Health Fair a success, great community service

At 8 a.m. Tuesday, a long line of visitors waiting to register and have lab work-ups indicated that the Health Fair in the south wing of Muenster Memorial Hospital was to be a success. By 1 p.m., when the event ended, 143 people had had blood drawn for lab work and more were scheduled to return Wednesday for the tests.

"I think that this is terrific," said Anne Poole. "I came to have the lab work done, but all of the services offered are good. People need to be aware of things like skin cancer and the use of mammograms and breast self-exams."

The affordable lab package was definitely a drawing card for many who attended. "The price was a good incentive to have my cholesterol checked," remarked Kim Felderhoff. Shellie Hoedebeck and several co-workers took their morning break time to attend the Health Fair. "This is all really nice," commented Shellie. "I came for the blood work because I've always wanted to know about my cholesterol."

A wide variety of information was available at the booths set up at the Health Fair. The Hospital Auxiliary had a scrapbook on display and willingly answered questions on the organization or about the vital signs monitor they hope to purchase for the hospital's emergency room. Drs. Antonetti, Juarez or Kralicke were on hand to answer health questions, and Betty Miller, FFS, from MMH's dietary department offered pamphlets with nutritional information and recipes.

The computerized health screening, available at the Seventh Day Adventist Church's booth, gave the participants information on their dealings with stress. Oral screenings were done by the staff of Drs. Graham and Luke. Jan Cain, a Mary Kay representative, handed out brochures on skin cancer and made a video on the subject available.

Plaza Pharmacy did free diabetes screening tests; nurses from MMH took blood pressures; Kay Bynum, CMRT, gave information on breast cancer and mammograms; St. Richard's Villa provided Alzheimer's information; and long-term health care information was offered by the Saint Jo Nursing Center.

"I think it's great," said Lorena Taylor, of the Health Fair. "It provides a good service to the community and is a good image for the hospital." Donna Biffle, Hospital Auxiliary president, was impressed with the large number of people that came to the event. "It shows hidden support for the hospital from within the community," she said. "The line was out the door at 8 a.m."

"It was a success - the turnout was good and I heard only positive comments from people working in the booths," remarked Joan Walterscheid, director of nursing at MMH. "The Auxiliary was a great help. It's great to have them organized again and willing to help."

The Health Fair was so well received that plans are already being formed for next year. "We welcome comments and suggestions on what people would like to see done and improvements that could be made," said Mrs. Walterscheid. "Any input would be welcome. It's for the community." She asked that anyone with comments or suggestions contact her at 759-2271.

May 12-18 was designated as Texas Hospital Week by Gov. Ann Richards. It is celebrated in conjunction with National Hospital Week which originated in 1921. "Hospitals are major employers, and the leading purchasers of goods and services in many Texas communities," the Governor proclamation notes. "Good medical facilities benefit not only residents, but also the community's economic growth."

The Health Fair was planned to coincide with Hospital Week. Muenster Hospital will end the week's celebration with a Hamburger Picnic on Friday.

Fire destroys barn at B.J. Sicking farm, shop

Fire at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. B.J. Sicking, 8 1/2 miles south of Muenster, on Friday, May 10, about 11:30 a.m. not only caused the loss of a 28'x40' combination shop and machine storage building, but included all its contents.

Muenster Fire Chief Herbert Knabe said that when the Volunteer Fire Dept. arrived, the building was fully involved and the roof was caving in. Only one wall was still standing. "It was impossible to save anything," he said.

The fire reportedly started with a lawn mower and spread quickly. There were no injuries.

Destroyed were two lawn mowers, a tiller, two older model tractors, an older model truck, a hay baler, a welder, a drill press, lumber, a number of used tires, many hand tools, every piece of shop equipment he owned and machine tools, and several other items.

Knabe said the Muenster Volunteer Fire Dept. remained at the scene 1 1/2 hours. Mrs. Sicking related that early Saturday morning, a most heartwarming deed was offered to them when G&H Backhoe arrived to pick up all debris, ashes and twisted equipment. She said they will always remember their help, the assistance of the fire department and the quick response of passersby and neighbors.

Hess is school board president

by Elaine Schad
Dennis Hess is the new president of the Muenster School Board following a reorganization of the board after the May elections.

Hess was selected by fellow board members during the board's regular May meeting. Leon Klement will be vice-president and Annette Anderle was selected secretary.

While figures coming from Austin are still unclear, Superintendent Steve Cooper told the board the district may be looking at a tax rate of between 73 and 80 cents for 1991-92. A 72-cent tax rate is mandated by the state for maintenance and operation, with any additional tax rate for debt service or for any extra local funding that may be needed. "There are still a lot of questions we can't get answered," Cooper said about the new state funding bill.

The district at present is predicting somewhat of a budget surplus for the 1990-91 school year, Cooper said.

The district is proceeding with plans for the 1991-92 school year. The board approved the addition of carpeting for the library over the summer at an estimated cost of about $3,000. A community task force has been created among all segments of the community to meet with school representatives and officials about performance objectives for the next year. The task force is another mandate by the Texas Education Agency.

The board discussed results of a survey sent to parents in the last school newsletter, but not enough surveys have been returned to gather much information, said Cooper.

Cooper reported on the results of Muenster's achievement testing, which was about the same as last year, but which was very good. Cooper also reported that Muenster seniors continue to do well on the SAT test, the test many take in order to get into a major college. About 81 percent of Muenster seniors took the test, considered a high percentage. Of those results that are in, the average score was 940, compared to the state average of 800, ranking Muenster in the top 14 percent statewide among SAT test scores, officials said.

In personnel changes, the board approved Grady Roller as the new Muenster athletic director in addition to his duties as head football coach. Cooper has served as

by Robin Greathouse
Nine members of the Sacred Heart Student Council traveled to Austin on May 2 to attend the 55th annual Texas Association of Student Councils (TASC) State Convention. At this convention students attended short sessions or "swapshops" with other schools. New ideas were abundant as well as projects that had worked well in other schools. During the convention elections for state offices were held. The 1991-92 state officer schools are President school, John Jay High School, Houston; Vice President school, S.H. Rider High School, Wichita Falls; Secretary school, Calhoun High School; and Parliamentarian school, Marlin High School.

This year Texas held the largest state convention in the nation. Over 4000 students from 400 schools from across the state were present. Sacred Heart was one of the 183 high schools to receive the Sweepstakes Award. Qualification for this award were to earn all four "Outstanding" awards given by the TASC to student councils. Those four awards are Outstanding Energy program, Outstanding Safety program, Outstanding Drug and Alcohol Awareness program. Please See COUNCIL, Page 2

COUNTRY MUSIC FUN - Musical entertainment and country music fun are the menu for the 1991 edition of "Country Caravan," the country music show produced by South Plains College of Levelland, TX, which is returning to Gainesville this year for the Depot Days celebration. Showtime is 8 p.m. on Saturday, May 18, at the Leonard Park pavilion. It is open to the general public at no charge. Shown here are vocalists Tania Hudelson and Ricky Rogers.

Gainesville Depot Days set to roll this weekend

Depot Days, a fast-growing festival established in June 1987, recalls Gainesville's historic Santa Fe Depot, the Grand Old Dame of the Rails, its Harvey House Restaurant, its fine dining and palatable cuisine, its waitresses in impeccable starched uniforms and, sadly, its decline.

During WWII, interest in the depot rekindled when servicemen and their families passed through the depot, going to Camp Howze. Passenger service dwindled in the '70s and Santa Fe turned the building over to the City of Gainesville.

In June 1987, through inspiration of the Community Preservation Foundation members, the Depot returned to royal status as centerpiece of the first Depot Days celebration.

This year, many activities have been relocated to Gainesville's Leonard Park and its hundreds of shade trees. Beginning Friday, May 17, with a square dance demonstration and street dance, the festival continues Saturday with a tour of homes, bike rally, softball tournament, carnival fun, all-day music, an evening hoedown; then, on Sunday, the celebration features an afternoon

MHS academics stressed at banquet

The Parent-Teacher Organization of Muenster High School wanted to place more emphasis on the academic side of school life this year. They did so by dividing the traditional awards banquet into two separate events. Academic awards and recognition were handed out Monday evening and sports held center stage Tuesday evening. In another break from tradition, the events were held in the Sacred Heart Community Center instead of the Public School Gymnasium, thus escaping the typical warm and humid weather.

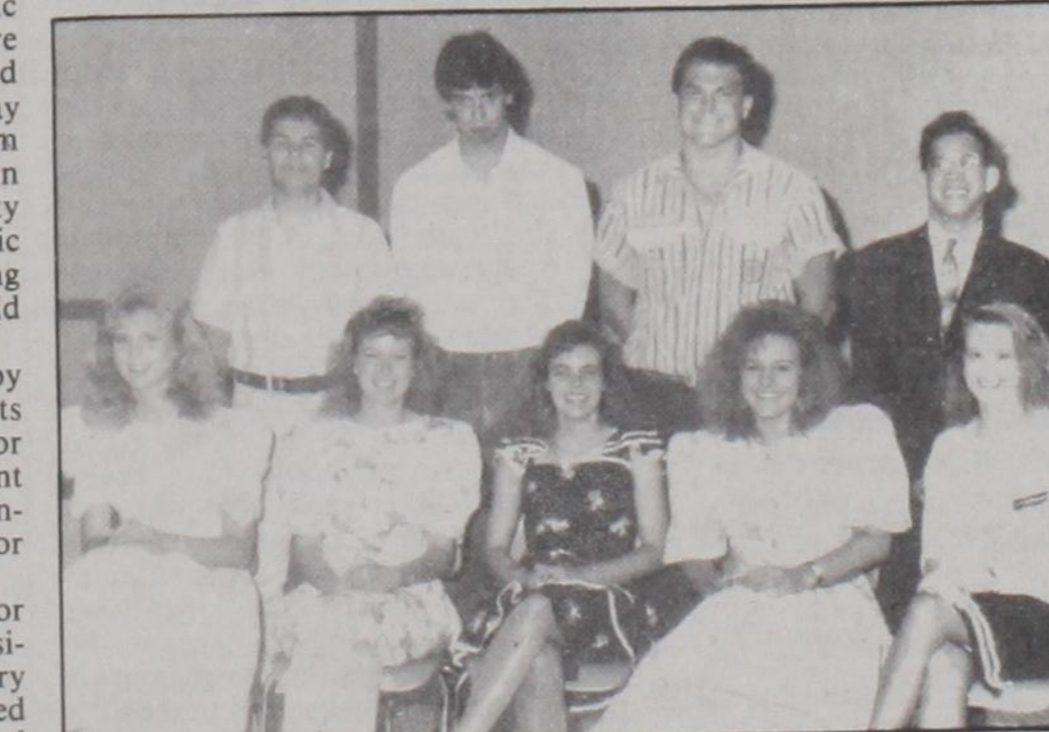

After the meal, catered by Rohmer's Restaurant, students were named and recognized for their participation in student organizations, student government and the National Honor Society.

All students were recognized for their participation in the University Interscholastic League Literary Meet. Special honor was afforded those who progressed to regional and state levels of competition. All teacher sponsors and coaches were offered thanks for their work.

Selected students were recognized for being named to honor rolls for each reporting period. The All Year Academics Honor Roll included: freshmen Shelley Klement; sophomores Marlene Hess, Lori Graham, Chelby Schoppa; juniors Amy Dankesreiter, Julie Hess, Leslie Klement, Tina Klement, Tony Perryman; seniors Melissa Bayer, Lanette Fisher, Mindy Graham and Kristen Klement.

Perfect attendance honors went to: freshmen Cory Knabe, Misty Knabe, Amy Otto, Jimmy Hacker; juniors Mike Gobble, Leslie Klement, Chris Kubis, Ryan Sicking; seniors Melissa Bayer, Sherry Hacker and Sheryllyn Sicking.

MHS Principal Jerry Metzler and UIL coordinator Robert McDaniel shared the duty of naming all those recognized and honored. Herkey Biffle was master of ceremonies for the evening, sharing good-natured jabs with administrators and teachers.

Superintendent Steve Cooper addressed the students, family and friends, commenting on the importance of commitment by students and parents to education and achievement and thanking

Good News!

"Blessed be the name of God forever and ever, for wisdom and power are his. He causes the changes of the times and seasons, makes kings and unmakes them. He gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to those who understand. He reveals deep and hidden things and knows what is in the darkness, for the light dwells with him."

Letters to the Editor

Letter to the Editor:

Thanks to you and your staff for the fine job done on the 1991 Conservation Special Edition in conjunction with the Upper Elm-Red Soil and Water Conservation District's banquet. We look forward to working with you on this project again next year.

Again, thanks for your interest and support. Let us know if we can ever be of assistance.

Thank you,
Richard Connett
District Conservationist

To the Editor:

This letter is addressed to all Cooke County citizens who are interested in avoiding a possible state income tax and in getting the judges out of the business of legislating school finance. Please write Speaker of the House Gib Lewis, P.O. Box 2910, Austin, TX 78769 and thank him for his assistance to Representative John Culberson of District 125 in supporting HJR10.

Too, while I am sounding off, please remember HB124. It is desperately needed to get the Texas Prison System out from under the heavy hand of Federal Judge William Wayne Justice.

Don't forget House Joint Resolution 10 and House Bill 124 - you must identify the proposed legislation by number. Yes, there are other important bills, but I don't wish to confuse the issues.

Sincerely, E.F. Carson

Dear Editor:

In the President's speech announcing the end of the war in the Persian Gulf he asked that we make this Fourth of July a very special one, to show national support for our troops.

The members of the band "White Lightning" would like to propose a co-operative effort on the part of all radio stations to establish an "unofficial anthem" for our troops and to dedicate and play that song at a predetermined time on this Fourth of July. In this way we could join the entire country in a salute to our troops, at home and abroad.

Participation in this project in no way condones or condemns our actions in the Persian Gulf or anywhere else in the world. It is an expression of support for our troops.

We are sending a copy of this letter to virtually every newspaper in the country and all radio stations of 50,000 watts or more. It is our hope that the larger radio stations will act as local representatives in this effort.

Individuals wishing to see this project succeed should write or call their local newspapers and radio stations and ask for their help in this effort.

Thank You,
White Lightning:

Rebate payments increase for Muenster, Lindsay: drop for other local towns

AUSTIN - "The state's moderate but stable economic growth is one good reason there is more than a 10 percent increase in sales tax rebates for Texas cities and counties thus far in 1991, when compared with the first five months of last year," State Comptroller John Sharp said recently.

Sharp made the comments as he sent over 1,000 Texas cities, counties, city transit and hospital districts checks totaling $147.1 million in monthly sales tax rebates.

Through the first five months of 1991, the state has rebated a total of $740.9 million to city and county governments, a 10.6 percent increase over the same period last year.

"Texas is still growing at a faster clip than the nation as a whole, but there's no doubt that the state is feeling the negative side effects of a national recession. It's as if the nation had the flu and Texas is feeling the body aches," Sharp said.

This month's checks include taxes collected on March sales and reported in April by businesses filing monthly returns, and also includes taxes reported by those filing quarterly returns for sales made in January, February and March.

Muenster's May rebate check of $14,805.12 was an increase of 14.44 percent from last year's May check for $12,936.62. Lindsay also showed an increase of 2.34 percent with their $4,357.63 check.

Other Cooke County municipalities didn't fair as well. Gainesville's check for $137,016.52 was a decrease of 0.86 percent. Oak Ridge's rebate dropped 23.41 percent with their check for $2,664.41. Valley View's check for $2,435.50 was down 3.71 percent. Total of all checks sent to Cooke County cities was $161,279.18, down 0.08 percent from last May.

Checks to 105 county governments totaled $13.5 million, up 9.8 percent from last May's payments. This month's check to Cooke County was $69,683.55, an increase of 7.53 percent from last year at this time. To date Cooke County has received a total of $288,869.39, which is up 117.66 percent from the same period in 1990.

Infected skunks are becoming rabies menace

Muenster residents are alerted to an annual spring and summer menace, says Police Chief Helen Tompkins, who reported Monday about killing three skunks in the daytime within the city limits of Muenster during less than one week.

The three locations where the skunks were shot included 1) out in the yard near Helen Tompkins' residence, 2) near the mall at Hillcrest Center last week and 3) when enticed onto the lawn at the Ed Otto home on South Pine St., after the skunk was seen scratching on the front door and then retreating into the garage.

Chief Tompkins said she takes this opportunity to plead with residents to have their pets vaccinated right away!! "If your pets are unvaccinated" she said, "you may not know if they have been bitten until they get sick. Also, children are in grave danger if they play with a sick pet that could possibly have been infected by a rabid skunk." She also explained that a child's cut or open sore could then lead to tragic circumstances.

She added that she strongly urges everyone to call her or one of the deputies to report skunks seen wandering in daylight.

Taxpayers to meet May 18 in Gainesville

by Elaine Schad

The annual meeting of the North Texas Taxpayers League will be held in Gainesville from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday at the VFW Hall in Gainesville.

Hosts for the meeting will be the local Cooke County Taxpayers Association. Resolutions of interest to the organization and guest speakers will be among featured events. A roast beef lunch will be served.

Tickets are $5 per person. For more information or to make reservations, call 665-7758 or 665-4292.

athletic director for the past year.

Kelly Kiker was hired as new full-time counselor for Muenster schools. She has been a middle school counselor at Whitesboro for four years. The board also hired LeAnn Speers, Sheila Wilson, and Sharon Hermes as elementary teachers and Kyle Baker as a junior high coach.

The board accepted the resignations of Jodi Bass as high school math teacher and Dennis Shoup, who was computer teacher.

of gospel music.

All weekend long, there will be horsedrawn carriage rides, antique car shows, many exhibits, a tour of Frank Buck Zoo, merchants' "Excess Baggage Sales," and arts and crafts booths.

The sponsor of Depot Days is Community Revitalization, Inc. For more information, call 817-665-8871.

The place and the occasion have changed this year, but the quality of entertainment will still be top notch when the "Country Caravan" show from South Plains College rolls into town May 18 to cap Saturday's Depot Days activities with its high-energy country music revue at the Leonard Park pavilion at 8 p.m. There is no charge.

"We're happy to share sponsorship of the show this year with Community Revitalization, Inc., and have the Country Caravan become a part of the Depot Days celebration," said CCC President Bud Joyner.

Now entering its 15th season, Country Caravan brings from the South Plains College campus in Levelland a cast of 15 vocalists and musicians who pick, sing and dance nonstop for 90 minutes of high-energy family entertainment. The annual tour is an outgrowth of what has to be one of the most unusual programs of study offered at any college in the country.

There will be hits from artists who reaped Country Music Association awards this past year and who wear the hats of country music, including traditional country with a contemporary twist, masterpieces made famous by country greats, country comedy and a medley of country gospel.

Local audiences are encouraged to bring along lawn chairs or blankets and to come early to get a good spot up front. Again, there is no admission charge.

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS: The annual sale of Buddy Poppies by the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States has been officially recognized and endorsed by governmental leaders since 1922; and

WHEREAS: VFW Buddy Poppies are assembled by disabled veterans, and the proceeds of this worthy fundraising campaign are used exclusively for the benefit of disabled and needy veterans, and the widows and orphans of deceased veterans, and

WHEREAS: The basic purpose of the annual sale of Buddy Poppies by the Veterans of Foreign Wars is eloquently reflected in the desire to "Honor the Dead by Helping the Living;" therefore

I, Ted Henscheid, Mayor of the City of Muenster, do hereby urge the citizens of this community to recognize the merits of this cause by contributing generously to its support through the purchase of Buddy Poppies on May 27, the day set aside for the distribution of these symbols of appreciation for the sacrifices of our honored dead.

I urge all patriotic citizens to wear a Buddy Poppy as mute evidence of our gratitude to the men of this country who have risked their lives in defense of the freedoms which we continue to enjoy as American citizens.

Mayor

A PROCLAMATION

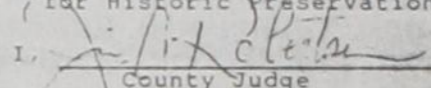

WHEREAS: Historic preservation gives Americans a deeper understanding of their unique and diverse heritage.

WHEREAS: Historic landmarks contribute to the economic, social and cultural well-being of cities and towns across the nation.

gram (SMILE) and Outstanding Student Council.

The Sacred Heart Student Council has worked very hard this year to accomplish the goals we set for ourselves. We, as a council, are proud and appreciative to be recognized at the State level for the works we do in school and in the community. The council members who attended the convention include Robin Greathouse, Sharon Fuhrmann, Tommy Greathouse, Allison Klement, Melissa Miller, April Truebenbach, Kelly Bayer, Jennie Endres, and Erica Schilling. Student Council Sponsors Debbie Endres and Jeanne Greathouse provided the transportation to the convention and an unending supply of support throughout the year. We would like to express our appreciation to all those who have helped us reach our goals this year. A special thanks to Mr. Mudrock for allowing us the freedom to achieve and the support to help us reach our goals.

THE ECONOMY AND YOU

WHY IS THE AVERAGE FAMILY GETTING POORER?

By Wayne Gable

"Now, here, you see, it takes all the running you can do to keep in the same place," the Queen told Alice in Lewis Carroll's Through the Looking Glass. "If you want to get somewhere else, you must run at least twice as fast." The average two-income family seems stuck on the same treadmill these days. Their breadwinners are working harder, but earning less after-tax income than they did three years ago, after adjusting for inflation. In 1990 alone, this inflation-adjusted after-tax income dropped by more than $500 from the year before.

One could simply chalk up this dismal performance to the recession. But the slowing economy does not tell the whole story. Higher federal income tax and Social Security payroll tax rates have eliminated family income growth in every year since 1987—long before there was any hint of an economic downturn. If not for these tax increases, real after-tax income would have continued to grow gradually through the end of the decade. And last year's $500 fall in family income would have been offset by $520 in lower taxes.

Unfortunately, the worse the economic picture gets, the more Congress seems to feel that it knows best how to spend the family's income. By October, legislators and the Bush administration had agreed that what the country needed during this time of rising unemployment and business failures was for taxpayers to send an extra $140 billion to the U.S. Treasury—the second largest tax increase in American history. This year the typical family will fork over an estimated $11,200 in federal income and payroll taxes. That's $900 higher than in 1990.

The President and Congress assured taxpayers that these massive tax increases were a matter of "fiscal responsibility," essential to bring the budget deficit under control. But since the agreement was struck, it has become clear that the taxpayers are the only ones doing the belt-tightening. While families find ways to cut another $900 from their budgets this year, overall federal spending will increase by over $158 billion. Needless to say, the deficit will persist.

The legislative practice of expanding federal spending and taxation without regard to economic conditions and the cost to the public is nothing new. Over the last 10 years, major tax rate increases have always occurred just when family incomes were growing the least, and the largest of these tax increases occurred in the two years when family incomes were dropping. It seems that as a general rule of thumb, when the income "pie" is small, Congress just takes a bigger slice.

Since 1983, federal revenues have grown five times faster than the average family's income. Taxpayers probably did not notice this encroachment because economic growth kept their living standards from declining very much, even with higher taxes. But the impact of this latest tax bombshell in the midst of a deepening recession may awaken family breadwinners to the growing tax lawmakers are billing to their account, which is the real reason why families are getting poorer.

Wayne Gable is president of Citizens for a Sound Economy Foundation, a 250,000-member research and education organization in Washington, D.C.

When we say "You're The Boss" ... We mean it.

We are bombarded with advertisements to buy. You can shop around for goods . . . and for some services, like a mechanic. But with utilities, there is usually only one available. So, you might think it would be easy for us to take our consumers for granted.

You know what? The EXACT OPPOSITE IS TRUE. At your electric cooperative, each and every member is an owner. So when we say YOU'RE THE BOSS . . . we mean it!

We'd like to know how we're doing, Boss. Give us a call . . . or drop by and visit. And in the meantime, try to think of the last time your mechanic asked you how he was doing.

MUENSTER, TEXAS

Cooke County EMS strives for excellence

by Janet Felderhoff

They operate an emergency room on wheels and the job they do could mean the difference between life and death for people in a medical crisis. The Cooke County Emergency Medical Service (EMS) is on call 24 hours a day with three well-equipped ambulances and a rescue truck at their disposal.

The personnel are divided into three shifts that alternate an on 24 hours, off 48 hours schedule. Two ambulances are staffed at all times. A shift officer, two paramedics, and two emergency medical technicians (EMTs) make up each shift. A dispatcher is on duty from 8 a.m. until 11 p.m.

Cooke County EMS answers an average of 2,000 calls per year. Of that number, 20 percent are emergency calls. They service a 901-square-mile area. It is a mobile intensive care unit (MICU), which is the highest level for EMS in Texas.

Bob Harbin has been the EMS administrator since Jan. 29, 1990. He is also a certified paramedic and goes on calls when needed. "Cooke County EMS is second to none," stated Harbin. "It has always been an excellent service, well staffed, and very well equipped."

There are only seven emergency medical services in the state that are run by the county. Cooke County EMS is very unique because it is the only one that is totally county run. The other six are run by a county and another municipality. "This makes things easier because there is only one entity to answer to," said Harbin. "There are five bosses - the four county commissioners and one county judge."

Average response time for ambulances throughout Texas is 14 1/2 minutes. Lt. Thomas Epting, public relations spokesman, estimated that Cooke County's time was equal or better. "We can be in Muenster in less than 14 1/2 minutes and once we're in the city limits we get a police escort to the location," said Epting when asked about response time to Muenster. "The Muenster Police Department is very helpful."

Responding to rural calls presents another problem. County roads all have numbers but very few people are aware of what their road number is. Epting said that people gave directions with things to watch for instead of giving numbers of miles to roads and using road numbers.

Chief Dispatcher Stella Brower advises people calling in an emergency situation to give clear, concise directions which means using road or street names and numbers and exact number of miles to travel before turning. "Go a little while down this road and turn by the white mailbox doesn't help," she added. "Many people can live in a house 20 years and not know the exact directions. It is best to write them down and place them by the telephone." EMS personnel also stressed the importance of giving a call-back number so that they are able to get more detailed directions if needed.

"We are really proud of our service and hope that the commissioners will let us do things in the future that will get even better response time," said Harbin. ANI (automated number identification) is scheduled to go into effect in January of 1992. This will give the number from which a call is placed.

"I expect ALI (automated location identification) to follow 18-20 months later and this could cut down on response time." With these systems all homes in the county will have a number and can easily be located with it.

Some areas that are located in more distant areas from an ambulance service's central location use First Responders to get first aid or CPR started before an ambulance crew can arrive. Lake Kiowa has such a team. "They are a big help," praised Cpt. Wes Reed. "It's a very good team of First Responders." Any area that has a group trained and certified in first aid and CPR can form this type of a team to work with the EMS.

An EMT is able to provide basic life support while a paramedic can provide advanced life support. In Cooke County EMS a paramedic and an EMT work as a team. When they respond to a call where a patient is in full arrest such as cardiac patients, seizures and all major car accidents, the shift officer follows the ambulance in the rescue truck. This puts a third paramedic on the scene.

When our interview was conducted one team and ambulance was out of the county making a patient transfer. Wes Reed, shift captain, and the other team Cpt. Thomas Epting and Carla Blaylock, EMT, were on call at the EMS station.

The self-satisfaction of knowing that they were helping people was one reason given by Blaylock and Reed for working with an emergency medical service. "It takes someone that's gonna be able to get some self-satisfaction where they can get up on themselves 'cause we rarely see people at their best - they don't call us when they feel good," remarked Reed. "You have to justify it (the job) in your own mind."

"It's a real high stress environment," said Blaylock of the job. "Probably one of the worst kind of feelings you can encounter in this kind of work is that you're geared in trying to help people and when you get stuck in a situation where there's not much that you can do not only is the call in itself stressful, but the frustration that you feel is stressful," said Reed. "You find that if you work in a series of accidents that are bad - you might work three or four in a row - they tend to crowd in and the frustration you had from the first one carries over to the second one and on and on down. We're lucky and that would not necessarily be a common occurrence."

The best method of dealing with this stress claim the emergency medical people is to talk about it and communicate with each other. "You discuss ways that you could have done things different..." said Blaylock.

"We've found that a lot of times if we come back to the station and have a sit-down and discuss and talk it over a lot of times that relieves a lot of the stress," said Reed. "Of course in this type of field a lot of it is that you have to learn to deal with it and say that it is a job and you do it the way that you were trained. Human self-limitation is sometimes the hardest thing to accept. There is just so much that you can do in certain circumstances," Epting added. "It gets pointed out to you rather pointedly at times that you have certain human limitations."

"Your adrenalin takes over when you get out on the scene and it's a lot easier to do what you're trained to do when you're out on the scene," said Blaylock. "It's when you get back here and your adrenalin is down and you start thinking...that's when it bothers you. When you have time to sit and think about what you were faced with - that's when it's stressful."

"In stressful situations you revert to your training when you're stuck in tight situations," said Reed. "Like Carla said, it's when it's over that you have a chance to think about it."

It was agreed by all that the most dreaded calls were those involving children. Reed noted that in the six years he had been working they'd lost eight kids. "You don't ever forget any of those."

"Since I have been associated with this area the use of alcohol is the commanding factor in most accidents," said Lt. Epting. "Most accidents that are serious are somehow alcohol related. It's hard on me personally because it seems needless. Usually when a crew is on an accident scene they don't take time to figure out the cause - they're more into patient treatment."

Carla Blaylock feels good about her job when she knows that she helped to save a life and has done her best. Paramedic Reed described the ambulance team as being "a cog on a wheel of how lives get saved. It is dependent on us doing our job and the hospital doing their job and hopefully the end result is a functional person coming out of the hospital."

The EMS personnel feel especially good when someone calls back and says thanks. "We rarely hear from our patients and when we do it means a lot to us," they said.

There is no such thing as a typical day at Cooke County EMS. They may be continuously busy answering calls or they may be at the station doing chores, training and paperwork. For each call answered there are three to four pieces of paperwork to complete. Equipment must be maintained and supplies restocked.

"The EMS station is our home away from home and our shift crew our family away from our family," said Ms. Blaylock. "Sometimes we see the people we work with more than we see our own family, depending on our family's schedule," added Reed.

EMS employees are individuals with their own unique personalities, but when they get a call they become a team putting all differences aside. They have one purpose and that is to save lives by doing the job that they were trained to do.

Carla Blaylock is single and has a 5-year-old daughter. She has relatives in similar lines of work, but didn't consider it for herself until a few years ago. She was trained at Grayson County and is from Denison. She has been with Cooke County since August.

Wes Reed is married, has two children and another one on the way. He is from Denton originally and has been with Cooke County for four years. He was trained at Cooke County College where he is now an instructor.

Jeff Amador is a captain on the A shift. He enjoys his job so much that he was at the station visiting and to be there "in case they need me." He knew since high school that he wanted to be involved with such work. He is a lab assistant at Cooke County College and was educated at Grayson College and Cooke County College.

Gov. Ann Richards set aside May 12-18 as Texas EMS Week to honor the men and women who provide emergency medical care. She also wants to urge Texans to think child safety. There are plans by the Texas Department of Health to sponsor community activities to focus on the theme "Think Child Safety." Cooke County was unable to participate this week because they didn't receive their information packets.

The Muenster Enterprise salutes the Cooke County EMS and its full time employees: Paramedics Capt. Wes Reed, Capt. Jeff Amador, Capt. David Yandell, Lt. Thomas Epting, Lt. Kenneth Reedy, Lt. Dale Vaughn, Christine McCrory, Charles Rabenau III, Carl Rickert III, Administrator Bob Harbin; EMTs Timothy Moon, Carla Blaylock, Herbert Lamar, Janet Parsons, Brenda Batson, Leah Hermes; and Dispatchers Stella Brower, Lois Patrick and Debra Hardy.

CAPT. WES REED displays some of Cooke County EMS's rescue equipment. Best known as the "Jaws of Life," the tools are used to pry open vehicles when trapped victims are in need of immediate medical attention. The cutters can free someone in 30 seconds when other methods could take 10-15 minutes.

TU Electric plans local fix-up project Saturday

More than 9,250 TU Electric employees, retirees and family volunteers will gather across the company's 600-mile-long service area this month to work on 118 Paint-the-Town projects.

Most of the paint-up, fix-up work, including the project in Muenster will be done Saturday morning, May 18, weather permitting. This fourth system-wide TU Electric Paint-the-Town effort has drawn a record number of volunteers. Prior to system-wide coordination, many company volunteers participated in similar individual community projects.

The home of Anna Margaret

Tempel at 220 N. Sycamore will get fix-up and paint-up help Saturday. More of the locations are homes of elderly and disadvantaged citizens.

Community organizations across the TU Electric service area choose most of the projects. Area businesses donate paint and other materials and the volunteers furnish the labor and the tools.

TU Electric provides electric service to more than 5.2 million people - almost one-third of the state's population - in 87 counties of North East and West Texas.

Fraziers return to Tennessee...

First Baptist seeks pastor

Chuck and Beth Frazier and their children, Russell, age 2, and Laurel, age 4 months, have moved back to Tennessee. Chuck has assumed the associate pastor duties at Alpha Baptist Church in Morristown, Tennessee, where his father, Rev. Clay Frazier, serves as pastor.

Rev. Frazier announced his resignation from Muenster's First Baptist Church on Sunday, April 14, to be effective as of Sunday, May 5. Chuck will receive his Master's degree in Theology from the Fort Worth Seminary in July.

Chuck and Beth would welcome mail from their "hometown" of Muenster. Their address, as of June 1, is: 525 Lee Drive, Morristown, Tennessee 37814.

Deacon Larry Tisdale has announced that the First Baptist Church of Muenster will have a business meeting Sunday night,

May 19, to make some decision regarding choice of interim pastor, regular pastor and music/youth minister. The church continues services as usual until a pastor has been selected to fill the pulpit.

State tax expert in Gainesville on Wednesday

The public will have the opportunity on Wednesday, May 22 to meet one-on-one with a state tax expert in Gainesville, when a representative from the State Comptroller's Office visits the Gainesville Chamber of Commerce, 101 South Culberson.

"Not everyone can get to Austin or to one of our field offices for tax assistance. So we periodically make this visit as a service to Texas taxpayers," State Comptroller John Sharp said.

Don Ersch from the Comptroller's Sherman Field Office, will be at the Gainesville Chamber of Commerce from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m.

"We'll be happy to sit down with you and fill out your sales tax return, explain which state taxes apply to your particular business and send you home with useful information," Sharp said.

Cooke County area taxpayers who won't be able to meet with Don Ersch can receive individual tax help by calling the Comptroller's statewide, toll-free assistance hotline at 1-800-252-5555.

Or, they can contact the Sherman Field Office at 903/893-0692. The Sherman Field Office serves taxpayers in Collin, Cooke, Delta, Denton, Fannin, Grayson, Hopkins, Hunt, Lamar, Red River and Rockwall counties.

Irving ceremony unites couple on May 4

DR. and MRS. STEPHEN BRYAN LITTLE
...nee Anne Marie Blythe...

The wedding of Anne Marie Blythe and Stephen Bryan Little, MD, was held in the Chapel of the Incarnation at the University of Dallas in Irving on May 4, 1991 at 2 p.m. with Deacon Bill Friedman, chaplain at St. Joseph's Hospital, officiating for the traditional ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mary and Ron Page of Muenster and Bill Blythe of Checotah, Oklahoma. She is also the granddaughter of Mrs. Louise Trubebach and the late Alois Trubebach.

The bride is a graduate of Lindsay High School; Texas Tech University, Lubbock; and University of Texas Law School, Austin. She is a corporate attorney employed by Burlington Northern Railroad Co. of Fort Worth.

The groom is the son of Tom and Betty Little of Houston and a grandson of Mrs. Essie McAlpine of Austin. He is a graduate of L.D. Bell High School of Bedford; University of Texas, Austin; and University of Texas Medical School, San Antonio. He is an emergency/trauma physician on staff at St. Joseph's Hospital in Fort Worth.

Before an altar adorned with aged-copper candelabra and floral arrangements of sweetheart roses, miniature lilies, stephanotis, baby's breath and ferns, the bride was presented by her father, Bill Blythe.

For her wedding, the bride chose her mother's bridal gown, a formal, princess-style dress of ivory silk peau-de-soi, designed with square neckline, pleated cap sleeves, and chapel-length train. The bodice was adorned with lace medallions re-embroidered with sequins and seed pearls. Her full illusion veil, edged with seed pearls, fell from a crown of silk and pearlized orange blossoms and seed pearls, which was also worn by her mother on her wedding day.

The bride also wore a single strand pearl necklace and earrings, a wedding gift from the groom. She carried a nosegay of white roses and baby's breath, and a turquoise and silver rosary from Yugoslavia, a gift from her maternal grandmother Trubebach.

ATTENDANTS
Gretchen C. Benolken of Dallas, friend of the bride, was maid of honor, wearing a tea length floral dress, designed with fitted bodice, dropped waist and full skirt with an off-the-shoulder shawl collar embellished with fabric rosettes. She carried a nosegay of pink sweetheart roses.

Art Garza of San Antonio, a friend of the groom, was best man. Ushers were the bride's brother, Richard Blythe of Grapevine, and the groom's brothers, Tim Little and Douglas Little of Houston.

Wedding music was presented by a classical pianist and a flutist. While grandmothers and parents were being seated, the duo played Bach's "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring." The wedding party proceeded down the aisle to Pachelbel's "Canon in D" and the recessional was "Trumpet Voluntary."

RECEPTION
A champagne buffet reception followed at the couple's new home in Keller for 250 guests.

The bride's cake was a hazelnut-frangelica cake decorated with basket weave icing and covered with handpainted icing flowers. The groom's velvet chocolate fudge cake, featured fudge icing, chocolate shavings and strawberries dipped in dark chocolate and white chocolate.

Cake servers were the bride's aunts, Kathy Whitt of Sanger and Rita McCorkle of Muenster.

The home was decorated with vases filled with sweetheart roses and greenery.

The couple plans a delayed wedding trip to Cozumel.

The rehearsal dinner was held at Mercado Juarez in Fort Worth. Showers and parties included a lawn and garden shower hosted by the bride's coworkers. Mrs.

Katherine Millwee of Fort Worth hosted a lingerie shower. Mrs.

A.J. Felderhoff of Gainesville and her daughters, Mary Fiala and Kathy Metzler, and the bride's sister-in-law, Gwen Blythe, hosted a shower in the Felderhoff home.

The maid of honor gave the bachelorette party at Dallas' West End, and the bride and several of her friends enjoyed a trip to the Jazz Festival in New Orleans.

Muenster Historical Comm. discusses logo changes

The Muenster Historical Commission met Tuesday, May 14. Among items discussed was the Muenster logo. The logo needs improvement to give it more eye appeal. It was decided to change the lettering on the banner to make it more legible when reduced in size. It was also decided to have a blue background to give it more color. The church and starburst will be gold. There will be one red inner circle and the logo will have a red border. The Muenster Logo will be made up in patches, decals and stickers.

Work is under way to have a flyer made up for the Muenster Museum.

The Commission began planning an annual event in recognition of German heritage. Plans are to have the first Founder's Day Celebration on the second Saturday in November, 1992 and set the second Saturday in November every year for the celebration. It will be a one-day cultural and genealogical event. The Historical Commission will meet again in June to discuss further plans.

New support group for blind people in Sherman/Denison

The Dallas Lighthouse for the Blind and the Texoma Area Agency on Aging are jointly forming a new support group for blind or visually impaired citizens in the Sherman/Denison area.

The group meetings will be conducted by instructors from the Dallas Lighthouse for the Blind, who will cover topics such as adaptive cooking, eating skills, grooming, money identification, and orientation & mobility (cane travel). Other topics include adjustment to vision loss and stress management.

Meetings will be held each Tuesday, beginning June 11-July 23, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Sherman Senior Citizens Center, 1500 N. Broughton. There is no charge to join the support group. People interested in joining should call Nancy Coffey at the Texoma Area Agency on Aging, (903) 786-2955.

LEE WALTERSCHEID

Lee celebrates first birthday!

Lee Thomas Walterscheid, son of Terry and Dianne Walterscheid, celebrated his first birthday with two parties.

On Thursday, May 9, his actual birthdate, Lee partied with all his buddies and friends at Tender Loving Care Day Care Center. That afternoon, they enjoyed Smiley Face cakes and cookies.

The following evening, Lee and his family joined together with relatives to celebrate. Decorated cupcakes were served to the children, while the adults enjoyed homemade strawberry pie made by Lee's grandmother, Betty Kralicke. To complete the evening, Lee, assisted by his brother Jordan, opened his gifts and cards.

Those attending the birthday party at the home of Terry and Dianne were Lee's parents; brothers Casey, Tyler and Jordan; grandparents Martin and Betty Kralicke and Willie and Queenie Walterscheid; cousins Dustin and Bret with their mother, Lisa Walterscheid; and Barbara Trawek.

New Arrival —

Davidson

Mike and Elaine Davidson of Greenwood, Ark. are parents of their second daughter, Laura Elaine, born on Sunday, May 12, 1991, Mother's Day, at 6:45 p.m. at St. Edward's Mercy Hospital in Ft. Smith, Arkansas. Laura weighed 8 lb. 5 oz. and measured 24 1/4 inches long. She has a sister, Jennifer, age 3. Their grandparents are Charles and Alice Davidson of Muenster, and Louise Eckart of Subiaco, Ark. and the late Gene Eckart. Mrs. Louise Siegmund of Gainesville is the great-grandmother.

Mother's Day visitors

Services in both Muenster churches were crowded with out-of-town visitors as families, relatives and friends returned to their hometowns for Mother's Day family gatherings.

At the home of Margaret Fisher, dinner guests were Ruthie, Max and Elizabeth Rumelhart of Buda, Texas; Jeanette and Joe Galloway of Wichita Falls; Mary Ellen Thompson and little boys, Robert and Ray, of Wichita Falls. Joining them were Clyde and Polly Fisher, Butch and Eileen Fisher and Johnny and Louise Fisher.

Danny and Claudette Fette and sons, Aaron and Gabriel, were Sunday guests of his mother, Mrs. R.N. Fette, and all were guests of David and Pam Fette and children, Russell and Elizabeth, for a special dinner at Taiwan Restaurant in Gainesville at noon.

4-H'ers participate in Roundup activities

by Cassie Bullock
County Extension Agent
 Twenty-seven Cooke County 4-H club members put their 4-H accomplishments to the test in an 18-county district competition conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service on April 20 in McKinney.
 Some 275 youth demonstrated their skills and knowledge they acquired in educational projects offered by the Extension Service through the 4-H youth organization. Popular projects included horticulture, companion animals, clothing, foods and nutrition, livestock, judging, and safety.
 Winners in the senior division advance to State 4-H Roundup at Texas A&M University in June. They include: Sara Flusche, 1st place, blue ribbon, Family Life Education Category; Charlene Lutkenhaus, 2nd, blue ribbon, Foods and Nutrition; Greg Brooks, 1st, blue ribbon, Focus on Health; Sean Herbold, 1st, blue ribbon, Horse Category; Sherilyn Sicking, 1st, blue ribbon, Rabbit Category; Kimberly McKown, Eric Vann, Summer Anderson and Julie Woods, 1st, blue ribbon, Share-the-Fun Act.

 The rifle team competed at the Alpine Shooting Range in Tarrant County. Senior team members are Clifford Lutkenhaus, Amy Fette, and Danny Miller. They received a blue ribbon and 1st place. Danny was High Point Individual.
 The Senior Dairy Judging team competed on the District level last November in McKinney. Werner Becker, Brenda Friedrich, Jennifer Kupper, and Daryl Kupper placed 2nd and received a blue ribbon.

Junior 4-H'ers competing at District were Bonnie Brooks, 2nd place, blue ribbon, Companion Animals Category; Michael Becker, 1st, blue ribbon, Dairy Category; Jamie Alexander, Keith Alexander, Chance Barthold, Cori Barthold, Craig Dennis, Christy Hargrove, Sybil Schindler and Syndi Schindler, blue ribbon, Share-the-Fun category.
 Junior Rifle Team members placed 1st and received a blue ribbon. Team members are Robert Lutkenhaus, Rebecca Miller, Matt Bullard, Eddie Beck. Robert Lutkenhaus was High Point Individual.
 The Junior Dairy Judging Team also competed at District in McKinney in November. Team members Michael Becker, Kimberly Kupper, Casey Kupper and Susan Kuppe placed 1st and received a blue ribbon. Sam Kirk and Eddie Schad judged on an individual basis.

Frost Bank promotes Samuel Bright

The board of directors of Frost National Bank of San Antonio recently promoted Samuel L. Bright to vice president, according to Richard W. Evans, Jr., president.

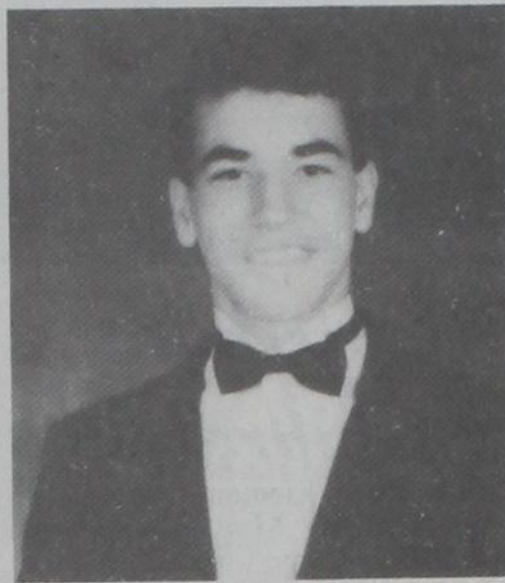

Bright, son of Mr. and Mrs. David M. Bright, Sr., of Muenster, manages Frost's Investment Operations area. He joined the bank in June 1988 and was elected assistant vice president that same month.

A graduate of Muenster High School, Bright earned a Bachelor's degree in Business Administration and a Master's degree in Economics from Baylor University.

Local students graduate

RYAN GEHRIG

STEVE SCHMITZ

Two area students will graduate with honors at Subiaco Academy, a college-prep school for boys, located in Subiaco, Arkansas. Ryan Gehrig of Muenster, son of James and Cynthia Gehrig, and Steve Schmitz of Gainesville, son of Albina Andrews and John Schmitz of Gainesville, ranked third and sixth, respectively, in the senior class.

Gehrig earned a 92.3 scholastic average during four years attending the academy. He is a three-year member and currently National Honor Society President, served as a class officer and on the Student Council four years, and is a member of the Men's Chorus, Usher Society, yearbook staff, Server and Lector Society, and Blue Arrow Club, a student tour guide organization. Gehrig also is a four-year football and two-year soccer athlete.

Schmitz, a fourth-year senior, maintained an 89.4 grade point average. He is a three-year National Honor Society member, a three-year member and treasurer of the Student Council, and served as a class officer two years. Other activities include Usher Society, Server and Lector Society, Blue Arrow Club, cheerleading, Men's Chorus, and yearbook photographer. Schmitz is a four-year football and two-year soccer athlete. He quarterbacked the football team and earned All-District honors the past season.

Gehrig and Schmitz will receive high school diplomas in Subiaco Academy's 104th commencement exercises set for 10:00 a.m. Saturday, May 18.

Caregivers review program

Medicaid program changes have evolved during the recent months and will cause many differences in service delivery and gaps in consumer knowledge. Caregivers of persons eligible for Medicaid will have the opportunity to review these changes in financial eligibility, nursing home eligibility, and the Qualified Medicare Beneficiary program at the May Caregiver Support Group meeting.

A representative from the Texas Dept. of Human Services provided updated information on the Medicaid program at the Caregiver/Alzheimer's Support Group meeting at the Renaissance Retirement Community.

The Caregiver/Alzheimer's Support Group provides information and support to individuals and families who are caring for a disabled parent, spouse or other adult. Meetings are held on the second Tuesday of each month.

Party honors Eric Walterscheid

ERIC WALTERSCHEID

Eric Gregory Walterscheid, son of Greg and Julie Walterscheid of Lewisville, was one-year-old on April 16. To celebrate the special occasion Eric's family and friends gathered on April 14 in the home of Darrell and Shawna Herr in Muenster.

A Cookie Monster and Big Bird theme was used for party decorations. Guests were served cake, ice cream and punch. Eric opened gifts and many pictures were taken. That evening a hamburger supper was also served to Eric's family and friends.

Attending were Eric's parents; grandparents Sylvan and Theresa Mae Walterscheid, Linda Grewing and Anthony Grewing; Tony Grewing; Darrell and Shawna Herr and Mackenzie; Jonathan, Kenneth and Matthew Grewing; Danny Walterscheid; Jim and Donna Biffle and Jack and Jayna; Mary Hess and Ashley, Kristen and Haylee; and David Hesse, all of Muenster.

Also Tammy and Billy Brown of Decatur; Janet Hesse; and Amy Walterscheid of Dallas; and Jean Jones of Denton.

Richard Floyd believes good far outweighs the bad!

Richard Floyd, director of music for the University Interscholastic League, points out that only after two years of research and study was the decision made to revise the format to alternating years for the UIL State Marching Band Contest. The concept, recently approved by the State Board of Education with broad based support from band directors and school administrators, has been praised by music educators throughout Texas and the nation as a positive step toward maintaining a desirable balance in our school music programs.

The plan brings state marching bands to Austin every other year. Conference A, AA and AAAA will compete at the state level in odd numbered years (1991, 1993, etc.) while AAA and AAAAA will advance to state level only in even numbered years (1992, 1994, etc.). The intent of the change is to help dilute the overemphasis on the State Marching Contest, while still providing ample marching band performances and experience each fall. Bands will continue to perform approximately 10-12 times each fall, including a performance at the District UIL Marching Competition.

Floyd said there are several good reasons for the change. The two biggest are a dramatic reduction of cost to individual schools and the elimination of pressure to design, teach and perfect a "winning contest show" every fall.

Two local hygienists test products for approval

Leslie Hess and Elaine Schilling of Muenster are two of the TWU senior dental hygiene students who were assigned by the university to test two products being considered for approval by the American Dental Association.

When Health Tech, Inc. of New Jersey petitioned the American Dental Association for approval of the company's interdental stimulator and four different types of dental floss last year, the ADA's Council on Dental Materials, recommended that the company contact TWU's Department of Dental Hygiene about conducting the required product evaluations.

In June 1990, a Health Tech representative contacted two lecturers of the department. After receiving approval from TWU, the two lecturers researched the project and five dental hygiene senior students, including Hess and Schilling, worked as paid assistants, administering the products and recording results of the tests.

The interdental stimulator, a small wooden instrument which resembles a toothpick, is used to clean plaque between and on the sides of teeth, particularly where gingivitis is present.

Test findings will be sent to the ADA's Council on Dental Therapeutics for review, decision and approval.

"The value of this project to TWU is the experience the students received and the recognition the university will get for conducting the tests," said one of the lecturers of the Dental Hygiene Dept. of the university.

Elaine Schilling said, "This project was good experience." She has been accepted to the Baylor University College of Dentistry in Dallas. "I plan to go to dental school after I graduate in May, and I know there will be research opportunities there. Having worked on this project will improve my chances of being selected for research assignments at Baylor," said Schilling.

Patrick Wayne Hellman receives Master's degree

Patrick Wayne Hellman received an MBA in Corporate Finance at the University of Dallas on Friday, May 3, 1991.

A graduate of Texas A&M University in College Station with a BBA in Business Analysis, and of Cistercian Prep School in Irving, Pat graduated with a grade-point-average of 3.73 in a possible 4.0.

In March, 1990 he was initiated in Sigma Iota Epsilon, a National Honorary Management Fraternity.

Pat is the youngest son of Dr. and Mrs. Wayne L. Hellman (Monte and Doris) of Dallas and formerly of Muenster. He is the grandson of Mrs. Alice Hellman and the late Rudy J. Hellman. His maternal grandparents are Mrs. Ernie Hellman and the late Reuben Eberhart, and step-father, the late Clarence Hellman. Since January 1991, Patrick has been employed as an account executive with ABACUS Financial Corp. in Plano. He resides in Dallas.

Art show officials give special praise to winners

Mary Frances VanPelt, director of this year's 26th annual Cooke County Art Show, gave special praise to young artists this week in releasing a complete list of top award winners in each of the show's main divisions of competition.

"In recent years, we've made quite a fuss over the uniform quality and excellence of so many of the entries in the various adult and college student divisions of the show," said VanPelt, "but nowhere has the quality been more consistent than in our public school divisions.

"That's a testament not only to the talent and creativity of these young people but also to the guidance and encouragement of many dedicated, hardworking teachers, and we think they both deserve special mention. All the wonderful artwork by these kids has become one of the most popular features of our show with the public, and we really appreciate their participation."

Heading the list of school division winners was Richard Ohr, student at Booker T. Washington School in Gainesville, who took "Best of Show" honors in the Elementary School Division; and Paul Chaney from Marietta High School, "Best of Show" winner among older public school entrants.

VanPelt also singled out students from the Valley View school system for special merit. A first place "class project" award went to an extraordinary recreation of an Egyptian sarcophagus (mummy case) by students at Valley View High School, and second place went to the fifth and sixth grades at Valley View Elementary School for their "Gates of Eagles" project.

Harold Lasiter of Chico took overall "Best of Show" honors for his uniquely rendered vision of an old-time outdoor "concert" by a band of country musicians playing banjos, guitars, fiddle and string bass from a crude wooden stage lit by bare light bulbs.

"Despite its obvious rural theme, our sophisticated, 'urbanized' judges were drawn immediately to this wonderful pastel," VanPelt said. "It really does have a strongly evocative appeal, and we're happy for Mr. Lasiter, who has been entering works in our show for a number of years."

Lasiter also was awarded a third place award in the General Division oil painting category and a second place for his entry in original crafts.

Other divisional "Best of Show" winners were Rachel Suggs of Valley View, for her pen and ink graphic which won a first place in the CCC Student Division; and Michael Terilli of Saint Jo, for his winning entry in the photography General Division for non-students.

Area winners include: Grade 3, Michael Dorff, Lindsay, 4th; Grade 4, Margie Fisher, Muenster, 1st; Elizabeth Luttmeyer, Lindsay, Honorable Mention; Grade 5, Andrea Fuhrmann, Lindsay, 4th; Grade 6, Jennifer Campbell, Sacred Heart, 2nd; Jonathan Laney, Valley View, Honorable Mention; Grade 7, Jason Glenn, Valley View, 1st; Grade 8, Loretta Reiter, Sacred Heart, 4th; Grade 10, Tisha Krebs, Lindsay, 3rd.

For information about entering the 27th annual Cooke County Art Show in 1992, contact Mary Frances VanPelt in care of the Cooke County College Art Department, 1525 W. California St., Gainesville, Texas 76240, telephone 817/668-7731.

BRIDGETTE KLEMENT

5th birthday is celebrated!

Bridgette Klement turned 5 years old on May 5 and was honored on May 3 with a party in the home of her parents, Leon and Christi Klement, with the mother baking the double, heart-shaped birthday cake which was served to guests with other refreshments.

Joining the party fun were grandparents Ed and Rose Klement and Norb and Liz Koesler; Uncle Ronald Klement; Uncle Robert and Aunt Gloria Klement and their children Shelley and Justin; and Bridgette's sister, Andrea and brother Elliot.

Opening of gifts and making movies added to the fun.

'Buckle kids in,' urges the County EMS

Gene Weatherall, chief of the Texas Health Department's Bureau of Emergency Management, said that in 1989 more than 700 Texas children died of injuries that could have been prevented. "The good news," Weatherall said, "is that child safety seats prevented 28,000 injuries and about 200 deaths in children four or younger in this country last year."

"Trauma is still the number one killer of children," said Lt. Thomas Epting, local EMS public relations officer, "and children are most vulnerable to trauma when they ride in motor vehicles." According to the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, child safety seats are 71 percent effective in preventing fatalities.

Texas law requires children under age 2 to ride in a safety seat; from age 2 to 4, children may ride in a safety seat or buckled by a safety belt. Everyone in the front seat, no matter what their age, must ride buckled up. Parents who want to borrow a child safety seat can contact the health department's SafeRiders Program at 1-800-252-8255.

"We hope the residents of Cooke County will become more aware of the positive aspects of buckling their safety belts," said Lt. Epting.

Interested persons invited to attend inquiry classes

Classes are in session now for anyone interested in joining the Catholic Church. They are being held Monday evenings, 5:30 to 6:30 p.m. at the Sacred Heart Convent, Conference Room.

After an initial interview, the person attends inquiry classes to have their questions answered and get an introduction to the basic gospel message. If ready, the person then goes through a Rite of Acceptance and begins the catechumenate stage of study and Christian formation.

At the beginning of Lent, the person enters the stage of purification and enlightenment and prepares for the sacraments of initiation: baptism (if not received before), confirmation, and Eucharist. The person receives these at Easter.

This is followed by the mystagogia state - a time of reflection on the sacraments received and discovering what it means to live as a Catholic Christian.

If interested in joining the process of becoming a Catholic, call Barbara Fuhrmann at 759-2511, Ext. 37 during the day or 759-4922 evenings to set up an interview.

Celebrations held to honor First Communicants of Sacred Heart Church

First Holy Communion Day, for children or adults, holds a most important place in their memories and in family observances of treasured events. In importance, First Holy Communion Day is second only to the Day of Baptism.

Parents and other close relatives find various ways to mark the day for special memories. Reunions are frequently included to honor the children or adults.

Travis Bayer

Travis Bayer, one of twenty-eight children who marked special milestones in their lives on April 21, 1991, as members of the First Holy Communion class of Sacred Heart Parish, was honored by his parents, Carl and Norma Jean Bayer, with a family gathering.

They were hosts for a dinner at The Center Restaurant, attended by his brother Mark; his grandmother, Mrs. Rosalee Bayer; his godmother JoAnn Sicking and Jessamy and Lynn Sicking; his uncle, aunt and cousins Harold, Dolly and Jeremy Owen; his uncle Hank Bayer; Sandy Wimmer; Billie Gavin of Wichita Falls and the hosts Carl and Norma Jean.

Travis was presented a crucifix by his godparents JoAnn Sicking and Bert Hesse and a St. Christopher medal, very special to Travis since it was a gift from his paternal grandparents, Rosalee and the late Robert Bayer.

Matthew Joseph Wilde

Matthew Wilde's parents, Gregg and Shirley Wilde, honored their son on his special day, April 21, 1991 when he received the Holy Eucharist for the first time in the 10:30 a.m. Mass in Sacred Heart Church.

They entertained with a noon dinner in their home, inviting a group of family members and friends.

Matthew's special First Communion cake was made by The Farmer's Kitchen and Francis and Cathie Fuhrmann.

Present for the family celebration were Matthew's brother Jeff and his sister Kaitlin; the great-grandmother Mrs. Sadie O'Conner; the grandparents Ray and Marcy Wilde and Mrs. Evelyn Monday; and uncles, aunts, cousins and friends, Roy and John Monday; Joan Covington; John Monday; Sonda Luker and son Johnathan; Joni and Kimberly Sturm and Stephanie Huchton.

Guests visiting during the afternoon included Greg, Julie and Eric Walterscheid.

Holly Hartman

The First Holy Communion Day for Holly Hartman was celebrated on Sunday, April 21, 1991 when she was a member of the class of twenty-eight second graders who received the Holy Eucharist for the first time. Her parents, Kenny and Rhonda Hartman, hosted a noon dinner and family reunion in their home in her honor, following the Mass in Sacred Heart Church.

The table centerpiece was a lamb cake baked and decorated by her Grandma Joan Hartman.

Attending with the hosts and Holly's brother Nolan and sister Courtney were the maternal grandparents Ed and Clara Endres; the paternal grandparents Alvin and Joan Hartman; the great-grandmothers Dora Henscheid and Margaret Hartman; and uncles, aunts and cousins Paulette, Tom and Glen Swirczynski; David, Katie and Dylan Flusche; Bobby, Sharlene, Dainah and Shannon Hartman; Jon and Monica LeBrasseur; and Lacy Endres.

Christopher Smith

Christopher Smith, son of Francis and Cathie Fuhrmann, was the honored one in their home on his First Holy Communion Day, Sunday, April 21, 1991, when they entertained with a noon dinner to observe the special day.

Guests were friends and family members, including his grandparents, Claude and Ruth Smith of Mountain Springs; an uncle Marvin Berglund of Mountain Springs; and Christopher's godparents, Paul and Susie Fleitman and their children P.J., A.J. and Brianna.

Christopher's special First Communion cake was made by The Farmer's Kitchen, and decorated in pastels with a First Communion little boy figurine, and symbolic grapes and wheat.

Kenneth N. Grewing

Kenneth N. Grewing, son of Anthony and Linda Grewing, was the honored one at two family gatherings held in observance of his First Holy Communion Day, April 21, 1991.

The noon meal at his home was made extra special by home-made ice cream served for dessert. A barbecued chicken supper the same day was hosted in the evening at the home of Kenneth's grandmother, LuLu Hess.

Julie Walterscheid, sister of the honoree baked and decorated his First Communion cake.

Guests at both events included Kenneth's brothers, Jonathan and Matthew; sisters and their families, Julie, Greg and Eric Walterscheid; Tammy and Billy Brown; Shawna, Darrell and Mackinziey Herr; and Tony Grewing; Billie James; Howard, Willie, Waylan, Tayna and Jacob Hess; Brent, Mary, Ashley, Kristin and Haley Hess; Jim, Donna, Jack and Jayna Biffle, Tammy Rose Hess; Amy Bonner; Troy Hess and the hostess LuLu Hess.

Kacie Nicole Garcia

Kacie Nicole Garcia, daughter of Sherrie Garcia and Andy Garcia, Jr. was a member of the class of 28 children who received their First Holy Communion during the 10:30 a.m. Mass in Sacred Heart Church, co-celebrated by Father Victor Gillespie OSB and Father Sebastian Beshoner OSB.

Kacie's grandparents, Mary Lou and Leo Hess, hosted a noon meal in her honor at The Center Restaurant.

Attending were Kacie's mother, Sherrie Garcia; the maternal grandparents, Mary Lou and Leo Hess; the paternal grandparents, Lyda and Andy Garcia Sr.; the great-grandmother, Agnes Hess; the godmother, Jacque Endres, and her husband, Monte Endres, and their children, Brooke and Abby; uncle Brian Hess and Danna Hamric; great uncle, Weldon Vogel; cousin Michael Vogel; Kim Anderle; and great-uncle and aunt Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Garcia.

Megan Helena Hennigan

Mike and Janie Hennigan honored their daughter, Megan, on her First Holy Communion Day when they were hosts for a Lasagna dinner and family gathering in their home following the special liturgy and the 10:30 a.m. Mass in Sacred Heart Church on April 21, 1991.

Guests were Megan's sisters Michelle, Mindy and Meredith; her grandparents, Vince and Trudy Felderhoff and Pat and Alice Hennigan; godparents Brenda Felderhoff and Tim Hennigan; Uncle Mike Felderhoff; aunts Debbie Brittain and Carol Klement; cousins Dyan, Bradley and Greg Fisher; Ryan, Brandon and Kimberly Klement.

Megan's two-tiered First Communion cake was made by the "Farmer's Kitchen," and held a First Communion figurine from Edelweiss Kinderhaus, on the top layer.

Her First Holy Communion dress and veil were made by her mother. She also wore a gold cross and chain, a gift from her godfather, and gold cross earrings, a gift from her Grandpa and Grandpa Hennigan. Megan enjoyed opening and displaying all her gifts. Many family and group pictures were made.

Christopher Grewing

Aunts, uncles, cousins and grandparents came to a family gathering to honor Christopher Grewing on his First Holy Communion Day, when his parents Glenn and Connie Grewing hosted a dinner in their home following Mass in Sacred Heart Church.

The special cake, used as a centerpiece for the dining room table, was two-tiered and featured a figurine of a little kneeling boy, on the top layer and a Bible and rosary on the first layer.

Included in the family gathering were Christopher's grandparents, Flo Walterscheid and Steve and Judy Grewing. Also his godparents, Alice Walterscheid and Larry Grewing; and uncles, aunts and cousins, Jeannene and Erik Walterscheid; Pat Walterscheid; Jim, Diane, Michael, Randy, Shannon and Craig Grewing; Marla, Becky, and Polly Fette; Nancy Grewing; Eric and Noel Van Swearingen and Theresa Kubis; Cotton, Shelia, Daniel, Kara, Kristian and Derek Kleinert; Deuce, Donna, Darrell and Cory Charles; Fred, Elaine and Evan Koesler.

Amy Sicking

Amy Sicking, daughter of Bobby and Carol Sicking, was honored on her First Holy Communion Day with a family reunion and noon dinner hosted by her maternal grandparents, Arnold and Aileen Knabe in their home, following Mass in Sacred Heart Church.

A white sheet cake centered the dining room table, decorated with a white lamb surrounded by clusters of symbolic grapes and wheat. It was made by Amy's mother, and was served after gifts were opened and displayed.

The dinner menu of fried chicken was prepared by Uncle Donnie Grewing, and a bountiful variety of fresh garden vegetables and strawberry dessert was prepared by the maternal Grandmother Knabe.

Guests included grandparents, parents, brothers Jeff and Justin Sicking; uncles Gary and Darrell Knabe; Pam Felderhoff and sons Chris, Jeff and Vincent; Margie and Damien Walterscheid and son Toby; Lorie and Donnie Grewing and children Kristen and Brandon; Janet and Ross Felderhoff and Deann; Grandmother Dorothy Smith; Larry and Sandy Knabe and daughter Lisa.

Amy's First Communion dress was designed and made by her mother. And she wore a gold cross necklace, a gift from her grandparents, Arnold and Aileen Knabe.

Charlie Moster

Karen and Richard Moster honored their son, Charlie Moster, on the day of his First Holy Communion, April 21, when they hosted a dinner in their home, following the Mass and special liturgy celebrated by Father Victor Gillespie OSB and Father Sebastian Beshoner OSB.

Joining them were the maternal grandparents, Carl and Cecilia Schilling, and a group of other relatives and family friends.

A decorated, cross-shaped cake was lettered with Charlie's name and the date of his special day.

Picture taking, opening of gifts and games were included in the celebration.

Keith William Felderhoff

Keith Felderhoff's parents, Kenny and Kim Felderhoff, honored their son and his special First Holy Communion Day, April 21, when they entertained in their home, following the 10:30 a.m. Mass in Sacred Heart Church.

They hosted a noon dinner in their home attended by the grandparents Bobby and Linda Walterscheid and Sis and Al Felderhoff; also uncles, aunts and cousins, Scott, Sandy and Kaitlyn Felderhoff; Ross, Janet and Deann Felderhoff; also Duane Walterscheid and a friend Rhonda Stewart; also Keith's parents and his sisters Kayla and Kara.

Keith's First Communion cake was baked and decorated by The Farmer's Kitchen and Francis and Cathie Fuhrmann. Keith opened and displayed many special First Communion remembrance gifts.

Elliot Klement

Elliot Klement, son of Leon and Christi Klement, was honored with a family gathering on April 21, day of his First Holy Communion, when the parents entertained in their home following the 10:30 a.m. Mass.

They served a noon dinner featuring brisket and German sausage to Elliot's sisters Andrea and Bridgett; to the grandparents, Ed and Rose Klement and Norbert and Elizabeth Koesler; also Elliot's godfather and uncle,

Ronald Klement; his godmother and aunt, Mary Alice Bayer and her husband Danny Bayer and family all of Muenster; and uncle, aunt and cousins, Larry and Gretchen Kostyniak and sons Brian and Michael of Arlington. Elliot's great-aunt, Sister Francisca Walterscheid of Fort Worth sent greetings and a gift but was unable to be present, because she attended the 80th anniversary celebra-Jessica's parents and brother Tony and sister Kristina; and Tina Bindel.

Special gifts were a Bible from her Granny Bobbie and a cross from her Grandpa and Grandma Koesler.

Jonathan Michael Yosten

Jonathan Yosten, son of James and Susan Yosten, was honored by his parents on his First Holy

Nicholas Gerard Taylor
Nicholas Taylor, son of Steve and Doreen Taylor, was a member of the First Communion class of Sacred Heart Church on April 21, 1991, receiving the Holy Eucharist for the first time.

His parents observed the day, hosting a noon meal in his honor and inviting his grandparents, godparents, uncles, aunts and cousins.

tion of Our Lady of Victory Convent, and the Sisters of St. Mary of Namur.

Following dinner, the group sang "Happy Birthday" to Elliot's mother, Christi, whose birthday was Monday, April 22; and to Gretchen whose birthday was Monday, April 29.

Table decorations included red roses in a crystal vase, and a cross-shaped cake baked by the hostess. Pictures, movies and gifts followed the dinner.

Diane Becker

Diane Becker, daughter of Paul and Brenda Becker, was honored with a family gathering following her First Holy Communion Mass. All the guests attended the 10:30 a.m. special liturgy in Sacred Heart Church and then came to her home for a dinner at noon featuring a menu of turkey and all the trimmings.

Her special cake was made by Betty Rose Walterscheid, and decorated with a little girl figurine. Diane opened and displayed her gifts, and pictures were made.

Attending were the honoree's brother, Joe; the grandparents Marty and Gloria Becker and Edward and Aileen Sandmann; the godparents Garry and Susan Fetsch; aunts and cousins Shirley, Darrin, Jill, Kimberley Hess; Janet, Kelly, Christine Fetsch; Carol, Allison and Michael Conaway; Jacque Sandmann and her fiancée Chris Hamilton. Unable to attend were uncles Curtis Conaway and Gilbert Hess.

Diane's brother, Joe, served as an Altar Boy for the Mass. The dress and veil Diane wore were made by her mother, and she wore a gold cross and chain, a gift from her Grandpa and Grandma Becker.

Michael Albert Miller

Michael Miller, son of Robert and Betty Miller, was a member of the First Holy Communion class of Sacred Heart Parish, 1991, when 29 second graders received the Holy Eucharist for the first time on April 21.

He was honored by his parents who hosted a noon meal prepared on an outdoor grill, after the 10:30 a.m. Mass. Guests included his grandparents Albert and Wilda Stoffels and Bill and Terese Miller; his godmother Jeannine Flusche; and Harold Flusche and their daughter Anne; the proxy godfather Don Sicking, Aunt Karen Sicking and their daughters Meredith and Carolyn.

Unable to attend was Michael's godfather, John Stoffels of Springhill, Florida.

For his special cake on his special day Michael requested a pineapple upside-down cake, and it was made by his mother.

Jessica Ann Koesler

Jessica Ann Koesler's First Holy Communion Day was celebrated by her parents, Chuck and Doris Koesler, on Sunday, April 21 when they hosted a family gathering and dinner in their home at noon, following the Mass in Sacred Heart Church.

The table centerpiece included Baptism pictures encircling her special cake, and a flower arrangement sent as a gift from her aunt and uncle the Spike Yostens. The two-tiered cake, made by her mother, held a Precious Moments figurine on the top layer.

Guests included the grandparents Tony and Evie Koesler and Mrs. Bobbie Fette; Jessica's godparents Rick Stewart and Pat Wimmer; Susie, Chuck and Heather Fette; Kim Stewart; Rhonda Stewart; Duane Walterscheid; Larry Wimmer; and Communion Day, April 21, 1991 when they hosted a family gathering for great-grandparents, grandparents, uncles, aunts and cousins.

The special First Communion Day cake was presented by Jonathan's godfather Joe Koesler and his aunt Kristy.

Attending were the great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Voth; the grandparents, Alfons and Mary Ann Koesler and Mrs. Frances Yosten; aunts and uncles Barbara and Carol Lin Koesler; Mary Lin and Duane Knabe and Diana; Jerry, Chris and Mark Yosten; and Jonathan's brother Nicholas and his sisters Kristen and Debra.

A cross-shaped cake, baked and decorated by his mother, was used for the table centerpiece. The cake was lettered with "Jesus Loves Nicholas."

Gifts were opened and displayed; pictures and movies were made. Attending were Nicholas' grandmothers Mmes. Regina Pels and Lorena Taylor; godparents Janet and Danny Voth and their children Debra and Michael Voth; uncles and aunts Roger and Janie Taylor and Rita and Craig Bayer; and Nicholas' brother and sister Adam and Laura.

AMY HILTON SICKING, daughter of Carol and Bobbie Sicking, was a hospital patient on the day the group photo was made and unable to be present.

District I VFW and Auxiliary elect officers, have Loyalty Day program

Frances Bayer, District I President, conducted the business meeting and the election of officers of the V.F.W. Auxiliary on Sunday, May 5 at the Denton Post No. 2205.

Sue Martin of Pottsboro was elected and installed as District Auxiliary President. Marvella McLain of McKinney is Sr. Vice President and Kathy Whisenhunt of Bonham is Jr. Vice President with Flo Gellar of Sherman as Treasurer.

Frances Bayer was appointed as Chief of Staff and Carolyn Hamilton of McKinney as Secretary. Lori Cullum and Sam Ritchey of Gainesville were elected as Conductress and Chaplain respectively, with Ruth Carey of Farmersville, Guard, and Dickie Rodgers of Denison appointed Patriotic Instructor.

On Saturday a Loyalty Day program was held. The program was conducted by V.F.W. Loyalty Day Chairman Oscar Sutton of Denison and Auxiliary Chairman Sue Martin. Frances Bayer read "American Citizen" as part of the program. As a finale the group sang "God Bless America."

Attending from Muenster were Janet Barnhill, local president; Julie Cunningham; Bonnie Hess; Linda Knabe, District I Publicity; and Frances Bayer, District I President.

Those from Muenster attending the Men's meeting and election were Arthur Bayer, District Officer of the Day; Arthur Hennigan, Commander No. 6205; and Donnie Eckart, local quartermaster. Joe Hayes of Farmersville was elected and installed as District I Commander. Wayne Cook of Plano is the retiring commander.

Early CCC faculty memorialized with engraved bricks

Teachers are as much a part of the substance of a college as the brick and cement of its buildings and sidewalks, and now several former faculty members at Cooke County College are being memorialized by having their names become part of that brick and cement - literally.

Bricks engraved with the names and teaching disciplines of eight former CCC instructors, now deceased, who taught at the college after it was moved to its present location "on the hill," were purchased by the Cooke County College Faculty Association as part of a fund-raising project begun several months ago by the CCC Endowment Foundation.

Donors of cash gifts used for scholarships and other purposes in support of the college are being given the option of "purchasing" special bricks to be engraved with their own names or the names of persons they wish to memorialize or honor. The bricks are being laid into special benches in front of the main entrance to the college's Administration & Student Center building.

"And they will remain in this place of prominence on our campus for many future generations to see," said Dr. Artie Thrash, foundation executive director and director of institutional advancement at CCC. "We think it's a particularly appropriate way to acknowledge gifts given in support of higher education."

Members of the CCC Faculty Association also saw it as a particularly appropriate way to memorialize several "pioneer" faculty members who played prominent roles in the development of the college's own institutional identity after it was separated from the local public school district back in 1960.

CCCFA members purchased bricks in memory of: A.W. Wells, math instructor; Layuna Hicks, English instructor for whom the CCC student division of the college's Creative Writing Awards program is named; Lois Lucas, business instructor; Ruth Schlaudroff, science instructor for whom the CCC Science building is named; Sara Anderson, journalism instructor and longtime sponsor of the Hilltop News student newspaper; Cora Stanforth, history instructor whose estate continues to provide scholarship assistance to CCC students; Bill Culp, math instructor in whose memory the CCCFA also named a special scholarship for math and science students; and Joe Fox, who served at various times as math instructor, basketball coach and, finally, as CCC registrar and who, after retirement, also served on the CCC board of trustees.

Dr. Thrash said that the brick project is ongoing, and persons interested in purchasing a brick engraved with their own names or in honor or in memory of other persons may still do so.

"We are just now finishing up the laying of the first group of bricks out in front of the flagpoles near the Randolph Lee Clark Historical Marker," she pointed out, "and we encourage everyone to come out and see them, especially those who are looking for a unique and very special way to memorialize a loved one."

For more information, contact Dr. Thrash in care of the CCC Endowment Foundation, 1525 W. California St., Gainesville, TX 76240, telephone 817/668-7731, Ext. 205.

May is tornado time!

COLLEGE STATION - May is tornado month in Texas.

More tornados and tornado-related deaths have occurred in May than in any other month, state weather records show.

The two worst killer tornados in state history tore through Texas in May: 114 people were killed in Goliad on May 18, 1902, and the same number died in Waco on May 11, 1953.

Since 1953, when the state began keeping more reliable tornado records, twice the number of tornados have occurred in May than in April or June, the other two months in the state's tornado season.

More than 37 tornados hit Texas per year in May, compared to 19 in April and 18 in June. All other months averaged less than 10 tornados annually through 1988, according to data from the State Climatologist's office at Texas A&M University.

Texas averaged 126 tornados a year between 1953 and 1983 - more than any other state, according to meteorologist George Bomar in his book, Texas Weather.

Scientists have identified several characteristic behaviors of the converging airstreams that can form tornados, but they don't know precisely what causes the storm - or how to predict them, Zeitler said.

Meteorologists do know that when the airstreams converge, the forces can create large, spinning thunderstorms, as well as violent updrafts and downdrafts, he said.

The dry air aloft can provide a "capping" effect that temporarily keeps rising, moist air from going higher. But sometimes the moist air can burst through the cap in a powerful updraft, creating thunderstorms that grow explosively upward and contribute to tornados, Zeitler said.

The deadline of tornados has much to do with wind speeds. Those can only be estimated, because wind-measuring devices usually don't survive in winds of much more than 100 miles per hour, Zeitler said.

But estimates based on Doppler radar and photogrammetry measurements, as well as special engineering studies of structures damaged by tornados, have helped scientists deduce that wind speeds can reach 300 mph or more.

Such information has been used to develop the Fujita scale of wind speeds, a 12-level scale for ranking tornados. None are expected to reach wind speeds of above 316 mph, or the F5 level, Zeitler said. F12 on the scale puts wind velocities at the speed of sound, about 750 mph.

F5 tornados are powerful enough to lift well-built frame houses off their foundations and carry them great distances before disintegrating them.

Many of Texas' most infamous twisters were estimated to be F5 tornados. Among them were those that hit Waco in 1953 and Lubbock in 1970 - both by dark coincidence on May 11.

The Waco twister hit in the heart of the downtown area just before 5:00 on a weekday afternoon, killing 114 people and injuring almost 1,100. Of the dead, 94 were found in a two-block area that included the square around City Hall.

Damage totaled more than $51 million and included 196 buildings destroyed or damaged beyond repair, as well as 850 homes demolished in whole or part.

The worst May tornado in recent years hit Saragosa, the tiny West Texas community that lost 30 citizens on May 22, 1987. All were in the town's community center, celebrating the accomplishments of a preschool education program, when a tornado - rare in the area - struck the building.

Zeitler said that tornado reporting and recording has improved dramatically since World War II, but many tornados go unnoticed because they occur in rural areas.

Library sets summer reading club

The Texas Reading Club is for children of all ages. This year's theme "Camp Wanna-Read" centers around the experiences and activities that happen at summer camp. Muenster Public Library will sponsor the reading club this summer in cooperation with the Texas State Library.

"Camp Wanna-Read" begins on May 28. Come to the Muenster Library to sign up.

The purpose of "Camp Wanna-Read" is to promote reading and stimulate curiosity and attract children to the Library. The emphasis is on having fun with books!

The library hours are Tuesday, 8:30 to 5:00; Wednesday, 2:30 to 5:30; and Thursday, 8:30 to 5:00.

County 4-H'ers compete in decision making contest

by Cassie Bullock
 County Extension Agent-H.E.

Cooke County 4-H'ers competed in the District Consumer Decision Making Contest Saturday, May 4 at the Research Center in Dallas.

The Junior team consisted of Melissa Stiles and Alissa Stiles of the Silver Cedar 4-H Club, and Diana Bouldin of the Red River 4-H Club. As a team they received first place and a blue ribbon in the following: Team Class Placing, Team Reasons and Team Overall. Individually they received the following awards: Alissa Stiles, 1st place in Class Placing and 1st place in Individual Overall; Melissa Stiles, 3rd place in Class Placing, 1st place in Individual Reasons, and 2nd place in Individual Overall.

Sherilyn Sicking of the Muenster 4-H Club competed individually in the Senior division. She received 3rd place Individual Overall.

What is a Consumer Decision Making Contest? Well, it is where a 4-H (the consumer) decides between choices (a decision). The 4-H'ers are given a situation and then has to make the best decision.

Participation in this project gives 4-H'ers communication skills, critical thinking skills, and shopping skills. They also learn about the economy, consumer rights and responsibilities, how to maximize limited resources, and how a consumer's actions affect the environment.

Adult volunteers who have helped with this project are Laura Stiles, Lisa Kupper, and Denise Martin. Business that allowed us to borrow merchandise were Watt's Pharmacy and Wal-Mart.

Three Lady Hornets finish sixth at State

Tina Klement, Roxie Knabe and Dianne Pagel represented Muenster High School last weekend in Austin at the UIL State Track and Field Meet and came home with 24 points and a sixth place tie.

Junior Tina Klement competed Friday in the 3200m run, finishing second place with a time of 11:51.2, just seconds behind the gold medal winner. Tina was on cruise control Saturday, again matched against Stephanie Duke of Utopia in the 1600m run and again settled for the silver medal.

"We forgot about first and tried for second," said Coach

Grady Roller. "Tina's so coachable, she does exactly what you ask. She represented herself, the community and the school well. Tina's time of 5:24.6 was 9.3 seconds short of first place.

Roxie Knabe, after having a record-setting shot put throw of 40'1" in the district meet, settled for third place with a toss of 37'1 1/4". The first place throw was only 39'4 3/4". "Roxie hit a slump," said Roller. "She is capable of 40' or more."

Dianne Pagel, the third state qualifier, ran a personal best in the 100m high hurdles. Her time of 16.1 gave her a fifth place at the state meet.

Girls get nominated as 'Athletes of the Week'

Two local tracksters were nominees in the Fort Worth Star Telegram's Athlete of the Week on Monday, May 13.

Muenster's Tina Klement was noted for her second place finishes in the 1600m and 3200m runs with times of 5:24.6 and 11:51.2

respectively in the State Meet.

Kristy Krebs of Lindsay ran a 57.4 for a second place finish in the 400m run at State. Kristy was also a member of the bronze winning 1600m relay team.

Knights go to State

Four Lindsay High School girls competed at the Class A UIL State Track and Field Meet in Austin May 10-11 and each brought home a medal...or two.

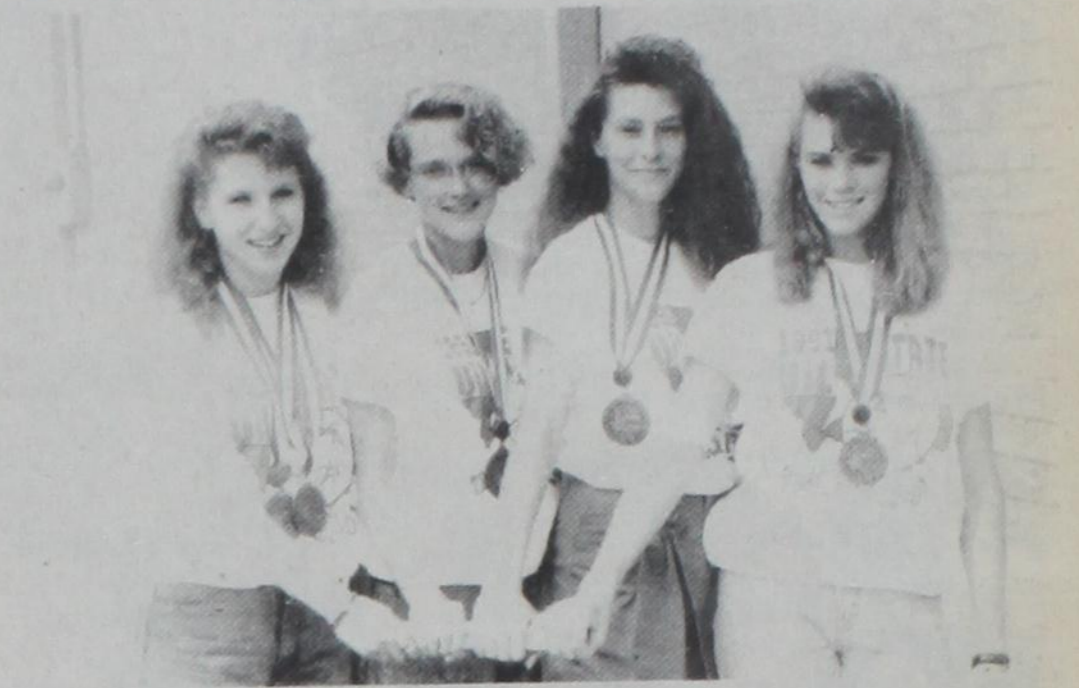

Kristy Krebs competed in four events, the long jump, triple jump, 400m dash and the 1600m relay. Kristy was unable to place in the jumps, but leaped to 16'9 1/2" in the long jump for a personal best.

In the 400m dash, Krebs set a new school record with a time of 57.4, beating last year's time of 58.2. This run was only good enough for second place at State with the winner finishing at 56.4.

The 1600m relay team of Janelle Hellinger, Sherry Hess, Rachelle Sharp and Krebs settled for a third place medal. Their time of 4:12.9 was beaten by one-tenth of a second by Munday, with Jonesboro winning the race at 4:11.3.

The Knightettes earned a total of 20 points at the meet.

Local Hornets compete

Brad McDaniel of Muenster and Mark Hayes of Era represented Cooke County in the Class A UIL Texas Track and Field meet held in Austin May 10-11.

McDaniel, a MHS senior, competed in the shot put. His top season throw of 51'11 1/2" would have easily earned him a medal, but his attempt at State failed and he settled for a seventh place with a 48'9" throw. "Brad hit a slump and couldn't get out of it," said Muenster Coach Grady Roller. "He had an excellent year and represented us very well."

Sean Terry of Gunter, formally of Era, won the event with a 53'6" toss.

Mark Hayes was Era's lone representative at the meet, competing in the 1600m run. His time of 4:41.0 gave him a fifth place. Hayes finished second place in District with a run of 4:40.51.

MHS honors athletes Tuesday

Muenster High School athletes were recognized and awarded Tuesday night at the Sports Banquet held in the Sacred Heart Community Center.

Parent/Teacher Organization President Herkey Biffle was master of ceremonies with most of the awards presented by the coaching staff of Grady Roller, Brian Strother and Tim Ratliff.

The highlight of the night was the Honorary Hustling Hornet award. This traditional award has been presented to the athlete who contributes their all to the sports they participate in. This year the award went to Marcia Vogel. "Marcia works hard at everything she does; she never complains and does what she's told," said Coach Grady Roller. "She's an individual you like to see in your program...she's a pleasure to coach." Marcia participated in cross country, basketball and track.

Another top honor was the new Heart Award. Roller gave this recognition "to a young man that plays with a lot of heart. He's not always recognized by coaches, players, or fans. He works hard and does what needs to be done."

The honor went to senior Scott Hudspeth.

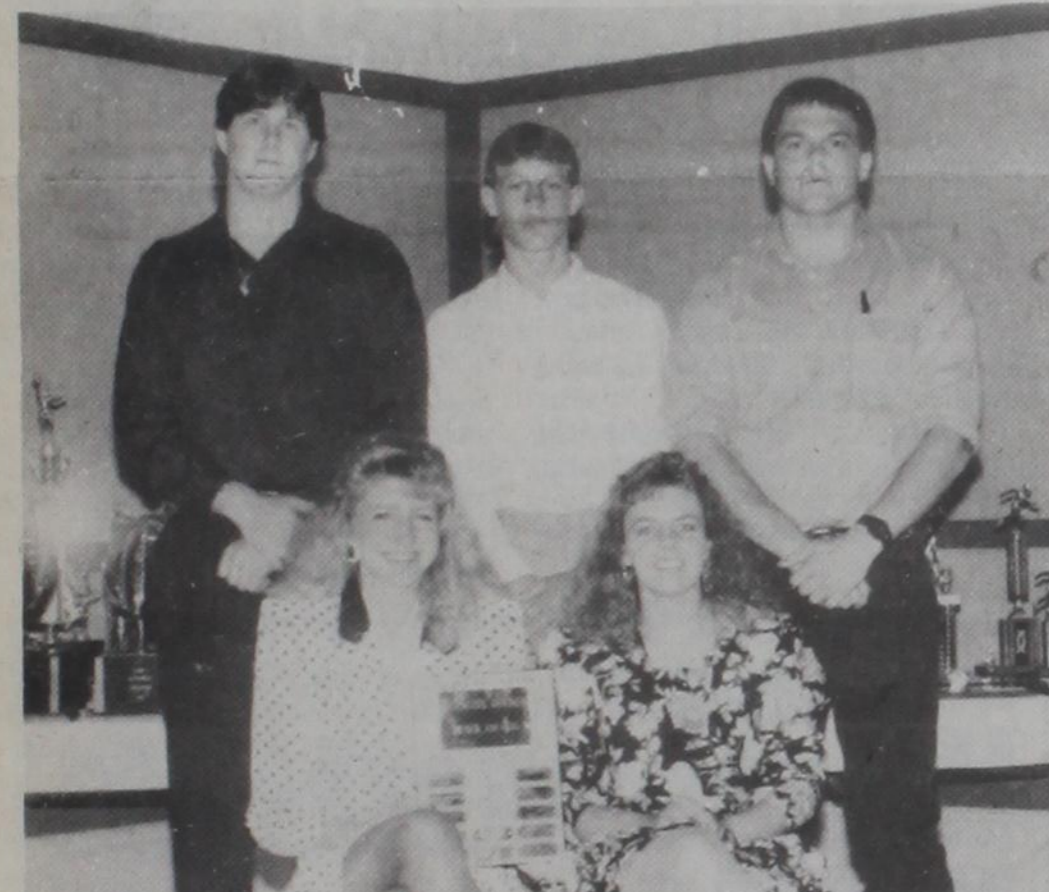

Coaches also announced Most Valuable Players in each sport. Earning MVPs were Basketball, Melissa Bayer and Doug Hennigan; Track, Tina Klement and Brad McDaniel; Golf, Paul Black and Mindy Graham; and Tennis, Brandy Debnam and Mike Gobble.

In football Brad McDaniel was chosen for Lineman of the Year, with Mike Vogel earning the Back of the Year. In basketball offensive and defensive players of the year were also picked. These recognitions went to DaLana Walterscheid, Kim Anderle, Terry Felderhoff, Rajko Jelen and Brian Reiter.

Who's Who nominations for Most Athletic girl and boy went to Kim Anderle and Brad McDaniel.

Willie Wimmer, Quarterback Club President presented Coach Grady Roller with a plaque from fans, parents and students for earning the District's Coach of the Year.

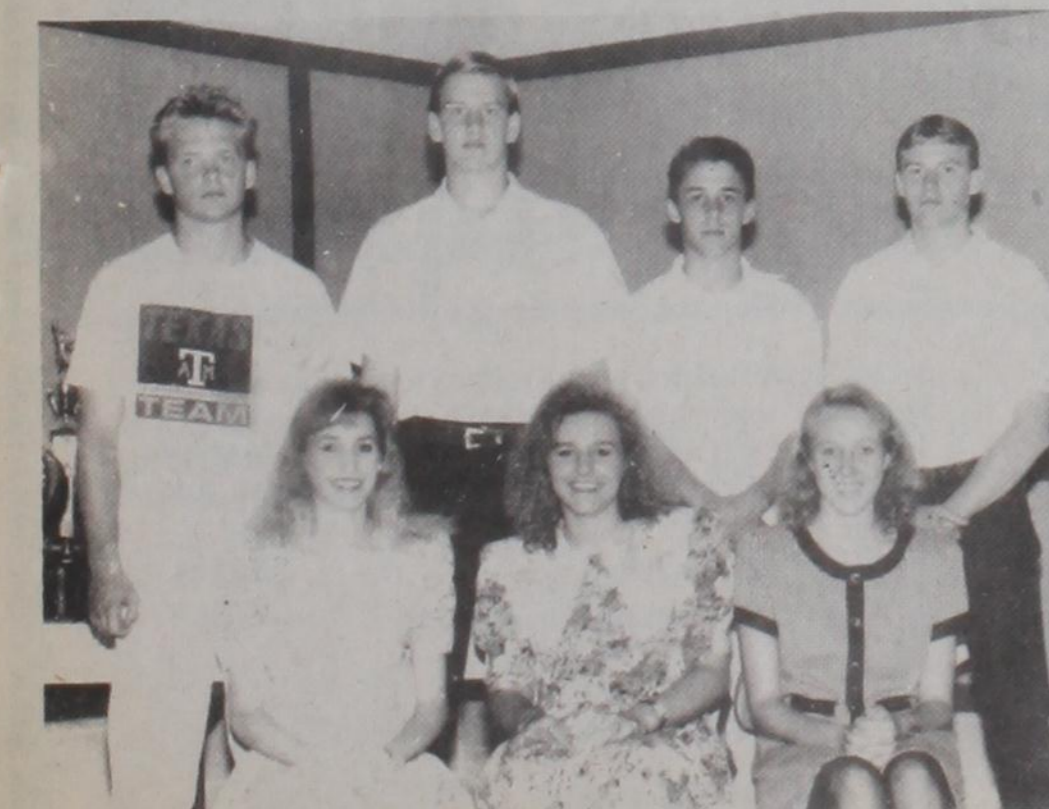

Also recognized were the cross country teams and the cheerleaders.

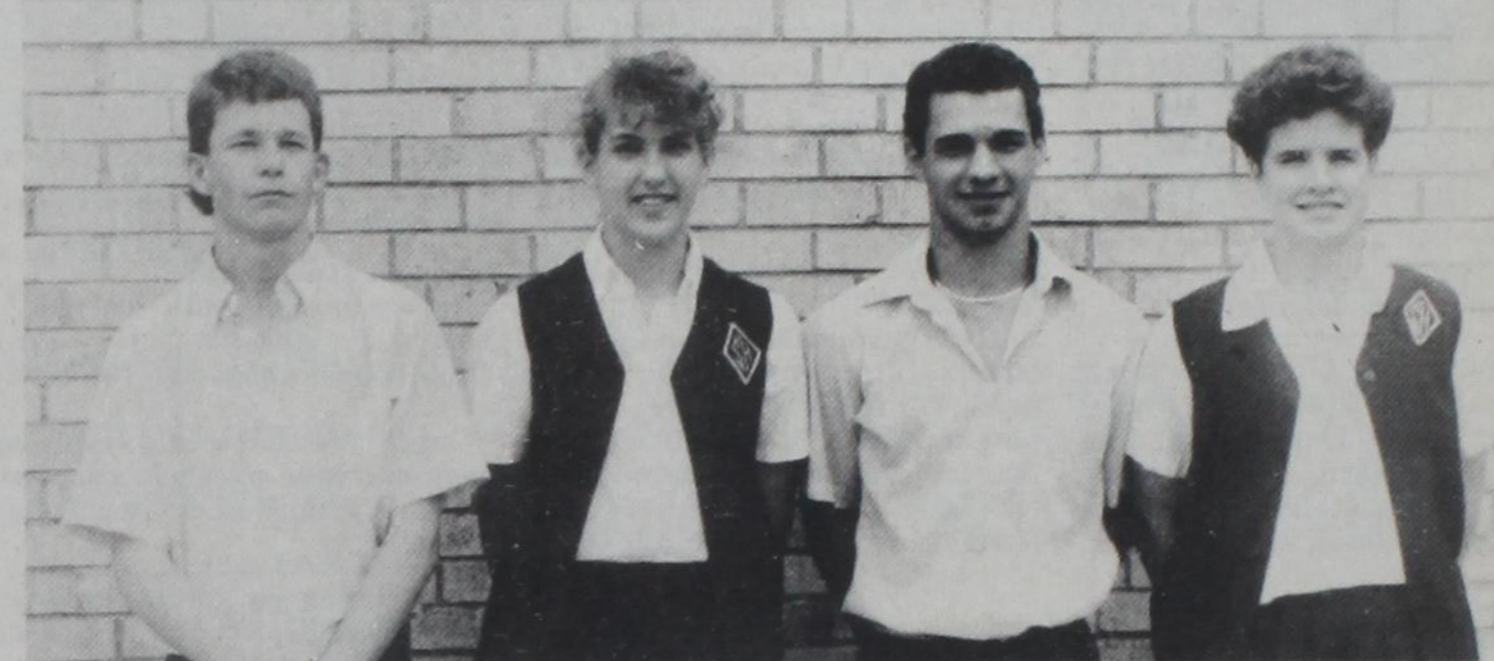

RECOGNIZED at the MHS Sports Banquet were, 1 to r, back - Paul Black, Mike Gobble, Brad McDaniel; front - Tina Klement, Mindy Graham.

ALSO HONORED were, 1 to r, back - Scott Hudspeth, Kim Anderle, Mike Vogel; front - Marcia Vogel, Brad McDaniel.

Deadlines set for ballplayers

The T-Ball League is now forming and anyone interested in joining is asked to sign up before the May 25 deadline! Nancy Sicking asks that all applications be turned in as soon as possible and also to note that there is a request for T-shirt size on the application which must be filled in. Nancy would like to remind everyone also that the league needs coaches! So, please, if you have an interest in children, sports, fun and the time, come on out and coach a team. Applications are available in this issue of The Enterprise and also at Tops and Teams.

The Girls Inner-Cities Softball League is now forming and anyone interested in joining is asked to sign up NOW before the May 20th deadline. Peggy Grewing asks that all applications be turned in as soon as possible at Tops and Teams, along with the $5.00 family registration fee.

The first game will be Tuesday, June 4, with games being played on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays.

The season is scheduled to end by July 4 (provided there are no rain-outs).

Again this year, the Knights of Columbus will sponsor the teams. Games will be played in Saint Jo and possibly some in Muenster. Girls age 9-13, as of Aug. 1, are eligible. Sign-up sheets will be available at Tops and Teams and in this issue of The Enterprise.

Tigers play Exes in spring match

Coach John Nasche challenged a dozen Sacred Heart ex-football players to take on his 1991 high school Tiger team last Saturday morning and was handed a 2-0 defeat.

The match was played scrimmage style, with teams alternating 20 offensive, 20 defensive plays. The Exes held the Tigers scoreless and surprised their defense when Glen Swirczynski ran 70 yards for a touchdown on the Exes' first play from scrimmage. "We misqued on defense," said Nasche. "After that both teams held each other on check" - for a while.

A Dangelmayr pass from Darrell to Chris was good for a 50-yard touchdown.

A highlight for the Tigers was when they held the Exes from scoring on first and goal in the last series of plays.

Coaches Nasche and Danny Walterscheid were real pleased with the turnout.

Playing for the Exes were Deano Bayer, Ryan Bayer, Wayne Becker, Chris Dangelmayr, Darrell Dangelmayr, Jason Endres, Chad Fleitman, Tony Grewing, Glen Swirczynski, Kevin Switzer, Bret Walterscheid and Phil Walterscheid.

The Tigers included next year's seniors Jason Frost, Scott Hennigan, Chris, Gary and Greg Hess; juniors Jordan Bayer and Werner Becker; sophomores Aaron Berres, Kelly and Jeremy Bayer; and freshmen Neil Berres, Jason Hess and Trent Truebenbach.

"I was pleased with the guys' progress," said Nasche. "This should open things up for next year."

Coach Nasche would like to thank everyone who helped make the fish fry lunch after the game a big success.

Cubs and Lady Cubs capture Meet

Sacred Heart's junior high track teams captured both championships in the North Texas Independent Conference Track and Field Meet held on the Muenster track

Tuesday, May 7.

The Lady Cubs, after being behind 35 points with five races remaining, gained a 6-point advantage over Montague to win their second NTIC Track Championship. "Everyone stepped up their performance to help the squad," said Coach Jon LeBrasseur. "The girls competed, determined to capture the championship."

The Cubs dominated the track meet, with the closest competitor 82 points away. "These guys should develop into a solid, very competitive group," said Coach John Nasche. "It wouldn't surprise me to see these guys develop into State Champions in their high school years."

Locals to watch Rangers

Mark Klement would like to remind everyone of the chartered bus, sponsored by the Jaycees, that is going to the Texas Rangers game Saturday. Cost of the ticket is $20 per person, and must be paid before a seat is reserved.

The Rangers will host the Boston Red Sox. This Saturday night is Bat Night for kids 13 and under. The bus will depart from the Muenster High School football field between 4:30 and 5 p.m. and should arrive at Arlington Stadium in time to allow ample time to purchase food and beverages before 7:35 game time.

For more information or reservations, contact Mark Klement, 759-4343 (work) or 759-4019 (home).

CCC announces summer children's program

Cooke County College has a busy, exciting and educational summer planned for local and area children, it was announced this week by Linda Mast, Director of CCC's Division of Continuing Education.

Five separate programs are on tap, all of them beginning in early June, and heading the list are two traditional favorites - "Young People's Theater Workshop" and "College for Kids." A special registration period, May 20 through June 7, has been scheduled for these two programs only.

"There will be no 'early' registration for either of them - no enrollment before May 20," said Mast. "but we do recommend that the kids be signed up as early during the prescribed registration period as possible due to the popularity of the programs and limited available space."

Two popular programs that have been offered previously will return this summer - "Equitation" (horsemanship) and a special "Reading FUN-damentals."

Any student who will be in grades three through nine as of the fall 1991 term and who has written permission from a parent or guardian may enroll in "College for Kids," a program designed to give youngsters stimulating learning experiences that are significantly different from what they are normally exposed to in the public school classroom.

In the program there will be three categories of classes, one for each of the three age groups - third and fourth graders; fifth and sixth graders; and seventh, eighth and ninth graders. Each group will have a menu of three or four different subjects to choose from for each of the three one-hour classes meeting from 12:30 to 3:50 p.m.

Choices for 12:30-1:30 time slot for third and fourth graders include: Cooking for Kids; Line, Shape and Form; Once Upon a Time; and Introduction to Biology.

From 1:40-2:40, the choices include: Math Mania; Spanish for Beginners; Tennis; and The Great Outdoors. For the 2:50-3:50 time slot, choices are Pottery; Country-Western Dance; Intro to Computers; and 1-2-3 Write.

For the fifth and sixth graders, the 12:30-1:30 time slots are: Intro to Computers; Pottery; Spanish for Beginners; and Country-Western Dance. For the 1:40-2:40 time slot: Cooking for Kids; Line, Shape and Form; 1-2-3 Write; and Bill and Ted's Excellent Adventure. The 2:50-3:50 choices are: Biology; Marvelous Math; Spanish for Beginners; and Tennis.

For the seventh, eighth and ninth graders, the 12:30-1:30 slots are: Chemistry; Escape for Algebra; and How to Tackle the TASP Essay Writing Test. For the 1:40-2:40 time slot: Intro to Computers; Ceramics; and Country-Western Dance. 2:50-3:50 time slot: Kitchen Survival; Line, Shape and Form; and Author, Author Playwriting.

Tuition is $45 which includes a special T-shirt, with additional lab fees for Art $6; Ceramics $6; and $10 for the Cooking Class.

The exceptionally popular Young People's Theater Workshop is again being jointly sponsored by the Butterfield Stage Players community theater group.

Youngsters who have completed grades one-six are eligible. Classes and rehearsals will begin June 24 and continue through July 17, meeting Monday through Thursday from 2:00 to 5:15 p.m. in the Little Theater on the CCC campus. Performance dates for this year's musical production of "Charlotte's Web" are July 18, 19, 20.

Cost is $40 per individual student, which does not include costume expenses, and $22 for each additional child from the same family.

Reading FUN-damentals is scheduled to begin June 24 for youngsters who are in fifth through eighth grades as of the fall 1991 term. The course is computer-based and designed not only for poor readers but also for good readers who wish to further improve their reading skills and comprehension. To enroll, however, students must be able to read at no lower than third grade level.

Cost for the course is $35, or $40 that includes a T-shirt and it will meet Monday through Thursday for 9-10:30 a.m. or 10:40 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

Youngsters or adults, nine years and older who hanker to feel more at home in the saddle can enroll in four separate Equitation classes. Cost of the classes is $25 or $30 if you wish to purchase a T-shirt. Equitation for Beginning Riders starts June 10-14, 8-10 a.m. or 10:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m.; Horsemanship for the Experienced Rider begins June 17-21, 8-10 a.m. or 10:30 a.m.-12:00 p.m.; English Riding will be June 24-28, at 6:30-8:00 p.m. New this year is Elementary Jumping, which starts July 8-12, at 6:30-8:00 p.m.

Another new addition to the summer programs is a Tennis Camp, which is for boys and girls 10-15 years old. Campers will check into the college dorms on Sunday evening for a full week of tennis and fun activities. Cost: $300 includes room, board, instruction and a souvenir T-shirt.

For all summer children's programs, parents must register children age 15 and under in person at the CCC Continuing Education office on campus. For more information about these and other non-credit courses being offered this summer, contact the C.E. office at 817-668-7731, ext. 272.

Gauges to be checked

by Evelyn Yeatts
County Extension Agent-H.E.

Homemakers may have their pressure canner gauges checked on Wednesday, May 22 from 8:30 to 11:30 a.m. in the County Extension Office. It takes only a few minutes to check the gauge using a Master Gauge Tester, so homemakers may bring their canner lids in anytime during the scheduled check time.

If gauges need to be replaced, or if an adjusted temperature is needed, the check will give this information. If you need a gauge checked but cannot bring it on the designated day, you may bring it earlier and leave it or call 668-5412.

A pressure canner in safe working order is the key to "get-ready" plans for home canning of vegetables.

A "make sure" checklist for safe working pressure canners follows:

- Take off removable petcock and safety valves, wash and dry thoroughly. Soak in vinegar to remove any corrosion.

- Use a toothpick or pipe cleaner to clean openings in lid of canner.

- Use fine steel wool and soap to wash bottom part of pressure canner.

- To remove any odors and stains, combine juice of one lemon - or two tablespoons of vinegar - with two quarts of water. Process at five pounds of pressure for five minutes.

- Grease (using vegetable oil) the closing surfaces of metal-to-metal sealing pressure canners if lid is difficult to remove or steam escapes.

- Replace gasket if rubber has hardened.

- Check dial gauge on pressure canner. Clean weighted gauge thoroughly. Up to date canning instructions will be available.

The pressure canner check gauge is free and like all educational series of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service is open to people of all ages regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion, handicap or national origin.

Mexia woman's pizza recipe wins '91 Cook-Off

An easy-to-prepare pizza made with one pound of sirloin steak won the 1991 Texas Beef Cook-Off April 26 at Kerrville for Mary Meyers of Mexia.

She created the recipe she calls "Beef Eaters' Pizza" specifically for the Texas Beef Cook-Off. Her goal was to combine flavorful ingredients in a single dish that would appeal to large families. She and her husband, Allen, a 1990 Texas Beef Cook-Off finalist, have four children and 12 grandchildren.

"A big family often has to look toward less expensive cuts and make them stretch farther. This recipe does that and gives them plenty of meat," she said.

The recipe calls for marinating 1/8 inch x 2 inch pieces of sirloin for one hour. While it is marinating, fresh vegetables are prepared and the ingredients are combined on top of a packaged pizza shell. The cooking time is 10 minutes.

Meyers' first prize dish won her $3,000 and the honor of representing Texas in the National Beef Cook-Off Sept. 22-24 in Colorado Springs, Colo.

The 1991 panel of judges, each experienced with past beef cook-offs, rated this year's final 10 entries as the "best group of finalists in years." For copies of Texas' top 10 beef recipes in 1991, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope to Beef Cookoff Recipes, Texas Beef Industry Council, 8310 Capital of Texas Hwy. N., Ste. 440, Austin, TX 78731.

JOHN BARTON, engineering assistant with the Texas Highway Dept., reports that construction to install storm sewer pipes along Hwy. 82 in Muenster is progressing as expected. Estimated time of completion is three weeks. Driveway, curb and gutter work is lacking on one side of the highway and three inlets must be installed. The work is being done to alleviate street flooding during heavy rains. "So far, it seems to carry the flow and seems like it will function well," said Barton. "But the true tests will come when the inlets are completed." The construction work was contracted by Bay Maintenance Company, Inc. of Horseshoe Bay. Work began on April 2 and is being done between FM 373 and the intersection of Pecan Street and US 82.

Muenster FHA holds Mother-daughter salute

by Cindy Culp
FHA Reporter

The Muenster Future Homemakers of America held their annual banquet Tuesday, May 7 at 7:00 p.m. in the Muenster Public School cafeteria. The theme for this year's banquet was "FHA Salute To Mom."

The evening began with the Mistress of Ceremony, Melissa Bayer, president, beginning the introduction of the guests by members. Marcia Vogel, vice president, gave the welcome, followed by Kathy Vogel with the response. Jane Klement, secretary, preceded the meal with an invocation. The dinner, prepared by FHA members consisted of smoked turkey, tossed green salad, hot cheesy potatoes, green bean casserole, homemade rolls, pink lemonade pie, and iced tea and coffee.

After the meal, Cindy Culp, reporter, announced the project report of the year's activities. Then special recognition was given to State Meeting delegates and Power of One participants by Joni Sturm, advisor. Those members who competed a Power of One project included Sheryl Sicking, Kristen Klement, Darlene Hess, Jami Kemper, Misty Gieb and Tracey Vogel. Each of the girls were presented a fresh red rose in recognition of their achievement.

Following this presentation a Style Show was presented by members as entertainment for the mothers and guests. Recreation leaders, Jami Flusche and Julie Hess, and the parliamentarian, Michelle Hennigan, emceed the show. FHA Members modeled clothing from Tops and Teams and The Charm Shop, and garments made as class sewing projects. Hiroko Miura, Japanese Exchange student and member of FHA of Japan, modeled a traditional kimono brought from Japan as a finale to the style show. She was also presented with the FHA traditional flower, the red rose.

Final entertainment delighted everyone when Christin Cain, Kim Stewart, Tracey Vogel and Lori Klement did a comedy dance. Jefflyn LeFevre, treasurer, gave a "Thank You" presentation to the dinner helpers, Gertie Wimmer and Maryanne Fleitman, the eighth grade servers, and to Mrs. Sturm. Marcia Vogel recited a poem about motherhood, and historians, Tina Klement and Melissa Fisher gave the closing benediction.

The tables for the banquet carried out a spring theme with pink, yellow and lavender wooden tulips surrounded with streamers. Pink and yellow fresh roses were placed behind each place setting. A mural hung in the background, depicting a field of wildflowers. All the decorations were made by FHA members.

The banquet was a success and we hope to have an even better one next year.

Mayberry-Lovelady wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Maberry Sr. drove to Daingerfield Friday to attend the wedding of their son, Marvin Maberry Jr., and Linda Lovelady. The wedding was Saturday, May 11, 1991, at 2 p.m.

The minister, a friend of the groom, performed the ceremony on the patio of the groom's home before an archway decorated with English ivy and red roses. The wedding party all wore western wear.

The bride wore a lovely blue denim dress and carried a bouquet of red roses. Her attendant was her daughter, Leslie. She wore a print dress with an orchid corsage.

The groom's attendant was his father, Marvin Maberry Sr. They wore western attire.

The groom's mother also wore an orchid corsage, a gift from the groom. The bride presented her with a red rose.

About 50 relatives and friends attended the wedding.

After the wedding, a reception was held. The bride's table and the groom's table were filled with all kinds of pick-up foods, including a chocolate cake on the groom's table and barbecue brisket and ham plus lots of other good foods.

The three-tiered wedding cake was decorated with white and red roses and a wedding bell on the top. Red punch was also served.

The bride is the secretary of the Daingerfield ISD. The groom is a highway patrolman.

When the couple left on a short trip to Jefferson, Texas, the bride was wearing a white dress.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Maberry Sr. returned home Sunday. They visited with their granddaughter, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Bullard and Jamie.

Jury rejects attempt to expand Clean Water Act

On Friday, April 19, 1991, a United States District Court Jury in Missouri unanimously rejected attempts by the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) and the Army Corp of Engineers to expand the "Clean Water Act" to regular farm improvement activities.

The farmers, James Allen and Mary Ann Moseley, had nearly completed construction of a perimeter levee to protect their farm from flooding and had cleared other areas of brush and small trees when the government stepped in, and claimed the area to be "Wetlands of the United States" and subject to federal regulation. The United States filed suit against the Moseleys seeking fines for alleged violations of the Clean Water Act in the amount of as much as $25,000 per day.

Following a two-year battle, in which the EPA and the Corp enlisted the support of other federal and state conservation organizations against the Moseleys, the jury rejected the government's claims that the Moseleys destroyed wetlands and dumped pollutants into the waters of the United States.

John F. Arens of the law firm of Arens & Alexander in Fayetteville, Arkansas, who represented the Moseleys, states that he was "elated" with the verdict in that "it represents a significant milestone in the fight to protect farmers' rights from arbitrary governmental intervention."

'Dry water' hydrants aid rural fire departments

Rural residents often face concerns about services that urban residents take for granted. One of the most common is a lack of accessible water source to fight fires.

To help combat this problem, dry fire hydrants are being installed in some areas of the state of Oklahoma to provide increased fire protection to rural lives and property.

The system is called dry because there is no water in the above-ground pipes. This helps prevent the pipes from freezing during cold, wintertime conditions. Also, the hydrant is not pressurized. It stays dry until connected to a fire truck, which draws the water out of a source like a farm pond.

A dry hydrant, which costs about $500 to install, filters water from existing sources and gives fire fighters a rural water source that is close, safe and ready-to-use. This cuts down on the need for fire trucks to travel long distances to refill, thereby saving valuable fire-fighting time.

One of the first dry hydrant systems in Oklahoma was installed in Horntown, near Holdenville. It was funded by the Extension Service and put in with volunteer labor.

In addition to the cuts in refilling time, rural residents who install a dry hydrant on or near their property also may receive an added bonus: the possible reduction of the cost of fire insurance.

It is important to install a dry fire hydrant near a water source that is easily accessible by fire protection vehicles. Also, the pond should be engineered to provide adequate levels of water year-around, and the hydrant nozzle must be able to connect with local fire department equipment.

Rusts have champion Texas Longhorn female

Cute & Sassy, a Texas Longhorn cow owned by Frank and Lola Rust of Stafford, Texas, was named Grand Dam Champion Female at the South Texas Longhorn Association's annual show April 13-14 in Seguin. In addition, a bull named Apache Star placed second in his class. This win entitles the Rusts to show their cattle in the prestigious Texas Longhorn World Show August 1-3 in Fort Worth.

Owners of Arrow Star Ranch, the Rusts have raised Texas Longhorns for the past three years, enjoying the unique breed's low maintenance, functional efficiency and fertility. They are half-owners of the 1989 Get of Sire Champion, Overwhelmer, and their breeding program has produced many winners on the show circuit.

The Rusts are members of the Texas Longhorn Breeders Association of America and the Gulf Coast and North Texas affiliates. Mr. Rust is a director of the Texas Longhorn Breeders of the Gulf Coast Association.

Mrs. Rust is the daughter of David and Juanita Bright.

Judge Jim Robertson wears many official hats

by Ron Melugin

series of spots on discovering Cooke County government brought to you by the Cooke County Extension Program Council)

Cooke County Judge Jim Robertson, in addition to being the chief executive officer of county government, serves as a judge over civil as well as criminal cases. In many more populous Texas counties, the Texas Legislature has created extra county judges for these chores, but not in Cooke County.

A special part of the civil jurisdiction of Cooke County court is probate cases which involve inheritance cases and guardianship cases. In the past year, Cooke County court has handled about 16 million dollars involving estates of recently deceased persons. County court also in the past year has appointed guardians of estates, totalling over two million dollars. A guardian is appointed by the court for juveniles and persons incapable of taking care of themselves and their property. Another civil action of county court includes the involuntary hospitalization of persons suffering from mental illness, alcoholism or drug dependency.

County court also acts as juvenile court in determining the course of action relating to juvenile offenses. Probation is the most common disposition of juvenile offenses.

County criminal jurisdiction involves cases more serious than those handled by justice of the peace court and those less serious than felonies which are under the jurisdiction of state district court. Punishment at the county level involves possible fine and/or county jail sentence. The most common criminal offenses under Judge Robertson's jurisdiction involve DWI and hot check offenses. In 1990, Cooke County received $192,000 in fines from county criminal court. This court averaged 70 criminal cases a month.

In addition, county court is an appeals court for cases originally heard in city or justice of the peace courts.

Pecan Nut Casebearer Predictions

The Pecan Nut Casebearer is considered to be the most destructive nut feeding insect, on pecans, although this claim may be disputed where the Pecan Weevil exists. Damage from the Pecan Nut Casebearer can range from very mild to 100 percent destruction of a crop.

Earlier in the week George Schmidkofer, Gainesville Area Pecan Orchard Producer, was checking trees in the county and found freshly laid eggs. George feels that this is just the beginning of the lay and additional eggs will probably be laid later in the week. From this prediction, a good time for homeowners to spray would be approximately the middle to the end of next week. It appears with the warm spring the Pecan Nut Casebearer is about 3 to 5 days earlier in this year.

Bill Ree, Extension Pecan Pest Management Specialist, offers the following suggestions for control. Pecan Nut Casebearers overwinter as partially grown larvae in a small silken cocoon called a hibernaculum at the base of the dormant bud. With the initiation of budbreak in the spring, the larvae become active and feed on buds before tunneling in the new shoots. This shoot tunneling will be evident soon when terminals begin to wilt. Larvae will complete development in a few weeks. It is estimated that about half of the larvae will pupate in the shoots while the remainder will migrate to rough bark for pupation. The adults which emerge from the pupae will lay eggs on the small nutlets. The larvae which hatch from these eggs are referred to as the first generation.

In determining the spray date for control of Pecan Nut Casebearers, producers and homeowners should scout trees. Look for casebearer activity. This includes the identification and tagging of eggs. Once an egg is laid, it generally turns from white to red in a 3 to 5 day period before it hatches. You will predict your insecticide application for coverage on or near the third day after first egg hatching. Using this method you will usually obtain some residual activity from your insecticide treatment. George keeps a good close eye on the development of the Casebearer and his predictions should be fairly accurate for both in town and rural areas throughout the county.

Bill Ree lists the following insecticides for recommended control of Pecan Nut Casebearers: azinphosmethyl (Guthion® 50% WP, 35% WP, 22.2% EC or 22% EC (2S); cypermethrin (Ammo® 2.5, Cymbush® 3E), endosulfan (Thiodan® 50% WP), esfenvalerate (Asana® 24% EC), malathion 57% EC, chlorpyrifos (Lorsban® 4E), and diazinon 50% WP or 48% EC. When using any pesticide, always consult the label for mixing rates and precautionary statements.

For more information on using insecticides to control pecan insects, consult Texas Agricultural Extension Service publication B-1576 "Controlling Rosette, Insects and Diseases on Commercial Pecans."

IF YOU'RE NOT RECYCLING
YOU'RE THROWING IT ALL AWAY.

One must think globally and act locally. All of us are concerned about our environment and the effect we are all making on it. Recycling is becoming a necessity! When you recycle cardboard, the forest you use is waste paper. We have installed a cardboard box baler and all cardboard will be recycled at Fischer's Meat Market.
