MUENSTER, COOKE COUNTY, TEXAS 76252

NOVEMBER 20, 1964

NUMBER 52

If reports reaching here are true, it's easy to understand why folks along Highway 82 in towns west of Muenster were worked up over the meeting last week to promote a highway from here to Seymour. As those people understand it, the proposal is to re-route the highway, leaving Saint Jo, Nocona and Ringgold very much isolated. Who wouldn't object?

Editor Eddie Powell showed commendable spirit in a front page editorial in the Nocona and Saint Jo papers last week, urging people in the towns concerned to start a barrage of protesting letters to the Highway Department.

It happens, however, that the letters are not necessary. There is no conspiracy to take the highway away from them. Rather, the plan is to promote an alternate road providing a better and shorter route to Seymour as well as to towns between here and there. The present Highway 82 need not be changed in any way.

A glance at the road map reveals that the proposal has real merit. Highway 82 goes north as well as west from here to Wichita Falls, then southwest to Seymour and west to Lubbock. The suggested alternate route would go southwest to Bowie, then due west to Windthorst, Archer City and Seymour, joining the present Highway 82 there. From here to Seymour it would reduce mileage about 25 to 30 miles and also eliminate traffic driving in Wichita Falls. Saving in time would be almost an hour. And in the bargain it would be a very welcome improvement for the area between here and Seymour. It would even be a welcome short cut from Saint Jo and Nocona to west Texas.

The practicability of such an alternate route is apparent from the fact that many drivers are now using a less direct and less adequate road which already exists. They go to Bowie via FM roads through Saint Jo or Forestburg, then follow another FM road to Windthorst, Archer City and Seymour. They already prefer it to the regular 82 route. They'd be much better pleased if the road were shortened and improved to the standard of a regular highway.

Furthermore, there are reasons why such an alternate road deserves early consideration. Present volume of traffic points to a probability that more traffic capacity to west Texas is near the planning stage. The present Highway 82 will have to convert to 4 lanes unless some of the traffic is diverted to an alternate road. As conditions are now, the Highway Department could probably build the alternate route for less than it could widen the present one to four lanes.

In general here is what would be required. A new right of way and new road from here to Bowie. From there on it already has a right of way and basic construction. To meet federal highway requirements it would probably have to widen the right of way and improve the road. It is doubtful, however, whether the total cost of the alternate road would equal the total cost of additional right of way plus complete construction of two more lanes from here to Henrietta. From a financial standpoint the alternate highway should be considered soon, before other plans are made.

Another look at the road map shows that a re-routing of Highway 82, as some seemed to fear, isn't even remotely likely. A highway is needed from here to Wichita Falls, and heading toward Amarillo. Re-routing would create a bigger problem than it would solve. The new highway cannot possibly be more than an alternate, so towns along the present route needn't worry about losing anything — except that portion of traffic which prefers the other way.

Some concern was indicated about the loss of tourist business in the towns along present Highway 82, and the thousands of dollars invested by persons and firms serving the tourists. Doubtless that is a factor. But what assurance does anyone have that the road a few years hence will not by-pass many present investments? And are people quite sure that they will continue to want traffic going through the towns? Times

Area Saturated By 6.65 Inches Of Moisture

Farm land of the Muenster community is saturated, detention reservoir levels are crowding the spillways, and streams are gushing as a result of 6.65 inches of rain scattered over the early part of this week.

It started Saturday night and the reading on Steve Moser's Weather Bureau gauge at 7 Sunday morning was .05 inch. Monday morning the measure was .10 and Tuesday it was .90. Most of the rain came in a steady soaker Tuesday night for a reading of 3.45 on Wednesday morning. And continued rainfall during the day made a reading of 2.15 for Thursday morning.

As a result a new ten year rainfall record has been set for November even though the month is only three days past the half way mark. Rains early in the month were 3.27 and the total now is 9.92. Next highest was 7.60 in 1957. The ten year average for the month is 2.40 inches.

The year's total, likewise is well above the ten year average after lagging behind in the early part of the year. The figure now stands at 40.61 inches, over half of it accounted for by two record months, 11.12 in September and 9.92 in November. Average full year's rainfall here the past ten years has been 31.75 inches.

Science Classes at MHS Form Club

Members of the physics and chemistry classes of Muenster High School met Tuesday night to organize the MHS Science Club.

Officers elected are Glenn Fleitman, president; Dale Klement, vice-president; Peggy Branch, secretary; Virgil Swirczynski, treasurer; Bob Russell, reporter. Mrs. Marie Mosman and Carl King, instructors, are the club sponsors.

The club voted to have a Christmas party on December 18 as its first social activity.

Memorial Service For KCs Sunday

Deceased members of the Muenster Knights of Columbus will be remembered next Sunday, November 22, in the council's annual memorial service.

The ceremony will be held in the K.C. hall beginning at 2 o'clock. Members are urged to attend to honor the memory of their former brothers with a good attendance.

LaVerne Otto Is Crowned Queen at SHH Homecoming

A capacity crowd of football fans, gathered for Sacred Heart High School's homecoming game, saw a splendid coronation ceremony in which Miss LaVerne Otto was crowned 1964 homecoming queen.

Doing the honors and escorting the queen was Tiger Co-captain David Hess.

In the pre-game ceremony the queen and her three princesses and four train bearers came on the field to meet escorts on the 50 yard line.

The queen was wearing a deep blue brocade satin formal designed on slim lines and covered with a white velvet cape.

Princess Cathy Derichsweiler, crown bearer, wore a white bouffant and was escorted by Co-captain Ray Wimmer. Princess Sandra Sicking, flower bearer, was in a yellow bouffant and was escorted by Stanley Endres. Princess Gloria Gieb, football bearer, was in a white bouffant and was escorted by Co-captain Leon Endres.

Train bearers were Marilyn Otto, Sandra Schneider, Janet Krahl and Lisa Mollenkopf.

Also in the ceremony was Miss Patsy Streng, 1963 homecoming queen, who presented the crown to David Hess and he in turn placed it on the head of the new queen. He then accepted a bouquet of white mums from Princess Sandra and presented them to Queen LaVerne.

The royal party had places of honor for the football game and at the homecoming dance.

Hornets Win 24-16 In Action Packed Callisburg Game

Muenster Hornets climbed another step out of the district cellar last week by dumping the Wildcats of Callisburg by a count of 24-16 on the MHS field.

As a result Muenster is third from the bottom with two district wins. Callisburg is a notch lower with one win and Alvord at the bottom with no district wins.

The game was loaded with action, starting on the very first play after kickoff. On a double reverse play Swirczynski heaved the ball far down field and Wimmer sailed the rest of the way for 76 yards and the score. Wimmer also added bonus points on a run around right end.

The Wildcats came back with determination and put on a nice drive that gained 35 on three first downs to the Hornet 18 but Muenster defense was too much on the next series and the effort ended on the 12.

Muenster moved back two first downs and kicked on the third series then regained possession two plays later on Flusche's interception. Four plays after that a 29 yard pass gave Muenster a set up on the Wildcat 5. But a fumble two plays later shattered the hope.

For a while then the ball was swapping hands. Callisburg swapped hands.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon from St. Ann's Church and burial was in the parish cemetery.

Survivors in addition to the parents are four brothers, Paul, Pete, Ben and John, two sisters Aggie Lou and Ann; the maternal grandmother, Mrs. Ben Seyler, and the great-grandmother, Mrs. John Fette, both of Muenster.

Mrs. Seyler learned of the baby's death Monday afternoon when she returned from Mexico City. She had been away a week going with her daughter, Mrs. Lambert Beizer and Miss Mary McCain of Gainesville. They took Dr. Viola Waterhouse of Norman, Okla., to Mexico City. She is a missionary and will be working with Indian tribes.

Kralicke Appointed City Health Officer

Dr. Martin Kralicke is Muenster's new city health officer succeeding Dr. L. O. Laughlin, who moved away several months ago. He was appointed by the City Council in its regular session Monday night.

The council also took steps toward establishing a planning and zoning commission to protect property values, and nerves, of its citizens. The commission's job will be to consider what kind of construction or business venture is preferable in certain areas and make its recommendations to the city.

An ordinance authorizing appointment of such a commission was passed by the council.

Friars of Dallas Lick Tigers 28-6 In Season Finale

The advantage of manpower was apparent at Sacred Heart's homecoming Saturday night as the Bishop Lynch Friars of Dallas rolled up a 28-6 win over the Tigers.

It started as a defensive stand-off but as the game advanced fresh reserves came in for the Friars and continued pounding away at the exhausted Tigers.

The visitors came here with 46 boys in uniform, almost twice as many as the Tigers had. And about three platoons of them were comparable to Tiger first stringers.

However, the game was not decided by reserve strength. Starters got a pair of touchdowns before relief crews came in and got a couple more, and before the last subs on the list finally took over and Sacred Heart was able to move.

The first half was a defensive tussle with neither team being able to make much headway. Sacred Heart started with two first downs after the kickoff and made another near the end of the half. Bishop Lynch made two scattered first downs in the first and second quarters but did not get moving until near the end of the half. Three first downs in a row then moved 38 yards to the Tiger 33, where Hofbauer abruptly ended the drive by recovering a fumble.

Next two plays were passes that advanced Tigers to the Friar 46, and then a pass that hurt terribly. It was a long one intercepted on about the 30 by Dale Lawrence and returned, with the help of beautiful blocking, all the 70 yards for a TD. A pass from Rager to Lawrence made the count 8-0 about a half minute before the half ended.

Except for that one big play, the outstanding feature of the first half was the punting by David Hess. Of his five kicks three backed the Friars against their goal — on the 6, the 1, and the 2.

The game, practically decided.

ETSC Student Is Practice Teacher On MHS Faculty

Daniel Boon of Linden, Texas, a student at East Texas State College is at Muenster High School doing student practice teaching to complete requirement for a teaching certificate.

He started this week and will teach vocational agriculture for six weeks under supervision of Edgar Dyer, who will report to the college on his work. He came here earlier for two weeks to observe teaching methods before taking over a class.

BIRTHS

Lt. and Mrs. John McDonnell of Fort Bragg, N. C., have announced the birth of Thomas Michael, weight six pounds nine ounces on Nov. 7. He's a brother for Bobby and Nora, a grandson for Mr. and Mrs. John Mosman, Muenster, and Emmett McDonnell of Dallas. Mrs. Mosman and Mr. McDonnell are godparents. Proxy sponsors stood for them Nov. 14 at the christening. The Mosmans visited by phone with their daughter and family Sunday.

JCs Prepare for Big Observance Of Thanksgiving

The biggest community picnic ever and a substantial boost to the Muenster Memorial Hospital fund are goals of the Muenster Jaycees as they prepare for the traditional Thanksgiving observance next Thursday.

The Jaycees are working on all of the usual attractions plus a few extras. They will have the noon meal featuring turkey and country sausage, a picnic all afternoon and into the night, and two dances.

One of the extras is a completely separate event scheduled next Sunday. It is a turkey shoot, with prizes galore, to be held at the skeet site a mile and a half southwest of town. The gun club is providing facilities. Jaycees are doing the work and all proceeds go to the hospital.

The dinner is being planned as something special, loads of food selections and a well loaded plate plus drink and dessert for $1.50 per person.

Extras for the picnic begin with three tents, one 90x30 and two smaller, to assure greater comfort, especially if weather is bad. And there will be more rides, more games, more carnival booths, and a special auction which will have artwork, antiques and white elephants along with practical stuff.

The dances are planned to please two different kinds of crowds. Charlie Adamcik's orchestra of Dallas will be at the parish hall bearing down on Bohemian and old time music. The Croquettes will be at the VFW hall with modern music.

Mayor Urges All to Join the Observance

All residents of the community and all business houses are asked to cooperate next Thursday in Muenster's traditional observance of Thanksgiving, which is sponsored by Muenster Jaycees this year as a benefit for Muenster Memorial Hospital.

In a special proclamation Mayor Earl Fisher urged business houses to close for the day and reminded all to come and join the festivities.

Hornets to Meet Chico Dragons in Season's Finale

Chances to improve their season record look slim for the Hornets Friday night, but they will be straining to do just that. Coach James Polk said this week that his boys have lots of respect for the Chico Dragons but they are not conceding anything.

On paper the Dragons are strong favorites. They handed the mighty Sanger Indians their only defeat of the season. And they have a record of only two 9-B losses, sharing a tie with Valley View for third and fourth place standing. Saint Jo and Sanger, with one loss each, are tied for first and second.

Likewise on the basis of size and ability, the Chico boys have a clear advantage. They have a well balanced outfit with good offense at both running and passing. And they also have a weight advantage over the Hornets, which will probably lean still more in their favor if the field remains wet for the game.

With one exception the Hornets are physically fit and ready to go. Roy Hartman is still on limited service since Alvord. And Dale Klement was put out for the rest of the season by an appendicitis operation.

The game will be played on MHS field starting at 7:30.

Firemen's Meeting

Members of the volunteer fire department are reminded that their next meeting has been postponed to Thursday, December 3. The change from the customary last Thursday was made to avoid conflict with Thanksgiving activities.

Schedule of Coming Events

FRIDAY, Nov. 20, Hornets vs Chico, here, 7:30.
SUNDAY, Nov. 22, KC Memorial Service, 2 p.m.
TUESDAY, Nov. 24, Tigers vs Lindsay, here.

225 Exes Attend SH Homecoming

Two hundred and twenty-five former students and guests attended the silver anniversary homecoming dinner sponsored by Sacred Heart Alumni Association Saturday night as the opening event of Sacred Heart High School's 1964 homecoming festivities.

Dinner in the Parish Hall honored the graduates from '39 through '43. These classes were also special guests at the football game after the meal, and saw Miss LaVerne Otto crowned homecoming queen before the game.

Weather cooperated to make the entire program a pleasant event. It was almost a perfect night. And the huge crowd at the game loved the Tigers just as much as though they had been on the winning end of the 28 - 6 score with the Bishop Lynch Friars of Dallas. To end festivities there was a dance in the Parish Hall.

Melvin Herr, class of '50, was master of ceremonies at the dinner. He recognized all the honor class members present, briefly told where they live, their occupation and how many children they have.

Tommy Herr, Alumni president, extended welcome, and Father Alcuin gave the invocation. Father Bruno Fuhrmann and Father Alcuin both added short comments. They and Father Andrew Wewer, Father Fintan Oldham and Brother Thomas Moser were special guests at the main table with Alumni officers.

Sister Roberta was in charge of decorations using an autumn theme with leaves and berries for table adornment. Containers were "silver" tin cans artistically arranged to bring out the 25th anniversary note and also to remind students of the honored classes that they attended school in the old "tin university," before the new school was built.

This was further emphasized in a wall display that greeted guests with large tin cans forming T C U on a red background. No one needed to be told it referred to their Alma Mater — the old tin can university. On display were copies of Sacred Heart Mosiacs, the school paper, dating back to 1945, school scrapbooks and copies of the school annual Cordis. Pictures of graduates from 1939 through 1943 lined the wall.

Mrs. Joe Lehnertz was in charge of the banquet menu and Mmes. Virgil Henschel and Tommy Hesse registered guests.

Fifteen graduates of those early classes attended. There were three graduates the first year and two of them, Mrs. Charles Taylor (Lorena Fisher) and Johnny Wimmer were there. Mrs. Clarence Erpelding (Catherine Swirczynski) of Colorado Springs, Colorado, was unable to be present.

Ray Wilde and Marty Klement represented the class of 1940. Miss Helen Hess, Andy Wimmer and Herbie Herr represented the class of 1941.

Five of the class of 1942 were present: Leo Becker, Alfred Bayer, Martin Becker, Mrs. J. D. Caplinger (Miriam Koessler) and Mrs. Andy Wimmer (Cecilia Walterscheid).

Representing the class of 1943 were Mrs. Leo J. Haverkamp (Lucille Wimmer), Mrs. Tony Koessler (Evelyn Wiesman), and Mrs. Henry Spaeth (Marie Felderhoff).

FAIR-PLAY "GUIDELINE" NEEDED

Some time back the Administration issued a "guideline" for contract negotiations that was designed to limit wage increases to the rate of productivity gains — roughly 3 per cent a year.

This was a commendable move to forestall inflationary thrusts and thus keep prices down but organized labor evidently has not even bothered to pay ear service to the proposal. The hard fact is that in far too many cases, unions have hammered out raises, or increased fringe benefits, that have exceeded the 3 per cent "guideline."

The automobile industry settlements, for instance, were as much as 2 per cent over the suggested limit. This even moved a member of the Administration — Treasury Undersecretary Robert V. Roosa — to strongly protest the action as being bad for the U. S. payments deficit, and thus harmful to the general economy.

The deplorable part of the situation is that two very important segments of society—consumers and investors—are not getting a decent shake. When organized labor is allowed to swallow up the entire productivity gain, and more, there is no chance for the consumer to benefit by lower prices or for the investor to get a fairer return on the money he risks.

Since it is the capital provided by investors and the money spent by consumers that makes possible the employment of labor, another "guideline" ascribing to them a deserved share of the productivity gains, is certainly needed.

TOWER OF BABEL CRISIS

Difficult as it may be to believe, in view of the consistent and persistent efforts of our UN Ambassador Stevenson to make concessions and accommodations to the Russians, high-level mutterings have been reported from the State Department itself which suggest that Uncle Sam the UN's favorite patsy from its very inception, will get tough if the Russians continue their reiterated refusal to pay their assessments for UN "peace-keeping" operations.

Not only are we continuing to insist on enforcement of Article 19 of the UN Charter, under which a nation over two years behind in its assessments (as the USSR now is) loses its vote in the General Assembly; but the horrible thought has now been raised that perhaps we ought to take a hard, second look at some of the assessments levied against us and do some withholding on our own account!

The latter is the gist of a statement by Harlan Cleveland, Assistant Secretary of State for International Organization Affairs. It takes the position, for the first time so far as we can recall, that if the General Assembly considers that assessments are binding on some nations and optional on others, we may have to decide "that we don't pay for things we don't like."

Nor should we have long to wait to see how this little drama works out since the assessment showdown should come with the opening of the General Assembly on December 1. Will the new Kremlin gang and our Ambassador Adlai, who at last report still winces at the thought of pressure-be a match for the rising pulse-rate in the State Department. We shall wait and see with considerable interest.

In the meantime, as the UN faces a combination of insolvences and rising budgets for 1965, the great American taxpayer from whom an inordinate share of the UN's blessings flow may well ponder the effectiveness and value of this debating society that can't collect its dues and assessments, and in the face of $134 million deficit calmly present a 1965 budget proposal of $104 million!

If it's worth saving, the US had better get tough. Who else?

MOST HECTIC CAMPAIGN

What has probably been the most hectic election of the century is ended. President Lyndon Johnson has been elected to a four-year term, and the "conservative" uprising appears to have been quelled, perhaps for all time.

And the pollsters, who took such a shellacking only a few short months ago, today have regained their standing as prophets.

Since President Johnson is clearly the victor, it is expected that he will push ahead with the "great society," which is his substitute for the "New Frontier" of John F. Kennedy. Even before the election, it was predicted that he would start demanding immediate enactment of the previously-rejected Medicare program, which is one step closer to completely socialized medicine. There also is indication that other increases in federal spending will be pushed, but with no hint of an attempt to balance the budget and restore fiscal responsibility in government.

But, had Goldwater won an unexpected victory at the polls, there is great doubt that he would have been successful in any great reduction in government spending, since he would have faced a hostile Congress and a mammoth bureaucracy which is locked into the government by the civil service system.

Even had Mr. Goldwater attempted to reduce government services — had he been elected — it is doubtful he would have been successful, unless there had been a tremendous change in the thinking of the American people, a turn toward self-reliance and self-responsibility.

For until Americans decide they can take care of their own problems without relying on some government agency, there will be no change in the trend toward more and more collectivism, more and more irresponsibility in and out of government.

Regardless of who won the election, the return of the United States toward sanity depends on the thinking of each individual.

Unless there is a drastic change — and soon — the people of the United States are headed for chaos, whether under a Democrat or a Republican administration.

While doing his third-grade arithmetic homework, Jimmy overheard his father remark, "That's as certain as two and two make four."

"Now, Dad, isn't that idea a bit old-fashioned?" Jimmy asked. Then he continued, "To express properly the sum of two and two, one must first decide on the numeration system to be used. In the decimal system, or in any system down through the quintuple system, your statement is true, but in a base 4 the sum is 10, in base 3 it is 11, and in the binary base the sum is 100."

BRACE YOURSELF!

Reports from practically all points around the nation where great store is set by the traditional portents embolden us to predict that we are on the threshold of a ring-tailed peeler of a winter!

Woolly bear adherents tell us these harbingers are now appearing in force—not only in heaviest overcoats seen in many a year but in a very good imitation of leopard in one of our northern states!

Squirrels are said to be on the verge of nervous breakdown from overwork, and oystermen from New England to the Virginia Capes, who reported on the fatness of the season's first bi-valves, are bracing themselves for bitter cold work in the months ahead with an "R" in them.

So what lies ahead for the rest of us — sniffles and sneezes and runny noses above the usual number — if you don't watch out! More than 20 million Americans will have colds — and more than 125,000 workers will be staying home to nurse them — any winter day you want to name. Since, according to the US Public Health Service, we average one to three colds in a normal year, we can look forward to more than half a billion attacks this season — at a cost of more than $5 billion in lost production, lost wages and medical expense.

And, since the medicos assure us we are no smarter (about colds) in the missile age than in the horse-and-buggy days, the only protection against a cold is not catching it! Theoretically, this is done by dressing for that cold weather we've been warned of, keeping our feet dry, avoiding chilling, over-heating and weariness. Also, you might carry a rabbit's foot.

And when that cold catches YOU, anyway, don't just suffer — DO something. Take a good, time-tested antitoxin medication, or see your doctor, or both.

Even when colds can't be avoided, proper treatment can minimize discomfort and play an important part in preventing them from developing into more dangerous diseases such as laryngitis, bronchitis, sinusitis and pneumonia — which often follows.

Whatever you do, don't take any stock in that yarn about the mythical doctor who exposes his cold patients to pneumonia — because he knew how to cure that!

Nine-Year-Old Is Birthday Honoree

Ninth birthday of Beverly Walterscheid was celebrated after school with a party for which her mother, Mrs. Julian Walterscheid, was hostess at the family home. Little cousins and aunts and grandmothers joined the honoree and her sisters and brothers and some friends for birthday cake and other refreshments. They sang the happy birthday song and presented a shower of gifts to Beverly. The children enjoyed games and party favors.

Club Plans Yule Cheer for State Hospital Patients

Muenster Home Demonstration Club members are planning Christmas cheer for patients at the state hospital in Wichita Falls. They'll bring gifts to their December meeting which will be a Christmas party and pack the items for shipment.

This was decided at the club's November meeting Wednesday when 12 members were present in the home of Mrs. Ray Klement.

Guest for the meeting was Mrs. C. M. Greek of Gainesville, THDA chairman for Cooke County. She gave a report on the state THDA meeting which she attended in Houston in September.

Mrs. Henry Pick, vice president, presided for the meeting and introduced the guest speaker. Later she presented her a gift of country sausage from the club.

It was announced that the county council meeting in December will include a Christmas party.

For the local Yule party members will meet at the home of Mrs. Tony Wimmer on December 9. In addition to bringing gifts for the patients, members will bring gifts for an exchange among themselves.

After adjournment Mrs. Klement served pumpkin pie and coffee. A thanksgiving theme was carried out in home decorations.

Mass and Reunion For Dangelmayr's 25th Anniversary

Silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Dangelmayr was observed Nov. 14, date of the wedding, with an anniversary mass attended by the family. Offering the mass was Bishop Augustine Dangelmayr who performed the wedding ceremony for his brother and Miss Elfreda Walterscheid 25 years ago.

The mass, with the family together, was the extent of the observance planned by the couple. But they were in for surprises.

Sunday evening their children were hosts for dinner and a reunion for which brothers and sisters of the couple were present. They took the party to the honoree's home. And they took gifts. Thirty were there.

Mr. and Mrs. Dangelmayr are both natives of Muenster, the son and daughter of prominent pioneer residents.

After their wedding they set up housekeeping in a new native rock home eight miles northeast of Muenster. They still live in the same home but it has been moved four miles northwest of town. The location of Camp Howze during World War II made the move necessary.

The silver-weds have four children: Billy Joe who is married to the former Charlotte Schilling, Betty Ann who is Mrs. Donald Trubenbach, Paul who is married to the former Patsy Klement, and Joey who is at home. They have three grandchildren, Janet and Tommy Dangelmayr and Donna Trubenbach.

Mr. Dangelmayr's brothers and sisters are Bishop Dangelmayr, Joe and Albert Dangelmayr, Mrs. Hubert Felderhoff, Mrs. Tony Felderhoff and Mrs. Bruno Fleitman.

Mrs. Dangelmayr's brothers and sisters are Adolph and Joe Henry Walterscheid, and Mmes. Gertrude Bayer, Johnny and Martin Bayer, and John H. Wimmer. Mr. and Mrs. Mike Schilling also attended the party. All are of Muenster.

Attendants at the wedding in 1939 were his brother Albert Dangelmayr and her sister Olivia, Mrs. John H. Wimmer.

Tigerettes Split Double Header With Alvord Gals

Walter Wolf and his Sacred Heart Tigerettes broke even Thursday night in a double header with Alvord High's girls on the local court.

First stringers were smashed 59-24 by the visiting girls and the B team won 23-18.

The opening contest was a slow moving deadlock through the first half, 4-4 at the quarter and 11-11 at the half. After that it was still slow but Sacred Heart took the lead, 23-17 and 23-18 ending the last two quarters. Tigerette scorers were Cathy Derichweiler 14, Angie Hess 5, Mary Knabe 5.

Next game was one sided for three quarters. Leading 53-15 the visitors turned it over to their reserves and Sacred Heart gained for the final score of 59-24. Mary Wimmer hit 14 and Barbara Schmitt 9 for the Tigerettes.

Eight political parties had candidates in the presidential campaign of 1908.

Garden Club Has Tea and Tour at Colonial Acres

Highlight of the entertainment program for members of District II Texas Garden Clubs meeting in Gainesville last week was a trip to Muenster for a tour of Colonial Acres Farm and a tea in Colonial Manor with Mrs. Ernest Medders as hostess.

Tour of the farm was conducted by Bill Oliver, farm manager, and a tour of the grounds was conducted by Harvey Woolfolk and Marvin Davenport.

Mrs. Medders received guests in her home where a beautiful tea table had been arranged in pink and red, featuring roses for decorations. Silver appointments were used with Mrs. Carl Webb of Dallas, niece of Mrs. Medders, and Mrs. Ray Evans presiding for lovely refreshments.

There were 50 garden clubbers and most of them made a tour of the Medders home. Assisting the guests through the house were Mmes. Dick Cain, Earl Fisher and J. M. Weinzapfel.

Before they left, guests were presented brochures, "The Story of Fabulous Colonial Acres Farm." It pictures the home, the animals — Red and Black Angus cattle and Appaloosa horses — the trophies won, the employees and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Medders. The story tells how Colonial Acres Farm started as a hobby, turned into a business.

Three local Garden Club members joined the district members at an afternoon demonstration in Gainesville during the convention. Attending that part of the program were Mmes. Joe Luke, Earl Fisher and Ernest Medders.

Thirteen Report For Practice in Tiger Basketball

With their football duds packed away, Adam Wolf and the Sacred Heart Tigers are in the basketball business. They got started Monday, thirteen boys including six lettermen reporting for the first practice.

The other lettermen did well as reserves and should be ready to take over the main job. The other lettermen are Ray Wimmer, Donny Rohmer, Willie Wimmer, Larry Hess and Leon Endres.

Rookies on the squad are Steve Kralicke, John Streng, Ted Endres, Steve Hess, Dwayne Hess, Gilbert Hess and Stanley Endres.

burg kicked and promptly intercepted a Hornet pass. Muenster intercepted and kicked to end its next series.
 The rest of the first half Callisburg did all of the gaining, but not enough to score. First it made two first downs and kicked on the next series. Four plays later Muenster kicked and the visitors launched another drive from their 16. It made 73 yards in 8 plays and ran out of time on the Hornet 11. Big gainers along the way was a 43 yard run by Cash, stopped by Wimmer on the Muenster 27.
 Starting the second half the Hornets came back strong, held Callisburg on the first series, and started moving. On third play of the series Wimmer went 48 to the goal but an off-side penalty spoiled the play. Next one however was a pass to Stormer for 17 to the Wildcat 34. Four more plays did the job. A short one for 4, Stormer for 7, Wimmer for 13 and Stormer for the final 10. Roy Hartman followed over for bonus points.
 After that the Wildcats kicked on their first series, recovered a Muenster fumble and went all the way. Four plays gained 33 to the 10. Next 3 lost 13 and the Wildcat chance looked slim. But a fourth down pass to Dotson was good for the big 23 yards to pay dirt. Cash went over for extra points. Muenster led 16-8, 1:01 minute before the third quarter ended.
 In the fourth quarter neither team made any progress until about the last four minutes when Muenster started clicking again. Wimmer stepped off 31 and Stormer on the next three plays made 20, 6 and 4 for the final Muenster touchdown. Hartman made extra points again.
 But the game still wasn't over. On first play after kickoff Dotson took a long pass from Cash and went all the way to the goal. The total gain was 62 yards. Cash added 2 points for the 24-16 score.
 In the closing moments Muenster threatened again. First play after kickoff Wimmer went 34 to the Wildcat 20 but the next four plays fizzled just before time ran out.

ed in the thrilling interception and return, was salted away for keeps moments after the second half opened. The Tigers kicked to end their first series, and Lawrence returned the kick about 60 yards for the second TD. A run failed and the score stood at 14-0.
 After the next kickoff Sacred Heart made 20 on two passes and failed on the next series. Bishop Lynch made two first downs and fizzled on the third series. For the rest of the quarter neither team made a first down but as the last period opened the visitors were starting on their third TD. Two plays gained 12 to the Friar 35. That's where speedster Lawrence got going again and was finally bumped out on the Tiger 8 — a gain of 57 yards. Two more plays made 5 and 2 and Mills crashed over for the last yard. Colgin made bonus points.
 Final Friar TD was set up by an interception on the Tiger 31. Six plays made it from there and the last 12 was made by Ratcliffe.
 After that the Bishop Lynch little fellows had their chance — and Sacred Heart finally got its chance. After the final kickoff the Tigers went 67 yards in 11 plays and five first downs for their only score. On the scoring play Steve Kralicke scooted around left end for a 10 yard gain.

We sometimes borrow from neighbors, too

... and they borrow from us.

One of the means by which Texas Power & Light Company keeps your electric service dependable and economical is a system of interconnections with the facilities of other Texas power companies.

While TP&L maintains ample power for its customers, emergency situations such as storms, floods and other disasters sometimes cause damage which brings about a need for assistance. In such instances, TP&L, through the interconnection of its transmission lines with those of other Texas power companies, is able to borrow power, just as they are able to borrow from TP&L during similar emergencies.

In order to assure its customers of ample power at all times, TP&L is constantly planning and building ahead. For example, the Company is now constructing a 500,000-kilowatt addition to its Stryker Creek Plant. Large units such as this provide greater economy because they cost less per kilowatt to build and operate.

Thus, through interconnections ... and in other ways ... TP&L is constantly ready to meet your present electric power needs and preparing to meet your needs in the years ahead.

Fuhrmanns Attend Blessing of Cross Rites in Subiaco

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Fuhrmann had one more visit and a final farewell with their son, Brother Louis Fuhrmann, before he left Arkansas for Africa. They — and other members of the family — attended the ceremony of blessing the mission crosses last Thursday night in the Abbey Church at Subiaco.

Brother Louis and his missionary companion to Nigeria, Brother Paul Halliburton, received the blessed crosses from Abbot Michael Lensing in a 7:30 p.m. ritual attended by priests and brothers of the monastery and students of the College-Academy.

Other relatives of Brother Louis present were the Diamond Fuhrmanns and Joann, the Harold Nortmans and Mrs. Ray Hess and son Jeff. The Halliburton family was there from Fort Smith and they all got acquainted. Tommy Hess, a student at the academy, joined his mother and other relatives in the service and later for visiting.

The two missionaries left Arkansas Friday, Father Christopher taking them to Houston on the first lap of their trip by freighter to Eleme.

Present from out of town were the Harold Neus and family of Madill, Okla., the Jerome Neus and two sons of Fort Worth and the Al Walterscheids of Muenster.

FATHER PETER SHEA

6-Day Mission in Lindsay Church Starts Dec. 6

The Reverend Peter Shea of the Paulist Mission Unit of Austin, will conduct a mission at St. Peter's Church, Lindsay, beginning Sunday, December 6, and ending Friday, December 11. This was announced this week by Father John Walbe, pastor of the church.

Morning Masses during the mission will be at 6:15 and 7:35. Each Mass will be followed by a brief instruction. Evening services beginning at 7:30, will consist of mission prayers, a question period, sermon and Benediction. During the question period, the missioner will answer questions put into a specially prepared box by those attending the service. During the week, Father Shea will hear confessions each day, and be available for personal consultations. Father Shea is a native of Brooklyn, New York. He received his college and seminary training at St. John's University in Brooklyn and in Washington, D. C. He was ordained in 1962. Since then, he has conducted Inquiry Forums in Boston and was an assistant pastor in Austin, Texas.

Father John, pastor of the church, explained that the purpose of the mission is to strengthen the faith and to increase the religious knowledge of Catholics, and to present the truth about Catholic beliefs and practices to members of other religions. Everyone is invited to attend.

Opening Games End Dismally for Parochial Girls

The Tigerettes of Sacred Heart High ran into lots of trouble in their first try at basketball this season. Playing the girls of Sadler-Southmayd on the local court they were clobbered in both the A and B games. Reserves lost 35 - 10 and first stringers lost 52 - 6.

There are two reasons for the lop-sided scores says Coach Walter Wolf. S & S girls have a good team and Sacred Heart needs practice. The girls had only two practice sessions before they booked the game. They have been working on their half time show at the football games and have not had time for basketball.

Coach Wolf said that more than 40 girls reported for the first practice and he has started an elimination program intending to trim the squad down to a more practical size, about 15 or 20 players.

Probable starters, he said will be Mary Wimmer, Barbara Schmitt and Lavern Otto as forwards; Pauline Fleitman, Jane Hess and Mary K. Luttmer as guards. The three forwards and Fleitman were starters on last year's team.

change. Many roads now miss the towns and in most cases people are glad of it. On the other hand, no one knows either what traffic conditions to expect along Highway 82 in the future. Can anyone be sure that traffic business will actually decline?

Such questions, while unanswerable, are important to the people concerned, but they are not the factors on which the Highway department makes its decisions. The purpose of roads is to provide ways for people to go from one place to another. They are built for the benefit of drivers, not for the benefit of people who want to do business with drivers. The important question, therefore, the one that matters in the long run, is whether the benefits to drivers will justify alternate roads to serve the areas concerned. Apparently the answer is affirmative.
