VOLUME XXX

MUENSTER, COOKE COUNTY, TEXAS 76252 JANUARY 21, 1966

NUMBER 9

The guns and butter requested by President Johnson in last week's State of the Union address has millions of Americans wondering...

LBJ said that it can be done. But millions look at the problem while keeping one eye on the record of the recent past. In spite of prosperity the nation has operated in the red...

Reaction from various parts of the country tell us that the president has strong support in his Vietnam policy. Most of us agree that we belong there, not only to make good on our promise but especially to stop the spread of communism...

That idea in general was brought out before a special Republican meeting in Washington Monday night. Senator Dirksen emphasized the importance of Vietnam and urged the nation to think in terms of victory rather than peace negotiations...

A very disappointing point in the president's State of the Union speech was his recommendation for special legislation to prevent strikes which impose a hardship on the general public. With the New York transit strike in effect at the time, it seemed as though he was pointing a finger in that direction and telling the legislators to see that it doesn't happen any more...

Did the president forget that the law he recommends is already on the books? If so his remark was unfortunate in that it clouded an important issue in the transit strike. He implied that legislators have the responsibility of correcting the situation. The fact is that legislators did their job long ago and the executive is really at fault...

As mentioned by a Southern congressman, thousands of federal dollars are being squandered on the transit strike. (Continued on page 8)

Work Started on Scholastic Census

The scholastic census of the Muenster school district is under way. Superintendent L. B. Bruns said Wednesday that forms are being prepared now and many of them have been sent out with the school children, as usual.

Parents can help by completing the forms and returning them the next day. Doing that will enable Bruns and his workers to avoid delay in compiling their list of students. The big concern this year, as before, is the possibility of missing a child in the census, especially one who will be 6 years old as of September 1. Children attending either of the local schools are on the class rolls and they will not be overlooked. And the preschool enrollment list is an excellent check list for the new school children. So there is only one small group left to worry about — the six year olds not attending pre school classes. Parents of these children can be helpful by calling the school and reporting their new listings.

Work Begins on New Building for Stockmen's Store

A modern new feed store and mill is in the making for Stockmen's Feed Store. Work started on it this week and will proceed as fast as weather conditions will permit, according to owner-manager Albert (Buster) Herr.

It is located across the railroad near the south city limits, a short distance from the firm's storage bins. The building will be a 40x100 ft. structure of steel framework and steel siding and roofing. A special feature will be compact cluster of 36 bins with a capacity for a half million pounds of grain. Four of those bins will measure 8x8 and 28 feet high and thirty two other bins will measure 4x4 and also 28 feet high. Purpose is to have a variety of grain easily available for mixing any kind of feed formula a customer wants.

While construction is under way Stockmen's Feed Store will continue operating in its old location. When the building is ready the grinding and mixing equipment and the store's inventory will be moved to its new location.

Registration Set Monday, Tuesday At County College

Most of the 1,000 students expected for the Spring Semester at Cooke County Junior College will register Monday and Tuesday, January 24 and 25.

Classes will begin Wednesday, January 26, for both day and evening students.

President John H. Parker predicts the 1966 Spring enrollment will break all previous Spring registration records. To meet the needs of more citizens — adults as well as teenagers — a comprehensive schedule of both college transfer courses and job-oriented classes is available.

Sophomores will register during the day Monday, January 24, from 8:30 until 11:00 a.m. and from 1 to 3 p.m. Evening college registration is scheduled Monday, January 24, from 6 to 8 p.m.

New students and other classified as freshmen will register Tuesday, January 25, from 8:30 until 11 a.m. and from 1 to 3 p.m. No registration is scheduled for Tuesday night.

Prospective students with work or other conflicts may make arrangements for late registration at the Registrar's Office.

"We discourage late registration by those who could come at the hours scheduled when the full faculty is helping with registration," President Parker explained. "The student registering late often finds the particular section he wants has been filled. Also, he gets off (Continued on page 5)

Firemen Re-Elect Hartman as Chief

Muenster volunteer firemen in their annual election of officers chose Alvin Hartman to continue as their fire chief. He served about ten months of last year moving up from assistant chief after illness forced Joe Moser to quit the top position. Prior to that Hartman had been chief for one year.

Other officers for the year are Jerry Wimmer, assistant chief, and Tommy Herr, re-elected secretary-treasurer. Ed Schneider, whose term as trustee ended, was elected for three more years. The other trustees are Gene Hoedebeck with a year remaining and Henry Pels with two years.

5 Inch Snowfall Covers Muenster

Winter finally arrived in Muenster Wednesday morning — at least in appearance. A five inch blanket of snow gave the season a very real look even though it was still lacking the very real feel. Temperature accompanying the snowfall and later ranged from 35 to 40 degrees, just cold enough to allow very slow thawing.

Up to now the winter has been about the mildest on record here. First freeze of the season was late, other freezes have been few and mild. Fall flowers remained late and spring flowers appeared early.

Actually the season's first snow came on Monday, however it was light and did not last long in the warm temperature.

The snow melted down to a moisture measure of .29, making a total of 1.33 to date for January. It started with .88 inch on New Year's Day and added .07 on the fifth, .02 on the 18th and .07 on the 19th.

Final figure for last year's rainfall was 37.68 in.

Metal Baler Will Dispose of Local Old Auto Bodies

The Great Society's beautification program is coming to Muenster. J. P. Flusche, salvage metal dealer, announced this week that he has arranged to bring in a sheet metal baler to compress old automobile bodies, refrigerators, ranges, washers, etc., into compact packages for return to steel companies.

The project will definitely improve the looks of his salvage yard, says Flusche. However it is too far from the highway to be very helpful in the highway beautification program — unless wrecks within sight of the road are hauled to the metal baler.

That is a service offered by J. P. and Donald Flusche, in case anyone is interested. They will pick up wrecks and haul them in for processing if anyone asks.

The operation consists of first removing a car body from the frame, then feeding the thin metal into the compressor. It comes out as a small compact chunk. The frame and motor of a car are salvaged separately.

Removal of bodies from frames with a cutting torch is under way now. As soon as that job is finished the compressor will be moved in.

Kenneth Wiesman Gets Promotion

The Austin resident agency of the U.S. Secret Service has been raised to a district field office with expanded jurisdiction and Kenneth Wiesman who has been serving as resident agent has been promoted to special agent in charge of the office. He is a native of Muenster, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Al Wiesman. His wife is the former Jeanette Meurer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Meurer, also of Muenster.

The Austin office has been expanded to include the Waco division of the Western District of Texas, formerly under the Dallas Secret Service office.

Upgrading the Austin office has extended its territory over 13 additional counties. The staff now serves 30 counties.

Wiesman said the Austin office is concerned with all matters pertaining to the protection of the President, the Vice President, former presidents and their families, counterfeiting and forgery of obligations of the United States and foreign countries.

Program Starts in Remedial Reading

Remedial Reading, another program under provisions of the Elementary Secondary Education Act passed by Congress last year, is due to begin next Monday at the Muenster public school.

Mrs. Edgar Dyer, with a Master of Education degree from East Texas State University, will teach the course. She is busy this week grouping students into classes and making other preparations for the program.

Attorney General Advises Texans to Pay Poll Taxes

Deadline for payment of the poll tax — the "ticket to vote" in 1966 elections — is closing in.

Democrats, Republicans, liberals and conservatives are emphasizing this in the wind-up of their voter registration drives this week.

All sides apparently are concerned that some of their supporters may fail to qualify. This because of confusion over the federal suit to ban the poll tax.

Suit has not been decided. Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr and State Democratic Executive Committee Chairman Will D. Davis issued reminders that federal judges who will rule on it have advised Texans to pay their poll taxes, since they will reach no decision before January 31.

Carr noted these requirements for voter eligibility in 1966:

Those who want to vote in all primary, general or special elections for nomination of candidates (including state and local), or on bond issues, constitutional amendments and other propositions — and who hold no exemptions — must pay the $1.75 poll tax no later than the end of the month.

Those turning 21 years of age can secure exemption certificates up to 30 days prior to an election, as can new residents just completing their residential eligibility by election date.

Free poll tax receipts are available through January 31 to qualify voters to cast ballots for federal officers (U.S. senator and congressman only this year).

Apparently, 1966 will see lots of political action — and the voter without a poll tax will be on the outside looking in.

Pilot Point Native Appointed Bishop Of San Angelo

Monsignor Thomas Tschoepe, vicar general of the Dallas-Fort Worth diocese, has been appointed bishop of the San Angelo diocese.

His appointment by Pope Paul VI was announced at Washington last week by Archbishop Egidio Vagnizzi, apostolic delegate to the United States.

Monsignor Tschoepe becomes the second bishop of the San Angelo diocese, succeeding Thomas J. Drury, who was transferred to the Corpus Christi diocese on July 21, 1965.

He was born Dec. 17, 1915, at Pilot Point a son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Tschoepe. His mother, three brothers and four sisters are still living.

After attending St. Thomas School at Pilot Point he studied twelve years at the Pontifical College Josephinum at Worthington, Ohio. He was ordained at Worthington on May, 30, 1943, as a priest of the Diocese of Dallas.

Assignments since then include assistant pastor of St. Patrick's, Fort Worth, St. Mary's, Sherman and Sacred Heart Cathedral, Dallas; then pastor of St. Patrick's, St. Augustine's and Sacred Heart Cathedral of Dallas. Along with parish duties he served as vice chancellor of the diocese beginning in 1949 and as chancellor beginning in 1952. He was appointed papal chamberlain with the title of Very Rev. Monsignor in February 1961 and became vicar general of the diocese in January 1962.

In his new work Bishop Tschoepe will serve 61,600 Catholics in an area including 42,000 square miles in 24 counties, principal cities of which are San Angelo, Midland and Odessa.

Consecration and installation ceremonies will probably be held in about two months.

Enrollment Ends For Pre-Schoolers

Enrollment in the Muenster pre-school program has increased to 56, and no more children are being admitted.

Superintendent L. B. Bruns said that the two classes with enrollment of 28 children each are already crowded far beyond the recommended number of twenty each.

The new pupils are Jan Krahl, Barbara Klement, James Yosten and Gene Yosten.

SH Parishioners Asked to Submit Data for Census

Plans for an up to date census of Sacred Heart Parish were announced last Sunday by Father Alcuin Kubis, pastor. It will be mostly a do-it-yourself job in which each family is asked to submit its census information and parish personnel will arrange the data into a complete report and reference book.

Because the job is being done in that way it is most urgent that all families cooperate by getting in their reports. Father Andrew Wewer said this week that the list will be checked as carefully as possible in trying to make sure it is complete, but no one can be sure that a missing name will not be overlooked in the checking. A family's best assurance of being counted is to turn in its report.

Suggested as the most convenient way of doing that is to drop the list in the collection basket at Sunday Masses. Otherwise a person can bring it or mail it to the Rectory.

Information wanted is the listing of each family unit with date and place of birth of each member. The list should include members who are away temporarily but still belong to the family — for instance, those in college or in the army. And it should not include children who are married. Each married couple is a family unit, so to avoid duplication, the two persons heading a new family are dropped from their previous family lists.

Father Andrew said progress on the census will be determined by the people's promptness in getting in their lists. They can make the job both simpler and faster by responding early.

DPS Chief Urges Texans to Hurry Auto Inspection

AUSTIN — Col. Homer Garrison Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, commended Texas motorists this week for their improving compliance with the Motor Vehicle Inspection law.

"Already some 250,000 more vehicles are displaying the new inspection sticker than there were at the same time last year," he said. "This indicates that Texans are aware of the benefits of having their cars inspected early. Not only does it give each driver the assurance that his vehicle is mechanically sound, it also relieves him of the irritating necessity of having to wait in line as the April 15 deadline draws nearer."

During the summer of 1965, the DPS conducted its annual training program for all garage mechanics desiring to be qualified to inspect vehicles at authorized inspection stations. At that time, each mechanic was urged to request permission to inspect any vehicle whenever its owner brought it in for repairs or service.

Although many more motorists have had their cars inspected early this year, some 3,450,000 still have to be inspected during the next three months. This means that each inspection station will have to inspect over 10 cars per day on the average to get each vehicle inspected before the deadline.

"It's easy to see," the DPS director said, "that lines will begin to form as the deadline draws nearer, for if a station inspects only four or five a day during the next month or so, then the load will increase to 15 or more per day as the owner brings his car in later."

In urging motorists to have their car inspected now, Garrison reminded them that when a mechanic asks for permission to inspect a vehicle he is attempting to save time for himself and the motorist.

ALWAYS THE OPTIMISTS

The optimists are at it again. Those people, who pontificate at so many microphones, who set the editorial policy of the slick magazines, and who swing a lot of weight in our State Department, are once again advancing the theory that Communist leaders (except possibly a few misguided Red Chinese leaders) are basically decent, and if we are nice to them they will surely respond in kind.

These are the same types who were so optimistic when President Roosevelt signed the 1933 treaty recognizing the Soviet Union, the biggest breakthrough that international Communism ever made. They were optimistic throughout World War II, convinced that Good Old Uncle Joe Stalin would be everlasting grateful to us for having kept Hitler from overrunning Communistland. They were optimistic about the brave new world of the future that was going to result from all those friendly get-togethers at Teheran, Yalta and Potsdam.

Their optimism undampened by what happened up to that time, these perennial optimists waxed enthusiastic about such people as Mao Tse-tung, Fidel Castro, Tito and Sukarno. Nothing was too good for these "agrarian reformers" who, they said, were dedicated to making this a better world for the downtrodden and the exploited.

Now our optimists are at it again, and as usual they are pulling out all the propaganda stops for their latest enthusiasm. That is, their theory that Soviet Russia is becoming more capitalistic every day, and the Red Chinese hate the middle-of-the-road Kremlinites because of it. So, a split is developing between them, and we must take advantage of it. This we can do by helping the USSR as much as possible. First and foremost, it is essential that we trade with them, on their terms of course, much like those we gave Stalin during World War II when we handed him $11 billion in lend-lease.

What do we get in return? Well, it's really impolite to ask, but presumably we'll get a treaty every bit as good as the one FDR signed in 1933, or those we got at Teheran, Yalta and Potsdam. However, we'll doubtless get another dividend. When our Rover Boys of Diplomacy, such as Soapy Williams are Ave Har-riman, show up at Communist capitals they won't be laughed at until they get down the road a bit.

WHERE KARL MARX FAILED

"Among other things," the publication Oil Facts observes, "Karl Marx obviously never anticipated the service needs of the automobile age."

This has to do with the government-owned service stations of communist Poland. There are only about 1,000 of them in that nation of 30 million people. Communists papers have described their operations as primitive and often chaotic. Motorists usually find them either jammed or closed. So, as an experiment, contracts have been let to private individuals to operate some of the stations.

This seems to be another example of how communists nations are moving, even though very slowly and reluctantly, in the direction of the capitalist principle that the best way to get results is to encourage private enterprise. Even in Russia, the once-revealed profit motive is being tried out in certain areas of production and distribution in an effort to stimulate the economy. The commissars, faced with the failures of plan after plan, are being forced to swallow some bitter pills.

As for Poland's service stations, it will be a long time before they will remotely compare to those that free enterprise has created in our own country.

BUREAUCRATIC REMEDY

Some government agencies apparently can fix whatever is ailing you without even checking the symptoms. This is the case as reported from Iowa recently where an organization asked the Post Office Department to check on why some mail they were expecting didn't arrive until it was two weeks late. The letter in reply from the POD is some sort of classic. "We have made a thorough investigation but have been unable to find the cause for the delay . . . Specific corrective action has been taken in this case which should prevent a recurrence . . ." The organization receiving this enlightening bit of information has the comment: "Anyway it is comforting to find out that even without knowing what is wrong, the POD has fixed it."

Henry Hazlitt writes in Newsweek: "The real author of inflation is the government. It has been averaging an annual cash deficit of $4 billion for the last six years. It has been pushing down interest rates. It has been increasing the money supply recently at an annual rate of 8 per cent. It has cheapened the dollar. And now it tries to divert attention from its own inflation (which it calls 'expansionary' policies) by making industry the scapegoat."

Texas 65 Plan of Insurance Ends as Medicare Starts

H. Lewis Rietz, president of the Texas 65 Health Insurance Association, announced Monday that Medicare will eliminate the need for which Texas 65 was established, that is offering health insurance protection to Texans over the age of 65.

Rietz stated that when Medicare goes into effect on July 1, health insurance coverage will be readily available to everyone over the age of 65, and since Medicare will duplicate most of the coverage offered by Texas 65, the latter will terminate its program at midnight, June 30. He emphasized, however, that Texas 65 will continue to offer health insurance protection to its members until Medicare takes over, and that it will remain in operation after July 1 to handle claims incurred before its termination.

Rietz urged those who are now protected by Texas 65, or other private health insurance plans, to keep their policies in force until Medicare benefits start on July 1, so that they will not be without coverage should illness or accident occur.

The Texas 65 Health Insurance Association was authorized by special legislation, enacted by the 1963 Texas Legislature. Since its first enrollment period in October of that year, Rietz said it has paid claims in excess of $7,700,000 to over 42,000 Texans.

"Through these payments," he said, "Texas 65 has helped thousands of Texas families avoid financial disaster due to illness or accident. The 64 insurance companies who have underwritten the program are glad to have been able to offer this service to the people of this State," he concluded.

Rietz said that the some 35,000 Texans now enrolled in Texas 65 have been notified of the July termination of the program, and that they had been urged to enroll in Part B, the voluntary portion of Medicare, which provides for doctor's services and certain other medical expenses for $3 per month.

Rietz said that Texas 65 is currently studying the possibilities of continuing coverage for the under 65 spouses of Texas 65 insureds. He said, "We realize this group of Texans, now protected by Texas 65, will not have Medicare protection until their 65th birthday. We hope to work out plans to continue to offer them coverage until they are eligible for Medicare. Details of this plan will be announced when they are completed."

What's the Use?
 A pessimist has defined ambition as working your head off at a job you don't enjoy, in a place you don't like, trying to save money you can't keep, in order to spend your declining years in idle boredom that you can't stand at some place you won't like any better.

It's a strange world: The U.S. Supreme Court has ruled it is unlawful to require Communists to register as such as heretofore required . . . Freedom is a great thing — that is what these Communists have vowed to destroy. Yet, we give them every aid and encouragement that is possible.

CONVERT

Maybe some men have good reason for joining the communists after all. Consider Pat, an Irishman, for example.

"Why'd ye join 'em Pat?" asked a friend. "Be ye daft?"
 "No, Mike," Pat explained. "I signed up last week because the doctor told me I had only ten more days to live. 'Tis better one o' them communist dies than a good Irishman."

BRUTALITY

There has been much talk of "police brutality" around the country in recent months.

Last year, 18,000 policemen — one in 10 in the United States — were assaulted. Fifty-seven were murdered by criminals.

So there is obviously "police brutality." But who is being brutal to whom?

THE HEAT'S ON

The heat is on to force the Senate to vote repeal of section 14(b) of the Taft-Hartley Act which permits states which wish to do to pass right-to-work laws.

All the power of the unions, plus heavy political pressures, are mounted behind repeal. If they succeed, working people will not have a choice anywhere. They will have to join a union, whatever their wishes and benefits, or lose their jobs. The unions will have a captive membership — a membership that can be gained by ruthless compulsion, instead of being voluntarily gained because of good service to labor.

It promises to be a nip-and-tuck battle. Those Senators who prevented, to their everlasting credit, repeal of 14(b) during the last session, can be trusted to form ranks again. And the hope is that other Senators may have heard from constituents during the between-session period and may have the strength to resist the pressures that will be brought against them.

Right-to-work, no matter what devious and deceptive arguments its opponents may dredge up, is a fundamental right. Without it, no man can be truly free.

In fiscal 1964, according to the Bureau of the Census, general government expenditures in the United States — federal, state and local — totaled $166 billion, which works out to more than $865 per person.

Preschool children suffering from birth defects spend an estimated 6 million days in hospitals each year, at a cost exceeding $180,000,000.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Walterscheid returned Thursday from a four-day visit in Bartlesville, Okla., with their daughter Mary and family, the Walter Ackers.

Charlie Schmitt of Grandview, Wash., Leo Schmitt of Yakima, Wash., and George Mikkelsen of Washuena, Wash., left Sunday after a four-day visit with relatives of the Schmitt relationship. They planned to see Las Vegas on the way home. The trio had been in Peoria, Ill., to visit a Caterpillar implement plant, stopped to see friends in Minneapolis, Minn., and visited George's former hometown, Newton, N. D. It was his first visit in Muenster and the Schmitt brothers made the rounds with him showing him places of interest in their former hometown.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Bindel and children Cynthia, Tim, Phyllis, Gary, Benny and Brian were Sunday afternoon visitors with her sister and family, the James Bayers at Valley View. They were among guests at a birthday party for Jimmy Bayer and stayed for supper with the family.

Business and pleasure were combined by Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Weinzapfel Wednesday on a trip to Sherman. The pleasure was visiting former Muensterites Mrs. Callie Baumhardt and Sister Irma Endres. Both sent greetings back to Muenster friends. Friday Mrs. Weinzapfel spent the day with her daughter Mrs. H. L. Jackson in Fort Worth. She made the trip with her son Henry Weinzapfel who was a business visitor.

Next Monday, Jan. 24, Mrs. Mary Donohue of Springfield, Mo., will observe her 94th birthday. She is formerly of Muenster, a sister of J. C. Trachta, Mrs. Jake Pagel, Mrs. I. A. Schoech and Mrs. John Walter of Muenster, Miss Clara Trachta of Los Angeles, Calif., and Mrs. John Fisch of Okmulgee, Okla.

A brat is a child who acts like your own but belongs to a neighbor.

Jones had no experience in collecting debts, but he was desperately in need of a job. The merchant to whom he applied had not much faith in his ability, and more to get rid of him than anything else gave him and old account against a man who had the reputation of paying nothing till he had to.

"If you collect this money," he said, "I will give you a regular job."

To the merchant's astonishment, Jones returned in half an hour with all the money.

"How did you do it?" he gasped.

"I told him," said Jones, "that if he didn't pay I would tell all his other creditors that he had!"

CD of A Court Has Business Meeting

Members of Muenster Court Catholic Daughters of America at their January meeting Friday night looked ahead to two coming events of interest to the organization: the state convention in El Paso in April and the First Mass of Father Frowin Schoech in May.

Mrs. Ed Schmitt was elected delegate to represent the local court at the convention. Mrs. J. W. Fisher was named alternate.

Members have started planning for a community dinner they will serve on the day of Father Frowin's First Mass.

In other business conducted by Mrs. Al Schmitt, grand regent, Mrs. Steve Moser gave the library report and two letters of thanks were read from missionaries in India and Africa for Christmas gifts.

Mrs. Al Schmitt reported on the birthday party the court sponsors each month at Golden Years Rest Home. Hostesses with Mrs. Schmitt were Mrs. Ben Luke and Mrs. Andy Schoech. They took a decorated cake and served it to the patients after a visit with each of the shut-ins. For the February party, hostesses will be Mrs. Joe Hoenig Mrs. R. R. Endres and Mrs. John Fleitman.

After adjournment, refreshment hostesses Mrs. Tommy Knabe and Mrs. Donald Bayer served cookies and coffee to those present.

Sunday visitors with the Andy O'Connors were their son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. Bill Fry of Dallas.

Carol Mosman Wins Homemaker Award at MHS

Muenster High School's 1966 Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow is Carol Mosman. She scored highest in a written knowledge and attitude examination taken by senior girls Dec. 7, 1965, and is now eligible for state and national scholarship awards. Carol has already earned a special award pin from the program's sponsor, General Mills.

Test papers of all school winners in the state are being judged, and a State Homemaker of Tomorrow and runner-up will be selected soon. The State Homemaker of Tomorrow will receive a $1,500 college scholarship, and her school will be awarded a complete set of the Encyclopaedia Britannica by Encyclo-lopaedica Britannica, Inc. The second-ranking girl in the state will receive a $500 educational grant.

Next spring, the State Betty Crocker Homemakers of Tomorrow from every state and the District of Columbia, each accompanied by a school advisor, will join an expense-paid educational tour of Colonial Williamsburg, Va., and Washington, D.C. Then, the 1966 All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow will be announced at a dinner in Washington. Chosen from state winners on the basis of original test score and personal observation and interviews during the tour, she will have her scholarship increased to $5,000. Second-, third-, and fourth-ranking Homemakers of Tomorrow in the nation will be awarded $4,000, $3,000 and $2,000 grants, respectively.

The Betty Crocker Search for the American Homemaker of Tomorrow was instituted by General Mills in 1954-55 to emphasize the importance of homemaking as a career. The program has enrolled 4,627,943 senior girls, with total scholarship grants exceeding $1,261,000. The 570,824 girls and 14,714 schools participating in the 1965-66 Search establish a new record enrollment.

In Myra for a Sunday visit with Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Rennels were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Welch of Marietta, Okla.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Richey and children Robyn Ann, Craig, Todd and Stephanie are packing to move to Gainesville this weekend. They bought a home there.

91st Birthday for Mrs. Mike Kleiss

Mrs. Mike Kleiss, whose birthday each year brings the family together, had the traditional observance again this year on Jan. 12. For the first time in over 70 years the party wasn't at her home. It was at Golden Years Rest Home where she is a patient since Dec. 10.

Children and grandchildren visited her on the eve of her birthday and Mrs. Al Kleiss presented a birthday cake.

The next day other children including a daughter Sister Aloysia, and granddaughters, and a sister-in-law, Miss Lena Kleiss, helped here celebrate. Granddaughter Mrs. Leo Lawson took a decorated cake and Mrs. C. M. Walterscheid, a daughter, took a blueberry pie. These were left at the Rest Home for patients at supper. The cake decorated the supper table.

The end of school brings home to parents what teachers have known for nine months.

Chris Cain Chosen FHA '66 Sweetheart

Chris Cain is Muenster FHA Chapter's 1966 Sweetheart. He was elected at the girls' January meeting Wednesday. Chris is a junior, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Cain.

In other business the home-making class decided to sell sweet rolls one day a week during the morning break to boost the club treasury.

The program was on manners and dress. Each girl drew from a box problem concerning a teen-ager and gave the answer with suggestions on what to wear and helpful ideas on conduct. Mrs. Henry Weinzapfel, chapter advisor, presided.

The evening meeting was held in the home economics room with about 25 members present. Diane Amoroso, president, conducted the business session during which Shirley Klement read minutes of the previous meeting and Carol Mosman gave the treasurer's report.

Muenster Hi Loses To Callisburg and Saint Jo Teams

Muenster High basketball teams were completely blanked in their two twin programs of the past week. Last Friday night they were clobbered by Callisburg and Tuesday night they got the same treatment from Saint Jo.

That completes the first half of the season with Muenster girls at the bottom of the list and Muenster boys near the bottom. The girls have a record of 0-5 and the boys have a record of 2-3.

Last Friday night Callisburg girls, leaders of the district had an easy time running up a 58-21 win. Jill Swirczynski and Debbie Cain shared scoring honors for the home team with 7 each.

The boys game was a 4-4 tie for the first quarter after which the visiting Wildcats hit their stride and gained for counts of 20-8, 35-16 and 47-27. Chris Cain hit 12 and Robison 8 for the Hornets.

Both of the local teams were swamped by Saint Jo. In the girls' game the score was 52-20 as Jill Swirczynski made 9, Debbie Cain 6 and Linda Wilson 5 for MHS.

Next one the Panthers ran away from the Hornets 64-35. Top scorers for Muenster were Robert Russell 19 and Dale Klement 6.

CCJC Registration

to a late start if he misses the first class assignment."

Almost every freshman beginning course will be repeated this Spring semester, enabling any student enrolling for the first time to select all the courses he needs.

Besides regular freshman and sophomore courses, CCJC has expanded its comprehensive business education curriculum. Complete career preparation is now available to secretaries, office managers, punch card operators, typists, and other persons interested in business occupations.

A technical drafting curriculum, tied directly to meeting the pressing need for draftsmen in the Dallas-Fort Worth industrial area, will place emphasis on preparation for immediate employment as draftsman after two years or less training at CCJC.

CCJC's technical and vocational courses are expanding in conjunction with plans for a $300,000 vocational-technical building. Now on the drawing boards, the building is awaiting federal and state matching funds that will make possible its construction. The building is in addition to two other new classroom buildings for which matching funds are already available.

An auto mechanics course is offered on Monday nights. Photography and Astronomy, two of the most popular CCJC courses during the past semester, are being repeated.

Several music, art and drama courses may have special appeal to housewives and hobbyists, as well as to prospective majors in these areas.

Kin in Killeen At Baby's Baptism

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Hartman of Killeen had members from both sides of the family as guests Sunday to attend the baptism of their infant daughter Margaret Emily and as guests for a christening dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kosel of Temple were godparents for their niece. The baby's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kosel of Rosebud and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Hartman of Muenster were there. Another uncle and aunt of the newborn, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Schmitt were present. It was the group's get-acquainted visit with the newest member of the family and for some the first time to see the Willard Hartmans in their Killeen home.

Robert Haverkamp and Rainard Walterscheid are enroute back to their oil field work in North Africa after a month's vacation with their families, the Al Haverkamps and Mrs. Harold Walterscheid. They left from Dallas by jet Sunday to New York City, from there to Frankfurt, Germany, where they planned to spend some time visiting and sightseeing before boarding another plane for their destination. Teachers Select New Textbooks For Public School

It's textbook adoption time at Muenster Public School. Superintendent L. B. Bruns said Wednesday that the sample books are arriving daily for inspection of teachers in the subjects concerned.

And the school reports its choice of textbooks in each subject whether or not that subject is being taught. Then there will be no delay in getting books if a subject is added to the curriculum. Selections are to be reported by March 15 and needed books are ordered during the summer for the next school year.

Sample textbooks received are basal reading readiness, basal reading pre-primer, basal reading primer and basal reading grades 1, 2 and 3 also supplemental readers in pre-primer, primer and grades 1, 2 and 3 geography 3, Spanish 3, 4, 5 and 6, trigonometry, health education, chemistry, economics, related math 2, English composition for each year of high school and high school Spanish.

Lynne Padgett and Buster Kubis Say Vows in Muenster

Sacred Heart Church in Muenster was the scene of the wedding Saturday of Miss Lynne Padgett and Bernard Joseph (Buster) Kubis. The Rev. Alcuin Kubis, pastor, uncle of the bridegroom, celebrated the Nuptial Mass and performed the double ring ceremony at 4 p.m.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Harry Padgett of Gainesville and the late Mr. Padgett. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kubis of Lindsay.

The bride was given in marriage by J. L. Hargesheimer. For her wedding Lynne chose a floor-length gown of white peau de soie enhanced with appliques of lace. The controlled skirt swept into a formal train. A pillbox of peau de soie and lace held her waist length veil and she carried a cascade of white gladioli.

Miss Mary Ann Wiese was honor maid and Miss Carol Ann Morisak was bridesmaid. Their dresses were floor-length of crimson peau de soie and their flowers were white gladioli arranged as a snowball with English ivy. Red velvet ribbon streamers were attached.

Kathy and Mike Hargesheimer served as flower girl and ring bearer.

Gilbert Kubis was his brother's best man and Leslie Kuhn of Lindsay was groomsman. Ushering the guests were Kenneth Thurman and Adam Wolf.

Anthony Luke was organist and the men's choir sang for Mass. Mrs. Norbert Walterscheid was vocal soloist before Mass and again after the service when the bride presented a bouquet of white gladioli at the Blessed Virgin's altar.

Serving as candle lighters and acolytes were Anthony Felderhoff and Gene and David Voth.

A catered dinner was served following the ceremony. This was held in Muenster Parish Hall where greenery and red ribbon streamers with red taps decorated the tables. Misses Kathy Clapp and Darla Kerr registered the guests.

After a wedding trip to New Mexico, the couple will reside in Gainesville. For traveling the bride wore a beige suit and brown accessories.

The bride is a Gainesville High graduate and is employed by Relaxo Bak Inc. The bridegroom graduated from Lindsay High and is co-owner of Kubis Motor Co. in Gainesville.

Among the guests at the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Till of Corpus Christi.

Of the babies born alive, one in 40 does not live to see his first birthday. A total of 105,000 infants under one year of age die annually. Birth defects are a leading cause of these deaths.

Birth defects afflict 250,000 babies born in the U.S. each year — 700 a day — one every other minute.

A lady at a supermarket checkout counter unloaded a quart of milk, a dozen eggs, a TV dinner, six cartons of cigarets, hand lotion, suntan lotion, face cream, work gloves, flashlight batteries, two magazines, and the latest hit record. At least half of all mental retardation is caused by defective prenatal development. This means that nearly 3,000,000 persons in the U. S. are mentally retarded because of birth defects.

Between 40 and 50 per cent of the children admitted to many of our nation's hospitals are being treated for some sort of birth defect.

The group met in the TP&L community room with Mrs. Paul Fisher as hostess.

Mrs. Joe Hoenig, president, conducted the business session and read a letter of thanks from the State Hospital in Wichita Falls for Christmas gifts the club sent. Mrs. John H. Wimmer gave the council report.

Mrs. Fisher served refreshments to 14 members and Mrs. Thurman. Door prizes were won by Mmes. Al Walter, Hoenig and Thurman. Mrs. Ray Klement invited members to her home for the February meeting.

Livestock Prices Prospects Bright For Current Year

COLLEGE STATION, Jan 20 —Prospects for livestock prices for the year ahead are bright.

Ed Uvacek, livestock marketing specialist at Texas A&M University, says lower cattle numbers, a smaller calf crop, and a reduced slaughter level should hold feed cattle and feeder prices above 1965 levels.

He adds that 1966 may be one of the most profitable years since the early 1950's for sheep and lamb producers.

The specialist believes hog prices during the first half of 1966 will again establish new highs. A large production expansion of the spring pig crop could provide an over-correction of the number of hogs and force price levels during the last half of 1966 to levels slightly below those of last year.

Uvacek says the inventory count of cattle and calves on farms on January 1 is expected to be down about one and a half million head from a year ago. He believes herd liquidation to continue through 1966 but at a slower rate, thus reducing the number still further on next January 1. This, he adds, may well be the end of liquidation and the start of another buildup phase for a new cycle.

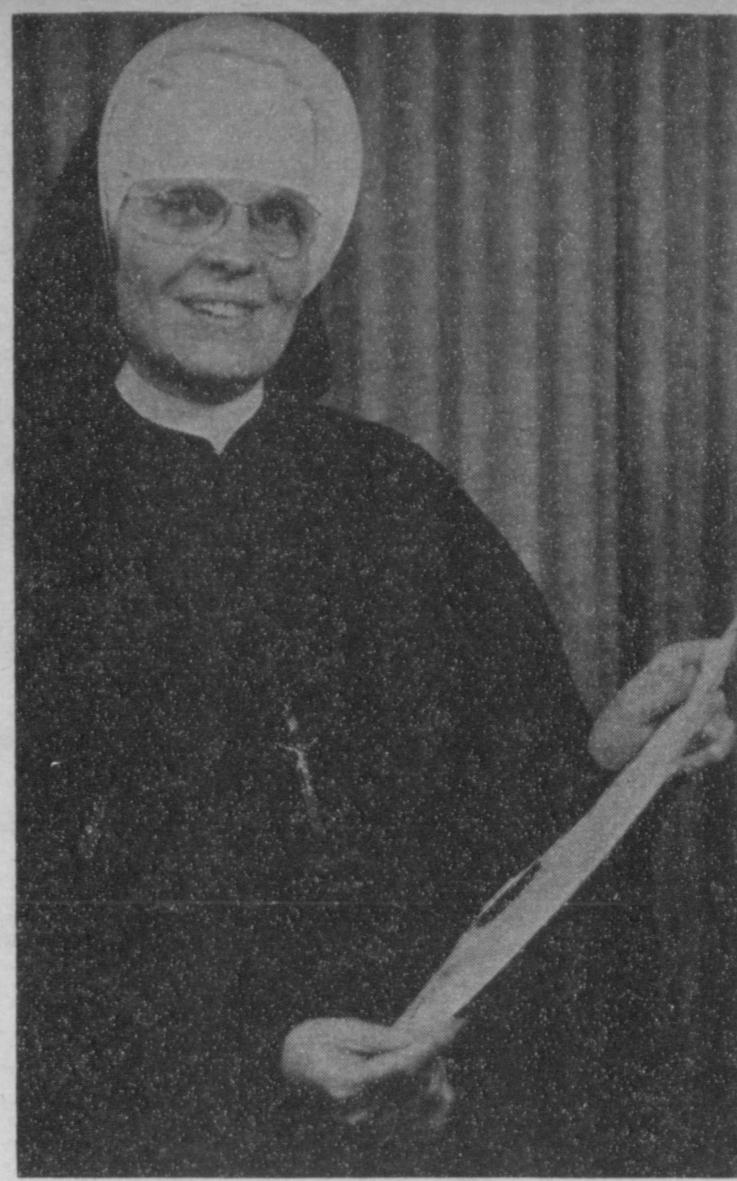

He noted that cow slaughter in 1965 was up about 26 per cent over 1964, and was a major factor in the January 1 inventory reduction figure. But there were other factors which added strength to the 1965 market, steer slaughter was down and heifer slaughter up and slaughter weights of both steers and heifers were down, thus reducing the total production of beef.

Uvacek expects cow prices to seasonally move higher into the spring and then slack off during summer and fall. The demand for replacements plus lower levels of imports strengthened cow prices during 1965, and will continue to influence 1966 prices, he says.

A tiger in the tank is all right, but there are too many cars with a monkey at the wheel.

An enterprising young mother explained that she got her son out of bed in the morning by opening the door to his bedroom and throwing the cat on his bed. "How does that help?" asked a friend.

CENTENNIAL YEAR — Reverend Mother M. Amata, superior general of Sisters of Divine Providence, reads a memorandum from Governor Connally in recognition of the "Centennial Year" which starts Friday.

Governor's Official Memo Praises Sisters of Divine Providence on Observance of Centennial Year

Honorable John Connally, Governor of Texas, and Honorable John L. McKeithen, Governor of Louisiana, by official memorandum directed special attention to the Sisters of Divine Providence's "Centennial of Service," launched Jan. 14. "It is fitting," the memorandum states in part, "that special attention be called to the dedicated service of this group," and it urges appropriate recognition of this important milestone of the congregation.

With members of the congregation working in 45 Texas, 12 Oklahoma, 15 Louisiana, 1 Arkansas, 1 Mexico, and 2 New Mexico communities, the 800 Sisters of Divine Providence scattered throughout these areas will commemorate their Texas Foundation with a series of religious, educational, social and civic programs during the year.

The climax of the civic celebration of the Centennial Year, which opened with the Pontifical Mass offered by Archbishop Robert E. Lucey Friday, will be a Historical Drama presented in the San Antonio Municipal Auditorium, July 8. In connection with the opening activities of the Centennial Year, Our Lady of the Lake College presented the first in a series of programs, "The

Bobby: "Oh, because they made such a fuss about the baby swallowing a quarter."

Among the more than 425,000 valued customers served today by Texas Power & Light Company, there are hundreds of people who can recall the time before electric lights were in general use.

A little more than three decades after Edison perfected the incandescent bulb, TP&L built, in 1913, the first transmission line in Texas.

Since that time, there have been notable advances in the techniques of producing and supplying electric power and in the development of electrically operated devices which make living easier, more comfortable and more pleasant.

All of this has come about under America's free enterprise system, of which the electric industry and TP&L are a part.

eral troops were sent in when violation of court orders involved civil rights in Alabama and Arkansas; but nothing was done when the union's violation of a court order involved the rights of millions of New Yorkers.

Official disregard of the law prohibiting a transit strike also continues after the strike settlement. No one is being called to account for violation of the court order. Those who were in prison were released. The fine prescribed for violation has not been assessed. It's political double talk to say there ought to be a law. The law is there with plenty of teeth. The only lack of teeth was in those who should have enforced it.

Another disappointment was the president's reaction when told of settlement terms in the transit strike. He said the raise was inflationary and contrary to the national interest. That was all, just a critical comment. He did not apply pressure, as against steel and aluminum companies, to force a cut back in the raise.

One of the greatest needs of the Great Society is a proper attitude toward high handed labor leaders who violate the rights of the public and their own members. Some of the faults can be corrected by just enforcing existing laws.
