VOLUME XXXVIII

MUENSTER, COOKE COUNTY, TEXAS 76252 SEPTEMBER 27, 1974

NUMBER 45

People who disliked last winter's arrangement of starting the day's work while it was still night, or having school kids wait in the dark for buses, ought to be happy about the vote in Congress to get the country back on standard time from November through February.

As we recall, last year's decision to have daylight saving time in the winter resulted from somebody's estimate that it would save 2 per cent of the nation's energy. But later calculations show that the saving was about 3/4 of 1 per cent, so the Congress this year, on recommendation of the Department of Transportation, decided to eliminate the worst months of DST. Apparently it's a compromise calculated to please the greatest number of people.

There can be no doubt that the change is welcome to those who last year found their days starting in the dark. Also the shorter duration of standard time ought to please those who dislike ending their work day in or near the darkness.

So, it seems we have what is probably the most satisfactory arrangement. DST will continue almost until the mornings are dark, and in the meantime it will provide a preferable schedule for the end of the day. As it is now, an 8 p.m. meeting or ball game doesn't seem very late, but it will, starting in November when darkness will suddenly arrive an hour earlier.

Following President Ford's news conference admission that CIA possibly had some influence in the overthrow of Chile's Dictator Allende, the nation heard a typical blast of criticism denouncing our involvement in another nation's affairs. The critics insisted that our activity could not be justified by the fact that other nations do a lot more meddling than we do.

We can't logically find fault with that principle. Two wrongs do not make a right. But a lot more is involved here. In fact it seems rather absurd to judge the CIA as being wrong in what it did in Chile. In the first place there is the fact that the Allende regime was communist and committed to the red plan of taking over the world. To that extent the Chilean affair was very much our business. Opposing the evilism there was a part of resisting the global red effort, which definitely includes us.

Besides that we were directly involved in Chile. Among Allende's totalitarian acts was the nationalization of many industries which had been established by U.S. business. He was legally and morally wrong in seizing millions of dollars worth of property. Our CIA was within its rights in helping set up a government which could be expected to restore the stolen property. Equal justification can be found in Chile's side of the case. The red regime, even though elected by popular vote, had turned totalitarian. People's rights were ignored, their freedom violated, and their economy was going to ruin. The public was eager to end the mess and CIA was fully justified in giving its help. As it looks from here the CIA ought to be praised rather than condemned for any part it had in helping end Chile's brief exposure to communism.

An after thought on this subject: America has a right to resent this accusation of CIA by fault finders who did not object to many cases of subversive activity in this country. No one heard them complain about red agents who stirred up campus strife, riots, looting, murder and anti-US demonstrations. Guys who snipe at CIA in this matter surely cannot be thinking about what's ethical or what's in the best interest of our country.

This week, in observance of Highway Week in Texas, it's proper to praise our state and its highway department for the world's best system of roads. Considering quality along with mileage the achievement has been amazing. There can be no doubt that we have the mostest, and little if any doubt that overall it's also the bestest.

Because of that our traveling is more comfortable and safer and costs us less. All that excellence is important in relation to the vital part that roads play in our lives. As (Continued on Page 10)

Hornets Will Go To Valley View For Next Contest

Another big pre-district test faces the MHS Hornets Friday night when they square off against Valley View's Eagles. The action will be at Valley View starting at 8.

All indications are that the game will be a dandy. Both teams are undefeated so far and have firm intentions to keep going that way. Also the record to date seems to indicate that they will be well matched. The Eagles are rated with Lindsay as top contenders for this year's 7-B title, and the Hornets barely squeezed out an 18-14 win over Lindsay.

In their other games the Hornets had stronger victories over Whitesboro and Pilot Point, while the Eagles ran over Aubrey and Caddo Mills and took a close one from Coppell.

Likewise in experience, the teams appear to be about equally gifted. Valley View has ten starters from last year's team which was a big contender for district honors. And Muenster retains most of last year's outfit which had a 4-6 season in a rough schedule.

Coach Don Neal looks forward to the game with confidence. He said that his boys are strong on stamina and enthusiasm and improving every week on execution of their assignments. He was especially pleased with the defense last week at Pilot Point where the Hornets allowed very few gains to a pair of big, fast, hard running backs.

Offense too is developing. Along with three touchdowns that counted there was another that was nullified by a penalty.

A possible casualty of that game is Tom Bright. With bruised ribs, he is doubtful as a starter this week. And Jim Grewing is gradually getting back to par after an ankle injury early in the season.

Muenster 20, Pilot Point 6

Coach Don Neal and his MHS Hornets made it three in a row at Pilot Point Friday night by a score of 20-6.

Played during a moderately heavy rainfall almost all the way through, the game had its ball handling problems, which were costly to both sides. Only two of 16 passes were completed and there were five fumbles, one of which set up the Hornets for their second TD and another which deprived them of their fourth.

Otherwise the game was a standoff most of the time, the only exceptions being one good drive by the Bearcats and two by the Hornets.

What really counted most on the scoreboard were the hectic few minutes starting the second half. Pilot Point fumbled the kickoff and Tim Felderhoff recovered it giving his team a set up on the 24. Four plays later Terry Walterscheid took a pass from Randy Wolf and went some 5 yards more to the end zone.

Shortly after that the Cats punted and Tim Felderhoff was the key man again. After blocking the kick he picked up the ball and headed for pay dirt, but was hauled down on the 6. An offside penalty put the ball back on the 11, a pass knifed, and Mark W. Sicking knifed through to the end zone.

MHS Exes Prep For Homecoming

With only two more weeks to go, the homecoming committee of Muenster High Ex-Students Association is busy this week at spreading the word.

Mrs. Chris Cain, chairman, said that special invitations are being sent to grads of 1954 and 1964, who will be honor guests, and a general invitation is extended to all other former students. Those living here are urged to pass the message to kin and friends living away from here.

The date is Saturday, October 12, and the top attraction is the encounter of MHS and Notre Dame Knights of Wichita Falls on the football field. And at half time there will be formalities of crowning the homecoming queen. Final event is the homecoming dance in the KC hall.

City's Sales Tax Check Sets New Record of $10,660

Good business and inflation were reflected in the biggest sales tax check received to date by the City of Muenster. Mrs. Dick Dittfurth, city secretary, revealed Wednesday that the amount just received was $10,660.33. The period covered was the second quarter of this year.

Until now the biggest check was that received for the last quarter of 1973, including Christmas business. The amount was $9,825.10, which is $825.23 less than the check just received.

Other remittances of the past year were $9,087.37 for the second quarter of 1973, $9,142.88 for the third quarter of 1973 and $8,170.09 for the first quarter of 1974. That lower figure can be explained mostly by the business slow-down following Christmas as well as the taxpaying time.

A statement with the state treasurer's check explains that the gross amount collected was $10,994.05 and the state's 2 per cent collection fee was $219.88. Adding the previous hold-over of $418.95 and retaining $532.79 for this time accounts for the check's amount of $10,660.33.

The gross amount indicates that local business subject to the sales tax for the quarter ending June 30 was just under $1.1 million. Total sales tax paid by the community, including 1 per cent to the city and 4 per cent to the state, was just under $55,000.

Muenster High School Student Council at its regular meeting continued writing the organization's constitution. The group also decided to have color and spirit day each Friday throughout the football season. Other projects were discussed. Thomas Bright, vice president, presided.

8 Games Listed For Junior Teams

Juniors of the two local schools have four football games on schedule for Thursday night; one for next Tuesday and three for next week Thursday.

This Thursday Windthorst will bring kids to Sacred Heart to play the Cubs at 6 p.m. and Tiger Bs at 7. Meanwhile across the street at MHS Valley View and Muenster eighth graders play at 6 and Callisburg plays the MHS junior varsity at 7.

Next Tuesday Tiger Cubs meet Era on the SH field at 6:45 and Thursday the Tiger Bs play Lindsay here at 7. Also the public school's junior teams go to Frisco on Oct. 3. Little Monsters play at 6 and junior varsity at 7:30.

Million Dollar Benefit Bike Ride Will Kick off Sunday at City Park

Kickoff for Cooke County's "Million Dollar Bike Ride" Sunday, Sept. 29 will be at Muenster City Park with registrations at 12:30 p.m. followed by Mayor David Bright starting the riders.

Riders will proceed to Leonard Park in Gainesville where they will be greeted by Mayor Glenn Loch.

Along the 21-mile route there will be several rest stops maintained by various clubs and Camp Fire girls of Muenster, Lindsay and Gainesville. First aid and emergency communication centers will also be set up along the way.

Jaycees from Muenster, Lindsay and Gainesville will patrol the highway, assuring anxious parents of the riders' safety. Although transportation will be provided to Leonard Park for those unable to finish the trip, riders will be responsible for their own way home.

After all riders are at the park there will be a party with refreshments donated by Dairy Queen and served by the American Association of Retired Persons.

Mayor Lorch will present trophy awards to riders with the most money collected, the trophy donated by G&L Sporting Goods for first place. Random drawings will be held at check points. Mrs. Speece, art instructor at CCC, will be judge of the poster contest. Prizes will go to the best in each school and three awards to the best in Cooke County. Prizes include $25 bonds donated by Muenster State Bank,

Tigers Prep for Another Big One At Windthorst

For the second consecutive week, Bob Steele's Sacred Heart Tigers have a major project ahead of them. Coming away from the big one with Lindsay, their next encounter is with the Trojans of Windthorst. It will be at Windthorst starting at 8.

The hosts, who were promoted this year into Class A of the UIL, have been living up to their new classification with a close loss to Nocona and a close win over Whitesboro, both in Class AA, and a close loss to Class B Paradise, which won its district title last year. As appraised by Coach Steele they have weight in the line with three over 200, along with speed in the backfield. They will have a weight advantage over Sacred Heart.

On the other hand the Tigers have also been impressive. Last week's 14-8 loss to the stout Lindsay team was closer than the score, and the wins over Era and S&S were easy. Despite the close loss to the Knights, Coach Steele was highly pleased with the Tigers. In his opinion they did a fine job against a good team and came very close to being the winner.

Injuries from last week will present some problems Friday. George Luke, who left the game in a daze in the first half will not be there this week. And Leon Bayer will get to play on offense only. Mark Hess, handicapped last week by an ankle injury the previous week, is improving slowly but not in top condition.

Another problem is the weather, which has spoiled most of the practice sessions lately. It prevents the normal season's progress, but presumably is doing the same to Tiger opponents.

Marquis G. Goode, Assistant State Highway Engineer-Operations, spoke at a meeting here Tuesday observing Highway Week.

Clinic Scheduled For PP&K Entries

Endres Motor Co. and the Muenster Jaycees, joint sponsors of the PP&K competition to be held here on October 5, announce a PP&K Clinic to be held Saturday morning at 10 a.m. on the Sacred Heart field.

Its purpose is to help the entries improve their scores in the main event a week later. All eligible boys of the area are invited to participate.

Knights Dump Tigers 14-8

A five yard penalty made a terrific difference in Sacred Heart's 14-8 loss here Friday night to the Knights of Lindsay.

With less than two minutes remaining on the scoreboard the Knights were on the Tiger 6 yard line with fourth down and 1 yard to go. A solid Tiger defense refused to budge on the next play and it seemed that Sacred Heart had stopped a big threat to overcome its 8-6 lead.

But officials ruled that Sacred Heart was offside and assessed the penalty which in this case was half way to the goal. That advanced the ball far enough to give Lindsay a first down on the 3, and four more chances to make the winning score.

Three tries were enough. Joe Geray made 2 yards in two crashes at the middle and Harold Owen got the final yard on a quarterback sneak. Doug Gossett sailed around right end for extra points and Lindsay was ahead 14-8 with only 55 seconds remaining.

Even then the Tigers were not conceding defeat. Two

Praises, Problems Of Highways Aired

Describing modern highways as an essential factor in freedom as well as the means of reaching the church, school, store, job, recreation area or a destination hundreds of miles away, Marquis G. Goode, assistant state highway engineer-operations, spoke briefly Tuesday afternoon to a small group gathered in the TP&L Building in observance of Highway Week in Texas.

He said our transportation network is absolutely essential. It carries nearly 80 per cent of the state's farm crops, 90 per cent of its cattle, 55 percent of the manufactured goods, and 86 per cent of the tourists. More important it is an element of freedom, enabling people to live as they like and where they like.

But to maintain this freedom and economic value presents problems which lately are causing deep concern. Many miles of our highway carry many times the traffic for which they were designed. And some 14,000 miles urgently need reconstruction.

Also the interstate highway system, started in 1956 and planned for completion in 1972, is lagging badly. In 1974 it is 80 per cent finished and at the present rate of funding the final 20 per cent will be finished by 2007.

Principal reasons for delay are inflation and shortages resulting from the energy crisis. Goode said that $450 million would build 1400 miles of road in 1962 but only 600 miles now. Estimated expenditures this year are $133 million short of actual need, he added.

Ten men from the Austin and Wichita Falls offices were with Goode on his visit to Muenster. They had also been with him at a Chamber of Commerce reception and a luncheon meeting at Gainesville and were scheduled next for a meeting in Nocona.

Robert Schleider Jr., district engineer of Wichita Falls, was one of the group and spoke briefly saying that his district is concerned with maintaining a good system on 3500 miles of the state's 70,000. And he expressed thanks for local interest in the highways and related problem. Referring to the delay in finishing the 4 mile project west of town, he said that shortage of material is to blame.

Mr. Goode was introduced by Mayor David Bright. Another local speaker was J. M. Weinzaepfel, a member of the Texas Good Roads Association, talking in behalf of a bridge across Red River near Bulcher. He pointed out that the crossing would open extensive trade opportunities between areas on the two sides of the river, save thousands of miles to people who regularly travel from one side to the other, and eventually develop into the shortest route between Oklahoma City and Fort Worth.

Visitors from the Highway Department were Mr. Goode along with Bert Lundell and Pete Haight of Austin; and Mr. Schleider along with W. C. Snodgrass, Bob Myers, Booger Hunter, Frank Craig, Bill Dickinson, Jim Stocks and Dale Terry of Wichita Falls.

Bill Bedrick, TP&L manager, served coffee and doughnuts.

Farm Bureau Will Start Monday on Policy Meetings

Looking forward to their state and national conventions late in the year, the Cooke County chapter of Farm Bureau will hold its first policy development meeting Monday night the 30th at 7:30 in the Cooke County Electric Co-op building.

In these meetings the members decide on policies that will be recommended to the state convention, and, if adopted there, will advance to the national convention.

Added attractions at the meeting are talks by two members of the A&M Extension Service, Tom Prater and Eugene McElyea.

Prater, a farm management specialist, will discuss estate planning, fair market value, assets included in taxes and other financial considerations associated with farm ownership.

McElyea's subjects will be wills, laws of descent and distribution of community and separate property, trusts, guardianship, and transfer of property.

Wives are urged to attend with their husbands, because the subjects apply equally to them.

There will be a coffee break, compliments of the Electric Co-op.

QB Club Promotes Chartered Bus for Trip to Holliday

Good news was announced Tuesday by the Muenster Quarterback Club for MHS football fans who don't relish a long drive to see the Hornets play at Holliday.

Plans are in the making to charter a bus for the trip, and more than one if enough people are interested. Cost for the round trip will be $5.50 per person.

Dan Hamric is accepting reservations on a first come, first served basis. Interested people are asked to make contact soon in order to assure ample time for making arrangements. Date of the game is November 8.

Nov. 8 Set for SH Homecoming

Homecoming date for Sacred Heart School, after a couple of changes, now is set for Friday night, November 8.

When the football schedule was originally announced the Callisburg game, midway in the season, was chosen. Later, as it appeared the new community center will be ready by November 1, the homecoming was postponed to the Valley View game, last on the list, in order to have festivities in the new building. Also the date was changed from Friday to Saturday, because that day was considered more convenient to visitors.

But now comes word that the Valley View team cannot be here on Saturday. So, as of now, the date is definitely Friday, the 8th.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Krebs of Coalgate, Okla., visited during the weekend with their daughter Sister Alberta at the local convent.

Garden Club Bake Saturday, Sept. 28

Muenster Garden Club's annual benefit bake sale will be held Saturday, Sept. 28, in the KC Hall from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Homemade goodies for sale will include breads, sweet rolls, cakes and pies.

Hot coffee will be available for those who would like to take their coffee break at the hall. And a door prize will be given at the sale's end.

Forestburg News

By Myrt Denham

FORESTBURG — Mrs. Veda Brogdon received word this past week of the death of her aunt Mrs. Myrtle Hawkins of Yokima, Wash. She was born at Forestburg in 1883. Her parents were the late H. C. Thompson and the former Nancy Lourie. They were early settlers of Forestburg. The family lived on a farm that is now part of the Rex Anderson place. The children attended the Walker School which was located near where the Forestburg to Montague and Sunset Highways intersect.

Veda also sends us word that her's and Barney's weekend guests (13-15) were Mrs. Jane Sledge and children of Cleburne, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Steadham and their daughter Treva Dunn of Wichita Falls, the Jerry Orrells, Max Brogdons and Larry Scott all of the burg.

Roxie Dunn reports that she and Meb visited Mrs. Bonnie Teague at the Bowie Nursing Home Friday, Sept. 13.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Hays and Leeann visited her parents the Freeman Bakers of Ardmore, Okla., Sunday, Sept. 15.

Danny Williams, who resides way down in Harlingen, was the Sept. 14-15 weekend guests of his parents, the Fred Williams.

Merle Hudspeth honored her granddaughter, Machele Hudspeth, with a birthday party Sunday, Sept. 15 — 'twas Machele's 8th birthday.

Tammie and Becky McClure of Decatur and Mr. and Mrs. Israel Salinas of Riverside in Fort Worth were visitors of the Joe Hunts Sunday 15. I am given to understand that Joe Hunt is to undergo surgery in a Wichita Falls Hospital Tuesday.

The J. C. Robertson family, out New Harp way, visited Mrs. Robertson's mother, Mrs. Daisy Tension of Poolville the weekend of the 13-15. They all enjoyed bowling over in Mineral Wells.

The Gene Laniers had as their 13-15 Sept. weekend guest Miss Vida Curry of the Christ Haven Home of Keller.

Messrs. and Mmes. Roy Richardson and Steve Flowers and son of Dallas were Sunday the 15th visitors of the Willie Kuykendalls.

Mr. and Mrs. Elvis Duck of Borger have been house-guests of the J. M. Dunns the past week.

Mrs. Dama Crump who resides up in the "Sooner State" visited her dad Scotty Jones on Monday.

On Tuesday night Sept. 17 the Methodist folks honored their Sunday School teachers with a supper. Afterwards Mrs. Jack C. Dill showed picture slides of their trip to California and of the Howard Sockwells' trip to Alaska.

The 42 club met for their weekly party in the home of Cleta Reynolds on Thursday night Sept. 19. Those present for the evenings fun were Messrs. and Mmes. Bill Forrester, Barney Brogdon, Meb Dunn, Jack Gresham, and Elvis Duck of Borger, also Grace Scott, Velma Freeman and Decie Elizy.

Mrs. Sheila (Elzey) Lemonie of Santa Barbara, Calif., and Mrs. Sonja Davidson and Zack of Houston spent Sat., Sept. 21 and part of Sunday visiting Mrs. Decie Elizy and other relatives and friends in the burg.

Didn't know that Charlie Sessums had been back in the hospital again. Understand he was dismissed from the Muenster Hospital the last part of the week. Sure hope Charlie is much improved.

Friend Betty Reynolds and I were over in Bowie Friday p.m. — when we returned home to Dewey we had had a deluge of rain. Had about 1-8/10 inches in one hour, water everywhere, creeks up, fields flooded and stock tanks full. Our friends, the T. W. Smiths, of the burg have been keeping records of the rain for a month now — they report that the burg has had 7 inches. Been nice to have had about half of that in July.

Mrs. Howard (Marion) Sockwell attended the 48th annual state meeting of the Texas Home Demonstration Association in Amarillo from Sept. 17 thru 19. Mrs. Sockwell of the burg, Mrs. Ward and Mrs. Hall from Bowie were the three delegates to represent the Montague County Homemakers. They left from Bowie by chartered bus Tuesday, Sept. 17. Marion reports there were 700 delegates there from all over the state. They attended various meetings and workshops for the three days glean- ing much useful information to take back home to share with their local clubs. Marion says they all had a marvelous time and learned alot. She is one lady who always puts her heart into things she does thus receives much enjoyment and pleasure from it and out of life.

Chatted with Mrs. Doe Moseley at the Muenster Hospital recently and she said her son and wife — Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Moseley and their nine month old twins of Bridgeport paid them a visit Sunday, Sept. 22. Wilma says her son Carvin celebrated his 28th birthday, Sunday 22. Found out he is still single. Also — take note girls.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kuykendall and three sons of Gainesville visited his parents the Jesse Kuykendalls on Sunday 22. Understand that Jesse is getting along pretty good so far.

Antique Greeting Card Exhibit Is Open to Public

Tine's Hallmark Card and Gift Shop in Gainesville Shopping Center, East Hwy. 82, has acquired on loan from Hallmark's historical collection, an exhibit of antique greeting cards dating from the early 19th century and is inviting the public to stop in and look.

The exhibit will be open to the public without charge during regular store hours from Sept. 30 through Oct. 12.

This is the largest and most valuable collection of antique cards in the world. It features rare designs of the era including those with miniature flowers and lace. The intricate patterns of lace were fashioned by pounding or pressing paper into wood cuts or steel plates. Some of the patterns were then gilded with gold or silver which still glitters.

Governor Briscoe Proclaims Oct. 13 German Day in Tex.

German Day in Texas has been set for October 13 this year at the State Fair of Texas with the annual Pioneer Ball to take place on the night of October 12 at the Marriott Motor Hotel in Dallas. Governor Dolph Briscoe set the Oct. 13 date.

Dallas Mayor Wes Wise will greet honored guests at the ball. Among guests will be foreign and congressional representatives, mayors of Texas cities, patrons and friends of German Day.

The program will include music by the Dallas North Concert Band, selections by the Frohsinn Singing Society and the German Airforce choir from El Paso. Music for dancing will be by the Peppermint Polkas. Awards and honors will be presented to those who have distinguished themselves.

German Day at the Fair on Sunday will feature German folk dancing and singing at the "Big Tent" by the Frohsinn, the German Air Force choir and others. The Peppermint Polkas will play concert music all day.

German food and drinks will be served by members of the Dallas Frohsinn. Retreat ceremony and salute to the Federal Republic of Germany will take place at 5 p.m. in front of the Hall of State on the Fair grounds.

The public is invited to participate in all these events saluting Texas Pioneers and their colorful heritage. The celebration will recognize especially Germans, German descendants, and Americans who are successful leaders in business or otherwise instrumental in furthering trade between Germany and the United States.

In Muenster, more information and tickets may be obtained from Alvin Fuhrman. He has a limited number of tickets to be sold on a first come, first served basis. He is Muenster chairman.

CHEVROLET FOR 1975. CARS THAT MAKE SENSE FOR TODAY.

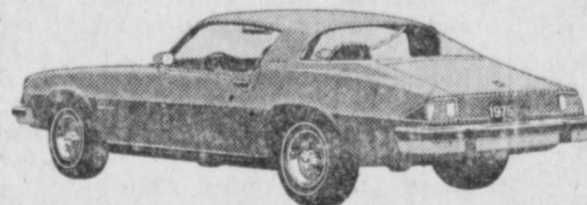

Nova LN Sedan

Monza 2+2

MONZA 2+2 The small car of tomorrow will probably be a little more powerful, handy and comfortable than ever. The 1975 Monza 2+2, shown above, offers this today. It has advances like rectangular headlights set in a soft front end, fold-down rear seat, and a new 4.3-liter V8 engine available.

NOVA In the background above, our new Nova LN Sedan. A luxurious Nova with thick carpeting and wide-back reclining front seats. For 1975, all Novas have been emphatically refined along the lines of elegant European sedans. Nova's always been good. Now it's beautiful.

CAMARO Our sensibly sporty compact. It looks like a million and drives like it looks.

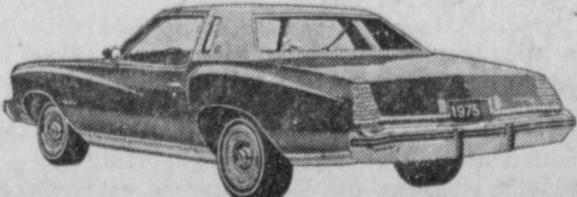

IMPALA America's favorite car continues to provide the room many families need plus plenty of quiet and comfort. Still the great American value.

WAGONS Big ones, small ones, in-between ones. Practical wagons that make sense for America. And you.

CHEVELLE Mid-size, easy to drive, room for six, mid-priced, strong reputation for value. America's most popular intermediate.

MONTE CARLO Its special ability: making you feel good. About the way it looks and drives. About your own taste and judgment.

CHEVROLET'S NEW EFFICIENCY SYSTEM FOR 1975

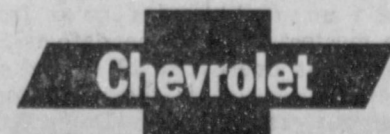

It's the key part of a program aimed at helping our new cars run leaner (more economically), run cleaner—and save you money every mile.

The Efficiency System is standard on all 1975 Chevrolets with V8 or 6-cylinder engines. It's a series of significant engineering improvements working together for the very first time.

Components include High Energy Ignition, catalytic converter, Early Fuel Evaporation and steel-belted radial ply tires. In sum, the System is designed to heighten the pleasure and lower the cost of driving a 1975 Chevrolet—to bring you a better running car in many ways, along with improved fuel economy, more miles between recommended maintenance and an engine that stays cleaner internally because of no-lead fuel.

Your Chevrolet dealer will gladly give you the details and answer your questions. See him and the sensible 1975 Chevrolets starting September 27.

Young Farmers and Homemakers Have Annual Banquet

Area 5 Young Farmers and Young Homemakers held their 12th annual banquet, Saturday, September 14, at South Garland High School where Mrs. Phyllis Rogers of Era was installed as the new President and Miss Doris Bewley, also of the Era Community, received the F.H.A. Recognition Award. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn D. Bewley.

cognizing her as being an outstanding future homemaker of Area 5.

Also at this meeting, Mrs. Tulu Hickerson, Home Service Advisor, with Cooke County Electric Cooperative, was presented an Honorary Membership of the Area Association of Young Homemakers of Texas in recognition of outstanding service to vocational homemaking education and the Young Homemakers of Texas.

This banquet was sponsored by Texas Electric Cooperatives of Group III: Cooke County

Electric, Muenster; Denton County Electric, Denton; Fannin County Electric, Bonham, Grayson County Electric, Van Alstyne; J-A-C Electric, Bluegrove; Tri-County Electric, Azle; and Wise Electric, Decatur; in keeping with Texas Electric Cooperatives continued efforts to assist in the development of our young people of our service area.

Motorcycle Winners

Two of Muenster's motorcycle racers were among the winners in the races near Collinsville Sunday.

Larry Eberhart got the day's top honor with a first place in the 250 cc class followed by second place in the open class. And Alan Miller was third in the 100 cc class.

There are approximately 5,000 honey bees to the pound.

Attend Baptism

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Vogel were among those attending the baptism of their newest grandchild Janelle Ann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Fuhrmann, in St. Peter's Church at Lindsay on Sunday, Sept. 15. Father Damian Wewers officiated. Jim Vogel of Muenster was godfather for his niece and Miss Jane Fuhrmann of Lindsay, a cousin, was godmother. Janelle wore the baptismal dress that her brothers and sisters wore at their baptisms. Others at the service and at a christening dinner afterward in the Fuhrmann home were the baby's parents, their other children Linda, Linus, Glenn, Kevin and Julie, and Grandmother Mrs. Willie Fuhrmann of Lindsay. Joining them in the afternoon for visiting were the Dink Hudspeths of Myra.

De Ann Trachta, 3 Birthday Honoree

De Ann Trachta daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Trachta of Norman, was the honoree for her third birthday celebration in the home of her aunt LaQueta, Mrs. Bill McCollum of Dallas Sunday afternoon, Sept. 15. Assisting their mother with hostess duties were Tracey and Kelly McCollum. They baked and decorated the birthday cake and decorated the party rooms. A Panda Bear theme was carried out. The refreshment table was covered with a white cloth with a bright pink and black Panda Bear border and held the cake and pink punch. Pink and blue streamers hung from the ceiling light fixture and decorated the archway of the dining room.

Guests were cousins, uncles and aunts with special guests the honoree's grandparents the Dick Trachtas and Mrs. Dick Cain of Muenster. Mrs. Cain was already a house guest of the McCollums, convalescing from recent surgery. Mrs. Wayne Trachta attended with her children.

Other guests were friends Sally Smith, Teresa Till, Penny Lemmons and Sandy Thompson of Dallas and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Duffey of Angleton. De Ann's baby brother Cody, five months old also enjoyed the party and like others present wore a Panda Bear hat. The hats were among party favors. Pictures were taken.

De Ann goes to Nursery School in Norman, Okla., two days a week and had another party at school.

Cancer Aid and Research Benefit Sept. 30, VFW Hall

A benefit for cancer aid and research is being sponsored by Muenster VFW Auxiliary next Monday, Sept. 30, starting at 8 p.m. in the VFW Hall. Everyone is invited to attend. The benefit will include a Stanley party, a Christmas gift display, table games, refreshments and door prizes. Donations also are being accepted. Those who come early will have an opportunity to shop the bargain table. Anyone unable to attend and wanting to place an order, or get more information may phone 759-2729 or 4362.

Junior Teams of MHS, Pilot Point In Scoreless Ties

Junior teams of Muenster and Pilot Point had 72 minutes of head bumping Thursday night without producing a score.

However in statistics they broke even as Pilot Point led first downs and total gains in the eighth grade game whereas Muenster led in the junior varsity game. The visiting kids made a strong start with two first downs for 28 to the 25 and the next four fell short by 2 yards on the 17. On their next series they gained 7 to the 15. And those were the only scoring threats of the game.

The Little Monsters got nowhere. Besides failing to cross midfield they made only one first down and a net yardage of 8. Visiting youngsters played mostly in the Muenster end of the field, made 5 first downs and a total yardage of 90. Muenster completed 2 passes for 12, Pilot Point got 4 for 45. Both defenses held the other team to minus 7 in rushing during the second half.

The next game had considerably more activity in which Muenster's junior varsity got into scoring position several times but failed to finish the job. Near the end of the first quarter they had first down on the 18 and gained only 1 in four tries. Near the half they were on the 18 again and fell a yard short in the next series. Starting the third quarter they made a nice 45 yard drive to the 10, then bogged down and lost 7 in the next series. Also early in the fourth they had another chance at the 16 and fell two yards short in the next series.

The visiting youngsters had the game won if an over-anxious player had not clipped. One of them intercepted and went about 60 yards to the end zone but the play was called back and penalized 15 yards.

And near the end the visitors got close after gains of 25 and 10 on passes. With the ball on the 5 and only a few seconds left they tried a field goal and missed.

The young Hornets had a big lead of 154 to 49 in net gains rushing and also a lead of 9 to 5 in first downs. The visitors apparently missed the boat by delaying their passing until the final few minutes when they completed two of 3 for 35 yards. Muenster completed only one of 8 for 2 yards. Fumbles were evenly divided at 2 each.

Miss Sandmann, Mr. Schmidtkofer Set Wedding Date

LINDSAY — Miss Ethel Sandmann and Gene Schmidtkofer have selected October 26 as the date for their wedding. It will be solemnized in St. Peter's Church.

Daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ben Sandmann, the bride-elect is a graduate of Lindsay High and is employed at Lorch-Westway in Gainesville.

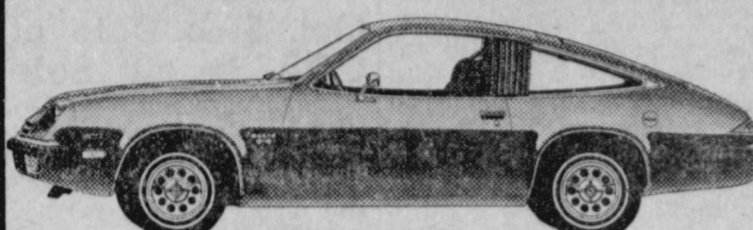

The future groom is the son of Mrs. Frank Schmidtkofer and the late Mr. Schmidtkofer. He is a graduate of Hanford Union High School at Hanford, Calif., and is employed at Valenite-Metals in Gainesville. The couple will make their home in Gainesville.

Shawna Wimmer, 7 Birthday Honoree

Shawna Wimmer celebrated her seventh birthday Wednesday, Sept. 18, after school in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Randy Wimmer. A decorated birthday cake, ice cream and punch were served and there were party favors and games with prizes. Gifts were presented to the honoree.

Classmates of the first grade of Sacred Heart School who attended were Amber Grewing, Tammy Hess, Tammie Reiter, Laura Flusche, Deann Walterscheid, Francine Hudspeth, Paula Yosten, Leslie Hess, Penni Hess and Jean Pagel. Also guests were friends Kelly Hennigan and Meredith McDaniel and the honoree's sister Dana.

Mrs. Wimmer was assisted by Miss Linda Hess with hostess duties.

Scint Jo Service Held Thursday for J. W. Fletcher, 80

J. W. (Jack) Fletcher, 80, long-time Muenster resident and retired mail carrier died at 8 p.m. Monday in Muenster Hospital. For the past two and half years he resided at Star Route, Saint Jo.

Services were held Thursday at 2 p.m. in First United Methodist Church in Saint Jo and burial was in Rest Haven Memorial Park in Gainesville with graveside military rites.

Vernie Keel Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements. Fletcher was born Oct. 1, 1893 in Mexico, Mo., a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fletcher. He was a veteran of World War I, the Masonic lodge of Saint Jo and the VFW.

Surviving are his wife, the former Ruby Embrey, one son John W. Fletcher Jr. of Lewisville; two daughters Mmes. Alyne Terrell of Lewisville and Dorothy Reed of Topeka, Kans.; three sisters; eight grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren.

Proclamation

ESA MILLION DOLLAR BIKE RIDE DAY

WHEREAS, there is an urgent and continuing need for research into diseases of small children, especially leukemia, cancer, and muscular dystrophy and for the treatment of children suffering from them, and

WHEREAS, St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital conducts such research and provides such treatment with same being made available to children throughout the world, and

WHEREAS, the local Kappa Theta Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha Sorority has joined in the national effort of the sorority to raise funds to be made available to St. Jude's Children's Hospital toward defraying the cost of that research and treatment by means of a sponsored Bike Ride from Muenster, Texas, to Gainesville, Texas, on September 29, 1974.

NOW, THEREFORE I, D. M. Bright, Mayor of the City of Muenster proclaim Sunday, September 29, 1974 to be ESA MILLION DOLLAR BIKE RIDE DAY and urge participation in and support of the Muenster to Gainesville bike ride.

D. M. Bright, Mayor
City of Muenster

Income Available To Permanently Disabled Children

"Children, under age 18, who are totally and permanently disabled may be qualified for the Supplemental Security Income program which went into effect in January, 1974, without regard to their parent's entitlement," according to Gus Jones, District Manager of the Sherman Social Security Office. "The disability must be of such a severe nature that it would prevent him from being able to work," said Jones.

Several things are considered when an application is taken. Among these is the severity of the disability, the entire regular cash income of the family, and the value of the family's property and other things that can be turned into cash, such as stocks, bonds, etc. Also considered is the number of children in the household.

This part of the Supplemental Security Income program is designed to aid families with little or no cash income and who do not own much in the way of cash assets with the extra expense involved with raising a severely handicapped child.

The Supplemental Security Income program is run by the Social Security Administration, but it is not the same as social security. The money for these monthly payments comes from the general funds of the U. S. Treasury and not from the social security money collected from salary checks and self-employed people.

Hornets Win - - -

Next and last play was a pass across the line that failed to connect. That still wasn't the last opportunity. After 4 plays Muenster regained possession on the 15 and fumbled on the second play.

Summarized briefly it can be said that Hornet defense in general did a great job, but the offense, in spite of winning, missed about half of its scoring opportunities.

Taped Talk Airs Farm Problems At Rural Meeting

"Because of current agricultural problems the number of farmers in this country is expected to decline to some 250,000 in just a few years, and they will produce 75 percent of the nation's food and fiber.

"Also the survival of farmers and ranchers will depend on a unified effort through an association or cooperative. They must be able to get the true market value of their products in order to make ends meet."

That is the substance of a taped address by Dr. William Black of the Texas A&M Extension Service before a regular meeting of the Community and Economic Development Committee of Cooke County Electric Cooperative Association Monday night. Attending were representatives of Downard Fairplains, Ross Point, Woodbine, Mountain Springs, Hood and Callisburg. Relative to the talk they discussed agri-business and marketing problems of the county.

The group also heard a report on numbering and naming rural roads of Cooke and Montague counties for a mapping project. And it discussed Land Use Legislation, which Congress declined to pass in its recent session, along with the proposed bill's threat to property rights.

A guest speaker, P. C. Sparks, county sewer engineer, explained procedures for establishing a sewer system in an unincorporated town. First requirement is a permit, costing $75, which includes percolation test and inspection. Following lengthy discussion the group was advised to contact Sparks about any rural sewer problems that may come up. He is available through the office of the county judge.

Before closing the group was reminded of a meeting on Estate Planning, Monday, Sept. 30, 7:30 p.m., in the Electric Co-op auditorium.

Tigers Lose - - -

The Knights lost no time in starting their comeback. Following kickoff return they stormed 65 yards to the goal in nine plays including a pass from Owen to David Nortman for 19 a run by Gossett for 10 and by Owen for 13. Owen sneaked over for the last foot. The try for extra points failed and Sacred Heart still led 8-6.

After that the Tigers kicked on their first series, Lindsay failed on a fourth down effort and Sacred Heart had a kick blocked.

Next play was a great one, a pass from Owen to Ronnie Hermes for 41 yards and first down on the 15. Three tries reached the 6 and the offside ruling set up a first down on the 3. Third play after that Owen put the Knights in the lead and Gossett added the extra points.

Hearing Set for Next Monday on Local School Tax

Information on the current method of assessing taxes in the Muenster School District will be available next Monday night, September 30 in a hearing conducted by the district equalization board in the school library between the hours of 7 and 10 p.m.

Purpose of the hearing is to explain changes of taxes during the past year, which apply to everyone of the district as a result of adopting the basic values determined during the year by an appraising firm and adopted by the county commissioners.

Valuations for local school taxes are set at 40 per cent of those actual valuations. Since that figure is generally higher than the former assessed valuation the school board has reduced the tax rate from $1.65 to $1.40 per $100 of valuation.

District Contest In Grass Judging Set Next Tuesday

The 25th annual grass judging contest sponsored by the Upper Elm Red Soil and Water Conservation District will be held next Tuesday, Oct. 1, in the Community Center Building of Gainesville.

It is open to all FFA and 4-H chapters in the three county area included in the soil conservation district. Directors hope to have ninety or more participants.

As pointed out by Board Chairman J. H. Bayer, the contest is interesting and helpful in that it is based on a knowledge of fifty plants growing in the district.

Object of the contest is to identify the plants by name and classify them according to grazing value, wildlife value, annual or perennial, native or introduced, cool or warm weather growing plant. A high score based on guessing is most unlikely. It requires many hours of study and practice.

There will be a junior division made up of freshmen and a senior division of more advanced students. A team consists of four members and the three high are added for the team score.

After the contest teams and coaches will be supper guests of the directors. At that time awards will be presented to the winning teams and individual high scorers.

Kin Join Morris At Get-Together

A group of relatives and friends joined at Shilo Cemetery Monday for a cleanup session taking mowers and tools with them and by lunch time proudly viewed the result of their labor in spite of inclement weather.

In the cleanup party were Messrs. and Mmes. R. D. Morris and Albert Fleitman and from out of the community, Messrs. and Mmes. Rawdon Smith of Spring Creek, Tom Smith of Valley View, J. C. Franklin of Gainesville, and Fred Richey of Sivells Bend, Mrs. Irene Richey of Gainesville and Mrs. Vera Chism of Valley View.

Most of them had lunches with them and the Morris home was the scene of a get-together. Tom and Rawdon Smith and Mrs. Chism are brothers and sister of Mrs. Morris.

Benjamin Franklin is author of the statement, "Nothing is certain but death and taxes."

THANKS

Thanks to everyone who remembered me with flowers, cards, visits and prayers during my stay in Muenster Hospital. Thanks also to Doctors Antonetti and Kralicke, to the Rev. Fathers, to the hospital staff, and for every other kindness. My family is grateful too. — John Rohmer. 45-p

With grateful hearts we acknowledge every kindness and consideration during our recent sorrow. Special thanks to the doctors, nurses and staff of Muenster Hospital, to the Rev. Fathers, to the personnel of Hillcrest Manor Nursing Home, and for the flowers, Mass offerings, prayers, food and other expressions of sympathy. — The Family of Jacob Pagel.

Our thanks and appreciation to all who so generously donated to the food shower for us. We are grateful to our many friends who remembered us and assure each one of you a remembrance in our prayers. God bless you in a special way. — The Benedictine Sisters.

Many thanks for many favors while I was a patient at Muenster Hospital. Special thanks to the doctors, nurses, cooks and entire hospital staff, to the Rev. Fathers, and to those who remembered me with prayers, flowers, cards, visits and other kindnesses. — Elizabeth Herr.

Many thanks for many kindnesses while I was a patient at Muenster Hospital. Thanks to the doctors, nurses, hospital staff and Rev. Fathers for their care and concern; to those who cheered me with cards and visits and to those who said a prayer for my recovery. My family is grateful also. — Herbie Walterscheid.

Oct. 1 Is Election Day for Zone One Of Soil Districts
 Next Tuesday, October 1, will be election day in Zone 1 of all soil and water conservation districts of the state. As regards the Upper Elm Red district, the election will be held in the ag and shop building of Bowie High School. The person now serving as director of the Zone is W. H. Green of Bowie. He has been on the job for two five-year terms. Elections are held annually in the district and move from one zone to another so that in five years each has had one election. Next year's elections will be in Zone 2 throughout the state. Directors receive no salaries but a token payment of $10 a meeting, not to exceed 20 meetings a year, plus a small travel allowance to and from meetings.

Eric Dankesreiter Celebrates Fourth

Eric Dankesreiter, four years old Friday, Sept. 20, celebrated at a party Saturday afternoon at the family home where his mother Mrs. Tommy Dankesreiter was hostess.

Young friends were guests for games and refreshments of cake, ice cream and punch. The honoree opened gifts and pictures were taken.

Helping Eric celebrate were Judy and Troy Pagel, Francine, Allen and Scott Hudspeth, Denise Bayer, Rhonda Stewart, Keith Vogel, Noelle Hesse and his sisters Dana and Amy. Mothers present were Mmes. Dink Hudspeth, Danny Bayer and Ricky Stewart.

Sunday afternoon Eric's grandmother Mrs. Tony Hermes came from Lindsay with a gift and greetings and joined the family in eating birthday cake and ice cream.

Kin and Friends At Pagel Rites

Among relatives and friends at services for Jake Pagel were Mr. and Mrs. Hal Falck, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Janicki and daughters Janelle and Renee of San Antonio, Miss Starla Janicki of San Marcos, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Luke of Dallas, Mrs. Henry Schniederjan and Mr. and Mrs. John Schniederjan of Grand Prairie, Ben Thomas, Miss Joan Roberg, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ivers, Miss Nell Schniederjan, all of Fort Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Haverkamp of Whitesboro.

Sister Ann Theodore Wiesman of San Antonio, Mrs. James Bezner, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Haverkamp Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. Ewald Hoelker of Lindsay, Misses Bernice and Marcella Schniederjan, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Walter of Gainesville, Mrs. Marian Mayer of Pilot Point and others from Cooke County.

Blue Birds Keep Busy at Projects

Muenster Public School second grade Working Blue Birds were kept busy at their Sept. 13 meeting when they worked on their Blue Bird banners. They are made of yellow muslin with black paper letters at the top spelling the group's name. In the center are three big blue birds with names of the leaders. Forming a circle are 11 little blue birds with the girls' names on them. The meeting opened with the Blue Bird song and ended with refreshments served by Mrs. Loyd Trubench and daughter Jean.

At the Sept. 20 meeting refreshments were served first by Mrs. David Reiter and daughter Patricia and Mrs. Reiter reminded the girls of the importance of being careful around equipment on their field trip to the IBJ cutting department at Myra. On their conducted tour of the cutting room the group saw how materials are spread and garments cut out.

The Working Blue Bird group is sponsored by Dorna Flusche's Fabric Center and Speedy's Arco Station.

Grazing or Grain Yields Increased By Fertilization

by Neil Tibbets

The time has come when we must use fertilizers wisely. Supplies are limited and the price is high. Fortunately, there are ways that we can increase the efficiency of plant nutrients applied for small grains. Research in the Northern Blacklands of Texas for the last twenty years has shown that the rate, time, and method of applying phosphorus and nitrogen affect yield, and profit from fertilization. Potassium generally is not needed and micronutrient problems are rare.

Very important since the small grain plant has a great need for this nutrient during seedling development. The number of tillers relate directly to the number of adventitious roots. Without adequate phosphorus, fewer adventitious roots are produced. In tests, where eighty pounds of phosphorus per acre were broadcast on the surface and harrowed into the soil, the average number of adventitious roots developed by January 15 was five per plant. The same amount of phosphorus applied with the seed at planting produced twelve adventitious roots. Top grain yields require maximum tillering.

Low rates of phosphorus with or near the seed also has increased seedling growth and the amount of winter pasture. On a phosphorus deficient soil, forty pounds of phosphorus placed with the seed produced about twice as much winter pasture as the same amount broadcast or banded between the seed drills. You would expect grain yields to be higher, also, and they have been. The average increase has been eight more bushels of wheat per acre when phosphorus was placed in the furrow with the seed at planting.

Nitrogen is important, too. For top yields, plants should never be allowed to suffer for lack of nitrogen. Excess rates of nitrogen should not be used, since many varieties will lodge when high rates are applied. This presents some problems in nitrogen management. When wheat follows grain sorghum or any other high residue grass-type crop, a fall application of nitrogen is necessary. Nitrogen may be placed in the soil just prior to planting or topdressed after the small grain is up to a stand.

The rate of phosphorus and nitrogen to use is a difficult decision to make. Research indicates that forty to sixty pounds of phosphorus with the seed will insure an adequate supply of this nutrient. There have been years when an eighty pound rate was profitable. Fertilizers that contain nitrogen should not be placed directly with the seed. A separate fertilizer spout on the drill is necessary to minimize the danger of reduced germination, since it is nearly impossible to obtain straight phosphorus materials to put directly with the seed.

When wheat follows crops such as grain sorghum, a total of 60 to 80 pounds of nitrogen is needed, and at least one-half should be applied in the fall. Thirty to forty pounds per acre may be adequate if wheat follows wheat. Remember, don't let the plant suffer for nitrogen. If, at any time, the lower leaves show deficiency symptoms — topdress with nitrogen. It will cost you grazing and grain for each day of delay.

HD Members Have Mexican Luncheon

Members of Muenster Home Demonstration Club No. 1 had a noon Mexican luncheon at their September meeting with Mrs. Bill Lutkenhaus hostess in her home and giving the demonstration on Mexican cookery. She was assisted by Mrs. Henry Pick. Fourteen members attended.

During the business session the group filled out their yearbooks with programs for the coming year.

Mrs. Joe Hoenig reported on visiting senior citizens the past month and Mrs. Ray Klement volunteered for September.

Mrs. Gus Lutkenhaus invited members to her home for the October meeting, second Wednesday of the month.

Local News BRIEFS

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Hartman and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Schmitt and Stephen, Vickie and Debbie drove to Arlington Sunday to be guests of Mrs. Keith Tompkins and children in whose home a birthday dinner honored Mrs. Hartman in advance of her Sept. 27 birthday. Mrs. Mike Fedor, a granddaughter, baked and decorated the cake. In the afternoon Mr. Hartman and Mr. Schmitt attended the Ranger ball game. On the way home the Muenster group stopped in Denton to visit the Gene Hartman family.

Mr. and Mrs. Morton Wright of Irving and Miss Ida Rohmer of Fort Worth visited during the past week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Rohmer.

Hillcrest Auxiliary members at the nursing home last Wednesday conducting the bingo party were Mmes. Joe Hoenig, Al Wiesman, Andy Hofbauer and Leonard Endres. They served Dixie Cups after the games. Mrs. Jenny Schilling was the big winner in bingo.

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Garland were among guests at Amarco Oil Company's picnic Saturday at Scenic Lodge, Possum Kingdom Lake.

Mrs. Charlie Berend of Hereford spent Monday with her mother Mrs. C. J. Wimmer at Hillcrest Manor while Charlie was in Fort Worth on business. They returned home

Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Tony Wiesman came over from Gainesville last Wednesday bringing Sister Ann Theodore Wiesman of San Antonio with her. She had been the houseguest of the Wiesmans three days. While in Gainesville she also visited Carl Wiesman and the Ed Wiesmans. In Muenster Sister Ann Theodore and Mrs. Wiesman were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Haverkamp. Mrs. Wiesman spent the afternoon with her mother Mrs. Bob Yosten and Sister Ann Theodore remained to visit Muenster relatives.

Father Harry Fisher of Burkburnett was a Muenster visitor Thursday and had dinner with his sister and brother-in-law, the Henry Picks. Father Harry was publicizing the Fall Festival to be sponsored by St. Jude Thaddeus

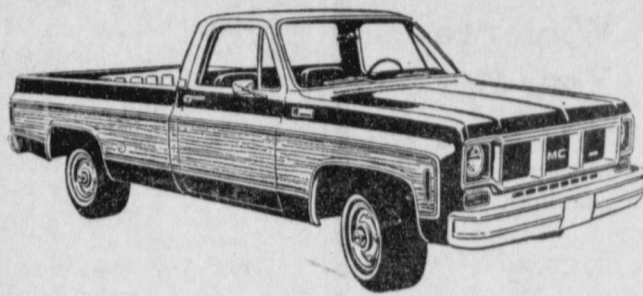

Catholic Church Saturday, October 26, in Burkburnett Community Center.

Mr. and Mrs. John Deering of Myra observed their 51st wedding anniversary Monday, Sept. 23. John spent the day with his wife Nellie at Hillcrest Manor where she is a resident.

Mrs. C. W. Miller of Hurst visited her father Reeve Cooke at Hillcrest Manor Sunday afternoon. Together they went to their homeplace in the Marysville area. They have sold the farm to Herman Grewing.

"I was married twice," explained the man, "and I'll never marry again. My first wife died after eating poisonous mushrooms, and my second died of a fractured skull."
 "That's a shame," said his friend. "How did it happen?"
 "She wouldn't eat her mushrooms."

"Fire Prevention! What's that?"

Lives may be lost in a fire — previous family jewelry, keepsakes, pictures and clothing that is irreplaceable may be lost. The wise family will check that newspapers and rubbish are removed, that heaters and chimneys are in fireproof condition, that flue pipes cannot ignite combustible walls. Be sure any space heater is ventilated against the poisonous monoxide gas.

Reducing plan for energy users

Plan A
 How to save electricity when using dishwashers-water heaters

1. Wash full load of dishes instead of partial loads.
2. Load dishes according to manufacturer's instructions for most efficient operation.
3. Use dishwasher detergent only.
4. Keep filter-screen free of food waste. (Clogged filter causes unit to overwork.)
5. Repair leaking hot water faucets. (A small leak can waste up to 700 gallons a year, plus the energy used to heat it.)
6. To avoid loss of heat, insulate exposed hot water pipes whenever possible. Protect electric water heater from cold air as much as possible.
7. Select proper size water heater for your needs. One that's too big uses energy needlessly.

When you pass a TP&L office, warehouse, generating plant or other facility, you'll see that we've turned off all non-essential lighting. And, in as many other ways as possible, TP&L is reducing its own uses of electricity.

gentleman hiring a pack of scraggly schoolboys as cowhands and how they met the challenges of the 400-mile drive. You are probably familiar with the TV series based on their experiences.
 "Pulga" by Van Iterson was designated the best children's book in 1967 in Holland and introduces a gifted writer to American readers. It is the story of a puny-sized urchin roaming the streets of a South American town and his struggles to survive. He is aroused from his apathy when he reaches the age of fifteen and for the first time feels the glimmer of self-respect. This tale of adventure turns into one of self-discovery.
 Four other new children's books are "Mr. Mysterious and Company", "Chalou" (Dog story), "The Year of the Small Shadow", and "Hotel for Dogs."

Kiddie Carnival Raises $50.55 for MD National Fund

A group of neighborhood youngsters got together and put on a kiddie carnival Saturday, Sept. 14, 1 to 4 p.m., as a benefit for muscular dystrophy.
 They got the idea from Bill Kelly's TV show Children's Hour, Channel 5, Sunday mornings and got assists from their mothers in putting things together. They spread the word among their friends.
 Booths were set up in the back yard at the Ted Henschel home where Bert Knabe was in charge of pot ball, Tim Knabe sold tickets, Curtis Henschel manned the fortune telling booth, Brad Henschel was in charge of the pie toss.
 Daniel Koerschner supervised the bean bag toss, Michael Koerschner was in charge of the ring a duck game, Luke Koerschner supervised the ring toss, John Koerschner had a colored toothpick game, and Joe Koerschner took up guesses on the number of candies in a jar.
 Mothers Mmes. Ted Henschel, Fred Koerschner and Herbie Knabe ran the refreshment stand and country store.
 About 30 young friends attended and when it was over the group was delighted to count $50.55 to send to the muscular dystrophy fund. They are saying thank you to all who helped in any way.

Forestburg News
 By Myrt Denham

 (Held over from last week)
FORESTBURG — Just learned about Forestburg having a Home Demonstration Club again after several years without one. The new club organized recently and I am told that Velma Freeman was "the lady behind the scene" to get it all going again. There are to be two meetings a month the first and third Mondays at 7 p.m. in the community center. All area ladies are urged to attend. Many interesting programs are planned and it is planned to have many handcrafts projects. Mrs. Laura Pointer is the Montague County extension agent. The following ladies were elected as officers: president, Mrs. Marion Sockwell; vice-president, Mrs. Velma Freeman; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Juanita Bailey; reporter, Mrs. Roxie Dunn; county council delegate, Mrs. Ruby Sledge.

Last week I reported that Dick Ellzey, Decie's son, had undergone major surgery in a Houston Hospital. Decie says Dick is doing just fine and should be returning to his home in DeQuincy, La., either Sept. 20 or the 23rd. Dick's home address is Box 125 and the zip is 70633 — so send your well wishes there.
 Jesse Kuykendall is back at home after a stay in the Bowie Hospital. He is reported to be doing very well.
 Mrs. Bessie Hudspeth is now a resident of the Bellmire Nursing Home in Bowie. Let's remember her with cards, visits and well wishes.
 Woodrow Galmor is still a patient in the V. A. Hospital in Dallas. It is reported that Woodie isn't doing too well and we are indeed sorry to hear this.

Mrs. Becky Scott was admitted to the Muenster Hospital Thursday, Sept. 12. Becky underwent an appendectomy the next day. Doing fine at this writing — should be home by the time you read this.
 Mrs. Mae DeGraffenreid had as her visitors Sunday, Sept. 8 Mmes. Thelma Bowden and Irene Quisenberry of Decatur.
 Oscar Whiteside of Sanger was a recent visitor of his sisters Mmes. Alice and Esther Shears.
 Mr. and Mrs. Red Wylie visited her parents, the Ollie Tiptons of Sanger Sept. 9. The Wylies' daughter Sherri, who attends college in Stephenville was home for the weekend.
 Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilson of Midland spent several days in their Forestburg home recently. They visited with friends and relatives.
 Frank Bumpus, county agent, and Mrs. Laura Pointer, county extension agent, Mrs. Mary Hays and Cleo Lanier

Mrs. Decie Ellzey attended the regular monthly meeting of the Order of the Eastern Star of the Greenwood Chapter 1060. Decie says it was friendship night; however, as no one seemed to have any friends to bring — they were all real friendly with each other. Homemade ice cream and cake were served as refreshments.
 Miss Carol Littell, who is a senior at SMU and a friend paid her grandparents Meb and Roxie Dunn a visit Sept. 13.
 Mrs. Linda Richardson returned home last week after a nice visit with daughter Mary Jo and family in Saint Louis, Mo.
 Ruth Christian was off to Stephenville Sept. 10 to visit

Balkan Countries Traveled on Tour By Alice Hellman

After four weeks in the Balkan Countries and two weeks with her daughter Gretchen and family, the Richard Seyversons, in Waukesha, Wis., Alice Hellman says it's great to be back home.

The tourist flight from this country took the group to Zagreb, Yugoslavia, where they were met at the airport by a motor coach and traveled in it the entire four weeks.

One day was spent on a tour to Lipica to see the Lipican horse farms where these beautiful horses have been bred and raised for 400 years in a park-like setting with hundreds of Linden trees from which the name Lipica is derived. General Patton used these horses in World War II. The group saw a show — exercising the horses — in an olympic-sized arena. This is only five miles from Trieste, Italy, so they made a tour of that city.

Plitvice Lakes, all 16 of them, hidden in a thickly wooded National Park gave an opportunity for long walks and an overnight stay in the lush surroundings. Then down the Dalmatian coast to Split, birthplace of Diocletian, seeing his place, and a boat trip from there to Dubrovnik passing the little villages nestled in the hills of the rugged coast.

Sunday morning they went to an inland country village, Chilli for Mass. All around the church it was like a fair with folk arts and crafts. Afterwards there were folk dances with dancers dressed in native costumes. The church had an all male choir.

On to Belgrade, a beautiful city on the Danube and capital of the Republic of Yugoslavia with Tito as president. Mrs. Hellman noted that in spite of this being a satellite country of Russia, Tito has done great things for his people. There were no feelings of restriction. People were friendly, spoke English and dressed very Western.

On to Bulgaria and Nis where Emperor Constantine was born, and to Sofia, Bulgaria's capital, a drive into the mountains to see Rila Monastery, a citadel protecting Bulgarian cultural treasures. One thing they do have in common with Russia, Mrs. Hellman notes, are so few practicing or working churches — all museums. As one young college student guide remarked: "There is hardly any need of churches any more, no one goes." However there are more working churches in the Balkan countries than in Russia — always one was available for Sunday Mass.

Of the four Balkan countries — Yugoslavia, Bulgaria, Rumania and Hungary — Bulgaria seemed the poorest. A guide said that Bulgaria hasn't accepted any help from USSR and the return is great in money as well as products. Bulgaria wants to recover on its own and it will take a long time to catch up.

From Sofia to Timova they drove through the valley of roses, acres and acres of them, all used to produce oil from which rose perfume is made.

The Danube plays a great part in these countries so the tour crossed it again to enter Rumania and on to Bucharest, the capital, and the new Intercontinental Hotel — a treat after so many nights in native hotels. Intercontinentals are partially American owned.

Ploesti is an oil center near the Prahova Valley's summer resort region. From there through the Carpathian Mountains to medieval Brasov where the Black Church is located, and through the southern Transylvania Alps whose folklore inspired Dracula and the Werewolf.

Last but not least entering Hungary after going through good farming country — grain all lost from too much rain. Horse farms. And geese farms almost as many as American cattle farms. Geese are a source of meat and the down is valuable.

Next across the Great Plain through orchards and vineyards to Budapest, Queen City of the Danube, which divides Budapest into two cities, Buda and Pest.

There was a world-wide conference on "World Population and Food" being held in the tourist group's hotel and some managed to get tickets to attend.

An outstanding observance by Mrs. Hellman was the very Western dress in these countries with blue jeans seeming to be the vogue and hair styles following the trend.

Mrs. Hellman brought back slides which she plans to show and with which she can give commentary on four weeks in the Balkan Countries.

4-H Club News

SH Senior Girls

First meeting of the senior girls SH 4-H Club was held Sept. 11 with Miss Ava Knapp, assistant county extension agent, handing out enrollment cards, telling about the Poster Contest, and giving ideas of different projects the girls could work on during the year. She also mentioned that 4-H Club Week will be Oct. 7-11. Posters for competition must be turned in to the Extension office by Oct. 4.

Sandy Reiter, president, presided. Members volunteered to be junior leaders for this year's foods and nutrition projects.

Other officers are Linda Miller, vice president; Sharon Rohmer, secretary; Mary Hess, reporter; Carol Knabe and Gayle Miller, council delegates; Janet Pels, Stacie Walterscheid and Sandy Voth, recreational leaders.

SH Senior Boys

Sacred Heart Senior 4-H boys gathered 40 strong for their first meeting of the school term on Sept. 11 with Randy Jordan, assistant county agent present.

The group discussed 4-H Week, the Poster Contest and projects to work on this year. Chris Felderhoff presided, Gary Fetsch read the 4-H motto and Paul Reiter called the roll.

Officers elected at the close of school in May are Chris Felderhoff, president, Gary Fetsch, vice president; Paul Reiter, secretary; George Luke, reporter; Billy Felderhoff and Paul Reiter, council delegates.

SH 7-8 Grade Boys

Sacred Heart seventh and eighth grade 4-H boys' club met for the first time of the school year on Sept. 11 with county extension agent Randy Jordan present. Six new members joined making 19 present. Jesse Walterscheid, president, presided, Mark Klement called the roll and the group recited the 4-H motto and pledge. Principal business concerned National 4-H Week and the Poster Contest to be held Oct. 6-12, the livestock show and projects that might be of interest to the boys during the year. Wilfred Luttmer Jr. is reporter.

SH 7 and 8 Grade Girls

Sacred Heart seventh and eighth grade 4-H girls had 28 members present at their September meeting. Sharon Grewing, president, presided, Miss Ava Knapp, assistant Extension agent, met with the group. They discussed the poster contest and the Child Development Center, filled out enrollment cards and signed up for food groups. Denise Haverkamp and Janelle Hellman led songs for recreation.

A lawyer, chased a purse snatcher six blocks down the street and stood by until police had nabbed the man. "I wasn't trying to catch the fellow," said the lawyer. "Business has been a little off, and all I wanted to do was give him my card."

Have we heard the last of Evel Knievel who failed to make the $6,000,000 he hoped to pocket from the Snake River jump? He is quite a salesman to have sold the press and TV on the adventure, look at the free publicity the stunt received.

When he was on TV jumping the Mack trucks you could see he jumped over the motors, which were covered with a motorcycle runway. It was about the same as jumping over passenger cars however those trucks with van type trailers looked so much taller.

Think of the suckers who paid $4 to $8 to sit in a theatre and watch the river jump or those who paid $25 to stand in a pasture to watch. It was said he would use a motorcycle but he used a mini-rocket.

We'll probably never know just how much he profited but estimates now have it less than one million. Even that is a good haul and it brings back that famous saying of P. T. Barnum "there's a sucker born every minute." Altho we'll not hear about him again Evel will remain a hero to the pre-school set, and many bones will be broken to those who try some of his stunts.

Of the weekly list of cases filed in Cooke County Court most are hot check charges. We've yet to see one filed on a Muenster resident.

Rohmers Restaurant has been closed the past ten days for repairs and renovating. It will reopen this week with new floor covering, carpeting and improved air conditioning. Could he be was closed to keep the mud and wet off his new floors.

Old men are fond of giving good advice because they can no longer set a bad example.

The big trouble with communication today is the short supply of those wanting to be communicated with.

Governor Briscoe reminds us, "every Texas family uses highways and streets for a multitude of personal transportation needs . . . to go to school, to work and to church; to take advantage of recreational and cultural opportunities, to shop and conduct business.

"Truly, better roads mean better living, and the continued improvement of the highway system is of vital importance to all Texans."
