Main Street parking isn't settled yet

Downtown Muenster business owners were well represented Monday night at the regular City Council meeting. Discussion centered around Main Street parking. Diagonal parking angles have recently been changed to allow more visibility at intersections and for cars backing out from parking places. But the decreased angles have also decreased the amount of parking spaces on Main Street and convenient parking is important for customers.

Most of the business people feel that the safety problem lies not with parking angles, but with excessive speed on the street. They would like to see the diagonal stripes restored to the original angle or at least some compromise. Gary Fisher pointed out that lower angles don't really help visibility, especially since the driver has to turn his head further around to see to the rear. Also, the lower angles encourage drivers to develop a false "second" lane other than the lane adjoining the center stripe, thus greatly congesting the actual one-lane-each-way street.

Roger Clements of the Texas Department of Highways and Public Transportation was at the meeting at the request of the business people. He agreed with the points and offered to do a traffic survey for the city free of charge and make recommendations for improvements. The survey will address rates of speed, parking and handicapped access. Clements also committed to paint an edge line on the street 12 feet from the center to help define the actual traffic lane, no matter what the city decides to do about parking. He said the Highway Department recommendations will address the problem of conflicting stripes which are now visible and may get worse if another change is made.

Other action and discussion included:

- A possible agreement between the City and the Ben Franklin Store to create handicapped access parking for the Public Library was tabled for more time and planning.

- Discussion was held with Herkey Biffle about the best locations for a new water well to be drilled. The Council also reviewed the federal grant application which they hope, if okayed, will fund most of the well and a new water tower.

- A request to pave a small section of Ninth Street was accepted but no timetable was established.

- Southtown resident Dale Felderhoff brought up concerns with the still-incomplete paving project in his neighborhood.

"According to some road construction people I've talked to, the base preparation is not ready for the paving and I've heard it should start soon," said Felderhoff. He wanted some assurance that the City was satisfied with the surface both because of the cost and the maintenance if the surface fails later. He didn't think the base was thick enough in some places, but City Administrator Chris Yosten said the base should be 6 inches or more thick everywhere.

Mayor Pro Tem Arthur Hennigan said, "I don't think Chris is in charge now. It seems to me that the mayor has taken charge of the Southtown paving project and I don't know how to answer you." Mayor Bill Miller was out of town. Street Commissioner Mike Trubenbach said he thought the base was well prepared for a residential street.

- The Council is seeking a representative to serve on the Tax Appraisal District Board of Directors.

- The Council approved no contribution to the antique street light maintenance fund this year by the city or the Chamber of Commerce since sufficient funds are on hand. They also discussed cutting back on the Christmas decorating fund this year.

- Semi-annual public library funding of $3,000 was approved.

- Annual lease of the Muenster Museum building was approved at $240.00 per year.

- Bills totaling $108,499.52 were approved for payment. The unusually high total included one-time payments for garbage bags for one year - $24,644.32, four months of commercial garbage collection plus one month of residential - $22,122.87, used dump truck - $5,500.00 and used tractor with loader - $12,700.00.

- The Council closed the public meeting to meet in executive session.

Valley View Fall Festival offers activity potpourri

by Elaine Schad

A bluegrass festival, parade and barbecue cookoff will highlight the second annual Valley View Fall Festival Friday and Saturday in the downtown area.

Proceeds from the festival will go to the city's park fund, with the city working toward building its first municipal park in the Cooke County community of about 650 residents.

Food booths will open on the northwest corner of the town square beginning at 5 p.m. on Friday. A bluegrass festival will begin at 7 p.m., while barbecue enthusiasts will begin setting up their cookers for cookoff competition at 7 p.m.

A variety of booths, including food, arts and crafts and games, will open on the square beginning at 9 a.m. Saturday. Entries will be accepted for the food bakeoff beginning at 9 a.m. The new Valley View High School library will be dedicated during ceremonies at 10 a.m. A parade will be held at 11 a.m. There will be horseshoe, basketball and volleyball tournaments, a quilt show, king and queen contest and tug-o-war among the day's events. The festival will end with a country-western dance beginning at 8 p.m. on the square.

Cooke County Electric Cooperative honors 4-H Clubs

The Cooke County Electric Cooperative continued its annual tradition of honoring Cooke County 4-H members with an Achievement Banquet held this year on Monday, Oct. 4, at 7 p.m. at the Gainesville Civic Center.

With a theme, "4-H Adds a Sparkle to Your Life," sponsors and hosts decorated with green and silver balloons, silver stars and green 4-leaf clovers.

Sara Flusche, 1992 Gold Star 4-H'er, was mistress of ceremonies. Dinner was catered by the Hermes Sisters of Lindsay and followed by a welcoming speech presented by Eric Williams of Cooke County Electric Co-Op Public Relations. Distinguished guests were introduced by Sara Flusche.

She also presented the guest speaker, Texas State Representative Curtis Seidlits. He told the 4-H'ers and other guests, "Tonight we are celebrating the very best of our young people, the 4-H Clubs! They are truly 'Heroes!' What do 'Heroes' stand for?"

He answered,

H - 4-H'ers represent Home, Respect for the Family and True Values.

E - Education, that you are pursuing and will continue to need.

R - Respect, respect for people, church, laws, traditions and self.

O - Occupation, do the best you can.

E - Excellence, be devoted to the pursuit of excellence in all you do.

S - Service to community, church, fellow men and government.

"Follow through and you will continue to be Heroes," he concluded.

Cooke County Commissioners presented County Awards to 119 4-H members, as follows: Murrell Harrison - Achievement, Arts/Crafts, Beef, Birds, Breads, Child Care and Citizenship.

Kenneth Alexander - Clothing, Communications, Computer, Consumer Education, Drama, Entomology and Fashion Revue.

Jerry Lewis - Food/Nutrition,

Food Show, Gardening, Goats, Health, Home Improvement, Horse Judging, Leadership, Leathercraft and Photography.

Virgil Hess - Rabbit, Recreation, Safety, Sheep, Shooting Sports, Swine, Wilderness and Wood Science.

County Judge Ray Russell recognized State Winners Charlene Lutkenhaus of Lindsay and Sean Herbold of Silver Cedar Club, in the Bread Category. Both had winning record books at state level. For this, each received an all-expense paid trip to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago. Charlene's record book was forwarded to the national level where she was declared the winner. Her prize was a $1500 scholarship to the college of her choice and also special recognition.

Also receiving first place at state level was the Cooke County Dairy Team, whose members are Jennifer Kupper of Valley View, Todd Martindale of Valley View, Werner Becker III of Muenster and Daryl Kupper of Valley View.

Charles Draper of Gainesville National Bank recognized Club Managers and Honor Award Clubs.

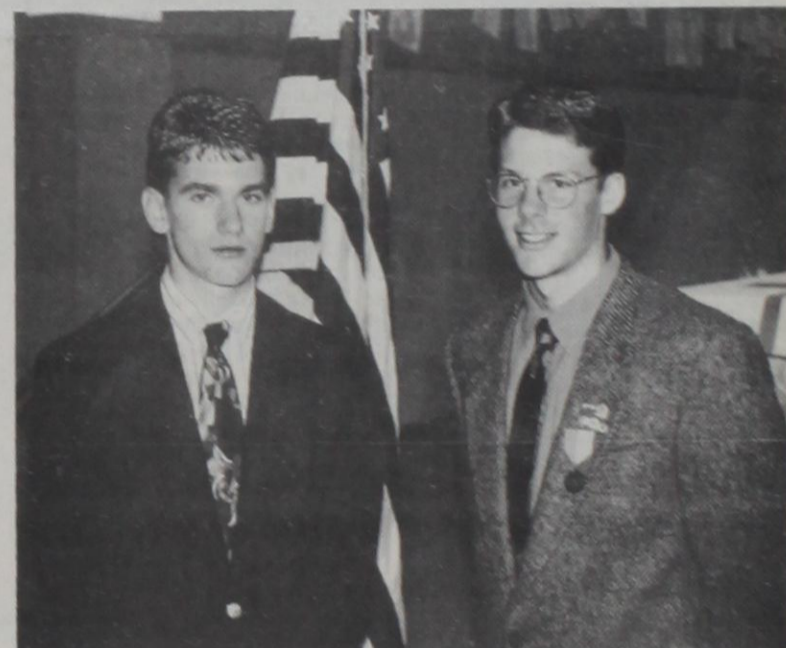

Extension Homemaker Club Scholarships from the Cooke County Council were presented by Lucille Lutkenhaus to Sara Flusche, Charlene Lutkenhaus and Greg Brooks.

"I Dare You" Awards, presented by Tammi Montgomery of North Texas Bank and Trust, went to Robert Lutkenhaus and Michael Becker.

The Farm Bureau Leadership Awards were presented by Mike Bartush of Cooke County Farm Bureau to Rachel Cravens of Silver Cedar Club and Rebecca Miller of Woodbine.

The Gold Star Picture Recognition Awards went to Sara Flusche and Werner Becker III and were their portraits presented by Allen Fleitman of First State Bank.

LEON KLEMENT presents Muenster Elementary staff the High Performance Award. This included, l to r, Gwen Trubenbach, Melinda Fuhrmann, Amy Popp, Lisa Hettler, Theresa Walterscheid, Becky Scott, Marjorie Alsup, Michelle Darling, Sheila Jones and Darla Lile. The Texas Legislature created Texas Successful Schools Awards to identify and reward schools that demonstrate success in achieving state educational goals. Of the 6,000 schools evaluated, only 124 received this award. Muenster Elementary earned the High Performance Award by exceeding state standards for excellence. Muenster Elementary students had a 96% attendance rate, and 73% of the students passed all sections of the Texas Assessment of Academic Skills tests for the 1992-93 school year. Muenster Elementary's accreditation rating is recognized as a result of exceeding the Academic Excellence Indicators, as set by criteria for performance. Janie Hartman Photo

Cutting horse demonstration kicks off Columbus Day Pioneer Supper on Oct. 12

A top-drawer cutting horse demonstration will begin the Cooke County Republican Party's Columbus Day Pioneer Supper on Oct. 12, according to Pat (Mrs. Mundy) Peale, who is in charge of the event.

Frank D. Cromeen has confirmed that at 7 p.m., Mrs. Bill Eller of the E-E Ranch and Guy Woods will perform on some of the nation's top cutting horses. Jo Eller won the National Cutting Horse Association's 1992 Rookie of the Year award. Guy Woods is among the top 10 money winners of the last 12 months. He will be riding a horse that ranks in the top five in the National Futurity.

Participants, dressed as Cooke County pioneers in boots and denims, will sit on hay bales and eat their Italian fare from upturned troughs at the Show Horse Barn on the Frank D. Cromeen Ranch. It is located 4.5 miles west of the Main Street signal light in Muenster. Three wind turbines generating electricity for the ranch distinguish the Cromeen Ranch.

The event is at 7 p.m. next Tuesday, Oct. 12, and the reservations deadline for singles, doubles or tables has been extended through Oct. 8.

Headline speaker is The Hon. Joe Barton, who will "tell it the way it really is" as he addresses the theme, "Discover the REAL America." Past State Republican Chairman and former Texas legislator Ray Hutchison will introduce comments by video participants, U.S. Senators Kay Bailey Hutchison and Phil Gramm.

Tickets, $15 per person, benefit the Cooke County Republican Party and everything in the coffer stays in the county. Some tables of 10 are still available. For tables or for further information, call John Fisher, 759-2933; Pat Peale, 665-7708; Monica Lamb, 665-5824; or Donna Montgomery, 665-2584. Make checks payable to the Cooke County Republican Party and mail to 701 California Street, Suite 304, Gainesville, TX 76240.

Joe Barton behind Hutchison

Congressman Joe Barton placed his support firmly behind Senator Kay Bailey Hutchison recently in light of action by the Travis County Grand Jury.

"I have 100 percent confidence in Kay's integrity and in her performance as Senator," said Congressman Barton.

"Most Texans take this indictment with more than just a grain of salt," said Barton. "The question that comes to my mind is 'would this have even been Please See BARTON, Page 2

City of Lindsay looks at water needs

by Elaine Schad

The City of Lindsay could be looking at major upgrading of the city's water system within the next couple of years.

Lindsay city council members heard the results of a comprehensive study of the city's water system and future water needs during the council's regular October meeting. Don Wortham, John Belt and Les St. John, engineers for Hawkins and Associates, outlined various needs for the city's water system and talked about funding possibilities should the city decide to proceed with upgrading the system.

"This is pretty involved and will be a long-term process," said Lindsay Mayor Robert Walterscheid. "But we're definitely looking at drilling another well," he said.

The city's water system has experienced some pressure problems in some portions of the city at times, especially during the dry hot months of the summer when residents have at times been asked to voluntarily ration outdoor watering. The system is operating with no problems at the present time due to recent rains and cooler weather, but future growth will dictate the need for more water and storage capacity, Walterscheid said. The city presently has two wells, one located at the Lindsay Park and the other behind City Hall. With the town expanding significantly to the east and south, there is a need for another well, he said.

The engineers told council members that the city water system would run more efficiently if the system was looped properly. The city is also looking at the possibility of adding either underground or overhead water storage within the next couple of years. A well could be on line as early as a year from now, Walterscheid said. There are also some areas of the town where water lines are different sizes, such as six-inch lines running into three-inch lines. The city may look into the possibility of replacing some of those lines to allow for better water flow, Walterscheid said.

If the city decided to implement all of the need recommendations of the study, the estimated cost of the total project could be around $500,000, according to the engineers. The city would have a slim chance of obtaining grant money for the project since the city presently does not meet low income and other criteria. The city will look into both grants and loan possibilities, Walterscheid said. A representative with the Texoma Council of Governments may be ready to meet with the council next month to give the council information about loan and grant possibilities, he said.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Friend:
I am pleased to offer my support to the upcoming Cooke County Republican Party fundraiser in Muenster. I am writing you to urge you to attend and help make the event a success.
This should be an exciting event and you will enjoy hearing from Congressman Joe Barton. Joe is my congressman and a close friend and colleague.

The local party organization is the backbone of the Republican Party in our state, and this event is further proof that the conservative cause continues to grow in Cooke County. This fundraiser will help the Cooke County Republican Party build resources as we work toward the 1994 statewide elections.

It is a pleasure to represent you in the United States Senate. Best wishes for a successful event!

Yours respectfully,
Phil Gramm
United States Senator

Muenster Enterprise until I come home. I'll keep you posted on things as they occur. Thanks to much again for all you do for me, Muenster.

Sincerely,

Letter to the Editor:

I am back home with successful open heart surgery last week. Only problem, I can't talk. Of course, my wife enjoys that.

However, I am a swift writer, so I can still get in a few words.

They say experience is the best teacher. That is the reason for this letter this week. I found out that you really cherish every visit, card, flowers, candy, telephone calls or just word that someone was interested "How are you doing?" I am not hinting for myself, because I am fortunate for my wonderful family and friends. Thanks, and thanks again as Chief of Police Helen Tompkins said in her Thank You ad. I hope that everyone that reads this letter will stop for a minute to mail that card, make that call or, better, a visit to that friend or relative that is ill. We have quite a few around Muenster.

After I successfully made it through my illness, I decided that in my small, limited way, I was going to try to make this country a better place to live in. I look back and know that in my past life I have been very poor in all those things mentioned to ease the time and keep the mind off of the pain for friends and relatives. It just seems time slips by, right? Wouldn't it be wonderful if everyone in Muenster would take a little time this weekend to do something for someone else. We do have a wonderful community, and we want it to stay together.

That reminds me of a small business in Muenster that I feel needs a public thanks, i.e. Bobby Pels of Muenster Pharmacy. He does need our business to survive. He has been at hand at any hour of the day or night when I was in need at a critical time. This is what makes me feel sad when I hear friends say that this mail order or National Chain in another town is where they get their supplies. I have checked on Bob's prices on that super offer that came with my insurance company's telephone call in Pharmacy Service and found all items very competitive from Bob.

I feel the same way for all of our stores in Muenster. Of course, if you don't want a Ford, I can tell you where my son Gregg is located. Don't pass up getting the $1,000 rebate on those old Chevy pickups.

God willing, I will be back unless someone tells me to close down. So far, I have had only encouragement to keep at it. I might not be right all of the time, but maybe I can help to keep our mind open and try to keep our government people heading in a better direction than what we have been seeing. I wrote Max Chartrand and told him of my support of his efforts. What does Muenster think?

MUENSTER VOLUNTEER FIREMEN were kept busy this week answering fire calls. In this photo, they are extinguishing a grass fire on Bruno and Jerry Fleitman's farm east of Muenster. It started Tuesday afternoon from a trash fire. Later that day, they responded to a call on the Norb Walterscheid farm when a high line wire had apparently sparked a grass fire. Monday morning they answered a false alarm at the Muenster Hospital. Their fire alarm company misunderstood communications and reported a fire drill alarm as the real thing. Oct. 3-9 is Fire Prevention Week. This year's theme is "Get Out, Stay Out: Fire Safe Response." The Muenster VFD has literature and information on fire escape plans and drills and other important safety information. Fire Chief Herbie Knabe is willing to assist the public with these.

VFW and Auxiliary honor firemen

The Muenster Veterans of Foreign Wars Post #6205 and its Ladies Auxiliary hosted the Muenster Volunteer Fire Department Saturday, Oct. 2, for a "Firemen's Appreciation Dinner." Held in the VFW Hall, the firemen and their wives gathered for a Happy Hour followed by a dinner served buffet style which included grilled chicken, baked potatoes and a variety of vegetables, salads and desserts provided by Auxiliary members.

Following the meal, the Auxiliary Safety Chairman Linda Knabe told the gathering that "We just wanted to let you guys know that even though we don't take the time very often to tell you - we do appreciate all that you do for our community and we decided to do something about it, hence this supper. It's not much in the way of gratitude but, hopefully, it'll give you some idea of our feelings."

"Since you made the decision to become a "VOLUNTEER" fireman, your lives and those of your families have been turned upside down and all around, but you still "VOLUNTEER," some even into the second generation now.

"You dedicated men give up your spare time, your work time, your family time, your sleep and, most of all, your safety to take care of us. You wives, too, are also firemen because you give up a lot too, when they're out fighting fires or weather watching. At times, when you'd rather have him home safely with the family, he's out protecting the town. Thank you, also, for all that you've given up on our behalf."

"We just wanted to show you in some small way that your dedication to Muenster is appreciated more than you'll ever know. We're very proud of you, and from our hearts, and those of this community I'm sure, We thank you, we salute you but, most of all, we love you!"

She then presented each fireman with a certificate of appreciation from the Auxiliary which read, "In

"I hope the case will come to trial quickly so that it cannot be dragged out for political purposes," said Barton. "Meanwhile, I am behind Senator Hutchison as she continues to serve ably as one of Texas' two United States Senators."

Anna Starke dies Oct. 1

Mrs. Anna Starke died on Friday, Oct. 1, 1993, at 5:30 p.m. at St. Richard's Villa, following many years of illness. She was 93 years of age, born on May 1, 1900 in Little Rock, Iowa to Henry Schettler and Elizabeth (Althoff) Schettler. She was married to Joseph Starke on Oct. 21, 1926 in Sterling, Oklahoma. Immediately after the wedding celebration, they caught a train to Muenster. Their first home was on a farm south of Muenster. In 1927, they bought 163 acres about 7-1/2 miles northwest of Muenster on Copper Switch Road.

They are parents of 11 children. In 1968, they sold the farm and moved to town where they built a new home. A devoted wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, she was a member of Sacred Heart Church, lifetime member of St. Anne's Society, and a homemaker whose hobbies included quilt making, sewing, making stuffed toys for her grandchildren. She took great pride in tending her garden, canning and preserving the summer's bounty for a winter's supply of canned foods.

Her husband, Joseph Starke, died on Jan. 7, 1978. Also preceding her in death were two sons, Robert at age 20, and Joe Jr., an infant; and three brothers, Willie, Lawrence and Edwin Schettler; and one sister, Clara Conway.

Her survivors include six daughters, Marian Gruber of Lindsay, LaVerna Pfaff and Ella Dell Taylor, both of Lakewood, Colorado, Jo Ann Snyder of San Jose, California, Irma Forrester of Forestburg, and Mildred Miller of Hemet, California; and three sons, Daniel Starke of Odessa and Edward and Henry Starke, both of Muenster.

Also three brothers, Herman Schettler of St. Paul, Kansas, Albert Schettler of Elgin, Oklahoma and Anthony Schettler of California.

There are 17 grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.

A Rosary service was held in

ANNA STARKE

McCoy Chapel on Sunday at 4 p.m. and a Vigil Service at 7 p.m.

Mass of Christian Burial was offered in Sacred Heart Church on Monday, Oct. 4, at 11 a.m., officiated by Father Victor Gillespie, OSB, and Father Frowin Schoech, OSB.

Assisting with the funeral liturgy were Peggy Grewing with Readings from the Old and New Testaments; Prayers of the Faithful by Sug Bindel; presentation of Offertory Gifts by granddaughters, Annette Gruber and Crystal Snyder; and Eucharistic Ministers Florence Grewing, Lucille Hesse, Leoba Mollenkopf, Regina Pels and Lorena Taylor. Mass servers were Jonathan Grewing, Aaron Hess and David Hesse.

Music Ministers were Emily Klement, Christy Hesse and Ruth Felderhoff. Sacred music included "Amazing Grace," "Psalm of the Good Shepherd," "Send Us Your Spirit, Lord," "We Will Wait No More," "Song of the Angels" and "We Walk By Faith."

Burial was in Sacred Heart Cemetery, directed by McCoy Funeral Home of Muenster. Pallbearers were Geoffrey Miller; Virgil, Michael, Mark and Vernon Forrester; and Paul Ray Baird.

Among out-of-town relatives and friends attending the funeral were Herman and Rose Schettler of St. Paul, Kansas; Clara Schettler White of Columbus, Kansas; Paul Schettler of Walnut Kansas; Tim Conway of Duncan, Oklahoma; Frank Schettler and Albert Schettler, both of Elgin, Oklahoma; Margaret Schettler of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; Bernice Sinor of Elgin; Leo Schettler of Plano; Mary Ann Thomas of Mansfield; Joe and Voncille Jacobi of Electra; Ed and Violet Starke of Nocona; Alice Gruber; Annette Gruber of Denton; Geoffrey Miller and Mildred Miller, both of Hemet, California; Jo Ann Snyder and Crystal Snyder, both of San Jose, California; Daniel Starke of Odessa; LaVerna and Leonard Pfaff of Denver, Colorado; Marian and Robert Gruber of Lindsay; Irma and Vincent Forrester of Forestburg; Virgil, Michael, Mark and Vernon Forrester, Mona, Paul Ray, Whitney and Bret Baird, all of Forestburg; and Jutta Carter Starke of Wichita Falls.

Services held Oct. 6 for Vernie Edith Doughty

Vernie Edith (Hodges) Doughty of Marysville died at her home on Oct. 4, 1993 at 7:15 a.m. following a lengthy illness. She was born in Burneyville, Oklahoma on Aug. 27, 1911, a daughter of John Sheldon Hodges and Minnie Mae (Clark) Hodges. She married Joe Doughty in Marysville on Aug. 10, 1930. She was a homemaker, a member of the Baptist faith, and attended Marysville Community Church.

Among her special hobbies were quilting and crocheting and gardening. She was known for planting and caring for her beautiful roses and irises.

Survivors include her husband, Joe Doughty of Marysville; four sons and daughters-in-law, John Weldon and Louise Doughty of Gainesville; Douglas E. and Odella Doughty of Valley View; Jimmy and Marilyn Doughty of Marysville; Wayne and Joan Doughty of Keller; and one daughter-in-law, Tex

Emma Doughty of Valley View, the widow of her son.

Also one brother, Fred Hodges of Moore, Oklahoma; and two sisters, Josie Hallum of Burneyville, Oklahoma and Johnnie Corn of Marietta, Oklahoma.

There are 15 grandchildren, 20 great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grandchild.

Edith Doughty was preceded in death by her parents; two sons, Joe Sheldon and Eugene Glen; and three brothers, Ira, Ben and Lowell Hodges.

Services were held in the Marysville Community Church on Wednesday, Oct. 6, at 2 p.m. with Rev. Aubry Spires, pastor, officiating.

Burial in Marysville Cemetery was directed by McCoy Funeral Home of Muenster. Grandsons were pallbearers.

The family visitation was held at McCoy Funeral Home on Tuesday from 7 to 8 p.m.

Catherine Hellams dies Sept. 22 in Oklahoma City

Mass of Christian Burial was offered on Saturday, Sept. 25, at Christ the King Catholic Church at 1 p.m. for Catherine Elizabeth (Wieler) Hellams, who died at age 81 on Sept. 22, 1993 in Oklahoma City after a long period of illness.

A native of Muenster, she was born on Dec. 5, 1911 to William and Elizabeth Wieler. On Aug. 30, 1940, she was married to Dr. Alfred Allen Hellams. Survivors include her husband and their two sons, James Allen Hellams and Bill Hellams; one granddaughter, Lauren Hellams; and two sisters, Bertha Hamric of Muenster and Emma Billingsley of Ardmore.

Catherine Hellams was a Registered Nurse, a devoted member of Christ the King Catholic Church and was very active in her garden club.

Burial was in Resurrection Memorial Cemetery in Oklahoma City, directed by Smith and Kerne Funeral Home. Her family has suggested memorials to the Alzheimer's Association, 4900 N. Portland, Suite 116, Oklahoma City, OK 73112.

Among local relatives attending the funeral were Bertha Hamric, Imelda Rohmer, Arthur and Evie Felderhoff and Sue Wieler, all of Muenster; Dan and Fay Hamric of Montague; Joe and Ann Roewe of Denison; Emma Billingsley of Ardmore, and her son, Lee Billingsley, both of Dallas.

Hearing set on former Era athletic director

by Elaine Schad

The Texas Commissioner of Education has set a Nov. 23 hearing date to review the termination of former Era Athletic Director and Assistant Principal Duncan Hudson.

Era school trustees in July voted to uphold Hudson's firing after conducting a termination proceedings. Hudson was fired in June after a Cooke County grand jury indicted him on eight counts of indecency with a child under the age of 17. The incidents allegedly involved girls of junior high school age and occurred between Jan. 5, 1989, and March 25. Each charge is a second-degree felony with punishment from two to 20 years in prison and a $10,000 fine. Hudson is free on $200,000 bond and is awaiting trial. A Nov. 22 pre-trial hearing has been set on the indecency charges.

Hudson's termination will be reviewed by six hearing officers who will make a recommendation to education commissioner Skip Meno whether to uphold Hudson's termination, officials said. Hudson appealed the termination to the commissioner's office requesting the hearing.

Tax Talk

by: Duane Knabe, CPA

This week's topic is tax traps for mutual fund investors. Mutual funds are an easy way to play the financial markets without having to pick stocks and bonds. But watch out for tax traps that can push your fund investments off course.

You can give your returns a boost by avoiding four traps. (1) Investing in mutual funds just before they pay dividends. (2) Not recognizing that telephone exchanges among funds create taxable gains. (3) Paying taxes twice on your mutual fund dividends. And (4) not deducting mutual fund investing expenses.

Revitalize Your Home

Don't put off those much-needed home improvements any longer. Muenster State is just waiting to help improve your home with a loan.

No matter what you do — add a new room, enlarge the garage, install air conditioning or even re-landscape the yard — there's a loan available to make these dreams come true. Convenient repayment plans are available.

Homecoming Courts elected at Sacred Heart

Sacred Heart School will host 1993 Homecoming Festivities on Saturday, Oct. 9 when the Tigers' football team plays their first district game of the season against Lakehill. Pre-game activities start at 5:30 p.m. on Tiger Field. Kick-off time is 6 p.m.

Elections were held on Tuesday, Sept. 28 to select members of the King and Queen's Court. A prince and princess are selected from the freshman, sophomore and junior classes and from the senior class four queen candidates and four king candidates.

The 1993 Homecoming Queen candidates are Kelly Dangelmayr, daughter of Joe and Pam Dangelmayr; Jennie Endres, daughter of Sam and Karen Endres; Deanna Hess, daughter of Gene Hess and Patty Hess; and Erica Schilling, daughter of Duwayne and Sharlene Schilling. Crowning of the 1993 Queen will take place during Saturday's pre-game ceremony.

Seniors selected as King candidates are: Kelly Bayer, son of Claude and Mary Bayer; Aaron Berres, son of Dave and Kathy Berres; Michael Gehrig, son of Jim and Cindy Gehrig; and Chris Pagel, son of Maurice Pagel and Bobby and Sharlene Hartman. The crowning of the king will be at 7:30 p.m. Friday, Oct. 8 on the Tiger Field during the candlelight pep rally.

Other members of the royal court are juniors: Stephanie Grewing, daughter of Wayne and Peggy Grewing, and Neil Berres, son of Dave and Kathy Berres; sophomores: Karri Endres, daughter of Clinton and Debbie Endres, and John Klement, son of Pat and Ruth Klement; freshmen: Jennifer Campbell, daughter of Bob and Yvonne Ambrose, and Paul Swirczynski, son of Tom and Paulette Swirczynski.

Following the game Saturday a dance will be held in the Sacred Heart gym for high school students and in the Community Center for adults.

MMH Auxiliary advises everyone to "Run for the Border" on Oct. 30!

The annual fall fundraiser for the Muenster Memorial Hospital Auxiliary has taken a slightly different direction this year - south (to the border!)

This year's dance will feature the theme, "Run For The Border" and will take on a Mexican ambience, from the large piñata suspended in the center of the room to the Border Breakfast at the end of the evening.

Rosa's Cantina will sell frozen margaritas (non-alcoholic, of course). Everyone is reminded again of the diocesan law which prohibits the sale of alcoholic beverages from the community center; however, the public can bring their own coolers (not styrofoam, please!).

The evening's entertainment will kick off with a Pocket and Purse Scavenger Hunt. It is suggested that everyone bring whatever you might need for your "run for the border" and be prepared for the hunt!

Following the scavenger hunt will be an hour of local talent providing some "Tex-Mex" entertainment. Also during the evening, back by popular demand, will be the Horse Races, which of course will be headed toward the border!

There will not be an auction this year, but a special feature has been added. Chance tickets will be sold during the evening for an opportunity to take aim at the piñata gracing the center of the room. And we've been told it's not full of candy!

To add to the south of the border theme, "Andy Serna and Captive Hearts" will play for your dancing pleasure. The lively music will have you tapping your toes and anticipating a Mexican Hat Dance!

The Border Breakfast will consist of Spanish omelet, sausage, rice and beans, flour tortillas and salsa to round out the "spicy" evening.

Everyone is encouraged to dress in accordance to the theme - whether it be a Spanish señorita outfit or tough hombre attire. Sombreros, ponchos, peasant blouses and broomstick skirts will definitely add to the mood.

Proceeds from the dance and chance tickets will benefit the Muenster Memorial Hospital, to be used for whatever the administration deems necessary at the appropriate time.

Tickets are $15.00 per person and can be purchased at Crafty Olde German or 82 Liquor. Once tickets are purchased, call Betty Rose Walterscheid, 759-4143, or Joan Walterscheid, 759-4297, for reservations.

Vegas Night offered wide variety of entertainment

"Vegas Night was a success and a fun evening," said its sponsors and hosts, the Sacred Heart Alumni Association.

Many donors helped in several areas, including beverages, food, table sponsors, handcrafted items, and many wonderful kinds of baked goods.

Seven tables were filled with country store items, two with baked goods, two with foods and one with auction items. Top prize winners were Danny Silmon, who won a 1,000-lb. open heifer; and Kirk Klement, who won a trip for two to Las Vegas; and Allen Riley won a two-night stay in New Orleans' French Quarter.

"The evening was exciting and fun. With everyone's help, we will be looking forward to next year's event," said the Alumni Association.

Prepare now for Red Ribbon Week Oct. 23-31

Red Ribbon Week is scheduled for Oct. 23 through Oct. 31. The Texoma Community Partnership is ready with a supply of red ribbons for the three-county area. This year's ribbon says "The choice for me is drug free!"

The Red Ribbon campaign is nationwide event. It was initiated in 1985 by the Virginia Federation of Communities for Drug Free Youth (VFC) following the murder of Federal Agent Enrique Camarena by drug traffickers. The red ribbon was designated as a symbol of intolerance of illegal drug use and a commitment to a drug-free lifestyle.

Since the Red Ribbon campaign has been used as a vehicle nationwide for communities to unite to raise awareness of alcohol and other drug abuse. The campaign also promotes positive attitudes, a key factor in preventing drug use.

Red Ribbons are being distributed to schools in Cooke, Fannin and Grayson Counties. A number of ribbons are also available in Spanish. If your business or organization would like a supply for distribution to staff, contact the Texoma Community Partnership office at 903-786-2955.

Muenster Public Library announces new additions

The Muenster Jaycees and the Kiwanis Club have made a donation to the Muenster Public Library. This $1,000.00 donation was designated for the purchase of books that provide geographical information about the United States and also nations of the world.

The library staff chose the following sets of books:

Let's Discover the States is a colorful 17-book series that provides basic information on the 50 states. These books are ideal for quick reference or enjoyable reading. The photography is gorgeous and the information of the history, the land and the people are presented in a readable style.

State Reports is a perfect 17-book series for school reports or for family travel. With many illustrations and maps, these comprehensive volumes provide quick reference and easy-to-find information on the history, geography and population of the state. A unique biographical section in each book introduces notable men and women born in each state.

Let's Visit Places and People of the World is a series that covers the nations, dependencies and sovereignties of the world. Each book serves as an introduction to a country's inhabitants, history, culture, geography, government and economy, as well as its role in world affairs. These books are packed with information and are clearly organized.

Let's Discover Canada consists of four volumes about Canada's unique provinces and territories. Each book addresses the region's natural environment, human heritage, economic development, social and cultural life and outlook for the future.

The library is pleased to have these volumes to add to the collection. We are grateful to the Jaycees and Kiwanis Club for making it possible. The students from Sacred Heart School and Muenster Public School are invited and encouraged to come in and look at this latest acquisition.

Library hours are: Tuesday 8:30 to 5:00; Wednesday 2:30 to 5:30; Thursday 8:30 to 5:00.

MR. and MRS. BRIAN CECIL RANEY
...nee Christi Geneace Trotter...

Couple exchanges vows in August 21 ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. Brian Cecil Raney are at home in Commerce, Texas since returning from their wedding trip to Puerto Vallarta, Mexico. Both are students at East Texas State University where the bride is a junior majoring in Pre-Medical and the groom is a senior majoring in Elementary Education.

The bride is the former Christi Geneace Trotter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L.B. Trotter of Howe, Texas and the granddaughter of Mrs. Claudia Edwards. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Raney of Era and the grandson of Ms. Evelyn Aytes and Ms. Angela Raney.

The wedding was held in Central Christian Church of Sherman on Aug. 21, 1993 at 4 p.m., officiated by Mr. Randy Reddell. The church holds a special sentimental attachment for the couple. Built in the middle 1800s, it still has its original stained glass windows.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a lightweight satin gown designed with off-shoulder scalloped neckline, trimmed with pearls, long sleeves and bodice heavily beaded with pearls and sequins on underlying lace appliques. The skirt, trimmed with lace, extended into a chapel-length train with beaded appliques. Her chapel-length veil with blusher was attached to a tiara of beaded laces and pearls.

For tradition, she wore her grandmother's wedding rings and borrowed her cousin's gold necklace.

The bridal bouquet was a cascade of white calla lilies.

ATTENDANTS

Heather Nicole Finney of Howe, a friend of the bride was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Sheryl Mae Holland of Mesquite, Jennifer Leigh Kirk of Bula, Jennifer LaDean Mayo of Howe and Sheila Michelle Wood of Mesquite. All were attired in suits of straight black skirts, black jackets with flared peplums and large white collars. Their flowers were calla lilies tied with black satin ribbon.

Tabitha Armstrong, bride's cousin of Savannah, Oklahoma, was flower girl. Dylan Robertson, groom's nephew of Gainesville, was ring bearer.

James R. Collier, a friend of the groom of Georgetown, was best man. Groomsmen were Kevin Williams of Ferris, Steve Korman of Fort Worth and Tony Dorsey of Terrell. The groomsmen also served as ushers.

Church decorations included two arrangements of calla lilies and stephanotis in black vases and large white bows. Satin and tulle bows marked pews.

Claire Dering of Sherman was organist, presenting Pachelbel's "Canon in D" and the traditional wedding marches.

RECEPTION

A reception and buffet, hosted by the bride's parents for 120 guests, followed in the church reception rooms.

Leslie Oats of Commerce presided at the bride's book at a table covered with a Batenburg lace cloth from Sweden, presented to the bride by a friend from Japan.

The bride's table held the white wedding cake of three tiers, with a porcelain bridal figurine on top. Small yellow flowers decorated the butter cream icing. A tablecloth covering the bride's table was crocheted by her great-grandmother. The table held the silver punch service and candelabra and the bride's bouquet.

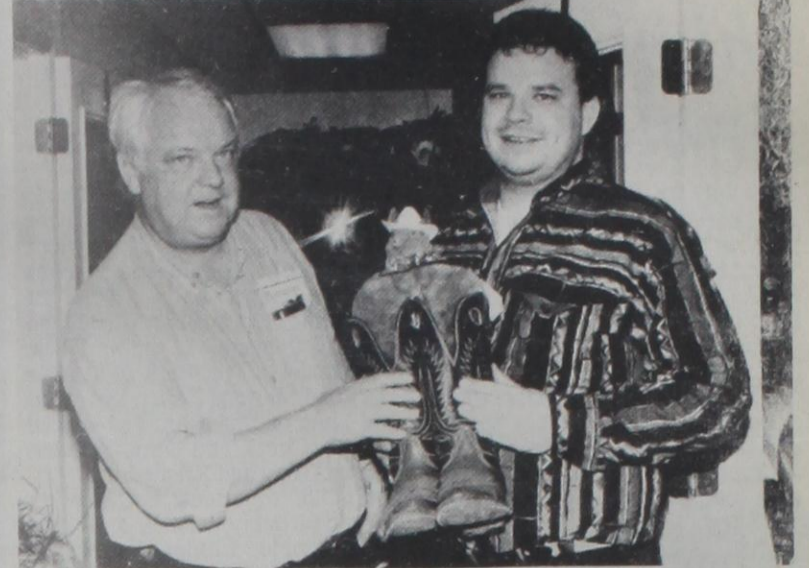

The chocolate groom's cake was decorated with mocha icing and the couple's new monogram. The groom's table held an arrangement of calla lilies in a black ceramic vase, and the silver coffee service.

Reception assistants were Joanna Stevens and Stacy Frank of Howe and Erika Dorsey of Dallas.

The rehearsal dinner, hosted by the groom's parents, was held at Steak Kountry in Sherman, for the wedding party and family members.

Special guests at the wedding were the groom's grandmothers, Ms. Evelyn Aytes and Ms. Angela Raney, and the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Claudia Edwards.

The bride is a graduate of Howe High School and is attending ETSU in Commerce. The groom is a graduate of Era High School and is also attending ETSU in Commerce.

WOLFGANG KÖSTER and Carsten Koester made the Crafty Olde German one of their stops last week as they came from Münster, Germany to Muenster, Texas, visiting friends in Ardmore, Oklahoma. Köster remembered Münster's sister city in Texas and when they found how easy it would be to visit, they came for a look.

History Bee begins again

Registration is now underway in Sacred Heart School and Muenster Junior High for participation in the 2nd annual Muenster History Bee. Students in grades 6, 7 and 8 are eligible.

The contest will be conducted in conjunction with Christkindmarkt on Nov. 27. Students who register will be given their study manuals on Oct. 13. Prizes will be the same as last year. The 10 finalists will each receive a T-shirt. The top winners will receive $50, $30 and $20, respectively.

This is a great way for young people of Muenster to familiarize themselves with the people, places and events that molded our town. Parents are urged to encourage their eligible children to participate and to help them prepare.

If you have any questions, please call Celine Dittfurth at City Hall, Bertha Hamric or Juanita Bright.

Heritage Quiz questions

1. When did the first lumber company open in Muenster?
2. What was the name of the first lumber company established in 1890 and how long were they in business?
3. What is now the longest, continuous business in Muenster?
4. What event in 1937 brought great new advances to the rural people?
5. Who was the first woman ever to be elected as a county commissioner?

Arendts hold reunion Sept. 19

A reunion was held on Sunday, Sept. 19 in the Lindsay Park for all of the descendants of Paul and Susie Arendt. Relatives attended from Cooke County, Fort Worth, Dallas and LaFeria.

Attending were Paul and Susie's children Andrew, Paul, John, Artie, Lou Voth, Liz Hoberer, Ann Herr, Flo Walterscheid, Joanie Bauer, Marie Fette Herr, and LuElla Zimmerer and their families. The Arendt's also had two sons, Ernest and Ulric, who died.

This year the annual event was hosted by Marie's children. The families enjoyed covered dishes at noon. Each family was identified by the color of their tee shirts. Olivia Ann Haverkamp, daughter of Penni and Floyd Haverkamp, was the youngest member at the reunion.

Shimbarah, shimbaree, Brandan just turned 3!

On July 25, Brandan Bindel was the guest of honor at a birthday party in the Muenster City Park, hosted by his parents, Ben and Tina Bindel. His celebration co-starred his best buddy, Barney the Dinosaur.

The Barney theme was carried out in the invitations, decorations and party favors. For his special celebration, the birthday boy appropriately wore a "Barney" T-shirt, cap and socks, all gifts from his sisters.

Guests were served cake, which featured four keepsake Barney figurines, and ice cream and punch. After opening gifts and playing "Pin the Heart on Barney," Brandan and his guests enjoyed an afternoon of swimming. Photos and videos were taken and a fun time was had by all. Brandan especially enjoyed showing off his favorite present, which he and his family received on July 14, his new baby sister, Briana Nicole. Brandan passed out Barney goody bags full of dinosaur goodies to his guests as they left.

Along with his sisters, Briana and Danielle, helping Brandan celebrate were his grandparents, Benny Dan and Edna Garrett of Jacksboro, and Wilfred and Ida Bindel of Muenster; Great-Uncle Pete Vinson of Jacksboro; Aunt Tricia and Uncle Benny Mack Garrett and cousins Stacie and Courtney of Rowlett; Aunt Phyllis Garcia and cousins Laura, Diana and Alicia of Lewisville; Uncle Brian Bindel and cousin Stephanie of Denton; Uncle Tim Bindel of Muenster; godparents Gary and Marlene Fisher, Eric, Karl and Lana of Muenster; and special friends, Chuck and Doris Koesler, Jessica, Tony and Kristina.

Unable to attend but sending happy birthday wishes and gifts were Uncle Lionel Garcia of Lewisville and Uncle Mac and Aunt Cindy Dennis of Houston.

On Brandan's actual birthday, July 27, he and his mom and sisters celebrated with a birthday lunch at McDonald's, followed by an afternoon of fun at Gainesville Park and Zoo. Brandan was again honored that evening with his favorite hot dog supper and chocolate dinosaur cupcakes, baked and decorated by his mom and big sister, Danielle.

Brandan's favorite gifts were a toy gun and holster set from his daddy; a personalized sheriff's badge from his Maw Maw and Paw Paw Garrett and a handmade baseball short set and cap from his Grandpa and Grandma Bindel.

PSAT tests administered to SH juniors on Oct. 12

Sacred Heart School will be administering the Preliminary Scholastic Assessment Test (PSAT) on Tuesday, Oct. 12. The PSAT is a revised test for this fall administration. The new test measures verbal and mathematical reading skills and it places a greater emphasis on critical reading and mathematical problem solving. In mathematics, students will have the option of using calculators when appropriate. In some instances students will generate their own mathematical responses instead of selecting from given choices.

The PSAT/NMSQT is the route for high school juniors to enter the National Merit Scholarship competition. All junior students at Sacred Heart School will be taking the PSAT at no cost to the student. Extra available tests will be offered to freshmen and sophomore students on a first come arrangement.

J.E.L.L.Y. prepares for program

On Sunday afternoon, Sept. 26, 36 seventh, eighth and ninth grade students met for the first J.E.L.L.Y. meeting of the school year. The theme for the afternoon was "Building Bridges." The young people experienced a series of games, Bible readings, small group discussions and worship which called for cooperation, fun and celebration leading them to understand how they are bridges of God's love to each other.

The J.E.L.L.Y. (Jesus EverLasting Loving You) team included Janet Voth, Paulette Swirczynski, Ernie Martin, Jeannine Flusche, John Klement, Toni Trubebach and Ashley Hartman. Snacks were provided by parents. Winning the door prizes, J.E.L.L.Y. T-shirts, were Matt York, Valerie Bartush and Jake Luke.

All seventh, eighth or ninth grade students are invited to participate in J.E.L.L.Y. programs. No fee or formal sign-up is required. Call Jeannine Flusche for information.

On Oct. 9, Sacred Heart Youth Ministry will host the Disciples of Our Lord Jesus Christ from Channing, Texas who will present a program for area junior high youth groups at the Community Center.

Ida Neu honored with party for 90th birthday

Mrs. Ida Neu celebrated her 90th birthday on Sunday, Oct. 3 surrounded by family and friends. Her children hosted a birthday party at the Stanford House in Gainesville.

The party room was decorated with a big banner with "Happy 90th Birthday". A granddaughter, Joyce Bengfort, made and decorated the cake. Another granddaughter, Phyllis Garcia, and her daughter, Diana Garcia, entertained the children by "clowning around" as Strawberry and Cotton Candy. They made balloon animals, performed tricks and told stories.

Mrs. Neu's hobbies are crocheting, visiting, reading and Bingo. She is a resident of Pecan Tree Manor. Ida, her sister Magdalene and her son Charles all have the same birthday, Sept. 30.

The 140 relatives and friends enjoyed visiting and picture taking. Birthday cake, punch and pick-up foods were served.

Guests included Mrs. Neu's sisters and brother and their spouses: Mrs. Anna Henscheid, Armella and Gus Lutkenhaus, Marcella and Paul Fetsch and J. P. and Hazel Flusche of Muenster; Magdalene and Raymond Zimmerer and Marie and Lawrence Zimmerer of Gainesville. Also her sisters-in-law Agnes Gore and daughters Gretchen and Doris and Jerry Wiseman and Margaret Kupper and daughter Betty Rose Walterscheid of Muenster. Unable to attend were brothers and sister-in-law Lawrence Flusche of Decatur and Urban and Theresa Flusche of Dallas. Nieces, nephews, cousins, neighbors and friends also attended. Guests came from Lindsay, Gainesville, Mesquite, Carrollton, Houston, Lewisville, Denton, Wichita Falls, Valley View and Oklahoma.

Mrs. Neu's children are Msgr. Hubert J. Neu of Arlington, Ida Mae and Wilfred Bindel of Muenster, Anna and James Bayer of Gainesville and Charles and Mary Neu and Cecilia and Ray Hoenig of Lindsay. She has 21 grandchildren and 33 great grandchildren.

Lindsay Merit Scholar semi-finalists announced

by Elaine Schad
Lindsay High School seniors Darren Hundt and Doug Hellingner, have been selected as semi-finalists in the National Merit Scholarship Program, school officials have announced.

Hellingner is the son of Roy and Cindy Hellingner, while Hundt is the son of Richard and Debbie Hundt, all of Lindsay.

The students have the opportunity to continue in competition for more than 6,500 Merit scholarships worth more than $25 million that will be awarded in the spring 1994. The nationwide semi-finalist pool includes about half of one percent of each state's high school graduating class.

Hundt and Hellingner qualified for the semi-finals through their performance on the 1992 preliminary SAT qualifying test. Finalists will be selected based on academics, school and community leadership and other criteria.

Hundt is a member and vice president of St. Peter's Catholic Youth Organization and has been active in University Interscholastic League and sports activities at school. He is currently the district UIL golf champion and the state UIL Class A science champion.

Hellingner is the St. Peter's CYO treasurer. He has placed at the state level in UIL science competition the past two years. Hellingner is currently seeking nomination and an appointment to one of the U. S. military service academies.

Morgan celebrates with Barney on 2nd birthday

Morgan McKenzie, daughter of Brad and Susan McKenzie of Callisburg, celebrated her second birthday on Aug. 28, 1993, at the home of her parents. Her favorite "Barney" theme was used. Refreshments included birthday cake and homemade ice cream. Gifts were opened and pictures were made.

MORGAN MCKENZIE

Lady Hornets compete in Cross Country Meet

Muenster's Lady Hornets Cross Country team competed in the Martin High School Race last Saturday at Veteran's Park in Arlington. They dropped their final points by 80 from last week to finish with 222. Points are gathered by places finished, with a lower number ranking higher.

The competition consisted of 1-, 2- and 3-A schools. "I was very happy with their times compared to last week, with everyone improving," commented Coach Danna Hess. "To place at district, though, the girls will have to improve their time by a minute and a half each. Which is not hard to do as they improve each week."

Lady Hornets, their places and times were as follows: 25, Julia Fleitman, 14:42; 26, Hollie Fuhrmann, 14:44; 52, Misty Knabe, 15:50; 57, Mindy Hennigan, 16:20; 62, Becky Fleitman, 17:04; 66, Jennifer Keller, N/A.

District contender Alvord had an impressive finish with 75 points and 3 girls ending in the top 20.

The Lady Hornets will be tested this weekend at a Ponder Cross Country Meet where they will compete against other schools in the district.

Knights over Tigers 43-13 in Homecoming

Lindsay hosted the Sacred Heart Tigers last Friday for their Homecoming game. Pre-game activities crowned Rashell Sharp as the 1993 Queen.

The Knights remained in the win column as they dominated the Tigers in a 43-13 game.

"We're lacking consistency, until we learn to be consistent we will struggle," commented Coach John Nasche. "At times, we play good ball, but other times we lapse mentally, which ends up in big plays for our opponents."

Across the field, Lindsay was down a little from last week's big win and all the Homecoming activities. "The boys didn't play with lots of emotion," said Coach Charlie Meurer. "They played good, but just didn't have that oomph!"

Lindsay took the opening kick to their 43-yard line. Six runs by Shane Huchton and a short run each by Jeff Hale and Chris Brown took the Knights to the 5. On 1st and goal, Huchton found the end zone. Toby Eberhart booted the extra point and Lindsay had an early lead with 8:13 remaining on the clock.

The Tigers' first offensive attempt began on the 20-yard line, and ended with a punt on 4th and 5.

From the Sacred Heart 42, Hale broke away for a 31-yard gain to the 11-yard line. It was Huchton, Hale, then Huchton into the end zone for 6 points. The extra point was blocked and carried to midfield by Jeremy Bayer before Lindsay caught up with him. With 5:35 on the clock, the score was 13-0.

A fumbled play forced the Tigers to again punt away on 4th and 16. Sacred Heart's defense stiffened with Brandon Bayer catching Dan Zimmerer in the backfield for a 6-yard loss, followed by Kelly Bayer covering a fumbled ball.

Sacred Heart got a good drive going into the second quarter. Runs by Jason Hess, Neil Berres and Scott Frost moved the Tigers into Lindsay territory before running out of downs.

The Knights began their next drive from their 20. Again, Huchton dominated the field with Hale assisting on several runs. Huchton carried the ball in from the 1 for the touchdown. Chris Brown ran in the extra points. With 7:08 remaining in the first half, the Knights took a 21-0 lead.

Sacred Heart again mixed their runs between Joseph McCoy, Frost and Berres. An interference flag assisted as the Tigers moved to the 25-yard line. After 3 unsuccessful plays, Chris Brown picked off a pass in the end zone giving Lindsay possession on the 20. Three short runs and the teams took their halftime breaks.

Coach Nasche tried an old Virgil Henscheid play, "The Wall," to open up the second half. "It is definitely effective," said Nasche. "It's the first time we used it this year."

Jason Hess took the kick 90 yards for Sacred Heart's first score. Key blocks by Scott Frost and Chris Pagel allowed Hess to score. The extra run failed for a 21-6 game, seconds into the quarter.

Jeremy Owen returned the Tigers' kick 14 yards to the 40. The next play, Jeff Hale blasted 60 yards for another Lindsay touchdown. The point after failed for a 27-6 game with just 37 seconds ticked off the clock.

The Tigers' next drive ended on the 4th down kick. Lindsay started their move near midfield. A fumbled play, recovered by Brian Dulock, gained 11 yards. Runs by Zimmerer and Huchton took the line to the 8. A touchdown run by Huchton was called back on a holding flag, but the next play, Huchton found Zimmerer on a 16-yard scoring pass play. Eberhart's kick went wide for a 33-6 game with 6:51 remaining.

The Tigers again failed to get the needed 10 yards, punting the ball back to the Knights. From midfield, Huchton, Hale and Brown carried the team to the 16-yard line. On 4th and 3, Toby Eberhart booted a 33-yard field goal. With 1:33 on the 3rd quarter clock, Lindsay now led 36-6.

The Tigers' next drive began on their 27-yard line. Berres and Hess took the ball into the final quarter. Six good plays moved Sacred Heart 69 yards. Hess passed to Kelly Bayer for an 8-yard gain, then found Neil Berres for another 15. The next play, a Hess keeper, picked up another 13. Hess found Bayer twice for 14 and 19-yard gains to the 6-yard line. Joseph McCoy took the ball in with a run to the wide left for a touchdown. Michael Becker's kick was good for a 36-13 game 3 minutes into the 4th period.

Chris Brown returned the Tigers' kick 40 yards to midfield. A few short runs paved the way for a 43-yard touchdown run by Dan Zimmerer. Eberhart's kick cleared the uprights and the Knights had their 43-13 win with 7 minutes remaining in the game.

The Tigers got in a few extra plays when Lindsay was charged with roughing the kicker, but had to turn the ball over on downs. The Knights got off 4 runs before Jason Hess stripped the ball from Chris Brown, allowing Mike Schilling to cover for Sacred Heart. Four plays later, Pat Hogan picked off a Tiger pass to end the game.

"It was another win," said the Lindsay coach. "Lots of offense, nothing flashy, we controlled the ball and ran it."

Sacred Heart will host the Dallas Lakehill Warriors Saturday evening for their district game and 1993 Homecoming.

Lakehill has a season record of 4-0 with wins over Balch Springs, Dallas County Youth, Forth Worth

New winners with improved scores this week

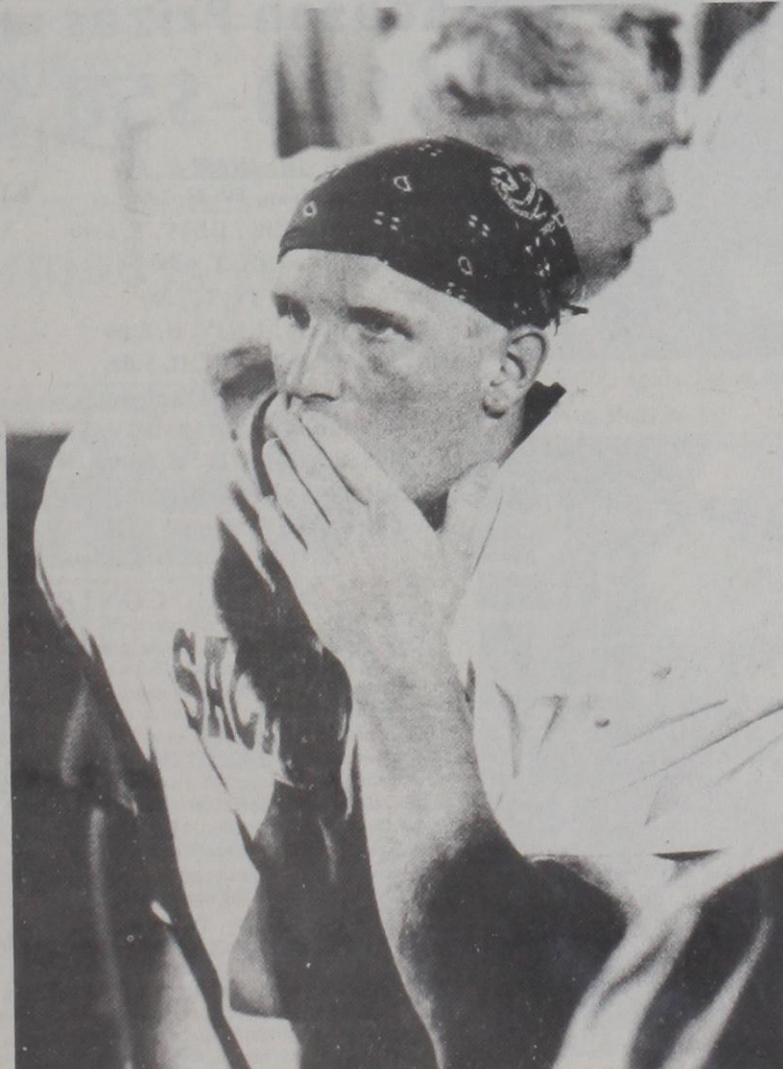

With the low score of 20, most entries in the Football Contest improved their scores in the fifth week of competition. Fourteen missed only 5 games with 9 getting 26 correct winners. This included Barbie Barnhill, Cory Cain, Charles Edwards, Ramona Felderhoff, Jason Frost, Benny Haverkamp, Wayne Klement, Terry Walterscheid and Ray Wilde.

Five contestants tied for top honors with 27 games correctly guessed. After the tiebreaker, Mark Fuhrmann took first place, only 4 points off the final score. He picked his cash prize up at Farm Bureau, last week's tiebreaker. Wendell Richey came in 2nd with a 6-point spread and collected his $10.00 from Metzler's Paint and Body. Mark Grewing's 9-point difference on the tiebreaker game earned him 3rd place, picking his prize up at the DI One Stop. Settling for 4th place were John Klement and Weldon Hermes, each missing the tiebreaker score by 15 points.

Of the 50 entries last week, only one devoted mother picked Muenster to win over Honey Grove. Two contestants guessed real close to the final score with 43-6 and 42-6. Their names were held because one was afraid of the hassle he'd receive from the Hornet players and fans.

Across the street, only the two Tiger coaches picked Sacred Heart to win over Lindsay. Everyone picked Gainesville and Alvord to win, except for two that forgot to mark a winner. Three picked Era to lose, while 20 thought Saint Jo could win over Thackerville's 8 men.

As we go into the 6th week of high school football, Bonnie Stoffels leads the contest with an .858 percent of correct picks. Following in 2nd place, with .825, are Mike Felderhoff, Edna Hermes, Henry J. Knabe, Benny Haverkamp, Mike Stoffels and Wayne Klement. Cory Cain and Mark Fuhrmann follow with .808 and .800.

Warriors conquer Hornets 42-8

Muenster finished their tough pre-season last week, losing 42-8 to #2 state-ranked Class 2A Honey Grove. "They've just got too much speed all together," stated Coach Grady Roller. "We played well, but made too many mistakes." Mistakes that included two touchdown giveaways. "They beat us on the scoreboard, but the stats were pretty even," continued Roller. "We're getting better, not as many mistakes. But against a team like this, you can't give them mistakes."

Muenster started the opening possession of the game from its 20. The Hornets moved the ball slowly for 7 runs to their 46-yard line, but their attempt to hit the air waves failed 3 times and Honey Grove's offense took over on downs. It was 4 downs and out for the Warriors, sticking Muenster in the hole at the 7. A short punt gave Honey Grove the ball on Muenster's 18, 3 runs later the Warriors were on the scoreboard. The PAT failed with 2:22 on the clock.

Muenster fumbled the kick-off and the Warriors once more were inside the Hornet 20. This time, the defense did not allow Honey Grove to score, holding the drive to a 2-yard loss.

From their 21, runs by James Klement, Cody Sicking and Jason Huchton brought the Hornets out to the 32, but 3 unsuccessful plays again forced a punt.

From their own 37, Honey Grove took only 6 plays to find paydirt. The extra run was good for a 14-0 contest 3 minutes into the 2nd quarter.

Runs by Klement, Huchton and Scott Debnam were wasted when a quarterback sack and incomplete pass forced a punt.

The Warriors got in 6 plays and booted the ball back to Muenster. Muenster and Honey Grove exchanged punts with Debnam getting in a 21-yard run before 4 incomplete passes ended the first half of play.

The second half started off bad for the Hornets. After 3 plays and a punt, the Warriors returned the kick 25 yards to the Hornet 35-yard line. Two plays later, Honey Grove once more lit up the scoreboard for a 20-0 score 2-1/2 minutes into the 3rd quarter.

Muenster's attempted next drive ended on the 3rd play when the Warriors picked off a pass, running 47 yards for another touchdown. The extra run was good for a 28-0 game with 8:48 on the clock.

A completed pass to Sicking and a Debnam run gave Muenster a 28-yard gain, but 2 incomplete passes prevented any gain and the Hornets booted the ball away.

Once again, it was 4 downs and out as Muenster's defense held, getting possession on the Warriors' 39.

Klement and A.J. Knabe got 1 first down, followed by a completed pass to Jay Hennigan for a 20-yard gain to the 12. Cody Sicking took the ball twice, the second good for a 10-yard touchdown. Huchton's throw to Knabe added another 2 points and Muenster was on the board 28-8, with only 46 seconds on the quarter clock.

Honey Grove shoved two long runs, 32 and 24 yards, at the Hornets. But to begin the last quarter, Jay Hennigan picked off a pass in the end zone to stop the drive.

Muenster could do nothing with the ball and punted. Honey Grove moved into Hornet territory, but a loose ball covered by Brandon Walterscheid stopped their threat, but only for a moment. The next play, the Warriors picked off a Muenster pass. From midfield, the Warriors ran 5 plays, the last a 26-yard touchdown. The extra point kick counted for a 35-8 score.

The Hornets again got a good drive going with runs by Sicking, Knabe and Klement, picking up 28 yards. But, again, disaster struck when Honey Grove stepped in and intercepted a pass, running 65 yards for a touchdown.

The PAT was good and the Warriors had their 42-8 victory.

Muenster's offense played out the remaining time.

"We're looking to the next step," Roller said. "District ... playing teams on our same level."

Muenster begins district action this Friday when they take on the state-ranked Pirates in Collinsville. The Pirates have dominated all their pre-district games by scores of 66-13, 51-0, 50-6, 36-0 and 55-0 last week. But that's what they did last year and the Hornets surprised them, winning 12-7.

"Collinsville won't dominate us and do what they want at will like other teams they've played. It will be a good game," commented the Muenster coach. "It's a big game for us but not a must win. Teams in the district are even, with Collinsville as a favorite. A couple of move-ins didn't hurt them. Collinsville has good skilled players in every position," concluded Roller.

Game time is 7:30 p.m. at Collinsville.

JAMES KLEMENT almost shook this Honey Grove tackler. The extra effort and yardage was good for a Muenster Hornet first down.

Boys Club Football

Fifth and sixth graders from Saint Jo and Muenster have teamed up to make the Red River Food and Gas team again this year. Coaches are Joe Reeves, Marc Barnes and Jeff Harris.

Muenster team members are Kayla Felderhoff, Jake Little, Jim Stoffels, Casey Walterscheid, Bryan Miller, Jonathan Reed, Nick Silva, Keith Felderhoff and Travis Bayer. Saint Jo members are Scott Harris, William Moore, Brian Clark, Josh Raymond, Kamron McMahan, Greg Reeves, Timmy Sampson, B.J. Pledger, Justin Brawner, Chris Hoover, Brandon Moore, Jessie Harris, Heath Harris.

The schedule is as follows: Saturday, Oct. 9, Red River vs. Era, 2 p.m.; Monday, Oct. 11, Red River vs. Valenite, 7:15 p.m.; Saturday, Oct. 16, Red River vs. FSB, 10:15 a.m.; Saturday, Oct. 23, Red River vs. Optimist, 4:30 p.m.

Games are played at the Gainesville Boys Club.

Red River 6, Poly Pipe 24
Red River got off to a slow start in the first ball game, losing to Poly Pipe 24-6.

Red River finally got on the board in the 4th quarter when Greg Reeves ran in from the 7-yard line.

Defensive standouts included Brian Miller, Timmy Sampson and Nick Silva. Offensively, Red River had 23 carries for 45 yards.

Red River 36, CBJ 0
Red River's 2nd game did a turnaround, with both offense and defense doing better.

With 2:44 left in the 1st quarter, Bryan Miller scored on a 3-yard run, the point after attempt failed, for a 6-0 score.

In the 2nd quarter, Greg Reeves ran from 15 yards out for the touchdown. The point after was good with Casey Walterscheid taking it in. With 32 seconds left before halftime, Timmy Sampson grabbed an interception and ran it in from 43 yards out, point after was no good. Score was 20-0 at halftime.

In the 3rd quarter, Greg Reeves scored from 6 yards out. Casey Walterscheid ran in the 2-point conversion for a 28-0 lead.

The final score came in the 4th quarter when Casey Walterscheid found the end zone on a 9-yard run. The extra point failed for a 36-0 game.

The offensive line is credited for an outstanding job of blocking for the backs.

Defensive standouts, keeping CBJ to very few yards rushing, included Bryan Miller, Jessie Harris and Keith Felderhoff.

Offensively, the team gained 127 yards on 28 carries.

Sacred Heart's Second Year Training for Success
by Donetta Hess

It may be football season now, and people may see the Sacred Heart dance-team and cheerleaders practicing after school for the Friday night football games, but there is also a season that everyone may not see that is underway for its second year at Sacred Heart High School. That is the girls' cross-country training season. There are approximately 23 out of 27 dance team members and cheerleaders who are spending extra time after their practices to train for a second T.A.P.P.S. Cross-Country State Title.

The trainers working for the 1993 state trophy are Erica Schilling, Jennie Endres, Deanna Hess, Kelly Dangelmayr, Jutta Leskinen and Donetta Hess. Juniors are Stephanie Grewing, Tiffany Fisher, Sarina Fuhrmann and Jennifer Fuhrmann. Sophomore members are Karri Endres, Nicole Endres and Jeanna Trammel. Freshmen are Brandy Gilpin, Kelly Rigler, Amanda Russell, Melinda Vickers, Corey Hess, Jill Hess, Tanya Knauf, Anna Fette, Dobe Friday-Fleitman, Tara Yosten, Leslie Grewing and Jennifer Campbell.

Last year, the team of six state-qualifiers brought home their first T.A.P.P.S. Cross-Country State Title. This year, with the help of Coach Jon LeBrasseur, the girls' hard work will, without a doubt, send another six state-qualifiers to Waco.

Working Together as a Team
by Jennie Endres

The Sacred Heart football team has many helpers this year. There are various jobs that need to be done. The managers, trainers, and statisticians need to have water ready, equipment set up, games filmed, statistics taken for each game and other tasks that are necessary to keep things running smoothly. Although these jobs seem simple, they have to be done, and done well! Everyone has to work together. The coaches, John Nasche and Danny Walterscheid, rely on help throughout the season.

The managers are Jonathan Grewing, Aaron Hess, Glen Dangelmayr, Brad Schilling, Joel Schilling and Matthew Nasche. The trainers for the Tiger team are Jody Felderhoff and Mike Gehrig. Statisticians are Brian Rohmer and Jennie Endres.

Football season takes teamwork, discipline, execution of skills and the support and dedication of devoted fans.

Sacred Heart 0, Lindsay 24
 The Lindsay Squires were hosted by Sacred Heart last Thursday and took home a 24-0 victory. All points were made in the first half of the ball game.
 Lindsay took the opening kick and, on the first play, Isaac Zimmerer took off around the right end for a 48-yard touchdown. Jamie Baggs ran in the extra point for an 8-0 score just seconds into the contest.
 The Cubs started and ended their first attempt around their 20-yard line. On the second play, Lindsay covered a loose ball. Baggs carried the Squires to the 13. Three runs by Zimmerer and Lindsay was on the 3. Quarterback Steven Tepera carried the ball into the end zone for the points. Zimmerer added the extra run for a 16-0 score with 2:05 on the clock.
 Sacred Heart only mustered 9 yards their next drive from a run-and-pass completion by Jeff Yosten. Lindsay carried the ball into the 2nd quarter, but lost it on 4th down when Yosten covered fumbled ball.
 From midfield, two unsuccessful plays by the Cubs were followed by an intercepted pass by Jeff Bezner. Tepera connected with Scott Arendt for a 44-yard touchdown pass, but ball to the 12-yard line. On 4th and 8, a Fuhrmann-to-Yosten pass gained only 2 yards and Lindsay got the ball on downs. The Squires played out the remaining time.

Muenster 8th 6, Pilot Point 12
 Last Thursday, Muenster's junior high hosted the Pilot Point Bearcat Cubs. The visitors took the opening kickoff but, on their 2nd play, Chad Roller covered a loose ball. Muenster's first drive was cut short when Pilot Point picked off a pass. But, again, two plays later, the Cubs fumbled the ball back to Muenster.
 The Young Hornets couldn't get the needed yards and punted the ball over. Again, the Bearcats fumbled. After several good runs, the Stingers again had to punt. The Cubs drove down the field 50 yards for a touchdown. The extra points were no good for a 6-0 halftime score.
 Muenster made several good runs by Jeremy Walterscheid and Chad Roller. A pass from Scott Hermes to Shane Sparkman was good for 6 points. The points after failed for a tied ball game.
 Pilot Point fumbled again after 2 plays with Michael Boydston covering for Muenster. Hermes found Sparkman for a 15-yard gain, an illegal block put the Squires back on the 21-yard line. Flags continued to plague Lindsay. A holding and two motion penalties had the Squires in a 4th and 13 on the 29-yard line. Isaac Zimmerer pushed through to the 2-yard line and, on the next play, was in for 6 points. Corey Neu ran in the PAT for a 24-0 score with 1:20 remaining in the first half. The Cubs played out the remaining time.

 The second half was scoreless and quick with each team having possession twice.
 The Cubs took the opening kick, but punted the ball away on 4th and 19. Lindsay got in 6 runs before running out of downs.
 The Cubs took the ball into the final period. Two passes from Matthew Fuhrmann to Yosten carried Sacred Heart into Lindsay territory with Yosten carrying the but 2 plays later, a loose ball was covered by the Bearcats. It took only 3 plays and Pilot Point took a 12-6 lead. Cory Charles prevented the Cubs from adding the extra points.

 The teams exchanged possessions as time ticked off the clock.
 Cory Charles, Brian and Barry Fleitman are credited for a good defensive game with Shane Sparkman, Scott Hermes and Chad Roller playing good offense.
Muenster 7th 0, Pilot Point 26
 Muenster's Little Stingers were unable to put together a scoring drive in their game last Thursday with Pilot Point.
 Good offensive playing could be seen from Aaron Klement, Brent Sicking and John Roller. Defensive standouts were Justin Klement, Brent Sicking, Bill Hellman and Jessie Luke.

Bus is chartered for "Race for the Cure" Run

Each year a fund raiser, Race for the Cure, is sponsored by the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation. The money raised is used to fund breast cancer projects in the Dallas area.
 This year a charter bus will leave Muenster on Oct. 23 at 6 a.m. and return at 3 p.m. It will park within 20 feet of the start and finish lines of the race. Only 42 seats are available on the bus. The round trip includes breakfast on the bus and costs $12 per person. Reservations for the bus are due Oct. 9.

 For entry forms or more information call Jeannine Flusche, 759-4497 or 759-4434 or Wanda Flusche, 759-4876 or 759-4964.
 The 5K run/walk begins at 8 a.m. on the Dallas Galleria property and adjacent roads. There is also a one mile Fun Run/Walk starting at 8:10 a.m. Entry fee is $15 by mail before Oct. 15 or $18 on or after Oct. 16.

Expo Contest winners announced

The winner of the seventh through twelfth grade category Texas Wildlife Expo poetry contest was Darrin L. Boyd, an eighth grader from Nocona. His poem is below:

YESTERDAY
 by Darrin L. Boyd
 Yesterday my Granddad was an old man
 Shaky,
 Bald,
 Wrinkled.
 Yesterday we picked vegetables
 Tomatoes,
 Cucumbers,
 Peppers.
 Yesterday we walked to the pond
 Chased butterflies
 Skipped rocks
 I helped Granddad up the hill.
 Yesterday we drove to the mailbox
 Slowly
 Unsteadily
 Instead of mail, we found a bird's nest nestled inside.
 Yesterday we went to "The Boyd Place"
 Took out the guns
 Walked to the creek
 Set up some bottles and cans.
 Yesterday was my first lesson in shooting
 "Guns are not toys," Granddad said.
 "They are to be respected Handle with care."
 Yesterday I shot the gun
 I missed
 I came close
 Granddad said I was a marksman.
 Yesterday Granddad shot the gun
 Steady - not shaky
 Hands made of stone
 He didn't miss.
 Yesterday Granddad was an old man
 Yesterday I was six
 A good team
 Youth and wisdom.

MISD selects Kiwanis Students for September

Each month during the school year two students will be selected from Muenster ISD to be honored as Kiwanis Students of the Month. Students are nominated by the teaching staff from the elementary and high school and then one is chosen from each school to be Citizen of the Month.

Students are selected for qualities that set them apart from their fellow classmates. They are assets to their school and community.

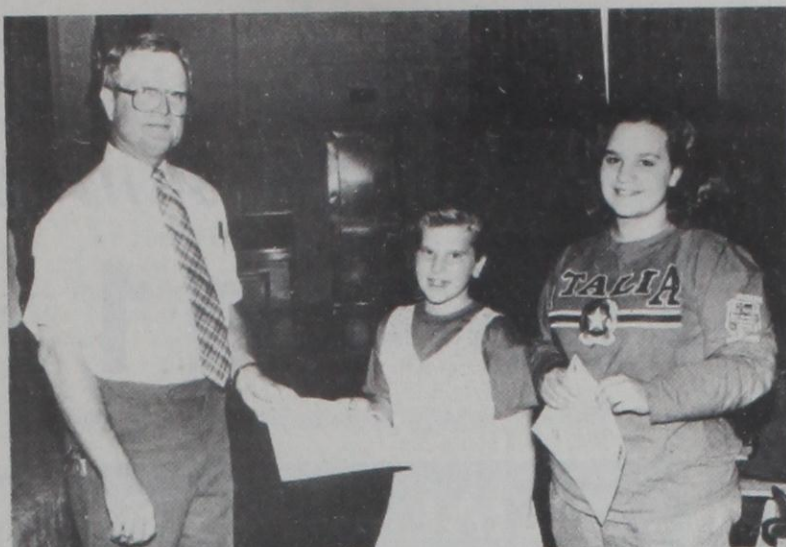

Brandy Gilbreath represents Muenster Elementary School. She is a fifth grade honor student in Marjorie Alsup's class. Brandy is courteous to everyone, always willing to help others, and does her best with everything she attempts. Her favorite subjects are mathematics and spelling.

In her spare time Brandy likes to read, have sleep-overs with friends, cheer, talk to classmates and play touch football. She likes to watch movies and go to football games with her family. She also enjoys playing with her dogs Buddy and Charlie. Brandy is the daughter of Donnie and Yvonne Gilbreath.

Muenster High's choice for Student of the Month was Ashley Hartman, daughter of Roy and Irene Hartman. Ashley is a very active young lady who is involved in many aspects of school and community life.

Ashley is a representative on the Student Council and vice-president of the Junior Class. She is a member of FHA, PALS, Girl Scouts and her church's youth group, J.A.M. Ashley is very involved in the U.I.L. Academic events each year and is looking forward to the spring meet in 1994. She participated in the Hugh O'Brien Youth Leadership Conference last year and has repeatedly demonstrated leadership in her school life. "She is a very good student and very deserving of this honor," said school officials.

Deadline for submitting posters in the Fire Prevention Poster Contest, sponsored by the Cooke County Fire Fighters Association, Inc., is Oct. 13. Both local schools have had students in the primary and intermediate classes working on the project. A representative of the Muenster Volunteer Fire Dept. will pick up the posters on Oct. 13, which will then be judged during the next meeting of the Cooke County Fire Fighters Association.

County Extension Homemakers attend state convention in Waco

by Evelyn Yeatts,
County Extension Agent-H.E.
Cooke County Extension Homemakers Clubs were represented recently at the Annual Texas Extension Homemakers Association State Convention in Waco. Delegates included Wilma Richardson of the Ross Point Club, Mary Wambaugh of the Callisburg Club and Dorothy Fisher of the Muenster Club. Also attending from Cooke County was Marjorie Hendry from Sivells Bend.

Upon their arrival at the Waco Convention Center, members and guests were greeted by the T.E.H.A. State Board and club members from the host district, District 8.

The convention was started with an "Early Bird Conference" of Heritage Skills and Home Arts Demonstrations as well as a Trade Show and Educational Exhibits.

Activities for the week included cultural arts exhibits, special workshops, educational tours and keynote speakers.

Speakers included Joyce Landorf Heatherley, author, public speaker and recording artist from Austin; and Toody Byrd, retired teacher and humor columnist from Austin.

Workshop topics included Water Smart, Learn How to Have a Blue Thumb, T.E.H.A. Celebrates the International Year of the Family, One Step at a Time to a Healthier Lifestyle, Family Rap: Critical TV Viewing, Connecting Up - Creating a New Image, and Knowing America's Heritage.

Cooke County delegates were pleased when two Extension Homemakers from Cooke County placed in the State Cultural Arts Contest.

Nancy Carter placed first in the Fabric Doll Category and Gayle Odom placed second in the Decorated Garment Category. Nancy and Gayle are both from the Callisburg Club.

The business session included several topics including a name change from the Texas Extension Homemakers Association to the Texas Association for Family and Community Education.

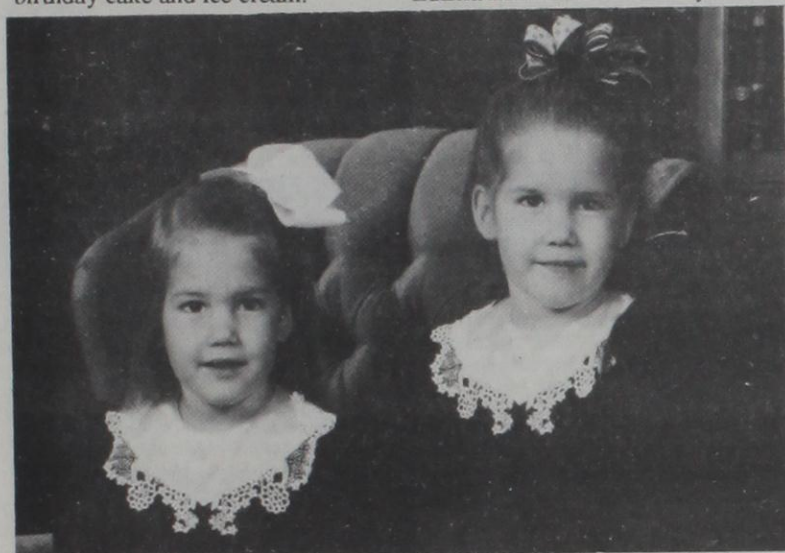

Twins have Barbie birthday

Rachel and Laura Zimmerer, twin daughters of Rudy and Claudia Zimmerer of Lindsay, turned five on Sunday, Sept. 12.

They celebrated their birthday in the home of their grandmother, Mary Hundt, who hosted a family dinner, followed by a "Barbie" birthday cake and ice cream.

Others attending were Marilyn Cox; Chris, Shelly, Allison, Derek and Tyler Hundt; Nancy and Glenn Davis; and the honorees' brothers and sisters, Andrew, Patrick, Julie and Emily.

Rachel and Laura are also the grandchildren of Vincent and LuElla Zimmerer of Lindsay.

Baptism

Trubenbach

Lacey Ann Trubenbach received the Sacrament of Baptism in a private ceremony on Saturday, Sept. 11, 1993, at 5 p.m. in St. Peter's Catholic Church of Lindsay with her great-great-uncle, Rev. Alcuin Kubis, OSB, of Scranton, Arkansas, officiating. She is the daughter of Karl and Beth Trubenbach of Muenster.

Godparents, Craig and Donna Walterscheid, attended Lacey during the ceremony. Attired in the christening gown worn by her father and brother Levi during their baptisms, Lacey also wore a cross and chain, gifts from her godparents, and white satin shoes worn by her cousin, Ashley, worn on her baptism day.

Present for the baptism were her parents, her brother, Levi; grandparents Kenneth and Janie Thurman of Lindsay; great-grandmother, Catherine Kubis of Lindsay; great-grandfather, Martin Trubenbach of Muenster; aunts, uncles and cousins, Donna, Craig, Ashley and Chad Walterscheid;

Steve Trubenbach and Melissa Bayer; Dickie Trubenbach; Tony and Thelma Trubenbach; Sherrie, Dustin and Ashley Krebs; Donna, Michael, Johnathan and Jeffrey Zimmerer; and Gena Thurman.

Unable to attend but sending greetings were grandparents, Don and Betty Flusche of Muenster; great-grandfather, Albert Kubis of Lindsay; Kenny and Jessica Thurman; Vicki Thurman; and Patrick and Joseph Krebs.

Dinner followed at the Kenneth Thurman home. Pictures were taken and gifts were opened.

Bindels reunion

Descendants of the late Peter and Mary Bindel held their annual reunion in the Muenster City Park on Sept. 26.

There were 60 family members attending. They enjoyed a covered dish lunch, visiting, games and picture taking.

Out of town guests came from Pilot Point, Goldwithe, Burleson, Gainesville and Myra.

Bret honored on Sept. 21

Bret Homsley Walterscheid turned 5 on Sept. 21. He celebrated the day with his classmates and friends at Tender Loving Care Pre-School. Bret brought special "little hands" and "Number 5" cookies for everyone.

BRET WALTERSCHEID

Bret's parents, Kim and Lisa Walterscheid, together with Bret's brothers, Dustin and Garrett, shared cake and ice cream with cousins and grandparents, Willie and Queenie Walterscheid and Loyd and Gwen Trubenbach.

America from a Finnish Point of View
by Jennifer Fuhrmann

How would you be able to adapt to a new language, culture and people? Most of us would not be able to handle it, however, Jutta Leskinen from Finland has been in the United States for six weeks and has learned to adapt very well.

Waylon and Anne Poole are Jutta's host family. Their son Scott seems to be getting along with Jutta very well.

Jutta is attending Sacred Heart School. She is 17 and is enrolled as a senior. She is part of Red-N-Motion and is doing a great job dancing. Jutta also plans to participate in cross-country, basketball and track.

The food in Finland is practically the same as our food, but Jutta says that they eat much healthier than Americans. A big difference between the States and Finland is the weather. It is so much hotter here than in Finland. The weather is the only really difficult thing for Jutta to adjust to.

Two things that Jutta really enjoys doing are taking care of rabbits and watching football. While she is in the United States she is trying to learn as much about football as she can by watching the Tigers on Friday nights.

Although the language, culture and people are different compared to Finland, Jutta is fitting in great. While she is here she will be going many places and experiencing new things.

CARD OF THANKS

I would like to thank all my family and friends at work for all the prayers and concern shown to me following my recent surgery at Denton Regional Hospital. Also thank you for the food, flowers, visits. A very special thank you to my husband, Ernie, and children, Yvonne and Joey, and also my parents, Peggy and Lavonne Reid.
Thanks for all the cards from students and faculty at Sacred Heart School and from friends, relatives and neighbors. There are a lot of good people in Muenster.
Also, a very special thank you to Father Victor and Father Frowin and the school children for their prayers.
Laneta Martin and family 10.8-1-E

CARD OF THANKS

The family of R.P. Cain would like to express their appreciation for the love, compassion and sympathy expressed in the death of their loved one.
When "one is absent from the body, he is present with the Lord." As "Papa's" family, we rest in the Lord's peace and trust completely in God's Word. We want to share this same peace and trust with so many who knew and loved him and will miss him.
A very special thank you to Dr. Martin Kralicke, Herman Carroll and the staff of the Muenster Memorial Hospital for their care and compassion during a very difficult time. Thanks to the many friends and neighbors who made this sad time a little easier to bear. To our pastors, C.E. Cole and Greg Mohr, and to the staff of McCoy Funeral Home - how can we say thank you for all that you have done for us?
The outpouring of your prayers and presence, the cards, memorials, flowers and food were given with hearts of love. We know "R.P., Dad, Papa," will always be remembered because of the love you have shared with us.
Our love,
Ruth Cain and Family 10.8-1-EP

County Agent's Report

by Craig Rosenbaum

Management of Winter Pastures

Small grain pastures are experiencing a slow start in the county this year. One of the main problems has been armyworms. We had hoped they would be gone by now but they are still around in some fields. Armyworms will eat the growth point of young grains and cause the plants to die. Look for them when they are most active and that is late in the evening or at night. If chemical control is necessary, then late afternoon treatments are best. We have even seen problems from chinch bugs in grain fields this year. Chinch bugs can move from milo or sudan fields into small grain. This is unusual but it has happened this year. And, as that grain begins to grow, keep a lookout for greenbugs. A mild 1992 spring and summer might be a contributing factor to insects in the fall and winter.

Grazing wheat and other small grains is a major agricultural commodity throughout the state and Cooke County. These pastures are expensive to produce and are high in quality, so they should be utilized by animals with high market values. Good management practices should be used to maintain high yields and quality.

One of the biggest mistakes producers tend to make is putting cattle on pastures before they are ready. Plants should be well-rooted and allowed to grow to a height of about six inches. Heavy grazing prior to this time can reduce total forage production by as much as 50 percent. Since these pastures do not grow during the cold weather months of December and January, this extra growth early will allow adequate forage to be available to carry the cattle through the cold periods.

Stocking rates should be adjusted to allow this extra forage to be available. Stocking rates will vary from year to year and place to place. Close observation of pastures is a must to maintaining proper stocking rates.

When forage is becoming limited, one system that will stretch pastures and still give adequate growth of cattle is to limit grazing. This can be done by allowing animals to graze a few hours a day or graze on alternate days. Cow-calf requirements for protein and energy can easily be met in this fashion. However, adequate dry forage or hay will have to be available during times when the animals are not grazing the winter pasture.

Fertilization is a very important factor in obtaining and maintaining good winter pastures. High rates of nitrogen are needed to obtain high yields. Producers should watch their fields closely. When yellowing of the leaves becomes apparent or "cow spots" begin to show up, it is time for a top-dress application of nitrogen. If the stressed plants are not fertilized, forage growth will stop and grain yields will be drastically reduced. A good rule of thumb on fertilization is 2 pounds of nitrogen plus 1 pound of phosphorus for each bushel of grain yield, plus about 50-60 pounds of nitrogen for each ton of forage removed by grazing.

Other guidelines producers should follow to help maintain good winter pastures are: (1) remove livestock during periods of wet weather, (2) keep a supply of dry roughage and minerals available, (3) do not overgraze during dry or cold periods, as stem terminals may be destroyed decreasing later forage and grain production, and (4) remove cattle around Feb. 15 if grain is going to be harvested. Grazing after plants begin to joint can cause drastic yield reduction.

Agriculture Waste Pesticide Collection Day in Denton

Old, obsolete, canceled, banned, suspended or otherwise unwanted pesticides will be accepted, free of charge, at a special pesticide collection station at the Texas Instruments Plant on U.S. Highway 77, northwest of Denton on Oct. 15.

Remember, waste pesticides will be accepted at the Texas Instruments Plant on U.S. Highway 77 northwest of Denton between 8 a.m. and 3 p.m. Friday, Oct. 15. All formulations of agricultural pesticides will be accepted except for 2,4-D, Silvex, and pentachlorophenol. No fertilizers or explosives will be accepted.

Pesticide applicators are encouraged to bring in any unwanted pesticides they may possess. This disposal opportunity is FREE with no questions asked. Commercial disposal costs for a single 55-gallon drum of pesticide could cost as much as $2,000.

Wildlife raised as domestic animals on Proctor's Ranch

by Janet Felderhoff

Lean, powerful creatures that once freely roamed the plains of North America, bison are now restricted to ranches or wildlife parks and refuges. Once they thrived in numbers too large to calculate. Hunted for hides, meat, fertilizer or simply a thrill, the massive herds dwindled and by the late 1800's extinction became a danger.

Government intervention finally brought protection to these bovine symbols of the western plains in 1894. The few remaining buffalo had fled to the high areas of Yellowstone National Park and Congress, after considerable prodding, passed a law prohibiting the hunting of buffalo in Yellowstone National Park.

Now the animals can be seen in herds on some wildlife preserves and private ranches. "But no law saved the buffalo. It was a few compassionate and farsighted men," wrote Jack Denton Scott in his book "Return of the Buffalo". He credited Michel Pablo of Montana, Colonel Charles Goodnight of Texas, C.J. Jones of Wyoming, and Pete Dupree and James Philip of South Dakota with the survival of the species. Scott wrote that these men guarded, fed, and helped propagate the few animals that were left. At one time the number of buffalo in the United States was estimated to be around 60,000,000. After the years of unrestrained slaughter there were only 541 animals remaining. This diminutive figure was totaled by William T. Hornaday, a naturalist-historian.

Proctor Buffalo Ranch in Bowie is one of the few area ranches that raise bison. R. D. Proctor, owner, notes that most of the herds are still up north. The first stock for the Proctor herd came from Philmont Ranch in New Mexico.

R. D. has raised buffalo for about 20 years. His herd is now small. Proctor had 80 head, but now has only about 14 head left. He sold most of them and now plans to grow back into the business.

When R.D. started his herd, health foods were becoming popular and there was a growing concern about cholesterol. Buffalo is a lean meat -- high in protein and very low in cholesterol.

He decided that in five or 10 years buffalo would do like some other things and jump in price. "They just went up gradually," he said. "They started out at around $400 and now they're at around a $1,000 on the average."

Proctor isn't disappointed in buffalo though. "I even about got my leg tore off, but I'm not mad at the buffalo," said the wildlife rancher. "I think that they'll get a percentage of the market. They're still coming back as fast as they can. It might be a small percent. If they just got five percent that would be a million buffalo."

Besides being a healthier meat, buffalo has a delicious flavor. "The meat has a sweet taste," Proctor said. "I wouldn't trade a pound of it for three pounds of beef. I know why the Indians got so mad now when they killed them all. The more you eat the better you like it!"

Proctor raises buffalo for breeding purposes. He slaughters only the excess bulls and the cows that won't breed. He can usually get about $1,000.00 for a calf weighing around 400 pounds.

The bison that Proctor has slaughtered are processed at H & W Meat Company in Muenster. He sells the processed meat for fifty cents a pound over the price of beef and for steaks he can get up to a dollar a pound more. "A lot of them sell it for up to $7.50 a pound up to $10 or $12 a pound for choice steaks. You see I don't have a market by myself," he explained.

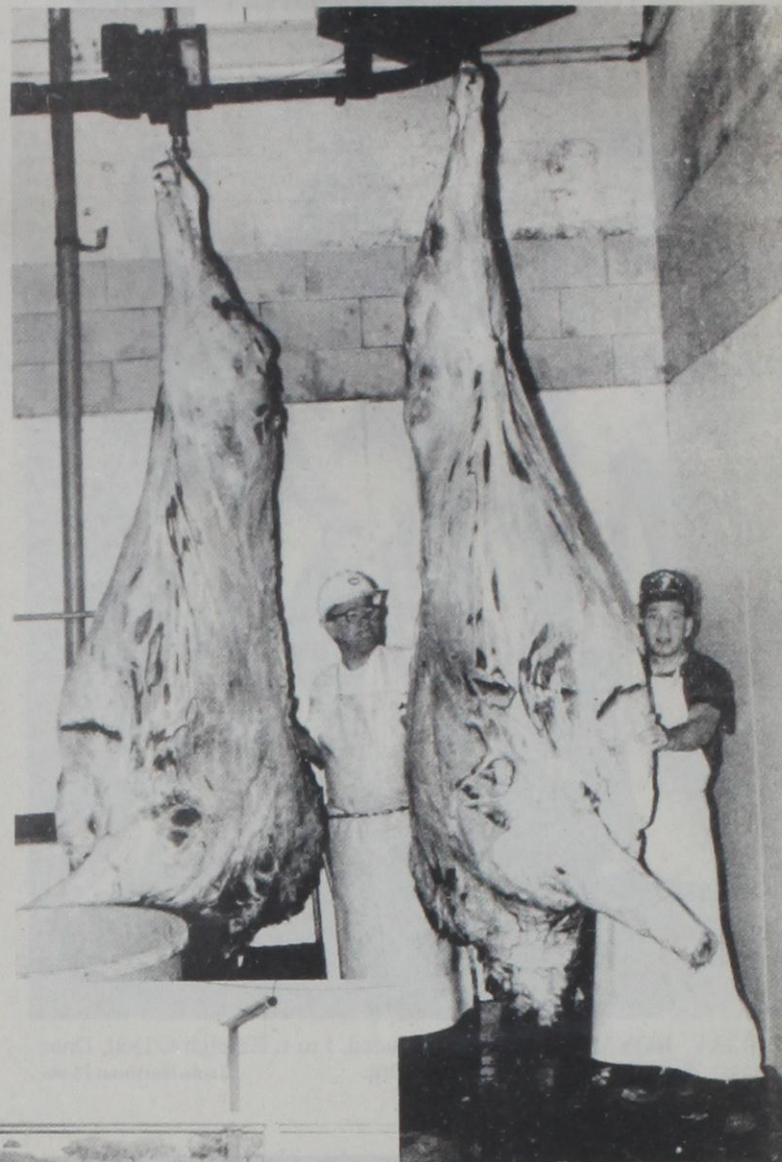

Every spring Proctor gets a couple of very large orders for hamburger patties made from the buffalo meat. It is used for cook-outs. His family used to hold an annual outdoor buffalo barbecue for 150 people.

"I make a German sausage from the meat and get a lot of orders for it. I have better luck selling it than anything," remarked Proctor. Steaks are made from buffalo up to three years old.

Bison grow until they're 10 years old and can live to be 30 or 40 years old. In the northern United States a full-grown bull can weigh as much as 2,000 pounds. Proctor's heaviest bull weighed around 1600 pounds. A full-grown cow weighs around 1200 pounds.

Unique in appearance the buffalo has hump of solid muscle rising behind its huge head. The head is crowned with short, sharp horns. Long, thick hair covers the head, neck, front legs and front body of the buffalo, adding to the creature's massive, muscular look. The rear of the body is covered with short hair causing the animal's hind quarters to look out of proportion to its front.

TOP PHOTO, Lonnie Massey, state meat inspector, and Arnie Hess, right, examine the halved carcass of one of R.D. Proctor's buffalo. The bull weighed 864 pounds hanging in H&W's Meat Processing Plant. It is estimated to have weighed in excess of 1500 pounds. A taxidermist bought the heads and the skins will also be used. At left, R.D. Proctor with a buffalo bull from his Bowie herd.

In other business, the council: --Was informed by a representative of Texas Waste Management that their garbage rates will increase from the present $5.84 per month to $6.42 per month. TWM provides garbage pickup to Lindsay customers. Cost-of-living increases plus increased fees for landfill use due to new federal regulations were cited as reasons for the increase. --Heard a report that Precinct 4 Commissioner Virgil Hess was working with the city in cleaning bar ditches. The fill material will be used for cover of the county landfill that was closed last year.

--Reported that new officers have been elected by the planning and zoning board. They are Dick Alfrey, president; Norb Magee, vice president; and John Kasperek, secretary.

--Expects to meet in executive session within the next couple of weeks with Lindsay City Police Officer Jody Henry to conduct a six-month review of the department. Walterscheid said the city is pleased so far with Henry's efforts. Henry and the council agreed when Henry was hired to have a six-month trial period at which time a review would be done to see if both parties are satisfied.

From My Side of the Fence

by Ed Cler

Wednesday morning, after sleeping well and a bit late in the old mobile home, we were again on our way west on Highway 14, in northern Wyoming, headed toward Yellowstone National Park. After driving four or five miles, we found ourselves in the Bighorn Mountains. I have always enjoyed driving through mountainous country but, after a few miles in the Bighorns, I was surely grateful we had found a place to spend Tuesday night. While I enjoy the mountains immensely, I surely don't want to go through them in the dark and miss all the scenery and, too, I prefer seeing all of the road while winding through the many curves, most of which are not only at a high altitude, but rarely have guard rails that do a lot to boost one's confidence.

Later that morning, we stopped to see Shell Falls on the Shoshone River where there is a place named Deception View, where one can look almost straight down to the white water tumbling over the rocks below.

Most people, including our group, would judge the distance from the rail to the bottom to be 25 or 30 feet. Actually, it is 125 feet.

Shortly after lunch, we arrived at the east gate entrance to Yellowstone Park, where there was a sign telling visitors that all facilities were taken. Here we go again!

It's impossible to see this park in six or seven hours but one can see a lot of geysers, including Old Faithful, and quite a number of wild animals including bears, buffalo, moose and, in the northern parts of the park, we had the pleasure of seeing a large herd of elk, numbering (our guess) 125 to 150 animals.

We arrived at Gardener, Montana, just out of the north gate, at dusk and, finding no room, drove 89 miles to Livingston to I-90. No rooms here, either, so we ate a late meal at a restaurant where many folks were kidding about where they might stay. We offered to rent the waitress' living room rug. She laughingly told us it was already taken. We continued west on I-90 to find nothing available in Bozeman, so drove on to Belgrade, a small community where one of us noticed a sign, Lexley Acres, Mobile Home Park and campgrounds, also 'rooms for rent.' Taking a chance, we stopped in to find a very unusual man and place. As we entered the park, we were followed by others also seeking refuge. This place, several acres in size, was covered with old farm machines, many old wagons, a sort of motel, laundromat, truck parking area and a bath house. There were RVs, old and newer, some of the wagons were covered, and all covered were occupied by travelers. The owner had two double bunk beds built in an alcove of the laundromat, and all was neat and clean. Our luck was the man who had taken the beds in the laundromat had decided he and his wife would continue down I-90, leaving the bunks for four of us. We readily accepted, and I must say we slept well. In the morning we were told the park owner had rented his own room out and he slept on his divan for the few hours he had left.

Thursday morning we decided against any further sightseeing, and stayed on the Interstate until we came to Coeur-d-Alene, Idaho, at 3:30 p.m., early enough to be well ahead of the crowd looking for rooms and only 45 miles from Medical Lake, Washington, the place where the wedding would be held. After getting a room and freshening up a bit, the four of us spent much of the evening enjoying a 90-minute cruise on Lake Coeur-d-Alene. Friday we slept in, and then proceeded to Spokane, Washington where we did have rooms reserved. Later that morning, we claimed our room and then visited with Davey and Janie Lehnertz at their Longhorn Barbecue Restaurant, where the rehearsal dinner was held later that evening.
