MUENSTER, COOKE COUNTY, TEXAS 76252 NOVEMBER 8, 1974

NUMBER 51

Announcements from the big three car manufacturers are that a slump in sales is forcing them to cut back on production, and thousands of workers will be laid off until the present surplus of new cars is mostly disposed of.

All of which makes a person wonder whether the buying public is holding back for fear of a recession, or whether it objects to the increased prices, or whether this is a sort of protest against the environmental and safety gadgets being forced on the public by over solicitous do-gooders in our government.

It was interesting to note just a few days ago that the bureaucrats relaxed their requirement for the nuisance attachments which sound a buzzer or prevent ignition until proper precautions are taken. Hereafter those things are not required and may be disconnected on present cars. But they are still included in present car prices.

And not to be overlooked is the fact that cars with pollution gadgets need more gas, which leads to another problem in the face of high gas prices and a threatened gas shortage.

Considering all those things, it isn't surprising that lots of folks are simply deciding to get more use out of the old cars. And why not? They have some very practical reasons to offset their usual desire for the newer model. The urge of pride isn't near as strong when it encounters higher price, gas guzzling and the nuisance gadgets.

Something else that may have a bearing on the subject is a natural urge to hold off for a while, hoping for ways to beat the energy crisis. We are told that car makers are being pressured to build more efficient engines. At the same time we're hearing that the outlook for electric cars is improving.

Progress to date seems to indicate that the electric car will have lots of appeal. The few made so far have a range of about 40 miles on one charge and the fuel cost for operation is about 1 cent a mile. It seems like the ideal second car for short drives. Just plug it in overnight and it's ready for the next day. And a good feature is that the charge-up time is during the low-demand hours for electric companies.

Principal problem now is developing a battery of long life and low cost. When that's accomplished there may be a boom in electric car sales. Imagine a low original price and low operating cost and no worries about oil shortage. It's presumed, of course, that by the time electric cars are generally available the power companies will be using coal, lignite and nuclear energy to generate the current.

A news release this week from Americans for Constitutional Action seems to emphasize the fact that Omar Burleson deserved to coast back into office without a contest. The congressman of this, the 17th district, has a consistent record of voting for constitutional principles during his 28 years of service. As stated in the ACA report, his legislative record gives factual evidence of his valuable and unselfish service to our nation.

ACA periodically rates all members of congress on their adherence to the constitution in voting on issues of national importance. On that basis it said "If every member of Congress voted as Congressman Burleson, there would be little or no federal debt, inflation would not be a problem, our military strength would not be in question, and taxes would be lower."

A week or so ago we were told about the huge increase in profits of the oil companies, and the advisability of having the industry taken over by the government. Of course the figures were not very clear because they failed to say what that amounts to. For instance, when the profit was 2 cents on a dollar of sales and the increase is 50 per cent, the net profit is still only 3 cents.

But regardless of actual earnings we've got to remember that more profit for the industry is good for our country. One reason for the crisis is that oil companies could not afford to explore and expand. And concerning the idea of having government take charge, well, it bungled as the regulator, so how can

Light Turnout in Local Elections Favors Democrats

Muenster voters joined the rest of the state Tuesday in two respects. Their turnout was poor, probably the worst ever in this community, and they went strong for the Democrats.

Seventy ballots were cast in the South Box and 262 in the North Box for a total of only 332 out of a possibility of more than a thousand. That figures to less than a third, which is considerably below the nationwide average of near 38 per cent.

However the low turnout here can be explained by circumstances which are very different from those in many other areas. The local ballot presented no choice whatever on the county level, and choices but no contests on the state and district levels. Whereas many places had hot races to bring voters to the polls, the state wide offices on Texas ballots were generally conceded to be a cinch for Democrats. On an average the Republican candidates received almost one third of the local vote for state offices. Also, the Raza Unida party received one vote and the American Party two in the governor's race, and Raza Unida received three for railroad commissioner.

Total of the two voting boxes in the contested races went as follows. Briscoe 196, Granberry 222, Hobby 208, Marshall 108; Hill 217, Cole 91; Bullock 208, Rowe 90; James 196, Holt 121; Armstrong 212, Grier 89; White 219, Fisher 93; Langdon 194, Cain 94; Wallace 200, Steffes 89; Binion 202, Cowper 74.

Trojans Dump Hornets 14-0

The Windthorst Trojans, already out of the District 13-A race, assumed the role of spoiler Friday night by handing the MHS Hornets a 14-0 defeat on the Hornet field. Not only that, but they also shattered the perfect record enjoyed by the Hornets up to now.

As a result Archer City has sole claim to lead in the district race. After its 17-14 win over Holliday Friday night, Archer City has a very comfortable standing of 3-0. Muenster is next with 1-1.

County Adopts 1975 Budget of Over $1.4 Million

A record budget of $1,425,510 for the year 1975 was adopted Monday by the commissioners court of Cooke County. Reflecting current inflation this figure is about $124,000 higher than it was a year ago.

A break-down of those expenditures reveals that $534,681 is intended for the Road and Bridge Fund $36,744 is intended for the Road and Bridge Lateral Fund, and $854,045 is intended for administration.

To meet those obligations the county expects to have receipts of $1,463,510 leaving the county treasury with a balance of more than $38,000. Principal source of that revenue is the county ad valorem tax, which has been set at $1.00 on $100 of taxable valuation. With a tax base of $76.6 million the county expects to receive $766,000 in taxes. Other receipts have been estimated at $175,000 from vehicle license fees, $259,003 from officers' fees, $214,872 from state funds, $14,000 from fines, $3,500 from occupational taxes and $31,135 from miscellaneous sources.

The budget, prepared by County Auditor Tom Blount, takes note of the fact that a pay hike for employees was approved this year to become effective Jan. 1, 1975, and no pay increase was included in this budget. However it is hoped that receipts will be sufficient to consider raises later. Other obligations in the budget are repairs to the courthouse and construction of a new county jail, also payment of more than $50,000 on notes to finance right of way for Highway 82 and FM roads.

Hornets to Fight For Survival in 13-A Title Race

Muenster Hornets at Holliday Friday night will be fighting for survival in the 13-A district race. That is, by winning this one they will earn the right to a shoot-out with Archer City the following week. Furthermore, nothing less than a win can keep the Hornets in the running. Archer City, now 3-0, will have it made if Muenster ties or loses.

Indications now are that Holliday will be a tough obstacle to overcome. It was barely nosed out last week by Archer City and it beat Windthorst in statistics even though it eventually had to settle for a 6-6 tie. Considering that the Hornets were trimmed 14-0 by the Trojans, they have to be definite underdogs for the encounter with Holliday.

Nevertheless Coach Don Neal and his boys have high hopes for Friday. An important reason is that Tom Bright and Darren Neal, who missed practically all of the last game with sprained ankles, are expected to be back to normal Friday night.

Another reason is that the defense hopefully has been strengthened by use of two boys who have been on offense only. Mark W. Sicking will be a linebacker and Jim Grewing a tackle.

In other respects, Neal has confidence in the team's strategy as well as its condition and attitude. He said that he was encouraged by the improved performance in the second half last week, even though it came too late to win. And the attempted comeback in spite of tough odds revealed a fine spirit. Also, the boys are ready physically, that is, if the two sprained ankles will shape up.

Don Wilson Named Head Officer of National Guard

Capt. Don Wilson of Muenster has been named commanding officer of the Gainesville National Guard unit, C Company, 4th Battalion, 112th Armor.

Wilson, who received a direct commission from staff sergeant, is a veteran of eight years in the regular Army and four years in the National Guard. He succeeds 1st Lt. Marvin Smith, who is being transferred.

Wilson, a veteran of the Vietnamese war, holds the Bronze Star, the Purple Heart, the Army Commendation Medal, the Vietnamese Cross of Gallantry, the Vietnamese Service Medal with four campaign stars and the Vietnamese Campaign Medal.

He is married to the former Patty Herr and they have three sons, Bobby, Danny and Tommy.

Bernice Thurman Gets Plaque at Retirees Banquet

Mrs. Bernice E. Thurman, retired Cooke County agent for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, was one of 29 Extension Service retirees honored at a special banquet at Texas A&M University Oct. 31.

Mrs. Thurman was presented with a special plaque by Young County Judge Raymond Thompson, president of the Texas County Judges and Commissioners Association, and Dr. John E. Hutchison, Extension Service director. Mrs. Thurman retired on Aug. 31 after 23-and-a-half years of service, all in Cooke County. She holds a B. S. degree in home economics education from Texas Woman's University and in 1972 received the TWU Distinguished Alumna Award. She received the Distinguished Service Award from the National Association of Extension Home Economists in 1963.

Violations of Law Listed for October

Arrests for violation of the law within the city of Muenster during the month of October have been reported as follows by James McDonald, police chief. Disorderly conduct with a motor vehicle, 2; Impeding traffic, 2; Negligent collision, 6; Expired safety sticker, 2; No driver license, motorcycle, 9; Speeding, radar, 4; Running stop sign, 1; No license tag, 3; No helmet, motorcycle, 2; No tail lights, motorcycle, 1; Failure to turn on headlights, 3; Driver license violation, 1.

Council Orders Enforcement of Curfew Ordinance

The city's curfew ordinance, which has been ignored for a number of years, was dusted off and put back into use at the city council meeting Tuesday night.

The council instructed James McDonald, police chief, to resume enforcement of the provision requiring persons under 18 to be off the streets at midnight. Only exceptions are when the youngsters have a valid reason for being out after 12, such as returning from an out-of-town school event or leaving a dance at midnight. Even then loitering is not allowed. The person is expected to be on the way home.

The council's action was brought on by a contest in vandalism involving students of the two local schools. It started with Halloween pranks that were more than pranks and led to progressively greater vandalism on both sides.

McDonald said the entire mess is under investigation now and detailed reports will be given to authorities of the schools for their disciplinary action and possible prosecution.

Also at the council meeting, a report disclosed that the matter of clearing right of way for work on Ash Street is on court docket now and due to come up soon for trial. The case will determine who is responsible for removing oil lease buildings and rod lines so that street work can begin.

Spicy Surprise Cut on Channel 2

Viewers of Muenster's TV Channel 2 barely missed a shocking surprise the day after Halloween. If four young men had succeeded there would have been several obnoxious pictures on display in the local TV studio for the automatic scanning camera which transmits to the channel.

Police on patrol saw the quartet leaving the building about 2:20 a.m. and approached to investigate. The men scattered but one was apprehended and the other three were taken later. Each was fined $200 for disorderly conduct.

10 Tickets Left For Chartered Bus To Holliday Game

Last call for rides on the Trailways chartered bus to the Hornet football game at Holliday Friday night. Dan Hamric, who is in charge of reservations, said Tuesday morning that ten seats are still available on a first come basis. He also reminds people that the buses will leave at 5:30 sharp in order to arrive in good time for the 7:30 kickoff. Loading and unloading will be at Muenster High.

Garden Club Will Meet Next Monday

The Muenster Garden Club will hold its regular meeting next Monday, November 11, in the TP&L Building with Mrs. Al Schmitt and Mrs. Victor Hartman as co-hostesses.

The program will be on garden and holiday lighting, presented by Mrs. Shirley Carter, home service advisor of TP&L. Member exhibits will be flower arrangements for outdoor decor.

Tigers and Eagles Tangle Friday at SH Homecoming

In spite of facing one of the strongest opponents of the season, the Sacred Heart Tigers' prospects are good this week as they prepare to close out their season with the Valley View Eagles.

Reason number 1, according to Coach Bob Steele: the team will be back to full strength. It's a welcome change from the past few weeks when several boys were either out or ailing with virus and others were crippled. Mark Hess has recovered from a sprained ankle and Ricky Walterscheid will have bandages to protect a fractured hand. In short they're due to be back to their condition and morale at early season, when they were winning. Along with that they have the inducement of helping to make homecoming a hundred per cent happy event.

The mission is a big one, of course. The Eagles have a 7-2 record for the season and share the lead for top spot in the North Division race of 7-B. At the same time the Tigers have a 3-6 season record, including close losses to stout teams like Lindsay and Saint Jo, which gave Valley View a good tussle.

The big job for the Tigers will be to stop the passing game of Quarterback Ford, who has an outstanding record. However the Eagles will have an equal problem in stopping the hard running of Mark Hess and Craig Sangster.

Cemetery Fund Is Enriched by $660

Members of Sacred Heart Parish contributed $660 in the annual All Saints Day collection conducted by members of Muenster Garden Club who accepted donations at the church doors.

The November 1 collection is one of the two annual collections for cemetery maintenance, the Garden Club's major project. The other collection is on or near Memorial Day.

Anyone who missed contributing may still do so. Donations are being accepted by Mrs. Steve Mosler of the cemetery committee and Mrs. Alvin Fuhrman, Garden Club treasurer.

SH Alumni Set for Grand Homecoming

Four days of homecoming preliminaries at Sacred Heart School have pointed to the big event Friday which will include a parade, a football game, crowning formalities, a reunion and a dance.

Events up to now have been decorations on Sunday, blue jeans and girls' flag football on Monday, crazy hats and junior football on Tuesday, bonfire on Wednesday, and a program for the queen's court and their mothers on Thursday.

That leads up to Friday to be observed as spirit day through class time, and students are encouraged to wear the school colors rather than their uniforms. There'll also be a 3 p.m. pep rally and a parade of the queen's court and drill team from downtown to the football field and presentation of the royal court by their fathers.

Featured event is the football clash of Sacred Heart Tigers and Valley View Eagles in a game that has the makings of a real dandy. Half time ceremonies will reveal the queen's identity and crown her as the '74 homecoming queen.

Over 1,000 Enjoy Hospital Auxiliary Stage Production

"It's a Big, Wide, Wonderful World", this year's production of the Muenster Hospital Auxiliary as a benefit for the hospital, was a delight to more than a thousand persons. Shown Sunday and Monday nights in the MHS auditorium, it had an overflow crowd the first night and a near full house the second.

The show was presented as a round the world flight in which the pilot, Charles Bartush, gave a brief description of each country at landing and a short skit presented a sample of living there.

The voyage started with a scene at an American airport, then fourteen stops in Mexico, South America, Ireland, England, Spain, Germany, Holland, France, Africa, Arabia, Russia, Japan, China, and Hawaii. On arriving back home the cast invited the audience to join them in singing America The Beautiful.

A cast of 72 persons was headed by Mrs. Arthur Bayer as general chairman and each of the fourteen skits was directed by a member of its cast. Props and costumes of the skits were furnished by the actors.

Coyotes Crush Tigers 47-12

The Coyotes of Anna ran wild Friday night in a scoring spree that annihilated Sacred Heart's Tigers 47-12. Along with that they had a slight lead in first downs but a huge lead of 425-167 in total yardage. Besides that the only turnovers went their way, a fumble and an interception.

The Coyotes started their stunting with their first offensive play. Following kickoff Sacred Heart had made two first downs for 22 yards and tried to run on a fake punt ending the third series. The attempt failed and the Coyotes took over with 56 yards to go. Brent Hendricks went all the way on the next play.

Following the next kickoff Sacred Heart could not move and had to punt, after which the Coyotes were back in business on their 43. Five plays moved 52 to the 5 before a fine defensive play by Sangster put the ball back to the 17. A pass there from Hendricks

Hospital District Tax Rate Cut From 65c to 40c

A welcome relief from rising costs is the Muenster Hospital District portion of the Cooke County tax bill to be received soon in this area. Directors of the hospital at their last meeting decided to cut the rate from 65 cents to 40 cents per $100 of valuation.

The reason is that the total valuations of the district has increased about one third because of county wide re-valuations by a professional appraising firm. In recent years the total valuation varied from $6 million to $6.5 million, depending on fluctuation of oil production. This year the valuation is $8,307,085.

Under the 65 cent rate last year the total tax on the hospital district was $39,200. This year the total will be $33,231.40.

And finally there will be two events after the game. One is the alumni reunion, the first event to be held in the new community center. It will honor the graduates of '44, '54 and '64, all of whom will be admitted without charge to the alumni party as well as the game. High points of the party's program will be the reunion including introductions of the honor classes, catered refreshments.

The other after-game attraction is a dance for students in the KC hall with music by Israfil.

Traditionally the homecoming queen is elected by the high school student body from a list of four senior class nominees selected by the Tiger football team. The election has been held but its result will not be told until the ceremony. The candidates are Barbie Hess, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hess; Mary Hess, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Hess; Carol Knabe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Knabe; and Laura Kralicke, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Martin Kralicke.

The three who are not elected queen will be princesses in the royal party. With them will be representatives of the three lower classes: Monica Gehrig, freshman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Gehrig; Janet Henscheid, sophomore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Henscheid; and Cindy Bartush, junior, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bartush.

to Weber was good for a score and Hendricks went in for bonus points. Then the Tigers got organized and made a sustained drive of 74 yards. Big gains were a 33 yard pass from Roger Endres to Bruce Fuhrmann, 15 free yards on a penalty and 11 by Endres. Hess scored from the 1. A run for extra points was short leaving the score at 14-6.

On next possession the Coyotes completed passes of 47 and 18 to the 11 and lost 9 yards on the next series, thanks to a big play by Pat Endres. But shortly after that Sacred Heart fumbled giving the Coyotes a set up on the 17. Two plays were enough. Hartfield scored from the 2. Following kickoff the Tigers had to kick on their first series and the ball was returned 30 yards to the 17. Again, two plays were enough. McCartney went in from the 7 and Hendricks booted an extra point for the half time count of 27-6.

The second half was more of the same. Coyotes had to kick on their second series, the Tigers on their first, after which Anna got going again. Five plays starting at the 30 did the job, Harlow went in from the 2 and Hendricks booted an extra point.

On the next scrimmage play after that Anna intercepted a Tiger pass and was 36 yards away from another score. Crain almost made that distance on the next play but was cut down on the 4. Two penalties went back to the 14 and two more plays reached pay dirt. Crain scored from the 6.

After all that the Tigers finally put another touchdown on the board. Following kickoff they were 59 yards away. Two big penalties plus six plays gained to the 18 where Roger Endres got loose for a romp to the goal.

But that still wasn't the end of it. On next possession Alford went 58 in three plays plus overcoming a 15 yard (Continued on Page 10)

Ethel Sandmann Becomes Bride of Gene Schmidkofer

LINDSAY — Mr. and Mrs. Gene Schmidkofer are at home four miles east of Gainesville since returning from a Las Vegas, Nev., honeymoon. She is the former Miss Ethel Sandmann. The couple married October 26 in St. Peter's Church at 5:30 p.m. Father Damian Wewers celebrated the nuptial Mass and performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ben Sandmann. The groom is the son of Mrs. Frank Schmidkofer and the late Mr.

Schmidkofer, all of Lindsay. Given in marriage by her brother Max Sandmann of Dallas, the bride wore a princess styled gown of candle-light Venice lace over peau de soie. Ruffles accented the V neckline and edged the long sleeves at the wrist. A deep self-ruffle enhanced the skirt. A Juliet caplet held her cathedral length veil and her flowers were a cascade of carnations and ivy with a white orchid.

For sentiment she carried a handkerchief that belonged to her mother, and a rosary belonging to her sister Mrs. Edgar Klement of Muenster.

Miss Georgia Bayer of Austin, niece of the bride, was maid of honor wearing a royal blue velvet Empire gown with blue beaded trim. Her matching headpiece had a light blue mini-veil. She carried light blue carnations, German statice and blue star flowers.

Miklos Nagy of Lindsay was best man. Steve Sandmann of Howe, Damian Sandmann, both nephews of the bride, and Leroy Neu of Lindsay, cousin of the groom, were ushers. Carl Sandmann of Valley View, nephew of the bride, and Steve Schmidkofer of Lindsay, cousin of the groom were Mass servers.

Music was provided by Mrs. Eddy Henry of Gainesville, organist, and Mrs. Leon Klement, Miss Beverly Walterscheid and Miss Carol Yosten, all of Muenster, vocalists. Their numbers included Bells of St. Mary, Wedding Song, and Peace, Joy and Happiness. After Mass when the couple paced a floral tribute on the Blessed Virgin's altar they sang Mother at Your Feet.

Wedding reception was held in Gainesville KC Hall. Misses Janet Sandmann of Valley View and Dolores Sandmann of Lindsay, nieces of the bride, registered guests at a table that held the bride's portrait and the couple's memory candle. Mrs. Henry Spaeth of Gainesville, cousin of the bride, presided at the wedding cake.

For traveling the bride wore a maroon and beige long-sleeve dress with matching sleeveless jacket, black accessories and the orchid from her wedding bouquet.

She is a graduate of Lindsay High School and is employed at Lorch Westway in Gainesville. The groom is a graduate of Hanford Union High School, Hanford, Calif., served in the U. S. Army two years and is employed by Valenite Metals in Gainesville. Mrs. Frank Schmidkofer hosted the rehearsal dinner for 19 guests.

A pre-nuptial miscellaneous gift shower was held in Gainesville TP&L building with Mmes. Joan Sandmann of Howe, Lorene Sandmann of Valley View and LaQuita Neu of Lindsay as hostesses. They served refreshments to 18 guests.

Dinner parties honoring the couple were hosted by the Barney Sandmann family of Howe, the Henry Sandmann family of Valley View, the Max Sandmann family of Dallas and the Clem Sandmann family of Lindsay.

Out of town wedding guests included the Max Sandmanns, Mark and Robert, the Jim Schwabs, Kevin Sandmann and Lynda Weiss, all of Dallas the Barney Sandmanns, Steve, Roger and Karen of Howe, the Clarence Bayers of Austin, Dorothy Bayer of Galveston, Cletus Bayer and Julie Molleston of College Station, Sister M. Olive Neu of Granger, Cheryl Bayer of Denton, the Harold Neus of Denison, Wilford Neu of Irving, Mrs. C. M. ELECTRICITY

We Couldn't Do Without It!

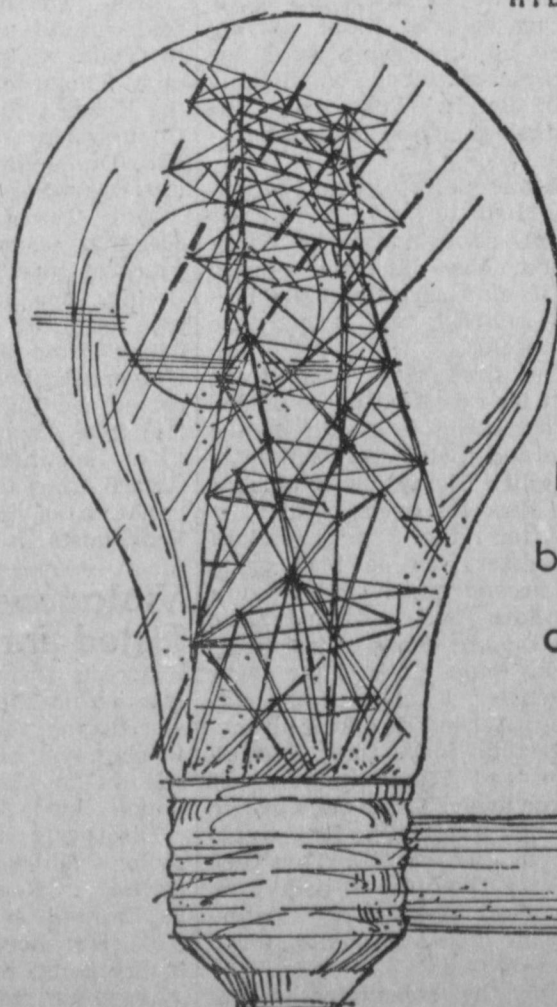

You might think that is an odd statement for a natural gas company to say about electricity. But it's true! There are some things that only electricity can do...like lighting, refrigeration and the many other jobs that it does so well and so easily.
 But —

NATURAL GAS

Generates The Electricity You Use!

In Lone Star's service area most of the electricity is generated by using natural gas at power plants. The Federal Power Commission recently stated that it takes two to three times more natural gas to generate electricity to operate major home appliances than to use gas directly for the same appliances. So, you put natural gas to its best use with gas appliances.

By using natural gas and electricity for the individual jobs they do the best, you're helping to conserve our energy resources. And through conservation, our resources will last just that much longer.

Muenster Juniors Lose 2 Games to Windthorst Kids

Junior teams of Muenster Public School were double losers in the double header played at Windthorst Thursday night. The junior high Little Monsters were turned back by a count of 14-0 and the junior varsity Hornets 20-0.

Little Monsters had a hard fought defensive battle in which the home team ground out two scoring drives and Muenster almost completed one. The Monsters were only five yards from a goal when time ran out.

Windthorst kids made one drive in the second quarter for about 40 yards and one in the fourth for about 60. Scores on both were made on end runs inside the 10.

Standouts for Muenster were Bill Sicking, Deryl Zimmerer, Eddie Serna, Floyd Felderhoff, Pat Walterscheid, Kim Hale, David Felderhoff and Carl Pagel.

The next game consisted mostly of two drives and one break away run. The drives started near midfield and ended with dives inside the 5 yard line, both by Bill Wolf.

Third TD followed a few plays after the future Trojans recovered a fumble. Wolf scored again, on a 35 yard gallop.

Boys who did the heavy work in this game are Nick, Neil, Bert and Kim Walterscheid, Bryan Sicking, Gary Hermes, Albert Zimmerer, Jim Koelzer and Terry Lewis.

Public School Happenings

The Halloween Carnival for the elementary was a big success. The chairman Kay Pagel and the mothers made this possible. There was a booth for every grade and each grade did its own decorating. Refreshments and treats were served. There was a costume contest with Sandy Dittfurth, Diane Yosten and Robert McDaniel. All the mothers need to be commended on their hard work. The children really enjoyed it. The Museum of Horrors was also a big part of the Carnival.

Winners in the costume contest for spookiest were Ronnie Fisher, first and Jon Stephens, second. For prettiest, Amy Davidson, first and Kristi Pagel, second. For most original, Claudia Flusche, first, Mark Grewing, second. They received as prizes Go Big Red MHS Hornet Pins.

Museum of Horrors was put on by the Speech Club. It included a Hunch Back, Darren Neal; a Ghost, Lisa Mollenkopf; Dracula, Ray Luke, Mummie, Lou Ann Swirczynski; Frankenstein, Tim Felderhoff; Mrs. Frankenstein, Mary Lou Fleitman; Mad Scientist, Thomas Bright; Mortician, David Wimmer; a dead man, Mark Stoffels; Werewolf, Harold Sandel; Medusa, Debbbie Reynolds; Sea Hag, Charlotte Johnson; Guillotine Keeper, Leo Lutkenhaus, Witch, Nancie Lippe; Fortune Teller, Margie Wolf.

The Spanish Club helped with decorations and sound effects. Mrs. Roy Hartman was director with Robert McDaniel and Rudy Koesler assisting.

In elementary school news, Pam Hoenig and Glenda Sicking, sixth graders, taught the sixth grade sign language.

The PTO executive committee will meet at the hospital on Nov. 11 at 6:45 p.m.

Seventh and eighth grade classes of MPS recently enjoyed a field trip to the Fort Worth Museum of Science and History.

They visited the Hall of Texas History where they had a lecture period provided by several volunteers who had many articles their parents and grandparents had used. The students were told how these were made and for what they were used, then the articles were passed among the students for closer inspection. From there they went through the Hall of Texas History which featured a sequential story through the use of models, dioramas, and artifacts to depict the development of the State of Texas. The students were then allowed to visit the remainder of the Museum as their interests allowed them.

Teachers accompanying the group were Mrs. Nancy Perryman, Mrs. Loretha Cash, Mr. Don Neal and Mr. Harold Tipps.

Classes began with a beauty forum conducted by Mary Kay's beauty expert Beau Wilson who demonstrated new skin care for oily and sensitive skins. There were four special classes with the eight area directors and one day spent with Mary Kay and her staff.

This leadership conference was for directors and directors-in-qualification from all over the United States. About 200 directors and 10 DIQs attended. Jan will debut as a director December 1.

Their son Tom Petrie of Lancaster, Pa., came to pick up his mother and together they drove to Houston where he was conducting an Armstrong Cork meeting. Mr. Petrie flew to Houston to hear his son's talks and the parents flew back, then went to Columbus, Ohio, to visit their son Michael and family and to Buffalo, N. Y., to visit Mrs. Petrie's brother and wife, the Joseph Flynn. After returning to Lindsay Mrs. Petrie went to Richardson to spend a week baby sitting with her grandchildren, the Jim Petries' two youngsters while their mother, her mother and grandmother were on a week's flying trip to Europe.

The Spaeths and Father Frowin then drove to Lindsay for prayers at the graves of Mr. and Mrs. George Spaeth in St. Peter's Cemetery.

While in Muenster Father Frowin visited the Alvin Clerks and conducted blessing rituals for their new home and car.

Sunday afternoon Father Frowin was joined by Father Eugene Luke in returning to Subiaco, Ark., by car.

Pus Caterpillar Stings in Season

Many residents in Cooke County have noticed pus caterpillars in trees and around their home this fall. Pus caterpillars are commonly called asps.

These caterpillars are about one inch long when full grown. They are covered with hair. The color is variable, being yellow, gray, redish-brown, or a mixture of colors. These caterpillars feed on the foliage of shade trees causing very little damage.

Pus caterpillars can cause severe "stinging" if the hair are broken or stuck into tender skin. These hair are hollow and are supplied with a poison which causes the stinging.

When a person is stung — treat the area with a water solution of baking soda or household ammonia. If a person has a tendency to have severe reaction to stings, he should see a doctor.

Insecticides will do little to kill these insects at this time, because the caterpillars are full grown and have stopped eating. They are looking for a place to pupate and spend the winter. If a person insists on spraying, use Sevin or a general purpose spray.

A company is know by the men and women it keeps.

Blue Birds News

FFA SWEETHEART

Miss Lecia Lynch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Lynch of Forestburg, was selected as sweetheart for the 1974-75 school year by the Forestburg Chapter of Future Farmers of America during a regular meeting Monday. Lecia is a sophomore in Forestburg High School, secretary of the Forestburg FFA, member of the Forestburg Beta club and a starting forward on the undefeated girls' basketball team. She was presented with an FFA sweetheart charm bracelet by chapter president, Charles Lanier, and later will be awarded a sweetheart, jacket by the chapter.

New FEA Brochure Describes 30 Ways To Save Gasoline

A handy brochure that describes 30 ways to achieve better gasoline mileage has been prepared for distribution by the Federal Energy Administration, according to Delbert M. Fowler of Dallas, FEA regional administrator. "The potential for conserving fuel through energy-wise driving habits and fuel-efficient cars and trucks has enormous conservation potential," commented Fowler in announcing availability of the new booklet entitled "Tips for the Motorist."

"Energy saving measures by motorists and truck drivers can go a long way toward helping achieve the goal of President Ford, who has urged the nation to cut its oil consumption by one million barrels per day in the next year," Fowler noted.

"If every vehicle owner in the nation slashed fuel consumption by 15 percent, available supplies would increase by more than 28 million gallons per day which is over half of the announced goal," Fowler pointed out.

"Tips for the Motorist" notes a fuel economy conscious driver should be able to get at least 30 percent better mileage than an average driver and 50 percent better than a poor one, just by improving driving practices and keeping his car in top shape.

The illustrated brochure fits easily into purse, pocket or glove compartment and includes sections on how to improve driving skills, take proper care of a car, plan trips and what to consider in buying a new car. Either single copies or quantities for group meetings are available free by writing: Public Information Office, P. O. Box 35228, Dallas, Texas 75235.

Societies to Meet And Treat Sunday
St. Joseph's and St. Anne's Societies will meet Sunday, Nov. 10, after evening Mass, for their November business sessions and will follow with a supper party. St. Anne's members are reminded to take along covered dishes for the meal. The ladies are treating the men this time.

Texas FB Head Favors Reliance On Free Market

The Texas Farm Bureau today launched a statewide gift certificate campaign to increase the consumption of meat, poultry and dairy products.

TFB President J. T. (Red) Woodson said this is a "positive approach" to moving agricultural commodities which are in serious trouble at this time.

In a letter to all 210 organized county Farm Bureaus, Woodson said the promotion involves Christmas gift certificates for these food products. Theme of the campaign will be "Give meat, poultry and dairy products for an old-fashioned farm and ranch Christmas."

"What better way to express the true spirit of Christmas than by giving a gift certificate for these foods," the farm leader said. "We believe that the concept will catch on. The American Farm Bureau Federation has been asked to carry the idea nationwide."

Woodson said Farm Bureau would seek the cooperation of other agricultural groups, food chains and independent grocers as well as top state government officials.

He said county Farm Bureaus will be asked to form special committees to call on local grocers and to promote the program locally. Woodson said most food chains have their own gift certificates and that these could be used in the promotion. Certificates will be furnished to stores that do not have them.

Special envelopes and message cards will be provided for persons wishing to send checks or money orders instead of gift certificates. These will be available at county Farm Bureau offices.

"My three boys stick together. When one boy gets into trouble, neither of the others will tell on him."

"Then how do you find out which one to punish?"

"It's easy. I send all three to bed without supper. Then the next morning I thrash the one with a black eye."

Forestburg News

By Myrt Denham

FORESTBURG — Don't rightly know who all is on the sick list this week. However, would like to report that Johnny Moore, Bill Colwell, and Doyle Lynch are all at home from their respective hospitals. This is good news indeed.

Mrs. Wanda Perryman and her aunt Mrs. Vera Mae McGee drove up to Hart, Texas, Saturday, Oct. 26, to visit Wanda's mother Mrs. Eula Moore. On Sunday they drove to Amarillo to visit Mrs. Alta Box. The Mayo McGee family joined them there for a visit. Wanda and Vera Mae returned home on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Porch of Oklahoma City spent the weekend of Oct. 25-27 visiting with the Paul Putnam family of New Harp.

Mrs. Dama Corbin, Johnny Moore's sister, of Borger and Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Frank Corbin, Colorado visited Johnny and Mollie and the Gene Laniers and Lenora Moore the weekend of Oct. 25-27.

It has been suggested to me that perhaps Forestburg should form a "Moaners" and Groaners' Club." It could meet once or twice a month, compare aches, pains, ailments — discuss cures, treatments for them and do our "moaning and groaning" at one time. Not such a bad idea when you think about it.

Mrs. L. B. Stroud of Fort Worth visited the Audie Lee Knox family Sunday, Oct. 27.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Covington of Arlington visited with the Billy Covington family Sat. p.m., Oct. 26.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Scott and Mrs. Billie Poynor attended funeral services for J. B. "Pete" Poynor, age 59, in Fairbanks, Okla., Oct. 23. He was killed by a train at Alta Loma, Texas. His parents were the late Wesley and Annie Poynor and a cousin of the late Charlie Poynor.

Forestburg has itself a new rural letter carrier — or mail carrier — whichever you prefer — as of 1 Nov. Must admit that this one is much prettier and younger than the past two have been. She is Cheryl Brogdon, wife of Max Brogdon. I, for one, wish her much success and know she will make a good mail carrier. Now I wonder if Max will sorta wear that apron, get his hands wet in some dish water, and learn to fit them around a broom, mop and sweeper. That mail route ain't no joy ride no matter what anyone may think.

Mrs. V. A. Greenwood, Hazel Greenwood and Darlene and Nancy were in Wichita Falls Sat. p.m. to attend the wedding of Debra Louise Grizzle to Thomas Wiley Moore at 7:30 in the First Baptist Church. Debra is the daughter of the late Grady

Greenwood. The 42 party was held in the home of Blake and Velma Freeman, Thursday, Oct. 31. Guests were the Jack Greshams, the J. M. Dunns, the Barney Brogdons, Mrs. Grace Scott, Mrs. Frances Brewer, Decie Ellzey. Clea, they say they missed you. Mr. and Mrs. Sonny Cole and Tim of Saint Jo and Billy (Continued on Page 9)

WE'RE ALL IN THE SAME BOAT

When power companies talk about reasons for higher electric bills we want you to know we all have the same problems.

- Inflation . . . higher cost for everything we buy.
- Operation Cost . . . for capital, taxes, labor and supplies.
- Fuel Adjustments . . . the increased cost of producing the electricity you use from fossil fuels (these costs are passed on to you each month).

Because you are a member of Cooke County Electric Cooperative Association, doing things the Cooperative way has enabled us to hold the line on increased rates. Yet, we're in the same boat and will have to make certain rate adjustments to meet your needs.

Saint Benedict Returns Home

A touch of nostalgia is in the autumn air as one passes the local convent. After a 25-year absence, the statue of Saint Benedict — originally on the gothic high altar in Sacred Heart Church — graces the facade of the Sisters' residence.

When the old parish church was torn down in early 1949, the statue was moved to Holy Angels Convent, Jonesboro, Arkansas.

Now that the Sisters in Jonesboro have a new convent, and the old convent is being torn down, Saint Benedict has returned to Muenster.

Sister Genevieve brought the statue back after she attended the new convent dedication in Jonesboro.

Originally the statue's robes were painted black. Now St. Benedict is clad in white as worn by the Olivetan Benedictine Sisters.

The statue fills the exterior niche of the convent which remained empty since the completion of the building in 1962.

Gid Prather Is Birthday Honoree

Gid Prather was a surprised honoree Oct. 27 at his home in Saint Jo when his wife, their daughter Mrs. Jack Terry and her son Mike Terry and wife held an open house party in observance of his birthday.

Helping in the celebration were about 70 relatives and friends who signed the guest book. They came from Saint Jo, Fort Worth, Dallas, Grand Prairie, Gainesville, Muenster, Nocona, Wichita Falls, Sherman and Waco.

Mrs. Terry lives in Seminole, Okla., and Mike and his wife Patty live in Norman.

Punch, coffee and cake were served. The cake was decorated with a crown signifying the honoree as king for a day. Fall mums and candles decorated the refreshment table.

As an added delight and surprise Mr. Prather received telephoned greetings and had a long distance visit with his daughter Mrs. Terry Kite and family from Paris, France. Mrs. Prather also got in on the conversation with the couple and their sons Jason and Derek.

Gid Prather is an active member of the First Baptist Church of Saint Jo and is employed by Sikes Oil Co. He has lived in and around Saint Jo all his life.

"What is TP&L doing to prevent an electric power shortage here?"

Providing adequate and dependable electric service to approximately two million people is a primary responsibility of Texas Power & Light Company.

Today, TP&L is meeting this responsibility despite shortages and rising costs of generating plant fuels and unprecedented high costs of building and operating the facilities necessary to produce and deliver electric power.

To prevent an electric power shortage in the future, TP&L has a number of major actions in progress...

... participating in exploration and drilling for natural gas and developing storage reservoirs to assure fuel supplies for existing generating plants.

... filling storage tanks at generating plants with more than 80 million gallons of fuel oil for use when gas supplies are curtailed.

... constructing seven new generating units and planning others which will utilize readily available lignite coal as fuel.

... planning, with Dallas Power & Light and Texas Electric Service, construction of a nuclear-fueled generating plant, the first unit of which is expected to be in operation by 1980.

... planning to spend more than $250,000,000 in 1975 for construction of new plants and other facilities.

Dependable electric service has been the primary goal of TP&L for more than 62 years. It will continue to be our primary goal in the years ahead.

Hornet JVs End Season with Loss To Lake Dallas

Muenster High's junior varsity closed out its football season Tuesday night with a 19-0 loss at Lake Dallas.

It was a game in which the young Hornets gave a good account of themselves but saw their efforts wasted on turnovers. The Falcons intercepted three Hornet passes and recovered a fumble, and turned two of the breaks into scores. On the other hand Muenster intercepted twice but failed to cash in.

After a stand-off first quarter the hosts took over in the second for a 60 yard drive ending in a 3 yard crash for the TD. All Muenster could get during the half was short yardage and a pair of first downs.

The second half was better in yardage gained, but the effort was spoiled by the turnovers. One interception was returned 40 yards to the 5, another 20 yards to the 20, and both opportunities were turned into scores. Otherwise the Falcons gained very little.

Outstanding on the defense that stopped them were Mark and Doug Cler, Bert and Kim Walterscheid, Bryan Sicking and Gary Hermes. The rushing game, led by Gary Hermes, got stout help from Bert and Gary Walterscheid, Fray Webster and Doyle Wimmer.

SHH Art Students Make Field Trip

Approximately 50 art students were on a field trip Thursday afternoon, October 31, visiting the former DeBlanco country home which is now occupied by the Don Neal family. Mrs. Neal is the art teacher at SHH.

Under Mrs. Neal's guidance, the students observed the carvings, mosaics, paintings, and the artistic architecture of the house as designed by the European artist, the late R. O. DeBlanco.

The students had also planned to do art sketches of trees in the area but were unable to do so due to the recent inclement weather.

On Friday night, Nov. 1, Betty and Bennett Reynolds honored Perryman Denham with a party to celebrate his retirement from his rural carrier's job. It was also a combination surprise birthday party for Mrs. T. W. Smith, whose birthday was Nov. 3. Betty played the piano for her guests and all enjoyed an evening of Mexican dominoes, friendly chatter and refreshments. Guests included the T. W. Smiths, the A. G. Barclays and us Denhams.

Have been thinking about talking Red Wylie into building an extension to the Mercy Bench in front of his store — or perhaps putting up another one. Now that my husband is amongst the retired group along with many others — one small bench just won't hold 'em these days.

Nelline's eating joint is getting crowded also, especially on these rainy cold days. The other day Charlie Barclay and wife stopped by for coffee — 'twas so crowded out front he couldn't find a place to park. Charlie got sorta "out of snuff" for he had to miss his daily a.m. coffee break there and miss out on all the problems being discussed and solved.

The Chapter Farmer Chapter Conducting team of the Forestburg FFA Chapter will present a parliamentary procedure demonstration at the next regular meeting of the Forestburg PTO meeting, Monday, November 11, in the Forestburg High School at 7:30 p.m. They will show the proper order of business and demonstrate the ability to receive and dispose of seventeen types of motions. The public is invited to attend.

Saturday, December 7th is the day for our Christmas Parade, Santa coming to town and prizes - prizes and more prizes. Boxes have been put up in most of the stores and will soon be in every place of business. There you may sign a slip - drop it in the box and be ready for the drawing. Sign as many times and as many places as you can between now and December 7th. The more slips with your name the better your chances to win.

Soon we will publish a list of places where you can register also a list of the prizes being offered. The Chamber of Commerce and Jaycees are working to make this a big pre-holiday bonanza.

The boys must have been on their good behavior on Halloween. Neither the Bank or Palace Drug had to haul away the mess - there was none. What little junk did spill out on Main Street was cleaned up by the city crew the next morning. Wouldn't this be a nice town if some worked as hard to beautify it as they do to deface it.

Johnny French is in the hospital undergoing tests and Bill Bedrick is there in a traction. Get well quick you guys.

Hornets Lose ---

18. Six plays from there reached the Muenster 40 as the half ended.

The second half was different in two respects. Hornet defense got organized and stopped the Trojan stampede. Also the MHS passing game improved for four completions out of eight tries. So Muenster led in first downs and total yardage. However it was also hit by four turnovers, two interceptions and two fumbles, which spoiled whatever progress it made.

Opening the second half the Trojans kicked on second series and the Hornets started from their 45. The next six plays, including a 9 yard run by Mark W. Sicking and a 29 yard pass from Randy Wolf to Terry Walterscheid reached the 18. But the next three tries lost 6 yards and a fourth down pass was intercepted. That was Muenster's best scoring opportunity.

About midway in the final quarter the Hornets put on a short spurge as Randy Wolf and Mark W. Sicking gained 33 to the Trojan 34 in six plays then fumbled the ball away. And moments before the end they made their best defensive stand. From the 12 Windthorst crashed at the line four times before losing possession on the 3.

SH Junior Teams Divide Two Games With Callisburg

The junior teams of Sacred Heart and Callisburg broke even Tuesday night in a pair of games on the Tiger field. In the opener SH seventh graders lost 12-6 and in the second the SH junior varsity got revenge by a score of 12-0.

The visitors clearly dominated in the little fellows' contest. Besides leading 7-3 in first downs and 145-15 in total gains, they had a fumble recovery and an interception, and SH recovered one fumble.

Starting the game the Cubs made a first down and were stopped cold on the second series. Then on first possession a young Wildcat broke away for a 50 yard touchdown. On next possession Callisburg was stopped on first series by Mel Walterscheid's interception, but kept going on the following attempt. A quarterback sneak for two yards ended a 47 yard drive.

Then came the Cub's best play of the night. Mike Hesse returned a kickoff 55 yards to the 15 and two plays later Kenny Hartman passed to Mel Walterscheid for 13 and a TD.

The second half was a defensive struggle in which the visitors got a fumble recovery and interception, gained 36 yards and held SH to a net of minus 15. Neither side threatened to score.

Game No. 2 was near even in stats, but the young Tigers did better in combining their gains. First downs were even at 6 each, SH led 68-13 in rushing and Callisburg led 78-49 in passing. Tigers intercepted three times and Wildcats once.

All of the first quarter and most of the second was a standoff in the middle of the field until a short kick gave the Tigers good position on the 24. Bob Schmitz gained to the 12, an interference ruling gave free yardage to the 4 and Joe Sicking plowed over from the 2. For the rest of the half an interception by Sicking was the only big play.

Opening the second half the Tigers marched to pay dirt on first possession. The big gain was a pass from Bob Grewing to Bob Hartman for 36 yards to the 22. Seven plays made the distance and Bob Schmitz scored from the 1.

Early in the final quarter the Tigers threatened again and a pass from Grewing to Schmitz went 24 for a touchdown but was nullified by a penalty. Otherwise the eventful Tiger plays were interceptions by Schmitz and Hartman.

Tigers Lose ---

penalty. The scoring play was a 46 yard dash by Weber and the count was 47-12.

Though overwhelmed by the run-away several Tigers still managed to do a big job. They were Graig Sangster, Leon Bayer, John Henscheid, Melvin Hess, Roger Endres, Pat Endres and Mark Hess.

Reports Required Of Persons on SSI

"The new Supplemental Security Income (SSI) program administered by the Social Security Administration requires reports from recipients that are not required from people receiving only social security benefits," Gus Jones, District Manager of the Sherman Social Security Office announced today. "It is important that people receiving the SSI payments be aware of their obligations."

"For example," Jones continued, "a person receiving social security may not have to report if he is working, unless he is disabled, if he does not expect to make over $2400 in a year. A person receiving Supplemental Security Income must report any work he or she does. Also, any other income that a social security beneficiary would not normally report - such as prizes, gifts, increases in other pensions, interest payments, etc. - must be reported by those receiving SSI payments."

"There are other points to remember," Jones went on. "If a person moves, we have to know not only to send the checks to the proper address but also to see if there is a change in the living arrangements of the person receiving SSI. If a husband and wife separate, or a person enters an institution, or a death occurs, the Social Security Office should be notified immediately so that the individual's eligibility can be redetermined."

"People receiving SSI payments should ask their Social Security Office for a pamphlet number: 73-11010 - 'Your Claim for Supplemental Security Income.' Jones concluded. "It will remind them of their obligations to report all items that may cause a change in payments."

it be expected to succeed as an operator? Remember, oil and gas shortage traces back to the ceiling placed on gas prices in 1954 by the government.

If we need any more facts on the subject we only need to remember that the Post Office under government management has never paid its own way. Also that railroads lost money when run by government and made a profit under their own management.

Nationalizing any industry has no appeal to anyone who has heard of the stagnant economy under government ownership in communist countries. It's no accident that U.S. is far ahead of them and is called upon often to help them out of economic trouble.
