PASS THE GRAPES

The boycott of California-grown grapes, which is beginning to show some signs of life, may not be what it seems.

The boycott is part of an effort by Cesar Chavez's United Farm Workers Union of Delano, Calif., to gain recognition from grape growers as the bargaining group for farm laborers. Because the National Labor Relations Act specifically excludes farm workers, union organizers are directly demanding that marketers and the public boycott California grapes.

Before anyone concludes this is a worthy undertaking, several pertinent facts ought to be considered.

The legality of the boycott is highly questionable. It has begun to resemble an interstate conspiracy in restraint of trade.

Farm wages in California are not particularly meager when compared to others parts of the country. The average wage in California is $1.63 an hour — considerably more than in most of the Midwest. If the boycott is justified, maybe California should stop buying Midwestern agricultural products.

Not all grape pickers are anxious to be represented by Chavez's union. Jose Mendoza, a spokesman for the Agricultural Workers Freedom to Work Association, says many laborers resent Chavez's boycott, fearing it will throw them out of work.

For our part, we agree with President-elect Nixon who — when it was charged that "Nixon Eats Grapes" — said he intends to eat more grapes than ever.

CONFUCIUS SAY

When prosperity comes, Confucius counseled many centuries ago, do not use all of it. He might well have been thinking of the situation we find ourselves in as a nation today.

For several years we have enjoyed what is officially described as prosperity. Yet we have not only used up all of it, but a good bit more as well.

Deficit spending a almost every year from 1950 to 1967 pushed up the national debt from $257 to $345 billion. Today it is approximately $365 billion, a billion dollars for every day in the year.

In the meantime cost of servicing this staggering debt also has continued to climb. Interest on the debt amounted to about $14 billion in fiscal 1967, or more than was spent on entire cost of the Federal Government for the three years 1928-29-30.

In fiscal 1969, according to the most recent government estimates, debt service will amount to $15.3 billion. This latest figure means there is now, in effect, an interest charge of about $76 a year against every man, woman and child in the country, or of about $304 a year against the average family of four.

Had we no national debt, and hence no debt service charges to pay, that $15.3 billion a year could do any one of the following:

Pay a salary of more than $100 a week all year to the nation's 2,800,000 unemployed, provide more than $125 a month to all of the 10 million persons said to be undernourished today in the United States.

Build a new $25,000 house every two years for some 1.2 million families; buy $40 worth of food at the grocery each week of the year for 7,355,000 families.

Heavy are the penalties one pays for using all of prosperity when it comes. Not to mention that little bit more.

IN THIS WORLD

PLASTICS, COSMETICS, AND SPACE FUELS ARE AMONG THE MORE THAN 3,000 DIFFERENT PRODUCTS MADE FROM PETROLEUM.

OIL COMPANIES SPEND ABOUT $500 MILLION A YEAR ON RESEARCH... MUCH OF IT TO DEVELOP NEW AND BETTER PRODUCTS...

NEARLY ALL OF THIS RESEARCH IS FINANCED BY OIL COMPANIES THEMSELVES. BY CONTRAST, THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT PAYS MORE THAN HALF OF THE RESEARCH BILL OF U.S. INDUSTRY AS A WHOLE.

GUN REGISTRATION AFTER ALL

Those who believe they are governed by laws passed by their legislators got another rude awakening when the federal bureaucracy announced the way it was going to put into effect the new gun law.

Starting December 16, when anyone buys a gun or ammunition, he has to fill out elaborate forms and in effect go through government registration.

Members of Congress rejected proposals this year to require registration of firearms and owners. The rejection came after there was a vast ground-swell of opposition to the dictatorial proposal. Even some of the most radical "liberals" in the Senate and House found they had to back off from gun registration because of opposition by the people. It was not organized opposition, but a general rejection of the idea that to own a gun for hunting or self-protection one must register with some political agency.

But the Internal Revenue Service, which will have charge of enforcing the new legislation, has gone far beyond the intent of Congress. Under the law anyone buying a gun will have to list his name and address and sign that he is legally eligible to purchase the weapon.

But, the IRS form will also require the individual to list his height, weight, race and place of birth. Robert C. Zimmer, representing Sporting Arms and Ammunition Manufacturers Institute, also said the form was so complex and confused that the average person probably would be unable to fill it out correctly. The paper work also will discourage small dealers from continuing to handle guns, said Zimmer.

But that doesn't concern the bureaucratic IRS. Creating confusing and complex forms for the people is a specialty of that tax-collecting agency. With more of those complex forms required of the people, the IRS will be able to demand that it be given more bureaucratic personnel to process the forms and to trip up persons who inadvertently make an error in filling them out.

But individuals who believe in freedom cannot but feel that they are being dragged into an unconstitutional gun registration regulation through the back door. While those who already have guns are not now being dragged in for registration, every individual who buys a gun will be put on the list for the bureaucrats to see. And when he buys ammunition, he will be subject to the same — or similar — limitations.

As has been pointed out many times, restrictions on guns do not affect criminals, who find it easy to obtain weapons. They only discourage the honest citizen who uses his gun for hunting, target shooting or for defense.

While most Americans believed they had beaten back another assault on their individual liberty when Congress rejected outright registration they now find they have a partial registration law — thanks to the bureaucrats who never let legality or illegality get in their way.

Paul Fishers Have Family Reunion

The wedding of their daughter Betty Saturday to Mike Kleiss brought all of the Paul Fishers' family together for the first time at the same time in over five years.

Attending were Sister Cynthia Fisher of Jonesboro, Ark., Spec. 4 David Fisher of Fort Bragg, N. C., Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Hughes and family of Grand Prairie, Miss Rita Fisher of Dallas, Miss Linda Fisher of Sherman, and William, Donald, Herbie and Jeff Fisher of the home.

The best way to convince a fool that he is one is to let him have his way.

An irate parishioner sent Henry Ward Beecher, the New England Preacher, a letter with the single word "Fool" on it. Next Sunday Beecher told the congregation about the note. He said he had heard of a man writing a letter and forgetting to sign his name, but he had never heard of a man signing his name and forgetting to write the letter.

Betty Fisher and Mike Kleiss Wed At Nuptial Mass

Sacred Heart Church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Betty Fisher and Mike Kleiss who pledged vows Saturday in a double ring ceremony at 10:30 a.m. nuptial Mass.

Con-celebrating the Mass were Abbot Michael Lensing of Subiaco, Ark., and the bride's uncle Father Harry Fisher of Fort Worth. Father Fisher presided for the exchange of vows and Abbot Michael gave the nuptial blessing. Jerry Mosman of Dallas was lector.

Dr. Martin Kralicke was soloist accompanied by Anthony Luke, organist. They presented "Ave Maria" before Mass, Panis Angelicus" at the communion, and "The Rosary" after Mass when the couple went to the Blessed Virgin's Shrine where the bride placed a bouquet on the altar.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fisher of Muenster and Mr. and Mrs. Al Kleiss of Subiaco, Ark., formerly of Muenster.

The procession into church carried out the new idea of the liturgy, the bride with her parents and the bridegroom with his parents. At the sanctuary steps Mr. Fisher gave his daughter in marriage.

The bride wore a gown of white peau de soie with a chapel-length train attached at the shoulders with self material bows. A bow held her elbow-length veil and she carried a white orchid and stephanotis.

Bride's attendants were her sisters Miss Rita Fisher of Dallas, maid of honor, and Miss Linda Fisher of Sherman, bridesmaid. They wore royal blue gowns of lace and peau with matching veiled headpieces and carried bouquets of white mums. Terry Hughes of Grand Prairie, small niece of the bride, was flower girl.

William Fisher, bride's brother, was best man and Melvin Koelzer was groomsman. Dale Hofbauer and Herbie Fisher, brother of the bride, ushered.

Wedding reception and dinner were held in the K of C Hall for about 150 guests. They were registered by Misses Nancie Fisher and Darlene Rohmer.

When the couple left on their wedding trip she was wearing a three-piece blue knit suit with black accessories.

The bride is a graduate of Holy Angels Academy in Jonesboro, Ark., and attended Arkansas State University. The bridegroom was graduated from Subiaco Academy and attended St. Joseph's College in New Orleans.

She is employed at Muenster Hospital in Central Supply and he is employed at Henry Popp's Metal Sales in Gainesville after being employed at Endres Motor Co. They are making their home at 909 N. Oak Street in Muenster.

Out of Town Guests

Out of town guests at the wedding included Sister Cynthia Fisher of Jonesboro, Ark., Spec. 4 David Fisher of Fort Bragg, N.C., Mrs. Joe Galloway and daughters Jonann and Mary Ellen of Wichita Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Appel and daughter Mrs. Jim Smith and son Greg of Houston.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Kleiss and daughter Mary Ann and son Brother Cletus of Subiaco, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Hughes and children Terry, Eddie and Paul of Grand Prairie, Miss Emma Fisher and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Schwartz and sons Jimmy, Phil and Greg and Mr. and Mrs. James Dennison, all of Fort Worth, and Mrs. Oliver Lowery of Valley View.
