Tigerettes repeat as State Champions

The Sacred Heart Tigerettes held off a late Midland Christian rally to return to Muenster with the 1989 State Basketball Championship. The title is the fourth recorded by the Sacred Heart girls who were champions in 1983, 1986, 1988 and 1989. "Each one has a special meaning," said Tigerette mentor Jon LeBrasseur. "I am so happy for the players, they had a goal and they reached it."

Both teams opened the game with a turnover as the nervousness of a title game was evident. As expected, the Tigerettes played their pressure defense and the Mustangs of Midland Christian opened in their 1-3-1. Lisa Hamric got the Tigerettes on the board with a 17-foot runner. The pressure defense by the Tigerettes allowed Debbie Schmitt to secure a steal and a drive to 2 to lift the Tigerettes to a 4-0 lead. The Tigerettes failed to score the remainder of the period while the Mustangs ran off eight unanswered points for a 8-4 quarter advantage. "We didn't have an offensive rebound the first quarter," said Coach Jon.

The second period started where the first period left off as both teams were in a chess match not wanting to make a mistake. A basket by 5'10" junior Amy Walterscheid got the Tigerettes on the move. A strong Vickie Schmitt move to the hoop resulted in a charity toss, and another rebound by Amy Walterscheid forced 6'2" Elizabeth Coffman to pick up her third foul with 5:00 remaining in the second period. On ensuing inbound play, Vickie Schmitt nailed 2 to give the Tigerettes the lead for good 9-8. A steal by Noelle Hesse and a showtime pass to Amy Walterscheid lifted the Tigerettes to a 3-point advantage. Great defense by the Tigerettes resulted in scores from Schmitt, Walterscheid, Hesse and Michelle Walter to give the Tigerettes a 21-11 halftime advantage.

The Mustangs opened the third period with the first two scores to cut the Tigerette lead to 5 before a Michelle Walter jumper put the Tigerettes up by 7. The lead stayed between 5 and 10 for the Tigerettes before the third period horn sounded with the Tigerettes up by a 30-24 count.

In the fourth frame, a Lisa Hamric steal resulted in a LaBecah Hess lay-up to push the Tigerette lead to 8. "We were flat offensively in the third and fourth quarters," stated Coach LeBrasseur. "It looked as though we were playing to not lose rather than to win." Early in the fourth period, the Tigerettes picked up their fifth team foul to push the Mustangs into the bonus. The Mustangs hit 9 of 10 free shots in the fourth period to keep knocking at the door. LaBecah Hess picked up her fourth foul with 6 minutes remaining in the game. Senior bench standout Jennifer Fuhrmann responded with 4 offensive rebounds to keep the Tigerettes in charge.

A basket by Coffman and Boles were matched by scores from Hamric and Walterscheid. Four charity tosses from Boles cut the Tigerette lead to 36-33 before a Lisa Hamric 3-point shot lifted the Tigerettes to a 39-33 lead. Two free shots by Boles cut the margin to 39-35 with 3:22 left in the ballgame. The Tigerettes elected to go into their four-corners offense to control the tempo of the game. "They were in the bonus and they also had three fouls to give before we would shoot free shots," said Coach LeBrasseur. The strategy almost backfired as the Tigerettes did get into the bonus at the 1:30 mark only to miss three open bonus shots.

The slick ballhandling of the Tigerettes burned time off the clock. A pair of free shots by Kim Jackson cut the Tigerette lead to 39-37 with 38 seconds remaining. A misfire from the free throw line enabled the Mustangs to have one last chance. With 26 seconds remaining, the Tigerettes called timeout to discuss the final moments. "We felt they would go into Coffman," said Coach Jon. The Mustangs went for the win as a 3-point try by Jackson with 6 seconds remaining just missed the mark. Michelle Walter secured the rebound and was fouled with 2

Congressman Stenholm visits local constituents

U.S. Congressman Charles Stenholm was Muenster's guest for a short visit last Friday morning. He welcomed many local citizens to Rohmer's Restaurant from 7 a.m. to 9:15 a.m. to ask questions, visit or just listen and enjoy a cup of coffee. Muensterites involved in agriculture, business and government listened and asked questions related to their special concerns.

A popular subject was, of course, the recently defeated pay raise for Congress and higher level federal judges and administrators. The Congressman said that although a raise was in order, he voted against it because it was too big and because of the public outcry against it. Stenholm said, "We have to make adjustments in upper level pay or we can't afford the top people we need." He mused that, "We stuck our head up and it got chopped off. I've never been chewed out before by so many people, in terms I completely understood."

He discussed agriculture problems and drug problems with the come-and-go morning crowd. He thought it would be a good possibility for repeat drug offenders to have their driver's license revoked for six months.

When asked about the federal budget, he said that he wished everyone would get as excited about the federal budget and the national debt as they did about the pay raise issue. The raise is very tiny compared to the budget or the budget deficit.

Concerning Senator Tower's nomination for Secretary of Defense, Stenholm said, "I see his chances as 50-50, but we need a man who is experienced in defense matters."

During the second hour of the visit, Jack Schoppa brought his Senior Physics students from Muenster High School to listen and they asked some interesting questions.

Eric Dankesreiter asked why welfare payments are so freely given to people who do no work. Stenholm replied that last year's welfare reform, named "Workfare," requires some recipients to earn their payments. The government is trying to create inner city enterprise zones. "We hope we have moved a giant step closer to a better system. I'm convinced that people on welfare want to work."

On the related issue of the minimum wage, Congressman

FFA members celebrate FFA Week

The month of February has been one filled with many activities for FFA members of Muenster. As Spring approaches with many opportunities for members, National FFA Week is designed to make the community aware of the many ongoings in the program.

Jason Biffle, Jerry Brawner, Misty Vogel and Shawn Vogel were FFA members participating in the Fort Worth Fat Stock Show the first week of February. They were accompanied by 4-H members Tracey Vogel and Melissa Biffle. "We did not experience a great deal of success; however, Melissa placed second with a Yorkshire pig. Overall, the show was enjoyed by us," MHS Ag teacher Brad Bass said.

Most recently, FFA members attended the Valley View Young Farmers Livestock Show. Muenster was well-represented in all phases of the show. The list of the winners are as follows: Steer Show - Jason Biffle, 1st; Misty Vogel, 1st; Shawn Vogel, 1st; Mike Vogel, 3rd. Lamb Show - Stephanie Bynum, 9th. Swine Division - Rex Huchton, 1st; Craig Teafatiller, 1st; Jennifer Lippe, 2nd; Joey Serna, 2nd; Jason Biffle, 7th; Chad Bayer, 9th.

Also 4-H members Sherilyn Sicking placed 5th in the Lamb Show and Tracey Vogel and Melissa Biffle placed 3rd and 9th respectively in the Swine Division. Amy and Becky Fette also showed.

During this week, FFA members ordered caps to hand out to supporters. Also, on Friday, they served the faculty of the school a breakfast and shared with them information about FFA.

Anderson named principal at Lindsay

by Elaine Schad

Longtime Lindsay Science teacher Jim Anderson has been named the new principal of the Lindsay School District, effective Sept. 1.

The school board this week selected Anderson to replace Gilbert Hermes, who will become the new superintendent at Lindsay upon Henry Schroeder's retirement at the end of this school year.

"He's well respected by all the kids, and is a very strong disciplinarian," said Schroeder of Anderson. "He has the experience."

A native of the Amarillo area, Anderson, 52, is in his 14th year as a Science instructor at Lindsay High School. He has a total of 22 years teaching experience. During that time, he has served one year as a part-time principal at Era from 1970-71, and two years as a principal in Nevada.

A graduate of North Texas State University with a Master's of

JIM ANDERSON

Education degree, Anderson will complete the remaining six hours of his administrative requirements this summer at UNT. Schroeder said. Anderson and his wife, Nanette, have five children.

Hospital observes 25 years of service

Muenster Memorial Hospital, an outstanding asset which would do credit to a much larger community, was formally opened on Feb. 3, 1964 under the direction of the late Sister Mildred Felderhoff, R.N., O.S.B., who was administrator from that year until October 1967, and a medical staff of 11, one doctor from Muenster and the others from Gainesville, Denton and Wichita Falls.

The 25th anniversary of the opening and a celebration to mark 25 years of service to the area were held on Saturday, Feb. 18, 1989, in the Knights of Columbus Hall, with dinner and a dance.

Ginny and Ed Schneider catered the meal, and guests danced to music by Mike Otts Disco.

David M. Bright, past hospital administrator and present hospital board member, was master of ceremonies for a brief program following dinner.

The following were recognized: J.M. Weinzapfel, the employees of the hospital on opening day; the original Hospital Authority and the first Hospital Board; past board members serving anytime during the past 25 years; present board members; retirees Ann Walterscheid, Agatha Wolf, Florence Fisher, Augusta Walterscheid, Gertie Sims, Lorena Taylor and Wilda Stoffels.

Also, those who were employed 10 or more years, but are not presently employed at Muenster Memorial Hospital.

David Bright then recognized the Medical Staff, and all present hospital employees; and all who were employed on opening day, Feb. 3, 1964, and are still employed in 1989.

The after-dinner program ended with comments from the present Hospital Administrator Herman Carroll.

Lending a touch of nostalgia was an extensive display of pictures and portraits assembled by the anniversary committee, and two scrapbooks prepared over a period of years by Director of Nurses Joan Walterscheid.

Recalled during the celebration, in conversation, in the program, and in reminiscing were the open house for community viewing on a Sunday in February 1964, estimated by between 3,000 and 5,000 guests; the first day of operation; the first staff members, and a backward look into the long years of early efforts that date back to the '40s, then to the '50s when the dreams of a hospital began to take shape.

The project was organized as the Muenster Hospital Authority, a subsidiary of the city, with a fund of $200,000 from local collections assisted by a $300,000 Hill-Burton grant and a $300,000 bond issue. Construction started Aug. 15, 1962 and the job was completed just before opening date. When the only local doctor moved his practice, the hospital depended for medical service on Doctors Atchison, Cole and Thomas of Gainesville and Willis of Saint Jo.

However, the next development was a godsend. Dr. B.F. Hejduk, a surgical genius, native of Czechoslovakia and refugee from communism, came here from Dallas in August 1964. The situation was further improved when Dr. Martin Kralicek came to the staff in December 1964. The combination of a fine hospital with these two on the staff was a very pleasing situation, but it came to a tragic end on May 29, 1967 when Dr. Hejduk and three friends died of gas asphyxiation. His death was a major loss to the Muenster and Gainesville hospitals.

The difficulty of meeting bonded indebtedness as a Hospital Authority was remedied when directors changed to a Hospital District with a tax base rather than a revenue base. Community approval supported the change which became effective in September 1965. Bonds were then sold by the district which took over remaining

Good News!

On the last and greatest day of the festival, Jesus stood up and cried out: "If anyone thirsts, let him come to me; let him drink who believes in me. Scripture has it: 'From within him, rivers of living water shall flow.'" (Here he was referring to the Spirit, whom those that come to believe in him were to receive. There was, of course, no Spirit as yet, since Jesus had not yet been glorified.)

Public Schools Week set for March 6 - 10

The Lone Star of Texas will shine on the Muenster ISD as it joins 1,100 public school districts in observing Texas Public Schools Week March 6-10.

This year, as in previous years, the schools in the Muenster ISD are prepared to participate in this annual observance. The district will join with schools throughout the state to offer specialized programs and activities during the week. The theme of this year's week is "See Us Shine."

The highlights of this year's program, according to Superintendent Charles Coffey, include a district-wide open house from 7 to 9 o'clock Tuesday night, March 7, 1989. On Wednesday, March 8, 1989, parents or grandparents are invited to eat lunch with their child in the school cafeteria. Guests are requested to send payment to school with their child for first period lunch count; this will assist the cafeteria staff in preparing adequately.

"Even though patrons are welcome to visit in our school at any time, they are especially invited to visit during Texas Public Schools Week," Mr. Coffey stated.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

Please renew my subscription for two years. Enclosed check. Even though it's been over 40 years since I lived in Cooke County, I still enjoy the local paper. Reading about the people I once went to school with, etc., their children and grandchildren.

Sometimes I get the paper on Saturday, but most times the following Monday. If Monday is a holiday and no mail, I get it Tuesday. But it's still news to me.

Thank you,

Dear Friends,

The annual meeting of the Northern District Catholic State League will be March 12 at Lindsay, Texas.

Benediction will begin at St. Peter's Church at 1:30 p.m. and a business meeting will follow at the Lindsay Parish Hall.

There will be a luncheon served after the meeting.

President, N.D.C.S.L.

Stenholm to serve again on Livestock Comm.

Washington, D.C. - Congressman Charles W. Stenholm was re-elected Chairman of the Subcommittee on Livestock, Dairy and Poultry last week when the House Agriculture Committee organized for the 101st Congress. "I am very pleased to be elected to this Chairmanship post again," he said. "It's an honor to have the respect and confidence of my colleagues. With their help, our subcommittee will do its best to fulfill the needs and responsibilities of this industry. Whether as producers or consumers, all of us are affected by the decisions under the jurisdiction of my subcommittee."

The Stamford Democrat has chaired the subcommittee since 1987. With the spotlight on the European ban of American meats and domestic discussion on meat inspections, Congressman Stenholm's subcommittee will have a busy agenda this Congress.

Along with his duties as chairman, Congressman Stenholm is serving on three other subcommittees within the Ag Committee, of which he has been a member for 10 years. He is also serving on the following committees: Cotton, Rice and Sugar; Tobacco and Peanuts; and Department Operations, Research and Foreign Agriculture.

Severe Weather Week February 26 - March 4

Governor William P. Clements, Jr., has proclaimed the week of February 26-March 4, 1989, as Severe Weather Awareness Week in Texas.

The Governor's Division of Emergency Management in conjunction with the National Weather Service and the Texas Insurance Advisory Association annually sponsors the week to encourage Texans to be aware of the severe weather problems that can threaten the state. Tornadoes, heavy thunderstorms, hail, lightning, floods and flash floods are serious weather phenomena for which Texans should be prepared.

"Last year, at least 13 people in our state lost their lives as a result of tornadoes, thunderstorm winds, lightning and flash floods," the Governor said in the proclamation. "Loss of life and property damage can be reduced if our citizens are prepared for severe weather situations."

The Division of Emergency Management is making available brochures on various severe weather preparedness tips to local emergency management offices for distribution to citizens. The Texas Insurance Advisory Association also plans to make information available. The National Weather Service will focus on a specific type of severe weather daily during Awareness Week.

Blood Drive Feb. 24 at Gainesville hospital

The Texoma Regional Blood Center mobile unit will be conducting a blood drive at Gainesville Memorial Hospital Friday, Feb. 24, from 7 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The mobile unit team will set up for blood donations in the hospital's first floor conference room. The public is invited to participate.

The Texoma Regional Blood Center serves the comprehensive blood needs of the citizens of Cooke, Fannin and Grayson counties. Founded in 1975, its sole purpose is to provide the quantity and quality of blood and blood components needed in this region.

Gainesville Memorial Hospital is a member institution of the blood bank and supports it regularly with blood drives for its employees and the public.

For more information on the GMH blood drive, contact Gayla Blanton, director of community relations, 665-1751, Ext. 401.

Valley View takes a "Right to Life" stand

by Elaine Schad

The Valley View School Board has taken a "Right to Life" stand through a proclamation unanimously approved this week.

The proclamation states, "We, the board of trustees of the Valley View Independent School District, proclaim our belief in the right to life of all individuals. We will provide whatever assistance, be it information, direction, counseling or other legal means to promote these rights."

"We feel the right to life is not a religious issue, but a moral and ethical issue, and therefore, feel we are obligated to help our students with their needs as they occur. This proclamation is not intended as license or judgment, but represents the concern of this board for the welfare of our students."

Law enforcement seminar set for March 7

by Elaine Schad

Law enforcement experts who deal with incidences of satanism and the occult will be featured during a seminar March 7, sponsored by the North Texas Justice of the Peace and Constable Association.

Registration will be held between 8 and 9 a.m. at the Ben E. Keith Distributing Company meeting room, 2801 Interstate 35 North in Denton. The seminar is open to all judges or law enforcement personnel.

Lt. Robert Green, special operations officer for the Seagoville Police Department, will give his presentation from 9 a.m. to noon, followed by Sgt. J. Hernandez, gang intelligence unit

May 6 election to fill Council seats

by Elaine Schad

The Lindsay City Council has called a May 6 election to fill four seats on the council. Filing opened this week.

The two-year terms of Councilmen David Arendt, Richard Hundt and Doyle Cogburn will expire. The election will also be to seek to fill a one-year unexpired term now being held by Manley Taylor, appointed to the council last month.

In its regular February meeting, the council moved ahead with approval on first reading of two ordinances. Both ordinances require two additional readings before they'll take effect later this spring if finally approved.

One ordinance deals with providing for a no parking area along a section of the east side of Maple Street, between Fourth and Second Streets. The city has been receiving complaints about congestion caused in that area by parked vehicles, said Mayor Don Metzler.

The second ordinance deals with prohibiting the blocking of city streets with vehicles. Blocking city streets, such as when people stop their vehicles in the middle of the street to have a conversation, is a Class B misdemeanor by state law. By adopting a city ordinance, the city's police chief can enforce the local ordinance, which would be a Class C misdemeanor.

In another matter, the council heard from two people who were inquiring about having the streets near their homes paved. Property owners living along unpaved streets within the Lindsay city limits would be responsible for sharing the paving costs should a plan be approved. Council members told the interested citizens about the paperwork involved and how to go about contacting property owners along the street they desired to be paved.

Lindsay school trustees set May 6 election

by Elaine Schad

Lindsay trustees have set a May 6 election date to fill two positions on the school board. Filing opened this week and will continue through March 22 at the district administration office.

The three-year terms of Henry Fleitman and Henry Popp are due to expire. The school election will be held at the parish hall in conjunction with the city and Cooke County College bond elections. Evelyn Fuhrmann is the election judge for the school board. Henry Schroeder is absentee judge. Gilbert Hermes and Marilyn Cox are absentee clerks.

In its regular February meeting, the school board approved a contract with Jeannie Navarro to appeal the district's 1988 property value set by the State Property Tax Board. Should Navarro win the appeal, the district could receive increased state funding. Navarro will receive 20 percent of anything that is recovered, but will receive nothing if no funds are recovered. Callisburg and Valley View have also contracted with Navarro to appeal their values before the SPTB.

The board approved a policy that provides for annual evaluation of district bus drivers. A point system of potential driving violations was set up as well as guidelines for probation, suspension or termination. The policy has been approved as a preventative measure to assure that all district bus drivers continue to provide maximum safety for the children, said Superintendent Henry Schroeder.

Board members visited with Ira Schoppa, local spokesman for State Rep. Ric Williamson. The board spoke of some concerns the district had about present legislation. The district is concerned about a suggestion that the student-teacher ratio in grades kindergarten and first be lowered to 15:1, which would be an added burden to already financially strapped school districts. Board members expressed the necessity of providing state funding for any additional state-mandated programs. Also a concern is reform of the property tax system, and a bill being discussed in the house which would exempt from taxes airplanes and boats. The Lindsay district doesn't tax boats because of the cost for collection, but does receive some tax money from airplanes housed at the Gainesville airport, Schroeder said.

In other business, the school board: - Decided shop teacher Larry Schumacher and Rudy Zimmerer would draw up plans for the landscaping at the vacant lot next to the kindergarten building. The plans are to eventually turn the lot into a parking area.

- Approved the purchase of a 71-passenger standard school bus with a security lock system for an estimated $32,000.

- Passed a resolution in favor of retaining the current organization of the University Interscholastic League. It has been proposed that the UIL be regulated by the Texas Education Agency, but the Lindsay district feels they would retain more input if it remains as it is, Schroeder said.

- Reported the district's average daily attendance fell by 10 students over last year, mainly due to sickness during the reporting period. The district could lose $38,000 in state aid for next year, mainly as a result of the drop.

against abortion, we just want to let people know we'd be willing to help if they decided to keep their baby," Kupper said.

While the vote was unanimous, various concerns and supporting statements were expressed by board members. "I'm afraid we may be getting involved in a moral issue," said Board Member Harold Alexander. "It's a sticky issue, and we may be forcing our views on someone else," he said. Kupper countered by saying it's the responsibility of a school board to give moral direction to the students on all issues, and he felt the proclamation represents the view of the majority of community members. "Even citizens who are in favor of abortion should agree with this proclamation," he said.

"I'm in full agreement," said Board Member Jerry McKown. "I think we've backed up too far too long, and I'd like to take a stand to help seek better alternatives."

Board Members Cecil Neu and Charlene Ritchey both emphasized that it was important for people to know that the district wasn't telling people how they should stand on the issue, that the proclamation means the district is there to provide balanced and competent counseling.

"We just need to make sure they get the full range of counseling and medical advice available," said Mrs. Ritchey. "We'd just be expressing our opinions of how we feel, not that we're telling them to (get an abortion) or not," said Neu.

Both Kupper and Glascock said the proclamation could lead to a better understanding of health care and services that could be available to students if they are needed.

STENHOLM

Stenholm said that he couldn't support the proposed $5.05 minimum wage, but possibly other incentives or a youth differential would be more realistic. He felt a higher minimum wage would only decrease the jobs available.

Dankesreiter also asked about foreign aid and the recent national business bailouts. He didn't think it fair or right to pay so much of the Free World defense bill compared to other countries, especially considering their treatment of the U.S. in the market place.

Stenholm stated his agreement but reminded everyone that "we are the leader of the Free World and helping them helps us. It may be getting to the point that we simply can't afford to be the leader anymore." He complimented Eric on his pertinent question.

Concerning the national budget and all its pros and cons, Stenholm stated his view that taxes will have to rise. While not admitting chaos, he said that no one would stand for spending cuts deep enough to balance the budget, "unless you're really one of those people that believe the federal government should do no more than defend our shores and deliver our mail. Someone in the back of the room replied, "Well, not much more!"

Stenholm stated that as a people, we don't want to pay for all the government we demand. Rufus Henscheid stated his disappointment with the federal bailout of the thrift industry, asking why the crooks that squandered the money were getting off so easily. While he didn't have a good answer, Stenholm said he felt it was more a matter of bailing out the depositor than the industry and that the deregulation experiment seemed a poor one. "We are going after the crooks," he said, "but you should ask the juries why they get off easily, not the prosecution."

He thanked everyone for the visit, strongly encouraged their future input and left at 9:15 on his schedule packed with visits to other cities in District 17.

Services held for Barbara A. Lassiter

Mass of Christian Burial was offered in St. Mary's Church of Gainesville for Barbara (Angerer) Lassiter, 82, on Monday, Feb. 20, at 10 a.m. with Father Nicholas Fuhrmann and Father Denis Soerries officiating. She died in Gainesville Memorial Hospital on Friday, Feb. 17, at 8:30 a.m.

Burial, directed by Geo. J. Carroll and Son, was in St. Peter's Cemetery of Lindsay. Two Rosary services were held in the funeral home chapel on Sunday.

The former Barbara Angerer was born in Charleston, Ark. on Feb. 23, 1906 to George and Mary Angerer. She moved to Texas with them as an infant and spent most of her life in the area, except for about 20 years in Electra, Texas.

She would have observed her 83rd birthday this week. For the past five years, she was a resident of Frontier Manor in Gainesville.

Survivors include two stepsons, C.L. Potts of Grapevine and Scotty Potts of California.

Also four sisters, Sophie Stoffels and Catherine Schmidkofer, both of Lindsay; Marie Heinrich and Clara Miller, both of Slaton; and one brother, Anton Angerer of Slaton; and many nieces and nephews.

Participants in the funeral liturgy included Joe Walter who presented Readings; Lucy Westbrook and son, Curtis Hoenig, who carried Offertory gifts to the altar; and Martha Fuhrmann, Laura Fuhrmann and Denise Fuhrmann, Karen Davis and Kenny Bezner who presented Sacred Music with guitar accompaniment.

Pallbearers were great-nephews David Stoffels, Randy Stoffels, Tom Dankesreiter, Arnold Fuhrmann, Leonard Fuhrmann and Weldon Schmidkofer.

Barbara Lassiter was preceded in death by a sister, Rose (Mrs. Lawrence Dankesreiter) of Muenster; a brother, John Angerer of Lubbock; and a sister, Sr. M. Frances of Fort Smith, Ark.

Among relatives attending the funeral were the stepson and wife, Mr. and Mrs. C.L. Potts of Grapevine; Sarah DeFrance and John DeFrance; Rose Marie Shrodes of Dallas; Emma White of Garland; Herbert and Marie Heinrich; Ray and Clara Miller; Tony and Marlee Angerer; and Mary Reynolds, all of Slaton.

Larry Dankesreiter of Fort Worth; Faye Taylor of Denton and Nola Foster of Lewisville. Also Lawrence Dankesreiter, Lucille Hesse and Jerry and Rosalee Reiter, all of Muenster, joining many relatives and friends of Lindsay and Gainesville.

Bullock sends Christmas gift

AUSTIN - State Comptroller Bob Bullock recently sent a late Christmas present to Texas cities, counties and MTAs by way of checks totaling nearly $225 million in local sales tax allocations.

"The cities alone got a 12 percent increase over last year's checks, and 8 percent - more than half - is due to higher sales during the holidays," Bullock said.

Bullock added that about $670 million was deposited in the state's coffers because of the strong returns, and state lawmakers could put the unexpected extra $150 million towards planning the 1990-91 state budget.

"The growth in collections from the broadened tax base has evened out now. That means these increases are a direct result of a stronger economy and greater consumer confidence," Bullock said.

Checks totaling $145.1 million were sent Feb. 13 to 1048 cities that collect local sales tax at either one or one-and-a-half percent.

Cooke County received $206,450.50 for the period compared to $188,565.89 for the same time last year. Of that total, Muenster received $13,941.51 compared to $13,786.12 last year, a 1.13% increase. Lindsay, however, showed a 22.84% drop and Gainesville a 10.71% gain.

February's checks represent taxes collected by monthly filers in December and reported to the Comptroller's office by Jan. 20. Also included in this month's allocation are sales tax collections reported quarterly and annually.

HOSPITAL

obligations of the Hospital Authority.

According to schedule, the debt was to be retired in 1991, but district directors chose to increase the tax and pay installments early to save interest. They set the rate at 70 cents per $100 of value, including a 5 cent provision for indigent accounts. After three years and an adequate amount in the indigent fund, the rate was reduced to 65 cents and continued at that level for six more years. Then, with the obligation dwindling, the rate was further decreased to 40, 20, 20 and 30 cents for the next four years. The last bond payment was made in May 1978, 13 years ahead of schedule with substantial savings in interest.

One factor in the rate reduction was an expansion of the district in 1975. Originally, the district included the Muenster school district and a portion of Saint Jo's district located in Cooke County. The added areas were Myra, Hood, Era and Rosston.

Muenster Memorial Hospital is a 20-bed institution with modern equipment and furnishings continually updated to maintain a high level of professional care in friendly, attractive surroundings. For instance, X-ray and lab have been replaced by later model equipment; and new developments in medical equipment have been added, such as cardiac monitor with telemetry. Sonography has been made available; and state-of-the-art mammography equipment was acquired in 1987. Computer terminals were installed and went on line in October 1986.

Also decor and patient room furnishings have all been replaced; and annexes have been added for administration and accounting.

Then, in its 25th year, two major changes occurred. One era of service ended at Muenster Memorial Hospital and another very different kind began. The community and hospital personnel were saddened when the hospital saw the discontinuance of Obstetrical Service at MMH in February 1989, brought about by the absence of obstetricians; the escalation of medical insurance premiums; coupled with the reduction in the number of maternity cases/births; and the trend toward out-of-town specialists in that field of medical service.

However, by an agreement between Beck Management Corporation of Sherman and Muenster Memorial Hospital, the new service became reality.

Providing balance, and adding prestige is the new Lakeview Center, nearing completion. It is an inpatient facility for treatment of chemical dependency and other disorders of excess in adolescents, young adults and their families. The new building, just south of the immediate hospital, is a separate area, but joined by a secured hallway, putting into use the southwest wing of Muenster Memorial Hospital.

Besides rating high in pleasant and expert care of the sick, and keeping pace with modern medical progress, the hospital is the equivalent of an important community industry. It has 50 employees, 20 full-time and 30 part-time, with an annual payroll of $660,000.

Employees are headed by Herman Carroll who succeeded David Bright in January 1987. Bright was administrator from October 1967 through December 1986. Six of the charter employees are still at the hospital. They are J.D. Caplinger, Miriam Caplinger, Cecilia (Mickey) Haverkamp, Emma Lou Hess, Thomas Hesse and Joan Walterscheid. The Board of Directors includes nine persons. Alois Trubenbach, president, has held the office since the district was established. Al Felderhoff, vice-president, started as a member of the Hospital Authority. Others are Charles Bartush Jr., secretary; Albert Dangelmayr, Dr. Marvin Knight, C. William Hermes, Andrew Klement, Werner Becker Jr., and David M. Bright.

Members of the original Hospital Authority in 1958 were J.W. Fisher, Al Felderhoff, R.N. Fette, Earl J. Fisher, Leo J. Haverkamp, Richard Grewing, Alice (Mrs. Rudy) Hellman, Marie (Mrs. John) Mosman, Rene (Mrs. T.S.) Myrick, Caroline (Mrs. Frank) Schilling and J.M. Weinzapfel.

Members of the original Hospital Board of Directors in the 1963 were John H. Bayer, Al Felderhoff, R.N. Fette, J.W. Fisher, Leo J. Haverkamp, Arthur Hess, John M. Wieler, Marie Mosman, Rene Myrick, Ray Voth and J.M. Weinzapfel.

MR. and MRS. TIMOTHY MOSMAN
...nee Olivia Headley...

Olivia Headley and former Muenster resident Timothy Mosman were united in marriage on Saturday, Feb. 11, at 3 p.m. in St. Basil's Church of Los Angeles, with Rev. Abbot Adrian Parcher, O.S.B., officiating. The couple was attended by Lydia Martinez and Ann Santilli as bridesmaids and by the groom's brother, Tom Mosman, as best man and Charlie Hall as groomsmen. Traditional wedding music and professional and recessional were presented by Walter Braun, organist. Also present for the wedding was Mrs. Marie Mosman, mother of the groom. A reception followed at the Hyatt Hotel, 3515 Wilshire Blvd., Los Angeles, hosted by Ruby Ruth and Meg Kuster, assisted by John Jackacz, who presented music. Since many guests present belonged to the Toastmasters Club, of which the bride and groom are also members, toasts were given by the guests to Olivia and Timothy throughout the evening.

After the couple cut their wedding cake, a buffet was served, followed by a dance. The couple will reside in Los Angeles. The rehearsal was held on Friday, Feb. 10, at 7 p.m. at St. Basil's Church, conducted by Abbot Adrian. A dinner followed at the Hyatt Hotel hosted by the groom and his mother. Marie Mosman and Tom Mosman spent the weekend in Los Angeles.

Olive Klement feted on 75th birthday

Mrs. Johnny Klement was honored for her 75th birthday when a family party was held in her home on Sunday, Feb. 19, recalling her Feb. 14 Valentine's Day birthday. Family members brought food for the evening meal and a daughter, Joan Schleicher, brought the decorated birthday cake. Attending were Jerry Klement of Temple who also remained overnight and through Monday; Joan and Dick Schleicher of Fort Worth; Susan Birchfield and children, Thomas and Angela, of Fort Worth; Harold and Sug Bindel, and Darla and Darren Bindel; Kevin Anderle; Debbie, Kim and Krystal Hale. Games, visiting, gift opening and picture taking were enjoyed.

Robert McDaniel heads Muenster Library Board

Robert McDaniel was elected president of the Muenster Public Library Association when the Board of Directors met on Jan. 18. Other officers elected include Mary Endres, vice-president; Janette Hess, treasurer; and Paula Reiter, secretary. On Feb. 15, the same group met for a business meeting and appointment to committees. McDaniel named Shirley Reiter and Janette Hess to the committee on employees and public relations. Also, Paula Reiter and Mary Endres were named to the committee on books and magazines; and Edgar Dyer and Tina Bindel to the committee on finance and building. Mary Moser is head librarian, and assistants are Teresa Fowler, Betty Felderhoff, Evelyn Koesler, Agatha Wolf and Marcie Klement.

Fischerhaus hosts guests from St. Richard's Villa Tuesday

Twelve residents of St. Richard's Villa were guests of Louise Fisher for lunch at Fischerhaus on Tuesday, Feb. 21. They were served cheese soup and turkey and cheese submarine sandwiches. Guests were Ela Smith, Frances Reiter, Maddie Rossen, Rosie Walterscheid, Betsy Moser, Theresa Vogel, Carl Smith, Paul Thornberry, Ida Hoening, L. Hughes, Alice Hellman and Bessie Hutson. They all agreed that they enjoyed the treat enormously, and also got to see many beautiful handmade crafts and gift items. They all expressed their appreciation to Louise Fisher for many kindnesses and for the time she spends playing the piano for them. Assisting guests and hostess were Pat Smith and Billie Jean Davey.

Arts & Crafts Sell-O-Rama reservations being accepted

The dates for the Ninth Annual Arts and Crafts Sell-O-Rama have been set for 1989. The Sell-O-Rama, which is sponsored by the Cooke County Extension Homemakers Council, will be held on Friday, Nov. 10, and Saturday, Nov. 11. This year, the Sell-O-Rama will be held in the Gainesville Civic Center.

The Annual Sell-O-Rama is designed to provide an outlet for the many people in the area who enjoy doing one or more of the many different types of crafts, needlework or other handcrafted items. It will also provide an opportunity for people who do not have the time or talent to make quality craft items to purchase them. Reservations are currently being made for people who want to have a display table of sale items. To obtain a reservation form, call the County Extension Office at 817-668-5412 or pick up a form at the County Extension Office located in the Courthouse Basement. Reservations must be made on the proper form and mailed to Mrs. Sharon Simmons, 1301 Belmont, Gainesville, Texas 76240. Individuals, as well as organizations, are invited to have a crafts display.

Muenster 4-H Club prepares for show March 4

The 4-H meeting was called to order Feb. 14. The Sr. and Jr. Muenster 4-H Share-the-Fun skits were presented. The meeting resumed as usual with the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag, the 4-H Motto, Pledge and Prayer being recited by all present.

Roll was called and each child who has an animal to show in the 4-H Livestock Show then received a copy of the rules. The minutes were read and approved.

Date of event, topic of report, and student making report were, in order, given:

Dec. 13, Rest Home Visit, Amber Vogel; Jan. 7 & 14, Dairy Meeting, Michael Becker; Jan. 7 & 14, Dairy Goat Meeting, Weldon Bayer; Jan. 7 & 14, Swine Meeting, Southwest Exposition and Stock Show (Swine Division), Melissa Biffle; Jan. 21 & 28, Rabbit Meeting, Jason Luttmer; Jan. 21 & 28, Beef Meeting, Southwest Exposition and Stock Show (Beef Division), Jeremy Bayer; Jan. 22, 4-H Family Bowling Party; Jan. 28, District 4-H Council Lock-In, Sheryl Sicking; Jan. 26, County 4-H Council Meeting, Werner Becker; Feb. 2, Method Demonstration Meeting, Leader Becky Felderhoff; Feb. 11, Jr. Share-the-Fun, Jason Luttmer; Feb. 11, Sr. Share-the-Fun, Daniel Proffer.

The 4-H Presentation Training (Method Demonstration) was cancelled (except for the afternoon meeting) due to bad weather and it has been rescheduled for Feb. 20 at 4:30 p.m. at the TU Electric meeting room. If anyone wishes this training, but cannot attend this session, Carol will work with them on a personal basis. Call the office.

The Clothing Project Training has been postponed until the end of March. No date has been set at this time.

In preparation for upcoming livestock shows, the sheep shearer will be at the Cooke County Fairgrounds on Saturday, Feb. 25. Call the Extension Office to make an appointment to have your lambs sheared. Appointment times begin at 8:30. Be sure and bring a blanket for your lambs. The cold weather can be stressful to these lambs after shearing.

Enter now for the 4-H Livestock Show. An entry fee of $3.00 per animal and entry forms must be turned into the Extension Office by 4 p.m. Monday, Feb. 27.

Check the schedule listed in the 4-H Outlook for area livestock shows. Those that we qualify for are Feb. 17 and 18, the Valley View Young Farmers Invitational; March 5, the Muenster Livestock Show, open to Muenster students only. Contact Brad Bass, Muenster Ag teacher, for more information; March 11, the Callisburg Invitational Livestock Show, open to all county 4-H members.

Each county 4-H club is invited to make a scarecrow for the Cooke County Junior Livestock Show. The scarecrow must be able to stand on its own on a bale of hay. Each club must provide its own bale. If interested, go to Jerry Sicking after the meeting to sign up. If we have an adult to volunteer to help, we will enter one.

This year, as in the past, the concession stand at the 4-H Livestock Show will be a moneymaking project for 4-H Council. The profit will be used to help pay expenses for county-wide events. Each club is assigned a time schedule to work, for older 4-H'ers and adults. At least half of the workers should be adults. Each club is also assigned food to bring for the show. Parents should call club managers and volunteer to work or bring food. The Muenster 4-H Club's time on March 4 is 8 to 9 a.m. We need five workers and four dozen brownies donated. The brownies should be cut into 3-inch squares and put in baggies or saran wrap.

The County 4-H Roundup and the Project Fair are coming up in April. Look for entry details in the March issue of the "4-H Outlook".

The program for the meeting was presented by Dr. Jim Neidhardt. His program was about drug abuse in show animals.

There was a drawing for the door prize and refreshments were served before the meeting was adjourned.

The senior reporter is Jordon Bayer, junior reporter is Weldon Bayer.

MRS. BRENT WAYNE SHULTS
...nee Melanie K. Howie...

Wedding vows exchanged

The wedding of Melanie Kathryn Howie of Bells and Brent Wayne Shults of Forestburg was held in Antioch Baptist Church in Bells on Saturday, Feb. 4, with Rev. Norman Melton of Novice Baptist Church of Paris officiating for the double ring rites.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Kathryn Parker of Bells and Leslie Howie Jr. of Paris. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W.W. Shults of Forestburg.

The bride was attired in a formal white wedding gown designed with a skirt of multi-layered ruffles sweeping into an aisle-wide train. The lace and illusion bodice featured a pearl tear-drop detail with lace medallion neckline. An illusion veil drifted from a narrow wreath. She wore long sheer gloves and carried a cascade of peach and white flowers and long streamers.

Donna Wooten of Tioga was maid of honor and the bride's sister, Melissa Neal of Bells, and Nancy Trayler of Forestburg were bridesmaids.

Lydia Evans of Forestburg, groom's cousin, was flower girl and Trey Neal of Bells, bride's nephew, was ring bearer.

Jeff Lanier of Forestburg was best man and Chris Hayes and Steven Brown, both of Sherman, were groomsmen.

Ushers were the bride's brothers, Paul Howie and Gary Parker, both of Bells.

Judy Melton, pianist, Philip Melton and Paul Howie presented wedding music.

A reception followed in the church fellowship hall. Reception assistants were Rhonda Howie, Christina Owen and Julie Ann Bartel.

The bride is a graduate of Bells High School and attended Grayson County College. The groom is a graduate of Forestburg High School and attended both Grayson and Cooke County Colleges. Both are employed by Oscar Mayer of Sherman. They are at home in Bells since returning from a wedding trip.

The rehearsal dinner on Friday, Feb. 3, was hosted by the groom's parents in the church fellowship hall.

SH Economic Class to begin stock competition

The Sacred Heart Senior Economics Class began participation Monday, Feb. 13, in the Kansas State Stock Market Competition. The objective of this competition is for student groups to take an initial $100,000, invest it in the NYSE, NASDAQ, or AMEX and make as much money as possible during a 10-week period.

Besides the $100,000 portfolio, the students may purchase an additional $100,000 worth of stock on margin. While the money is fictitious, students keep records of their purchases, and each week receive a printout of their portfolio value, and where they rank in the competition. At the end of the Stock Market Game in April, the top teams in state and region will receive cash prizes, and be invited to Kansas State University (Manhattan) for an awards banquet. The coordinator for the SHS competition is Joe Caserta.

Mary Haverkamp honored on 82nd

A birthday celebration was held for Mrs. Lee Haverkamp on her eighty-second birthday Sunday, Feb. 19, hosted by her children.

A bountiful covered dish supper and an assortment of desserts and cakes were served.

A particular joy was having a portrait made of the honoree and all of her brothers and sisters, of whom Mary Haverkamp is the oldest.

In attendance were Florence and Richard Schumacher; Walter and Polly Haverkamp; Olive and David Forgey; Dolores and Leroy Wiesman; Jeanette and Travis Wickliffe; Joyce and Bud Boydston and Donnie and Michael; Lisa and Steve Martin; Rhonda and Ryan Wickliffe; Jeff Wickliffe; Tammy McMurrin and Kyle; Monte and Sherri Haverkamp and family; Karla Sue Haverkamp.

Also Agnes Kneupper; Frances

Spaeth; Tillie Schoech; Joe and Loretta Spaeth; Henry and Mickey Felderhoff; Polly and Wilfred Reiter; Roger Reiter; Evelyn and Arthur Felderhoff; Georgia Barry; Theresa Mae Kuta; Anna Marie and Rufus Turnham.

Stevie Rae is two

STEVIERAE KLEMENT

Stevie Rae Klement celebrated her second birthday on Saturday, Feb. 11, in the home of her grandparents, Carl and Pat Walterscheid. She is the daughter of Doyle and Carla Klement. Family and friends enjoyed watching Stevie Rae open her gifts as pictures and movies were made. A Mickey Mouse theme was used in decorations. Refreshments of chips, dip, cake, ice cream and Kool-Aid were served. Party favors were also distributed for the little children to take home. Helping Stevie Rae celebrate were her parents, Doyle and Carla Klement; her grandparents, Walt and Eleanor Klement and Carl and Pat Walterscheid; and her great-grandmother, Leona Hamilton.

Also uncles, aunts and cousins and friends Darren Walterscheid; Staci Walterscheid; Rick Sandmann; Billy Don and Sharon Wolf; Wayne, Tudor, Misty, Jeff and Kami Klement; Aaron Klement; Ashley Klement; Mark and Carol Klement; Pat and Tommie Sue Hess; J.T. and Renate Pagel; Don and Dorothy Endres; Shirley, DaLana, Allison, Chad and Brad Endres; Ricky, Carla and Christina Hennigan.

A Crawfish Fiesta

It's a celebration, a fiesta you might say for the Texas Crawfish Growers Association. Two hundred thousand pounds of Texas crawfish will be delivered this season to Fiesta Food, a major retail outlet in the Houston area says Texas Department of Agriculture marketing specialist, Brian Murray. It is the first consolidated shipment of Texas crawfish by the association. It is a major inroad for the industry Murray adds.

Last year, 18,000 acres of crawfish were farmed, producing some 15 million pounds of crawdads.

Texas crawfish farmers are found primarily in rice growing areas along the Gulf Coast and in southeast Texas. Of course, we also have some inland crawfish farms located in East Texas, Martindale and Kaufman. The crawfish season runs from November through June. According to Murray, the crawfish season has gotten off to a late start this year due to the drought. However, it appears to be doing fine thus far.

Farm-raised crawfish are purged for 24-48 hours in clean, running water to remove impurities, increasing the number of days the crawfish can live in a walk-in cooler. Cleaned gills allow the crawfish to transfer air efficiently. Unpurged, they have a lifespan of only a few days.

Texas crawfish farmers have made a long-term commitment to raise and market a consistently high-quality product by only selling purged crawfish. In Texas, a good-size crawfish will be about 5-inches long.

Sharon Hall, president of the Texas Crawfish Growers Association, adds they have recently finished producing a 5-minute promotional video for grocery stores. The video demonstrates production, harvesting, purging, selection for cooking, peeling and six prepared recipes. The association is also planning a quarterly newsletter, with the first to be published this March. Hall says the news slogan, "Cultured with Class," projects an upgraded image from the mudbug.

Nutritionally speaking, crawfish tails are a good source of protein, contain B vitamins and minerals; calcium, phosphorus and iron. And a 3 1/2-ounce serving contains 85 calories. By the way, crawfish are a nice substitute for shrimp or lobster in any seafood dish.

So join in the fiesta, celebrate with the Texas Crawfish Growers Association, and try some Fried Crawfish Tails and a Dip for Crawfish.

For more information, please contact the Texas Department of Agriculture, 1801 N. Lamar, Suite 103, Dallas, Texas 75202.

FRIED CRAWFISH TAILS

- 1 lb. crawfish tails
- Salt and pepper to taste
- 2 eggs
- 1/4 cup milk
- 1 cup flour
- 1/2 tsp cayenne
- Cooking oil

Season the cleaned crawfish with salt and pepper. In a small bowl, beat the eggs and add the milk, mixing well. In a medium bowl, mix the flour, cayenne, salt and pepper. Dip each crawfish tail in the egg mixture and then in the flour. Fry the crawfish in deep hot oil until they are a light golden color, being careful not to overcook them. Transfer the crawfish to paper towels to drain. Serve them on a heated platter. Serves 2-4.

DIP FOR CRAWFISH

- 1 (8 oz.) package cream cheese
- 1 cup crawfish tails, chopped
- Dash tabasco sauce
- 1 package onion dip (small)

Cream the cream cheese and the onion dip to your taste. Add crawfish tails, tabasco sauce and mix well. Then add just enough milk to make the dip a desired consistency.

You can use assorted crackers or corn chips for dipping.

Pork program scheduled

by Evelyn Yeatts, County Extension Agent
"Fat as a Pig" - what does this really mean today? Today's pork comes from a hog that is about 50 percent leaner than the hog of 20 years ago. This is due to genetics and modern feeding practices brought about by the American public and what they want from meat.

A workshop on "Pork" is scheduled for next Tuesday, Feb. 28. All consumers are invited to participate in the program which will give nutrition information on pork and discuss the many myths associated with pork in the diet. It will focus on pork of today. Food preparation demonstrations with recipes available will conclude the program.

A morning program will be conducted at 10:30 a.m. with the same information being repeated at an evening program at 6 p.m. Both workshops will end with a light lunch or dinner with tasting of the pork recipes demonstrated. There will be a $2.50 charge to cover expenses. Both meetings will be in the TU Electric Meeting Room at 201 North Dixon Street, Gainesville.

The workshops are being sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and will be given by County Extension Agents Evelyn Yeatts and Carol Roberts. Interested consumers should call the County Extension Office at 668-5412 to pre-register so that adequate materials can be prepared. Come to the program and find out how versatile fresh pork can be.

The Evils of the Occult, Drugs and Some Kinds of Rock Music and Why I'm Not Involved
by Tony Grewing

In today's world, a teen has enough trouble without these three added headaches. Some people feel that evil is something to play with. People who join the occult are asking for hell in more than one way. In the occult, people play with magic and evil spirits, sometimes making animal or human sacrifices to please the devil. When I have to kill another person or even a pet to please my religion, it's time to find another religion. In my religion we don't kill life, but try to cherish it. We praise life and all of God's living things. The devil may promise people happiness but when he gets their soul, it's not a pretty sight.

One of the most dreadful sights to see today in the world to me is to see teenagers on drugs. Teenagers are lured into doing drugs by elders who make them feel weak if they don't. Drugs take people on a one-way street to self-destruction. Once you do drugs, you feel the need to get more and more. You don't care how you get the drugs, you just do. While doing drugs you may feel the need to get more and more. You may feel an emptiness about yourself. To me, this is when Christ leaves for a while to come back when you grow up and face life without drugs. Drugs are a sure way to evilness.

When a teenager listens to certain kinds of music, they may be lured into evil as well as those who do drugs. Not all rock music is bad, not all heavy metal is bad, but most is. When a person turns on the radio to listen to music, most don't listen to the words. Well, teenagers are human and heavy metal may turn them around without them even knowing it. When I listen to music, I like to hear the words, but not the ones used on some heavy metal songs. This music says that drugs, murder, rape, and yes, the devil are all cool. But what really gets me is when they have backward messages. I don't listen to music to get a backward message about killing someone or doing drugs. All these things may lure people into self-destruction and that's why I'm not involved.

FLASHBACK - A towering, state-of-the-art roller coaster is being added to the ride lineup at Six Flags Over Texas for the 1989 season. Riders will plunge from a height of 125 feet and careen through loops at spirals at 55 mph. The train will then climb high into the sky and drop backward through the same maze of track. Thrillseekers will be turned upside down six times, three forward and three backward. The ride, which will open this spring, is called "Flashback."

Six Flags to open March 4

Six Flags Over Texas will begin its 1989 season Saturday, March 4. Now in its 28th year, the theme park expects to welcome its 60 millionth visitor sometime during the spring.

The only exception will be the Spring Break period when the park will be open daily from March 18 through March 26.

Park president Bob Bennett said the newly re-themed Good Time Square section and the new Flashback roller coaster will be opened early in the season. The exact date will depend on completion of testing of the ride which travels both forward and backward, turning passengers upside down a half dozen times.

The section surrounding the ride has taken on a 1950s look complete with vintage cars and a diner and soda fountain trimmed in brilliant neon.

New shows will premiere in both the Southern Palace Music Hall and the Crazy Horse Saloon on March 4, and the Six Flags Dolphin and Sea Lion show will return after an absence of several years.

Troop 664 observes Scout Sunday

Muenster Boy Scouts celebrated National Scout Sunday with a special liturgy at the 10:30 a.m. Mass in Sacred Heart Church on Feb. 5.

The liturgy observed the 79th birthday of the founding of the Boy Scouts of America; the 77th birthday of the Girl Scouts; and the 59th anniversary of the Cub Scout program.

For the Mass, an entrance procession was led by Joe Weinzapfel carrying the United States Flag; Scott Poole with the Papal Flag; Mark Flusche carrying the Boy Scout Troop Flag; Joey Martin with the Cub Scout Pack Flag; and Sabrina Truebenbach with the Girl Scout Council Flag.

Following them were Mass servers Michael Gehrig, Jacob Luke, Greg Fisher, John Bartush, Jody Felderhoff, and celebrant of the Mass, Father Victor Gillespie.

Participants in the liturgy were Neil Berres, Lucas Hartman and Amanda Russell with Scriptural Readings. Brandon Walterscheid, Laura Vogel, Jonathan Otto, Crystal Klement, Josh Walterscheid and Eric Fisher who offered Petitions and Prayers of the Faithful.

In the Offertory procession, Russell Fette carried the Bible; Jeff Felderhoff a canteen; Brad Schilling and Trisha Endres several crafts; Kenneth Walterscheid a merit sash; Jay Jump, the Scout Spirit Candle; and Gus and Loretta Felderhoff and children Gus Jr., Julie, Vanessa and James, carried the Offertory gifts of bread, water, wine and the Sunday offerings.

Rodney Knabe and Cher Moster gave the entrance and Offertory introductions, respectively.

Eucharistic ministers were Scout parents, Rosemary Dankesreiter, Harold Flusche, Chuck Bartush, John and Lanie Bartush, Debbie and Clinton Endres.

Music ministers were Emily Klement, Eric Gray, Dave and Pam Fette, vocalists with guitars, and Ronnie and Tina Weinzapfel on trumpets.

Vocal selections were "America the Beautiful," "Service," "Be Not Afraid," "This Alone" and "Battle Hymn of the Republic."

Attending were members of Boy Scout Troop 664 and Scoutmaster Waylen Poole; Cub Scout Pack 664 and Cubmaster Mary Kay Sicking; Girl Scout Troops of Cross Timbers Trail Council and their leaders; and parents and brothers and sisters.

The liturgy was planned by Linda Knabe.

BETA KAPPA President Lynn Dangelmayr presents a check for $705 to Director of Nurses Joan Walterscheid of Muenster Memorial Hospital to provide several items on the "Want List," which include a Pediatrics Immobilizer, a Bedcheck Sensor, and a Patient Mover. The cost of the three items was covered by Beta Kappa's check.

ADDIE VINT FREEMAN

Addie Vint Freeman dies at 91 Services for Addie Vint Freeman were held Thursday, Feb. 16, 1989 at 2 p.m. at the Forestburg Baptist Church.

Rev. Lewis Alexander, pastor of the church, and Rev. Barry Fikes of Blooming Grove, former pastor of the Forestburg church, officiated.

Interment was in the Freeman Cemetery at New Harp under the direction of McCoy Funeral Home of Saint Jo.

Vint Freeman passed away Tuesday, Feb. 14, in the Sunny Hills Nursing Center in Decatur where he was a patient. Mr. Freeman had been in poor health for several years.

He was born Dec. 6, 1897 at New Harp in Montague County. He and Miss Lee Etta Harrison were married Feb. 12, 1925 at Mission, Texas.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Juanita Greanad of Forestburg and Mrs. Cornelia Holzboog of Denison; five grandchildren; five great-grandchildren; and three sisters-in-law, Mrs. Jewel Freeman of Bowie, Mrs. Elvena Gaylor and Mrs. Vesta Howard of Alvord; two brothers-in-law, Rob Gaylor and Delbert Howard of Alvord; several nieces and nephews; and a host of friends.

His wife, Lee Etta, preceded him in death on Dec. 13, 1987.

The ministers read appropriate scriptures; also offered comforting words and prayers to the family and friends.

Rev. Fikes, in his consoling message, spoke of "Victory Over Death," which was very inspiring.

Music for the service was offered by soloist, Mrs. Cindy Boto, singing "One Day at a Time," and "The Old Rugged Cross," with Mrs. Mary Hays at the piano.

Mr. Freeman was retired from farming and ranching. He enjoyed fishing in their nearby lake, having company and visiting, laughing and talking with his relatives and friends. He liked to joke and tell funny stories. He was always in a happy and pleasant mood. Mr. Freeman was a member of the Baptist church.

Rev. Fikes, in his comforting message, spoke of visiting with him and them having fun "joking."

Mr. Freeman lived at New Harp with his family most all of his life with the exception of a few years in Oklahoma and California.

Pallbearers were Dale Hudspeth, Troy Griffin, Tommy Griffin, Darrel Lison, Byron Ensey, Willard Freeman and Jerry Gaylor.

Bud Light Daredevils perform

The Bud Light Daredevils, the most unique slam dunk act in the country, will perform during halftime at the University of North Texas basketball game against the University of Texas-Arlington on Thursday, March 2, at the Coliseum. Tip-off time is 7:30 p.m.

popularity has taken them to over 180 colleges and universities, and into every National Basketball Association arena. The team includes Ty Cobb, Keith Eldred, Mike Gilliam and Andy Johnson.

The act consists of an eight-minute slam dunk and acrobatic halftime show highlighted by the "Flip Dunk" and the "Twist & Shout," two daring feats of agility. The "Flip Dunk" features a team member, wearing a hockey mask for protection, springing from a mini-trampoline with a basketball in his hands, executing a forward somersault high into the air and slamming the ball through the hoop on his way down.

The "Twist & Shout" involves two team members approaching the mini-tramps simultaneously. They each pass a basketball off the backboard and catch them while doing front somersaults with one-half twists. The duo then pass off to the remaining two team members for a climactic double slam dunk.

Other dunk acts include the "Bump-N-Thump" and the "Shake Down the Rafter's til the Morning After."

The Daredevils were formed in 1980 when the athletes combined their precision gymnastic and ball-handling skills while cheerleading at the University of Mississippi. This year's team features two new members in Gilliam and Johnson.

Johnson, the son of a world-class trampoline performer, attended the University of California at Santa Barbara on a diving scholarship. Gilliam was a standout gymnast at Kent State University, where he graduated with a degree in marketing. Gilliam, the team captain for two years, is the school record holder in the floor exercise with a score of 9.9.

This year, the Bud Light Daredevils will perform at approximately 125 national and international events before more than 1 million fans. The team has performed internationally throughout Europe, the Middle East, Japan, Latin America and Australia. In this country, the Daredevils regularly perform at NBA, NCAA, NAIA and Continental Basketball Association games.

seconds to give the Tigerettes the 1989 State Championship.

Lisa Hamric led the Tigerettes with 10 points, Vickie Schmitt scored 9, Noelle Hesse and Amy Walterscheid each hit for 6. Michelle Walter scored 4 and Debbie Schmitt and LaBecah Hess each scored 2. Walterscheid led the Tigerettes with 10 boards while Hesse had 7 steals. Walter and Schmitt each had 10 and 8 rebounds respectively.

On Friday, the Tigerettes faced a tall Bishop Forest squad and took an impressive 72-43 win to advance to the championship game. Both teams opened the game in the up-tempo style of play to knot the quarter at 11-11. In the second frame, the Tigerettes' pressure defense and hot-shooting opened the game to the Tigerette favor with a 31-18 halftime edge.

"We controlled the boards, and with our defense caused many tough shots," explained Tigerette Coach LeBrasseur. "Again, our bench was outstanding."

In the third frame, the Tigerettes exploded for 28 points while limiting their opponents from Schulenburg to 14; Lisa Hamric led the explosion with 9, followed by junior teammate Amy Walterscheid who connected on 7 of 8 free shots. Four each from the Schmitt sisters and a 3-pointer from Noelle Hesse rounded out the third period scoring.

Substituting freely in the fourth period, the Tigerettes did not miss a beat as they coasted to the 72-43 win. Amy Bayer hit for 4 in the period while teammates Jennifer Fuhrmann, Michelle Walter, Lisa Hamric and LaBecah Hess hit for 2 each and Sharon Fuhrmann hit a charity toss.

"We were sharp," said Coach LeBrasseur. "The girls were prepared to play, and boy, they did!" Lisa Hamric led the Tigerettes with 23 points, followed by LaBecah Hess 9, Vickie Schmitt and Amy Walterscheid 8 each, Debbie Schmitt 6, Noelle Hesse 5, Michelle Walter, Jennifer Fuhrmann and Amy Bayer with 4 each, and Sharon Fuhrmann rounded out the scoring with 1. Lisa Hamric and Vickie Schmitt led the Tigerettes with 8 caroms each while Noelle Hesse had 5 steals and dished 7 assists.

"It was a great team effort," said Coach LeBrasseur. "We felt we had to win the boards both days to be successful and everyone got at least 2 boards on Friday and on Saturday, we didn't have one offensive rebound in the first period, but we ended the game with 25." "Rebounding is just desire, and these girls have desire."

Again, the Tigerettes had a huge following, who were also given credit for the win. "The fans never gave up on us and may have been the 2-point difference on Saturday," said Coach LeBrasseur. "We thank them all."

The Tigerettes ended the season with a 27-5 record and a 15-game winning streak and, more importantly, the 1989 State Championship!

Hornets meet Alvord in Bi-District tilt

The Muenster Hornets enter the state basketball playoffs for the third year in a row Friday night as they travel to Justin-Northwest High School for a 7:30 p.m. tip-off with the Alvord Bulldogs. Alvord is 20-10 and the second place team from District 33A, while Muenster is 20-6 and the first place team from District 34A.

"We feel good about our team right now," said Hornet mentor Coach Ted Heers. "Our three warm-up games allowed us to work on our man offense and gave a shot at defending three offensive teams. In district play, everyone was zone-oriented so Midway, Santo and Graford gave us some excellent work."

Muenster met Santo Saturday evening at the North Texas Super Pit in Denton and were beaten 59-56. James Hennigan's 3-point attempt bounced off the back of the rim as time ran out. It was the Hornets' first appearance in a large arena and first effort on portable goals attached to walls, so we didn't know what to expect at the Pit. We hustled and outbounded Santo, but they outshot us."

J. Shane Wimmer and Mike Pagel each hit 17 points. Hennigan added 12, Weldon Hermes hit for 3, Troy Pagel 4, and Keith Klement 3. Klement had 12 rebounds, followed by Wimmer and Pagel with 10 and 9.

Monday night against Graford, the Hornets cruised out to an early 13-6 lead, when Hennigan was injured as he took a charge. A cut in his lower lip required 20 stitches. Without him, the Hornets were outscored 30-9 the rest of the half.

"We had turnovers deluxe in the second quarter, but we regrouped and played even with them the second half."

The second-ranked Jackrabbits ran their record to 29-1 with a 65-51 win. Wimmer had 13 rebounds and 21 points. Pagel and Brian Reiter scored 7 each, and Hermes contributed 8 points. Keith Klement came through with 12 rebounds.

"We had another great game rebounding," added Heers. "The guys have a chance to advance in the playoffs. We feel that if we get 7 or 8 guys playing well at one time, we can play anybody. That's the way it is now, one game at a time."

Alvord is led by Lance Thewatt, Robbie Nikirk and Wes Fowler. This will be the first meeting between the Bulldogs and Hornets in three years.

Justin-Northwest is located south on 156 just south of the 114 intersection. Either take 156 through Krum or go south on IH35 to Argyle and take 114. Go, BIG RED, Beat Alvord!

If the Hornets win, they will meet either Bland or Whitewright on Tuesday at a site to be determined.

Hornettes eliminated

The Muenster Hornettes were eliminated from the playoffs Friday night by Slidell, who wrapped up its 27th win of the season and won the game 57-35 in the Bi-District basketball game at the Justin-Northwest High School gym.

Walterscheid clears boards,

Rita Walterscheid, daughter of Hank and Louise Walterscheid of Muenster and center for the Midwestern State University Lady Indians, played a hot game against the Texas Wesleyan University Lady Rams Monday night.

Walterscheid, a 6'1" junior, grabbed a career-high 14 rebounds and dished out three timely assists to help MSU topple the Lady Rams 83-71 in the Lady Indians regular season finale at D.L. Ligon Coliseum.

MSU, which placed four players in double figures, improved to 14-13 and practically assured itself of a No. 2 finish in the District 8 Dunkel ratings. The Lady Indians will play host to the No. 7-rated team in District 8, which should be Howard Payne, at 7:30 p.m. Monday night.

Even though Rita only scored 3 points, she was instrumental in halting a late TWU rally and putting an end to the Lady Rams' nine-game winning streak.

Wesleyan, 17-8, is unbeaten in the Heart O' Texas Conference and ranked No. 1 in District 4 after recently defeating highly-ranked St. Edward's and St. Mary's.

After Wesleyan guard Terri Porter hit a 6-foot jumper to pull TWU within 72-66 with 3:20 remaining, Walterscheid came up with the assist of the game by tossing a nifty pass to MSU senior Joyce Foster for a layup.

TWU then missed on its next trip down court and Walterscheid cleared the boards.

Walterscheid, a reserve who hauled in 10 rebounds against No. 14-ranked Wayland Baptist, then started a fast-break with an outlet pass to forward Michelle Mims, who in turn made a scooping lay-up and was fouled by Wesleyan's Jill Edwards.

Mims hit the ensuing free throw to give MSU a 77-66 advantage. But the Lady Rams got back within six at 77-71 after Porter hit a lay-up and guard Theresa Loving completed a 3-point play with 1:21 remaining in the game.

MSU put the game on ice in the final 47 seconds when Mims and Tina Walker each hit a pair of charity tosses, and guard Melanie Rodman canned a lay-up off a Walker assist.

Fittingly, Walterscheid grabbed the game's final rebound and watched the clock run out. She walked off the court with her fists clenched and a smile as big as the No. 30 on her jersey.

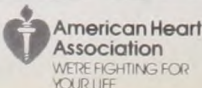

"Rita played like this against Plainview Wayland. She's really got a lot of confidence in her abilities right now," MSU Coach Kim Griffiee said. "If we ever needed her to give us a boost on the boards, now is a good time."

Montague PTO plans tourney

Montague PTO is planning their annual Co-ed Volleyball Tournament on Friday and Saturday, March 10 and 11. Entry fee for the event is $40.00.

All interested teams need to contact Lynn Noble at 894-6051, Karen Fenoglio at 894-3422, or Montague School at 894-2811.

The kitchen will be open serving its famous homecooking.

Four Tigerettes selected to play in TAPS Classic

Four members of the State Champion Tigerettes have been selected by the Texas Association of Private Schools to participate in the North-South All-Star Game this weekend in San Marcos. Seniors Noelle Hesse, Lisa Hamric, Vickie Schmitt and junior LaBecah Hess will represent the Tigerettes in the Saturday game at San Marcos Academy.

The All-Stars will be honored at the All-Star Banquet on Friday evening and will display their talents in the All-Star Game on Saturday. "It is a great weekend for these deserving girls," said Coach Jon LeBrasseur. "The Saturday game will showcase the athletes with many of the Texas colleges represented."

Hesse, Hamric and Schmitt

closed out a great basketball career at Sacred Heart with the championship win on Saturday and Hess will have one more year to display her talents. "We are very fortunate to have four girls selected to the squad but to me, the entire team is an All-Star," said Coach LeBrasseur. Hesse was the Tigerette leader in steals and assists, Hamric the Tigerette leader in scoring and 3-point shooting, and Schmitt the leading Tigerette rebounder and shot blocker.

The North All-Star squad will practice Friday afternoon, be honored at the banquet Friday evening and will be featured in the All-Star Game at 10 a.m. Saturday morning. All activities will be held at San Marcos Academy.

THESE DRUGS DON'T HAVE AGE REQUIREMENTS.

Today grade school children as young as eight and nine years old feel pressure to try pot, cocaine, crack and other drugs. Street drugs don't have age requirements that protect your children. Your children's friends who use and sell drugs won't consider your children too young for drugs.

You can't put age requirements on street drugs. But you can talk to your children and help them remain drug-free at every age.

Muenster FFA, 4-H Show is March 5

After several meetings, plenty of ideas and much cooperation, plans are in place for the Muenster 4-H and FFA Project Show to be held on March 5, 1989. The event will take place at the Cooke County Livestock Show Barn with judging beginning at 1 p.m.

The individual division will consist of rabbits, poultry, dairy goats, dairy heifers, beef heifers, market steers, lambs and swine. Entry fee is $2.00.

Valena Morse of Gainesville will serve as judge for the rabbits, and Mike Fouts of Lubbock will judge all other animals.

Trophies will be given to all champions sponsored by local beer distributors.

As a special event, there will be a Junior Exhibitor Show for children under the age of 8. Each of these youngsters will receive a blue ribbon for their efforts, and no entry fee will be paid. Any animal may be brought by the youngster, and they will be judged as a group.

The purpose of this show will be to create interest for the upcoming county show and sale. Approximately 35 FFA members will exhibit animals, and they will sell those animals for a premium. "I believe that if the people of Muenster will come out and support our youngsters, they will have that much more desire to put forth the effort in future years," says Bass.

The 4-H and FFA members hope to see you there. For youngsters under 8 who plan to show, please fill out the entry form and return it to either Brad Bass, Evelyn Sicking or Barbara Bayer. To obtain further information, contact Brad Bass at 759-4927.

During the past few years, chinch bugs have become a major pest of corn and sorghum over much of Texas. Why?

Mild winters may be partly to blame. The mild weather has allowed adult chinch bugs to survive on other host plants until spring.

Population increases of chinch bugs also have been blamed on increased acreages of wheat and other host plants. In addition, dry growing conditions also favor chinch bug development and survival.

Chinch bug control in young corn and sorghum often has been less than adequate. In 1987 and '88, many fields were completely destroyed by chinch bugs sucking juices from young plants, causing the plants' lower leaves to first turn reddish and then die. Plants that survived are less thrifty and produced poor yields.

A program approach has been found to be the best way to deal with chinch bugs. The first line of defense involves using at-plant soil-incorporated insecticides in areas with a history of chinch bug damage.

Use of soil insecticides at planting is not the only management tactic. Even after these insecticides are applied, chinch bugs will still attach young plants. If the population pressure is high enough, or if for some reason soil insecticides are not activated or do not last long enough, damaging populations could still develop. Field scouting during the early stages of plant development is essential for monitoring chinch bug populations whether insecticides have been applied or not.

When chinch bug populations reach or exceed threshold levels, a post-plant application of insecticide may be justified even if an at-plant application has been made. Apply such a treatment when two or more adult chinch bugs are found on 20 percent of the seedlings less than 6 inches high. On taller plants, apply insecticides when immature and adult chinch bugs are found on 75 percent of the plants.

When using ground application equipment, apply insecticides through nozzles directed at the infested portion of the plants. Products registered for chinch bug control on young plants include carbaryl (Sevin), Furadan 4F, Lorsban 4E and ethyl parathion. Apply Furadan and Lorsban in 20-40 gallons of water per acre to ensure thorough plant and soil coverage.

Even with this stringent program approach to chinch bug management, don't be surprised to still find chinch bugs in corn and sorghum, particularly if high populations have been the norm the past few years. The goal of management is not total elimination of chinch bugs, but instead, suppression of population densities below economic threshold levels. At those levels, chinch bugs should not significantly affect yields.

Workshop March 2

Agricultural producers realize that the cost and effectiveness of agricultural chemicals are very related to the care and operation of their equipment. Selecting the proper speed, sprayer tips, and pressure all play a big part in proper application.

Two Sprayer Calibration Workshops for agricultural boom-type sprayers and granular boxes will be held on Thursday, March 2. The first workshop will be held at 8 a.m. at W.B. Hudspeth, Inc. at Era. The same workshop will be repeated at 1 p.m. on Metal Sales Equipment Yard on the north side of Highway 82 near the Sivells Bend cutoff. Proper calibration methods will be discussed and demonstrated along with selection of nozzles and other sprayer equipment. Time will be devoted to calibrating sprayers for banding of grain sorghum herbicides.

Representatives of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and Estes Chemical Company will present the program which is open to all producers.

Total Ranch Mgmt. Training

Over the past several years, a special series of training programs has been held in the large ranch country of West and Southwest Texas. This approach to total ranch management has received a great deal of input and resources.

Total Ranch Management planning utilizes goal achievement through selection of enterprises and day-to-day activities for effective use of ranch resources. A case ranch example is used to illustrate this process and its application. The workshop provides eight days of instruction and problem solving. Management principles and tools for analysis are demonstrated, using practical ranch situations. The workshop will be limited to 30 participants to allow one-on-one assistance. Each participating ranch in Texas will be provided follow-up guidance.

The workshop consists of eight days of instruction including two field trips, and a deer survey. A financial calculator will be provided for each participant and used for problem solving. Each day of the program builds on previous activities.

Participants need to pre-register by March 9, 1989. The first day of the workshop (March 22, 1989) begins at 8:30 a.m. in order to complete last-minute registration details. The program will begin at 9 a.m. and conclude at 5 p.m. on March 22 and 23, 1989; March 30 and 31, 1989; April 4 and 5, 1989; and April 13 and 14, 1989. A catered supper and deer survey (spotlight count - bring warm clothing) will take place the evening of March 22, 1989. A catered supper and certificate presentation will take place the evening of April 13, 1989.

The workshop will be conducted in Weatherford (March 22 and 23 and April 13 and 14) and Fort Worth (March 30 and 31 and April 4 and 5). In Weatherford, the meetings will be held at the Parker County Extension Office (1112 Santa Fe, Weatherford, Texas 76080). The meeting in Fort Worth will be held at the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Office (1301 West 7th Street, Fort Worth, Texas 76102).
