Commissioners seek landfill solution

by Elaine Schad

Cooke County Commissioners have been asked to take the lead in studying the possibility of siting a landfill in the county.

At a recent meeting of the Cooke County Solid Waste Task Force, member cities recommended that the county become the lead entity in pursuing the project. Task force members include the cities of Muenster, Valley View, Gainesville as well as Cooke County. Cooke County's representatives on the task force are Commissioners Virgil Hess and Jerry Lewis.

Commissioner Kenneth Alexander said the county is looking into whether a non-binding referendum can be held concerning the landfill issue. In the past, counties were unable to hold such elections, but a bill passed by the latest state legislature may allow such an election to be held if it concerns real estate, he said. The county is working to obtain a copy of the bill and will study it to see if Cooke County falls under the bill's jurisdiction, Alexander said.

The City of Gainesville had been the lead entity in the landfill project for almost three years, but dropped that status after voters within that city turned down a referendum that would have authorized the issuance of bonds for permitting of a landfill. Task force members are looking for a solution to the county's future solid waste needs after all landfills operated by Cooke County were closed earlier this year. The City of Gainesville landfill is due to close later this year, the last operating landfill in the county. Those landfills were closed after it was determined that they would not meet new, more stringent environmental requirements set by Title D, which will take affect later this year.

In other business during their regular June meeting, commissioners received an update from a representative of the Prime Group on the construction of the new Gainesville Factory Shops outlet mall, located just north of Gainesville. The mall is expected to open Aug. 13 with a gala grand opening celebration set for Aug. 20. Texas Governor Ann Richards is expected to be present for the ribbon-cutting ceremonies of the $21 million project which is expected to bring 200 new jobs to the county. A fundraiser is being held in conjunction with the grand opening ceremonies with the proceeds to benefit the Frank Buck Zoo in Gainesville. For more information about the Prime Group or the grand opening ceremonies, contact the Gainesville Area Chamber of Commerce at 665-2831.

Commissioners also:
--Approved the re-plating of the Whispering Hills Estate, located near Moss Lake.

--Decided to hold a workshop on the county's fiscal 1994 budget beginning at 9 a.m. July 6 in the county courtroom on the second floor of the Courthouse.

--Heard from the League of Women Voters, who requested that commissioners proceed with the purchase of electronic vote tallying machines. Commissioners will consider the item during budget hearings.

--Approved a change in the bridge which will be refurbished in Precinct 1 under the Off-State System Federal Aid Bridge Replacement and Rehabilitation Program.

--Tabled consideration of laying a water line in Precinct 1 since it was a salt water line.

Sacred Heart captures TAPPS overall title

Sacred Heart High School now has a large traveling trophy on display. The trophy is awarded annually to the school earning the TAPPS (Texas Association of Private and Parochial Schools) Overall State Title. TAPPS Overall Title is determined by a scoring system in which points are awarded to the top four teams in academics and athletics. Points were awarded to Sacred Heart in eight of its programs.

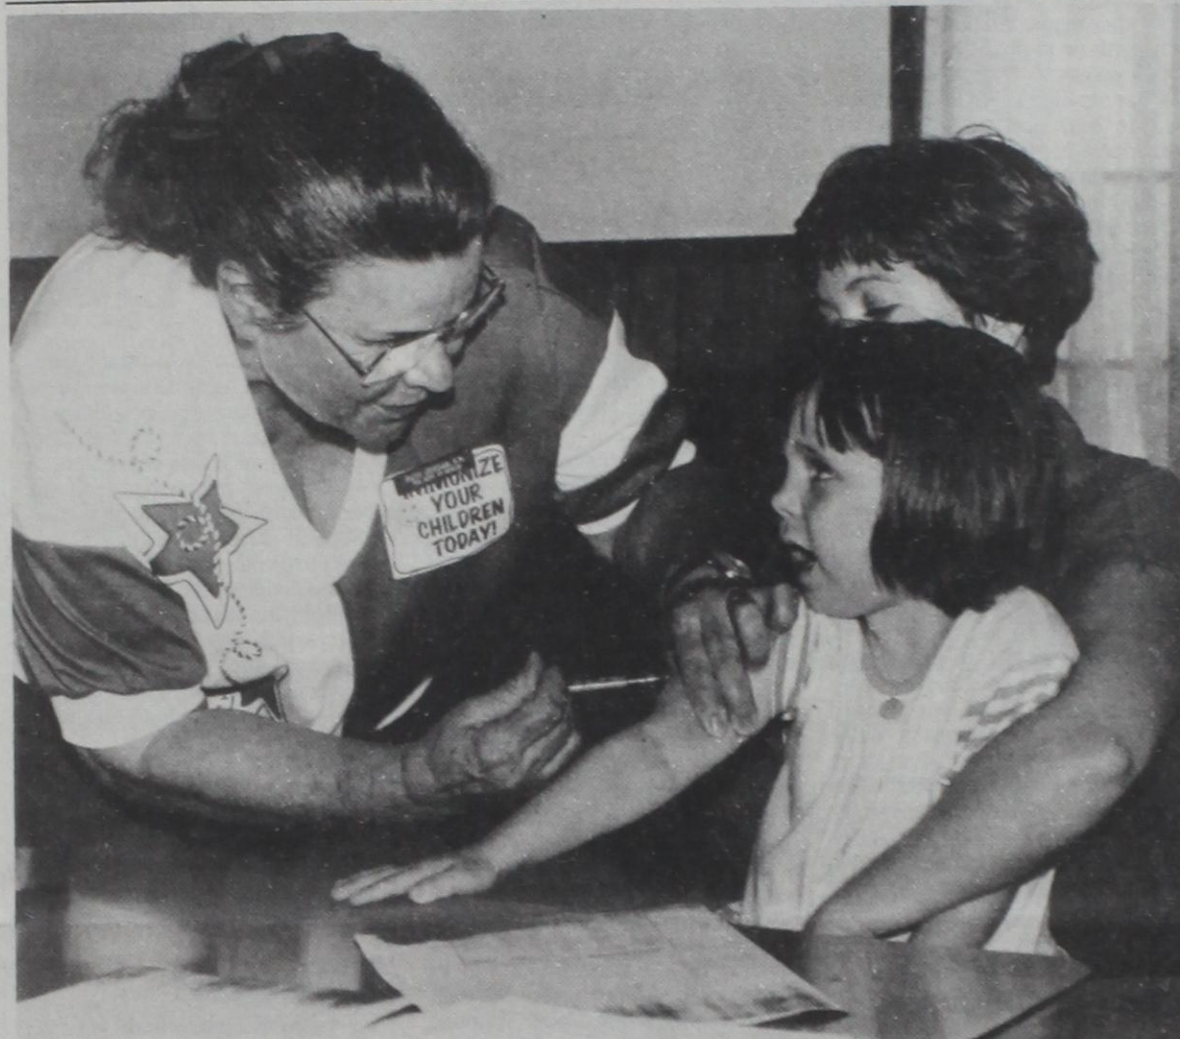

The academic competition was comprised of Class A and AA schools. Sacred Heart was the only Class A school to earn points in the academic competition.

Success in Spring sports was enough to secure the coveted trophy and title. Sacred Heart's only championship was their first Tigerette Cross-Country Title, but the Tigers and Tigerettes earned points in eight of 13 events entered. Sacred Heart totaled 56 points to finish ahead of second place Saint Paul of Shiner (54 points). Parkview Christian of Waco finished third (52 points) and Tyler Street was fourth with 40.

Highlights for the Tigers and Tigerettes included a girls' state title in Cross Country, second place finishes in boys and girls track, a third place finish in the academic music-art competition. The Tigers' golf team finished third, along with the Tiger Cross-country Squad. Points were awarded to the Football Tigers and the basketball Tigerettes for their final four appearance.

Lexington, now a Class AA school, won the traveling trophy the last three years and Forest Hills won it the first year.

SARAH STOFFELS doesn't appreciate being stuck in the arm by Ruth Jordan, RN, of the Texas Department of Health. The Department held an immunization clinic Tuesday in Muenster where 67 clients were given injections. "This was one of our best clinics we've had in years," said Jordan, who hopes the department will be able to have a monthly clinic available in Muenster. July is immunization month in Texas. Shots will be given in an attempt to immunize all Texas children. Janie Hartman Photo

Sen. Gramm announces business loans

Businesses in seven Texas counties are eligible to apply for low-interest disaster loan assistance from the U.S. Small Business Administration, according to U.S. Sen. Phil Gramm.

The areas were designated as eligible for disaster assistance by the SBA, Gramm said, due to agriculture damages caused by severe storms, tornadoes and flooding which occurred between May 8 and May 26, 1993.

The closing date for loan applications is Feb. 14, 1994.

The program covers small businesses which are without credit elsewhere. The interest rate available is 4 percent with a maximum of 30 years allowed for repayment.

Father Paul Hoedebeck celebrates golden anniversary

Father Paul Hoedebeck O.S.B. returned to his hometown of Muenster Sunday, June 20 to celebrate the 50th anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood.

Amid a multitude of clergy, sisters, friends, and relatives, Father Paul began his golden jubilee with a Mass of Thanksgiving in Sacred Heart Church where he celebrated his first Mass on June 30, 1943.

Concelebrating with Father Paul were Abbot Jerome Kodell of Subiaco Abbey, Arkansas and Father Paul Habing, a cousin of Effingham, Illinois. Also in attendance were Father Camillus Cooney, Master of Ceremonies; Fathers Stephen Eckart, Harry Fisher, David Flusche, Leo Koesler, Nicholas Fuhrmann, Leonard Wangler, Bernard Schumacher, and Joe Weinzapfel.

Participating in the special anniversary liturgy were Shirley Hoedebeck Klement with the first reading; Charlie Hoedebeck with the second reading; Abbot Jerome Kodell giving the homily. Prayers of the faithful were given by Linda Hoedebeck Knabe. Offertory gifts were presented by nieces of Father Paul who had participated in either his First Mass or silver jubilee. They were Charlotte Hoedebeck Zimmerer, Peggy Hoedebeck Grewing, and Mary Hoedebeck Hess.

Altar servers for Father Paul were Greg and Scott Arendt and Greg Habing. Ushers were Chris Spurgeon, Albin and Danny Hoedebeck.

Music ministers for the golden jubilee were Ruth Felderhoff and Christy Hesse who presented sacred songs: "Like a Shepherd" for the entry; "The Lord is My Shepherd" for the Offertory; "He Has Anointed Me" for Offertory; "How Great Thou Art" and "Prayer of Saint Francis for Communion songs; "Edelweiss Blessing" for the Meditation song; and "Holy God We Praise Thy Name" in both German and English for the novitiate, followed by simple vows a year later.

In 1940, Hoedebeck received his AB degree, and on Sept. 16, 1941, he made his Solemn Profession. Two months later, he became a sub-deacon. His deaconate appointment came on Dec. 8, 1942. Ordained on June 3, 1943, in Little Rock, Arkansas, by the Most Rev. Auxiliary Bishop Albert L. Fletcher, he celebrated his First Mass on June 15, 1943, in Sacred Heart Church, Muenster.

After his ordination, Father Paul was stationed at Subiaco, where he has held just about every conceivable job, but seems to be best noted for his fund raising abilities. He served as pastor of St. Joseph's Church in Paris, Arkansas from 1972 until 1983, and pastor of St. Benedict's Church in Subiaco from 1983-89. In 1989, he returned to Paris for two more years, then returned to the Abbey with every intention of retiring, but, the Lord had other ideas. In 1992 Father Paul became commuting pastor of St. Scholastica Church in Shoal Creek, Arkansas, where he will be honored on his jubilee on June 26 by his parishioners.

Stephanie Grewing read "The Beautiful Hands of a Priest", a poem that had been recited at the First Mass for Father Paul. Abbot Jerome Kodell stated that Father Paul seems to be willing to do or has done everything asked of him, except to retire. He then introduced Father Hoedebeck who voiced his sincerest thanks to all involved in the making of the celebration. Deborah Spurgeon read "A Prayer" and Father David Flusche gave the benediction. The Abbot and Father Paul gave those gathered a blessing.

Out of state guests attending were Abbot Kodell, Fathers Leonard Wangler, David Flusche, Leo Koesler, Brother Thomas Moster, Abe Schneider and Louise Eckart of Subiaco, Arkansas; Joe and Lillian Hoedebeck of San Diego, California; Joe Coker of La Mesa, California; Kathy Day of Reston, Virginia; Sylvia Everette of Olney, Illinois; Andrew Peterson, Pensacola Florida; Paul Spurgeon, Honolulu, Hawaii; Leota Coker, See FATHER PAUL, Page 2

Lindsay Board makes approvals, considers raises

by Elaine Schad

The Lindsay school district will have an area just west of the gymnasium to provide a parking area for basketball games on that side of the gym.

Trustees during their regular June meeting, approved the paving project, estimated to cost about $6,000. With recent renovation of the gym to provide additional seating, there are now entrances on the west side so the additional parking space will be needed.

In other business, the Lindsay Teachers Association met with the board and requested that trustees consider a teacher pay raise. The board authorized Superintendent Giblet Hermes to study the matter and make recommendations to the board at a later date. The board also:

--Approved the First State Bank in Gainesville as the district's depository for the next two years.

--Approved National Insurance of Sanger as the district's student insurance carrier for 1993-1994.

--Heard a report by counselor Tom Fluker on the TAAS results for 1992-1993. Fluker reported that all scores well exceeded the state average.

--Heard a report from girls basketball Coach George Thomason concerning the girls athletic program.

--Heard a report from the Campus Improvement Committee as presented by Principal James Anderson.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:
 Ross Perot recently quipped, "That giant sucking sound you hear is American jobs going to Mexico." I beg to differ with the noble gentleman. That giant sucking sound is actually President Clinton's and the Democratic Congress' ill-conceived tax increases on private capital and investment. For every 1% displacement of private capital to the public coffers, through whatever guise, there will be a 2% potential reduction in American GDP ... and hence, the loss of many, many (private) jobs.

Past experience bears out the fact that Clinton's misnamed "deficit reduction bill" will not reduce the deficit nor will projected revenues meet expected levels. This presents a lose-lose situation for both the President and the U.S. economy.

While Ross is usually right about a lot of things, he needs to "listen" again on this one. Those jobs aren't going to Mexico; they're just going, period.

Sincerely,

Dear Editor:
 On behalf of the Board of Directors of Texoma Area Paratransit System, Inc. (TAPS), customers who ride our busses and myself, I would like to publicly thank our State Senator Steve Carraker.

During the recent legislative session, Senator Carraker was very instrumental in passage of legislation which appropriates state funds for rural and small cities transit programs in Texas. Without Senator Carraker's assistance, the TAPS rural transportation program which operates in Cooke, Fannin and Grayson counties would have received a 56% cut in funding.

Because of his care and concern for all the constituency of the Texoma area, services for many elderly, disabled and low-income individuals who are transit dependent will continue at the current level.

Sincerely,
 Yvonne Caraway

June 21, 1993
 Dear Muenster Folks Up Over,
 It's Gray Dog Down Under! I've encountered first hand some big time sheep production of Australia. Saturday, we traveled from Geraldton to Kojonup (all in Western Australia [W.A.]). I was put in a host home 33 km. west of town, out on a small (by W.A. standards) sheep station owned and operated by John and Christine Lewis. It only had 2,000 sheep on it, so is a moderate operation, but they manage well. I got to help them out this morning with some sheep work, and I also talked with John a bit about the operation, so I had a rather woolly day.
 Today's work was rather easy actually, because some of the specialty help couldn't make it this week. So what we did was, we rounded up one bundle of sheep (about 400 ewes and 450 lambs) and put them in a big corral. Then, they were separated, lambs from ewes. As they were separated, the tip-top quality ram lambs were put aside and tagged to stay rams. All others were left alone. Ewes without lambs were tagged to indicate lack of productivity (two years in a row, she's sold).

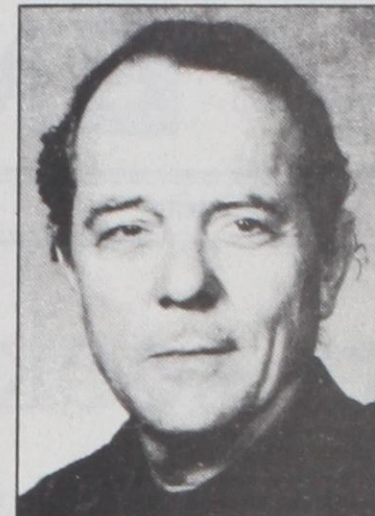

Once they were separated, a specialist was on hand to classify them. This involved running them through a set of twin chutes (fill one while the other is being worked) and the classifier would examine each ewe. They would be earmarked according to age on one ear and wool quality on the other. As they were being checked and run through the chutes and put in a separate holding pen, John, Marco and I went and rounded up another paddock (Aussie word for pasture) load of sheep. By the way, imagine how much noise 1,000 sheep can make when half of them are mothers who are separated from their kids. And then we put them all back together and they had to find each other again, each ewe with her own lamb or lambs. I could hear it from a ways off.

What we didn't do was inoculate, castrate and bob off tails. That would have been the job of the crew that couldn't make it. By the way, tail-bobbing is done with what they call a gas blade. It is a heated hatchet that severs the tail and cauterizes the stub all at the same time.

To top out our wooliness, we went to the other side of Kojonup to a place called Raglan Estates where they had a shearing operation set up. This was a permanent shearing shed which did tons of wool each year (month for that matter). We checked out the shearers as they did their bit. They had a raised platform work area that they would drive sheep onto. Then, one by one, the sheep would be pulled out of the waiting line, sheared and shoved down a steep chute out and under the shearing shed and back to the outside holding pen. It was a really slick set up. The shearers were powered by a master drive shaft running up near the roof, and were connected on and off the driver by pushing the drive wheel against the drive shaft twin wheel and then by pulling it away. Of course, the wool was all sorted immediately as to quality and cleanliness. And that was that. To top off the day, I petted a joey gray kangaroo at a vet's clinic. It didn't give a sheepish grin.

Later, dudes,

Father Eugene was born in Muenster, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ben Luke. He attended Sacred Heart School in the elementary grades and two years of high school, and attended Subiaco Abbey, where he graduated in 1954. Father Eugene made his profession of vows on Sept. 8, 1956 and was ordained to the priesthood on July 11, 1961.

His studies include courses at Conception Seminary in Missouri; Loyola University; the Berlitz Language School in Chicago; the Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C.; Georgetown University in Washington, D.C.; and the University of Arkansas.

He holds a Master's degree in Latin from St. Louis University and a Master's degree in Spanish from the University of Arkansas. Father Eugene has been a teacher of Latin and Spanish at the Academy; he has conducted retreats; and has been a pastor of several mission churches in rural Arkansas near Subiaco Abbey; and has been a weekend chaplain at Arkansas Tech University in Russellville.

For the Abbey, he worked as a machinist and welder. A hobby of welding artistic objects and decorative pieces has enabled him to enter art exhibits. For many years, he has designed and welded holders for the Unity candles used in the weddings of his nieces and nephews.

Troy Davis named new athletic director at Era

by Elaine Schad

Troy Davis has been named as the new Athletic Director at the Era school district.

Davis will replace Duncan Hudson and is a longtime coach with the district. School trustees, during their regular June meeting, agreed to pay David an additional $7,000 for his new job position. The Era School Board was scheduled to meet this week to consider an appeal to Hudson's termination.

Trustees hired Timothy Bennett to teach science and Jerry Skelton as a coach, history and driver's education teacher. Skelton will receive a $4000 coaching stipend. The board accepted the resignation of science teacher Debra McCarroll. Era Principal Sharon Durham reported that the Era ISD has been selected to receive the 1993 Texas Successful School System's Outstanding Performance Effort Recognition Award. Mrs. Durham also announced that Stacey Johnson received a $500 scholarship from the Era Scholarship Fund.

In other business, trustees: --Approved a recommendation to use Chapter I federal funds of approximately $44,856 to set up a content master classroom, hire an additional teacher and part-time aide.

--Appointed Superintendent Randel Beaver as the district's representative to the Region 11 Advisory Committee.

--Reviewed the preliminary 1993-1994 budget which contained increases in mandated expenditures and a decrease in expected state revenue, but no action was taken.

--Discussed plans to attend the school board convention in Dallas on Sept. 25-27.

--Approved the Gainesville National Bank as the district's bank depository for the next two years.

--Rejected all carpet bids for a classroom and authorized new bidding. The board also approved carpeting for two teacher houses.

Rick Ware VVISD's athletic director

by Elaine Schad

Rick Ware will be the new athletic director and head football coach at Valley View, a Class A former state finalist in football in Cooke County.

Ware was selected from among 95 applicants for the position during the school board's regular June meeting. Valley View Superintendent Steve Schneider said Ware was selected because of his overall sports background, which includes coaching in football, tennis and track. He will replace Mark Davidson who resigned earlier this year. The board also hired Houston Moos as Ware's assistant coach.

Ware coached for five years at Sabin, a 2A school in South Texas. Moos is familiar with Ware, as the two coached together in Sabin. Ware has also coached in Brazosport and Schulenberg.

School trustees also hired Carla Larabee, a Gainesville resident and recent college graduate, as a fifth grade teacher. They also hired Jackie Tippis as school secretary. She will replace longtime secretary Dorothy Chisam, who has retired after more than 20 years of service to the Valley View district.

In other business, Valley View school trustees: --Approved a tax abatement of 75 percent over 10 years to Alan Ritchey, Inc. for an estimated $2 million expansion of Martindale Feed Mill in Valley View. Please See VVISD, Page 8

An ounce of safety is worth a pound of cure

John Adams foretold Americans' fondness of fireworks on the Fourth of July. Benjamin Franklin forewarned the consequences: fire. Founding father John Adams predicted that Independence Day would be celebrated through the centuries with pomp and parades, games, bonfires, and illuminations. Americans still celebrate with illuminations -- fireworks, to modern generations. So the Texas Commission on Fire Protection recommends that Texans follow the advice of another founding father, Benjamin Franklin:

"An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure."

Each year, Texas suffers from fires caused by people handling fireworks carelessly. In 1992, Texas fire departments reported 641 fireworks-related fires, an increase of more than 200 over 1991.

The Texas Commission on Fire Prevention recommends the following tips to prevent fireworks-related fires this Independence Day: * Follow local fireworks laws. Most cities ban fireworks within the city limits. It is usually illegal to even possess fireworks.

* Set off fireworks only in open, calm areas. Stay away from dry grass and brush, trees, houses, automobiles, and power lines. * Keep a bucket of water handy. Cool used fireworks with the water. Pour water on small grass fires and on fireworks and on fireworks that discharge properly.

* Attend a public fireworks display, operated by licensed professional pyrotechnicians.

* Follow John Adams advice to celebrate with games and parades. Consider organizing a neighborhood sports tournament or pageant.

For more information on fireworks safety and fire prevention, contact the local fire department or the Texas Commission of Fire Protection, P.O. Box 2286, Austin, TX 78768-2286.

Explosive 4th planned

The fuse has been lit for the most explosive July 4th fireworks display in the North Texas and Southern Oklahoma area.

The City of Denison's 6th Annual Community Fireworks Show is scheduled for Sunday, July 4, at Munson Stadium in Historic Downtown Denison. The event, which brings approximately 16,000 spectators to the area, is the only choreographed class "B" fireworks display in the region.

Gates will be open at 6:30 p.m. For additional information, please contact Melissa Cunningham, CMSM, in City Hall at 465-2720.

Tax Talk
 by: Duane Knabe, CPA

Duane Knabe will discuss a different topic each week. Any questions should be directed to him at 759-4010.

This week's topic is the $125,000 exclusion on the sale of a residence. In the case of a sale or exchange of a principal residence, certain taxpayers may elect once in a lifetime to exclude up to $125,000 of the gain on the sale.

To qualify for the exclusion, the taxpayer must be at least 55 years old before the sale and must meet a use test. In addition, for residences sold after Sep. 30, 1988, the exclusion of gain has been extended to any individual who becomes physically or mentally incapable of self-care and (1) owns and uses the residence for at least one year, and (2) during the required five-year period owns the property and resides in a state licensed facility that cares for individuals that are incapable of self-care.

Couple exchange vows on June 26

MRS. PAUL PORTER
...nee Dolle Deann Pagel ...

Dolle Deann Pagel, daughter of Richard and Kay Pagel of Muenster, became the bride of Paul Porter, son of Hal and Kathy Frantum of Odessa, in a Nuptial Mass in Sacred Heart Church on Saturday, June 26, 1993, at 3 p.m. Father Camillus Cooney, OSB, officiated for the Mass and heard their vows in a traditional double-ring ceremony.

The bride is a 1990 graduate of Texas Tech University with a Bachelor's degree in Speech and Hearing Sciences and a 1992 Master's degree. She is a Speech Pathologist, employed by Lynn C. Leever Speech Pathologist, Inc. in Odessa.

The groom is a graduate of Texas Tech University with a Bachelor's degree in Accounting. He is an Accountant employed by Elm-Faris and Co.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. For her wedding, she chose a designer gown by Galina, fashioned of white shantung with an off-the-shoulder neckline and short fitted sleeves. Beaded Alencon lace appliques followed the neckline and accented the sleeves and bodice down to the fitted Basque waist. A full skirt flowed gracefully into a chapel-length train, encircled with a border of matching beaded Alencon lace.

Her chapel-length veil, dotted with pearls, fell in layers from a headband of pearl clusters and lace.

She carried a free form cluster of Livia roses and ivory Bouvardia entwined with English ivy. For sentiment, she carried her mother's rosary and wore her mother's pearl necklace.

ATTENDANTS

Kristi Schneider was her sister's matron of honor. Patricia Wilson of Dallas and Beth Crawford of Midland, friends of the bride, were bridesmaids. They wore floor-length gowns of lilac shantung, enhanced with lace trimmed portrait collars over the slim sheath-style gowns. They carried bouquets of cocktail roses, Rosario alstroemeria and purple statice. All stems were wrapped with satin ribbon and tied with white satin bows.

Mark Porter of Odessa, the groom's brother, was his best man. Darren Davis of Odessa and Rob Dunbar of Fort Worth, friends of the groom, were his groomsmen.

Tim Schneider of Muenster, groom's brother-in-law, and Adrian Smith of Lubbock, Bob Hachtel of Odessa, Tommy Pool of Odessa, friends of the groom, ushered the guests.

Godparents of the bride and groom, J.T. Dolle of Littlefield and Kathy Ivers of Fort Worth, and Tommy and Connie Pool of Odessa presented Offertory gifts at the altar.

Wedding music was presented by organist Andrea Klement, who played the traditional wedding marches, processional and recessional, J. Pachelbel's "Kanon in D" for entry of the bridesmaids, and Clarke's "Trumpet Voluntary" for the bride's entry. Vocalists and guitarists, Diane Grewing, Denise Bayer, Jim Endres, Christi Klement, Melissa Bayer and Doug Yosten, presented "If," "Evergreen" and "I Cross My Heart" before Mass; "Mother Dear" at seating of the mothers; "Take My Hand" at lighting of the Unity candle; "Only a Shadow" at the Offertory; "Wherever You Go" and "Peace, Joy and Happiness" at Communion; and "Hail Mary" before the Blessed Mother's altar.

The church altar held lighted candles and two large arrangements of pink gladioli, yellow daisy mums, purple asters and larkspur. Pews in the center aisle were marked with soft tulle bows draped with sprengerii fern.

RECEPTION

A reception and dinner followed at the Sacred Heart Community Center, hosted by parents of the bride and groom.

Karen Dangelmayr and Connie Stoffels secured guest signatures in the bride's book.

The bride's table was covered with lace cloths and was accented with lilac bows. A wall decoration behind the bride's table was white lattice work holding a grapevine wreath, tulle and bows in the bride's chosen colors.

Guest tables held bouquets of silk lilac and pink tulips in glass containers. Lilac ribbons centered each table.

The four-tiered wedding cake was frosted all in white with a cornelli lace design. Each tier was adorned with fresh yellow daisies, pink carnations and purple statice, reflecting the bride's color choice.

The top keepsake layer was a fruit cake, just as was the bride's parents' wedding cake. The keepsake ornament was a bridal couple under an arch and had been used for her sister, Kristi's, wedding cake.

The round chocolate groom's cake was decorated with slivered almonds around the sides and was topped with a baseball player (favorite pastime of the groom). It was inscribed with "No more playing the field!"

Cake servers included Dianne Pagel, Janet Ivers, Tracy Dolle and Rachael Dolle.

The rehearsal dinner was held at the parish pavilion and featured an informal and traditional barbecue dinner. Family and out-of-town friends attended with the wedding party.

Upon return from a wedding trip to Grand Cayman Island, the couple will reside in Odessa.

Among guests at the wedding were the groom's grandparents, Mr.

and Mrs. Henry Feldman of Odessa; an uncle and aunt, Ray and Cindy Allen of Odessa; an uncle and aunt, Fred and Mary Ann Johnson of Colorado. Also, the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Dolle of Littlefield and Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Pagel of Muenster. An uncle and aunt, the Don Dolle family of Canyon; an uncle and aunt, the Bill Dolle family of Three-Way, Texas; an uncle and aunt, the J.T. MRS. CRISTOPHER WATERS
...nee Kelley Lynn Hennigan...

Vows solemnized in Canyon ceremony

Kelley Lynn Hennigan and Cristopher Grant Waters of Canyon were married on June 26, 1993 in a 2 p.m. double-ring ceremony in the First United Methodist Church of Canyon, officiated by Rev. Derrell Lewis.

The bride is the daughter of Jerome D. Hennigan and Evelyn Hennigan of Muenster and is a 1987 graduate of Sacred Heart High School. She attended Amarillo College where she received her LVN, and will return to West Texas A&M University to complete her Bachelor's degree in Nursing. Currently, she is employed as an LVN at Northwest Texas Hospital.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Waters of Stratford, Texas and is a 1989 graduate of Stratford High School. He is attending West Texas A&M University, majoring in Engineering Technology and is employed by The Cabinet Shop.

The bride was escorted by her father down an aisle graced with pink tulle pew bows, to an altar bedecked with mixed spring flowers. Candles in candelabra formed a backdrop behind the altar.

For her wedding, she chose an elegant white satin gown with re-embroidered Schiffler lace, and a Sabrina neckline. Pearls adorned the bodice and long, tapered sleeves. A keyhole detail in back was accented with pearl strands. The skirt was enhanced with an elegant lace appliqué at slipper length, and the attached chapel train was embroidered with a pattern of spiraling lace appliques.

She carried a bridal cascade of white and pink roses, greenery and lilies. Her layered illusion veil was gathered to a pearl coronet.

Gail Killian of The Colony was matron of honor. Hayle Fenton of Bowie and Michelle Vaughn of Canyon, bride's friends, and Dana Berend of Friona, bride's cousin, were bridesmaids. They wore summer floral tea-length dresses, designed with dropped waist, scalloped neckline and puffed, above-the-elbow sleeves. Each carried a bouquet of silk, long-stemmed spring flowers accented with pink satin ribbons.

The flower girl was Kambrie Ward of Canyon, a friend of the bride. The ring bearer was Kyle Leyrick of Stratford, groom's nephew.

Dirk Davis of Pampa, friend of the groom was best man. Groomsmen were Wes Allison of College Station, Rex Arthro of Stratford, friends of the groom, and Malcom Waters of Canyon, groom's brother. Ushers were Scot Hennigan, bride's brother of Muenster, and Tim Waters, groom's brother of Canyon.

Wedding music was provided by vocalist Mark Lehrick and organist Olinda Boardman. Selections included the traditional wedding marches and "I Will Be Here" and "The Lord's Prayer."

A reception followed in the parlor of the church. Cake and punch were served. The guest book was attended by Darla Davis. Reception assistants were Carol Henscheid, bride's aunt, Colleen Hess, Sherrie Lehrick, Karen Waters, Renda

Allison and Betty Everett.

A rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents at "The Railroad Crossing."

Following a wedding trip to New Orleans, the couple is completing their studies at West Texas A&M University in Canyon.

Among out-of-town guests attending the wedding were the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Ed Hess, Evelyn Hennigan, Scott Hennigan, Jerry Hennigan, Ted and Carol Henscheid, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Hess and children Brooke, Cody and Holly of Southlake and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Evans of Lewisville.

TLC plans to offer Preschool program

Since Muenster Public School is not going to offer the Pre-K program this coming year, Wanda Flusche, owner and director of Tender Loving Care Day Care Center, has decided to offer a Pre-School Program at the center.

Tender Loving Care has been in operation for the past 11 years and has an excellent early childhood program. Wanda provided the necessary equipment, supplies, and assisted the teacher with the planning and organization of the Pre-K curriculum which was held at the day care center last year. Wanda and her staff have undergone many hours of training in child development. Wanda is presently enrolled with the National Child Care Association as a candidate for a Child Development Credential, which she will finish in December, 1993. The Pre-School will be offered to children who will be four years old by September 1, 1993. The hours will be from 8 a.m. to 11 a.m. and the pre-school calendar will follow the same days as Muenster Public School.

Just as it has in the past, the Day Care Center will continue to provide developmentally appropriate activities for all the other children who are under four years old.

Wanda and her staff are very excited about the Pre-School and are busy preparing for the coming year.

The center will be closed July 5-9 for vacations and some renovations on the building. If anyone has any questions regarding the Pre-School registration, please contact Wanda Flusche at 759-4964 or 759-4876.

Dankesreiter works toward Eagle rank with renovations

Tommy Joe Dankesreiter was busy June 21 to June 25 working on one of his Eagle Scout projects, in the Myra Park.

The project consisted of removing old chipped paint from the park's playground equipment and repainting all of them. Also the outer posts and cable were wire brushed and painted. A new sign was constructed. Routed into the wood, the message read "Welcome to Myra." It was then also painted and hung.

Tommy Joe is a six-year member of Muenster Boy Scout Troop 664; a junior at Muenster High School and is the son of Thomas and Rosemary Dankesreiter of Muenster; and the grandson of Mrs. Theresa Hermes of Lindsay and Lawrence Dankesreiter of Muenster.

Brooks returns from trip to Washington, D.C.

by Eric Williams

Excited and exhausted, Greg Brooks of Woodbine returned Tuesday from an event-filled trip to Washington D.C.

Winner of Cooke County Electric Cooperative's Washington Youth Tour Contest, Brooks has been looking forward to the trip since March when he placed first among five finalists in a speech contest. "No matter how much work you put into an essay and a speech, the tour is a million times better than you'll ever imagine," Brooks said.

A special highlight of the trip was spending time with U.S. Rep. Ralph Hall. Hall, genial and interested in his constituents, took time to show Brooks his office and discuss the student's family and background. He also taught Brooks about Washington politics as they watched the Legislative process from the House gallery. Brooks was also delighted to see his friend Marlene Hess of Muenster. Hess, who won the 1992 Youth Tour Contest, is working in Hall's staff this year. She gave Brooks a tour of the Capitol.

Hess met Rep. Hall on the youth tour in June 1992. She has since persuaded him to give the graduation speech at Muenster High School and signed on to work as an intern in his office this summer.

Brooks, 17, will be a senior this fall at Callisburg High School. The son of John and Beth Brooks, he is a leader on campus and has twice been to the 4-H State Roundup in speech and method demonstration competition. An honor student, he plays baseball and marches in the band.

Brooks traveled to Washington with 84 others on the Texas Electric Cooperatives Government in Action Washington Youth Tour. He said the interaction with outstanding peers from all over Texas proved to be a wonderful experience.

"We have a lot in common, coming from rural Texas," Brooks said. "We can have a great time hanging out with our friends and not getting into trouble. Everybody just hit it off from the beginning."

The sites of Washington were inspiring, according to Brooks. But the memories he treasures most from the trip involved the experiences he shared with new friends he made.

News from Texas Parks & Wildlife

A three-year research by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department to study when turkey hens breed indicates that, at least in west Central Texas, early and mid-June is when turkey poults are due to hatch. The research indicated toms began sperm production about the last two weeks of February and peaked during the first two weeks of April. Hens usually began breeding activity during the first two weeks of April and reached a peak during the latter two weeks of April.

"The time it takes to lay eggs (about 14 days) and to incubate the clutch of eggs (about 28 days) indicates this year's peak hatch should occur around the first of June," said TPWD wildlife biologist B.D. Davis. Davis said these data reveal most hens are involved in breeding during the first portion of the spring turkey hunting season.

During the six-month period between October and March, the Operations Game Thief hotline (1-800-792-GAME) received 990 calls reporting game and fish law violations, down slightly from the 1,078 calls received during the same time frame last year. Seventy-one of those calls resulted in the apprehension of 149 violators against whom 165 cases were filed. Court assessed fines totaled $27,147.75.

Tilapia no answer for vegetation control

Some pond owners recently have asked the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department to allow the use of tilapia to control aquatic vegetation in private water bodies. Department officials have denied these requests because tilapia rarely successfully controls vegetation and can cause other problems.

"The department has been asked why tilapia can't be used. Compared to other methods of vegetation control, they are inefficient and unreliable," said Phil Durocher, TPWD inland fisheries director.

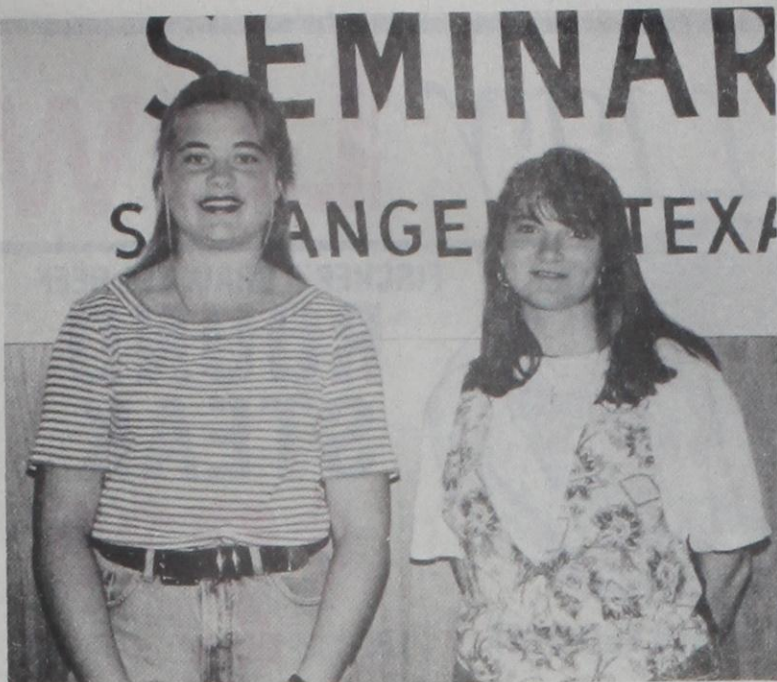

Two kinds of tilapia are allowed in Texas, Blue tilapia and Mozambique tilapia. These fish, or hybrids between the two, can be raised by fish farmers. The Mozambique tilapia can be sold live to pond owners for forage for bass, but not blue tilapia.

Studies of tilapia species for aquatic plant control have shown both lack of plant control and a high degree of environmental damage, Durocher said. Tilapia dig holes in the substrate causing erosion, turbid water and displacement of bottom organisms needed as food by other fishes. Reproduction and feeding of other fishes often is disturbed by tilapia's aggressive nature. Small tilapia prefer animal foods and therefore directly compete with or consume native fishes. Although larger-sized tilapia will eat vegetation, control of aquatic plants seldom has been observed. At the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service Fish Farming Experiment Station in Stuttgart, Arkansas, all tests in which tilapia were stocked in ponds resulted in overcrowded populations and unsatisfactory control of weeds. Similar studies in other regions of the U.S. provided the same conclusion, including a failed experiment in Oklahoma.

A study of tilapia use for aquatic plant control in water supply canals in California did find control was achieved but at an extremely high density of about 600 tilapia per acre.

"Tilapia are inefficient, only seem to work under certain circumstances and they would cause you a lot more problems," Durocher said. "The department supports the use of triploid grass carp when aquatic plant control is necessary in private water."

Local students attend San Angelo seminar

Two youths from Muenster, Tiffany Fisher and Kerri Barnhill, attended the Texas Farm Bureau's 31st annual Citizenship Seminar in San Angelo from June 14 to 18.

Sponsored by the Cooke County Farm Bureau, they were among approximately 400 high school junior and senior students from over 150 counties across the state.

Purpose of the seminar is to provide the students with better understanding of their American heritage and the capitalistic free enterprise system.

Speakers at this year's seminar and their subjects were as follows:

Jack Jackson of Fort Worth, president of Jack Jackson and Associates, "Free Enterprise Principles/Projects"; Basilio Bador, a Polish immigrant, "Living the American Dream"; Michael Broome of Charlotte, N.C., a motivational speaker, "You and America -- Two Great Champions"; Texas Rep. Susan Combs, Austin, "Our Inherent Rights"; and Texas Farm Bureau President S. M. True of Plainview welcomed the students to the seminar. Also, a special presentation was made by Curtis Childers, president of the Texas FFA.

County Agent's Report

by Craig Rosenbaum

Ryegrass Control in Wheat

The last several years have seen an increase in the amount of ryegrass in area wheat fields. This year was extremely bad throughout the county for this invader grass. Several things attributed to the amount of ryegrass that we are seeing. These include the extremely wet weather that we have had in the fall and winter. Another reason for ryegrass infestations include the lack of clean seed. Producers should make every effort to clean their wheat seed before planting. A very small infestation in planting seed can cause a lot of problems. Ryegrass can encroach on fence rows, too. However, several producers in the county do an excellent job with managing ryegrass pastures right up next to their wheat fields without any problems.

Treatment/Rate	Bushel		Test Weight
	Yield/Acre	Moisture	Wheat + Ryegrass	Wheat
UTC	16	12.5	41.6	53.3
Glean 5 oz.	21	12.4	54.4	55.9
Amber 56 oz.	18	13.1	48.6	53.5
Finesse 5 oz.	16	13.5	48.0	53.0

This past year we had two Ryegrass Herbicide Demonstrations in the county on the Henry Popp Farm at Gainesville and the Glenn Hellman Farm south of Muenster. Products used included the DuPont Company herbicides Glean and Finesse. The other ryegrass control herbicide used was Amber which is a Ciba Geigy product. All of these products did a very acceptable job in ryegrass control. Glean has a recommended ryegrass control rate of 1/2 ounce per acre. Finesse also is used at the 1/2-ounce-per-acre rate while the Amber is applied at a .56 ounce rate. To get good ryegrass control, these products must be used as a pre-emerge application. The simplest method is to plant your wheat and, before the wheat and ryegrass emerge, apply one of these ryegrass control products. The following chart is from the Glenn Hellman Farm demonstration. This demonstration used Karl wheat. As many of you know, Karl wheat did not do very well yield-wise this year. However, the ryegrass control from the herbicides was very acceptable. The Untreated Check (UTC) had a ryegrass infestation of 32.88 percent. These plots were weighed and the wheat and ryegrass had a test weight of 41.6. Following the ryegrass sifting, the test weight

Sunday was a nice day. Aileen and I went to Mass at 8:00, getting home before 9:30, and spent the rest of the morning just taking it easy. We thought about going to Lindsay for dinner, but ruled that out due to the fact we are both trying to lose a few pounds, and we have a big feed coming up next Sunday.

About 2:00 o'clock Aileen remarked that we hadn't been out for a good old Sunday drive in quite some time, and could I give her a good reason for not going to check-up on the progress of the new Red River bridge west of Illinois Bend. I told her to give me a minute and I would come up with something, but since the car was almost full of gas and had no flats or other problems, I couldn't give her a valid reason.

We made our way to Illinois Bend and meandered westward until we intersected the new road that leads to the bridge. We were able to drive to the Texas end of the structure with no problems and were surprised at how much had been done. A great deal more work needs to be done before anyone drives across, but there is a floor over all but two sections.

Just as Aileen had taken a snapshot or two, a car came up out of the bottom, and the driver stopped to tell us we could drive down beside the bridge all the way to the river, which was not visible from where we stood. We soon found we were among friends, one being Mary Haverkamp. It seems one of her daughters and some of her family had taken Mary out for a drive in the country, and had decided to see the bridge just as we had.

It's always a pleasure to see Mary. She is such a happy person. After a brief visit we started home, but took another route through Bulcher, a place that has almost ceased to exist. We were just a little saddened to see one old church beside the road, that had a small sign in the yard. I backed up to read the sign which simply stated that the church was of historical value and vandals would be prosecuted.

I don't know the denomination the building belongs to, but can well remember when it was a well-kept and painted landmark, probably the nicest building Bulcher had to offer back 1939, when I was one of a crew that tied in electricity to many places in that area.

Since then the old church has not stood up too well to the ravages of time and the elements, and restoring it would be a major undertaking. I surely hope no one adds vandalism to its woes.

Free catalogue listing available to producers

Cattle producers in Oklahoma, Texas and adjoining areas are invited to list cattle (available for sale or contract grazing) and/or pasture (available for contract grazing) in an annual catalogue free of charge.

The Ardmore-based Samuel Roberts Noble Foundation will compile information submitted by producers. The information will be printed in the 1993 "CattleLog," which will be mailed to more than 3,000 agriculture producers, feedlots, commission companies and auction services later this summer. Individuals listing cattle or pasture in the publication will also receive a copy by mail.

This will be the fourth year of publication for the free catalogue.

The catalogues will be divided into four sections: 1) Breeding cattle offered for sale; 2) Stocker-feeder cattle; 3) Pasture available for contract grazing; and 4) Organizations and individuals placing contract cattle on pasture, summer and winter.

Producers interested in listing cattle or available pastures should contact Roberta Palmer or Sammie Herriott at (405) 223-5810 as soon as possible to obtain the necessary forms. Request for forms should be made by no later than July 23. Deadline for submitting final information is July 30.

Individuals or companies wishing to receive the sales list can contact the above personnel at the same number, or write: The Noble Foundation, Attn: Roberta Palmer, P.O. Box 2180, Ardmore, OK 73402.
