

As this edition of the Enterprise is being printed and mailed, some of our friends and neighbors are at Austin attending a special hearing arranged by Senator Bentsen on the so-called "windfall profits tax." The purpose of the hearing is to gather data relative to legislation proposed by Bentsen to exempt royalty owners from the Crude Oil Windfall Profits Tax Act of 1980.

When this act was in the legislative hopper Administration propaganda justified its rip-off by harping on huge "obscene profits" made by oil companies... profits which actually were not out of line with those of a number of big industries in the North and East.

The unjustified demands not only prevailed but also served as a smoke screen for including royalty owners as well as producers in the windfall profits law. Thousands of royalty owners did not realize until April that they, as well as the big companies were being shaken down in this mammoth socialistic scheme whereby billions of dollars are funneled into the national treasury and distributed with special benefits to the liberal North and East. As Bentsen says, "the so-called Windfall Profits Tax may well result in the most massive transfer of wealth in the history of our nation."

Bentsen quotes a number of cases of this federal theft from royalty owners which came to his attention before the hearings. A 62 year old New Braunfels woman, unable to work, wrote that $66 had been skimmed off her royalty check, leaving her $128 for the month. An 84 year old widow in Clyde had $199.64 left after $100.50 had been taken off for windfall profits. A 68 year old Wichita Falls man, who never drew on unemployment compensation, relief or food stamps, feels that the windfall profits withholding will force him to ask for the handouts. He had $136.33 left after $70.96 was taken out. Also a retiree from Del Rio, whose only income was Social Security and oil royalty had his royalty check cut by $20.01 to $62.09.

The estimate is that 600,000 to 650,000 royalty checks are sent to people of Texas. If the cases listed by Bentsen are an average, it's apparent that their ripoff amounts to many millions every month. This includes dozens of people in our own community, some with a substantial royalty income which now yields lavishly to the federal shakedown, and some with the token amounts that eventually result after moderate royalties have been divided and subdivided by inheritance. Needless to say, these many deletions from checks will have an unfavorable impact on the local economy.

For his efforts to do something about this widespread injustice, Muenster is grateful to Senator Bentsen. We hope he'll be able to develop a really strong case, one that even the prejudiced liberals of Yankeeland will not be able to deny.

While sympathizing with royalty owners, let's not overlook the small independent producers who too are getting a raw deal from the windfall profits tax. They too are caught in a vindictive rip-off which presumably was directed at the big oil companies. As we remember, the political mean mouthing of Gulf, Texaco, Exxon and the other biggies led to the windfall tax, but they are not the producers who were really hurt. They are still making fat profits on their imports, offsetting the loss on local production resulting from the windfall.

But the small independent doesn't have the additional income from imports. His income is so drastically

337 Attend Swim Classes At Municipal Pool

The second week of Muenster's annual Red Cross water safety program got under way this week with an enrollment of 161. Combined with last week's class of 176, this accounts for 337 students for the 1980 program.

Under direction of Jeanine Flusche and the instruction of 37 teachers the students learned swimming at four levels of Red Cross rating, from the basics to strong swimmers. Included in the class were eleven adult ladies who were assigned the 9 o'clock period of the second week.

A special value of the course was its high ratio of teachers to students, one class with an average as low as two students per teacher. This was accomplished by dividing the total into five class periods, an average of some 70 and a teaching staff averaging 25 to 30. The result was generous attention to each student.

Enrollment of the second week was divided as follows. There were 110 beginners, 21 advanced beginners, 9 swimmers, 11 intermediates, 11 adults.

Graduates from each of those classifications following both weeks of instruction received certificates. In addition the graduate beginners, advanced beginners and intermediates received buttons and the swimmers received swim suit patches.

The instruction staff was headed by 10 persons with the Red Cross rating of Water Safety Instructor. Assistants included 8 with the rating of Advanced Life Savers and 19 were graduates of the Basic Rescue and Water Safety Class.

The roster included WSIs Carol Henscheid, Kathy Berres, Karen Koch, JoAnn Pagel, Marilyn Smith, Nancy Lippe, Janelle Hellman, Karen Wilde, Jane Kohler and Jane Taylor; Advanced Life Savers Karen Thomas, Rose Felderhoff, Kathy Koch, Gina Hofbauer, Donna Hess, Carla Walterscheid, Mark Grewing and

Lyle Huchton; and Basic Rescue and Water Safety Gards Terrye Flusche, JoEll Hellman, Jean Pagel, Laura Flusche, Rodney Hess, Stewart Hess, Renata Hess, Stacie Walterscheid, Dana Dankesreiter, Brad Henscheid, Carmen Flusche, Darren Walterscheid, Kerry Haverkamp, Lisa Haverkamp, Beverly Haverkamp, Curtis Henscheid, Dolle Pagel, Karen Wolf and Sharon Wolf. Other personnel were Jeanine Flusche director, and Rita Russell and Sharon Walterscheid, recorders.

Continued Hot Weather Forces More Water Rationing

With a little more cooperation and patience, Muenster water consumers will be able to sweat out their combined drought and record heat wave. They have been doing fine to date according to Mayor Leonard Endres, but they are barely pulling through day after day. The city could be in serious trouble in case of fire.

So, people are asked to tighten up slightly on their voluntary rationing program. 1. Don't water grass any day between 5 and 9 p.m. 2. Don't use more than one sprinkler at any time. Otherwise the program remains the same. Don't water lawns on Wednesday, Saturday or Sunday and observe the odd-even schedule on the other four days. That is, odd numbered homes can water grass on odd calendar days and even numbered on even calendar days.

The mayor asked that people forget about lush lawns and water for survival only. His suggestion is to just keep lawns alive until good weather comes to the rescue. However restrictions do not apply to trees and shrubs. Experience is showing that enough water can be saved on grass watering to keep other vegetation in good condition.

Steve Moster explained that the local problem is a combination of lower production and higher consumption. Normal output of 600,000 gallons is down 13 percent to 520,000 a day. At the same time heat and drought have increased demand to 600,000 gallons or more. The peak was 764,000 gallons. It means that on average days the city uses the entire output of its four wells plus about 100,000 gallons from storage. On rationing days the city can replenish its storage.

Saturday and Sunday are the best catch-up days and normally the 400,000 gallons of storage is filled then. continued on page 5 ...

Hospital Attacks Rising Costs

Muenster Memorial Hospital was awarded a 1980 Certificate of Participation in the Texas Voluntary Effort (TVE) citing the hospital for its outstanding effort in containing the increases of health care costs. In announcing the receipt of the certificate, David M. Bright, administrator, said, "Our hospital's cost containment goal is very ambitious! In the face of double-digit inflation, it will require great dedication and support from our governing board, medical staff, and employees to continue the successful containment of the increases in our expenses. Nevertheless, we are determined to do so while at the same time preserving the availability and quality of the services we currently provide to our community".

Mr. Bright added, "In order for our efforts to be effective, we must have the support of our community and a greater understanding of the problems we face".

The hospital joins other Texas hospitals in participating in the Texas Voluntary Effort, a program of the Texas Hospital Association, the Texas Medical Association and the Texas Federation of Hospitals. Together, they have saved the citizens of the state $300 million from 1977 through 1979.

Participants in the TVE include hospitals, physicians and nurses, and over 20 health, business, insurance and state government groups who have organized to effectively deal with the problem of rising health care costs.

Former Pastor, Rev. Thomas Buegler Dies At Subiaco

Father Thomas Buegler, O.S.B., 85, monk and priest of Subiaco Abbey, Arkansas, and a former pastor of Sacred Heart Church, died Thursday, July 10. He served at Sacred Heart for three years, between 1942-1945.

Father Thomas was born in 1894 in Fort Smith, Ark. where he spent his early years. He then came to Subiaco where he received his high school and seminary training. He was ordained to the priesthood May 28, 1922.

After his ordination he served on the faculty of Subiaco Academy until 1927, when he was assigned to Corpus Christi College-Academy as one of the pioneers of what was to later become Corpus Christi Abbey. In 1930 he began a parochial ministry that extended until his retirement in 1972. During this time he served Holy Family Church, Nazareth, Texas, 1930-33; St. Joseph's Church, Paris, Ark., 1933-42; Sacred Heart Church, Muenster, Texas, 1942-45; St. Joseph's Church, Rhineland, Texas, 1945-47; St. Theresa Church, Corpus Christi, Texas, 1947-57; St. Mary's Church, Altus, Ark., 1957-68; and chaplain at Our Lady of Loretto Chapel, Goliad, Texas, 1968-72.

Father Thomas is survived by one brother and one sister, Martine Buegler and Miss Gertrude Buegler, both of Fort Smith, Arkansas; two nephews, Fathers Luke and Boniface Buegler, monks of Corpus Christi Abbey; one niece, Sister Madeline Buegler, a member of the Benedictine Convent, Columbia, Missouri.

Abbot Raphael DeSalvo, O.S.B., was principal celebrant of the funeral Mass held Monday, July 14, in the Abbey Church.

Susie Hoenig, 74 Dies in Car Crash

Funeral service for Mrs. Joe (Susie) Hoenig, 74, victim of a traffic accident last Friday night, was held Monday morning at 9:30 in Sacred Heart Church with Abbot Alfred Hoenig of Corpus Christi officiating at a Mass of Christian Burial. Father Williams of India, along with Father Placidus Eckart and Father Stephen Eckart were concelebrants and Bishop Augustine Danglemayr was present in the sanctuary.

Mrs. Hoenig was killed in a two-car accident at the intersection of Ash Street and Highway 82 about 8 p.m. Friday. Her husband was the driver and Bert Hesse was the driver of the other car. Since then Mr. Hoenig has been a patient in Muenster Hospital except during the funeral and for a visit with the family later. He sustained multiple bruises and a fractured collar bone. Hesse escaped injury and did not report to the hospital.

Other participants in the funeral mass were Steve Hoenig, a grandson, who read from Scripture, and the Sacred Heart Choral Group directed by Ruth Felderhoff. In his funeral homily

Father Stephen referred to rewards merited by physical chastisement, and added she had been greatly chastised, and that she was stricken just as she seemed to be overcoming the pain. He said also that her death teaches a lesson that all should remember: "we know not the day or the hour."

Despite the sadness of the occasion he said that it is not without hope and joy. Rather it is a homecoming to those who believe in God as the source of all good, in Christ as our redeemer, in heaven as the kingdom of happiness without end.

Abbot Alfred led the prayers before departure from church to the parish cemetery, where burial was directed by Nick Miller Funeral Home.

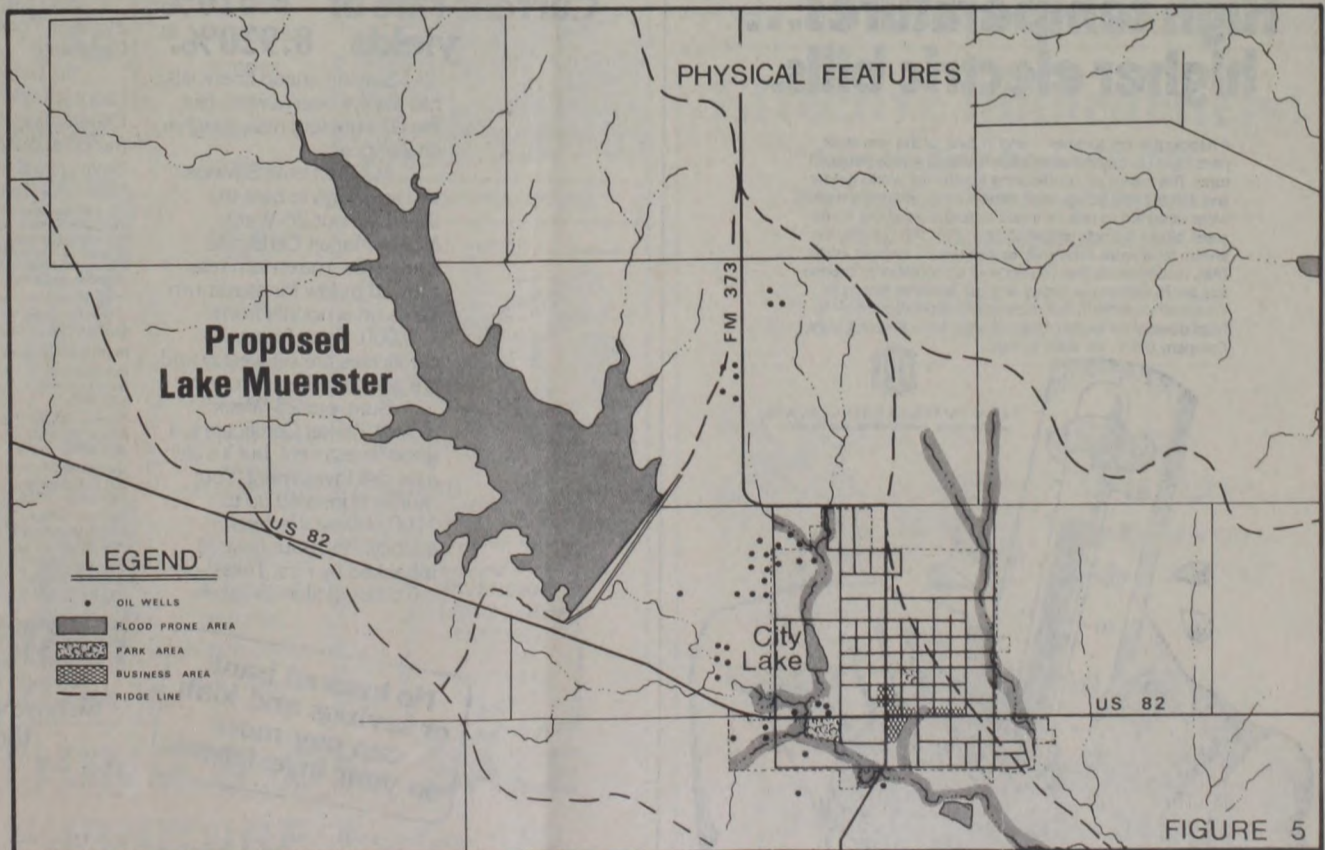

Pallbearers were Jimmy Pelzel, Bobby Hoenig, Kevin Cottle, Billy Joe Hoenig, Aaron Hoenig and Ronnie Hermes.

Sunday services included rosary at 4 and a wake service at 8 in the chapel of Miller Funeral Home.

Susie Hoenig was a native of Muenster, born on May 20, 1906, a daughter of continued on page 5...

THE THREAT TO SOUTH AFRICA
 In a defense of the Trilateral Commission which he founded, David Rockefeller made one very important point in a recent guest editorial in The Wall Street Journal, when he said: "It is only proper that the United States press the cause of human rights and individual dignity with a committed passion, but it should be prudent since our interference may be capable of toppling regimes whose substitutes are unknown. The result can even be an autocracy of an often more unsavory kind and a postponement of the day when liberty can truly flourish because its roots took hold in native ground."
 Mr. Rockefeller continued, "Foreign policy must depend on enlightened national self interest," and further that "this appears to be lacking in the conduct of our foreign policy today."
 We couldn't have said it better. Current foreign policy failures, based on a phony human rights position, which resulted in the loss of Iran and Rhodesia from Free World alignment, may now bring on a far more catastrophic loss unless the American people demand a reversal of our policies toward South Africa.

the Free World in the southern portion of the Dark Continent. Just listen to these words of Dr. Igor S. Glagolev, high Soviet official who was aware of Red plans for Africa before his defection to the U.S.
 "The year 1977 was very important for the preparation of the final Soviet attack against southern Africa. The Soviet leaders took into consideration that the present U.S. administration would not support anti-communist and pro-Western governments in southern Africa."
 "N. Podgorny, who was then chairman of the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet, ... went on official visits to Tanzania, Zambia and Mozambique. There, on behalf of the Soviet government, Podgorny concluded mutual agreements with the governments of respective countries concerning liquidation by military means of the present socio-political-economic system in Zimbabwe-Rhodesia, Namibia and the Republic of South Africa."
 Why should Americans be concerned about the Soviet drive for South Africa? Here's why, as answered by John Train in a recent article in Forbes magazine.
 "Since South Africa and Russia together — by a geological freak — control virtually all of the reserves of several minerals that are indispensable in modern industry, the Soviet Union then will be able to hold the Western World to ransom to an extent never dreamed of by OPEC. If South Africa falls, the West will have to submit or go to war — against superior Soviet forces."
 Those groups in this country which are responsible for our policies opposing South Africa are playing the Communist's game. If we continue to follow these disastrous policies it can spell disaster for America. America, wake up!

It's that time of year. High temperatures... higher electric bills.

It happens every summer ... and in June of this year most parts of Texas began having record-breaking high temperatures. This means air conditioning equipment works harder and electric bills go up. Most central air conditioning systems were designed to reduce inside temperature about 25 degrees below outside temperature. ... if it's 100 outside, the system must work constantly to maintain 75 degrees inside. TP&L recommends that you set your air conditioner thermostat on 78 degrees or higher and use portable fans to increase air movement. STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

AUSTIN—The killer heat wave which has hurt Texas crops has also caused Mexico to look north of the Rio Grande for grain.
 Texas Agriculture Commissioner Reagan Brown conferred with Mexican and U.S. officials last week about increasing agricultural exchanges between the two countries.
 Mexico seeks to trade more fruits and vegetables for U.S.-grown grains. At present, the United States exports some 11 million metric tons of grain to Mexico and imports almost 1 million metric tons of beef, fruits and vegetables from its neighbor.
 Texas fruit and vegetable growers and beef raisers are wary the Mexican imports will undermine the Texas producers. One consumer concern is that the imported fruits and vegetables have more pesticide residue.
 Brown said last week that Mexican-grown products are "as clean or cleaner" of pesticide residue than American produce, and Mexican officials at the talks echoed his point.
 The Commissioner's statements apparently reflect a growing desire at the State Capitol to have Mexico as a firm-fast trading partner. Another chief advocate is Gov. Bill Clements.
 Brown also estimated the current drought has set Texas agriculture losses at between $750 million to $1 billion.

Union Pickers Strike
 In the Panhandle, an onion-pickers strike by the farm-workers union underlines another problem facing Texas agriculture — wages for stoop labor.
 The issue raises heated emotions on either side of the argument and is sure to be among the most controversial agricultural issues in the Legislature next spring.
 Many Texas producers feel squeezed between labor's wage demands and the competition from other markets which might hamper raising the price to pay a higher wage.
 Other aspects of the issue are whether or not the laborers should be allowed to strike during harvest time and whether they have the right to organize a strike on a farmer's private property.

Clayton Trial
 House Speaker Bill Clayton's lawyer wants to try the Brilab case in late August or early September. He said Clayton's defense team cannot examine the federal evidence, which includes some 63 tapes via wiretaps, in time to prepare for the set July 21 trial date.

Briscoe Stumping?
 Former Gov. Dolph Briscoe, who lost a Democratic primary election to John Hill two years ago, may be dusting off his political clothes for a new shot at public office.
 Briscoe spoke last week at the Archer County Centennial Celebration and earlier to the San Antonio convention of the Independent Cattlemen's Association.
 Politico watchers are speculating Briscoe may be preparing for a race against Clements or for the U.S. Senate seat now filled by Lloyd Bentsen.
 Briscoe says he intends to help Texas Railroad Commission candidates Jim Nugent and Buddy Temple (both Democrats) "but that will be about it." But he said he's not closing the door to any future options either.

Anderson Campaign
 Illinois congressman John B. Anderson's bid as an independent presidential candidate may be slowing in Texas because of disension in volunteer ranks and problems with county records. Anderson's campaign must verify 40,719 petition signatures by July 14 for him to gain a spot on the Texas ballot.
AG Opinions
 In legal opinions issued last week Texas Attorney General Mark White ruled: —A city may allow discounts for advance payment of taxes only if its governing body adopts the provisions of Article 7255b, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes.

 —Tangible personal property purchased by an industrial development corporation or medical development corporation is exempt from the sales and use tax.
 —The offense of "public intoxication" may sometimes be a lesser included offense when "driving while intoxicated" is the offense charged.
 —A person licensed to dispense hearing aids may not fill a prescription for a hearing aid from a physician without first testing the individual's hearing.

City Gets $3544 Sales Tax Check

The City of Muenster has received a check in the amount of $3,544.00 from Comptroller Bob Bullock as rebate for city sales taxes collected here through the period of June 26, 1980. With this payment the total sales tax rebates of the year add to $43,768.12, a husky 36 percent increase over last year's $32,176.82 on the corresponding date.

Bullock said that this payment was one of 936 sent to Texas cities in the amount of $25 million, which is 6.6 percent higher than last year's $23.5 million... also that total rebates for the year to date are $291.9 million, or 20 percent increase over last year's $241.5 million. Discounting for the 13 percent inflation rate, the state still has a healthy business condition, he added.

The optional one percent city sales tax rate is collected with the state sales tax by business people and rebated on a monthly basis by the comptroller's office to cities where it is collected.

Rebates sent to other cities of the area along with total to date and rate of change were reported as follows:

Gainesville, $32,588, total to date $384,778, up 13%; Lindsay, $2,807, to date $24,235, up 18%; Nocona, $4,649, to date $67,561, up 25%; Pilot Point, $1,701, to date $22,880, up 28%; Saint Jo, No rebate this month, to date $14,141, up 34%; Sanger, $1,212, to date $18,034, up 28%; Whitesboro, $1,526, to date $44,935, up 3%.

Conservative Publisher Seeks National Day Of Prayer

Richard Viguerie, publisher of Conservative Digest, today called upon all elected officials to enact a National Day of Prayer and Fasting.

In a signed editorial in the May/June issue Mr. Viguerie proposes "THAT ALL Americans petition Congress to proclaim the Sunday before Thanksgiving as a National Day of Prayer and Fasting."

"I suggest this particular day because this is traditionally a time when Americans give thanks to God for all the blessings that we enjoy. It will be a true and appropriate commemoration of the Thanksgiving season. And I feel it will make the spirit of Thanksgiving more meaningful to us," Mr. Viguerie said.

In the October, 1979 issue of Conservative Digest, Mr. Viguerie first proposed a National Observance and wrote about the need for Americans to fast, ask God for forgiveness of our sins, seek His protection and give God thanks for His blessings.

Even though world and national events look grim according to Mr. Viguerie, Americans shouldn't look to the future with worry and pessimism.

"Perhaps many of our personal and national problems have developed because we have forgotten to thank God for our blessings, our opportunities, our freedoms and our great country," Viguerie stated.

The May/June issue of Conservative Digest includes a petition which Mr. Viguerie asks his readers to sign, circulate and mail copies to every local, state and national elected official in the country, including the President and members of Congress.

The editorial also asks readers to call local radio talk shows, send letters to local newspaper editors and ask religious leaders to participate.

"When I first wrote about a National Day of Prayer and Fasting in 1979 almost everyone I discussed it with was enthusiastic about the idea," Viguerie said.

"One minister, Reverend Claude Pike, told me that after reading my article last October, he decided to devote most of his time flying a 50 year old Bellanca biplane with his sons across America to help promote a National Day of Prayer and Fasting," Viguerie continued.

In response to Mr. Viguerie's drive, Vermont

Governor Richard Snelling issued an official proclamation setting aside November 18, 1979, as a day of prayer, fasting and recollection in that state.

Mr. Viguerie cites historical precedents for his current action.

"George Washington set aside a day for fasting and prayer when he was President. Abraham Lincoln, twice during the storm of our tragic Civil War, designated a Sunday for prayer and fasting."

"Hopefully we can encourage enough people to join with us to make this an annual observance," Viguerie concluded.

Steam Tractors Featured at Oklahoma Antique Show

Old timers can refresh old memories and youngsters can enjoy scenes from the past Friday through Sunday of next week, July 25-27, at the annual Steam Tractor Association Show in Pawnee, Okla. An invitation to Albert Hess from the producers, Cecil and Kenneth Kelly of Pawnee invites him to come and spread the word at Muenster.

The show has a big assortment of steam tractors ranging in size from a scale model 18 inches tall to a giant 110 HP Case weighing 25 tons. It also has an assortment of early gasoline tractors, plows, planters, threshers and other farm equipment on display and performing each day, and antique cars as well. Visitors are urged to come early Albert became acquainted with the Kellys six years ago when he and sons, Leo and Virgil went to Pawnee to see the show and missed it by one week. Instead of seeing they spent the day, helping store the equipment for the year.

because it's an all-day show. More information is available from Albert, Leo or Virgil Hess.

Harvesting machinery of grandpa's time will be on display at the annual Steam Tractor Association Show July 25-27 at Pawnee, Oklahoma. Of the dozens of units on display are tractors and threshers like these...even a junior size steamer.

Records Broken by Heat Wave

The heat wave has set two new records to date in Muenster and seems to be headed for another record.

According to Steve Mosler's records the reading of 114 degrees was the highest ever and 24 consecutive days over 100 is the most ever. Formerly the highest was 110 in 1978 and the most was 22, also in 1978. The other record concerns the total number of days over 100 degrees. To date there have been 11 in June and 16 in July, a total of 27. In 1978 there were 3 in June, 27 in July and 14 in August, a total of 44.

Meanwhile drought has been adding to the misery. The present total is 9.37 inches, about half of normal for this time of the year. According to Mosler's records June had a total of 1.61 inch, the last being .07 on June 22. July has been bone dry.

The combinations of heat and drought has been disastrous to farmers. Pastures are dry bringing on a need of feeding hay to livestock in the summer. At the same time hay crops are failing. Faced by these feed problems many farmers are selling livestock. The Muenster sale barn reported 1704 animals last week and the Gainesville sale barn 2375. In either case this is slightly more than half of normal.

Milk production likewise is down as uncomfortable dairy cattle tough out the heat. However total receipts at the AMPI milk plant, coming from as far as El Paso, are holding at about normal.

Two of the area's distressing stories were told Wednesday evening on Channel 8 TV by Robert and Kenneth Klement and Lee Wolf. They said production in down about 25 percent and the hay crop is a near failure. When forced to buy hay later, they expect it to be scarce and expensive. Considering both crops and livestock this is a tough year for local farmers. They are sharing in the Texas-Oklahoma-Arkansas losses which are estimated as high as $2 billion by the USDA.

Low and high temperatures of the past week were recorded as follows by Steve Mosler. July 10, 79 and 106; July 11, 80 and 107; July 12, 80 and 107; July 13, 80 and 107; July 14, 82 and 108; July 15, 80 and 106; July 16, 80 and 106.

Water Rationing...

With regular watering on Monday and Tuesday half of the storage is used so additional catch-up is needed on Wednesday to provide for Thursday and Friday. Apparently we can pull through all right if we'll stick with this program. Endres said.

Other factors enter into the watering situation, according to Mosler. About a dozen persons have their private shallow wells for outside watering. This relieves the city's strain somewhat, but lately the hospital lost its source of outside water when the Weinzapfel lake got close to the bottom and had to start using city water.

WHY GAS IS PLENTIFUL, EFFICIENT AND RIGHT FOR THE TIMES.

It's time to kiss rumors goodbye and settle down with reassuring facts, one of which is that gas is plentiful for the residential and commercial customers of Lone Star Gas Company.

Rumors are usually more exciting than fact, but the fact is that approximately 2,500 drilling rigs were at work in the United States in December 1979. This was the highest active rig count since 1956.

Despite persistent rumors that America is running out of natural gas, industry statistics reveal an increase in the ratio of successes to failures in gas-well completions in 1979.

As a result, the United States has about 14,700* new gas wells it didn't have a year ago. And exploration is expected to increase — not decrease — as higher gas prices offset the increasing cost of drilling.

Another reassuring fact is this: 50% of this nation's estimated remaining onshore gas reserves are in nine major basins in Texas and Oklahoma. Lone Star's pipelines connect with eight of these basins, so we'll have plenty of opportunities to buy new gas.

The new gas appliances can help you hold down your utility bills.

Gas is the naturally efficient energy that works in its original form, free of energy conversion costs. Direct use of it in your appliances actually conserves energy and saves you money.

Now, with the new energy-efficient appliances that use up to 30% less gas to do the same jobs your old appliances do so reliably, economical natural gas becomes even more economical.

The new gas appliances can help you hold down your utility bills without cutting back on the comforts and conveniences energy can provide. It's why natural gas and the new gas appliances are so right for the times!

Is Canning, Freezing, or Dehydrating Best for Preserving Vegetables?

By Robert L. Haney
TAES Science Writer

To hold down food costs, more and more people are turning to home preservation as a means to either save extra food when it's cheapest to buy or to store the surplus of a home garden.

Is it best to freeze, can, or dehydrate? There is a decided difference in energy cost and product quality, according to Dr. Ki Soon Rhee, food scientist at Texas A&M University, who made a comparative study of food preservative methods for the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station.

Carrots, zucchini and summer squash were processed by canning, freezing and dehydration according to methods commonly used in the home.

Energy use was measured and the cost preservation was calculated, with the packaging and amortized equipment cost included. Palatability and vitamin content, of the processed products, important measures of quality, were carefully checked.

Freezing required the shortest processing time and resulted in products with the best eating quality with highest retention of carotene and ascorbic acid (assuming canned liquid not used).

Although more electric energy is required to process and store vegetables by freezing than by canning or dehydration, the overall cost (including packaging cost and amortized cost for equipment) for freezing preservation can be kept as low as or lower than the cost for other preservation methods, providing that the freezer is kept as full as possible.

With the freezer kept only half full, Rhee says, freezing would cost more than canning or dehydration for long-term storage (more than 6 months).

When canning is compared with dehydration, canning uses much less electric energy and may be slightly cheaper in overall preservation cost. An added advantage is that canned products retain much more ascorbic acid and carotene than do the dehydrated products. A vegetable should not be dehydrated if it is expected to supply ascorbic acid in the diet since most of the vitamin is lost during the dehydration process.

Freezing resulted in products with the highest sensory quality, with ratings well above minimum acceptability. They were tops in texture, smell, flavor and appearance.

The canned and dehydrated products were rated low in sensory quality, with rating mostly below minimum acceptability. In mixed dishes, such vegetables acceptability would be improved, Rhee concluded.

Freezer Jams Preserve Summer

Summer comes and goes all too quickly, yet fresh summer delights can be preserved all year. This Plum Peach Freezer Jam is a perfect way to enjoy summer flavors year 'round and because the fruit is not cooked, the fresh flavor is enhanced.

Plum Peach Freezer Jam

1 1/2 pounds (about) fully ripe plums	1 package (2 oz.) MCP jam and jelly pectin
1 1/4 pounds (about) fully ripe peaches	1 cup Karo light corn syrup
1/3 cup lemon juice	4 1/2 cups sugar

Rinse and pit plums. Chop using fine blade of food grinder, blender or processor. Measure 1 1/4 cups. Rinse, peel and pit peaches. Chop using fine blade of food grinder, blender or processor. Measure 1 3/4 cups. In 4-quart kettle mix together plums and peaches. Stir in lemon juice. Slowly sift in jam and jelly pectin, stirring vigorously. Set aside 30 minutes, stirring occasionally. Stir in corn syrup. Gradually stir in sugar. To hasten sugar dissolving, jam mixture may be heated slightly, but do not heat to more than 100°F (lukewarm). Ladle into 1/2 or 1-pint freezer containers leaving 1/2-inch headspace (no paraffin needed). Cover. Store in freezer and transfer to refrigerator as needed. Makes 7 (1/2-pint) containers.

Mosmans' Guests

Mr. and Mrs. March Edwards and Bob, Tom, Noraann and Missy of the Philippines were visitors during part of June with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Mosman. They came to Muenster after attending the graduation of their son and brother, Bob, from Mojave High School in California.

While in Texas, the Edwards made arrangements to move their household furnishings to Denton, where Bob will attend North Texas State University.

During the visit they were joined by Marc Edwards' mother, Mrs. Ida Mae Morgan of Corpus Christi and his sister and her two sons.

Bob returned to the Philippines with the family late in June and after a visit, will return to Denton for the Fall Semester.

Social Security Looks At Past And Future

As Social Security plans to celebrate its 45th birthday in August, it is a time for both reflecting on the past and looking ahead. How has the program changed and improved over the years? And can it be counted on to continue to help people meet their basic economic needs in the future?

To gain some perspective of how Social Security has served succeeding generations lets consider someone — we'll call him Jim — who is now 45 and members of his family. Jim was born in 1935 when the Social Security Act became law and might be considered part of the "Social Security Generation."

The first monthly benefits were paid in 1940 when Jim was in kindergarten. By then the Act had been amended to also pay certain dependents and survivors. The top payment then was only $41.20 for a worker and $82.40 for a family, but it was a start.

Disability protection was added in the late 1950's — about the time Jim started working and married. He had two children and while they were growing up, the family had the assurance that benefits would be paid if Jim became severely disabled or died. Fortunately, neither event happened. Medicare was enacted when Jim reached 30. It now helps pay medical bills for most older people as well as disabled people who have been getting cash benefits for at least 2 years.

Still another major improvement in Social Security took place in 1975 when Jim was 40. The first automatic benefit increase went into effect as a hedge against inflation. There have been yearly increases since, including a 14.3 percent hike in June 1980. And those payments are tax-free.

Jim's parents just retired, and a grandparent who became entitled in 1958 is still getting checks. For the first time, Jim begins to think ahead to his own retirement at 65. Until recently, the year 2,000 seemed ages away. Now it's only the end of the next decade.

Right now, Jim may have mixed feelings about Social Security. On one hand, he can see how the monthly checks for his parents, grandparents, and other older relatives have given them a sense of independence and dignity. And without those benefits it would be up to Jim and his brothers and sisters to provide some or all needed support. Instead, the Social Security taxes Jim and his children and other working relatives now help supply this support more indirectly.

But Jim also sees the rising cost of paying for Social Security. And then there are the scare stories in the news about the program going broke. He begins to wonder whether he can depend on benefits later.

With regards to program stability, Social Security is constantly and carefully examined by experts in and out of the Government. The conclusion is always the same: Social Security is something you can count on ... today and into the next century.

Like Jim, Social Security is at a crossroad, and the big question is not whether benefits will be paid to Jim in 2000, or to his children a quarter century later. The key question is how can we improve and strengthen Social Security?

I have heard that there are problems associated with cellulose insulation and ureaformaldehyde foam insulation. Can you tell me what they are? Also, has ureaformaldehyde foam been banned by the Department of Energy? T. S., Victoria.

In the matter of cellulose insulation, it is not naturally flame resistant and must be specially treated with chemicals for flame retardancy and moisture resistance. To make certain it has been properly treated, it should meet federal specifications (HH-1-515D) and should be marked accordingly.

Ureaformaldehyde foam (UF) insulation has been known to have odor problems. The problems associated with UF foam have received widespread publicity in Massachusetts, Connecticut, and Colorado. There is no nationwide ban on ureaformaldehyde either through the Department of Energy or any other government agency. However, the Consumer Product Safety Commission has become actively involved in efforts to include a warning notice about the potential problems associated with UF foam.

I am interested in using rock wool insulation but I have been Everett L. (Casey) Jones, a Wilde Chevrolet service technician, has recently satisfied the experience requirement and passed the exams of the National Institute for Automobile Service, an independent agency of the U.S. Government.

After completing 3 1/2 hours of testing over all makes of vehicles, Jones was presented with a certificate recognizing him for Excellence in the Area of Engine Repair.

Jones has been with Wilde Chevrolet for one year.

told that there is a settling problem. Can you advise me on this? C. B., Victoria.

When loose insulation such as rock wool is applied at the appropriate density, settling should not be a concern. The appropriate density is determined by applying the insulation at the manufacturer's rated recommended coverage in bags of material per thousand square feet of attic floor. When applied at this rate, insulation will normally be thicker than the minimal thickness required to achieve the desired R-rating.

Therefore, when properly applied, eventual settling should not be considered a consequence. When purchasing loose insulation, be sure to check the rating or certification card provided by the manufacturer of the material.

Do not buy insulation by inches of thickness. Instead, buy the appropriate number of bags to cover the attic floor with the recommended density of material.

Review Advised For CPR Students

Follow-up cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) training is essential to keep in practice, advises Mary Ann Shirer, a health education specialist.

It may take more than a four-hour crash course to save a life, she points out.

Dr. Shirer is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

More than seven million Americans have received training in CPR which, promptly applied, can save the life of a heart attack victim.

But, CPR students quickly forget what they learned in the basic four-hour course without some follow-up review, the specialist explains.

If CPR certification is more than a year old, take a refresher course to practice the technique again. This is necessary to maintain an adequate performance level. Also, the CPR students should spend as much time as possible practicing on mannikins, Dr. Shirer adds.

COLLEGE STATION — Air-conditioning thermostats this summer won't necessarily have to be set at 78 degrees to comply with federal law, says a Texas A&M University energy expert.

The law says one room in the office or business must read no lower than 78 degrees — other rooms can be cooler, says Dr. Stephen Riter.

"The logical person will choose the hottest room for that reading," he says.

Demand is great for engineers in petroleum field

COLLEGE STATION — At the time some college graduates are facing a tight job market, one department at Texas A&M University can't keep up with industry. "Petroleum engineers are presently the most desired college graduates, judging by starting salaries, percentage hired and fierceness of competition among recruiting companies," said Dr. Douglas Von Gonten, head of the nation's largest petroleum engineering department in terms of students and faculty.

Enrollment is at an all-time high and growing at a 30-35 percent annual rate. However, there still are not enough petroleum engineers to meet the demand.

"There is an under-supply. The commodity is critical. The industry needs more petroleum engineers," Von Gonten said.

Recent graduates in the degree commanded $2,000 per month salaries, averaging $300 more than other engineering fields except chemical engineering which it surpassed by $200.

Food habits may be changed by high fuel costs

COLLEGE STATION — The fuel crunch may change as many eating habits as driving habits, says Texas A&M University's dean of geosciences.

As fuel goes up, so will food prices and Americans will substitute for meat at the market and grow their own vegetables, explained Dr. Earl Cook. He predicts more cereal-based foods and less junk food in the future.

Hunters, Fishermen of Texas Organize Game Warden Association

The Texas Game Warden Association, a statewide organization of sportsmen who support stringent legislation aimed at habitual game law violators, has been formed with M. Stanley Brooks, a Dumas game warden as its first president.

Ronnie Brooks, a Decatur game warden, is one of the founding directors and is the association's membership chairman. The new organization is seeking members from Texas' extensive community of hunters and fishermen who obey the state's laws, and who want to promote the conservation of game for future generations.

The new president said the association will benefit its members in several ways. "As a landowner, your assistance in reporting violations and more stringent penalties should help deter violations," Brooks said.

"As a sportsman, your assistance in reporting violations, or any additional aid you may offer, will heighten your chances of success in obtaining legal game and fish," he noted.

A primary target of the new association will be persons who conduct commercial game operations in violation of the law.

"As a concerned citizen, your efforts will greatly aid the Texas game warden in the performance of his duties and goals: seeing that wildlife and our cherished outdoor heritage may be conserved for future generations," the association's president said.

Minimum annual dues for associate membership are $10. Membership applications should be mailed to J.C. Romines, Texas Game Warden Association, P.O. Box 866, Jacksboro, Tx. 76056.

Group Vacations In California

Mr. and Mrs. Herbie Fisher and Steve and Amy, accompanied by the children's grandmothers, Mrs. Paul Fisher and Mrs. Denton Williams, have returned from a nine day vacation trip to California. Included was a lot of sight-seeing enroute and returning.

In California they were houseguests of relatives of Mrs. Williams in Taft, California.

The Herbie Fisher family, accompanied by two cousins spent part of two days at Disneyland and toured the Hollywood, Bellaire and Beverly Hills area. They saw the Graumans Theater and its famous foot and hand prints.

The group attended a barbecue and fireworks display in Button Willow on July 4. Farming is the main source of income at Button Willow. There are many fruit trees and the alfalfa fields are beautiful, said the Fishers. Alfalfa hay was selling at $109 per ton. Whole milk was selling for $1.79 per gallon, sometimes more.

Taft, California where their hosts live is mostly an oil producing center.

During part of the time, Mrs. Paul Fisher flew to Sacramento to visit cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Stover. They took her sightseeing, including the state capitol, in the midst of an extensive renovation program of about $72 million, which is scheduled for completion in 1982.

Enroute to California, the group from Texas visited the Painted Desert, Petrified Forest, and the Grand Canyon. In New Mexico they toured an Indian Village called Sky City. High on a Mesa, it has been inhabited continually for the past 500 years. The homes are all adobe huts with small windows, and outdoor ovens. The church is the largest building and it has a dirt floor and very high ceiling. Wooden beams for it were carried from forests 15 miles away. On one wall is a painting on buffalo hide. The colors had faded only slightly during the long years. Stations of the Cross were brought by missionaries from Spain. Special services are held in this church on special occasions.

Also enroute to California, the group stopped in Amarillo for a short visit with Mrs. Irdie Robinson and family. Returning from California they were dinner guests of Mrs. Bernice Morris and daughter, Mrs. Robinson and family.

Immunization Clinic Scheduled July 23 at Community Center

The Texas Department of Health Region 5 Office in Arlington announces an immunization clinic to be held at Sacred Heart Community Center, 703 N. Main, on Wednesday, July 23, 1980, from 10:00 a.m. - 12:00 noon.

The Clinic will provide immunization against Diphtheria-tetanus-pertussis (DTP), Polio, Rubella (red measles) and Rubella (German measles), for infants 2 months through 18 years. (Exception: Females over age 12 will not receive rubella vaccine without a physician's consultation and prescription). Precautions must be taken with females in the 12 - 18 age group to insure that they are not pregnant when they are immunized with measles vaccine, and that they do not become pregnant for 3 months following immunization.

Immunizations are incomplete if a child has not received three (3) doses of DTP and Polio vaccine with at least one dose administered past the fourth birthday. All children under 18 years must have an informed consent form read and signed by the parent or legal guardian. If possible, the parent should accompany the child to the clinic. Immunization records should accompany the child to the clinic and be examined by the Public Health Nurse who will answer any questions.

"Presidency Remembered" Exhibit Begins First Texas Savings 90th Anniversary Event

First Texas Savings Association will begin its 90th anniversary celebration in Gainesville with the "Presidency Remembered" exhibit July 22 at the First Texas Savings office at 101 E. Broadway.

The exhibit, on loan from the LBJ Library and Museum in Austin, is a comprehensive look at past presidential election campaigns assembled from the collection of memorabilia from the LBJ Library and Museum.

Campaign memorabilia ranging from William Henry Harrison's quilt from the "Tippecanoe and Tyler, Too" campaign of 1840 to the "All the Way with LBJ" campaign of 1964 will be on display.

The exhibit, which will be in Gainesville through August 1, has already visited five Texas cities and is part of a 10 city tour that will end in Dallas in mid-October.

The visit to Gainesville is the opening of a four-and-a-half month celebration in honor of First Texas Savings 90th Anniversary that will culminate in a birthday party in November. The Gainesville office was chartered on Nov. 14, 1890 as Hesperian Building and Savings Association. The Hesperian Charter was used as the surviving charter when the ten associations owned by First Texas Financial Corporation were merged into one -- First Texas Savings.

The Hesperian Charter was the fourth to be issued in the state and the second oldest still active.

"In an election year, this exhibit is the perfect way for us to thank Gainesville for their continued support throughout the years," said Gainesville Branch Manager Wayne Mitchell.

"This collection of presidential memorabilia is a fascinating look into our heritage and how the presidential campaign process has evolved in the past 140 years," he added.

"I feel this is something unique for all the people of Cooke County to enjoy."

The exhibit will include such items as political advertisements and cartoons from several campaigns in the late 19th century; campaign songs from the FDR campaign; numerous photographs of our presidents stumping for votes; and countless campaign buttons, bumper stickers, pennants and other handouts from every era.

There will also be a display of memorabilia from the election losers. Wendell Wilke, Al Smith, Barry Goldwater and other near-presidents' campaigns are on display.

For further information contact: Wayne Mitchell, First Texas Savings Association 817-665-3484 or Pat Seelig, Bozell & Jacobs, Inc. Public Relations 214-556-1100.

Don't Blame a Bird, It Just Happened

There's an old saying that lots of changes creep into a story after it is repeated a few times. That's what happened last week to the Enterprise on the report of a grass fire at the J.P. Flusche place north of town.

Nobody saw an electrocuted bird fall in flames from a transformer, in fact the cause of the fire is unknown. It was just discovered by Kevin, Mary and Patrick Hacker as they were driving past. Mary drove on to the Paul Hackers and told Mrs. Hacker, who alerted the Flusches. Meanwhile Kevin and Patrick carried water in a gallon bucket from a nearby trough and stamped the burning grass. Also Claude and Clinton Beyer came with cattle sprayers, and Paul and Allen Hacker went for a water truck on their near-by lease.

The fire was almost under control when Muenster firemen and Paul and Allen Hacker arrived.

Hood Sets Nov. 1 For Supper Date

Members of the Hood Community Improvement Club, in their regular meeting on Monday, July 7, set the date for their annual Thanksgiving Supper for November 1, the first Saturday of the month.

J.T. Barker, president, conducted the business meeting, which was opened by prayer led by C. William Hermes and by minutes and treasurer's report by Mrs. Mary Evelyn Hermes. She also announced that the Moffett Park Pool has been rented for Monday, August 11 from 6 to 7:30 in the evening for the club's annual hamburger supper and family party, which will follow swimming by those who wish to. Members are asked to bring cake or ice cream for the meal.

Included in future plans was the decision to have repair work done on the serving bar in the clubhouse. Members also agreed to buy several new tables to replace some of the older ones. Albert Zimmerer was appointed chairman of both projects.

Mrs. Ola Welch and Mrs. Johnnie Lewter served cake and tea to members present.

The next regular meeting will be held on Tuesday, September 2, instead of Monday which is Labor Day. Mrs. Raymond Zimmerer and Mrs. Daniel Fleitman will be in charge of refreshments.

Mrs. Lanita Lewter is reporter for the Hood Community Improvement Club.

Forestburg News

by Myrt Denham

We have learned that Ina Mae Denham, Perryman's sister, of Denver, Colorado thinks the people in Montague County are dying like flies due to this prolonged heat wave. Guess Ina Mae has forgotten that Texas always has had some days every summer where it gets up over 100 degrees and that she spent a lot of them under a shade tree out Stoney Point way some years ago. In those days there was no air conditioning. Also she must remember that us Texans are made of pretty rugged sturdy material and can take a lot of adversity that would put "out-of-staters" under.

It is a girl, named Dorothy Leann and she weighed in at 7 lbs 5 oz on July 5 in the Decatur Hospital. Dorothy Leann has come to live with Mr. and Mrs. David Vandervetter of Decatur. Her grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hunt of New Harp and Mr. and Mrs. Junior Carley of Decatur.

Paso spent the week of July 6 with her niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Talbert Fanning of Stoney Point.

Jackson and Mr. and Mrs. Barney Brogdon all of the Burg.

The Forestburg United Methodist Women's Group met Wed. July 9 at the local United Methodist church at 2 p.m. Mrs. Alice Shears, president, opened the day's meeting. Mrs. Dorothy Thompson gave the day's devotional and Mrs. Myrt Denham had the day's program which was titled "God Can Use You". The program was followed by a period of fellowship. Others present were: Mmes. Laura Belle Jackson, Lucille Littell, Marion Sockwell and Betty Reynolds.

Mrs. Nema Barnett and niece Mrs. Vesta Carter were in Bowie Mon. July 7 where they visited with Mrs. Carter's mother, Mrs. Charity Boyd in the Bowie Convalescent Home.

Mr. and Mrs. D.L. Rater made a business trip to Denton Thurs. July 10.

Fuhrmann Families Have 72nd Consecutive Reunion

Members of the Fuhrmann families gathered for their annual reunion, celebrating the Feast of St. Henry and observing this event for the 72nd consecutive year, on Sunday, July 13.

This practice began in 1908 to celebrate the name's day of the late Henry Fuhrmann and to welcome him back when he returned from a trip to Germany.

The day began with Mass at 11 a.m., celebrated by Fr. Bruno Fuhrmann, O.S.B. son of Mrs. Joe Fuhrmann of Lindsay. The lector was Robert Fuhrmann and the minister of the Eucharist was Mrs. Al Klement. Presenting Offertory gifts were Mr. and Mrs. Diamond Fuhrmann and daughters, JoAnn and LuElla. Mass servers were Linus Fuhrmann and Gary Dankesreiter.

Following Mass, a covered dish dinner was served in the Lindsay Cafeterium. The afternoon reunion included singing old German songs, viewing old family portraits and reminiscing.

After dinner Brother Louis Fuhrmann O.S.B. gave a brief welcome and expressed gratitude to Mrs. Miriam Flusche Morehand for the ramp donated to the St. Peter's parish in memory of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A.C. Flusche.

Brother Henry Fuhrmann O.S.B. spoke on the need in the church for religious vocations, especially to the priesthood. He requested prayers for the increase of religious vocations.

The surviving members of the late Henry Fuhrmann family are Mrs. Mary Koesler of Muenster and Henry S. Fuhrmann of Lindsay. Mrs. Koesler, a resident of St. Richard's Villa was unable to attend.

Members of the Henry S. Fuhrmann family hosted this year's reunion. About 250 relatives attended the celebration.

Texas Ranger Exhibit

The Texas Rangers have served their state over 150 years, and now visitors to Morton Museum of Cooke County may see a pictorial summary of their story in a Ranger exhibition produced by the Institute of Texan Cultures in San Antonio.

The show, entitled "The Texas Rangers: Their First 150 Years," will be up from July 20, 1980 to August 20, 1980. It is sponsored here by the Cooke County Heritage Society and made possible by a grant from the Gainesville National Bank.

The entire exhibit will be open to the public in a preview in the Courthouse on Friday afternoon, July 18. The first part of it will be shown in Morton Museum from July 20 through August 5 and the second half of the exhibit will be shown at the same location from August 6 through August 20.

The Ranger service long has been internationally famous, but it has not always been called the Texas Rangers. Visitors to the exhibition will see that in early days the Rangers were called "mounted gunmen," "volunteers," "militia," and "Ranging companies," among other labels, including some meant to discredit the force.

Yet throughout their history the best of the Rangers have been a special breed of men, sometimes feared and often loved by their fellow Texans.

The show will let the visitor decide for himself why the Texas Rangers have held the power to tame desperate men. Perhaps the conclusion will be that it is the Ranger reputation as men unafraid to die; perhaps it is the mystique of one man forcing a showdown by walking alone into the teeth of human crisis, making him appear larger than life; perhaps it is in the mystery of the truth of Capt. William J. McDonald's words uttered over 70 years ago: "No man in the wrong can stand up to a fellow that's in the right and keeps on a-comin'."

The big exhibition pulls few punches on problems the Ranger service has faced over the years. Not all Rangers have been white hat heroes on white horses. In fact, the tall, flat-bellied, romantic looking man on a white horse may be the only full blown myth in Texas Ranger history. Like Tarzan and Matt Dillon, he is chiefly a creation of the imagination of writers and filmmakers.

Some of the toughest Rangers have been small town men with boyish faces, pot bellied men riding broken down nags that could never make it in the movies, and tall, skinny, prankish fellows willing to spit in another man's face. Nor did their clothes always look like what most people think a Ranger should wear.

Today's Rangers are a modern corps of law enforcement officers in the Texas Department of Public Safety. They are often dressed in gabardine, boots, and a Stetson, but always dressed as each man pleases. That applies also to their guns and badges. Most Ranger badges are designed by the man who wears it, usually fashioned from Mexican silver following an old tradition.

Good-News Stand Features Assortment of Scripture Selections

An American Bible Society Scripture Courtesy Center has been set up in Fisher's Market, according to an announcement by Dr. Larry Tisdale.

The Scripture Courtesy Center, also called a Good-News Stand, is simply a place where the Word of God is displayed and sold at very reasonable prices. The Scriptures are obtained from the American Bible Society and then sold at the non-profit prices listed in the catalog. Scripture Courtesy Centers have been set up by American Bible Society

Volunteers across the country - in their homes, their places of business, stores, doctors, offices, restaurants, barber shops and beauty shops.

The Scriptures are meaningful and inexpensive gifts for hospital patients, friends and even little children, who are delighted with the Scripture Activity Books. The American Bible Society Scripture Courtesy Center is a voluntary non-profit venture, whose goal is to help make Scriptures available to people everywhere at prices they can easily afford.

Items for sale include an assortment of activity books for children, which have puzzles and pictures to color, and a short story about a person in the Bible; also an assortment of Bibles in today's English version; and an assortment of Scripture selections. Prices are surprisingly low. Bibles sell for $3.50 each, Scripture activity books for 25¢ each, and Scripture selections range from free to 25¢. Today's English Version is a modern translation using contemporary language which makes it more easily understood, by many people, than the King James Version.

More information may be obtained by phoning Larry Tisdale at 759-2500 or 759-2861, where special orders may also be placed.

slashed that he can't afford the exploratory and development activity needed for new production. And often he finds it unprofitable to sustain whatever production he already has. As the output declines he finds that he can't afford the well servicing or pressurizing that a well needs.

And that's not all. When the independent's lack of profit causes a cutback in further investment it's bad news for drilling and well servicing companies and their crews. Our community feels lots of effect from windfall profits tax.

As if adding insult to injury, the Administration and its legislative backers have also found another way to penalize the sunbelt states to the advantage of the snowbelt states. Texas and Louisiana are ordered to convert utility companies from gas-fired to coal-fired within the next decade. The conversion will require billions of dollars and the cost of buying and transporting will further increase the operating costs of power plants. The purpose is to make more Texas gas available to Yankeeland at bargain prices.

These regulations leave little doubt that windfall profits tax and other energy crisis demands are political schemes to favor the North and East at the expense of the sunbelt states. The people up there apparently resent that their economy has not been keeping pace with the South. Well, the snowbelt problems isn't only the weather. Other handicaps are the unfavorable industrial climate, which prompts lots of people to go south, also a radical and selfish political climate.

Fireworks

Start Hay Fire

A 4th of July fire at Loyd Trubenbach's place west of Myra resulted in the loss of about six small size round hay bales. Reported as started by fireworks among some 25 bales, it was brought under control shortly by 15 members of the Myra Fire Department and a group of volunteers who came to help after seeing the blaze from the road.
