Parish To Observe Jubilee Of Fr. Denis' Ordination

The attempt to murder Pope John Paul has to be rated as potentially one of the great tragedies of this century, and because of that, one of the great crimes of the century. Since he has been in office the world has come to love him as a good man dedicated to spreading peace, justice and compassion; and also as an influential man whose sincere, holy message reminded the multitude that God's way is the only way for humanity to recover from its sickness.

The Holy Father is the person whom civilization is least able to spare. No one of our time has reached the world so intimately, pleading so sincerely to restore the basics of Christ's teachings and the ten commandments. Reports from all over the world tell us that he has been an inspiration to people of all creeds.

As the number one ally of God, he is also the number one enemy of Satan, the most wicked of all beings. The devil chose a fanatic who was totally committed to hatred of everything Christian. And, as one commentator pointed out, the fanatic chose the Pope as his most hated Christian.

This very fact has a bearing in assessing the magnitude of the crime. The immense loss to the world if the Pope's good work had thus been abruptly ended is a point to consider in judging the crime.

News reports have referred to a possibility that the attempted assassination is related to the world wide terrorist movement. True or false, it is plausible. Terrorism, which is known to be founded on wickedness and violence, spreads its hatred world wide, and could logically choose as its victim the man who personifies goodness.

Next to shock and concern for the Pope, the important consideration in the shooting is the nature of the assailant's punishment, more particularly, what to do about all terrorism. Until now we have heard no reports about prosecution and are beginning to wonder whether this criminal, like so many others, will escape justice.

Hopefully authorities of Italy will be more realistic than our own, basing judgment on the crime rather than over solicitude for rights of the accused.

We have to feel cheated when told that the murderer of Robert Kennedy is free. Or that many other convicted criminals, for multiple murder, rape or what not, are returned to society after just a few years.

All of which makes us wonder whether it's time for civilization to get mad and declare war on those who have already declared war on it. As it is now, this thing is hopelessly one-sided in favor of the enemy. Police are restrained to just bringing in killers when they can, but one seldom hears about the punishment. We wonder how many terrorists in the long run, anywhere in the world, actually come to justice.

Perhaps it would be more effective to play this game by their rules. Declare open war on them as they have on other people. Let it be known that they are subject to instant police retaliation at any attempted assassination. Or specify that such a criminal, if captured, will be judged on established guilt with no allowance for technical excuses.

Things would be different if terrorists knew for certain that they face sure death when they attempt any kind of assault on peaceful society. Just being a member of the plot and not actually killing anyone would be sufficiently incriminating. Let the enemies of civilization know that they will receive the same treatment they continued on page 2...

MHS Has Commencement

Rev. Keith Thomas Is Baccalaureate Speaker

Seniors of Muenster High School at their baccalaureate Wednesday were assured that success in life is within the reach of all, and it consists of doing everything God wants us to do for His glory.

The message was brought to them by Reverend Keith Thomas, pastor of First Baptist Church, following Mass in Sacred Heart Church. He told his audience that God calls every person to follow Jesus Christ and advised that He does not expect greatness in His followers. The weaks, the despised, the no-bodies are all welcome. However, His choice does not include the do-nothings. He places no premium on laziness, but urges all to serve with all they've got, in a dynamic way.

These are guides, he said, to being a successful member in God's hall of fame. It is the basis of wisdom whereby we see life through the Divine viewpoint.

The speaker's closing reminder was to obey God; remember that life's first mission is to please Him. "Live so that you can feel aware of living with Jesus." Also a special participant at the service was Reverend Andy Cherry of the First Baptist Church. He presented vocal solos at the beginning and end of the service, at the offertory, and two numbers at communion.

REVEREND KEITH THOMAS

The ceremony opened with a processional including Father Stephen Eckart, celebrant of the Mass; Reverend Thomas; the graduates; Joni Sturm and Edgar Dyer, class sponsors; Sister Romana and Pam Fette, CCD instructor; Principal Winn and Superintendent Coffey; and the altar boys. Music for their entrance and exit was provided by Peggy Winn and Brent McElreath accompanied by Mrs. Juanita Bright.

Betty Rose Walterscheid opened the ceremony with introductory remarks. Eileen Fisher led a choral rendition of The Gloria with the community responding.

Seniors participating in the liturgy were Carol Klement, Ricky Winn and John Walterscheid in script.

hand out. This idea may draw objections from the soft-criminals people. They claim the punishment may be more severe than the act deserved. Perhaps the terrorist, or several, did not kill or injure. Maybe they only made threats.

On the other hand, the understanding ought to be that the penalty for terrorism is tough regardless, and the only way to avoid it is to avoid the crime. The warning would be even more effective if terrorists knew they would be subject to instant execution. Example: In cases of President Reagan and Pope Paul, both gunmen were caught in the act. Both deserved to die on the spot.

We have to admit that this does not harmonize with our principle of giving the accused a fair trial. But it's the terrorist way, and on our part it would be a matter of fighting fire with fire.

A subject that was sure to come up in the attempted assassination of the Pope is gun control. The same people were claiming that this could not happen if all handguns were banished. The statement is true, of course, but it ignores the fact that they can't be banned any more than dope is now or liquor was in prohibition days. The result would be worse than ever, with the good guys giving up their guns while bad guys do not.

Reason insists that the way to deal with killings is to enforce and toughen the laws we have. Crack down on people who commit crimes with guns, not on the guns.

NATIONAL EDUCATION PROGRAM

CONFISCATION OF WEALTH
Each year the American Institute for Economic Research performs a very valuable service for the "forgotten men" of America. The foundation calculates the "embezzlement" by the Federal government of the savings and investments of the thrifty, industrious citizens through the process of inflation.

The average "quiet, virtuous, domestic citizen" goes about his daily business of producing goods and services for the economy. He thereby helps improve the living standards of everyone. In the process he puts aside some of his income as savings in various thrift instruments and institutions.

The Institute has found these savings are placed primarily in nine principal forms: (1) savings and time deposits in banks, savings and loan associations and credit unions; (2) life insurance, private pensions and annuities; (3) government trust funds; (4) U.S. Government bonds and debt securities; (5) debt securities of States and municipalities; (6) debt securities of corporations; (7) money-market mutual fund shares; (8) currency and checking account balances; and (9) miscellaneous other financial assets such as mortgages.

Through 1979, the latest calculation available from the Institute, the savers of America had put aside $5,974 billion over the last forty years, 1940-1979. During that same period of time they had lost, through inflation, $3,185.7 billion - 53 percent of their savings. In this insidious way, thrifty, hard-working Americans are being impoverished by their own government - and very few understand this. The "little people" the "forgotten men," are being victimized by the very processes that were supposed to help them.

In demonstrating the magnitude of the inflation crisis and its "taxation effect," the Institute reports:

"From 1969 through 1979, the loss to America's savers from fixed-dollar investments was $2.0 trillion in dollars of today's purchasing power, or an average of $200 billion per year. During fiscal 1979, income taxes paid by individuals to the U.S. Government totaled $218 billion. Thus, through the hidden tax of inflating, American taxpayers on average paid twice the Federal income taxes they thought they were paying during the past 10 years."

What causes inflation which erodes away the value of peoples' savings? By definition, inflation is an increase in the quantity of money and credit. The process starts when the Federal government spends more than it takes from the people in taxes. In financing much of the resulting deficit, the government asks the private commercial banks or the Federal Reserve to buy its bonds or other securities.

If sold to the private commercial banks they simply create deposits to the credit of the Federal government against which the Treasury can write checks. The banks can then sell these bonds to the Federal Reserve in exchange for deposit credits with the Fed or for new Federal Reserve notes. This is how our money is created "out of thin air."

This new money, this inflation, takes on its value at the expense of all the other money then in circulation and at the expense of all savings in dollar-denominated thrift instruments.

CAPITOL UPDATE

John Tower

U.S. SENATOR for TEXAS
142 RUSSELL OFFICE BUILDING
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20510

With the resurgence of the American spirit we have experienced during the crises and uncertainties of the past year and a half, this is a good time to make Memorial Day mean more than the beginning of summer and the Indianapolis 500.

Memorial Day was meant to be -- and should be again -- a time to remember those who were called upon to give their lives for their country. Our nation was born from a fight for freedom, and over and over again young men have given their lives for our nation.

We honor all those who have served in war over the past two centuries, but this year we should pay special tribute for those who served in the Vietnam conflict.

The entire Vietnam experience was a troubling one for our citizenry, and in the national ambivalence that surrounded it we for too long neglected to honor those who served, and those who died.

For after all of the rhetoric, after all the debate, after all the hindsight realizations about what we could or should have done in Vietnam, we have thousands and thousands of young people who did their country's bidding. We owe honor to their patriotism. We owe honor to their sacrifices.

I am gratified to see the growing appreciation of these fine people. The most tangible expression is in the form of the Vietnam Veterans Memorial, to be built in Washington, D.C. and to stand alongside other monuments to great Americans.

Congress has set aside the land for this memorial. I might add that in an almost unprecedented show of unity, all 100 senators co-sponsored the legislation to authorize the memorial.

But no government money will go into the building of the memorial. All of the estimated $2.5 million cost is coming from private contributions, making this truly a people's memorial to their brave fellow citizens. The names of the more than 57,000 servicemen who died in Vietnam, as well as those still listed as missing in action, will appear on the memorial. However, the memorial will serve as a tribute to all 2.7 million who served there, also.

In addition to being a memorial to those who have already served, this memorial will be a statement to the young who will be called upon to serve in our Armed Services now and in the future. It will tell them that this nation appreciates those who give time from their lives, and even risk their lives, to keep our country strong.

The design already has been selected, and plans are to dedicate the memorial on Veterans' Day 1982. Fundraising efforts have begun all over the country, and public response appears to be good.

I would encourage my fellow Texans to participate in this effort to recognize the valor and patriotism of those who served their country in a trying and difficult time.

New homes should include energy features

COLLEGE STATION — If you're building a new home, why not build in some energy-saving features, suggests a Texas A&M University professor.

Dr. Larry Degelman, architect and building construction professor, recommends two to two-and-one-half foot roof overhangs that shade windows during the summer, ridge vents, slab insulation, double pane windows and green houses on south walls or south-facing windows.

The kinglypin to energy savings is a structural orientation on north-south lines, Degelman says.

"People who plan to build and stay in a home 10 to 13 years or longer can amortize larger expenses," Degelman advises.

Forestburg FFA Banquet Reviews 1981 Achievements

MRS. STEVE STEVENS

Double Ring Ceremony Unites Beverly Pels and Steve Stevens

The wedding of Beverly Pels and Steve Stevens was held on April 25, in the Era Baptist Church, with Rev. Ed Clark of Valley View officiating for the double ring ceremony at 4 p.m. in a candlelight setting.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Ed Pels of Muenster and the late Mr. Pels and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Stevens of Valley View.

Given in marriage by her brother, Jerry Pels of Houston, the bride was wearing a formal wedding gown of white French Qiana, with a Queen Anne neckline, empire waist, sheer tapered sleeves enhanced with Venise lace. The bouffant skirt was circled with Venise lace and fell to a chapel length. She wore a white picture hat, lace-edged, with an English silk illusion veil. Her bridal bouquet was a silk cascade of white roses and yellow and palest aqua forget-me-nots. In keeping with tradition, she borrowed diamond earrings from her sister and had a 1959 penny in her shoe.

Hall of Gainesville was the usher and candlelighter.

Church decorations included candles in tall holders on both sides of the altar, the unity candle in the center and other candles, lighted and surrounding it. White bows marked the corners of the altar.

Wedding music was presented by the bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. Kevin Pels, singing "Follow Me", "Sunrise, Sunset" and "That's the Way." She accompanied herself on the organ.

A reception followed in the church fellowship hall. Presiding at the bride's book were Debbie Stevens, groom's sister-in-law and Lori Knabe, a friend of the bride.

The three tiered white wedding cake was decorated with flowers in the bride's chosen colors and topped with a lace heart and white carnations. The chocolate groom's cake was horseshoe shaped and was decorated with almonds.

Members of the house party were sisters of the bride, Mrs. Ronnie Huneycutt serving the punch, Mrs. Jim Fuhrmann serving the bride's cake, Mrs. Harvey Lamkin serving the groom's cake and Mrs. Danny Eberhart pouring coffee.

The bride's table was graced by the unity candle centered in a large lead crystal champagne glass.

The couple will be at home in Era, after a wedding trip to Corpus Christi. The bride is a graduate of Sacred Heart High School and Cooke County College. She is employed at Weber Aircraft. The groom is a graduate of Era High School and is employed at National Supply.

PEGGY RECEIVES TROPHY

In North Texas National Teenagers' Pageant Peggy Winn Wins Miss Congeniality

Peggy Winn brought several prizes home with her from the North Texas National Teenagers Pageant held in Clarendon on Friday, Saturday and Sunday May 15-17. One was the trophy she received from Karen Helton, 1980 Miss Texas National Teenager. The participants named her, by their votes, for the special honor of "Miss Congeniality."

Other prizes were less tangible, but equally treasured. Peggy said that new friendships formed with many of the 95 participants were high points of the weekend and will surely grow with the years.

Peggy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfordean Winn. She was sponsored in the North Texas National Teenager Pageant by the Charm Shop, Tops & Teams, The Center and the Muenster Chamber of Commerce. She was accompanied to Clarendon by her mother. She invited as her escort at the pageant judging Saturday evening, Mr. Jim Nance, who formerly taught at Clarendon before coming to Muenster.

The 3 day event included an essay contest Friday afternoon, an interview with judges Saturday morning, the pageant Saturday evening and a farewell get-together with breakfast

Sunday morning. Peggy was one of the girls giving speeches at the breakfast when she expressed her appreciation to all.

Upon returning to Muenster Sunday, Peggy again expressed her thanks to all who supported her candidacy, especially her sponsors, also the judges and pageant directors. She offered her good wishes to Diane Warden of Hereford, a personal friend and winner of the North Texas pageant. Peggy will attend the state pageant at TCU June 5-7 as a guest to watch the progress of her friend during the contest.

Brush is Primary Problem On Cooke County Grasslands

One of the main problems on Cooke County grasslands is brush. Worthless brush is slowly and surely taking over by robbing ranchers of soil, water, and plant resources. Thousands of acres of Cooke County's grazing lands are now so heavily infested with woody plants that production of nutritious forage is greatly reduced, making the range unprofitable for livestock grazing.

Oaks, cedar, persimmon, mesquite, greenbrier, and cacti have spread rapidly throughout the county. Heavy use of the grass, intensified by drought, poor management, and low cattle prices, has caused an almost unbelievable change in the natural vegetation. When the grass was removed by over-grazing and drought, the seeds of the woody plants were able to germinate and get established. The result has been a "population explosion" of the undesirable species when they were given an opportunity to spread.

Grassland improvement is the greatest opportunity that many livestock operators have to reduce cost of production in meeting cost-price squeeze.

Grassland improvements must be carried out as a part of coordinated, long-range plan which includes all the treatment needed to bring the grasslands back and maintain their potential.

Treatment for control of brush is complex and difficult for many reasons. The many species involved, often in mixtures, complicates control as each species may require different treatments. Control of one kind may release another which may become as great a problem as the original infestation.

The cost of control treatment is a major factor to consider. It is an expensive operation that varies widely in cost and effectiveness.

In a lot of the areas of Cooke County, where brush is removed, re-establishing the forage plants by range seeding is a necessary step, since the good quality native species such as Big Bluestem, Little Bluestem, Indiangrass, Switchgrass, and Side Oats Grama have long ago disappeared.

Brush control is a never-ending project. Once the brush problem has been treated, it must be controlled year after year.

Neither brush control, revegetation or any other treatment will result in optimum improvement and profitable sustained returns from our grasslands unless accompanied by and followed by the kind of management which provides for the needs and requirements of the plants, soils, and water of Cooke County.

Cobaea Pennstemon is a native, warm season, long lived perennial forb which reproduces by seed and underground stems. It produces handsome "bellshaped" purplish-white flowers with dark purple strips inside. These blossoms appear from April to May on short stems 12 to 24 inches long that are covered with dense fine short hair. Leaves are opposite fasten directly to the main stem, "scoop-shaped" and grow sharply upward giving the appearance of being able to hold water. These glossy deep green or bluish leaves have a heavy mid-rib and noticeable saw-toothed margins. This beautiful forb grows best on limestone prairie soils.

Cobaea penstemon is nutritious and the new growth is readily eaten by all classes of livestock, but is especially preferred by sheep. It is a decrease that usually disappears along with the better grasses as the range is continuously over-used.

This is another plant that adds variety to the range menu and considerable color to nature's outdoor scenery. Cobaea may be two or three years old before it produces the first crop of blossoms. It has been used as an ornamental for landscaping purposes. The plant is also called "beardtongue, wild foxglove, and pentastemon."

The penstemons belong to the largest genus in the figwort family. The name, derived from Greek pente, "five," and stemon, "stamen," refers to a distinguishing characteristic. Four stamens are fertile, with the fifth often having hairs and no pollen.

Full Measure, For Sure!

When Mrs. Bobby Lutkenhaus was preparing dinner last Sunday, May 17, she was surprised to see two eggs drop into her mixing bowl, one still in its own shell. Admittedly, she had noticed that it was a very large egg before she opened it. But she hardly expected to see another egg, shell and all, right inside the first egg with the ordinary yolk and white. ## The 26-Week Money Market Certificate

Put in $10,000, and get back
$10,772

26-week return reflects interest earned on $10,000 principal and accumulated interest for 26 weeks at current rate.

Current rate of 15.275%
yields 16.088%***

Staying ahead financially has always been a race. But the 80's present new, tougher challenges.

At First Texas Savings, we have ways to beat the 80's. Like our 26-Week Money Market Certificate. It offers the maximum rate allowed by law for maximum yields on amounts from $10,000. Rates for new certificates are set weekly and are good for the entire term.

Sure, our 26-Week Money Market Certificate is a good investment, but it's also a no-risk investment. Your money is insured up to $100,000 by a federal agency. And your deposit is backed by First Texas' over 1.6 billion dollars in assets.

Money Maker™
Checking Accounts are earning interest every day for thousands of our customers.
Call today.

Best of all, at First Texas Savings, your money is always available. Penalty on early withdrawal is 3 months' interest** and only on the amount withdrawn. And as a convenient reminder, you will be automatically notified prior to renewal.

Also ask about our 2½-Year Money Market Certificate.

So, before you put your money anywhere, remember: Others may keep you even in the 80's, but First Texas Savings will keep you ahead.

*Effective May 19 through May 25, 1981.

Federal regulations prohibit compounding of interest on 26-Week Money Market Certificates. Annual yield assumes reinvestment of principal and interest at maturity at the same annual interest rate. However, the annual interest rate is subject to, and likely to, change at maturity.

**Recent federal regulations require principal reduction if sufficient interest does not exist.

Jobs depend on energy...

let's keep on working.

We Americans have always understood that we can't get something for nothing. We're hard-working people.

One of the things that has kept us working, and kept our standard of living climbing here in the Southwest, has been a ready supply of reasonably priced electric energy. It makes our labor more productive, and helps hold down the cost of the goods we produce. It helps keep our industries competitive, and that enables them to grow and employ more people.

The costs of energy everywhere keep rising. But an even bigger problem is making sure we have enough electric energy here.

At your electric company, we're working to keep this area attractive by supplying the electricity we all need at reasonable cost. We're planning ahead to keep our supply abreast of the need, so business and industry can plan confidently for their future here.

Because that means jobs here.

Koch-Britton Low Voltage Electric Stimulation

... for tenderness gains in every beef carcass you process!

When a carcass is stimulated, a lot of body heat is dissipated in a hurry. Extra bleeding occurs and reduces chances of spoilage and excessive trim loss. Once in the cooler, proper chill can be reached hours earlier, saving money and energy. Next day, a brighter cherry red color appears. At grading time, about 6% of the carcasses move up to a higher grade. Heat ring and cold shortening are negligible. Aging time is far less (3 days instead of 7, or 7 instead of 21).

I have checked on Miss Myrtle and learned that she is not well at all and has been with her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. A.B. McMillion. From all account Myrtle probably will not be able to return to her home again or write the Dewey News for the Bowie paper anymore.

I usually don't report local visitations. By that I mean when Forestburgers visit with each other. Dude and Perryman used to play together some as young boys when Perryman would visit with his great-grandparents the late Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Grant who were neighbors to Dude's folks.

AMPI OKs Congressional Action On Milk Price Support Levels

The Associated Milk Producers, Inc. (AMPI) board of directors at a meeting in Dallas, endorsed the House Agriculture Committee recommendation to establish milk price support levels under the new farm bill at 75 to 90 percent of parity with semiannual adjustments, according to AMPI president Irvin Elkin, an Amery, Wisconsin dairy farmer.

While they reaffirmed the policy of AMPI membership advocating a permanent program for milk price stabilization at 80 percent of parity with quarterly adjustments, the board considered the House version to be the most acceptable proposal under Congressional consideration. The Senate Agriculture Committee voted in support of a program that could allow milk price support levels to be set as low as 70 percent of parity.

"Dairymen tend to cut milk production below needed levels in response to prices set lower than 80 percent of parity," Elkin said. "This creates instability in the available supply of milk for consumers as well as market instability for the willing to take their share of the budget cuts and took a $147 million cut by foregoing the April 1 adjustment in price support levels," said Elkin. "By not extending the current farm bill, the United States Department of Agriculture projects an additional $700 million cut if Congress accepts the proposal of the House Agriculture Committee. Additional cuts beyond this point will create chaos in the production industry."

The AMPI board has repeatedly asked for limitations to be placed on importation of casein, which presently displaces sales of U.S. produced products and adds more than $200 million to milk price support program costs.

"Casein is a surplus milk product that is subsidized by the exporting countries and is not tolerated for use inside their own country," Elkin said.

Casein is a milk derived protein used in the production of coffee whiteners, synthetic cheeses, and other non-dairy products as well as industrial chemicals, paints and glues.

Elkin urged the Secretary of Agriculture to exercise his authority to step up the disposition of CCC stocks of non-fat dry milk, cheese and butter. "There are many unmet needs for dairy products in our school lunch, and special nutrition programs in underdeveloped countries," he said.

"The dairy industry has provided an adequate supply of dairy products, with lower increases in price than all other foods and still has an outstanding record of increased productivity. That performance record cannot continue unless we can establish a rational farm policy that recognizes the importance of American agriculture," said Elkin.

Area's Top Hereford Herds Will Be Seen on Saturday Tour

Area cattle raisers will have a chance to view some of the top Hereford herds and breeding operations in North Texas during a special tour and field day set for May 23 (Saturday.)

The program is being sponsored by the North Texas Hereford Association (NTHA) in cooperation with Cooke County College's Department of Agriculture. CCC agriculture director T. J. Davidson, current NTHA president, reports that all area cattle raisers, agribusinessmen and other interested persons are invited to participate.

"We've put together a tour that will showcase some of the finest Hereford breeding operations in this part of the country," Davidson says. "In addition, we'll have an expert to give information on the latest techniques and developments in the industry."

The expert is B.C. "Bud" Snidow, director of breed activities for the American Hereford Association. He will speak following a luncheon to be provided by the tour hosts.

Tour activities will begin at the Howard Paine Hereford Farm, situated three miles west of Nocona on U.S. Highway 82. Participants will register there, and a continental breakfast will be served.

Established in 1956, the Howard Paine herd produces registered Hereford bulls for commercial cattlemen. Some 200 bulls are sold annually, many going to cross-breed cattle producers.

Next, participants will view the Ward Stine Hereford herd, begun in 1939. The Stine operation, headquartered in Bowie, produces bulls with attention given to good size and rugged range qualities for top performance under all conditions.

The tour will move next to the Lone Star Hereford Ranch at Henrietta, where participants will view the herd owned by Sam Friedman and Doug Bennett.

Lone Star has two features expected to be of special interest to visitors. Numerous embryo transplant calves are on the ground, including progeny out of the famed "Elke" cow by five different sires.

Also, past and present show cattle will be on display, 1979-80 grand champion female at many ROM shows such as American Royal and Denver.

Also on display at Lone Star will be the Starkey Wilson and Jack Lovette Hereford herds.

Wilson's 24K Ranch is situated on U.S. Highway 82 near Muenster, and the herd is basically Mark Donald cattle and crosses with other bloodlines. Frame size and maternal breeding value are among the operation's highest priorities.

Lovette Ranch of Bowie was started in the late 1930's. Today, a program of artificial breeding has been instituted featuring some of the finest Line One cattle in the breed.

A special grooming demonstration will follow lunch and the address by Snidow.

Giving the demonstration will be Mark McClintock, herdsman for Lone Star Hereford Ranch. He was named herdsman of the year during the National Western Stock Show in Denver.

Following the demonstration, participants will move on to the Bryant Edwards operation at Henrietta. The Edwards herd has long been noted as one of the foremost commercial herds of Herefords in the country.

Three herds will be on display at the Clay County Fairgrounds. These include the herds of Harold Pope (Fairview Hereford Farm) Kenneth Bray (Lazy K Herefords) and Half Circle A Cattle Co.

Final stop on the tour will be the Douthitt Ranch Co., operation, also of Henrietta.

Persons wishing to obtain additional information about the tour and field day should call T. J. Davidson at (817) 668-7731 extension 253.

Reports Needed On Crops and Livestock

During late May and June, many Texas farmers and ranchers will receive a crop or livestock questionnaire from the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service or will be personally interviewed by the Service's field staff. The crop and livestock information gathered through the questionnaires and interviews is kept confidential, and it is the basis for setting crop acreages and midyear livestock inventories to be published in June for the state of Texas.

These crop and livestock reports give a reliable, unbiased picture of Texas' most important industry--agriculture. Furthermore, these reports are tools to help farmers and ranchers work out their planting, breeding, feeding, storing, producing, and marketing plans--in other words, to keep them informed. These reports are also used by: Farm organizations and legislatures in planning and developing farm programs; Extension economists and private farm and ranch management consultants for advising farmers and ranchers; Exporters in planning and promoting the sale of Texas agricultural products in foreign markets.

Even though response is voluntary, each farmer or rancher who is contacted is urged to cooperate, helping to make the crop and livestock reports to be published as accurate and reliable as possible. These surveys are a cooperative effort of the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service and the Texas Department of Agriculture.

John Zimmerer, third in State Class A 3200 meter run.

Zimmerer, Biffle Shine at UIL State Competition

Both of Muenster's entries in the UIL state finals at Austin last week gave a good account of themselves.

John Zimmerer finished third in the Class A 3200 meter run with a time of 10:13.5.

Jim Biffle advanced in tennis in spite of a fractured right wrist but had to default in the semifinal when the pain got too severe. Jim sustained his injury at school a day after sweeping the regionals without losing a set. At the state meet he toughed out the quarterfinals losing the first set 7-6 and winning the next two sets 6-2 and 6-3. He started the semifinal match but could not keep going. It was a tough break, according to Coach Stinson, who said Biffle was a strong favorite and probably would have won the top trophy.

Other athletes of the area likewise had commendable records. Alan Kassar of Valley View was fourth in the Class A 110 meter dash with a 14.9 record. And Lucian Vaughn of Saint Jo tied for fourth in Class A golf. His 36 hole total was 168.

District Baseball In Three-Way Tie

District baseball for the MHS Hornets is due to end on the last day of school, Saturday, that is.

As of this writing, early in the week, Muenster, Krum and Alvord are in a three-way tie, 4-2 each. In the resulting play off Krum and Alvord are booked to play Wednesday and the winner will meet Muenster Friday for the district title.

After that the district champ will meet Midway for the bi-district title.

Hadley Hosts 4-H County Horse Show

Because of bad weather, Bob Hadley of Muenster invited Cooke County 4-H to use his covered arena for its 1981 horse show. The show was originally scheduled to be held at the Gainesville Riding Club Arena. The show was held on May 9 with high point winners, both from Muenster - Darren Cheaney in the junior division and Nancy Sicking in the senior Division.

Thirteen 4-H'ers participated. In the halter classes, Darren Cheaney and Shonee Fennell had the champion mare and gelding, respectively. The performance class winners were: Mike Bartush, western pleasure; Nancy Sicking, reining; Lori Butler won both the barrel racing and the pole bending.

On June 13, all of these winners will represent Cooke County in the District Horse Show at the Rex Cauble Arena in Denton. Adult 4-H project leaders in the horse show were Wilfred Sicking and Billie Fennell.

Homemakers Club Has Color Demonstration

A program on "Colors For You - Colors as Clue to Mood and Personality" was presented to the Muenster Extension Homemakers Club on May 13 by Mmes. Louise Bayer and Olivia Wimmer. They also shared informative leaflets and color charts with members.

Mrs. Odella Detten was hostess and served refreshments to 14 members and one guest, Mrs. Clara Wilde.

Officers, re-elected during the business meeting, include Mmes. Lucille Lutkenhaus president; Irene Klement vice president; Bertha Fleitman secretary/treasurer; Alice Hellman council delegate and council alternate Louise Bayer.

The next meeting will be on June 10 in the home of Bertha Pick at 11:30 a.m.

ACT Schedule Changes At Cooke County College

Cooke County College officials have announced a scheduling change in regard to ACT testing for placement among students planning to attend CCC this fall.

The tests will be administered on Tuesday (May 26), with students given the option of taking the test at either 8 a.m. or 1 p.m.

ACT tests were originally scheduled for May 25 but have been rescheduled because of Memorial Day.

Bill Caver, director of counseling and testing at CCC, stresses that the tests to be given are the "residual" version of the ACT and are exclusively for students planning to enroll at CCC this fall. Scores will not be made available to any other institution.

He adds that the tests are only for those students who have not already taken the national ACT.

"ACT test scores are not required as a condition of admission to the college," Caver explains. "They are, however, used extensively for counseling and placement purposes."

"Students who do not present ACT scores will probably be required to enroll in basic level math and English courses."

The testing procedure takes approximately three hours. A fee of $7.50 will be assessed students taking the test.

More information may be obtained by calling the CCC Counseling and Testing Center at (817) 668-7731, extension 216.

Two Free Clinics Scheduled May 27

The Texas Department of Health Region 5 office in Arlington announces an immunization clinic to be held in Muenster at Sacred Heart Community Center, on Wednesday, May 27, 10 to 12 a.m. The clinic will provide immunization against diphtheria-tetanus-pertussis (DTP) polio, rubeola (red measles) and rubella (German measles), for infants 2 months through 18 years.

Immunizations are incomplete if a child has not received three (3) doses of DTP and polio vaccine with at least one dose administered past the fourth birthday. All children under 18 years must have an informed consent form read and signed by the parent or legal guardian. If possible, the parent should accompany the child to the clinic. Immunization records should accompany the child to the clinic and be examined by the public health nurse who will answer any questions.

Also on Wednesday, May 27, 1 to 3 p.m., the Department of Health Regional Office will conduct a Hypertension clinic in the Community Center.

The screenings will be performed by public health nurses at no charge. Public awareness and an increased citizen participation has tended to depress fatalities due to heart problems.
