BEATING THE SYSTEM
 Congressman H. R. Gross of Iowa reports that 12 enterprising young persons in Montgomery County, Md., have figured out a way to beat the system. Each of the dozen, six male and six female, draws $55 a week in unemployment compensation which they pool in a common kitty. In a four-week month, their take exceeds $2,600. They rent a six-bedroom house, complete with swimming pool and sauna bath, buy their food, and have enough left for a few other luxuries. Of course they pay no taxes on their unemployment benefits, and, on an individual basis, each probably qualifies for food stamps and Medicaid benefits as well. Whatever else may be said in criticism of young people these days, certainly no one can accuse them of being dumb.

Swimobile (top) displays its aluminum construction, flip up side platform, ladders, and front mounted water heating and filtration system. (Bottom) Pool area is 30-feet long, eight feet wide and four feet deep. This Swimobile holds approximately 8,000 gallons of water and is easily filled from a fire hydrant.

The Fruehauf Division, Fruehauf Corporation's Swimobile is ideal for providing swimming facilities for children in areas where permanent pools are not practical or readily available. Manufactured from a modified, 30-foot aluminum dump trailer body, the portable swimming pool is mounted on a special chassis to provide easy transportation from one location to another.

The swimming area in Fruehauf's Swimobile is 30-feet long, 8-feet wide, has a maximum depth of four feet and holds approximately 8,000 gallons of water. The floor of the pool is covered with a special surface to give excellent footing while walking through the water. A platform, running the entire length of the swimming area at the side of the unit, affords greater mobility for lifeguards while not interfering with swimming activity. This platform flips up into the pool and out of the way while the unit is in transit.

Another platform at the front of the Swimobile accommodates water heating and filtering equipment. Ladders at the rear of the pool give easy exit and entry into the water while a 2½ inch gate valve at the front of the unit facilitates filling from a fire hydrant or emptying. Leveling screws keep the water a constant level even if the ground is slightly uneven.

Swimobiles are built in various lengths at local Fruehauf branches and are built to suit customer specifications.

A LONG TIME TO SLEEP

When a blackguard serves notice of intent to desecrate—a thief to steal, or an arsonist to set the premises afire—intelligence decrees attention to his threat as more than the "harmless" ravings of a lunatic.

Thirty-nine years ago the Communist hierarchy was pointing out a phase of its blueprint for the world conquest through fake blandishments for "peace." The modus operandi today is self-evident if the world will look. Here was the formula:

"War between Communism and capitalism is inevitable. So we shall begin by launching the most spectacular peace movements on record. The capitalist countries, stupid and decadent, will rejoice to cooperate to their own destruction. As soon as their guard is down we shall smash them with our clenched fist."

That declaration of purpose was enunciated by Dmitry Manuilsky in 1930, speaking before the Lenin School of Political Warfare. Who then was listening? Three years later, long-standing U.S. policy was breached to admit the Kremlin to diplomatic fellowship—all in the name of "understanding" and "peace."

It is in point to remember the Manuilsky warning now—for all over the globe "peace strikes," demonstrations, picketing, etc., are occurring with regularity. And wherever such develop, gullible people fall for them. Sometimes the launching of a submarine—or the movement of military cargo—evokes protests by a mob, bearing signs extolling "peace." Or an American speaker is subject to jeers and catcalls—or the White House is picketed by crowds carrying placards accusing the United States as a "warmonger."

Soviet tactics—or those of its subversive stooges, or of its dupes—haven't changed. Thirty-nine years is a long time for any endangered people to sleep.

Condensed Story Of Earth and Man

Dr. John H. Rediske, former Atomic Energy Commission Fellow and now head of a forest tree science group at a large timber company, writes of people and resources in a manner that indelibly impresses a lay reader. He points out, "If one could compress all geological time, the 4.5 billion years since the earth was born, into one year some startling facts regarding the recency of life on this ball of rock would become evident. Let us assume that the earth is born on the first of January... It is May before single-celled living organisms appear in the warm sheltered coastal waters. In the first week of December the primeval forests rise from the lowlands. Twelve days later dinosaurs are roaming the earth and the first mammals appear the day after Christmas.

At 10 p.m. on December 31st primitive man makes his appearance. The pyramids are built a minute before midnight. Fifty-seven seconds later Christopher Columbus discovers America and we enter the Industrial Revolution about one second before the New Year."

These words of Dr. Rediske show how brief man's existence has been. He goes on to show that in spite of this briefness, man is multiplying at a rate and creating conditions that can terminate his sojourn on earth in a matter of seconds, geologically speaking. Again, he uses a dramatic analogy. To place population growth in an understandable framework, he compresses the 2000 years from the birth of Christ into one 24-hour day. And here is what he finds, beginning Sunday at 12 midnight. There are some 190 million people on the earth at that instant. At 7:48 Monday evening, nearly 20 hours later, the population has doubled. It doubles again only 2 hours later. And again in less than one hour. And yet again, at 11:36 p.m., the population doubles for the fourth time since Christ was born to yield the present figure of approximately three billion people.

Twenty-four minutes later, at midnight (the year 2000), it will double for the fifth time and six billion human beings will inhabit the earth. And by the year 2070, at the same rate of progression, the earth's population will be an incredible 25 billion!

Dr. Rediske then goes into the real stickler, the resources of nature, about which most of us know little or nothing that will be called upon to support the teeming billions of persons who are just over the horizon. He tells how the most essential element of life, oxygen, is dependent upon photosynthetic activity of the seas, the forest and growing plants. Most of us think of these resources in terms of food and forest products. But one of their main functions is to provide oxygen for present and future generations. Observes Dr. Rediske, "It is alarming that, with his tremendous power to alter his environment, man does not even comprehend the questions involved in his survival, much less know the answers. Considering man's demonstrated talent for error, one might ask, half-seriously: 'Is there intelligent life on Earth?' and if so, does it know how long it plans to stay?"

Foreign attitudes toward the United States still appear to be "Leave Us A Loan." More people have died from stepping on the gas than from inhaling it.

Linda Hoedebeck And Gilbert Knabe Say Vows at Mass

Miss Linda Kay Hoedebeck became the bride of Gilbert Paul Knabe Saturday in Sacred Heart Church, the Rev. Placidus Eckart, pastor, officiating at the 4 p.m. nuptial Mass and double ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hoedebeck and Joe Knabe and the late Mrs. Knabe.

Wedding music was by Sacred Heart junior high girls' choir directed by Sister Maureen with Miss Janice Grewing organist. White gladioli, greenery and candles adorned the altar.

Presented by her father, the bride wore a gown of white peau de soie topped by a cage of Chantilly lace with long sleeves and chapel-length watteau train sprinkled with sequins and seed pearls.

Her veil was shoulder length and her flowers were a yellow-throated white orchid, valley lilies and stephanotis. For something old and borrowed she carried a rosary her mother carried at her wedding.

Mrs. Kenneth Reynolds of Forestburg, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor, Miss Terry Hoedebeck, bride's sister, and Miss Pauline Fleitman were bridesmaids.

They wore floor-length Empire gowns of pale blue satin and matching bow headpieces and carried nosegays of white carnations and fern.

Kenneth Reynolds was best man, Fred Knabe, a brother, and Pat Knabe, a cousin, were groomsmen. Paul Hoedebeck, bride's brother, and Andy Arendt Jr. of Lindsay, her cousin, ushered.

After Mass, Toni Ann Hoedebeck, small sister of the bride, presented her a bouquet of white gladioli which she placed on the Blessed Virgin's altar.

Wedding reception and buffet dinner were held in the Parish Hall where Miss Peggy Hoedebeck, another sister of the bride, and Miss Roberta Moster registered about 150 guests.

The bride's table, accented in white and blue decor with wedding bells and pompon mums, held the handsome three-tier cake, flanked by candles.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Hoedebeck wore a yellow and white two-piece linen suit with yellow and white accessories and a purple-throated white orchid corsage.

When the couple left on their honeymoon she was wearing a navy blue and white knit suit with matching accessories.

They will make their home in Fort Worth where he is employed at General Dynamics. He has completed a tour of duty in the Navy.

Out of Town Guests

Among out of town wedding guests were Mr. and Mrs. Larry Sanchez and Mrs. Mary Arroyo of Derby, Kansas, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hoedebeck of Denison, Jeannie Prescher and Linda Hacker of Valley View, Carol Pels, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Wimmer and Herman Spencer of Dallas, Joe Spurgeon of Oklahoma City.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hoedebeck and family, Jim Fuhrmann and Linden Morris of Irving, Mary Wimmer of Denton, Kenneth Cain, Donna Stoffels and Mark Tatarko of Fort Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Knabe and family of Nona.

Messrs. and Mmes. Leo Hoedebeck, Kenneth Hoedebeck and James Knabe and Diane Wiese of Gainesville, Messrs. and Mmes. Andy Arendt and A. C. Flusche of Lindsay and Vincent Forrester of Forestburg.

Richard Schoech Newlyweds, Feted At Shower Party

A come and go party and shower Sunday from 1 to 4 p.m. honored Mr. and Mrs. Richard Schoech of Austin, recently married couple who weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Schoech.

Sharing hostess duties in the Schoech home were Mrs. J. P. Kneupper of Gainesville, Mrs. Arthur Felderhoff and Mrs. Wilfred Reiter. They and Mrs. Schoech introduced the bride to some 40 relatives and friends who were guests.

Sherie Felderhoff assisted and Karolyn Schoech, Kim Reiter, Sandy Reiter and Gina Felderhoff presided at the refreshment table serving punch while guests helped themselves to finger foods.

Table centerpiece was composed of white gladioli, white iris and yellow Dutch iris.

Richard Schoech and Miss Sharon Ptee were married in Austin on March 29. Monday this week he reported for induction in the US Army. She will remain in Austin where she is working on a masters degree at the University of Texas.

Among guests at the party were the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Ptee and his mother, all of Dallas, Mrs. Walter Barry Jr. and son James, also of Dallas, Miss Frances Spaeth of Denison, and Richard's grandmother Mrs. George Spaeth of Lindsay.

Toy Racers Zip in Cub Pack's First Pinewood Derby

Excitement and suspense prevailed Monday night when Muenster Cub Scouts raced their miniature cars in the pack's first Pinewood Derby. It was held in SHH gym where Father Andrew Wewer and Cub dads had built a sloping eight-lane track 31 feet long.

Committee chairman Clyde Fisher introduced race officials Father Andrew and Mrs. Don Murch.

Cars of various shapes and colors had been carved by the youngsters for the event. They were weighed in by Glenn Richardson and raced in groups of eight. Small trophies were presented to winners in each den and Webelos.

First and second place winners in Den I were Bernie Fette and Gary Rohmer; in Den II, Matt Jaska and Billy Haverkamp; in Den III, Gary Hermes and Kent Wolf; in Den IV, Kent Fuhrman and Darrell Pagel; in Webelos, Dannie Fisher and Mike Hofbauer.

In the final race Dannie Fisher became the grand champion and received a Cub canteen and belt and Kent Fuhrman, runner-up, received a scout pocket knife.

Parents and family members were on hand to cheer and the Cub leaders and boys decided to have another race at the pack's May meeting.

The derby was a feature attraction of the April meeting at which Clyde Fisher presided and Cubmaster Alvin Hartman and Assistant Gerald Hess presented merit badges to Cubs and Webelos leader Don Murch presented Webelos awards.

Mrs. Charlie Pagel was named mother for Den IV succeeding Mrs. Denis Hofbauer whose son advanced to Webelos. Mrs. Albert Zimmerer furnished and served refreshments to the large group in attendance.

Winners and their badges for achievement are: Gary Rohmer and Neil Rohmer, Wolf; Bryan Sicking, Gary Rohmer and Neil Rohmer, Gold Arrow; Dale Wolf and Robert Hartman, Silver Arrow.

Achievement pins went to George Luke, showman; Robert Grewing, Scholar; and Mark Mollenkopf, Dannie Fisher, Bobby Schmitz, Mark Cler, Brent Hess, Bill Murch, Randy Williams, Bobby Endres, Danny Bindel, Charles Hess, Joey Sicking, Albert Zimmerer, George Luke and Robert Grewing, geologist.

Dale Cash and John Schneider received den chief cords.

The meeting opened with the Pledge of Allegiance and closed with the Scout Promise.

New Slant in Offshore Drilling

As many as 60 wells will be drilled from this single platform to be built in the Santa Barbara channel, Calif., by Sun Oil Co. — DX Division. The offshore platform features a tilted rig (see arrow) for drilling directional wells to shallow oil zones. Deep producing zones will be tapped by conventional drilling from the same offshore platform.

TULSA, OKLA. — The most modern methods of preventing water pollution while producing oil are being designed into the offshore platform which the DX Division of Sun Oil Co. will erect off the coast of Santa Barbara, Calif., this spring.

Instead of a forest of derricks, each with a potential for spilling oil, numerous wells will be drilled from a single platform to be built in 190-feet of water.

The structure, officially designated Platform Hillhouse, will be located on a tract leased from the Federal government last year for a bonus of more than $38,000,000 by a four-company combine composed of Sunray DX, Superior, Marathon and Sun Oil companies. Since the original leasing, Sun and Sunray have merged, and the project is being operated by Sun's DX Division with offices in Tulsa, and Ventura, Calif.

As many as 43 deep holes and 22 shallow wells can be drilled and produced from the platform which will have a helicopter landing pad and emergency living accommodations for 14 men.

Income Tax Refund
Normally Is Due
In about 10 Weeks

(Dallas, Texas) — Ten weeks from the date a Federal income tax return calling for a refund is mailed; the taxpayer has his check or a letter explaining why it is held up, Ellis Campbell, Jr., District Director of Internal Revenue for Northern Texas, said today.

For this reason, a taxpayer who has not heard about his refund should wait ten weeks before writing IRS. By waiting this length of time, most taxpayers will find their inquiry unnecessary, Mr. Campbell said. If it becomes necessary to write, the taxpayer should indicate where and when he filed his return and give his name, address and social security number, Mr. Campbell said.

Millions of tax returns are handled every filing season at the Austin Service Center which serves North Texas taxpayers. The volume of processing operations there makes it practically impossible for IRS to locate a particular return and to answer any question about it until processing is complete.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION
THE STATE OF TEXAS

TO: Orrie A. McCrea, Defendant, Greeting:
YOU ARE HEREBY COMMANDED to appear before the Honorable 16th District Court of Cooke County at the Courthouse thereof, in Gainesville, Texas, by filing a written answer at or before 10 o'clock A.M. of the first Monday next after the expiration of forty-two days from the date of the issuance of this citation, same being the 19th day of May A.D. 1969, to Plaintiff's Petition filed in said court on the 24th day of March A. D. 1969, in this cause, numbered 69-053 on the docket of said court and styled JIMMIE LOUISE MCCREA, Plaintiff, vs. ORRIE A. MCCREA, Defendant.

A brief statement of the nature of this suit is as follows, to wit: Suit for Divorce as is more fully shown by Plaintiff's Petition on file in this suit.

If this citation is not served within ninety days after date of its issuance, it shall be returned unserved.

The officer executing this writ shall promptly serve the same according to requirements of law, and the mandates hereof, and make due return as the law directs. Issued and given under my hand and the seal of said court at Gainesville, Texas, this 4th day of April A.D. 1969.

Notaries Public
Told to File for Re-Appointment

Secretary of State Martin Dies, Jr., announced that all qualified Notaries Public desiring re-appointment for the new term which begins June 1, 1969 and ends June 1, 1971, must pay the required fee and file a new oath and bond with the County Clerk between May 1, 1969 and May 15, 1969, inclusive.

Mr. Dies emphasized that Notaries Public should not send requests for re-appointment or for commissions directly to the Secretary of State inasmuch as the law specifically requires that the County Clerk approve Notary Bonds and forward copies of the Application to the Secretary of State.

Secretary of State Dies further stated that any person not now a Notary Public who desires appointment for the beginning of the new term on June 1, 1969, should apply to his County Clerk before May 16, 1969. The applicant must be at least 21 years of age, a citizen of the United States of America and Texas, and a resident of the county for which appointed. The required Application Forms may be obtained from the County Clerk.

Twin Sisters, 86 Feted at Separate Birthday Parties

Muenster's oldest living twins, Mrs. John Walter and Mrs. I. A. Schoech, who observe their birthdays on April 26, celebrated at separate parties. They were 86.

Mrs. Schoech is visiting in Fort Worth with a daughter and family, the Ferd Yostens, and they were hosts at an open house from 2 to 4 p.m.

Some 30 guests attended, presented gifts and had refreshments of birthday cake and other party foods.

Father Littekin, pastor of St. Paul's, the hosts' parish, and the School Sisters of Notre Dame were special guests.

Miss Suzy Yosten helped her mother with the serving.

Mrs. John Walter's party, also an open house from 2 to 4, was held in the home of her daughter and family, the Paul Endreses.

Daughters, daughters-in-law and granddaughters called, presented gifts and helped eat birthday cake and other refreshments. The cakes were baked by Mrs. Frank Bayer and Mrs. Endres.

Mrs. Walter, the former Susie Trachta, and Mrs. Schoech, the former Dina Trachta, are natives of Minnesota but residents of Muenster since they were seven years old and the community was two years old. Mrs. Schoech is a widow. Mr. and Mrs. Walter still live alone and do their household tasks with assists from their children. Mr. Walter will be 93 on May 11. He's Muenster's oldest citizen.

Fred W. Herr, 81 Birthday Honoree

Fred W. Herr was the honoree at a family gathering Sunday afternoon in the home of his granddaughter Mrs. Harry Scoggins and family. It was a birthday celebration for Mr. Herr who was 81 Monday. Joining the Muenster relationship in presenting gifts and having refreshments were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Albers and Robert Albers and daughter Renee of Lewisville, Mrs. Eddie Jakubec, daughter Joann and son Charles of Dallas and Mr. and Mrs. Herbie Herr of Gainesville.

Inspection Also Recommended For Human Body

An annual inspection is routinely required for all motor vehicles in Texas, but the human body doesn't get the same consideration.

Most adults go along year after year without seeing a doctor unless they become sick or have an accident.

The Texas State Department of Health says most people fail to realize that if a regular inspection is important for a car, it is absolutely vital for the human machine.

You may have some early disease and not even know it. Unless this hidden condition is found and treated, chances are it will become more serious and more difficult to control.

A regular check-up by a doctor is a good opportunity to get sound medical advice on your needs, based on his professional evaluation of your state-of-health. You may need medical advice about the food you eat, the exercise you should take, and other habits which can help or hinder you in your search for good health.

Even if you are already under treatment, perhaps it has been too long since your last visit to the doctor. Your condition may have changed for the better or worse.

Perhaps your regimen needs to be changed or your medicines — if you are taking any — need to be readjusted in dosage or kind. Not all medicines are to be taken indefinitely.

Also, new diagnostic aids and medicines are now available which the doctor may want to prescribe.

Perhaps you had an illness and overcame it. It is possible the condition could recur.

One big advantage of a complete physical examination at regular intervals is the knowledge that you are in fit physical shape. If you have an illness, it is consoling to know that everything possible is being done to keep it under control.

There is no set schedule of how often you should have a check-up, but it should be regular. Let your doctor set the schedule for you. At the end of the examination he can suggest the time for the next check-up.

Dear Internal Revenue Service: I dislike everything about your service. Therefore, this is to inform you that I wish to cancel all further services expressed or implied.

Brazos Electric To Add 125,000 KW Power Generator

Mr. Truett W. Bailey, President of the Brazos Electric Power Cooperative, Inc., speaking at the Cooperative's 28th annual meeting Wednesday in Waco, announced that a new 125,000 KW electric turbine generator has been ordered for the Randle W. Miller plant on Lake Palo Pinto near Mineral Wells. The new unit is scheduled to begin generating for the Cooperative in 1973.

Mr. Bailey reminded his audience "that in 1936 there were no electric cooperatives and in rural areas there was no electricity. Rural electric cooperatives changed all that — electricity on the farm is an accepted 'expected' way of life." He emphasized that the major problem still facing rural electric cooperatives is that while they own 42% of all electric distribution lines, they serve less than 10% of the nation's electric load. He also stated that the rural electric cooperatives served only two and one-half consumers per mile of line while in urban areas there were from thirty to thirty-five customers per mile.

Mr. Bailey pointed to one of the stated objectives nationally — "rural electric cooperatives must achieve influence, control or ownership of an assured and adequate source of wholesale power in order to provide low-cost total electric service in the rural area."

"We of Brazos take pride in having had this objective well in mind for twenty-eight years" — concluded Mr. Bailey.

Hollis A. Dalton, General Manager of Brazos, spoke of the Cooperative's growth and the increased use of power by Cooperative members, which has doubled in less than 10 years. In 1960 the average consumer used only 365 KWH monthly compared to 752 KWH per month in 1968.

The Cooperative's growth was also related to the recent addition to the Cooperative's headquarters building at 2404 LaSalle which has been expanded from 15,000 sq. ft. to 23,500 sq. ft. Mr. Dalton attributed the expansion need to the enlarged data processing department and the growth of the new area and industrial development department.

Poisoning Is Rare From Frozen Food Says Health Dept.

AUSTIN — Can you get food poisoning from frozen food? If frozen food thaws out, should it be destroyed? Can you refreeze meat that has thawed out?

State Health Department officials say these questions persist, although frozen foods have become an integral part of modern-day living. Properly stored, handled and prepared, frozen foods will serve you and your family well.

Food poisoning, originating from frozen foods, is a rarity. Processors are careful to prepare and freeze their products at the peak of freshness, insuring that bacteria are at a minimum. The very act of freezing the food suppresses the ability of the bacteria to multiply. Not until food temperatures rise and conditions become favorable to growth of the bacteria do they begin multiplying.

And what about frozen foods that have thawed out... must they be destroyed? Not necessarily. After all, they must be thawed before they can be cooked and eaten. If foods have been thawed only for a short time, they may be safely eaten. The important question is how long they have been thawed and how high the temperature has been.

If the temperature went no higher than 45 degrees, the foods may be maintained at this level for several days, but should not be refrozen.

Is it ever safe to refreeze meat that has thawed out? Refreezing meat is permissible if the meat was fresh at original freezing and if it was thawed for only a short period. There may, however, be some degrading of flavor and quality with the second freezing.

The risk in refreezing cured or smoked meats is greater. These meats may be slightly spoiled even though there is no discoloration, off-odor or other signs of spoilage.

Can you determine the quality of frozen food simply by looking at it? Loss of quality — resulting from improper handling or extended storage — is usually indicated by loss of flavor and color. (This is particularly true of vegetables.) Orange juice, as it deteriorates, tends to separate and "settle out" rapidly when reconstituted. Cream sauces appear curdled and the liquid begins to separate.

To preserve the quality of frozen foods, store them at the lowest possible temperature, and when you transport them from the store to your freezer, do so as quickly as possible. Rising temperatures cause chemical changes which influence the food's flavor and quality.

WASHINGTON AND SMALL BUSINESS

Happy 72nd Birthdays

All persons in poor or moderate circumstances who reach 72 this year should rejoice.

Because the government says that as soon as anyone reaches the age of 72 they can work their heads off, if they like, with no penalties.

But there are signs that the new administration will take action on revamping the operation of Social Security, long voted for by the nation's independent businessmen.

As the law now stands, any person 65 or over cannot earn more than $1680 per year without losing part of the Social Security benefits. In the last Congress the Senate wanted to raise this to $2400, but labor pressure in the House held the limit to the lower figure.

But on the other hand, if a person reaching 65 has an unlimited income from stocks, bonds, real estate, or other investments, that person can still draw full benefits. This has resulted in the strange paradox of millionaires drawing full Social Security benefits.

This regulation applies not only to retired workers, but also to qualified widows, but when a widow does reach the age of 72 she can step out and carve out a new career for herself. Thus, it might be said that from the viewpoint of Social Security life begins at 72.

This rather fantastic regulation is a holdover from the confusion of the Depression.

years of the Thirties when there was mass unemployment.

The thought was that if older workers were encouraged by Social Security to retire, then younger people would have a chance at the then scarce jobs. In addition, the government at that time needed more tax income to borrow for other purposes. Hence, Social Security was sold as an insurance plan whereby both the worker and his employer, or employers, jointly paid the premiums.

But even this myth has now been exploded. When the Federation research staff recently published an analysis showing that the young worker today could not live long enough to collect the taxes collected from him and his employer, plus accumulated interest, the Social Security Commissioner attacked the supporting figures in public print. Commissioner Ball flatly stated that the Social Security Taxes collected from the employer are not credited to the account of any particular employee.

Thus, perhaps for the first time, it was publicly acknowledged by the Social Security administration that the tax on the employer is a general welfare tax. Thus, with this tax scheduled to increase periodically over the next few years, it can also be considered that Social Security taxes are a form of built-in inflation, as any increase in the cost of employing people must necessarily result in increased prices for the goods produced.

Salvation Army Regrets Delay in Pick Up Service

Word from Salvation Army headquarters in Dallas expresses regret at being unable to service this area with pickup service of discards on the date previously announced.

Brigadier William A. Browning, commanding officer of the men's rehabilitation Center in Dallas said he understood the inconvenience that this might cause and said the reason for the truck's failure to arrive was a shortage of drivers.

The Salvation Army truck will be in Muenster on Monday, May 12, according to presently drawn up schedules. Residents who have items to give should call 759-4311.

In the meantime he offered suggestions: Place only small articles in the pickup boxes. Please do not stack large items or boxed clothing outside the box. Rain can ruin clothing and furniture exposed to the weather and creates an unsightly look in the area where the boxes are located. Instead call 759-4311 for a truck pickup.

And please do not leave old papers, catalogues and magazines in the drop boxes. The Salvation Army at this time is not soliciting scrap paper.

Winter discards, clothing, appliances and furniture will continue to be of use. These are refurbished at the Center.

The Center helps over 1000 men each year. Discards fully sustain the program of rehabilitation for homeless, handicapped men of North Texas. The repair of discards also helps these men learn useful trades which help them become self-supporting upon graduation.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Mullins spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Mullins and son Craig.

Among those attending Gainesville Council of Garden Clubs' flower Show were Mmes. Joe Luke, Tony Gremminger, Frank Yosten and Steve Mosler.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Swirczynski spent last weekend in Amarillo with their son and wife the Clifford Swirczynskis. On the way they stopped at Oklahoma City where another son, Brother Gerald joined them on the trip.

This compact unit produces 10,000 gallons per day of high-purity drinking water from brackish wells. It also can produce brine, or concentrate maple sap.

There used to be a saying among the 180 residents of Bessie, Oklahoma, that the strongest drink in town was a glass of water. It was no joke. The water WAS so strong — because the only source was brackish local wells — that drinking water was imported in tank trucks. The well water was good only for sanitary purposes and firefighting.

Today the story is different. A compact machine in a small building near the well makes the difference. Using reverse osmosis, a fundamental process of nature through which plants and animals assimilate moisture and nourishment, the small unit literally squeezes the badness out of the local water and produces 10,000 gallons of pure water a day.

What's more, the reverse osmosis unit, which was provided by Gulf General Atomic, a subsidiary of Gulf Oil Corporation, has low energy requirements compared to other water conversion processes. This is because the process does not require a phase change, such as boiling or freezing. A semi-permeable membrane is used, so the feed solution remains a liquid throughout treatment.

This membrane, which looks like a transparent kitchen food wrap, is spiral wound and sealed in a tube in the ROGA® pressure module. Under pressure, pure water molecules diffuse through the membrane leaving molecules of dissolved impurities behind.

At Bessie, the result is that the dissolved-solids count drops from 3,500 parts per million to 50 parts per million and is essentially no hardness. The U.S. Public Health Service considers 500 parts per million the upper limit for good drinking water.

For Bessie residents — and their counterparts wherever brackish water predominates — the significance is the opportunity for sparkling "home-made" water.

But the unit also has other applications: In West Virginia, one is treating acid mine water; in Los Angeles County, one is under test in a sewage treatment plant; elsewhere, units have been used to produce brine, to concentrate maple sap, and to provide high-purity water for electronic component manufacturing baths.

For further information on water improvement programs, contact Gulf General Atomic, San Diego, California 92112.

Junior - Senior Banquet and Prom Held at Lindsay

Lindsay High School's 1969 Junior-Senior Banquet was held in the Petroleum Club at Gainesville and combined class night features in the after-dinner program.

The prom followed in the Lindsay Gym where an Oriental theme prevailed featuring a tea house and Oriental garden. The Sunset Beacon of Fort Worth provided the music.

The banquet began at 6 p.m. with invocation by Father John Walbe. The program consisted of welcome by Sam Bezner, response by Roy Hellinger, tributes by Hank Arendt, senior poem by Susan Bengfort, prophecy by Marilyn Hundt, parade of seniors by Christine Bengfort, last will and testament by Barbara Sandmann and farewell by Sam Bezner.

The astronaut was poised for his lunch when a reporter asked, "How do you feel?" "How would you feel," the astronaut replied, "if you were sitting on top of 15,000 parts —each supplied by the lowest bidder?" Women might not be able to add, but they can certainly distract.
