NUMBER 12

The war in Vietnam is an incredible puzzle to anyone who stands by the old American ideals of patriotism and national pride. We hear occasional stories of heroic devotion to duty or accounts of the helpful things done by GI's for suffering women and children in the war torn area. But far less than one has a right to hear from over a third of a million men fighting and bleeding and dying in a world struggle to prevent enslavement of all free people by the international criminals of communism.

On the other hand we get very good coverage of stories told by the enemy. Just a few weeks ago Harrison Salisbury of the New York Times went to Hanoi and sent back reports of the sufferings endured by people there because of American bombings. After that — perhaps because of it — the administration ordered that the heart of Hanoi must be regarded as a sanctuary. Later Salisbury admitted that much of his information had been received from communists.

One would think that after such an admission the American news services would have gone all out to offset as much as possible the harm already done. But no. The repudiation got little attention. And as far as we know a large area of Hanoi remains a sanctuary from which enemy guns can safely blaze away at our planes.

Another illustration on the same point concerns a Mrs. Newman, one of the four pinkish gals who went to Hanoi to confirm their previously expressed belief about our bombings of civilians over there. After mingling with red propagandists she saw how she had been misled and admitted that she "feels dirty." The story she had to tell then really deserved attention. It should have been prominent in every big daily of the country. But it was hardly mentioned. Why? Can anyone give a good reason for deluging our people with enemy propaganda while holding back countless good and true stories of a kind that inspire national pride and patriotism?

One wonders whose side some of the writers and publishers are on. It seems as if they are deliberately conducting a campaign to make our national effort so unpopular that public opinion will force the administration to pull out and allow the reds to take over. Otherwise to settle for a negotiation that would have about the same effect.

It has been said that reds are encouraged by the lack of unity in this country, and feel confident for that reason of their ability to hold out for eventual victory. Unfortunately they are correct. This country is severely handicapped by big influential periodicals which aid and comfort the enemy, whereas they could, if they would, inspire a united and determined effort for victory.

It's hard to understand how supposedly intelligent men can publish such stories and comment. What they do can't be defended as freedom of the press. There is no valid reason for giving enemy propaganda a preference over the multitude of true and deserving stories that can be told on our side. Nor of failure to expose pertinent facts that nullify the propaganda effect of enemy reports. For instance, civilian casualties are to be expected when military targets are spotted among civilians. Also for every civilian accidentally killed by Americans there are dozens deliberately killed by the reds.

Can it be that enemy strategists are guessing right on the matter of disunity? Considering progress of the war, one is inclined to think the administration is deeply concerned and somewhat puzzled by public opinion. It can't decide whether to go along with the hawks or the doves. Sensitive to opinions on both sides it is reluctant to quit and equally reluctant to go for victory. Meanwhile American soldiers have to go on dying in hopeless jungle fighting despite the fact that experienced military men say they can end it in a short time. Many of us are resentful about the exasperatingly costly military indecision, but we should admit in fairness to Washington officials that

7890 Registration Certificates Issued To County Voters

Cooke County has issued 7890 voter registration certificates this year but that cannot stand as the official figure. To be more correct, says tax assessor-collector Jo Hills, about 100 should be dropped from that number.

The trouble is that some people registered twice. Some who paid taxes early sent in the application forms that were supplied and received their certificates with their tax receipt slips. Apparently they forgot and registered again. The duplications were discovered when the tax office began arranging its alphabetical list of voters.

Persons who registered twice are asked to send back the second one received. The number of the first one is officially shown on the county record.

The revised figure of recorded voters in the county apparently will be about 1700 over that figure for 1965, the preceding off-year. However the figure is still under the last two election years: 8234 in 1966 and 8347 in 1964.

For actual voting strength all those figures can be increased by several hundred, for persons over 60 outside of Gainesville, who are not required to register and did not have to pay poll tax.

The statue and complementary adornment, were purchased and installed as a Carden Club project with donations received from organizations and individuals. It is located at the south end of the courtyard, visible from east side patient rooms, the main lobby and corridor leading from lobby to patient area.

Dr. Martin Kralicke was master of ceremonies for the occasion, which included blessing of the statue by Father Alcuin Kubis, presentation of fountain pens to employees by Sister Mildred, group photos, and brief comment by Mayor Earl Fisher. He praised Garden Club members for the project and their previous landscaping work at the hospital and also commended the hospital staff for their record of

Don King Returns To Job as City's Resident Deputy

Don King is back on the job as resident deputy sheriff of Muenster. He returned on February 1.

Sheriff Bill Pratt said Monday that Don decided to get back into regular law enforcement after serving about eleven months as security officer at Colonial Acres Farm. Before that Don had been here for a year as resident deputy sheriff.

His old job became available three weeks ago when Gene Roberts resigned. Sheriff Pratt said he's happy to have King back — because he has a good record of keeping things orderly, and because he likes Muenster and Muenster likes him.

King is hired jointly by the Sheriff's Department and the City of Muenster.

News of the Men in Service

At Fort Carson, Colo.
Spec. 4 Willie Fisher is at Fort Carson, Colo., for his new army assignment. He left here Monday after a 30-day leave with his parents, the Paul Fishers, following his return from Vietnam where he earned the Purple Heart for battle wounds.

Promoted In Vietnam
Billy Detten has been advanced to sergeant in Vietnam. He wrote his mother, Mrs. Oscar Detten, that he received the promotion recently and that he participated in Operation Cedar Falls and was in the "iron triangle," but still is all OK.

Receives Orders
Donnie Hess has received orders to report for military training on Feb. 15 and has quit his job at Hofbauer's Food and Locker Service. He is the son of Mrs. Arnold Hess and joins a brother, Pvt. David Hess in the service. Pvt. Hess is in Vietnam with the army.

Hard work becomes harder if it is postponed.

Mrs. P.J. Rollman 74, Dies Suddenly Of Heart Attack

Funeral services for Mrs. P. J. Rollman, 74, Muenster native, were held Tuesday in St. Mary's Church at Gainesville, 10 a.m., and burial was there in Fairview Cemetery.

The Rev. Thomas Taaffe, pastor, officiated at the Requiem Mass and at graveside rites. Vernie Keel Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Rosary services were held in Vernie Keel Chapel at 8 o'clock Saturday, Sunday and Monday nights.

Bearers were Jim Fischer, Leonard and Bernard Haverkamp, Richard Grewing, Eddie Grewing and Jack Stansbury.

Mrs. Rollman died suddenly at her home here Friday night about 10 o'clock. She had been in failing health from a heart ailment discovered last summer but continued doing her housework and was out and around on the day of her death.

She was born in Muenster, Anna Mary Grewing, March 15, 1892, and was married to Pete J. Rollman here. He died Feb. 24, 1961.

Surviving are two daughters, Miss Catherine and Miss Veronica Rollman, both of Muenster; two brothers, John Grewing of Muenster and Henry Grewing of Lindsay; and one sister, Mrs. Ben Haverkamp of Muenster.

Among relatives at the funeral were a sister-in-law, Mrs. Katy Fischer of Junction City, Kansas, and her son Jim Fischer, also of Kansas.

Colonial Acres Angus Are Champions At Ft. Worth Show

Colonial Acres' Red Angus walked off with top honors at the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show claiming three championship trophies.

Colonial Acres had grand champion female of the show, also exhibited the reserve champion bull and the reserve champion female of the show.

The farm, owned and operated by the Ernest Medders family, also won top placings in senior yearling bulls, junior yearling and junior bull calf classes, while heifers won two-year-old, senior yearling, senior and junior calf classes.

They were shown by farm manager Gene Riggs and were judged by Harold R. Franke of Texas A&M University's animal science department.

MHS Teams End Winless Season In Basketball

A sad basketball season ended for the Muenster High School teams Tuesday night as they remained winless through their final district games. Both teams hold the cellar position with a record of 0-10.

Final standings in the district boys' race were Saint Jo, Era, Valley View, Callisburg, Lindsay, Muenster. In the girls' race they were Callisburg, Era, Saint Jo, Lindsay, Valley View, Muenster.

In the season finale in the local gym the Hornets were annihilated 75-33 by the champs. First quarter was fairly close, 14-10, and after that Saint Jo was in complete charge. Leading scorers for MHS were Sam Sparkman 12, Chris Cain 7 and John Monday 5.

In the girls game Saint Jo had big first and fourth quarters for a win of 51-23. Scores for the first three periods were 18-2, 29-13 and 35-17. Best scorers for MHS were Linda Wilson and Jill Swirczynski with 8 each.

The previous Friday night Callisburg's champ girls humbled Muenster 73-23. Linda Wilson and Sue Flusche hit 12 and 9 for MHS.

The boys game was only slightly better. After a miserable first quarter of a 25-5 they kept the rest of the game fairly close for a final count of 70-43. Hornet leaders were Chris Cain 19, John Monday 9 and Sam Sparkman 6.

Athletic attention at the school now turns to track and volleyball. The boys will participate in invitation track meets and also in the interscholastic league district meet. The girls will compete with other members of the 28-B district in volleyball.

A one-track mind is not a real handicap if you are sure you are on the right track.

Five Families Have Change of Address

Five families are in different homes here as the result of recent moves. New residents, moving from Lawton, Okla., are Mr. and Mrs. Jake Wolf who bought the property of the late Mrs. M. J. Endres on Main Street. The Herman Grewings who had been living there moved to the house vacated by the Bernard McNamaras who left Muenster to return to Amarillo.

Three other moves are those of the Donald Endres family to their new home and the move of the Jim Voths into the house they vacated. They bought the property. And Mr. and Mrs. Sam Dobbs are new residents moving from Gainesville. He is with the local soil conservation service personnel. They occupy the house vacated by the Voths.

Contract Awarded for Muenster to Lindsay Four Lane Highway

The contract has been awarded for construction of two additional lanes of roadway making a four lane highway of the road between Lindsay and Muenster.

A report from the State Highway Department during the past weekend revealed that R. W. McKinney of Nacogdoches submitted the low bid of $831,633.65 for the project of 7.462 miles of Highway 82, which will extend the four lane highway from a point about three fourths mile west of Lindsay to the Muenster city limit.

Work to be done is described as grading, structure, flexible base, asphalt concrete pavement and rest area drives, and is expected to take about 280 work days, according to L. B. Dean, district engineer, of Wichita Falls. John C. Simpson, resident engineer of Gainesville, will be in active charge of the project while it is under construction. The starting date is not definitely set, however Simpson said that highway jobs usually begin about a month after award of the contract.

Right of way for the entire project is ready. Most of it is north of the present road and a short distance at the east end is south of the present road.

Intramural Sports Start at SH High

Athletics has gone intramural at Sacred Heart School since last week's close of the basketball season. Both boys and girls are working on volleyball as a physical education program, and competition is between the classes.

Meanwhile Coach Joe Felderhoff is training about fifteen boys for the school's first venture into track competition. He expects to enter some invitation track meets of the area but probably will not compete in the Texas Catholic Interscholastic League, which has no division for the B class schools.

After track season Felderhoff and his Tigers expect to have several baseball games.

State Publishes '67 Highway Map

AUSTIN — Six new public lakes, 819 miles of new highways and 18 new safety rest areas make their appearance for the first time on the Texas Highway Department's colorful 1967 Official State Highway Map.

Before the year is out, about one million copies of the map will be distributed throughout the world, inviting Texan and out-of-state visitors alike to "Discover Texas, America's Fun-tier."

All the new lakes are accessible to the public via the 67-thousand-mile Texas highway system.

Largest of the new reservoirs is Lake Meredith on the Canadian River in the Panhandle. Others are Lake Arrowhead, Fin Creek Reservoir, White River Lake, Bardwell and Somerville Reservoirs.

The new map shows 115 additional miles of Interstate highways, added since last year. More than 1,700 miles of these superb highways are in service now.

The 1967 Official State Highway Map also delineates approximately 704 miles of new farm to market roads. Many of these provide the visitor with access to recreational areas throughout the State, as well as serving agriculture and industry.

Eighteen additional safety rest areas are shown on the map for the first time. More than 1,100 safety rest areas, scenic turnouts and roadside parks now enhance the safety and convenience of Texas highways.

A message from Governor John Connally welcomes the visitors and extends a personal

HAROLD HOWE II

His name is Harold Howe II — but on our list he is number one.
 Mr. Harold Howe II is the U. S. Commissioner of Education. He's the author of the dictum "If I have my way, schools will be built for the primary purpose of social and economic integration."
 To further this way of his, he has blueprinted a plan for giving or withholding funds to schools across the country in order to force them to adopt his prescribed "racial balance" by hauling children by bus from one school district to another.
 Never mind that the parents may have saved and hunted and mortgaged to find the right school so that the youngsters could walk to and from classes. Never mind, either, that more often than not the parents chose the neighborhood realizing that the working father would have to travel many extra miles — maybe by bus — to and from his job.

 Obviously, Mr. Harold Howe II feels strongly about this plan of his. He practices what he preaches. You see, he has one school-age child. A son. In Washington, D. C., where Commissioner Howe resides, school enrollment proved to be 53 percent white, and 47 percent Negro. So Mr. Harold Howe II has bussed his son to a school in Watertown, Connecticut. And that is a far piece of bussing, more than 250 miles.

Now, of course, Mr. Harold Howe II is only exercising his American freedom of choice in sending his son across five state lines to a private 250 miles from Washington. But he has made clear that he intends, if permitted, to deny that choice to millions of American parents who can't afford to pay $2,750 a year tuition at a Taft school. Those taxpaying parents are going to have their children hauled by bus, instead of attending classes in public schools in local neighborhoods where neighbors administer the schools.

The Taft school in Watertown has an enrollment of almost 400 boys. But it isn't 47 percent Negro, as are the Washington schools. In fact, there are less than a dozen Negroes.

Now you know why Mr. Harold Howe II is number one on our list: Number One hypocrite, that is.

U.S. Press Assn.

WITH CONVICTION AND GOODWILL

Quite frequently when a "dissenter" expresses an opinion contrary to the popular will, he is placed in the position of being against "everything."

The fact that he may be for such positive things as constitutional government, balanced budgets, personal liberties, respect for the rights of others, etc., is of little moment.

Dissenters who oppose welfare state spending, wasteful government socialization of industry, and the coercion of an ever-larger body of American citizens by increasingly stringent regulation and taxation are too often considered merely "defeatists".

The right to speak out is fundamental, and the speaker should not be depreciated because he has the courage to be cast in the role of "loyal opposition", and plays that role with conviction.

BUT WHO PAYS

You can't blame people for wanting the best.

Why shouldn't they prefer a super-school, complete with a stadium, to an ordinary school good only for teaching children? Why shouldn't they have a six-lane superhighway in preference to a simple four-lane thoroughfare? Why shouldn't their old buildings in the cities be torn down and replaced with garden apartments? Why shouldn't they receive benefits of all kinds so that their lives will be pleasanter?

After all, think of all that boodle lying in Fort Knox, and all those additional billions of dollars being funneled into Washington.

It's surprising how often you hear questions like those in paragraph two, based on the argument in paragraph three. Which indicates that a pretty impressive job of brainwashing has been done by a lot of politicians. Many people actually are thoroughly convinced that they can get a generous share of the good things of life for nothing or, if there is any charge, someone else will pay for them. Further, they have come to believe they are entitled to these things.

Employing the selfsame pitch, the politicians who promise something for nothing would lead their constituents into a department store, tell them to order anything in the place, and just charge it. To whom? Why to their neighbors. The fellow next door. Or, better yet, the fellow down the street in that big house. Obviously he can afford it.

Of course, the politician who pulled that stunt would wind up behind bars — but isn't this exactly what such a fellow does when he offers the voters something for nothing? Somebody has to pay for all those "free goods and allotments" he offers and you may be certain that he, himself, is not picking up the tab. So he redeems his pledge by charging the tab for his voting district to the entire country. The rest of the country can't vote against him.

And what about the fellow who wants something for nothing and doesn't care who pays for it? Well, there's such a thing as poetic justice. Often such a chiseler finds out that he is stuck with the bill, himself. Plus the supercharge to take care of the promising politician.

The fact is that the average American family is spending 18% of its total income on food. No other nation in the world even approaches this figure, and in England 33% of each family's disposable income goes for food, 45% in France, and 62% in the Soviet Union. Aside from the remarkably small amount of her income which goes for food, the American housewife receives more variety, more nourishment, more everything than her counterpart anywhere on the globe... American's free enterprise, intensively-competitive system is the best guarantee yet devised by man that prices will not exceed demand.

WRONG NUMBER

Judges of the Burlington, Wisconsin Liars' Club annual contest likely know a good big lie when they see one but we conservatives think they missed the boat in their recent judging efforts.

They gave first place to Early Fox of Colorado Springs when he lamented: "The food here is so bad that if it wasn't for the salt and pepper, I'd starve to death."

Good we will admit but not as good according to our conservative instincts as the one submitted by W. R. Anderson of Eavnton, Ill. He reported: "In slum clearance for a new expressway in Chicago, they found a house so dilapidated that $8,000 had to be spent in remodeling before the house was fit to be condemned."

This Anderson contribution received only fourth honorable mention. Have the Burlington liars gone liberal?

FREE RIDERS

The workings of the United Nations are a mystery to most people. If past reports are correct, members who do not agree with some of its policies can simply refuse to pay their share of the cost and still retain their right to vote, and the United States will pick up the tab.

According to an Associated Press report, the United Nations has given up on its attempt to cut costs by making top diplomats travel economy class in flying to and from the General Assembly.

An African envoy is quoted as saying: "It is completely unrealistic that an ambassador who lives and entertains on a diplomatic scale be expected to travel like an ordinary tourist." One wonders if his country has paid its full share of the U.N. budget.

Many a United States taxpayer and tourist has to fly economy class to help pay for luxury accommodations for free riders from foreign nations.

Two Losses Blast TCIL Title Hopes For Tiger Cagers

Sacred Heart's Tigers had their TCIL title hopes blasted by a pair of losses at the league basketball tournament in Tyler last weekend. Four teams competed for the champ title in the North Texas district of the Texas Catholic Interscholastic League. They were Sacred Heart, Tyler Catholic, St. John's of Ennis and St. Peter's of Dallas. The Tigers first met Tyler Catholic and were going good until they developed foul troubles. They led 24-18 at half time and got cautious in the third to avoid fouling out. Meanwhile Tyler gained to a 38-34 lead. Caution did not help, however. Larry Hess, Leon Endres and Ted Endres fouled out in the fourth and Tyler took over. Final score was 62-42. Top scorers for the Tigers were Leroy Hess 15, Larry Hess 11 and Leon Endres 8. Next game the Tigers were cold and St. John's boys were hot. It started the other way with Sacred Heart taking a first quarter lead of 11-7, but the other three periods were all St. John's. Final score was 52-29. Tiger scorers were Larry Hess 9, Leroy Hess 9, Leon Endres 8. Another loss for the Tigers was inflicted Monday night by the Greenhill Hornets. It was one of the better games of the season for Sacred Heart, but not good enough for Greenhill. After trailing 22-21 the first quarter Sacred Heart had a good second quarter and gained 5 points, but still trailed 33-25. In the final periods Greenhill gained slowly and the final score was 69-53. Larry Hess had a big night for 26 points. Leon Endres and Ted Endres made 9 and 8. Meanwhile two Greenhill boys hit 25 each.

Muenster Has 3 on CCJC Honor Roll

Carol Bloom of Muenster is one of eleven students on the President's List honor roll for the first semester at Cooke County Junior College. Requirement for that list is a straight A grade. Two Muenster students, James Lutkenhaus and Carol Ann Pels, are on the CCJC Dean's List, which includes 64 students making no grade lower than B. Also on the Dean's List are Raymond Helling, Ellen Hundt and Theresa Schmidkofer of Lindsay.

Arthur Endres and Bride Honeymoon in the Bahamas

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Endres are honeymooning in the Bahamas following their wedding Saturday in Dallas. She is the former Mrs. Sue Wilson Turner of that city. He is of Muenster and is local postmaster. They were married at high noon in St. Monica's Church, the Rev. Raphael Kamel of Holy Spirit Seminary, Dallas, officiating at the Mass and performing the double ring ceremony. The bride wore a dusty rose Alaskine suit with matching blouse of Alencon lace and pillbox hat. She carried a colonial bouquet of orchids and pink roses. Mrs. Howard Mollenkopf of Emporia, Kansas, daughter of the bridegroom, and John Wilson Turner, of Richardson, son of the bride attended as matron of honor and best man. Mrs. Mollenkopf wore a blue costume and carried pink roses. Mike Endres of Muenster, Sam Endres of Denton and James Turner of Cambridge, Mass., sons of the couple, ushered. Wedding reception was at St. Monica's where members of the house party included Mrs. Roger Taylor of Houston, daughter of the bridegroom, Mrs. John Wilson Turner of Richardson and Miss Julianne Christine of New Rochelle, N. Y. The couple will return from their wedding trip Feb. 20 and will be at home in Muenster. He is a son of Mrs. W. H. Endres and the late Mr. Endres. Her parents are the late Mr. and Mrs. George M. Wilson. Muenster relatives were among guests at the wedding.

600 Attend Choir German Program

A crowd estimated at some 600 attended Sacred Heart Choir's annual German program at Colonial Acres Coliseum Saturday night and made it the biggest and best party the choir has held to date. Some 400 attended the dinner. Mrs. Joe Lehnertz catered the meal of German foods. Sacred Heart Choir presented a concert, then joined with the Dallas Frohsinn Singers in a joint concert before the dance. They gave another performance at intermission. Father Alcuin Kubis was master of ceremonies for the program. The Music Masters of Ennis played for dancing. The round tables were covered with white cloths and decorated with ivy and tapers. White lantern lights furnished illumination from the ceiling. Those attending included groups from Lindsay, Gainesville, Windthorst, Denton, Wichita Falls, Dallas, Fort Worth and other cities and a group of German personnel from Sheppard Air Force Base.

After the 14-year-old glowingly turned up his father's old report card, Dad looked at it for a moment, then announced: "Well, son you're right. This old report card of mine isn't any better than yours. I guess the only fair thing to do is to give you what my father gave me."

Sacred Heart girls did better. They beat Greenhill 31-29 in an overtime period and B stringers beat Callisburg reserves 31-24. But Tigerettes want to forget the A game with Callisburg, especially the score of 87-7.

Playing Greenhill, the Tigerettes were behind 15-13 at the half and 23-21 at the third quarter and tied the count at 29-29 just before the end. They missed a chance to win on regular time with a free shot and finally got their 31-29 in overtime. Top scorers for Sacred Heart were Kay Klement 13, Joyce Schmitt 10, Janie Fleitman 8.

In the B game with Callisburg the Tigerettes had leads of 11-3, and 21-9 in the first two periods. Callisburg trimmed the margin in the next half, but not enough. Sacred Heart held out for a 31-24 lead. Top scorers for the Tigerettes were Dianne Gehrig 17, Mary Ellen Endres 9, Janie Fleitman 5.

Jeannine Hofbauer Harold Flusche Say Vows at Mass

Miss Jeannine Hofbauer became the bride of Harold Flusche at Nuptial Mass in Sacred Heart Church Saturday afternoon. Father Alcuin Kubis was celebrant and also directed the exchange of vows in a double ring ceremony at four o'clock.

Parents of the couple are Mrs. Andy Hofbauer and the late Mr. Hofbauer and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Flusche.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother Larry Hofbauer of Dallas. She wore a formal gown of Chantilly lace with a wedding ring neckline, long fitted sleeves and A-line skirt. A detachable train of illusion embroidered with lace appliques fell from the shoulders to cathedral length. Her veil was shoulder length attached to a pearl studded pillbox and she carried a cascade of white spider mums.

Attendants

Maid of honor was Miss Suzzette Shelton of Denison, classmate of the bride at St. Paul's Hospital School of Nursing in Dallas. The bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Bill Martin of Irving, was bridesmaid. They wore Empire dresses of tangerine crepe with floor length skirts, had matching veiled headpieces and carried tangerine carnations in cascade arrangement.

Tom Flusche was his brother's best man and Marquette Hellman of A&M University was groomsman. Robert Miller and Bill Martin ushered.

Candle lighters and acolytes were Jerry and Alan Miller, Ronnie Flusche, Bobby Hermes and Alvin Hoenig, all relatives of the couple.

The bride's small nieces, twins Cathy and Christy Glover of Dallas, were flower girls. They were in avocado green dresses and each carried a single long-stemmed carnation, one tangerine, the other white, which they handed to the bride after Mass and accompanied her to the Blessed Virgin's shrine where she presented them on the altar and lighted a candle.

On the way into church the bride paused at the front pew to give her mother a single long-stemmed Tropicana rose. On the way out of church after the service she paused to present an identical rose to the bridegroom's mother.

Reception

Wedding reception and buffet dinner catered by Rohmer's were held in the VFW Hall. Miss Sylvia Hofbauer, bride's cousin, and Miss Sue Flusche, bridegroom's sister, registered 215 guests.

Tangerine gladioli adorned the altar space in church and Anthony Luke, organist, and the men's choir sang the Mass. Chosen colors were used in decorating the hall.

Mrs. Hofbauer attended her daughter's wedding in a three-piece powder blue suit with matching accessories and a corsage of yellow gladioli. Mrs. Flusche, mother of the bridegroom, also wore a blue costume and accessories and had a white gladioli corsage.

After their honeymoon the newlyweds will be at home in Dallas. He is employed at Texas Instruments and she is a senior nursing student. He is a graduate of Muenster High School and Cooke County Junior College and attended Arlington State College. She is a graduate of Sacred Heart High School.

For traveling the bride wore a navy blue suit with red accessories.

Pre-Nuptial Shower

A pre-nuptial shower given by classmates was held in Dallas. Guests included mothers of the couple and Mrs. Bill Miller of Muenster and Mrs. Julius Hermes Jr. of Lindsay.

Rehearsal Dinner

The rehearsal dinner was hosted by Mrs. Bill Miller and Mrs. Don Glover in the Miller home for the bridal party.

Wedding Guests

Wedding guests included grandparents of the couple, Mr. and Mrs. John Walter and Mr. and Mrs. Tony Otto, and from out of town, Miss Peggy Graf of New Orleans, La., Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fisch of Guthrie, Okla., Mr. and Mrs. John Pagel of Ruston, La., Messrs. and Mmes. Roger Taylor and John O'Dowd and family of Houston.

Messrs. and Mmes. Randy Bayer of Grapevine, Conrad and Al Flusche and James Flusche, and Charles Flusche, Noel Semanski and Jerry Flusche, all of Decatur, Mr. and Mrs. Shelton and son Joe of Denison, Rosemary Fisher, Dennis Hess and Jimmy Kirby of Denton, Mrs. Prentiss Mangum of Fort Worth, Mr. and Mrs. James Bayer of Valley View.

David Yosten of San Antonio, Clinton Endres and Francis Fuhrmann of Fort Carson, Colo., Messrs. and Mmes. Don Glover, Aubrey Chapman, Urban Flusche and family, Tommy Gressett, Olin Murrell and Rodney Walter, Claudia Endres, Doris Stepanek, David Walter, Monica Fetsch, and the bride's classmates, all of Dallas, and relatives from Lindsay and Gainesville.

He presented Wilson Kaden for an explanation of underground sprinkler systems and various problems presented by them. Muenster will host the next meeting, dated for March 8.

Program on Heart Disease and Style Show for HD Club

Muenster Home Demonstration Club members at their meeting Tuesday afternoon had a program on heart disease. Members presented the program.

Mrs. Gus Lutkenhaus led the program with an illustrated lecture, showing charts and posters. Joined by Mrs. Bill Lutkenhaus, Mrs. Paul Fisher and Mrs. Albert Fleitman, she enacted a skit, "The Worry Jar," then read a poem "Ten Little Smokers," and concluded with a series of exercises in which members joined.

Mrs. Joe Hoenig, president, conducted the business session after she led the opening prayer. Mrs. Henry Pick read the creed and Mrs. Ray Klement gave the quotation.

Mrs. Klement was hostess in her home. Seventeen members were present.

Roll call, tying in with the program, was answered by each member's telling when she had her last physical checkup.

Mrs. Martin Bayer and Mrs. Hoenig reported on visiting local shut-ins and taking candy and cookies to the rest home. Mrs. Earl Robison and Mrs. Oscar Detten volunteered to visit shut-ins this month.

It was reported that members prepared 18 covered dishes for bereaved families on the day of burial and three members helped prepare meals for these families.

Mrs. Robison and Mrs. Hoenig were named as local nominees for selection of delegates by the county council to represent Cooke County at the district meeting in Commerce.

For entertainment members had an auction sale and style show. Each brought a box of old wearing apparel to the meeting, bought a box, the funds going into the club treasury, then modeled their purchase.

Mrs. Rudy Hellman's costume — black leotards — got the vote for being the most comical and she won the prize. Mrs. Henry Pick won a prize for being a good auctioneer and Mrs. Albert Fleitman won the door prize.

The hostess combined a Valentine and George Washington theme in decorations and in refreshments of party cherry pie, coffee, nuts and valentine candy hearts. Plate favors were miniature cheery trees and hatchets.

Put all your money into taxes. It's the only thing sure to go up.

Scoggins Family Sees Mississippi

During the weekend Bobby and Vickie Scoggins saw where history was made and came back with souvenirs, pine cones, Spanish moss, and driftwood from the Mississippi River. They made the trip with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Scoggins, and his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. V. K. Barrier of St. Joseph, La., in whose home they visited. The Barriers took the Scoggins family sight-seeing.

They rode the ferry across the Mississippi River from St. Joseph to Rodney, and old river port town in Mississippi. At Grand Gulf, Miss., they climbed a 60-foot tower for a good view of the River.

They visited an old cemetery where grave markers date from 1814 to 1940 and have unusual epitaphs.

Bobby was intrigued by an old mortar (cannon) weighing 17,000 pounds which shot two hundred pound explosive shells and was used on flat-bottom boats of the Union Army. At Vicksburg they saw the first church built in that area in 1800 and Windsor Castle ruins. The four story building was destroyed by fire.

At Vicksburg they also saw the National Military Park where 17,000 Union soldiers were given temporary burial. Identity of 13,000 are still unknown. Vickie counted 88 cannons on the tour. They crossed back to Louisiana over the narrow Mississippi River bridge, drove on the levee and picked up driftwood.

Returning the Scoggins saw Texarkana, Ark., and stopped to see the Sam Rayburn Library in Bonham.

The past weekend was family reunion time for Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fisher. All were here: the Neil Fishers of Houston, the Jim Fishers of Littleton, Colo., the Johnny Pagels of Ruston, La., and the James Walterscheids of Arlington.

Somebody said that it couldn't be done—
 But he, with a grin, replied
 He'd never be one to say it couldn't be done...
 Leastways, not 'til he tried.
 So he buckled right in, with a trace of a grin;
 By golly, he went right to it.
 He tackled The Thing That Couldn't Be Done!
 And he couldn't do it...

A Michigan editor remarked: "Ohio man who drank 45 cups of coffee a day died at 95. So coffee, it seems, does not keep one awake indefinitely."

In 1918 a German mark had a par value of 4 marks to the dollar. In January, 1921, the dollar would buy 74 marks ... By October of 1923 one dollar would buy 240,000,000 marks. Inflation in Germany was finally stopped with the so-called Rentenmark, which was backed by gold, at which time the old mark had reached more than 4 trillion to the dollar and the savings of the well-to-do and middle class had been wiped out.

Greater Reserve,
New Pipeline in Gas Company Plan

Lone Star Gas Company obtained gas purchase contracts for a major part of the total reserves of the Katy Gas Field located 30 miles west of Houston in Fort Bend, Harris and Waller counties.

In making the announcement, S. D. Liles, vice president of Lone Star's Exploration and Gas Supply Department, also reported company plans for construction of pipeline facilities to bring the gas to Lone Star's distribution system for the 1967-68 heating system.

Prior to the execution of contracts, the Katy Field represented the largest single block of uncommitted natural gas reserves in the United States. Lone Star's purchases from the Katy Field will supply approximately 20 percent of the company's peak day requirements when transmission facilities are completed in October, 1967.

Liles emphasized that the Katy transaction also represents the largest single reserves acquisition in Lone Star history.

The Katy gas will be processed at the field by the unit operator and will receive initial distribution by Lone Star in the Metropolitan Dallas area. Construction of a 219-mile, 30-inch diameter pipeline from the Katy Field to Dallas is scheduled to begin immediately. Company plans call for the completion of the pipeline and the delivery of Katy gas on October 1, 1967. Lone Star anticipates an ultimate daily take of approximately 400,000,000 (million) cubic feet of natural gas from the unit.

Social Security
Now Pays for 12
Months Disability

Gus Jones, social security district manager, noted today that social security disability benefits can be paid to workers with disabilities that are expected to keep them from working for 12 months or more.

Until a short time ago, these benefits were payable only in the case of disabilities that were expected to be permanent or to continue indefinitely without recovery.

Under the new provision a disabled worker may be eligible for disability benefit checks if he has been disabled or is expected to be disabled for at least 12 months. Any person who has an impairment that meets these conditions should get in touch with his social security office.

Jones added however, that work requirements necessary for disability benefits has not been changed. The worker must still have worked under social security at least 5 years out of the 10-year period ending just before he became disabled in order to qualify for disability payments. The five years do not have to be continuous.

Farm Bureau Asks For Reduction of Federal Spending

In addressing the 43rd annual convention of the American Farm Bureau Federation in Las Vegas, Nevada, Charles B. Shuman, Federation president, said the "new Congress should end all production controls, direct payments and price management authorities as rapidly as possible. The first step should be the immediate repeal of the payment provisions of the Food and Agriculture Act of 1965 and the enactment of effective legislation to prohibit the further use of Commodity Credit Corporation stocks to manipulate market prices."

While all segments of agriculture have the capacity to produce in excess of market needs, Shuman said, the availability of land does not determine wheat, soybean, cotton or feed grain production.

"Price, the prospect for profit, and the availability of capital, are the most important determinants of production," he said.

Discussing inflation, Shuman said that the cause of inflation is deficit spending and other federal policies which permit or cause the supply of money and credit to expand faster than the supply of goods.

"Only the federal government can cause inflation, and only the government can correct the cause of this dangerous sickness," Shuman commented. "Billions of dollars can be cut from the huge appropriations for farm programs, foreign aid, public housing and other subsidy programs."

"The administration has moved against inflation too late and with too little, but there is still time to prevent a disaster. Immediate steps should be taken to balance the federal budget by making substantial cuts in non-defense spending," he added.

"It should now be possible to obtain bi-partisan cooperation in seeking economic rather than political solutions to agriculture's problems," Shuman concluded.

Now we hear that the Supreme Court is going to declare the praying mantis unconstitutional.

A New Kind of Farming

A press release tells of a machine that places a thin layer of asphalt underground to prevent water from being lost in sand soil before it can nourish crops. It was developed by soil scientists from Michigan State University and the American Oil Company and consists of a wedge-shaped sweep on the end of a boom attached to the rear of a crawler tractor. As the 34-inch sweep is hauled two feet below the surface, nozzles attached to the bottom of the sweep spray an emulsion of asphalt into the cavity made by its passage. The asphalt hardens instantly into a layer about one eighth of an inch thick, and the soil falls back onto the thin layer with a minimum disturbance of earth.

Use of this underground barrier will permit cultivation of millions of acres of land not now suitable to agriculture because it is too porous to hold the water it receives. Controlled experiments have resulted in significant increases in crop yields. An official of the Michigan State University's department of soil science says that under present economic conditions high profit truck crops such as tomatoes, cucumbers, cabbage, beans, potatoes, strawberries and similar produce could benefit best from the use of the asphalt barrier. The barrier costs about $225 an acre to lay, and present indications are that it will last for at least 15 years, although some of the scientists working on the project see no reason it cannot last indefinitely.

Once again, industry and science have joined hands to help lick the toughest problem facing mankind — and adequate food supply.

Student — "It says here that if we study hard, don't drink, smoke or run around with girls we'll live longer. Is that true?"
Professor: "We don't know for sure until somebody tries it."

Glaucoma Causes 3,500 New Cases of Blindness a Year

Glaucoma is an increasingly serious eye disease which occurs most frequently in persons over the age of 30 and affects at least 2 per cent of people over 40.

A recent article in the Journal of the American Medical Association points out that there are 54,000 men and women blind from glaucoma and that an additional 185,000 people are blind in one eye from this disease. In the United States, says the JAMA article, there are about 1.2 million people with undiagnosed glaucoma and this disease is responsible for 3,500 new cases of blindness each year.

One type of glaucoma, called chronic glaucoma, causes no symptoms until severe damage has been done, says Today's Health Guide, the manual of health information for the American family. Chronic glaucoma can be detected only by the medical eye physician (ophthalmologist) who uses an instrument to measure the degree of pressure in the eye and another instrument to measure the size of the visual field, or side vision. Every adult over 40 should have a test for eye pressure as well as a test for visual fields when he goes for an eyeglass check.

The second type of glaucoma which affects people over 40 is called acute glaucoma. In this ailment the pressure suddenly rises to a very high level and the attack is accompanied by severe pain, redness and markedly blurred vision. Most often the patient must be placed in a hospital immediately and undergo surgery to relieve the pressure. This is successful in most cases, but prompt treatment is very necessary.

The major problem physicians face in dealing with glaucoma is to detect the disease early enough to begin treatment before serious eye damage is done. Many of the people who have glaucoma don't know it.

It is highly important for persons past 40 to have an annual medical checkup for their eyes, even if they don't wear glasses and have no apparent visual problem.

Sherman Deanery NCCW to Meet at Lindsay Feb. 16

Quarterly meeting of the Sherman Deanery National Council of Catholic Women will be held in Lindsay next Thursday, Feb. 16, with members of St. Peter's Parish as hosts.

Mrs. Frank Herr, local NC-CW president, announced the meeting Sunday at the February meeting of St. Anne's Society. She said the program will feature Sister Mary Philip, a Notre Dame Sister, speaking on "Teen-Age Culture." At this meeting a nominating committee will be elected to prepare a slate of officers for election at the next meeting.

Mrs. Al Walterscheid, president, conducted the meeting in the presence of 21 members and Father Andrew Wever, spiritual director, who led the opening prayer.

Cards of thanks were read from the pastors and sisters for Christmas gifts and from the families of Mrs. J. H. Otto and Mrs. G. H. Hellman for dinner preparation on the day of burial. Chairman of the benevolent committee asked that those who take food for the dinners notify the ladies in charge by telephoning the KC Hall at 8:30 a.m. on the day. This will simplify meal preparation they pointed out. Earlier phone calls will be taken by Mmes. Eddie Schmitt and Leo Sicking at their homes.

Father Andrew and Mrs. Herr gave reports on the NC-CW meeting held in Gainesville and Mrs. Leo Henscheid read a sermonette entitled "A Mother's Mirror." Father Bertin Roll's recording for the month brought out "never underestimate the job of mother and homemaker."

Mrs. Sylvan Walterscheid won the door prize and after adjournment there was a social hour and refreshments.

I found a way to make my wife drive more carefully. I told her that if she had an accident, the newspaper would print her age!

If you help a man who is in trouble he'll never forget you... especially the next time he's in trouble!

A bright pupil looked at the examination question which read: "State the number of tons of coal shipped out of the United States in any year." Then his brow cleared and he wrote: "1492, none."

Attend Funeral in Fort Worth

A group from Muenster and Lindsay went to Fort Worth Saturday to attend the funeral of Thomas Carroll, 84, father of Mrs. Carl Beyer of Fort Worth. Services with Requiem Mass were there in St. George Church and burial was in Mt. Carmel Cemetery.

Attending were Mrs. Raymond Sandmann and Mrs. Frank Sandmann and daughter Barbara of Lindsay and Mrs. Ferd Luttmer and Mrs. Richard Swirczynski of Muenster. They visited with the family before and after the services.

Mr. Carroll is survived by the one daughter and one son, Johnny Carroll of Fort Worth, and five grandchildren.

The youngster came home from school and announced: "They've got a magic record player at our school."

"A magic record player?" asked his mother, puzzled.

"Yes," he explained. "You don't need electricity — you don't plug it in to play. All you have to do is wind up a crank!"

Women find themselves at quite a disadvantage since they can now travel faster than sound.

national attitude would be much better and our progress would also be better if all influential publishers and writers over here were on our side.

An effort to avoid another fiscal shenanigan prompted that budget hassle in Washington Monday over the administration's estimate of $10 billion to conduct the Vietnam war next year. Senator Proxmire argued very logically, from last year's cost and official estimates of the duration, that the figure is no more than half size. Administration defenders say it's enough for the needs in sight and more can be appropriated later, if necessary.

The factions obviously agree on one point. The need in the end will be $20 billion or more, so both should agree that the smart thing is to see that the full amount is available in case it is needed. A convenient compromise is to provide $10 billion now and set aside $10 billion more for use if and when.

Congress can do that, but the job, of course, presents a difficulty. There is no surplus $10 billion in the budget, so the amount would have to be trimmed off of other figures.

According to Proxmire and supporters, it would be more realistic and more practical to put down the correct figure in the first place.

Most of the nation agrees with them on that point. They recognize the budget gimmick as a second attempt by the administration to make a fat provision for the Great Society program. LBJ still insists he can have both butter and guns. As before, he intends to spend lavishly on the butter and tell the country later that it has to dig up more money for more guns. And, also as before, he intends to be very sorry about the high cost of war and the absolute need of raising the national debt. Well, the average person isn't fooled now any more than last year. He blames the Great Society and not the war for running our country into the red. He expects Congress to see that the country is not suckered again on the same deal.
