Work Accelerates Toward Kickoff of Hospital Drive

Now that the election has brought welcome relief from the strain and hubbalooboo of national politics, Americans can get back to the routine of normal living, and we of Muenster can devote greater attention to a project which has a vital bearing on the future of all of us.

That's the hospital campaign. As the time for fund solicitation draws near, it is urgently important for us to consider the many community benefits that can derive from local first class medical service, to understand how much it deserves our generous support.

There's no doubt that it is a big undertaking. Nor that it stands out as a potential asset that can pay for itself many times, directly and indirectly, in the years to come. It is a major investment in our future, with values that can be measured in convenience, time, money, prestige . . . and possibly even in a human life, in an emergency when moments are critical.

The very first benefit would be felt in the simple matter of visiting patients in the hospital. Expense and time spent in going to see them, even though comparatively small for a single visit, becomes a sizeable item when several persons make several visits each. Every family has that experience sooner or later. Figured on a community wide basis the cost of extra time and mileage to distant hospitals grows into a big figure every year. That amount over just a few years is equivalent to a large share of the money needed in the building campaign.

As regards the emergency feature, we must admit that we cannot name many cases when lives were lost because of loss of time. On the other hand we do not know how often loss of time has intensified an illness later resulting in death. Many of us can, however, remember when a patient's agony could have been relieved much earlier if the hospital had been near by. So, while admitting that this emergency value cannot be definitely measured, we are definitely aware that times will come when nearness will bring earlier relief, and possibly head off an illness before it reaches the fatal stage. Considering this factor in relation to our own dear ones, each of us readily agrees that nearness is a most desirable feature standing out as another strong inducement for support of the project.

Local medical service is another factor deserving our attention. Experience shows that doctors gather where they have adequate facilities to aid them in their practice. They have moved to other towns that built hospitals. They will also come to Muenster. Imagine what a difference that will make. Now we have one doctor, whose service is handicapped by the necessity of relying on a distant hospital, who could not meet the needs of this community even if ideal facilities were available here. Most of our people have to go to distant doctors. But with several local doctors and technical services available near by, all of us could get our medical service at home.

Which again brings up the subject of nearness . . . the time and expense of going to doctors away from home, the advantage of having the family doctor near by in case of injury or sudden illness.

Those are big factors in our welfare. They make up the most compelling reasons why we should make the effort and sacrifice to get a first class hospital established here. In addition to those, however, we can count other factors which help wonderfully in the overall progress of our community.

The first is that Muenster will become the medical center for a considerable number of people from neighboring communities. The hospital with its staff of doctors will be an asset bringing increasing numbers into town and offering increasing opportunity to local business firms. It will be another traffic builder . . . and business surveys show that every traffic builder has a definite economic value to the town. This factor, incidentally, favors us in two ways. While more people come to town fewer of our own people will be going away.

Most important of all from the economic standpoint is the value of the medical care itself. It will reap the first benefit.

NEWS OF THE SICK

Mrs. Leonard Hartman is a patient for treatment at Wichita General Hospital, Wichita Falls, Texas. Her husband and her parents, the Joe Fettes, visiting her during the week, report improvement but she'll be hospitalized long enough to receive cards and will enjoy hearing from friends. She's in Room 319.

P. J. Rollman was at home on a three-day pass from the V. A. Hospital at Dallas. He came Sunday, returned Wednesday.

From Bulcher comes word that Mrs. Mollie Montgomery is seriously ill at her home. "Aunt" Mollie, as she is affectionately called, was 101 on her birthday, May 19, 1960.

That eye patch Victor Koelzer wore several days has been discarded, his left eye well again after being injured by a sliver of steel while working on an oil rig Friday.

Marty Walterscheid returned to work for the city Monday after a lay-off since Sept. 21 when he sustained a foot injury that put him on crutches.

Al Eberhart is a patient at Gainesville Sanitarium since Monday for treatment and observation . . . will probably be hospitalized about a week.

Gerald Walterscheid was dismissed from the Sanitarium Tuesday to continue recovery at home. He will be a shut-in for some time.

David and Danny Fette will report to the Nocona Hospital early Friday for a pair of tonsilectomies.

From Harlingen comes word that Mrs. John Wilde is making progress in recovering from injuries sustained early in September in a fall. She fractured her lower spine and was hospitalized until just recently. At home now, she is able to walk with a brace but will be a shut-in for some time. Cheering her with a visit during the weekend was her grandson, Elmer Wiesman of Irving, who was the guest of his parents, the Frank Wiesmans, at Harlingen.

Talent Shortage Haunts Tigers as Basketball Starts

The Tigers basketball team faces about the same situation that the football team faced three months ago. Starting the season's practice this week Coach George Petrus said he has only three lettermen back and only one of those was a first stringer last year.

So it's another case of critical shortage in experience, which means that the parochial boys will be underdogs through the greater part of their schedule. However coach and players have decided that the coming season will not turn out as disappointing as the one just past.

The three lettermen back in uniform are Claude Bayer from the previous starting lineup and Charles and Anthony Knabe, who saw considerable service as substitutes. Others reporting are Peter Kapps, Anthony Grewing, John Wolf, Jerome Hennigan, James Otto and Virgil Hess. Pat Klement and Ted Miller are expected to start when they get off the ailing list.

Little time is allowed the boys to prepare for their first games. They will meet ever-rugged Collinsville Friday night and Lindsay next Tuesday.

Greenhill Blocks Tigers' Final Bid For Win; Score 8-0

Misfortune held out to the bitter end for the Sacred Heart Tigers. Playing Greenhill in Dallas last Friday afternoon they missed their last chance for a win by the close count of 8-0.

The loss was especially disappointing because the Tigers outplayed their hosts for practically all the game. They pushed Greenhill around consistently in the middle of the field but never managed to combine gains into a score. Greenhill, on the other hand, got going only once, but kept going until it counted.

That was in the second quarter when several nice plays

JOHN F. KENNEDY and LYNDON B. JOHNSON, the newly elected president and vice-president of the United States.

Muenster Favors Kennedy 2-1 in Record Election

Muenster voted with the state and the nation in favoring Kennedy and Johnson in Tuesday's general election. It also shared the record set by the state and nation in setting an all time voting record.

In another respect, however, this community differed sharply from the over-all record. Kennedy's majority here was a decisive 484-267 whereas the national contest was so close that his victory was not definitely decided until about noon Wednesday.

Local voters also set another record . . . in casting the highest number of invalid ballots in their history. A total of 822 persons cast their ballots but 71 of them voted improperly and could not be counted. The most frequent mistake this year, as in past elections, was ignoring candidates of the minor parties. After voting for either Democrats or Republicans some failed to cross off the Constitution and Prohibition parties leaving their ballots with more than one name for the office concerned. The north box had 62 improperly marked ballots and the south box 9. The two boxes combined had 46 invalid votes in 1952 and 35 in 1956.

The percentage of potential votes cast here is known to be high but cannot be definitely determined because of persons past poll tax age who are not listed on the official poll list. Shown as qualified voters at both boxes were 770 with poll tax or exemption receipts. The total number of actual voters was 822. North box with 588 on the list had 647 voters. South box, with 182 on the list, had 175 voters.

Total ballots for the two voting boxes in the previous two presidential elections were 771 in 1952 and 759 in 1956.

About 64 per cent of Muenster voters cast a straight Democratic ticket this time, as compared with only 11 per cent in '52 and '56. A small percentage voted straight Republican. Of those who split the ticket most also scratched Johnson and voted for Tower in the senatorial race. The count in that was 517-242.

On amendments many did not bother to vote, and those who did vote disagreed with the rest of the state on three issues. All four amendments passed in the state, only the fourth passed here.

Vote counts on the amendments were as follows.
No. 1 115 for and 341 against creating the hospital district.
No. 2 235 for and 268 against issuance of Veterans' Land Board bonds.
No. 3 180 for and 327 against pay raise for the Legislature.
No. 4 275 for and 247 against regulating lending.

Clothing Drive in Parish Set for 3 Days Next Week

"Operation Clothes Closet," the twelfth annual Thanksgiving clothing drive for the Holy Father's storeroom, will be a three-day campaign in Muenster next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, Nov. 15-17.

Parish societies, headed by Mission Chairman Mrs. Joe Swirczynski, ask that all items for the drive be brought in as early as possible so that the final day can be devoted to winding-up activities only and readying the final boxes for shipment.

Collection depot is the new building next to the City Hall, the former bakery and gift shop location.

Catholic bishops of America call for the drive at Thanksgiving time each year so that the clothing reaches its destination to help make Christmas Christmas for shivering, desolate multitudes across the world.

Needed are clean wearable used clothing, blankets and bedding supplies and shoes. Through the Catholic Relief Services of the National Catholic Welfare Council the items are moved quickly for distribution to the displaced and homeless, the sick and needy, the undernourished and despairing people of the globe.

"Operation Clothes Closet" means cleaning closets of still useful old clothes, the castoffs to be shared with the least fortunate ones without regard of race, creed or color.

Exes and Decatur Schedule 2 Games, Callisburg Next

The football game between Exes of Muenster and Decatur, scheduled here for Wednesday night, has been postponed to Wednesday of next week. Decatur players asked for the change early this week because they were not able to borrow uniforms for the earlier game.

Date for another clash of the two teams was not changed, however. Decatur will have the equipment by Saturday night and will host Muenster exes as originally planned.

Players are reminded to report to George Petrus at the Tiger dressing room Saturday at 6 p.m. for their uniforms and to board the bus going to Decatur.

Virgil Henscheid, who has taken over the team's booking job, said Wednesday that still another game is promised. Callisburg exes will be here Saturday night, the 19th.

Garden Club Will Discuss Lawn Care

Lawns and Their Care will be the topic for the program at the Civic League and Garden Club meeting Monday night with Mrs. L. B. Bruns as speaker leading the discussion.

Table setting for the month will be Thanksgiving. Mrs. Arnold Rohrer and Mrs. Jacob Pagel will be co-hostesses in the Rohrer home. Starting time is 8 o'clock.

4-H Clubs Slate Achievement Day For November 15

Boys and girls of Sacred Heart's 4-H Clubs have joined forces and are working for their Achievement Day program to be held Tuesday night, Nov. 15. Meanwhile they're inviting everybody to attend and see the displays. And remain for a social hour of singing and dancing.

The Parish Hall will be the scene of the exhibits which will include field crops, clothing, baked goods and record books. Visitors will be permitted to buy one half of the baked items after the show closes. This will help the club treasury. The other half of the baked goods is retained by the exhibitor.

Everyone, especially parents and friends, is urged to visit the displays and note the achievements of the young people. The program will begin about 8:15, after novena services.

Wildcats Shatter MHS Title Hope By Count of 26-8

Whatever hopes the Hornets had of claiming a share of the 12-B title, or even the second place, were shattered last Friday night by Callisburg's pack of Wildcats. The score was 26-8.

Finding the Muenster boys at the low point of their season's performance the visitors took advantage of frequent breaks and cast a heavy gloom over the MHS homecoming celebration.

As a result Era and Callisburg, both undefeated, will decide the loop championship and second place in their clash Friday night. Muenster is definitely set in third place.

Much of the Hornets' trouble can be traced to the absence of Larry Wimmer, who had been the team's standout both both offensively and defensively all season. He was nursing a hip injury received the week before.

More trouble resulted when the Hornets relied heavily on aerial offense in an effort to overcome Callisburg's big advantage in weight. But they failed to get the attack moving until the closing minutes when they were already hopelessly behind. In their 63 offensive plays the Hornets passed 32 times and ran 22 times. The other nine were punts. Four of those punts were intercepted and the ball was lost twice on fumbles.

Muenster started the game with two stubborn goal line stands. The visitors gained 10 and received 15 for free on a penalty to reach the Hornet 15 but only got to the 7 on the next four tries.

Muenster kicked on its first series and McDaniel's return reached the 5 before it was halted. Three tries there gained 1 yard and a try for field goal was blocked.

The remainder of the first quarter and most of the second was a deadlock, the action being in the Hornet end of the field. Near the end of the half Callisburg started a drive that paid off. Five plays advanced from midfield to the 15. A penalty and a short gain went to the 5 and another

Making a pop call in Muenster Monday was Army Major Jane Seuell, stationed at Sheppard Air Force Base. Her home is in Midlothian and she was enroute to Texarkana, stopping here for a visit with the J. M. Weinzapfels. GOOD NEIGHBOR POLICY THAT WORKS

A typical American activity that goes into its twelfth year — and is thus becoming a national tradition — is the annual Thanksgiving Clothing Collection, to be conducted by the Catholic Bishops of the US from November 20 to 27.

In announcing this event of vital importance to millions of the most needy people on the globe, Archbishop Karl J. Alter of Cincinnati described the beneficiaries as "people who would otherwise be left without sufficient clothing to cover bodies already suffering from undernourishment and privation."

As in previous years, good people of all faiths will be cooperating in the more than 16,500 parishes across the nation in what has come to be called "Operation Clothes Closet." They will be going through closets and bureaus and chests to find usable clothing, shoes and bedding that can be spared for those whose need, in areas of disaster, famine, pestilence and destitution, is no less than that of him who "fell among thieves" on the Jericho road and whose wounds were bound up with oil and wine by the first Good Samaritan of record.

These Thanksgiving collections will be turned over by the churches as heretofore to the Catholic Relief Services of the National Catholic Welfare Conference, of which Archbishop Alter serves as administrative board chairman. This overseas relief agency of the US Bishops is the largest private overseas relief organization in the world with an estimated two million volunteer workers in addition to its executive and field staffs. These people, deployed in more than 80 nations over the globe, have thus far distributed some 120 million pounds of usable clothing, shoes and bedding valued at $145 million and provided by the Thanksgiving Clothing Collections. Equally impressive is the fact that CRS maintains an operating cost ratio of approximately two percent — one of the lowest ever achieved by a relief organization!

And just from the record of the strange names that have entered the American consciousness in the past twelve months — Agadir, Puerto Montt, Valdivia, Concepcion, Humacao — disaster spots, every last one of them, Americans who gave to Operation Clothes Closet last year should be more determined than ever this year to help arm this experienced, efficient and alert world-wide relief agency with what will be most needed for the new emergencies that we know perfectly well are just around the corner.

SOCIALISTIC POWER

The battle between the advocates of private-ownership-produced electrical power and the socialist proponents of public power production continues.

We've been criticized for referring to TVA and other public power projects as being socialistic. We offer in rebuttal, what Norman Thomas, six times Socialist candidate for the Presidency of the U. S. A., once said: "The principle behind public development of power is socialistic and it is rather childish to deny it." The defense rests!

And while we are on the subject, let us quote from the findings of a Hoover Commission Task Force which probed many facets of government:

"If all Federal rates were based on values computed in accordance with methods prescribed (for private companies) by the Federal Power Commission, the rates would be increased 30 to 50 percent."

And we conclude with a statement made by the late Senator George Norris, often called the father of TVA. When a proposal was made that TVA property be subject to taxation the same as everybody else's property, he said: "... if we go to that extreme... the TVA would be out of business in three months..."

Again, the defense rests!

GOING FORWARD

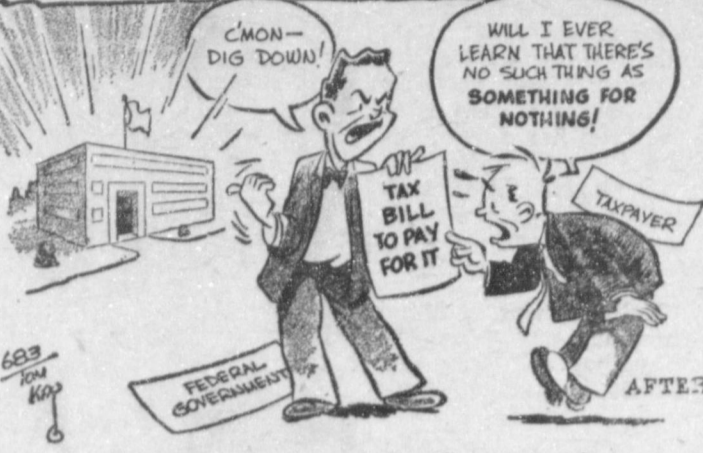

From an editorial in Farm Journal: "Quite a lot has been heard in this campaign about 'going forward.' That doesn't impress us. This country is going forward no matter who is President. In the United States, it's the people, not the President, who furnish the motive power and determine the pace. They do, that is, if they retain the freedom to make their own decisions and to take the initiative."

A very real danger, when "going forward" becomes a political issue, is that we will automatically assume that the government will do all the leading, will determine just what percentages of annual growth we should have, and take the necessary steps to achieve the goal. In other words, government will give the orders and we, the people, will obey. That is the way things are done in dictatorships. But if they're done that way here, we'll be through as a free nation in which government is servant, not master.

A LOOK BACK

We pride ourselves on being a forward-looking people. We foresee a time in which life will be happier, healthier, richer and more productive. We all hope that the world in which our children will live out their lives will be a better one than ours.

At the same time, it is the part of wisdom to look back — if only to recall some of the words that were said long ago by men who helped make this nation. For instance, there is this: "I place economy among the first and most important virtues, and the public debt as the greatest of dangers to be feared. To preserve our independence, we must not let our rulers load us with perpetual debt. We must make our choice between economy and liberty."

The Taxpayer - Only Source of Government Money

or profusion and servitude. If we run into such debts, we must be taxed in our meat and drink, in our necessities and our comforts, in our labors and in our amusements.

"If we can prevent the government from wasting the labors of the people under the pretense of caring for them, they will be happy."

That was said by Thomas Jefferson, whose contribution to the American system of government, was, perhaps, greater than that of any other single man. The language is archaic, but the principle is crystal clear. We have gone a grimly long distance in violating his doctrine. The question is whether we shall have the resolution, the strength, and the wisdom to change our national way before it is too late.

REBIRTH OF MORAL FORCE

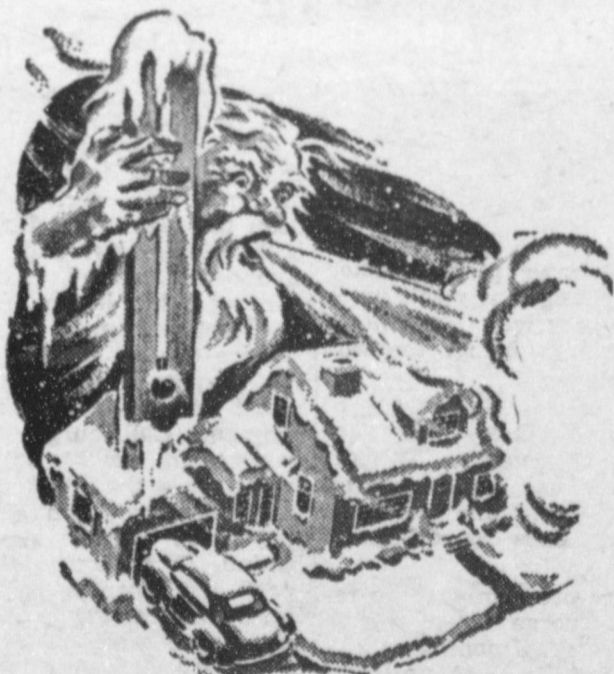

by former President Herbert Hoover

As I look back over my long years of concern with our national problems, I have come to believe that moral forces and certain forces embedded in the soul of America are more important than all of our other issues — for they lie at the base of the solution of all of them.

This nation needs a rebirth of that great spiritual force which has been impaired by cynicism and weakened by foreign infections.

The spiritual force of which I speak is enshrined in the word America. We do not use that word merely as a geographical term. . . . This word

LONELINESS

by George O'Brien

LONELINESS comes at some time or other into every normal life. It began with Adam and Eve at the moment of their expulsion from paradise. And that sense of desolation, that feeling of having been overlooked, unwanted, and unwelcome is experienced by all of Eve's children.

The young men and women who yearly go up to the great cities in search of fame and fortune know the dreadful loneliness of a silent room into which no one comes.

The aging man or woman whose friends are gone feels its dull ache.

And the widows who are forced to occupy a corner in another's home know the more refined tortures of loneliness.

LONELINESS is not being alone, but feeling alone. To combat loneliness is one of the finest arts of living, which many people never master.

Not that there ever will come a day on earth when loneliness will wholly cease. For we are exiles here on earth, and loneliness is the sure companion of the exile. It is a constant reminder that we are travelers and strangers here below.

But loneliness can be a healthy emotion. It can call on us to lift our eyes and seek our true home beyond the stars. Looked at in this way, loneliness is one of the strongest and most purifying forces in our human make-up.

What we must remember is that WE CAN PROFIT FROM THIS MENTAL TORTURE.

THE FIRST STEP is to see plainly that loneliness is not meant to lead our thoughts downward. But rather it is meant to lead us upward and onward to God and His full companionship in the life to come.

A firm realization of God's close Presence is an all-powerful protection against the destructive forms of loneliness. To go immediately in thought to God: that is the tried and true way of banishing loneliness.

IT WAS CHRIST'S own method — for He too felt alone; so acutely that he spoke of it. It was on the night before He died on the cross for us.

But by saying, "... and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with Me," Christ pointed the way for us to follow when we feel alone. Instantly His thoughts leave earth and penetrate the veil of heaven. He finds His comfort and companionship in the Father's Presence.

Thus Christ shows us what to do in our moments of darkness and loneliness, when all men leave us. We are to go immediately to our Father in heaven.

CDA Ritual Sunday Will Welcome New Members to Court

Initiation ritual by the local court Catholic Daughters of America Sunday will formally receive new members into the organization.

The court's own degree team will conduct the ceremonies in the presence of District Deputy Mrs. F. A. (Gladys) Polansky of Dallas.

The program will begin at 2 p.m. in the KC Hall, the initiation to be followed by a social hour and refreshments, and conclude at 5 o'clock.

Sunday morning the 7:30 mass will be the CDA church service and candidates and members will go to Communion in a body. They will be wearing ribbons presented as they enter church.

State Regent Miss Loretta Knebel sent regrets that she cannot attend the reception ceremonies. She will be in Washington, D. C., for services at the National Shrine where five altars donated by CDA members of the United States will be dedicated.

Candidates for reception are Mmes. Arthur Bordeau, Walter Grewing, Gene Hoedebeck, Conrad Jostwerner, Bill Luke, Ferd Luttmir, George Petrus, and Miss Doris Jean Vavra.

St. Anne's Society Loses Leader; Will Elect in December

St. Anne's Society lost its president Sunday with the resignation of Mrs. Fred Knabe who announced at the monthly meeting that she is giving up the office after the December meeting. She has served one year. Officers are elected for two-year terms.

At next month's meeting a successor to fill the unexpired term will be elected. On the nominating committee are Mmes. C. M. Walterscheid, Albert Hess and Albert Schilling.

Business was routine with announcements of coming events furnishing the principal discussions.

Mrs. Joe Swirczynski, mission chairman, told about the annual Thanksgiving clothing drive to be held November 15, 16, 17 and asked cooperation in getting the clothing in on time and for helpers to assist with sorting and packing.

The new building north of City Hall has been designated as the collection depot.

Members were also reminded to lend their assistance and enthusiasm in the Thanksgiving picnic and Mrs. Herbert McDaniel, local NCCW president, invited a general attendance at the quarterly NCCW meeting in Lindsay.

The Society voted to contribute, from the treasury funds, money to finance two baby layettes for the Holy Father's storeroom. Mrs. McDaniel volunteered as a committee of one to tend to the purchase and get the layettes in the mail.

About 40 members attended the meeting.

Mary Jo Howard And Gilbert Kubis Say Vows at Mass

Following a wedding trip to New Orleans, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Kubis will make their home in Gainesville. They were married Saturday in a 5 p.m. nuptial mass in St. Mary's Church at Gainesville with the bridegroom's uncle, the Rev. Alcuin Kubis of Muenster, officiating and performing the double ring ceremony.

The bride, formerly Miss Mary Jo Howard, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Howard of Gainesville. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kubis of Lindsay.

November 5 was selected as the wedding day in recognition of the 28th wedding anniversary of the bride's parents.

Mr. Howard presented his daughter in marriage. She wore a formal gown of white bridal satin with a long sweeping train. Large puffed sleeves were tucked with tiny pearls, the neckline was scalloped, the fitted bodice joined the bouffant skirt in a v front while satin roses ornamented the back. She carried a white orchid on a pearl prayerbook and wore a pearl tiara with her waist length veil.

Mrs. George Grimshaw of Lovington, N. M., was her sister's maid of honor in peacock blue brocade satin and Miss Janie Kubis, groom's sister, and Miss Janie Wilson were bridesmaids in toast brocade. The identically made dresses were street length with matching organza fullness at the back and accessories matched the costumes. Mrs. Grimshaw's flowers were champagne gladioli while the bridesmaids' flowers were in peacock shade.

Debra Addington in peacock silk organza was flower girl and Anthony Felderhoff was ring bearer.

Bernard Kubis, best man, and Robert Howard of Dallas, brothers of the couple, and Peter Kappas of Muenster, cousin of the groom, were the groom's attendants. Brothers-in-law were ushers, Adam Wolf of Muenster and George Grimshaw of New Mexico.

Nuptial music was furnished by Miss Ann Gallagher, organist, and Mrs. Ed Pulte, vocalist. Baskets of champagne-colored gladioli, greenery and candles adorned the altar.

The wedding reception was held in the National Guard Amory where a catered smorgasbord was served to 350 guests. Miss Sharyn Brune and Mrs. Gerry Armstrong presided at the bride's book.

When the newlyweds left on their trip she was wearing a brown tweed suit with gold accessories.

The bride is a 1959 graduate of Gainesville High School.

Father Martin Will Share Honors at Celebration in N. Y.

Father Martin Fischer, Saturday, will be sharing honors in a joint celebration with his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fischer, in Binghamton, N. Y.

For Father Martin the occasion will observe his thirtieth anniversary of ordination to the priesthood while the Edward Fischers mark their silver wedding anniversary.

Father Martin will be celebrant of the 11 o'clock anniversary high mass in St. John the Evangelist Church. The dinner to follow will be held in Loyal Order of Moose Hall in Johnson City which will also be the scene of a reception from 8 to 11 p.m.

Muenster's assistant pastor is on his annual vacation. He has been in Sacred Heart Parish since January 1958 coming here from Fort Smith, Ark. A native of Scranton, Pa., he spent his boyhood there and began his studies at the Pontifical College Jose-phium in Columbus, Ohio, but after completing his course in philosophy he transferred to Subiaco Abbey in Arkansas to satisfy a longing for the Benedictine life rather than for the secular priesthood.

His first pastoral charge was that of assistant at St. Edward's Parish in Little Rock. He likewise did mission work. In 1937 he went to Windthorst as pastor remaining there until 1940, when he was transferred to St. Mary's Parish in Fort Worth as assistant and instructor at Lanier High School. He served as a faculty member at Corpus Christi Academy before going to Fort Smith.

Frohsinn Concert And Dance Set by Choir for Nov. 19

Sacred Heart Choir members this week announced they will have the Frohsinn Choir as their guests for a concert Saturday, Nov. 19, and that in connection with the singing they will sponsor a dance. John Dlabaj and his Bohemian Band will play for dancing. The combined event promises to be of general interest since it will feature both German and English songs of today and yesterday and Bohemian music. Sacred Heart men's choir will also sing and together the groups will give a joint concert.

Refreshments will be available throughout the evening. The event is a choir benefit. And members look forward to a jam-packed attendance in the Parish Hall that night.

Miss Walterscheid Crowned Queen at MHS Homecoming

Muenster High School's 1960 Homecoming Queen was crowned at the Hornet-Callisburg game Friday night at half-time. She is Miss Jeanette Walterscheid, daughter of Mrs. Alphonse Walterscheid.

Doing the honors was Charley Hellman, president of the Ex-Students Association, who placed the crown on the head of the attractive senior student. She was escorted by her brother Wilmer Walterscheid.

Queen's attendants were Misses Martha Sue Meurer, junior, escorted by her brother John David Meurer; Linda Fuller, sophomore, escorted by Glenn Hellman; and Pamela Russell, freshman, escorted by Dickie Cain. Escorts were ex-students of the school. The queen was presented a bouquet of white mums and her attendants were pinned with white mum corsages. They wore suits.

The reunion of ex-students at the dinner after the game was the smallest crowd since the annual event began six years ago.

Charley Hellman conducted the brief business session during which introductions were made and those due honors were recognized.

John David Meurer of Dallas was the out-of-towner back home for the event who won a prize and Bill Stelzer won the prize for being the oldest former student in attendance. Each received a five dollar gift certificate from Hamric's.

In other business the ex-students officers appointed a committee to be in charge of next year's homecoming program.

Officers are elected for two-year terms and present officers have one more year to go. In addition to President Charley Hellman they are Vice President Emmett Walterscheid, Treasurer Mrs. Dickie Cain and Secretary Mrs. Willie Walterscheid.

The dinner and meeting were held in the high school dining room which was festive in decorations of red and white, Hornet colors. Senior mothers prepared the meal and senior students helped serve.

VFW Auxiliary To Conduct Memorial Rite November 11

Münster VFW Auxiliary members will conduct a memorial service at Sacred Heart Cemetery Friday morning in observance of Veterans' Day. Ceremonies at the graves of service men will consist of placing a wreath on the memorial marker and recitation of prayers. The entire service lasts about 15 minutes and the public is invited to attend. The time is 10 o'clock.

The memorial service was one of many things on the agenda at the Auxiliary's meeting Tuesday night.

New Members
Four new members were admitted in a reception ceremony. They are Mrs. Robert Bayer, Mrs. Jim Hermes, Mrs. Charlie Pagel and Mrs. Wilma Moseley.

Announcement was made that the local organization again made the Texas honor roll for meeting honor requirements each month the past year. The certificate of recognition was one of 45 for the state handed out at the recent state convention.

In honor roll activity for this month, the Auxiliary purchased a TB bond, made a contribution to the Sweeney Diabetic Clinic, and collected ten per cent of remaining membership dues for 1961.

In other announcements it was told that the District I meeting will be held at Greenville Nov. 26-27 and an invitation came from Lewisville to attend the installation of a new VFW Post there on Nov. 12. Ladies are invited to join VFW members for the program beginning at 8 p.m. Tentative plans, to be completed at the December meeting, were made for the annual Christmas party for members' pre-school age children.

Mrs. Arthur Bayer conducted the meeting and after adjournment the 20 members had a gift wrapping party, doing up boxes of candy for local boys and girls overseas. There are twenty in foreign service.

After that they joined the VFW Post for a social hour featuring refreshments and TV.

Blessed Events

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Robison are rejoicing over the birth of a granddaughter, the little girl of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Robison of Spur. The newcomer is a sister for Mark. Her maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. George Hammer of Vernon, former Münster residents. The good news was telephoned Monday after the baby's arrival.

It's twins — a girl and a boy — for Mr. and Mrs. Al Bengfort of Lindsay, born at Gainesville Sanitarium Thursday, Nov. 3. The seven pound 10 ounce girl arrived at 8:50 a.m. and her eight pound brother followed 11 minutes later. The Bengforts have one other girl and three other boys. Welcoming twin grandchildren are Mr. and Mrs. John Bengfort of Lindsay and Mr. and Mrs. Daugherty Stevens of Wichita Falls.

From Dallas comes announcement of the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Schmitz, a brother for Bobby, Mary Beth and Ann. He arrived Sunday weighing seven and a half pounds. John Schmitz of Thackerville, Okla., a former Lindsay resident, is the baby's grandfather. Mrs. Al Horn, an aunt, left Wednesday to visit her brother and his family and will be godmother at the little boy's baptism Sunday. An uncle, Pat Schmitz, will be godfather.

Party at Myra Is Honor for Pastor

The young married couples class of Myra Baptist Church met in the parsonage Sunday night for a meeting and social. The society honored the Rev. H. C. Stump, teacher of the class, in observance of his birthday and he received a birthday gift.

Mrs. Burrows presided for the business and Mrs. Reid directed the social hour.

Birthday cake and hot drinks were served to Messrs. and Mmes. Stump, Servia Muller, David Black, Bob Burrows, and Mmes. Clarence Matthews, Lucy Williams, Ilene Tuggle and Margie Reid.

Tigers Lose - - -

gains in a row zipped off 40 yards in a hurry. A sweep around end was good for the last 10 yards and a pass connected for bonus points.

Sacred Heart had more trouble from its own mistakes than from the Greenhill team. Good yardage was nullified by fumbles and penalties. A heartbreaker was a nice 35 yard gain to the 2 yard line, and called back because the team had been offside. A 25 yard romp to the Greenhill 20 was also rubbed out and penalized 15 yards for offensive holding. Other Tiger drives were stopped by their own fumbles.

Cowboys referred to a heavy rain or cloudburst as a "goose drownder."

Other gifts went to Mrs. Meinrad Hesse and Mrs. Victor Hartman.

NOTES FROM CITY LIBRARY

A Criterion book for young people — and for all who enjoy adventure and romance — is "Strangers in Skye," by Mabel Esther Allan, new on the shelves at Muenster Public Library.

The rugged mountains and rushing streams of the Scottish Isle of Skye, a young hostel open for the first time that summer, and a group of young people all involved in making a success of the hostel — these are the ingredients of a fresh and charming story that blends a love of nature and an understanding of human feelings into a delightful tale of excitement and romance.

When 17-year-old Elizabeth Falcon came to Skye, she did not expect to enjoy herself. She had planned to spend the summer reading, at home, in preparation for her first year at the university. But her doctor had insisted that the only cure for a bad case of eye-strain would be an outdoor life . . . and no books! With a heavy heart she agreed to help her older brother John, a painter, manage the hostel.

But soon Elizabeth learned to love the sunlit, majestic island, and its little lakes and green uplands. And then there were the people: not only the hostellers, who came and went, bringing cheerfulness with them; but also the "natives," among whom were pretty, friendly Fiona and her irascible grandfather; the Nicholls brothers: Charles, charming and flirtatious, and Grant, whose quiet love for the island shaped his whole character; and Mrs. MacInnes, whose son Wee Malcolm was the cause of one of the adventures of that eventful summer.

Slowly Elizabeth learns to adjust to a different way of life, overcomes her shyness in making new friends, and makes a great step forward in understanding her brother. Problems as well as the joys of the love between John and Fiona, Elizabeth's deepening relationship with Grant Nicholls, and above all the deep satisfaction of accomplishment as the hostel movement wins adherents, makes "Strangers in Skye" an outstanding reading experience.

This is a Junior Literary Guild selection, chosen as an outstanding book for older readers.

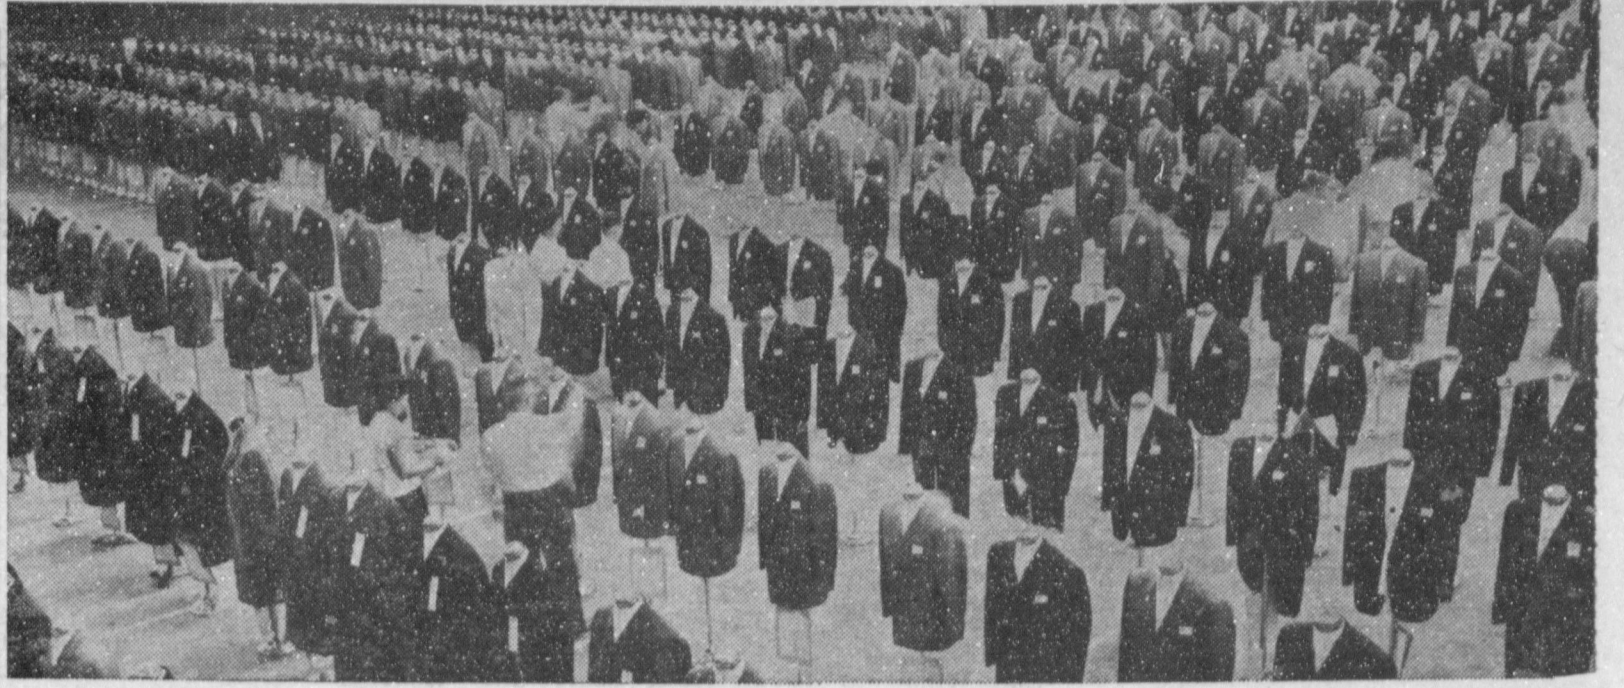

Four-H Girls See Demonstration, Set Achievement Day

Sacred Heart Senior 4-H Club girls watched their president, Charlotte Wolf, give a dairy demonstration at the November meeting. The lesson begins preparation for the annual Dairy Foods Shows to be held on January 14. Charlotte was first place winner in the county and district contests last year.

Also interesting was a discussion of local Achievement Day, set for Nov. 15 in the Parish Hall, and the County Achievement Event slated for November 14.

Miss Evelyn Trietsch met with the group.

After business, Joan Kaiser and Carol Henschel led a short recreational period. Joyce Haverkamp, reporter, counted 19 members present.

For You And Your Town

No business man or woman in any town should allow a newspaper to go to press without his or her name or business being mentioned somewhere in its pages. This does not mean that you should have a whole, half or even a quarter page advertisement in each issue of the paper but your name and address should be mentioned even if you do not use more than a two line space.

A stranger picking up a newspaper should be able to tell what business is represented in a town . . . it is the best possible town advertiser. The man or woman who does not advertise does an injustice to himself or herself and definitely to the town.

penalty went half the distance to the goal. On the second play after that Dutton made the last two yards. Score at intermission was 6-0.

Instead of improving, things got worse in the next period. Fifth play after kickoff Dougherty scooted around right end on a 33 yard touchdown gallop and McDaniel's run added two points.

An interception on Muenster's first play after kickoff put the Wildcats in business again. Three plays gained 10 yards to the 14 and three more a single yard before Mike McDaniel passed to his brother Pat for the 13 big yards to pay dirt.

Early in the fourth period a fumble gave the visitors another set up, on the 14. Again it seemed the Hornet defense would hold. After 3 plays the Wildcats were back to their 18 but another fourth down pass by the McDaniels paid off for points.

Muenster's only score came late in the game completing a 60 yard drive. Five passes accounted for 46 of those yards and Joe Hellman made the last 5 on a keeper play. His pass to Mark Hellman made the final count 26-8.

for our town with the related benefits that can be credited to any other kind of industry. Besides all that it constitutes a valuable community asset contributing to further growth and welfare. We are always looking for new business and industry. A major improve-
