VOLUME XXXI

MUENSTER, COOKE COUNTY, TEXAS 76252 SEPTEMBER 22, 1967

NUMBER 44

The inside story of the now famous Watts riot has been told in a sixteen page pamphlet sent to most if not all of the law enforcement officers of this country. It is a shocking and terrifying revelation. Shocking in the extent of subversive progress achieved by communism in this country, terrifying in the extent of revolutionary turmoil that can be achieved if this sort of sneaking treason is permitted to continue.

The writer is Gary Allen, a Los Angeles journalist who covered for American Opinion such affairs as the Watts insurrection and pro-Vietcong protests at Berkeley. He has been investigating all available information on the subject and scanning the reports of other writers and officials.

Taken together the facts constitute an authenticated charge that Negro riots of this country have been in the process of organizing for a long time and the schemers behind them are Negro intellectual elite aided by white Marxists. They are racists with twisted minds, like the Nazi who took Germany. Qualities they have in common are high intelligence, fanatical hatred and disciplined commitment to the red conspiracy. They planned and produced the Watts affair not just as a hateful demonstration of violence but as a rehearsal for more violent revolutionary plans of the future.

Preparation for the Watts riot and others had been in progress for more than five years. Responsible people recalled that hate literature, especially violent on police brutality, and rabble rousers were at work in the Negro area spreading any kind of inflammatory reports and charges. There were two objectives: to spread and intensify hatred and to condition people so they would defy police.

When those conditions were achieved the organization only needed to select an incident and exploit it — with emphasis on exploiting. A simple arrest for drunkenness was that incident.

Many will recall reports of the time telling that the Watts riot grew spontaneously out of the arrest. But inquiry has shown otherwise. The rough stuff started three hours later and far from the scene — after outrageous rumors of police brutality were circulated — and away from witnesses who knew how false the rumors were. The result reveals how well the reds had planned. The first night their incident spread to twelve square blocks. Within three days it mushroomed to sixty square miles.

More expert planning was indicated in the method of conducting the riot. The well coached and well led mobs were very selective about their targets for looting and arson. Liquor stores were on the preferred list because leaders knew that an intoxicated mob could be more easily led. Supermarkets were hit to cause food shortages. Leaders rightly estimated that the people in trouble would resent police and society more than the mobs. Pawnshops were hit because they are normally good places to steal guns and money. Department stores were on the list because they yielded heavily in guns, ammunition, merchandise and money — all of which the organization needed for its continued subversive planning. Looting was one of the primary motives of the riot and most of the loot was obediently delivered to the leaders.

Of course ruin of the business people was another motive of the leaders. Investigation revealed a general practice of burning accounts receivable files. Loan records were burned in a Savings and Loan firm.

Another part of the Watts story is told in the report on sniping. It's a known fact that many thousands of sniper rounds were fired but not one hit a policeman or fireman. Snipers obviously had clear instructions. Their job was to keep firemen away from fires, to let the evidence burn so that no clues would be left for police. But they were not supposed to hit anyone. They must not provoke a situation in which the police had to go looking for snipers and guns and ammunition.

The rehearsal for revolution was a grand success. Reds learned that they can control

Tigers Are Stout In 20-6 Win over Haltom City B

Sacred Heart's Tigers were in top form Saturday night trimming the B string of Haltom City's Buffaloes 20-6.

In doing so they actually beat two teams. The visitors, with a squad of 36 huskies, had offensive and defensive units whereas one unit had to do both jobs for the Tigers.

Starting the game the Muenster boys made three first downs in a row and failed on the next series. The visitors kicked on their first series and the Tigers moved again for three first downs to the Buffalo 25. An interception on the 15 with a 44 yard run back put the visitors on the Tiger 41. Four short gains and a 24-yard scot by Sanders reached the 4 and two more short gains reached pay dirt just after the second quarter started. A run for bonus points failed and the visitors led 6-0.

Sacred Heart returned the kickoff to its 30 and on the next play Lee Roy Hess connected with Tommy Hess for a 40 yard gain. Three plays later a pass to Stan Endres reached the 13. Four running plays set up a first down on the 2 and Chris Walter went over from there. A pass to Melvin Schilling added 2 and the Tigers led 8-6.

The kickoff was followed by an exchange of kicks after which the Buffaloes advanced 36 yards to the Tiger 19 then lost 2 yards on the next series.

Open the second half Sacred Heart held the Buffaloes on their first series and took possession with 43 yards to go. A 35 yard pass to Stan Endres on the next play and a 6 yard pass to Tommy Hess four plays later were good for the second TD. A pass for bonus points failed. The Tigers led 14-6.

For the rest of the third quarter the Tigers were stopped twice, once by an interception, once by a long loss on a fouled up play. But then

Plans Start for MHS Homecoming

Plans are in progress now for the annual homecoming of Muenster Public School's students on Friday, October 6.

The announcement with return cards has been sent out to students whose addresses are listed, and others are reminded that the invitation applies to them also.

Heading the program is the football game, starting at 7:30 between the Hornets and Alford's Bulldogs. After that there will be a dance and refreshments in the gym. The class of 1957 will be honored.

Precautions Can Help You Prevent Theft of Your Car

Would you encourage someone to steal your car?

"Heavens, no!" might be the startled response from any typical motorist. Yet how often drivers leave their automobiles easy prey to anyone with the slightest inclination of slipping furtively behind the wheel and pulling away.

There's the car left unlocked in the supermarket lot, the one parked and running while the owner does a quick errand across the street, the family wagon — loaded to the roof with luggage — spending the night on a dark, deserted street. And how often car thieves take advantage of such ideal opportunities.

True, the professional thief can open a car and drive it off even if it is locked tight with the ignition key nowhere about. But the non-professional usually can't, and more than half the car thefts in the country are accomplished by amateurs. Many of them are teenagers "borrowing" the cars for freewheeling joyrides.

Even a professional, though, hesitates to break into a locked car — in broad daylight, at least — because of the attention his efforts can attract. At night, it's different. Under cover of darkness, thieves can often do their dirty work totally unnoticed. That's why, at night, it is wise to go out of your way to park on well lighted, busy streets — near stores and restaurants, for example, where there is plenty of pedestrian

Hornets Favored In Friday Game With Lake Dallas

Comparisons on paper seem to favor Muenster's Hornets as they get set for their encounter at Lake Dallas Friday night.

The Bulldogs of Alford well-oped Lake Dallas 34-6 last week. Assuming Alford and Muenster are about equally matched, as they were last year, Muenster boys should have an advantage over Lake Dallas.

On the other hand the comparison could have an altogether different meaning. If Muenster has trouble with Lake Dallas it can expect much more of the same when it entertains the Bulldogs on October 6.

Regardless of what they encounter Coaches Richardson and Hamric expect their boys to be ready Friday night. All except Herbie Sicking sustained last week's mauling without injury, and Herbie was back on the job Monday, expects to be back to normal Friday.

Another development on the team is more significant for the future than now. John Monday, rookie quarterback of last year, is starting to work with the team. Since practice started he has done footwork only to keep in shape while recovering from a fractured shoulder. Coach Richardson expects help from him later in the season, but only on offense. A new member of the squad since Monday is Steve Fette.

Pete Tuggle, 62, Myra Native, Dies Sept. 14 in Waco

Funeral services were held Wednesday in Waco at 1 p.m. in Connally Funeral Chapel for John Hubert (Pete) Tuggle, 62, who died last Thursday morning in a Waco hospital after a brief illness. Burial was in Waco. Services awaited the arrival of a son from the Vietnam area.

Tuggle, a retired farmer and cattleman, was born in Myra on Feb. 8, 1905. He made his home in Waco the past eight years.

Surviving are his wife, the former Ollie Greene; two sons, J. H. Tuggle Jr. of the U.S. Navy and Pat Tuggle of Waco; a step-daughter, Miss Evelyn Greene of Oklahoma City, two sisters, Mrs. Mae Chesser of Kingsville and Mrs. Bertie Clinton of Tioga; a brother, Clinton Tuggle of Robstown; seven nephews of Cooke County and a number of nieces. He was a brother of the late Sam Tuggle of Muenster.

Among those attending the funeral were nephews, Aubrey and Arthur Tuggle and their wives and their mother, Mrs. Sam Tuggle.

Tigers Take Rest, Meet Anna Sept. 30

Sacred Heart's Tigers, with two impressive wins marked on their record, have an open date this weekend while preparing to continue the good work next week when they entertain the Coyotes of Anna.

After the game last Saturday night with the B-team of Haltom City. Coach Tom Williams said he was highly pleased with his Tigers. He was especially proud of their defense in the second half when they allowed the visitors net gains of only 10 yards. He also liked the pass defense which held the Buffaloes to one completion for the night.

No injuries were sustained by the Tigers. All expect to be ready for the game with Anna.

Election, Social To Start Year of Home-School Group

Sacred Heart Home-School Society will hold its first meeting of the new term next Tuesday, Sept. 26, in the Parish Hall following evening church services.

Business will consist of election of officers after which there will be a social get-together with music by Norbert Koesler, J. D. Caplinger, Henry Yosten and Buddy Yosten, local band.

All parents with children in Sacred Heart School are urged to be present for a vote in the election and for enjoyment of the social.

Modern science always falls short. Like they've got all these easy-to-start power mowers, but lawns still look shaggy because the husbands are still coming out in those very hard-to-start models.

Week's Rainfall Adds to 1.67 in.

Slow soaking drizzles in the Muenster area during the last week added to 1.67 inches, which in most cases is what the farmer ordered.

The timing apparently is right for both early and late planting. Those who sowed early have a good start on a winter pasture. Those who waited have enough moisture to bring out volunteer and other vegetation so the seed bed can be put in good condition. And ranges continue to thrive. It's been a good deal all around, however farmers are getting anxious for a few weeks of clear weather. It's time to be at the fall planting.

During the past week rain fell every day except one on the 1.67 total. Biggest readings were 48 on Friday, .56 on Saturday and .40 on Monday.

Total moisture for September up to now is 3.36 and the year's total is 22.27 inches.

DPS Man Urges Early Inspection For Safety Sticker

Dallas — Captain Marvin Blount, Motor Vehicle Inspection Service of the Texas Department of Public Safety, urged Texas vehicle owners today to obtain their inspection sticker early this year.

Front seat belts, steering wheel and rims have been added to the list of items to be inspected. This inspection period which is already in effect will end April 15th, 1968. The minimum fee has been increased to $1.75 for inspection.

Captain Blount advised that under the new law, front seat belts are required on every motor vehicle in which seat belt anchorages are a part of the manufacturer's original equipment. For most American made vehicles, the anchorages are standard beginning with 1962 models. Steering will be checked on all vehicles, including those with power steering, advised the Captain.

Wheels and rims will be inspected without being removed from the vehicle. Captain Blount, with Sergeant Bill Usery and the Patrolmen of the Motor Vehicle Inspection Service supervise some 1300 Inspection Stations in the 30 Counties Northeast Texas area where an inspection can be obtained.

Fannindel Power Storms to 26-6 Win over Hornets

Fannindel's size and speed were too much for Muenster Friday. Coach Glenn Richardson's disappointed Hornets made the long trip home mourning a loss of 26-6.

Muenster started the game with a nice drive that ended abruptly with an interception on the Falcon 8. The hosts promptly moved the other way until Clonzell Sweet, the 195 pound fullback fury tore through left side and raced 38 yards for a TD. A pass added extra points. The Falcons led 8-0.

On the kickoff that followed Muenster fumbled the rain slick ball and the Falcons were set up on the Hornet 39. Sweet went all the way on the next play but a penalty spoiled his effort.

Early in the next quarter the Hornets got a tough break when Herbie Sicking received a knee injury. Don Hartman, moved from the line to replace him, did a fine job in helping advance the ball to Fannindel's 4, but the Hornets could not finish the drive. On a freak play at that point Bobby Brunts became the receiver of his own pass. Defense slapped it back and the surprised Brunts was nailed for a 3 yard loss.

A fumble by Muenster early in the third period gave the Falcons their next opportunity. A few plays later Quarterback Burnett made the last 18 on a roll out play.

For a short time after that neither team was able to move. Each kicked twice. Then the Falcons were on the way again. From 55 yards out they set up the TD with two nice passes and scored on a quarterback sneak early in the fourth.

For 18 and Over

An adult basic education program is available in Muenster if a sufficient number of persons will enroll soon enough.

George Petrus, director of the program for an 8-county area, said this week that provisions are made for twelve classes in the area including Cooke, Denton, Wise, Montague and Clay Counties. The first twelve classes that qualify will be approved. At least fifteen persons are needed to start a class, and as many as thirty can be accepted.

The program is sponsored jointly by the local school system, the Texas Education Agency and Cooke County Public Schools. All books and materials will be furnished and no fee will be charged. Minimum age limit for enrollment is 18 years but no restriction has been placed on the maximum age requirement.

Subjects to be taught are reading, writing, mathematics and English and instructions will be at three levels — the third, sixth and eighth grades.

Classes will be taught at night by a member of the local faculty, the schedule to be worked out by the members and their teacher. Flexibility is allowed for the benefit of students, the only requirement being that 100 hours be spent on the program.

Persons wishing to improve themselves in basic elementary education are invited to contact Superintendent L. B. Brunts of Muenster Public School.

Mr. Petrus advises them to act soon. Later may be too late to get a class approved.

German Day in Texas will be specially observed on October 15 at the State Fair of Texas.

Some features of the pioneer ball include tributes to a native Texan, former President and General Dwight D. Eisenhower. Honors will be accepted by his son Col. John Eisenhower.

Entertainment of the evening will include numbers by the Fourth Army Band of Fort Sam Houston, separate and joint selections by Frohmann Singing Society and Sacred Heart Choir, ballet performances and dance music by the Peppermint Polkas.

Tickets for the pioneer ball sell for $2.50 per person and are available in Muenster from Alvin Fuhrman.

German Day at the Fair will honor the City of Killeen this year. Muenster was honored twice during the past five years.

A couple of fishermen were lying about their catches. "And what was your haul, Bill?" asked one. "Haven't you caught anything worth mentioning?"

"No," said Bill. "The only one I caught was too small to take home so I got a couple of fellows to help me throw it back in."

SILENCE ISN'T CONSENSUS

Nobody, to our knowledge, has made a precise tally of the number to times President Johnson has used the word "consensus" in describing this or that decision of his administration. But he has certainly used the term often enough to establish that one word, consensus, as the hallmark of his Great Society.

And therein lies a tragedy, for the simple reason that no consensus is possible when very great segments of our society do not express opinions — out of fear. Nobody is more mindful of this fear and resulting silence than the working newspaperman. The reporter, for example, who attends a convention of manufacturers somewhere this month, and tries to get a round-up of opinion as to what the strike in the automobile industry will mean to the economy, will get the silent treatment. "Don't quote me," will be the three little words he will hear most often. Prominent businessmen don't want Big Brother retaliating. Almost never will they permit their names to be used. Many will not even comment anonymously.

The newspaperman at a farm convention faces the same problem. Washington pretty effectively controls the agricultural economy of this country. Who wants to be quoted publicly when a whole army of Department of Agriculture agents can disrupt or destroy

True, the bearded beatniks on our campuses speak out, as do many of their compassionate professors. But the men who run the schools? Probably not. There are juicy federal research contracts at stake.

The centralization of authority over every sector of our society serves to impose a silence upon the leadership of each sector. There are thousands of businessmen employing millions of wage-earners who simply do not dare risk a public opinion for fear of jeopardizing the government contracts they hold.

How, then, can there be a consensus, when important opinions are not even expressed? The silence which the system imposes in no way constitutes assent. If any substantial segment of our society is literally afraid to register an opinion publicly, then we are paying a high price for our "benevolent bureaucracy." In such an atmosphere, consensus becomes nothing more than an echo chamber.

NO FEDERAL WATCHDOGS NEEDED!

own property and their own rights have become threatened.

The civil rights marches, the violent demonstrations and the emergency of the "black power" advocates in many of the big cities in the north this summer have also played a major role in convincing many of our people that the civil rights movement has gone too far in too fast a time. This does not mean our people are opposed to "equal rights" but it does mean many think that the term "equal rights" has now been distorted to the point of legislating "favoritism" for one class of our people. This is something civil rights leaders ought to think about hard and clearly.

The threats of more riots and further violence if their demands are not met are not apt to help their cause as most of our people are already sick and tired of the lawless attitude these leaders are spawning across the country, and should this business continue the White "backlash" that has already sprung into being in many areas will grow that much stronger.

UNIFORM HOLIDAYS

The idea of uniform Monday holidays is drawing rather widespread support, for many people feel that the innovation would be beneficial to employers, employees, and the public generally.

A Senate bill (S-1217) provides that Memorial Day would be observed on the last Monday in May; Independence Day on the first Monday in July; Veterans Day on the last Monday in October; and Thanksgiving Day on the fourth Monday in November. In addition, Washington's Birthday would be designated as "President's Day" and fall on the third Monday in February.

This proposed legislation would be an intelligent step toward more efficient operation of our industrial system and enable employees to utilize holiday time more effectively.

Uniform Monday holidays would tend to lessen absenteeism and by reducing the number of holiday shutdowns in the middle of the week would make plant operation more economical.

In a change of this magnitude it is important that sufficient lead time be provided to enable state legislators to take similar action. It is also necessary that employees and the public have time to make appropriate plans, and unions and management to adjust the holiday clauses in their contracts.

It is urged that S. 1217 be approved, the law becoming effective on the first day of January of the third year following the date of enactment.

SPIRIT OF SAMUEL GOMPERS

Anyone even faintly conversant with the American labor movement has heard of Samuel Gompers, the "grand old man" of labor, and president of the AFL from 1886 to 1924. He warned his union members to look behind the humanitarian slogans of advocates of government-guaranteed security. He said, "Look over all the world where you will, and see those governments where the features of compulsory benevolence have been established, and you will find the initiative taken from the hearts of the people."

Social insurance cannot even undertake to remove or prevent poverty. It is not fundamental and does not get at the causes of social injustice... For a mess of pottage, under the pretense of compulsory social insurance, let us not voluntarily surrender the fundamental principals of liberty and freedom. There is a need for the spirit of Samuel Gompers in the world today.

MORE TRUTH THAN POETRY

Are we becoming a society in which the achievers and the doers are considered less worthy than the nonachievers? It looks that way to many who feel that a little credit once in a while, "Not the wealthy, necessarily; not the ones in authority, necessarily; not the gifted, necessarily — just the doer, the achiever — regardless of his status, his opulence, his native endowment."

Mr. Upton goes on to say "It is important to recognize that the quality of any society is directly related to the quality of the individuals who make it up." A nation of misfits who live under the impression that they have rights, but no responsibilities, must mend its ways — or end up on the scrap heap.

Doris McGowan Is Bride of Airman In Gainesville

Miss Doris Jean McGowan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. McGowan of Gainesville, was married in a Saturday evening ceremony to Airman Larry Dean Gore, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Beck of Dallas.

The Rev. Joe Gore, uncle of the bridegroom, officiated for the double ring vows in the Tabernacle Baptist Church.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of bridal satin with Empire lace bodice and pearl trim. Her veil was elbow length and her flowers were cymbidium orchids and pom-pom mums.

Bride's attendants were her sisters, Mrs. Kathy Ullman, matron of honor in pink and Mrs. Kenneth Raines, bridesmaid in blue. Another sister, Miss Judy McGowan, in pink, lighted the candles.

Roger Gore, best man, and Andrew Gore, groomsmen, attended their brother. Both are of Dallas.

Bobby Dennis was soloist and Miss Toni Pawless was pianist. Wedding reception was held in the Education Building of the church where Miss Kathy Miller of Dallas poured punch and Miss Margaret Lawson, a cousin, served the cake.

After a wedding trip Mrs. Gore will reside with her parents until her husband is settled at his new station in Weisbaden, Germany. She plans to join him there.

She is a native of Muenster and a graduate of Gainesville High School. He was graduated from high school in Dallas and attended CCJC.

Among wedding guests was the bride's grandmother, Mrs. E. S. Lawson of Muenster.

Hornets

Muenster's best show came in the fourth as the defense spilled the big quarterback for two big losses. On third down, with 50 to go, the Falcons kicked. Andy Knabe took it on the 50, left his helmet with a tackler on the 30 and zig-zagged to the 13.

A 20 yard loss in the next series was too much to overcome. The Hornets lost possession on fourth down. However a recovered fumble on the 30 gave them a final chance. Runs by Hartman and Knabe advanced to the 1 and Bruns sneaked over for the only Hornet counter.

At the next kickoff the clock had 53 seconds left, which was plenty for another big run by Sweet. He got loose on the play that followed and breezed 75 yards to the goal.

Eliminate "Spearing," Authorities Caution

CHICAGO—Football "spearing" should be eliminated, warn sports and medical authorities.

Spearing is the tactic in which a blocker or tackler uses his head as a battering ram. It's dangerous, both for himself and for the person he hits.

A group of coaches, physicians, and sports officials have joined the American Medical Association in calling for coaches to emphasize correct, head-up blocking and tackling, and for strict enforcement by officials of the rules against spearing.

Said Notre Dame football coach Ara Parseghian: "I can't begin to tell of the number of clinics where I have lectured on the (spearing) problem. We don't teach this at Notre Dame; and over the years, I have done everything within my power to influence others to coach against it."

The AMA's Committee on the Medical Aspects of Sports asked for sports authorities' comments when recent studies showed that head and neck injuries continue to constitute a very high percentage of serious injuries in football.

In the correct, head-up tackle, the player uses his shoulders, arms, and chest to stop the ball carrier. In a "spear" or "butt" tackle, he drives into his opponent with his head. By spearing, the tackler may prevent the ball carrier from advancing a few extra inches—if he tackles him. With his head down, however, he risks serious injury to his head and spinal cord, and he is more likely to miss the tackle because he has a harder time seeing where he's going.

Studies of fatalities indicate that football has a good safety record, considering that virtually a million players are involved each fall. It could be even better, however, if head and neck injuries could be reduced. In 1966, head and neck injuries were responsible for 23 of the 24 fatalities directly attributed to injuries in college and high school football.

Said Murray Warmath, football coach at the University of Minnesota: "Spearing will never disappear from the game until we quit coaching it and until we absolutely disallow its use on the part of our players."

"It isn't the first man who makes the tackle," Warmath said. "It's that second tackler. He puts his head down, closes his eyes, and piles into the man who's down with one intent, and that's to maim and cripple."

Joining the coaches in condemning spearing and in calling for correct, head-up blocking and tackling were Richard C. Schneider, M.D., an Ann Arbor, Mich., neurosurgeon and member of the AMA Committee on the Medical Aspects of Sports; Donald B. Slocum, M.D., chairman of the AMA committee and orthopedic consultant to the University of Oregon football team; William E. Newell, executive secretary of the National Athletic Trainers Association and head athletic trainer at Purdue University; O. B. Murphy, M.D., University of Kentucky team physician and AMA representative to the NCAA Rules Committee; Carl Blythe, Ph.D., Chapel Hill, N.C., chairman of the NCAA committee on football safety and president of the American College of Sports Medicine; L. W. Combs, M.D., director of the Purdue University student health center and a leader in the Athletic Medicine Section of the American College Health Association, and Clifford B. Fagan, executive secretary of the National Federation of State High School Athletic Associations.

4-H Auto Clubs help put the Lid on Accidents!

Half the population, 102 million persons, drive cars, trucks, motorcycles, buses, taxis. Deaths and injuries involving 24.3 million drivers cost $10 billion, according to the National Safety Council. Four of every 10 drivers under 20 years of age were involved in accidents last year, nearly twice as many as all other age groups.

These overwhelming figures have spurred the Cooperative Extension Service to activate the national 4-H Automotive program for boys and girls 14 to 19 years old. An estimated 65,000 youngsters are enrolled this year.

The 4-H program is not a driver training program. It is designed to supplement school driver training courses by teaching driver responsibility, traffic laws, safety and desirable driver attitudes. Simple mechanics and car care also are covered.

The 4-H program has been recognized for preparing pre-drivers for learners' permits and for its community action projects.

The Firestone Tire & Rubber Company sponsors the automotive program and provides annual incentive awards including six $750 scholarships. Carl R. Miller, director of youth activity programs for Firestone, suggests that parents can help put more safe drivers on the road by urging their teenage youngsters to join a 4-H Automotive club.

A call to the County Extension office will supply the necessary 4-H enrollment information.

Mrs. Felderhoff Is Feted for Birthday

Mrs. Tony Felderhoff was the honoree Sunday at a dinner party in the family home. Children and grandchildren were there to celebrate her birthday which was Saturday. She received gifts and a decorated cake. A daughter, Mrs. Sylvan Walterscheid, baked and decorated the cake. Other guests were Sister Mildred and Sister Amora Felderhoff.

In the afternoon the two nuns joined Mr. and Mrs. Felderhoff on a drive to Gainesville to visit Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Felderhoff who couldn't attend the party. A. J. is still a bed patient since undergoing back surgery.

Adding to birthday happiness for Mrs. Felderhoff was a telephone call from a son Charles Felderhoff of Houston.

Dramatically new and different is the 1968 Corvette. The revolutionary coupe roof design includes removable panels and rear window for sophisticated open-air driving. The Mako Shark-bred Corvette boasts of longer and lower aerodynamic lines that are enhanced by a graceful sloping hood and retractable headlamps. Grille, rear deck and recessed taillights are all new. Both coupe and convertible have a new ventilation system with full door glass styling. Concealed windshield wipers and light monitoring system are standard 1968 Corvette features.

Why do some people know all the answers when you try to tell them something, and then keep silent when you ask them something?

Farmer (looking at a decrepit horse): "Tell me what on earth are you going to do with that horse."
Cocky sportsman: "I'm going to race him."
Farmer: "You'll win."

Smith had been scolding his wife, and ended up by saying, "And I believe you fib a little at times."
"But I mean well," his wife remarked meekly. "I think it's a wife's duty to speak well of her husband, occasionally."

One gossip to another: "I won't go into all the details. In fact, I've already told you more about it than I heard myself."

Don Hartman Is President of FFA

Don Hartman is president of the Muenster Chapter of Future Farmers of America for the current school year. He was elected Tuesday.

Others elected at the same meeting are Ken Swirczynski, vice president, David Stormer, secretary, Robin Wimmer, treasurer, Bobby Bruns reporter, Lynn Joe Klement, sentinel, Dale Cash, parliamentarian.

All of the officers will be in Denton September 28 for a district training session on the duties of their offices. It will be conducted by the collegiate FFA Chapter of East Texas State University.

Business discussion after the election of officers concerned the grass judging contest to be sponsored on September 30 by the Upper Elm Red Soil and Water Conservation District. Members are still competing for a place on the team.

MHS Bees Win 16-0 at Sanger

The B stringers of Muenster High School made it two in a row when they bested Sanger's rookies 16-0 last Thursday night.

Both of the touchdowns resulted from steady drives, one for 98 yards and the other for 40. Clifford Sicking crossed the line both times with nice blocking assists from Alcuin Schilling. Schilling went over for two points after TD, Dale Cash for the other two.

Best runs of the game were nullified by penalties. They were 60 yards by Earl Koelzer and 40 yards by Sicking.

Seems like there are a lot of people complaining about the way the country is going who do nothing about it but vote for more things to complain about.

Divers Set New Underwater Records

This decompression chamber was the home of Glen Taylor, left, and Arthur Pachette for six days after they completed underwater work projects at record depths of 636 feet. The underwater work was part of a joint research program by Esso Production Research Company of Houston, an affiliate of Humble Oil & Refining Company, and Ocean Systems, Inc. of New York. The dives, 40 miles off the Louisiana coast in the Gulf of Mexico, provided valuable scientific information on man's ability to work on underwater oil well equipment at great depths. During their six days of decompression, Taylor and Pachette passed the time by listening to piped-in stereo and by reading magazines. The shaved spots on their heads were the locations of electrodes which were used to measure physiological data during the dives.

Life Normal Again For Walterscheids After Film Making

From Moab, Utah, comes a newspaper clipping for Muenster relatives showing a picture of Mrs. Leonard Walterscheid and children as they posed on Paramount Picture's "Blues" set near Moab during recent filming activities.

Mrs. Walterscheid and all five of the couple's children worked as extras in the movie making project. All were on the Hollywood payroll, working from 12 to 14 hours a day during film shooting time. It was an early morning hustle to make the 6:30 a.m. call. They traveled to the border village set at LaSal, the Dole Ranch set up the Colorado River, and at M-4 Ranch entrance south of Moab.

They worked by Big Cut, in a dry creek bed near the Dead Horse cutoff and day after day were photographed in bouncing covered wagons.

Children participating with Mrs. Walterscheid in the filming were teenage Cynthia and Tommy, 12-year old Leonard Ray, 11-year-old Mike and Dianna, age seven. None of the group had speaking roles but with other settlers in the film sang "Rock of Ages."

On the whole it was a wonderful experience, they said. They learned actors are just people, and nice people at that. They were charmed by the gracious Ricardo Montalban who is particularly fond of children. They enjoyed watching Karl Malden and it was exciting knowing Kevin Cochran and James Westerfield in the "Blue" set. "Blue" ended just in time for the Walterscheid children to enter a new term at school. Their movie-making mother is secretary of the Junior High School. The Leonard Walterscheids are formerly of Muenster. He is the son of Mrs. August Walterscheid.

Heard about the farmer's wife who was such a fussy housekeeper that she kept putting newspapers under the cuckoo clock?

A man had been talking for hours about himself and his achievements.

"I'm a self-made man, that's what I am—a self-made man!" he said.

"You knocked off work too soon," came a quiet voice from the corner.

If you talk a lot, you are bound to say something wise occasionally — but if you talk too much, chances are nobody will be listening.

KNOW THAT:

In a survey made of the pine-hardwood area of East Texas in 1965 it was estimated that there were about 33 billion board feet in standing timber. The forest resources of Texas are an important economic asset to all Texans, providing wood and wood products, labor and payrolls.

Chevrolet's new look for 1968 begins up front with a smart new grille and hood that conceals the windshield wipers. Recessed taillights in the rear bumpers and new body side lines are smart styling features as shown above on the Caprice Coupe. An impressive list of comfort and convenience options make it possible to custom-tailor a new Chevrolet to almost any personal taste. The new Chevrolets will be on display September 21.

Dramatic!
Distinctive!
Daringly new!

'68s Top Secrets are here

1968 Chevrolets

The 1968 Chevrolets are the very essence of modern design. Every line, every curve is in close harmony. It's a smooth, uncluttered look with roof lines compatible with body lines, grilles and bumpers that blend gracefully into long, rounded fenders. Clean, flowing, beautiful in their simplicity, these '68 Chevrolets are rich and advanced in styling beyond any you've ever seen.

A MORE SILENT RIDE

And for 1968, we've gone to every length to give you more peace and quiet inside. The most sophisticated computers have been used to strategically place body mounts and successfully isolate noise and vibration. Shock absorbers have been improved. The wheel stance on many models is wider for greater smoothness. Exhaust systems have been redesigned to make them whisper-quiet. Even the clocks tick more softly. A sound car is a silent car. The '68 Chevrolets are the most silent, highest quality cars we've ever built.

BETTER PERFORMANCE

There are new engines, a bigger standard Six and V8. There's a new 250-hp V8 you can order that runs on regular fuel. Many new engine components increase dependability and keep your new Chevrolet running stronger. There's a new rear axle ratio you can add for greater economy. On most engines equipped with automatic transmissions, there's a special heater for the carburetor which gives you more efficient performance in cold weather. And with every engine, you get the new GM exhaust emission control.

UNIQUE ASTRO VENTILATION

Filling Car Tires With Nitrogen Can Extend Life

Instead of filling your tires with free air, wouldn't you rather fill them with nitrogen at one dollar a tire? Gulf Oil Corp., and Big Three Industrial Gas & Equipment Co., of Houston, Texas, think you should. Houston-area Gulf stations will begin offering nitrogen refills this September, using gas supplied by Big Three under the trade name, Tire-Life.

The firms say nitrogen prolongs tire life perhaps by 25% for a car and 50% for a truck by preventing oxidation. The Gulf stations will draw the nitrogen from 300 cubic-foot cylinders and "flush" tires three times to ensure removal of their oxygen. After the initial refill, tire pressure can then be maintained for a nominal charge, Gulf says.

Gulf says its stations will continue to offer customers ordinary air, which is about 20% oxygen and 80% nitrogen, free of charge.

If the meek ever inherit the earth we predict they'll regret it.

Japan In The Next Century

Japan next year will observe the 100th anniversary of the Meiji Restoration which brought her out of seclusion into the modern family of nations. As part of the celebrations, the Government recently conducted a nationwide contest among primary and junior high school students for essays and drawings on the theme "Japan Of The 21st Century." Winner of the Education Minister's Prize was Nobuyuki Tsushima, a 15-year-old boy who is a student at a junior high school in Aomori City. His drawing was entitled "A Japanese City on the Moon."

Drivers' License Will Be Easy To Lose

Texas is beefing up its driver's license suspension laws — and the state's young drivers are going to be the ones to feel the pinch.

Currently it takes four moving traffic violations in a year's time or seven in 24 months before any driver faces suspension of his license as a habitual offender. But for persons under 21 years of age, all of that will change on Jan. 1, 1968. Under a new law effective that date, the young drivers are going to have to watch their driving very carefully. It will only take two moving traffic violations within a year to get their licenses suspended. Moving violations include speeding, running stop signs and running signal lights.

Of course, licenses can be suspended for more serious one-time offenses, too, and the changes in the law don't effect that.

Young drivers have already been subjected to more stringent regulations in Texas. Last month a new law became effective raising the minimum to 18 for those who haven't passed driver education courses. Those who have passed the course can apply for a license at 16. But even hardship cases cannot obtain a license under 15.

Effective also in August was the law making driver's licenses provisional for persons under 21. Until they are 21, young drivers are in effect "on probation."

You Can Believe It!

AT LEAST 1 1/2 TONS OF WATER IS CARRIED HOME EVERY YEAR BY A FAMILY WHO BUYS BOTTLED WATER REGULARLY.

BAD-TASTING WATER AFFLICTS MUCH OF THE COUNTRY. WATER CAN BE UNPALATABLE FROM NATURAL OR MAN-MADE POLLUTION. IT RUINS FLAVOR OF ANYTHING MADE WITH IT, INCLUDING SOUPS, JUICES, ICED BEVERAGES AND COFFEE.

SEARCHING FOR A WAY TO REMOVE SALT FROM SEA WATER, SCIENTISTS DISCOVERED A PLASTIC MEMBRANE THAT REMOVES MOST OF WATER'S IMPURITIES. USED IN A NEW KITCHEN WATER PURIFIER, THE MEMBRANE TAKES OUT UNDESIRABLE MINERALS, COLOR, TASTE, ODOR, DETERGENTS AND OTHER ORGANIC CONTAMINANTS.

PURIFIED WATER IS NOT ONLY BETTER FOR DRINKING, BUT WORKS BETTER IN STEAM IRONS, BATTERIES, VAPORIZERS... EVEN FISH ARE HAPPIER IN IT. AND, ACCORDING TO THE CULLIGAN WATER INSTITUTE, MAKING "BOTTLED" WATER AT HOME REDUCES ITS COST UP TO 50 PER CENT.

Knights Crushed By Caddo Mills

The foxy and power-packed Foxes of Caddo Mills annihilated Lindsay's Knights 60-14 at Lindsay Friday night.

With a drizzle falling most of the time, the game was as messy as it was disappointing. Spills on the slick footing were almost every play occurrences, and seven fumbles indicate the difficulty of keeping possession.

However all that did not seem to bother the visitors. They romped and passed for a total of 337 yards in scoring 9 touchdowns and three extra points efforts.

Statistically Lindsay looked lots better than the score. They trailed 8-11 in first downs, 200 to 337 in total yardage.

Danny Eberhart scored Lindsay's first early in the second half on a 12 yard gallop. Later a recovered fumble gave the Knights their second chance. Brian Bezner scored from the 1 and went over again for extra points.

they started on a 42 yard sustained drive that produced their third touchdown. Chris Walter made it from the 2 on the first play of the fourth quarter.

The last period was more of the same. The Tigers forced the visitors to kick on the first series but lost possession 3 plays later by an interception. Four more plays and the Tigers started again from their 39. Four first downs, including a beautiful 22 yard gainer by Steve Hess, went to the 2 but a fumble on the next play put the visitors in possession on the 1.

The next four plays by the Buffaloes failed by inches to make first down. Time ran out as the Tigers were trying for their fourth TD.

Farm Recreation Projects Built by Use of FHA Loan

Farmers in Cooke & Montague Counties may be able to develop income-producing recreational projects with FHA supervised credit according to John D. Cunningham, local County Supervisor for the federal agency.

Cunningham said approximately 1,100 farmers & rural groups have borrowed some $65 million to develop rural recreation projects during the past five years. "Nearly all the farmers who have developed recreation projects with FHA loans showed some profit in 1966," he said.

"These farm recreation projects are a supplementary enterprise to the farm business yet they showed an average net profit of $1,387. Those who had been in business three years or more showed an average profit of $2,143."

"Farmers who have a natural recreation area on their farms that they can develop and exploit should analyze their situation thoroughly. If the project is feasible financing may be arranged through my office," Cunningham said.

Among the more successful projects that have been financed with FHA loans according to Cunningham are golf courses, marinas, hunting projects, camping and picnic areas, vacation farms, swimming pools and fishing facilities. Youth camps seem to be the most profitable. They showed an average profit of $2,670 in 1966.

FHA uses its farm operating and farm ownership loan program to finance recreation loans. Farmers can obtain a maximum of $35,000 for operating expenses, including the operating costs of farm-based recreation enterprises and $60,000 for a real estate program, including development of land and buildings for recreation purposes.

These loans carry a 5% interest rate on the unpaid principal. The repayment period of loans secured by real estate may not exceed 40 years, while that secured by chattels has a 7-year limitation. Such credit is only extended to those who cannot obtain it through normal lending channels at reasonable rates and terms.

Car Theft

and automobile traffic. Better yet, use an attended garage or parking lot.

In cooperation with the National Auto Theft Prevention Campaign coordinated by the U. S. Department of Justice, the American Oil Company advocates these practices for protecting your car — day or night.

1. When you park (unless you're using an attended garage or lot), lock the ignition, close all windows, lock all the doors, and take your keys with you — even if you're going to be gone only a few minutes.

2. Keep clothes, cameras, luggage, and other valuables you're carrying, out of sight to bypassers. "Never transfer belongings into the trunk after you park," American Oil advises. "A potential thief could be watching, and a glimpse of your 'goods' might be just the enticement he needs. Transfer them first, then park the car in another place."

3. When you leave your car, take along all credit cards, charge account identification, and other credentials a car thief could misuse at your expense.

4. Be prepared to help the police recover your car or accessories more quickly if they should be stolen. Record this information in your billfold or pocket secretary; year and make of car; state and city license numbers; vehicle identification number; engine number; number on keys, door, and trunk, make and numbers of the car radio and all the tires.

5. As an extreme precaution — if, for example, you live or work in an area where cars have been susceptible to theft — purchase an auto alarm. Alarms are available from locksmiths, auto-supply stores, garages, and some department stores. One common type is easily hooked up from the battery, with a switch you can turn on as you leave the car. When the alarm is on, anyone tampering with the ignition is quickly routed by a strident wail.

Mother: "Well, I don't know if he feels insecure, but everybody else in the neighborhood certainly does."

So the phone rings and this 7-year-old damsel answers. It's her girl friend. "Listen," she instructs, "call me back in 10 minutes. I'm in the middle of a tantrum."

A Colorado ranch owner met the Civil Rights Law's non-discrimination between men and women job applicants by placing the following ad in his local paper: "Cow Person Wanted. Applicant must be proficient in profanity to avoid inferiority complex in presence of experts and must share a bunkhouse with three cowboys who seldom bathe."

Daughter: "Tomorrow's Dad's birthday. What shall we do for him?"

Son: "Let's let him have the car."

black mobs and they received the encouragement to continue their dirty work. They are plotting now, planning for the day when they will take over this country and turn it over to the Marxist empire.

Does anyone say it can't happen here? A small per cent took Russia and still holds it. Unless it is stopped it can do the same here.

Evidence is abundant on the big plot. The FBI knows most persons and places involved, but it's not getting the order to clean up. Why? Does our Executive department still think these are good people just complaining about social conditions?
