VOLUME XXXI

MUENSTER, COOKE COUNTY, TEXAS 76252 JANUARY 26, 1968

NUMBER 10

It was gratifying to hear Monday that Chairman Mills and his Ways and Means Committee did not give in to Administration pressure for LBJ's proposed tax increase. Apparently Mills and the other committeemen are determined to stick with their own proposal, that they are willing to tax after the Great Society promoters make a comparable reduction in their spending program.

One of the most significant facts in the President's State of the Union Message was the budget deficit of some $20 billion, which was admitted to have an alarming inflationary influence. However, it was implied that the recommended 10 per cent surtax would reduce the deficit to a mere $8 billion, which would present no serious threat to the country's fiscal soundness. And so, the President concluded, Congress has the responsibility of avoiding financial disaster by approving the recommended tax. Otherwise there is no alternative to taking a dangerous plunge into debt.

As it looks from here, Mills has the better method. The proposed tax hike still leaves us far in the red. The budget can be balanced if both sides in the controversy will cooperate in wiping out the deficit.

Even then, it seems we taxpayers are getting a raw deal. We'd still have to take on the 10 per cent tax increase to avoid the financial mess cooked up by Great Society spend-thrifts.

A big question in our minds is why doesn't our government observe the simple economic rules that we individuals have to observe. We know that we have to live within our means. Going into debt, especially doing so year after year, is the sure way to disaster. That applies to countries as well as to individuals.

For a long time the economic smart alecs have been insisting that national debt is no problem. "We owe it to ourselves." Do they still think so after seeing what is happening to England? The adventure in socialism there has reached its day of reckoning. Prudence demands that we make changes soon in order to avoid a similar reckoning.

The trouble in this country, as in Britain, derives very much from the fact that government has tried to be Santa Claus to so many people. Programs originated to help people in distress were expanded in a "no questions asked" policy to buy the political favors of undeserving people. Legislators who originally provided relief for the unemployed certainly did not foresee how many would loaf for pay rather than accept jobs. Nor in aiding dependent children did they expect to start a trend in illegitimacy. Nor in creating the various poverty programs did they anticipate the many abuses which have been embarrassing to the government and burdensome to the taxpayers.

In general it can be said most if not all of the social improvement endeavors were inspired by high ideals. All are praiseworthy to the extent that they are helping deserving needy people. However, all are faulty to the extent that they are exploited by chiselers and self seeking politicians.

Many of the country's financial problems can be eliminated simply by restraining the give-away urge — by giving only to those who deserve, and weeding out all moochers.

If the money that has been wasted in our welfare programs had been saved the country could have avoided most of its deficits. If officials will clean up the programs now we can still avoid the worries now facing Britain.

Despite economic whiz kids who say that debt is only money we owe ourselves, the fact is that successive deficits of the past few decades have already had their ill effects. The main result has been inflation which shrinks the real value of all savings and imposes hardship on all fixed income people.

Indirectly government has further cheated millions of people by its wage policy. No effort has been made to stabilize wages at a level which would have avoided rising prices and inflation. No effort was made to restrict raises to amounts justified by increased production and efficiency. The result is a big loss to all of fixed income (Continued on page 8)

SH Seniors Will Present "The Lark"

Tryouts for various roles in "The Lark," are under way at Sacred Heart High School prior to casting in the senior play. Rehearsals will begin in February. Staging is planned for March. Brother Thomas Moster is director.

"The Lark" is the story of Joan of Arc, the Maid of Orleans, who became forever a symbol of courage and faith. The play is by Jean Anouilh, adapted by Lillian Hellman. There is no scenery in the usual sense, merely a few levels of steps and platforms and lights.

Officers of the Muenster High School Band were elected as follows in the organization's meeting last Friday.

Debbie Russell, president; Shirley Klement, vice-president; Debbie Cain, secretary-treasurer; Rita Fette, librarian.

150 Report for College Night at Sacred Heart Hi

Muenster's first College Night, held Tuesday at Sacred Heart High School, drew about 150 interested parents and students. It was an opportunity to get helpful information on college life, courses of study, costs, financial aid, school requirements and related topics.

The program started with assembly in the library where Sister Roberta, principal, introduced guest speakers and listed rooms for conferences. The successive schedule permitted attendance at more than one briefing.

The six representatives present were Mrs. Sybil Novinski, admissions officer, the University of Dallas; Mrs. Margaret Cain, recruitment admissions chairman, St. Paul's School of Nursing, Dallas; Edward M. Tomsu, director of high school relations, St. Edwards-Mary Hill, Austin; John E. Tompkins Jr., director of admissions, North Texas State University, Denton; Miss Gertrude Gibson, of the admissions staff, Texas Woman's University, Denton; and Dean Norris Scott of Cooke County Junior College.

The two-hour program concluded with coffee and cookies served by Mrs. Paul Endres and Mrs. Donald Endres.

Inflation is when you have money to burn and can't afford to buy matches.

Dress Factory Has 100 on Payroll

Employees at Jr. Elite, Muenster dress factory, have reached an all-time high with 100 workers on the job, Ola Roberg, manager, revealed this week. She added that she's looking for more help... that the market which opened in Dallas Sunday is "terrific."

The local plant is one of IBJ's two factories and the owners are considering starting another, Mrs. Roberg said. The other factory is at Hubbard.

Locally, seamstresses are busy on the spring line and hurrying to swing into summer wear on schedule.

Work: Something that when we have it we wish we didn't; when we don't have it, we wish we did; and the object of most of it is to be able to afford not to do any some day.

Muenster Teams Beat Lindsay and Lose to Saint Jo

Muenster High School basketball teams beat Lindsay in a pair of games Tuesday and lost two to Saint Jo last Friday.

Both games at Lindsay were thrillers. In the opener Charles Cash's MHS first started with a 10-10 tie at the first quarter and pulled ahead for a 25-19 halftime lead. Next period they lost some of the margin and still led 28-26, then gained to the final count of 41-35.

Top scorers for Muenster were Linda Wilson 25, Debbie Cain 9 and Sue Flusche 7. For Lindsay they were Clara Hess 18 and Janie Hellingier 13.

Losses to Saint Jo were decisive, 41-21 in the girls game, 73-43 in the boys game.

In the opener Muenster's floor work was all right but shooting was much below par. The visitors gained in every period. Linda Wilson and Debbie Cain hit 11 and 8 for Muenster, Donna Copley 20 for Saint Jo.

Saint Jo boys were hot in their shooting and ended the periods with leads of 22-10, 41-20, 53-29 and 73-43. Leaders for Muenster were Sam Sparkman 19, John Monday 13, Tommy Henscheid 10. For Saint Jo Talley hit 19 and Lawler 17.

Benedictine Sisters End Contract with Hospital

Olivet Benedictine Sisters, who have been assigned to Muenster Memorial Hospital since some months prior to its opening, will discontinue their services as of February 1.

Sister M. Mildred, O.S.B., made the announcement this week, explaining that limited membership of the order makes the change necessary. She also said that this regrettable situation points up a need for more young people to enter religious vocations.

Sister Mildred is the only member of the order now on duty at the hospital. Her future plans are incomplete at this time.

The following letter from Mother Benedicta, O.S.B., superior of Holy Angels Convent,

He will report for duty on Monday, February 5. Between now and then he and his wife and children, aged 1 and 2, will move into the Needham house at 323 North Hickory.

West is a native of Cooke County and a 1960 graduate of Gainesville High School.

He comes to Muenster under an arrangement that has applied for several years. The City of Muenster and sheriff's department share equally in paying his salary. He is a member of the sheriff's department assigned to duty in Muenster.

Danny was graduated from 26 weeks of electronics school at Fort Gordon, Ga., Friday, second high man in his class, and caught a plane to Dallas. His parents met him at Love Field at 5 p.m. Saturday. While at Fort Gordon Danny advanced to private first class and won his second medal for expert with the M16 rifle. He won expert rating also during basic training at Fort Polk, La.

Four Muenster young men have enlisted in the Navy and will receive their call in February. Waiting are Dwayne Pagel of the Maurice Pagel family; Larry Hess, son of Mrs. Arnold Hess; Jerry Yosten, son of the Werner Yosten; and Willie Wimmer, son of the Lawrence Wimmers. All are graduates of Sacred Heart High, Dwayne and Willie in 1966 and Jerry and Larry in 1967.

Promoted In Vietnam

Donald Hellman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charley Hellman, has advanced to Specialist 4 in Vietnam where he is soldiering with the 25th Infantry Division.

Civilian Again

Walter Lutkenhaus has finished his tour of duty in the Army and is back at home. He's the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Lutkenhaus. He was separated from the service at Fort Sill, Okla., where he was stationed since he completed a year of duty in Vietnam after training at Fort Polk, La., and Fort Sill. He held the rank of Spec. 5.

Jonesboro, Ark., revealed the order's decision to the Muenster Hospital Directors.

"Under the terms of Section Seven of the agreement between the Muenster Hospital District and the Muenster Memorial Hospital Incorporation, executed January 1, 1965, the Olivetan Benedictine Sisters Incorporation wish to terminate this agreement at the earliest practicable date.

"Our reason for this termination is a shortage of qualified personnel within our community. We have a wide range of commitments to hospitals, schools, and nursing homes throughout our area, and maximum utilization of personnel resources is essential.

"Since Sister M. Mildred, O.S.B., is the only resident representative of the Muenster Memorial Hospital Incorporation, we do not believe that the termination of this agreement and her recall will materially affect the operation of the hospital.

"Our association with the Muenster Memorial Hospital District has been both pleasant and rewarding. We regret that present circumstances dictate the termination of this association. If personnel resources permit, and a need exists, we would welcome an opportunity to consider the renewal of this agreement at our future date.

"Our prayers will be with you for continued progress and success."

January Rainfall Breaks Records

Muenster is having its wettest January since 1949. Readings to date on Steve Moster's official weather bureau report add to 3.87, which is topped only twice on the local record since it was started in 1946. January had 4.86 in 1949 and 4.40 in 1946.

The total measure more than doubles the ten year average of 1.84 and tops the ten year record of 3.48 in 1960.

The month possibly breaks all records also in persistence of wet weather. Seventeen of the 24 days to date had moisture readings. Daily records over the years are no longer available, so it cannot be determined whether any other month had more moisture readings.

Final Rites Held For Ed Klimpt, 89

Ed Klimpt, 89, early day and long time Muenster resident, died Sunday 1:40 p.m. at Golden Years Rest Home. He had been there about three weeks. For the past 12 years he lived at Gainesville and for a short time before that Lindsay.

Requiem Mass and funeral services were held in Sacred Heart Church Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock and burial followed in Sacred Heart Cemetery. Father Alcuin Kubis officiated and George J. Carroll & Son Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Bearers were Henry Grewing Sr., Alois Haverkamp, Joe Hoenig, John Fisher, John Woelner, and Joe Horn.

Ed Klimpt was born in Germany Oct. 27, 1878, and migrated to Muenster as a young man. He never married.

Surviving are two nieces, Mrs. Ward Sheppard of Davenport, Iowa, and Mrs. Lena Wells of Fort Worth.

PTA Meeting Set For Next Monday

The January meeting of Muenster P.T.A., postponed twice, is set for next Monday, the 29th.

Originally scheduled for the 15th, it was moved back a week, then another week, to avoid conflict with basketball programs hosting elementary and high school B teams from Callisburg and Saint Jo.

MOD COLLECTION

Members of Muenster VFW Auxiliary will be at the doors of Sacred Heart Church after all services Sunday to accept donations to the March of Dimes campaign which the organization is sponsoring. Funds benefit crippled children and help in research on birth defects.

The budget provided 167, the treasury 55, and memory books eight. Books donated, new and used, totaled 298. And there were 741 periodicals donated. The library added World Book Encyclopedia and a Children's Catalogue.

During the three-month summer reading program staffers contributed 521 hours and volunteer school girls worked 625 hours. A total of 7,788 books was checked out during this time and state certificates were issued to 128 children. For the first time a story hour for primary grades was conducted. It was attended by 138 children. School girls donated 12 hours of time. Donations by the library included books and magazines to Muenster Memorial Hospital, books to Father Joseph Weinzapfel, Wichita Falls State Hospital and Salvation Army.

The library has on loan 422 books — in addition to the total listed on the shelves. Two hundred of these are from Texas State Library, 107 from Denison Public Library and 115 from Cooke County Library.

Library staff consists of Mrs. Joe Luke, librarian; Mrs. Lee Toothaker, assistant librarian; Mrs. Steve Moser, secretary-treasurer; and Mmes. Albert Schilling, Tony Gremminger, and Edd McGannon, Miss Elizabeth Herr, and Mrs. J. M. Weinzapfel, honorary librarian. Mrs. Dick Dittfurth resigned after accepting full time employment away from home and Mrs. McGannon became a new member of the staff.

The annual dinner, concert and dance sponsored by Sacred Heart Choir has been set for Saturday, February 24. This is the event in which the Froh-sinn Singers of Dallas and Muenster singers join in concert.

An announcement by the Choir this week reveals that the dinner, beginning at 7 o'clock, will feature German dishes. The concert, starting at 8 o'clock, will present vocal members separately and jointly by the two choirs.

The dance will feature the Polka Peppermints of Ennis in waltzes, polkas and modern music. It will start at 9 o'clock.

DANCE SATURDAY
Sacred Heart High junior class will sponsor a dance Saturday night in the gym. The Paper Sun of Denton will play beginning at 8:30.

Funeral services for D. A. Hulcy, Sr., retired chairman of Lone Star Gas Companies and a national business and civic leader for the past three decades, were held 2 p.m. Friday, January 19, in Dallas. Hulcy died January 17. He was 75.

Hulcy, whose business and civic activities assumed national proportions in 1961 when he simultaneously served as president of his company, president of the American Gas Association and president of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, ended a 47-year Lone Star Gas Company career in April, 1967.

James William Whitt, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. James Whitt of Denton was baptized Sunday afternoon in Immaculate Conception Church with the pastor, Father Richard E. Johnson officiating.

Attending as godparents were Miss Rita Trubenbach and Tony Trubenbach Jr.

Others at the service and together again afterward for dinner in the Whitt home were the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Al Trubenbach, and Mrs. Buford Whitt of Gainesville, the great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Trubenbach Sr., Mrs. Tony Trubenbach Jr., Miss Linda Whitt of Denton, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Blythe and children Ann and Richard of Fort Worth, the new baby's parents and sisters Terri and Susan. New Machines for Next Semester in CCJC Shop Class

Students registering for machine shop classes at CCJC in the coming Spring Semester will have the advantage of using new and up-to-date equipment.

The new machine shop has ten new lathes, three new milling machines, and several new shapers, grinders, and drill presses. Five new South Bend lathes are on order and are expected to be delivered and set up for operation before the new semester begins in early February.

The machine shop instructor, at CCJC, Fred Young, is turning out students who have an excellent and saleable skill in the local industrial area.

"About 35 types of jobs are open to CCJC graduates who have had two years of machine-shop instructions," says Mr. Young.

"In a two-year program, our students get 360 hours of theory and 720 hours of machine tool familiarization and practice. Of the 720 hours, 100 hours is devoted to technical information, layout and practice; 110 hours are spent on drill press and 510 hours are allotted to lathes, mills, and grinders."

"In two years of machine shop instruction, our students do 48 basic projects and 52 advanced projects. When the student has finished with this work, he has used all of our shop equipment many times."

Mr. Young, who has both the bachelor and Master's degree plus 12 years experience in industry, invites all prospective machine shop students at CCJC to visit with him and discuss the program offered.

Dressed in a flamboyant shirt and loud - checkered slacks, the college student, home for vacation, was met by his somewhat old-fashioned father who eyed his attire and said:

"Son, you look like a darned fool."

On the way home they met an old family friend who greeted both cordially and said to the young man:

"John, you're getting to look more and more like your father."

"Yes," said John - "so father was just telling me."

Joe. "Yes sir, I'm a selfmade man."

Jim: "Well, you're lucky. I'm the revised work of a wife and three daughters."

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH

Tired of crooked terraces, pointed and odd areas in your farming operations? You most probably don't know it, but they have gone out of style. The "new look" in terracing is straight rows with all terraces the same distance apart.

Realizing that the old fashioned terracing methods were no longer satisfactory for modern farming operations, Soil Conservation Service engineers set about to eliminate as many problems as possible and still keep the soil from washing away.

With the coming of four row and other larger equipment, the loss to time and wasting of crops, farming point rows and odd size patches was the biggest objection to farming terraced land. After several years of research and trials the new method of parallel terracing has proved very satisfactory.

Eighty percent of the terraces built during 1967 in the Muenster Work Area served by the Soil Conservation Service assisting the Upper Elm-Red Soil and Water Conservation District, were parallel terraces.

Bruno Fleitman, Arthur Hellman, Edgar Klement and sons Kenneth and Robert, Arnold Knabe, Dangelmayr Estate and J. H. Bayer, Matt Neu, J. C. Kirk and Werner Becker, built parallel terraces.

Planning parallel terrace systems on the Grand Prairie Soils is rather complicated. Changes in slope, rocky spots cause problems. The first step in planning the system is to make a topographic map of the field. The trial and error method is used to locate terraces and waterways on the topog map until the most workable system is located.

Slope of the land still determines the space between, but the width of equipment, such as planters, drills, mowers is also used to adjust the distance so that the rows will come out even.

Experience has shown that all of the cropland around

Muenster can be parallel terraced. On fields with several changes in slope, two or more waterways may be required. This usually doesn't take any more acres than one large waterway would. More cuts across high places and fills across low places are required than in the old fashioned way. This extra work and expense is easily justified by the time and crops saved during farming operations.

This time of the year is the best for making the topog maps. Soil Conservation technicians of the Muenster Work Unit have completed surveys recently on the Bruno Fleitman, J. W. Fleitman and M. J. Sappenfield farms. Several hundred more acres are scheduled for this winter and spring. Farmers who have cropland washing away because they do not like to farm the old fashioned terraces are reminded that now is the time to contact the Soil Conservation Service and have a system planned for their farms.

Cost share assistance for grass planting is also available through County ASCS offices. The Soil Conservation Service will be glad to provide technical assistance on grass planting at any time.

Great Plains Conservation Program is in effect, farmers and ranchers are taking advantage of the excellent cost share assistance made available through the government for grass establishment and consequently many acres are being established to grass. The end product will be more grass for the cattle and protection for the soil.

Cost share assistance for grass planting is also available through County ASCS offices. The Soil Conservation Service will be glad to provide technical assistance on grass planting at any time.

Voting this Year Expected to Set New State Record

Texas Secretary of State John L. Hill, who is sponsoring a statewide voter registration drive, has predicted that this year's registrations will show a very substantial increase over former years. The previous high was in 1964, the presidential election year, when a total of 2,984,766 registrants were reported by county tax assessor-collectors under the poll tax system then in force.

The total registration in 1966 was slightly under 2,970,000, including registrations under the poll tax system and free registrations during a supplemental registration period in March 1966 after a federal court decision invalidated poll tax payment as a condition for voting. Registrations for 1967, an "off year" for elections, normally could have been expected to drop from the previous year's total, but exceeded the 1966 figure by about thirteen thousand. Political observers have explained the increase by the fact that the full four months of the registration period were available for registering voters without cost, while only a 15-day period had been provided for free registration in 1966.

Hill attributes the expected increase in registrations to several factors. In addition to population growth, he has pointed out that this is the first presidential election year under the new system of free registration, and registrations for a presidential election year normally exceed those for any other year in each four-year period. This is also the first year in which all voters will be required to register. Another important factor, Hill said, is that this registration period marks a high in the activities of groups conducting organized registration drives.

Sister Georgia Is Among 100 Nuns at Dallas Workshop

Sister Georgia, Sacred Heart School elementary principal, was among some 100 nuns attending a Guidance Workshop at St. Rita's School in Dallas Friday and Saturday. Going with her were Sister Mary Alan of St. Mary's, Gainesville, and Sister Laura of Rhineland.

The diocesan program was held to initial guidance into the elementary schools of the Dallas-Fort Worth Diocese in connection with the accreditation of all diocesan elementary schools with the Texas Education Agency.

Program leaders and topics included Sister Marguerite OSF, principal of St. Rita's and chairman of the Diocesan Guidance Committee, on "Group Guidance," Sister Agnes Ann OSB of Mary Immaculate School, Dallas, on "Individual Inventory Service," Sister M. Julia CSEFN, St. Luke's, Irving, on "Information Service," Sister Shaun Marie OSB, St. Rita's, on "Counseling Service."

"Placement and Follow-up Service" was led by Sister M. Camille, SSMN of St. Mary's Sherman, a film session was conducted by Sister M. Rachel OSU of Ursuline Academy, Dallas, and a Guidance Sing-In was directed by Sister M. Mercy OSF, St. Monica's School, Dallas.

Tigers Lose in Dallas Tourney

As expected, Sacred Heart's Tigers were eliminated in their first game at the KC basketball tournament in Dallas last weekend.

The opponent was Notre Dame of Wichita Falls, which had clobbered Sacred Heart earlier in the season. Their game was another one-sided one, but less decisively than before. The score was 53-23.

Considering the many advantages the Knights held over his Tigers, Coach Tom Williams was pleased. He was proud of their hustle and hard work in spite of the odds.

The Knights gained all the way for counts of 9-7, 27-13, 36-17 and 63-28 ending the periods. Paul Hoedebeck hit 15 points for Sacred Heart.

Next Wednesday Is Last Day for '68 Voter Registration

With the deadline for registration only a few days away, Texas voters over 60 years old have been reminded of a new law which requires every voter to register, regardless of age or place of residence. Heretofore, voters over 60 years old were required to register only if they lived in a city of ten thousand or more inhabitants. Wednesday of next week, January 31, is the last day to apply for a registration certificate.

Texas Secretary of State John L. Hill issued the reminder in a statement summarizing registration requirements. As Secretary of State, Hill also has the title of chief election officer of Texas. He said that anyone who is now eligible to vote or who will become eligible by February 29, 1969, may register at this time. The 1968 voting year begins next March 1 and runs through February of 1969.

Hill emphasized that registration for most voters will close on Wednesday of next week, and they will not be permitted to register after that date. The only persons who may register after the January 31 deadline are new residents who move to Texas after October 1, 1967, and persons who become 21 years old or become naturalized citizens after January 31, 1968.

An application form printed in today's paper may be used to apply for a registration certificate by mail. The law provides that applications by mail must bear a postmark not later than January 31. An application which is mailed too late to be postmarked on that date does not comply with the law, even though it is deposited in a letter box or a post office drop box before the deadline. This reminder is especially important for patrons of small post offices, some of which close as early as 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

Voters may also register in person at the county tax-assessor-collector's office or at the Bank or Tom and Jerry's Barber Shop in Muenster.

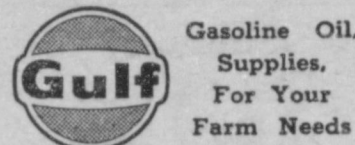

Jill Myrick, 3, Is Birthday Honoree

Jill Myrick, three years old Jan. 14, was the honoree at a birthday party given by her parents, the Jim Myricks, in the family home at Arlington in the afternoon.

Among guests were a trio from Muenster, Mrs. T. S. Myrick, grandmother, Mrs. Pat Stelzer, aunt, and Rene Ann Stelzer, cousin of the honor guest. Her sister Julie also joined in the fun.

Gifts, games, picture taking, birthday cake and other refreshments were highlights of the afternoon.

The only thing necessary for the triumph of evil is that good men do nothing.

Rural electricity generated by BRAZOS ELECTRIC POWER COOPERATIVE OF WACO and distributed by COOKE COUNTY Electric Cooperative has made the country store pretty much like its city cousin ... and has made the rural home as modern and convenient as its city counterpart. As a matter of fact ... there is a higher percentage of electric ranges in rural kitchens than in city homes and a far higher percentage of home freezers, electric water heaters and electrically heated homes. So the home-town trading post sells washing machines ... lots of them ... instead of wash pots.

HIGHER YIELDS ARE IN THE BAG WITH NIPAK UREA 45!

Right off, the big plus with Nipak Urea 45 is in the time and labor savings to you! Efficiency goes up because a higher concentration of nitrogen means less handling, fewer applications, and increased storage space because fewer tons are needed. Another big plus with Nipak Urea 45 is uniform distribution. Because it's a free-flowing, uniformly prilled fertilizer, it handles well in all mechanical equipment. Nipak Urea 45 is also non-corrosive and won't harm expensive farm equipment. Of course, the biggest plus of all is at harvest when you get higher protein, higher yields and increased profits—all because the proper amounts of nitrogen were added to crops at the right time! (Wheat belt farmers report as much as $2.50 to $3.50 return per dollar when they invest in Nipak Urea 45).
