VOLUME XXXIX

MUENSTER, COOKE COUNTY, TEXAS 76252 JANUARY 23, 1976

NUMBER 9

The resignation of John Dunlop as secretary of labor after President Ford vetoed the common site bill was proper in more ways than one. He stated that his position with organized labor was unworkable after the failure of legislation which would have allowed workers to picket an entire construction site even though their dispute involved only one subcontractor. A still better reason is that he is really not qualified for the office in the first place.

The sad fact is that he was obviously biased in a position that should be completely neutral. The man was an appointed official of the government, supposedly impartial to both union and non union workers, but admitted he had lost his usefulness to labor bosses when he failed to promote the law they wanted. That was sufficient reason to justify his resignation.

But far more important is the fact that millions of non-union working people had a raw deal in being represented by a man who was actually hostile to them rather than impartial. The bill which he was urging the president to sign made it possible for bosses of the several trades unions to shut down any construction job until contractors agreed to hire nothing but union members. And once that point was reached they would be in a position to make any demands they wished.

One wonders how long after that it would be until government took over the building industry. How long until other kinds of industry drifted into government control? Other countries have nationalized business when free enterprise was frozen out.

Aside from those possible developments, we ought to observe that Dunlop considered himself as labor's man in the nation's cabinet. But how about the other 80 per cent of workers who do not belong to a union? Isn't it rather absurd that an office which should represent all working people is partial to one fifth of them and biased against the others?

Hopefully the president's veto can become a turning point in a situation that was about to get out of hand. If the law had enabled bosses to require union membership to hold a job, the workers would have become subject to plain dictatorship. A person did as he was told or did not eat.

This is not the American idea of freedom. It is not unionism as started by Gompers and the early labor leaders. They believed in voluntary membership, joining together to work for the good of all, and the officers took their ideas and orders from the membership... not vice versa. The labor movement in this country needs to get back to the same basic principle. Good unions do not need compulsory membership and bad unions do not deserve it.

West Texas Chamber of Commerce directors have come out recently in support of two position papers which they adopted last year in regard to legislation.

The first suggestion proposes a law allowing private enterprise to compete with the postal service in delivering first class mail as a means of improving service as well as reducing the cost. The idea has special appeal now that rates took another substantial jump, however it was in order long before as the prices got higher and the service poorer. All the while it has not been unable to make ends meet even though various other services have thrived and improved. United Parcel Service, though limited in its field, has been going great. So, why not? Let private enterprise try it. If it succeeds we're far better off. If not we haven't lost anything.

The next proposal asks for legislation to reform the Social Security system to allow government insured private enterprise to furnish a way that would preserve and protect people's investment and build a strong safe retirement system. This suggestion too is very timely as a hike of $4.2 billion is suggested for the next fiscal year.

Insurance men have been telling us for years that our present way merely takes from the taxpayer and gives to the beneficiary. There is no accumulation of funds (Continued on page 10)

Special Meeting Plans for Proposed City Reservoir

The proposed reservoir for the Muenster Water District moved a step closer to reality Monday night in a special meeting of representatives of several concerned organizations.

Attending to discuss and plan with the water district board were members of the city council, the city engineer, and personnel of the Soil Conservation Service and Texoma Regional Planning Commission.

2 Tigers Named On TCIL All-State

Two members of the Sacred Heart Tigers were named on the past season's all-state offensive football team of the Texas Catholic Interscholastic League. The dream team roster was received this week from TCIL by Coach Eddie Stock.

Mark Hess and Roger Endres are the two Tiger appointees selected from a field of sixteen teams classified as AA in the league, that is, with an enrollment of 450 or fewer. Another all-state team was selected from the TCIL schools with more than 450 enrollment.

Hess and Endres had been previously named all-district, along with several other Tigers, for District 4-AA. Honors on that team were about evenly divided between Sacred Heart and Notre Dame of Wichita Falls, the only teams in the district.

Student Teacher Assigned to MHS Ag Department

Dennis L. Looney of Sherman an agricultural education major at East Texas State University, has been assigned to the vocational agriculture department of Muenster High School as a student teacher, according to Superintendent L. B. Bruns.

He will be an assistant to Edgar Dyer, vocational ag teacher at MHS. He will be here next week, January 26 through 30 as an observer and will be a student teacher from March 15 through May 13.

Student teaching is part of the experience provided students who are preparing to become vo-ag teachers and professional agriculture workers. According to Dr. A. C. Hughes, head of the ETSU ag department, the students are assigned only to the high school ag departments that are considered to be outstanding.

District Attorney Jerry Woodlock Seeks Re-Election

District Attorney Jerry W. Woodlock of the 235th District authorized The Enterprise to announce this week that he is a candidate for re-election in the coming political campaign.

His formal statement to voters will be presented in a later edition of this paper.

The Men In Service

Army Sergeant Glen J. Beyer completed a primary noncommissioned officers course in Friedberg, Germany, Nov. 28.

Sgt. Beyer received leadership training in long-range patrol operations and tactics.

Sgt. Beyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. Beyer, Lindsay, Texas, is a section chief in Battery C, 2nd Battalion, 27th Field Artillery of the 3rd Armored Division in Friedberg.

He entered the Army in June 1973 and completed basic training at Ft. Ord, Calif. He was stationed at Ft. Sill, Okla., before arriving overseas in April 1975.

The 22-year-old soldier is a 1972 graduate of Lindsay High School and attended Cameron College, Lawson, Okla. Before entering the Army he was employed by Southland Paint Co., Gainesville, Texas.

Easter can occur any time between March 22 and April 25.

Work on Pavilion Will Start Soon

Construction of the long planned pavilion in the city park appears to be just around the corner this week as Muenster Jaycees announce that their plans have been approved by the state Parks and Wildlife department.

The state agency's OK was the last requirement to qualify for a federal grant of $12,500 covering half the cost of the project. Jaycees will pay the other half.

However the city will be in charge of construction. The arrangement results from the fact that the grant was available to the city but not to the Jaycees. So the job was taken over by the city. Texoma Regional Planning Commission helped get the grant.

Work on the pavilion is due to start soon in hopes of having it ready early in the spring. It will have rest rooms along with the open space and roof.

Children Present Colonial Theme At PTO Meeting

First and second graders presented a delightful program of poems, songs and dances reminiscent of colonial times and early settlers, for the January meeting of Muenster Public School PTO Monday.

The children were under the direction of their teachers, Mrs. Gwen Trubenbach and Mrs. Janie Weinzapfel.

Of added interest was the forum on beautification and maintenance of the school and grounds. Five panel members participated, including L. B. Bruns, who spoke on behalf of the school board and discussed problems in the building and its surrounding area. Don Ostermann talked on behalf of the faculty and Mrs. Eileen Fisher, spoke as representative of the parents. The Student Council was represented by Lisa Trubenbach and Allen Bayer. Roger Taylor of Muenster Garden Center gave suggestions on improving the grounds and parents participated in an open discussion.

Mrs. Janie Monday conducted the business meeting. The PTO agreed to sponsor an Arts and Crafts show for students during Public School Week, and voted to participate in a pageant during the Bicentennial celebration.

'76 Miss Pageant Invites Entries

It is time once again for young girls in this area to consider the "Our Little Miss Pageant, 1976," which has become an annual event sponsored by Kappa Theta Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha Sorority, a women's service organization. Proceeds will go to Southwestern Diabetic Association and the local Camp Sweeney.

All Cooke County girls between the ages of 3 and 17 are eligible in three age groups: La Petite 3-6, Little Miss 7-12, Ideal Miss 13-17. Orientation will be held on Saturday, February 14 at 2 p.m. at a place to be announced, and rehearsal will be Friday evening, March 12. The pageant will follow on Saturday night in the auditorium of Gainesville High School.

Additional information may be obtained from Linda Welch, 2000 Rosebud, 668-7050; Peggy Sparkman, 1207 N. Morris, 668-7828; Betsy Fleitman home number 736-2249, at work 668-8862. More information will be announced as it becomes available.

Comptroller Office Can Be Reached by Toll Free Phone

Comptroller Bob Bullock said his office has WATS operation of a toll-free WATS line to answer general taxpayer questions.

He said the number is 1-800-292-9687.

"Information is like oil to the machinery of business or government," Bullock said. "Without it we just can't run as well."

The Comptroller said his office deals directly with more than half a million taxpayers, nearly all of whom have a question from time to time.

"If they don't get an answer," Bullock said, "they might make a mistake on their return. That will cost them and us money to correct."

Bullock said the toll-free line will be in operation from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday, with extensions in each taxing division, as well as in the legal division and tax information office.

SH Debate Teams Attend Jesuit Hi Speech Tourney

Five debate teams from Sacred Heart participated in the Jesuit High School Speech Tournament in Dallas on January 16 and 17. This was the largest of the Speech Tournaments in this area and was attended by 75 schools from all areas of Texas, Oklahoma and Alabama. There were 167 debate teams, 80 in standard cross-ex, and 87 in the novice cross-ex division, which included the five teams from Sacred Heart High.

National Forensic League rules applied throughout the competition. All students participating are awarded NFL points and when enough points are accumulated, they will win membership in the National Forensic League, which makes them eligible for scholarships and other advantages upon High School graduation.

Because of the large number of entries, debates were held at Ursuline Academy and St. Rita's School as well as at Jesuit.

Attending from Sacred Heart were the teams of Craig Sangster and George Luke; Danny Walterscheid and Bernie Fette; Cindy Sangster and Mary Margaret Rohmer; Mary Luke and Mary Caplinger; Cheryl Luke and Cathy Bar-tush.

After the first three rounds of debate, score tabulations were made and 41 teams eliminated including Danny Walterscheid and Bernie Fette, Cindy Sangster and Mary M. Rohmer, and Mary Luke and Mary Caplinger.

After the fourth round on Saturday morning, Cheryl Luke and Cathy Bar-tush were eliminated, with only 32 teams left in competition.

The team of Craig Sangster and George Luke advanced through the fifth round on Saturday and then were eliminated with only 17 left in competition.

These debates all did a fantastic job in the face of overwhelming competition. Sacred Heart is the smallest of the schools participating and probably the only one in which the students do most of their preparation on their own with no class instruction. This makes their participation and accomplishments all the more commendable.

The next speech tournament for Sacred Heart will be at Midwestern University in Wichita Falls this week end.

Muenster Mutual Reports Continued Growth in 1975

Another good year in the history of Muenster Farm Mutual Fire Insurance Association was reported Monday at the 82nd annual general meeting of the organization.

Ed Endres, secretary, told 42 representatives of the five districts that total losses from fire, lightning, storm and hail added to $18,314.19 for the year and other expenditures increased the total cost of operation to $41,326.13. Among items included in the expense are salaries and expenses to officers and appraisers, postage, printing and expenditure of $12,025.41 for catastrophe and re-insurance.

Total insurance cost per $100 of insured valuation was 23.5 cents, which is 4 cents more than the former year. Some other costs of recent years were 43.5 cents in 1972, 15.5 in 1970, 15 in 1969 and 26 cents in 1968. Lowest ever in the mutual's history was 12 cents in 1971.

Total income for the year was $38,081.39, which is more than twice the amount spent. The favorable balance enabled the mutual's assets to gain by $46,755.26 for the year. Total assets now are $345,834.45, which is slightly below the state insurance commission's recommendation of 2 per cent of total insured valuation. The total insurance in force is $18,010,605, a gain of $2,024,600 for the year.

The year's revenue of $88,081.39 came principally from three sources. Annual assessment at a rate of 35 cents per $100 of insured valuation accounted for $55,233.19. Premiums brought in $9,547.11 and interest on investments $22,729.85. Reinsurance payments and miscellaneous income made up the remainder of $521.24.

Membership of the association now stands at 963, a gain of 35 for the year, and the number of policies is 1139, a drop of 5 for the year.

Striving to bring their reserve up to the recommended 2 per cent ratio, the delegates voted to continue their 35 cent assessment for another year. Under conditions that prevailed last year and for many other years, that would be enough to reach the goal.

All directors were re-elected to continue in office for another year. They are J. A. Klement, president; Al Walter, vice president; Victor Hartman, treasurer; Ed Endres, secretary; and Alfred Bayer.

Delegates at the meeting represented districts of Muenster, Lindsay, Valley View, Windthorst and Electra.

Murlin J. Evans, 42 Dies of Heart Attack

Funeral service was held Saturday at 2 p.m. in Sacred Heart Church for Murlin Joe Evans, 42, who died Thursday afternoon in Parkland Hospital, Dallas, after a massive heart attack while driving into Dallas on Stemmons Freeway.

Father Placidus Eckart, assisted by Rev. Arthur K. Hunt of First Christian Church, Gainesville, officiated at the final rites and also conducted graveside services at the burial in Sacred Heart cemetery under direction of Nick Miller Funeral Home.

Military honors were conducted by members of the Muenster V.F.W. Post. Pallbearers were Jackie Brooks, Harold Bunny Bridges, Bubba Carter, John Dave Meurer, Pat Stelzer and Maynard Williams.

Evans was associated with his mother, Mrs. Pearl Evans, in ownership and operation of the Charm Shop. He joined the business, engaged in the retail sale of ladies wear in June of last year after having spent some thirteen years with Nardis of Dallas in wholesaling women's wear. He was born on July 27, 1933, at Madill, Okla., the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Evans, and came here with his parents in 1935. He attended school in Muenster and Gainesville and NTSU. He joined the Marines in 1954, serving in Korea and Alaska during his two years, then attended the University of Houston and worked for Timken Bearing Co. before getting into the ladies wear business.

Murlin was married to Guadalupe Maria Grajeda on January 18, 1969, at Holy Trinity Church in Dallas. They have two children, Murlin Ray and Douglas, and have lived at Sunset for three years. He had been commuting from there daily since he started working here.

Survivors are his wife and two children and his parents.

Out of town relatives attending the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Murlin E. Evans of Linden; Mrs. Elaine Gibbins of Mesquite, Ross Wayne Evans of Huntsville, Ala., Mrs. Ruby Dickerson and Mrs. Mary Evelyn Johnson and Vickie of Midwest City, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs. Scotty Dickerson and Rachel of Norman, Okla.; Mrs. Pauline Heardon of Madill, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Grajeda, Mrs. Rosemary Martinez, Mrs. Elizabeth Sanchez, and Mrs. Carole Sanchez of Ft. Lupton, Colo.

Also at the service were more than two hundred out of town friends of the family and the business.

KC Free Throw Contest Will Be Held Next Sunday

All boys and girls, ages 11 to 14 are reminded of the KC basketball freethrow championship next Sunday, January 25 at 2 p.m. in the MHS gym. Entry blanks are available at both schools. Jerry Walterscheid, 759-4143, is chairman.

This is a progressive contest advancing from local to district, regional, state and interstate levels. The four girls and boys winning their respective age groups Sunday will receive trophies and also qualify for the district contest.

Contestants are asked to bring entry forms with them. Whoever does not have one can qualify by bringing a parent's signature indicating permission to compete.

Many Are Confused By $30 Tax Credit On '76 IRS Form

Officials of the Internal Revenue Service's Dallas District office say that, so far in the 1976 filing season, the most common errors showing up on tax returns are those caused by a misunderstanding of the $30 tax credit for each personal exemption.

"Apparently, many taxpayers are confusing the $30 tax credit with the $750 personal exemption deduction," A. W. McCanless, district director of the IRS for North Texas, said today. "They wind up thinking each personal exemption is worth one deduction of $780."

The two are not related, however. Mr. McCanless said that taxpayers should compute their tax liability in the normal manner before dealing with the $30 tax credit. When the normal tax is computed, the taxpayer is then entitled to subtract $30 from the total tax liability for each personal exemption claimed on the return. For example, a married couple with two children would claim four personal exemptions on a joint return and come up with a certain amount of tax due. They would then subtract $120, or $30 for each exemption, from the tax due.

"A deduction, such as the personal exemption, is a reduction of the income on which tax is figured," the tax official said. "A tax credit, on the other hand, is a dollar for dollar reduction of the actual amount of tax due."

He also pointed out that, while extra exemptions are allowed for blind taxpayers and those over 65, these people do not receive extra tax credits.

Jimmy Lehnertz of Gainesville is a surgical patient at Veterans Hospital in Dallas. He is in Room 253, Veterans Hospital, 4500 South Lancaster Road, Dallas 75216.

Buttons were first put on men's coat sleeves by Frederick the Great, to keep his soldiers from wiping their noses on their sleeves.

Muenster Divides Pair of Contests With Windthorst

Muenster and Windthorst divided a pair of District 13-A basketball games Tuesday night in the MHS gym. Both games were one sided, the Hornets winning 53-21 whereas the Hornettes went down 67-43. Another game, by the junior varsity boys, went Muenster's way 46-31.

The boys varsity game was a matter in which the Hornets could do no wrong and the Trojans could do nothing right. So the affair progressed by lop sided counts of 12-2, 32-9, 44-13 and 53-21. MHS point makers were Dan Endres 16, Tim Wolf 14, Kirk Johnson 8, Bob Endres 6, Craig Richey 5, Mike Davidson 2 and Nick Walterscheid 2.

The girls made a good start, leading 20-16 at the quarter, but drifted into disaster after that. Early foul trouble led to cautious play in which the visitors pulled ahead 38-34 at half time and 52-40 at the third quarter. Finally Coach Petro used all reserves in the fourth and Windthorst improved the lead by 15-3. Final count was 67-43. Deb Schneider scored 20, Tracey Klement 17 and Becky Fields 6.

Muenster boys took an 11-4 first quarter lead in the B game and gained slightly in each remaining period for scores of 23-15, 33-23 and 46-31. Scorers were Terry Lewis 14, Bert Walterscheid 14, Kim Walterscheid 9, Neil Walterscheid 6, David Felderhoff 2, Charles Fette 1.

3 Openings for V'Ball

The bracket is complete in the ladies division of the volleyball tournament on Sunday, February 8, in Sacred Heart gymnasium. But three openings remain in the men's division. Teams that would like to enter may contact Charles Bayer.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hoenig returned Tuesday from Acapulco where they vacationed for six days with Mrs. Ronnie Hoagland and the Peter McCoy's. The Hoenigs mentioned that the McCoy's small son Martin is fully recovered from illness that began during their visit in Mexico City and hospitalized him for three days in Acapulco.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Fisch, formerly of Chicago, were guests of relatives last weekend, before moving to Wichita Falls. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin J. Fisch of Chicago. In Muenster the young couple visited his mother's relatives, members of the Henry Wiesman families.

Rain Measures .08

Good looking prospects for long awaited moisture were disappointing last Monday when heavy clouds gave up only a light mist adding to .08 inch.

That is the only rain to date for this month and this year. And, following a total of only 3.44 inches for the last quarter of 1975, local pastures and grain fields are suffering.

Weston Powell, Elizabeth Hudson United in Ceremony at Big Spring

Miss Deborah Elizabeth Hudson became the bride of J. Weston Powell, Jr. on December 30 in the Baptist Temple Church of Big Spring. The single ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. William Hatler, before a candle-lit altar, flanked by flowers and greenery.

The bride wore a traditional white lace gown designed with scoop neckline edged with scalloped lace, full sleeves with deep cuffs and a tiered lace skirt that swept to a chapel train. Her three tiered veil of illusion, edged in matching lace, fell from a Juliet cap. She carried a bridal bouquet of blue and white carnations, gypophila and ivy.

Miss Donna West of Sherman was maid of honor, gowned in pink satin, and carrying a nosegay of blue and white carnations and Belinda Hatler of Big Spring was flower girl. She wore a long blue dress and carried a basket of flowers. Paul Scott of Gainesville was best man.

Nuptial music was presented throughout the ceremony by Mrs. Melinda Hatler.

The couple is at home in Muenster following their honeymoon in Big Spring and Abilene.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Charles Cundiff of Tiooga and Wayne Hudson of Houston. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Weston Powell, Sr. of Muenster.

Miss Lehnertz Is Classroom Aide In D.C. Program

Mary Lauren Lehnertz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Lehnertz of Tyler has been chosen as a Presidential Classroom aide for January. She is a 1975 graduate of Robert E. Lee High School in Tyler and currently a freshman at Mary Baldwin Women's College in Staunton, Virginia.

The Presidential Classroom program is for high school students from all over the country who see the national capital and attend seminars on government, offered by The Classroom in Washington, D. C. Miss Lehnertz attended the seminars while a student at Lee and applied to become a Classroom instructor, since only alumni of the "Classroom" are eligible. Six Classes of about 300 students each are held during the Presidential Classroom Session in Washington.

Miss Lehnertz is living in Washington, D.C. during January, while serving as an Aide in the Classroom. This month will count as her January term externship and she will receive college credit for it.

She is also a freshman class senator at Mary Baldwin College, where she is majoring in economics and political science. Mary Lauren is a granddaughter of Mrs. Agnes Lehnertz and the late Joe Lehnertz.

SH Junior Teams Win Two of Three

Sacred Heart junior teams at Callisburg Monday night won two of three game basketball program. Junior Varsity and Junior High boys won theirs whereas junior girls lost.

In the first event the future Tigerettes led 4-2 at the quarter and tied 6-6 at the half. After that the home team gradually pulled away by leads of 15-12 and 21-17. Rhonda Endres scored 8 for Sacred Heart. Toni Hoedebeck made 6. Colleen Fette 2 and Christy Felderhoff 1.

Junior Hi boys had slim leads of 9-6 and 12-11 the first two periods and took over after intermission allowing the hosts only 3 in the third and zero in the fourth. The scores were 24-14 at the third and 34-14 at the end. Mel and Craig Walterscheid, Kenny Hartman and Paul Bartush hit 7 each. Mark Nasche added 4 and Mark Felderhoff 1. The JV contest went about the same way. SH tied 4-4 at the quarter and trailed 12-8 at the half, then ran away with the game while Callisburg scored 3 and zero in the third and fourth. The count ending those quarters was 18-15 and 31-15. Point makers were Ken Felderhoff 10, Fred Koesler 8, Brent Hess 7, Angelo Nasche 4, Dan Walterscheid 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lueb of Edmond, Oklahoma were visitors in Muenster last weekend, spending Saturday and overnight with the Tony Wimmers and dividing time on Sunday with the Alvin Fuhrmans and Bernard Wolfs.

Forestburg News

By Myrt Denham

On Tuesday nite Jan. 6 someone opened the gates in the North Pole and South

Pole and the wind really came rushing down -- and it did get cold. Was 12 degrees here in Dewey Wednesday a.m. and 4 degrees Thursday a.m. I sure do like the feller who invented electric blankets. How many of you remember crawling into an icy cold bed? About all the space that was warm was where you were -- move an inch and it was like ice. In the a.m. you awoke tired from all the covers piled on you to keep you warm. Those were some of the good old days!

Perryman Denham has been watching the north side of Clifford Hudspeth's house for that large rick of wood that Clifford has threatened to cut for his new fireplace. Has anyone seen it? Perryman hasn't. I imagine Clifford will be a little cold collared after some 30 years respite from such chores. From his wife's report he is doing like Perryman and one Howard Sockwell do a lot -- he is burning "she" wood. For those unfamiliar with the term "she" wood, it is wood that she can gather or wood you can hunt up that doesn't require cutting.

Jim Barnett was rushed to the Muenster hospital Jan. 10 in serious condition. The report on Sunday p.m. is that he is some improved.

Am told that Mrs. Ruby Sledge is better but is still confined to her bed -- at home. Meb Dunn was taken to the Bowie hospital Jan. 5. He has pneumonia.

Roe Sledge is still in a Nocona rest home -- he was visited Jan. 11 by Perryman Denham and Mmes. Decie Ellzey, Esther Shears and Alice Shears.

Vera Mae McGee sends word that her daughter, Mrs. Virginia Wilkerson of Wichita Falls will enter Bethania Hospital Jan. 18 and will undergo hip surgery.

Let's remember the folks from here with a card or visit who are in rest homes. There are a number of them; Mrs. Ada Jackson, Mrs. Charity Boyd in Bowie, Roe Sledge in Nocona, Mrs. Josie Journegan in Nocona, and Mrs. Kendall Covington in Muenster.

Mrs. Bobby (Mabel) Covington returned home Jan. 1 after a weeks stay in Lake Junaluska, N. C. visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Noiland, Sr. while there Mabel and her mother attended the wedding of Mabel's niece, Miss Devon Harriet Query to James Cassella in the Central United Methodist Church of Concord, N. C. on Dec. 27.

Mrs. Vera Mae McGee accompanied the W. A. Griffins of Wichita Falls to Denver, Colorado. They left Dec. 31 and on Jan. 3 they attended the wedding of Jack Griffin. Jack is the Griffins' son and Vera Mae's grandson. They saw plenty of snow and were in a snow storm on the way up. They returned home on Jan. 4.

Mrs. Hazel Broadwell of South Bend, Indiana is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Faith Sandusky and sons for a month.

The Jack Poteets of California returned home Jan. 30 after visiting here for a month with her mother, Mrs. Bessie Greenwood and other relatives.

David Hunt of Plainview, California has been visiting his brother Joe and sister, Mrs. Georgia Greenwood for about a month and will return home soon.

We had some birthday celebrations recently; those of Mrs. Betty Reynolds, Mrs. Gladys Barclay and Howard Sockwell. Betty celebrated Jan. 2 in a motel in Van Horn with her sister and family the Donald Priests of Ventura and their son Craig of Flagstaff, Arizona. They were on their way to Benson, Arizona, to visit some cousins with a stop-over in El Paso. Betty made it back Jan. 6. Mrs. Billy Barclay honored Gladys Barclay on the 8th. On the 9th we Denhams treated Gladys and husband to dinner out. Howard Sockwell's daughter and family, the Billy Kenas of Denton came up to help him celebrate.

Wynona Riddles and Molly Howell made a trip to Lawton, Oklahoma Dec. 28 to visit Wynona's sister, Mrs. Wanda Magee. Wanda returned home with them on Dec. 30 to spend a few days.

Mrs. Bess Orrell and Mrs. Billie Poyner left Dec. 26 for El Paso to visit their sister and husband, Teet and Pete Landers. They returned home Dec. 30.

Recent visitors in the home of Mrs. Frances Brewer were the Paul Brewer family of Sherman, David Brewer family of Denton and Keith Brewer of Fort Wayne, Ind.

The Blake Freemans and the W. T. Reynolds attended the wedding of Mike Jackson of Sunset to Miss Connie Bentley of Gainesville Jan. 3 in the Hillcrest Church of Christ in Gainesville.

The John Goldberrys of Dewey visited the Clifford DeMosses of Ringgold Jan. 9.

The United Methodist women had their first meeting of the new year Thursday at 2 o'clock in the annex of the Methodist Church. Plans for the new year were discussed and various projects and goals were considered. Present were Mmes. Alice Shears, Laura Belle Jackson, Decie Ellzey, Betty Reynolds, Vera Mae McGee and Myrt Denham. On Thursday nite a bible study was held in the annex of the church.

Sweet music is filling the air around the Bennett Reynolds place these days. Betty is a very accomplished pianist -- and has a new piano. She plays alot of pretty tunes for Bennett.

Mmes. Esther Shears, Alice Shears, Betty Reynolds, Decie Ellzey and Myrt Denham attended the training sessions for local officers of the United Methodists by the district officers at the First United Methodist Church, Nocona, last Sunday at 2:30.

Mrs. Merle Hudspeth and daughter Mrs. Virginia Lynch and Lecia along with Chad Hudspeth were in Wichita Falls Jan. 9 visiting Mmes. Carolyn Woods and Margaret O'Brien.

Recent visitors of Mrs. Mae DeGraffenreid were the Earl Worthys of Bowie and Mmes. Cleo Howard and Wynona Montgomery of Greenwood.

The Clifford Edwards of Bowie visited with the Charles Edwards family Jan. 8. Clifford and Charles are brothers.

The K. J. (Wassie) Reynolds had as their dinner guests Jan. 4 Mrs. Debbie Hauger of Las Vegas, Joe Knabe, the Gilbert Knabe family, Richard Knabe and children Joe and Sherri, all of Muenster.

Thirteen pieces in a "baker's dozen" originated when King Louis of France warned all bakers who gave under measure that they would be beheaded.

THANKS

We wish to thank all our relatives and friends who responded so generously to the drive for blood donations last Wednesday, especially the Jaycees, fellow employees of A.M.P.I. and Muenster Memorial Hospital, and Lindsay and Muenster residents, for their all-out effort.
 Mickey and Benny Haverkamp and family

I want to express my gratitude to Dr. Kralicke, the nurses and staff of Muenster Memorial Hospital, to Fathers Placidus and Stephen and Bishop Dangelmayr, for the care I received while I was hospitalized. I appreciate also the visits, prayers, cards and flowers from relatives and friends.

Notre Dame Rolls Over Tigers 83-47
 Notre Dame's Knights demonstrated to the Tigers Tuesday night why they are regarded as favorites for the TCOL basketball title. They romped over the Sacred Heart boys 83-47 in an easy conquest on the ND court.
 After a 24-6 first quarter lead they were outscored by a single point in the second and led by 43-26. Then they took off again zooming their lead to 63-36 in the third and 83-47 in the fourth.
 Roger Endres led the SH effort with 20. Glenn Walterscheid and Joe Hoedebeck added 8 each, Bob Hartman hit 5, John Henscheid 3, Mark Hess 2 and Darrell Walterscheid 1.
 Junior Varsity Tigers made a fair start trailing 14-12 and 29-20 the first two periods. Then ND made it 51-28 in a big third quarter and coasted to a 62-34 win. SH scorers were Fred Koesler 15, Ken Felderhoff 9, Brent Hess 7, Danny Walterscheid 2, Jeff Hess 1.

SH Juniors Lose Three to Saint Jo
 Monday night was a sad one for three junior basketball teams of Sacred Heart. All of them were wiped out in a series of games with the Saint Jo youngsters.
 Best showing of the three was made by the junior high boys, who lost 34-23. After looking helpless for three quarters, with a 34-13 score, they caught fire in the fourth and blanked the young Panthers 10-0, giving themselves the more respectable count of 34-23. Point makers were Mel Walterscheid 9, Paul Bartush 6, Craig Walterscheid 5, Mark Nasche 3.
 Junior girls just happened to have the lower of two pitiful scores: 13-7. Sacred Heart hit 3 and missed 13 free throws and made only 2 field goals. The scorers were Rhonda Endres 4 and Toni Hoedebeck 3.
 Junior Varsity girls played Saint Jo even to an 8-8 third quarter tie, then went stone cold while the Pantherettes got hot. Result: 20-8 favoring Saint Jo. Mary Greving hit 4 for SH, Sharon Greving 2 and Laurie Walterscheid 2.

New Texas Almanac Links State's History with American Revolution

The American Revolution of 1776 set in motion events that led to the colonization of Texas and eventually to its own struggle for self-government, notes the new 1976-'77 edition of the Texas Almanac, published by A. H. Belo Corporation, publishers of The Dallas Morning News.

These historic events affecting Texas have been traced in an article written especially for the Texas Almanac by the late R. Henderson Shuffler, editor, historian and, at the time of his death in the summer of 1975, executive director of the Institute of Texan Cultures at San Antonio.

"What we call the American Revolution was simply the first stage of the revolution of the Americas," Shuffler wrote. "Texas was affected directly by the American Revolution and the course of its history for centuries to come was shaped by the outcome."

Also in the Almanac's Bicentennial section, Sam Kinch Sr., chairman of American Revolution Bicentennial Commission of Texas, tells of the American Bicentennial in Texas. A commission listing of Texas events during the bicentennial year is included.

The new edition also contains a special section on "Gardening in Texas" prepared by specialists of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. It is a guide for planting vegetables, fruit and nut trees and ornamentals in all sections of the state.

"The LBJ Hill Country," written by Art and Elise Kowert, publishers of the Fredericksburg Standard, presents a description of the home of the late Lyndon B. Johnson, 36th President of the United States.

"Nowhere else in this land is there a place where, within a distance of a few miles, the story of an American President can be retraced through visiting the settlement of his grandparents, the birthplace, boyhood home, his 'White House' away from Washington, and his ranch where he lived in retirement and where he died and is buried," they wrote.

Other special features of the new Almanac include a history of the Texas Railroad Commission, the latest U. S. Census on manufacturing, wholesale and retail trade, the service industries and transportation in Texas, an account of the 10 Travel Trails of Texas, and a history of Texas A&M University observing its 100th anniversary in 1976.

Included also are data on election results, listings of county, municipal and state officials, appointive boards and commissions, officials of state and regional civic and trade organizations, and sections on agriculture, manufacturing, transportation and government.

Each Standard Metropolitan Statistical Area, the urban concentrations in which most Texans live, has an editorial page devoted to it.

A new Texas map in color, with major highways, supplements 254 county maps, updated from maps prepared by the Texas Highway Department. Tourism and recreation also are featured, with listings of state and national parks.

"This is the 48th edition of the Texas Almanac that has been published since 1857," said Joe M. Dealey, president of The Dallas Morning News. "We believe it continues the high standards that have made this publication the Encyclopedia of Texas."

Catholic People in Texas

By Sister Mary John Seyler

The earliest settlement of Germans in Texas was made in 1826 by Robert Leftwich near San Antonio, but he soon returned to Tennessee and his German colonists lost their identity among the other settlers.

The first permanent German settlement in Texas was founded by Frederick Ernest in 1831. He and his friend Fardtram arrived in New Orleans in March on their way to Missouri, but hearing of the favorable land grants offered in Texas they changed their plans and went to Texas.

One of the most distinguished pioneer families of Texas, the Klebergs came among the first settlers. Robert Kleberg, the founder of Cat Spring was a man of democratic ideals and wished to establish himself in a land where democracy was a reality. He was married to Baroness Rosa Von Roeder in 1834 and embarked for New Orleans that same year with his wife's parents, brothers, and sisters, together with a number of other German families.

At New Orleans they chartered a schooner, Sabine, for Brazoria, Texas. After a voyage of eight days they were wrecked on December 22, 1834 off the coast of Galveston Island, which then was a wilderness. The passengers made the best of their misfortune, constructing rude shelters for themselves, subsisting on wild game, and the food that had been rescued from the ship.

The small party was rescued within a few days and eventually made their way to San Felipe, then on to Harrisburg. Here they stayed until they had built two log houses at Cat Spring. They stored all their valuables in a house they rented at Harrisburg; these things in 1836 fell prey to the flames when Santa Anna destroyed the town by fire during the Texas Revolution.

Industry, Cat Spring, Frelsburg, and other settlements in the southwest vicinity were founded about ten years before the big German immigration rush which began about 1840. These German settlements have the distinction of having generously contributed to the winning of Texas Independence from Mexico.

In 1842 in Germany, fourteen princes and noblemen organized a society and pledged themselves for the purpose of purchasing land and establishing German settlements in Texas. These first families landed on Indianola where they spent a sad and lonely Christmas. They had to remain here for about two months living in tents and rough wooden sheds until Prince Solms, their leader located a site for a settlement. He finally procured the location which we now know as New Braunfels. Von Museback succeeded Prince Solms and the German immigration flourished under his leadership. Von Museback caused the strictest economy to prevail in regard to the funds of the society. Several thousand immigrants were now on their way to Texas. Von Museback obtained for them a foundation on the Pedernales River and founded Fredericksburg in 1844.

From October 1845 to April 1846 thirty-six German ships landed about five thousand emigrants on Galveston Island. Von Museback ably assisted all these to find homes in Texas. He located them principally north of San Antonio and west of Austin.

The "Von Museback Expedition" is an episode of great courage and importance in the settlement of Texas. Von Museback set out into Comanche territory to negotiate with the Comanche chiefs. Although unskilled in Indian warfare he was armed with that great faith in the common brotherhood of man regardless of race, color, creed, or even standards of civilization. He left Fredericksburg on June 22, 1847, with forty-five men, one of whom spoke the language of the Comanche. They were constantly watched and followed by the Redskins, but they proceeded in an unconcerned manner toward the habitation of the chiefs. Before they could reach their destination they were surrounded by the Indian war braves to whom Von Museback said through his interpreter, "Go to your chief and tell him I come in peace to speak with him as brother to brother."

Word was returned from the chief for Von Museback to appear before him in peace. He met the chief with such skill, and diplomacy that he was invited to remain until such time that meeting could be arranged with all the chiefs. At the appointed time Von Museback and his forty-five men faced five hundred chiefs and warriors. He succeeded in making a favorable treaty with the Indians which was kept by the Germans to the end, and in the main by the Indians. This treaty opened three million acres of Texas land to cultivation and civilization.

There was one family which came to the United States first before the height of the discord stirred by the "Kulturkampf." The Flusche Brothers were born in Germany at Wamge, a small village in Westphalia. Their father was a man of culture and education, a teacher by profession. His six sons founded the German settlement Westphalia in Iowa, Westphalia in Kansas, Olpe in Kansas, and then they turned their eyes toward Texas.

In the spring and summer of 1889 they made several trips through North Texas to find a suitable location for a colony. On October 4, 1889, Emil Flusche entered into a contract with Jot Gunter and Associates, of Dallas to sell to German Catholics, their pasture which contained 22,000 acres of land, situated in the western part of Cooke County. Dr. Carl Flusche and Joseph Rueschenberg were witnesses. It provided that the town should be located in the middle of the land on the M.K. and T. Railroad. This town was named Muenster after the capital city of their home province. The contract also provided that ground should be donated for a church, a school, a cemetery, and a park, and finally a contribution of five hundred dollars to be used in the erection of the first church.

The land was surveyed into suitable farm blocks and the townsite was plotted. This surveying took about six weeks. Even before the surveying was finished a goodly number of farms were already sold and by the end of the first year eight thousand acres of land had been sold and about seventy-five families were located here. The first persons to buy land were two brothers Joseph and Theodore Wiesmann. Once more the German farmers broke the virgin soil of Texas and turned it into fruitful fields.

Encouraged by the success of Muenster, the Flusche Brothers, Anton and August, in January 1891 closed a contract with Judge J. M. Lindsay of Gainesville, Texas, securing 35,000 acres from W. N. Howeth for the colonizing project. Judge Lindsay laid out the site for the town joining the flag station, Lindsay, on the north side of the M. K. and T. Railroad five and one-half miles west of Gainesville. The settlement grew so rapidly that Judge Lindsay deeded a tract of land seven and nine-tenth acres to the Bishop of Dallas for a church and a school.

Other settlements, always with a portion of land for the church grew and prospered: Pilot Point, 1891; Mount Carmel, 1906; Another name to be mentioned in early German Catholic Texas settlements is Reverend Father Joseph Reisdorf. He is credited with the founding of Windthorst, Rhineland, Nazareth, Umbarger and Slaton.

Home and School Are Partners

In the face of mounting criticism of American schools, the U.S. Commissioner of Education has struck back, saying, "We in education pretty well mirror society's problems and values."

Dr. T. H. Bell, in a wide-ranging interview with Scripps League Newspapers, said, "The education system isn't working as well as we want it to. Neither is the economic system. And there are those who say the government isn't functioning too well either. So it's up to more than just the schools."

Bell, who heads the U.S. Office of Education which has an annual budget of $7 billion, continued: "A child's learning is affected by many environmental factors outside the school. I see the breakdown of the family as a serious problem. We have data that indicates that literally millions of teenagers are alcoholics. One out of five teenagers smokes pot quite steadily at the present time. . . . A million new children are touched by divorce every year. So there's lack of stability here . . . no school can compensate for failure in the home."

The Commissioner, who is noted for speaking out strongly in support of greater emphasis on basic learning skills, said that, given these factors plus the inordinate amount of television watched by youngsters, he is not at all surprised by the problems we are having with youth.

"The minimum that the school ought to expect from the home is for the child to come to school well clothed, in reasonably good health, with a healthy personality, a decent outlook on life, and a willingness and readiness to learn," said Bell. "But all too often that's not happening. . . . We do have our problems in the schools, but education is a partnership situation and all learning doesn't take place in the school. And the preconditions for learning are pretty bad in many situations."

Obviously there are other serious problems affecting U.S. education, e.g., teacher strikes, a retreat from basic learning skills, and, of course,

Is There Food?

Some 760 million people live in India, Bangladesh and Pakistan -- that's more than live in all of Africa and South America. Experts say that within 30 years the population of the crowded three countries will double. The world's population as a whole is increasing at a rate of 203,000 every day. Some 3.6 billion acres -- almost all the world's land that is economical to cultivate -- is already being used to grow food.

The continuing busing imbroglio to name a few. We believe, however, that Dr. Bell is correct in saying that the most serious problem of all is the general decline of American society which is accurately mirrored, unfortunately, in the lives of our youth.

TEJAS 1876

January 23-30, 1876
WASHINGTON, D. C. -- Gov. J. W. Throckmorton of Texas is asking the attention of the U.S. Congress to the condition of the Texas frontier and praying compensation for losses sustained by the people of Texas for the incursions of Indians and Mexicans and reimbursement for sums of money spent by Texas to defend the frontier.

DALLAS -- The bonded debt of the city of Dallas is $230,000 inclusive of interest. Pretty good for a youngster.

GALVESTON -- Attention: A dead horse is reported by the police to be lying on Avenue Q and 24th Street. The attention of the health officers is respectfully directed to the same.

MARION COUNTY -- Jefferson is disgraced by prize fights.

THE STAKED PLAINS -- Information has been received on important discoveries made by Colonel Shafter, who has been exploring the Staked Plains. He is said to have found plenty of water and excellent land where only the most sterile desert was supposed to exist.

COMANCHE COUNTY -- Corn is received here in payment for school taxes at 50 cents per bushel.

DENISON -- The DENISON NEWS exposes "The Mineral City Fraud." A fine map and description of an imaginary city on the Gainesville branch of the M.K.&T. Railroad has been issued by the so-called Ohio, Kentucky and Texas Land Company of Cincinnati, Ohio, for the purpose of swindling the unwary in the Ohio Valley. The map is ornamented with six school houses, six churches, three public halls, one opera house, one city hall, one college, one female college, one academy of arts, one free school, five public parks, one street railroad and one railroad depot. This, like St. Louis, is "the great city of the future." At present, the NEWS says, there is no such town or city as Mineral City, nor is there any Gainesville branch of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas Railroad, nor has any of the above-named city any prospects, while of number of inhabitants are "nix."

FORT WORTH -- Major J. J. Jarvis delivered an address for the benefit of the (Robert E.) Lee Monument Association. The receipts in the contribution box totalled $9.65.

GALVESTON -- The Rev. William Cary Crane, D.D., President of Baylor University, will preach in the First Baptist Church at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. Sunday. The morning sermon will be a Centennial educational address.

SAN ANTONIO -- Advices received at different Mexican points on the Rio Grande through couriers from Sattillo are to the effect that a revolution has been started in the northern central portions of Mexico, near the Rio Grande.

Advertised in the GALVESTON DAILY NEWS: Of all the saws that you ever saw, saw, you never saw a saw saw like those saws -- at Manuel & Company's.

 Jupiter is the only source of high-energy particle radiation in the solar system besides the sun. A year on Jupiter (one revolution around the sun) lasts nearly 12 earth years. A day on Jupiter lasts less than 10 hours, though, because the planet rotates so swiftly.

Public School Happenings

Student Council

Members of the Student Council of Muenster High School chose Kirk Johnson to read the Invocation during the Arbor Day program on January 16. They also discussed a poster contest during the regular meeting at school on January 15 and made plans for the Bicentennial observance. The poster contest will continue for two weeks, beginning January 22. Prizes will be awarded.

Arbor Day

Arbor Day was observed at Muenster Public School on Friday, January 16. During the program, a Silver Maple, donated by the Garden Club, was planted. Mrs. John Mosman represented the club. Kirk Johnson gave the invocation. Tracey Sawyer read the poem "Trees" and Charlotte Fleitman and Sandy Barnhill led songs "America" and "America, the Beautiful". The tree was planted by Doyle Klement and Kirk Johnson. Margie Wolf thanked the Garden Club on behalf of the student body.

FHA Meeting

During the regular meeting on Tuesday, January 13, Future Homemakers of Muenster High School made plans to sponsor a Bicentennial Salute Bake Sale. Of added interest will be old fashioned recipes of the type of baked goods popular 200 years ago. Recipes will be included with each item. FHA members will provide baked goods for sale at Ben Franklin Store, Hofbauer's and Fisher Market on Saturday, January 31. The bake sale is a benefit for the Mother-Daughter Banquet scheduled for February 19. A Valentine theme will be used.

During the meeting, committees were selected for FHA week, February 9-13. Special activities are planned for each day. Work has begun on all projects.

Senior-Junior Meeting

The Senior class held a joint meeting with the junior class on Monday, January 12. They selected prom committees and a theme for the prom. Seniors planned a bake sale for Saturday, January 17. Juniors chose a class flower and class colors.

Annual Staff

Hornet Annual staff members met on Wednesday, January 14. They discussed layout of the Annual and set a deadline for pictures. Lisa Trubebach and Tina Mollenkopf will select a theme. The 1975-76 Hornet Annual will be offered for sale at $10.00 — contact Jeanne Swirczynski or Monty Reiter to reserve a copy.

Intermural Freethrow

The Muenster Public School Athletic Department is sponsoring an intermural free throw contest on the high school and junior high level. Teachers are also competing with students. The top eight in each division will enter finals, when trophies will be awarded. The contest began Monday and will continue each school day until completed. Twenty eight high school boys, six high school girls, ten junior high girls and fifteen junior high boys are entered.

A number of Muenster High students participated in a practice U.L.L. University Interscholastic League contest on Tuesday, January 20. They were accompanied by teachers, Gary Chisam and Miss Martha Cargile. Names and categories entered are: Poetry, Becky Douglas; Prose, Sam Bright and Monty Reiter; Newswriting, Deb Schneider; Feature writing Mary Fisher and Lisa Trubebach, Editorial writing, Shelia Grewing and Laura Sicking; Headline writing, Connie Walterscheid and Becky Fields; Persuasive speaking, Darrell Douglas, Carl Pagel and Connie Flusche; Informative speaking, Jackie Endres; Debate Doyle Klement, Damian Luke, Kathy Davidson; Number sense, Johnny Eckart, Allen Bayer, Dwayne Knabe, Ruth Heathcock, Deryl Zimmerer Sue Moster, Monty Reiter, Dean Sicking; Slide Rule, Kirk Johnson, Danny Endres, Sam Bright; Science, Kirk Johnson, Dean Sicking, Sam Bright.

Kindergarten

Rhonda Fleitman was the honored one on January 13 when her mother Mrs. James Fleitman observed her 6th birthday. Others attending were Rhonda's brother Chad and her grandmother Mrs. Alfons Walterscheid. Refreshments were punch and cupcakes with treats of candy, bubble gum and balloons.

On January 15, Elizabeth Fleitman's sixth birthday was observed when her mother, Mrs. Daniel Fleitman brought refreshments of a decorated birthday cake, cookies and punch and candy treats. Elizabeth's brother David, who will be in Kindergarten next year, also came to the party.

Last November the Kindergarten class sent a "Happy Birthday to America" card to the White House, addressed to the President. All the children signed the card. And now the kindergarten class has an answer from President Ford, sent as a form letter with a congratulatory message, bearing the President's name.

Both Muenster Hi Teams Annihilated By Archer City

Both of the Archer City teams were too much for Muenster High in the 13-A basketball games Friday night in the MHS gym.

As appraised by Hornet Coach Nick Petro, Archer City is the team to beat in both boys' and girls' title races this year. Both ended the games with a perfect 3-0 standing whereas the Hornets were 2-1 and the Hornets 0-3.

The visitors ran away with the first half of both games and coasted in to easy victories of 73-59 for the girls and 71-44 for the boys. In each case Coach Petro praised his charges for giving a good effort in the second half in spite of a hopeless situation.

In the opener MHS girls trailed 18-6 and reduced the spread just a little in the 33-24 half time score. Again in the third Archer City increased the lead to 59-38 and Muenster trimmed the margin slightly for the 73-59 score. Deb Schneider was high scorer for Muenster with 33 points. Tracey Klement added 20 and Becky Fields 6.

Archer City took charge of the boys game in a most convincing manner and rampaged to leads of 25-6 and 41-16 in the first and second quarters. The Hornets improved in the third and gained 5 to the count of 55-35, but then the visitors took off again and finished with a 71-44 lead.

Poor shooting was the Hornets' big problem. They hit only 17 of 76 field goals tries, a miserable average of less than 23 per cent. And it was worse in the first half when they got 7 of 41 tries for about 17 per cent.

Mike Davidson was top Hornet scorer with 11 points. Kirk Johnson got 10, Danny Endres 7, Bob Endres 6, Craig Richey 4, Terry Lewis and Kim Walterscheid each 2, Nick Walterscheid and David Felderhoff each 1.

4-H Family Recreation Night Set

4-H families across Cooke County have marked Saturday, January 17, for a night of fun and excitement. Family Recreation Night will begin at 8:00 p.m. at Gainesville Community Center. Games and replays will start the evening with Tammera Hickman, County Council Chairman, serving as emcee. Following refreshments, the group will participate in folk, round, and modern dancing.

Parents are issued a special invitation to join the fun. Those not interested in games and dances are invited to bring their dominoes and cards, and start a game in the front room.

The planning committee requests that each club representative bring three dozen cookies. Drinks will be provided. 4-Hers planning Family Recreation Night were Paul Reiter, Pat Davidson, Tim Schumacher, Denise Martin, Jackie Harris and Tamera Hickman.

We're doing lots of things differently... to keep your electric service dependable.

The technology and methods of producing and supplying electric power have changed considerably since Texas Power & Light Company began business back in 1912. Mostly, however, these changes came about gradually, unhurried by any urgent needs for change.

But today, we're doing things differently to keep your electric service dependable.

We're reducing our dependency on scarce and costly natural gas as a generating plant fuel by building plants which use readily available and more economical lignite coal. Two such plants are now in operation and others are under construction and being planned.

To operate lignite-fueled plants, we're producing more than 40,000 tons of this coal every day from deposits located near the plants. This is equal to about 400 large railroad carloads per day. We're restoring the land involved to productive condition.

TEXAS POWER & LIGHT COMPANY
A tax-paying, investor-owned electric utility

At gas-fueled plants, we have millions of gallons of fuel oil ready to keep the plants going when supplies of gas are curtailed.

Together with two other North Texas electric companies, we're building a nuclear-fueled generating plant. The first unit of the plant is scheduled to be placed in service in 1980 and the second in 1982.

At Texas Power & Light, we will continue doing what must be done to assure you a dependable supply of electricity in the years ahead.

Basketball Teams Of Sacred Heart Drop TCIL Openers

Sacred Heart basketball teams returned with four losses from their weekend excursion to West Texas for openers in their TCIL district schedule. They were turned back Friday night by Alamo High of Amarillo, then on Saturday afternoon by Christ the King of Lubbock.

At Amarillo the hosting girls gained slow and steady in every period for scores of 11-8, 24-17, 32-23 and 47-33. Sharlene Pagel netted 13 of the points for Sacred Heart. Gloria Hess made 9, Marlene Pagel 8 and Cindy Bartush 3.

Boys half of the program was a home team run-away with scores of 15-1, 32-7 and 54-20 ending the first three periods. Finally in the fourth the Tigers managed to break even and ended the affair with a 72-38 count. Two factors help account for the lopsided outcome, says Coach Ed Stock. First the Alamo fellows have a talented and good sized team. Next the Tigers just could not hit. Scorers were Roger Endres 22, Mark Hess 5, Glenn Walterscheid 5, Joe Hoedebeck, John Henscheid and Brent Hess each 2.

At Lubbock the home team led by only 6-4 after a period but they got going after that and kept gaining for scores of 22-13, 36-17 and 45-22. Gloria Hess accounted for 7 and Cindy Bartush 5. The Pagel twins made 4 each and Bev. Pels 2.

Tigers there started great for a lead of 20-14 at the quarter. Next period they gave up a few points of margin but still led 35-33 at intermission. A full court press started wearing the Tigers down in the third and the home team cashed in with gains of 7 in that period and 12 in the next. Final score was 87-68.

Four SH boys shot in double figures: Roger Endres 20, Glenn Walterscheid 16, Mark Hess 14, Joe Hoedebeck 10. Also John Henscheid scored 5 and Brent Hess 2.

HD Members Told Metrics Are Coming

Mrs. Evelyn Yeatts was program leader for the January meeting of Home Demonstration Club No. 1, when the group met in the home of Mrs. Bruno Fleitman on January 14. Mrs. Yeatts spoke on "Metrics are coming, if we are ready for them or not."

Mrs. Albert Fleitman presided for the business meeting and led the group in the Club Creed and in the recitation of the pledge of allegiance to the Flag. Mrs. Bruno Fleitman read the collect. Resolutions for a "Happy New Year" were read by the Club president.

Mrs. Alice Hellman, council delegate, reported on coming events, dates and places. Members discussed participation in the Bicentennial parade on July 4 in Gainesville and nominated Mrs. Albert Fleitman as their choice for council delegate to the district convention in Renner on April 6.

Mrs. John Wieler will visit shut-ins this month. The hostess, Mrs. Bruno Fleitman was assisted by her daughter Teresa Jo Fleitman of Denver and by Mrs. August Felderhoff, in serving a dessert plate with coffee to 17 members and Mrs. Yeatts.

The February meeting will be in the home of Mrs. John Wieler. Mrs. Eula West will present a program on creative stitchery.

Heritage Foods To Be Featured at County 4-H Show

Interested 4-H'ers will focus on typical foods of Early America when the Cooke County 4-H Food Show gets underway January 24 with young people competing in senior and junior divisions.

Following the "Heritage Foods" theme, local youth will prepare main dishes, side dishes, breads and desserts, or snacks and beverages as they choose one of the four entry classes for competition.

Food entry exhibits will be on display for the public from 12 noon to 1 p.m. Senior and Junior division competition is set for 9:30 a.m. at Cooke County College Activities Center.

Youth ages 14-19 will compete in the senior division, while the junior division contest involves ages 9-13.

Both the senior and junior divisions will offer blue, red, and white ribbons in each of the four entry classes. Top placing Juniors and Seniors will represent Cooke County in District competition. A most appropriate table award will also be presented in each entry category, both junior and senior.

"Because our foods program emphasizes nutrition, contestants will be asked to demonstrate knowledge of nutrition, meal planning, food buying, and meal service as well as the ability to prepare food," explained Mary Hinton, Assistant County Extension Agent.

Cooke County 4-H Food Show is sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System, The Morrison Milling Company, Denton, and Gainesville National Bank.

Elizabeth Ann Fleitman's sixth birthday was observed on January 15, during the afternoon class at the Kindergarten of Muenster Public School. Classmates enjoyed the party with her. They sang the birthday song and lit candles on the class birthday cake. Her mother, Mrs. Daniel Fleitman brought a special cake to share with Elizabeth Ann's classmates and also served punch cookies and candy treats.

Texas Starts New System Of Vehicle Registration

AUSTIN — An era is coming to an end. Texas motorists this week will begin receiving their new auto registration applications in the mail.

But in 1976, instead of new metal license plates, Texas vehicles will sport small strips of reflective material. The bi-centennial red, white and blue validation stickers are to be affixed to the area outlined by an embossed rectangle in the upper left-hand corner of the 5-year plates issued a year ago.

So, for the first time since World War II, Texans will use license plates issued in an earlier year. And plans call for annual reissue of the same plate numbers for the foreseeable future for periods of at least five years at a time.

The Lone Star State issued plates for the first time in 1917, according to R. W. (Bob) Townsley, director of the Motor Vehicle Registration Division of the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation.

"Prior to that time motorists registered their vehicles in the county of residence," Townsley said. The county tax assessor-collector issued a plate number and the owner of the vehicle got appropriate materials from a convenient hardware store and made his own plate or plates.

The first state-issued plates were round, and were colored white on red.

Later, size and style of plates varied somewhat, but assumed a shape basically to the familiar rectangular plates issued today. It was necessary a few years ago to initiate a three-letter, three-figure numbering system to accommodate the increasing number of motor vehicles registered each year.

The letters and numbers were separated by an embossed five-point star from 1923-45 and from 1957 to the present. All that will change this year, too. The 64th Legislature decreed that the star should be replaced by a silhouette of the State of Texas on all future license plates. The state silhouette will appear on the plates only after existing supplies are exhausted, Townsley said.

To cut the cost of plates, manufactured by the Texas Department of Corrections at Huntsville, it also was determined that plates should be used for five years instead of being reissued annually.

Principal change in the 1975 plates was the addition of embossed rectangles in the upper left and right corners, and a galvanized back to assure longer life for the metal.

Beginning in 1978, Texas will go to a "year-round" registration system. The validation sticker will indicate the month of issue for each car, with the month to be determined by the department.

Vehicle registration will occur during every month of the year, similar to the present procedures for vehicle safety inspection.

The month-of-issue sticker will remain the same for the life of the vehicle and will be affixed in the upper left-hand corner of the license plate. A definite advantage will be the elimination of long lines of motorists waiting to register their vehicles once each year, as only part of the registrations will be issued each month.

When the new monthly registration system becomes effective, cost of registration will be determined by the month of issue for the first year, and a motorist will pay for length of the registration period — whether for part of a year or more than a year.

4-H Club News

Eighteen members attended the January 13 meeting of Muenster Community 4-H Club in the TP&L Building. Assistant County Agent Larry Wiese presented a program on the history of Cooke County.

Albert Zimmerer presided for the business meeting. Connie Flusche read minutes and called roll and Deryl Zimmerer gave the inspiration. Connie Lutkenhaus and Shelly Zimmerer led songs and recreation. Members discussed future projects and welcomed one new member. One adult leader attended, Debbie Zimmerer is reporter for this group.

School Announces Policy on Reduced And Free Lunches

Complying with federal regulations governing the school lunch program, Superintendent L. B. Bruns announces the following policy relative to free and reduced price meals at Muenster Public School.

Student lunches are priced at 45 cents for grades K through 6 and 50 cents for grades 7 through 12. The reduced price for lunches is 20 cents.

Children from families whose income is at or below levels shown on the scale below are eligible for free or reduced price meals. If eligible for free meals they are also eligible for free extra milk.

If income is greater than levels shown on the scale below a child may still be eligible for free or reduced cost lunches if medical bills are unusually high, shelter costs exceed 30 percent of income, or special educational expense results from the child's mental or physical conditions or because of disaster or casualty loss.

Children of parents or guardians who become unemployed are eligible for free or reduced meals and free milk during the period of unemployment provided that the loss of income causes family income during the period to fall below levels shown on the scale.

To apply at any time during the year for free meals and milk and reduced price meals, it is necessary to complete an application which can be secured from the principal's office. Within 10 days of receiving the application the school will notify whether children are eligible. Persons who do not agree with the school's decision may appeal directly to Superintendent L. B. Bruns, Box 608, Muenster, or telephone 759-2281.

All children are treated the same regardless of ability to pay. In operation of the lunch program no child will be discriminated against because of race, sex, color or national origin.

Utility Fights EPA Order to Install Scrubber in Plant

An official answer to a suit which seeks to force the installation of a $36 million scrubber on the Monticello No. 3 lignite-fueled electric generating unit near Mt. Pleasant has been filed in the District Court of Titus County, J. F. Skelton, president of Texas Power & Light Company said.

The suit was filed in November 1975 by the Attorney General of the State of Texas at the request of the Texas Air Control Board. The defendant is Texas Utilities Services, Inc., an affiliate of TP&L. TUSI is constructing the Monticello plant for TP&L, Dallas Power & Light Company and Texas Electric Service Company.

The suit would force the scrubber installation in order to meet Environmental Protection Agency air quality regulations that have been challenged by a number of electric utilities.

In summarizing the answer, Skelton said, "The expenditure of $36 million for the scrubber and the 18% increase it would add to the cost of electricity produced by this generating unit is unreasonable and an unnecessary burden on our customers. We must in good conscience challenge the State and Federal agencies by defending this suit and using our best efforts to have these rules and regulations set aside because their enforcement will not benefit the public. We can meet all standards prescribed for air quality at ground level without the costly scrubber."

According to Skelton, TUSI's answer to the suit states that, in setting the regulations, the TACB and EPA had not given the consideration required by law to the environmental value and the economic and technological feasibility of installing scrubbers. Thus, TUSI believes that the regulations adopted are void and unenforceable and should be declared invalid by the courts.

That can be collected like insurance or willed to a beneficiary. Besides, the benefits per dollar originally paid in are much better from insurance than Social Security.

Again, here's a proposal with lots of merit. With so many bad features in the present system, some way ought to be developed whereby it can be gradually phased out while the better plan is phased in. It has been shown many times that private enterprise can do the social security job better than the government. Well, why not let it do it.

Regarding both the postal service and social security the proposed legislation would relieve the government of a big burden besides giving the public a better deal.

Pastor Honored at Special Liturgy

A special Liturgy honored Father Placidus Eckart on January 15, observing his feast day, when elementary students of Sacred Heart School attended the 8 a.m. Mass, offered by the celebrant.

Taking part were Mark Miller, who gave the introduction and narration, and Curtis Hesse and Curtis Rohmer who carried the American and Papal Flags; altar boys Gene Fuhrman, Lonnie Henschel, Wade Walterscheid, Tommy Dangelmayr and Mike Bartush; and Readers, Nicky Hess and Scott Klement, Greg and Bret Walterscheid; and Susie Felderhoff who gave the Meditation following Communion.

In the Offertory procession were representatives of all six grades, carrying green votive candles with lettered green ribbon, signifying the Offertory petitions. When the candles were placed on the altar, the letters spelled out the name of FATHER PLACIDUS.

Taking part were Mike Koerschner who carried the banner, and fourteen children carrying votive candles, including Kerry Haverkamp, Kelly Schilling, Craig Voth, Steven Becker, LeAnn Sickling, Dana Dankesreiter, Dickie Trubenbach, Darren Voth, Janet Reiter, Connie Bayer, Scott Fleitman, Kyle Walterscheid, Gus Reiter and Neil Hesse.

Brenda Joy Swirczynski brought baptismal certificates for twin pagan babies adopted in India; Doris Henschel presented a Spiritual Bouquet from the students; Susan Walterscheid brought the bus fund donation; Susan Fleitman and Sherri Boydston, Hal Mollenkopf and Brian Herr brought the water, wine, Paten and Ciborium.

The students sang the "Our Father" in unison, while all joined hands.

Tony Luke was organist and Sister Alberta was choir director, for songs specially chosen for the feastday. The banner on the altar was made by Sister Lillian Marie. The special Liturgy was planned by Sister Lenore.

In ancient times, the Pyramids of Egypt were used as tombs of the rulers.

Shaving was originally a protective measure since long beards were easy for opponents in combat to seize.

4th Grade Heads Arbor Day Program At Sacred Heart

Arbor Day was observed at Sacred Heart School with a program presented by the fourth grade on Friday, January 16, with each class member participating. Grades 1 through 7 and their teachers and mothers of 4th graders were audience and guests.

Troy Yosten was master of ceremonies. Jim Bartush, Gus Reiter and Duane Haverkamp presented the poem, "Autumn Gold." "A Fir Tree is a Shy Thing" by Marilyn Hartman, Sara Stoffels, Sondra Trubenbach and Lorene Bartel, was followed by Anne Marie Felderhoff, Jeannene Voth, Renate Hess and Pamela Kay Hermes who presented "Because of Trees."

Art students drew a sketch of a tree trunk. Daniel Koerschner explained the meaning of the growth rings. He told how a tree must overcome many crises before reaching maturity.

A short play, "Johnny Spiteful in the Court of Trees" had in the cast Doris Henschel, the announcer; Susan Walterscheid, Judge Oak; Nick Hess, Johnny Spiteful; Brad Henschel, the Bailiff; Kevin Wolf, an officer; Stephen Vogel, Carl Zimmerer, Leroy Voth, Steve Trubenbach, Neil Hesse, Mark Hesse, Duane Lutkenhaus, Douglas Fleitman, Rita Pels, Ronnie Dangelmayr, Shannon Fleitman and Carmen Sicking, various trees.

The skit emphasized the many uses of trees and importance of taking care of them. The audience joined the 4th graders in singing "God Bless America" to close the program.

Garbage for Fuel

The first large-scale trash and garbage recycling facility is now under construction in El Cajon, Cal.

The $8 million plant is a joint project of the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency and private industry. It will convert 35 truckloads of solid waste a day into 200 barrels of liquid fuel worth $1,700 to $1,800.

In addition, it will reclaim 25 tons of usable glass and metals with a value of about $750. A spokesman for the project says that for each kilowatt of electricity required to operate the plant, its fuel oil product will furnish 2.2 kilowatt hours.
