NUMBER 10

There was solid satisfaction in last month's report that Muenster Hospital had not only paid its way on current operations but also cleared enough to meet its bonded obligation for the month. The fact is especially encouraging in relation to current efforts to establish a hospital district with provisions for a tax as guarantee of financial stability. This indicates at least a possibility that our hospital will be able to pay off a part of its debt and the tax rate can be lowered proportionately.

Of course it can be said also that this fact presents a reason for not adopting a tax. If the hospital itself can help pay off the debt, the amount to be raised by voluntary donations would be reduced accordingly.

Either way it is clearly evident that the hospital's financial success may reduce the part to be paid by the community. So the community's principal concern is still unchanged: What is our most dependable, most economical way of meeting our obligation, regardless of its size?

As we have learned, voluntary giving does not do the job. Some give just a little. Some give nothing. After a while even those who are willing become discouraged. They ask why they should do their part when others decline.

Obviously that method is not the dependable way to meet the obligation. We know it from experience. We know it also from the policy of investing firms, in that they require a higher interest rate for revenue bonds, such as we have now, than for tax bonds.

Therein lies another big reason for us to change. By adopting a tax supported method of financing our debt, we can reduce the interest rate by about one per cent. As a starter that means about $3,000 a year. Making allowances for reduction of interest as the principal gradually reduces, it can be estimated that the total saving over a 30 year period would be about $45,000. That's well worth considering.

In fact it's attractive enough to encourage a tax supported system just for the savings, regardless of the means by which the money is raised. Suppose we are lucky enough to raise all or a big part of the money by the hospital's revenue, we'd still have the benefit of the lower interest rate. Or if some of it comes from donations the same benefit would also apply.

The significant point is that no matter how we get our money we'll need less of it if we have the tax provision serving as a guarantee that funds can and will be there when they are needed.

The most pleasing thought of all, of course, is that the fine reputation of our hospital will continue spreading and its patronage will continue increasing, to the extent that its revenue can meet all of the debt. If we're that fortunate we'll get added satisfaction from the thought that it has to pay less interest.

On the other hand we should also appreciate our hospital to the extent of relieving it of worry. Considering its value to the community in service and prestige and related benefits, we should be pleased if it is able to break even on current operations—especially since many others do not. Certainly we should not expect it to assume the added responsibility of paying a debt, nor to worry about our failure to pay off. It is doing much for us. It deserves our backing in the most substantial and most practical way.

Still another good reason prompts us to create a hospital district. We may see the time when we are glad to have it to prevent being included in another district. Such a development doesn't seem to be in sight now, but we cannot say what the future will bring. We have everything to gain and nothing to lose by providing that our support will be used for our own hospital instead of one away from here.

In the final analysis we face the fact that we have a

Ceremony and Reunion Observe Golden Wedding of Felix Beckers

Vows pledged in 1915 by Miss Rose Hartman and Felix Becker were renewed Saturday at an anniversary Mass observing the couple's golden wedding. Father Alcuin Kubis officiated in Sacred Heart Church at 4 p.m.

Other observance of the golden milestone featured a reception, a banquet buffet, and a dance, all in the Parish Hall. Some 200 relatives and friends from far and near joined the jubilarians for the occasion. These included the golden-weds' three daughters, two sons and their families. There are 20 grandchildren. All were present.

The 50-year bride wore a gold-toned dress with brown accessories and a gold mumm corsage.

Attendants Serve Again
Wedding attendants 50 years ago were attendants again. They are his sister, Miss Mary Becker of Muenster and her brother, Leo Hartman of Three Rivers.

An after dinner program included life stories of Mr. and Mrs. Becker. They have been leading citizens of the community and Mrs. Becker extended her interests to include work in the parish St. Anne's Society of which she also served as president.

Mr. and Mrs. Becker live on the same farm on which they set up housekeeping a half century ago but in a different house. Their home of 49 years, along with all their furnishings and treasured possessions, burned to the ground last year. But they started over and built a beautiful new home.

History Reviewed
The history revealed many joys and achievements. But there was sorrow too. They lost two children, a five-day old daughter in 1919 and their son Walter in 1962. And their home and personal possessions in March 1964.

Mrs. Becker was born in Pesotum, Ill., 72 years ago and has lived in Muenster 59 years—since she was 13. Her parents were Mr. and Mrs. George Hartman.

The Nick Becker family had already settled in Muenster when the Hartmans moved here. Felix Becker who is 76 was born in Trent, Neb., and was six years old when Muenster was founded.

James Moster Gets BS Degree and Joins SH Faculty

James Moster, who has just completed his college work and will receive a BS degree in secondary education January 31 at NTSU graduation exercises, is the new teacher at Sacred Heart School.

He fills the vacancy that was created in December when Adam Wolf quit the faculty to go into business.

Moster has been assigned to teach two classes of world history in high school and classes of geography and Texas History in junior high. He is also supervisor of study hall.

Sister Geraldine, principal, said his joining the faculty permits teachers to return to their particular work after a few weeks of doubling up because of the temporary teacher shortage.

She also disclosed that the school has made a mid-term change, starting a class in health following completion of civics. Sister Barbara is the teacher.

Car License Will Be Available at Tom and Jerry's

Tom and Jerry's Barber Shop will be Muenster's headquarters for car license plates this year. Sale of the plates was discontinued at the city hall because it interfered too often with city business.

Tommy Herr and Jerry Wimmer are offering their service as an accommodation to people who want to avoid a trip to the court house for their car license. They will have plates for cars only. Plates for trucks and pickups must be bought at the court house.

License plates will be available at the barber shop starting next Monday and must be installed on cars on or before April 1.

Hospital Auxiliary Sets Chili Supper

Muenster Hospital Auxiliary members meeting Thursday for their January business session set February 15 for the date of their benefit chili supper and game party. It will be held in the Parish Hall and the public is invited.

During the meeting Mrs. M. H. King, Auxiliary treasurer, handed two checks to Sister Mildred, hospital administrator. One in the amount of $695 was for the hospital's Bennett breathing machine, the other $120 was for a stomach pump. This brings the organization's contributions to the hospital for equipment to $1415. The money was raised through community benefits.

It was announced that pillow corsages are being given to all women patients at the hospital.

Looking ahead to next year, the Auxiliary is planning to shower first 1966 baby born in the hospital with gifts from local merchants and a $25 savings bond from the organization.

Mrs. Ervin Hamric, president, presided. Mmes. Carl and Willie Walterscheid served refreshments after adjournment and Mrs. George Petrus won the door prize, a Corningware dish donated by Hess Bros. Drilling Co.

Unpaid City Tax Is Delinquent After Monday

February 1 is this year's deadline for paying city taxes without becoming subject to penalty. Mrs. Arnold Henschel, city secretary, announced this week that a day has been added because the usual final date, January 31, falls on Sunday.

City taxpayers are urgently reminded to make their payment on or before next Monday in order to avoid a penalty—which happens to get worse every month as long as it is postponed. The penalty is 3 per cent in February and increases one half of one percent in March, April, May, and June, then one per cent a month for the rest of the year. If tax paying is delayed until next January the penalty is 12 per cent.

If last year's record is matched the penalty will not bother many people. Only three per cent of the total bill was delinquent after the deadline.

Up to Tuesday almost 85 per cent of the city taxes were paid. Mrs. Henschel said that the total assessment for the year was $20,797.56, and the city has received $17,462.96.

J. C. Simpson, Resident Engineer at Gainesville will be in active charge of the project while it is under construction.

IS IT A SACRED COW?

With most people about back to normal now, and with the emotional high in Tennessee over TVA subsidized through election of President Johnson, it seems logical to this newspaper that the people in Tennessee and in the TVA area look squarely at some facts, and then face up to them.

It takes no education and a minimum of knowledge about government to reason that when a Federal operation can produce and sell electric power at a much greater savings to the user than can the private enterprise, the answer can be only one thing; the taxpayers of the whole nation are subsidizing that government operation.

The Bonneville Power project (Federal Government project) out in the Pacific Northwest is a big complex. In fiscal 1962 Bonneville reported an operating loss of $17,700,000. In fiscal 1963 it reports its loss only $5,483,000. That took some doing, inasmuch as Bonneville's increase in sales of power was more than offset by increased expenses of operation and maintenance during that period.

The doing was this: Bonneville accounts just changed their "pay-out policy". Where they had operated for a quarter-century on a 50-year project pay-out basis, they changed over to spread out their repayments indefinitely.

Of course most of us who live with time payments would like to do the same thing. But again of course, we operate under rules and regulations organized by the same government that allows this change at Bonneville. On the same policy as before, Bonneville would have lost $17,000,000 in 1963.

So with TVA. People in the Tennessee Valley are having their electric power bills subsidized. If that's the way we want it, then let's admit it, and cease name-calling and stigmatizing those who don't believe in this kind of Federal Aid. For that is all TVA is—government in business to aid those people living in the Tennessee Valley area with an unrealistic utility cost figure.

AID TO OUR FOES

The terrible affair in the Congo recently certainly makes civilized people stop, look and listen at the kind of African policy that we have been pursuing. You can't turn a cannibal into an Emily Post student by passing a resolution at the United Nations. And any resemblance between a tribe of savages and a nation is pure coincidence.

Nuns were raped, clergymen were made to parade naked in the streets, U. S. foreign service personnel were forced to eat the American flag, and human beings were tortured and murdered and dismembered.

Looking back at our stupid foreign policy on the "emerging nations" it is well to recall that our own government has put pressure on our friends including Belgium, France, Portugal and England in a display of fingerpointing on "colonialism" and imperialism and "exploitation" that helped bring about the kind of anarchy prevalent there now.

And always the Reds are in the act—the same Reds that we sell American foodstuffs on credit to, the same Reds killing our sons in Viet Nam, the same Reds who are in Cuba.

HOW BIG IS $100 BILLION?

We've become conditioned to annual federal budgets in the $100 billion range. But it's the world's safest bet that mightily few of us can begin to visualize so vast a sum.

Columnist Sylvia Porter provides a number of down-to-earth examples of just what $100 billion amounts to. Here's one of them: "If a corporation had started in business with $100 billion in the year 1 A. D. and had managed so dreadfully that it lost $100,000 a day, it still could have enough left of the original $100 billion to continue operating and continue losing $100,000 a day for 776 years."

Here's another: "If you had $100 billion, you could give each of our country's 60 million women a mink coat costing $1,700."

This is the kind of money the federal government has been spending year after year. Much of it, represented by the soaring federal debt, must be paid by our children and our children's children and so on if it is ever paid at all. Even in boom times, with record tax revenues, spending has far outrun income. The mind reels at contemplating what would happen if there was even a moderate downturn in the economy.

AFTER 14(b) - THE DELUGE

America's labor tycoons have laid it at the White House door.

In return for the landslide victory of President Johnson, they expect prompt and favorable action from the President and the Congress on a list of demands that would speed our creeping socialism to a full gallop.

Having delivered the 16 million votes making up the difference between the 42 million for LBJ and the 26 million for Barry Goldwater (as they modestly claim), the unions have instructed the Administration to:

1. Repeal Section 14-B of the Taft-Hartley Act. This would automatically outlaw the Right to Work laws that have been passed thus far by 20 states and given back to the union bosses a nationwide closed shop with the right to levy tribute on every working American, man or woman, in every unionized craft or industry anywhere for the privilege of making a living.

2. Amend the Landrum-Griffin Act to remove restrictions obnoxious to the unions.
3. Impose the 35-hour work week and double pay for overtime on the nation's economy, two demands that combine to achieve appreciable wage-hikes in defiance of existing contracts and without negotiation.

4. Boost the Federal minimum wage of $1.25 (now responsible for the widespread unemployment among workers of limited capabilities to $2.00.
5. Place all employment service in the hands of the Federal Government.

These are the demands most immediately affecting labor; but there are many more, such as Medicare, the scrapping of present immigration laws, and colossal public works for the "war on poverty," together with others that would render specific aid to spread of Communism in the US.

But first and foremost is repeal of Section 14-b — proclaimed by the Executive Council of the AFL-CIO as its number one object. Right to Work laws must be smashed even though official figures show that union membership gains have been greater, and the economic gains of workers have been greater in the RTW states than in those where compulsory union membership is imposed.

It should be apparent to the Congress that the greedy demands of the labor bosses are no more in their own long-range interest than that of the people of the US. And let the Congress beware in approaching unionism's prime exaction for the political services. If 14-b should prove to be the domino that tumbles all the others on the "must" list, our public servants will have voted their own destruction as well as that of all the rest of us—the union fat-cats included.

From Director J. Edgar Hoover of the FBI: "The moment has arrived when we must face realistically the startling fact that since 1958 crime in this country has increased five times faster than our population growth! Serious crimes—murder, forcible rape, robbery, burglary, aggravated assault, automobile theft—have mounted steadily since the end of World War II. In 1951 these crimes for the first time topped the one million mark, and more than two and one-quarter million crimes were reported during 1963.

IF ANYONE WONDERS WHY

If anyone still wonders why Congress after Congress has reaffirmed the necessity and the justice of percentage depletion (which is a 27½ percent credit against federal income taxes) for oil producers, a few figures should clear his mind.

In 1962, the last year for which such statistics are available, the cost per foot for drilling for oil or gas in this country hit an all-time average high of $13.31 a foot, and this doesn't include exploration development and production cost. The cost for wells over 10,000 feet in depth averaged $23.52 per foot. And the typical offshore well ran to more than $35 a foot.

In that year, the oil industry sank nearly 44,000 wells of various depths and kinds. They totaled more than 193 million feet, or nearly 37,000 miles, and the cost of drilling and equipping these wells was a staggering $2.6 billion.

To compound the problem, there is no guarantee that a well will hit any oil at all, much less oil in commercially worthwhile amounts. In 1962, more than $947 million was spent on wells which turned out to be dry and worthless. The drillers had to take their losses, pack up, move on, and try again.

Percentage depletion, therefore, simply recognizes certain facts of record. One is that drilling is an immensely costly business. Another is that it is surrounded with heavy risks. A third is that even the best wells wear out in time and must be replaced. It is one of the incentives that guarantees us the nearly inconceivable quantities of oil and gas we want and need.

PARADISE LOST

Communism is always trying to sell itself as the humane and noble friend of the aged, the infirm and the poor. Communist Poland is living up to this picture for a change, by letting elderly pensioners, unskilled workers and the unemployed escape to the West.

This new policy is not motivated by nobility. Communist Poland has a sagging economy, a food shortage and high unemployment. It is cheaper to get rid of the less-productive Poles than to take care of them, so the Red government is trying to get them to apply for exit visas to the West. Only one condition is attached: The refugees must agree never to come back.

It would seem that the communists have very little cause for worry on that score. —Dallas Texas Morning News

BETTER OFF WITHOUT HIM

Withdrawal of Indonesia from the United Nations is no great tragedy, even if other countries should follow suit. The tragedy took place long ago when it was proved the UN was little better than the old League of Nations at keeping peace. Adding to its membership all those new pseudo-nations, mostly from Africa, have made a farce of it.

Indonesia's Sukarno is said to be hoping to form a new group of "emerging" nations. Few of the prospective members have shown any interest in following his leadership in the past, and nothing has happened since to increase his power or prestige.

This man who is greedy for territory of neighboring states, which he likes to get by threats and guerilla tactics, apparently is in a tantrum because Malaysia, ever so much smaller, hasn't scared a bit and has been standing him off. The United Nations may be better off without him, and a few other two-bit dictators, too.

SEA GULLS ON RELIEF

What happened to a colony of sea gulls on the Florida coast holds a lesson for America today. The fishermen's fleet that caught and marketed shrimp had a wharf at the shore where they landed and unloaded their catch. They classed the shrimp and threw away those unsuitable for the market.

The sea gull by nature is a fisherman. He makes his living that way. He flies over the water, and when the big fish below frighten the little ones and drive them to the top the sea gull dives and picks up the little fish for dinner. But those gulls that fed upon the castoff shrimp at the wharf had no need to fish. They didn't have to labor to take care of themselves. This went on for a generation of sea gulls. Then, when the old gulls were all dead, the shrimp fleet moved away to a distant port. The young sea gulls, not knowing how to fish, all died.

When somebody else does for us, it incapacitates us to do for ourselves. In a welfare state the entire public may reach a point—like the sea gulls—where they do not even know how to take care of themselves. They have not been done a favor.

Men must maintain and cultivate the ability to act and to decide and to do. Unless they are given problems that they must handle they lose the power of decision and self-determination.

Discretion must be given to the individual and to those in charge of the particular business at hand. Regimentation will destroy individuality and will destroy freedom.

NO RHYME, NO REASON

When President Johnson was exploring poverty as a campaign issue earlier this year, a curious thing was happening in Paintsville, Kentucky, in the heart of Appalachia. A Federal grant of $35,000 had enabled the Mayor State Vocational School to train several hundred unemployed citizens in various skills including the production of handicrafts for sale to tourists.

They found employment with Miss Jo Pack who operates the Kentucky Hills Handicraft business in Paintsville with a few full-time workers and about 200 working part time. Miss Pack paid the Kentucky minimum wage of 70 cents an hour and everybody was reasonably well satisfied until the Federal government decided that she was in interstate commerce because her customers were mostly tourists and were crossing state lines with their purchases. This, Washington ruled, brought her little business under the Federal minimum wage law requiring her to pay $1.25 an hour. It also brought her under another law, that of diminishing returns, which Congress has neglected to repeal. So, she had to increase prices, lay off a majority of her workers and raise the rest to the Federal minimum.

Those who lost their jobs can derive some satisfaction from the fact that they are being protected from low wages by Uncle Sam. But there is little rhyme or reason for telling a citizen he can't work at all unless his job pays an unrealistic minimum wage. —Lancaster, S.C., News

Sixty Attend Party For Miss Medders

Miss Cathy Medders came from Hockaday in Dallas bringing her roommate, Miss Gayle Overton whose home is in Kansas City, to spend four days between terms with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Medders. And Cathy celebrated her fifteenth birthday with a party at her home Saturday night.

Sixty teen-agers from Muenster and Gainesville were guests. Also present were Miss Cindy Purcell and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Purcell of Fort Worth.

Dancing to an orchestra and having refreshments were highlights of the party.

Miss Medders and Miss Overton returned to Dallas Sunday afternoon. While at home they discussed plans for Cathy's study in Europe this summer. She'll go with two nuns from Memphis, Tenn., and take courses in art and French.

GRADES 1-12 BUSY

The elementary classes are busy planning exhibits for the Science Fair this year.

First and second graders are learning the importance of being protected from diseases. They are also bringing items for the Indian exhibit which will be displayed in their classrooms.

Mrs. King and her students in the third and fourth grades are working on a play which they are going to record. This will give them a chance to listen critically to their own voices.

In place of science, both seventh and eighth graders are taking health this semester.

Plans are being made by committees for the Junior-Senior Prom and Banquet. March 13 has been set for this social highlight of the spring semester. Monday evening a joint class meeting decided on "Roman Holiday" as the theme for the affair.

The final score of the girls' basketball game between Lindsay and Muenster, Friday night on Muenster's home court was 35-31, respectively. In the close game Cindy Cain came through with 11 points, and Peggy Branch followed with 10 points.

The boys won their second victory when they downed Lindsay with a 37-32 score. Tommy Flusche was high scorer with 15 points.

Helen Loerwald And Roger West Say Vows at Mass

Miss Helen Marie Loerwald daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe J. Loerwald of Gainesville and Roger West, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emmitt West of Belton, were married Saturday evening in St. Mary's Church at Gainesville. Father Thomas Taafe, pastor, celebrated the nuptial mass and performed the double ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of silk peau de soie trimmed with Brussels lace. The sheath dress had long sleeves and a floor-length skirt with a detachable chapel length train. A matching fabric pillbox hat held her bouffant veil and she carried a white orchid and stephanotis on top a prayer book, a gift from the groom. Bride's three attendants were in scarlet satin gowns with controlled skirts that featured short brush trains. They wore white fur hats and carried matching muffs. Mrs. Lee Johnson of Arlington was her sister's honor attendant. Another sister, Miss Betty Jo Loerwald of Dallas, and Mrs. Dickey Powell of Hooker, Okla., were bridesmaids.

Mack West of Belton was his brother's best man and Jeff McCreight of Austin and Richard Inman of Norman, Okla., were groomsmen. Ushers were John Loerwald, brother of the bride, Dallas, Dr. Lee Johnson of Arlington, Carroll Wayne Otts of Gainesville and Arthur P. Prinz of Belton.

Wedding music was presented by Mr. Clarence Zimmerer of Lindsay and Frank Halliburton, vocalists, with Don Owens at the organ.

Wedding reception was held at the Community Center Building.

After their honeymoon trip the couple will be at home in Austin where he will be graduated in August with a pharmacy degree. The bride attended St. Mary's, Gainesville High, Cooke County Junior College and the University of Texas. She is employed by the City of Austin.

Out of town wedding guests included Mr. and Mrs. Al Walterscheid of Muenster, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Walterscheid of Hereford, Dr. and Mrs. Robert R. Loerwald and son of Bowie, Mrs. Nellie Lewis, Messrs. and Mmes. Ray Lewis and John Loerwald and their families of Dallas.

Soil Conservation Essay Contest Deadline is Feb. 1

Harold Skaggs, chairman of the board of supervisors of the Upper Elm-Red Soil Conservation District, reminded all high school students in the district today that the time is running out on the 1965 essay writing contest. February 1st is the closing date and all entries should be mailed to Harold Skaggs, Chairman of the Board of Supervisors, Upper Elm-Red SCD, Route 1, Sherman, Texas, on or before that date.

This year's contest is the fifth in which the local SCD has participated. The subject, "Conservation: Our Best Insurance" is a challenging subject. "The youth of our district have a precious stake in the conservation of the soil and they should be vitally interested in the conservation of it. Unless the soil is cared for and protected some of the youth may not have land available to them when they reach maturity," Skaggs stated.

The Upper Elm-Red SCD will grant incentive awards of $15 for the best essay, $10 second place and $5 for the third best. The essay should be written in the student's words as much as possible and confined to not over 300 words. The Best group of essays will be entered in the state wide contest sponsored by the Fort Worth Press where a $200 award is given for the best essay on the subject in the State of Texas.

Medders Report Fabulous Time at LBJ Inauguration

Back from Washington, D.C., and a fabulous time attending President Johnson's inauguration and other festivities are Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Medders. Joining them on the way and attending ceremonies with them were her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Smiddy of Wise, Va.

Every day and night was filled with social engagements from the time they arrived Sunday to the time they left Thursday.

Congressman Graham Purcell met their plane at Friendship Field in Baltimore and took them to the Sheraton-Park Hotel where they joined other Texas delegations.

Among activities they attended were a brunch honoring Texans in Washington at the Capitol, lunch in the House of Representatives Restaurant and a tour of the Capitol.

Mmes. Medders and Smiddy were among guests at the reception for "Distinguished Ladies" where they met Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Humphreys Mrs. Schriver and others and saw friends from Memphis, Tenn. This was in the National Gallery of Art. They also made a tour to see the exhibits.

A highlight of social events was the Gala. For this Mrs. Medders wore a blue formal gown with pearl and crystal beading.

Mrs. Medders and Mrs. Smiddy were guests of Mrs. Graham Purcell for tea at the Congressional Club Tuesday. Later the Medders and Smidys were among guests at the reception for Governor John Connally in the Statler-Hilton. Mrs. Medders was in blue lace for this event. Back at their hotel they entertained guests for dinner including Congressman and Mrs. Pat Jennings and daughter of Virginia and Congressman and Mrs. Graham Purcell and daughter.

Wednesday they attended the inauguration and the parade. They were directly in front of the presidential party during the parade and chatted with Franklin Roosevelt Jr. and his family who were nearby.

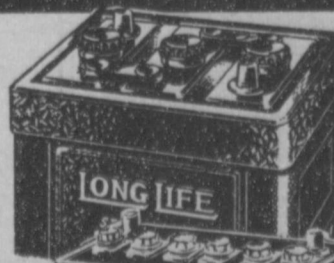

And finally the inauguration ball. Mrs. Medders wore a light blue chiffon gown with a sequin bodice and topped it with a mink stole.

Feeling close to the celebrations, though many miles away was Pearl Evans who helped Mrs. Medders select the several wardrobes and helped pack them in seven suitcases for the trip.

Machine to Read ZIP-Coded Mail Announced by PO

Postmaster Arthur Endres said today he has received word from Postmaster General John A. Gronouski in Washington, D.C. that a big "breakthrough" has now been made on electronic machines to "read" ZIP-coded addresses on mail.

"The Postmaster General said he expects to begin installing these sophisticated new machines in major post offices starting in about a year," the postmaster explained.

Mr. Endres said each machine will be able to sort, as well as read, at the rate of 35,000 letters an hour.

The offices to get the address readers have not been announced, but the local postmaster said they will have significant effects on the mail in and out of each community regardless of whether it gets the new machines.

This is because they will speed incoming mail to smaller offices from major cities and step up the dispatch of mail deposited in smaller communities but which must be processed enroute at major mail massing points.

The postmaster emphasized, however, introduction of the "seeing eye" device next year does not mean ZIP Code isn't useful already.

"ZIP Code," he explained, "is important in mail handling under the system of mail processing already in use which will continue to be in use as the basic system at most points. These machines will be just another step—in conjunction with the mechanical mail sorting machines we have developed—to help keep pace with the growing volumes of mail. Neither will the machines endanger jobs—they will only help us meet mail expansion with minimum manpower expansion."

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Hamric have as their guest their young grandson Michael Hamric of Norman, Okla. Mr. Hamric flew to Norman for him Tuesday.

Jill Ann, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Myrick, was christened Sunday in S. H. Church by Father Andrew. Attending as godparents were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Neu of Madill, Okla. They brought their children and came especially for the baptism of their niece, also visited other relatives while here.

Four directors of Cooke County Electric Cooperative were in Miami, Florida, this week attending a three-day REA convention. Their wives accompanied them. The Vincent Zimmerers and J. A. Klements left by plane from Dallas Sunday. The Al Wiesmans and Doye Dotys left earlier by car.

36-B Loop Juniors In Tournament

A tournament to be held at Era this weekend will determine the standings in junior basketball for District 36-B. Schools participating in both boys and girls divisions are Muenster, Lindsay, Callisburg, Valley View, Era, Saint Jo, Montague and Rad Ware.

The tournament will have champ and consolation brackets in both divisions and the finals will determine the champ, the runner-up and the consolation winner as first second and third places.

Muenster teams will meet Rad Ware in their opening games.

Because of the junior tournament high school teams of the district will not play Friday night.

Mrs. Ray Evans spent several days of this week in Dallas at market. Mrs. R. T. Brock accompanied her.

Parochial Teams Lose to Alvord and Dallas Christian

Regulars and reserves of the Sacred Heart Tigers lost both games in a double header Thursday in the Dallas Christian gym. Scores were 38-34 in the B game and 77-46 in the A game.

In the rookie contest Dallas pulled ahead for a 22-11 half time lead and Sacred Heart gained but not enough, in the next two periods. Leading scorers were Leon Endres 15 and Dwayne Hess 10.

The second game was a breeze for the Christians. After a 24-12 lead in the first quarter they gained a little in the next two then ended the game with a scoring spurge that gained 15 more points. Leroy Hess and David Hess led Tiger scoring with 18 and 12 respectively.

Tuesday night Tigers and Tigerettes lost to Alvord in the Sacred Heart gym. In both the local players showed improvement over their previous games but were not able to handle the visitors.

First game Alvord Girls took a 22-12 lead at half time and Tigerettes put on a big rally to tie the score 29-29 ending the third quarter. In the final period it was close until the last two minutes when Alvord hit three for its 40-33 win. Best scorers for SH were Barbara Schmitt 15 and Mary Wimmer 8.

The Tigers, with Ray Wimmer and Davy Hess out of the lineup, gave the Bulldogs a good tussle before losing 46-39. Ending the first period Alvord led 9-7 and at the half it was Sacred Heart 20-16. From then on Alvord gained steadily, leading 28-26 in the third and 46-39 at the end. Leroy Hess hit a sizzling 25 for the Tigers.

program to help dairymen reduce problems with udder health in their cattle. Mastitis, an udder ailment, is estimated to cost U.S. dairy farmers 250 million dollars annually through resulting loss of milk.

"Dairy farmer organizers in the four states got together and formed an organization called, 'The Milk Quality Council,'" related Anderson. Mr. Charles Moore, manager of Pure Milk Producers Ass'n of Tulsa was elected executive secretary.

The first duties of Noorlander, according to Anderson, are to contact health authorities, veterinarians, extension service personnel and milking machine companies to gain their help in reducing milk quality problems.

Mr. Noorlander, formerly a faculty member of the University of California, and a member of the University's research team, did basic research resulting in many changes in milking machines and milking procedures. In addition to the changes and inventions his work brought about, he personally invented the first air-flow meter in the U.S., the first instrument to measure milking machine pulsation in the U.S., the first metered vacuum regulator, and many other new devices.

Noorlander is the author of a book, "Milking Machines and Mastitis", which is widely used by researchers, milking machine companies and workers in the field. Each dairy farmer belonging to the dairy farmer co-ops in the four-state area will receive a copy of the book so that he can have the latest information on udder health. The researcher has also served as a consultant to the countries of Denmark, Finland and Puerto Rico. For the past 6 years, Noorlander has been employed as researcher for a milking machine company. He has resigned, and now works solely for dairy farmers.

Golden Wedding

ster became home for the family. As a 70-year resident he has many memories of early days. The colony was only five years old when he arrived.

Their wedding day, Jan. 26, 1915, was similar to that of the anniversary day — cold and blustery. The bride walked across the street from her home to Sacred Heart Church for the 7 a.m. nuptial mass. Afterward the bridal party and family members walked back to the house for breakfast.

Memories Recalled
After the meal, the newlyweds went to the depot — by horse and buggy — to board a train for their honeymoon which they spent in Oklahoma. It was snowing and sleeting there and the taxi which took them to their hotel was "wide open." The driver handed them an umbrella to shield them from the weather.

Those who attended the wedding in 1915 recalled that two trains were waiting on the track, one headed east, the other west. No one knew which train the newlyweds were taking except the bride's father. He put their luggage aboard unnoticed and helped them get on. When the trains pulled out the waiting crowd didn't know which train to shower with rice. Mr. Hartman told the crowd they "could go home and eat their rice."

Mr. and Mrs. Becker have farmed all their married life time. And for eight years — 1937 to 1945 — they operated Muenster Hatchery.

Master of ceremonies for the after dinner program was their son Leo Becker who is not married and lives on the homeplace and has taken over most of the farm work.

Mrs. Alphonse Hoenig, first born of the children, said congratulations for the family. The other children are Mrs. Joe Sicking, also of Muenster, Mrs. Alois Sicking of Gainesville and Vincent Becker of Silver Springs, Maryland.

Presenting the 50-year review were grandchildren, Miss Dolores Sicking of Muenster and Spec. 4 Skip Becker of Fort Sill, Okla.

Father Alcuin Kubis concluded the program with an address of congratulations and then the church choir led in singing an old-time German love song, "Du, Du Liebste Mier im Herten," the assemblage joining in the chorus. And the couple married half a century held hands like newlyweds.

Guests were registered by the honorees' niece, Miss Patsy Hartman. The registration table displayed a wedding picture of the jubilarians and their attendants.

Others assisting with the anniversary program were Alvin Hartman, a nephew, and John Becker, a grandson who ushered at church. Mrs. Joe Lehnertz who catered the meal and her assistants Mmes. Gertrude Bayer, Andy Trubebach and Arnie Hess. Jack Hogan played for dancing.

Gold gladioli adorned the church and the anniversary theme was repeated in table decorations.

Mrs. Becker has four brothers and three sisters: George Hartman of Fort Wayne, Ind., Albert of Dearborn, Mich., Leo of Three Rivers, Victor Hartman of Muenster, Mrs. Carl Luke of Hereford and Mrs. Frank Klement and Mrs. Joe Vogel of Muenster. Mr. Becker has one brother and two sisters: Bill Becker and Misses Anna and Mary Becker, all of Muenster.

Among out of town guests at the celebrations were George Hartman, Mrs. Rita Beuscher, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Mudrack and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hoffman, all of Fort Wayne, Ind., Clarence Trabel of Monroeville, Ind., Simon Metz and Mrs. Victor Strabala of Riverside, Iowa, Mrs. Henry Frueh of Dallas, Iowa.

Messes. and Mmes. Carl Luke of Hereford, Leo Hartman of Three Rivers, Elmo Hartman of Victoria, Don Muller of Lubbock, Willard Hartman of Denton, Keith Tompkins of Arlington, Teddy Gremminger of Garland, Leo Hess of Dallas, Misses Lillian and Virginia Vogel of Fort Worth and those from Cooke County.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Swirczynski and daughter Jill and Mrs. Paul Fisher spent the weekend in Jonesboro, Ark., with their nun daughters. The Swirczynskis visited Sister Calista and Mrs. Fisher visited Sister Cynthia and Sister Irene. Going, they picked up Sister Irene at Little Rock so she could spend the weekend with them. The Swirczynskis returned home Monday. Mrs. Fisher extended her visit.

Saturday is the last day to pay poll tax.

Anxiously waiting to see their new sister are Monte and Marlin Wimmer who are visiting relatives while their mother and baby are in the hospital. Monte is with his uncle and aunt the J. D. Meurers and Marlin is with his grandparents, the Tony Wimmers.

Visitors with Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Zipper Sunday afternoon were long-time friends Mr. and Mrs. Henry Noss of Celina and Ed Thill of Pilot Point. They came to check on Mr. Zipper... were glad to see him at home instead of the hospital. He was dismissed Friday.
