LINDSAY MAYOR DON METZLER

Don Metzler appointed new Lindsay mayor

by Elaine Schad

Mayor Pro Tem Don Metzler will take the reins as the new mayor of Lindsay following his appointment last week by the city council.

Metzler will serve the remainder of the term which expires in May 1992. The council appointed Councilman Manley Taylor as the new mayor pro tem to replace Metzler. The council will appoint a new member to fill Metzler's council position in January. That council term expires in May 1993, officials said.

Metzler formerly served four years as Lindsay's mayor, but did not seek the office when Cogburn was elected in May 1990.

The community was left without a mayor with the June death of Mayor Doyle Cogburn. The council called a special election in July, but was forced to cancel it last month when no one filed.

Cooke County Courthouse handles 161 cases on docket

Cooke County Judge Ray Russell reported that the Cooke County Court handled 161 criminal cases on Dec. 3, 1991 during its "Announcement" docket call. This was a record number of cases for an announcement docket, according to Senior Deputy County Clerk Sharlene Willis. Mrs. Willis told Judge Russell that the 161 cases handled Tuesday was larger than any in the 14 years that she has been employed in the County Clerk's office, and probably larger than any in Cooke County history.

Judge Russell also commented that 45 of the cases were disposed of by guilty pleas heard by the Court. He said he was pleased with the high number of case dispositions.

Judge Russell said that the large number of cases was caused by his desire to combine the dockets of November and December, so that the administration of justice would not be delayed at all by the change in the County Judge post during November.

Judge Russell said the large number of cases was handled very smoothly because of several innovations made in preparation for the proceedings. For example, rather than having 161 defendants, their attorneys (and, in some cases, their families) crowd into the courtroom at once, the docket was divided into two sections, with one-half of the cases scheduled for 9 a.m., and the remainder scheduled for 1:30 p.m. Also County Attorney August Boto brought his entire staff to the second floor to process the great

Sheriff hopeful files as Republican

by Elaine Schad

The switch of a major candidate for Cooke County Sheriff from the Democratic to the Republican Party is an indication of increasing strength of the Republicans at the local level, officials said.

Gainesville Police Officer Jim Bleything, who lost a close race to incumbent Cooke County Sheriff John Aston two years ago in the Democratic Primary, has filed as a Republican, said George Silvernale, chairman of the Cooke County Republican Party.

"I'm a conservative and have found that the Republican Party better reflects my views," said Bleything, who has been in law enforcement for 10 years, including a tenure as chief criminal investigator for the Cooke County Sheriff's Department. Bleything, 41, said he almost made the switch before the 1990 Democratic Primary, which he lost by about 175 votes to incumbent Sheriff John Aston.

Bleything's decision could mean running unopposed in the Republican Primary and clear sailing through to the November election, removing him from a crowded Democratic field where three candidates have already filed well before the Jan. 2 deadline. Incumbent Sheriff Aston, who is seeking re-election to a third term, will run against former longtime Sheriff Bill Pratt and longtime special investigator Joe Nichols.

The Cooke County Republican Party has shown steady growth at the local level since 1984, said Debbie Hess, who recently resigned as the party's longtime county chairman so she could devote more time to her family. "Our county has a long history of voting Republican at the state and national levels," said Hess, who said more local Republican candidates like Bleything will give county residents a choice at the polls.

In 1990, Wally Johnson ran as a write-in candidate for sheriff on the Republican side. In 1988, Ken Fitts was the party's single local candidate, running for sheriff. Silvernale said the party expects a Republican candidate to file for the county judge's position before the filing deadline.

The Republican Party has expanded its voting precincts in Cooke County, from a single voting precinct for all Republican voters in the county in 1984 to a present total of 13 precincts in various locations in Cooke County, said Hess. That has resulted in an increasing number of voters casting ballots in the Republican primary, with around 1,000 votes cast in the last primary election, she said.

Four Tigers make All-State Team

Four members of the Sacred Heart Tigers Football team earned places on the TAPPS Class AA All State Football team.

Taking first team honors were, on defense, lineman Chris Hess, linebacker Gary Hess and defensive back Stevan Nasche. Gregg Hess and Chris Hess were also nominated to the second offensive team as lineman and back.

Named on the State Honorable Mention list were defensive back Kelly Bell, punter Chris Hess and offensive lineman Gary Hess.

Crack house destroyed in Gainesville

by Elaine Schad

Gainesville city workers have destroyed a local storage shed that authorities said was used to distribute illegal drugs, officials said.

The structure, located at the intersection of Throckmorton and Rockwall streets, was known as the "Bread Barn." A makeshift recreation center, it was a place where crack and cocaine could be bought just by driving by the curb, said law officers. The shed was closed on November 19 after 15 people were arrested on charges of felony delivery of a controlled substance, which included a Muenster man. Seven more people have been arrested in connection with the same undercover investigation, officials said.

Gainesville City Attorney Mack Barnhart, at the direction of the city council, secured a court order to have the structure removed. The city negotiated with the owner, who had his permission for the building to be torn down, said Barnhart.

Most of the defendants in the raid two weeks ago remain in the Cooke County Jail, where they are expected to be held until they are tried, said Don King, assistant district attorney. A district judge has denied bond for Peter Ronald McCoy of Muenster, who has another felony case pending, said King.

Candidates file for county office seats

by Elaine Schad

A full field of incumbents have filed for re-election to their positions for the March 10 Democratic Primary, officials said this week.

With just one week of filing completed, three incumbents have already drawn opponents. Filing deadline is Jan. 2 for both the Republican and Democratic primaries.

Recently appointed Cooke County Judge Ray Russell will be opposed by Gainesville Attorney Ed Zielinski. Zielinski applied for the position when County Judge Jim Robertson resigned in October.

Incumbent Cooke County Sheriff John Aston is the only candidate so far who will definitely have an opponent in the November election if he is able to make it through a thick primary field. Aston will face former longtime Sheriff Bill Pratt and special investigator Joe Nichols in the Democratic Primary. Gainesville Police Officer Jim Bleything has filed for sheriff as a Republican.

Incumbent Precinct 1 County Commissioner W.D. "Danny" Knight will face Fred Webb, county probation supervisor, in the Democratic Primary.

Other filings so far for the Democratic Primary in Cooke County include:

-District Judge, incumbent Jerry Woodlock.

-District Attorney, incumbent Phil Adams.

-County Attorney, incumbent D. August Boto.

-County Commissioner Precinct 3, incumbent Jerry Lewis.

-County Tax Assessor Collector, incumbent Joyce Zwinggi.

-Justice of the Peace, Precinct 1, Place 1, Bill Freeman.

-Constable, Precinct 1, incumbent Thomas Crawford.

-Constable, Precinct 4, incumbent Jodie Vance.

Nichols announces candidacy in county sheriff's election

Joe Nichols, 54, has joined the list of candidates hoping to be elected sheriff of Cooke County in November 1992. His competition includes Sheriff John Aston, Jim Bleything and Bill Pratt.

Concerning goals and plans for the Cooke County Sheriff's Office, Nichols believes in a positive and pro-active approach and that team effort within the organization is an absolute necessity. Further, he said that a trusted, close relationship must exist between all law enforcement organizations within the county and that the sheriff sets the tone for this cooperation. If elected, he would utilize the financial, personnel and physical resources of the Sheriff's Office to maximum efficiency.

Continuing education and training, according to Nichols, are essential for all personnel and that law enforcement has changed tremendously over the past few years. Also, he is a believer in leading by example and participation and states that he would not allow any member of his organization to endanger themselves beyond what he would be willing to do himself. As a farm resident, Nichols fully understands the security problems that face the rural residents and that he intends to meet with farmers and ranchers to help them, through programs, that will be to their benefit concerning their homes, equipment and livestock.

Integrity, skill, commitment and dedication to the job of all Sheriff's Department personnel is essential, according to Joe. He says that any law enforcement employee should maintain a personal reputation above reproach and that the trust of the public is a high honor, never to be taken lightly.

A Gainesville native, Joe Nichols was educated in St. Mary's School and Gainesville High School and graduated from Cooke County College. In 1958, he joined the Texas Highway Patrol and served as a trooper in San Antonio and then in Denton County.

After five years of service, Nichols resigned to resume his college education to qualify for a federal law enforcement career. Between 1964 and 1966, Joe attended NTSU before entering the United States Naval Investigative Service, U.S. Naval Intelligence Command as a civilian Special Agent.

Nichols' first assignment as a Special Agent was in Corpus Christi. In 1974, he was transferred to U.S. Naval Base, Guantanamo Bay, Cuba. From 1976-79, he was assigned to Memphis. A promotion to supervisor brought him to Boston. He continued to serve as a civilian supervisor in Naval Intelligence.

Cooke County United Way campaign nets total of $239,816

A Cooke County United Way Victory Luncheon was held last Friday at the Gainesville Holiday Inn. It was announced by Lyle Drescher, United Way chairman, that a total of $239,816 was raised surpassing the 1991 goal of $225,000.

According to Drescher there are 14 agencies receiving funds from Cooke County United Way. These include American Red Cross, Boy Scouts of America, Cooke County 4-H and FFA, Home Hospice, Cooke County Youth Center, Child Protective Services, Salvation Army, VISTO, Southwestern Diabetic Foundation, Texoma Council on Alcohol and Drug Abuse, North Texas Radio Reading for the Blind, and Community Service Advisor.

A number of awards were presented in recognition of outstanding service to the campaign. Celine Dittfurth of Muenster earned the Division Leader Award for her outstanding job of putting together the Muenster division. There were 17 division leaders working in Cooke County.

The Muenster Enterprise was one of four recipients of a Special Awards plaque. Special awards were given to people who did extra work in the campaign to help make Cooke County United Way a success.

Four companies were awarded the Arlie Daurity award for 100 percent participation in the fund raiser. Award winners were Frybrant of Muenster, Muenster Telephone Company, Poly Pipe and First State Bank of Gainesville.

Good News!

I will bring the blind by a way they did not know; I will lead them in paths they have not known. I will make darkness light before them, and crooked places straight. These things I will do for them, and not forsake them.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:
 This is a letter of appreciation to the many who helped to make this year's Christmas season a delight for the viewers.
 Thank you - Sacred Heart students who climbed ladders to decorate all the street lights.
 Thank you - Gary Fisher, for his late night efforts in getting the electricity working on these lights.
 Thank you - Arnie Wimmer who always comes when called - to do the "odd jobs" and heavier work.
 Thank you - to all entrants in the Christmas parade, who braved the cold winds to fulfill their promises to participate. (It was disappointing that more didn't take part.)
 Thank you - Jaycees for the lovely large lighted tree in Mid-Lark and the candy for the children.

 A "Big" Thank you - to Margie Starke, our Chamber of Commerce secretary, whose ideas, efforts and hard work keeps things coordinated and running smoothly; who is always a promoter and good example for the City of Muenster.
 There are others too numerous to mention, who through the years have given of their time and talents to make Muenster proud and they deserve thanks too. However, there are others who should and could be doing their share for the community. It takes everyone working together to make our corner of the world a better place to live.

Dear Editor:
 On December 21st the two schools are sponsoring a Christmas dance for the youth of the community. You may have seen flyers posted by the students. I was fortunate to have been asked to help in the planning process. I was delighted to see the enthusiasm of youth in progress. For me, it renewed my spirit to know these young people handled everything themselves, from the basic planning and rule setting to fund raising, hall booking and decorations. It is a good lesson for them in how to plan, promote, advertise and manage, which are things they must know to survive in the work force today. Even in the quest for entertainment and fun, something valuable can be learned.
 Because this dance is being given under the "drug-free schools and community project" rules, no alcohol is allowed. This has raised concern from the naysayers in the community who feel a dance cannot be successful without "juice" to get them going. Last Spring, after another alcohol-related death in our community, there was concern voiced for a teen center. Anyone practical knows a center cannot subsist without subsidy. However, Muenster is blessed with three gathering centers which are seldom used to half their potential. Sitting vacant most of the time, they stand tribute to the lack of interest in putting on activities that interest the younger members of the community. While these young people can put together an event like this upcoming dance, it certainly takes adult members of the community to supervise and assist.

 This dance will be a success even if there is no drinking allowed. It is expected that few of the so-called "in crowd" will show up at this dance. They will be on the drag drinking. But, if only a few kids show up sober, the dance will be a success. It will have started something which has potential. But that is where the adults come in. Your support of this dance will show the next generation that the middle-aged, boring baby boomers do care. So, while this is a teen dance, the teens have invited any adult that cares to drop by to do so. The doors to the VFW Hall open at 8 p.m. Come and show your support by donating $2.00 at the door and having a soda and Christmas goodies. If you can't stand their kind of music, you can leave after making your showing, but remember that your dad and mom didn't like Elvis or the Beatles either.
 Merry Christmas,
 Gary J. Fisher

Dear Editor:
 Sometime during the holiday season, every resident in the hospital district should take a stroll through the Muenster Memorial Hospital. The decorations are gorgeous! The hospital auxiliary did an inspired job! Don't miss it!

DR. MICHAEL LINDER raised his baton, his expression caught the attention of his singers and the voices blended into the first notes of a memorable presentation of Handel's "Messiah," on Sunday, Dec. 1.

Chorale presents an afternoon treat

The largest crowd to assemble to hear a program presented by the Cooke County Chorale in Sacred Heart Church, honored the performance of the Christmas section of Handel's "Messiah" Sunday afternoon.
 Rapt attention throughout, prolonged applause at the close of the program, and verbal expressions from the audience as they mingled among the performers at the close of the final "Hallelujah" Chorus told the 41 volunteer members of the Chorale and the 10 members of the string ensemble and the organist, that their efforts met with admiration Sunday.
 Among the 10 instrumentalists in the string ensemble accompanying the singers were several who had phoned Dr. and Mrs. Martin Kralic, answering in response to his requests for musicians from Wichita Falls and the University of North Texas: "I play the violin" - "I play the cello" - "I would enjoy playing for the Chorale Sunday."
 Responding to the very obvious appreciation from the audience, the Cooke County Chorale indicated a possible return appearance in the Easter season, offering a presentation in keeping with that religious theme.

Estimating the size of the audience, several accustomed to judging numbers in a crowd, said at least 300 were present and probably more than that.

The Chorale is directed by Dr. Michael Linder. Of the 41 members, nine are Muenster residents.
 Another presentation of Handel's "Messiah" was given on Thursday, Dec. 5, at 7:30 p.m. in Gainesville's First United Methodist Church.

Clyde Fisher is elected Texas rep. for NBWA

Clyde D. Fisher, president, Clyde D. Fisher Inc., has been elected to serve on the Board of Directors of the National Beer Wholesalers Association (NBWA).
 Mr. Fisher will serve a three-year term as a director. NBWA is a trade association representing the nation's beer distributors. The association lobbies on their behalf on federal legislative and regulatory issues. Additionally, NBWA is engaged in numerous alcohol abuse prevention and education programs. As a member of the board, Mr. Fisher will provide guidance to the association staff and help formulate NBWA policies and positions.
 "We are delighted to have someone of Clyde Fisher's caliber to serve on our board," said NBWA's newly elected chairman, Kirby Lawlis, a wholesaler from Wauwatosa, WI. "NBWA is a vibrant, active and effective association because of the involvement of our directors." Mr. Lawlis stated, "Clyde will play an important role in our continued success."
 Clyde was elected by the Texas Beer Wholesalers to serve as their representative. There are approximately 300 members in Texas. "I felt privileged to be elected as a representative for the distributors," commented Fisher. "I feel that it is an honor for the community to have a represen-

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

"Deduction lost if court ends school tax," read a front-page headline this week. Evidently, an anonymous AP writer is either scraping the bottom of the barrel or carrying a hidden agenda in favor of the Texas Court's unconstitutional Robin Hood (read "socialist") education bill.

In either case, the logic of this so-called news story is that if the taxpayers of this state are relieved of this wasteful new tax that they, boo-hoo, won't be able to deduct as much off their federal income taxes. Please, don't go cross-eyed on me; there's a fair facade of logic to this illogic, the liberal kind.

Albeit, if the deduction issue was such a tragic concern, everyone should hope that the government keeps piling new taxes on top of taxes, so that eventually we can get a 100 percent tax deduction! Never mind that take-home pay will go to zero.

Now, the problem still seems to be that somehow the liberals and special (read "selfish") interests refuse to face the reality that the more you mandate taxes for whatever "good cause," the less those paying the tax will produce. Besides, fishing's more fun.

It is time to get this economy moving again and the way to do that? Get the monkey off the backs of the taxpayers. Almost like a magic wand, if property taxes were allowed to come back into line and the Capital Gains Tax was reduced we would be heralding in the advent of a Golden Era in our State and our national economy!

Instead, we're lamenting for the government to take more and as long as we "get our share" we're content to suffer in silence throughout our present government-spawned recession. Think about it.

Muenster Parents and Young People

We would like to inform everyone about an upcoming event. On Saturday, Dec. 21, the youth of Muenster are sponsoring a drug- and alcohol-free dance. The Student Councils from both Muenster Public and Sacred Heart Schools have been working together in cooperation with several individuals and organizations to organize a winter dance. It's not going to be an ordinary dance! There will be games and prizes for those that don't like to dance. There will be other surprises throughout the evening.

Besides just informing you of this event, we also wish to encourage student attendance. It will be FUN!!! We also want to take the opportunity to ask parents to help make this event successful. If you are asking yourself, "What can I do?" may we make the following suggestions:

1) Encourage your high school son/daughter to attend.

2) Donate food, drink, Christmas goodies.

3) Donate money to help purchase prizes and cover expenses.

Contact any of the names below, if you'd like to help in any way. Parents and young people working together will ensure the success of this event. Thank you!

Cooke Co. gets settlement from Ford

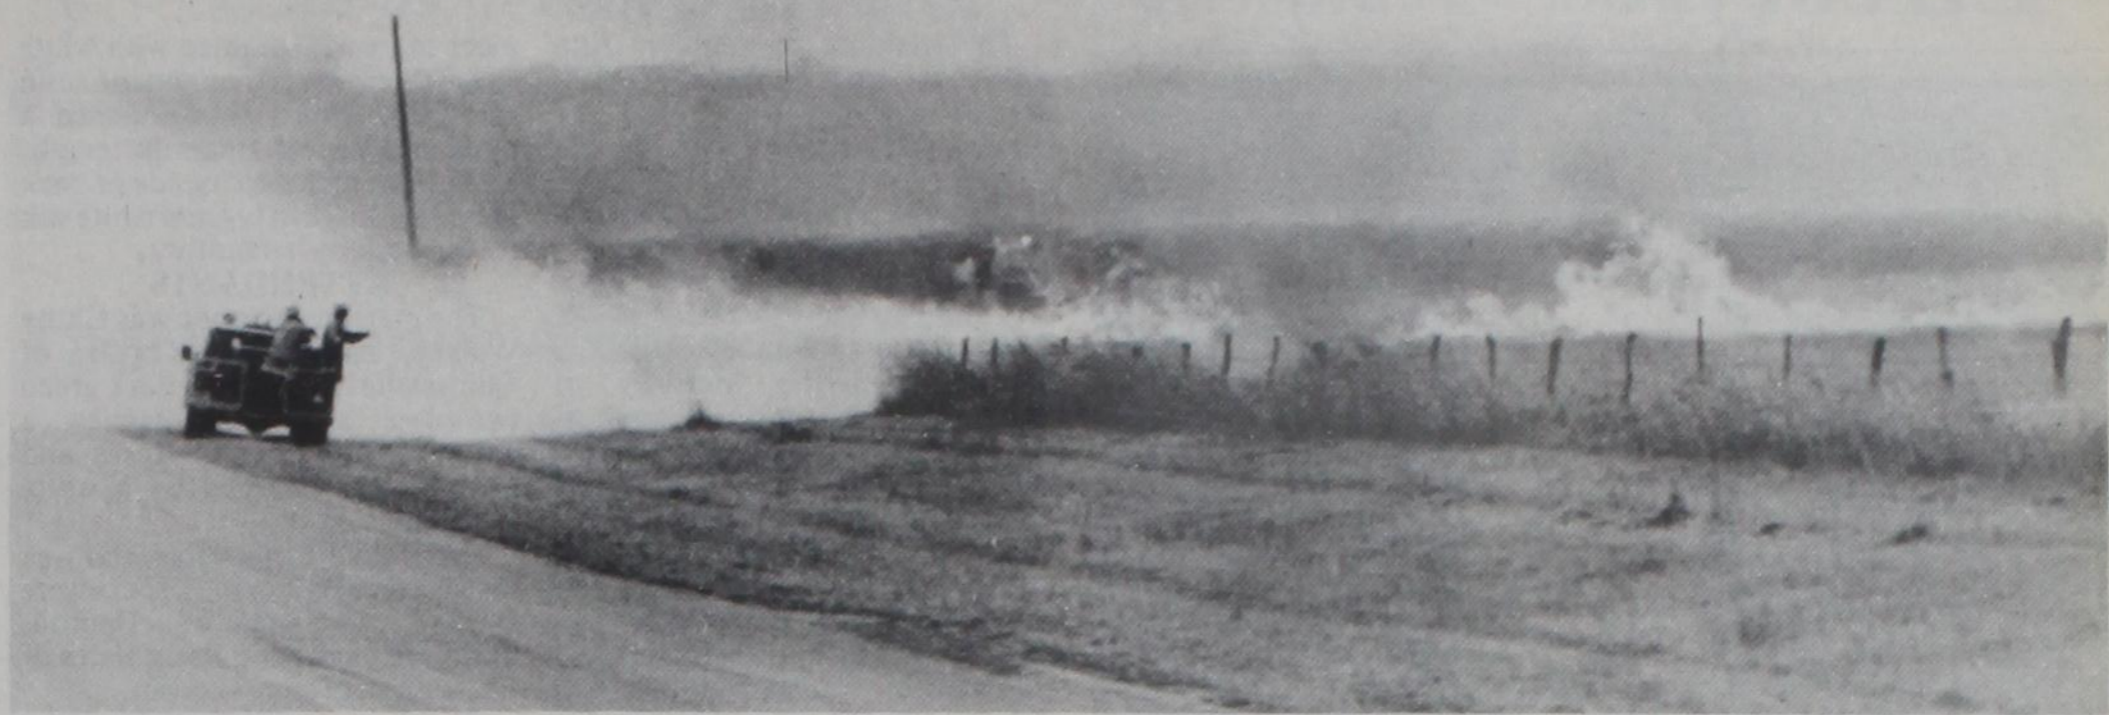

by Elaine Schad

Cooke County will receive $90,000 as a lawsuit settlement from Ford Motor Company resulting from a 1988 incident where a county ambulance burst into flames while on a routine run, officials said.

County Commissioners have given final approval to the settlement, officials said. Ford Motor Company and another party of the suit, Cayel-Kraft Company, will pay $90,000 in two separate installments. The first $45,000 installment is being paid immediately with the second payment due in January 1992, officials said.

The ambulance and all of its equipment were destroyed on July 16, 1988, when the ambulance burst into flames while on a routine transfer to Sherman, officials said.

"It's almost miraculous that no one got hurt," said Cooke County Judge Ray Russell, who said the settlement should take care of replacement costs for the vehicle and contents.

Oklahoma company receives bid for bridge

by Elaine Schad

An Oklahoma company has submitted the low bid for the construction of a new bridge to span the Red River and for the construction of feeder roads in northwestern Cooke and Montague counties, officials said.

Muskogee Bridge Co. of Muskogee, Okla. submitted a bid of $5.167 million, the lowest bid of 11 being considered for the project. Concho Construction Co. of Dallas had the second-lowest bid of $5.47 million. J.D. Abrams, Inc. of Austin had the highest bid for the project, $6.8 million.

Department of Highway and Transportation officials were pleased with the bid, which came in well under the $6.4 million estimates for the project, said Leiland Jett, resident engineer in Bowie for the highway department. The bid is not expected to be awarded for about six weeks, he said.

"I haven't seen so much interest in a project," said Jett, who has been with the department for 30 years. An estimated 40 contractors requested information about the project, he said.

The bridge, to be located just south of Courtney, Okla., will span the river about halfway between Interstate 35 at Gainesville and U.S. 81 near Ringgold, where the nearest spans are now located. The construction of the bridge and roadway approaches for both the Texas and Oklahoma sides of the project includes an estimated 5.354 miles of construction, officials said.

Two more feeder road projects, estimated at about $6 million, will be let in September 1992, the beginning of a new fiscal year said Jett. One will be for the construction of a section of FM 2953, which will tie the bridge into Nocona. The second project will be to extend FM 373 in Cooke County from the Bulcher community west to FM 677, which will give a direct roadway into Muenster, he said.

The final two projects were delayed due to lack of funding for fiscal 1991, said Jett.

Lindsay City Council discusses new parish hall, family center

by Elaine Schad

The Lindsay City Council is expected to give final approval to a zoning change request from St. Peter's Catholic Church that will clear the way for the construction of the church's new parish hall and family center.

The council, at its December meeting, heard from two families during a public hearing on the proposal to change zoning of an 11-acre parcel of land the church owns just south of St. Peter's Cemetery from residential single family to multi-family, which would be required in order for the new parish center to be constructed. Those speaking before the council were concerned about potential runoff water and the effect that it might have on their properties.

The city's planning and zoning commission has recommended that the zoning request be granted. The council, however, requested that P&Z obtain more topographical information that might answer questions about how runoff would be affected by the construction of the building.

If the council approves the zoning change, it would probably be with the condition that the change is for the proposed family center. Any other structure would have to Sandy is an elementary grade teacher at Rad Ware Elementary School while Joe has been involved in farm restoration and a small livestock operation.

He is an active member of the Rotary International, the Lake Kiowa Volunteer Fire Dept., and recently appointed to a vacancy on the Woodbine Water Corp. Board. Joe is a "Friendly Visitor" in a newly-developed Ombudsman Program in which volunteers visit residents of area nursing homes to assist those who are alone and might need a friend. Joe and Sandy are active members of Temple Baptist Church where Joe is the Brotherhood Director.

Joe's parents are Helen Albers Nichols and the late Joe Nichols. His aunt, Mrs. Herman (Kate) Luttmmer, resided south of Muenster. Joe still keeps in touch with his Muenster Luttmmer cousins.

Joe aspires for a crime-free community and has the skill and responsibility to work to make Cooke County as free of crime as possible. Nineteen years of Joe's public service were served in Texas where he has dealt personally on a daily basis with numerous law enforcement organizations throughout the states of Texas and Oklahoma. "Not only did this diverse and extensive exposure help me to learn how many other agencies and organizations functioned, but I gained tremendous insight into their varied structures and operations," explained Nicholas. He believes that his extensive past experience and training make him well qualified to effectively lead and administer the Sheriff's Office for the people of Cooke County.

MRS. JAMES H. COLWELL, JR.
...nee Jennifer Ann Reeves...

Couple wed in Marysville on November 9

The wedding of Jennifer Ann Reeves to James H. (Bert) Colwell, Jr. was held November 9, 1991, at 7 p.m. in the Marysville Baptist Church, officiated by Reverend Andy Cherry, with a special message from Bro. Aubrey Spiers.

The bride is the daughter of C.G. and Bobbie Reeves of Marysville, and the granddaughter of the late J.B. and Bertha McElroy of Marysville and Allie Reeves of Altus, Okla. The groom is the son of Jim and Lee Colwell of Gainesville, and the grandson of Zada Gravette of Whitesboro.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white Chantilly and Alencon lace gown designed by San Martin. The shirred lace and pearl encrusted bodice featured a high Victorian neckline and long fitted lace sleeves. From this mermaid-styled gown fell a full flounce sweeping into an oval shaped train of chapel length. Completing her ensemble, the bride chose a headpiece of pearls trimmed with white silk flowers and streamers of satin ribbon to which was attached a pouf and veil of fingertip length. The bride carried a cascade of dark green silk English ivy and white silk roses, made by her mother.

ATTENDANTS

The matron of honor was Cathy Walker, sister of the bride, of Gainesville. She wore a dark green two-piece suit. She carried a bouquet of white silk roses and English ivy, centered by a white tulle bow.

Carl Rickert of Gainesville was the groom's best man. Ushers were Michael Connell of Denton, bride's nephew, and Brent Bates of Carrollton, groom's cousin.

Wedding ensembles before and after the ceremony were provided by Bob Connell, the bride's brother.

Church decorations included two heart-shaped candelabras on either side of an arch covered in ivy and white roses. Two lighted ficus trees and two more candelabras with greenery accented the rostrum. Pew markers were dark green satin bows and white roses.

A reception followed in the church. The guest book was attended by Jannet Reeves, sister of the bride. The bride's table was covered in a green tablecloth and lace overlay with a fresh English ivy centerpiece. The three-tiered wedding cake was made and decorated by the bride's father. Pink bows, silk English ivy and pink silk rosettes accented the cake. The same bride and groom figurine used by the groom's parents 25½ years ago adorned the cake top. Presiding at the bride's table were Michelle Smith, bride's friend of Denton, and Brittany Veltman, groom's cousin of Red Oak.

The groom's table was covered in dark green with a milk glass bud vase with ivy and roses. A Boston cream pie, made by the bride's father, was the groom's cake.

The bride is a 1988 graduate of Muenster High School and attended East Texas State University. The groom is a 1986 graduate of Callisburg High School and attended Universal Technical Institute of Houston. They are currently residing in Marysville.

Special guests at the wedding were Zada Gravette of Whitesboro, groom's grandmother, and Allie Reeves of Altus, Okla., bride's grandmother. Other out of town guests included aunts, uncles and friends from Denton, Whitesboro, Houston, Altus, Okla., Carrollton, Red Oak and College Station.

Dance plans highlight SH parent meeting

Sacred Heart Preschool Parent Group met on Monday, Nov. 25 at the Preschool. Plans for their annual fund raiser, the New Year's Eve Dance, occupied most of the meeting.

Various chairmen gave the committee reports and all is progressing. A Mexican/American buffet menu was planned. The dance theme is a Mexican Fiesta. Andy Serna and the Captive Hearts is scheduled to perform.

Tickets are now available and can be purchased by contacting any pre-school parent or Kathy Bauer, 759-2573. Kathy Bauer and Colynda Sicking (759-4937) are accepting table reservations, 759-4937. A message can be left on the Bauer's answering machine for reservations. Tickets are $20 per person and include the buffet and party favors. Ticket sales are limited and no tickets will be sold at the door.

Pat Jackson presided over the meeting. She announced that a basketball goal had been purchased for the playground.

Pam Dangelmayr presented a program demonstrating exercises from the sensorial area with the assistance of students Carrie Grewing and Neil Bayer.

A special meeting has been called for Monday, Dec. 16 to make final preparations for the dance.

Morton Museum features pinatas through December 31

Pinatas. They are several centuries old, their exact origins are not known, and they produce a revenue of $250,000 a year in South Texas alone. That's an amazing history for a paper covered clay jar.

A traveling exhibit is at the Morton Museum of Cooke County in Gainesville until December 31. The exhibit details the background, folklore and rules of the game.

The pinata game of hitting an object-filled clay jar may have been brought westward from the Orient by Marco Polo, who described the game to his Italian compatriots.

The game was taken from Italy in the mid-16th century. The game's enthusiastic welcome in Mexico gave the ancient pastime new life and a new look. The Mexicans used it at Christmas, birthday parties and other special occasions. When tissue paper became more available, they began decorating pinatas like roses and fanciful animals. When the demands of American tourists began to exceed the supply of pinatas, craftspeople discovered papier mache to be a quicker and more flexible method.

"Festival of Pinatas" is one of many traveling exhibits available from the Institute of Texan Cultures for public display.

The exhibit is free and open to the public. For more information, please contact the Morton Museum at 668-8900.

JAM cares a lot!

JAM will go caroling on Sunday evening, Dec. 15, to raise money for a needy family this Christmas. Jammers will carol at your door and offer you a loaf of pumpkin bread at $2 a loaf. The pumpkin bread will be baked the afternoon of the 15th and will be a delicious bread for a quick holiday breakfast. JAM plans to bake 100 loaves and all proceeds will be given to the Social Concerns Committee to be given to help a local needy family.

If you would like us to carol at your door, please call Pam Fette (759-2894) or Deb Klement (759-4579). Please join JAM in support of a needy family by purchasing our fresh baked pumpkin bread. We want to let our community know that Jesus is Alive in Muenster!

All youth planning to be a part of this effort should come to the Community Center Cafeteria at 1:00 p.m. on Dec. 15 to start baking bread. The group will leave to go caroling at 5:30 until all the bread is sold. They will return to the Community Center for a pizza party with homemade pizzas by Janie and Clinton! Don't miss this opportunity to serve the community and have fun doing it.

Joining the group for the pizza will be a member of the Social Concerns Committee who will accept the proceeds and explain how the committee functions.

Joan Walterscheid earns certification as diabetic instructor

Joan Walterscheid, RN, Director of Nurses at Muenster Memorial Hospital, recently successfully completed the qualifications for recognition as a Certified Diabetes Educator (CDE). As outlined by the National Certification Board for Diabetes Educators (NCBDE). This verifies that she has met the criteria specifying professional credentials, substantial experience in direct diabetes patient education and achievement in diabetes knowledge as assessed by successfully passing the Certification Examination for Diabetes Educators.

The NCBDE supports the concept of voluntary, periodic certification by examination for all health care professionals in direct diabetes education. Certification focuses specifically on the individual and is an indication of current knowledge in diabetes education and care.

Local schools present "Christmas Fantasy"

The Student Councils of both Muenster High School and Sacred Heart High School, in cooperation with the Drug-Free Schools and Community Project, are in-the VFW Hall. The admission is $2.00 per person.

The dance is boasting a Christmas theme to get everyone in the holiday spirit - so don't be a Scrooge, be among the many who attend this festive, fun-filled event! The hall will be transformed with beautiful twinkle lights and seasonal decorations into a Christmas "fantasy land." Refreshments will be served.

Drawings will be held every half hour, as well as three grand prizes awarded at midnight. You must be present to win any of the prizes. Games and contests will be held throughout the evening; so if you aren't into dancing, there will be lots of fun activities for everyone! Dance to your favorite music and visit with old, and new, friends, and share in the holiday festivities!

Adults are encouraged to stop by and visit, share in the refreshments and dance, if you like; however, no alcohol will be allowed inside the Hall. Let's make this dance a success for our young people and show them there is more to life than the drag - maybe it could even become a regular thing! See you there!

MR. and MRS. ROBERT RUSSELL of Muenster are proud to announce the engagement of their daughter, Carrie Renee, to Charles Bryant Gant, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Gant of Fort Worth. The couple will wed Jan. 17, 1992 at 7 p.m. at Restoration Church in Euless with Dr. C. Douglas White officiating. Miss Russell is a 1989 graduate of Muenster High School and a 1990 graduate of Emmaus Road Ministry School. Mr. Gant is a 1988 graduate of Crystal River Christian Academy in Crystal River, Florida and a 1989 graduate of Emmaus Road Ministry School. Following their wedding, the couple will make their home in Arlington.

3 parties honor Amy's birthday

Amy Pagel's tenth birthday was observed with three parties in the home of her parents, Janet and Matt Bezner, in Lindsay.

On Friday, Nov. 23 an after-school party with classmates was attended by Melanie Brown, Dee Ann Fuhrmann, Sara Krahl, Karah O'Dell, Jennifer Hermes, Margaret Luttmer, Ashlie Privett, Adrienne Sandmann, Stacie Sandmann, Meghan Taylor and Amber Perrin.

Also her parents and sisters Jessica, Michelle and Lydia; her grandparents Bill and Charlotte Dangelmayr. Birthday cake, ice cream and lemonade were served. Games, picture taking and opening of gifts added to the fun.

The second party was held on Nov. 25 in the evening in her home, with birthday cake, ice cream and cold drinks as refreshments.

Attending were her parents, her sisters, and grandparents Bill and Charlotte Dangelmayr and Weldon and Rose Bezner, and her uncles Tom and Shawn Dangelmayr.

On Amy's actual birthday, Nov. 26, she brought cupcakes to school to celebrate with classmates and teachers.

Amy has come a long way in the past ten years, a reason to celebrate with joy and gratitude. She has undergone surgery 21 times, and faces several more. Her family and many friends feel that these ten years have been a blessing and a miracle.

St. Richard's Villa News

by Frances Reiter

The old saying, "It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas," really holds true at St. Richard's. There are lots of lights, trees and wreaths around. We want to thank Vena Settle's daughter and son-in-law, Christine and Stewart Hughes, for the beautiful live Christmas trees we have outside the home. Thanks also goes to Jerry and Betty Rose Walterscheid for a lovely Thanksgiving luncheon. They invited us into their home Nov. 26 for turkey and dressing and all the trimmings. Those attending the luncheon were Opal Cooper, Frances Reiter, Annie Jostwerner, Alice Hellman, Rosie Walterscheid, Theresa Vogel, Phil Vogel, Ida Hoening, Vena Settle, Marie Walterscheid, Sadie O'Connor, Carl Smith, Buck Ware, Joe Weinzapfel. Volunteers were Betty Gilpin, Nakita Williams, Fr. Joe Weinzapfel and Janie Morgan. We all had such a nice time (and were really stuffed when we got home).

We had our monthly birthday party on Dec. 1. Celebrating their birthdays in December are Loraine Hughes, Hilda Reiter and Bertha Bewley.

We have lots of special events planned this month - hope you can join us for some of them. Our Open House and Christmas Party is Dec. 22 from 5 to 7 p.m. Santa will arrive at 6 p.m. Knights of Columbus are going to visit us on Dec. 19. They always bring Santa also. It is lots of fun!

Southern Lights, a country and western group, is dropping by at 2 p.m. on Dec. 17 to entertain. We always look forward to seeing them. Also the 4-H and FHA are scheduled to come by to carol for us. So, it looks like a fun holiday season.

Well, we are really busy, so I'd better go. The thought for December is - "A good place to find a helping hand is at the end of your arm."

'Till next time, visit a friend, visit St. Richard'.

Thanksgiving celebrated

Thanksgiving Day was celebrated three times by Gladys and Harold Lutkenhaus.

On the Sunday before Thanksgiving they were guests of James and LaChrista Krahl in Gainesville, joining about 20 other guests, including family and friends. On Thanksgiving Thursday they were guests of Brooke and David Bullock of Gainesville for a noon meal and evening supper with family and friends.

The Sunday following Thanksgiving Day they were guests of Sheldon and Patsy Lutkenhaus in Gainesville for noon dinner when direct family members joined for a belated celebration.

LaChrista Krahl is a daughter of Gladys Lutkenhaus; Sheldon Lutkenhaus is Gladys' son and Brooke Bullock is a granddaughter.

MICHELLE PAGEL

Michelle is five!

Michelle Pagel celebrated her fifth birthday on Nov. 25 with a party in the home of her parents, Janet and Matt Bezner, in Lindsay. Gifts, picture taking, games and a specially decorated "Cinderella cake" helped make the party special. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

Attending were her parents, her sisters, Amy, Jessica and Lydia; her grandparents Bill and Charlotte Dangelmayr and Weldon and Rose Bezner; and her uncles Tom and Shawn Dangelmayr.

Forestburg FHA attends Leadership Conference

Nine members of the Forestburg High School chapter of Future Homemakers of America recently participated in a weekend leadership training conference held at Loews Anatole Hotel of Dallas, Nov. 23-24.

"Youth Action" was the theme, and issues dealt with environment, volunteerism, professionalism, homelessness, self-esteem, and peer pressure.

Leadership workshops covered such areas as quality chapter programs, community service, peer education, financial management, career exploration, and communication and officer training.

The Dallas meeting was the last in a series of nationally sponsored training conferences called Cluster Meetings this Fall. Chapter advisor JoAnn Sicking accompanied the members to the Dallas meeting. Members attending were Jennifer Scott, Nikki Willett, Tanya May, Carrie Covington, Stephanie Covington, Taryn Swank, Susan Sheppard and Kristie Greenwood.

Parent chaperones were Joan Covington and Karla Griffin and chapter advisor JoAnn Sicking.

The group toured Dealy Plaza, the Texas School Book Depository, and shopped at West End Marketplace. They expressed thanks to the generosity of the community in their support of bake sales and other FHA fund raisers, allowing the students to make the trip. They hope to attend the meeting in Albuquerque, New Mexico next year.

Lucas Hartman is winner of MPS Geography Bee

Lucas Hartman, a sixth grade student at Muenster Public School, won the school-level competition of the National Geography Bee on Tuesday, Dec. 10, and a chance at a $25,000 college scholarship. This prize marks the second time for Hartman, who was the school's winner last year and is the son of Irene and Roy Hartman.

Fifth grader Dolly Patel, the daughter of Sudha and Vasant Patel, placed second; and Chad Roller, a sixth grader and the son of Linda and Grady Roller, won third. The contest is open to students in grades four through eight with prizes furnished by National Geographic World, Amtrak, and the MHS chapter of the National Honor Society.

Sixteen students competed including fourth graders Jackie Henscheid, Raegan Koesler, and Rhianna Samek; fifth graders Stephanie Bierschenk, Chad Felderhoff, Mendy Gieb, and John Roller; sixth graders Scott Hermes, Jerry Stoffels, and Jeff Wilde; and seventh graders Jonathan Knabe, Eric Miller and Steven Reiter.

The school's contest was the first round in the fourth annual National Geography Bee. As the school's winner, Hartman will now take a written test in order to qualify for the State Bee March 27.

State champions receive an all-expense-paid trip to Washington, D.C. to participate in the National Geography Bee National Championship on May 20 and 21. Alex Trebek, host of "Jeopardy!", will moderate the national finals with $25,000, $15,000 and $10,000 scholarships being the top three prizes.

4-H'ers are honored

Charlene Lutkenhaus, daughter of Dennis and Carolyn Lutkenhaus, and Sean Herbold, son of Jimmie Herbold and Steve Herbold, were honored recently at the District 4 North Central District 4-H Gold State Awards Banquet. The Banquet was held November 18 at Plano Centre. The District Banquet this year was sponsored by TU Electric, Lone Star Gas Company, and J.C. Penney.

Sean, of the Silver Cedar and Emerald Riders 4-H Clubs, and Charlene, of the Lindsay 4-H Club, were recognized at the Cooke County 4-H Achievement Banquet for being Cooke County's Gold Star 1991 Awardees. The Gold Star Award is the highest county award 4-H'ers can receive.

Luminarias will glow Dec. 14-15 in Gainesville

by Elaine Schad
Southeast Gainesville will "Light the Way for the Christ Child" as residences glow with more than 10,000 candles Saturday and Sunday (Dec. 14 and 15) during the tenth season of holiday luminarias.

Virtually every home and business from the courthouse square heading south and east will be surrounded with the soft light of candles shining through brown paper sacks that outline yards and sidewalks in a traditional Spanish display from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. each night, said Betty Buttolph, member of the Historic South Gainesville Association, sponsors of the luminaria display.

The tradition, introduced in Gainesville in 1980, includes both historic Victorian homes from the early 1800s to modern homes, said organizers.

In conjunction with the luminaria display, the First Presbyterian Church at the corner of Denton and Church streets, will present its traditional living Nativity scene on both nights, from 6:30 to 9:15 p.m. Members of the church will provide the cast of the Holy Family and the Wise Men in a rustic setting reminiscent of Bethlehem, said organizers. Music from the church's bell tower will be heard each evening, and the stained glass windows behind the manger provide a special effect, officials said.

Handbell choirs from the First Baptist Church and the First United Methodist Church will perform during the Sunday luminaria display. Both will present programs on the lawn of Geo. J. Carroll & Son Funeral Home, located at the corner of Garnett and Lindsay streets.

Saint Jo Opry to celebrate 4th anniversary

Sponsors of the Saint Jo Opry, The Country Cut Ups, announced that they will be celebrating the 4th anniversary of the Saint Jo Opry Saturday night, Dec. 14.

Several guests are scheduled to appear on the Christmas and anniversary show, including Bob Bolden of Gordonville on sax and vocals, Carmilita Hail of Petrolia, female vocalist; and Serene Smith of Decatur, female vocalist.

Musicians appearing, besides the Country Cut Ups, will be Gene Brown of Bowie on the fiddle and Lew Loban of Nocona on drums.

Donations from proceeds will be made to area volunteer fire departments during the show. The Saint Jo PTO will be serving concessions.

The show begins at 7:00 p.m. and will be held in the school auditorium. It is hosted by Sonny and Dee Cole, who extend a cordial invitation to all to come enjoy the music and fun.

Miller collection donated to Texas History Center

The Townsend Miller Collection, a vast collection of significant country music, amassed by the late Mr. Miller, has been donated to the Barker Texas History Center of the University of Texas at Austin, as a memorial gift from his family.

Miller, a native of Gainesville, was married to the former Rita Swirczynski of Muenster. They made their home in Austin for many years. Miller died on April 1, 1989.

A tribute to Townsend Miller was printed in the Newsletter No. 9, published by the Eugene C. Barker Texas History Center, from which much of this information was obtained.

When a student of Journalism at Rice University, Miller interrupted his studies during WWII to serve as a B-17 navigator and then returned to finish his degree at the University of North Texas. In later years, he served as editor for "True West" and "Frontier Times" magazines, and publications of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department. He wrote a regular country music column for the "Austin American-Statesman," a daily newspaper.

He was an avid sportsman and still holds the world's record catch for a long-nose gar (54 lbs.).

In pursuit of his various interests and activities, he was a collector, critic and promoter of country music, and, through his work in communications, supported Austin as a music center, particularly for "progressive country music," giving it recognition on a regional and national level.

During these years, Miller amassed an enormous collection of audio materials and printed materials, including 8,000 sound recordings dating from 1920 to 1989, which highlighted 78 rpm singles, LPs, 45 rpm singles, tapes and cassettes by such great country artists as Vernon Dalhart, Jimmie Rogers, Tammy Wynette, Willie Nelson, George Jones, Barbara Mandrell, Floyd Tillman, Tanya Tucker, Ray Price, Waylon Jennings, Hank Williams, Johnny Cash and Kitty Wells.

The collection documents the "grass roots" of the country music industry, and includes rare items and mint-condition first recordings, reflecting Townsend Miller's interest in music and musicians. Some files chronicle his newspaper columns and his association with the Austin and Kerrville Folk Festivals; the "Austin City Limits" television series; the Country Music Association; the Hall of Fame in Nashville; and the annual Grammy Awards with particular reference to country music.

There are also many photographs of personalities with whom he was associated, reflecting the esteem he enjoyed among country musicians.

The collection is important source material for country music from Nashville to Austin. Townsend Miller was a brother-in-law of Mrs. Richard Swirczynski, Mrs. Bob Swirczynski; Mrs. Katie Swirczynski; and Ray Swirczynski of Muenster and Mrs. Clarence Erpelding of Colorado Springs, Colorado.

MPS/Kiwanis Students of Month named

The Kiwanis Students of the Month for November from Muenster Public School are Kristie Lutkenhaus and Tina Klement.

Kristie Lutkenhaus is the daughter of Leo and Peggy Lutkenhaus. Kristie attended kindergarten and first grade in Lindsay. She moved here when she was in the second grade. She is in the third grade now. Kristie is always courteous to everyone and is a very responsible young lady. Her classwork is always neat and finished on time. She cooperates with the teachers and all of her classmates. Kristie is the type of student all teachers love to have. Her teacher is Becky Scott.

Tina Klement, a senior at Muenster High School, is the daughter of Dale and Charlotte Klement. Tina has won many awards and honors while at Muenster High School. However, this honor was awarded by the MHS Faculty because of her extra efforts outside of the school. Tina has certainly been successful in school activities; but in nominating her for the Kiwanis Student of the Month, faculty members stressed that Tina has continued to work hard and strive to meet her potential. Tina truly represents the "ideal" Muenster High School student in that she works hard to accomplish as much as possible. This honor reflects the faculty's pride in Tina and her consistent efforts to reach her potential.

Sacred Heart picks Kiwanis Students of the Month

Kenneth Grewing is the outstanding student from the Sacred Heart Elementary School. He is in the third grade. Kenneth has a ready smile and a helping hand. He chooses to encourage his classmates, rather than make fun of them. He is kind and generous to all regardless of any imagined social status. Kenneth exemplifies the young Jesus in our youth. Kenneth is the son of Linda Grewing and Anthony Grewing.

Stevan Nasche, son of Angelo and LaVerna Nasche, was chosen the Outstanding Student for S.H. High School. He is one of the outstanding members of the senior class. He is an excellent and diligent student, an outstanding athlete and is active in Student Council. He epitomizes the spirit of Sacred Heart School. Above all he is a young man who lives his Christian Catholic faith daily.

New Auxiliary officers are elected at Dec. 5 meeting

The November Muenster Memorial Hospital Auxiliary meeting, normally held on the fourth Thursday of the month, was delayed until Dec. 5 due to conflict with Thanksgiving. The meeting was called to order at 7:45 by President Donna Biffle. Betty Rose Walterscheid led the members in prayer, after which she shared "The Legend of the Candy Cane," presenting a copy of the legend and a candy cane to all those present.

Glenda Russell gave the treasurer's report, stating that proceeds from the Nifty '50s Dance paid off the portable vital signs monitor recently purchased for the hospital. She also reported on dues collected and bills paid.

Denise Pagel informed the members of the success of the Blood Drive held Oct. 30, stating that the amount of blood collected was approximately the same as the last blood drive when Beta Kappa was in charge of the drive.

Election of officers was held during the meeting, with Peggy Grewing as new president. Joining Peggy will be Lora Hennigan as 1st vice-president, Mary Hess as 2nd vice-president, Glenda Russell as treasurer, Brenda Rigsby as secretary and Kathy Bauer as parliamentarian. Following the election, discussion began on possible ways of attracting new members and notifying members about dues. Also, Dr. Alfred Antonetti of Dallas has offered to present a program on cosmetic and reconstructive surgery for anyone interested, to be sponsored by the Auxiliary.

Members discussed the possibility of having brochures printed for the hospital, such as care for patients dismissed from the hospital following treatment for cancer, heart attacks, etc.

The Auxiliary decided to send Christmas cards to the staff doctors and patients in the hospital.

Betty Rose Walterscheid, Glenda Russell, Donna Biffle, Betty Miller and Gwen and Herman Carroll were praised for decorating the hospital. Everyone agreed they did a beautiful job.

The agenda for 1992 was discussed, with ideas for a new fundraising project still not decided.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:55, followed by a Christmas social. Brenda Richey and Betty Kralicke furnished three door prizes, which were won by Susan Fetsch, Betty Kralicke and Glenda Russell.

Support group offers help to bereaved parents Jan. 6

Sponsored by bereaved parents, in conjunction with Home Hospice of Cooke County, a support group meets the first Monday of each month at 7 p.m. in the Home Hospice office, 1001 East Broadway in Gainesville.

Two questions and answers have been passed in reference to the first meeting.

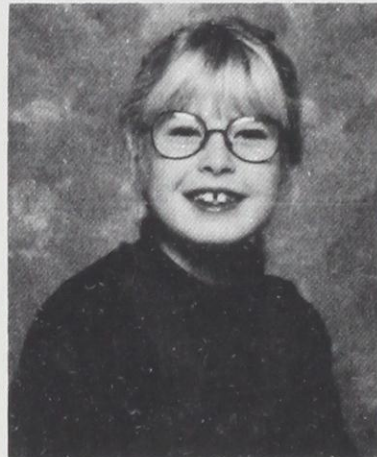

"Have you lost a child?" Children are the most precious blessings of a parent's life. Therefore, losing a child is probably the most traumatic situation a parent will have to cope with, whether the loss be due to illness, accident or war.

"Do you have difficulty expressing your feelings because no one really understands?"

We do understand and we can help you through the difficult times you are facing because we, too, have lost our children.

Come visit with us on Jan. 6, 1992 and the first Monday of each month at 7 p.m. in the Home Hospice office. We care about you and what you are going through. You are not alone.

be approved by the planning and zoning commission, officials said.

The church is planning to construct an estimated $480,000 family center with the hopes of completing the building in time for the church's centennial celebration in June of 1992, officials said.

In other business, the council: -Appointed Don Metzler as mayor and Manley Taylor as mayor pro tem. The council is expected to fill Metzler's vacated council seat at its January meeting.

-Authorized a $57,678 payment to Overland Corp. for the recently completed street project. The council withheld a $6,408 final payment upon final inspection and minor cleanup details, officials said.

-Reported on past due bills owed to the city as a result of past street projects. The city attorney will contact property owners involved in delinquent bills ranging from $250 to $750 for street projects completed in 1979, 1980 and 1982. There are also three delinquencies from a 1989 Community Estates project, including two -month past due bill totalling $28,000. The city will contact the responsible parties requesting payment, officials said.

-Discussed the possibility of using City Hall as headquarters during the city's Centennial Celebration and about the erection of billboards concerning the centennial to be placed along U.S. 82.

-Heard a citizen's comment about some citizens and businesses who have junk collecting on their properties. The council will first approach those citizens involved on an individual basis before turning over any complaint to the city attorney.

Muenster splits championship with Lindsay in tournament

by Allison Klement and Staff Reports

Saturday night was high school basketball at its best. Two long-time rivals faced off in championship games. The Lindsay Knights played the Muenster Hornets before a big crowd and to the Knights' advantage, on Lindsay's court. Both games were crowd pleasers and each school was able to bring home a championship trophy, with the Lady Hornets edging out the Knightettes and the Hornets falling to the Knights.

Muenster vs. Lindsay

The first game was a battle of the unbeaten. The Lady Hornets and the Knightettes were both 7-0 before the game. But Muenster blemished Lindsay's perfect record with a crucial win over the Knightettes. Scoring started with a 2-2 tie, but Lindsay's man-to-man defense held Muenster scoreless for the remainder of the first period. The Knightettes led 12-2 going into the second period. But Lindsay tired out and a progressive Muenster offense outscored the Knightettes 13-7 in the second quarter. Going into halftime, the Knightettes still led 19-15. A stingy Muenster defense kept the Lindsay girls from scoring anything in the third and there wasn't any scoring in the fourth until Dianne Pagel shot with 3:46 left in the game to make it 25-19. Lindsay got as close as a 4-point spread in the last minute of the game, but a Candise Abney free throw with 19 seconds left sealed the victory and the championship for the Lady Hornets, 31-26. Theresa Kubis continued her scoring streak by hitting 10, Danell Reiter followed with 9, Amy Otto sank 5, Cheryl Hacker 3, Dianne Pagel 2, and Candise Abney and Leslie Klement scored 1 each. Christy Secest scored 7 for Lindsay, along with Debbie Fangman 5, Laura Lutkenhaus 6, Cassandra Fuhrmann 4, and Jessica Fuhrmann 2. Also seeing action were Susie Arendt and Janelle Hellinger.

Muenster vs. Lindsay

The Muenster Hornets were plagued by fouls from start to finish and the Knights hit 15 out of 30 free throws to aide in the 57-46 win over the Hornets. Lindsay got in the bonus early in the first period and nipped Muenster in the beginning stanza, 11-10. Coach Brian Strother was called to substitute heavily in the second because of fouls. But it didn't stop the Hornets' scoring, as they went on an 18-11 run to end the half with a 28-22 lead. The lead flip-flopped back and forth in the third but the Knights never lost their composure as they headed into the final quarter leading 38-35. Lindsay had as much as a 9-point lead, but with 2:30 to go in the game the Hornets closed the gap 46-42. Seven unanswered points by Lindsay put the game out of reach for Muenster as Lindsay took it 57-46.

Doug Hennigan continued shooting well as he put in 16 for the Hornet offense. Mike Gobble added 11, Steven Fisher had 6, Ryan Sicking, Brian Knabe and Mike Hacker added in 4 apiece. All-Tournament selections Ronnie Dieter and Kenny Fleitman scored 21 and 17 respectively for the Knights. Also scoring for Lindsay were Will Thomason 9, Wylie Harris 6, and Shane Huchton 4.

Games leading to the championship were as follows:

Lindsay vs. Gainesville

The Lindsay girls opened the tournament in an exciting 43-41 overtime win over Class 4-A Gainesville. Laura Lutkenhaus and Debbie Fangman led the Knightettes with double digits. Fangman hit four of four from the free throw line in overtime to give Lindsay the edge.

After an even first quarter, the Lady Knights took a 2-point lead at half. An even third quarter started the fourth quarter with Gainesville trailing 28-26.

The Lady Leopards took their first lead of the game 36-34 with three minutes remaining in the game. The Knightettes came back to tie the game 36-36 with less than two minutes on the clock. Gainesville slipped in another 2 points, but Lindsay bounced back when Laura Lutkenhaus' shot took the game into overtime with a 38-38 score.

Lindsay failed to sink a basket from the field, but 5 free shots gave the Knightettes the victory.

Lutkenhaus and Fangman put in 15 and 12 points for Lindsay. Cassandra Fuhrmann, Jessica Fuhrmann and Christi Secest added 4 each with Susie Arendt hitting 2.

Kelly Baker was Gainesville's leading scorer with 17 points.

Lindsay vs. Callisburg JV

The power shooting of Kenny Fleitman and Ronnie Dieter led Lindsay to a commanding 80-39 victory over Callisburg's junior varsity roundballers. All nine members of the Knights' team put points on the scoreboard.

Lindsay jumped to an early 25-8 lead, continuing to add on points throughout the game, including 31 points in the third quarter.

Kenny Fleitman was leading scorer with 22 points. Ronnie Dieter hit 19 and Will Thomason 10. Shane Huchton put in 8 points, with Travis Huchton adding 7 and Jeff Pearson 6. Also scoring for the Knights were Jeff Hermes, Wylie Harris and Jason Benton.

Muenster vs. Sacred Heart

The Muenster Hornets opened the mens' tournament action against the Sacred Heart Tigers, and claimed their first victory of the season by defeating the Tigers 99-53. "We played our best game," said Sacred Heart Coach John Nasche. "Our offense is finally starting to come together, we got more fast breaks."

The Hornets outscored the Tigers the first half, doubling the points 54-27 at halftime. Sacred Heart edged out Muenster the third quarter, but the final was all Hornets. "We tired the second half and had too many misques," said Nasche. "You have to give Muenster a lot of credit, with 10 good well rounded athletes. They were able to play all their boys to keep them fresh."

Five Hornets reached the double figures with Kody Trubenbach and Justin Ramsey leading the hive with 15 apiece. Steven Fisher chipped in 14, Michael Hacker 12 and Doug Hennigan added 10.

Stevan Nasche kept the Tigers alive with a game high of 27 points. "Stevan's starting to get in the groove, this is only his second game," said Nasche. Chris Hess and Mark Flusche added 6 and 5 respectively, with Jason Hess, Jason Hofbauer, Mike Gehrig, Aaron Berres, Kelly Bayer and Joe Bedowitz adding to the score.

"Public School's aggressive press hurt," concluded Nasche. "Fifty-one turnovers has to be a career high."

Sacred Heart	11	16	16	8	53
Muenster	25	29	14	31	99

Sacred Heart vs. Muenster

The Muenster Lady Hornets and Sacred Heart Tigerettes opened the tournament with the undefeated Hornets taking the win to a 41-32 count. "Coach Strother has his girls playing championship ball right now," said Sacred Heart Coach Jon LeBrasseur. "Their confidence level is high."

The Lady Hornets outscored Sacred Heart 14-7 the first period, but both teams sank to five points in the second to close the half 19-12. The teams came out smoking after the break, but Muenster maintained the lead 34-22. The Tigerettes outscored Muenster 10-7 in the fourth.

Deann Bayer led the Tigerettes with a game high of 19 points. Muenster's leader, Theresa Kubis, put 18 points on the board, 12 of those were 3-pointers. DaLana Walterscheid managed 7 points, despite a sprained ankle from an earlier game. Rounding out the scoring for Muenster were Cheryl Hacker, Danell Reiter, Amy Otto, Kristi Bierschenk, and Candise Abney.

Shirley Henscheid, April Truebenbach, Mandy Barnhill, Vickie Bayer, and Christy Yosten added points to the Tigerettes' effort.

Muenster vs. Gainesville

The Muenster girls fought to the finish with Gainesville Friday and proved themselves by taking a 54-39 win over the Lady Leopards. The ball bounced back and forth between the two teams in the first half, but when the halftime buzzer sounded the Lady Leopards held a slim 27-25 lead. Their lead was to be short-lived because the third period was all Muenster as they outscored Gainesville 13-4. A basket at the fourth period buzzer by Amy Otto put the icing on the cake for the Lady Hornets - with that the scoreboard read Muenster 54, Gainesville 29. Riding on a seven game winning streak, the Lady Hornets also remained unbeaten in the Lindsay tournament. Danell Reiter led scoring for Muenster with 13, followed by Theresa Kubis and Amy Otto with 10 each. A trio, DaLana Walterscheid, Dianne Pagel and Kristi Bierschenk, each scored 6.

Muenster vs. Callisburg JV

In round two of the Lindsay tournament, the Muenster Hornets staged an annihilation of the Callisburg junior varsity. Muenster scored 12 points in the first minute and a half of the game to set the pace for the entire ballgame. The Muenster boys closed the first period with a startling 43-13 lead. The Hornets kept buzzing in the second to go into the locker room with an 81-31 lead at halftime. Muenster saw the scoreboard go into triple digits with 7:45 left in the fourth period when Ryan Sicking popped in for two from right under the basket. They kept the ball rolling, and ended the game at 131-51. Scoring for Muenster were Darren Bindel 20, Steven Fisher 19, Mike Gobble 17, Doug Hennigan 16, Kody Truebenbach 14, Justin Ramsey 11, and Mike Hacker 10.

Sacred Heart vs. Lindsay

In the second round of the round-robin tournament the Tigerettes met the hosts from Lindsay and fell hard 61-33. After a close quarter, Lindsay gained a 9-point halftime lead. A 20-point third period by the Knightettes proved to be the difference in the outcome of the game.

Four Lady Knights scored in the double figures. Christi Secest put in 16 points and Cassandra Fuhrmann added 14, while Debbie Fangman added 13 and Jessica Fuhrmann 10. Janelle Hellinger, Susie Arendt and Laura Lutkenhaus also scored.

Deann Bayer led the way for Sacred Heart with 13, Vickie Bayer and Shirley Henscheid each hit 4, while Mandy Barnhill and Jennifer Walter scored 3 each. The Tigerettes received two each from Shirley Henscheid, Julie Felderhoff and Christy Yosten. Jennifer Walter suffered a hip injury in the game and her status for future action is day to day.

Sacred Heart	5	10	5	14	33

Sacred Heart vs. Lindsay

"We dropped our third game to Lindsay in one of our worst performances this year," said Sacred Heart Coach John Nasche. The Tigers battled Lindsay in the second round Friday night to a 91-26 beating. "Their height killed us. Kenny Fleitman tore us up," continued Nasche. "But we just didn't play well."

Fleitman was high scorer in the game with 34 points for the Knights. Will Thomason added 16 and Ronnie Dieter 12 for double digit scores. Other Lindsay players scoring were Travis Huchton 8, Wylie Harris and Jeff Hermes 6 apiece, Jason Benton 4, Shane Huchton 3 and Jeff Pearson 2.

Sacred Heart scorers were Stevan Nasche with 9 points, Aaron Berres 7, Mark Flusche 6 and Kelly Bayer 4.

Sacred Heart	9	9	4	4	26
Lindsay	22	17	25	27	91

Sacred Heart vs. Gainesville

The Tigerettes finished their final round Saturday evening with a 45-34 loss to the Gainesville Lady Leopards. "We played a nice half of basketball said Coach Jon LeBresseur. "The Tigerettes led 27-21 at halftime, but Gainesville came back strong the second half, outscoring Sacred Heart 24-7. Foul trouble sidelined Deann Bayer early with senior Vickie Bayer stepping forward and scoring 10 points. "Unfortunately for us, no one picked up the slack the second half, while the Lady Leopards found the basket," commented LeBresseur.

Bayer's 10 points led the Tigerette team with Deann Bayer hitting 8. Mandy Barnhill showed signs of regaining her form with 6, April Truebenbach added 5 and Shirley Henscheid, Julie Felderhoff, and Christy Yosten got 2 apiece.

The Tigerettes have their eyes focused on the first round of the Forestburg tournament. "All we can do is look ahead and prepare for Lindsay on Thursday," said Coach Jon. "The girls played hard last weekend and they looked great at times. A few breakdowns need to be corrected and I think we will do that for the upcoming tournament."

Sacred Heart vs. Callisburg JV

The Tigers finished the tournament Saturday evening with a disappointing 87-81 loss to Callisburg's junior varsity. "We played a good offensive game, but got in trouble with fouls," said Sacred Heart Coach John Nasche. Four Tiger starters were on the bench in the fourth quarter.

Nasche noted that 81 points is the highest scoring game for the Sacred Heart boys in years and 32 points in one quarter is more points scored than in several games played this season. "This is due to being in better shape and we are finally getting on track," he said.

Nine Tigers put points on the board, with Stevan Nasche leading his team with 35 points. Joe Bedowitz hit in 10, with Aaron Berres shooting 7. Others scoring were Chris Hess 7, Jason Hess 6, Mark Flusche 5, Kelly Bayer 4, Neil Berres 3, and Jason Hofbauer 2.

"It's not lack of effort, but execution," concluded Nasche.

Junior High/Junior Varsity Action

Muenster vs. Bellevue

by Allison Klement

The JV Lady Hornets had a come-from-behind victory against Bellevue Tuesday 27-26. The first period ended in a 4-4 deadlock. But Bellevue outscored Muenster 12-6 in the second to close the half 16-10. The third period was more of the same as Bellevue hung on 24-18. But the grand finale came with 35 seconds left on the clock. The Lady Hornets were down by 3 points until a Tracey Vogel 3-pointer tied the game at 26. Bellevue turned the ball over and when Muenster received possession, Jill Reiter was fouled and converted 1 of 2 free throws enroute to victory. Reiter led the Lady Hornets in scoring with 10, Tracey Vogel hit 7, Amy Fisher and Kay Grewing had 4 each and Joy Tisdale scored 2.

Muenster vs. Bellevue

by Allison Klement

Bellevue's fast break offense kept the Hornets on their toes as the Eagles literally ran away with the game in the Tuesday evening junior varsity contest. Bellevue jumped to an early 17-9 lead in the first period of play. They continued moving to go into the locker room 32-21 at halftime. In the second half, the Hornets outscored the Eagles 24-22, but it was not enough to overcome Bellevue, as they won the game 54-45. Jason Huchton continued his scoring streak with 17, Rodney Vogel chipped in 8, Cory Knabe added 5, Jason Biffle and Cory Cain had 4 apiece, Jeff Walterscheid 3, and Cody Klement and Daniel de la Mata added 2 each.

SH 7th vs. Forestburg

Sacred Heart traveled to Forestburg Monday evening, splitting the games with the Shorthorns. The young Cubs won the contest 50-18.

Douglas Novack was leading scorer with 20 points, Jacob Luke hit 16 and Greg Flusche added 8. Glen Dangelmayr added 4 and John Bartush 2 to round out the Cubs' scoring.

"I was real pleased with the defensive effort, especially John Sparkman, who led the team in steals," said Coach John Nasche. "It's good the younger kids got to play. I'm looking forward to next year when they'll be leading the team."

SH 8th vs. Forestburg

The Junior High Cubs lost their first game of the season Monday, 33-26, at Forestburg. "We started slow, getting into the game too late to come back," said Coach John Nasche. "Forestburg scored two 3-pointers in the fourth to put us out of reach."

Scoring six points for Sacred Heart were Paul Swirczynski, Scott Poole, John Klement and Douglas Novack. Brandon Bayer added 2.

S.H. vs. Forestburg S.H. vs. St. Mary's

After dropping a hard fought 22-15 contest in Forestburg Monday night the Lady Cubs bounced back Tuesday evening in Gainesville against the Lady Ponies of Saint Mary's 25-8. The win upped the Lady Cubs' record to 3-2 with a key contest Monday evening in the Tiger Den against a powerful Prairie Valley unit.

At Forestburg the Lady Cubs started slow falling behind 6-1 after the first quarter, but increased the offensive output by swishing 9 second-period points and closing the gap to 14-10 at the half. The inability to connect on numerous charity tosses cost the Cubs the chance to take the lead and the win. Scoring for the Lady Cubs were Tanya Knauf and Nicole Endres 5 each, Karri Endres 3, and Jill Hess 2.

Sacred Heart's balanced scoring proved too much for the Lady Mustangs of Saint Mary's in their first game ever. Nicole Endres hit for 10 and Dobe Fleitman swished 7 in leading six Lady Cubs into the scoring. Two each were hit by Tanya Kanuf, Corey Hess, Leslie Grewing, and Jennifer Campbell.

S.H. vs. St. Mary's

"The Cubs are back on track," said Coach John Nasche. "This was a good game after a sub-par contest with Forestburg Monday night." Nasche was pleased with the players' effort, with the defense being the strength to put the Cubs 4-1 for the season.

All Sacred Heart players saw action on the Mustangs' court with John Klement hitting 14 points to lead the Cubs to a 42-21 victory. Others scoring were Doug Novack 7, Jake McCoy 6, Paul Swirczynski 5, Michael Becker 4, Heath Bayer and Scott Poole 2 apiece. Other Cubs noted for fine play included Joey Martin, Brandon Bayer and Toby Hess. St. Mary's leading scorer was Brad Wolf with 10 points.

S.H. vs. St. Mary's

As a preliminary contest to the junior high action at Saint Mary's, a co-ed Sacred Heart squad played against the sixth grade boys' team of Saint Mary's. Both squads, in their first action of the season, had problems finding the hoop. Each squad had a big 4 after the half. In the third frame Crystal Klement found the range with 8 points and Mathew Fuhrmann added 2 as the youngsters raced to a 14-6 lead. St. Mary's outscored the Cubs in the final frame 6-4 but it was too little too late. Scoring for Sacred Heart were Crystal Klement 10, Mathew Fuhrmann 6, and Jeff Yosten 2.

Era Hornet fans warned by officials

by Elaine Schad

Concerned that some of their Era Hornet basketball fans may be crossing over the line in supporting their home team this season, Era school officials have issued a stern warning to those patronizing school district athletic programs.

Penned as "An Open Letter to the Frantic Fan," the letter was written to those attending Era athletic events in hopes of stemming recent incidences of what school officials think is inappropriate fan behavior, said Era Superintendent Dale Smiley.

"Most of our fans are good, supporting fans," said Smiley. "We only have three or four who think they have to comment on every play. We've even met with them privately, but it doesn't seem to have done any good."

The letter states that fans would never think of entering a math, history or English classroom and berate, curse and physically abuse the teacher or students. "Yet all too frequently, you think nothing of harassing players, coaches and officials in their classroom - the field of play," the letter states. "You're being put on notice that administrators can no longer tolerate your childish, immature behavior, whether you're a recent graduate, a parent or merely a resident of the community."

Smiley said the intent of the letter is to curb future incidences before more serious repercussions occur, such as the athletic program being adversely affected or the district being sanctioned by the University Interscholastic League. "We just don't want to get to that point," he said.

Members of Sacred Heart's "Red in Motion" were awarded Best Marching Entry.

MPS K-6 entered "12 Days of Christmas" and won Best Theme Award.

Winner of Best Business Entry was Crafty Olde German's "A Hard Candy Christmas."

Varsity Hornets score big wins over Bellevue

by Allison Klement

The Muenster Lady Hornets collected their ninth win of the season with a big win over Bellevue and remain undefeated. Muenster opened up with a 24-11 lead in the first period. This period was critical because for the remainder of the game, the Eagles and the Lady Hornets scored equally. Both teams popped in 14 in the second to close the half at 38-25. Bellevue and Muenster both sank for 20 in the second half to make the final score 58-45. Sophomore Theresa Kubis made 19 points, Danell Reiter hit for 15, Amy Otto 10, Leslie Klement, DaLana Walterscheid and Kristi Bierschenk scored 4 each.

The Muenster Hornets moved to a 3-2 mark by beating Bellevue Tuesday night. The first period was neck and neck but Muenster edged the Eagles out for a 17-16 advantage at the end of the quarter. The Hornets began to pull away to a 41-35 margin to end the half. The boys strengthened their lead to 18 points, 69-51, going into the fourth period. The Hornets outscored the Eagles 18-17 in the fourth to end the game 87-68. Doug Hennigan paced the Hornets with 23 points, Justin Ramsey added 23, Kody Truabenbach hit for 14, and Ryan Sicking and Steven Fisher had 8 each.

Lindsay wins big over Forestburg 81 - 16

Lindsay hosted Forestburg in varsity roundball action recently and sent the Longhorn teams home in defeat.

Cassandra and Jessica Fuhrmann led the Lady Knights with 15 points apiece in their 81-16 dehorning. Suzanna Hellinger also hit the double digits with 12 points. Others adding to the total score were Rochelle Sharp 9, Christi Secret 8, Debbie Fangman, Janelle Fuhrmann and Janelle Hellinger 6 points each; with Tisha Krebs adding 4. Lindsay limited themselves to only 4 team fouls.

Lead scorers for the Lady Longhorns were Misty Matlock and Tonia Crockett.

TPWD cracks down on game fish sales in state

by Elaine Schad

Texas Parks and Wildlife officials recently continued a crackdown on people in this area who are illegally selling game fish during a flurry of 26 arrests that included six people from Cooke County in connection with the sale of some 10,000 pounds of game fish from Lake Texoma.

The Cooke County residents were all arrested on misdemeanor charges and all posted bond or were released on personal recognizance, officials said.

Some 50 game wardens from Texas and Oklahoma participated in the arrests. Twelve of the 26 were arrested on misdemeanor charges and were processed through justice of the peace courts in Cooke and Grayson counties. Nine were arrested on federal charges of transporting the fish across state lines and were brought before the U.S. Magistrate in Sherman. Five arrest warrants were for Oklahoma residents. Six vehicles were also seized under federal statutes.

Undercover officers with the Texas Department of Parks and Wildlife, the Oklahoma Department of Wildlife Conservation and the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Department purchased some 10,000 pounds of game fish over the past 11 months during an investigation conducted by state and federal wildlife agencies, said Lyndal Waldrip, TDPW spokesman.

"It's a big problem in Lake Texoma," said Waldrip, who said this was the third major undercover operation at the lake during the past two years. The illegal sales that take place from Lake Texoma include people who sell to individuals or to some restaurants and markets in the Dallas-Fort Worth area, he said.

Besides fines for the offense, those arrested will be required to pay for fish replacement, which could range from $4.43 per day for the 9-inch minimum sized flathead catfish to $323.81 per fish for the state-record size striped bass, officials said.

Achievement awards presented

Ross Point and Illinois Bend Community Improvement Clubs were presented traveling trophies for outstanding achievement at an annual awards banquet Nov. 21.

The banquet, sponsored by Cooke County Electric Cooperative and the Cooke and Montague County Extension Services, recognizes outstanding achievement by community clubs in the two counties. The Traveling Trophy is presented to one club from each county.

Ross Point Club President R.B. Durham accepted the trophy on behalf of his club. The Ross Point Club completed an excellent year. Members have served the community through projects like painting the tennis courts and sponsoring a pet clinic and four blood pressure checks. It also accomplished major remodeling of the kitchen facilities with installation of new cabinets and a microwave oven.

The Ross Point's club's annual fundraiser is the Harvest Supper held in November of each year.

Myrna Brawner, Illinois Bend Club president, accepted the award for her club. "Our purpose has been to bond the community together through enhanced friendship and to provide a community center for fellowship," she said.

Eric Williams, CCEC Member Relations Specialist, and Evelyn Yeatts, Cooke County Extension Agent, presented the awards. Citing the Illinois Bend Club for improving its historic community center, Williams praised facility improvements including new exterior siding. Williams said the club has continued to advance goals established several years ago.

The club is very active. Projects include the periodic clean-up of six miles of FM 677 between Capps Corner and Illinois Bend. For fundraisers in 1991, the club had a chili supper, bake sale and concessions at Saint Jo's Pioneer Days and Rodeo parade. In competitive projects, their float won second place in the Saint Jo Rodeo Parade.

Special educational programs included a presentation by Retired Army Major Catherine Harris on military nursing and a fire prevention demonstration by the Saint Jo Fire Department.

Robert Lewis, president of the Cooperative's Board of Directors, presented $100 donations and certificates of achievement to clubs in attendance. The Cooperative makes $100 donations to the clubs each year.

Mrs. Yeatts and Imogene Evans, retired Montague County Extension Agent, prepared a delightful meal.

Tom Carson, station manager at KGAF Radio in Gainesville, delivered a thought-provoking speech on the values of life in rural areas and small communities versus the relative alienation in urban environments. Carson said small towns and rural communities have a lot to offer that can't be measured in dollars and cents - especially the sense of caring and community that is too often lacking in big cities.

Carson also talked about advances in communications and the mass media.

There were 63 persons in attendance at the banquet, including community club officers and Cooperative employees and directors.

Besides Illinois Bend and Ross Point, clubs honored for participation in Community Club advancement included Callisburg, Woodbine, Mountain Springs, Hood, Myra, Downard Fairplains, Era, Myra, Spanish Fort and Forestburg.

Saint Jo Chamber of Commerce sponsors Tour of Homes on Dec. 15

Saint Jo's Chamber of Commerce will conduct its fourth annual Tour of Homes on Sunday, Dec. 15, starting at 2 p.m. at 208 South Main, the old Tom Field Home. This home was built just after the turn of the century. There is a total of four homes on the tour.

The second is at 200 West Bogges Street. Known as the Otha

Donnell House, this house is probably the oldest house to be toured, having been built before the turn of the century. It still has the water well that was used to water cattle that were housed in pens that stood just to the west of this property where two modern homes now stand.

The third house will be the old Rogers Home at 408 East Williams Street. This house was built about 1901, and is in the final stages of being redone.

Fourth is the Henry Field House at 300 South Main, that was completed in 1914. The Field Family moved into the home in October 1914. This house was built at a cost of $8,000.00.

At the first house, each person will buy a ticket at the cost of $5.00 which helps to further the program of the Saint Jo Chamber of Commerce. When the ticket is purchased, each person receives a number for a drawing of door prizes.

Several merchants have donated gifts for this drawing. The Freight Outlet has donated a telephone answering machine; the Saint Jo Floral a beautiful Christmas decoration that could be used on a doorway; Harvill Real Estate a handmade afghan; and Louise Crump an upright clock made by Elgin Clock Company.

These door prizes will be drawn at the last house about 4:30 p.m. One does not have to be present to win. At the last house, refreshments will be served so that people may visit until gifts can be drawn.

Muenster FHA prepares successful Thanksgiving meal

On Tuesday, Nov. 26 the Muenster FHA Club had its annual Thanksgiving meal. The meal consisted of smoked turkey and ham, green bean casserole, cheesy potatoes, tossed green salad and homemade rolls. There was a variety of pies to choose from for dessert. The meal was made completely by Joni Sturm's homemaking classes. Those attending were all FHA and faculty members. The meal was a great success and enjoyed by everyone.

The FHA met again on December 2 to discuss this month's upcoming events. Members discussed what to buy for the Little Angels that were recently picked. It was also decided to have the annual Christmas caroling party on Monday, Dec. 16.

CDA sends 24 goody bags to shut-ins

Starting early spreading holiday cheer, members of the local court of Catholic Daughters of America delivered goody bags to local shut-ins on Dec. 3.

Members had taken homemade cookies, candy, fruit and assorted food snacks to their Dec. 2 meeting to pack after business. They filled 24 red Christmas bags. This is an annual project by the organization.

Business, conducted by Dorothy Fisher, regent, was routine with committee reports.

After adjournment members socialized over coffee and homemade cinnamon rolls.

Texas Events Calendar is full of holiday activities

Glittering holiday festivities, offering the warmth of an old-fashioned Christmas and plenty of hometown charm, highlight the latest Texas Events Calendar, just released by the Texas Department of Transportation.

The quarterly calendar, spanning the months of December, January, and February, is recognized as the state's authoritative list of Texas events. From sparkling pageants to major livestock shows, the winter calendar tells the where and when of it all.

In December, more than 400 holiday happenings treat visitors to a wealth of family entertainment. Displays of thousands of Christmas lights provide spectacular settings for nighttime parades, Christmas craft bazaars, visits with Santa, English hand-bell ringers, and traditional holiday carols. Southern belles lead visitors through historic Victorian homes, decked out in handmade decorations, natural greenery, fine antiques, and the light of twinkling candles. Holiday favorites, such as "A Christmas Carol," "The Nutcracker," and "Babes in Toyland," provide delightful evenings of yuletide cheer.

January and February showcase an endless variety of activities. Texas-style entertainment is found at old-fashioned hoedowns, country markets, county fairs, tractor pulls, trail rides, rodeos, and barbecues.

Packed with cookoffs, concerts, bike tours, quilt shows, and special events just for children, the winter calendar is free for the asking at any of the transportation department's Texas Travel Information Centers. Or write Texas Events Calendar, P.O. Box 5064, Austin, Texas 78763.

Announcements

The Forestburg Baptist Church Kids' program will be December 15, 1991 at 6 p.m. at the church. Mrs. Linda Stevens will be in charge of the program. Refreshments will be served after the program. Everyone is invited to come.

The Rosston Baptist Church will have their regular monthly dinner after church services and trim the Christmas tree Sunday Dec. 15. Everyone is invited to come.

Ross Houston turned 1 year old on December 5. His parents Jay and Gay Houston and sister Jayme hosted a birthday party Sunday afternoon, Dec. 8 in their home, in his honor. Decorations were carried out in the colors of yellow and green and dinosaurs. Birthday cake and punch were served.

Ross received lots of gifts and was assisted in opening them by his sister Jayme and cousins Garrett and Lana Johnson and Matt Greanead.

Those attending the party were his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Ben Gunter of Jacksboro, grandmother Mrs. Joann Bell of Alvord; a great-great-aunt Mrs. Fern Nivens of Alvord; Liz and Gary Johnson and Garrett and Lance; Cassie Greanead and Matt; Scott and Tammy Bell of Alvord.

Mrs. Juanita Greanead and her sister Mrs. Cornelia Holzbog of Denison spent Thanksgiving Day with Barbara and Will Payne and Trey in Arlington.

Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ran Greanead and Matt and Mrs. Juanita Greanead were Gary and Brenda Greanead of Burleson, Barbara and Will Payne and Trey of Arlington.

Mr. and Mrs. Ran Greanead attended a Christmas party hosted by Dr. and Mrs. Long in Decatur. The party was for the hospital staff.

Mrs. Louise Shults and Mrs. Oma Wakeman attended the funeral of Mrs. Thelma Campsey of Bowie in Burgess-Fry Funeral Home Chapel Wednesday. Mrs. Campsey was a teacher in the Forestburg School several years ago.

Mrs. Marsha Carr of Houston visited Mrs. Louise Shults Saturday afternoon.

Marsha and Buddy Carr of Houston visited Ed Bonner during the weekend.

Dan Rhodes and his friend of South Lake visited Kenneth and Mozelle Hutson Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Mozelle Hutson visited Mrs. Essie Agee and Mrs. Jo Dell Gaston and Ricky Gaston all of Saint Jo Sunday afternoon.

Kenda Hutson of Saint Jo spent the weekend visiting Mozelle and Kenneth Hutson and Brad Hutson.

Byron Berry and Colby of Denton visited Mrs. Josephine Berry Sunday afternoon.

Pat and Mark Verboon of California and James Ferguson visited Miss Lois Bewley and Clyde Sunday afternoon.

Miss Lois Bewley and Clyde had as their guests Sunday afternoon Pat and Mark Verboon of California and James Ferguson.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Maberry Sr. drove to Sylvester to visit and help Della's sister Mrs. Doice McCain celebrate her 93rd birthday. They had a turkey dinner with all the trimmings and a pretty birthday cake. Marvin returned home but Della spent about ten days visiting her sister. While there ice collected on things and Della fell and injured her hip that was already sore. At this writing she will be seeing her doctor.

Mrs. Laura Belle Jackson and Mrs. Jewel Dill visited in Keller with Laura Belle's sister Mrs. Alma Griffin. Then they drove to Fort Worth and visited Mrs. Beverly Aday who has moved there recently from Bakersfield, Calif. Mrs. Willie Jackson of Fort Worth joined them for having dinner out.

The Forestburg United Methodist Women had their Christmas party Wednesday and it was well attended.

Fred Christian of Stephenville had surgery Friday morning in the Harris Hospital in Fort Worth. He is doing satisfactorily. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C.H. Christian. They were ill and not able to go to the hospital at that time.

Hard work wins statewide award for Cooke Co. Young Farmers, Ranchers

Cooke County Young Farmers and Ranchers were named the winners of the 1991 Texas Young Farmers and Ranchers Committee Award during an awards breakfast on Dec. 2 at the Texas Farm Bureau's State Convention in Lubbock. The prestigious award is presented by the Texas Farm Bureau to the county YF&R committee deemed to have carried out the best program for involvement of farmers and ranchers up to age 35.

Matt and Janet Bezner of Lindsay and Mike and Angie Bartush of Muenster attended the convention as voting delegates for the Cooke County Young Farmers and Ranchers and were present to accept the award on behalf of the local group. As president of the Cooke County group, Bezner won the use of a 1992 Ford 1/2-ton pickup, compliments of Bird-Kultgen Ford Co. of Waco.

To be eligible to win the award, the group must prepare an entry on the various activities that they participated in during the year. These activities included their annual Ranch Rodeo, donating to local Love Funds, and a scholarship fund in Waco, operating the concession stand for the Muenster 4-H Show, a membership drive, sponsoring Werner Becker III at a Citizenship Seminar and procuring a highway patrolman to speak on CDO licensing for the Cooke County Beef Association.

"It's real exciting," said Bezner. "To be nominated for the top three places is real good to get, but to win over all the state's groups is something that everybody would like to do."

Members of the winning Cooke County YF&R group are Mike Bartush, Richard Trubenbach, Karl Trubenbach, Sam Hess, Ronnie

Bayer, Curt Bayer, Jared Bayer, Dale Bell, Terry Bartel, Scott Klement, Tom Dangelmayr, Jack Dangelmayr, T.J. Walterscheid and Matt Bezner.

The Cooke County Farm Bureau was recognized for 11 years of continuous gain in membership. Members who attended the convention as delegates, and who were accompanied by their spouses, included Daniel and Juanita Reiter of Era, Albert and Imogene Zimmerer of Muenster, Leonard and Emily Hartman of Muenster and Robert G. and Gloria Klement of Muenster.

A&M study hopes to improve siring capacity

by Steve Hill
COLLEGE STATION - The romantic life of bulls may be less complicated than that of their human counterparts - but not by much, according to Texas Agricultural Experiment Station researchers trying to find ways to reduce the ratio of bulls needed to impregnate the most cows. "It's definitely challenging," said Dr. David Forrest, an experiment station researcher and associate professor of animal science at Texas A&M University.

Conventional wisdom causes ranchers to place four or five bulls to pasture for each 100 cows. But Forrest thinks the typical 1-20 or 1-25 ratio can be improved, perhaps to as low as one bull per 50 cows, because the most potent bulls normally will impregnate a higher ratio of the cows in a herd.

"We usually use four bulls per 100 females to allow for one or two of the bulls to compensate for others in the group who might turn out to be duds," Forrest said.

Bulls are typically rated by measurements of scrotal circumference and semen characteristics - the Breeding Soundness Examination, or BSE. But numerous other measurements of actual sexual performance, including number of mounts observed under timed test conditions, also have been developed.

The BSE test will remain a standard, Forrest said, but additional tests may complement that information.

One testing measure is serving capacity, or frequency of ejaculations in a timed test.

Accurately identifying bulls with what is called "high serving capacity" is not actually that difficult, although it can be time-consuming and expensive. It's weeding out the low-serving capacity bulls that can be more troublesome.

As with humans, Forrest said, sexual activity among cattle is not simply a mechanistic function. Social factors, such as dominance and whether bulls are part of single-sire or the more common multiple-sire herds, affect the way bulls perform.

Forrest's team of researchers has tried tests in recent years, including hormonal examinations of bulls, to find reliable methods of identifying the best sires and leaving out the duds.

One current experiment at the station's Uvalde center involves

Court to rule on land-use compensation; vote critical to private property rights

The US Supreme Court has agreed to decide whether landowners are entitled to compensation when the government bars all development to protect public safety or welfare, says The Associated Press.

The Fifth Amendment to the US Constitution provides that private property may not be "taken for public use without just compensation." It is a "taking," for which compensation is required, when the government uses its power of eminent domain to take possession of private property.

But the Supreme Court also has held that land-use restrictions that leave property in private hands while stripping it of economically productive uses may amount to a "regulatory taking," for which compensation also may be required. But the dimensions of this law are unclear and hotly disputed, wire reports said.

The case accepted for review came from South Carolina, where David H. Lucas complained that his two vacant

Preventing tractor overturns

One of the most common farm-related hazards you face as a farmer is the danger of a tractor overturning.

Although ROPS (Roll over protective structure) can help prevent you from being seriously injured, tractor overturns are still the leading cause of farm employee fatalities each year.

Causes of tractor overturns
Tractors are not always very stable vehicles. The center of gravity of a two-wheel drive farm tractor is 10 inches above and 2 feet ahead of the rear axle in the center line of the tractor. When you attach equipment such as front end loaders, saddle tanks, and mounted equipment, you alter your vehicle's center of gravity, which reduces its stability.

When you are operating a tractor, you often do things to affect your tractor's stability. You should never hitch a load at any point above the recommended hitch point, for example. This can fatally destabilize your tractor.

How to avoid tractor overturns

- Use tractors with ROPS if at all possible.
- You should securely fasten your seat belt when using a ROPS-equipped tractor.
- Never use a seat belt on tractors without ROPS.
- Operate the tractor smoothly without jerky turns, starts or stops.
- Avoid tractor operation near ditches, embankments, and holes.
- Stay off slopes that are too steep for safe operation.
- Reduce speed when turning; on slopes; and on rough, slick, or muddy surfaces.
- Always be aware of the terrain you are on and anticipate potential hazards.
- Don't permit extra riders.
- Don't use the three-point hitch lift or draft arms unless the load was designed for that use.
- Set your brakes and use the park lock (if you have one) when the tractor is stopped.
- Be familiar with your tractor operation manual and safety tips included with it.
- Investigate proper settings of wheel width, weighting, and hitch points for safe operation.
- Know your farming operation and the hazards associated with it. Strive to avoid or reduce these hazards. Take time for safety. Your life depends on it.

identifying socially dominant bulls among pairs, then checking pregnancy rates in their herds.

Data on births will be collected during the spring calving season in 1992, he said.

His group found in one study that most Brahman-influenced bulls tend to demonstrate inherent levels of serving capacity at the age of 18 to 20 months, although some demonstrated that ability up to six months earlier.

They also have discovered - not surprisingly - that mating experience is an additional factor in a bull's serving capacity.

While such facts might seem self-evident, the understanding of numerous factors eventually will lead to sire-to-heifer ratios much closer to 1-50, Forrest hopes.

"We're still trying to optimize the selection of bulls to be used in multiple-sire breeding pastures," Forrest said. "It could bring significant savings to a producer to be able to put two bulls in a herd of 100 heifers with the same confidence that he has putting four there."

"That would also allow the breeder to be a little more selective in the bull he buys, improving the genetic merit of his stock through the purchase of higher-quality bulls."

Can access end trespass?

Arthur Nagel, Texas rural coalition's president, said swimmers and rafters who trespass on private property to gain access to rivers pose a threat to private property and the problem has grown worse in recent years.

ocean-front lots in Charleston County were deprived of "all economically viable use" by a state law designed to preserve the beaches.

A trial court awarded Lucas $1.2 million. However, the South Carolina Supreme Court ruled 3-2 that Lucas wasn't entitled to any money, despite the Fifth Amendment guarantee.

The majority relied on a 104-year-old Supreme Court rule stating that there can be no government "taking" when a valid law bars a use of property on the ground that it is "injurious to the health, morals or safety of the community."

The court is expected to rule on the issue by July 1992.
