile, the battle is being pushed on other fronts. A survey of traffic-controlling resources resulted in recommendation of a 7-point program to bring Texas up to par:

- 1. A statewide program to bring greater public cooperation.
2. More rigid enforcement of present laws.
3. Adoption of the Uniform Driver's License Law.
4. A law to permit police to use chemical tests and other scientific aids to detect drunken drivers.
5. Development of strong, fair, effective traffic courts.
6. A State Highway Patrol double its present size.
7. Universal driver education in public schools supported by state aid.

Besides the state agencies working cooperatively through the new Council, other groups are part of the crusade. A major source of help is the 20-year-old Texas Safety Association, a pioneer group which finances its efforts on a voluntary basis.

Texas Legislative Council is studying traffic problems and will report to the 56th Legislature.
Bringing new weight is the Governor's Highway Safety Commission. Scores of prominent Texans answered Governor Daniel's call to give citizen support to official efforts. First Commission meeting is set tentatively for Fall.

Results thus far are encouraging. For the first 23 weeks of this year the toll was down by 101 persons, about 11 per cent, from last year. There were 163 fewer deaths, down about 17 per cent, from '56.
Goal for 1958 is a year-long 10 per cent drop or 254 lives saved — a real stab at the dragon.

The Gonzales Inquirer says that the Sea Island and short staple cotton, planted since the grasshoppers left, and only five weeks old, is nearly knee high, full of squares and growing finely. The corn crop of the same age is six and seven feet high.

S. A. Benton, Esq., of the Richmond Reporter, has purchased the interest of his former partner, E. H. Ferguson, in that paper, and thereby becomes its sole proprietor. The Reporter is an able and fearless journal — exposing error wherever found — and we trust it may long live to battle for an independent judiciary.

The San Antonio Texas learns through a private letter from New Mexico that great excitement exists in that section of the country in regard to late discoveries of new mines of gold and silver there. Many, it is said, will amass fortunes in a short time.

We have heard it whispered through town that Judge Gibson, the accomplished editor of the Sentinel, who is now absent at San Antonio, is on a wife-hunting expedition. We cannot vouch for the truth of the rumor, but if such is the case, we trust our worthy contemporary may succeed in lariatting and bringing home some fair one to cheer his solitary hours.

Judge I. A. Paschal, of San Antonio, arrived in town a few days ago, where he will remain a short time in attendance upon the Federal and District Courts. The Judge appears to be in the enjoyment of excellent health. He says the farming prospects of Bexar and adjoining counties were never better and thinks the yield of corn in that section will be larger this fall than for many years previous.

An Artificial Breeze Maker— A new yankee notion is out, in the shape of a rocking chair; and a most singular invention it is. It is so constructed that by the ordinary motion of rocking, a delicious current of air is blown upon the face of the occupant, by means of bellows attached to the rockers; the bellows is attached to an ice box, and by placing a piece of ice in it, the bellows passes over the ice, conveying a refreshing breeze to the face.

Cork comes from the outer bark of a species of oak found in the Mediterranean area.

To the Citizens-

At different times during the past four years, I have been threatened and warned not to seek re-election. Some of you who know me best have been threatened with embarrassment if you did not persuade me not to make this race. The story behind this is a long one, and touches on many things that have happened in Texas politics. Some of them are covered below—others I will discuss later.

I made my first race for the Texas Senate in 1952. There was a great hue and cry to "clean up the mess in Washington." I was an oddity among candidates THEN. I charged then that "Austin is as rotten as Washington" and that "moral integrity is needed most." I Demanded a law requiring state officials and legislators to file, for public record, a statement showing their income and its source. I was quite unpopular in some circles.

In 1954 I, and a few others, urged investigations into several state matters including the Insurance Commission, certain land transactions in which the State was involved, and State contracts. For my efforts I was slandered. A few months later the lid blew off. NOW, no candidate would dare run for high office without a pledge "that honesty and integrity must be restored to our State government."

Andy Rogers is the only candidate in this race who has supported and voted for lobbyist registration, and a code of ethics for legislators; for anti-loan shark legislation and compulsory financial statements of State officials' incomes.

Andy Rogers has authored more strict laws on the sale and distribution of narcotics and filthy literature and bootleggers than any other candidate in this race.

I have made many good friends among those who work for the interests of our district. I have made good enemies of those minority blocs whose interests conflict with the interests of our district. Some of those minority blocs have done well for themselves in Austin. But their position is now threatened. They are desperate to continue feathering their nests at your expense, to protect their "darlings", and to gain new ones.

I am on their list for extermination. They will stop at nothing and stoop to anything. Their methods of political slander, deceit and Legislative control have been perfected to an art. And, as has been said, "the perfection of art is to conceal art."

It is well known in Austin and Dallas that the Top brass of the loan-sharks, electric utility monopolies, gas pipelines, the liquor

RESULTS OF 1959 WHEAT REFERENDUM IN DONLEY COUNTY

There were 41 wheat producers in Donley County who voted in the Marketing Quota Referendum held Friday, June 20th. Out of "B", "C", "D" and "E" communities, there were 7 producers who voted for marketing quotas and 7 against. "A" and "H" communities had 10 producers for marketing quotas and 3 against. "F" and "G" communities had 10 producers voting for marketing quotas and 4 against. This made a total of 27 voting for marketing quotas and 14 against.

lobby and others are licking their chops over the slick tricks and schemes they have cooked up to deceive you about your Senator.

Actually, theirs is an old tune with a few new verses—only a little face lifting to bring their show up to date. I have suffered economically, socially and politically at their hands. But I have not run from them in the past, and I will not do so now or in the future.

(Next week Senator Rogers will discuss other important issues.)

MEASUREMENT OF COTTON AND SOIL BANK BASE CROPS

Reporters are working in the field measuring cotton and base crops on cotton Acreage Reserve farms. It is the responsibility of the farm operator or his representative, who is familiar with the farm, to assist the crop reporter in making all necessary measurements and for showing him the farm boundaries and all areas on the farm planted to crops for which determinations are required.

ACP EMERGENCY PRACTICES

We are again reminding all producers who made application under the ACP program for emergency practices that the practice must be substantially complete by June 30. By Substantially complete we mean at least 75 percent complete. To this date we have not received an approval for extending this dead line date. If the date should be extended, producers will be notified through the local paper and through news letters.
