It couldn't happen anywhere except in America. Well, maybe in a few other countries where democracy is doing all right, but certainly it could not develop into such an issue. More than any other people of the world we're famous for exploiting incidents pertaining to the equality of men.

Referring to the Patton case, of course. A national hero, one of the most colorful, resourceful and successful generals of our armed forces suddenly flares up in an unjustified rage, strikes a hospitalized private and further humiliates him with a barrage of profane invective such as only he can deliver. A perfect publicity story. An opportunity for us to proclaim to the world that nobody is big enough to mistreat even the least important of us.

The only trouble is that, as usual, we over played the hand. Over zealous people, yes, and quite a few patriotic four flushers whose service to their country is limited to loud talk, demanded the general's dismissal. Even some of the congressmen wanted to poke their noses into the affair. Fortunately it settled down to its real status. A breach of military discipline to be dealt with in the usual military manner. What a mess we'd have if congress or the American public started dictating disciplinary policies to our top generals. And what a concealed attitude on the part of these self appointed judges to presume that their judgment is better than that of men who were specially selected because of their proven ability to lead and administer.

We can be happy that the clamor constitutes only a sordid development of what actually is a good story reflecting more credit than harm to the American system, the army and General Patton himself. The significant point is not that a general mistreated a private, but that a general apologized to a private. That's what makes us proud to be Americans.

To get the complete picture, think first of Patton the man. He is famous for his bombastic manner and his use of strong language. Also think of the tremendous nervous strain he had been under as commander of the Sicilian campaign. He had reason to be on edge. Then he saw a soldier whose presence suggested a possible shirking of duty. And he jumped at conclusions. A wrong conclusion, yes, but where is the man who hasn't made a mistake?

What followed was the result of Patton's sincere contempt for gold bricks and towards plus nervous tension and his well known rudeness. As a matter of fact, there are very few, even of those who criticize him, who have not at some time gone into a rage with less provocation. That's human nature, and anyone who pretends to have the slightest bit of common sense should be able to understand. So the incident is easy to explain even though it isn't easy to justify.

Now comes the angle we can recall with a glow of pride. General Eisenhower not only issued a stiff reprimand but demanded that Patton make amends by personal apology to the soldier concerned and the hospital personnel who witnessed the scene. Our army does not hesitate to dress down its highest officers when they violate a soldier's rights.

And General Patton likewise is entitled to a generous measure of praise for his action. Not satisfied to make amends to those immediately concerned, he visited every unit under his command, called the men into formation, and made a formal apology. In his opinion he had disgraced himself before his men and was not entitled to their respect until he had asked their forgiveness.

Still, amazing as it seems, people who knew all this continued to rant and rave about the unpardonable offense of hitting a soldier. So few of them stopped to consider how easy it is to fly into a fit of anger and how hard it is to stand before thousands of men admitting a mistake and offering an apology. In no incident during Patton's long heroic career did he show his real greatness any more clearly. It takes character of the highest order for a man to humble himself before the men under his command. If congress is still debating the question of his promotion to the permanent rank of Major General, it would do well to give some thought to this angle.

DRAFT CALL TO BE DOUBLED IN JANUARY SAYS COMMISSION

The Army's draft call for January is to be twice the figure the War Manpower Commission has been expecting. It was learned Sunday, and as a result the combined Army-Navy call will approximate 300,000 men.

This is about the present monthly figure, as contrasted with previous indications that calls would begin dropping after the first of the year.

The expanding Navy never expected to reach top strength until well along in 1944 and the Army won't be at its expected peak strength of 7,700,000 men by January for two main reasons: The WAC enlistment drive did not reach expectations and draft boards are lagging so far behind their quotas they may be unable to catch up even by the end of January.

Uncertainty over what Congress would do about the drafting of pre-war fathers caused many boards to delay calling them. The general expectation was that the Army would need only replacements after the first of the year, the number of replacements, however, is one of the great questions marks of the war, since it depends on how many casualties the service will suffer.

While the Army is pleased with the performance of women soldiers and is willing to take hundreds of thousands, only about 60,000 have enlisted to date.

POST-ADVENT PARTY PLANNED AT JOINT MEET OF SOCIETIES

Meeting in a general joint call session Sunday afternoon members of the local Mothers' Society and Saint Joseph's Society made initial plans for a community social and dance to be held as the first post-advent party after Christmas. It will be given in the parish hall on December 30th.

Father Thomas, as a reward for their faithful contributing toward the success of the annual Thanksgiving bazaar.

PRE-Christmas HOLIDAY CITY WIDE CLEANUP SET FOR DEC. 11-12

A city-wide pre-Christmas holiday cleanup will be held in Muenster on December 10 and 11. It has been announced by the sanitation committee of the Civic League and Garden Club. This is one of the quarterly clean-ups, sponsored and encouraged by the organization.

Hauling facilities have been made available and all rubbish, trash and unsightly waste or rejected matter should be sacked or boxed and placed for convenient pickups at the curbs and in alleys. The minimum charge, as is customary in these projects, is to be 25 cents. Where the hauler must first gather and sack the trash the charge will be higher.

Everyone is asked to cooperate in the cleanup and Mayor J.M. Weinzapfel and the city council also ask all citizens to take part in this pre-holiday city-beautifying scheme.

Announcement of the cleanup is made early so that all persons will have ample time to clean their yards and alleys and have the trash ready when the trucks comes for hauling. All homes with in the city limits will be visited by the hauler.

Knights Columbus To Participate In Rites At Dallas

Local Council Has 14 Candidates To Take Fourth Degree Sunday

The Muenster council Knights of Columbus will participate in the fourth degree rites to be exemplified in Dallas next Sunday, December 5, it was announced at the organization's meeting last Wednesday. The council has 14 candidates to take the degree at that time.

The program, submitted by Dr. E.W. Laake, Dallas, Master of the Fourth Degree for North Texas, is as follows:

Assembly at 9 a.m. of the 100 candidates from the district at Cathedral Hall and parade to Sacred Heart Cathedral for participation in a Pontifical High Mass to be celebrated by His Excellency Most Rev. Augustine Danglmayr, auxiliary bishop of the Dallas diocese. The sermon will be delivered by His Excellency Most Rev. Joseph P. Lynch, bishop of Dallas.

After the services the candidates will be honored with a luncheon and will re-assemble to receive the degree at 2 o'clock. All candidates and all fourth degree members will be in full dress.

A banquet in the ball room of the Jefferson Hotel at 7 p.m. will be given for the candidates to conclude the day's festivities. It has been announced that many state officers will be in attendance at the celebration, including the Supreme Master of the Fourth Degree. Included in the class will be one bishop and 25 priests.

A further note of importance and one of particular distinction for the Muenster council is the fact that Dr. Laake is granting this council an Assembly of its own. Candidates from Gainesville, Pilot Point, Sherman, Denison and Wichita Falls, will constitute the assembly and give the local council an opportunity to progress and carry out many important functions. The Assembly will be properly installed, according to Dr. Laake's advice, as soon as convenient after the degree in Dallas.

Candidates from Muenster council are: Rev. Thomas Buegler, Rev. Edward Devers, Herbert Meurer, Nick Miller, J.C. Trachta, J. W. Fisher, Charlie Hellman, Ben Seyler, F.A. Kathman, Jr., L.A. Bernauer, J.P. and L.W. Flusche, Adolph Herr and F.E. Schmitz.

3 PERSONS UNHURT IN TWO WEEKEND AUTOMOBILE WRECKS

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Dankesreiter escaped serious injury and emerged from their overturned car with only a few slight bruises, on Thanksgiving Day. The spill occurred at 4-corners as the Dankesreiters were coming to town at about 7 o'clock in the evening.

The car struck loose gravel, skidded, turned over on its side and then rolled over and came to a stop with the four wheels in the air. The driver's side of the automobile was bent and damaged considerably, but the all-steel top is little worse for the incident and is credited with saving the lives of the two occupants.

Another car accident occurred the previous day when Carl Schuman took to the rail of the overpass in an attempt to avoid hitting a car and truck as the three vehicles slipped over the overpass and came to a stop with the cars, one passing the other, were traveling west.

Schuman's coupe was the only one battered up and no one was injured.

Calls From Los Angeles

Ensign Norman Luke, naval aviator, stationed in Hawaii, was in California during the latter part of last week and telephoned his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Luke, here, on Thanksgiving Day. He stated that he had spent the holiday in Los Angeles with a buddy who made the trip to the states with him and that they were to report at San Diego on Friday for further orders. He was not permitted to reveal how long he would be in the states, or where his next assignment would take him.

Mayor Thanks All Who Assisted In Making Campaign Successful

Muenster has topped its quota in the current War Chest campaign. This information was released Wednesday at noon by Mayor J. M. Weinzapfel, local chairman.

"Muenster has never failed to meet an assigned quota", an age old tradition, as old as the community itself, still rings true. While it was no whirlwind campaign, in fact it was rather a leisurely procedure, this community has again done what was expected of it, plus a margin to spare. Solicitors, busy with other work, didn't get around in their respective districts as quickly as usual, that is all.

The chairman, in tabulating late figures Wednesday noon, found it gratifying to note that the total had climbed over the assigned $1,000 for Muenster proper, while donations from Valley Creek, Hays, Freemound and Bailey, included in the district, brought in the remainder to make the $1,500 quota and then some.

Mayor Weinzapfel directed a word of thanks and appreciation to all who helped in the drive, either by solicitation or by donations, to bring the campaign to a successful close this week.

Cooke county, likewise, is considerably above the $22,500 goal, as the drive nears its end. Tuesday night's figure was $23,872. The grand total will be announced next week, following the close of the campaign this weekend.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS PURCHASE RECORDER FOR MEMBERS' USE

A special call meeting was held for local Knights of Columbus last Wednesday evening to dispose of monthly business, since no regular session was held on the appointed meeting night, it having been postponed because of conflict with other activity.

Grand Knight Nick Miller presided and members voted to make their annual donation to St. Joseph's Orphanage at Dallas and to subscribe a gift to the current War Chest fund drive, after which Charlie Hellman was appointed lecturer to serve the unexpired term of Buddy Bernauer, resigned. Mr. Hellman, in accepting the office, spoke a few words stating that he is interested in this particular position and intends to promote council activity, through ample entertainment for the Knights and their families.

A new recording machine was purchased recently by the council and it was announced that it is in the hall for the enjoyment of the members and their wives at any time they desire to spend a few hours dancing. Younger members of the Knights' families were also included in the invitation to make use of this new entertainment feature.

The bowling alley, likewise, is turned over for members' enjoyment at any time, as are the game tables. It was pointed out that now since the Council is out of debt on its $10,000 home it is fitting that members enjoy the fruits of the labor.

Announcement was made that Memorial Services for deceased members were to take place Sunday afternoon, Nov. 28, and that at the next regular meeting on Wednesday, Dec. 1, formal installation of officers to serve during 1944 would be made by H.A. Lampman, LLD of Denison, and that a social would follow.

The council's participation in the fourth degree exemplification at Dallas on December 5, was also announced.

ENS. RICHARD FETTE AND MILDRED BECKER MARRIED SATURDAY

Rites Solemnized At San Juan Capistrano Mission In California

Mrs. Carl Gimple of Gainesville announces the marriage of her daughter, Miss Mildred Becker, to Ensign Richard Fette, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fette of this city. The nuptial mass was read at 9 o'clock on Saturday, Nov. 27, in the chapel of the old San Juan Capistrano Mission, Capistrano, Calif., which is the oldest mission on the West Coast, founded by Father Serra. The popular song, "When the Swallows Come Back to Capistrano" was written about this mission.

Rev. Father Arthur J. Hutchinson officiated at the single ring ceremony. The vows were exchanged before the historical hand carved, gilded altar, banked with a floral arrangement of chrysanthemums and lighted tapers.

Attendants were Ensign Frank P. Swan, Jr., of San Francisco, and Mrs. Joe Voth of this city, sister of the groom.

The bride was attired in a tailored white wool gabardine suit with navy blue accessories. She wore an orchid corsage with sprays of bavardia and carried a white satin prayerbook with satin ribbon markers trimmed with bavardia, a gift from the best man. Her only ornaments were blue sapphire ear rings, gift from the groom, and an heirloom jade mosaic brooch, formerly belonging to her grandmother, the late Mrs. Augusta Theisen of Lindsay.

Mrs. Voth wore a black suit with pink blouse and a corsage of gardenias.

The groom and best man wore full dress blue uniforms of the naval air corps.

Mrs. Henry Fette, mother of the groom, wore a tailored frock of midnight blue with a tiger orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the Capistrano Hotel Coffee Shop, for the wedding party and guests. The table was centered with a white tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom, surrounded with a floral arrangement of gold and bronze chrysanthemums and lighted tapers.

Out of town guests at the wedding in addition to Mrs. Fette and Mrs. Voth, were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wilbrandt of Hollywood, Mrs. Everett Bain Harris of Los Angeles, and Ensign Swan of San Francisco.

The bride attended school at Lindsay, graduated from high school at Saint Mary's in Gainesville and attended Our Lady of Victory College, Fort Worth. For the past nine months she had been employed in camp finance at Camp Howze.

The bridegroom attended Sacred Heart school and is a graduate of Muenster High school. He enlisted in the Naval Air Corps in June 1942, and was commissioned an Ensign on March 17, this year. He is now on temporary duty at the Naval Air Station, San Diego.

WAR DECLARED ON CATTLE GRUBS

Cattle grubs take a tremendous toll from Cooke county livestock and dairymen yearly. But the heavy money loss to producers is incidental to the waste in meat, hides and milk caused by grub infection.

To conserve this waste, a county wide cattle grub control campaign is on and every one who owns an infected cow is urged to take part. An average of two pounds of meat is trimmed from the loins and ribs if each carcass. This waste in Texas, which cannot be replaced, equals 1,680,000 pounds of the choicest meat and would feed 4,600 soldiers for one year — and after trimming, the loins and ribs are devalued two cents a pound.

Moreover, the grubs destroy enough Texas hides yearly to provide leather to equip one million soldiers with shoes one year. The pests do this by cutting holes through the thickest and best part of the hides. Grubby hides are devalued one cent a pound. The total of these packing plant losses average $3.86 an animal.

Heel flies, the adult of the grub, and the grubs themselves cause as much as a twenty-five per cent reduction in milk flow in dairy cows along with other indefinite losses which are difficult to estimate.

Albert Brient, county agent, says these losses can be greatly reduced by treating infected animals with wettable sulfur and five per cent rotenone. The treatment may be applied either as a dust, wash, or spray. For more information see the County agent.

Student Assembly Held Monday

On Monday afternoon a student assembly was held in the school auditorium. Ruben Sturm, president of the Student Council, presided at the meeting.

A large red crepe paper bell, made by Sister M. Georgia, was hung from the ceiling of the auditorium. To it red and white ribbons were attached with the names of a student concealed at the end of each. "White Christmas" was sung by the student body with Juanita Weinzapfel accompanying, while the students gathered to select a streamer. An appropriate speech was given by Billy Joe Miller after which he cut the ribbons from the bell.

During the short meeting that followed, Sister M. Geraldine reminded the students to watch the bulletin board for coming activities.

4-H Project Under Way

In a few days hence you will probably find fuzzy lambs, cuddly kittens and cute rag dolls all over the school. A new project of the 4-H Club under the direction of Sister M. Georgia was organized for the purpose of making all kinds of stuffed toys for Christmas gifts. They are to be cut, embroidered, sewed, stuffed during our meetings. We are grateful for this opportunity of learning how to make these objects and are happy to have them for our own. We wish to express our appreciation to Mrs. Gus Hellman for the lovely models she has so kindly lent to us.

All aboard! Train leaving in three minutes on track 4.

Oh, I took the wrong train to Seattle!

No, this isn't a railroad station, its Business Arithmetic Class taught by Sister M. Georgia and we're learning the proper technique of reading a timetable. This Class, conducted in open discussion style, is very interesting.

Students Receive Pictures

A pleasant surprise awaited the students Monday morning. The pictures, taken sometime ago, had arrived. Each one received eight small pictures and two enlargements. Although they were the cause of a few hearty laughs, almost everyone was pleased with them.

BIRTHDAY OBSERVANCE FOR J. W. WALKER SUNDAY

The 56th birthday of J. W. Walker on Sunday, Nov. 28, was the occasion of a delightful dinner party given at noon in his home. It was a surprise affair.

Guests brought covered dishes for the meal and later spent the afternoon informally.

Personnel included in addition to the honoree and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Walker, Theo McComb, Betty Jo and Vera Gilbreath, all of Fort Worth and Mr. and Mrs. C.S. Walker, Mrs. Leonard Luttmer, Edith Loy Walker and Matt Ramsey.

Christmas Greetings

To all of you in Uncle Sam's Service

Greetings and best wishes to each of you, wherever you may be. Since I cannot write to you individually I take this means of letting you know I am thinking of you — especially at Christmas time.

Those of us who are still here at home appreciate what you are doing for God and Country and for us.

There isn't much to say, but what I do say is, "God bless you, each and every one. May He guide you safely through battle and bring you back home soon."

This is the Christmas wish and prayer of your old friend,

Joe Fisher Sr. & Family

Local Schools Change

Opening Hour; Both Begin Classes Later

Muenster students returned to classes Monday following a four day recess occasioned by the occurrence of Thanksgiving. They had been dismissed on Wednesday afternoon for the holiday weekend.

Return to school Monday was marked by a later hour for opening classes. Beginning this week, and continuing during the coming winter months, both schools open at 9:30 instead of the customary 9 o'clock and dismiss a half hour later than usual, at 4:15 instead of 3:45. At the parochial school, pupils attend Mass at 9:30 before classes begin.

The change was made principally because students catching the first bus were obliged to walk to the bus line in early morning darkness. The half hour later schedule allows for sufficient day light and is more convenient for both children and bus drivers.

On Wednesday morning, November 23, the school children assisted at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass and offered their Holy Communion for their Reverend Pastor, Father Cornad. Immediately after Mass the students assembled in the auditorium to extend their feast-day greetings. The program included feast day songs sung by the entire student body, an address by Lucille Bezner, the presentation of a huge bouquet of pink chrysanthemums by little Donna Dieter, and the offering of a Spiritual Bouquet and gift by Gilbert Kubis.

Following the program, Father gave his blessing and told many interesting things of the life of his patron, St. Conrad.

Relax To Have Special "Kid Show" December 11

On Saturday, December 11th the Relax Theatre will present a special show in the afternoon for children, the management has announced.

In addition to the regular Western feature there will be several comic shorts and other shorts to delight any youngster. Remember the date, Saturday a week, December 11th.

Ration-Free Children's Shoes
Some relief from the shortage of youngster's shoes will be provided about the first of the year by a new supply of children's non-leather shoes for general wear, to be sold ration-free, OPA has announced. In general, children up to about eight years of age will benefit. The shoes will have canvas uppers and soles made from remnants and heavy woven fabric, reinforced with vulcanized rubber. Shoes of this type larger than misses' and youth size three will be rationed.

Family Night At Relax Proves Popular Here

Family Night, introduced two weeks ago at the local theatre, has proved so popular that it is destined to become a regular Tuesday night feature each week, according to the management.

Admission on Family Night is two for the price of one plus the addition of one cent. The Relax was packed for the attractions showing last week and this week on Family Night.

PORK RATION POINTS HAVE BEEN SLASHED FOR CONSUMER USE

Consumers now get pork and bacon two points cheaper per pound following an Office of Price Administration announcement reducing the point value of all items listed under pork and bacon on the consumer point table.

All items listed under "ready to eat" meats are reduced two points with the exception of corn beef brisket, dried beef and tongue. These have not been reduced in point value.

Canned meat prices are not changed, regardless of pork content. The reduction of point values on pork products resulted from the War Food Administration's desire for faster movement of the bumper hog crop, it was stated.

At the same time, to keep farmers' returns on hogs from being driven too low, the government extended price supports to all hog markets.

OPA emphasized that the pork point reduction will be for a limited time only, and applies only to pork and 100 per cent pork sausage. It does not change the present point value of lard and other products rationed under the meats-fats order.

DECEASED KNIGHTS HONORED SUNDAY AT MEMORIAL SERVICES

Pettkutter, Charles Nause, Wm. Gehrig, Peter Walterscheid, Frank Trachta, Charles Pagel, Martin Sickins, Phillip Berend, Joe Felderhoff, Frank Seyler, J.W. Meurer, Ray Hellman, Ens. PARISH PICNIC ON THANKSGIVING IS OUTSTANDING SUCCESS

With fair, warm weather prevailing, and with a general abundance of cash, Muenster responded with more than its traditional generosity at the annual parish picnic Thanksgiving Day at the parish hall. Despite the fact that no community dinner was served, the result was regarded as one of the best in this community's history. During last Sunday's services the pastors expressed their thanks to every person who took part in raising the gratifying amount which has been placed in the new church fund.

Hundreds of persons from Muenster and neighboring communities mingled in the hall to enjoy themselves during the afternoon and the crowd grew thicker during the evening when additional scores came for attendance at the dance.

Refreshment counters, group games and other attractions experienced a continuous rush of business and more than 200 couples thronged the dance floor.

Leaves Australia

Pvt. Henry Stoffels has written to the Enterprise to report that he is no longer in Australia, but is now on duty somewhere in the Southwest Pacific, not a very welcome change, but he nevertheless enjoys his work and adds "I am glad we are here". He states that mail comes in regularly, there is plenty of food, even though sometimes it isn't the best, but that there isn't much of anything in the line of entertainment. He said he enjoyed his stay in Australia, especially visiting Brisbane, on leave. Out going mail is heavily censored from his present station so he concludes with "I can't write much, but assure you I am well, fellin fit and ready for what we get this over with, the sooner we et this over with, the sooner we'll all be back home." He includes regards to all. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H.P. Stoffels.
