GREEN SEDAN WITHOUT LICENSE PLATE STIRS OFFICER'S CURIOSITY

Maybe the people driving a green Chevrolet sedan without any license plates, who were stopped by state highway patrolmen in Brownwood Sunday afternoon, were not connected with the Lindbergh baby kidnapping but their actions excited the curiosity of the patrolmen and other people who saw the patrolmen stop the car.

Spitale Children Threatened

NEW YORK, March 10.—(AP)—The Evening Post says the two children of "Salvy" Spitale, who was appointed to act as go-between for the possible return of the kidnaped Lindbergh baby, have been threatened with kidnapping as reprisal for Spitale's efforts.

Spitale in Court

NEW YORK, March 10.—(AP)—The Brooklyn Eagle said today two of 16 men brought into federal court to face trial for conspiracy to smuggle liquor were Salvatore Spitale and Irving Bliz, the men with alleged underworld connections named by the Lindberghs as co-conspirators in the kidnaping case.

Rumors Denied

The following question was sent to police over the special teletype system: "Reports from Bridgeport, Conn. are to effect that baby was found in Westport, Conn. by Sheriff Thomas Reilly and County Detective William Kearns. Taken to a hospital in Norwalk and Gov. Moore will announce recovery tomorrow. Reason for withholding baby, too ill to be removed home. Is this report true?"

The idea occurs that since the new highways into Brownwood are making their appearance...

Brownwood is going to have some of the best highways in the state, and every possible effort should be made to give the impression to visitors who use our roads...

Short Selling

THE question whether or not a man ought to be permitted to sell stock that he does not own is evidently about to become one of the leading issues of the day.

The administration at Washington wants the right restricted officials of the New York Stock Exchange oppose this plan. And the ordinary man, vaguely distrustful of both politicians and stockbrokers, does not always have a very clear notion of what all the shooting is about.

Short-selling is one of those ingenious devices that only a race of very clever traders could ever have thought of. It works like this: You order your broker to sell for you a certain quantity of some stock.

Obviously, the only way in which this is going to be profitable for you is for the price of the stock to decline between the time you make your original sale and the time you have to buy stock to cover your borrowing.

The short-seller, consequently, is interested in seeing prices decline. He thrives on calamity. Frequently, when he sells in large enough quantities, he brings about the very decline that he is looking for.

Stock market experts insist that this custom has its uses. It tends, they say, to keep prices from rising above a reasonable relationship to real values; it tends to keep declines from going to undue extremes, since the "shorts," sooner or later, must buy heavily. It gives the market a needed flexibility.

But its possible abuses are obvious. Unless a very well-reasoned defense can be set up, the general public will probably agree that a curb is needed.

UNITED ACTION CAMPAIGN IS GETTING GOOD RESULTS

NEW YORK, March 10—(AP)—The united action campaign for a million jobs for the jobless approached the one-fifth mark today. Eighty-four communities in 29 states reported yesterday that posts had been obtained for 7,495 wage earners. That brought the total to 184,812. Pennsylvania's 3,161 was the largest state total for the day.

TEXAS AND TEXANS

By WILL H. MAYES

Austin, Texas

"All Texans for all Texas"

Business Picks Up

Business in most lines is always a bit dull in January and February in Texas. One reason for that is that the Christmas holiday season always causes heavy expenditures and the big bills of January bring about economy resolutions. The tax payments coming at this time of the year, throw large sums out of the usual current of circulation and it takes time for this money to get back into the channels of trade.

Small Towns Dwindling

That many small towns are deteriorating has to be admitted. It is too evident to be denied, and the reasons are known to all people, unless it is to those directly responsible for conditions. Good roads, stable and changing business conditions have much to do with loss of business in the small towns, but much of it is attributable to the non-progressive nature of the small-town merchant, his unwillingness to keep step with the times, his indifference to advertising, his general listlessness and readiness to "let things drift" as they will.

Pictures For Tourists

An Eastern tourist, who has recently visited many of the important places in Texas, writes to ask why it is that pictures of Texas scenes, and especially Texas bluebonnets, are not on sale in Texas hotels, where tourists may purchase them in quantity. Why not? In many sections of the country, the leading hotels have their own art galleries, where pictures of the section may be bought, as well as souvenirs and curios. Many tourists make collections of these and take pleasure in showing them to their friends. The Texas hotels are losing fine opportunities for giving Texas publicity of a kind that will attract patrons to them.

Take Them Down

In some counties the commissioners have notified candidates that they must not post their pictures and announcements on the roadsides, thus littering up the country and the roads. They should go further and apply the rule to billboards. If billboards have any value—which is doubtful—it is created by the roads. If they cannot be removed from the highways, perhaps they might be taxed for highway maintenance. It is an accepted principle that those who profit from a government agency should contribute to its support.

Tax Collections Increase

The San Marcos Record says that Hays county tax collections this year have been larger than usual, and to the surprise of collectors the same has been true in many other Texas counties. Evidently there must be more money in the country. Perhaps the money that Hoover says the people have been hoarding has been stored away for paying taxes.

Airplanes Hunting Hoardings

The Texas committee that is assisting in getting hoarded money in circulation is hunting the stored treasure in an airplane. At least it is expediting its search by using a plane to visit the principal cities of the State in its efforts to create interest in getting money out of its hiding places.

More Hogs and Better

A survey of the country around San Antonio having shown that only about ten per cent of the farms are stocked with enough hogs to supply the farmer's families with meat, the Chamber of Commerce has arranged to purchase pure-bred gilt by the car-load and sell them to farmers at a cost of $10 to $11 each, the actual car-load cost.

Selling Kerrville Lands

That real estate is "pecking up" is shown in the reported sale of a half interest in 9,386 acres lying in Kerr and Kimble counties for a consideration of $71,800. A number of other large sales have been made in the "Hill Country" in recent weeks.

Mexican Trade Increase

From Washington comes the statement that the 11,572 Mexicans who returned to Mexico from this country last year through the ports of Villa Acuna and Piedras Negras took with them numerous household appliances heretofore unknown in that country and are creating a new demand there for many articles not in general use among the people. Texas trade should profit by this.

Texas Poet Laureate

Judd Mortimer Lewis, for so many years the beloved poet and columnist of the Houston Post, has been officially declared "Poet Laureate of Texas" and honor worthily won and that will be as worthy worn.

Goldthwaite

Burglars have been pretty busy in this county for the past week. On Tuesday night of last week the D. A. Jesse store at Star was entered. The knob was knocked off the safe and $13 in money was taken.

The Star bank building which is only used as an office was entered and the knob knocked off the safe, but nothing taken as the safe could not be opened. This is the second time an attempt to rob the safe has been made since the bank was closed.

The door of Shelton's Cash and Carry store was entered, but Mr. Shelton, sleeps in his store and when he appeared with his shotgun the burglars ran off.

Jim Tom Brown's store at Molline was burglarized the same night and John Kuykendall's store and post-office was burglarized. They got some canned goods and confections, also Mr. Kuykendall's shotgun. Then on Monday night of this week Mr. Stewart's store at Caradan was burglarized and an attempt was made to enter Mohler Oglesby's store at Center City, but the burglars were frightened away before they got anything. However, Mr. Oglesby's cash drawer was robbed only a few days ago.

Officers are doing all they can to get some clue as to who the guilty persons are, but nothing definite has developed.

On Wednesday of last week an old man, about seventy years old, and giving his name as J. E. Lane, was arrested on the railroad right-of-way near Scallorn and brought to the jail here to see if he could be identified by the man who was so severely cut in a difficulty near the stock pen here Tuesday of last week. He was identified as being the man. The old man carried two suits of Curly clothes which he had evidently gotten from some store. Both the injured man and the one who did the cutting are still in jail.

You are requested to see those interested in these waivers and secure their cooperation before applying for a loan. Also bring with you a list of the crops you planted last year and the year before last and the name of the survey the land is in that you are farming this year. A GLOOMY PICTURE OF WORLD IS PAINTED, BUT IT WAS 75 YEARS AGO

From George F. McKay, president of the McKay Motor Parts Company of this city. The Bulletin has received an interesting comment on the conditions of the country. Here is the picture as it is painted: "In France the political caldron seethes and bubbles with uncertainty; Russia hangs, as usual, like a cloud, dark and silent upon the horizon of Europe; while all the energies, resources and influences of the British Empire are sorely tried, and are yet to be tried more severely, in coping with the vast and deadly Indian insurrection, and with its disturbed relations in China.

JUDGE HOLMES SAYS FAREWELL TO LIFE ON 91ST BIRTHDAY

WASHINGTON, March 9.—(AP)—Oliver Wendell Holmes on his 91st birthday spoke a farewell to life. To a distinguished company gathered to honor the great jurist at dinner last night he sent formal regrets that he could not attend, but he supplemented these in a separate message: "Your kind invitation for March 8 has been answered, I believe, in due form. But I cannot say farewell to life and you in formal words. Life seems to me like a Japanese picture which our imagination does not allow to end with the margin. We aim at the infinite and when our arrow falls to earth it is in flames.

GERMANY PREPARING FOR ANY EMERGENCY IN SUNDAY ELECTION

BERLIN, March 10.—(P)—Government officials prepared today for any eventuality which might follow Sunday's presidential election, even a general revolt of Adolph Hitler's national socialists. Some uneasiness developed yesterday over the possibility of an uprising of the Nazis in case the election goes against them. Two Hitlerite engineers, Theodore Eickel and F. Kemmet, were arrested at Ludwigsfelde, charged with illegally manufacturing 80 bombs. An editorial in the Nazi newspaper at Halle declared there must be no second balloting even if Sunday's election brings no absolute majority for any of the four candidates.

Police chiefs throughout the country assured the people that they were ready to prevent any illegality even if it became necessary to use the strongest measures. Newspapers have been forbidden to post election results in their windows next Sunday or to project them on lantern screens. Citizens have been urged to sit in the safety of their homes and listen to the election returns over the radio. President Von Hindenburg's only campaign speech will be a radio broadcast from his study tonight.

Final Rites For John Philip Sousa Due Be Held Today

WASHINGTON, March 10.—(P)—In the setting of his earliest triumphs, final honors were brought today to John Philip Sousa. His family assembled with a group of distinguished musicians and government officials to attend the funeral, late this afternoon, of the great bandmaster and composer. The marine band, which he conducted forty and more years ago, formed with company of soldiers and sailors to escort Sousa's body from its own bandstand where the casket rested in state two days, to the grave at congressional cemetery.

ALL BUT FOUR OF 48 ARRESTED IN DETROIT RIOT RELEASED TODAY

DETROIT, March 10.—(P)—All but four of the 48 persons arrested in connection with the riot at the Ford Motor Company plant Monday were released today on orders of the prosecutor's investigators. Before being released they were served with subpoenas to appear before the Wayne county grand jury which next Monday will start an investigation of the riot. The bodies of the four victims of the riot remained in the county morgue unclaimed by relatives today while members of the Detroit communist party worked on plans for a mass funeral Saturday.

Lower Prices, High Standard In Men's Clothes

"The laws of compensation have made it not only more important than ever to get up appearances these days but have also made it easier to attain that end," said Mr. Rufus Stanley of the firm of Hopper & Stanley. Continuing he said: "This is consummated through the fact that finer fabrics and slighter patterns have been developed in the spring apparel notwithstanding that prices are easier than we've known in years. Such strange price marks greet the spring buyer that the men of habitually high quality ideals are, at first blush, incredulous that these new figures can meet old standards. But they do. In fact both mills and makers have put their utmost into their products at close prices to get their volume expectations during a period of intense competition. And, of course, you Mr. Reader will gain the benefit by being able to dress up to your standards even though you've trimmed down your spending budget."

Decision Of Lower Courts Upheld On Full Crew Dispute

AUSTIN, March 10.—(P)—The supreme court has refused to review decisions of lower courts holding that steam railroads are not required to man their gasoline and electric-propelled trains with a full crew of four men. The higher court refused a writ of error in the case of the railroad commission versus the Texas and New Orleans Railway Company, wherein the trial court and the civil appeals court found that the full crew law applied only to steam propelled trains. The law requires steam trains to be operated with a full crew of engineer, fireman, conductor and brakeman. The attorney general's department under a former administration ruled that the full crew law applied to motor trains as well as steam trains and the Railroad Commission ordered the Texas and New Orleans Railway Company to comply. The suit to determine the law's meaning as applied to motor trains was instituted.

LIGHT SNOW FALLS TODAY

A very light snow was falling in Brownwood this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The snow had been falling for some time following a slight drop in temperature after the weather had been warmer during the morning than it had been for several days. Although snow is unusual in March, this is by no means the first time snow has fallen here during that month. A light snow fell here the first day of March last year. The latest which now ever know to fall in this section, fell on April 14, 1928, according to records. Minimum temperature for Wednesday night was 21 degrees, which is three degrees higher than the Tuesday night temperature of 19 degrees, the coldest of the winter. March, the month supposed to open the spring season, has brought the coldest weather of this winter. The cold weather came in March after the winter months had been warm. Fruit trees were already in bloom and flowers and grass were turning green when the cold weather started.

House Committee Votes To Unseat Granata, Illinois

WASHINGTON, March 10.—(UP)—A House elections subcommittee today voted to unseat Representative Granata, republican, Illinois, and declared his democratic contestant, Stanley Kunz, legally elected. The committee declined to reveal the vote, but it was understood to have been a strictly party division with all democrats favoring Kunz. The report of the elections subcommittee will be presented to the House Monday as a privileged document. However, it is not expected that a vote will be taken until after the tax bill is passed. It was regarded as certain that the House would uphold the committee's decision as election contest votes usually have been decided along strict party lines. The recount which the committee accepted showed a majority of 1,185 in favor of Kunz. The canvassing board's report which the governor of Illinois accepted in giving Granata his credentials gave a 1,171 majority to Granata.

PRISONER AT NEW ORLEANS MURDERS TWO

NEW ORLEANS, March 9.—(AP)—A negro prisoner arrested for robbery, grabbed a policeman's pistol in the twelfth precinct police station today, shot and killed two officers, wounded another and a negro, trusty, before he was shot and overpowered in a cell after holding more than a hundred policemen at bay for more than an hour. The negro, Percy Thompson, was being led to a cell on the upper floor by Policeman Cornelius Ford, but when they reached the cell door, the negro jerked the officer's pistol out of the holster and shot and killed him. Hearing the shooting, Corporal George Weidert rushed in with a riot gun and was dropped dead by a bullet from the negro's pistol. Policeman Albert Oestricher then approached with a drawn pistol but the negro shot him down with a bullet in the stomach. The negro then seized the two pistols and gun dropped by the policeman, barricaded himself in the cell and shouted: "Come and get me."

Suit To Test Texas Contract Carrier Law Filed Thursday

AUSTIN, March 10.—(P)—Suit attacking the contract carrier truck law passed by the 42nd legislature was filed in 126th district court today by Cathey and Carrell, the Bilbo Transportation Company, A. E. Robinson and Frank Patterson of Dallas. Plaintiffs alleged the law was unconstitutional because it abridged the right of contract; gave the Texas Railroad Commission too much discretion in determining what constituted "necessary service"; legislated the plaintiffs out of business and amounted to confiscation of their property. The petition asked a writ of mandamus to compel the Railroad Commission to issue the plaintiffs a permit to operate and an injunction to restrain the commission from interfering with operation of the plaintiffs' trucks. Hearing on the application for writ of mandamus and injunction was set for March 17th.

Jersey Finds New Fashion Favor

Fine, tightly knitted jersey, of ser or woolen holds new prestige for spring in both "high" style and medium priced collections. It was first presented for Southern resort wear and seems to be a hold-over for spring, and summer as well. It is most popular in white and delicately tinted pastels, or white and colored combinations, and is handled exactly like a crepe. Paradoxically, it is used for one-piece sport frocks and is also a leading evening fashion. It is fashionably lustreless, and its best style feature is its beautiful draping quality.

KIDNAPING OF DETROIT YOUTH AROUSED CITY

DETROIT, March 9.—(P)—Late in the afternoon of Monday, September 30, 1929, Mrs. Henry M. Thompson heard a scream from her five-year-old son, Jackie, playing at the curb in front of the Thompson's Lindsay Avenue home. She rushed to the window in time to see a green sedan speeding down the street. Jackie had disappeared. Frantic, Mrs. Thompson telephoned her husband, a well-to-do real estate operator. He notified the police immediately and the preliminary chain of events which followed—climaxing in the dramatic return of Jackie nearly a month later, the payment of $17,000 ransom, and the eventual capture of the abductors—closely parallels the circumstances surrounding the kidnaping of Charles Augustus Lindbergh, Jr., from the Hopwell, N. J., home of the famous flyer. Glandrup was searched. Known gang leaders were questioned and even asked to aid in recovering the child. Police guards were thrown about the Thompson home—and then suddenly withdrawn, that the abductors might deal directly with Thompson. Outside law agencies were called in, and Detroit, more or less accustomed to frequent kidnapings of bootleggers and racketeers, was aroused by the kidnaping of young Jackie Thompson as it had been by no other abduction. Two days after Jackie's disappearance police had arrested several suspects. All clues proved groundless, however, and high police officials admitted they were "up against it." At the end of a week Thompson requested the officials to refrain from questioning him and the guard was withdrawn from around his home. Three weeks passed and the Thompson kidnaping case began to slip from the front pages of Detroit newspapers. Returned On Oct. 24 Then, on the night of October 24—twenty-five days after the kidnaping—a police squadron car drove up in front of the Lindsay Avenue home and returned Jackie Thompson, unharmed and in good health, to his parents. The newspapers the next day announced the arrest of five persons, three men and two women, all charged with the kidnaping. Of these five, only one was detained for trial. Thompson agreed to testify against James Fernando, 39, a used-car dealer who had known Thompson for eight years, and who was one of the five arrested. Fernando had acted as a "go-between." Thompson, for several days prior to Jackie's return, had been negotiating with the kidnapers, receiving letters from outlying postal sub-stations. The general delivery of kidnapers had been reduced to $17,000 ransom, which Thompson had paid. In compliance with the "contract" gone to the Fernando, the money was paid. He was told to call Police, who had raided the home an hour, they found Jack-

COLORADO RIVER BRIDGE COMPLETED

The Colorado River bridge, connecting Brown and McCulloch counties, between Brownwood and Brady on Highway 10, now open to traffic, marks an important step in the Brown county highway projects. This is spoken of by workers in the Texas Highway Department as one of the major bridges of the state.

BIG CLEAN-UP CAMPAIGN AT BANGS ENDED

For the last three days Bangs has been putting on a big clean-up program, states a telephone message received from Bangs Wednesday. The campaign closed with fitting celebration.

Each home was asked to gather up all trash on the premises and put it where it could be easily gotten by trucks designated for that purpose. These trucks were furnished by business men of Bangs, who had been asked to help in the effort to see that their city be made cleaner and more sanitary.

All breeding places for mosquitoes throughout the town was cleaned up, railway right of way cleared, and many truck loads of trash hauled away.

The program was sponsored by Mayor C. B. Palmer, the city council, and the business men of the town.

Wednesday, last day of the campaign, a barbecue was served to the workers at noon at the Coffey Park. The Bangs home demonstration club, led by Mrs. Mabel Coffey, was made responsible for the pies, cakes and salads.

C. B. Palmer furnished the beef, which was barbecued by Carl Hoffington, an expert in that line. The home demonstration club served the dinner. Much praise was given those who furnished and served the excellent dinner and it was suggested that this should be an annual affair.

Messages are being received daily by the I. O. O. F. Smith American Legion Post from Legionnaires in this district stating that they will be in Brownwood next Saturday and Sunday to attend the 17th District Convention.

The local post has completed plans for the entertainment of the crowd of Legionnaires and Auxiliary members expected at the convention, but is still busy working out every detail to make the program the best possible.

Convention headquarters will be at Hotel Brownwood and those attending the meeting will register there. Teas for the Auxiliary members, barbecue for the men, a dance and a special business program are on the program for the two days. A special service has also been planned for Sunday morning.

Newspaper Damage Suit Is Dismissed

Suit of W. E. Bruce vs. Brownwood Printing Company, suit for libel and damages, which has been on the docket of 35th district court since May 21, 1929, was dismissed Monday.

Cowboys

EL PASO, Tex., March 15.—(AP)—One of Texas' oldest and richest cowmen today expressed his scorn of a recent arrival on the range—the "dodge ranch" cowboy.

W. P. H. McFaddin, 76 of Beaufort, Texas, who says he has been a cowboy 70 years, snorted contemptuously at the mention of the city-bred species of cowboy.

"You can't call 'em cowboys," he protested. "They don't do anything but loaf around a country club ranch, dancing, drinking and necking the women." McFaddin himself doesn't drink, smoke or go to Juarez.

"But I like the ladies," he grinned. "You know," mused the powerfully-built, gray-haired cowman, "that is the trouble with so many cowboys. They don't know how to handle cows because they don't know anything about women. You should treat cattle gently, like women."

HARRY POWERS HOPES WANNING

MOONSVILLE, W. Va., March 17.—(AP)—Harry P. Powers said today his counsel plans to carry to the United States supreme court the mass killer's fight to escape the gallows tomorrow night.

In a reply to a query as to whether he and his attorney will ask the highest court to intervene, Powers replied only "yes," and then denied again he killed Mrs. Dorothy Pressler Lemke of Northboro, Mass.

The round "Mail Order Romeo" seemingly more interested in other things than the fight for his life, said he has composed a song. He did not disclose its nature, nor even the title.

It is to be copyrighted, he said, and the proceeds from its sales are to go to his wife—or widow.

MOONSVILLE, W. Va., March 17.—(AP)—Hope waning for a stay of execution, Harry P. Powers, reputed killer of Quiet Dell, paced his cell in death row today and decried the law which allows capital punishment.

The state supreme court at Charleston yesterday refused to intervene in his case. Judge William Baker of the United States district court at Clarkburg denied a writ of habeas corpus. Two things may intervene to stay the hanging, set for tomorrow night. The Governor may grant a reprieve or a writ of superdeces may be granted to allow an appeal to the United States supreme court.

J. Ed Law, Powers' attorney, contends his client had not had a fair trial that he could not be given a fair trial in Harrison county where he was tried, that the jury was prejudiced and that holding the trial in an opera house was prejudicial.

Powers was sentenced to death on conviction of killing Mrs. Dorothy Pressler Lemke, of Northboro, Mass. He also was indicted but not tried for slaying Mrs. Asta Bulck Eicher and her three children of Park Ridge, Ill. All five bodies were found buried near his Quiet Dell home.

The "Mail Order Romeo" who conducted a matrimonial agency, claims he is innocent, that two other men killed the women and children and buried the bodies near his home for revenge.

EHLINGER NOW IN FULL CHARGE NEW DISTRICT

All highway maintenance and construction work in eight counties in the newly formed highway district with headquarters at Brownwood was taken over by Leo Ehlinger, former resident engineer for Brown county, now engineer in charge of the district, Wednesday, March 16. All foremen and highway workers in the district were ordered to send their reports to Mr. Ehlinger here at Brownwood hereafter, starting Wednesday.

For some time Mr. Ehlinger has been gradually taking over the work of the district, since the announcement of the new district was made February 23. The eight counties in the district are: Brown, Coleman, Comanche, Mills, San Saba, Eastland, Stephens and McCulloch.

Office Personnel

H. A. Wallace, J. L. Helm and C. A. Bradshaw, the three state highway department employees who have been added to the personnel here to help take care of the work connected with the district, have arrived and assumed their duties.

Mr. Bradshaw was maintenance superintendent of district 16 at Corpus Christi and is now chief mechanic of this district.

New Brownwood Citizens

The men of course are making their homes in Brownwood and more than likely continue to live here until all highway work in this district is completed, which will be a long time.

Employees who were already in the county organization, but who were taking positions in the district organization are: Robt. J. Milligan, formerly engineer in Brown county, now assistant to Mr. Ehlinger in the district and Fred C. Drake, from stenographer in the county organization, to stenographer for the district.

Park R. Huntington, formerly assistant resident engineer for the county, now is Brown county resident engineer. Wesley Hall, who has been chief inspector in the resident engineer's organization, now is assistant to Mr. Huntington.

Cross-Examination Fails Testimony Of Barney McGanegal

HOUSTON, March 17.—(AP)—Barney McGanegal, on trial as the slayer of gangster John Cherris, went through a stiff cross-examination by the prosecution today, but stuck to his claims of innocence.

About the most important admission drawn from the ex-convict, who is being tried as a two-time slayer and may not get less than a life sentence if convicted, was that he purchased automobile license plates for McGanegal, who was used in the state conference after McGanegal had shot Cherris in the automobile.

Jack Jones also had said the license plates were bought in the name of "M. R. Moore."

McGanegal admitted buying them under the name of "M. R. Moore," but said he used that name because Jack Jones and C. A. (Keggy) Jones "told me it was for M. R. Moore" and that he bought the plates for the Jones brothers.

Jack Jones, himself under indictment in the slaying, had testified for the prosecution, saying he, Keggy Jones and McGanegal written by the prosecution today, but stuck to his claims of innocence.

Women Policemen Received One Call That Was No Fake

The women policemen who were on duty Saturday when Brownwood Business and Professional Women's Club had charge of the fire for a day, were called out on a case Saturday afternoon they could not handle. The women called for the assistance of regular city policemen and helped with the case to show that they were not afraid.

Saturday afternoon a call from McCulloch avenue arrested two men. The women policemen went on the call. When they reached a house on the street they found that the call was not a joke or fake but a real affray was in progress. The women telephoned policemen who answered and arrested two men.

As a result Johnnie Baugh and Durwood Cates were fined $14.70 each in city court on charges of affray.

Gravel Hauling On Highway 7 Begun

H. K. McCollum Construction Company started hauling and spreading gravel on highway 7 today. The company was given a contract December 1st, 1931, to put a triple asphalt surface on No. 7 from Coleman county line to Brownwood, for $135,812.

The gravel is being started at the Coleman county line and will be brought toward Brownwood. Sub-grade work is also being carried forward.

ONLY 2 OF SIX JAIL BREAKERS NOW AT LARGE

Four of the six prisoners who escaped from Brown county jail early Saturday morning have been caught and are back in jail today. Willie Owens and Roy Turner, each under two years sentence for burglary, are the two who are still at large.

Sheriff M. H. Denman is offering $25 reward each for their capture in Texas and Tarrant county is offering $50 reward each. Owens and Turner are wanted also in Tarrant county on six charges each, according to word received from the sheriff there by Sheriff Denman.

J. L. Presley, held on burglary charges; Clyde Blair, also held on burglary charges; and Hershel Ives, under two years sentence for burglary, are the prisoners who were caught and returned to jail Saturday afternoon and Sunday morning.

Tom Moffitt, under two years sentence for forgery, was the first of the escaped men to be returned to jail. About 6:00 o'clock Saturday morning, after the break was made about 3:00 o'clock, he called officers and asked them to "come and get him."

Recaptured Saturday Evening Presley was caught by county and city officers late Saturday afternoon in a rooming house near the Santa Fe railway. Clyde Blair, who was with him, jumped from a window when he saw the officers and escaped. About 12 o'clock Sunday morning officers scoured the city for him for an hour or two, but did not locate him. Then Blair telephoned from a grocery store on Melwood Avenue to Jailer Barney Ashmore at the jail and asked him to come after him. Ashmore went to where Blair told him over the telephone he would find him, and returned the escaped prisoner to jail.

Ives Found In Bed

Hershel Ives was found about 4:00 o'clock Sunday morning asleep in a bed at the home of friends, about 14 miles east of Brownwood. Officers surprised him while he was asleep and returned him to jail.

The green Roosevelt coupe which was stolen from H. L. Mosley, 307 Melwood Avenue, in Brownwood Saturday morning, was found abandoned about four miles east of Comanche later in the day. Sheriff Denman said today he still believes the jail breakers took the car to make their escape from the city.

Woman Reports Car Abandoned A woman living near where the car was abandoned telephoned officers at Comanche after she had watched the car stop and the men get out and examine it, then start walking down the road. Upon examining the car the officers found the gas tank was dry.

Officers said Monday that Moffitt gave up because he could not find his way out of town after he had become separated from other escaped prisoners. Moffitt was arrested in Waco several weeks ago and local officers in Brownwood learned after he had been indicted on forgery charges. Later in 35th district court he was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary after he pleaded guilty. He was not familiar with the highways and when daylight came Saturday morning and he was still not out of town, he decided to give up, officers say.

Saw Escape Impossible

Blair was hard pressed Saturday afternoon after he made his escape from the rooming house and knew that officers all over the city were looking for him. After he saw that escape was virtually impossible he telephoned and gave himself up, officers also said today.

The jail break call to mind that there is no way in Texas against jail breakers. Of course it is against the law for a person to give tools to prisoners or help them from the outside. The prisoners could be punished for damaging a public building, but nothing else.

Sheriff Denman says he is sure Owens and Turner will be picked up in a little while, since officers over all the state are on the look out for them.

THREE MEN ARRESTED ON COFFEY RANCH BY COLEMAN OFFICERS

COLEMAN, Texas, March 17.—Three men were arrested at the Coffey ranch on the Colorado river near Leaday yesterday by Sheriff Frank Mills and Deputy Sheriff H. T. O'Bar and brought to this city and placed in jail after the H. M. Wireman store at Leaday had been burglarized the night before.

The men are Lester Taylor, Clark Brashers and George Butler. Two claim their homes are in the State of Colorado and the other is from the knowledge of officers said that Brashers formerly lived on the Coffey ranch.

The men had been sleeping in a cotton house at the ranch, officers said. Tuesday night they secured two horses at the ranch without the knowledge or consent of the owners and rode to Leaday. At that small town in the southern part of Coleman county they secured a hacksaw from a blacksmith shop across the road from the Wireman store that was used in sawing bars and gaining entrance to the building.

Loot consisted of three pairs of shoes, a number of shirts, three pairs of trousers, belts, ties, cigarettes, candy and other items. All the loot, found in a sack near the arrest, was recovered and returned to Mr. Wireman.

GERMANY PREPARING FOR ANY EMERGENCY IN SUNDAY ELECTION

BERLIN, March 10.—(AP)—Government officials prepared today for any eventuality which might follow Sunday's presidential election, even a general revolt of Adolf Hitler's national socialists. Some uneasiness developed yesterday over the possibility of an uprising of the Nazis in case the election goes against them. Two Hitlerite engineers, Theodore Eickel and F. Kemmet, were arrested at Ludwigshafen, charged with illegally manufacturing 80 bombs. An editorial in the Nazi newspaper at Halle declared there must be no second balloting even if Sunday's election brings no absolute majority for any of the four candidates.

Police chiefs throughout the country assured the people that they were ready to prevent any illegality even if it became necessary to use the strongest measures. Newspapers have been forbidden to post election results in their windows next Sunday or to project them on lantern screens. Citizens have been urged to sit in the safety of their homes and listen to the election returns over the radio. President Von Hindenburg's only campaign speech will be a radio broadcast from his study tonight.

Final Rites For John Philip Sousa Due Be Held Today

WASHINGTON, March 10.—(AP)—In the setting of his earliest triumphs, final honors were being today to John Philip Sousa. His family assembled with a group of distinguished musicians and government officials to attend the funeral, late this afternoon, of the great bandmaster and composer. ALL BUT FOUR OF 48 ARRESTED IN DETROIT RIOT RELEASED TODAY

DETROIT, March 10.—(AP)—All but four of the 48 persons arrested in connection with the riot at the Ford Motor Company plant Monday were released today on orders of the prosecutor's investigators. Before being released they were served with subpoenas to appear before the Wayne county grand jury which next Monday will start an investigation of the riot. The bodies of the four victims of the riot remained in the county morgue unclaimed by relatives today while members of the Detroit communist party worked on plans for a mass funeral Saturday.

Lower Prices, High Standard In Men's Clothes

"The laws of compensation have made it not only more important than ever to keep up appearances these days but have also made it easier to attain that end," said Mr. Rufus Stanley of the firm of Hopper & Stanley. Continuing he said: "This is consummated through the fact that finer fabrics and slighter patterns have been developed in the spring apparel notwithstanding that prices are easier than we've known in years."

"Such strange price marks greet the spring buyer that the men of habitually high quality ideals are, at first blush, incredulous that these new figures can meet old standards. But they do. In fact both mills and makers have put their utmost into their products at close prices to get their volume expectations during a period of intense competition. "And, of course, you Mr. Reader will gain the benefit by being able to dress up to your standards even though you've trimmed down your spending budget."

Decision Of Lower Courts Upheld On Full Crew Dispute

AUSTIN, March 10.—(AP)—The supreme court has refused to review decisions of lower courts holding that steam railroads are not required to man their gasoline and electric-propelled trains with a full crew of four men. The higher court refused a writ of error in the case of the railroad commission versus the Texas and New Orleans Railway Company, wherein the trial court and the civil appeals court found that the full crew law applied only to steam propelled trains. The law requires steam trains to be operated with a full crew of engineer, fireman, conductor and brakeman. The attorney general's department under a former administration ruled that the full crew law applied to motor trains as well as steam trains and the Railroad Commission ordered the Texas and New Orleans Railway Company to comply. The suit to determine the law's meaning as applied to motor trains was instituted.

LIGHT SNOW FALLS TODAY

A very light snow was falling in Brownwood this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The snow had been falling for some time following a slight drop in temperature after the weather had been warmer during the morning than it had been for several days. Although snow is unusual in March, this is by no means the first time snow has fallen here during that month. A light snow fell here the first day of March last year. The latest which now ever known to fall in this section, fell on April 14, 1928, according to records. Minimum temperature for Wednesday night was 21 degrees, which is three degrees higher than the Tuesday night temperature of 19 degrees, the coldest of the winter. March, the month supposed to open the spring season, has brought the coldest weather of this winter. The cold weather came in March after the winter months had been warm. Fruit trees were already in bloom and flowers and grass were turning green when the cold weather started.

House Committee Votes To Unseat Granata, Illinois

WASHINGTON, March 10.—(UP)—A House elections subcommittee today voted to unseat Representative Granata, republican, Illinois, and declared his democratic contestant, Stanley Kunz, legally elected. The committee declined to reveal the vote, but it was understood to have been a strictly party division with all democrats favoring Kunz. The report of the elections subcommittee will be presented to the House Monday as a privileged document. However, it is not expected that a vote will be taken until after the tax bill is passed. It was regarded as certain that the House would uphold the committee's decision as election contest

PRISONER AT NEW ORLEANS MURDERS TWO

NEW ORLEANS, March 9.—(AP)—A negro prisoner arrested for robbery, grabbed a policeman's pistol in the twelfth precinct police station today, shot and killed two officers, wounded another and a negro trusty, before he was shot and overpowered in a cell after holding more than a hundred policemen at bay for more than an hour. The negro, Percy Thompson, was being led to a cell on the upper floor by Policeman Cornelius Ford, but when they reached the cell door, the negro jerked the officer's pistol out of the holster and shot and killed him. Hearing the shooting, Corporal George Weidert rushed in with a riot gun and was dropped dead by a bullet from the negro's pistol. Policeman Albert Oestricher then approached with a drawn pistol but the negro shot him down with a bullet in the stomach. The negro then seized the two pistols and gun dropped by the policeman, barricaded himself in the cell and shouted: "Come and get me."

Suit To Test Texas Contract Carrier Law Filed Thursday

AUSTIN, March 10.—(AP)—Suit attacking the contract carrier truck law passed by the 42nd legislature was filed in 128th district court today by Cathey and Carrell, the Bill Robinson and Frank Patterson of Dallas. Plaintiffs alleged the law was unconstitutional because it abridged the right of contract; gave the Texas Railroad Commission too much discretion in determining what constituted "necessary service;" legislated the plaintiffs out of business and amounted to confiscation of their property. The petition asked a writ of mandamus to compel the Railroad Commission to issue the plaintiffs a permit to operate and an injunction to restrain the commission from interfering with operation of the plaintiffs' trucks. Hearing on the application for writ of mandamus and injunction was set for March 17th.

Jersey Finds New Fashion Favor

Fine, tightly knitted jersey, of silk or woolen holds new prestige for spring in both "high" style and medium priced collections. It was first presented for Southern resort wear and seems to be a hold-over for spring, and summer as well. It is most popular in white and delicately tinted pastels, or white and colored combinations, and is handled exactly like a crepe. Paradoxically, it is used for one-piece sport frocks and is also a leading evening fashion. It is fashionably lustreless, and its best style feature is its beautiful draping quality.

KIDNAPING OF DETROIT YOUTH AROUSED CITY

DETROIT, March 9.—(AP)—Late in the afternoon of Monday, September 30, 1929, Mrs. Henry M. Thompson heard a scream from her five-year-old son, Jackie, playing at the curb in front of the Thompsons' residence at 1717 E. Thompson. She rushed to the window in time to see a green sedan speeding down the street. Jackie had disappeared. Frantic, Mrs. Thompson telephoned her husband, a well-to-do real estate operator. He notified the police immediately and the preliminary chain of events which followed—climaxing in the dramatic return of Jackie nearly a month later, the payment of $17,000 ransom, and the eventual capture of the abductors—closely parallels the circumstances surrounding the kidnaping of Charles Augustus Lindbergh, Jr., from the Hopwell, N. J., home of the famous flier. Gangland was searched. Known gang leaders were questioned and even asked to aid in recovering the child. Police guards were thrown about the Thompson home—and then suddenly withdrawn, that the abductors might deal directly with Thompson. Outside law agencies were called in, and Detroit, more or less accustomed to frequent kidnapings of bootleggers and racketeers, was aroused by the kidnaping of young Jackie Thompson as it had been by no other abduction. Two days after Jackie's disappearance police had arrested several suspects. All clues proved groundless, however, and high police officials admitted they were "up against it." At the end of a week Thompson requested the officials to refrain from questioning him and the guard was withdrawn from around his home. Three weeks passed and the Thompson kidnaping case began to slip from the front pages of Detroit newspapers. Returned On Oct. 24—Twenty-five days after the kidnaping—a police squadron car drove up in front of the Lindsay Avenue home and returned Jackie Thompson, unharmed and in good health, to his parents. The newspapers the next day announced the arrest of five persons, three men and two women, all charged with the kidnaping. Of these five, only one was detained for trial. Thompson agreed to testify against James Fernando, 39, a used-car dealer who had known Thompson for eight years, and who was one of the five arrested. Fernando had acted as a "go-between," Thompson, for several days prior to Jackie's return, had been negotiating with the kidnapers, receiving letters from outlying postal authorities the general delivery kidnapers had ransom, which had been reduced to $17,000. In ransom, the "company" gone to the Fernando man. He was told a child. Police, who raided the home an hour, they found
