School starts Monday

New teachers at MISD as classes resume Mon.

Although summer has not yet officially ended, many area students claim it has as they will head back to school at Muenster ISD on Monday, Aug. 28.

Administrators estimate about 360 students will once again fill the classrooms at Muenster Public School.

In preparation for the 1989-90 school year, administrators have hired several new faculty members.

Glen Debnam will be taking over the Vocational Agriculture department. He has a Bachelor's degree from Tarleton State University and 18 years' teaching experience. He has spent the last 10 years teaching high school agriculture at Imperial, Texas.

Typing and Computer Programming will be taught by Dennis Schoup. Schoup is a graduate of Northeastern Oklahoma State University. He has a Bachelor's degree in Business and a minor in Computer Science.

Charlotte Taylor will be directing the Marching Hornet Band with 20 years' experience. Taylor graduated with a degree in Music from North Texas State University. She has spent the last five years teaching Band in Breckenridge.

Brian Strother has been hired as the Head Basketball and Assistant Football Coach. The Oklahoma native graduated from Peru State College in Nebraska. He has coached for one year at Clinton, Missouri and for two years at Foyil, Oklahoma.

Leigh Lynn Hale, a Saint Jo native, will be working with students in the Resource Center this year. Hale graduated from Texas Woman's University this year with a Bachelor of Science degree in Education. She has been active in working with the Special Olympics.

Lynn Dangelmayr will also join the faculty at Muenster Public School. She will work with elementary students in the first, second and third grades half a day to provide a planning period for those teachers.

Head Football Coach Bill Jump will take on the responsibilities of Athletic Director this year. Jump has been coaching at Muenster for three years.

Along with new staff members,

Junior-Senior High School Principal Eddie Griffin also announced some changes in the curriculum consisting of new courses to be offered.

One such course that seems to be receiving much attention from students is a Computer Programming course. This class has no prerequisites and is offered to all high school students. Griffin said the course will focus on practical uses of computers with a business focus. The two-semester course will teach an introduction to computer programming and micro computer applications.

A new course has also been added to the high school Agriculture Department and is entitled "Home Maintenance and Improvement." This co-educational class will feature instruction on basic skills needed for home

School begins at SH with new courses added

Continued emphasis on upgrading academic efforts will be the focus of the 1989-90 year at Sacred Heart School.

Jack Murdock, in his second year as SH principal, spoke enthusiastically about new courses added to boost the high school curriculum: Advanced English and Advanced Math. Along with last year's addition of Advanced Science, these courses will aid in improving academic achievement throughout the school, he said.

"What Catholic schools have always tried to do is provide academic excellence," Murdock remarked. "Sacred Heart is not just a college preparatory... For kids who don't go on to college, what is taught here is even more important."

Each SH high school student is required to enroll in seven academic courses, one of which must be religion, he added.

Among elective choices are several computer courses. Murdock stressed the necessity of computer literacy in today's world, likening the computer as a tool to the hammers used by Muenster's founding pioneers.

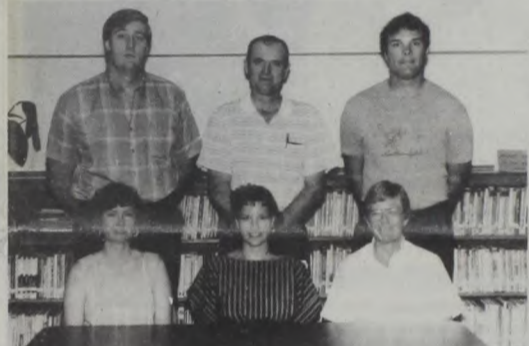

A culmination of efforts to upgrade classwork will be an academic achievement banquet Sept. 12, he said. The event will honor outstanding students from last year, while serving as an incentive for student performance during the current term.

All faculty members - with the exception of one elementary teacher whose split class was combined - are returning from last year. Murdock attributed the zero turnover to dedication of the staff.

"One of the things that amazes me is the stability of this place," he said. "Many of the teachers are (SH) graduates and loyal members of the Sacred Heart family who feel their job is a ministry and a mission."

Elementary teachers are Pam Dangelmayr, pre-school; Kathy Berres, pre-school aide; Christy Hesse, kindergarten; Laneta Martin, kindergarten aide; Ann Poole, first grade; Michelle Knauf, first grade aide; Sr. Genevieve McConnell, second grade; Steve Kohler, third grade; Anna Hermes, fourth grade; Debbie Endres, fifth grade and high school speech/drama/debate class; Sr. Monica Swirczynski, sixth grade; Sr. Mary John Seyler, seventh grade and high school Church History; Dorothy Bengfort, eighth grade.

High school teachers are: Mary Beth Bartush, science; Patti Please See SHS, Page 3

CCAD budget approved

by Elaine Schad

The Cooke County Appraisal District 1990 budget will take effect Jan. 1, following its approval by county taxing entities, officials said this week.

The budget was turned down by the cities of Muenster and Gainesville, where officials complained the $441,810 budget is as high as it was before the tax collection duties were turned over to the county last year. A majority, however, failed to disapprove the budget by the Aug. 18 deadline, so it will take effect as planned, said Pat Pickett, CCAD chief appraiser.

The budget represents a 2 percent increase over last year's budget, but doesn't include an estimated $25,000 in attorney fees the district is expected to pay this year because of lawsuits filed against the district claiming inequitable appraisals. The CCAD budget is paid for by the county's 13 taxing entities, depending upon the number of accounts each has.

Pickett also reported she has heard some criticism of a proposal for staggered terms of CCAD board members. "They don't seem to be against the staggered term, but against the one-vote concept," she said. "It's just unfortunate the State Property Tax Board requires a change in the way the voting is done."

Taxing entities have until Sept. 1 to decide on whether to offer staggered terms for board members. The terms for all five board members expire on Dec. 31. Should the proposal be approved, each entity would be able to cast one vote to elect members, instead of being allotted a certain number of votes according to the size of the entity.

City of Muenster prepares for Centennial Celebration Sept. 2

Muenster is having a community picnic and everyone is welcome to attend! This old-fashioned event is planned for Saturday, Sept. 2, in the City Park and is a part of Muenster's celebration of 100 years of existence.

The idea of the festivities evolved from the Schuetzenfest, held in Muenster from May 1, 1889 until Prohibition put a "dry blanket" on celebrations that had included having a few brews. The Schuetzenfest was a part of German tradition carried to America by our ancestors.

A 1989 version of the traditional Schuetzenfest will begin at 10 a.m. Saturday. There will be three categories in which marksmen can test their skills. The divisions and chairmen are as follows: Shotgun, Jack Flusche, 759-2534; .22 Rifle, Joe Fenton, 759-2805; and Black Powder, Bob Stovall, 759-2728.

Entry fee will include shells and targets for the rifle and shotgun divisions, but black powder entrants must provide their own ammunition. Entrants can sign up at the event. A number of people have already pre-registered.

Anyone can enter and men and women will compete in the same categories. A list of rules will be available at the Schuetzenfest. General chairman is Willie Walterscheid. Six trophies are to be awarded and presentation will take place in the Park after completion of all divisions.

Overall high point award and local high point awards will be presented in each category.

Activities begin in the City Park at 11 a.m. when antique cars, farm equipment and toys will be on display. Booths for children's games open at this time.

According to Game Chairman Gary Fisher, the games will feature games of skill and most are child-oriented. There will be dart games and milk bottle games which will be on adult's as well as child's level. The cost of most will be between 50 and 75 cents per game, although some will cost only 25 cents. Prizes will be distributed.

The park pavilion is the location for a display of antique toys. Ed Pick of Muenster will be sharing his large collection. As chairman of the toy show, Pick invites anyone wishing to display their collection to call 759-2876. He needs advance notice to plan for space.

Cooke County Antique Tractor and Farm Machinery Association members will have their restored farm machinery on exhibition at the City Park. Members will be on hand to explain the history and use of the equipment.

Co-chairpersons, Gertie Wimmer and Bertha Hamric, are promising scrumptious hamburgers and hot dogs from noon until 8 p.m. Soft drinks, popcorn and cotton candy will be available from Boy Scouts' concession stand under the supervision of Waylen Poole. Beer will be served by the Muenster Jaycees.

Muenster's Volunteer Firemen are planning to present a Water Polo demonstration at 2 p.m. The demonstration will be held on Maple Street near the intersection of Hwy. 82.

Muenster's Museum will be open from 1 to 5 p.m. Saturday to give visitors an opportunity to view the many treasures from Muenster's past on display there.

A Tae Kwon Do demonstration will be held at 4 p.m. in the City Park by Master Choi and students from his Gainesville and Denton academies. The hour-long demonstration will show fighting and sparring techniques and form competition.

Numerous displays of students breaking boards or cement blocks will show the power of Tae Kwon Do. It is an art form requiring concentration and body training.

World Class instructor, Master Choi, holds a 7th degree black belt in Hap Kido, speaks six languages, was a judge in the Olympic Games and a personal bodyguard to the president of Korea.

First Baptist of Muenster welcomes its new minister

Reverend Chuck Frazier, 28, held his first official Sunday services as the new minister of the First Baptist Church in Muenster on Aug. 20. The former minister was Reverend Steve Pearson.

He was ordained at Lithia Springs, Georgia in June 1988. Rev. Frazier is presently attending the Fort Worth Southwestern Theological Seminary.

A graduate of East Tennessee State University, he holds a BS degree in History. After graduation, Rev. Frazier moved to Atlanta, Georgia to take a teaching and coaching position.

It was while working in Georgia that he met his wife, Beth. They will have been married four years in October and have a six-month-old son, Russell.

Rev. Frazier was born in Jacksboro, Texas, but has lived in a number of states. His father was a Southern Baptist preacher.

Sports are a favorite of Rev. Frazier. He enjoys not only being a sports spectator, but also participating in them. He is also a computer buff.

While in Muenster, Rev. Frazier said that he and his wife hope to minister to the people, to develop a good relationship with people in the community and to present the gospel to people who have never responded before to the word of Jesus.

"My wife and I have been intrigued with the town and its German heritage from the start," remarked the Reverend. "People here are friendly and helpful. We are excited about living here and are anxious to get involved in the community."

Commissioners hold hearing today at 10:00

by Elaine Schad

The Cooke County Commissioners will hold a public hearing at 10 a.m. today (Friday) in the Cooke County Courthouse on a proposal to increase total tax revenues by 20.18 percent.

Commissioners are considering a 1-cent reduction in the property tax rate, but will realize about a $400,000 increase in revenue because of voter approval of a new half-cent sales tax. The money will be used to help fund the county's proposed $6 million budget for fiscal 1990.

letters to the editor ...

To the Editor:

In the Sunday, Aug. 13, 1989 Gainesville Register which I received and read in today's mail there is a front page article entitled "Oklahoma duo pleads guilty to drug charges," raised some questions in my mind on the equity of punishment rendered in the 235th District Court. Namely, two people pleaded guilty to morphine, cocaine and heroin possession together with scales used in weighing and marketing the drugs, and received only a total of six years deferred penalty.

The article then mentioned a 20-year-old man who got 17 years in the pen for breaking and entering a Muenster residence with the intent to commit theft.

No, I do not want my home broken into - neither do I want my children, myself or anyone hooked on narcotics. The message I get loud and clear, and the one I think that the drug dealers also receive, is that illegal drugs are semi-legal in Cooke County, Texas - otherwise, why the discrepancy? This is no way to wage a war on drugs.

1989 Property Tax Rates in Muenster Water District

This notice concerns 1989 property tax rates for Muenster Water District. It presents information about three tax rates. Last year's tax rate is the actual rate the taxing unit used to determine property taxes last year. This year's effective tax rate would impose the same total taxes as last year if you compare properties taxed in both years. This year's rollback tax rate is the highest tax rate the taxing unit can set before taxpayers can start tax rollback procedures. In each case these rates are found by dividing the total amount of taxes by the tax base (the total value of taxable property) with adjustments as required by state law. The rates are given per $100 of property value.

Last year's tax rate	$ -0-	/ $100
Last year's operating taxes	$ 47,321	/ $100
+ Last year's debt taxes	$ 47,321	/ $100
+ Last year's total taxes	$ 94,642	/ $100
+ Last year's tax base	$ 1,113,700	/ $100
+ Last year's total tax rate	$ 84.98	/ $100

This year's effective tax rate:
Last year's adjusted taxes (after subtracting taxes on low property)	$ 47,321	/ $100
+ This year's adjusted tax base (after subtracting taxes on low property)	$ 1,068,500	/ $100
+ This year's effective tax rate	$ 44.30	/ $100

A city that adopted the additional sales tax in a 1989 election must include the following lines:

- Sales tax adjustment rate	$ -0-	/ $100
- Effective tax rate	$ 44.30	/ $100
* 1.03 = maximum rate unless unit publishes notice and holds hearing	$ 1.1006	/ $100

This year's rollback tax rate:
Last year's adjusted operating taxes (after subtracting taxes on low property)	$ 47,321	/ $100
+ This year's adjusted tax base	$ 1,068,500	/ $100
* This year's effective operating rate	$ 44.30	/ $100
* 1.08 = old year's maximum operating rate	$ 1.2395	/ $100
+ This year's debt rate	$ 1.2395	/ $100
+ This year's rollback rate	$ 1.2395	/ $100

A city that imposes the additional sales tax must include these lines, regardless of when it held the election:

- Sales tax adjustment rate	$ -0-	/ $100
- Rollback tax rate	$ -0-	/ $100

SCHEDULE A: Unencumbered Fund Balances

The following balances will probably be left in the unit's property tax accounts at the end of the fiscal year. These balances are not encumbered by a corresponding debt obligation.

Type of Property Tax Fund	Balance
4 & 0	$ 9,396.79
7 & 5	17,041.52

SCHEDULE B: 1989 Debt Service

The unit plans to pay the following amounts for long-term debts that are secured by property taxes. These amounts will be paid from property tax revenues (or additional sales tax revenues, if applicable).

Description of Debt	Principal or Contract Payment to be Paid	Interest to be Paid	Other Amounts to be Paid	Total Payment
Bond				$53,460.00
Total required for 1989 debt service				$53,460.00
- Amount (if any) paid from funds listed in Schedule A				-0-
- Excess collections last year				-0-
Total to be paid from taxes in 1989				$53,460.00
+ Amount added in anticipation that the unit will collect only .8% of its taxes in 1989				3,653.00
Total Debt Service Levy				$57,113.00

SCHEDULE C: Expected Revenue from Additional Sales Tax

(For counties and cities with additional 1/2 cent sales tax)

In calculating effective and rollback tax rates, the unit estimated that it will receive $ -0- in additional sales and use tax revenues.

This notice contains a summary of actual effective and rollback tax rate calculations. You can inspect a copy of the full calculations at City Hall Office, 400 N. Main, Muenster, TX.

MVFD BBQ is a success!

Approximately 800 people were served a delicious barbecue meal by the Muenster Volunteer Firemen last Saturday evening. Fire Chief Herbie Knabe was pleased with the good response from the community. "We made pretty good," he said. A total profit amount was not yet known at press time. The Fire Department is especially grateful to Mike Sturm who barbecued the meat and to Ed and Ginny Schneider who prepared the rest of the meal.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING ON TAX INCREASE

The City of Muenster will hold a public hearing on a proposal to increase total tax revenues from properties on the tax roll in 1988 by .0799 increase over effective tax rate percent. Your individual taxes may increase at a greater or lesser rate, or even decrease, depending on the change in the taxable value of your property in relation to the change in taxable value of all other property. The public hearing will be held on Aug. 31, 89/7:30 at City Hall.

FOR the proposal: Pat Dennis, Al Hess, Aubrey Tuggle, Claude Klement, Willie Wimmer.
AGAINST the proposal: None
PRESENT and not voting: None
ABSENT: None

The statement above shows the percentage increase the proposed rate represents over the Effective tax rate that the unit published on August 24, 1989. The following table compares taxes on an average home in this taxing unit last year to taxes proposed on the average home this year. Again, your individual taxes may be higher or lower, depending on the taxable value of your property.

	Last Year	This Year
Average home value	35,000	35,000
General exemptions available (amount available on the average home, not including senior citizen's or disabled person's exemptions)
Average taxable value	35,000	35,000
Tax rate	.41767	.43069 (proposed)
Tax	146.19	150.75 (proposed)

Under this proposal taxes on the average home would increase by $ 4.56 Four dollars and fifty six cents or 3 (three) percent compared with last year's taxes.

Comparing tax rates without adjusting for changes in property value, the tax rate would increase by $.01302 per $100 of taxable value or 3 (three) percent compared to last year's tax rate. These tax rate figures are not adjusted for changes in the taxable value of property.

Unique business in Muenster

Joyce Elrod of Unique Tours, Muenster's newest business, held "Open Bus" on the parking lot of the Muenster Chamber of Commerce on Thursday, Aug. 17, from 3:30 until 7 p.m.

About 130 people registered. Joyce LeAnn Hacker of Myra was the lucky winner of a bus/train trip to colorful and historic Salado and Walenburg, Texas.

Andy Serna entertained guests with his guitar playing while they toured the bus and looked through information on upcoming bus trips.

"Business is booming!" said Mrs. Elrod. She noted that people had a good reaction to the bus and that the trips to Choctaw Indian Bingo in Oklahoma are very popular.

Mrs. Elrod stresses that half the fun of a trip should be getting there so she designed her bus for comfort and the trip isn't rushed. The VIP bus has been converted from 46 passengers to 35 passengers. Lounge couches, tables, chairs and carpeting are featured.

Joyce Elrod formerly conducted AMTRAC train tours.

CCC to hold meeting Aug. 25

by Elaine Schad

The Cooke County College board of trustees have approved a $7,793,730 budget for 1989-90 and set the tax rate at 11.65 cents per $100 valuation of property.

The tax rate includes 9.4 cents for maintenance and operation, and 2.25 cents for debt service. The debt service represents a recent bond approved by voters to build a new library, a vocational building, and to renovate campus facilities. The maintenance and operation rate of 9.4 cents is lower than this year's 9.6 cents, but will bring in the same amount of money because property values rose slightly, said CCC President Bud Joyner.

The budget includes a 4.5 percent cost-of-living increase and a 4.5 percent raise for existing personnel, and a 7.6 percent increase for entry level positions. The college has been forced to freeze salaries the past several years due to state funding cuts, Joyner said.

In other business at their August meeting, trustees heard that the college's insurance carrier has appraised storm damage to campus facilities at $128,555. Several roofs received damage and some air conditioning compressors were destroyed. The board set an Aug. 25 special meeting date to open bids for renovations of the 200 building.

Teacher in-service began Monday. School begins this Monday with administrators expecting an enrollment similar to last year's - about 270 students.

New this year is a registration fee of $350 for students grades

K-12. Tuition is charged to students who are non-Catholic or live outside Sacred Heart Parish. But the $350 fee became necessary, Murdock said, because the cost of educating a student at Sacred Heart is $2,200 a year. Parish subsidies make up the difference.

Campus improvements made this summer include new carpet in the pre-school and new paint in the elementary music room and library.

Carpeting and new fluorescent lights were installed in the corridors of the high school. And the lockers were painted bright yellow.

"There have been a lot of studies done that show yellow stimulates intellectual activity and also generates a feeling of warmth and happiness," Murdock said.

repairs.

High school students will also be offered a one-semester class on World Geography Studies that will focus specifically on a geographical location and how the geography applies to the area's economics and the people's lifestyles and customs. Tim Ratliff will teach this course.

Junior High students who choose not to participate in Band will be taking a Home Economics course taught by Joni Sturm entitled "Life Management Skills and Career Orientation." This course must be offered to junior high students according to state regulations.

One major change in the curriculum is that the sixth grade will now be fully departmentalized. Griffin said this group will now join the Junior High and go to their teachers instead of their teachers coming to them for class.

Other improvements made this summer at Muenster Public School include carpeting the Band Hall, roof repairs to the elementary, fifth and sixth grade and junior high wings, and general maintenance repairs.

Included in these improvements is the addition of eight new Apple GS computers and three printers. With these additions, the Computer Lab now has 19 terminals and 12 printers. Four new Adler typewriters have also been purchased for the Typing room.

Teachers began in-service this week Tuesday. The 1989-90 Muenster Public School faculty and their positions are as follows: Elementary: Rosemary Dankesreiter, Kindergarten; Becky Scott, First Grade; Theresa Walterscheid, First and Second Grade; Jane Weinzapfel, Second Grade; Carol Dyer, Third Grade; Marionette Jump, Third and Fourth Grade; Mary Ahrens, Fourth Grade; Marjorie Alsop, Fifth Grade; Leigh Lynn Hale, Resource K-12; Debra Molloy, Speech K-12; Lynn Dangelmayr, 1-3 Conference Periods; Gwen Trubenbach, Remedial Reading and Elementary Principal.

1989 Property Tax Rates in City of Muenster

This notice concerns 1989 property tax rates for City of Muenster. It presents information about three tax rates. Last year's tax rate is the actual rate the taxing unit used to determine property taxes last year. This year's effective tax rate would impose the same total taxes as last year if you compare properties taxed in both years. This year's rollback tax rate is the highest tax rate the taxing unit can set before taxpayers can start tax rollback procedures. In each case these rates are found by dividing the total amount of taxes by the tax base (the total value of taxable property) with adjustments as required by state law. The rates are given per $100 of property value.

Last year's tax rate:
Last year's operating taxes	$ 127,380
+ Last year's debt taxes	$ -0-
Last year's total taxes	$ 127,380
+ Last year's tax base	$ 42,469,932
Last year's total tax rate	$.41767 /$100

This year's effective tax rate:
Last year's adjusted taxes (after subtracting taxes on lost property)	$ 176,273
+ This year's adjusted tax base (after subtracting taxes on new property)	$ 44,197,455
This year's effective tax rate	$.39883 /$100

A city that adopted the additional sales tax in a 1989 election must include the following lines:
- Sales tax adjustment rate	$ -0- /$100
- Effective tax rate	$ -0- /$100
* 1.03 = maximum rate unless unit publishes notices and holds hearing	$.41080 /$100

This year's rollback tax rate:
Last year's adjusted operating taxes (after subtracting taxes on lost property)	$ 176,273
+ This year's adjusted tax base	$ 44,197,455
This year's effective operating rate	$.39883 /$100
* 1.08 = this year's maximum operating rate	$.43074 /$100
+ This year's debt rate	$ -0- /$100
This year's rollback rate	$.43074 /$100

A city that imposes the additional sales tax must include these lines, regardless of when it held the election:
- Sales tax adjustment rate	$ -0- /$100
- Rollback tax rate	$ -0- /$100

SCHEDULE A: Unencumbered Fund Balances

The following balances will probably be left in the unit's property tax accounts at the end of the fiscal year. These balances are not encumbered by a corresponding debt obligation.

Type of Property Tax Fund	Balance
M & O	$106,013.29
Int & Sinking	-0-

SCHEDULE B: 1989 Debt Service

The unit plans to pay the following amounts for long-term debts that are secured by property taxes. These amounts will be paid from property tax revenues (or additional sales tax revenues, if applicable).

Description of Debt	Principal or Contract Payment to be Paid	Interest to be Paid	Other Amounts to be Paid	Total Payment
-0-				-0-
Total required for 1989 debt service			-0-
- Amount (if any) paid from funds listed in Schedule A
- Excess collections last year
+ Total to be paid from taxes in 1989			-0-
+ Amount added in anticipation that the unit will collect only ___% of its taxes in 1989
+ Total Debt Service Levy			-0-

SCHEDULE C: Expected Revenue from Additional Sales Tax

(For counties and cities with additional 1/2 cent sales tax)

In calculating its effective and rollback tax rates, the unit estimated that it will receive $ -0- in additional sales and use tax revenues.

This notice contains a summary of actual effective and rollback tax rate calculations. You can inspect a copy of the full calculations at Muenster, City Hall, 400 N. Main, Muenster, Texas 759-2257.

MRS. DALE EDWARD WOLF
...nee Kimberly Sue Brown...

Denton ceremony unites Kim Brown, Dale Wolf

Kimberly Sue Brown became the bride of Dale Edward Wolf on Aug. 19 in a Nuptial Mass with double ring ceremony in Immaculate Conception Church of Denton at 7:30 p.m.

The bride is the daughter of David and Margaret Brown of Denton, and the groom is the son of Ernest and Beatrice Wolf of Rt. 4, Gainesville. The groom is also the grandson of Mrs. Henry Wolf, Sr. of Muenster.

As valedictorian, the bride graduated from Liberty Christian School of Denton in 1985. She is a senior nursing student at Texas Woman's University, Dallas campus, and will graduate in December 1989. She is a member of Phi Kappa Phi, Gamma Beta Phi, and Mortar Board. She is employed as obstetrical technician and Childbirth Education instructor at Denton Regional Medical Center.

The groom graduated from Sacred Heart High School in Muenster in 1978, Cooke County College in 1982, and the University of North Texas in 1984. He is a manufacturing engineering specialist for General Dynamics in Fort Worth and is a senior member of the Society of Manufacturing Engineers.

Officiating ministers for the traditional rites were Father Dan Williams of Immaculate Conception Church and Rev. Linwood John Roberson of Blue Mound United Methodist Church, both of Denton.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was wearing a formal floor-length white wedding gown with satin bodice and organza skirt. Designed with wedding ring collar, sheer illusion yoke accented with imported Swiss lace and sweetheart neckline, the bodice featured a deep basque waist, and was heavily encrusted with seed pearls. Leg-o-mutton sleeves of satin and English tulle were covered with lace and featured covered buttons at the tapered wrists. The organza skirt was highlighted with an elegant lace applique in front and a cascade of organza ruffles down the cathedral train.

Her fingertip illusion veil had a soft pouf at the back of a halo enhanced with pearls and flowers.

She carried a silk cascade of white, pink and burgundy roses accented with pearls, ivy and ribbon.

ATTENDANTS

Mrs. Russell (Carol) Wolf of Denton, friend of the bride, was matron of honor.

Mrs. Kent (Lori) Wolf of Denton, groom's sister-in-law, Jennifer Brown of Denton, bride's sister, and Mrs. Harold (Lynn) Harwell of Sanger, friend of the bride, were bridesmaids. They wore satin tea-length gowns. The matron of honor's gown was burgundy and the bridesmaids' were pink, designed with fitted bodices, short sleeves, tiered ruffles and a bow in back. Bouquets, made by Lynn Harwell were of white, pink and burgundy silk roses centered with pink lilies, accented with pink netting, ivy, ribbon and a circle of white lace.

Kent Wolf of Denton was his brother's best man.

Groomsmen were Kevin Hess of Muenster, a friend of the groom, Troy Wolf of Denton, groom's brother, and David Brown Jr. of Denton, bride's brother.

Ushers were Charles Hess of Muenster and Gene Fuhrman of Denton and formerly of Muenster, friends of the groom.

The sanctuary was decorated with a 15-branch fan candelabra flanked by pairs of seven-branch candelabras decorated with white netting and dusty rose silk flowers and matching bows. Altar decorations were completed with white baskets filled with white silk flowers, and bows and streamers in the bride's chosen colors of pink and burgundy. Pews were decorated with alternating pink and burgundy pew bows. The parents' pews were decorated with white and pink satin heart-shaped wreaths.

Wedding music included "The Wedding Song," "Flesh of My Flesh," and "El Shaddai." Organist was Joyce Person, aunt of the bride; pianist was Stephanie Schmidt, cousin of the bride; guitarist was Liz Lopez. Vocalists were Heidi Kosack, Liz Lopez and John Stenger.

RECEPTION

The buffet dinner and dance reception followed at the Silver Eagle Suite at the University of North Texas in Denton. The reception for about 200 guests was given by parents of the couple and hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Joe Washburn of The Colony, friends of the bride. Deejay for the dance was Robert Phillips of Dallas.

Kendralyn Brown, sister of the bride, was guest book attendant.

The white skirted bride's table was decorated with candle and ribbon, and held the wedding cakes.

Guest tables were decorated with pink and burgundy lace-edged circular centerpieces with centers of baby's breath and silk flowers. Lighted votive candles gave added accent.

The couple will reside in Denton after returning from a wedding trip to Ocho Rio, Jamaica.

Guests came from Nocona, Decatur, Saint Jo, Lindsay, Muenster, Fort Worth, Watauga, Sanger, Gainesville, The Colony, Dallas, Terrell, Keller and Denton, Texas and Polo, Illinois.

The rehearsal supper, hosted by the groom's parents, was held at Wyatt's Cafeteria in Denton Center in Denton.

Showers were given by Blue Mound Methodist Church at the church on July 23, and by the bride's nursing classmates on July 29 in Carrollton.

The adventures of Yoshi in Muenster!

ROANE McLAUGHLIN, M.D.

Gainesville welcomes new OB specialist

Upon entering the office of Roane McLaughlin, M.D., one immediately gets a sense of the newest addition to the Gainesville Memorial Hospital medical staff.

The office projects a warmth that mirrors the one radiating from the doctor herself. Comfortable hues of peach, green and mauve accent the country decor in which the latest in modern medical equipment mixes easily with antiques and wicker.

The doctor's office doesn't feel like a doctor's office. With the wide, comfortable chairs and the children's toy boxes in the corner, you could tell this office was designed for one specific purpose - to serve women. And that's just fine by Dr. McLaughlin, Cooke County's primary specialist in women's medicine - obstetrics and gynecology.

Dr. McLaughlin comes to the area from Fort Worth, where she recently completed her internship and residency in obstetrics/gynecology at John Peter Smith Hospital. She holds an M.D. degree from Texas A&M University College of Medicine and a Bachelor of Science degree in Microbiology from the University of Texas at Arlington.

While at John Peter Smith, Dr. McLaughlin gained extensive experience in all phases of obstetric care, including complicated/high risk cases. Special training was also received in obstetric ultrasound, perinatology, genetics and infertility.

Gynecological expertise includes the latest in gynecological procedures, including gynecological surgery - culposcope, laparoscopy and laser.

The doctor hopes to have a "good mixture" of obstetric and gynecological patients in her practice and to serve patients not only in Gainesville but in surrounding areas as well.

"My hope is to gain a reputation as being a place where ladies and their babies can receive quality care," said Dr. McLaughlin.

In a field that is still a male-dominated one, Dr. McLaughlin says that she enjoys her women patients and feels that being a woman herself allows her to establish an easy, personal interaction with her clientele. "I want my patients to feel at home and know that I am someone they can talk to openly yet feel secure that we maintain a confidential relationship."

Dr. McLaughlin is married to Wayne, a laboratory technician, and they have three children, Joshua, 11, Jared, 7, and Caleb, 2. Also joining the doctor and her family in Gainesville will be her parents, Roy and Diane Ham, and her grandmother, Maxine Payne.

"We are excited about coming to Gainesville," Dr. McLaughlin stated. "I wanted to practice in a rural area."

One drawback the doctor found when scouting rural areas to locate in was not a concern in Gainesville. "In some rural hospitals, you cannot provide the level of care you might want to because of limited capabilities at the hospital facilities," McLaughlin stated. Such was not the case in Gainesville. "I was very impressed with the hospital and the capabilities here," she said.

Gainesville's new obstetrician/gynecologist is now seeing patients in her office, located at 1218 E. California Street. Office hours are 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday. Appointments may be scheduled by calling (817) 665-6679.

Book review held by CCC on Sept. 7

The Cooke County College will hold its Brown Bag Book Review on Sept. 7, at 12:10 p.m. in the Little Theater at the college.

The book, Anything For Billy, by Larry McMurtry will be reviewed by Patsy Wilson. The public is invited.

Yoshitaka Nakamura arrived at DFW on the evening of Aug. 8 to begin a new adventure on his first visit to the U.S. Yoshi comes from Kitakyushu, Japan, a city of over 10 million people. Henry and Janie Weinzapfel, his host parents, went through the Youth for Understanding International Exchange. "We had a book full of students to choose from," said Mrs. Weinzapfel. "We were down to two, the other from Germany, before choosing Yoshi."

The Weinzapfels phoned Japan on June 4th to inform Yoshitaka that Texas would be his home. After two unsuccessful calls, the connection was completed. "The only thing Yoshi said was 'Yes, Yes!' and 'Thank You!' We weren't sure if he really understood," said Mrs. Weinzapfel. "Yoshi said he was nervous and excited."

Yoshitaka is the 17-year-old son of Yukio and Akiko Nakamura. He has a 15-year-old brother, Atutaka. His father is an engineer for Hitachi Metals and his mother works for an insurance company. Hitachi sponsored Yoshi's trip.

"I must learn about America and teach America about the Japanese," said Yoshi. "Japanese have an image of America - big houses, big cars, wide roads and wide spaces. I want to find out what's real or not real," he said. "(In Texas (it) is real."

"I want to see animals and insects," Yoshi said about his favorite subjects, "and learn more about American lifestyle, like 'wearing shoes in the house and eating habits.'" He likes American food; it "looks very expensive." In Japan, white rice, grilled fish and Japanese soup are the three main dishes fixed in the home. Steak is eaten only at restaurants, and is very expensive. Hamburgers and hot dogs are available at McDonald's. A Big Mac costs $3.00, with French fries costing around $1.00. Dairy Queen, 7-11 and 31 Flavours (Baskin-Robbins) are also located in Japan, with Coke, Pepsi and Sprite available.

School life will be very different this year, as Yoshitaka joins the senior class at Muenster Public School. He has signed up for Typing, Computer Programming, English II, Agricultural Science, Algebra II and Government classes and will play the tuba in the Hornet Band.

Yoshi was a member of the Tobata High School 70-unit band. Tobata is a public school with 1300 students who must wear uniforms and keep trimmed haircuts. "Most students belong to clubs," said Yoshi. Sports, culture, band, society, newspaper, rock, chemistry and art clubs are just a few extracurricular activities offered in Japanese schools.

Sports and band clubs have practice every day. "On holidays and every Sunday, we have practice - Saturday we have class half a day. We have no time for fishing."

"It's difficult to enter a public university," Yoshi said. "(You) must study hard for 12 grades and study six hours a day." During summer vacation, students attend school till noon. There's no school for a week in August and holidays include New Year's and the Emperor's birthday. Students must have six years of English to enter a university.

High school students in Japan are not allowed to have a driver's license. You can drive a motorcycle at age 16 and a car at 18.

Bicycles are ridden everywhere. Also students can not have jobs. Yoshi got his first job last week painting a fence.

Yoshi has also had his first experience of horseback riding, a feedlot with lots of cattle and saw wild turkeys and deer at Weinzapfel Ranch north of town.

Yoshitaka's name, like most names, has a meaning - "virtue and prospering," which his parents hoped he would "become a good person with a good life." Nakamura means "middle village." Yoshi's biggest problem is in communication - 'R's and 'L's make the same sound in Japanese.

Yoshi's already made an appearance at Muenster School, attending band practice and having his senior picture taken this week. His year with "Mom and Dad," and Joe Weinzapfel will surely be a memorable experience.

Local blood drive to honor Klement

A local leukemia patient is the honoree of Muenster's regular late-summer blood drive, set by the Red Cross Blood Service, for 3 to 7 p.m. Wednesday at the Knights of Columbus Hall.

Sacred Heart Student Council is promoting the drive in honor of Travis Klement, 18, who has been diagnosed with acute lymphocytic leukemia. Klement is a patient at Baylor Medical Center.

Members of the SH Council have taken on the tasks of raising awareness of the needs of blood contributions in this area, and of helping with paperwork and serving refreshments at the drive. Red Cross workers will do the actual blood work. Herman Carroll, Muenster hospital administrator, said potential blood donors must be between the ages of 17 and 73 and must weigh at least 110 pounds. At Muenster's drive last August, 108 pints of blood were pumped from local donors.

A special card will be available at Wednesday's drive for donors to sign. The get-well greeting will be sent to Klement. Medical professionals at Baylor draw blood from him every morning to count his platelets and levels of red and white blood cells, Klement said Tuesday.

"If my platelet count is high enough, they let me walk around the hospital," he said. "Otherwise there's not much to do. I sleep and watch TV."

He admitted he was ready to come home after almost three weeks at the Dallas hospital. He would like to thank everyone who has visited him during his stay there or sent cards and prayers.

Greetings will reach him at Baylor Medical Center, Erik and Margaret Jonsson Building, Room 611, 3500 Gaston Ave., Dallas, TX 75246.

CHRISTOPHER and CLINT FUHRMANN

Twins turn four!

The cake theme was "Cowboys and Indians." Ice cream and punch were served along with the cake. Games were played, gifts were opened and displayed.

Helping with the celebration were Jennifer, Matthew and Kyle Fuhrmann; grandparents Marcus and Cathy Fuhrmann and Ray and Lou Voth; Clint's godparents, T.J. and Jeannene Walterscheid and David; Christopher's godparents, Pat and Jill Fuhrmann and Jacob; also Janet Voth, Debra and Michael; Steve, Brenda, Andrea, Dee Ann, Dominic and Melissa Fuhrmann; Garland and Sharon Tate and Jeffrey and Jeremy; and Kenny Fuhrmann.

93rd birthday celebrated

One of Muenster's more admired citizens celebrated her 93rd birthday on Sunday, Aug. 13. Agnes Lehnertz was guest of honor for a noon meal at The Center Restaurant, hosted by her sons, Giles Lehnertz of Tyler and Jimmy Lehnertz and wife Terry of Gainesville.

Also present were the Jimmy Lehnertz family; Terry and George Utley and son, Jason; and Cheryl Lehnertz of Dallas; and Jimmy Joe and Sandra Lehnertz with Ashli, Spencer and Preston of Gainesville.

Giles Lehnertz spent the weekend with his mother. Among other weekend visitors were Alice Hellman and her daughter and son-in-law, Gretchen and Richard Sverson, who were visiting from Sagin, Mich.; Pauline Hellman of Muenster and son and daughter-in-law, Dr. James Marquette and Rosemary Hellman of Lubbock.

Still spunky for her age, Mrs. Lehnertz, enjoys working in her yard and tending her flowers. She is in good health and does her own housework, takes a daily walk to the post office and always attends Novena Services at Sacred Heart

What You Don't Know Can Hurt You.

But not if you take a few minutes to learn about electrical safety around your home or business.

Here are a few safety tips worth remembering.

Overhead.
Never fly a kite, or raise an antenna or place a ladder where it can come in contact with a power line. Touching power lines with any object can result in serious injury or even death. Stay clear of all overhead power lines.

Underground.
Know before you dig. Some neighborhoods have underground power lines. If you don't know whether you have underground power lines, or if you need to know their location, call TU Electric.

Out and around.
Pad mounted transformers, large metal boxes that are usually green or cream colored, are safe when they are closed and locked. However, if one is opened or damaged, it can be deadly. Call TU Electric immediately to report the situation and warn others to stay away until the repairman arrives.

Be safe around electricity.
Being aware of the location of power lines can save your life or the life of a loved one. So take time now, before you start your next fix-up project, to learn the location of power lines near your home or business. Because what you know about power lines can make the difference between being safe or being sorry.

DON'T LET A POWER LINE BE THE END OF THE LINE.

Hornets prepare for rough and tough season

Matching last season's 10-2, regional contending season won't be easy for the Muenster Hornets.

But Head Football Coach Bill Jump - and the polls ranking MHS at the top of its district - think this year's team is up for the challenge.

"People in our district have respect for our program, based on our returning starters and finish last year," Jump noted. "We don't plan to get the Big Head. I feel like we deserve respect, but we'll have to continue to earn it."

1989's top-seeded Hornets are bigger and more experienced in the skilled positions than was the team of 1988, Jump claims. And the 30 players out this season come with experience: 10 are seniors, and six offense and defense starters are returning.

Since the start of two-a-day workouts Aug. 14, no serious injuries have occurred, Jump said.

"The guys returned in good shape. But we need some hotter days to give a little more conditioning."

"We've got a great deal of confidence in our ability," he continued. "The success we had last year has carried over. There's nothing like winning to have a winning attitude."

Jump, in his third year at the helm of Hornet football, is assisted by coaches Tim Ratliff and Brian Strother. The coaches are expecting big two-way performances from senior Donnie Boydston, James Hennigan and Scot Vogel.

Jerry Brawner, senior, will once again take the quarterback spot - a position where he's started since his sophomore year.

"We've got a great deal of confidence in Jerry," Jump said. "We think he'll be much more effective."

Among the big men on the field will be senior Jeff Hellman and juniors Paul Black and Brad McDaniel, all of whom top 200 pounds.

A new face in the Hornet lineup will be that of Sean Slater, a transfer from Olney. Jump said the coaches expect that Slater will be an important contribution to the team.

Potential weaknesses MHS faces is inexperienced receivers and a shortage of depth in a few positions, he said.

Traditional district rivals Era, Lindsay and Valley View again will be tough opponents this year.

"We have a very balanced district. Everyone deserves our best effort," Jump said. "There's no one we can play poorly and beat."

Juniors are Black, OT/DT; Kelly Colwell, C/DE; Terry Felderhoff, TE/DE; Scott Hudspeth, OG/WLB; McDaniel, OT/DT; and Troy Pagel, BB/SLB.

Sophomores are Jason Biffle, C/DE; Mike Gobble, QB/SS; Doug Hennigan, BB/FS; Chris Kubis, OG/SLB; Tony Perryman, FB/DT; Ryan Sicking, QB/FS; Mike Vogel, FB/MLB; and Sam Walterscheid, OT/DT.

Freshmen are Darren Bindel, FB/LB; Mike Hacker, OG/DE; Justin Hartman, OG/DT; Brian Knabe, TE/DE; Kody Truelsen, OG/DT; and Kenneth Walterscheid, TB/CB.

SH gridirons start season Saturday

A winning attitude that's surfaced among members of the Sacred Heart football squad has Head Coach John Sims hopeful about the upcoming season.

He's encouraged that the players' positive outlooks - along with determination and hard work - will carry the team through deficiencies in size and experience.

"I was kind of skeptical before the kids got here," Sims admitted Tuesday. "But they've grown up. A lot of them worked out over the summer, got themselves ready. We're pretty excited over here."

The 23-member Tiger team began single-day workouts Aug. 7, advancing to two-a-day pad practices Aug. 14.

Last year's SH group went 4-7 to advance to the first-round TAPS playoffs. But six of the 17 players graduated.

"We lost our entire backfield, all our skilled positions," he said.

"We're pretty young. But they're enthusiastic and have worked hard. They want to do well."

Four starters are returning on offense, with five of last season's defensive starters coming back. Sims said he thinks that a simplified offense and the reduction in mental mistakes could make the 1989 SH team better than the one it follows.

Providing a basis for leadership are the four seniors: Troy Berres, Tony Grewing, Randy Miller and David Rohmer.

"The seniors don't want to just sit there and let it happen. They want to go out on the right note," Sims claimed.

As far as size, the Tigers can boast of Rohmer, at 6 foot, 205 pounds; and of Miller, at 6 foot, 180 pounds, he said.

Shawn Dangelmayr, a junior, will lead the offense from the quarterback position. He was in the backup quarterback spot last year.

"Shawn is throwing the ball a whole lot better. He's smoother in running the offense. He's doing some things I really like," Sims said.

New to the team is sophomore Stevan Nasche, returning to Sacred Heart from Subiaco Academy.

Though the team has suffered no major injuries thus far in the season, players are having to battle a flu bug as well as normal bumps and bruises that tend to hamper practices, Sims said. He gave as an example the fact that only 14 players turned out for Monday night's workout.

Tough competition can be expected this season from Era, Cistercian Prep and Dallas Temple Christian. District opponents that will be challengers are Oakridge and Lexington, he said.

The Tigers open their 1989 season Saturday with a 6 p.m. scrimmage against Collinsville at the SH field.

Senior players are Berres, SE/OLB; Grewing, RB/Safety; Miller, G/LB; and Rohmer, T/DE.

Juniors are Dangelmayr, QB/C; Jason Endres, T/OLB; Arnie Hess, TE/OLB; Ryan Hess, WB/DE; and Josh McCoy, T/DE.

Sophomores are Kelly Bell, TE/LB; Scott Hennigan, T/DE; Chris Hess, RB/DT; Gary Hess, G/OLB; Gregg Hess, E/C; Nasche, SE/C; and Bill Park, C/DT.

Antique Farm Machinery Show scheduled this weekend

by Elaine Schad
Henry Hess Jr. recalled visions from his childhood the day he found an old McCormick-Dearing tractor while he was out on a welding job. He decided to restore it, and found there were others with roots deeply connected to the farm who were doing the same thing.
"There were about 10 of us sort of interested, and so we thought we'd start a club," Hess said.
In its fourth year, the non-profit Cooke County Antique Tractor and Farm Machinery Association will display more than 150 pieces of equipment from the past Saturday and Sunday during their Antique Machinery Show at the Lindsay Tractor Pull Arena. The show begins each day at 11 a.m., with an antique equipment parade at 2 p.m.

To get to the arena, take U.S. 82 four miles west of Gainesville to Lindsay. Then take FM 1199 three miles north and follow the signs.
Hess, 54, is club president and a longtime farmer and rancher. He remembers farming as a young man with some of the equipment that will be on display and demonstrated this weekend. "We just want everyone to see what the old people used to work with," he said.
Antique farm equipment demonstrations will be held throughout each day, including wheat threshing, mule-drawn hay baling, small engine displays, corn grinding in a grist mill and old-time plowing. Other activities include tractor races and a kiddie tractor pull. Food and refreshments will be available.
New to the show this year will be a draft horse demonstration, conducted by Weldon Faught from Aubrey. The group has also planted a crop of millet at the arena, which they plan to bind with an old-time John Deere binder, and combine with one of their other antiques.
Most of the equipment has been gathered from the Cooke County area, Hess said. The group just recently found an Advanced Rumley wooden threshing machine from the early 1900s, which should be restored in time for the show. The machine is owned by the Rad Ware family in eastern Cooke County.
There will be more than 90 antique tractors, including a 1911 Case steam tractor and an "Old Reliable" Hart Pard steamer. Also included will be about 100 small engines, along with various old-time binders, threshing machines, plows and other equipment going as far back as the early 1900s.

Restoring equipment that has been sitting unused and exposed to the weather for years is no easy task. Rust is a major problem, and finding parts to get the machinery back in working operation is also a challenge. Members pour over antique manuals looking for information about parts and color schemes of the antiques they collect. They make frequent trips to various areas of the state in search of parts they hear some old-timer might have back in a barn or hidden away in the corner of a farm. The group had to take their chainsaws to one site to obtain an old binder which had a tree grown up through its middle.
A desire to retain some of the farm machines of the past before it's too late will continue to spur members to preserve what remains a part of their childhood memories.
"We just want to show the younger generation what we had to farm with," said Hess. "It wasn't like those air-conditioned cabs like they have now."
Admission to the show is $3 for adults with children under 12 admitted free. Rain date is Sept. 2 and 3. For more information, call 736-2311 or 665-6806.

County Agent's Report

by Craig Rosenbaum

Farmers should take the time in the next few weeks to collect soil samples from fields they plan to plant to wheat or other fall-seeded small grains.
Soil test results done now will be returned early enough to allow plenty of time to apply recommended nutrients and incorporate them into the soil during final seedbed preparation.
Incorporating or knifing nutrients into a moist seedbed is important to reduce nitrogen volatilization losses associated with surface-applied urea-containing fertilizers. It also allows placement of non-mobile nutrients such as phosphorus into the active root zone of plants.
Small grains that are to be grazed naturally require more fertilizer than ungrazed grain because of nutrients removed by grazing. About 30 to 40 pounds of nitrogen are removed in forages grazed by stocker cattle for each 100 pounds of beef produced per acre.
This nitrogen, less some recycling, must be replaced to provide adequate nutrition for grain production after livestock are removed.
A soil test remains the best way to determine fertilizer needs. It discloses how much of a given nutrient to apply, which depends on such factors as the level of that nutrient in the soil, residue levels, cropping history, available moisture, grazing practices and general management.
A general "rule of thumb" indicates that wheat requires about 2 pounds of nitrogen per bushel of grain produced.
Therefore, a 30-bushel yield would remove about 60 pounds of available nitrogen per acre. A soil test will determine the amount of residual nitrate-nitrogen in the soil and reduce nitrogen recommendations by that amount.
