Hornets control ball game

Stats don't tell the story in Muenster's 20-8 Bi-District win over Wortham, turnovers made the difference. "The game was decided on our ability not to turn the ball over and to capitalize on their mistakes," said Hornet Coach Grady Roller.

Muenster opened the contest, receiving the kick. After successfully picking up one first down, the ball was given to Wortham. The Bears had a good drive moving, but the Hornets' defense was able to halt the threat late in the first period. Starting on their 35-yard line, four runs by Troy Pagel, Mike Vogel and Ryan Sicking took the ball to midfield, starting the second period. Muenster continued their drive on the 11th play, on 4th and 1, Vogel picked up 5 yards to give the Hornets a first and goal from the 5. Troy Pagel did the honors for 6 points with Rajko Jelen adding the extra point to give the Hornets a 7-0 score.

Wortham controlled the ball for 9 plays and 41 yards before Troy Pagel caused a fumble. The ball was picked up by Doug Hennigan at the Hornets' 20-yard line. Pagel, Vogel and Sicking took turns running the ball till the clock ran out, leaving a 7-0 score on the board.

Wortham took the second half kick, moving 10 yards in four plays before throwing the ball to Muenster. Mike Vogel picked off the pass, setting the Hornets on their competitors' 27-yard line. Again Vogel, Pagel and Sicking moved the ball on the ground, in-

Tigers overpower St. Paul's

"Overall, I'm really excited for the guys that we won the first playoff game in 11 years," said Sacred Heart Coach John Nasche, on the Tigers' 43-6 Regional win over St. Paul of Shiner last Friday night in Waco. "It's a tribute to their hard work, dedication and consistent effort from all the players. That's why we were able to dominate the game so thoroughly," commented the coach.

The Cardinals took the opening kick. The teams started with a standoff, both teams moving on two series. The Tigers were second, starting with a 49-yard punt return by Shawn Dangelmayr and Sacred Heart was only 11 paces away. Two runs by Jason Beyer made the distance, followed by a Chris Hess kick and the Tigers upped the score 7-0 as the clock read 2:49.

St. Paul's offense bogged down on their next attempted drive, kicking the ball to the Tigers. Runs by Beyer and Hess moved the ball into the second quarter on the Tigers' 37-yard line. A screen pass from Beyer to Hess, with several good blocks, reached paydirt. Hess' PAT made the count 14-0 at 11:14.

Six kicks and a fumble turned the ball back and forth between the teams. With a little over a minute remaining, starting on the 35-yard line, the Tigers started a scoring drive. Scott Hennigan took the ball to the 22. A short pass to Hennigan from Stevan Nasche and a Nasche keeper placed the ball on the 15. A pass to Larry Switzer was good for another 6 points. A penalty cost the Tigers the PAT and they led 20-0, with 17 seconds remaining in the half.

Sacred Heart opened the second half, assisted by a 15-yard personal penalty on the kick, placing the ball near midfield. On the first play, Jason Beyer carried the ball to the 20; when Cardinal defenders moved in, he pitched the ball to Chris Hess, who carried the ball into the end zone. Hess

November is key month for getting influenza vaccination

With flu season near, officials at the Texas Department of Health (TDH) have urged anyone who may be at high risk of infection to seek immunization. People most at risk of the potentially deadly disease are those 65 or older, persons with chronic respiratory or heart problems and children weakened by disease.

Influenza, which occurs most often from December through April, kills about 20,000 individuals in the United States each year - most of them in the high risk categories," said Robert D. Crider Jr., director of TDH's Immunization Division. Crider said that persons 65 and older constitute one of the risk groups hardest hit by influenza and its complications.

"November is the key month to get the flu vaccination," said Martin M. Kralicke, M.D., chief of staff at Muenster Memorial Hospital. He estimated that more than 170 injections had already been administered in Muenster. The cost of the injection in the local doctors' offices is around $15. Influenza has a short incubation period and it is best to get the vaccination before the flu season begins to ensure protection.

"Fewer than 30 percent of Americans in high-risk groups receive the recommended annual injection of influenza vaccine," said Crider. "We believe that one reason older people fail to be vaccinated is their unfounded fear that the vaccine can actually cause influenza. The truth is that a vaccinated person may still contract some strain of the flu, but not from the vaccine."

Dr. Kralicke stressed that the vaccine could not cause the flu because it is made from dead viruses. Many people don't understand this and fear getting the vaccination because they don't want to get the flu from it.

According to Dr. Kralicke, the flu vaccination should not be given to anyone who has had Guillain-Barre Syndrome, or to a patient who is allergic to chicken or eggs. The vaccine is developed by using chicken embryos and anaphylactic reactions have been reported. If an allergy to egg protein is suspected, a skin test can be done in the doctor's office.

Other times when the vaccine shouldn't be given are when a patient has an acute febrile disease; if a patient is on theophylline, or blood-thinning drugs; or when an injection of pertussis vaccine has been administered, the flu shot shouldn't be given for at least five days.

Target groups considered at high risk of developing complications from influenza and encouraged to be vaccinated are: persons 65 years and older; residents and employees of nursing homes and other facilities treating chronically ill patients of any age; adults and children with chronic heart or lung disorders, including children with asthma; people under medical care for chronic metabolic diseases, kidney or blood problems or weakened immune systems; and children, 18 and younger, who are receiving longterm aspirin therapy, which can place them at risk of developing Reye Syndrome after influenza.

"We strongly recommend influenza vaccinations for all people in these high-risk groups, especially if they are pregnant women or international travelers," Crider advised. "The vaccine is considered safe for pregnant women, but is administered after the first trimester (three months), unless an epidemic exists," added Dr. Kralicke.

Those with compromised immune deficiencies (AIDS) may be at greater risk for flu complications and should also receive the flu shot. Health care professionals should be immunized against influenza to avoid spreading the disease to their patients, according to recommendations from the Centers for Disease Control.

The flu vaccination has already been made available to the staff of Muenster Memorial Hospital and many of the staff members have already received their vaccination this year, according to Joan Walterscheid, MMH Director of

Tourism Association receives award from NADO Oct. 7

Red River Valley Tourism Association (RRTVA) has received a 1990 Innovation Award from the National Association of Development Organizations (NADO). Each year NADO recognizes outstanding local economic and community development programs and projects. The award was announced on Oct. 7 at the association's 23rd Annual Conference in Orlando, Florida.

Red River Valley's Calendar of Events was selected as an example of an innovative approach to problem solving at the local level. The program was highlighted in a special NADO publication.

The members of NADO are local government-based organizations which conduct business, community and economic development activities in small metropolitan and rural areas. The association, headquartered in Washington, DC, publishes a weekly newsletter, conducts research, does legislative advocacy and provides technical assistance and training.

Nov. 29 meeting scheduled to reorganize hospital auxiliary

At the request of Sr. Mildred Felderhoff, director of Muenster Memorial Hospital in 1964, the Muenster Hospital Auxiliary was formed. She saw the need of an organization that would raise funds and promote community goodwill toward the hospital and its staff and potential staff.

The Hospital Auxiliary was very active in the community for many years bringing needed funds to purchase items and providing entertainment for the community with plays, dances, etc. Their membership was around 130.

In 1979 the members felt that they weren't as necessary a part of the hospital as they had once been and meeting attendance fell off. By mid-1980 the officers decided to discontinue meeting and become inactive until the organization was again needed.

That time seems to be now. Members of the MMH board of directors asked that the auxiliary re-form to give community support to the hospital. There is a need for more doctors at the hospital and community support is much needed both to bring in the doctors and keep the hospital going.

An organizational meeting will be held on Thursday, Nov. 29 at 7:30 p.m. in the new wing on the south side of the hospital. Kathy Northcutt of Denton AMI will give a program on Breast Awareness.

Attendance at this meeting will determine if there is enough interest in having an active Hospital Auxiliary. Margie Starke has taken charge of the reorganizational effort and has announced that there are plans to have some type of health program at each meeting to encourage good attendance.

Margie Starke is appealing to everyone from 17 to 80 plus, who cares about the Muenster Hospital to show their support of the hospital, its present doctors, and any doctor who might be thinking of setting up a practice in this community, by attending the meeting and volunteering their service.

"We would like to especially thank the chairmen of the various booths," said Fr. Victor. "This is one of the best Thanksgiving Picnics we have ever had. We were happily surprised at how many out-of-town visitors we had at the meal."

Good News!

Once, on being asked by the Pharisees when the reign of God would come, he replied: "You cannot tell by careful watching when the reign of God will come. Neither is it a matter of reporting that it is 'here' or 'there.' The reign of God is already in your midst." LUKE 17: 20-21

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:
The election is over and some campaign reform is badly needed - I'll make it brief in order to get it printed.

The present process is one of mass media and election by becoming indebted to those who will later come to call for special privileges their campaign contributions have bought. It matters not who assumes the offices. The special interests now firmly control the government - local, state and national.

Big money talks - all candidates for all races, J.P. through U.S. Senate will top 100 million with all monies spent on the Governor's race may hit 50 million. We must change the rules.

1. Shorten the campaign - primaries August with runoff in Sept. should be the rule except in Presidential years when we can have the Super Tuesday Presidential Primary.

2. Limit the campaign contributions to 100 dollars per individual or corporation. (Campaign costs will consume an unlimited cash flow.)

3. Limit terms of office. If lawmakers knew its all over in 8-12 years a lot less time would be spent tending to special interests and more time spent tending to people's business.

4. Change the write in procedure to allow an individual voter to write in any name he or she chooses.

5. Change the use of T.V. to discuss issues.

6. Grant all Texans the same privileges now available in home rule cities: Namely Initiative, Referendum and Recall.

We, the voters have had enough. It is time for the voice of the people to be heard. The message is loud and clear "some drastic changes are desperately needed" if we are to have a government of, for and by the people.

Nursing.
The influenza vaccination is given yearly because immunity declines with time and also the vaccine differs from year to year according to the flu strains expected for the current season.

Types are determined each year by the Biological Division of the Federal Drug Administration. This year's vaccine is a Trivalent designed to combat the A/Taiwan, A/Shanghai, and B/Yamagata strains. It is effective only against these strains, but usually helps to lessen the severity of other cases.

Dear Editor,
We would like to take this opportunity to thank all the people of Muenster and surrounding areas that helped make the 6th Annual Kiwanis Pancake Supper a big success. All of the net proceeds went to a very worthy cause, that being the Duane Knabe Love Fund. As in the past, when worthwhile causes are initiated the people of this community always respond favorably. This is why the Kiwanis' motto "Together We Build" means bonding relationships that are worthy and beneficial to the community. Thanks again for your support and remember that the support you give to the Kiwanis Club of Muenster is support you give to the community.

Thank You,

Cities see decline in rebate check

State Comptroller Bob Bullock reported recently that sales taxes collected in July, August and September of this year showed a steady increase over last year's collections.

"These rebates are right in line with our projections and show healthy economic growth in Texas," Bullock said.

Payments to cities totaled $128 million for an 8 percent increase over last year's total payments at this time. Muenster received $15,739, which was 7.29 percent less than last year. Other Cooke County cities received the following: Lindsay, $5,099.26, a drop of 2.89 percent; Gainesville, $133,131.47, down 17.28 percent; Oak Ridge, $2,595.09, down 25.81 percent; and Valley View, $1,898.50, down 22.97 percent.

Rebate checks to counties totaled $12 million this month for an increase of 19 percent over last year's total payments at this time. Cooke County received $68,352.39.

This month's checks reflect taxes collected on September sales and reported in late October by businesses filing monthly returns. Also included in this month's payments are sales taxes reported by quarterly filers whose collections reflect sales made in July, August and September.

Tax rep to be in Gainesville to offer aid

AUSTIN - State Comptroller Bob Bullock said recently that a representative from his agency will be in Gainesville on Wednesday, Nov. 28 to answer questions about Texas taxes and assist taxpayers with paperwork and problems.

Don Ersch, Enforcement Officer, Sherman Enforcement Office will be at the Gainesville Chamber of Commerce, 101 S. Culbertson, Gainesville from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. The public is welcome and there is no charge.

Gainesville area taxpayers who cannot attend the courthouse seminar can still get individual tax assistance by calling the Comptroller's toll-free telephone number, 1-800-252-5555, from

MANY of the antique street lights along Muenster's Main Street and Hwy. 82 have already received nominations as Groat Holes. The light pictured above is located along Hwy. 82 near Bayer's Kolonialwaren. It was damaged about three weeks ago when a delivery truck rolled into the ditch. The light cannot be repaired until insurance adjustors inspect the damage. Other antique street lights are not shining because of burned-out bulbs. Gary Fisher, a spokesman for the Muenster Chamber of Commerce, explained that all burned out bulbs would be replaced in the near future when the Christmas decorations are put up. This will eliminate the need for climbing a ladder twice at each light. After the bulbs are replaced, the City of Muenster will take over maintenance of the street lights.

Food costs to reflect our higher oil prices

by Mary Mahoney
COLLEGE STATION - Food costs in the coming months could easily rise by 10 percent if the recent swings in oil prices remain near levels of $40 per barrel, a Texas A&M food marketing expert said.

The first foods to feel the impact of the near doubling oil prices as a result of Mideast tensions will be those hit hardest by increased transportation costs, according to Dr. Dick Edwards of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. These will include certain fresh produce, frozen seafoods and many imported fruits and vegetables.

With the Texas citrus supply expected to be greatly reduced this season because of last December's freeze, pink grapefruit is being flown to supermarkets here from Florida; oranges are coming from California. Transportation costs will increase checkout counter prices.

"But not all higher costs for produce can be tied to the oil situation, since transitional seasonal marketing shifts in production areas often result in temporary shortages of lettuce and similar produce," Edwards said. "These prices climb during any marketing season as products become scarce."

"With oil prices bouncing higher, consumers definitely will help pay for the added costs with higher food bills," Edwards said. "Until there is some stabilization in oil futures and the forces driving them, the situation will continue to be erratic."

In the food distribution chain, Edwards said, the cost of fuels and electric components generally amounts to about 5 percent of the retail food dollar.

"But the 100 percent increase in oil prices since July - from $20 to about $40 per barrel - will have a significant impact."

"Higher oil prices eventually will raise the many costs of the food chain, from agricultural chemicals to plastic pop bottles," Edwards said. "This also would include wrapping materials on many packaged items, foam meat trays and plastic bags used to carry groceries home."

Rising costs will ultimately put upward pressure on labor costs, the largest single component in food prices, accounting for fully one-third of the food dollar, he said.

"The overall rise in food costs could easily hit 10 percent during the coming months when both the direct and indirect effects are totaled," Edwards predicted.

"Of course, the duration of the current situation will determine price shifts over the longer range," he said.

On the soap box

by Dianne Walterscheid

I usually do not stand on my soap box and shout out my opinion on a subject unless I feel very strong about the matter. After seeing the poster/calendar of the "map of Muenster"... you better sit down!

I can not believe what I saw! It's embarrassingly inaccurate, sloppy, the proportions are ridiculous, and it's a rip-off to those involved. If anyone was led to believe this was going to be a professional piece of work, I'm sure many were certainly surprised - at least, I would be!

I enjoy art, in its very many ways of expression, but this is sad, really sad. I have made the art field a part of my life and have studied its many forms. I can honestly say I've seen my eight-year-old express himself more artistically than this. I see absolutely no sense of design!

This so-called "map of Muenster" is really a put down for the town I lived in most of my life and call home. This map should show the beauty, the history, the strength, and give a special warm feeling about our town to all who view it. This "map of Muenster" leaves me with one emotion - anger. We have a lot to "show off" in our town and this doesn't do anything close to what we have to offer!

We're proud of what we have accomplished here, being that of a business, a school, a church or a home. I feel we would all want it to be represented in just that way.

I feel this could be a successful and good idea and it could work well for a town if done tastefully and correctly. Did the town itself profit from such an unprofessional-looking project? Who did?

$300 million tax credit to be seen by employers

Texas employers are going to get a $300 million TEC tax credit in 1991 according to Commissioner Mary Scott Nabers of the Texas Employment Commission.

"This is without doubt the best news we have been able to announce in the past six years," Commissioner Nabers said. "Every Texas employer will realize a tax credit of approximately 34 percent." This amount will not be an actual refund but will be applied to taxes owed in 1991.

"This will provide some much needed relief to business," Nabers said, and then added, "It's long overdue."

The tax credit is a result of lower unemployment and a trust fund that has reached capacity. The trust fund is the account from which benefits to unemployed workers are paid. According to Nabers, the fund will total approximately $1.3 billion by the end of November. "That is more than is needed so the overage can be credited back to taxpayers," Nabers said.

When asked if this was a major indicator of a better economy, Commissioner Nabers was cautious, calling it a positive sign but describing the economy as simply stable rather than great.

The amount of credit to be received by employers will vary depending on their tax liability. For example:

*A large employer with a tax liability of $5 million will receive a tax credit of approximately $1.7 million.

*A mid-sized employer with a tax liability of $29,000 could receive a tax credit of $9,900.

*A small employer with a tax liability of $261 might expect a tax credit of $88.77.

Nabers also pointed out that the tax credit cannot be applied to delinquencies. All taxpayers must be current on taxes to receive credit.

Lindsay City Council seeks attorney's advice

by Elaine Schad

The Lindsay City Council will seek advice from the city attorney concerning a request from owners of the Phase II to stay open until 2 a.m. on weekends.

At its regular November meeting, owner Earl Koelzer made the request that the business remain open until 2 a.m. on Friday through Sunday. The city was unsure if there were any business hour requirements concerning those businesses where alcohol was served, so the council decided to seek a legal opinion before making a final decision, officials said.

In other business, the council heard an update on the city's suit against the Houston cable television company holding the city's cable franchise.

WGA Cable has not responded to the suit, filed in September. The city is seeking cancellation and termination of its contract, and is further seeking an injunction ordering the company to immediately remove all its equipment and facilities from the streets and property of the city due to what the city claims is poor quality service.

In other business, the council reviewed a completed street paving project, about a one-block strip of South Pecan Street. The 345-foot section cost about $2,800, an estimated cost of about $2.50 per foot for property owners who live along the paved section.

Mrs. Carl Mages, 76, dies on Nov. 9

Mass of Christian Burial was offered for Mrs. Carl Mages, 76, in St. Peter's Catholic Church at 10:30 a.m. on Monday, Nov. 12, with Father William Petez of Clifton, Texas officiating. Burial followed in St. Peter's Cemetery, directed by Geo. J. Carroll and Son Funeral Home.

A Rosary Service was held in the Carroll Chapel at 6 p.m. on Sunday.

Mrs. Mages died on Friday, Nov. 9 at 1907 Refinery Road in Gainesville.

She was born Nov. 24, 1913 in Myra to Herman M. and Alvina A. Rockway Bernhardt. She mar-

Littlest Angel selections ready at Muenster Bank

Christmas trees decorated with paper angels representing a Cooke County youth or elder in need have been placed in various county businesses. The "Littlest Angel" tree in Muenster is in the Muenster State Bank.

People wishing to participate in the "Littlest Angel" program need to select an angel from the tree and, if it is a child, purchase a toy and an article of clothing. The toys must not be gift wrapped and the clothing should be wrapped. The angel's age, size, toy preference, etc. is listed on the back of the angel.

Gifts for the angels should be clearly marked with the name and number of the person to receive the gifts and returned to the Muenster State Bank or brought to the Cooke County Youth Club on Hird Street in Gainesville by Dec. 7.

Monetary donation should be mailed to Debbie Hess, Rt. 2 Box 608, Muenster, TX 76252. Contact her at 759-2890 for any further information.

THIS BANNER is proudly displayed in the Muenster VFW Post home. It was made by Muenster Public School kindergarten students. Rosemary Dankesreiter is their teacher. The banner was given to the veterans in honor of Veteran's Day.

PERFORMANCE - NOT PROMISES

Many life companies today project values as if there would be no mortality charges or company expenses. Clients, and sometimes professional advisors, often make the mistake of accepting value projections as if they were reality, of course, they are not. More and more professionals are insisting on evaluating the company behind the numbers. Of 2,500 life companies in the U.S. market, only 13 are rated Aaa (highest mark) from Moody's Investors Services, for their ability to meet policyholder obligations and pay claims. We offer products from 3 of those 13 companies.

New rules govern tire disposal

Texans throw away between eight and 12 million tires each year. Improperly operated storage sites pose serious fire hazards and also frequently serve as breeding grounds for mosquitoes, rats and other vermin.

Another hazard occurs when floodwaters wash old tires from their storage sites, leaving them scattered over wide areas.

New controls, designed to ensure the safe and environmentally sound handling and disposal of used tires, were recently announced by the Texas Department of Health (TDH). The regulations, which became effective Aug. 29, affect the activities of hundreds of people and organizations that transport, store, process and dispose of used tires.

People who generate 15 or more used tires per month are affected by the new rules and must obtain a special I.D. number from TDH. They also must keep records showing the number of used tires they accumulate and ship to various authorized storage, processing and disposal facilities.

Under the new regulations, a special TDH-provided manifest must be filled out by people transporting 15 or more used tires in a month. All such transporters must register with TDH and pay an annual fee based on the quantity of tires hauled.

T.A. Outlaw, Jr., chief of TDH's Bureau of Solid Waste Management, said the purpose of the new rule is to prevent the accumulation of used tires in a manner that fails to adequately protect public health and the environment, and to prevent whole loads of tires from being placed in sanitary landfills.

Anyone storing more than 500 used tires must register the storage site with TDH by no later than Dec. 27, 1990. The same application deadline also applies to anyone whose operations will require a TDH permit to process or dispose of scrap tires.

Although the regulations require that transporters register by the Aug. 29 effective date, Outlaw stated that transporters will be given until Sept. 28 to register, because of a delay in publishing the regulations.

Persons who think their activities may be affected by the regulations, including retailers, tire shops, service stations, landowners, landfill operators, and incinerators should call the Bureau of Solid Waste Management at (512) 458-7271 to obtain specific regulations and the necessary forms.

Golden wedding anniversary observed on Nov. 11

PAUL and MARIE ENDRES
... on their wedding day, Nov. 11, 1940 ...

On Sunday, Nov. 11, exactly fifty years from their wedding day in 1940, Paul and Marie Endres observed their golden anniversary with a day-long celebration, surrounded by their children, and children's spouses, grandchildren, relatives and friends.

The day began with a Mass of Thanksgiving in Sacred Heart Church at 10:30 a.m. with Father Victor Gillespie OSB as celebrant.

The entrance procession included their children, sons-in-law and daughters-in-law and grandchildren Clifford and Donna Endres and children, Nicholas Endres and Sharon and Shannon Hamil of Austin; Karen Endres of Fort Collins, Colo.; Patricia Owens and her children Allison and Audrey of Mesa, Arizona; John and Nancy Endres and their children, Prairie and Emilia of Era; Richard and Martha Kincaid Endres and their children, Nathan, Eric and Peter of Sodus, N.Y.; George and Mary Ellen Endres Holland of Tyler; Peg and Larry Abeln and their children Samantha and Jana Abeln of Richardson.

Also in the entrance procession were the original attendants Eugenia (Walter) O'Dowd and her husband John of Houston and Gilbert Endres and wife Elsie of Muenster.

Taking part in the special liturgy were a daughter Mary Ellen Endres with a Reading from the Book of Genesis; a son, Dr. Richard Endres with a Reading from St. Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians; a daughter, Patricia Owens with Petitions and Prayers of the Faithful.

Offertory gifts were presented at the altar by grandchildren, Sharon and Shannon Hamil, Allison and Audrey Owens, Nick Endres, Nathan, Eric and Peter Endres, Prairie and Emilia Endres, Samantha and Jana Abeln.

Eucharistic ministers were nephews and nieces, Sam and Karen Endres, Robert Miller, Roger and Jane Taylor, Chris Walter, and a former classmate Dorothy Hartman.

Mass servers were grand-nephews, Eric Miller, Gregg Flusche and Patrick Miller.

Music for the anniversary Mass was presented by Ruth Felderhoff, organist, and Christy Hesse and Eileen Fisher, vocalists.

Selections included the organ solo, Pachelbel for the entrance procession, "By The Love," "Greatest Gift," "All I Ask of You," "Ave Maria," and "Christ Be Beside Me."

Also present for the celebration were all of Marie's brothers and sisters: Al Walter; Joe Walter; Romana and Frank Bayer; Oscar and Agnes Walter; Rose Hofbauer; Alfred and Clare Walter of Hawaii; Sylvia Everette of Olney, Ill.; Genie and John O'Dowd of Houston; and Teresa and Bill Miller.

And all of Paul's brothers and sisters: Mrs. Arthur Endres of Ann Arbor, Mich.; Gilbert and Elsie Endres; Urban and Jane Endres; Val Fuhrmann; Florene and Bob Kupper of Marlin; and Dolly Lavolette of Caspian, Mich.

RECEPTION

A family dinner at 1 p.m. followed in the Knights of Columbus Hall, catered by Cathie and Francis Fuhrmann.

Master of ceremonies for a dinner program was Paul and Marie's oldest son, Dr. Clifford Endres, who gave a family history with biographical data, anecdotes and favorite family stories. Also taking part in the program were Patricia Owens, Allison Owens, Peter Endres, Nick Endres, Mary Ellen Endres and Eric Endres.

Open House honored the anniversary couple from 2:30 until 5:30 p.m. in the K.C. Hall.

Granddaughters took turns presiding at the guest book, registering about 300 guests.

The Sacred Heart Choral Group led a Sing-a-long with favorites from the late 1930s and 1940s, accompanied by Ruth Felderhoff.

Guests were served from a buffet of assorted foods, and a champagne fountain. Apple tarts were special treats, made from apples shipped earlier by Dr. Richard Endres from his farm in upstate Sodus, N.Y.

The three-tiered anniversary cake was baked and decorated by Betty Rose Walterscheid. The top keepsake layer held the same ornament used on the golden wedding cake of Marie's parents, John and Susie (Tracht) Walter in 1955, who requested that it be used for all golden weddings in their family. To date, Al and Marie Walter, Joe and Anna Walter, Frank and Romana Bayer and Oscar and Agnes Walter have used the same ornament.

The cake was cut by granddaughters Sharon and Shannon Hamil and served by the other grandchildren.

Candle holders used on the cake table were some of Paul and Marie's wedding gifts.

On display at the reception was Marie's wedding dress and the gold locket, a gift from Paul on their wedding day.

Several tables held old pictures, to tell the story of special occasions in their lives. A memento table included a special book of "Stories" describing colorful events of the past, collected for the anniversary by their children and shared by family members and friends. Portions were read aloud at the program, to the delight and enjoyment of guests, and a few, Marie admitted "caused a great deal of mirth."

Decorations were planned and created by children of the honor couple using a "Country" theme. Miniature hay bales and miniature farm machinery were conversation pieces. A rural mailbox held anniversary cards. Fresh flowers, fresh plants and gold decorations abounded.

The entry stairs was decorated with live plants, and on the stair railing were garlands of ornamental peppers in many natural colors, with added miniature lights and twinkling gold foil stars.

Mrs. Paul Endres attended her anniversary celebration attired in a tea length formal dress with ivory lace top and cranberry moire taffeta skirt of tulip design. She had a corsage of roses and all the immediate family had rose boutonnieres or corsages. Her bridesmaid wore a flowered two piece dress.

Guests from out-of-town included David Ruhberg of Fort Collins, Colo.; John and Betty Yarbrough of Fort Worth; Alfred and Clare Walter of Hawaii; the John O'Dowd family of Houston; Sue Endres of Ann Arbor, Mich.; the Bob Koppers of Marlin; Sylvia Everette of Olney, Ill.; Dr. Herbert Bunchman of Mesa, Ariz.; Dolly Lavolette of Caspian, Mich.; Charlie Herr and Claude Walter, both of McKinney; the Rodney Walters of Lewisville; the Tom Fuhrmanns of Sulphur Springs; Fred and Margie Fisher of Las Cruces, N.M.; Doyle and Nancy Kupper, and Phillip Kupper of Irving; the Carl Endres family of The Colony; Elaine Modrell and Aenes

Franklin of Irving; Vincent Luke of Ft. Worth; the Richard Lautenslager family of The Colony; the Kris Koppers of Little Rock; Mr. and Mrs. Danny Endres of Fort Worth; Jack and Mary Endres of Dallas; Richard, Tom and Tim Gorman and Connie Colwell of Rockford, Ill.; Gerry Gorman-Bowe of Eagle Lake, Minn.; Dana Gorman of Eau Claire, Wisc.; Mr. and Mrs. James Wiesman of Graham; Phil Kupper of Arlington; Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Kupper of Palestine; Mr. and Mrs. Eric Kupper of Watauga; the David Walter family of Arlington; Ann Ehler, Brandy Bailey, Peggy Long and Paul Severius all of Thomasboro, Ill.; Dr. and Mrs. Paul Friedman of Dallas; Tom and Kathleen (McGannon) Shanks and Denise Shanks of Garland; Ron Hofbauer of Dallas. Also relatives and friends from Gainesville, Lindsay, Muenster and areas of Cooke County.

On Saturday evening, preceding the anniversary observance, the Paul Endres family was together in the upstairs dining room at The Center for a catered dinner. All children and grandchildren were present. They later joined an Endres family reunion in the downstairs section of the Knights of Columbus Hall.

Recalled during the afternoon, as family and guests reminisced, was the day Paul Endres and Marie Walter were married in Sacred Heart Church at 8:30 a.m. on Nov. 11, 1940.

She was the daughter of John and Susie Walter and he was the son of Werner and Lida Endres.

The Monday morning Nuptial Mass was offered by Father Frowin Koerd. The Sacred Heart Men's Choir sang "Missa Tertia" in Latin.

The bride's gown of ivory net over taffeta was designed with sweetheart neckline, short puffed sleeves, basque bodice studded with sequins and floor-length full skirt. Her veil fell from a sequined halo and she carried a fan-shaped bouquet of lilies.

Genie Walter, the bride's sister, was bridesmaid, wearing a powder blue silk marquisette floor-length dress. She had a spray of pink flowers in her hair and she wore a pink corsage.

Breakfast at the home of the bride's parents followed. At noon, a dinner was attended by 60 relatives. The three-tiered white wedding cake, on a crystal cake stand was the centerpiece with a pair of crystal candle holders.

The couple's first home was on a farm three miles south of Gainesville.

Local veterans honored on Nov. 11

Muenster Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 6205 and its Ladies Auxiliary held Veterans Day Services on Sunday, Nov. 11, beginning with the 8 a.m. Mass in Sacred Heart Church. It was offered for all living and deceased veterans.

Immediately following the Mass, a group of approximately 50 people, gathered at the Veterans plot of Sacred Heart Cemetery for brief services.

Auxiliary President Janet Barnhill placed a wreath at the Veterans monument. VFW Representative Arthur Bayer led the group in prayers for all veterans. A song, "American Citizen," by Johnny Travis was recited by Frances Bayer, Auxiliary chaplain, as a tribute to veterans before she led the group in the closing song, "Amazing Grace."

"American Citizen" says in part: "Yes, I'm an American citizen, Her own son tried and true, And I'm not ashamed of the lump in my throat, When I salute the Red, White, and Blue. So, Here's to you Dear Old Uncle, May your banner ever wave, And with God in your heart, May you always be the Land, Of the Free and the Brave."

Juanita Knabe and Josephine Schilling served as Flag Bearers and Auxiliary Conductress Linda Knabe presided over the ceremonies.

That evening the VFW members were treated to snacks, compliments of the auxiliary.

The VFW members were also greeted with a large banner, compliments of Mrs. Rosemary Dankesreiter and the Muenster Public School kindergarten classes thanking the "men and women who served to keep us free" and was signed by all the students.

50th anniversary gala honors bomber crews

The B-26 Martin Marauder twin-engine medium bomber had the best combat record of any World War II aircraft. Though difficult to learn to fly, actual losses in combat were less than 1 percent.

A new nationwide organization, the B-26 Marauder Historical Society, has been formed with George W. Parker of Columbia, MO as president. Parker announced earlier this year that the Historical Society is sponsoring a 50th Anniversary Gala to be held in Baltimore, MD in April 1991.

The Gala is for the purpose of celebrating the 50th anniversary of the delivery of the first B-26 to the Army Air Corps in 1941. Nicholas G. Chacos of Bethesda, MD has been appointed General Chairman of the Gala.

The Society is attempting to reach all who have had any connection with the B-26, including pilots, crew members, members of groups and squadrons, and those who designed, helped build, inspected and maintained the aircraft.

More information may be obtained from George W. Parker, P.O. Box 1051, Columbia, MO 65205.

November is National Diabetes Month

An estimated 830,000 Texans - about 1 in 20 - have diabetes mellitus. However, only about half even know they have the disease. All are at risk of developing serious health complications such as eye problems, nerve damage, heart disease and kidney disease.

To help prevent death and illness from diabetes, the Texas Department of Health has joined a national effort during November, Diabetes Month, to make the public more aware of the importance of proper health care for diabetics.

Diabetes is one of the top ten leading causes of death in Texas. It is also the leading cause of new cases of blindness and the leading cause of lower extremity amputations not related to injury.

People at risk for diabetes include those who: have a family history of diabetes, are 40 or older, and/or are overweight.

The largest age groups in the Texas population of some 17 million are the very young and the middle-aged. Adult on-set diabetes is most likely to develop during middle age, and as an already overweight population ages, an increase in the adult form of the disease is expected.

Diabetes is a group of disorders characterized by unusually high levels of sugar in the blood, caused by the body's inability to make or use the hormone insulin. All persons with Type I, or insulin dependent, diabetes require regular insulin injections to control their blood sugar levels. Type I usually occurs in young children. There is no known way to prevent this type of diabetes.

Adults, however, are more likely to contract non-insulin dependent, or Type II, diabetes which often can be controlled by a combination of dietary therapy and regular exercise. Type II patients may also take oral medications that help to control their blood sugar. Approximately 90 percent of all diabetes cases are Type II.

In either type of diabetes, dietary management is crucial to controlling blood sugar levels. Diabetes therapy is intended to strike a balance between the effects (on blood sugar levels) of food intake, physical activity and medication. Each person with diabetes should have a prescribed nutrition plan, designed to meet that individual's specific needs.

In most cases, by following the doctor's treatment plan the patient can lead an otherwise active, "normal" life. Failure to do so can lead to kidney failure, strokes, blindness, heart disease, amputations - even premature death.

Risk for developing Type II diabetes can be reduced by keeping weight at a moderate level, getting regular exercise, abstaining from smoking, using alcohol in moderation, reducing stress and getting regular medical checkups.

Symptoms of Type II diabetes include fatigue, excessive thirst, excessive urination, blurred vision, frequent skin infections and slow healing of cuts or bruises.

Symptoms of Type I diabetes include frequent urination, weakness, rapid weight loss, irritability, nausea, vomiting and extreme hunger.

Cooke County has a diabetic support group that meets at 7:30 p.m. on the third Tuesday of each month except July and August. There is a different program at every meeting which is geared to be informative to diabetics and their families. The public is always encouraged to attend.

The November meeting will be on "Maintaining Diabetic Dietary Compliance During the Holidays." Maggie Mount, a registered dietician with Gainesville Memorial Hospital, is the speaker.

The October meeting featured a Gainesville gastroenterologist, Dr.

Rahman, who spoke on two topics, Pancreatic Transplants and Diabetic Complications.

In December, Dr. Les Schachar of Gainesville will present a program on diabetes and the eyes.

Auxiliary to sponsor fundraiser

The Ladies Auxiliary of the VFW No. 6205 are again sponsoring the "In Lieu of Christmas Cards" fundraiser. As in previous years, people giving a donation will have their name or names published on a Christmas greeting ad. Many people do this instead of sending Christmas cards.

Profits realized from this project are put into two funds - one for the local relief fund and the other for the Auxiliary operating fund. The relief fund monies go to local citizens who are in difficult times. The operating fund helps the Auxiliary fund its many projects such as Camp Sweeney, Denton State School, Cooke County Development Center, etc.

To get your name on the list of donors and the Holiday Greeting, send your donation, along with the name as you wish it to appear to: Juanita Knabe, Box 474, Muenster; Janet Barnhill, Box 15, Muenster; or Frances Bayer, Rt. 1 Box 1, Muenster, TX 76252.

Deadline for people interested in participating in this project is Dec. 15. Names and donations must be in by then.

St. Richard's Villa News

by Frances Reiter

Our bingo players this week were Romana Bayer, Betty Yosten, Dorothy Yosten and Judy Phillips.

After our daily exercise, Joe Hoening came out and played the piano and sang.

At 6:30 p.m. on Thursday, Nov. 8, we had our monthly bingo party and Janie Morgan served cake and punch and showed a World War II movie as we had no birthdays.

On Friday, we had a general meeting in the lobby for all residents to see what's in store for the month of December. Sounds like it's going to be lots of entertainment for St. Richard's Villa.

The appeal for bingo prizes was well taken care of by Mary Ann Arendt from the Wal-Mart Store in Gainesville. Many thanks, Mary Ann.

We lost three residents of St. Richard's Villa this week. Barney Barnett died in Muenster Hospital. He was a nine-year resident. Henry Grewing and John Hacker also died. We all send our sympathy to all three of the families in their time of sorrow.

On Sunday, the high school children from Sacred Heart came out to play bingo and we really enjoyed it so much.

Out-of-town guests were Monte and Doris Hellman; Doris Grewing; Jo Frazier; Bill and Marye Birden; Hilda Preshler; Mrs. Joe Luttmer; Loreen Hermes; Vera May Eddy; Red and Joyce Zwings; Bobbie Amos; and Lucy Ohler.

Mrs. Pat Knuckles played bingo with us. We also had a meeting and discussed what our rights are here at the rest home. It was really interesting.

Mildred Lawson entertained with her accordion and we also had arts and crafts.

Got a new resident in yesterday. Eddie Fette was transferred from Saint Jo Nursing Home where he has been a resident for the past 10 years.

Margaret and Louise Fisher came out and prayed the rosary and they served punch and cookies to the residents.

Our weekly bingo game was played by Augusta Walterscheid, Le Vogel and Mr. and Mrs. Dill.

The Sacred Heart High School girls brought a large basket of assorted fruit to St. Richard's residents. Thanks a lot from all of us.

Joe Hoening came and played the piano.

We have been busy making candy cane wreaths and decorations to hang on the tree with beads. Maurine Griggs came and played dominoes with us.

Paul and Jody Valentine from Saint Jo brought us three domino markers which we were in need of for some time. Thanks from all of us.

Through the courtesy of Maurine Griggs, 10 of the ladies from St. Richard's went for a ride to Rosston to admire the beauty and colors of the trees. We went in two cars. Those who went were Alice Hellman, Ida Hoening, Ursula Herr, Frances Reiter, Mattie Roston, Anna Jostwerner, Estelle Kelly and Vena Settle.

Saturday afternoon, we had bingo. Janie Morgan was the caller.

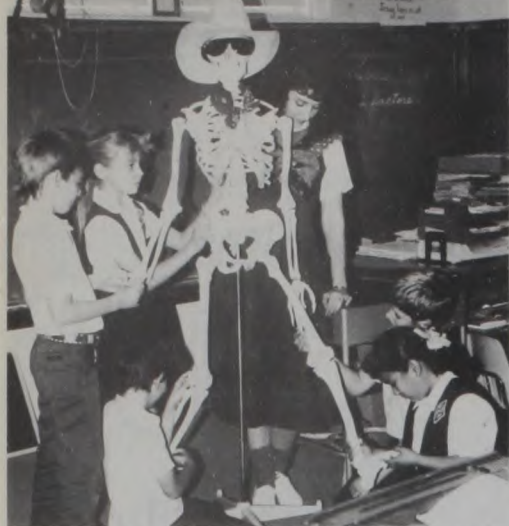

The Church of Christ from Gainesville had services here Sunday.

The Methodist Singers from Rosston and Rev. Poole from Gainesville and Jim Penton came Sunday evening.

Out-of-town visitors were Damian and Bernice Hellman from Irving; Dora Johnson from Azle; Dorothy Berend and Marion Yosten from Hereford; Lanny Kelly from Era; Mary Sicking from Gainesville; Alfred Haverkamp from Dallas; and Billie Ames from Plano.

We also have another new patient, Rosa Collins from Fort Worth.

Just a note to remind anyone wanting to do something special for the holiday season, please let Janie know as soon as possible where she can put it on the December calendar. Be a friend and visit a nursing home!

SACRED HEART fourth grade students enjoyed a talk and demonstration given by Rita Bayer, center, Tuesday morning on how the bones and muscles of the human skeleton work. Mrs. Bayer holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Physical Therapy. She was invited to speak to the class by their teacher, Anna Hermes. The fourth graders are now studying how bones and muscles work in their Science class. Students pictured are, 1 to r, standing, Joe Becker and Debra Voth; and seated, Joseph Reiter, Betty Trevino and Charlie Schilling.

Jack honored on sixth

JACK BIFFLE

Jack Biffle celebrated his birthday with his classmates and teachers on Friday, Nov. 2 when his mother brought cupcakes and punch to school. His friends Michael Voth, Justin Hess and Wesley Koelzer enjoyed coming home from school with Jack and spending the night with him. Friday evening Jack and his parents, Jimbo and Donna Biffle, and sister Jayna along with his over-night friends were treated to Teenage Mutant Ninja (pepperoni) Turtle pizza. Jack enjoyed opening gifts and playing with them.

On his actual birthday, Nov. 3, Jack brought his friends to his soccer game and treated the soccer players with surprises made by his mother. After the game Jack and his sister Jayna were invited to a birthday party for a friend Brooke Endres, who also celebrates the same day.

After 5:00 p.m. Mass Jack was honored with a chili supper at the home of his parents. His mom made a football cake which was enjoyed by his guests. Pictures and movies were made. Attending were Grandma Colette Biffle and Aunt Judy and Uncle Ron Trubenbach; Aunt Linda Grewing and sons Jonathan, Kenneth and Matthew; Jack's sister Jayna; his cousin Shawna Herr and daughter Mackenzie; and his friend Larry Bryant.

Sending birthday wishes were Grandpa Jimmy Jack Biffle from Montana; Jack's godmother Tammy Hess; his godfather Brad Biffle and Cindy Biffle; and Grandma LuLu Hess.

Surprises for Herman's 70th

Surprises came in multiples for Herman and Alma Stoffels during their vacation this year.

On Friday morning, Oct. 26, along with their daughter, Connie Rheams, they flew to Las Vegas to begin a six-day vacation including three days in that city and three days of sightseeing in the San Francisco area.

However, Herman had no idea their other nine children were flying to Las Vegas that afternoon to help him celebrate his seventieth birthday. The special celebration began when he returned to his room to find all his family waiting to surprise him.

On Saturday evening, Herman's actual birthday, the group went to the dinner show, "King Arthur's Tournament" at the Excalibur, where they were staying.

The weekend was a time of great fun for everyone and will provide lasting memories for the entire family.

Herman and Alma are parents of Chris Stoffels, Pam Dangelmayr, June Bartush, and Cindy Gehrig of Muenster; Craig Stoffels, Donna Simmons, and Janel Stoffels of Denton; Connie Rheams of Euless; Sally Stoffels of College Station; and Mark Stoffels of Shreveport.

There was an earlier party on Sunday, Oct. 21 in the home of Chuck and June Bartush, when most of his grandchildren and their parents were present. Sending greetings but unable to attend were Ryan and Micheal Gehrig and Chad Simmons of Subiaco, Academy and Jason Gehrig of College Station.

Kara Nicole turns one!

KARA FELDERHOFF

A first birthday party was held for Kara Nicole Felderhoff on Sunday, Nov. 11 in the home of her parents Kenny and Kim Felderhoff. Kara's actual birthday is Nov. 13.

Guests were served a chicken supper with trimmings. Pictures and videos were made of the occasion. Kara delighted in opening her gifts with the assistance of her sister Kayla and brother Keith.

A birthday cake holding one candle and decorated with a dancing bear was served to guests with ice cream on matching plates. Each child attending was given a treat bag to take home.

Attending were Kara's parents Kenny and Kim Felderhoff; sister Kayla and brother Keith; grandparents Bobby Dale and Linda Walterscheid and Al and Sis Felderhoff; and great grandmother Opal Cooper with a friend Georgia Richardson.

Also uncles, aunts and cousins Scott and Sandy Felderhoff and Kaitlyn; Ross and Janet Felderhoff and Jody and Deann; and Duane Walterscheid and a friend Rhonda Stewart.

cluding a 4th down conversion by Vogel to the 4-yard line. With 6:22 on the clock, Vogel carried the ball in and Jelen kicked to give Muenster a 14-0 score.

Wortham, starting on the 34-yard line, ate up all but 7 seconds of the clock on their next drive. Fifteen plays and 66 yards later, the Bears were on the board. The PAT run was good and the score read 14-8 going into the final quarter.

Muenster's next drive started with a 19-yard run by Vogel, but went downhill after that. A 4th and 2 attempt near midfield failed, returning the ball to the Bears. Taking the ball 30 yards in 6 plays, Wortham began to show their strength, but a mishandled ball was covered by Mike Hacker, allowing the Hornets to begin play at their 35-yard line.

Muenster's three backs again moved the ball down the field and, in 12 plays, Muenster scored again, this time on a 2-yard run by Pangel. Jelen's kick was blocked. With less than 2 minutes on the clock, Muenster had a winning 20-8 lead. "They were moving the ball when they fumbled," said Roller. "We held on to score, using the clock to our advantage."

Wortham got off four plays, then Muenster killed the clock to take the Bi-District Championship.

"We are very pleased to be where we are," said Roller. "A tremendous effort by the offensive line allowed the backfield to move the ball."

The Hornet coach also stated that good team defense was used throughout the game, but couldn't say enough about the offensive line. "They kept the game going; they're one of the better offensive lines I've ever worked with." Roller also commented how the backs did an excellent job reading their blocks to make good yardage.

Mike Vogel led the Hornets with 101 yards in 20 carries. Troy Pangel added 65 and Ryan Sicking 36 yards to Muenster's running game. The Hornets attempted no passes for no gain.

Vogel received a knee injury late in the game, making him questionable for the rest of the season and not a likely player for Friday's game with Gunter. "He tried to catch his balance after a hit and twisted his knee," said Roller. "Getting him taken care of is the most important thing right now."

The Hornets' defense was honored by Mike Hacker and Doug Hennigan recovering fumbles and an interception by Mike Vogel.

"We're making our adjustments early in the game," said Roller.

Muenster will tangle with the Gunter Tigers in the Area Playoff match to be staged Friday, Nov. 23, at 7:30 p.m. at Frisco.

Gunter won its Bi-District match with a 17-7 win over Simms James Bowie, improving the season record to 9-2. Muenster defeated the Tigers 10-6 in their earlier Homecoming game, but Gunter has showed much improvement through the season. "Gunter has improved over the weeks," commented Roller, "but so have we."

The Tigers changed their offense now using the Power I, much like Muenster. They still run the option and throw the ball, giving good protection to their quarterback.

"We need to keep our momentum built up and play good defense," said the Hornet coach. "We can play with them." Roller also stated that the secondary needs to continue to read the keys and not allow any big plays. "We need to play mistake-free football," concluded Roller.

Playoffs continue contest!

With last week's first round of high school playoffs, the Pigskin Playoff offered a different choice of games to its contestants. Only two entries correctly guessed 19 games - Neil Huchton and Terry Walterscheid. The tiebreaker game gave Neil top place weekly honors.

Mickey Haverkamp and Jason Biffle came in with a close 18 games with six contestants correctly picking 17 games.

The most missed game was the Celina vs. Howe game which ended in a 14-14 tie. With Howe advancing on penetrations, they were picked the winner. Only two correctly guessed the Jacksboro-Olney game. Two picked Muenster to lose to Wortham; only two correctly picked Gainesville over Madison and only two missed the Godley and A&M games. Only one contestant picked Era over Italy and everyone picked Texas Tech over SMU.

For the season, Neil Huchton moves into first place with a .700 correct percentage. Henry Kessler fell to second place at .696, followed by Barbie Barnhill, Mark Klement and Terry Walterscheid tied for third place with a .692 percent of correct games picked. Others coming close are Duane Haverkamp, Mickey Haverkamp and Mark Grewing.

This week's winners picked up their cash prizes at The Muenster Enterprise, to save on trips to Decatur to Karl Klement Ford-Mercury dealership, last week's tiebreaker sponsor.

Tigerettes get mention in magazine

The Texas Basketball Magazine recently hit the newsstands, featuring the state's top high school boys' and girls' teams. Though TAPPS only received a half page referral, the Sacred Heart Tigerettes were honored with an acknowledgeable paragraph. Of the three schools in District 4AA, the Tigerettes earned the most encouragement. The article stated that Lubbock Christian, last year's Class AA State Champions, will be in the same district as the Tigerettes, who have earned 2 TCIL and 3 TAPPS state championships. Notre Dame is the third team in competition. Sharon Fuhrmann and J.J. Dowd were named to "lead an untested cast of future stars."

Also listed in the magazine were the "Texas Girls' Coaching Records." Sacred Heart's Coach Jon LeBrasseur was the only private school athletic director earning a mention in the magazine. In his nine years of coaching girls basketball at Sacred Heart, LeBrasseur has 245 wins and 54 losses, starting the 1990-91 season.

NOTICE!

The game between the Tigerettes and the Saint Jo Lady Panthers on Tuesday, Nov. 20, has had a time change. The game will now start at 6:30 p.m.

The Tigerettes will face off against the Gainesville Lady Leopards on Saturday, Nov. 24, beginning at 11 a.m.

Three local teams offer outstanding statistics

According to the Fort Worth Star-Telegram's, Wednesday edition last week, three local District 17A football teams have some outstanding statistics to end the regular season.

Muenster's Mike Vogel is listed the 17th individual rusher in the North Central Texas area with a total of 1,112 yards in 215 carries for a 111.2 yard gain per game and 10 touchdowns.

Muenster's defense is listed third for scoring defense, allowing only 48 points against them, or an average of 4.8 points per game. Era followed, allowing their opponents 66 points.

Muenster's offense is credited for making 260 points, behind Era with 262. Lindsay followed with a season total of 245.

The Hornets also made the list for rushing with Muenster 10th in the state with 2,324 yards. Era followed in 13th place at 2,261 total yards. Era's Dillon Enderby was listed as the 13th highest scorer with a total of 86 points.

Lindsay earned several spots on the list. Finishing 8th was Scott Hermes for his passing game. Hermes completed 64 of 149 attempts for a total of 1,147 yards and eight touchdowns. Lindsay's total passing offense also finished 8th with 1,193 season yards. Two Knights earned recognition on the receiving end. Patrick Corcoran gained 480 yards on 24 catches for 6 touchdowns, while Chris Hanks picked up 342 yards in 15 completions and 3 TDs. Lindsay's total offense of 3,029 yards finished 16th in the state.

This is an outstanding accomplishment for these IA schools and players to be ranked with the Big Schools of Texas!

Tigerettes edged out by Lady Eagles, 49-48

Anytime two unbeaten squads tangle, you would expect a nip and tuck game, especially if it involves Valley View and Sacred Heart. The setting was at the Tiger Den Saturday evening in front of a near-capacity crowd. The game was all it was talked up to be as, after 11 lead changes, the Lady Eagles held off the youthful Tigerettes for a 49-48 win.

The first quarter was the Dowd and Shupert Show as Tigerette J.J. Dowd hit for 8 of her game high 22 and Valley View's Cindy Shupert scored 8 of her 10. A basket at the buzzer by Sacred Heart's Sharon Fuhrmann gave the Tigerettes a 17-15 first period lead.

Valley View's Sam Shupert came alive in the second period with 8 while the Tigerettes fell into foul trouble. Valley View took a 29-26 lead into the locker room. "We got into some foul trouble so we pulled off the press," said Tigerette mentor LeBrasseur. "Our press was effective as it kept Valley View ace Sam Shupert from getting involved in the game." "When we pulled off the press, she got it going."

Dowd came out and hit the first 6 points of the third period and the Tigerettes were ahead once again 32-31. Valley View rallied at the end of the period for a 38-34 lead going into the final frame.

Senior Sam Shupert carried the load for Valley View in the fourth as she scored 10 of their 11 fourth period points. The Tigerettes clamped down to pull within one, 49-48, with 26 seconds remaining.

The Lady Eagles were flustered and the Tigerettes' Dowd stepped in to bat the ball away as Fuhrmann scooped it up. The Tigerettes called timeout with 18 seconds remaining only to find out LeBrasseur was out of timeouts. "I blew it," said LeBrasseur. "I should have been aware I was out." Sam Shupert stepped to the line for the Lady Eagles and missed both shots. With 18 seconds remaining, Valley View inbounded and tried to run the clock out only to fall into a Tigerette trap. Jennifer Walter stole the ball and appeared to be headed for a game winning layup but was called for a walk. Valley View inbounded and Tigerette Deann Bayer picked off a pass as the horns sounded.

"The girls played their hearts out," said LeBrasseur. "The technical really hurt as things were headed our way." "The girls are really coming around and we look forward to our encounter Saturday with the Lady Leopards." The next home action for the Tigerettes will be Saturday at 11 a.m. with a JV contest against the Gainesville Lady Leopards followed by the Tigerettes.

J.J. Dowd led the way for the Tigerettes with 22, Sharon Fuhrmann hit for 12 followed by Vickie Bayer with 6, Shirley Henscheid 4, and Jennifer Walter and Mandy Barnhill with 2 each.

In JV action, the Tigerette freshmen fell to Valley View by a 46-13 count.

Tigerettes overcome jitters

Tuesday, Nov. 13 at Prairie Valley the Sacred Heart Tigerettes tipped-off the 1990 basketball season with a 57-41 win. Inexperience showed early for the Tigerettes as both teams were knotted at 11 after the first frame. "We knew it would be a physical game over there," said Coach LeBrasseur. "The girls worked hard but just weren't on the same page of the playbook."

With the Tigerettes up 25-24 at the half they apparently found the correct page for the second half. "We just didn't show much patience in the first half," said LeBrasseur. The Tigerettes turned the ball over 21 times in the first half but only 6 in the second half. The Tigerettes scored four of their first five possessions in the third period to go on to take a 41-32 lead into the final period, with the Tigerettes hitting for 16 more while their hosts scored 9.

Vickie Bayer was a spark for the Tigerettes as she connected on six of seven field goals and led the Tigerettes with 16 points. Seniors Sharon Fuhrmann and J.J. Dowd each scored 14 and 15 respectively. Robin Greathouse hit for 4. Scoring two for the Tigerettes were Deann Bayer, April Truabenbach, Julie Felderhoff and Christy Yosten.

booted the extra point and, with just 49 seconds off the clock, the Tigers took a 27-0 lead.

The teams exchanged drives, with Sacred Heart starting on their 39 with 5:24 remaining in the period. A pass from Beyer to Switzer for 20 yards and a 36-yard draw play by Beyer took the ball to the 3-yard line. St. Paul's defense held the Tigers at the 1-foot line going into the final quarter. Chris Hess then kicked an 11-yard field goal to extend Sacred Heart's score to 30-0.

The Cardinals failed to pick up 10 yards, booting the ball to the Tigers. Runs by Beyer, Switzer and Nasche moved the Tigers inside the 20. On 4th down, a 27-yard field goal attempt failed, giving St. Paul the ball on the 20. The Tigers held for only a 2-yard gain, getting the ball back on downs. With 2:07 remaining in the game, Arnie Hess outstretched two Cardinal defenders for a completed touchdown pass from Nasche. The PAT kick was blocked and the score read 36-0.

With St. Paul playing in desperation for a point, Larry Switzer picked off a Cardinal pass, running it back over 30 yards for 6 points. Hess' kick was good; with a minute remaining in the game, the Tigers had a 43-0 lead.

The Cardinals returned to Shiner with one high note. The next kick was returned 86 yards for a touchdown. The extra point failed and the score, with 47 seconds remaining, was 43-6.

"Everybody played well," said Nasche, who was pleased with Chris Hess, who gained over 100 yards the first time since his accident four weeks ago. He was also pleased with the younger players who stepped in when there was an injury on the field - Scott Hennigan, Werner Becker, Jordon Bayer and Arnie Hess - "being that they weren't starters, but came out and played real well."

Leading rusher for Sacred Heart was Chris Hess with 106 yards in 12 carries. Jason Beyer added 48 yards and Scott Hennigan 29 for the Tigers. Beyer completed 3 passes for 94 yards with receivers and their yardage gained: Chris Hess 64, Larry Switzer 46 and Arnie Hess 21 yards.

Sacred Heart's defense was led by Switzer, C. Hess, Beyer and Jason Endres.

The Tigers travel to Duncanville to take on Cedar Hill Trinity Christian. "They're 10-1, strong, big and fast," said Nasche, "so we'll have to hit on all cylinders Saturday night to advance to the State Finals for the second time in the school's history."

"We'll have to step it up a notch for this game, maybe everyone will play as well or better (than last week)," concluded Nasche.

Ryan Hess missed the game with Shiner St. Paul after an injury in the game at Lubbock two weeks ago. Coach Nasche said Ryan compressed two vertebrae and cracked another one in his lower neck. The injury sidelined him for the season. "Without his services, we definitely are not as strong," said Nasche, "but if the young guys will step forward and give as much effort as last week and improve on small things, we will be successful this week."

Sacred Heart Jr. High rolls Gold-Burg teams

Defense describes the Cubs and Lady Cubs in their opening wins at Gold-Burg Monday night. The Lady Cubs opened the night with a 30-4 win and set the tone for the Cubs' 36-15 season opening victory. "What an impressive start," said Coach LeBrasseur. "If we continue to work throughout the season and have the HEART, we could be in for a great year!"

The Lady Cubs jumped out to a 6-0 lead before Gold-Burg rallied for their 4 points. Sarina Fuhrmann then gave the Lady Cubs a boost with 4 to end the period and a Lady Cubs 10-4 lead. From there, the Lady Cubs put the trap on the Lady Bears for a 20-4 halftime edge. Tiffany Fisher scored all of her 12 points in the first half from great inside feeds by Stephanie Grewing.

The second half was more of the Lady Cubs and saw the benches cleared. Scoring for the Lady Cubs were: Tiffany Fisher 12, Sarina Fuhrmann 12, Kerri Endres 2, Kristen Fleitman 2 and Jill Hess 2.

Combining for 26 points, Jason Hess and John Klement led a great defensive effort in the Cub game for a 32-10 halftime edge. Hess netted 15 in the half and Klement 11. The second half was played by the sixth and seventh grades. Trent Trubenbach scored 4 and hauled in over a dozen rebounds. Jake McCoy, Paul Swirczynski and John Sparkman each tallied 2. Next action for the Cubs and Lady Cubs will be Monday night at Terral, Oklahoma for a 6 p.m. tipoff.

SH player plays against four cousins

Shawn Dangelmayr competed against four of his cousins in Friday's Regional contest against St. Paul's of Shiner. Brothers Bryan (24) and Paul (54) Patek, Tommy Kocian (15) and Jason Schreiber (17) are members of the Cardinals team.

Frank Streng, an uncle of Shawn's grandmother, Caroline Schilling, moved from Muenster to Shiner over 60 years ago. His daughter, Margaret, who was approximately three years old when the move took place, is the grandmother of the four players from St. Paul.

Attending the game and visiting from Muenster were Charlotte and Bill Dangelmayr and Frank and Caroline Schilling.

Lady Cubs roll Indians, Cubs scalped

A 38-point first half propelled the Lady Cubs to their second win of the season to two starts. The Lady Cubs will host Montague next Monday evening for outright possession of first place. In the Cub game fouls plagued the Cubs throughout the game before falling 33-31 in overtime.

Sarina Fuhrmann paced a balance Lady Cub attack with 12 points. Tiffany Fisher and Kerri Endres scored 8 each, Stephanie Grewing and Nicole Endres 6 each, Kristen Fleitman swished 4 and Tammy Fleitman sank 2 for the Lady Cubs 15-point win 46-31.

The Cubs managed to sink only one of 13 free shots in route to their overtime loss. John Klement led the Cubs with 14, Jason Hess hit for 7, Trent Trubenbach 4, Brandon Bayer 4, and Scott Poole 2.

Muenster girls win game in overtime

After a tough four quarters, the Muenster girls' basketball team went into overtime in their opening game with Aubrey last week.

After a tight three quarters, the Hornettes' offense started to click and the press started to work. Muenster went on a 15-0 run and took a 39-38 lead. "We scored 24 points in three quarters, then in the fourth scored 20," said Coach Brian Strother.

Muenster had a 4-point lead with less than a minute, but couldn't hold it. "We turned the ball over and our free throws would have iced the game," said Strother. Muenster was 12 of 32 from the free throw for the night. The game went into overtime.

Outscoring Aubrey 6-2 the extra minutes gave Muenster a 50-46 win. "Good defense, rebounding and better free throw shooting in overtime clinched the victory," said the coach.

Eight girls scored, with the bench contributing 21 points. Leading scorers were Brandy Debnam 12, Leslie Klement 10, Melissa Bayer, Kim Anderle and DaLana Walterscheid 6 points each. Danelle Reiter, Marcia Vogel and Dianne Pagel also scored.

The Junior Varsity had a back-and-forth game. "We had fumble fingers the whole game," said Strother. "We fouled too much and they cashed in on the free throws."

All 14 girls contributed to the game with 9 girls scoring: Amy

Dankesreiter led with 10 points, followed by Jami Flusche with 9. "With 10 seconds left, we set up a play for a 3-point shot. It missed, going through three of our players' hands," said Strother. Muenster lost 43-40.

Muenster played Paradise for their second varsity game. "Our shooting was ice cold in the first half," said the Muenster coach. "Our aggressive defense limited Paradise's shooting. The score was 21-14 at halftime."

The Hornettes warmed up the second half, hitting 52 percent and 81 percent from the field and free throw stripe. The first 4 minutes, Muenster went on a run to tie the game. Muenster was down 28-27 going into the final period. Lady Hornets scored 20 points the fourth quarter to take a 47-41 victory.

Brandy Debnam led the team with 14 points with Melissa Bayer the leading rebounder with 10. "Our young girls' team is learning quickly," said Strother.

Endangered whooper spotted near Amarillo

Texas Parks and Wildlife Department officials are requesting that sandhill crane and waterfowl hunters be aware that whooping cranes are sometimes observed in the company of sandhill cranes, as was the case recently in the Panhandle near Amarillo.

Whooping cranes are an endangered species that normally winter on the Texas coast near the Aransas National Wildlife Refuge.

Hunters should be aware of the whooping cranes' possible presence and know how to identify a whooping crane. Whoopers stand more than four feet tall and have a seven-foot wingspan. Adult whooping cranes are white with distinctive black wing tips and red featherless crowns, while an immature whooper is rusty red and white with black wing tips and lacks the red crown. Sandhill cranes are gray and do not have black wing tips.

Whoopers may also be confused with snow geese, which are white with black wing tips, but much smaller, and their legs do not extend beyond their tails. A whooping crane's legs extend beyond the tail when in flight.

Sandhill and any stray whooping cranes are expected to continue to move southward toward the Gulf Coast during the next few weeks from their northern breeding grounds. As an endangered species, the whooping crane is fully protected by state and federal law and even an accidental shooting of one of the birds carries stiff penalties and civil damages.

For a free pamphlet on how to identify a whooping crane, contact TPWD at 4200 Smith School Road, Austin, Texas 78744. Readers are urged to report sightings of whooping cranes to TPWD at 1-800-792-1112 or the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service at (512)286-3559.

The gate swings both ways for hunters

Major league baseball batting guru Charlie Lau once observed, "The difference between a .250 hitter and a .300 hitter is one hit for every 20 at-bats." Most folks would agree that a .300 hitter is doing quite well and that a player carrying a .333 average for the season has a good chance of winning a league batting title. Many hunters are unaware that they too can "hit for average" when it comes to access to private land.

A nationwide survey conducted for the National Shooting Sports Foundation (NSSF) revealed that almost one-third of

- Staying out of unharvested fields.
 - Offering to help the landowner with chores such as mending fences and gates or putting up hay.
 - Reporting those who break the law or damage property.
 - Sharing your bag with the landowner and his family.
- It's been said many times before, but it bears repeating: Ask permission before you hunt on private property and, once you get it, treat the land as if it were your own. After all, the gate swings both ways.

It's been said many times before -- Ask permission before you hunt on private land, and once you get it, treat the land as if it were your own.

all landowners who post their property said they would allow hunting if hunters came to them and asked permission. That's one out of every three landowners and, in any league, that's a good average.

For millions of sportsmen, access to private land is the difference between spending a day afield, or a day at home. For the most part, landowners are not against hunting, but they do want to control access to their property. They want to know who's on their land, and why.

Whether you are trying to hit a 90 mile-an-hour fastball or obtaining permission to hunt a local farm, timing is everything. That means asking the landowner well in advance of hunting season, and at an hour that is convenient for them. In some parts of the country landowners are overwhelmed the day before and even the morning of a season's opening day. Since they have already granted permission to others, landowners deny access to latecomers.

A Privilege
Hunting on someone else's land is a privilege and should be regarded as such. It only takes a minute to ask permission to hunt and even less time to close gates behind you. Once access to hunt private land is gained, you can help keep this privilege by:

- Seeking permission in advance of the next season if possible, and always at a reasonable time of day.
- Staying safely away from buildings and livestock.
- Picking up spent shells and litter -- even if it's not yours.
- Parking only in designated areas.

Three Keys to Having More Deer to Hunt

Here are three ways to have more and bigger deer to hunt on your private or leased hunting lands.

(1) Consult a wildlife biologist to evaluate your deerherd and the carrying capacity of your land. Your county extension office, state game and fish department and/or a private wildlife consultant may be able to provide free assistance in these evaluations.

(2) Set up harvest prescriptions. Harvest only the number of deer and the size of deer prescribed by a wildlife advisor to aid your lands in producing more and bigger bucks. In some regions, hunters may have to harvest unantlered deer and let young bucks walk to have the best and healthiest bucks.

(3) Increase the amount and availability of food for the deer on your hunting lands have to eat year 'round. Planting food plots with a clover like Imperial Whitetail Clover, which is a perennial that is 30-percent protein, can produce an abundance of food for deer.

For more information, call 1-800-688-3030, or write the Whitetail Institute of North America at Rt. 1, Box 3006, Pittsford, Alabama 36043.

Walterscheid Oilers tie

Walterscheid Oil Company's Under 6 division soccer team had honor of tying for first place in the Cooke County Soccer Association on Nov. 10, 1990. The Oilers have a season record of 6 wins - 2 losses, with contributions from each teammate throughout the fall season.

In the eight games played this season, every teammate scored or took credit for at least one or more goals.

Being tied for first place, the Oilers had a very important game in front of them on Saturday, Nov. 10. Kyle Endres saved the day by stopping 10 out of 12 possible goals. Tyler Walterscheid took the offensive honors by scoring a total of 3 goals and Christopher Harris with 1 scored goal. Kelly Grewing and Jamie Gerstberger did a great job driving the ball down towards their goal. Ricky Endres, Justin Barnhill, Tony Koessler, Darrell Henscheid and Cameron Walterscheid showed their abilities offensively and defensively.

"These 10 eager-to-learn 4- and 5-year-olds did a fantastic job," said team's coach Sandi Harris. And she hopes to see them all back for the spring season.

Children earn money recycling greeting cards

Established in 1966, St. Jude's Ranch for Children is a licensed, nonprofit, nonsectarian and professionally supervised child care facility with two campuses in Southern Nevada. It is dedicated to helping abused, neglected and troubled children and teens. St. Jude's has taken in children from across the nation and four foreign countries.

Nestled in the hills above Lake Mead, St. Jude's Boulder City Campus is a haven for abused and neglected children ages 6 to 18. Children live in cottages with mature couples and attend local schools. The purpose is to have a loving, homelike atmosphere for children who have never had a stable home life.

The St. Jude's - Good Shepherd Campus in North Las Vegas is a home for troubled young women, ages 13 to 17. Created in 1962, and part of St. Jude's since 1989, the Good Shepherd Campus provides personal, group and family counseling. There is also a fully accredited junior and senior high school located on the campus. The goal of Good Shepherd Campus is to redirect these young women, whose negative behavior is often the result of physical, sexual and psychological abuse.

Since 1970, The Rev'd. Herbert A. Ward Jr. has served as Executive Director at St. Jude's Ranch. The ranch is nonsectarian and all the children are encouraged to pursue their own beliefs.

The children of both campuses participate in a Christmas card recycling project. Many people from across the United States and around the world send them their used Christmas card fronts. The children cut, trim, and paste them on to new card backs. A suggested donation of $4.50 plus $1.50 for postage and handling per package of 10 cards and envelopes is asked for the finished cards.

The children earn pocket money and money for excursions and fun trips in this way. This program was created to end what Father Ward calls "The Welfare Syndrome." It teaches the children the value of the work ethic and the value of a dollar.

St. Jude's shares in the dreams, hopes and aspirations of the children long after they leave St. Jude's Ranch. Through its career opportunities fund and alumni networking, they assist the young people in planning their adult life - whether it be college, finding a job or entering the Armed Forces.

For further information, write St. Jude's Ranch for Children, P.O. Box 985, Boulder City, NV 89005-0985, or call (702) 293-3131.

County Agent's Report

Many Reasons for Illness in Trees

When people see a sick tree, they often think that some sort of disease is causing the illness. Actually, a majority of the problems causing trees and shrubs to look sick stem from stress or physical injury rather than disease.

A common symptom of stress or injury is marginal leaf burn, or leaves fringed by dead tissue. This has been a common problem with numerous species of trees and shrubs this summer and fall.

Marginal leaf burns are seldom caused by leaf disease, which usually shows up as random lesions (dead areas) scattered about the leaf.

Leaf burns occur at the leaf tip or along the leaf margin because salts (plant nutrients) accumulate along leaf margins. Anything that causes the plant to pump insufficient water (stress) can result in a toxic burn to this tissue because it contains the highest level of salt.

Stress symptoms ranging from leaf burns to limb dieback or tree death can result from numerous causes.

Drought is the most obvious cause of stress. The extremely dry weather, coupled with the heat of July and August, caused serious problems. Small unwatered trees and shrubs often die early in a drought period. Large trees show responses to stress more slowly. Some of the marginal leaf burns now being observed relate to last June and early July.

High temperatures cause plants to pump more water and simply compound drought problems. As temperatures exceed 100 degrees F, water loss by some trees and shrubs can equal or exceed the ability of the roots to supply water, even when the soil moisture is not deficient.

Because of extreme Texas temperatures each summer, freeze injury is often overlooked, yet it is one of the most common and damaging causes of stress.

Direct freeze injury to twigs and limbs is usually fairly evident, and the damaged wood can be pruned. Often the injury is more subtle, occurring on a portion of the trunk with no immediate, noticeable effect on the entire tree or shrub.

Thick bark sometimes remains intact, hiding trunk freeze injury for well more than a year. Probing the bark on the lower three feet of the trunk with a screwdriver or tapping with a mallet (listen for hollow sound) will usually reveal hidden freeze injury if it is present.

Just as drought causes trees to stress, so does excess water. Tree roots need oxygen in order to function properly, so roots that are waterlogged lose their ability to take up water. It can take several years for a seriously injured root system to be regenerated.

In recent years, numerous trees growing up in poorly drained soil have been killed or damaged following periods of heavy rainfall. Trees with damaged root systems are vulnerable to summer drought and heat stress.

Genetic inferiority, chemical damage, system diseases and unadapted species are other factors that cause tree stress and physical injury.

Handbook for Organic Marketing Now Available

Organic produce growers who have had trouble finding markets for their products may find useful a new handbook, "A Guide to Marketing Organic Produce," just published by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

The handbook should define markets for the producer where they can sell their product and at what price.

The handbook gives an in-depth look at the imported areas involved in successfully marketing organic foods.

An entire marketing plan for organic products is detailed. Market alternatives, contact personnel (brokers, wholesale buyers), crops with the most potential, price trends and merchandising methods are a few of the topics discussed.

The handbook presents a realistic picture of market needs. A section on the history of the successes in organic farming provides the reader with useful facts and figures on its market potential.

The handbook also lists people, organizations and periodicals that can provide additional information on organic farming around the country.

A three-ring binder with dividing sections makes the handbook durable and easy to use. It can be purchased for $15 by sending a check or money order to: Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Department of Agricultural Economics, College Station, TX 77843-2124, Attn: Dr. Charles R. Hall.

New Farm Bill: still in review

by Elaine Schad

Agricultural producers will have to wait until at least January to find out how the new 1,300-page Farm Bill passed by Congress will affect them, since the bill is still undergoing interpretation, a Texas A&M agricultural economist told a group of Cooke County farmers recently during a seminar on the Farm Bill held at the Cooke County Fairgrounds and sponsored by the Cooke County Extension Service.

The Farm Bill is expected to cut some $13.6 billion from agricultural programs over the next five years, said Ken Stokes. "About 60 percent of that money will come directly out of farmers' pockets," he said.

The Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) offices will be in charge of implementing new regulations established from the Farm Bill, Stokes said. ASCS officials plan to meet in January when many of the rules interpretations will be formulated, he said. "The rules won't be in place until sometime in January. Until then, it's just talk," said Stokes.

New provisions of the Farm Bill will affect almost every type of agricultural producer in some way, said Stokes. There will be new haying and grazing provisions. Crop farmers will mainly be affected through the Triple Base Program, where loan protection will still be guaranteed, but where acreage allotments to calculate federal subsidy payments will be changed. "The ASCS checks will be smaller," he said.

The Triple Base Program is expected to reduce the amount of cropland eligible each year for federal price supports by 15 percent, said Stokes. However, farmers will be allowed to grow almost anything on those acres without losing their base history, he said. Previously, farmers could only plant what the government told them to plant if they planned to receive government subsidies, but this plan will allow farmers to diversify according to the demand of the market, officials said.

Should commodity prices increase over the coming years, the farm bill could result in a decrease of governmental involvement in agriculture, said Stokes, "mainly because it won't be worth it to go through all the paperwork hassle." A new environment requirement will mandate that all agricultural producers keep records of pesticide purchases for at least a three-year time period that will be subject to government checks.

Dairymen will still get price support payments, but provisions in the new farm bill will establish a payment-refund system based per hundredweight of milk for what amounts to a "tax" to discourage overproduction, said Stokes.

One change in the bill that could be of help to wheat farmers is a requirement which will calculate average market prices over a 12-month basis instead of five months. Wheat producers will have the option this year of choosing either a five-month or 12-month calculations, said Stokes.

Rusts have winners at 'Horn Show

Two Texas Longhorn bulls owned by Frank and Lola Rust, Stafford, Texas, caught the judge's eye at the Texas Longhorn Breeders of the Gulf Coast Association Show during the South Texas State Fair in Beaumont on Oct. 14. Apache Star was declared a class winner and his pasture mate, Comanche Star, took a second place in the show judged by Dr. Randall Grooms, Beef Cattle Specialist, Texas A&M Extension Service.

These wins entitle the Rusts to compete in the celebrated 1991 Texas Longhorn Exposition in Fort Worth. The Rusts won a second place with Apache Star in the competitive 1990 National Youth Show.

Owners of Arrow Star Cattle Co., the Rusts have been raising the unique Texas Longhorns since 1987. Their easy-keeping qualities and low maintenance appeal to the busy couple.

Members of the Texas Longhorn Breeders Association of America, the Rusts also belong to the Gulf Coast and North Texas affiliates and actively support the Texas Longhorn Breeders of Tomorrow with time and donations.

Mr. Rust is owner of Petro Metals, Inc. in Stafford. Mrs. Rust, the daughter of David and Juanita Bright of Muenster, Texas, is an RN at Methodist Hospital in Houston.

SWCD sponsors two contests

Poster Contest

Clyde Hale, Chairman of the Board of Directors, announced that the Upper Elm-Red Soil and Water Conservation District No. 524 will sponsor a Poster Contest to students residing in the District.

The subject is "Resource Conservation." The individual may choose any phase of Resource Conservation that relates to the role of their local Soil and Water Conservation District. Soil and Water Conservation districts are concerned with soil use and treatment; erosion control practices; crop, range and pastureland management; irrigation; water management; drainage problems; watershed protection; flood prevention; fish and wildlife management and promoting the involvement of all citizens in conserving soil, water and related renewable resources. Rules governing the contest are:

1. Poster must be on standard poster board cut to half size - approximately 22"x14". Art work on poster entries should be produced with materials that do not readily smear, crack or chip. If necessary, a fixative or lamination may be used. The poster entry artwork dimension should be flat.
2. The poster must indicate the contestant's name, age, school, grade, address, phone number and names of parents and of the teacher. This information must be shown on the back of the poster.
3. Contestants must be a resident of the Upper Elm-Red SWCD, comprised of Cooke, Grayson and Montague Counties.
4. This is an open contest to boys and girls 12 years and under, and does not jeopardize Texas Interscholastic Program eligibility.

Posters will be judged locally for consideration of cash awards of $35.00 for first place, $25.00 for second place, and $20.00 for third place.

Poster entries should be sent to the Upper Elm-Red SWCD, 406B West Lamar, Sherman, Texas 75090, no later than Jan. 8, 1991. Teachers are urged to encourage their students to participate.

Essay Contest
Upper Elm-Red SWCD Chairman Clyde Hale has also announced that the District will once again sponsor an Essay Writing Contest to students residing in the District.

The subject is "Soil and Water Conservation," including, but not limited to, the concept that the soil and water resources of this nation are vital for providing us with the necessities of food and shelter. Soil and Water Conservation Districts are engaged in the effort to carry out a local conservation program that meets the needs of the nation's soil and water resources for continued productivity.

Entries of 300 words or less should be sent to Upper Elm-Red SWCD, 406B West Lamar, Sherman, Texas 75090, no later than Jan. 8, 1991. Contestants must be students, not having graduated from high school, and not more than 18 years of age. Essays will be judged locally for consideration of cash awards of $35.00 for first place, $25.00 for second place, and $20.00 for third place.

Vocational Agriculture, English teachers and 4-H leaders are urged to encourage their students to participate. The contest does not jeopardize Texas Interscholastic League eligibility.

MHS FFA participates in leadership contests

On Saturday, Nov. 17, Muenster FFA members traveled to East Texas State University to compete in the Area V Leadership Contests. Quiz team members Mike Hacker, Jay Hennigan, Cory Knabe and Brandon Walterscheid placed seventh. Extemporaneous Public Speaker Rex Huchton placed fifth. FFA advisor Glenn Debnam acknowledges his students' accomplishments, "considering the stiff competition in our area with over three hundred schools, I believe that the members who participated did an excellent job."

Muenster FFA members are now working on their fund raiser for the year and are preparing to attend the District I FFA meeting on Dec. 4 at 4:30 p.m. in Callisburg, where former Muenster Ag teacher, Brad Bass, will address the students.

Muenster FFA members encourage community involvement to help accomplish their goals throughout the 1990-91 school year.

Farmers' share of holiday dinner declines over six years

(AUSTIN)—Texas farmers can expect to receive 2.2 cents as their share of this year's average Thanksgiving dinner, the second lowest net return in the six years that the Texas Department of Agriculture has tracked holiday meal prices. "Texas Agriculture Commissioner Jim Hightower said today.

"The farmers' net return has declined nearly five cents in six years from a total of seven cents per serving in 1985, the first year that TDA examined the consumers' cost and farmers' return for an average Thanksgiving dinner.

"This follows an overall trend toward a declining farmers' share of the consumer food dollar during the past six years. In 1985, the average farmer received just 26 cents of every consumer food dollar. In 1990 farmers received an average of less than 24 cents of every consumer dollar.

"Further declines are likely next year, as rising fuel prices triggered by the current international situation cause farmers' input costs to skyrocket and as drastic cuts in farm subsidies and a freeze in the federally mandated target prices for many farm products take effect," Hightower said.

"Consumers, on the other hand, will pay an average of $2.52 each for their Thanksgiving dinner, eight cents more than last year but 36 cents less than six years ago.

The TDA Thanksgiving Dinner Survey annually examines 10 common food items produced in Texas and found on typical holiday dinner plates. The cost to consumers is calculated by a series of market basket surveys conducted across the state by marketing specialists. The return to farmers is calculated on the basis of crop prices gathered by the Texas Agricultural Statistics Service, the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and the U.S. Department of Agriculture

"Why I choose to be drug free"

by Joy Tisdale

There is an importance to being drug free. It is a lesson that needs to be learned by people all across the world. Being drug free has many advantages throughout a person's lifetime. That's why I choose to be drug free.

By not doing drugs I am doing a tremendous favor for myself. By being drug free I am able to concentrate and to not lose the ability to function properly in today's society. I am giving myself a chance to amount to something in this world. I am giving my mind a chance to learn all that I can. The things that I learn now will affect the things I will learn later on in my life. My future depends on the choices and decision I make today.

Using drugs not only hurts my body and mind, but it also hurts and harms my family. My friends and those who care about me will experience hurt if I choose to do drugs. In a way, my family would suffer more hurt than I would if I used drugs. My family loves and cares for me. It would cause them too much pain to see me ruin my life. For this reason, I know I will never choose to do drugs.

Another reason I choose to be drug free is because I do not want to wrongly influence the people who are around me. Almost everyone has been looked up to and admired at some point in his or her life. The problem is, we do not know when or by whom we have been selected as a role model. At times people may feel that no one is watching them. Some people may think that using drugs only one quick time will do no harm. They are wrong. It is usually this one time that someone is looking up to them. When a person sees his or her role model doing drugs, that is a scene that could change the observer's life forever. I do not want to get anyone started on drugs. Therefore I do not choose to use drugs.

In today's society, there is plenty of pressure to use drugs. It takes a strong person to firmly say no. Doing drugs only once is a mistake that can change a person's life. He or she may no longer have a life after using drugs. Even if it is only one time. The first time can also be the final time. I choose to be drug free so that I can achieve the goals I have set for myself. I want to have a positive influence on the people I come in contact with throughout my life. These desires can come true as I choose to be drug free.

by Lori Graham

I choose to be drug free to have a happy successful life. I want to have total control over my life, and make the most out of the opportunities I have been given. Being dependent on drugs immediately destroys all of these opportunities I have been given. Being dependent on drugs immediately destroys all of the opportunities. Being drug free not only means to be free of any chemical substances, such as cocaine, but also other drugs, like alcohol. I choose to be drug free not only for the health reasons, but also because of the mental reasons. Drugs have a major physical effect on the brain. Another reason for staying drug free is to communicate to others that I have respect for myself. This example will hopefully influence my peers.

Being drug free means to me that I am in control of my future. Being dependent on drugs makes a person's body dependent on the chemicals, but that person's whole life is controlled by the never-ending growth of this drug dependency as well. A drug addict becomes in debt to the drug dealer. Most of all, the drug addict is in debt to himself. Through his own insecurity or lack of will power, a drug addict robs himself of having a successful life, or possibly just any form of life.

We all know that drugs can kill. The death rate for drug overdose or drug-related accidents increases with each passing hour. Using drugs just once can be one terribly fatal mistake. Although someone may be fortunate, or unfortunate, enough to survive the first use of drugs, his death will soon come. Whether or not a drug addict physically dies from drugs, his life is over if treatment is not found. Is life worth living if it is controlled by a self-destructing force that is constantly growing? Drugs are a trap. They cannot be the answer to any problem, unless the problem is staying alive. Drugs will kill. If the drugs don't instantly kill the user, he will soon be wishing he were dead.

Drug addiction can result from only one experience with drugs. Drug addiction is one habit that is extremely difficult to break. People who are fortunate enough to break this habit are tormented by it for the rest of their lives.

For these reasons, I am drug free. I do not wish to become another statistic in the vast population of drug addicts in this country. I do not want to be the one that raises the death count another notch for the use of drugs. I hope to become a healthy successful person in life. In order to do this, drugs can have no part of my lifestyle. I hope others will benefit from my example. For the sake of others and for the future of this country, say no to drugs! How many more must die? How many more lives have to be shattered and wasted? This is not something to joke about. This subject is very serious. No one can decide the future of someone else's life except for that person. We are each in control of our own destiny. Decisions made now can greatly affect the future. Grab ahold of the future. Say no to drugs.
