The story of another atrocity comes from the war area this week. A gang of Viet Cong somewhere near Saigon, facing a certainty that their camp would be taken by South Vietnamese soldiers, vacated abruptly, but only after butchering some forty prisoners, including women and children. The few who survived the savage mass murder told how the defenseless victims were suddenly attacked with machetes.

There have been many other stories like that. Of Cong ambushes on unsympathetic civilians with grenades and mortars. Of using women and children as shields while firing on Vietnamese and U. S. positions. Of torturing hostages to force villages to do their bidding.

But while the Cong make a habit of such savagery, they are howling their heads off about American pilots who kill North Vietnamese civilians on their bombing raids. And even in that they are being hypocritical. They fail to admit their own treachery of placing military targets in civilian areas in order to use those civilians as shields.

The situation is exasperating and it becomes more so as publicity in this country, and presumably elsewhere in the world, gives thorough coverage to the communist complaint. But too little is said about their atrocities. We even have men in public office who complain more about our killings than theirs. Apparently they don't even try to distinguish between deliberate butchery of civilians by the Cong and accidental civilian casualties resulting from our raids on military targets.

That's only one of the many circumstances which make one wonder what is needed to inspire a national unified determination to win. One would think that these things would provoke us to make extra efforts — if we can't be sufficiently alarmed about the threat of communist growth or the waste of precious American lives.

Reports coming out of Asia nowadays seem to indicate that the free world has never had a better opportunity to upset the communist grand plan, American military and political observers have been saying for a long time that we can win in months. This doesn't have to be drawn out for five, ten, or twenty years as the official attitude assumes. All we need is some old time American method.

First in order is to wipe out enemy air fields which for some unknown reason remain immune to attack even though shooting down our planes. Next in order is to bomb supplies and blockade shipping to prevent arrival of more supplies. After that it would not take South Vietnamese long to finish the Cong.

Most likely reds would be ready for peace talks then. But that would not be the correct time. Next on our calendar after that should be to help South Vietnam liberate its countrymen to the north. It's not only that North and South Vietnam deserve to be reunited as a free country. But reds also need to be shown that aggression can backfire. Such a final settlement might discourage further red conquest. And certainly it would serve our avowed purpose of checking the spread of communism.

Another big free world opportunity seems to be developing in present Chinese troubles. Daily reports tell about the turmoil, which in some opinions is very near to a civil war. As the political struggle boils, the Nationalists of Formosa say they are ready to move in and liberate their homeland.

Well, why not give them that opportunity? Especially in view of the fact that their chances are very good. And even more so because we owe them a long overdue good turn to offset the dirty deal we gave them years ago. If we had not failed them then their people never would have fallen under the red yoke.

Mrs. G.H. Hellman Dies Wednesday Of Heart Attack

Sudden death attributed to a heart attack claimed Mrs. G. H. Hellman, 82, Wednesday morning. A Muenster resident 62 years, she died at her home at 7:30.

Funeral services with Requiem Mass will be held Friday morning in Sacred Heart Church at 10 a.m. with Father Joseph Weinzapfel of Breckenridge, Mrs. Hellman's godchild, officiating. Burial will follow in Sacred Heart Cemetery. Nick Miller Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Two rosary services at the Miller Chapel were scheduled for Thursday, the 4 p.m. service conducted by the parish St. Anne's Society of which she was a member, and the community rosary at 8 p.m.

The former Miss Anda Fette was born in Saint Paul, Iowa, on July 19, 1884. She came to Muenster in 1904 and on Nov. 14, 1905, was married to Gus H. Hellman, a schoolmate and childhood sweetheart who came to Muenster ten years earlier. Both were leaders in parish and civic activity. He died on Feb. 14, 1959.

Mrs. Hellman served as local Red Cross chairman during World War II and pushed every quota over the top. She was a nurses aid at Camp Howze and in later years served as a Gray Lady at Denton State School. She was active in mission work, sewing, remodeling and helping pack each year during the annual clothing campaign. And she was an avid knitter. She taught knitting to classes at both local schools.

The mother of five, she is survived by three sons and one daughter, Arthur Hellman of Muenster, Dr. Hugo Hellman of Milwaukee, Paul W. Hellman of Tulsa and Mrs. Vincent Baker of Chicago.

Also surviving are one sister, Mrs. Joe Lehnertz and one brother, C. J. Fette, both of Muenster, a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Rudy J. Hellman also of Muenster, 22 grandchildren and 28 great-grandchildren.

Meeting Booked January 25 for County Dairymen

County Agent Neil Tibbets this week announced a dairy education meeting for Cooke County dairymen next Wednesday, Jan. 25, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. in Community Center Building.

An impressive list of speakers is lined up for the program, each an authority on his subject. These include Sid Jenkins, marketing specialist, of A&M; A. M. Meekma with the A&M Extension Service; Charlie Spence of Sherman; James Gardenhier, superintendent of the Denton Experiment Station; Dick Bates of the Noble Research Foundation, Ardmore, Okla.; and a representative of North Texas Producers Association, Arlington.

A free luncheon at noon will be catered by Rohmer's. First State Bank of Gainesville will pick up the tab.

Tibbets said he is mailing letters to all dairymen of the county and asking them to indicate whether they will attend so the caterer will know how many to prepare for.

MOD Collection Scheduled Jan. 29 At Church Doors

Muenster's 1967 March of Dimes fund is expected to receive a big boost on Sunday, Jan. 29, when FFW Auxiliary members, sponsors of the campaign, accept voluntary contributions following services at Sacred Heart Church.

The annual church door collection is the fund's chief source of revenue.

Other contributions will come from school children and from canteens placed in local business houses.

Dime folders were distributed to students at both schools this week and canteens are up in places of business. Auxiliary members have issued a reminder that all funds collected in the campaign are now used to fight birth defects. Members also urge a prompt and generous response so the drive can be concluded by the end of January.

Long Illness of Christine Wilde, Ended by Death

Mrs. Christine Wilde, 83, died Saturday at 6:30 p.m. in Muenster Hospital after an extended illness. She was an early day resident of the community, arriving with her parents in 1890, a year after the town was established. With the exception of 22 years spent in LaSara and Harlingen, Muenster was her home.

Funeral services with Requiem Mass were held Tuesday morning in Sacred Heart Church at 10 o'clock. Father Alcuin Kubis officiated. He also delivered the sermon and conducted graveside rites in Sacred Heart Cemetery. Nick Miller Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Rosary was recited twice at the Miller Chapel Monday. A 4 p.m. rosary was conducted by members of St. Anne's Society and the Catholic Daughters of America. She was a member of both organizations. The community rosary was held at 8 p.m.

Bearers were grandsons: Emmett, Gene and Cyril Walterscheid, Clyde Walterscheid, Elmer Wiesman and Leonard Zimmerer.

Mrs. Wilde, the former Christine Voth, was born in Borken, Germany, Dec. 24, 1882, a daughter of Henry and Christina Voth who immigrated to the United States with their family in 1884. They lived in Albion, Neb., for almost seven years then settled in Muenster.

Christine Voth was married to Pete Walterscheid in May 1901. He died in 1934. In 1940 she married John Wilde of LaSara, Texas, and they lived there and at Harlingen until his death in LaSara in Feb. 1849. They had just built a new home in Harlingen and she resided there until four years ago when she returned to Muenster.

Surviving are three sons, Tony and Paul Walterscheid of Muenster and Edward Walterscheid of Arroyo City; two daughters, Mrs. Henry Zimmerer of Lindsay and Mrs. Frank Wiesman of Harlingen; one sister, Mrs. J. S. Horn of Muenster; one brother, Joe Voth of Justin; 17 grandchildren. (Continued on page 4)

Resident Deputy Quits Local Job

For a while Muenster people will have to get along without the services of a resident officer. Sheriff Bill Pratt told the city council Monday night that his deputy, Gene Roberts, has resigned, and asked whether the council wishes to continue its cooperative arrangement with the sheriff's department. Roberts was a deputy sheriff specially assigned to Muenster and the city of Muenster paid half of his salary.

Assured that the city wishes to continue the deal, Pratt said he will start hunting a replacement at once. In the meantime, he said, the city will have part time service. As in previous similar situations deputies will be here frequently to patrol the town.

Mrs. Frank Bindel Funeral Set for Saturday, 10 a.m.

Mrs. Frank Bindel, 66, native and life-long resident of Muenster, died at her home Thursday 8:45 a.m. after years of failing health and confinement to a wheelchair with crippling arthritis.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday with Requiem Mass in Sacred Heart Church, Father Alcuin Kubis officiating, and burial will be in Sacred Heart Cemetery under direction of Nick Miller Funeral Home.

Two rosary services are scheduled in the Miller Chapel Friday, at 4 and at 8 p.m. The afternoon rosary will be conducted by St. Anne's Society of which she was a member.

Mrs. Bindel, the former Miss Marie Fleitman, was born in Muenster March 11, 1900. She was married to Mr. Bindel on Nov. 24, 1925. Surviving are her husband; five sons, Wilfred, Harold and Gerald of Muenster; Leonard of Carrollton and Gilbert of Gainesville; three daughters, Mrs. C. L. Livingston of Myra, Mrs. Arnie Wimmer of Muenster and Mrs. William Koerner of Pilot Point; 21 grandchildren; five brothers, Al, Bruno, John and Albert Fleitman of Muenster, and William Fleitman of Lindsay; and three sisters, Mrs. Joe Hoening of Muenster, Mrs. Hilda Self of Dallas and Mrs. Anton Laux of Lindsay.

School District Will Vote Saturday on Tax Raise

An election to be held this week Saturday, January 21, will decide whether the maximum school tax rate in the Muenster School District will be raised from $1.00 to $2.00 per $100.00 of valuation. The election will be held in the public school from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. with Clive Gobble as presiding judge and George Petrus, Edgar Dyer and Carl King as assistants.

Senator Ralph Hall Draws Short Term

Senator Ralph Hall of Rockwall, who represents Cooke along with several other counties, was one of the unlucky state senators in last week's drawing to determine two and four year terms.

His term expires in two years, so he'll have to campaign again in 1968 if he wishes to continue in the senate. And he will have to give up his senate seat if he runs for lieutenant governor in 1968, as predicted in some political circles. If he had drawn a four year term he could have tried for the other job without giving up the senate seat.

Because of legislative redistricting all of the state's senators had to run in the 1966 election. Last week's drawing decided which 16 would have four year terms and which 15 would have two year terms.

To be qualified for a vote a person must be a resident taxpayer of the district and must have a poll tax receipt or exemption for eligibility as a voter in 1966. Registration certificates for this year do not become effective until February 1. A person not qualified to vote last year will not be qualified to vote in this election.

The purpose of the election is to determine the method of raising taxes for the district's increasing costs. Two ways are possible. The board of trustees can apply the present tax rate and increase valuations without approval of voters. Or it can, with voter approval, raise the rate and retain the former valuations.

The board favors the higher rate and lower valuations because that method assures that tax increases will be shared equally by all properties of the district, and also tends to hold down valuations for other tax purposes.

Trustees are asking voters to endorse that method of taxation at Saturday's election.

Though the election sets a maximum rate it does not specify the rate that will apply each year. That will be determined by each year's budget, which, according to Superintendent Bruns, will probably be $1.50 next year — 25 cents for debt retirement and $1.25 for operating expense.

Warm Reception in India Reflects Gratitude to U. S., Weinzapfel Says

A pleasant reminder of a cherished experience came to Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Weinzapfel in a clipping from a South India newspaper commenting on their visit at Coimbatore, India, while on their recent trip around the world with Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Felderhoff.

The Weinzapfels have a special missionary interest in St. Michael's parish of Coimbatore and its pastor, Father A. J. Williams, after several years of correspondence with the priest and financial aid to his parish. The clipping, headed "American Benefactors Felicitated," follows:

"COIMBATORE — A rousing welcome was accorded by the elite of the Catholic community, at St. Michael's Centenary Auditorium, to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Weinzapfel, distinguished visitors from Muenster, Texas, U.S.A. on their visit to Coimbatore on 6-11-1966 with two of their relatives, Mrs. and Mr. Hubert Felderhoff, to meet, after their Golden Wedding celebrations, their spiritual ward, Rev. Fr. A. J. Williams, Parish Priest of St. Michael's Cathedral. His Excellency the Rt. Rev. Mgr. M. Savarimuthu, Bishop of Coimbatore, presided over the function.

"While introducing the chief guests, Sri A. T. Anthoniswamy, M. A., L. T., stressed the fact that they are rarely found in Christendom today. For both of them are devout Catholics and members of the Third Order of St. Francis, and have been knighted by two Popes, receiving the rank of Knight Grand Commander and Lady Grand Commander respectively.

"Rev. Fr. A. J. Williams read out the Welcome Address expressing his deep gratitude to his spiritual parents. On the request of Rev. Fr. M. M. Chinnayyan, B.A., L.T. Headmaster of St. Michael's High School, Mrs. Joseph Weinzapfel switched on the newly-fitted electric fans in the auditorium.

"Then Sri A. T. Anthoniswamy gave a stirring speech on 'What I like about the Americans'. In the course of his talk, with its humorous touches and vivid characterization, he brought out many of the sterling qualities of the American people.

"The guests were treated to a long programme of Cultural (Continued on page 8)

Remedial Reading Program Transfers

Muenster's remedial reading program moved across the street this week as the second semester opened in both of the local schools.

Mrs. Earline Taylor of Nocona, who was at the parochial school since September has started working with public school children.

Mrs. Taylor gives special instruction for retarded readers in all of the elementary and high school grades. The course is supported by Title I of the federal aid to education program.

Soil District 1966 Report Dedicated To J. M. Weinzapfel

Harold Skaggs, chairman of the Upper Elm-Red Soil Conservation District board of supervisors announced after the board's meeting Jan. 12 that supervisors are proud of their recently published district report for 1966 and invite all interested firms and persons, especially schools, to ask for a copy.

The 28 page book, the 25th annual progress report of the district, is dedicated to J. M. Weinzapfel for boosting the work of the district since its beginning and encouraging improved agriculture many years longer. The dedication page summarizes briefly the work he has done and recognition he has received in promoting soil conservation.

At the same meeting, the supervisors favored the new member of their board, Hinds Clark, of Nocona for the office of vice chairman. Clark was elected the preceding Monday in a Zone 2 election to name the successor of Charles Howard, who died last November. He was elected to complete Howard's unexpired term, which ends in October 1970. Other members of the board are W. G. Green of Bowie representing Zone 1, J. H. Bayer of Muenster for Zone 3, Keith Kemplin, secretary, of Valley View for Zone 4 and Harold Skaggs, chairman, of Sherman for Zone 5.

Also at the meeting the supervisors accepted eight new sites for flood prevention reservoirs and considered plans for 25 new dams in the district.

Plans were announced for the district's annual land judging contest in May. Vocational agriculture and 4-H leaders of the district are invited to the next board meeting to help set the contest date.

Firemen Ask for More Cooperation

Muenster firemen feel that they have had it lately, and they are ready to ask for more cooperation. During the seven day period, last Wednesday through this week Tuesday, they have answered ten calls. All were grass fires, including two tough ones.

The biggest job was at Sycamore Creek Ranch 4 miles north of Dexter. Muenster firemen got a distress call from there at 10:30 last Thursday night and spent the next four hours helping other firemen and people of the neighborhood get a pasture fire under control. Three to four hundred acres of grazing were lost.

The other tough one was Tuesday afternoon at Albert Reiter's about 7 miles south of town. 25 to 35 acres were lost in that one before two hours of hard work stopped the blaze. Another loss was a pickup truck belonging to a man who was arrested by a deputy sheriff and fined for intoxication.

The other eight fires apparently resulted from efforts to burn trash. They prompt firemen to make two requests: Don't locate an incinerator near dry grass, and don't burn in high wind.

Home After Vietnam Spec. 4 William Fisher arrived here Friday after serving in Vietnam and receiving the Purple Heart for wounds received in action. He has a 30-day leave to spend with his parents, the Paul Fishers. As yet he does not have orders for his next assignment.

THE LIBERTY AMENDMENT

The Liberty Amendment, despite statements to the contrary, is not designed alone to eliminate the federal personal income tax. It is a proposal, first to prohibit the national government from engaging in business enterprises which are not specifically authorized by the U. S. Constitution.

The amendment would require the federal government, within three years after adopting the amendment, to dispose of its unconstitutional business enterprises, and after three years would repeal the 16th Amendment which authorizes the income, estate and gift taxes.

Seven state legislatures already have approved such action, and the Liberty Amendment Committee seeks a sufficient number of states to approve it so that congress will take formal action on the amendment, which then must be adopted by three-fourths of the states.

Sponsors of the Liberty Amendment claim that if the national government were to get out of all its subsidized business enterprises which are not authorized by the Consitution, there would be no need for a personal income tax. They also contend that the money received from the sale of these business enterprises would retire a large part of the national debt.

We are not expert enough to know whether the mathematics of Willis Stone, the father of the plan, are correct. We do think that adoption of the amendment MIGHT tend to reduce the size and power of the national bureaucracy.

Frankly, we suspect that the bureaucrats and their apologists in Congress — would find ways to get around even such a constitutional amendment. And for taxes, they would no doubt substitute a sales tax or would increase manufacturers' excise taxes and other levies to substitute for the loss of revenue from the personal income taxes. In addition, they would without doubt resort to the use of more printing press money — inflation.

But, as a movement to show disapproval of the trend toward growing bureaucracy and government spending, we believe the work of the Liberty Amendment Committee is worthwhile.

IF — and it's a big if — a large number of states were to approve the Liberty Amendment, it might serve to throw a well-earned scare into the powers that be and, thus, jolt the bureaucracy into some temporary semblance of sanity. Political interest in the amendment, however, seems to be conspicuous of its absence.

THE RUSSIANS ARE LEARNING

Those who hail profit as intrinsically evil and feel that we would be a much happier nation if the profit motive could just be eliminated from human nature will find little consolation in late news reports from Soviet Russia. To put it bluntly, Russia is converting its industry to the capitalist profit system — apparently as rapidly as the change can be made. So far 873 companies — representing 12 per cent of Russia's total production — have already made the change-over.

In the operation of these companies, market forces determine production, prices and profits. The result is a marked production increase. In the words of Newsweek magazine, "Total conversion of industry is scheduled for the end of 1968..." Perhaps it might be a good idea after all to import some Russian professors into the American educational system which for years has been failing to teach our young people that the capitalistic habit of working for a profit is inseparable from material abundance and personal liberty.

The next time you impatiently wait a few minutes at your gas station, ease your nerves by reflecting on what is involved gassing up the car in Russia... First, you fill out a questionnaire, go to a government office, buy a coupon book, then you go to a government-owned station to trade coupons for gas. At the stations, which are sparse even in larger cities, you'll have to wait in line for a long time. Then you guess how much the tank will hold, check the number of coupons, set the pump dial... you manipulate the hose. All the attendant does is collect the coupons.

You are genuinely happy if you don't know why.

PROGRAM OF SCARCITY OUTDATED

The head of the American Farm Bureau Federation, perhaps the largest farm organization in the country, has asked for an end to government farm controls. Forty years experience with such controls, he said, has shown that "government supply management in agriculture does not work." He added that one of the chief causes of mass starvation in India is price controls imposed by the Indian government. The theory of the government's program of controls in this country has been to protect farmers against the depressing effect of overabundance. Whatever justification there may have been for such controls in the past no longer exists. Rapid population increases in the U.S. and throughout the world have ended the age of surpluses. As the Farm Bureau spokesman suggested, the government should now devote its attention to production, marketing research and promotion of international trade. The time is rapidly approaching when every available acre of tillable land will have to be used for food and fiber production. The inherent efficiency of the American farmer will be needed as never before. It should be recognized once and for all that a free market in agriculture, as elsewhere, is the most productive market.

THEN AND NOW

Throughout the entire history of our country down to the close of World War I, federal expenditures totaled $414 billion. During the past five and one-half years of The New Frontier and The Great Society, federal expenditures have amounted to more than $500 billion. That is to say, our government has spent more in the past five and one-half years than in the first one-hundred twenty-nine years of our history. A year ago, the President directed the Departments of his government to eliminate twenty-five thousand jobs by June 30. Actually, instead of eliminating, they added forty-eight thousand new jobs as of June 30, 1966. Now we are paying more than a billion dollars a month interest on the national debt. Interest is the second largest item in the federal budget.

—Christian Economics

The only question remaining in our minds is: will there be a 'war on poverty' to support the taxpayers after they support the rest of federal government's poverty fiascos?

DPS Announces Change in Policy Of Employment

AUSTIN — Immediate employment is now available with the uniformed services of the Texas Department of Public Safety, Col. Homer Garrison, DPS Director, announced today.

Garrison reported that employment practices have been drastically changed to allow qualified applicants to begin work immediately, in contrast to previous policy of not hiring until time for a patrol-training school to begin.

"We realize," Garrison said, "that a person looking for career employment often must begin work as soon as possible to support himself and his family. We have made the changes necessary in our procedure to provide immediate career placement for such a person."

Under the new procedure an interested person may make application for employment at any of the regional, district or sub-district DPS offices over the state, where the written examination will be given. Each applicant will be told immediately if he has qualified for further consideration. Successful applicants will be given an agility test, and arrangements will be made for physical check-up. Those persons who are accepted for employment may be placed on the payroll within 10 days, and will be assigned temporary duty until a recruiting-training school begins.

Periodic patrol training schools will be held at the DPS Law Enforcement Academy in Austin. This training is designed to equip the cadet to handle any of the various situations he may encounter as a patrolman, and will start him off on the right foot toward a rewarding career in law enforcement.

Garrison encouraged all interested high school graduates from the ages of 20 through 35 to contact their nearest Department of Public Safety patrolman for complete details on becoming a commissioned officer with the Department of Public Safety.

PTA Program Is Fashion Show by FHA Chapter Girls

A fashion show by Future Homemakers of America of Muenster High School was presented for members of the Parent-Teacher Association at their January meeting Monday night on the stage in the school auditorium.

Second and third year home-making girls modeled garments they made in class and those they made as home projects. There are 20 in the two classes. They showed principally floral print suits and shifts done in No. 2 home-making and tailored garments done in No. 3 class. These included lined wool suits and two coats, one a seven-eighth length corduroy coat, the other a full length vinyl coat.

Home projects were similar to those made in class, principally cotton print floral two-piece suits. One girl made an evening gown.

Mrs. Henry Weinzapfel is homemaking instructor.

Commentary was given by Linda Wilson and Miss Bettye Dadds played background piano music.

Also on the program were films taken by Superintendent L. B. Bruns of the parade before the National Cutting Horse Contest.

Mrs. Bruns, president, conducted the business session which was routine with reports and announcements.

After adjournment the home-making class served coffee and cookies.

Stash Your Trash And Cut the Costs

Our city streets and highways belong to all of us ... it's our tax dollars that pay for cleaning up the litter which defaces them.

The nation bill for cleaning up after "litterbugs" is staggering. According to The Advertising Council it costs us in taxes more than 100 million dollars a year just to keep our primary highways clean ... millions more are spent for the removal of trash from city streets, parks, beaches and waterways. This is not a remote, national issue, only ... your own community has to cope with this problem of litter, too.

All good citizens can preserve the beauty, cleanliness and safety of their home towns, highways and waterways. Knowing what it costs in tax dollars to do this should make everyone want to share in the responsibility of keeping America as beautiful and clean as they do their own homes. This responsibility requires little effort — just use the convenient litter box (found on most streets) or take your litter home with you for proper disposal.

The beauty and cleanliness of your town is your duty. Every litter bit hurts ... YOU! Please help ... stash your trash!

Persons with a medical history of hay fever, asthma or other allergies should consult a physician immediately when stung by a wasp, the Agriculture Department advises.

Brazos Co-op to Offer Service in Area Progress

The Brazos Electric Power Cooperative, Inc., today announced the establishment of an area and industrial development department in its organization to provide aid to rural areas and communities in development of industrial and community potentials.

Hollis Dalton, general manager of BEPC, said John W. Etheredge, a native of Houston County and a veteran of 15 years in development work for cities and communities of Texas will head the department.

"We feel that Mr. Etheredge, working through the 19 member cooperatives of DEPC, can be of exceptional aid to the towns and rural communities of the 55-county area served by our organization in their work towards bringing new industries to the area and in developing the potentials of the areas to attract new industries and business," Dalton said.

He said Mr. Etheredge, his staff and facilities will be available "on a call basis" to all the communities in the BEPC area. He said the newly established department will work through the member cooperatives with city and county officials, area organizations, chambers of commerce

"or anyone who has a need for his services within our service area."

Developing brochures telling of the facilities, labor force, housing, recreation and other factors of interest to industries; contacting industries, informing officials of the area of potential aid projects from state and federal sources and aiding in solving local development problems will be some of the services offered by the new department.

Etheredge is a graduate of Sam Houston State College at Huntsville with a degree in industrial arts. He has been manager of chamber of commerce at Mt. Pleasant, El Campo, Livingston and Raymondville and was administrator of merchandise traffic for the Fed-Mart Corporation.

Twice during the period of 1953-1957 while he was manager of the El Campo Chamber of Commerce, the city was nominated by the National Municipal League and Look Magazine as a candidate for the All-American City Award.

He is a native of Houston County and grew up in the Crockett-Trinity area. He was an Air Force pilot from 1941 to 1946.

MHS Basketball Teams Still Losing

Hard times continued this week for both of the Muenster High School basketball teams. They remain winless as they reach the halfway mark in their conference schedule.

At Callisburg last Friday night the loop leading Callisburg girls annihilated Muenster by a count of 69-8.

The Hornets followed with a good start for a first quarter lead of 11-7 but did not last long when the Wildcats warmed up. Ending the next three periods Callisburg led 21-13, 38-21 and 46-29. Leading scorers for Muenster were Sam Sparkman 13 and Chris Cain 11.

It was more of the same at Saint Jo Tuesday night. Linda Wilson made 10 of her team's 15 points as Saint Jo girls rolled up a score of 45.

Muenster boys made a good start again with a 9-9 first quarter count, then gave in to the pressure of the Panthers. Counts for the next three periods 23-14, 38-29 and 67-29. The Panthers are leading the district at the season's half time.

Next for MHS teams will be Lindsay here Friday night and Valle View there next Tuesday.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH

The Upper Elm-Red Soil and Water Conservation Board of Supervisors is making available their twenty-eight page pictured progress report to leadership and schools all over the three county district, according to Harold Skaggs, Chairman of the Board of Supervisors. "We are proud of this report and the record which it reflects", Skaggs remarked.

"1966 has been good to us, and the overall achievements which we were able to complete have been most gratifying," Skaggs said. "Three watersheds in the district were started or reactivated this year with construction in progress on Denton Creek and some planned on Choctaw later in the year. Eighteen new flood-water retarding structures were finished in 1966. Little Elm Watershed completed eight structures in 1966. We have a large backlog of sites ready to build in 1967. To date we have 98 completed flood-water retarding structures in the district with 116 more to go in order to have fully completed flood prevention program in our district."

"Farm and ranch planning held their pace in 1966. Records show 167 new conservation plans and 197 revised conservation plans last year. We now have 4120 cooperating farms and ranches in our soil, water and plant conservation program, with nearly 200 new ones coming in each year," Skaggs remarked.

Statistics on conservation practices get fatiguing to read, but look at these for a moment: Brush control and land clearing - 6,000 acres, pasture and hayland planting - 11,000 acres, pasture management - 17,000 acres, range proper use - over 25,000 acres, 100 miles of new terraces, 215 new farm ponds, and 15,000 acres of conservation cropping system just to mention a few of the many practices that were carried out. Skaggs said the District's success is attributed to the excellent cooperation it receives from the banks, newspaper editors, radio and TV stations, Federal and state agencies, schools, commissioners courts, business and professional men, and the hundreds of interested landowners and city dwellers who are interested in the conservation program. Skaggs said, "It would be impossible for us to carry out a program of this magnitude without everyone's help and assistance."

Librarian Gives Annual Report to Members of Board

Members of Muenster Public Library Board heard the annual report of library activity presented by Mrs. Joe Luke, librarian, at their January meeting in the library.

Mrs. Luke's detailed and itemized report showed 2,529 volumes on library shelves. Two hundred of them are on loan from the state library and 25 from Cooke County Library.

During the year library staffers checked out 8,707 books to readers and put in 2,603 hours of volunteer work.

Donations included 796 magazines, 276 gift books, two daily newspapers, $117.00 as a tribute to the J. M. Weinzapfels on their golden anniversary, $136.75 donated at the library's open house, $50.00 from a benefit art show and $800.00 from the County Commissioners Court.

L. B. Bruns, board president, presided and he and Henry Weinzapfel were asked to give the year's report to Muenster City Council at the January meeting.

At that meeting the council made appointments for two board offices which expired. Mrs. Ernest Medders was re-appointed for another year and Mrs. Francis Fisher was named to succeed C. F. Gobble.

Library staffers with Mrs. Luke, are Mrs. Lee Toothaker, assistant librarian, Mrs. Steve Mosler, secretary, Mrs. Albert Schilling, Mrs. Tony Gremminger, Miss Elizabeth Herr and Mrs. Dick Dittfurth. During the summer, school girls helped.

CYC Makes Plans For Deamery Meet

Members of Sacred Heart CYC, meeting Tuesday night in the high school lounge, made plans to attend the deamery meeting in Pilot Point Sunday night. The Holy Hour in St. Thomas Church at 7 o'clock will be followed by a meeting and social in the KC Hall.

Janie Knauf, president, presided and members heard a report on the teen dance held Saturday in the school gym. A large crowd danced to the rhythm of The Circe.

Names Omitted

Donald Schneider and Kathy Miller were omitted from the list of Latin students participating in a contest at Sacred Heart High School when the story was published in the Enterprise last week. Donald is a member of the Ariovistus group and Kathy is a competitor on the Caeser lineup.

Building Budget Of Lone Star Gas
Near $33 Million

A 1967 initial construction budget of $32,932,000 has been announced by Lone Star Gas Company and its subsidiary companies — Lone Star Producing Company, Lone Star Gathering Company and Nipak, Inc.

L. T. Potter, Lone Star president, said the new budget will include $11,825,000 for the transmission system; $9,937,000 for the distribution system; $9,513,000 for the exploration and production system and $1,657,000 for Nipak, Inc., a chemical fertilizer subsidiary of Lone Star Producing Company.

Transmission system will apply its funds toward constructing and replacing transmission and gathering pipelines, improving and enlarging underground natural gas storage facilities, introducing additional sources of supply into the Lone Star system and other construction necessary to maintain a dependable supply of natural gas.

Included in the transmission budget is a total of $2,100,000 to be used to convert the Gordon and Springtown gasoline plants in West Central Texas to low temperature, high product recovery plants. This will increase the production of the Gordon plant by approximately 45 percent and the Springtown plant, 85 percent. In addition, the depleted Lake Dallas gas field, located in Denton County, Texas, will be converted to a gas storage field with a total capacity of nearly 4 billion cubic feet of gas.

Distribution system expenditures will be used for all types of customer service facilities and include funds allocated for an anticipated increase of approximately 16,000 customers in the more than 530 cities, towns and communities in Texas and Southern Oklahoma served by Lone Star.

More than one-half of exploration and production division expenditures will be used in the drilling and deep-ending of oil and gas wells.
Also, included are funds for exploration, acquisition of new leases, seismicographic services and other production activities.

Included in the construction budget is $579,000 final payment on a $4,789,000 eight story general office building, an addition to Lone Star's home office complex in downtown Dallas. Also, budgeted are funds for minor alterations in existing Lone Star office buildings throughout the company's service area.

Nipak, Inc., will use its portion of the budget for improvements at its plant near Karens, Texas, and two Oklahoma plants in Pryor and Tulsa.

centric — the poor must be

MARYSVILLE, Jan. 17 — Mr. and Mrs. R. D. STOP THAT S-K-I-D !

A safety tip from: Women's Representative, American Oil Company

By driving slower than usual, avoiding sudden starts and stops, and applying the brake carefully, chances are you won't get caught in a skid this winter. If you should, however, you need to know—in advance—exactly how to handle it.

If you feel the car going out of control . . .

- Lift your foot from the accelerator but resist the natural inclination to step on the brake. Braking tends to increase a skid.
- Keep your forward motion, giving the engine a little gas if necessary.
- Turn into the skid, not away from it—turn the wheel the direction the car is slipping.
- As the car straightens, straighten the wheel to compensate for a possible skid in the other direction.

Two motorists met on a bridge too narrow for two cars to pass. "I never back up for an idiot!" yelled one driver. "That's all right," said the other as he shifted into reverse, "I always do."

Lindsay News

Lindsay freshmen at their regular meeting decided to have varied programs after each business session. Steve Zimmerer presided. The group's Christmas project was gifts for Denton State School.

Annual scholastic census started this week in Lindsay with census blanks going home with school children. The method is the same as usual. Parents are urged to fill out the blanks and return them promptly. Children who will be six years old by Sept. 1, 1967, are to be included in the count. Families with no children in school to take blanks home are asked to contact Superintendent Glenn Hellman.

The monthly CYC holy hour will be held Sunday in Pilot Point. Services in St. Thomas Church at 7 p.m. will be followed by a social hour in the KC Hall.

Lindsay High School library is open to the public after Masses on Sunday. Anyone wishing to check out books is invited to do so at the designated time.

Family members helped Tony Hermes celebrate his birthday on Feb. 12 at his home. Those who couldn't be present telephoned greetings. Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Dankesreiter and son David Anthony of Muenster brought a decorated cake with them and it was served with ice cream. And gifts were presented. Telephone greetings came from Mr. and Mrs. Hermes' twin sons, Cyril and family of Pasadena, Tex., and Cecil and family of Sherman.

Carroll Campbell was best man, and brothers of the couple, Gerald Blessing and Richard Haverkamp of Dallas were groomsmen. Ushers were Bill Harrison of Gainesville and Buster Bezner of College Station.

Mrs. William Schmitz, organist, and St. Cecilia's choir provided music.

Sacred Heart High Tells Who's Who

The annual Who's Who roster for Sacred Heart High School was revealed this week after an election by students.

At the same time the faculty announced Cheryl Reiter as Miss Sacred Heart and Andy Klement as Mr. Sacred Heart High.

Chosen most courteous are Beverly Koelzer and Tom Hess; most studious, Gloria Reiter and Joe Bayer; friendliest, Kay Klement and Ricky Stewart; wittiest, Debbie Fette and John Henry Streng.

Most athletic, Gloria Gieb and Larry Hess; best groomed, Dianne Felderhoff and Tom Hess; most likely to succeed, Linda Zimmerer and Joe Bayer; most dependable, Janie Knaf and Ricky Stewart.

Class favorites elected are: freshman, Darlene Hess and Clifford Zimmerer; sophomores, Beverly Koelzer and J. D. Luttmer; juniors, Laurie Trubenbach and Tom Hess; seniors, Gloria Gieb and Jerry Yosten.

Senior pictures were taken this week along with pictures of those who made the Who's Who for special recognition in the school annual Cordis.

A husband came home completely out of breath. His wife asked what was wrong, and he said:

"Nothing, honey. I just ran all the way home behind the bus and saved 50 cents."

"Well, that certainly was foolish," she said. "Why didn't you run home behind a taxi and save three dollars?"

Warm Reception-

Entertainment. In reply Mr. Joseph M. Weinzapfel said that he was very much impressed by the grand and spontaneous welcome given them. He assured continued help and said that he would carry sweet impressions about his stay at Coimbatore.

His Lordship the Bishop in his concluding speech praised the democratic feelings and charitable attitude of the Americans. —R. M. Chettiar.

The Weinzapfels and Felderhoffs were overwhelmed by the warmth of their reception, particularly the parish celebration in their honor. At least one more full day of courtesies were planned for them, but they had to decline because of scheduled reservations.

Commenting on the clipping Mr. Weinzapfel said "The people of India were most courteous to us. They wish to convey their sincere thanks and appreciation to people of the United States for help furnished in the past. It is pleasing to experience such a grand reception as an expression of gratitude, in contrast to so many countries that say 'Go Home, Yankee,' no matter what favors have been granted."

Mr. Weinzapfel added that his new friends of India also mentioned their appreciation for grain shipments received from this country. He feels that much of the kindness lavished on the two couples was inspired by a general feeling of gratitude to all of the United States.

chance now, we can understand their confidence by looking back to Spain in the thirties. Many of us recall and others can find from history that communists had taken complete control of all that country when Franco came back from Africa with just a few men. As he moved forward his army got bigger and bigger — from enlistments of men who were disillusioned and embittered by their experience with communism.

Nationalists think they have similar conditions working for them. They know that millions of mainland Chinese are embittered and waiting for liberation. They know that the masses are on their side, ready and eager to break their chains of bondage.

Our politicians tell us that our enemy is communism and our first line of defense is in the jungle of South Vietnam. The country generally agrees on that. But it has cause to wonder why we don't try harder to defeat our enemy.
