VOLUME VIII

MUENSTER, TEXAS, COOKE COUNTY, FRIDAY, JANUARY 14, 1944

NUMBER 8

What this country needs even more than a good five cent cigar is a good fire in Washington — a lovely big bonfire fed by every last scrap of exasperating legislation, regulation, and taxation. What a wonderful blaze that would be!

We need to be relieved of that awful mess of perplexities. While we're straining ourselves to spread the four freedoms over other parts of the world we might as well bestow another little freedom on ourselves. Freedom from confusion.

No foolin'. This country ought to start from scratch, and forever after stick with essentials and insist on simplicity. Maybe that would give us a method of government more in keeping with its fundamental purpose, which is meant to guarantee a fellow's happiness, not multiply his miseries.

Why, for instance, is it necessary to have volumes and volumes of laws to elaborate on two documents like the decalogue and the constitution? Why should it be necessary to express those laws in words ninety five percent of us cannot understand? And then tell us ignorance does not excuse us from them.

Why should it be necessary for dozens of agencies to plague the public with their incessant deluge of forms? Why all those tax forms, especially on income tax, that even the experts cannot fill out correctly?

Really, America has become the paperized nation. It has developed an awful mania for stretching out every little fact over the greatest possible space and insisting on the greatest possible number of carbon copies. A simple statement on the rationing of cabbage seed is elaborated to novel length. The law which taxes incomes over a specified figure requires absurd details to enumerate sources, more of them inviting phengaling in deductions, and finally several more computations on the tax estimate itself.

The worst part of it is that the worry with all this red tape is not the citizen's only headache. Because of it he has to pay higher taxes to support the army of clerks who check and double check on the reports he so grudgingly submitted.

Ah, maybe there's the reason for it all. A progressive plot on the part of officials to perpetuate and increase the list of government jobs. Not a charitable view, we admit, but logical.

Regardless of what reasons may be behind all our confusion one thing is certain. This nation wants simpler less expensive government.

There is the goal on which our statesmen had better start working so that in future years we won't be embarrassed by the bitter paradox of having bled to free others while making ourselves slaves to red tape.

If these aren't your sentiments now they will be after you fill out this year's income tax report. Betcha.

Did you notice how labor big wigs snapped back at the accusation that strikes had caused people in occupied countries to lose confidence in America? Obviously the truth hurts. Also characteristic of them was their prompt counter attack on the administration as having been responsible for all labor troubles in the first place. Like the temperamental GI who goes over the hill if he can't have a pass whenever he wants one, and then insists that the commanding officer is to blame for the AWOL. The logic of some people!

Regardless of official blunders, and everyone will admit there have been plenty, labor doesn't have a leg to stand on. Its first duty is to produce, and its refusal to work is equivalent to a soldier's refusal to fight. Men who instigate a strike when national safety is at stake are no less than traitors. The rank and file who go on strike are no less than slackers.

During the past few decades a pathetic irony has crept into both

GETS COMMISSION

"Bud" HOEHN WINS WINGS AS MEMBER OF ARMY AIR CORPS

Ex-Sergeant C.M. "Bud" Hoehn 21-year-old veteran of foreign wars, and son of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Hoehn of this city, was commissioned a second lieutenant in the United States Army Air Corps at Foster Field Victoria, Texas, in graduating ceremonies this week, and won his silver wings as a fighter pilot. He arrived in Muenster Wednesday for a short visit with his parents and leaves Sunday to report at Tallahassee, Florida, for a several months' special training course.

The young veteran wears a few battle scars and a blouse decked with seven ribbons in addition to his newly acquired wings. He volunteered in the air corps in Nov. 1940, and served as a tail gunner during battles over New Guinea, where he was injured on July 3, 1942, in action of Lae, and spent several months in a hospital recovering from a delicate brain operation. At that time he was a member of the Army Air Forces most famous unit, the 19th Bombardment Group.

Anxious for a "return engagement with the Japs", Sgt. Hoehn volunteered for pilot's training, was accepted last May and began training at the pre-flight school of the San Antonio Aviation Cadet Center. At primary school at Victory Field, Vernon, and at Garden City, Kansas, he started flying. "And now I have my wings and a job at the business end of a plane. That's what I wanted," he said.

DRAFTEES TO FACE NEW INDUCTION RULE STARTING FEB. 1ST.

In a revision of the system for physical examinations of draft-eligible, selective service last Friday abolished "screening" examinations by local boards and arranged for final examinations to be given at least 21 days before actual induction.

Under the new system, which is to become effective Feb. 1, post-induction furloughs also are abolished. Currently these are three weeks for the army inductees and one week for those who go into the navy.

The new system works in this manner: Men in class 1-A who are about due for a call to service will be dispatched to induction stations to be examined by army and navy physicians. All will be sent back as civilians with those who have been found acceptable having assurance that they will not be ordered to report for induction for at least three weeks.

It is intended, as a pool of physical acceptable men is built up to afford an even longer period between examination and induction, but if a man is not inducted within 90 days a new pre-induction examination will be required. The army and navy examiner also will group the men into three classes, "army general service," "army limited service" and "navy" (including marines and coast guard) according to their physical condition. The navy demands a slightly higher degree of physical fitness than does the army. The army accepts for limited service men with physical defects barring them from general service.

Thereafter, calls to local draft boards will be for a definite number of army general service, army limited service, and navy men instead of for an over-all total of men, as at present.

Weinzapfel Named Local Chairman In 4th. War Bond Drive

J.M. Weinzapfel was this week appointed local chairman for the Fourth War Loan Bond Drive for this community by Felix L. McCurdy, county chairman. Mayor Weinzapfel has successfully led Muenster through three campaigns of this nature. He will select a group of local helpers to begin a canvass in this sector before the drive officially opens next Tuesday, January 18.

Muenster's quota has not yet been designated, but the county's goal in the 4th drive is $1,100,000. The stage is set for the campaign Jan. 18 to 31st inclusive, and it will be the purpose of the local committee to put on a swift and effective drive.

It is asked that prospective subscribers do not wait for pressure to be exerted, but, to buy their share of bonds early. The next issue of The Enterprise will carry a full list of the committee, together with the local quota, and any other details of the campaign which may have developed by that time.

Local Mutual Has It's 50th Annual Meet

Reports 11 Cent Rate, Changes Name, Reelects Officers And Directors

Delegates from six locals attended the 50th annual meeting of the German Farmers Benevolent Association, re-elected directors for the ensuing year, reported an 11 cent rate and decided to change the name of the company to Farmers Mutual Fire Insurance Association of Muenster.

The board for 1944 consists of Albert Henschel, president; F.J. Hess, secretary; Emil Vogel, treasurer; and Barney Voth and W.H. Endres, Mike Fuhrmann, Lindsay, was re-elected auditor for a three year term and Jake Bezner, Lindsay, was appointed to replace Joe Bezner as auditor. F. J. Hess was named delegate to the next state convention.

The association's financial report for the past year indicated, as it has in the past, that it is serving its intended purpose by providing cheap insurance for its members. Losses during the year just closed amounted to 11 cents per $100 valuation to cover a total of $1,685.70 for fire loss, salaries and expenditures. The balance on hand at the present time is $3,182.71. Insurance in force for the association totals $1,464,980.

Members will not be assessed this year. It was stated at the meeting, but assessment will be issued at such time when need be. Founded in 1893 as a means of mutual protection for German farmers in North Texas, the company has grown steadily. It includes 460 members holding about 500 policies in the communities of Muenster, Lindsay, Windthorst, Electra, Valley View and Pilot Point. Its headquarters have continued in Muenster since its beginning.

FIRST SNOW OF THIS WINTER CAME FRIDAY WITH BRISK NORTHER

This community's first snow of the winter covered the ground when Muenster awoke Saturday morning.

Rain which started falling Friday at an early hour, turned to sleet at noon and then to snow. Quite a bit of the snow melted as it struck the ground Friday afternoon but that which fell during the night stayed and provided a heavy blanket for this sector. The sleet, snow and ice was driven by a brisk wind, a part of the norther that hit the Panhandle and is said to be the worst in that area in 52 years.

Thermometers fell to 10 Saturday morning and dropped to 6 on Sunday morning in this sector. Snow drifts some four and five feet deep on lanes leading to the homes of farmers in this community kept them snow-bound Sunday. North of town a road grader was used to permit residents of that sector to reach the highway, where the wind had blown off a considerable part of the snow.

Monday brought sunshine and rising temperatures and most of the snow turned to slush and mud during the afternoon when a high of 55 was recorded. Some snow on the north side of buildings, remained until Tuesday.

No accidents to civilians or damage to livestock and flocks was reported although on both Saturday and Sunday mornings many automobiles failed to start because of the extreme cold and both motor and pedestrian traffic was hazardous because of the ice-encrusted surface of streets and sidewalks.

On the other hand, youngsters had the thrill of a lifetime snowballing and sleighing and amateur photography fans were busy getting choice shots of a white Muenster.

Sunshine and warmer weather were short-lived. Wednesday another norther, and another snow storm blew in around 7 p.m.

Mrs. John B. Herr Succumbs To Heart Ailment Wednesday

Funeral Services At 9:30 Friday Morning

78-Year-Old Pioneer Citizen Had Resided Here Over Half Century

Mrs. John B. Herr, 78, for more than 50 years a resident of this community, succumbed to a heart ailment Wednesday morning at 6:45 at the home of her son, Adolph Herr. She had been ill since October.

Funeral services are being held today (Friday) at 9:30 a.m. at Sacred Heart Church with Pastor Father Thomas officiating and burial is to be in the Muenster cemetery under the direction of Mrs. Nick Miller.

Mrs. Herr, who was Miss Barbara Rohmer before her marriage to Mr. Herr, was born in Rulo, Nebraska, on March 24, 1866. They were married August 25, 1885, at New Hartington, Nebraska and came to Texas, settling in Muenster, in March 1890, and resided here since that time. They lived north of the city on a farm until 1923 when they retired from active work and moved to town to reside. For the past several years they made their home with their son, Adolph.

Mrs. Herr was the mother of 16 children, 13 of whom survive. In 1935 Mr. and Mrs. Herr celebrated their golden wedding anniversary with a family reunion. In 1937 he sustained a broken hip in a fall and since then has been confined to a wheel chair. Mrs. Herr, always a devoted wife and mother, was particularly attentive to her husband since his accident, spending most of her time at his side and taking joy in caring for him and carrying out his wishes. She was in unusual good health and very active, in spite of her advanced age, until she suffered a heart attack in October. From then on she was a semi-invalid, confined to her home.

Survivors are the husband, 83, years of age, six sons: Frank of Ardmore, Okla.; Leo, Ramona, Okla.; Joe, Arlington, Paul, Orange, Bill, Pampa, and Adolph, Muenster; seven daughters: Messrs. Ben, Benford, Lindsay, Joe and Al Schnitker, Denison; Richard Hennigan, Calera, Okla.; Matt and T. Miller, Muenster, and John Corcoran, Gainesville. Also surviving are 68 grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren. Seven grandsons are serving in the armed forces.

As pioneer residents of the community, both Mr. and Mrs. Herr took active part in civic and church affairs, contributing their share to the growth and progress of the colony.

When Muenster celebrated its golden jubilee in 1939, Mr. and Mrs. Herr were among the few pioneer residents still surviving and were the only married couple of the early days. They were given places of honor for the church rites and were also at the afternoon celebrations renewing old acquaintances and welcoming visitors.

MUESTER PUBLIC SCHOOL

EDITED BY:

Lorine Knabe, Andy Stelzer
Cornelia Harrison
JANUARY 7, 1944

After having spent a most enjoyable Christmas vacation, we are back at our studies with renewed vigor. And now that the new year has rolled around we are determined to make it the best year of our lives. Our resolutions are firm but can our will-power survive? We hope so.

We all regretted Paul's accident very much and were more than glad to have him back in class with us Monday afternoon. Here is hoping he never has such a misfortune again.

All one can hear in Mrs. Burchfield's room is what was done over the holidays and what gifts were received. Everyone seems to be very pleased with the whole thing.

SCHOOL RUMORS:

We wonder why Lorene Lutkenhaus is so sleepy in the morning. A hangover (maybe).
Julie has a lot of energy lately. It couldn't be a little blond, could it?

Dorothy Nell is sporting two class rings. We know that she couldn't be that intelligent.

Wonder why Florentine has been going so much. All because of that beautiful convertible?
Lorine Knabe is still looking for that picture that is promised her. Will she ever get it? We wonder.

Cornelia couldn't have two heart-flames now. If not, why did she miss the New Year's Dance?
Andy's former hobby was breaking pencils, but now its collecting jewelry.

Dewey still has a crave for blonds even after being absent from school for so long.
Carl seems to think a lot of his waves (WAVES).

A soldier couldn't be behind that ring Lillian is sporting. Now we aren't quite sure about it. Christmas vacation must not

DINNER PARTY HONORS YOSTEN BROTHERS TUESDAY

Cpl. Andrew Yosten and Joe Yosten, MMIC, who are spending their furlough and leave with relatives in this city, were honored with a dinner party Tuesday evening in the home of their brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Horn.

The dining table held two decorated birthday cakes, the one bearing 29 candles for Cpl. Yosten, and the other two candles for little Marilyn Horn, daughter of the hosts. Both anniversaries occurred during the weekend.

Guests for the dinner were John Yosten and son, Walter, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Hess, Mrs. Joe Yosten of Gainesville, and the host's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J.S. Horn. Mr. Horn, Sr., is much improved and is able to get around fairly well with a little assistance. It was the first time he was out in several weeks and he is elated over the accomplishment.

Following the meal other relatives and friends gathered at the Horn home for card games. This group included Messrs and Mmes. Frank, Nick and Bob Yosten, Joe Swirczynski and Ed Pels.

Drive For Petroleum Scrap

Reasons for the Drive

Actually, iron and steel scrap on hand represents only a 37 day supply. Against the heavy production schedules ahead, such a low inventory is dangerous. The need for more iron and steel scrap is clearly indicated in the comparison of 1942 against 1943 production schedules:

Airplanes —double in number, four times in weight over 1942.
Merchant Ships —double in tonnage over 1942 - more than 19,000,000 tons.
Naval Craft —double in tonnage
Munitions production, general —double 1942.

Shipments of iron ore are more than 8,653,000 tons behind last year due to the 31 days delay in the opening of the navigation season in the Great Lakes this Spring. Added to this is the loss of 300,000 tons of pig iron due to the coal strike late this Spring. Now, with further interruptions in the coal production, additional pig iron tonnage has been lost. Accordingly, many additional tons of iron and steel scrap must be used to make up for these raw materials deficits.

Half a ton of scrap is used in producing a ton of ingot steel.

Suggested Steps and Appeals

If continued peak steel production is to be maintained throughout the coming months, the petroleum industry must increase the tempo of its salvage efforts. In order to reach the over-all industry goal of 9,800,000 tons of iron and steel scrap before the year end, each oil company must step up its salvage efforts in line with the efforts of all industry.

Salvage Managers and their committees should do these things as soon as possible:

1. Resurvey all plants and properties as sources for dormant scrap.
2. Prepare an up-to-date list of all idle and obsolete equipment, machinery and tools
3. Arrange to dispose of all items they know to be unquestionable as scrap.
4. Arrange to study questionable items for future disposition.

Electric Power moves to fulfill the home and farm needs for electric service... there is a "Battle Station!"

This Company's employees are manning "Battle Stations" throughout the 52-county area it serves, keeping Electric Power "on duty" 24 hours a day, seven days a week, in the war of production. Faster and faster, bigger and bigger moves the war on the fighting front. Those at "Battle Stations" on the production front must keep pace, keep ahead, passing the ammunition and supplies to the Battle Stations "over there."

Mrs. C. Hoelker was admitted to M & S Hospital in Gainesville last Thursday for treatments. She is responding to treatment and will be moved home this weekend.

A recent letter from Pvt. Eddie Magee to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Magee, advises that he is now in North Ireland, that he is well and getting plenty of food.

Rufus Bezner and Misses Marcella Schmitz and Elsie Louise Bezner accompanied Misses Laura Lee and Gladys Wilde, Cadet Ray Wilde and Sgt. F. Benenate of Camp Howze to Arlington Thursday to visit Cadet Hubert Bezner.

An estimated 5 inches of snow fell in this community Friday night and Saturday morning. Thermometers Saturday registered around 12 degrees and on Sunday hovered around 7. Roads were not blocked here and citizens were able to attend church Sunday as usual.

Mrs. Bruno Zimmerer and little son are back for an indefinite stay after spending the past several months in California, near Camp Roberts, where Pvt. Zimmerer was stationed. He has been transferred to Oregon. Vincent Zimmerer drove to California and brought Mrs. Zimmerer and Jimmy back, following a visit with his brother.

Hugo Bezner, MM1C, left Saturday morning for Camp Parks, Calif., where he was to report for duty on Jan. 13, after spending a 30-day leave here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Bezner. He has been a member of the Navy Seabees since June 16, 1942, and received his training at Norfolk, Va. In September of the same year he left San Francisco for the South Pacific and was stationed on Guadalcanal for 18 months. While on this island his unit underwent 250 air raids. Hugo wears the Asiatic-Pacific campaign bar with one star for the defense and capture of Guadalcanal, and was also awarded the presidential unit citation ribbon.

LINDSAY MOTHERS SOCIETY REELECTS OFFICER FOR 1944

LINDSAY.— The Mother's Society of Saint Peter's Parish held its first meeting of the year Sunday with a large number of members in attendance. Principal business was the election of officers for 1944.

By acclamation all members of the executive committee were re-elected for another year. They are Mrs. John Bezner, president; Mrs. Ben Hermes, vice-president; Mrs. Matt Fuhrmann, secretary; treasurer. The annual report was given by the secretary and activity for the new year was discussed.

As a high-light of the afternoon a one act play was presented for the members' enjoyment following business. Pupils of the high school presented the skit.

JOE WALTER WINS IN NEW YORK SHOW

Joe Walter of Gainesville, breeder of Rhode Island Red chickens, has been advised that he won fifth place in the pullet display at the New York Poultry show in Madison Square Garden recently.

It was the first time he had exhibited birds outside of the Southwest, where he has won many prizes.

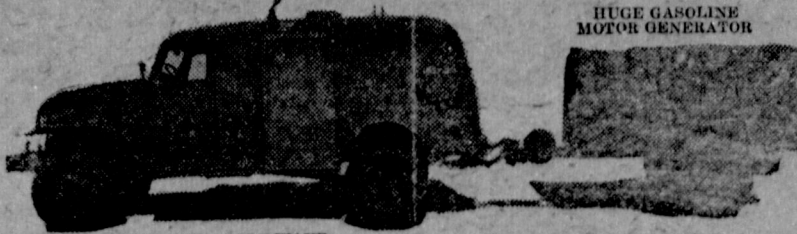

Mr. Walter was at a disadvantage in that his bird had to make a trip half way across the continent to compete with the eastern fowls. The report on his pullet read: "Fifth pullet a good one. Looked a little travel worn."

JOE SWIRCZYNSKI IS HONORED ON BIRTHDAY

Joe Swirczynski was honored with a dinner party Monday evening at his home in observance of his 64th birthday. His wife planned the affair and 40 relatives and friends attended.

The guests presented the honoree with a shower of birthday remembrances and after the meal informal diversion was enjoyed.

Radio Invasion Weapon

MOBILE RADIO STATION LINKS LAND, SEA AND AIR INVADERS

The terrific power of American invasion forces is made possible by combining aerial, naval, and ground forces into a single assault. A radio weapon used for this purpose in the African, Sicilian, and Italian invasion is the Hallicrafters mobile radio station, which is landed on the invasion coast and used for 3-way communication between ground forces on the beach, attack bombers in the air, and battle ships at sea. The station, which is capable of traveling at high speed, consists of an American truck carrying a powerful short wave transmitter and twin receivers. This is coupled to a gasoline driven motor generator which supplies power for the high output station.

The Hallicrafters mobile radio station, known to Signal Corps fighters as the SCR-299, is capable of receiving and transmitting battle orders over hundreds of miles. The telephone shown on the left can be operated at a distance of one mile from the station itself. A complete duplicate of the transmitter and receiver is carried in the form of spare parts in the cabinet bench on which the operator sits. Signal Corps Photos the American conscience and the American system. People who shout their heads off about rights have lost sight of attendant responsibilities, and a government based on principles of liberty and individual initiative has chosen to direct and meddle. It's high time we as a nation began to realize that the citizen and the government have ceased to be American.

Remember the report about a month ago on our war casualties since Pearl Harbor? According to my memory the total figure was about 125,000, of which about a fifth were deaths. Compare that with the report on 1943 traffic deaths in this country. 23,000, which is 5,000 less than in '42 and 17,000 less than in '41. Now recall that the vast majority of accidents are caused by carelessness and you come face to face with the sorry fact. Negligence is still taking more of our lives than the systematic destruction of modern warfare.
