Council approves codifying city ordinances

The Muenster City Council voted unanimously Monday night to approve codification of city ordinances. The outdated and unmanageable collection of city laws has been a topic of discussion and investigation at council meetings since June. Mayor Ted Henschel and Administrator Joe Fenton have been arguing for codification all along, but Councilman Aubry Tuggle regularly expressed doubts about the necessity of the work and wondered if City Attorney Chuck Bartush Jr. couldn't just clean up the ones that needed it. The council had identified Sterling Codifiers, Inc. of Weiser, Idaho as their choice should they approve codification. Monday night they asked Bartush again, "What do you think?" He said that he felt there was no alternative and added that probably half of the ordinances on city shelves were outdated, unconstitutional or both. Bartush added that he couldn't take the kind of time necessary away from his regular practice and the cost would likely be as much or more than Sterling's. At this point, the council voted in approval of the motion to codify.

Sterling Codifiers, Inc. estimates a price of $4,000.00 to $6,000.00 to: review all ordinances, identify outdated and unconstitutional areas and recommend remedies and rewrite remaining laws in brief, layman's terms. The price includes 25 copies of the finished product. Sterling offers 24-hour FAX service to advise on any problem areas. Any new ordinances passed by the city will be included in the codified system on a per-page basis.

Other discussion and action by the city council included:
-Renee Schniederjan, Dale Felderhoff and Ken McDougle were approved for membership on the Library Board.

-Zoning Board recommendation to approve construction of a building 32 inches from a property line at 1028 N. Maple Street was approved on condition the building is guttered and does not drain water on neighboring property.

-The council denied construction of a livestock complex on Muenster ISD property after a public hearing attracted much opposition from neighbors and other citizens.

-Changes on the plat of Grewing Street and surrounding property were approved to allow the cuts to be six inches lower on the west side of Grewing Street and six inches higher on the east side.

-Jim and Dianne Grewing requested that Cross Street be paved between South Ash and South Willow. Street Commissioner Gilbert Kubis will approach Southtown Partners concerning the request since the city anticipates paving this year throughout the Southtown Addition.

-Joe Fenton reminded council members that the city's waste disposal contract with Texas Waste Management is up in September and to expect "negotiations."

-Approval was granted for Fenton to attend a solid waste seminar in Austin. The Texoma Council of Governments pays the $150.00 tuition and the city pays room and board.

-Approval was granted for Fenton to attend a city manager's forum in Salado, Texas. The council hopes to get new information on several areas of recycling.

-A paving assessment bill of $420.00 to Cooke County Precinct 4 was labeled a mistake. The city will absorb the charge to the Precinct 4 barn in view of the essential part the county played in recent paving projects on Mesquite, Seventh and Sycamore Streets. The council said the paving and drainage work was excellent and will formally thank Commissioner Virgil Hess and his men.

-Bills totaling $49,797.21 were approved for payment.

-The city has received a letter from another party expressing disappointment with the condition of the F-84F jet static display in the city park. The plane has been the victim of extensive vandalism since its installation by the Muenster Jaycees years ago. The US Air Force has also complained about the condition of the jet. The Air Force maintains actual ownership and has threatened to repossess if it is not restored. The council will seek public opinion and input by the Park Board and Jaycees concerning the F-84.

Another Muenster first ...

KXGM 106.5 fills local airwaves with popular tunes, current news

Radio Station KXGM Hit 106.5 FM has resounded on North Texas and Southern Oklahoma airways since Dec. 23, 1991. The new station, licensed to Muenster, specializes in local news and "hits from the '60s, '70s, '80s and now!"

Charley Henderson and Robert Wurst are KXGM's co-owners. Wurst, of Wurst-Tex Towers, found the frequency eight or nine years ago and applied for the license. Henderson was also interested in starting a local radio station. The two men formed a partnership three or four years ago and established Gain-Air Corp.

Since Henderson owned the building at 107 S. Commerce in Gainesville, that is where he set up the studio. The radio tower is located 10 miles away on the Fuhrmann property north of Myra. The owners also plan to open an office in Muenster within the next three months.

Gainesville native Charley Henderson has had prior broadcast experience which he gained working for KGAF and Channel 12. He also gained media experience while employed at The Gainesville Register and Denton Record Chronicle. "I remember when I was in school, we would come to The Muenster Enterprise to have our school's newspaper, The Leopard Tale, and Hilltop Newsprint."

Wurst and Henderson are proud of the unique new music system purchased for KXGM. It is one of only 140 in the world, 128 of which are in the United States. They were the first to use the new system in Texas and KVIL of Highland Park the second. There is one in Tulsa and one in Denver.

According to DJ Patrick Thomas and Henderson, recording companies have gone to compact discs (CDs) because of the better sound quality. "Capitol Records is the only company still pressing vinyl records," said Thomas.

KXGM has two Sony jukeboxes similar to the type that was made for Wurlitzer. They work on the same process as the old Wurlitzer jukeboxes that picked up a record, played it and then put it back down. The new Sony systems are made to work with CDs. The Sony jukebox players made for radio stations hold 60 CDs and each CD holds 18-26 songs which are by a variety of artists. "In these two boxes are 2,600 songs and we're playing about 1,200 of these," explained

Henderson. "We tell the computer out front (in the reception area) what we want in an hour - so many '60s songs in one hour, so many '70s, so many '80s and so many '90s. We tell it that we don't want instrumentals back to back, don't want groups playing back to back. After all of that is done out there, we bring it (to the control room) and put it into another computer where we can pick all of the music for a day in advance."

There is a digit card, similar to a hard disc, that contains sounds and voices. It can hold up to four hours of pre-recorded commercials. A CD player sits in place waiting for an emergency situation in which it will be used as the back-up system. Another piece of equipment is a reel-to-reel player which is used to record phone calls which are later played on the air. All of the day's songs are logged on computer and printed out.

The unique system works so that the disc jockey doesn't have to be in the control room at all times. "It frees me up so that I can cut a commercial if I need to or go out to do a news story if nobody else is around," commented Thomas.

"All of your stations are having to go to this system or go to satellite because of the labor involved," Henderson said. "You can't pay somebody nowadays to sit here from 6 in the morning to midnight and do this like a robot. You can't make money. Dallas is the same way - you just don't know it."

The system was selected because the owners wanted to have more control over the time being able to break in with news stories if needed and to select their own music. "Satellite comes from 22,000 miles away and we would have no control over the music they play and no control over breaks," remarked Henderson. "They give about two minutes an hour as yours and this all belongs to us."

KXGM presently has three DJs -

Dee Blanton, Patrick Thomas and Darin Allred. Blanton also serves as the production manager. All three men worked at Gainesville's KGAF Radio at some time.

Henderson pointed out that the music being played was selected to appeal to the largest percentage of the population - the Baby Boomers. He said that they comprise 50 to 54 percent of the population.

It is the goal of KXGM to give heavy coverage of the local news, encompassing all of Cooke County. They have three different people covering meetings such as city council, school board and courthouse. Elaine Schad also contributes news items. Henderson indicated that there are plans to broadcast local sports games in a couple of weeks. Dee Blanton and Darin Allred will cover these.

Scheduled news times are 6:20 a.m., 7:20 a.m., 12:20 p.m. and 5:20 p.m. The station is on the air from 6 a.m. until midnight and plans are to broadcast 24 hours a day as soon as a sponsor can be found.

Listeners are invited to make requests by calling the Muenster number, 759-2929, or in Gainesville, 668-1065. When a request is called in, the DJ can use the computer to call up the library of the artist's songs and enter the one requested into the music system where it can be played next.

The music format consists of easy-listening songs, mostly from the '60s and '70s, including cross-over country, soft rock, and pop. Henderson remarked that the station's call letters have a significance with K standing for the broadcasting area, X for Texas, G for Gainesville and M for Muenster.

"We're going to try to serve the community, to serve Muenster, and the local happenings, and Gainesville and Cooke County," concluded Henderson.

McCoy gets maximum

by Elaine Schad

Peter Ronald McCoy of Muenster received the maximum penalty of 99 years in prison and a $20,000 fine on Wednesday after pleading no contest to charges of delivery of a controlled substance.

McCoy, 55, received the sentence for the first-degree felony following 35 minutes of deliberation by a 7-woman, 5-man jury in the 235th District Court of Judge Jerry Woodlock.

McCoy pleaded no contest to charges that he sold 1.5 grams of cocaine to an undercover narcotics officer in November.

McCoy's trial is the first of many that will follow from a November drug raid where 15 people were arrested and charged with the sale of illegal drugs at a storage shed in Gainesville which officials said provided curbside service.

The raid followed a 6-month undercover investigation by the North Texas Narcotics Task Force and local authorities.

"I'm just very pleased with this verdict, and that the jury had the courage to assess the maximum penalty," said District Attorney

Phil Adams, who called the conviction the most satisfying of his career as district attorney.

"Peter McCoy was a major drug dealer. This man had been dealing to kids in Muenster, Texas for the last two years at least," said Adams. "I'm talking about 14, 15, 16 and 17-year-old high school kids," he said. "This removes Peter McCoy from the community."

Adams said McCoy had expanded his drug dealing the past six months to a broader area of Cooke County, which led to his involvement and arrest in Gainesville by the Drug Task Force.

Adams declined to comment on when McCoy might be eligible for parole, except to say it would probably be too soon.

The key to the maximum sentence came, according to Adams, following the emotional testimony of two surprise witnesses for the prosecution. Two teenage males from Muenster testified that McCoy sold them illegal drugs on several occasions. McCoy had earlier testified that he gave away drugs, but only to mature adults over the age of 21.

Adams gave credit for the surprise testimony by the two young men to Muenster Police Chief Helen Tompkins. "Helen deserves a lot of credit because she knew of two kids that he had sold to in the past," said Adams. During a trial recess, subpoenas were issued for the two young men, he said.

McCoy's case was the first of the drug cases to be tried because he was being held without bond, which required that he be tried within 60 days, said Adams. McCoy had three other pending cases on charges of possession of cocaine when he was arrested in the drug raid.

During the punishment phase of the trial, the prosecution presented testimony from a drug task force member and a drug lab technician. Chief Tompkins, Investigator Robert Ferrell and Cooke County Sheriff John Aston all testified that McCoy's reputation as being a law-abiding citizen was bad. Ray Wilde of Muenster, Joe Walter of Gainesville and McCoy's wife testified as character witnesses in McCoy's behalf.

Legislators urged to provide fair treatment for all Texas students

by Steve Cooper

School finance is back in the news again. The Texas Supreme Court is to decide the constitutionality of the newly-created County Education Districts. The decision should come sometime in January. Many experts anticipate the court ruling the latest attempt at equitable school finance unconstitutional. If this materializes, we will have another fiasco in school reform to add to the list that appears to be growing. It seems 1984 was the year our problems became really magnified. House Bill 72, the infamous school reform bill of 1984, is the focal point of many of the problems we've had. Our inability to get "our act" together appears to have its roots in that year.

The problem doesn't really lie with the mechanics of school reform; it lies in the fact that our legislators have allowed politics to sidetrack decisions that would truly benefit education for youngsters in Texas. An alarming sequence of events continues to be perpetuated. Our legislators pass a law that affects schools, millions of dollars are spent implementing the rule only to be done away with a year or two later. The explanation is simply this wasn't the right thing to do after all. In the interim, millions of dollars have been wasted. Many of the changes that were a must in 1984 have been done away with. It appears that they were not that important after all.

If the CEDs are declared unconstitutional, we will have another must-do situation that one year later becomes a must-undo situation. My concern is simply this: a tremendous amount of waste is again the product of the day. It's been reported that CEDs this year will generate approximately $4 million in administrative costs statewide. Much of this cost is initial start-up cost. If they are declared unconstitutional, all that money will go down the drain. This doesn't include the hundreds of thousands of dollars, if not millions, spent for meetings, manpower and material to establish the CEDs through the Texas Education Agency.

The bottom line simply being: this has to stop. Legislators and educational groups must get "their act together." A direction must be decided upon that will provide fair treatment to all students in Texas. Legislation must address what is right and legislators must make that decision regardless of the political consequences. Property taxpayers cannot carry the burden of school finance in this state, it must be passed around for all to pay their fair share. Perhaps it's time to clean house in Austin if the right decision cannot be made for the children of this state because of politics.

Who indeed can harm you if you are committed deeply to doing what is right?

Even if you should have to suffer for justice' sake, happy will you be. "Fear not and do not stand in awe of what this people fears."

Letter to the Editor:

Dear Elfreda and David,
I am writing this note while on holiday visit here in my hometown of Muenster; when your subscribers read it I will be back at Subiaco Abbey.

Greetings to The Enterprise staff - those presently employed as well as those who worked on the staff since the fifties during my high school, college and teaching years in the field of Journalism in Muenster.

The Enterprise is truly a professional weekly newspaper; I look forward to my copy's arrival in Arkansas in order to share in the joy of friends, parishioners, former students and former altar boys that unfolds in each issue.

I am especially elated to visit in Muenster during the Christmas holidays because of the beautiful decorations that enhance the homes, businesses - especially Sacred Heart Church.

During my 21 years as sacristan of Sacred Heart Church (mid-fifties thru mid-seventies), decorating the church for Christmas was always the highlight of the year. And you, David, were a great helper with the Christmas decorating in church during your altar boy days. (I was especially pleased to see your son serving at Mass on New Year's Eve!)

The united effort of all parishioners in taking an active part in the liturgy is especially noticeable to a visitor like myself attending services here.

The late Arthur Endres took some beautiful photographs of the church decorations the last year that we used fresh cedar trees in the church. These photographs have decorated my room each year since at Christmastide!

I am also pleased to see how Muenster is fostering its Germanic heritage. My mother was born in Muenster in 1897 of immigrant German-speaking parents.

She is one of the oldest living parishioners who was born and baptized in Muenster during its founding years. She is a resident at St. Richard's Villa - another asset that Muenster can be very proud of - having its own residence for senior citizens.

And I could go on and on with the many blessings for which Muenster can be grateful on this New Year's Day.

My New Year's wish for one and all is from the Mass of today (Book of Numbers): "The Lord bless you and keep you! The Lord let His face shine upon you, and be gracious to you! The Lord look upon you kindly and give you peace!"

Love and prayers to everyone,

Valley View approves '92 increased budget

by Elaine Schad

The town of Valley View will begin the new year with a $112,580 budget, with city officials expecting to make future amendments to allow for legal fees related to the city's wastewater treatment permit renewal application.

Town aldermen have approved the budget, which is about an 8.8 percent increase over 1991 actual expenditures of $103,489. The budget is balanced as approved, with the town expecting $112,580 in income, derived mainly from an estimated $25,500 in sales tax revenue, $31,500 in municipal court fees, $18,000 in franchise taxes and $33,000 in disposal system revenues.

City officials said town aldermen approved the budget knowing that the $2,240 earmarked for legal fees will be much higher due to the town's involvement with a permit renewal application for the wastewater system. Legal fees to date in 1991 stand at about $12,000, about 12 percent of the town's entire budget.

The town has not yet received legal bills from a two-day hearing conducted in Valley View by the Texas Water Commissioner. Town aldermen are expected to amend the budget as needed to cover the legal fees, possibly utilizing some of the town's $40,000 in contingency funds, officials said.

The police department budget for 1992 has been set at $7,569, an increase from 1991 expenditures of $5,807. The city has also earmarked $1,000 for additional animal control services and an additional $3,000 for road repair.

The city's disposal system expenses for 1992 are estimated at $29,164; general fund expenses at $75,847; and police at $7,569 for the budget total of $112,580.

Grandson of Ernie Hellman marries Dec. 28

MRS. JAMES DARYL HELLMAN
...nee Lee Angela Ivy ...

The wedding of Lee Angela Ivy and James Daryl Hellman, both of Aubrey, was held on Dec. 28, 1991 at 7 p.m. in Midway Baptist Church, officiated by Bro. Bob Smith, pastor.

The bride is the daughter of Ken and Betty Lou Ivy and the groom is the son of Jim and Nancy Hellman, all of Aubrey. The groom is also the grandson of Ernie Hellman and the late Clarence Hellman.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, in a setting created by a Christmas tree with clear lights, gold ornaments and white doves, a pair of tree-shaped candelabras and greenery gracing the altar rail with votive candles and white doves.

For her wedding, the bride chose a white satin formal gown with beaded torso and sheer yoke with lace and pearl applique, heart-shaped neckline, fingertip lace sleeves, upper double puffed at the shoulders. The skirt was scattered with lace and pearl appliques. The sweeping train had bows that created a bustle effect when gathered.

Her short puffed veil was held by a tierra-style headpiece, beaded and pearl.

She carried a bridal bouquet of white silk roses accented with navy, teal green, wine and mauve flowers, white ribbons and strings of pearls. For tradition, she wore a garter worn by the groom's mother at her own wedding.

ATTENDANTS

Teresa Baker of Aubrey, bride's sister, was the matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Tiffany Morgan of Pilot Point, bride's childhood friend; Angela Millican of Aubrey, and Tia Foster of Aubrey, bride's high school friends, and Karla Santana of Denton, bride's college friend. They wore waltz-length dresses of forest green taffeta with black velvet bodices, designed with sweetheart neckline, puffed sleeves, dropped waistline with bow in back. Each carried a nosegay of silk mauve, pink, teal and navy flowers.

Amy McCreary, bride's cousin of Stamford, was flower girl and Brent Morris, groom's nephew of Aubrey, was ring bearer.

Jim Hellman of Aubrey, the groom's father, was his best man.

Groomsmen were David Hellman, groom's brother; Gary Baker, bride's brother-in-law; Lanny Sanders and Vaughn Whittle, childhood friends of the groom, and all of Aubrey. Ushers were Michael Lile of Gainesville and Kyle Morris, both brothers-in-law of the groom, and Mark Fox and Lance Gillum, all of Aubrey.

Bruce Thomas spoke on the importance of God in Marriage, and read a poem, "It Takes Three," which was presented to the couple by the groom's parents.

Wedding music was presented by organist Yvonne Tetmeyer and vocalists Lori Duff, Brad Wilkerson, Leslie and Mike Martin. Selections were "Shower Me With Your Love," "Truly" and "After All."

RECEPTION

A reception followed in Midway Baptist Church Life Center for 300 guests, hosted by the bride's parents.

Kim Sanders presided at the guest book.

The bride's table was covered with white lace, with green and gold accents. It held the gold punch service.

The three-tiered white wedding cake was trimmed with pearl beads and white roses. The treasured keepsake ornament, used on the bride's parents' wedding cake, was again the top-layer ornament for the bride.

The groom's table, covered in ivory lace, was centered with a heart-shaped green and mauve flower arrangement. The table held the gold coffee service.

Reception assistants were Sarah Colter, Beverly Berry, Josie Starr, Holly Gibbs, Laney Howard, Joy Smotherman, Bette Gillum, Bobbie Erwin, Margie Cox and Jean Carrigan.

Decorations included lattice backed with forest green, emphasizing a gold lame heart with magnolias. Ficus trees sparkled with clear lights, gold bows and white doves. Balloon arrangements of tapestry colors were bright accents at each entrance. The gift table was covered with white lace with green and gold accents.

Lanie Lyle, groom's niece, and Amanda McCreary, bride's cousin, distributed rice bags.

The rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents at The Prairie House Restaurant on Dec. 27. A miscellaneous shower was given by family friends at Midway Baptist Church on Dec. 1 and a personal shower on Dec. 10 by the bridesmaids.

Since returning from a wedding trip to Puerta Vallarta, the couple resides in Aubrey.

The bride is a graduate of Aubrey High School and a Magna Cum Laude graduate of Texas Woman's University. The groom is a graduate of Aubrey High School and is presently attending the University of North Texas. He is employed by Starlite Signs of Denton, Texas.

The unexpected courtesy, the thoughtful, kindly deeds, a hand reached out to help us in the time of sudden need. A friend's voice on the telephone, get-well cards from here and far, plants and flowers so beautiful. Achieved goal is joy to CC Home Hospice

Home Hospice of Cooke County exceeded its goal for the 1992 operation of the local Hospice unit, due to volunteers and generosity of many who expressed their appreciation in donations both great and small.

Throughout December, representatives from Muenster, Gainesville, Lindsay, Valley View, Rosston, Callisburg, Lake Kiowa, Moss Lake and all points in between were present at the "Light Up A Life Trees" at Tom Thumb-Page and Beall's Department Store, to explain services offered by Home Hospice and to accept donations. This was the major fundraising activity of the Hospice Auxiliary.

More than 40 families were served during 1991, offering nursing care and physical support to terminally ill patients and their families in their homes. Death with dignity is limited only by funds available. Service is provided to all who request help, regardless of ability to pay for services rendered. Hospice also offers bereavement care through support groups. The office of Home Hospice of Cooke County is located at 1001 E. Broadway, Gainesville.

Muenster Elementary to host UIL Practice Meet March 7

Muenster ISD is the site for an Invitational Practice Meet for University of Interscholastic League competition to be held on March 7 for grades 2-8. Area schools are invited to attend.

Practice contests will be conducted according to official rules with official materials. Students in grades 2-8 will have a good opportunity to sharpen their skills. Schools interested in participating in the practice meet should contact Mary Ahrens, UIL coordinator for Muenster.

As early as grades 2 and 3 students may sharpen their academic skills by competing in University of Interscholastic League competition.

Second and third grade students may compete in the following UIL contests:

In the spelling competition, spelling words are pronounced five per minute. Contestants may choose to print or write the words; 20% of the words come from outside sources, at least 80% come from the current A + Spelling List.

Storytelling - Contestants hear a story which they will retell for an audience. This activity encourages children to use recall and allows them to bring their own expression and insight to the story.

Creative Writing is a new event designed to promote creativity and encourage writing skills. Using a prompt of several pictures, students create an original story based on the pictures selected.

All three contests give students an opportunity to improve academic skills and compete with students of their own age group.

Udder care management seminar set for Jan. 16

On Jan. 14, 1992, the Texoma Council of Governments will begin administering the Winter Heating Phase of the Energy Crisis Program on behalf of the low income population of Cooke County. The Texoma Council of Governments' energy assistance office is located in the basement of the Cooke County Courthouse in Gainesville, and will be open starting on Tuesdays only, Jan. 14, between the hours of 9:30 a.m. to 12 noon and 1 to 4 p.m. Texoma Council of Governments' staff may be reached at (817) 665-3302 on the above mentioned day and times. Individuals or households who are faced with a health-threatening situation due to an inability to pay for heating service for their home are urged to call the Texoma Council of Governments at (903) 786-2955 for further information.

Applicants seeking assistance will be required to meet certain income qualifications and must have some type of extraordinary circumstance or situation which has depleted their financial resources to the point where they are unable to meet their heating bills. A utility termination notice alone will not guarantee assistance. The program will be administered on a first-come/first-serve basis and will continue weekly until funding is depleted.

Once funding is depleted for the Heating Phase of the Energy Crisis Program, the Texoma Council of Governments will administer the Energy Crisis Program on a monthly basis, as funding permits, until the Cooling Phase of the program begins during the summer. All households needing assistance after the Heating Phase of the Energy Crisis Program is completed should contact V.I.S.T.O. If V.I.S.T.O.'s energy staff is unable to assist your household, they will contact the TCOG to see if funding is available through the Energy Crisis Program.

MARK FLUSCHE (12) and Chris Hess (24) put pressure on an Alvord ball handler in their Tuesday night defeat.

Turnovers cost Tigerettes

With the score knotted at 14 all, four consecutive Tigerette turnovers allowed the guests from Alvord to go on a 17-6 run and a 31-17 halftime lead. The Tigerettes started the third period the same way they finished the half with two more turnovers which accumulated to 30 by game's end and an Alvord 62-35 win.

"We really battled it tonight," said Coach LeBrasseur. "Alvord has a good team and they just beat us in every phase of the game." The Tigerettes will travel to Denton to tangle with Liberty Christian Friday evening at 6:30 before a home district contest with Notre Dame on Jan. 17 at the Tiger Den.

"Shirley (Henscheid) is really coming on," said Coach LeBrasseur. "She has stepped her game up, and everyone else is going to need to step up their play a couple of notches for us to be competitive." Henscheid again shot 50% from the field, collected 5

LADY BULLDOG shoots over Tigerette defenders Vickie Bayer (33) and Deann Bayer.

Tigerettes are in another tailspin as they dropped their third consecutive game and slipped to 8-12 for the season. "The girls are working to correct their problem areas but it just seems that when we get one thing corrected, we forget about another phase of the game. It sure is time to put it all together," commented LeBrasseur. The steals and led the Tigerettes with 5 offensive rebounds. Vickie Bayer netted 11 points to pace the Tigerettes, April Truebenbach scored 8, Jennifer Walter hit for 5 and Deann Bayer scored 2. Truebenbach was the Tigerette's leading rebounder with 13. Julie Felderhoff handed out 3 assists for the Tigerettes.

Sacred Heart falls to Era

"All week, we worked on a quick start, hoping to continue that trend," said Coach John Nasche. "We had the best first quarter of the season, our press worked real well, keeping Era off balance."

After the first quarter, though, things went downhill for Sacred Heart. "We got drilled." The Tigers could not maintain the pace with several ill players, only 10 playing, five of those in the previous junior varsity game.

Leading scorer for Sacred Heart was Stevan Nasche with 14 points, followed by Aaron Berres with 10. Other Tigers scoring were Kelly Bayer, Jason Hess, Mark Flusche, Chris Hess, Neil Berres, and Mike Gehrig.

"We've got to maintain our fast pace the whole game," continued Nasche. "Our main problem is lack of height and our youth. We have to learn to box out, play defense and not make stupid mistakes," he concluded.

The Hornets were led by Marty Rehm with 22 points. Others hitting double digits were Jorge Rodriguez and Daniel Proffer with 17 each, Matt Lyons 14, and Javier Rodriguez 10.

Longhorns hand Tigers another defeat, 91-56

Nine Tigers scored in last week's 91-56 game with Forestburg, but Sacred Heart again could not pull out a win. "We should have stayed closer; we'd get close, then they would blow it open again," said Coach John Nasche. "We missed too many easy shots." Several players were also slowed by the flu. "We need to get back on defense. If we could eliminate the other team from the fast break, we would have a better chance," concluded the coach.

Stevan Nasche was Sacred Heart's high scorer with 21 points. Aaron Berres added 9 and Kelly Bayer 8. Others scoring were Mike Gehrig, Chris Hess, Mark Flusche, Neil Berres, Jason Hess and Jason Hofbauer.

Muenster slips past Gunter, 57-56

The Muenster Hornets beat the Gunter Tigers Tuesday in a thrilling 57-56 contest. Muenster got the momentum flowing early on as they held a 20-14 first period advantage. The Hornets never lost their touch as they kept a 36-28 halftime lead. Gunter outscored the Hornets 12-9 in the third to get as close as 5 going into the final stanza. The lead went back and forth in the closing seconds of the game, but Mike Hacker saved the day with a bucket with :03 seconds remaining on the clock to clinch the victory for the Hornets. With the win, the Hornets move to 11-4 for the season. Doug Hennigan and Justin Ramsey led the scoring attack with 14 apiece. Steven Fisher followed with 12, and Mike Hacker contributed 4. The unstoppable Lady Hornets added another win to their collection as they defeated the Gunter Lady Tigers 43-32 Tuesday evening. The Muenster defense held steady in the first half to take a 20-12 halftime lead. The Lady Hornets outscored Gunter 23-20 in the second half to cap the 43-32 victory. Coach Brian Strother's team moves to 18-0 with that victory. Sophomores Amy Otto and Candise Abney set the pace with 12 and 10 points respectively. Theresa Kubis chipped in 9, Danell Reiter 6, Dianne Pagel 4 and DaLana Walterscheid 2.

Next action for both Muenster teams will be Friday when district play begins at Era.

Tigerettes rip Lady Horns

Sacred Heart's Tigerettes continued to show improvement with a 55-8 blasting of the Lady Horns of Forestburg. "The girls have put in some hard hours this week," said Coach LeBrasseur. "We are showing signs of being a good team. I am very pleased with their work habits."

Junior teammates Deann Bayer (10 points) and April Truebenbach (17 rebounds) are just two reasons Coach LeBrasseur is beginning to see a team develop. Bayer has finally become the scorer LeBrasseur expected her to be and Truebenbach is starting to dominate the boards. Seniors Shirley Henscheid, Jennifer Walter and Vickie Bayer are other highlights in the Tigerettes' outlook. On three instances against Forestburg, Henscheid stole the ball and gave it to Walter who delivered three beautiful assists to a streaking Bayer. LeBrasseur has also liked the play of Mandy Barnhill and Christy Yosten. "Mandy is learning how to score (4 of 5 from the field) and Christy is becoming a great position player (5 offensive rebounds)."

The Tigerettes raced out to a 15-0 first period lead and a 38-2 halftime edge. The final half the Tigerettes worked on their passing game offense for 10 in the third and 7 in the final stanza for the 55-8 win. Scoring for the Tigerettes included Deann Bayer 10, Mandy Barnhill 9, Shirley Henscheid and Vickie Bayer 8 each, Jennifer Walter 6, Christy Yosten and April Truebenbach 5 apiece and Erica Schilling 4.

Alvord bullies Tigers

The Tigers played a late, long game with Alvord Tuesday night in Sacred Heart's Tiger Den, handed a 99-36 whipping. "Their quickness, ball handling, shooting and height killed us," said Coach John Nasche. "They walked through our press. When we tried man-to-man, they hurt us with their height and when we played zone, they had enough shooters to hurt us."

The Tigers fell early and never could catch up. "Too many mistakes, we've got to learn to play mistake-free ball," concluded Nasche.

Five Alvord players scored in the double digits, two scoring over 20 points. Eight Tigers scored, led by Stevan Nasche with 13 points.

Joseph Bedowitz added 8, Jason Hofbauer 5 and Kelly Bayer 4. Weldon Bayer and Jason Hess hit 2 apiece while Mark Flusche and Chris Hess each hit a free throw.

Junior High/Junior Varsity Action

Muenster 'A' vs. Lindsay

Lindsay's Lady Squires handed Muenster's girls a 38-7 beating Monday night with two Lady Stingers scoring, Carrie Hess 6 points and Audrey Knabe 1. "We were cold as ice," said Coach Brian Strother. "Not playing or even practicing since before the holiday break really hurt."

Eight Lindsay players scored, led by Kelly O'Dell's 15 points. Julie Arendt added 8 and Christine Fuhrmann 5. Scoring 2 points were Elizabeth Cler, Sabrina Nagy, Jennifer Bezner, Andrea Gieb and Michelle Secrest.

Muenster 'B' vs. Lindsay

Muenster's young Lady Stingers lost a low-scoring game to Lindsay 17-14 Monday evening.

Three Stingers scored - Brandi Lutkenhaus hit in 6 points, while Christine Metzler and Jennifer Sicking added 4 each.

Lindsay had seven scorers, led by Donna Lester and Julie Zimmerer with 4 apiece. Erin Eberhard, Amber Geray, Michele Young, Molly Trammell and Chasa Webb also scored.

Muenster 'B' vs. Lindsay

The Muenster 'B' team boys' junior high made it two wins in a row Monday night with a 19-10 defeat of the Lindsay Junior High Knights. The game was very exciting until late, when, led by Tony Hartman, Greg Fisher and Bradley Fisher, the Hornets built a commanding lead that Lindsay just could not overcome. Tony Hartman led all scorers with 7, Greg Fisher added 6, Michael Drachenberg, Bradley Fisher and Ryan Klement each added 2 points. The boys played well on defense as well, once again led by Jonathan Otto, who has the team lead of blocked shots as he added another Monday night at Lindsay. The boys travel to Alvord next week and try to avenge an earlier 16-13 loss. "The boys really appreciate the support of the parents and friends as they try to go 3 in a row!" concluded Coach Kyle Baker.

T.J. Baldwin was Lindsay's leading scorer with 6 points. Matthew Murrel and Aaron Krebs each added 2.

Muenster 'A' vs. Lindsay

Led by Cody Sicking with 17, the Muenster Hornets 'A' boys pushed their record to 4-2 Monday night with a 49-22 defeat of the Lindsay Knights. The boys led 17-12 at the end of the first quarter and padded their lead to a 24-16 halftime lead. Then the boys turned up the defense to another notch and allowed Lindsay only 2 points in the third and 4 in the fourth to roll on to their fourth victory of the year. Cody Sicking was the leading scorer with 17, James Klement had 8, Jeff Flusche, Darrell Charles and Eric Miller each had 6, Steven Reiter added a 3-pointer, Jeff Felderhoff and Jason Sicking rounded out the scoring with 2 and 1, respectively.

While this game does not count in the district standings, the boys felt it important as a warm-up as they begin the second half of the season in second place in district, behind only Era, who surprised the boys earlier. According to Coach Kyle Baker, the boys are on the march and plan to win next week at Alvord to knock the Bulldogs from contention for the runner-up spot. The boys then play Lindsay again in Muenster before traveling to Era for the showdown of the year.

Jeff Hale led the Squires with 12 points, while Zack Bowman, George Gilbert, Greg Dulock, Garrett Hellingner and Hank Huchton all contributed points.

Sacred Heart vs. Era

Six Tigers saw junior varsity action last Friday and were handed a 53-40 defeat. "I was pleased with the team, they played hard," said Coach John Nasche. "With so few suited out, we couldn't keep the players fresh."

Scoring for Sacred Heart were Neil Berres with 17 points and Jason Hess with 13, leading the teams. Others were Jason Hofbauer, Mike Gehrig and Brian Rohmer. Weldon Bayer played tough defense.

Joey Morris and Johnson led Era with 19 and 15 points, respectively.

Era	13	14	13	13	53

Sacred Heart vs. Terral

The Sacred Heart Cubs remain the league's leader after defeating Terral 35-31 Monday night. "Terral struggled all night to break our press," said Coach Nasche. "We controlled the game until the fourth, when they made a run."

John Klement was high scorer with 13 points. Paul Swirczynski added 9 and Joseph McCoy and Jake McCoy 6 apiece. Brandon Bayer also hit a free throw.

"The defense won for us, we shut down their best player, keeping him scoreless," concluded the coach.

Sacred Heart vs. Terral

Eighth graders Karri Endres and Nicole Endres each scored in double digits in leading the Lady Cubs to a 43-22 win over the Terral Lady Indians. Karri Endres scored all of her 14 points in the first half as she helped the Lady Cubs to a 25-6 lead over the hosts. Nicole Endres scored 6 in the first half and 4 in the third period for her 10.

All Lady Cubs scored as they upped their season record to 4-3 entering this weekend's action in the Montague Tournament. Other scorers for the Lady Cubs included Anna Fette 6, Tanya Knauf 4, Tara Yosten, Brandi Fleitman, Jill Hess and Corey Hess 2 each. Dobe Fleitman sank a charity toss for her point.

The Lady Cubs will open Montague Tournament action on Thursday at 5 p.m. against Forestburg. If the Lady Cubs win, they will play Friday at 5 p.m. and, if they fall on Thursday, they will play Saturday at 3 p.m. The Lady Cubs will be on the road Monday as they travel to Gold-Burg for a North Texas Independent Junior High Conference game.

Muenster vs. Chico

The young Hornets took on a quick Chico club last week Thursday, with cold shooting after a two-week break. Muenster started good, 19-12 the first period, but the second was their downfall, ending the half behind 39-18. The second half was played pretty even, but the Hornets couldn't make up for the second quarter.

Cory Knabe was leading scorer with 14 and Cory Cain 12. Jeff Walterscheid added 5, Eric VanSwearingen 4, Daniel DeLaMata 3 and Jason Huchton and Jamie Hellman 2 each.

Muenster vs. Collinsville

"The boys played hard, our defense was a little laid back and our shooting touch hasn't returned yet," said Coach Brian Strother.

Collinsville was leading 21-5 with 3 seconds remaining in the first quarter. Cory Knabe launched a 55-footer that went in and this sparked the Hornets in the second period. The halftime score was 29-17. "We got into a running game, but our shots would not fall," concluded the coach. Collinsville won 62-41.

Cory Cain was high scorer with 9, followed by Cory Knabe and Rodney Vogel, 8 points each. Others adding points were Jason Huchton 4, Jason Biffle and Eric VanSwearingen 3 apiece, with Cody Klement and Jamie Hellman each hitting 2.

Muenster vs. Gunter

Muenster's junior varsity got their first big win Tuesday night, defeating Gunter 44-34. "They started off great and never looked back," said Coach Brian Strother. The scoring was spread around as the Hornets took a 29-16 halftime lead. The second half saw a lot of defense from both teams.

Muenster's scoring was led by A.J. Knabe with 13 points. Jason Huchton added 9, Eric VanSwearingen 7 and Cory Knabe 6. Daniel DeLaMata, Rodney Vogel and Jason Biffle also scored.

Sacred Heart vs. Alvord

The Tigerette junior varsity was in action and was tipped by Alvord in similar action as the Tigerettes, 63-32. A bright spot for the Tigerettes was sophomore Erica Schilling who netted 23 points. Other scorers for the Tigerettes included Jennifer Fuhrmann and Sarina Fuhrmann with 3 each, and Deanna Hess with 3 each, Sarina Fuhrmann 2, and Kelly Dangelmayr 1.

Tigerettes drop two

Playing back-to-back games in preparation for tournament action, the Sacred Heart Tigerettes were defeated by Era 42-36 on Friday and Trinity Christian of Addison 53-45 on Saturday. "We lost to two very good squads," said Coach LeBrasseur. "I was a little disappointed in our effort on Friday. We had to shut down Mathews and she controlled the game in the second half." Mathews led all scorers in the game with 20.

Era led by 1 at the half, 16-15, as both teams struggled early. Era hit for 13 in the third and the Tigerettes hit for 10. Early in the final frame, the Tigerettes spurred to take the lead 32-31, but three consecutive turnovers allowed Era to close the Tigerettes out. Deanna Bayer led the Tigerette scorers with 17, Vickie Bayer hit for 5 all in the final canto. Jennifer Walter scored 4, Shirley Henscheid 3, April Truebenbach, Julie Felderhoff and Mandy Barnhill 2 each and Christy Yosten a free throw.

Tigerettes pull within 8 of Addison's Trinity Christian

A slow Tigerettes start and hot shooting by the guests from Addison found the Tigerettes down 18-3 with 1:57 in the first period. Two free shots by Mandy Barnhill and a field goal by Deann Bayer pushed the Tigerettes into a 7-20 score at the quarter. Switching to a tough man-to-man defense, the Sacred Heart Tigerettes caught fire on the offensive end as they lit the period for 16 points while slowing Trinity Christian down to 8. Down 28-23 at the half, the Tigerettes were back in the game.

Continuing to play the pest-type defense, the Tigerettes held Addison to 2 third period points. Four points by April Truebenbach and Vickie Bayer, along with a "3" from Mandy Barnhill and Deann Bayer, ignited the Tigerettes to a 37-30 edge after three periods.

The Tigerettes missed two bunnies at the start of the final period while the visitors nailed a 3 and connected on two 3-point plays to pull in front of the Tigerettes 39-37. Connecting on 11 of 14 free throws in the final period pushed the visitors from Addison to their 16th win of the season. Shirley Henscheid kept the Tigerettes close with 5 in the period.

"I am pleased with the way we played the final 24 minutes," said Coach LeBrasseur. "You're never pleased with a loss, but the girls' effort was outstanding. We missed 2 lay-ups early in the fourth off of great offensive movement, and they made the free shots down the wire." LeBrasseur credited Shirley Henscheid, Jennifer Walter and Vickie Bayer with solid performances. Deann Bayer, plagued with foul trouble, led the Tigerettes with 12 and was followed by Shirley Henscheid with 9, Vickie Bayer 8, Mandy Barnhill 7, April Truebenbach 5 and Jennifer Walter with 2. Walter led the Tigerettes with 9 rebounds and 7 assists.

Valley View girls' coach resigns

by Elaine Schad

Lori Golden, who coached the Valley View Lady Eagles to two district titles during her more than seven-year tenure as head coach, said Tuesday she has resigned from coaching duties at the school.

Eagle varsity boys' coach Gordon Taylor will take charge of the varsity girls' team to complete the season, while Coach Robin Hess, who worked with Golden to coach the junior high, will continue at that position, said Valley View Superintendent Bert Glascock.

Miss Golden, 34, is taking a medical leave, but will return to the school to teach math for the remainder of the year, officials said. She said Tuesday she was unsure of her future plans once the school year is completed, but doesn't think she will return to coaching.
