VOLUME XXXVIII

MUENSTER, COOKE COUNTY, TEXAS 76252 NOVEMBER 1, 1974

NUMBER 50

Relative to the much publicized controversy on killing livestock, this week's column is being turned over to David Klement, a native of the community, now on the editorial staff of the Detroit Free Press. The following is a recent article of his in that paper.

Why the big uproar about farmers in Wisconsin, Texas and Oklahoma killing their calves and pigs because they can't afford to feed them?

It's Page One news, and everyone from President Ford on down is outraged at the "shocking waste" of their action.

It just goes to show you how little the city slickers understand the farmer, and how much the farmer has learned from them.

For farmers have been quietly killing their livestock off in bad times for years. It's only now, after years of watching anti-war protesters, black-power advocates, unionists and women's liberationists shouting their grievances on the picket line, that farmers have come out into the open with the same tactics of public protest. They've learned from the daily newspapers and the evening news that the squeaking wheel gets greased.

Twenty years ago, on a small dairy farm in north-central Texas, killing newborn calves was a private, dollar-and-cents matter. And very painful, especially for a 14-year-old who thought he was pretty much of a man.

To this day I'm not sure why Dad ordered ME to kill the calves. Perhaps it was because he'd had a belly full of it. More likely he was testing me, to see what kind of a farmer — and man — his son was.

His orders were brief and clear: "Get the .22, take the three new calves out to the pasture and shoot them."

Of course I knew it was necessary. The market was glutted, and at 50 cents a head it wasn't worth the gas it took to haul them to the auction barn. And we sure couldn't keep them — we were already feeding more calves than we needed to replenish the herd.

But damn, the little rascals were cute, all spotted with different colors, all gangly legs and warm, wet noses and big brown eyes.

I didn't really need the twine that I tied around their necks to lead them — they followed right along, no doubt thinking it was feeding time. Calves, like most newborn creatures, seem to be perpetually hungry.

It was a quarter-mile walk to "the boneyard," that dreaded area in the pasture where all dead animals were disposed of. I stopped and slowly loaded the single-shot .22.

My hands trembled as I sighted down the barrel at the first calf. "Why me?" I thought, lowering the rifle. "Why do I have to do it?"

But I knew why. I knew I'd have to do it someday, if not now then the next time a cow broke her leg, or a dog got hit by a car, or one of these years at butchering time. It's one of the things a man has to learn to do.

I drew the rifle back to my shoulder, aimed carefully at the smallest calf's head, and pulled the trigger. Quick reload, aim again and pull the trigger. And a third time. It was over very quickly.

I hurried back to the house, half sick but half proud, too. Dad was waiting. He'd heard the shots, so he knew I hadn't failed.

"It had to be done," is all he said.

Fortunately, it was the last time we ever had to shoot baby calves. Shortly after that the prices went up to $1 a head, then $2.50, and soon $5. Before long, buyers were coming to us asking if we had calves to sell.

A year or two ago, on one of my visits home for Christmas, Dad told me he was getting as much as $50 apiece for baby calves. I asked him if he remembered back around '54 when we had to shoot the calves because they weren't worth 50 cents. He said, yes, he remembered, and he hoped things wouldn't ever get that bad again.

Well, now they are, only this time there's no glut. The price of feed grain has nearly doubled in the past year alone, and the cost of fertilizer and fuel has soared. But the price

Next Tuesday Is General Election Date for Nation

People of Muenster will join those of the state and the nation next Tuesday in choosing the people who will represent them in office for the coming terms.

The elections here will be held as usual at two voting places both to be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. E. J. Swirczynski will preside at the North Box in the K of C hall and Paul Fisher at the South Box in the VFW hall.

Five parties are shown on the ballot, each with a candidate for governor, but only the Democratic party with candidates for all of the offices. Republicans and Socialist workers have a number of state candidates but no local candidates.

Representative Omar Burleson and five judges are the only state wide candidates going in without opposition. Uncontested district candidates are Representative Bill Sullivan, Civil Appeals Associate Justice Joe Spurlock and District Attorney Jerry Woodcock.

County candidates who have it made are Larry Sullivan, Anna Mae Shorter, Frank Scoggin, Irene Bryant, Kit Carson, Greg Underwood and Robert Bayer.

Sandy Reiter Will Receive Highest State 4-H Award

Sandy Reiter, 17, of Muenster, and David Nortman, 17, of Lindsay, will receive the highest 4-H Award in Texas on November 7, according to an announcement made by E. Neil Tibbets, County Extension Agent, and Mrs. Evelyn Yeatts, County Home Economist.

The two youths will be given special recognition at an Extension District 4 Gold Star Award Banquet in Fort Worth, which will be held at the Student Center of Texas Christian University.

Sponsors of the Banquet are: Community Public Service Company, Lone Star Gas Company, Texas Electric Service Company, and Texas Power and Light Company.

Eddie Perkins, of Cleburne, Texas 4-H Council Chairman, will serve as Master of Ceremonies. Thirty-two other 4-H Club members from the North Central Texas area will be honored at the event.

Sister Alberta Will Address World Congress on Dyslexia in Minnesota

Sister Alberta Krebs, OSB, reading teacher at Sacred Heart School, has been asked to speak at the World Congress on Dyslexia in Rochester, Minn., November 7-10. The congress is sponsored by the Orton Society in cooperation with the Mayo Clinic of Rochester.

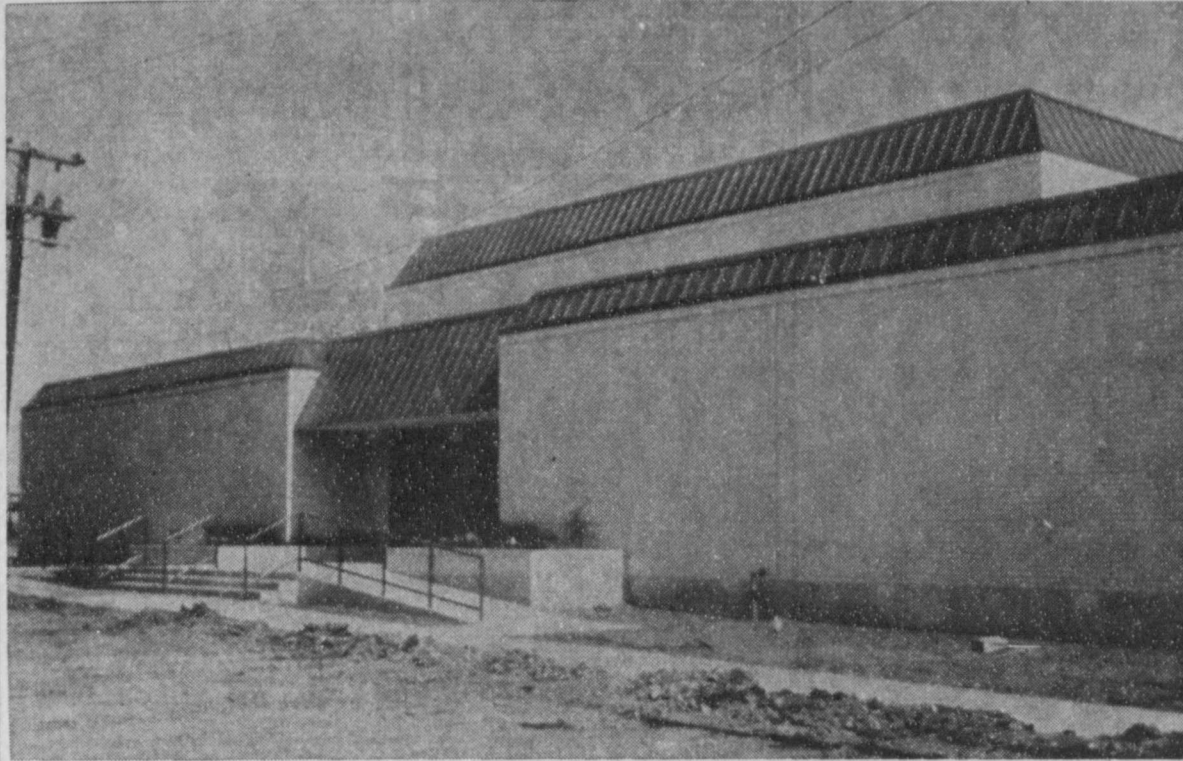

Outstanding speakers in the field of dyslexia will attend the congress from Israel, North Wales, England, South Africa, West Germany, Switzerland, Japan and Australia, and from across the United States.

This year's congress will be the 25th annual meeting of the Orton Society, a national, non-profit, scientific and educational association committed to the promotion of the study, treatment, and prevention of the problems of specific language difficulty known as dyslexia.

Because of her outstanding work in the field of remedial language at Sacred Heart School, Sister Alberta has been asked to address the world congress.

Sister Alberta received her training in the field of remedial language from Texas Scottish Rite Hospital for Crippled Children in Dallas. She has 30 years of classroom teaching, 16 of them in Muenster with the last five years devoted exclusively to implementing language training programs as a preventive measure against reading disability.

Sister Alberta conducts special reading programs in

The new community center of Sacred Heart Parish will be shown at open house Sunday.

Hurting Tigers To Play Coyotes There Friday, 7:30

Sacred Heart's Tigers have a big job cut out for them Friday when they mix it with the Coyotes of Anna. It's a matter of SH problems with injuries and illness while facing the team that's favored for the title of its district.

Word received by Coach Bob Steele is that Anna now has a record of 6-2, and the wins include a 21-0 decision over S&S, which bowed to the Tigers 20-8. The comparison indicates a near even match, but the situation has been changed by other factors.

Ricky Walterscheid, kingpin of the line is doubtful at best with a fracture of the forearm. And a number of boys are below par after a bout with flu during the past week. Pat Endres and Karl Koesler missed the last game. Craig Sangster, Bruce Fuhrman, John Henschel, Jim Luke and Leon Bayer were there, but barely. And now they're still recuperating from the let down caused by fever.

Nevertheless the Tigers will go in with confidence and optimism, hoping for the breaks. With a present standing of 3-5, they desperately need a win to improve the season record. The game will be at Anna, starting at 7:30.

Commissioners Set County Tax at $1

Cooke County's tax rate, established Tuesday morning in a special session of the commissioners court, is $1.00 on $100 of assessed valuation, a reduction of 2 cents from the rate previously announced.

The court's action followed a report from County Auditor Tom Blount that a computer error set the taxable base at $76.5 million whereas the amount should have been $77.5 million. With the higher tax base the lower rate is sufficient.

Normally tax rate is set in July, but this year, due to a number of problems arising from re-evaluation, the decision on tax rate had to be delayed.

24 Hour Rain Measures 6.15

A real gully washer, one of the community's biggest rains ever, fell here Wednesday night and suddenly brought the year's moisture total to near normal. Thursday's 7 a.m. measure by Steve Moster was 6.15 inches. And a light drizzle was still falling.

Along with previous rains of 1.48 since last Thursday this runs the week's total up to 7.63. The month's total now is 9.27 and the year's total 33.73.

High water in the east part of town caused a number of people to evacuate their mobile homes and also had Highway 82 under water. Area creeks were up but, thanks to flood control reservoirs, none got over their banks. However some of these lakes have reached their overflow level and some are near the top, and the same applies to dozens of ponds. Weinzapfel Lake just west of town is going over the top and has backed up to a depth of about ten feet over Sixth Street.

Meanwhile Gainesville and Lindsay were also hit hard. High water has entered homes in both places. Also a tornado caused extensive damage in Gainesville.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Vogel and Gene spent the weekend in Little Rock, Ark., visiting their daughter and sister, Sr. Gemma Vogel. Mrs. Joe Vogel accompanied them and visited her daughter and family, the Wayne Keys, who also live in Little Rock.

Big and Handsome Community Center Is Finished

A dream of many years came true this week when the handsome, spacious and functional Sacred Heart Community Center became available to the people of Muenster. Replacing the highly cherished old Parish Hall, which witnessed most of the eventful gatherings here during the past 68 years, this big and good looking new structure now becomes the witness to important events destined to happen here for many years to come.

It is the future home of practically all parish functions except church services and will also be available for other gatherings such as meetings, weddings, dances, and even a bad weather refuge for picnics — plus its daily use as a cafeteria for Sacred Heart school children.

The new hall presents many details of interior and exterior beauty, and its appearance remains to be further enhanced by completion of a big parking lot in front and establishment of grass, flowers and shrubs surrounding the building.

After being at the top of the parish want list for many years, the new community center became a definite project in a fund raising drive late in 1972. At that time a preliminary sketch was proposed, but after considerable study it was judged to be somewhat larger and more elaborate than needed, so the present

Hornets, Trojans Meet Here Friday In 13-A Contest

With one district victory to their credit, the MHS Hornets are going all out in their practice this week to win their second when they meet the Windthorst Trojans Friday night on the Muenster field. Kickoff time will be 7:30 p.m.

At this time Archer City leads the race with a 2-0 record after beating Callisburg and Windthorst. Muenster is 1-0 after beating Callisburg. Holliday is 0-0-1 after a tie with Windthorst, which is 0-1-1 after the tie and a loss to Archer City. And Callisburg is 0-2-0.

In spite of its season record of 2-5-1, Windthorst still rates as a tough team, and it has the complete respect of Coach Don Neal and the Hornets. The team has close losses to Nocona and Henrietta of Class AA and a 7-6 loss to Paradise, champ of 7-B. Also a 14-12 win over Whitesboro and a big win over Sacred Heart. And, as regards the loss to Archer City, it was 14-6 through the third quarter.

On Muenster's side the outlook is slightly better than it was last week. Randy Wolf, on three quarters of offense only, is expected to be ready for defense also. And Darren Neal, out last week, should be ready for offense this week. However Tom Bright, who went out with a sprained ankle last week is doubtful this time. He got off the crutches Tuesday. Another plus for the team is the progress of sophomore backs Mark Sicking and Mark Mollenkopf. Along with Mark L. Sicking at quarterback, they did a good job in the last quarter of last week's game.

While backs were being hurt, the sturdy Hornet line continues to be well and dependable. These are the boys due most of the credit for allowing opponents only 40 points in the seven games to date. They're also the boys who helped Hornet backs look good in running up 165 points.

Holliday and Archer City will meet in the other district game and Callisburg will have an open date.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter McCoy have as guests in their home Mrs. McCoy's mother and sister, Mrs. Enriqueta Gonzalez and Louise from Mexico City.

Open House to Show Community Center

An open house showing the newly finished Community Center of Sacred Heart Parish will be held this weekend following all the church services except at 7 p.m. Sunday.

An announcement in last Sunday's parish bulletin stated that the building will be open and visitors will be welcome after the evening mass on Saturday and after the Sunday morning masses, which are at 7, 9 and 11 o'clock. But it will not be open after the Sunday night mass.

Father Placidus Eckart, pastor, points out that this will be only an opportunity for people to come and see, that there will be no ceremonies or speeches or refreshments. It's just a matter of wandering around leisurely and looking as long as one pleases. Father Placidus added that members of the building committee will likely be there giving a sort of guide service.

However the formalities will not be long in coming. The parish bulletin also says that Bishop Dangelmayr will bless the new building in connection with confirmation services to be held here on Sunday, Dec. 8.

That event will be accompanied by the first commun-

Auxiliary Group Extends Invite to Travel with Them

From Muenster Hospital Auxiliary comes a general invitation to join members on a trip November 3 and 4. They are going to make stops at 15 different countries.

Departure time for this Muenster Hospital benefit is 8 p.m. at Muenster Public School Auditorium. Everybody is invited to attend "It's a Big Wide Wonderful World."

Tigers Lose to Hawks 30-20

Fate stacked the odds against the Tigers Friday night in their contest with the Cistercian Hawks of Irving, and they did a great job in losing by only 30-20.

Rickey Walterscheid was out with a fractured forearm and Pat Endres and Carl Koesler were out with the flu. Besides Jim Luke, Craig Sangster, Billy Krahl and John Henschel, though in the lineup, were having a feverish fight of their own with the flu bug.

Something else to consider is the Hawks' potent backfield. Quarterback Phillips was fast and shifty, running backs

Seats Available On Chartered Bus

Hornet fans planning to attend the game at Holliday on Friday, Nov. 8, are reminded this week that 25 seats are still available on the two Continental Trailways buses chartered by the Quarterback Club. Dan Hamric is accepting reservations for them on a first come basis. Charge for the round trip is $5.50. Another bus has been chartered by the QB club to take the team to Holliday.

Buses for the fans will leave the public school at 5:30 sharp, allowing ample time to arrive at Holliday before game time at 7:30. After returning home the buses will unload at the school.

ity dinner to be held in the new building. Everybody's invited and tickets will be available about mid-November.

The annual confirmation service this year was postponed early in October in order to coincide with the new hall's blessing. Bishop Cassata of Fort Worth was to officiate but finds now that he has no open date for early December, and has called Bishop Dangelmayr to substitute for him.

The blessing and dinner will have added significance. This December 8 is the 85th anniversary of the first mass in Muenster, which was officially designated as the founding date of the community.

Father Raphael Elected New Head Of Subiaco Abbey

Father Raphael De Salvo, O.S.B. is the newly elected abbot of the Benedictine Abbey at Subiaco, Ark., according to a report Thursday morning from Father Placidus Eckart, who was one of the 76 members of the order participating in the election.

Abbot Raphael is the fifth abbot in the history of Subiaco and succeeds Abbot Michael Lensing, who retired because of failing health.

He is a native of Center Ridge, Ark., was ordained into the priesthood in 1944. He has a Doctor of Theology degree from the Catholic University of America, was head of the abbey's mission in Nigeria for the few years it was permitted to operate, and for the past several years he was prior of the abbey.

Smith and Strenk were fast and stout.

They got started as Phillips returned the opening kick-off to the Tiger 42, after which they used only seven plays to score. Smith and Cartwright alternated in going 38 yards and Smith crashed over for the TD. Phillips added 2 points on a quarterback keeper play.

The Tigers responded with two first downs and 40 yards before losing possession on the 23. Next play Smith appeared to be headed for another score but was overtaken and stopped after a 60 yard romp to the 17. Roger Endres made a great run to prevent the touchdown.

Four plays from there lost yardage to the 22, where Sacred Heart started again. Two tries gained 10 and a punt was in order four plays later. The Hawks had to do likewise and Sacred Heart started again with 65 to go. Four plays later Craig Sangster got through the middle and into the open, a 49 yard TD run. Roger Endres tried to pass then scrambled to the end zone knotting the score at 8 each. That score was the first play of the second quarter. Shortly after that the Hawks recovered a Tiger fumble, made a first down and fell short on the next series. So the Tigers started on a 68 yard journey. Penalties gave 15 and 9 free yards. number of contributed items which will relieve some of the cost of furnishing the building. Catholic Life Insurance union is providing furnishings for the office, lobby and conference rooms. Muenster Wholesale Beer Distributors are providing beer dispensing equipment in the bar. Muenster Butane is giving a combination unit of radio, record player and tape deck. The Garden Center is providing flowers for the front flower beds. And Fabric Center is giving some door signs.

Exterior of the community center is buff brick, the color which is used for the church, the high school and the Benedictine convent. Sacred Heart Elementary and the rectory, which are of other colors, were built before this color was adopted. Another feature of the exterior is its dark brown mansard type roof. The roof's surface is tar and gravel.

The building is surrounded by a wide sidewalk providing access to entrances at all four sides. The front, facing west, has steps and a wheelchair ramp leading to the main entrance with double glass doors at both sides of a center glass panel. In addition there are two entrances at the north side, two at the east side and one at the south side, all with metal doors.

The front entrance opens to a vestibule measuring 24x14 feet. It leads through four (Continued on Page 12)

Forestburg News

By Myrt Denham

FORESTBURG — Folks, this is just a reminder to everyone that our school buses are on the move again. Remember it is a state law that you stop regardless from which direction you are coming when a bus has stopped and its lights are blinking. I have heard that some of us hereabouts are sorta ignoring this law.

Mrs. Frances Brewer of the burg, Mrs. Inez Woolsey and Leta Williams of Bowie visited Sam Jackson of Memphis and then on to Borger to visit with relatives the weekend of Oct. 19-20.

Wynona Riddles tells me that the peanut harvest is well underway in their neck of the woods. Said peanuts should make real well if the weather holds — and if the coons and other varmints don't beat the farmers to them. Buford Greenwood says the coons, etc., are sure hitting 'em.

It was ladies' weekend at Juanita Bailey's home the weekend of Oct. 18-20. Her guests were Chris Kimble, Lucille Simmons, Dortha Dawson and Mrs. Ronald Bailey all of Lubbock. The ladies all said that Juanita is really a nice lady and they enjoyed her hospitality.

Mmes. Lillie Miffer of Lubbock and Inez Butts of Nocona visited Mrs. Esther Shears and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Shears Sunday, Oct. 20. They also dropped in on Mmes. Vera Mae McGee and Myrtle Fanning.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Boelter and daughter Phyllis of Arlington were guests of Mrs. Decie Ellzey Friday night and Saturday.

The Jack C. Dills and Vatori attended the Dill family reunion in the home of the Ray Dills of Era Oct. 20.

Rickey and Pam (Covington) McAlester were honored with a wedding shower Sat. p.m. Oct. 19 at the Forestburg Community Center. The young couple received many nice gifts. Hostesses were Mmes. Ola Mae Shults, Alice Shults, Sue Shults, Loveta Bewley and Eula Fay Galmor. Rickey and Pam are making their home on the Tom Atteberry place now owned by J. L. Atteberry.

Mrs. Maryetta Foster and son Gene visited her sister Mrs. Mildred Conyers and family of Saint Jo Oct. 20.

Winter is coming towards us sorta fast. One sign is all the wood cutting action taking place around the area. One can hear chain saws here, there and yonder and the occasional ring of an ax splitting wood. Some of our wood cutters are B. L. Boyd, Bennett Reynolds, Wassie Reynolds and now Wade Perryman and Robert Ponder have joined the ranks. The better-half said he heard some wood cutting action over around Buford Huddleston's way and wondered if Buford had gotten into the act also. Well, I haven't heard of Dorothy cutting wood — so don't know who it would be.

Mrs. Amy Satterfield of Dallas has been a house guest of the Jack Greshams this past week. The Greshams and Amy visited the Gresham's son-in-law who is a patient in the VA Hospital in Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Forrester of Odessa visited the Bill Forresters Monday night, Oct. 21.

On Monday night, Oct. 21, a Halloween party for senior citizens of 70 years or over was held in the home of the W. T. Reynolds. This made the 22nd annual event of this affair. Twenty-two senior citizens were present: Mmes. Bruce Steadham, Vera Mae McGee, Decie Ellzey, Hattie Landers, also Mr. and Mrs. Bill Forrester and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gresham all of Forestburg; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bryant of Mallard; Dick Avery, Mrs. Joe Denham, Mrs. Jan Watt and Miss Rachel Reynolds all of Bowie; Mr. and Mrs. Luther DeMoss and Mrs. Evie Heaton of Nocona; Ada Jackson of Saint Jo; Ada Cox of Montague; Mr. Carter of Denton; Bailey Perryman of Wichita Falls and Mrs. Charity Boyd of Dewey.

Shellie Perryman was dressed as a little witch and greeted guests with a hand-shake as they came in. Various games were played and Ada Jackson won the guessing game prize.

Mrs. Bruce Steadham was the oldest lady there — 92 years young and Mrs. Rosa Bryant the second oldest — she is 88. Luther DeMoss was the oldest gent there — he is 88 and Jim Bryant was the second oldest man at 84.

Refreshments of cake and punch were served by the hostess and her helpers who were Wanda Perryman, Renee Perryman, Janice Carter, Cass Houston and H. B. Perryman. Everyone had a good time and promised to return next year.

Peggy Schumacher And Kenneth Odell Say Vows at Mass

Wearing the wedding gown her mother wore at her marriage 27 years ago, Miss Margaret Mary (Peggy) Schumacher became the bride of Kenneth Wayne Odell in St. Mary's Church at Gainesville on Saturday, Oct. 19.

The couple pledged vows in a double ring ceremony at Nuptial Mass celebrated by Father James Gillespie at 5 p.m.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Schumacher and Mr. and Mrs. A. H. (Pete) Odell, all of Gainesville.

The bride's wedding gown of candle-light slipper satin was designed with a sheer rounded neckline edged with beaded Chantilly lace and a lace ruffle. The lace also accented the long fitted sleeves and edged the cathedral-length train which flowed from a fitted bodice. Gathering at the front of the skirt revealed a lace-covered petticoat.

Her flowers were a cascade of white roses, white carnations, stephanotis, baby's breath, English ivy, white beading, and satin streamers tied in love knots. Her three-tier veil was attached to a Juliet cap covered with lace and seed pearls. She was given in marriage by her father.

Adding wedding sentiment the bride wore a gold cross that was given to her at her baptism by her uncle and aunt godparents Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Haverkamp of Whitesboro, and the engagement ring of her great-grandmother the late Mrs. George Spaeth of Lindsay.

Bridal Attendants

Miss Mary Morisak of Arlington was maid of honor with Mrs. Skipper Bezner of Lindsay and Miss Donna Schumacher, both sisters of the bride, and Mrs. George Cox of Gainesville as bridesmaids. They wore identically designed gowns of burgundy crepe with fitted bodice, shaped midriff and flared skirt. The long sleeves and V-shaped neck were edged with ecru lace. And lace appliques were at the waistline. Each carried three long-stemmed pink roses with greenery and baby's breath tied with burgundy and pink ribbons. They wore matching headpieces of carnations.

Janie Schumacher, bride's sister, was flower girl in burgundy crepe with bib effect trimmed in lace ruffles and with a crepe founce at the hemline. David Odell of Lewisville, cousin of the groom, was best man. John Schumacher of Canyon, brother of the bride, Jim Branyan of Arlington and Glen Crutsinger of Gainesville were groomsmen. Larry Schumacher, brother of the bride, Skipper Bezner, her brother-in-law, Joe Mondel and Bob Arend, both cousins of the groom, were ushers.

Mass servers were Gene and Chuck Schumacher, brothers of the bride and Ronnie Schumacher, her cousin.

Wedding music was provided by Mrs. Eddy Henry, soloist and guitarist, and Mrs. Danny Bell, organist. Their numbers included "Won't Last a Day," "A Time for Us," "My Cup Runneth Over," "The Lord's Prayer," "Wedding Song," and finally "On This Day" as the couple presented a floral tribute on the Blessed Virgin's altar after Mass. The flowers were handed to the newlyweds by the flower girl. Baskets of burgundy and white gladioli flanked the altar. Fall mums adorned St. Joseph's altar and white roses tipped in pink were on Mary's altar.

Wedding Reception

Wedding reception and buffet dinner were held in the KC Hall where Lorrie Schroeder of Dallas and Debbie Pittner of Valley View, cousins of the bride and groom respectively, registered guests. The registration table held the couple's memory candle and the bride's portrait. The punch table held the crystal punch service and the silver coffee service. Other tables were decorated in the bride's chosen colors.

Cousins of the couple Karla Haverkamp of Whitesboro and Virginia Mages of Gainesville presided at the punch bowl. Cousins of the bride Mary Forgy and Mary Miller of Dallas, Lynn Wiesman of Tulsa and Karen Schumacher of Gainesville served the wedding cake which was made and cut by Mrs. Henry Spaeth, aunt of the bride. Also in the wedding party were Monica Haverkamp of Whitesboro and Danna Wickliffe of Irving, cousins of the bride.

Special wedding guests were Mr. and Mrs. Alois Haverkamp of Muenster, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Schumacher, Mrs. Joe Odell and Mrs. Anna Pittner, Gainesville, grandparents of the couple.

Rehearsal dinner was given by Mr. and Mrs. Pete Odell at the Dutchman in Lindsay.

The bride is a graduate of Gainesville High School and is dental assistant for Dr. J. Wellington Truitt Sr. The groom is a graduate of Gainesville High and of East Texas State University where he received his BS degree in industrial arts. He is employed at Weber Aircraft. They are making their home in Lindsay.

NOTES FROM THE LIBRARY

Often times the books we order are slow in arriving. But "Richie" by Thomas Thompson has come and is now ready for checking out.

This is the true and emotionally shattering story of an American family and the tragedy that wrecked it. When Richie reached fourteen his father noticed the change in his son's behavior — his manner, his friends, his music, and his infatuation with drugs.

The author has re-created the story of Richie's agonizing journey through the turbulent culture of the young, and of his father's painful witness and pursuit. He has told the story with a chilling fidelity that will have impact on every reader.

We have also received our first copy of Brides magazine. Make it a point to come in and look over our books and magazines on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

The honoree is the former Katie Knabe. Her children pinned her with an orchid corsage, gave her a new wrist watch and served refreshments from a pretty table. Other guests presented a shower of gifts.

Hillcrest Auxiliary members conducting the regular bingo party last Wednesday were Mmes. Leonard Endres, Ted Voth, Joe Hoenig and Hilda Self. Jenny Schilling and Anna Newsum shared winning honors.

Wichita Falls Is Host for 300 at NCCW Convention

Muenster was represented by five NCCW members at the second biennial Convention of the Fort Worth Diocesan Council, National Council of Catholic Women, at Wichita Falls Oct. 17, attended by over 300.

The convention was hosted by women of Wichita Falls' Sacred Heart Parish, Our Lady Queen of Peace Parish and Sheppard Air Force Base.

Theme of the convention was "Unity Thru Mary." City Mayor Max Kruger welcomed the assemblage and Bishop John J. Cassata, D.D. of Fort Worth gave the keynote address.

He said he shared the women's concern for the current permissiveness affecting Christian morality, especially abortion and human rights.

Commenting on the invasion of individual privacy by governmental agencies and private sectors, he noted the right to be left alone is a moral issue. He urged the women to unite through the Mother of God to fulfill their potentials as persons and to make themselves heard.

In election for diocesan council officers Mrs. Arthur Abel of Wichita Falls was named president. Other officers include Mrs. Paul Fisher secretary. Vice presidents (Deanery presidents) include Mrs. Melvin Schumacher, North Deanery.

Bishop Cassata, assisted by Monsignor Donald A. Hartnett, diocesan moderator, installed officers in a ceremony at Sacred Heart Church. Recitation of the rosary enroute to church and concelebrated Mass by the Bishop and 20 priests of the diocese preceded a noon luncheon.

Resolutions adopted included a call for women to persevere in efforts to make the Church present and operative in their own sphere of influence; a pledge of support in strengthening the family unit, and participation in Right to Life groups and legislative action as a means to combat abortion, euthanasia, sterilization and selective breeding. Delegates also resolved to recognize responsibility to their communities; continued support of Catholic Relief Services; continued training for leadership roles for Catholic women of the Fort Worth Diocese, prayer for the canonization of Elizabeth Seton; and to adopt the theme of reconciliation in preparation for the coming Holy Year.

Attending from Muenster were Mmes. Al Hess, Denis Walterscheid, Adolph Walterscheid, Ronnie Hoagland and Joe Hoenig.

Present from Lindsay were Father Bede Mitchel, Mmes. James Geray, Erwin Fuhrmann, Joe J. Neu and Lawrence Zimmerman.

Craig Sangster and Darrell Walterscheid made the rest in 10 plays. Hess scored from the 3. A pass for PAT failed leaving SH with a 14-8 lead.

However the visitors caught up in a hurry. After the next kickoff they drove 63 yards in 9 plays for the tying score. A PAT pass to go ahead seemed like a cinch but was tipped away by Chris Sicking in a fine defensive play. Half time score was a 14-14 tie.

Cistercian started the second half as it did the first, with a sustained drive on first possession. It went 46 yards in 9 plays. For the score Phillips scrambled as far back as the 20 before eventually making a four yard gain. Smith added points. The score was 22-14.

Also in the third period SH made a great effort to keep in the game. Promptly after kickoff the offense started clicking again and went 72 yards in 15 plays. Big gains were 15 on a penalty and 11 on a pass from Roger Endres to Fred Koessler. Mark Hess went over from a foot away. The try for PAT failed. Sacred Heart trailed 22-20.

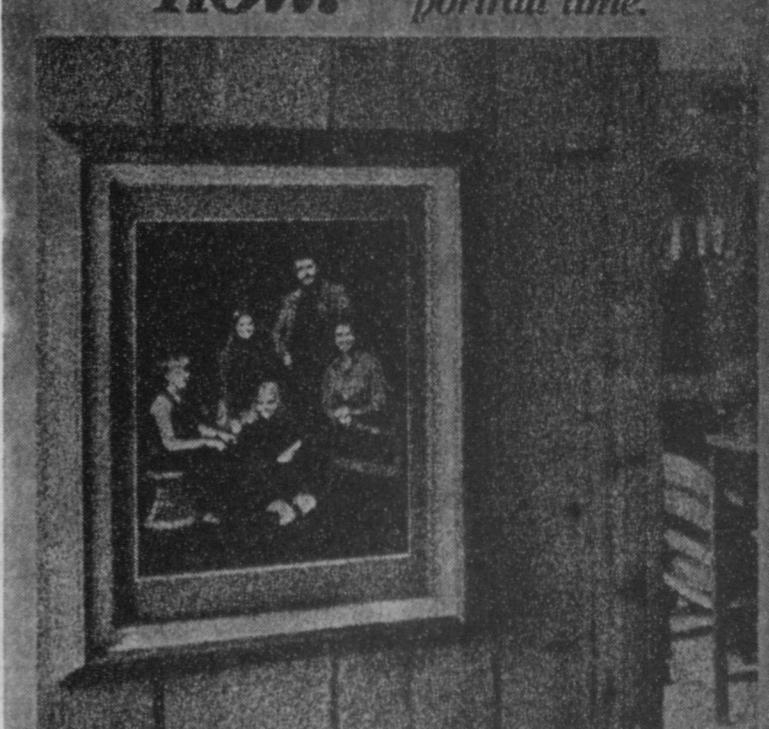

As the fourth quarter opened the Hawks moved again, using 8 plays to go 57 yards. Smith and Phillips got the principal gains. Phillips scored from the 1.

Still trying, the Tigers went 56 yards to the 12 and failed to make the next series. Big gains on the way were passes to Bruce Fuhrman for 19 and 17.

Four plays later Cistercian had to punt and George Luke blocked it. On the play a Tiger scooped up the ball, advanced it a few yards then fumbled it back to Cistercian. Four plays later a short kick along with a penalty gave SH a final change from the 16, but the series lost yardage.

5 Day Program Set up for Sacred Heart Homecoming

All the planning is complete for a week of activity in connection with Homecoming '74 next week Friday at Sacred Heart School. The event will have a special touch this year with some of the festivities being held in the newly finished community center.

Heading the program is a football game with the powerful Valley View Eagles as the Tigers' foes. It will begin at 7:30. Crowning ceremonies of the homecoming queen will be held at half time and the alumni reception in the new parish hall will follow. At the same time a dance for students, with music by Israfel, will be held in the KC hall.

Pomp and ceremony will prevail when the homecoming queen receives her crown. The list of candidates from which she has already been selected was announced last Thursday at SH School.

They are seniors Barbie Hess, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hess; Mary Hess, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Hess; Carol Knabe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Knabe; and Laura Kralieck, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Martin Kralieck.

The Tiger football team selected the eight girls on Oct. 24. The following day the entire student body cast votes for the football queen from the four senior candidates.

Queen's identity will not be revealed until the half time ceremonies at the football game.

The crowded calendar for homecoming week begins Sunday when students will have a contest of decorating the halls.

Monday is the day when students may wear blue jeans instead of uniforms. Girls will find the attire just right for a powder puff football game scheduled at 7:30.

Tuesday is the day for the crazy hat contest, and also the day for a pair of junior football games with Lindsay on the Tiger field. Cubs will start at 6 p.m. and the junior varsity at 7.

Wednesday is bon fire and pep rally day. Activity will be at the Speedy Reiter place five miles north of town at about 6 p.m. School buses going to it will leave the school at 5:30 p.m.

Thursday is the time for honoring girls in the queen's court. The girls and their mothers will be special guests for the short program at noon in the lunch room.

Friday is spirit day, another occasion to come without uniforms, while the emphasis will be on red and white, and also the occasion for a big 3 p.m. pep rally. Also preceding the game the SH drill team will parade from Main and First Streets to the Tiger field. And just before the game girls of the royal court will be presented by their fathers.

At the alumni get-together in the community center honor guests will be the classes of '44, '54 and '64. Introductions for each of the classes will be made by one of its members.

grades 2 and 3. She also works with the classroom teachers in grades 4 through 7. As the classroom teacher assists the students with the use of the Educational Development Laboratory, she conducts her special reading programs. Thus, a student at Sacred Heart School receives continuous training in the reading program from grades 2 through 7.

During the summer months, Sister Alberta teaches six to eight pupils in Jonesboro, Ark.

She is a member of the Olivetan Benedictine Sisters of Holy Angels Convent in Jonesboro and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Krebs of Coalgate, Okla., formerly of Lindsay, Texas.

Mmes. John Hacker, James Eckart and Buddie Yosten visited Miss Katie Hacker at Hillcrest Manor over the weekend.

Fire Found Early At Antonetti Home

A fire at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Alfredo Antonetti about 2 o'clock Wednesday morning was discovered just in time to be extinguished without outside help. It was estimated that another five minutes would have allowed the blaze to get beyond their control and to be far advanced before firemen could arrive.

The cause was believed to be escaping gas from a broken line behind the kitchen range, and ignited by the pilot light, but how the line broke is a mystery.

The barking of an excited pet dog alarmed the couple who put out the fire with wet towels. And firemen came to see that all was under control.

Fire and water damage were slight but smoke damage was extensive.

Lou Wolf entered Caruth Memorial Rehabilitation Center in Dallas Monday for therapy and further treatment. He is permitted to have visitors in the evening and enjoys cards and letters. His address at the hospital is Room 116, 7850 Brook Hollow Road, Dallas, Texas 75235.

Mrs. Phil Mullins has been released from Muenster Hospital after having her gall bladder removed Oct. 22. She had the surgery on her birthday, which was also her fifth wedding anniversary.

One look at this Armstrong vinyl floor tells you why the Spanish decor is so popular

No doubt, the Spanish and Mediterranean styles are top favorites in today's home decorating, and designs like this Castilian® Portofino helped set the trend. The authentic Moorish tile styling features embossed "grout" lines to enhance each tile shape . . . makes them hard to tell from the real thing. Better than the real tile is Portofino's tough vinyl wear layer that keeps on shining with little care. More comfortable, too, with its soft cushioned inner layer. Choose from five robust colorations to match your favorite color scheme.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Hennigan Sr. are proud grandparents of their first grandson. Telephoned announcement of the couple and their two children, Kelly 11 and Kimberly 2, were tumbled around inside while the home rolled over an estimated three times. They had been awakened by the storm but had no chance to get out before it hit. "We are lucky to be alive," Mrs. Hoberer said. She also praised the many people who were there to help early Monday, saying "it's great to have everyone pitching in like this." Extensive other damage was reported in Lindsay. The roof of The Dutchman was torn off. A liquor store window was crashed. A number of homes and business houses had windows broken and roofs damaged. Trees were split or broken off. A metal sign blown across Hwy. 82 sheared off the two support poles for a high voltage power line serving Muenster and Myra. However lines were not broken. Instead they held up the dangling sheared off poles. Power in Lindsay was out from 4:17 to 6:05 a.m. Another TP&L line, serving the National Supply and Camp Howze area was broken.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Fedor of Arlington are proud parents of their first child. Their daughter, Terri Lynn, was born in Arlington Memorial Hospital Friday, Oct. 25, 9:55 p.m. and weighed seven pounds seven and a half ounces. Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Victor Hartman were in Arlington to visit Mrs. Keith Tompkins and family and to get acquainted with Mrs. Tompkins' first grandchild and the Hartmans' first great-grandchild.

A group of Sacred Heart 4-H clubbers made signs to celebrate National 4-H Week. The art work was hung up to decorate the halls of school.

Those who helped are Sandy Reiter, Lynda Klement, Mary Hess, Carol Knabe, Paul Reiter, Janet Pels, Gayle Miller, Lloyd Reiter, Chris Felderhoff, Kathy Luke, Karen Luttmner, Barbie Hess and Billy Felderhoff.

Hornets Blast Wildcats 32-0

The Hornets of MHS had no problems Friday night in their 32-0 win over the young and lightweight Wildcats of Callisburg, who are made up mostly of underclassmen with prospects for future seasons rather than the present.

It was the Hornets' first win of the 13-A district race and stretches the season record to 7-0. However, it had a price. Tom Bright, the leading rusher, had to drop out in the second quarter with a sprained ankle that is expected to sideline him for at least the next game and maybe more. Meanwhile Darren Neal, who had a similar injury two weeks earlier, was still out of action.

Otherwise the team was at normal strength and played a good solid game at both of offense and defense and bested the Wildcats 3 to 1 in turnovers. Terry Walterscheid, Danny Endres and Dean Sicking recovered fumbles whereas Callisburg intercepted a Muenster pass. Others doing fine defensively were Tim Felderhoff, Glenn Henscheid, Harold Sandel and Mike Davidson.

Terry Walterscheid had an extra big night. Besides the one fumble recovery he caught three touchdown passes. Meanwhile Tom Bright gained a total of 71 before he was injured in the second period. And others shining on offense were Mark W. and Mark L. Sicking, Randy Wolf, Steve Klement, Neil Huchton, Mark Stoffels, Bobby Endres, Jim Grewing and Mark Mollenkopf.

During the first quarter neither team could get organized. But the scoring started early in the second on Randy Wolf's pass to Terry Walterscheid for 11 yards to

None Hurt as Tornado Rips Thru Lindsay

A tornado which roared through Lindsay and the Gainesville municipal airport shortly after 4 o'clock Monday morning left both of the places badly wrecked.

Fortunately no persons were injured but damages are estimated at many thousands of dollars.

After leaving Lindsay the storm headed for the Gainesville Airport where it broke the ties on two private planes and demolished them, and also destroyed two mobile homes at Chief Industries north of the airport. The storm also turned over three semi trailers parked near the airport hang-off.

After leaving Lindsay the storm headed for the Gainesville Airport where it broke the ties on two private planes and demolished them, and also destroyed two mobile homes at Chief Industries north of the airport. The storm also turned over three semi trailers parked near the airport hang-off.

Early after intermission Muenster cashed in on Walterscheid's fumble recovery. Wolf ended the short drive with a 3 yard quarterback sneak and Danny Endres added a point.

On the kickoff that followed Callisburg fumbled and the kicker, Dan Endres recovered. Shortly after that the Wolf-Walterscheid combination worked again for a 56 yard scoring pass.

The fourth quarter was featured by the running of Mark W. Sicking who tore through and around the line for consistent gains. Best of those was a beautiful 70 yard gallop to the goal, but wasted by a team mate's clip up field.

Muenster's last score was set up by Dean Sicking's fumble recovery after which the Hornets advanced two first downs before Mark Mollenkopf broke away for a 48 yard scoring romp. A perfect block by Dean Sicking chopped down the last defender in his way.

Blue Birds News

Muenster Public School second grade Working Blue Birds met Oct. 17 and refreshments were served by Mrs. Charles Hamilton and daughter Jana. They formed their friendship circle and sang The Blue Bird Wish. The exciting event of the day was a field trip to Jr. Elite dress factory. The conducted tour proved very interesting with questions from the Blue Birds and answers from the different machine operators. When the tour was finished the group was called to Mrs. Bernice Sicking's office, manager of Jr. Elite, where she presented souvenirs from the factory.

With Halloween so near, the group during their Oct. 25 meeting involved themselves in making nut cup jack-o-lanterns for the residents of Hillcrest Manor. Materials were supplied for each Blue Bird to make a jack-o-lantern at home. Halloween songs were taught by the group's leader, Mrs. David Reiter. All preparations were ready at the end of the meeting for a field trip to Hillcrest Manor on Halloween day.

Refreshments were served by Tammie Grewing. The meeting ended with a friendship circle and the Blue Bird Wish was sung.

Sponsoring the Working Blue Birds are Dorma Flusche's Fabric Center and Speedy's Arco Station.

Robert Ensey paid us his weekly visit Oct. 23. Said his son Jack of Irving spent Sunday with him and Juanita.

Roxie Dunn said to send word out that they would like for a crew of "free-workers" to appear on the scene at the log cabin Saturday a.m., Nov. 2.

She also says Evelyn and Homer Arthur Littell of Oklahoma City were home to visit them this past weekend.

News of our sick. We still have J. A. Moore in the Bowie hospital, Charlie Sessums in Muenster hospital and Bill Colwell is seriously ill in a Dallas hospital. A word to those who don't know what to do with their parents — those impossible parents we hear so much about: A Chinaman was driving a cart with a big box in it toward the river when he met his son on the highway. In reply to the son's query the father explained that he had Grandpa in the box. Since he had become such a burden and quite helpless he was going to gently slide the box with Grandpa in it down into the quiet water of the river and take him out of HIS misery. "But father," said the son, "Let us save the box for I will need it for you."

Something for every member of the the family!

Muenster-Celina JVs in Second Tie

Junior varsity youngsters of Muenster and Celina battled to their second tie of the season Thursday night at Celina. This one was scoreless and the game here a week earlier was knotted at 6-6.

For the second time the boys did fine on their team effort and dominated both offensively and defensively, but they lacked the extra punch to get across the goal. Two of their drives in the last quarter bogged down inside the 10 yard line.

On the other hand the defense of the young Hornets was fine. It would not permit the Bobcats to get across the 40 yard line all night and it gave up only one first down in the second half. Two big defensive plays ere an interception by Lenzy Dyer and a blocked punt by Doug Cler.

To a great extent Muenster's ball control was a defensive factor. The Hornets moved the ball consistently and their loss of possession usually came on fourth down in Bobcat territory. They punted only once. Then four plays Celina would punt and MHS would move again.

The team was still handicapped by absence of its regular quarterback, Nick Walterscheid, whose ankle sprain should be sufficiently healed to allow him to play at Windthorst next week. Nick's brother Neil replaced him.

Tiger JVs Romp Over Lindsay 28-0

Junior varsity boys of Sacred Heart had a good evening at Lindsay Thursday, scoring a touchdown in every quarter for a win of 28-0.

They started with the opening kickoff, returning to about the 40 yard line and then putting on a sustained drive of 60 yards to the goal. Joey Sicking finished the job with a 5 yard drive into the middle and then busted through again for two bonus points.

All through the contest the Sacred Heart line did a great job of clearing the way for the backs. Likewise they maintained a stubborn defense that

Area FFA Awards Banquet Held for 800 in Fort Worth

The Area V FFA Awards Banquet was held in the Round Up Inn in Fort Worth, Monday night, October 21st. Approximately 800 FFA members and guests attended.

Highlight of the banquet was an address by State FFA President Doug Leggett of Wall FFA.

Bringing greetings from the Future Homemakers of America was Area V President Miss Nada Edwards of Aubrey.

Carl Bullinger, Vocational Agriculture teacher at Goldburg; Dr. William C. Schares, Whitesboro and Eugene Youree of Sherman were among the sixteen individuals receiving the Honorary Lone Star Farmer Degrees.

Area FFA members receiving Lone Star Farmer degree certificates were: Cecil Jones, Charles Scott and Charles Lanier, Forestburg FFA; Richard Carminati, Wesley Ferguson, Ricky Kerr and David Whitecotton, Nocona FFA; Robert Herod, and Pat McCullough, Sherman FFA; Clarence Barthold, Bradley Calhoun and Joe Myers, Valley View FFA, Mat Gregory and Brad Scarbrough, Whitesboro FFA.

Area Schools receiving the Superior chapter award were: Callisburg, Era, Forestburg, Gainesville, Howe, Lindsay, Muenster, Nocona, Prairie Valley, Sherman, Slidell, Saint Jo, Valley View, Whitesboro FFA Chapters.

Forestburg FFA Chapter received three checks for placing first in land, range and pasture; and agricultural mechanics contests in the Area V FFA Judging contests in April.

allowed very few gains to the future Knights.

In the second quarter they gave Danny Walterscheid a big hole for an off-tackle slout and he kept going all the way to pay dirt. A pass after that from Bob Grewing to Fred Koesler made the score 16-0.

The same play worked again in the third period as Walterscheid scooted 40 yards to the score.

And in the final period Joey Sicking broke away on a 45 yard touchdown romp. The try for extra points failed after the last two TDs.

After time ran out the coaches took another five minutes to provide action for boys who had not been in the game. During that period Lindsay scored its only TD.

Swallow your pride occasionally. It's non-fattening.

It's that time again...

...time to start getting your home ready for the winter months ahead. By starting now and checking your home for those energy leaks, you'll stay warmer this winter and conserve energy.

Take a few minutes and check the following items to make sure your home will be winterized:

1. Insulation is most important... and can pay for itself in energy consumption savings. The usual recommendation is 6 inches of insulation for the attic and 4 inches for outside walls. Check FHA requirements for further information.
2. Weatherstrip doors and windows, and caulk cracks and crevices to prevent drafts and the loss of heated air.
3. Maintain heating equipment for maximum efficiency by having it checked by a competent serviceman.
4. Dirty filters cause heating equipment to work harder and use more fuel. Check your filters every 30 days. If they're the permanent type, clean them according to the manufacturer's directions. If they're the disposable type, replace them at least every 90 days.
5. Don't be a "thermostat jiggler". Turning the thermostat up or down doesn't cause the equipment to heat or cool faster. It simply works longer to satisfy the setting. The national conservation program calls for settings of no more than 68°F. in heating weather. If you are going to be away for several days, lower the temperature to 60°F.
6. Don't place curtains, furniture or other objects in front of heating registers or return air openings. This blocks the flow of warm air.
7. Open blinds and draperies on sunny days to help heat your home during the day but close them at night to help reduce heat loss.
8. Keep the fireplace damper closed when the fireplace is not in use.
9. Storm doors and windows are not customarily used in this part of the country, but they do reduce heat loss. As a temporary substitute, a sheet of clear plastic stapled or tacked over screen doors or windows works well.
10. Keep the opening and closing of doors to a minimum to reduce the loss of warm air.

TP&L Tells Plans To Meet Needs of Energy Dilemma

The nation's energy dilemma and the challenge it poses for meeting the growing electric needs of one of the most vibrant areas of Texas were outlined by Trent C. Root, Vice President for Public Service of Texas Power & Light Company, in a Tuesday evening presentation at the Caravan Motor Motel in Gainesville.

Root traced the past, present and future of America's energy supply and demand by utilizing a three-dimensional plastic model developed by the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy for personalized briefings to members of the U. S. House and Senate.

At the same time, he superimposed the nation's electric energy growth — and more specifically, the plans of his company for its growing 51-county service area — upon the total United States energy situation.

TP&L, Root told the group, will spend as much on new construction in the next five to six years as it did in the first sixty-three years of its history. Most of that will be for new power generation plants.

Root translated each of America's energy sources into a common denominator — Barrels Per Day of Oil Equivalent — then traced their usage from 1960 to 1970, 1980 and 1990. The energy usage was broken down into its major categories, residential and commercial, industrial, transportation and non-energy. Energy demands have grown much more dramatically than energy supplies, the display model reflected, leading to the current energy crisis.

America must move away from a dependency on oil and natural gas, and toward more utilization on coal and nuclear power, the TP&L executive pointed out. He cited figures showing that supplies of coal and nuclear fuel literally dwarf the dwindling supplies of oil and natural gas, not only in America but also over the entire world.

This currently-spotlighted movement to coal and nuclear power is the strategy which TP&L began several years ago, before the "energy crisis" became a household word, Root emphasized. TP&L and its associated companies already have built and placed on line two large lignite coal-fueled generating units, he added, while construction and planning for eight more lignite units — either partly or wholly owned by TP&L — is underway at this time.

Because lignite coal deposits which the Company holds in Texas will ultimately be depleted, Root continued, TP&L now is entering the nuclear power generation era. He said his company, along with Dallas Power & Light and Texas Electric Service, will build the nuclear-fueled Comanche Peak Steam Electric Station near Glen Rose in Somervell County.

Nuclear power, he emphasized the energy model, is the only reliable, economically feasible new avenue of electric generation open at this time to the nation's power companies.

Root credited Jack Bridges, now Director of Energy Research for the Center for Strategic and Inter-national Studies of Georgetown University, with developing the intricate energy model while Bridges was Technical Director — Energy Resources for the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy. TP&L secured one of the models for the series of energy presentations which Vice President Root is making over the service area.

An elevator operator grew hung a clock in his cage. Now weary of constantly being everybody asks him, "Is that clock right?"

Approval Given to Start Construction On Nuclear Plant

The Atomic Energy Commission has announced approval of a limited work authorization which allows non-nuclear site work at the proposed Comanche Peak Steam Electric Station near Glen Rose in Somervell County. Some work should begin within two weeks.

Joint owners of the 2,300,000-kilowatt nuclear plant are Texas Power & Light Company, Texas Electric Service and Dallas Power & Light Company.

Approval for the pre-construction permit came several months after the Atomic Safety and Licensing Board held environmental public hearings at Glen Rose.

Basically, the formal application for the work exemptions requested permission to carry on activities in several specific areas:

Excavate the plant area to planned plant grade and establish necessary erosion control.

Excavate for and begin construction of the dam and other lake facilities.

Excavate for the plant building, the main office building, the maintenance shop and auxiliary structures.

Excavate for the circulating water system tunnels and intake structure.

Construct access roads, the spur railroad and build a 138,000-volt transmission line for construction power and construction service water system.

You know, the worse inflation gets the more we need somebody like Briscoe. He's created a lot of good jobs and he knows how to get things started.

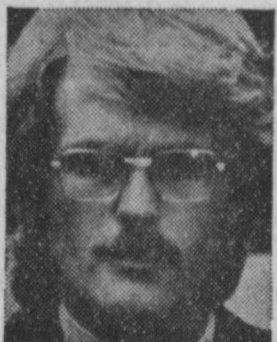

We need new jobs and more income in this state and Governor Briscoe is helping us get them.

In times like these when the economy is so shaky, I'm going to stay with Governor Briscoe.

Briscoe's kept pace without adding new taxes—I voted Republican in 1972, but I'm voting for Briscoe this time.

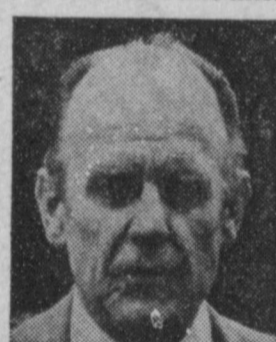

It's quite refreshing for me to know that we have a man like Dolph Briscoe... a man who puts integrity before all things....

They all promised no new taxes; Dolph Briscoe kept his promise.

Dolph Briscoe's proved he has the contacts and the know how to bring new business to the State of Texas. We can't afford to lose him at a critical time like this.

I think Dolph Briscoe is a Governor you can believe in. I'm looking forward to voting for him in November.

Mrs. Hickerson displayed arrangements, made from flowers that had been dried in the microwave oven and showed the different steps made in drying them. She stated that memories can be kept forever by drying your special occasion flowers in this manner.

Friday, Nov. 1, following six-weeks tests, students of grades 7-12 will see a film "Texas Across the River." Admission will be 35 cents. The film is a project of the National Honor Society. After the film there will be a pep rally.

The Student Council at its meeting decided to observe American Education Week, Oct. 27-Nov. 2, by sponsoring an exhibit of MHS students' hobbies or crafts. Displays will be set up in the library and exhibits are welcomed. Council also decided to name Students of the Six Weeks... a boy and a girl from each class. Council will nominate the students on personality, citizenship, participation in school activities and dependability — not on grades. There will be a maximum of six students from each class and the student body will vote on the students from their respective classes.

Gilbert Endreses Back from 5-Week 7,500 Mile Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Endres have returned from a five-week, 7500 mile vacation trip to the north and northwest. Their first places of interest were the Ozarks in Arkansas and Missouri. Then to Rockford, Illinois, where they spent several days with his sister and family the Jack Gormans.

In Middleton, Wisconsin, they visited Frank Endres and other Endres relations. Casselton, North Dakota, was the next stop to see a cousin of Mrs. Endres. In Winnipeg, Canada, they were with the Ray Fuhrmans and in Calgary, Canada, with Mrs. Endres' uncle Val Fuhrman. While there they visited the Ice Fields, about 100 miles north of Calgary. From there they went through British Columbia, to Spokane, Washington, to visit Expo and saw the Lehnertz Bros. They returned through Idaho, Montana, Utah, and New Mexico.

Business indications in the area show that people are more selective in their buying than they were last year. Formerly when an item seemed in short supply persons bought it either because they thought it would be scarce in the near future or be priced much higher. Now the trend is to buy only what they need. Many items that have been in short supply are now plentiful. It's just a matter of time till the price starts going down.

A colder than normal winter has been predicted for most of the United States. The same expert thinks Texas and New Mexico are entering a drought period. He should have been around this week especially Wednesday night.

Anti Freeze is not readily available. A few places have it but it usually sells as soon as it is put on the shelf. Prices vary from $4.75 to $8 a gallon.

Starting time for the MHS Hornets' final three games of this season will be 7:30 p.m.

Principal C. O. Cash made the announcement this week emphasizing that the time shown on schedule cards around town applies only to daylight saving time.

At the start of the season, he said, school officials expected DST throughout and set the starting time at 8 p.m. But they also specified starting a half hour earlier if Standard Time comes back.

walnut doors to the main hall with dimensions of 72x65 feet, which is approximately twice as large as the top floor of the old parish hall.

Adjoining the large room at the south is the cafeteria measuring 43x54 feet. If desired these two areas can be used together as one large room, otherwise they can be separated by a system of sliding panel doors. The cafeteria and the kitchen just west of it will be used on school days for serving lunches to children of Sacred Heart School. Dimensions of the kitchen are 35x30 and its store room is 20x20.

Also adjoining the main room, with entrance from the vestibule, is a bar room combined with an auxiliary kitchen. It measures 20x10, has a white Formica counter facing the main hall and is equipped with cabinets, sinks, range, refrigerator, freezer, ice maker and keg beer dispensers.

Another small room adjoining the vestibule is the office. It is to the left just inside the front door.

North of the main hall is an area of 25x45 which can be used as a large meeting room, or it can be separated into two rooms by an accordion type divider providing areas of 25x25 and 25x20. Also on the north side is a hall leading to the north entrance, two storage rooms and two rest rooms. Other rest rooms are available from the cafeteria.

Predominating material for the walls is spectro glaze tile, a material which is bright and colorful and easily cleaned. It is used in varying combinations of custom buff, tropical yellow, deep pumpkin, dark spring green, mushroom brown and Swedish red for the lower seven feet in the main hall, cafeteria, kitchen, rest rooms, office, bar room and north vestibule. The main vestibule has brick walls.

Above the spectro glaze is an additional eleven feet of heydite tile in the main hall and three feet of heydite tile in the other areas. The meeting room and store rooms, have heydite tile only.

The ceilings are mostly acoustical. In the main hall it is white acoustical plaster eighteen feet high with numerous outlets for lighting, public address and temperature control systems. Its contour, which adds to the acoustical effect, is described as an egg carton pattern. Lighting throughout is recessed fluorescent. Ceiling in the cafeteria, 10 feet high, is acoustical panel supported by metal framework. The same type of ceiling is also used in the meeting room, bar room, office and north vestibule. Other ceilings — in kitchen, rest rooms, and store rooms — are finished sheet rock.

The floor is mostly terrazzo with speckles of brown and black stone in white concrete. It is used in the main hall, the cafeteria, the west, north and east entrances and the rest rooms. Kitchen and bar room have tile floors. The meeting room and the office are carpeted and the store rooms have cement floors.

A special arrangement for decorating is a rod mounted some two inches from the wall and eleven feet above the main hall, and completely surrounding the area, also a circle measuring about four feet in diameter suspended some four feet below the center of the ceiling. These are intended to support all hanging decorations. Tacks, screws, nails, adhesives, etc., will not be permitted on the walls.

Furnishings include 60 large folding tables with walnut design brown formica tops matching all interior doors, also 550 stack type chairs with chrome frame and a one-piece back and seat of orange or gold plastic.

About a third of those will be in regular use by the school children in the cafeteria and the others will be available for the main hall. A special arrangement for catered meals is the northeast entrance with a dock, under roof, for the catering truck and counter and sink accommodation inside.

Equipment in the kitchen is complete, modern and new. It includes ranges, work tables, counters, dishwasher, mixer, refrigerator, freezer, sinks, utensils etc.

The building is abundantly equipped for temperature control. It has combined heating and air conditioning units in four separate areas — 30 tons in the main hall, 15 tons in the cafeteria, 15 tons in the north group of rooms and 7½ tons in the kitchen.

Two links with the past will be found in the meeting room. One is a re-finished and antiqued pew from the old Sacred Heart Church. The other is a picture of a Catholic State League Staatsverband convention held at the old hall when it was new back in 1906, and hanging there ever since. Its old frame has been re-finished in antique, matching the old pew.

that the farmer gets for his livestock is actually less than a year ago, leaving him somewhere between break-even and a loss of $150 a head on feeder cattle.

In the face of shortages, mass slaughters of livestock can become a pretty emotional issue. But it is about the only avenue open to the farmers to dramatize the cost-price squeeze they face.

And I'll bet it's just as hard for them to pull the trigger on their herds of beef today as was for a 14-year-old boy facing three cute little calves 20 years ago.

But the farmers do what has to be done.
