Restored pump organ is loaned to Muenster Museum

Good fortune seems to smile benignly on the Muenster Museum each time another treasure becomes available, adding to the growing collections on loan to the institution.

Most recently-acquired is an old Mason-Hamlin pump organ, built in Philadelphia in 1876. It is on loan to the Muenster Museum by Mrs. Clifford Otto of Gainesville. In 1970 she and her husband spent more than four months repairing, restoring and refinishing the organ after finding it in a most dilapidated condition. She related Sunday, that she and her husband (who is now deceased) devoted every available moment after returning home from jobs, to working on the organ.

"We were inspired by friends who had restored several old organs in years past," she said. Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Otto had long admired restorations of old furniture and became intrigued with the idea of bringing an old organ back into use.

In 1970 they asked Father Alcuin Kubis if he knew of any old pump organs that were junked. He showed them what was left of such an instrument stored in the attic of Sacred Heart School.

"It was just a pile of lumber," said Mrs. Otto, "mostly in little pieces. Father Alcuin said to us 'If you'll just get it out of here, you can have it.'"

With more than a few misgivings the Ottos carried out the pieces. In appearances, it seemed

Council wants to continue taxing vehicles

The Muenster City Council finalized a resolution Monday evening for taxation of vehicles in Muenster in 1990. The procedure, if passed by the council will continue vehicle taxation as in the past at the same rate as real property taxation. A recently passed state law canceled this tax unless the individual taxing entity chooses to continue. Cooke County will not levy the tax choosing instead to add $10.00 to vehicle registration fees no matter what the value of the vehicle.

Before the tax becomes certain for Muenster the city must hold a public hearing on the matter and submit to a vote of the city council. That hearing will be held at City Hall at 7:00 p.m., Feb. 12. The vote will take place afterward. The city must also publish notice of the hearing in the newspaper four times before the hearing.

The council was scheduled to have the third reading of North Texas Communications Company's request for a 35 year Cable TV Franchise, and finally adopt the City Personnel Policy which has been in the works for over a year. Both items were tabled awaiting full council participation. Council member Pat Dennis was ill and unable to attend the meeting.

Other items addressed by the city council were:

-Mattie Swirczynski was appointed to the park board and one more member is still needed.

-Allen Sicking was appointed to the zoning board.

-The council directed the city attorney to follow through on requests to designate property owners to clean up certain eye sores and safety hazards.

The following resolution was passed and forwarded to GTE - Valenite and the Muenster Industrial Board.

WHEREAS, The City of Muenster, Texas understands GTE Valenite Corporation is considering the consolidation of its Cooke County, Texas operations; and WHEREAS, The City of Muenster, Texas feels it would be mutually beneficial for both GTE Valenite Corporation and the citizens in and around Muenster, Texas if GTE Valenite Corporation consolidates its Cooke County, Texas operations in Muenster, Texas; NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED; That the City of Muenster, Texas, by and through its City Council hereby agree to undertake those steps necessary and possible to pursue the objective of consolidating the operations of GTE Valenite Corporation in the City of Muenster, Texas; and IT IS FURTHER RESOLVED; That the City Council of the City of Muenster, Texas shall extend to GTE Valenite Corporation, any and all possible assistance in their efforts to conclude their deliberations in a manner which will be positive for themselves and the City of Muenster, Texas.

PASSED BY UNANIMOUS VOTE DECEMBER 4, 1989.

The council discussed and will initiate action to return the job of tax collection for the city to city hall. State statute allows this, if taxpayers approve. Muenster could once again be collecting their own taxes by September of this year.

The council approved bills to the city totaling $47,088.08 for payment.

County entities split concerning 'Freeport' tax issue

The city of Muenster differed from most taxing entities in Cooke County when council members last week rejected taxation of "freeport" goods.

"We felt that the amount we lost in taxes would be a small price to pay for the incentive for industry to locate here, and for other industry to stay," said City Manager Joe Fenton.

Texas voters in November approved an ad valorem tax exemption on goods that are in-state for the purpose of manufacture and distribution out of Texas within 175 days. This constitutional amendment, however, allows certain taxing entities to tax the property by passing resolutions before April 1.

If an entity has voted to tax the "freeport" goods, it may later rescind the resolution and exempt the property. But if an entity decides to exempt the property, or if an entity fails to pass a resolution before April 1, the exemption is permanent.

Sivells Bend Independent School District has not yet reported a decision to the county appraisal district. All other county school boards, as well as the city of Gainesville and the county itself, opted to tax the property.

Fenton said that when the Muenster City Council reached its decision Dec. 20, members took into consideration the fact that the "freeport" tax would be only a small portion of the total ad valorem amount. He cited an example in which Valenite Metals, AMPI and the Frybrant plants -- what he called Muenster's major out-of-state manufacturers -- had $250,000 in combined inventory. Tax on this property would be $1,075, Fenton said, 6 percent of the $181,000 the city expects to collect in ad valorem taxes in 1989-90.

D.J. Hellman, Muenster school board president, said MISD was influenced by other districts in going along with the tax.

"Texas schools are getting into a financial dilemma, and we need to tax as much as we can," Hellman said.

Mazie Dailey, personal property appraiser for the county appraisal district, said there is no way of knowing how much county manufacturing currently is shipped out of state. Hence, she could not tell how much the county could gain from the tax.

She sent out business personal property rendition forms last week, she said, and attached notes asking businesses to record separately the inventory that remains in state from what is shipped out.

"What goes out of the state may not be separated on their inventory now," Dailey said Monday.

"Industries may have to rework the way they do inventory."

County taxing entities were encouraged to go ahead with the tax in order to meet the deadline of Jan. 1 for the 1990 year.

"The mood was that it was a now-or-never thing," Fenton said. "Most of them felt it would be wise to wait for accurate figures on how much property would fall under the tax."

Larry Milner, president of the Texas Chamber of Commerce, in a recent press release urged officials to give serious consideration to the exemption.

"An area's tax structure will significantly affect employers' decisions on relocation or expansion sites. Negating the freeport exemption sends a strong signal to companies about the business philosophy of a community," Milner said.

MUENSTER'S volunteer Fire Fighters were kept busy this last week with four reported fires in the Muenster area. Above, the volunteers water down smoldering spots after a grass fire at the old Sohio Lease. Below, both trucks confine the blaze to only a small loss.

Officials count on gain in 1990 census count

When results of the 1980 Census were revealed to show a drop in Muenster's population from 10 years before, city officials registered their shock and disappointment.

But when the national count is taken again this spring, Muenster likely will show an increase from 1,411 reported in 1970 and 1,408 reported in 1980.

"The region will show a slight increase," said Tom Speakman, transportation planner for the Texoma Council of Governments. "Cooke County -- if it's not static -- will be up."

Speakman said the State Data Center, located at Texas A&M University, projected Muenster's population in 1988 at 1,549. Although the center's data are not official, he said, they tend to be more accurate than projections of the U.S. Census Bureau because the center hits regional trends more closely.

receive the 59-question "long form." This questionnaire asks about subjects including ancestry, disability and employment.

Strickland emphasized that the information gathered in the census is confidential. It will be used only in a statistical fashion, he said, and not shared with other governmental agencies such as the IRS.

Joe Fenton, city manager, encouraged residents to respond to the census, saying that more than community pride is at stake.

"I want to impress upon the people that when the questionnaire comes out they should answer it and answer it honestly," Fenton said. "It's extremely important to have an accurate count of the community."

Since 1980, the city has issued 42 residential building permits, which Fenton feels is an indication of growth. Also, the city has annexed eight or 10 parcels of land,

Henry Starke files for Cooke County Precinct four Commissioner

Henry Starke has filed for County Commissioner of Precinct 4, and is seeking the Democrat Position in the Primary Election on March 13.

He is 49 years of age, and has been a resident of Muenster all of his life. He attended Sacred Heart Schools for 12 years, and graduated in 1958. He also attended Cooke County College, majoring in Agriculture.

Starke served two years in the United States Army. After that, he worked at the Muenster Milling Company for several years. He was then employed by National Supply in 1969, working in the Inspection and Assembly departments until its closing.

For the past three years he has devoted most of his time to farming and raising cattle. Also, he is always willing to lend a helping hand to anyone who asks, whether it be an individual or an organization.

Henry and his wife, Margie, have been married for 22 years. They are members of Sacred Heart Parish. She is employed by Doctors John Kozura and Robert Nobles as manager of their Muenster office.

HENRY STARKE

Henry Starke believes in an honest days work, good maintenance of roads and equipment, and also, a good work relationship with personnel.

If elected as your Commissioner of Precinct 4, he will strive to put your tax dollars to work for you, the tax payer. He hopes to attain a good working relationship with the people of Cooke County. Henry said, "I can handle the responsibilities as Commissioner of Precinct 4, and do a good job."

"It's common for cities to not agree with the official count. They like to believe they're growing faster than the numbers show," Speakman said Monday.

Celine Dittfurth, city secretary, said she thinks part of the problem in 1980 might have been non-response, particularly by those households that received the "long form" questionnaires.

"The population has increased but it didn't show up in 1980," Dittfurth said. "I'd guess that nine out of 10 who got the 'long form' threw it away."

"They asked too many personal questions. People felt it was their (own) business and not anyone else's," she said.

About four out of five households will receive the "short form," which consists of 14 questions on demographics and housing. Vance Strickland, system manager for field operations for the census district office in Denton, said the other 20 percent will including St. Richard's Villa nursing home, and the Schilling addition on North Elm Street, which includes several homes.

Dittfurth reported that Muenster currently has about 520 residential water connections and about 100 to businesses.

"If we have a slow, sustained growth, that would be a good situation to be in. One percent a year would be nice," Fenton said.

Census questionnaires will be mailed out about March 23. The project is expected to count 250 million people and cost $2.6 billion. Results are used by business strategists and by governments in reapportionment of congressional seats and allocating funds to cities.

Strickland said Monday that temporary jobs are available in Cooke County for following up on non-respondents. People interested in applying should call his office at (817) 383-9600. The jobs pay $6 an hour.

Good News!

Shout joyfully to God, all you on earth, sing praise to the glory of his name; proclaim his glorious praise. Say to God, "How tremendous are your deeds! for your great strength your enemies fawn upon you. Let all on earth worship and sing praise to you, sing praise to your name!"

Letters to the Editor

Dear Sir:
We wish to thank all the people in Muenster and Lindsay for the tremendous support given to Cooke County Home Hospice during the 1989 Light Up A Life fund drive.

Because of the dedication of volunteers in many places and at the Tree of Lights at Beall's Department Store, we were able to raise a total of $11,390.00, which is almost double the amount from 1988.

Your response has been overwhelming. Due to your generosity we will be able to continue our work with the terminally ill and their families through this coming year.

We express our deep appreciation to each and every one who donated to Hospice care and to volunteers from all parts of the County who helped the Tree of Lights.
Sincerely yours,

Linda Lira, Director
Betty Melugin, Chairman, Light Up A Life
Sue Leonard Vik, Volunteer Coordinator

Dear Sirs:
I appreciate The Muenster Enterprise, it is very informative, keeps me in touch with the old town, and especially the news items of my relatives and friends, although the price keeps going up (like everything else). It is certainly worth the price.

Sincerely,
Louise (Mrs. Jake) Horn
P.S. I still miss Ramie Fette's column (Con-Fetti). Enclosed is my check.

Dear Editor,
Another year has gone by and I am delighted to enclose my check for another year's subscription. I still enjoy every news item and am glad to see the Old Theatre building is put to good use as a mall. I wish all these good people much good luck in their endeavor to make the town grow.

Whenever the paper arrives I put everything of less importance aside and read all the news, though I do not know any of the younger generation. You certainly try to keep the elderly happy. I have lost four of my good friends within the past few weeks in my neighborhood, one of them 95 years of age, and it makes me wonder-how much longer?

Good wishes to all of my friends and employees at The Enterprise for 1990.

Sincerely,
Angela Furbach

an impossible undertaking. They put them all back together, rebuilt the cabinetry, stripped off the old cracked finish, sanded it by hand, and revealed a beautiful walnut instrument that might have graced a parlor before it came to Sacred Heart School.

Research has not answered where the organ came from originally. Many local residents can recall seeing and hearing Sister Bertha play it in the second grade room of the old frame building. Joe Hoening remembers taking lessons on it in 1913 from Sister Bernarda. However, he said he quit after three weeks "because music lessons interfered with my baseball games."

A 73 year old former student said: "I myself remember seeing it in the old second grade classroom in 1924, when I was a second grader in the old frame building, and Sister Bertha used to teach us both German and English songs. Most of us were still bilingual in those days. The next year, in September 1925, classes were moved into the new red brick grade school when Sister Gebharda was my third grade teacher. I don't recall ever seeing that old organ again, but others say Sister Bertha continued to use it in the new building."

When it had outlasted its usefulness, the old organ was relegated to the attic, and through the years, simply fell apart.

After refinishing the entire piece, the Ottos restored and rebuilt all mechanisms of the old organ. They enlisted the help of Dick Henley of Gainesville. Because he was familiar with restorations and rebuilding of such instruments, he could send them to Dallas to buy necessary parts, buttons, stops, keys, bellows, etc. It is now in working condition, with good sound. The Ottos have spent a sizable amount on the complete restoration, and countless hours of painstaking labor.

When asked: "What led you to restore this particular organ?" Mrs. Otto answered "It is of historical significance." Because of its historic background with its many nostalgic memories, she felt it would have intrinsic value to the Muenster Museum and she graciously contacted Bertha Hamric to arrange its loan to the museum, where it is now on display.

Fire damages James Harrison home

A fire of undetermined origin totaled the trailer home of James and Gladys Harrison on Sunday, Jan. 7. Most of the damage was caused by smoke. The fire was reported by Mrs. Harrison at approximately 3:30 p.m.

The fire started under the house and according to Herbie Knabe, Muenster fire chief, it took some time to locate the source of the smoke as it was in a spot inaccessible to the firemen. Two floors were burned completely through and the remainder of the home was irreparably damaged by smoke. All of the family's belongings were salvaged, but some are too smoke damaged to use.

The Muenster Fire Department was on the scene for two and one half hours. The cause of the fire is still under investigation.

"The firemen did an excellent job. We couldn't have asked for anything better," said Mrs. Harrison in an interview on Tuesday.

Both Gladys and James Har-ison were at home when the fire started. Their granddaughter, Sondra Hughes, who lives with them was not at home at the time. The family is presently staying with neighbors.

The family saved most of their clothing and may be able to clean and repair some of their furniture according to Mrs. Harrison. They are in need of bedding and mattresses. A Love Fund has been established for them at the Muenster State Bank by Beta Kappa. James Harrison is employed by the city of Muenster.

On Tuesday, Jan. 9 the Muenster Volunteer Fire Department responded to a grass fire near Ray Wilde's. Coals from the family fireplace that had been placed outside by Mr. Wilde sparked a grass fire that burned about half an acre of lawn grass on the residences of Arnie Wimmer and Regina Pels. The Wildes' wooden yard fence was badly damaged, and according to Muenster Fire Chief, Herbie Knabe, there could be as much as $1,000 in damage to the fence.

Low humidity and high winds on Wednesday, Jan. 10, set the scene for extreme danger from fire and the Muenster Volunteer Fire Dept. answered two fire calls. Each fire required about 25 minutes to extinguish. The first occurred about 2:45 p.m. on the old Sohio Lease south of Muenster. Doug Hermes was operating a welder that started a grass fire. A building on the property caught fire but it was quickly extinguished by the fire department.

At 4:15 p.m., the Muenster firemen fought a grass fire on the Gary Hess farm. About three acres were burned by the fire which was caused by sparks from a trash barrel.

Heavy smoke from the fire caused Hwy. 373 South to be closed to traffic for a short time.

"Burning anything now is very dangerous, especially on days when the humidity is low," said Fire Chief Herbie Knabe. He is urging everyone to exercise extreme caution when doing anything that might start a fire

County TEAMS Testing shows improvement

by Elaine Schad
Cooke County schools continue to mark increases in overall scores on the state's mandated testing program, the Texas Assessment of Minimum Skills Test (TEAMS), according to data released by the Texas Education Agency.

The TEA has completed the compilation of test scores from the 1988-1989 school year for all of the state's estimated 1,100 school districts. The results show the percentage of students passing all sections of the state-mandated TEAMS test, a test of basic, minimum skills which is taken each year by students at odd-numbered grade levels. The test is divided into math, language arts and writing sections. Students must pass the TEAMS exit-level test in order to receive a high school diploma.

Complete data for the 1989-90 school year taken by the 11th grade students, the only results available so far, indicate a 2 percent statewide increase of students passing, from 75 percent last year to 77 percent of the 181,236 juniors who took the test this year in Texas. There was a slight increase in exit-level math scores, while language arts scores remained stable, officials said.

Statewide about 74 percent of all students passed all sections of the TEAMS during 1988-89, representing about a 2.4 percent increase over scores for 1987-88. Region 11, of which all school districts in Cooke County belong, ranked sixth among the 20 regions in Texas in TEAMS scores, with a 75.6 percent passing average for all students, a 2.7 percent increase over last year.

Cooke County schools had 84.1 percent of all students passing. For comparison, Denton County schools posted a 77.6 percent passing average, while Wise County schools had an overall average of 73.5 percent of students passing all sections. Two school districts in Cooke County, Lindsay and Era schools, played a large part in the county's overall high average, with both having a 94 percent of students passing all sections, among the highest percentages in the state. Muenster and Walnut Bend also helped bring the county's percentage up, with both of those districts marking a better than 88 percent passage rate.

Officials statewide are attributing the bettering TEAMS scores to a greater emphasis on education and remediation efforts. Even more important than the scores themselves, administrators said they look at how well their students are mastering the actual number of questions, called the scale score. Improvement in that area is more significant than just passing the sections, officials said.

TEAMS results for Cooke County for all grades of students passing all sections of the test for the 1988-89 school year, and the percentage change from 1987-88 include:

- COOKE COUNTY:
- Callisburg ISD: 80.8 percent passing, a 3.5 percent increase.
- Era ISD: 93.9 percent passing, a 1.3 percent decrease.
- Gainesville ISD: 81.7 percent passing, a 6 percent increase.
- Lindsay ISD: 94.6 percent passing, a 1/2-percent decrease.
- Muenster ISD: 88.5 percent passing, a 1.7 percent increase.
- Sivells Bend ISD: 70 percent passing, a 1/2 percent decrease.
- Valley View ISD: 74.4 percent passing, a 1/2 percent decrease.
- Walnut Bend: 88.9 percent passing, an 18.9 percent increase.

Lindsay ISD continues freeport taxation

by Elaine Schad
The Lindsay school board acted on a very brief agenda at its December meeting.

The board voted to continue the taxation of Freeport Goods. Texas voters in November passed a constitutional amendment which exempts from taxation all goods acquired in Texas or imported into the state and then shipped out within 175 days of acquisition or import. If a board votes to exempt such goods from taxation, the exemption becomes permanent. If they vote to tax the goods, they must reconsider the decision each year. Superintendent Gilbert Hermes said the board wants to keep its options open as long as members do not yet know the impact such a decision would have on the district.

In other business, the board voted to approve for credit French and Spanish classes taken by Lindsay students at Cooke County College.

Program offered to deal with youths' grief

MR. BOB LILLY of Graham, Texas and Mrs. Frank Hubans of Fort Worth announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Katharine Michelle, to Brian Patrick Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Miller of Sherman. The couple is planning a February wedding at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Sherman. The future-groom is also a grandson of Theo Miller and Mr. and Mrs. John H. Wimmer, all of Muenster.

A child is a miniature adult with the same feelings of grief and despair for a loss as an adult, but with less life experience to help them deal with their feelings of grief. Sacred Heart Parish is pleased to announce that it will sponsor a program, Rainbows For All God's Children, which is designed to help provide the emotional stability that a child needs to verbalize his or her own feelings and begin to deal with them.

The program is open to all area children, kindergarten through eighth grade, who are living in single-parent families, stepfamilies, or families that are going through painful transitions. It consists of six sessions, the six week semester is concluded with a wrap-up session that includes the parents and children. The first semester was held this Fall and the second semester will begin soon.

During the weekly sessions the children are divided into groups of three to five according to age and each group will be facilitated by a sensitive, caring adult. The facilitators are trained and provided with the materials needed to help these children put their feelings into words, work through their grief, build a strong sense of self-esteem and begin to accept what has taken place in the family.

The weekly support groups will begin Tuesday, Jan. 16 at 3:45 p.m. and will be held for six consecutive sessions. Each session will last approximately 45 minutes. The last session which involves the parent and child begins at 3:45 p.m. and lasts until 6:30 p.m.

In addition, a separate program called Spectrum will be offered for high school students. Their meeting times will be determined by the participants and facilitators.

Local coordinators for the Rainbows Program are Barbara Fuhrmann, Jeanne Greathouse and Emily Klement.

Both parent and child must register to participate and deadline for registration is Jan. 9. Dates for the weekly sessions are Jan. 16, 23, 30 and Feb. 6 and 13. For further information call 759-2511 or 759-4121 and ask for any of the coordinators. The application below can be completed and returned to the church office in the convent or mailed to Sacred Heart Church.

This Christian Program will help children share their feelings through workbook activities, sharing and discussions. "I think many children in our community could benefit from this program. If they are helped to go through the grieving process now, they will be happier and healthier as teenagers and adults," commented Barbara Fuhrmann, director of religious education in Sacred Heart Parish.

Everything will be completely confidential. The children are required to sign an agreement that they will not discuss what they hear outside of the discussion groups.

Jeff Long celebrates birthday at Moss Lake

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Stoffels of Moss Lake hosted a birthday reunion for their nephew, Jeff Waylon Long. The house was beautifully decorated in a clown theme. A birthday cake which was decorated with clowns was made by Betty Rose Walterscheid. Jeff received a variety of gifts.

After enjoying cake and soft drinks the children went outside and enjoyed the beautiful weather; the adults stayed inside and watched a football game.

Later a delicious fresh, fried fish dinner was served.

Those present were Jeff's maternal grandmother Ann Stoffels, Don and Nick Stoffels, all of Muenster; Tony Fuhrmann of Lindsay; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Long and children, Jeff, Ray, Anthony Jr. and Krystal, of Moss Lake; Doug Stoffels of Moss Lake; and Debra Sloop and twins, Ron and Rhonda and Michael Sloop of Moss Lake.

Joe Hoenig is honored on 86th birthday

Coming from all directions, Bedford, Carrollton, Denton, Ennis, Gainesville, Garland, Houston, Lewisville, Lindsay, Muenster, Palmer, San Angelo, Sanger, Wichita Falls, Whitesboro; and Atlanta, Georgia and Dodge City, Kansas - the children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren of Joe Hoenig honored his 86th birthday with a Christmas celebration at the home of his daughter and son-in-law, Edna and Richard Hermes in Lindsay on Sunday, Dec. 31, 1989.

Fifty six of the 99 descendants of Joe and the late Susie Hoenig gathered in the Hermes home for this celebration with a noon dinner, visiting, reminiscing, and picture taking. A highlight included their own trivial pursuit game "How Well Do You Know Your Relatives?" - a quiz compiled by Rita Cottle with 100 plus questions on names, events, dates, activities, and trivial data covering the four generations present.

Children of Joe and Susie Hoenig present were Eleanor Pelzel of Ennis, Rupert and Jeanie Hoenig and Rita Cottle of Carrollton, Ray and Celie Hoenig and Richard and Edna Hermes of Lindsay. Unable to attend were Jerry and Cece Hoenig of Kenesaw, Georgia and Carl Pelzel of Ennis.

In honor of Joe and Susie, prizes in this quiz were coins minted in the years of their births, 1904 and 1906 and the year of their marriage 1928.

Weight Watchers has new cookbook

Weight Watchers International invited Claudine Fletcher to its kitchen to attempt some recipes from the new Weight Watchers Meals in Minutes Cookbook. The theory was that if Claudine (who is a stranger in her own kitchen) found the cookbook user-friendly, so would the typical person who doesn't know how to cook and is overburdened with too little time and too many chores - to undertake or even enjoy cooking.

Claudine was once active in the kitchen, but for wrong reasons. At 22, after giving birth to her daughter, she lost her hearing. She also lost her career as a delivery-room nurse, became reclusive, sought comfort in food - and gained 50 pounds. She never regained her hearing. She finally joined Weight Watchers and today is a leader who attracts between 600 and 1000 people each week to meetings.

As a professional speaker, traveling throughout the U.S., she has talked about, "making choices," "dealing with difficult people," and "life as a quality journey" to executives, government employees, the U.S. Military, and on national television. She has even appeared on call-in radio shows where she has provided inspirational and practical answers to troubled callers. She retains her ties to Weight Watchers, now as a leader, attracting 600 to 1000 people in the San Francisco Bay area.

Schedule of Meetings

HERE COMES THE KING — The world-famous Budweiser Clydesdales march near the famous front gates of Grant's Farm. Nestled within 281 acres in south St. Louis County, Grant's Farm is home to the Budweiser Clydesdale breeding farm. About 10 new foals are born each year at the farm, which is also the estate of August A. Busch, Jr., the honorary chairman of the board of Anheuser-Busch Companies, Inc.

The Budweiser Clydesdales: The marvels of Main Street

ST. LOUIS - The scene is familiar to Budweiser Clydesdale fans: The mighty "Gentle Giants," pulling their historic red wagon in front of thousands of spectators during a major parade or event, as seen at home through the eyes of a television camera, the horses look majestic, almost magical.

But to thousands of people every year, these television appearances are not the only chance to see first-hand the wonders of the world-famous Budweiser Clydesdales.

With more than 300 appearances annually, the Budweiser Clydesdales spend most of the year on the road. Whether it's a parade in Iowa or a college football game in California, the Clydesdales are often the hit of the big crowds that turn out to see their favorite horses.

With their proud Scottish heritage, stately bearing and confident gait, the Clydesdales are surprisingly approachable - a necessary trait when you consider the attention lavished on the horses each year.

It was the breed's hauling power and confident style that attracted North Americans to the Clydesdale breed. In fact, in the early days of brewing, it was said that a brewer's success was directly related to how far their draft horses could pull a load in one day.

It was in 1933, shortly after the repeal of Prohibition, when the Clydesdales became part of Anheuser-Busch. August A. Busch, Jr., decided to present a hitch of the mighty horses to his father to commemorate the first bottle of post-Prohibition beer brewed in St. Louis.

Mr. Busch told his father that he had bought a new car and asked him to come outside and take a look at the new vehicle. But instead of a Model "T," Mr. Busch's father was confronted with the tremendous sight of a Clydesdale hitch pulling a red beer wagon.

That was only the beginning. Realizing the advertising and promotional potential of a horse-drawn beer wagon, Mr. Busch had the team sent by rail to New York City, where it picked up two cases of Budweiser beer at New Jersey's Newark Airport. The beer was later presented to Al Smith, former governor of New York and an instrumental force in the repeal of Prohibition.

From there, the Clydesdales continued on a tour of the New England and mid-Atlantic states. The hitch even delivered a case of beer at the White House to then-President Franklin Delano Roosevelt.

During the initial years on the road, the horses were transported by train. Before truck transport was introduced in 1940, the horses, wagons and harness equipment had to be unloaded from the trains, put on local trucks, and then unloaded again wherever the horses were stabled.

Now, the horses travel in style aboard custom-designed tractor trailers, and their travels take them all over the world.

Clydesdale appearances each year range from the Rose Bowl parade to the Mardi Gras celebration in New Orleans to the Houston Livestock and Rodeo Show in Texas. The famous horses also make dozens of appearances at small town festivals and special events.

With each performance, new smiles and happy faces of Clydesdale fans will appear. The Clydesdale hitches travel nearly 90,000 miles a year, and with each mile they cover, so continues the Budweiser tradition.

DeBordes retrace family history

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Lack of space necessitated the delay in printing this story from Edith Richardson. Because of its historic significance, the story is offered this week.)

Retracing times and places of their childhood and growing-up years was one of the most interesting and enjoyable recent experiences of several members of the family of the late Henry W. and Maude DeBorde. They visited for three days in the San Angelo and Carlsbad (in Tom Green County, Texas) area.

Making the trip were Wilma DeBorde Thurman of Forestburg; Homer and Dorothy DeBorde Riley of Sanger; Wilbur and Wanda DeBorde of Era; Edith DeBorde Richardson and Hallie DeBorde Berry both of Gainesville.

The late Henry DeBorde and his father, the late William DeBorde bought a section of land three or four miles from Carlsbad, Texas, moving there from Greenfield, Ill. in December 1909 to a community called Grape Creek. A school and church were near. The DeBordes built houses on the land. Later Henry moved his family to Carlsbad. There he owned and operated a meat market.

Three of the DeBorde children were born there: the late Beulah DeBorde Dill, Wilbur DeBorde and the late William Paul (Nig) DeBorde.

Henry W. DeBorde went to work for Crawley Cattle Company of Fort Worth and moved to Cooke County on Sept. 16, 1917. It has now been more than 70 years since the Henry DeBorde family left Carlsbad.

When the seven local relatives who made the trip back to Carlsbad, Texas arrived in San Angelo, they visited the grave of their grandfather, William DeBorde, who was buried there on Sept. 26, 1915. They also visited the grave of an aunt, Nannie Pritchett DeBorde, mother of Morita DeBorde Michonski of Dallas, and Frank DeBorde of Arizona.

At the time, the DeBordes lived in Carlsbad, there were two stores, a post office, a bank, a brick school, a lovely church, doctor's office, wagon yard and two hotels. Mrs. Henry W. DeBorde operated one of the hotels. There was a pavilion where the young people met for entertainment and roller skating.

There was a well of mineral water, used for medical purposes. There were beautiful homes. Henry W. DeBorde furnished meat from his meat market for the Tuberculosis Sanitarium in Carlsbad. Many families members traveled long distances to take rooms in the hotels to be near their patients in the sanitarium about a mile away. Carlsbad was a lovely little town.

Now the only thing left there is the old bank building, used for a home. The old house where the DeBorde family lived is still there. The old school has been torn down. The local visitors picked up a few bricks in "memory of the good old days," they said. The old church burned down long ago and the houses were moved away. "The sanitarium is now a home for retarded persons," said Mrs. Richardson.

The local visitors went to see the Concho River where two of the DeBorde girls were baptized in 1917.

Sadly the visitors found prickly pear cactus and mesquite trees on much of the "ghost town" land where once stood a lively nice town full of friendly people. They said they found real "Texas hospitality" in the city of San Angelo. Returning to the North Texas area after their trip, the relatives felt a great satisfaction in having traced their childhood in the San Angelo area.

Muenster splits district opener with Lindsay

The Muenster teams traveled to Lindsay last Friday evening for the opening district games. The Hornets outscored Lindsay 35-25 to take the first win. "This is what we have been working for all year; the girls were ready to play," said Muenster Coach Brian Strothers, whose players have been fighting the flu all week.

"It was a real defensive struggle," continued the coach. "Jenny and Dana Wimmer played great games defensively, pulling down rebounds together. Shonna Reiter played well on both sides."

After 8-4 and 18-14 scores in the first quarters, Muenster made defensive adjustments in the third quarter to hold the Lady Knights to 4 points. "Our whole team played great defense," bragged Strothers. "Melissa Bayer was the main force on offense throughout the night." Bayer was the leading scorer with 10 points. Shonna Reiter and Dana Wimmer added 8 each with Jenny Wimmer scoring 6. Kim Anderle and Lisa Robison also scored.

Gretchen Hoenig was high scorer for the Knightettes with 12 points. Julie Fuhrmann added 5, Laura Lutkenhaus 3, with Debbie Fangmann and Kristi Krebs adding 2 each.

"It was a great win for us," concluded the coach. "Our goal is to be district champions; we took the first step." The Hornets are 10-8 for the season.

The injured, bug-bit Hornets came up short against a hot shooting Lindsay team, 44-71. The Hornets started with a 13-11 first quarter score, when "Lindsay boys got hot" and took a 29-21 halftime lead. "The second half we went ice cold and stayed that way the rest of the game," said the Hornet coach.

Steve Fisher led the Hornets with 10 points. James Hennigan and Brad McDaniel scored 9 points each and Troy Pagel made 8.

"There are a lot of games to go; we will have to work harder and maybe the flu bug won't hit us again," concluded the coach.

John Krebs' 17 points led the Knights, followed by Corey Sandmann with 15. Kenny Fleitman added 12, Joel Metzler 11, Chris Hanks 7, Scott Hermes 6 and Anthony Edes 2 for Lindsay.

The junior varsity Hornets began the action in Lindsay. After a 10-9 first quarter, Muenster moved further ahead to finish the half 19-14. The Reds scored 28 points to Lindsay's 25 in the second half to keep the lead and win 47-39.

"The game was a defensive battle with a lot of fouls," said Coach Brian Strothers. "Lindsay kept fouling and we hit our free throws." The JV Knights finished the game with four players.

Pat Corcoran led the Knights with 17 points, Travis Huchton added 15. Jeff Hermes scored 5 and Jeff Pearson had 2 for Lindsay.

JV tournament set for Saturday

The Muenster gym will be the site of a junior varsity tournament this Saturday, Jan. 13.

In the girl's action, a Muenster team will begin with a contest against Alvord at 9:00 a.m. followed by a second Muenster team taking on Saint Jo at 10:00. The losers of these two games play for 3rd place at 2:30 and the winners play at 4:30 for the championship.

The boys begin at 11:00 a.m. with Era matched against Collinsville. The Muenster J.V. team plays Saint Jo at 12:00. Third place action for the boys begins at 3:30 with the championship game starting at 5:30 p.m.

BRAD McDANIEL shoots over Lindsay defenders John Krebs (33) and Scott Hermes (10). Ready to rebound are Corey Sandmann (12), Steve Fisher (40), Troy Pagel (34), Jeff Pearson (32) and James Hennigan (24).

Hornets play Hornets in second district match

Muenster hosted the Hornets from Era Tuesday night in the second game of district competition.

The varsity and junior varsity Reds were handed defeats, while the Muenster girls improved their district record 2-0.

Eleven Red Hornettes scored in Muenster's 56-26 victory. Dana Wimmer was high scorer with 14 points, Shonna Reiter followed with 11 and Melissa Bayer 9.

"We came out scoring well and our defense was tough as nails," said Coach Brian Strother. "As Muenster held Era scoreless for over 9 minutes - our press the first quarter really stifled them."

After a 19-0 quarter, Muenster was up 33-11 at the half. "We started a little slow in the third quarter, but we warmed up."

The Muenster Hornets began the game with an 8-2 lead but fell 16-14 at the end of the first quarter. "Era is a very good basketball team," said Strother. "We were playing with high emotion and the crowd was in the game." With a 38-31 halftime score, Muenster was already in foul trouble.

In the third quarter, Muenster went cold and Era "shot the lights out," scoring 59 points to Muenster's 27 the second half. "Terry Felderhoff played a great game off the bench," the coach commented. "Seventeen rebounds and 14 points is a career high in both categories."

Steve Fisher was high scorer with 15 points; James Hennigan, Troy Pagel and Brian Reiter added 8 each to the final 97-58. The defeat gives Muenster two district losses.

The JV boys fell 8 points short in action against Era.

"It was a real fast paced game," said Strother. "We played good in spurts, but never quiet."

Kody Truebenbach led the team with 25 points. Ryan Sicking added 13, Mike Hacker 12 and Steve Youngblood 10. Also scoring were Mike Gobble, Brian Knabe and Darren Bindel.

Muenster hosts Collinsville Friday, Jan. 16, then the JV plays on Tuesday, Jan. 19. Junior varsity games start at 5:30 p.m., followed by varsity girls at 7 p.m.

Muenster varsity falls to Lobos

The Little Elm Lobos came to Muenster last week Tuesday for Muenster's last pre-district contest, and took home two varsity victories.

The junior varsity Hornets began the night by defeating Little Elm 80-43. Ryan Sicking led his team by scoring 22 points. Kody Truebenbach shot 15 and Mike Hacker 11. Others scoring for Muenster and their points were Mike Gobble 9, Justin Ramsey 8, Brian Knabe 5, Steve Youngblood 4, Darren Bindel and Harry Hubbard 3 each.

Muenster took a commanding lead in the first quarter, scoring 24 points. "Little Elm caught up with us when we played our younger guys," said Coach Strothers. Muenster scored only 6 points in the second quarter giving the Lobos only an 8 point spread. The Reds scored 50 points in the second half for the commanding victory.

The Hornets were handed a hard-fought 48-45 loss. "They were quick and fast," said Coach Strothers. "They beat us 81-61 the last time we played. Thanks to Shonna's (Reiter) speed and outstanding defense, we held their high scorers down."

Muenster led by one point in the first quarter, then fell behind by one at half. A low scoring third quarter gave Little Elm a 2 point lead going in to the final period. "In the 2-minute stretch in the 4th quarter, we kept turning the ball over," said Muenster's coach.

Kim Anderle was high scorer for the Lady Hornets with 10 points, Denise Anderle followed with 9. Shonna Reiter scored 8, Dana Wimmer 6, Melissa Bayer 4, Brandy Debban, Delana Walterscheid, Lisa Robison and Jenny Wimmer had 2 each.

The varsity Hornets got a late start, falling behind 17-8 in the first quarter, closing to a 30-34 halftime score. "We got ourselves in a hole the first quarter," said the Muenster coach. "We played good the second quarter and had the lead a while in the third."

Muenster gained a point during the third quarter, 47-44, before falling behind in the final period. "We missed easy shots, had bad defense and too many turnovers in the fourth quarter," concluded Strothers.

Steve Fisher topped his team with 18 points, Brad McDaniel scored 14. James Hennigan finished with 9, Doug Hennigan 8, Troy Pagel 6, Terry Felderhoff 3 and Tom Teafatiller added 2 points.

Muenster started district play last Friday night in Lindsay.

Are the Tigerettes back?

The Sacred Heart Tigerettes roared to three convincing wins this past week as district action tipped off. "It's the real season," said Coach LeBrasseur. "You sure like to play good basketball in pre-district, but we seemed to struggle especially in the KGAF - Cooke County Classic." "I was very disappointed in our performance at the Classic so we made some changes and things are looking up." The changes include a return to the pressure defense and pressure offense of years past and a platoon system.

In the platoon system, the Tigerettes are rotating two teams at intervals throughout the game. The system seems to be working as the Tigerettes opened district play with a convincing 74-19 win over Lexington in Dallas Friday night. Four players hit in double figures for the Tigerettes, led by LaBecah Hess's 17. Juniors Sharon Fuhrmann and J.J. Dowd each scored 15 and 13 respectively, and Debbie Schmitt hit for 10. Other scorers for the Tigerettes were Amy Bayer and Shirley Henschel 6 each, Vickie Bayer 3, Jennifer Walter and Janie Fisher 2 each.

The Tigerettes returned home Saturday evening for their first home game in a month and scored a 86-13 win over Lakehill. After being held scoreless on Friday, Amy Walterscheid scored a season high 19 to lead four players in double figures. LaBecah Hess scored 12 and played her top game of the season, Debbie Schmitt and J.J. Dowd each scored 11. Sophomore Shirley Henschel scored 9, followed by Sharon Fuhrmann, Amy Bayer and Janie Fisher with 6 each. Vickie Bayer scored 4 and Angie Hofbauer swished 2 to round out the scoring.

On Tuesday evening, the Tigerettes traveled to Tyler Street and returned with a 64-30 win over the Lady Crusaders. The Tigerettes started fast with a 23-8 first period lead but forgot how to play defense in the second frame as the Lady Crusaders outscored the Tigerettes 14-11 in the second period to cut the Tigerette lead to 34-22 at the intermission. "We were flat and didn't move our feet," said Coach LeBrasseur. "All it takes to play defense is concentration and work, and we failed to do either in the second period."

A regrouped Tigerette squad returned for the second half and outscored their opponents 30-8 for their third straight district win. The senior forward duo of LaBecah Hess and Debbie Schmitt led the Tigerettes with 18 and 17 points respectively. Sharon Fuhrmann scored 9, Amy Bayer hit for 8, and sister Vickie scored 5. Rounding out the scoring were Amy Walterscheid with 3, and April Truebenbach and Janie Fisher with 2 each.

"We have a big weekend ahead of us," commented Coach LeBrasseur. "Oakridge is coming in here on Friday with a 10-3 mark and we travel to Wichita Falls on Saturday with the Lady Knights coming off an impressive Pepsico Tournament Championship in Dallas."

Game notes: The Tigerettes are shooting 68 percent from the charity stripe in their last four games and have averaged 15 turnovers per contest down from an average of 26. Junior forward J.J. Dowd left the game Tuesday with an ankle injury and is not expected to see action this weekend. Freshman April Truebenbach will replace J.J. in the lineup. KGAF will air Friday's game. The fifth grade will play at the half.

Lady Cubs come home with consolation trophy

Sacred Heart's Lady Cubs participated in the Montague Invitational Tournament over the past weekend and returned with the consolation trophy. The Lady Cubs opened the tournament with a heartbreaking 14-13 loss to Terral. The Lady Cubs jumped out to a 7-0 lead only to have the ladies from Terral outscore the Lady Cubs 12-6 in the second half. Deann Hess and Amy Fisher led the Lady Cubs with four points each followed by Erica Schilling with 3 and Kelly Dangelmayr 2.

In the consolation round the Lady Cubs scored a 27-14 win over Forestburg. Deann Hess hit for 11, Amy Fisher 6, Kelly Dangelmayr 4 and Jeanne Endres scored 2. "Everyone played tonight," commented Coach LeBrasseur. "We seem to be improving and I hope we continue our hard work to be the best we can be."

On Monday evening the Tigerettes scored a 35-22 win over the visitors from Goldburg. Both teams started slow with the Lady Cubs holding on to an 11-8 halftime advantage. The Lady Cubs exploded in the second half doubling their opponents score 24-12 for a 35-22 win. Deann Hess scored a game high of 15 points followed by 6 from Amy Fisher, 5 from Jeannie Endres, Kelly Dangelmayr scored 3 and Stephanie Grewing rounded out the scoring with 2.

"Since the holidays, we are trying to play man-to-man defense and in the second half against Goldburg the girls did an outstanding job," said Coach LeBrasseur. "I am very pleased with our efforts the past week and look forward to playing at Montague Monday evening." Tip off is set for 6:00.

New reservoir boosts Metroplex area

DENTON — Fishermen in the North Texas area received a welcome New Year's present when the new Ray Roberts Reservoir was opened to boating at 6 a.m. Jan. 1.

While most of the fishing effort was directed at largemouth bass on the lake's first days after opening, Hysmith said crappie, white bass and catfish anglers may have the most success during the coming year. "Some big bass were caught before the lake opened to boating," Hysmith said, "including one that weighed eight pounds, 10 ounces. But big bass are not numerous, and the population is dominated by fish smaller than the 14-inch minimum length limit." Anglers may retain five largemouths per day if they are 14 inches or longer. Also in effect is a 25 crappie per day bag limit, and minimum length limit of 10 inches. The white bass limit is identical at 25 per day and 10-inch minimum. Statewide limits apply to other species.

The Parks and Wildlife Department has stocked Ray Roberts with 894,000 largemouth bass, 344,000 coppernose bluegills and 60,000 channel catfish since 1985, Hysmith said.

Lake Carter survey reveals crappie

BOWIE — A recent frame net survey conducted by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department showed that Lake Amon G. Carter near Bowie has a growing crappie population.

Biologist John Moczgyemba of Denison said the average of 4.8 crappie caught per night in the survey nets represented a 37 percent increase over a 1986 survey.

Of the crappie that were longer than five inches, 58 percent were eight inches long or longer. Only 25 percent were in that size class during the 1986 survey, Moczgyemba said.

"Almost one-fourth of the crappie over five inches long were 10 inches or longer, and the largest one we collected weighed 1.1 pounds," said Moczgyemba. The largest taken in the 1986 survey weighed 0.8 pounds.

The 2,126-acre lake can be reached by taking FM 1125 six miles south from Bowie.

County Agent's Report

by Craig Rosenbaum

One of the keys to growing pecans, whether in the backyard or in a commercial orchard, is to plant the trees properly so that they get off to a good start.

Tree planting time is at hand - January and early February are the best times - and here are a few guidelines.

To begin, select a tree 4 to 8 feet tall as soon as nurseries get supplies. Plant as soon as possible, using care not to let roots dry out or freeze.

Dig the hole only as large as the tree's root system. If the hole is too deep, the tree will settle and this can cause poor growth or death.

The taproot should sit in the bottom of the hole. If the hole cannot be as deep as the length of the roots, cut back the taproot to fit the hole. Pack original soil around roots as tightly as possible. Packing the soil in 2 to 3-inch layers is better than watering to pack the soil. Use adjacent soil to complete filling the hole, not light soil, sand or potting soil. The tree can drown in rainy weather if light fill soil is used on clay land.

Plant the tree at the same depth it grew in the nursery row. Look at the colors to determine the soil line; the bark is gray and the root is dark brown.

Cut off the top half of the tree at planting to balance the stem and roots and to force growth close to the soil line.

Wrap the lower 18 inches of the trunk with aluminum foil to prevent side shoots, sun scald and rabbit damage. On large plantings, use a mixture of white latex paint and water (one part paint to three parts water).

Build a basin around the tree to hold water and give each tree five gallons of water immediately after planting. Make sure trees do not go longer than 14 days without water.

These are some basic steps in planting pecan trees that can lead the way in getting them into production in a few years.

Some of you have asked for some of the better varieties adapted for the Cooke County area. Some of these include:

Desirable is a large Eastern pecan variety with very good kernel quality. Desirable develops a 54 percent kernel and requires 39 nuts to weigh one pound under growing conditions. Desirable is one of the leading commercial varieties in the Southeast.

Choctaw is a large pecan of excellent kernel quality, too. Choctaw develops a 59 percent kernel and requires 37 nuts to weigh one pound under optimum growing conditions. The tree is vigorous and disease resistant.

Some other varieties that Dr. Larry Stein, Extension Horticulturist at Stephenville likes are:

Pawnee, which is the newest variety available from the Brownwood Pecan Station.

Graking is an older pecan introduced by O.S. Gray of Arlington. It has a 52 percent kernel and requires 45 nuts per pound. It also makes an attractive tree for yard planting.

The Maramed has a large high quality nut. The tree was originally discovered near Maramec, Oklahoma. The tree is vigorous and productive.

One of the favorites around Cooke County continues to be the Sioux. Sioux pecans are small but have excellent quality. The Sioux develops a 60-percent kernel and requires 61 nuts to weigh one pound under optimum growing conditions.

Six seek democratic nomination for Texas Ag Commissioner

Austin - The announcement and official filing Friday, Dec. 29, of six farmers and ranchers who will seek the Democratic nomination for Commissioner of Agriculture in the March 13 Primary election, "is very positive and encouraging news for Texas agriculture," said Vernie R. Glasson, treasurer of the Texas Farm Bureau Friends of Agriculture Fund, Inc., the political action arm of the state's largest general farm organization.

"The fact that six highly-qualified farmers and ranchers are willing to challenge the incumbent in the primary election is testimony to the fact that Jim Hightower is not well thought of by the agricultural community, and that the industry that he is supposed to represent wants him ousted," said Glasson.

"Many Texas newspapers, public opinion polls, and the Legislature have told us that we must elect the Commissioner of Agriculture, and that is what we will do," the official said.

"Voters of Texas will learn that qualifications and willingness to do the job that the Commissioner is sworn to do are the two primary issues in this race and that the six men who filed today or those who have announced for the Republican Primary are highly qualified and willing to promote Texas agriculture," Glasson said.

"The incumbent Commissioner has no practical farming or ranching experience and is qualified only because of a special 'grandfather clause' provided him by the Texas Legislature," Glasson said. "As we see it today, it is an anybody-but-the-incumbent campaign."

and grain farmer from Plainview; Dan Pustejovsky, a cotton and grain farmer from Hillsboro; Dan Krenek, a cotton and cattle producer from Rosenberg; John Earl Smith, a cattle and hay producer from Quemado; Paul McDaniel, a cotton farmer from Weslaco; and Clyde Chandler, a cattle and grain producer from Rosebud.

"These candidates are all men of integrity, are dedicated to promoting Texas agriculture, are real farmers who will have invested their every dollar as well as blood, sweat and tears in farming, and anyone of them will make an outstanding Commissioner of Agriculture," Glasson said.

The six candidates who filed with the Democratic Party on Friday are: Neal Burnett, a cotton

Your last chance for optimum yield

If you didn't get all of your nitrogen down before planting, a topdress application now will go directly into increased yield and quality. So, topdress your wheat now, before the spring busy season hits. Get off to a fast start to a top yield.

We have the fertilizers you need. We can also arrange custom application if you wish. Come see us soon. We're ready when you are.
