

One of the disturbing developments in Washington these days is the negotiation for a new treaty concerning the Panama Canal, especially that part of the deal which concerns how long it will be before we give up all our rights to the canal.

The mere fact that the subject is under consideration is a major shocker to most of us Americans. We are terrified by the thought of what can happen to our east-west shipping, and even more so, what can happen to our national security, if some government of the future denied us use of the canal.

We know, of course, that Communists have their subversive campaigns going strong in the Latin Americas. And we don't need to be told that Panama will become the priority candidate for a take over as soon as it becomes the custodian of a piece of property so vital to the economic and military welfare of this country.

The outlook is not at all improved by the fact that Panama's present government is a revolutionary regime with little hope of stability. On its own merit it is hardly qualified to assure that it can maintain the conditions of the treaty. And it is even less qualified in view of the certainty that the Red conspiracy would exploit its weakness in order to take over.

There's an infuriating disposition about this issue which ought to bring every red blooded American to his senses. We have people who through fuzzy thinking or malice go along with the claim that we have no right to the big ditch and ought to give it back to the Panamanians. It's the well known game of trying to establish a guilt complex and then exploit it. The stunt is not only brazen, it's absurd by the standards of the very people who try to put it over. Imagine: while communists are gobbling up real estate on all parts of the earth their stooges over here point the accusing finger at us for owning a bit of land.

Of course the important point in this issue is our method of acquiring the canal zone. If we had taken it by conquest, as so many countries do, we might feel that we have no right to it. But US did not seize it. Instead it paid the government of Panama for the right to develop the Zone and then bought the entire area from private land owners. It was the most costly territorial purchase in our history.

Furthermore it continues to be an expensive deal. US doesn't derive any income from the canal. Every dollar of revenue goes back into operations and maintenance. Besides that, Panama receives a half million dollars annually from the tolls plus $1.5 million from the US treasury. Our country is Panama's biggest employer, paying $166 million a year into the Panamanian economy.

We have to admit that we're kicking in a lot of money, and ordinarily we'd welcome the opportunity to dump such a burden, but this is the price we pay to keep our shipping lanes and defense lanes open. From that viewpoint it's a bargain. Any public figure who considers letting Panama take charge is doing this country a great disservice.

In these times of growing Red hostility, based on increasing might on land, sea and air, it is most important to our national security to carefully avoid weakening our own power. We'd be sticking out our necks most foolishly by turning over the operation of the canal to anyone but ourselves.

Without belittling Panama's integrity we ought to realize that it would instantly become a poor risk. Communist pressure would increase enormously, and suddenly we might discover that the canal we built and paid for, which is vital to our welfare, has become the property of our enemy. How long then until our ships would be forced to take the long trip around South America?

As we see the proposition, it is hard to imagine any kind of reasoning to support any kind of deal which would decrease our control over the canal zone.

Bake Sale Dec. 23

Sacred Heart seniors will sponsor a benefit Christmas bake sale Thursday, Dec. 23, with home baked goodies available at Hofbauer's and Fishers from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Santa Claus Is Coming To Town

A big day for the little kids is on schedule Saturday when Santa Claus will be in town as a guest of the Muenster Jaycees.

An announcement by Steve Hess early this week reveals that the jolly old fellow will arrive about 3:30 o'clock, using the city fire truck as a substitute for his sleigh and reindeer. He'll be parked in the middle of Main Street in front of Hamrics.

The Jaycees invite all children of the area, especially the tiny tots, to come and visit with Santa and tell him first hand what they want for Christmas. He'll have candy for all of them.

Area Welcomes Clear Weather

Another return of fair weather Wednesday has the community guessing. Will it last this time, or is it just another short break in the dreary stuff? According to Steve Moser's records, the month so far as had 10 days of rain and 5 of shine.

Following a reading of 1.25 inch last Friday it seemed that clear weather had finally arrived. But it did not last. Readings were .02 Tuesday and .32 Wednesday, the latter rain being accompanied by blustery winds — but fortunately no damage beyond breaking tree limbs.

The moisture record now stands at 4.76 for December and 38.99 for the year.

The little children will enact the Christmas Story.

On the afternoon of Tuesday, Dec. 21, all grades will have their Christmas parties in their classrooms with a decorated tree, gift exchange, games and refreshments.

The high school party sponsored by the Student Council will be held on the evening of Wednesday, Dec. 22, beginning with carolling around town at 6:30 followed by refreshments at 7:15 in the student lounge and concluding with a skating party from 8 to 10:30.

Senior girls are decorating the tree and art students are decorating the school hallways.

Conservation District Sponsors Twelfth Annual Essay Contest

J. H. Bayer, chairman of the board of directors of the Upper Elm-Red Soil and Water Conservation District, has announced that the local district will sponsor the 12th Annual Essay Contest in the field of soil, water, and plant conservation.

Dates for the contest start now through January 31, 1972. The rules of this contest are very simple. Any boy or girl residing in the Upper Elm-Red Soil and Water Conservation District who is not more than 19 years of age, in or out of school, but not a high school graduate may enter.

This year's subject is "Conservation — The Key to Survival." Bayer suggested that contestants not write a technical paper on how to conserve the soil, water and plants, but rather be original and use their imagination to describe how soil, water and plants will provide the key to survival.

Bayer stated, "The Upper Elm-Red Soil and Water Conservation District will give incentive awards for each winner as follows: first prize, $15.00; second prize, $10.00; third prize, $5.00." Last year the district board received 246 entries. The board expressed a desire to have 750 essays this year. Some districts have more than 1000 essays each year.

All essays will be judged locally in the Upper Elm-Red Soil and Water Conservation District Contest. The champion essay of the district will be sent to Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce for entry in the state-wide contest where entries will be considered for the $100 first prize and a beautiful trophy. In addition to the grand prize in the state, there will be regional winners and trophies for fifteen other essay writers.

Bayer urged every Vocational Agriculture instructor in the three-county district along with all the English instructors to use this essay contest as an incentive in urging their students to write a good composition as well as strengthen the student's mind in the field of soil, water, and plant conservation.

Send entries of 300 words or less to J. H. Bayer, Route 2, Muenster, Texas 76252, prior to January 31, 1972. The essay must have name, address and name of school plainly written on the front page or attached thereto.

Luck is a hit or miss affair, but it is usually with the folks who don't count on it.

Herbert Knabe is the new chief succeeding Walter Bartel. Ricky Stewart is assistant chief succeeding Knabe; Ervin Henscheid is secretary-treasurer succeeding Jim Voth and Bartel is the new three-year trustee succeeding Ed Schneider.

Noel Display Dominates The Sky Over Muenster

Like the biblical star in the East which marked the birth place of the Savior on the first Christmas, an outstanding light marks the city of Muenster this Christmas.

Surpassing the hopes of those who promoted it, the lighting arrangement over 100 feet high on the city water tank is both distinctive and good looking. It is visible for miles to the south, east and west appearing as a light in the sky. The tank on which it is mounted is not visible at a distance in the night.

As one comes closer the cluster of lights takes shape and spells out NOEL. The word is spelled in yellow lights, that color being favored because it penetrates the darkness farther. Also a part of the display is a double row of red lights surrounding the water tank and three single strings of lights around the tank tower, one at each level of horizontal braces.

The display is a part of the new Christmas look planned for Muenster this year by Ernest Jaska and Bertha Hamric of the Chamber of Commerce. Another change applies to streamers across Main Street and the highway. Instead of stretching straight across, the strings of lights now have supporting brackets angling the strings downward at the ends. Also the lights are livened by flashers.

Street lighting was done at Thanksgiving but the water tower lighting was delayed two weeks by bad weather. They were erected last Thursday when a break in the wea-

Bloodmobile Will Be Here Wednesday

Residents of the Muenster Hospital District and others served by Muenster Memorial Hospital will make another deposit next Wednesday in their Red Cross blood bank.

The occasion is a visit to the community by a bloodmobile from the Red Cross regional blood bank center at Wichita Falls.

Facilities for donating blood will be set up in the K of C hall from 2 to 7 p.m. The late hour is scheduled for the convenience of those who want to come after work.

An urgent plea for people to make a special effort to remember and come is issued this week by the program's local chairman, J. W. Fisher and the local custodian David Bright. They point out that the community's quota is 80 units and, by the law of averages, about 100 volunteers will be needed. The reason is that some cannot be accepted as donors because of their medical history or their physical condition at the time. Each volunteer is examined and questioned before blood is accepted as a precaution against transmitting disease.

In addition to the general appeal the sponsors are preparing to send special letters to persons who have received some of the free blood and to persons who have contributed in the past.

The community blood bank is sponsored locally by the Knights of Columbus and the Veterans of Foreign Wars. Its purpose is to provide quality blood without cost to the persons participating in the program. Since the blood is given by the donor there is no charge to the receiver. However there is a charge for the blood bank's expense of collecting, storing and delivering and the hospital's expense of typing and transfusing. Normally these costs are about $30 lower than when blood is supplied by a commercial blood bank. Another local benefit is the hospital's saving of about $150 per month in stocking fees.

Muenster is one of a number of communities participating in the Red Cross blood bank system through the Wichita Falls center. Within that system bloodmobile visits are scheduled regularly so that each community in its turn provides fresh blood for all the others. Quotas are based on each community's use for the preceding year.

Recommended ages for blood donations are 18 through 65. Under age persons will need the consent of a parent or guardian. Over age persons are expected to have written approval from their personal physicians.

The bloodmobile staff will be headed by registered nurses and technicians from the Wichita blood center. They will be assisted by local nurses who will check on physical qualifications and medical records of the volunteers, and Hospital Auxiliary members who will register the volunteers and serve coffee and doughnuts.

Bro. Thomas Mosler Earns MA Degree In Speech, Drama

Brother Thomas Mosler will receive a Master of Arts degree in speech and drama from North Texas State University, Denton, during winter commencement exercises December 22.

Extensive research and travel to Germany enabled him to write his thesis — a requisite for the degree — on the 300-year-old Passion Play in Germany and the twentieth century Passion Play in Eureka Springs, Arkansas. Entitled "A Comparison of the Staging of the Passion Plays of Oberammergau, Germany, and Mount Oberammergau, U.S.A.," the 227 page thesis presents a verbal and pictorial comparison of the plays.

Brother Thomas has a BS degree in secondary education from NTSU, and has been on the faculty of Sacred Heart Schools for the past 10 years. Presently he is head of the English and Speech Departments at Sacred Heart High.

He is also advisor for the school publications, "Mosaics" and "Cordis," is sponsor for the senior class, the National Forensic League, and the National Thespian Society.

In addition, Brother Thomas is sacristan of Sacred Heart Church, director of altar boys, and has assisted in other parish work during the past 16 years.

In June he was commissioned by Bishop John Casata to distribute Holy Communion. The commission is for a three year period.

When Sacred Heart Parish celebrated its 75th anniversary in 1964, he wrote "A Diamond Jubilee History of Sacred Heart Parish, Muenster, Texas, 1889-1964." He wrote the section from 1939 to 1964, adding it to the Golden Jubilee history written by Father Joseph Fuhrmann in 1939.

Crucial Differences

The noted columnist Mr. Max Lerner questions the assumption that the U. S. is going the way of Rome. He says, "Rome had no innovative science and technology as America has, no emphasis on productivity, no widespread diffusion of living standards and higher education, no dominant middle class, no open-class system of mobility, no constitutional vitality, no deep-rooted democratic tradition, no strong civilian control over military praetorianism."

Mr. Lerner stresses another difference between contemporary civilization and Rome — that difference is energy. How many of us stop to think that in the days of the Roman Empire energy was the product of sheer manpower? There was no Thomas Edison to visualize the miracle of electric power and to devise a way to translate that vision into a great energy industry.

Today, civilizations live on energy, and the U. S. is the greatest producer of energy. Its hundreds of electric power companies pushing ahead on every front to produce the great quantity of energy that will be needed in the future, utilizing both nuclear and fossil-fueled plants, presents a convincing refutation of attempts to draw parallels between the civilization of Rome and that of our own country.

After a newscast Sunday morning we listened to two speakers, one who was an authority on the Bible, the other an authority on Social Security. We were struck by the thought: In these confused times, which are most adults most deeply concerned with, Spiritual Security or Social Security?

THE INFORMED CONSUMER

Attorney General of Texas

Have a Wary Merry Christmas

Happy holidays can be marred by unscrupulous businessmen who take advantage of consumer ignorance. My staff and I take the following method to bring to your attention some things of which you should be aware while you are Christmas shopping and also to extend our best wishes to you during the holiday season.

Manufacturer's prices printed on cartons, packages, or labels are often used on cheap items such as cuff links, imitation pearls, billfolds, Christmas cards and Christmas wrapping paper to give the illusion of bargains. Don't be fooled by misleading manufacturer's prices.

Expect that the popularly advertised toys will be featured as leaders at deep-cut prices almost everywhere. The so-called "list prices" will be totally meaningless as a basis for competitive pricing.

Remember to save your sales slips. Don't discard them until you are sure the product you purchased is satisfactory.

Refunds and exchanges are privileges granted by some firms. They are not a customer right. (Refunds and exchanges depend on store policy.) If you expect these privileges, have a definite agreement and a thorough understanding.

You should select your Christmas purchases carefully so that exchanges, adjustments or returns won't be necessary.

Carefully read all papers you are asked to sign and keep copies of them.

High pressure sales tactics are used by unethical firms and individuals to sell inferior merchandise. Don't fall victim to high pressure salesmanship.

Read ads carefully. If they sound too good to be true, they probably are. Enticing ads may be designed to lure you into the store so you can be talked into a more expensive purchase. Learn to recognize illegal "bait and switch" methods.

If you pay an advance deposit on the lay-a-way plan or otherwise, be sure that you can and will go through with the deal. If you change your mind later on, or if you are unable to take the merchandise out as you have agreed, you may sacrifice your deposit.

Shop at reliable stores with established reputations. Seasonal stores and vendors won't be around after the holidays to service complaints.

Take your time — never buy in a hurry and regret it later.

Make sure you understand the terms of a guarantee and remember guarantees are as good, or as poor, as the company making them. Guarantees should always be in writing. Guarantees should tell by whom, for how long, what parts, and for whose lifetime.

All sales are final unless a definite agreement exists to the contrary. Some shoppers seem to think contracts are binding only on the "other fellow." Contracts are two-way streets, binding on both parties.

Send complaints about false or deceptive Christmas sales practices to the Consumer Protection Division, Office of the Attorney General, P. O. Box 12548, Capitol Station, Austin, Texas 78711.

"Can you enlarge this picture of my son?" asked the woman of the clerk in the photo-shop. "We can, madam," was the reply. "And could you remove his hat in the enlargement?" she wanted to know. "That can be done, madam," said the clerk. "But how is his hair — is it parted, straight back, are curly?" "Don't be silly!" snapped the woman. "You can see that for yourself when you get the hat off!"

Yes, There Are Welfare Cheats

Ever try to tell a liberal that there are at least a few people on the welfare rolls that shouldn't be, only to be answered with a claim that this or that study has shown virtually everyone on welfare is beyond hope?

Next time, tell him that since New York State began requiring employable welfare recipients to pick up their checks at state employment offices (and perhaps be given jobs as a consequence), 20% of the recipients have decided that they could survive without their checks after all. At first shrugged off by bureaucrats as attributable to the confusion of a new system, the rate has consistently stayed the same since July 1, when it began.

Extending Our Reach

Very shortly, many of the space program's skeptics could easily owe their lives to by-products of space flight. For instance, a small but powerful torch adapted from a space program rocket motor has been developed for patrolmen to use in cutting victims free of cars crushed in traffic accidents. Another device contributing to highway safety is a shock absorber system developed by a major space and commercial manufacturing concern for use on highway guard rails. The system cushions shock so effectively that a 60-mile-per hour impact on this guard rail has the effect of only a five-mile-per-hour impact against solid surface. The shock absorber system is similar to that used under astronaut couches in the Apollo command ships. Then, there are ball bearings the size of pin points, developed for use in satellites, but now finding their way into improved dental drills that reduce pain and eliminate the sense of vibration and grinding.

Everyone instinctively, whether they realize it or not, reaches for a better future. The space program has lengthened that reach immeasurably.

Garden Club Has Program of Color Christmas Slides

Muenster Garden Club had a Christmas program of colored slides and commentary at their December meeting Monday. Shirley Carter, home service adviser for Texas Power and Light Company, gave the program. Mrs. H. H. Houtchens and Mrs. Paul Endres were co-hostesses in TP&L community room and served holiday refreshments as members and guests arrived. Mrs. Carter showed slides of "The Trees of Christmas" from many countries and all parts of America; Christmas customs from around the world and those dear to Americans, and Christmas lighting, interior and exterior. She handed out pamphlets on decorations and lighting and displayed equipment for lighting - various bulbs, flood lights, etc.

Mrs. Arthur Endres, president, conducted a brief business session, and Sister Mary John Seyler led the opening prayer.

The pretty refreshment table, covered with a floor-length green cloth, was centered with an arrangement of dark red mums, Nandina berries and greenery. At either end were the punch service and coffee service. Mrs. Houtchens poured the cranberry punch and Mrs. Endres presided at the silver coffee service. Those attending helped themselves to small round sandwiches, fruit cake, nuts and mints.

Nineteen were present including three guests, Mrs. Alvin Fuhrman who signed up as a new member, and Miss Sylvia Hofbauer and J. M. Weinzapfel.

Choir at Valley View

Sacred Heart men's choir was in Valley View Sunday to sing the 9 a.m. high Mass there. Father Anthony Gajda, pastor of St. John's Church, in his sermon welcomed the choir and praised their efforts in spreading the message of adoring and honoring God through song by their singing in neighboring parishes. He strongly urged his parishioners to form a choir stressing that a choir performs an integral part of the liturgy of the Mass, especially a high Mass. A social hour hosted by the parish followed with about 40 Muenster people present.

Round of Parties Will End Classes At Public School

Parties in all of the grades will accompany the shut-down of classes for the Christmas holidays at Muenster Public School.

They will begin Friday night with a dance for high school classes in the gymnasium. Along with dancing the plan includes a Christmas tree, refreshments provided by the teachers, and a variation of the gift exchange custom. Instead of giving to each other, students will bring gifts for later delivery to the state school at Denton.

Gifts at the junior high party Tuesday afternoon will also be for the state school children. The party will be in the lunch room, following assembly with band concert, and will include a film and games, plus refreshments to be provided by teachers.

Likewise, lower grade children will be treated by their teachers. And they will have a gift exchange and games in their classrooms.

After the parties school will be dismissed for the holidays - until Monday, Jan. 3. Teachers will get out a day later. Wednesday is one of the extra days for them, until 1:15 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Harris have had as their guests for a week her sisters Mrs. Alma Sloan of Fort Worth and Mrs. Josephine Millsap of Hammond, Ind.

Fred Allen was listening to a longwinded speaker. After an hour the orator said, "Now, to make a long story short - "It's too late now," rebutted Allen.

Sacred Heart Hi Teams Drop Three TISC Contests

The Tigers and Tigerettes of Sacred Heart lost three conference games in basketball during the past week.

Their first was a crushing of 65-24 dealt by the Cistercian Hawks. It was a matter of the Irving fellows scoring almost at will and going steadily throughout the game. Top Tigers scorer was Gary Endres with 11.

Monday night Greenhill's teams came to Sacred Heart for a double win - 34-15 in the girls game and 66-44 in the boys game.

Miserable shooting was the big problem for the Tigerettes. They did a fair job of bringing the ball down the floor but failed consistently to score when they got in position. They made only three field goals and nine free throws while the visitors got 10 and 14.

A similar problem bothers the Tigers. They too have improved considerably in ball handling but still do not have the range of the basket. Greenhill took charge at the beginning and gained through three periods, then put in its rookies and treated the Tigers to a fourth quarter of fairly even playing. Top scorers for Sacred Heart were Gary Endres 16, Ronnie Hess 12, Ricky Walterscheid 10.

Mrs. Felix Yosten Birthday Honoree

Spending the day in Dallas Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Felix Yosten, their son Tom of Fort Worth, home for the weekend and Miss Joyce Hellinger of Lindsay.

They drove to Love Field to meet the couple's daughter Gloria, Mrs. Bill Blanchard, airline stewardess, who flew in from San Francisco and had a 20-hour lay-over in Dallas.

Together they ate out in observance of Mrs. Yosten's Saturday birthday. Mrs. Blanchard provided the treat. The dinner was complete with a candle-topped cake.

Afterward they visited friends and the Yostens left Mrs. Blanchard at the home of a former Muenster schoolmate, Mrs. Peter Wall and her husband where she spent overnight.

Other birthday surprises for Mrs. Yosten came Saturday in long distance telephone calls from her daughters Misses Linda and Bernadette Yosten of Mountain View, Calif., and a sister Mrs. Lavel Kinstley of Addis, Louisiana.

SH Students Plan Special Liturgy

During Advent each school day at Sacred Heart High was begun with special Scripture readings by members of the sophomore and freshman classes.

For the 9:30 Mass on Wednesday, Dec. 22, juniors are preparing a special liturgy themed "A New Light," and for Midnight Mass on Christmas Eve representatives of the senior classes will participate in a special service liturgy.

Mrs. Jake Wolf has returned from a visit in Borger with her son and family, the Jim Wolfs. While there she was snowbound for a time and extended her visit.

Visitors in Muenster, guests of the Aubrey Tuggles, are their daughter Donna and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Vega and Nancy. They flew in from San Francisco Monday, were met at Dallas Love Field by her parents, and plan to spend a week.

Visiting several days the past week as houseguests of Mrs. J. B. Wilde were her aunt Katie, Mrs. Charlie Meurer of Windthorst and Mrs. Meurer's daughter and husband the Henry Thoeloes of Wichita Falls. They also visited around with the rest of the relationship.

Saint Jo Tourney Runner-Up Trophy Won by Hornets

Muenster High teams were edged by the champions in red hot games last week at the Saint Jo invitation tournament.

The Hornets lost 59-55 to Saint Jo's Panthers in the championship final and came home with a trophy for runner-up honor. The girls were less fortunate in that they lost in the semifinal and have no trophy to show for a fine game. However they were nudged 58-52 by Forestburg which breezed to a 52-18 win over Era in the champ final.

Along with the trophy MHS earned a couple of places on the all-tournament team selections. Jim Endres and Doris Felderhoff received the honors.

The opening game for the girls was with Lindsay for an easy 62-27 win. Doris Felderhoff led the scoring with 42. Dolly Bayer hit 9, Joyce Swirczynski 8 and Janet Swirczynski 3.

The next one was the champ semifinal with Forestburg, a nip and tuck contest all the way with scores of 12-12 and 31-31 ending the first two periods. The see-saw continued in the third quarter which ended with Forestburg 46-43 in the lead. There was more hot action in the final period until Doris Felderhoff fouled out with six minutes to go. After that Forestburg gained to the 6 point margin. Felderhoff scorched the net again with 41 points. Bayer made 5 Janet and Joyce Swirczynski made 4 and 2.

Likewise, the Hornets met Lindsay in the opener, surged to a half time lead of 36-18 and coasted to the 68-45 win. Mark Lippe and Ronnie Felderhoff tied for scoring honors with 19 each. Jim Endres got 8, Randy Wolf 7, Tom Otto, Ricky Swirczynski and Claude Klement, 4 each; Lonnie Hellman 2 and Jerry Eckart 1.

They also encountered Forestburg in the second game which turned out to be as tense as the girls' game. They trailed 18-8 at the first period, tied 25-25 at the half, led 44-38 at the third and held out for a 52-50 win. The result was extra pleasing because they lost 44-29 to the same team two weeks before. Endres had a big night for 23. Felderhoff hit 15, Lippe 10, Otto 2 and Wolf 2.

That advanced them to the champ final with Saint Jo for another thriller. After a slow start they trailed 23-15 at the first quarter and, following a strong second quarter they were behind 32-31 at half time. Ending the third they led 48-44 and held the lead until the last three minutes. From there on the Panthers surged ahead for the 59-55 final count. Endres was hot again for 22 points while Felderhoff made 13, Lippe 8, Wolf 8, Otto 2 and Swirczynski 2.

4-H's Give Skit At Club Meeting

Members of Muenster Community 4-H Club at their December meeting saw a skit that a group of junior members presented as their entry in the Share the Fun contest at CCJC on Dec. 14.

Craig Rosenbaum, assistant county agent, and four adult leaders attended the meeting for which 26 members were present including Damian

Luke, a new member.

Mary Lou Fleitman, president, presided; Barbie Davidson gave the inspiration; Lenora Fleitman reported on the county council meeting and Barbie Davidson reported on the County 4-H Horse Club meeting.

Pat Davidson led Christmas songs and the group enjoyed popcorn balls provided by the Davidsons. Mike Davidson is club reporter.

Parochial Cagers Lose 4 Games in S & S Tournament

Basketball teams of Sacred Heart High each lost a pair of games in the S&S invitation tournament during the past weekend. The girls in their opener came from behind to tie Whitesboro B in the final quarter but they could not get ahead. Whitesboro hit the winning field goal with 14 seconds to go and the score was 30-28. Sacred Heart trailed 7-2 the first quarter and played it even the next two periods for scores of 16-12 and 24-19. Nancy Endres scored 21 points.

The next game was consolation semifinal for a loss of 28-15. Both teams made a bad start and Sacred Heart trailed 9-5 at the half and 15-9 at the third quarter before Callisburg pulled away in the fourth.

Tigers at the tournament were swamped 70-29 by Whitesboro B. Their top scorers were Melvin Luke 10, Gary Endres 7 and Ronnie Hess 5.

The next game, with S&S in the consolation semi-final, was less of a run-away but still decisive. Sacred Heart was fairly close in the first half, trailing 21-16. However S & S jumped to a 42-21 third quarter lead and coasted to the final 50-24 win. Gary Endres, Kevin Pels and Melvin Luke shared Tiger scoring honors with 6 each.

SH Teams Enter Junior Tournament

Sacred Heart's seventh and eighth grade basketball teams have a win and a loss in a junior tournament in Collinsville and will go back Thursday evening for their second games.

The girls game was an exhibition in futility as neither team was able to find the hoop, and Sacred Heart, unfortunately had the poorer record by a count of 16-13. Its scorers were Cindy Bartush 8 and Beverly Pels 5.

Tiger Cubs appear to have the makings of a team as shown by their scoring spree in the 42-13 win over the Gunter boys. After a first quarter lead of 5-2 they stepped up to 17-9 at the half and poured it on in the third, which ended 36-9. With the game on ice youngsters saw action in the fourth and the final count was held down to 43-13. Leading scorers were Roger Endres 17, Mark Hess 7, Bruce Fuhrman 6.

On the program of the annual Christmas banquet-meeting for dairymen and wives for four North Texas districts of AMPI were the following persons: Lee Wolf, director of District 9; Bill Sullivant, District Attorney, 235th Judicial District; Vernon Friedrich, president of District 9; J. Fred Davis, director of District 6 and president of Northern Texas and New Mexico Division.

CCJC Hosts for Dairymen's Annual Dinner-Meeting

About 375 dairymen and wives from Cooke, Denton, Wise, Montague, Grayson and Fannin assembled in Gainesville last Thursday night for their annual combined district meeting and Christmas banquet. The event was held in the woman's gym of Cooke County Junior College.

Districts represented were Numbers Five, Eight, Nine and Ten of the Northern Texas and New Mexico Division of Associated Milk Producers Inc.

Discussions at the meeting centered on plans and programs by AMPI aimed at improvements in production and marketing of whole milk and dairy products.

It takes little time to administer a rebuke, but it takes a long time to forget it.

NOTES FROM THE LIBRARY

By Bettie Luke

Muenster Public Library has shelved some interesting new books including "The Vantage Point," received from the Lyndon Baines Johnson Library.

It is the perspective of the Presidency 1963-1969. After more than three decades of public service, Lyndon Baines Johnson became, amid the tragedy of his predecessor's assassination, the thirty-sixth President of the United States.

Among many other achievements, his continued support of the space program enabled the nation to embark on a program of scientific and industrial activity without equal in history.

This book is an invaluable historical document and a portrait of one of the remarkable of Americans.

Also shelved are four books by William Faulkner: "As I Lay Dying," "Sanctuary," "Light in August," and "The Sound and the Fury."

A new novel by Arthur Hailey is "Wheels," just as interesting as his two previous books "Airport," and "Hotel." Come and read with us.

644 Acres of Land Donated to Scouts

Circle Ten Council, through President Darrell Manley, has announced a gift of 644 acres of land in Henderson County. This property is given by Gifford-Hill Incorporated and Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Gifford. The site is located approximately 20 miles East of Ennis in the Flag Lake area and near the Trinity River. This land is provided for the development of a new Scout camp.

In announcing the gift Manley said, "Scout membership and Scout camping are increasing annually. We are working to be prepared to meet the camping needs of Scouts of the future, just as the city has prepared to meet the water needs of the future. Circle Ten Council has 54,000 Scouts and leaders in this area. There are hundreds of boys camping every week on a year-round basis."

More Extensive Financing Program Announced by FHA

Temple, Texas — Texas farmers will be able to tap the largest supply of supplemental credit in history this year through the Farmers Home Administration, State Director Lynn Futch announced.

"We project that more than $81 million will be available to Texas farmers in fiscal year '72, as a result of cooperative efforts between the FHA and commercial lenders," he stated.

The cooperative effort involves having the commercial credit source and FHA make simultaneous loans to a borrower, with the private lender having first claim on the security.

"The farm ownership program is aimed to reach $30 million — $15 million of government money, with private lenders participating at a level of $15 million," Mr. Futch continued.

"Projected figures for the farm operating loan program is $51 million of which $22½ million — triple last year's figure — comes from regular commercial lenders."

Lending levels of FHA farm program are also higher because of a substantial boost given the farm ownership program by President Nixon when he announced that national funding would be $350 million this fiscal year, $82 million above 1971 level.

The President also said the nationwide farm operating loan program would be raised to $350 million from its present $275 million level if the Congress would approve legislation changing the program from an appropriation basis to an insured basis.

If this legislation is passed, Mr. Futch said, notes of farm borrowers for operating purposes would be sold to investors who, in turn, would be insured against loss on the notes. The investors' money would replenish a revolving fund and would be available for more loans, as is the case now with farm ownership loans.

"It will continue to be our policy to assist people in finding the credit needed to begin farming or to help finance farm operations," he said. "We therefore commit government funds only when we cannot involve private money to serve agriculture's credit needs."

"To assure this, county supervisors of the FHA are required to contact another lender with respect to every application for farm ownership or operating funds."

"We are pleased with the fine cooperation extended by banks and other credit sources to make this plan work," he concluded.

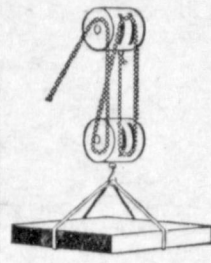

From a customer in the Austin post office: "This package contains a very fragile vase, so please throw it underhand."

Well, What Do You Know? fun, games and knowledge

by MARTHA GLAUBER SHAPP, Editor, The New Book of Knowledge

What do you know about Archimedes?

"Give me a place to stand and I can move the world." The man who is supposed to have spoken those words was Archimedes, a Greek mathematician and inventor who lived some 2,200 years ago. He was one of the first men to understand the science of mechanics.

He realized that a man with a mechanical device such as a lever could move many times his own weight.

Archimedes is best-known for his many inventions, including a compound pulley, a water screw to raise water, and for many other principles of mathematics and science that he first formulated.

What do you know about the passenger pigeon?

The passenger pigeon once have been the most numerous bird in North America. Its disappearance is partially explained by the birds' habits. They were sociable, nesting and traveling in great, dense flocks. They lived mainly on nuts, but sometimes they swooped down on farmers' fields, eating everything in sight. Farmers shot them or caught them in nets, hundreds at a time.

The passenger pigeon also made good eating, and hundreds of thousands were shot in their nesting grounds and shipped to cities. By 1900 the passenger pigeon was already rare, and in 1914 the last one died in a Cincinnati zoo.

Do you know what the Aeneid is? The most famous work in Latin literature is the Aeneid, an epic poem about the hero Aeneas. Epic poetry tells a powerful story of conflict and is written in a noble, complex style. Publius Vergilius Maro, whom we call Vergil, began the Aeneid about 29 B.C. at the request of the Emperor Augustus. Vergil worked on it for over 10 years. He meant to spend 3 more years revising the poem, but he died in 19 B.C. before he could complete it. On his deathbed he asked for his manuscript, intending to burn it because he felt it was imperfect, but his friends refused to give it to him. It was published as Vergil left it.

It's the Law

Transporting loads of dirt, sand, gravel, wood chips or other loose materials, effective May 25, 1971: This law makes it a violation to load or transport any loose materials unless it is completely enclosed on both sides and in front and in back to prevent blowing off or spilling. All loose materials must be removed from the top and sides of the bed after loading

The bed shall not have any holes, cracks or openings that would permit loose materials to escape. This law does not apply to vehicles working inside construction barricades or merely crossing a public road. Trend Favors Artificial Trees

A SNAP OF THE FINGERS AND IT'S UP, thus doing away with one of the very few unpleasant Yuletide tasks—putting up the cumbersome and often lopsided Christmas tree. A new lifelike artificial tree from Sears has branches which drop down when the tree is placed upright and fold up for easy storage when the tree is not in use.

Instead of trudging around to tree lots, more and more families are investing in a convenient, economical, neat and safe artificial Christmas tree. The trend is reflected in sales of artificial trees which have more than tripled in the past 5 years, according to James D. Martin, tree buyer for Sears, Roebuck and Co.

"Today's artificial trees are more lifelike than ever and in many cases look better than natural trees," Martin explained. "They never have a bad side and are usually fuller." Artificial trees are reproduced to mirror the subtle differences in needle shape, color and branch formation that characterize the most popular natural trees—Scotch pine, Canadian fir, Mountain fir, balsam, and blue spruce.

"Realistic color is important in the minds of people who are thinking about an artificial tree," Martin notes. "The dark green tree is still very popular, but now some trees have light green tips on dark green and blue needles to capture the exact color of a natural tree. In addition, simulated Mountain fir, Canadian fir, Scotch pine, balsam, and blue spruce trees are available with snow-like flocking."

The trees are easily assembled by following printed instructions. And to keep assembly time to the bare minimum, a new "insta-shape" model developed for Sears allows the seasonal decorator to pull the tree out of the carton, attach it upright to the tree stand and step back to watch the hinged branches fall into place.

Safety is another important benefit of artificial Christmas trees. They can't dry out and become flash-fire tinder. And since they require no water, electrical fire hazard is removed.

Farm Bureau Hears Convention Report

Members of Cooke County Farm Bureau at the December meeting heard reports on the state convention held in Amarillo in November. Delegates telling highlights of convention proceedings were James T. Cole, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Bayer, Mrs. Lawrence Zimmerman and Mrs. Burney Almon.

A discussion was held on the group accidental insurance plan offered by the Texas Farm Bureau. M. B. Feaster, CCFB insurance representative led the discussion on the insurance which went into effect Nov. 1.

About 25 members were present with Burney Almon, president, presiding. Mrs. Myrtle Elkins of Denton was a guest.

Refreshments were served by Mmes. Lawrence Zimmerman, George Berry and Gus Lutkenhaus.

Third Order Has Meeting, Social

Members of the Third Order of St. Francis, Sacred Heart Parish, met Sunday afternoon for their December meeting and prayer service and followed with a social hour.

Mrs. Leo Henscheid, prefect, presided and led the prayer service in Sacred Heart Church. She read a letter from the Devassy family in India, the fraternity's adopted family, expressing gratitude for the regular contributions.

Another letter from the order's New York headquarters revealed that adoption of families in India by Franciscan fraternities has now reached a new high with 118 adopted.

Another letter explained a Franciscan tour of the Holy Land in February. Anyone interested in the pilgrimage is invited to contact Mrs. Henscheid.

The social hour was held in Sacred Heart High lounge where coffee and cookies were served to 16 members.

CD of A Members Cheer Shut-ins With Yule Goodies

Members of Muenster court Catholic Daughters of America went to their December meeting Thursday night with Christmas candy, cookies and fruit and packed 27 pretty Christmas boxes for shut-ins and included the local pastors and Sisters.

Friday members delivered the gift packages to cheer the aged and ailing recipients.

Father Leonard Wangler met with members and gave a short sermon on timely spiritual topics.

Mrs. Tony Hess, regent, conducted the business session during which the court reviewed the CDA's seven-point program as sent out by national headquarters and discussed having handbooks printed.

The program includes personal relations, public relations, ecumenical involvement, civic involvement, youth involvement, charitable involvement and extension of membership.

Mrs. Clyde Fisher won the door prize.

It's the Law

A new reckless driving law effective August 27, 1971, says that any person who drives any vehicle in willful or wanton disregard for the safety of persons or property is guilty of reckless driving and upon conviction shall be punished by fine of not more than two-hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not more than thirty days or both such fine and imprisonment.

700,000 Pounds Of Powdered Milk Shipped to Mexico

A marketing effort of the Texas Department of Agriculture has opened up "tremendous new potentials for sale of Texas milk," Texas Agriculture Commissioner John C. White reports.

A sale of 700,000 pounds of powdered milk — valued at about a quarter of a million dollars — was shipped recently from the Associated Milk Producers, Inc., processing plant at Sulphur Springs to Mexico City.

Most of the shipment will be reconstituted into fluid milk. This will convert into 20 million pounds of fluid milk.

"There is potentially an excellent market in Mexico for additional sales of Texas-produced milk," White said. Personnel of the TDA worked with Mexico buyers in lining up the sale.

AMPI plant manager Ken Burtz and AMPI area manager Shelby Hood said potentials for sale of milk to other countries also look good.

AMPI is a super regional dairy cooperative with a membership in 20 states from the Canadian border to the Texas gulf coast.

"This is another excellent example of how agricultural marketing concepts are changing. Dairy producers are again demonstrating to the rest of agriculture how to sell its product," White said.

Three Dates Set For Career Tests In ACT Program

Three Saturday mornings during the next several months could be especially important to many Muenster High School students who are undecided about their future or are interested in vocational-technical education after graduation.

The dates of Feb. 26, April 22, and July 15 are the three times during the remainder of the present academic year that students will have an opportunity to take the new ACT Career Planning Profile on a "national date," announced Tom Fluker, counselor.

The ACT Career Planning Profile, which takes about 3½ hours to complete, is a three-part examination and questionnaire that assesses a broad range of vocational interests and abilities. It forms the basis of the new national guidance program, ACT Career Planning Program, which is designed for use by persons interested in some form of career education beyond high school.

Registration periods for the 1971-72 dates on which the assessment profile will be administered on a nation-wide basis are: Feb. 26 (Nov. 29-Jan. 31), April 22 (Feb. 14-March 27), and July 15 (April 10-June 19).

As part of the overall ACT Career Planning Program, persons who take the new assessment profile will receive a report relating their characteristics to major "clusters" of occupations. In addition, forecasts of performance in vocational, technical, and two-year college programs are provided. A booklet on career planning also accompanies each of the resulting reports.

Muenster senior students interested in the new program can obtain additional information and registration materials from the High School Counselor.
