VOLUME XXXIII

MUENSTER, COOKE COUNTY, TEXAS 76252 FEBRUARY 21, 1969

The popular news commentator, Paul Harvey, exercised his usual sound judgment a few days ago in recommending that Congress overhaul the income tax laws so that average people can determine what they owe and make out their own tax report. He thinks as many of us do, that a system is ridiculous when it requires more brains to report an income than to make it.

Harvey is for a fully streamlined 1040 form eliminating all deductions and adopting a graduated tax not to exceed 50 per cent. There would be no loopholes for tax evasion, no deductions to cause confusion. A tax payer would simply apply his rate to his gross income and submit his check — along with a simple report.

Though inclined to think that he has over-simplified the case, we must admit there is lots of good sense in the idea. Something is drastically wrong when some people with more than a million dollars of income manage to pay nothing and others pay very little. Something needs to be done about the method which allows them to acquire fabulous wealth while shirking their rightful tax obligation. Like-wise something needs to be done about some of the tax free foundations, which are using diverted tax money to support questionable and even subversive activity.

Plugging the loopholes which serve the tax dodgers is only one desirable goal. The other is to help the millions of average people who have to struggle long hours in preparing the present involved form. Still another goal is a simple report requiring less checking by the tax people. It's obvious that the IRS could operate with a much smaller work force, and government cost could be substantially reduced, if we taxpayers were not required to send them so much paper.

This column does not presume to say which of the many tax regulations should be eliminated, but it accepts the statements of former IRS bosses who say that something needs to be done. When the law is so complicated that even the IRS people themselves often disagree, and average people are baffled by the simpler parts of it, a change most certainly is in order. We hope the demand will keep getting stronger in Washington. After all, paying the tax is bad enough. Why should we also have to dread the report?

One of the current international topics bugging this column is the Treaty on Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons. The general purpose of this scheme, it seems, is to confine ownership of those weapons to the countries which have them now. Have-nations are to agree not to sell or tell to others or to continue development. Have-not-nations should agree not to produce or buy them.

In theory the idea is fine. In theory it would be even better if it included total nuclear disarmament. All the world would be more comfortable if it could feel assured there will be no nuclear war.

But the world can't bank on theory. It has to be practical. And there we encounter the ugly fact that treaties nowadays are no longer dependable, especially when one of the signing parties happens to be communist.

Just a few years ago the records showed that Red Russia had signed over fifty treaties and had violated all but one of them. Doubtless that one has been broken since, and probably some others were signed and violated. Under the circumstances how can Russia be expected to honor this agreement?

A treaty, like an agreement between individuals, is only as good as the parties making it. When two people of integrity make a deal they live up to it. But when one is a crook he'll abide by the deal only if it serves his purpose. On the other hand the man of honor is at a disadvantage because he'll back up his word even when it hurts.

Treaties are very similar. If signed by two nations of honor they become dependable agreements. But if one of the nations has no honor it will disregard the deal whenever it wishes. On the other hand the nation of honor feels obligated to live up to its promise.

This sort of explains the nature of the proposed non-proliferation treaty. Traditionally we honor our agreements, so we'd be expected to live up to the treaty. But Russia (Continued on page 10)

One-Stop Voting Arranged for All Elections April 5

Another three-in-one election is scheduled for the people of Muenster. Following last year's arrangement, the elections for city council, school district and hospital district will be held simultaneously in the public school on Saturday, April 5. A person can do all of his voting in one stop.

Formalities of ordering elections have been finished by each of the three governing bodies. The school board last Thursday night announced that three members will be elected. Two are for the positions now held by Ray Swirczynski and Ed Cler, the other is for the unexpired year of Jerome Pagel's term. Until the election Jerry Wimmer is serving by appointment in Pagel's place.

Superintendent L. B. Bruns said that each of the trustees indicated he is a candidate. He also stated that the deadline for announcing candidacy is March 4, a month before the election. Charles Cash and Edgar Dyer were named to conduct the election.

The city election will be for the offices of mayor and three aldermen. Terms expiring this year are those of Mayor Earl Fisher and Aldermen Herbert Miller, Rody Klement and Gene Hoedebeck, none of whom has stated whether he will seek re-election. Deadline for announcing candidacy is March 4. Clive Gobble and Lee Toothaker are election judge and clerk.

Election of directors of the Muenster Hospital District was ordered at the board's regular meeting Wednesday night. Members whose terms expire this year are Al Trubenbach, Paul Fetsch, John H. Bayer and Jimmy Jack Biffle. Biffle is serving by appointment now to complete the unexpired term of Robert Bayer, who resigned after his election as commissioner of Precinct 4.

A person who wishes to be a candidate for the hospital board is reminded that it involves more than just announcing. He must present a petition signed by at least 15 qualified voters asking to be listed as a candidate. That petition must be filed with the board's secretary, Rufus Henschel, at least 25 days before election, that is, on or before March 11.

New Sewer Plant Starts Operation

The city's new sewage treating plant will begin operating Friday. Joe Moser, sanitary superintendent, said the lift pumps, last equipment to be installed, await testing by a factory representative Friday morning and operation will begin immediately after that.

Special preparation to start the plant got under way Monday. It consists of filling the race track with water from the lagoons so that sewage treatment can begin as soon as it is admitted into the big ditch. A depth of about four feet is needed so that the surface reaches the level of two paddle wheels which keep the stream in motion. If the sewage could not be circulated from the start operating problems would develop before it could fill to the paddle wheel level.

The paddle wheels serve a double purpose, Moser said. Rotating at about 90 revolutions per minute they agitate the surface thoroughly mixing in an abundance of air which speeds bacteria action. At the same time they keep the stream moving fast enough to keep solids in suspension.

As sewage enters the track an equal volume flows into the drainage pit where a lift pump transfers it to a pit for secondary treatment. That consists of allowing solids to settle out and sending them back to the ditch. Clear liquid from there is pumped into lagoons where it undergoes further bacteria treatment before discharge into the creek.

The new plant was built to meet more rigid standards of stream pollution which were introduced since the city's old plant was built. Moser said the new plant is designed to exceed the standard of purity required by the Texas Water Quality Board.

The Lord helps those who help themselves. All others should contact the government.

Jaycees Sponsor Harlem Stars In Basketball Show

The basketball extravaganza in which the Harlem Stars will take on teachers of the two Muenster schools will be presented next Wednesday night in MHS gym as a joint project for the Texas Rehabilitation Center of Gonzales and the Muenster Jaycees.

The event presents a group of basketball showmen whose performance is very similar to that of the internationally famous Harlem Globetrotters. Two of the Stars are former members of the Globetrotters.

Victims of their antics will be a team booked as the Muenster Teachers and composed of Glenn Richardson, Charles Cash, Dan Hamric, Edgar Dyer, Joe Felderhoff, Joe Wilkinson, Virgil Henschel and Roy Monday. Ronnye Russell is the Jaycee chairman in charge.

The show is a 50-25-25 deal. Half will go to the Stars, the other half will be split evenly between the Gonzales hospital and Muenster Jaycee. Admission price will be $1.50 for a pre game ticket and $2.00 at the door and $1.00 for students under 14.

Collection Monday For Heart Research

People of Muenster who wish to support the national heart research program are asked to have their donations ready and their porch lights burning next Monday night starting at 6:30 o'clock.

A collection will be conducted at that time by a local committee headed by Mrs. Martin Kralick in cooperation with the County Heart Association. She said the research is the kind referred to by Dr. Hugh Wilson in his recent address to school children. Research has speeded progress in heart surgery and treatment but many problems still need to be worked out.

Soil Conservation District Sponsors Judging Contest

The thirteenth annual land judging contest sponsored by supervisors of the Upper Elm-Red Soil and Water Conservation District will be held on Tuesday, March 25, at Cooke County Junior College. Plans for the event were made at the board's regular meeting on Thursday, Feb. 11.

The contest will be open to all of the 22 FFA chapters and the three 4-H clubs in the three county area served by the Elm-Red District. It will be conducted by Soil Conservation technicians of the district and will follow regulations of state and national land judging contests. Students will compete on two levels, first year ag students in the junior contest and the more advanced students in the senior contest.

Registration of teams will begin at 1 o'clock and the contest will begin at 2 o'clock. After judging the students and their coaches will be guests of the supervisors at a dinner during which the winning teams and high scoring individuals will receive awards.

Chairman Harold Skaggs said the board hopes to have well over 100 contestants representing all of the FFA and 4-H units of the district. Last year there were about 85 entries in spite of conflicting event.

Skaggs also said that "skills learned in this contest go with a boy all through life. He has a better understanding of the land, how to classify and judge it, and how to conserve and take care of the soil. Boys receiving this training in land judging can appreciate our soil and its problems and be better prepared in future life to help improve and conserve it."

Pack Banquet for Cub Scouts Monday

This month's regular pack meetings of the Muenster Cub Scouts will be a Blue and Gold Banquet for the boys and their families.

The event will be held in the VFW Hall next Monday night, Feb. 24, at 7 o'clock. All parents and brothers and sisters of the Cubs are urged to attend.

Only one man in a million really understands the international situation. Isn't it odd how you keep running into him?

Miss Angela Laake, 86, is progressing satisfactorily, doing fine following a two and a half hour operation Tuesday at Muenster Hospital to repair a broken bone in her left arm. It was a new break in the arm she broke last May and had pinned. Surgery this time inserted a plate from below the shoulder to just above the elbow. The light cast covering the injury now will be replaced in a few days with a partial body cast over the shoulder. She doesn't know at this time how long she'll be hospitalized.

Mrs. Joe Stockman writing from Oklahoma reports that she is back at her home now, slowly, but surely improving after major surgery. She's not back in circulation yet. The extent of her activities is taking care of herself and cooking evening dinner for the family. She expressed thanks to all who remembered her with cards and prayers while she was so sick. Mrs. Stockman lived here several months with Mrs. R. M. Zipper but left last December when she knew she had to undergo surgery. Her address is Rt. 1, Box 53, Skiatook, Okla. 74070.

L. Kieningers on Phone Interview For German Radio

A live broadcast — from Muenster through Radio Cologne, Germany — was transmitted Sunday night by Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig Kieninger by telephone from their home.

The interview, a 15-minute program, consisted of questions from there and answers from here. These concerned Muenster, Kieninger's Bavarian Wood Carving Studio, the couple's interests and cowboys.

Texas cowboys intrigue German youth and many questions were asked including how they dress and what kind of work they do. There are a number of cowboy clubs and members were especially interested, the interviewer said.

The Kieningers said the phone conversation was as "clear as a bell," as though it might have been from around the corner instead of trans-Atlantic.

Arrangements for the broadcast were made earlier with Mayor Earl Fisher by telephone from Radio Cologne.

Tourney Will Tell 30-B Titles in Girls Basketball

Basketball for 1969 at Muenster High will end this weekend as the girls team participates in the 30-B district tournament in Gainesville. Like the boys tournament last weekend, it will determine first, second, third and fourth places and trophies will be awarded to the first three.

Pairings for the opening games were determined by the standings after a round of district games. By prior agreement it was set at first vs eighth, second vs seventh, third vs sixth and fourth vs fifth. Time for each game was set by drawing slips. The resulting schedule for opening games on Thursday is:

Slidell-Valley View, 7:30
Alvord-Lindsay, 6:00
Krum-Era, 4:30

Foresburg-Muenster, 9:00
Muenster with a 2-5 district record, was one of three teams tied for fifth, sixth and seventh in the regular season. The standing is Slidell, Krum, Alvord, Foresburg, Muenster, Lindsay, Era, Valley View.

Four teams will be eliminated in the opening games. Semifinals will be played Friday, the winners to play Saturday for first and second place trophies and the losers to play for third place trophy.

Going into the tournament the MHS girls have a season record of 6 wins and 16 losses.

Hornet Trackmen Begin Training

Athletic interests of Muenster High boys this week have turned to track. Under direction of Coach Glenn Richardson the Hornets got into their 1969 program Monday when members of the basketball team checked in their uniforms. Several others had been running and working with weights during the cage season.

Emphasis now is on conditioning exercises and road work, which will continue for two weeks. Then the boys will start training in their special events.

Up to now the Hornets have three invitation meets on their schedule and Richardson expects bids to another one or two plus possibly a few practice sessions with other teams. Meets booked now are Holliday Relays on March 15, Red River Relays at Saint Jo on March 22 and Marietta, Okla., Relays on April 4.

For the record the Hornets will compete in a district meet at Saint Jo on April 9. Winners of that meet will qualify for a regional meet at Stephenville April 18 and 19.

Ronnye Russell Is Joe's Partner in Plumbing Business

Joe Russell, long time plumber of Muenster, has taken in his son Ronnye as a partner, and the new firm is operating under the name of Russell and Russell.

The partnership developed last week after a back injury halted Joe's actual work on the job. Meanwhile work was waiting and he called on Ronnye to help solve the problem. Ronnye quit his job with the City to join his father.

Under the new arrangement Ronnye will work with Joe's brothers, Jimmy and T. J. of Myra, and Joe will take care of the paper work.

Election Year Changes For One City Councilman

Effective next year three members of the Muenster city council will be elected every year. This replaces the present procedure, probably followed since the city's organization, in which the even-year ballot elected two council members

Tough Policy on Dope Announced By School Board

Use or possession of narcotics at Muenster Public School will not be tolerated and any person who violates the rule will be subject to expulsion.

That is the substance of a resolution adopted by the school board in its meeting Thursday night, in harmony with the policy recently adopted by the Gainesville School Board. The purpose is to advise the community in advance so that all will be aware of the consequence of becoming involved.

The policy reads as follows: "Any student known to have a dangerous drug or narcotic in his possession, or known to be under the influence thereof, while in school or while participating in a school-sponsored function, after due notice to the violator and after a hearing before the Board of Trustees and is found guilty, the student shall be expelled for the balance of the semester and no credits be given to the student for the semester."

"Any student who shall have been convicted of a misdemeanor or felony for possession, use, or sale of a dangerous drug or narcotic drug while outside the school and after a hearing before the Board of Trustees has been held and the student found guilty, will be expelled by the Board of Trustees for the current semester, and no credit be given to the student for the semester."

and the odd-year ballot elected four.

Members of the city council at their regular session Monday night decided on a temporary change in the term of one member so that three can be elected next year. A drawing determined that the alderman of position 4, who is on this year's ballot, will have a term of one year. After that elections of even years will be for aldermen 1, 2 and 4; and the election of odd years will be for mayor and aldermen 3 and 5.

This year's election, to be held on Saturday, April 5, is the city's last for four councilmen. Position 4, which will expire in a year under the special arrangement, is now held by Rody Klement. Others whose terms expire this year are Mayor Earl Fisher and Aldermen Herbert Miller and Gene Hoedebeck.

Up to Wednesday none of the incumbents has indicated his intention to seek re-election, nor has anyone else announced. Mayor Fisher said that the deadline for filing is March 4. Unless a candidacy is reported to the city secretary on or before that date the name cannot be printed on the ballot.

OLD-FASHIONED?

An interesting little pamphlet, issued by one of the country's larger life insurance companies, tells the story of the flag of the United States. In describing the birth of the Stars and Stripes, it quotes George Washington: "We take the star from Heaven, the red from our Mother Country, separating it by white stripes, thus showing that we have separated from her, and the white stripes shall go down to prosperity representing liberty."

According to the pamphlet, Kent Bellah Studio Saint Jo Open 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Closed Sun., Mon., Tues.

nearly a year passed after the signing of the Declaration of Independence before anything was done relative to the establishment of a national flag. But on June 14, 1777, the American Congress adopted the following resolution: "Resolved, That the flag of the thirteen United States be thirteen stripes, alternate red and white; that the union be thirteen stars, white in a blue field, representing a new constellation." There is a story that the American flag was first flown on July 4, 1777, when it was hoisted by Captain John Paul Jones over the war vessel Ranger. In the years since then, the original thirteen stars have been added to many times as new states joined the Union.

In commenting on this growth, the pamphlet says, "Now it waves majestically over forty-eight States, extending across the continent; and flies over islands of the Atlantic and Pacific, and other outlying possessions. More than one hundred and thirty-million people owe it allegiance, a vast assemblage composed of nearly every race in the world, but all united by one bond of loyalty and devotion to the Flag which symbolizes Liberty."

Yes, the figures are a little out of date! The pamphlet was written more than forty years ago. In these days of strife and defamation of the flag, it is a wonder that we do not see the story of the American flag in print more often — or is it too old-fashioned?

THANK YOU, NEIGHBOR

More than once in recent years we have taken exception to the comments of the foreign press in this space. Accordingly, it is a good feeling to salute a good neighbor for printing an editorial which should please and refresh American taxpayers. The following is from the English-language News, the prominent and respected Mexican newspaper, of January 17.

"Apparently there is no little world apprehension regarding Uncle Sam's proposed 500 million dollar increase in the military budget.

"Unfortunately, there is to date no indication that Lenin's goal of ultimate world domination has been relaxed. Red aggression in Vietnam, the invasion of Czechoslovakia, Russia's pitting of Arabs against Israel and its subversion undermining democratic governments all over the globe to a likelihood that, were it not for Uncle Sam's deterrent, armed imposition would quickly shrink an otherwise slowly-diminishing free world, or by now to have already turned it into an occupied camp.

"In the absence of a UN military capable, or even verbally willing, to back free nations in their fight to remain free, the only checkmate is U.S. determination. The UN, while all this effort to undermine liberty goes on, can only single out and censure tiny Israel for its raid of retaliation on the Beirut airport.

"It's a good thing Uncle Sam is willing to remain strong. He has no designs against peoples' sovereignty. Should his will weaken, not only Southeast Asia but Latin America and a host of other wide areas might fall prey to a stealthy Red predator. Should he drop his guard altogether, the predator might quickly become a juggernaut. Friend and foe alike heap a great deal of abuse upon Uncle Sam's expenditures of money and manpower to aid and protect nations which wish to remain free.

We wish that more of the critics would reflect, as the News has done, on what the alternative would be if Uncle Sam did not stand as a deterrent to Communist encroachment.

WAR IS REALITY

Peace is the hope of the world but war is its reality. Shots are being fired across the River Jordan between the Israelis and the Arabs and the smoldering hate which exists between the two countries may burst into a full-scale war at any time.

Russia, within the past year, has actually appropriated Czechoslovakia and there is now only token resistance throughout the unfortunate nation to this takeover by force.

The Vietnam war grinds slowly on. Months were consumed in selecting a place for peace talks and then men were being killed as the argument raged in Paris over whether the peace table should be round or square. Meantime, over 20,000 Americans have been killed in Vietnam fighting since 1961.

A civil war is being waged in Nigeria while many countries in South America are in a state of ferment.

There is nothing bright about the hopes of mankind for world peace but maybe it will come when least expected.

SEXOLOGY IN THE SCHOOLS

Is the school house the proper place for raw sex? The Bible and Christian morality are now out of our schools but sexology is definitely in.

Typical of liberals and their crusades, the sexologists seem to have no idea where they are going or why. Mary Calderone, M.D., the high priestess of sex education, pompously announces that she has "a covenant with the young people of these times." This "covenant" includes telling youngsters to dive into the gutter like their pet Boxer and have all the sex they want. After all, Dr. Calderone tells wide-eyed youngsters, sex is fun. Dr. Calderone's criminal debasement and corruption of our youth goes partially unchallenged. But one of her own partners in this crime, Dr. William H. Masters, admits: "...we have no scientific knowledge as to whether (sex education is) worth a damn." Dr. Rhoda Lorand, a New York child analyst, is even more specific. She says: "Cramming sex knowledge down kids' throats does not promote healthy growth. The likely effect is more anxiety, not less."

In the Bible, sex is regarded as a precious gift from God, not only for bringing children into the world but for the satisfaction of one of man's deepest needs. It is a personal and family matter which should not be cheapened by crude, public dissection. The so-called experts on sex who are invading our schools, are animalizing our children and reducing sex to the level of the pig pen.

FOR ADULT READERS

Here is one publication no conscientious parent will leave on the coffee table where his children can find it: "The University of Utah Review."

In an article in a recent issue, surgery professor Dr. Ralph C. Richards claims that the proportion of bacteria removed from the body by bathing is almost insignificant, probably no more than 7%.

What's worse, he says that when people scrub themselves with brush or cloth, they irritate the skin and may wind up with more bacteria than would have been present had they never washed at all.

We repeat, keep this publication out of the hands of children.

Today's youth is more sophisticated. If Booth Tarkington were to write "Seventeen" today, he would have to call it "Twelve."

A prominent salesman summed up success in three simple words—"and then some." "I discovered at an early age," he said, "that most of the differences between average and top people could be explained in three words.

"The top people did what was expected of them — and then some. They were thoughtful of others; they were considerate and kind — and then some. They met their obligations and responsibilities fairly and squarely — and then some. They were good friends to their friends, and could be counted on in an emergency — and then some."

ALBANY'S $100-M FLATS

New York State is going to build a low-income housing project in Albany containing 442 apartments at a cost of $18.4 million, or $41,629 per apartment. The state plans to pay off the borrowed $18.4 million over a 49-year period. Figuring in taxes, loan interest and principal, maintenance, etc., the annual cost is estimated at $2,407,511, or $5,446.86 per apartment. At that annual cost, a monthly rent of $453.90 would be required. But the tenants will pay only $87.38 per month, leaving $386.52 per month to be paid by N.Y. taxpayers — or more than $100 million over the 49-year bond payoff period.

How economical is a gas dryer?

Ask a man who owns 68!

Pay the energy bills for 68 dryers and you've got to form some opinions on economy. Dallas washer/dryer owner S. D. Dean does, so he knows gas dryers cost far less to operate. For instance, a typical home model costs five times less to run than an electric dryer. Is that the kind of economy you want? You can get it with a gas dryer... whether you're paying the bills for 68 of 'em... or just one! See your gas appliance dealer or Lone Star Gas during Washday Wishday Sale. Enjoy the convenience and economy of a gas dryer.

When you think about it, Gas living makes sense!

10 Texas Utilities Support Research In Atomic Energy

The Texas Atomic Energy Research Foundation will furnish up to $800,000 to the University of Texas for nuclear research over a two-year period beginning May 1, 1969, T. L. Austin Jr., president of Texas Power & Light Company reported. TP&L and nine other investor-owned electric utility companies in Texas are members of the TAERF.

The research will be part of the foundation's long-range effort aimed at making thermonuclear fusion reactions usable for the generation of electric power.

Foundation support of fusion research at the University began in 1963. Under the new research agreement, the foundation will finance a continuation and enlargement of the program for two more years, to April 30, 1971. The research will be carried out in the physics and engineering departments of the University.

Committee Formed to Represent Rural Interests in School Program

AUSTIN—A statewide committee to represent rural landowners and those who enjoy living in the country during the expected struggle over school district consolidation in the current session of the Texas Legislature was announced here Wednesday.

The group, known as "The Little Red School House Committee," is composed of a cross-section of farmers, ranchers and rural landowners from throughout the state. Charles Schreiner III, a prominent rancher from Mountain Home, is chairman of the committee.

"We believe the forced consolidation of small school districts, as proposed in the report of the Governor's Committee on Public School Education, will go a long way toward destroying rural life as it is now enjoyed in Texas," Schreiner declared in a news conference at noon Wednesday.

Schreiner pointed out that the Governor's Committee recommends the forced consolidation of Texas' 1,218 school districts into a total of 353.

"This would virtually wipe out 865 community centers, since most rural schools are the primary symbols of community identification," Schreiner said.

He refuted the claim that bigger school districts would automatically provide better education for students. "Merely bigness is not an absolute guarantee of excellence," he said.

"The Little Red School House Committee has been formed to awaken rural landowners and residents of small communities to the unseen dangers of forced consolidation and to acquaint legislators in Austin with the feelings of the rural people of Texas," Schreiner said.

Those Who Missed Medicare Sign-up Can Enroll Now

The monthly premium older people pay for the voluntary medical insurance part of Medicare will remain at the present $4 for the period July 1969 through June 1970, Gus Jones, social security district manager, noted today.

The premium covers half the cost of protection that helps pay doctors' and surgeons bills and a variety of other health care expenses. The other half is paid out of Federal general revenues.

"Of the population 65 and over, 95 percent are now enrolled in the supplementary medical insurance program," Jones said, "up from 91 percent enrolled when the Medicare program began on July 1, 1965."

A new enrollment period opened January 1, Jones said, and will provide another chance for people who missed out earlier to sign up for the protection. For some — those who were born October 1, 1901, or earlier, and those who were enrolled but dropped out before January 1, 1967 — it will be the last chance to enroll.

Older people who delay in enrolling, Jones said, pay a premium that is 10 percent higher for each full year they have had the medical insurance protection but were not enrolled. And those who wait 3 years past their first chance to sign up will not be able to get the coverage at all.

He estimated that the period between now and March 31 will be the last chance to enroll for about 2 out of 3 persons 65 and over in the area who are not yet enrolled for the supplementary protection.

Jones said many of the elderly people in the area who have not yet signed up for the supplementary doctor bill insurance will be receiving application blanks in the mail soon. If they have any questions about how to fill them out or about Medicare itself, or if they do not receive a form, the people in the Sherman social security office at 810 North Travis will be glad to help them. Office hours are 8:30 a.m. to 4:45 p.m., Monday through Friday.

A representative may be contacted in Gainesville each Tuesday and Thursday from 9:30 a.m. to 12:00 noon at the Federal Building.

"If you win this case," the defendant said, "I will give you $2,000."

"Very well," said the lawyer, "get some witnesses."

The man dug up some witnesses and won his case.

"Well," said the lawyer, "we won. Where's my $2,000?"

"Get some witnesses," said the man.

Nipak Plans to Make Plastic Pipe

Nipak, Inc., Dallas-based manufacturer and marketer of chemical fertilizer, has announced preliminary plans to expand into the production and marketing of extruded polyethylene plastic pipe and molded fittings in 1969.

Glynn Covington, vice president of Nipak, Inc., a subsidiary of Lone Star Producing Company, described the move as a logical and strategic extension of the firm's chemical activities. Lone Star Producing Company is a subsidiary of Lone Star Gas Company.

Polyethylene, the basic raw material, will be purchased commercially in the initial production stages.

Covington said a tentative plant site had been selected and would be announced at a later date. Initial capacity of the planned facilities will be three million linear feet of pipe a year in sizes up to four inches in diameter.

"This diversification will serve several purposes," Covington said. "It will supply Lone Star Gas Company's expanding needs for plastic pipe for gas distribution."

Plans call for the plant to be in full production by late 1969. Covington said initial production would be for use by Lone Star Gas Company. A major part of the plant's output will be intended for commercial markets.

IRS Issues New Reporting - Paying Tax Estimate Form

DALLAS — Completely new estimated tax forms for reporting and paying estimated tax for 1969 has been mailed to approximately 10 million tax payers, Ellis Campbell, Jr., District Director of Internal Revenue Service for northern Texas announced.

A taxpayer should not assume that he is required to file or pay estimated tax simply because he receives the new package, Mr. Campbell said. Anyone receiving the new forms package should read the instructions very carefully to determine whether he is required to file an estimate.

No declaration is required, in any event, if the estimated tax not subject to withholding can reasonably be expected to be less than $40.

Many taxpayers, Mr. Campbell said, choose to avoid filing declarations and making quarterly payments by increasing the amount withheld from their wages.

He said that the distribution of estimated tax forms has been made somewhat later than usual because of the introduction of some new features designed to reduce problems in crediting payments to estimated tax accounts. The new forms and instructions, which were previously a part of the income tax pamphlets, were mailed separately this year.

The new package includes the necessary forms, instructions and four payment "vouchers" and pre-addressed return envelopes. The new package has been sent to all taxpayers whose prior records indicate that they may be liable for filing an estimated tax declaration in 1969.

Mr. Campbell said the form and payment vouchers are imprinted with the taxpayer's name, address and social security number exactly as they appear on the Internal Revenue Master File. The imprinted forms assure that the taxpayer is properly identified and that his payments are credited to the correct account.

Copies of the new form and instructions are available at IRS offices for those who do not receive them through the mail.

'68 Car Mileage Equals 4 Billion Trips to the Moon

Texas were on the move more in 1968 than ever before reports the American Automobile Association. A total of 47,898,390,000 (forty-seven billion, eight hundred ninety-eight million, three hundred and ninety thousand) miles were racked up to drivers across the state.

Nationwide, new records were also set on the highways—an estimated one trillion, ten billion miles. That's equal to a fantastic 4,391,341,300 (four billion, three hundred ninety one million, three hundred forty one thousand, three hundred) trips to the moon.

These estimated nationwide figures represent an increase of 46 percent over 1967 mileage.

National Electric Week Observed By Brazos Co-op

Brazos Electric Power Co-operative, Inc., has participated with other electric utilities in the United States in observance of National Electrical Week, February 9 to 15, according to Mr. H. A. Dalton, General Manager. "Electricity Powers Progress" is the theme of the special week, which also includes the 122nd anniversary of Thomas E. Edison's birth on February 11.

Dalton said the observance "gives us the opportunity to recognize the many ways that electricity serves us daily in our homes and on our jobs to help make our lives more comfortable and productive. It underscores the vital role electricity plays in the life and economy of our community."

Brazos Electric Power is one of the more than 2,000 local publicly or consumer owned electric utilities which serve more than 30-million persons in 48 states.

The electrical industry is one of the major industries in the United States, Mr. Dalton pointed out, noting that it puts billions of dollars into the economy each year, spends more than $2.5-billion on research and employs more than 3-million Americans.

He cited these other points: American electrical power capacity is greater than the combined production of Japan, the Soviet Union, the United Kingdom and West Germany. The United States produces 36% of the world's total electrical power while serving only 6% of the world's population. The use of electrical power in the U.S. has grown five times faster than the population and three times faster than the industrial output of the country.

Most American homes now contain at least 10 different electrical appliances with the refrigerator, radio, television, vacuum cleaner, clothes washer, toaster, steam iron, coffee-maker, mixer and frypan.

Electricity is the No. 1 source of cooking energy with study by the Association of Home Appliances Manufacturers showing that 1,105,900 electric ranges were sold during the first half of 1968.

A study by the Electric Heating Association in the fall of 1968 indicated a marked trend for the preference of electricity as the residential heating energy. Nearly 3-million Americans heat with electricity now; the survey showed a 36% in consumer preference for electric heating since 1967; the Federal Power Commission estimates that electrically-heated homes will total 19-million by 1980.

"Ethics are vital to the successful businessman," a successful businessman instructed his son. "For example, an old customer paid his account today with a hundred dollar bill. After he left the shop, I discovered that he had given me two hundreds, stuck together. Immediately a question of ethics arose: Should I tell my partner?"

Little Johnny was second in his class. Top place was held by a girl. "Surely son," said his father, "you are not going to let yourself be beaten by a mere girl."

"Well, you see, Daddy," Johnny explained soberly, "girls aren't nearly as mere as they used to be."

Krum, Slidell and Forestburg Take Loop 30-B Trophies

Trophy awards and titles in the boys' division of the District 30-B tournament came out in the same order as the season which preceded it. First four places went to Krum, Slidell, Forestburg and Muenster.

Krum claimed the first place trophy by walloping Slidell 70-55 in the final contest, and Slidell received the runner-up trophy. In the other final game Forestburg trimmed Muenster 66-46 for the third place prize.

All games were played in Gainesville High gym during the past weekend. The district girls' teams will have a similar tournament in the same place this weekend.

Opening games of the tournament were matched in accordance with season standings. First vs eighth, second vs seventh, third vs sixth and fourth vs fifth. Results were that Krum eliminated Lindsay, Slidell eliminated Valley View, Forestburg eliminated Alvord and Muenster eliminated Era. In semifinals Friday night Krum and Slidell were winners over Forestburg and Muenster, after which the two winners and two losers went to Saturday night finals.

In their tourney opener, Muenster High's boys had a hot one with Era. The first half was a see saw with Muenster leading the periods by counts of 12-11 and 22-18. During the next half Muenster held to the lead which occasionally got very slim. Era's rash of fouls in a desperation effort near the end helped MHS improve its margin with free shots. Counts ending the final two quarters were 43-34 and 52-41. Muenster scorers were John Monday 20, Dale Cash 11, Mike Cason 7, John Felderhoff 6, Mike Hennigan 6, Bobby Bruns 2.

In the next game Muenster was ahead briefly until Slidell hit its stride. Thereafter Slidell jumped to a quarter lead of 22-12 and a first half lead of 44-19 and coasted through the last half. Scores ending those periods were 61-38 and 79-56. Point makers for Muenster were Monday 13, Dale Cash and Bruns 12 each, Hennigan 8, Felderhoff 6, Cason 3, Gerry Cash 2.

Absence of Tommy Henscheid because of flu was a distinct handicap to the Hornets in their first two games. But that was only the beginning of the misfortune. For the last game Henscheid was still out, Cason was barely there, with the beginning of flu, and Monday went out in the second quarter with an ankle injury. While Monday was there the game was close. After that Forestburg gained steadily. Scores by periods, with Forestburg ahead all the way, were 10-9, 33-26, 50-35, 66-46. Cason led the scoring with 12. Dale Cash hit 11, Gerry Cash 9, Felderhoff 6, Monday 5, Bruns 2 and Hennigan 1.

The tournament closed out the cage season for the Hornets with a record of 14-13.

When a man's pet found disappeared, he put the following ad in the local newspaper: "Lost or ran away, liver-colored bird dog named Bill. Will show signs of hydrophobia in about three days."

The dog came home the following morning.

Jane Stoffels Is First on Essay In Soil District

Miss Jane Stoffels of Lindsay has been named champion essay writer in the Upper Elm-Red Soil and Water Conservation District's ninth annual essay contest. There were 688 entries.

Miss Stoffels, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Stoffels is a senior at Lindsay High School.

She was honored Friday at a special school assembly during which she read her winning essay and received the $15.00 first prize from Johnny Bayer, Upper Elm-Red supervisor.

This year's subject is "How Conservation Helps Texas." Miss Stoffels' essay has been forwarded to the Fort Worth Press for entry in the statewide contest.

This is Miss Stoffels' second honor in recent weeks. She won the Betty Crocker Home-maker of Tomorrow award at Lindsay High for 1969.

In announcing results of the contest, Harold Skaggs, chairman of the board of supervisors said the 688 entries was the largest number ever received. They came from eight schools in the three-county district.

Second place honors went to Craig Williams of Gainesville High School. Third place winner was Robert Winters of Prairie Valley High School. They received ten and five dollar checks respectively from the district.

Judges were Lee Putnam, soil scientist with SCS, Bill King, sports editor of the Gainesville Register, and T. H. Dick, superintendent of Era High School.

Skaggs expressed appreciation to all who encouraged or assisted high school students in preparation of the essays. All entries will be entered in the state contest.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

Grass planting in the Upper-Elm-Red Soil and Water Conservation District is off to a good start this year. The weather has been very favorable for grass planting during January and February.

Cooperators in the Muenster area having grass planted are: Bruno Fleitman, Albert Reiter, Bill Lutkenhaus, Gus Lutkenhaus, Kleiss Brothers, Klement Brothers, Cecil Welch, James Hermes, Eugene Klement, Alfred Sicking, J. C. Southard, Alfred Bayer and Roscoe Raymond, according to Arlin Naegeli, SCS technician.

After the grass has been planted there are other things to be considered such as weed control and fertilization. Competition on a young stand of grass can be very harmful. The young plants have to start by growing a root system as well as enough top growth to feed themselves.

If weeds are not controlled they compete with this young plant for food, water and sunlight. Therefore this plant may die or be very slow in growing. Most weeds use about two or three times as much water to make the same amount of growth as grass does. Weeds also use a tremendous amount of fertilizer which has been put out to grow grass.

Some district cooperators are using chemical weed control and others are using mechanical control on their grass. Several advantages and disadvantages of each are: chemicals can be applied when the weeds are small before they use up the food and water; the weeds are killed by the chemicals. Like any chemical, care has to be used in applying chemicals in areas where other crops that may be damaged are grown.

When mowing is used the weeds have to get high enough to cut off, this also cuts off grass which livestock will rarely eat after it dries out. The main disadvantage to any mechanical method is that it does not kill. The method chosen may depend on the kind of equipment available, but some method of weed control should be used.

Texas Population Over 10.9 Million

Texas' population has grown to 10,945,000, according to a new study by UT's Research Center.

Growth rate from 1960 has been a steady, average 1.7 per year.

Major cities have been growing beyond that rate. For example, Harris County with 1.5 million inhabitants as of last April 1, grew at a rate of 3.1 per cent; Dallas with 1,231,000 population jumped 3.2 per cent, and Bexar with 802,500 inhabitants has jumped 1.9 per cent a year since 1960.

Lone Star Gas Co. Asks for Increase Of City Gate Rate

L. G. James, President of Lone Star Gas Company, announced today that Lone Star has commenced preparation of an application which it expects to file with the Railroad Commission of Texas in early summer to adjust upward the Company's authorized intracompany city gate charge for gas delivered in Texas. The last application filed of such a nature by the Company was in December, 1958.

James stated that the current city gate charge is insufficient to compensate for the increases in expenses and investment incurred by Lone Star's transmission division since 1958. According to James, Lone Star's transmission division has, since 1958, incurred substantial increases in the cost of gas purchased, Federal income taxes, other taxes, wages and salaries, the cost of debt money, capital construction, and the cost of such construction.

Lone Star's transmission division purchases and gathers natural gas and transports it to the city gates on the system. Lone Star's distribution divisions receive and pay for gas at the city gate and distribute it to customers' premises.

James said that residential and commercial rates would not be immediately affected by the filing with the Railroad Commission. After the new gate charge is established and specific computations made for each city and town, requests would then be filed for increases in individual cities and towns where they are justified.

A woman was sick in bed and her husband was making her a cup of tea. "I can't find the tea," he called out. "I don't know what could be easier to find," she answered. "It's right in front of the pantry shelf in a cocoa tin marked matches."

Confetti - - -

has a reputation as a treaty breaker. It cannot be expected to stay hitched. Why then are some of our people so anxious to sign? As individuals would they be so eager to make a deal with a deadbeat?

Only One Third of Cars Are Inspected

Only a third of Texas' six million cars have been inspected, warns the Department of Public Safety.

DPS noted that April 15 is the deadline and urged motorists to have their cars checked before long lines form around the state's 5,466 inspection stations.

Average cost to drivers so far this year has been $3.02. That includes the standard $1.75 fee and whatever else is necessary to secure the red, white and blue safety sticker. Headlight alignments and brake adjustments account for most of the ordered corrections checked to date.

Cold Is Colder When It's Windy

If the temperature feels like it is below zero on a windy day, when the thermometer says it's only 30, the actual chill effect may be just about that, as the army wind-chill chart below shows.

Thermometer readings are listed in the figures across the top of the chart; the wind speeds are shown down the left side. To determine how chilly it really is, get the proper column for each, note the figure where they cross. This number shows the equivalent chill if it were calm.

Thus, a 20-degree temperature with a 20-mile-an-hour wind is equal to 10 degrees below zero. A temperature of 10 degrees with a 15 mph wind is equal to 18 below.

A 10 mile-an-hour wind sets twigs dancing in the trees. A 25-mile-an-hour wind sets big branches moving, and if the temperature is even cool, it sets teeth chattering.

A chill-effect of anything below 25 below zero creates the danger of freezing for persons not properly clothed.
