How much do you really know about chickenpox? Here are the facts and symptoms

What is chickenpox?

Chickenpox, also known as varicella, is a viral infection characterized by the formation of tiny blisters on the skin. Almost all children contract chickenpox during their preschool or elementary school years. Occasionally, it infects adults who escaped it in childhood, generally causing a more severe illness.

Chickenpox is highly contagious. Epidemics usually occur in the winter and early spring.

What causes chickenpox?

Chickenpox is caused by the herpes zoster virus, a relative of the virus that causes cold sores. The virus is transmitted by direct contact with someone who has it or by contact with droplets from the nose or mouth of an infected person. It appears to be most contagious just before and immediately after the spots develop.

How is chickenpox diagnosed and treated?

Observation of the characteristic rash and blisters usually establishes a diagnosis.

Because the disease tends to be mild, most youngsters require no special treatment other than bed rest and plenty of fluids if there is a fever.

However, isolation of the child is essential to prevent infection of other youngsters or vulnerable adults. The child should not return to school or come in contact with other children who have not already had chickenpox until all the blisters have dried out and formed scabs.

What can I do myself?

The most uncomfortable aspect of chickenpox is itching. Despite the intense itching, children should be kept from scratching, which can lead to skin infection and permanent scarring.

To ease the itching, apply compresses dipped in a solution of baking soda and cool water. Use the same solution for sponge baths, and apply calamine lotion liberally.

To help prevent skin damage and infection, keep the child's nails cut short and wash the youngster's hands often.

If the child is feverish and uncomfortable, he or she may take acetaminophen but a doctor should be consulted first.

When should I see my doctor?

Call a doctor if a high fever occurs, if the blisters develop a yellowish discharge signaling infection, if the rash causes pain or uncontrollable itching, or if any unusual symptoms (such as vomiting or coughing) develop. The doctor should also be notified immediately if chickenpox develops in any child who has a chronic disease, especially one involving the immune system.

What will the doctor do?

The doctor may prescribe antihistamines to ease the itching. Antibiotics may be necessary to treat secondary bacterial infections due to scratching.

In severe cases, especially involving children with leukemia or other immune-compromising diseases, the physician may prescribe an antiviral drug called acyclovir.

The course of chickenpox

The incubation period - the time from exposure to the virus to the onset of symptoms - is usually about 14 to 21 days.

After a day or two of vague discomfort, malaise, appetite loss and headache (more common in adults), the rash erupts. It begins as small, pink spots that quickly turn into pimples surrounded by small, red halos. The pimples then become itchy blisters containing a clear fluid. These blisters dry into scabs, normally leaving only temporary scars, once all the blisters have crusted into scabs, the disease is no longer infectious.

Because the pimples erupt in a series of successive breakouts over the course of several days, all three types of lesions (pimples, blisters and scabs) may be present at the same time. The rash usually starts on the chest and then spreads all over the body and onto the face. It infrequently occurs on the palms of the hands and soles of the feet.

Symptoms usually last from a few days to two weeks. Most commonly, all lesions crust over within 4 to 7 days.

Is chickenpox dangerous?

Usually, no, but it can be risky for certain groups of people. For example, chickenpox can be severe or fatal in people who have leukemia or other diseases that compromise the immune system. It can also be serious in patients receiving steroid medications for other illnesses. In rare instances, chickenpox may cause meningitis.

Chickenpox is also dangerous for the unborn babies of women in late pregnancy. Such women should not care for children with chickenpox.

What can I do to avoid chickenpox?

Because chickenpox is so highly contagious, it is almost unavoidable. If your child has any immune deficiency or other debilitating disease and an epidemic of chickenpox occurs in your community, discuss preventive treatment with your physician. Injections of immune globulin (blood containing antibodies to the virus) may prevent or modify the course of chickenpox if it is given within 96 hours after exposure. Such treatment may also be recommended for newborns whose mothers developed chickenpox shortly before or after delivery. A chickenpox vaccine is still in the testing stage.

SYMPTOMS

- Pimples that become itchy blisters and then scabs.
- Moderate fever.
- Mild headache.
- Malaise.
- Occasional sore throat.

WARNING!

Any child suspected of having chickenpox should not be given aspirin. The use of aspirin in the presence of this and other viruses has been associated with a potentially fatal complication known as Reye's syndrome.

Commissioners certify Nov. 8 election results

by Janet Felderhoff

After studying final reports from the Resolutions Committee, Cooke County Commissioners Court voted 5-0 to certify the November 8 General Election results in Cooke County. There were a few discrepancies, but none major enough to open the Precinct ballot boxes. They fell within state requirements for certification.

Precinct 3 ran out of ballots and had to use Xeroxed ballots which could not be scanned by the ballot machine. There were 200 ballots scanned from Precinct 3 and 26 were counted manually. There were 227 names on the voter signature sheet which left one ballot less than the number of voters who signed in to vote.

Precinct 1 showed one more ballot than the number voter signatures and Precinct 5 and Precinct 10 each had one more voter signature than ballots counted. Precinct 18 also had one more ballot counted than voters signed in.

In early voting, there were 2,051 ballots cast. The County Resolutions Committee rejected four of these leaving 2,047 ballots by physical count. After they were scanned the ballot machine showed a count of 2,048. "I am not sure what happened there," said Pat Peale who was a member of that committee. Peale noted that she and several others witnessed the physical counting of the ballots as well as the scanned count and none were sure why the machine counted an additional ballot.

One ballot was not counted in the Precinct voting because it was marked through with an X. Another ballot could not be counted because the voter marked a box at the top of the ballot which was unrelated to voting. "We think that they may have been trying to vote a straight party ticket, but we couldn't be sure," Pat Peale reported.

Excluding early voting, there were 10,279 voters who signed registration sheets at precinct polling places. The ballot machine indicated that it had scanned 10,276 ballots. "I think we are close enough to certify this vote," remarked Cooke County Judge Ray Russell. "These are very, very minor discrepancies. That's going to happen in any election."

Judge Ray Russell took pleasure in announcing the winner of the Cooke County flag contest which he sponsored. Melissa Woods of Valley View will receive a $200 savings bond from Judge Russell. There were 800 entries in the contest. Winning entry was selected by the Cooke County Historical Society. Commissioners Court unanimously voted to adopt Miss Woods' flag as the official flag of Cooke County.

Official 1995 holidays were set as follows: Jan. 16, Martin Luther King, Jr. Day; April 14, Good Friday; May 29, Memorial Day; July 4, Independence Day; Sept. 4, Labor Day; Nov. 10, Veteran's Day; Nov. 24 and 25, Thanksgiving; Dec. 25 Christmas Day.

The Cooke County Appraisal District (CCAD) Appraisal and Collections budgets for the fiscal year 1995 was not approved by Commissioners Court. This was due in part to raises that would amount to all of the employees receiving at least a four percent raise and some getting an almost 11 percent raise. "The county couldn't afford to give our employees even a three percent cost of living raise," commented Judge Russell.

Commissioners Jerry Lewis and Virgil Hess were appointed to a joint committee to discuss Emergency services with the City of Gainesville. Lewis and Hess have been working with committees in other parts of the county on the same topic.

In other business Commissioners Court:

*Approved the renewal of the Prisoner Custody Agreement for 1995.

*Approved the final plat on Charles W. Kleuser Subdivision in Precinct 2.

*Tabled tacking action on request by Sandy Russell of Cooke County Probation Office to purchase office equipment, extra phones lines and additional office space until more information was available.

*Approved monthly bills and reports.

MISD excels in report

Muenster ISD recently received its annual Academic Excellence Indicator Report. This is a Texas Education Agency-generated report and it focuses on the performance of each school district in the state in an all-encompassing way.

The report covers all facets of each school's operation from instructional services to debt service. MISD, as noted in previous articles, was rated Exemplary which is the highest rating the state gives a school district. The organization of the report has categories listed and then ratings comparing the school district to its region and to the state.

MISD rated higher in every academic category (43) on the report than did its comparison groups. The average of all tests taken, including all grade levels tested, was a 93. Other information includes percentage of students at each grade level, teacher experience, salaries and teacher permits. Finances are addressed by comparing tax rates (MISD $1.09 - state average $1.39), tax base information, operating costs, state funding contribution and percent of local commitment to education.

The report simply confirms in a very profound way that MISD continues to provide an excellent education for our students both economically and efficiently.

This report, in its entirety, includes both campuses and is available on each campus, in the library, and in the administration building.

MANY LOCAL BUSINESS PERSONS, family and friends joined in on the ribbon cutting to officially open Christi's Jewelry and Gifts last Saturday morning. Owner Christi Klement is shown surrounded by her friends and family, including Bridgette, Andrea, Leon and Elliot Klement. Muenster's newest business is located at 211 N. Main.

Rep. Ralph Hall responds to recent election returns

Rep. Ralph Hall (D-Texas) said that the recent mid-term election results indicate what Americans have been saying for the past few years--get government off their backs.

Hall was re-elected to his eighth term as representative of the Fourth Congressional District with approximately 59 percent of the vote. However, Democrats lost more than fifty House seats and enough Senate seats nationwide to give both the House and Senate a Republican majority in the 104th Congress.

"People want a change in government--and they expressed their frustrations in the voting booth," Hall said. "They're tired of the way government has been run, and they're giving the other party an opportunity to show what they can do."

"Gun control, abortion, smoking, pornography--these should be state issues," Hall said. "People are tired of the federal government telling them either way on these. Texans should be going to Austin to testify on these issues," Hall said.

"Those of us in Congress who have fought for less federal government have been trying to accomplish these goals through amendments and motions to recommit to conference for five years," Hall said. "But the leadership hasn't listened, and we're seeing the consequence of their actions."

"This is an historic time in America. Americans have the feeling that those in Washington don't listen to them, and they've demanded a change. Both parties will be readjusting to the new circumstances in the weeks to come," Hall said.

"The voters of the Fourth District have expressed their confidence in me, and I will continue to keep my part of the bargain with them by representing their views in Washington. I'll continue to keep in touch with my District and listen to what people are saying."

"I expect the Republicans will concentrate on the proposals in their Contract with America during the first 100 days of the 104th session," Hall said. "Term limits and a balanced budget amendment are issues that I have supported. I'll have to look closely at the other reforms proposed. As we discovered with health care reform, every issue is highly complex. We have to be sure that proposed changes will do more good than harm."

Don't Forget!

The Muenster Enterprise will be mailed on Wednesday next week, before Thanksgiving Day. All deadlines have been moved up one day. The Enterprise will be closed on Thanksgiving Day for families' events and on Friday to prepare for the Christmas Parade.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

As the Thanksgiving holiday approaches this year, I am feeling a special sense of thankfulness to many people. The re-opening of our ice cream plant this week, in the wake of the recent salmonella outbreak, has been a long hoped for event for all of us at Schwan's Sales Enterprises, Inc.

With that in mind, I would like to take this opportunity to thank all the people who have helped make the challenges of these last few weeks seem less daunting. To our many employees and customers alike, we can't say thank you enough. Both have remained steadfast throughout this ordeal, and both have once again proven the special relationship we all share.

Unusual though it may seem, I also want to add a word of thanks to the newspaper and other media reporters who have followed this story from the beginning. I really mean it.

Most reporters and editors have worked hard to be fair and have helped us to communicate the news more quickly to those customers at risk of becoming ill. In the final analysis, that assistance in alerting our customers has far outweighed the few reports that many have been unkind or unfair.

I believe the identification of the supplier trucks as the most likely cause of the problem is accurate. I also believe we have taken the precautions necessary to prevent it from happening again.

To all of you who helped make our recall and re-opening successful, I simply want to say thanks.

Sincerely,
Alfred Schwan
President

Dear Editor,

"We hope you enjoy our Smoke FREE environment"

Great American Smokeout observed at MISD Nov. 17

by Hollie Jo Fuhrmann

Tobacco use among Texas teenagers is on the rise, according to the latest statewide assessment of substance abuse among Texas students. The statewide school survey, conducted by the Texas Commission on Alcohol and Drug Abuse (TCADA) shows that the number of smokers rose from 17 percent to 22 percent of all students. The 1989 Surgeon General's Report estimates that smoking is responsible for 30 percent of all cancer deaths, including 87 percent of lung cancer deaths and the leading cause of cancer mortality.

Muenster High School's FHA and HERO Chapter is sponsoring the American Cancer Society's Great American Smokeout on Thursday, Nov. 17. The Great American Smokeout is a light-hearted effort to encourage tobacco users to give up their habit for 24 hours on Thursday. Members will sponsor and encourage a tobacco user. The tobacco user will be given a treat bag by their sponsor filled with gum and hard candy to help them refrain from tobacco throughout the day.

To discourage tobacco use by teenagers, literature will be distributed to students and a film will be shown during lunch from the American Cancer Society.

Muenster FHA hopes their effort will encourage tobacco users to not only refrain for one day, but to quit for life.

WHAT DO I WANT FOR AN ANNIVERSARY?

Nothing common or cute or cursory;
Nothing new for the car, the kitchen,
No Gardener's Guidebook so I can pitch in and raise petunias.
Nothing clever, practical, bound to last forever.
No one thing to be watered, dusted, oiled,
or polished before it's rusted;
Nor thing to feed, oh nothing that twitters
Or yelps or cheeps or produces litters!
Something that sparkles, maybe glitters?

MR. and MRS. TIMOTHY HELLMAN
... 'nee Carol Ann Java ...

Vows exchanged Nov. 4

Timothy B. Hellman and Carol Ann Java were married in Our Lady Queen of Peace Catholic Church of Wichita Falls on Friday, Nov. 4, 1994, with Father William P. Winaski officiating at 7 p.m.

The bride was escorted by her daughter, Karie Java. Included in the wedding party were Patie Lewis, matron of honor; Leslie Beshler, bridesmaid; Steve Sicking, best man; and Ken Beshler, groomsman. Ushers were Bill Darme and John Phillips.

Scripture Readings were given by Sandy Lebow. Offertory gifts were brought to the altar by sisters of the bride and groom, Joann Wingate and Mary Nell Newman. In Hispanic tradition, Presentation of the Lasso was done by Larry and Sandy Lebow. Sacred music was offered by Jean Hoing, organist, and Diane Sowell.

The "Ave Maria" was sung by Diane Sowell as the couple presented their mothers with a rose, and prayed to the Blessed Mother. The groom presented the bride with the blessing of the coins as a symbol promising to provide for her.

RECEPTION
A reception was held at the Woman's Forum. Guests danced to music provided by Larry Perez. The wedding dance song was "Endless Love."

Honored guests were Karie Java, daughter of the bride; Erlinda G. Palma, mother of the bride; and Ernestine C. Hellman, mother of the groom.

Cake servers were Ron and Maria Woodard. Lori Ray presided at the gift registry.

The rehearsal dinner was held at LaLani's Restaurant, hosted by the bride and groom.

The groom is a native of Muenster and is self-employed as a public accountant in Wichita Falls. The bride is a native of Wichita Falls. Since returning from a wedding trip to Dallas, the couple resides in Wichita Falls.

Comedy at its best ... See the "Egg and I" at MHS on Dec. 4 and 5

With only three weeks left before the first performance date, theater arts students at Muenster High School, under the direction of Irene Hartman, are busily rehearsing the full-length play, The Egg and I. The hilarious comedy will be performed on Sunday night, Dec. 4, and Monday night, Dec. 5, at 7:00 in the Muenster High School Auditorium.

Based on the novel, The Egg and I, by Betty MacDonald, this play is certain to provide an evening of good, wholesome entertainment for the entire family. The play's action and comedy revolve around the MacDonald family's move to a dilapidated chicken farm and the city family's attempts to adjust to the difficulties of farm life. Many readers may remember the popular movie version of the forties starring Fred MacMurray and Claudette Colbert. The MacDonald family is being played by Ashley Hartman, as Betty; Melissa Biffle, as Anne; Lucas Hartman, as Don; and Toni Trubenbach, as Joan. The cast also includes Cody Perryman, Andrea Klement, Bryan Hudspeth, Misty Klement, and others in supporting roles.

The theater arts students invite you to come and watch as Betty and the whole cast of The Egg and I attempts to conquer "the egg." The tickets, which are $2.00 for children/students and $3.00 for adults, may be purchased at the door or ahead of time from any theater arts student.

From My Side of the Fence

by Ed Clev

Tuesday, Nov. 8, 1994, was election day, and we are almost overwhelmed by what changes can be made in a day, and how fast information travels from one point to another.

Within a few hours after the closing of the polls we found we had elected a number of new officials in our county and state, and the leadership of our U.S. Senate and House of Representative will soon change hands, as one political party takes over the reins from the other.

A rarity in this election was the winning of several races by Republican candidates, for offices in our county. Paul Hesse of Muenster was successful in his bid for the office of County Judge. I believe these were the first Republicans to win election in Cooke County since Mr. Welch was elected Precinct 4 Commissioner in 1930, as a write-in candidate.

A wave of discontent has spread over our country, and people showed their displeasure with the present officials by voting for candidates they believe will try to do more of what the people are hoping for.

It is now up to the newly elected representatives to follow through on their promises, and we the people must also be willing to do our part, if real changes are to come about.

It was really good to see so many voters taking advantage of the privilege to cast their ballots in this election, and I hope they, as I am, are happy with the results.

What happened Tuesday should send a message to all of our elected officials, letting them know they can be turned out to pasture, if they ignore the will of the people.

I have always believed every person of voting age should see that he or she is eligible to vote in our elections, and do so.

Some think their one vote would not be missed, but don't stop to consider the fact that the large totals are made up of individual votes added together. The power is in the numbers.

AMBER LYNN GREWING and Jeffrey Craig Parsons have chosen Jan. 7, 1995 for their wedding day. They will be married in Sacred Heart Catholic Church at 5 p.m. with Father David Bellinghausen, OSB, officiating. The bride-elect is the daughter of Herman and Shirley Oswing of Muenster and the future-groom is the son of Donald T. and Sue Parsons of Star Route, Gainesville. Amber Lynn is a 1986 graduate of Sacred Heart High School and is currently attending North Central Texas College as a student in the Associate Degree of Nursing program. She is employed as a sales associate at Factory Brand Shoes in the Gainesville Outlet Mall. Parsons is a 1984 graduate of Lindsay High School and is employed as a mechanic at Andres Motor Company. The couple will reside on Rt. 4 in Gainesville.

Tigers win, advance to state playoff game

The Sacred Heart Tigers, coaches and fans had much to celebrate last Friday night as the Tigers defeated St. Paul of Shiner 26-7 in Waco. The win earned Sacred Heart a trip to the TAPPS 1A Football State Championship playoff.

"I was real pleased with the second half, but disappointed with the team's focus the first half," commented Tiger Coach John Nasche. "The offense played good the entire game, but the defense struggled, not taking care of business until the 2nd half."

The game started slow for the Tigers. After exchanging punts on their opening possessions, the Cardinals began their second drive on their 35-yard line. Two incomplete passes were followed by a Jeff Matias pass to Sam Rodriguez for a 65-yard touchdown play. Matias kicked the extra point giving St. Paul a 7-0 lead with 8:29 remaining on the clock.

Sacred Heart bounced right back. Nine runs by Neil Berres, Scott Frost and Jason Hess carried the Tigers 56 yards to the 10-yard line. Frost added another 3, then Hess circled around the left end and found the end zone for 6 points. Michael Becker added the extra point to tie the game 7-7. Just over four minutes remained on the first quarter clock.

The Cardinals attempted to hit the air waves again, but failed to get a completion and punted the ball away. Hess and Berres each got in a run before St. Paul picked off a Tiger pass on the 30-yard line. Three plays later, Jake McCoy covered a loose ball and Sacred Heart took over at midfield.

The Tigers carried the ball into the 2nd quarter. Several plays moved Sacred Heart into the Cardinals end of the field, but the Tigers ran out of downs. St. Paul's first play of the quarter saw a completed pass turn into a fumble, which Mike Schilling covered near midfield for Sacred Heart. Berres and Frost each carried the ball twice to move the Tigers to the 11-yard line. Two plays later, a Jason Hess pass to John Klement was good for a touchdown. Three minutes into the quarter, Sacred Heart took a 13-7 lead.

St. Paul came right back, moving 51 yards in four plays to the 9-yard line. Three unsuccessful plays optioned a field goal that failed and Sacred Heart took over on the 20. Again Berres, Frost and Hess moved the ball in 10 runs to the Cardinal 35-yard line. Frost gained another 26 yards and Berres moved the ball to the 4-yard line. The next play a fumbled ball inside the 1-yard line rolled into the end zone and was covered by Shiner for a touchdown. The Cardinals offense took over on their 20-yard line.

St. Paul got in some good runs, but the 1st half ended when Douglas Novak saved a 35-yard touchdown pass when he picked off the ball in the end zone.

Sacred Heart's offense started action in the 3rd quarter on their 22-yard line. 8-yard gains each by Berres and Frost were followed by a 5-yard penalty. The next play Berres broke around the left tackle for a 67-yard race to the end zone. The PAT run failed for a 19-7 score with 10:29 on the clock.

The Cardinal's next possession began on their 18-yard line. Eleven plays later the Tigers took over on downs. An illegal man penalty was followed by a deflected pass that was intercepted by St. Paul on the Cardinal 21-yard line.

Shiner, on 3 big plays, moved the ball 40 yards, then got in trouble. The drive ended when Douglas Novak intercepted a pass and the Tigers took possession on their 9-yard line.

Sacred Heart couldn't get the needed yards for a first down and punted. The next play the Tigers got the ball back when Neil Berres picked off a Shiner pass on the 10-yard line. Frost and Hess moved the ball out to the 24. A fumbled play and a holding flag left the Tigers in a 2nd and 24 at the 8-yard line. Throwing from the end zone, Jason Hess connected with Scott Frost for a 56-yard pass play to the Cardinal 20-yard line. Two plays later a 15-yard Hess to John Klement pass was good for a touchdown. Michael Becker added the extra point for a 26-7 score with nine minutes remaining in the game.

St. Paul got in 6 plays before turning the ball back over to the Tigers. From near midfield, two Frost runs assisted in getting Sacred Heart to the 25. But a 15-yard penalty slowed down the Tigers. An attempted field goal fell short allowing the Cardinals to play out the remaining minute of the game.

"Once again our balanced offense proved to be too much," bragged Coach Nasche. "Jason (Hess) threw for nearly 100 yards while Neil (Berres) and Scott (Frost) each rushed for over 100 yards." Those numbers put both Frost and Berres over the 1000 mark for the season. Nasche was also pleased with the offensive line, which gave Hess time to pass and had good run blocking. "Our Hogs are our biggest reason why we are 10-1," continued Nasche. "Almost every game we are outsized and outmanned." The line includes Mike Schilling, Joel Schilling, Toby Hess, Brandon Bayer and Scott Poole. John Klement also had a good offensive game catching two touchdown passes.

The Tigers defense stopped Shiner's runners the 2nd half and they had to rely on their passing game.

This is last chance for Football Contest!

This week will be the last chance to enter the Muenster Enterprise football contest, as the Sacred Heart Tigers play their final game of the season, the State finals.

Four contestants correctly guessed 26 games last week, so the tie-breaker score determined the winners. Taking first prize was Neil Huchton. Huchton was 7 points off the score from the Sacred Heart vs. St. Paul game. Dale Swirczynski finished second with a 12 point spread while Mickey Haverkamp earned 3rd place at 15 points. They picked up their cash at AMPI, Chuck's Trucks and Community Lumber Co. Also with 26 games was Jon LeBrasseur who missed the tie-breaker score by 17 points.

Missing six games were Edgar Dyer, Mike Felderhoff, Mike Stoffels, Nick Stoffels and Terry Walterscheid. Only 29 entered the 11th week of the contest. Six contestants who haven't missed all season didn't enter.

Everyone picked the A&M victory. Because of mis-games, all contestants were given 4 correct picks, plus the Georgia-Auburn tie. Only one entry missed Texas and three picked Sacred Heart to lose.

Thirteen predicted the Cowboys loss, while only one got the Dawson, Southlake Carroll and Chicago Bears wins. Only two correctly picked Bremond over Overton.

In the season contest, Neil Huchton still remains on top with an 81.2 percentage of correctly guessed game winners. Peachie Huchton is in second place with a 79.3. In a very close 3rd is Nick Stoffels at 79 percent followed by Mike Felderhoff at 78.3 and Wayne Klement at 78%.

Knights face Devils in area playoff game

The Lindsay Knights, representing district 17-A as runner-up, will take on district 19-A champions, the Celeste Blue Devils, in the area playoffs. Both teams are 5-5 for the season and both received a bye in the bi-district round.

Celeste has 14 lettermen returning from a 10-2 regional finalist team, but lost 12 and are finishing a successful rebuilding year.

"Celeste is a team that has had injury problems," commented Lindsay Coach Charlie Muerer. "They have a good defense with several shutouts, losing only to 2A teams." They are undefeated in district play.

The Blue Devils are a running football team behind freshman Marcus Ennis. They run an offset I offense behind a big offensive line. Celeste's freshman quarterback is fast and can throw the ball far. His favorite receiver is a 6'3" sophomore.

Coach Muerer said the game plan for the Knights will be about the same. "We'll try to play consistent, control the line of scrimmage and eliminate penalties and turnovers."

The Knights will not have Robert Sharp suited out Friday night. Sharp fell and broke his arm during practice Friday afternoon. Chris Brown will replace him on defense with Zack Bowman.

The Area game will be played at Goldsmith Stadium in Lewisville. Action begins at 7:30 p.m.

Take I-35 to Flower Mound Exit. Take a right. The field is 3/4 mile on the left.

Next action - Parkview State Championship

The Sacred Heart Tigers take on district 2A champions Parkview Pacers of Waco this Saturday, Nov. 19 for the TAPPS Class A State Championship. The Pacers eliminated Masonic Home in the first play off round.

"They're big and fast," said Nasche about Parkview. "They have two powerful runners, one that runs like Barry Sanders." The Pacers are undefeated for the season and return as state semi-finalist after losing to Tyler Street last year. "They have physically beat every team this year," continued Nasche. "They're not flashy. They don't throw a lot, they just run right at you."

"We'll just have to play a good game. We'll have to play like we did against Lindsay to win," concluded Nasche.

The State championship game will be played Saturday, Nov. 19 at Groesbeck. Action begins at 1:00 p.m.

Julia Fleitman competes at State Cross Country Meet

Julia Fleitman competed at the State U.I.L. Cross-Country Meet in Georgetown on Saturday, November 12. She ran against the best in the state and finished a very fine 26th. After finishing at regional with a time of 14:02, this was the third time she had been to the state meet and this was her best finish ever. The meet was held on the campus of Southwestern University at Georgetown.

"It was a very difficult course, and was a very competitive race," commented Eddie Green. "Julia is to be congratulated for a great season and all the M.H.S. cross-country team is to be congratulated for their accomplishments and their hard work."

There were only 2 seniors on the varsity team, so great things are expected of them next season.

Sacred Heart Tigerettes

Sacred Heart's Tigerettes opened the 1994-95 basketball season on the road at Grand Prairie Thursday night and returned to Muenster a 64-30 winner.

A fast 22-5 start in the first frame allowed the Tigerettes the opportunity to rotate many player combinations throughout the game. Tiffany Fisher and Dobe Fleitman hit for 21 and 20 points respectively. Fisher also led the Tigerettes in boards as she pulled in 15.

The Tigerettes continued their road show as Tuesday they traveled to Denton and defeated the Lady Warriors by a 58-41 count. The teams were knotted at 12 at the first frame and the Tigerettes took a 26-25 lead into the intermission. Defensive adjustments at the half helped the Tigerettes to a 14-5 third period run. The final canto saw the Tigerettes hit 4 "3s" to go on to the 58-41 win.

"The girls really pulled it together in the second half," said Coach Jon LeBrasseur. "This team is loaded with firepower but our defensive consistency must improve." Tiffany Fisher led the Tigerettes with 18 points and 17 boards. Dobe Fleitman scored 13, Crystal Klement hit for 10 and also snared 10 rebounds. Stephanie Grewing scored 9 and pulled down 11 boards.

Knightettes 51, Collinsville 33

Sacred Heart vs. Terral

Sacred Heart's junior high roundballers opened the 1994-95 season in Terral Oklahoma Monday evening. The Lady Cubs scored a 31-27 win and the Cubs suffered a 39-13 loss.

The Lady Cubs fell behind 14-2 midway through the first period and then outscored their opponents the next three frames. Kayla Felderhoff poured in 23 points. Betty Trevino hit for four and Anne Flusche and Deann Felderhoff scored two each.

The Cubs found the going tough right after the football season as the Indians of Terral jumped to an 18-6 first half advantage. The Cubs cut the lead to ten but could get no closer. Adam Barnhill led the Cubs with 7. Lucian Gehrig scored 4 and Nicholas Yosten 2. The "A" squads will return to action next Monday as they will host the Eagles of Montague.

S.H. JV Tigerettes

Nail-biters describes the JV Tigerettes' first two games as they edged out Shady Grove 31-27 and watched a huge lead slip away against Liberty but rebounded for a 49-32 win.

Amanda Baldwin led the JV squad at Shady Grove with 12 and was followed by Elizabeth Fuhrmann with 6, Brandi Gilpin 4, Tammy Hennigan 3, Corey Hess and Jill Hess 2 each.

At Liberty, the 2-0 JV team was paced by Jill Hess and Brandi Gilpin with 14 each. Corey Hess hit for 11, Trish Endres scored 4. Hitting for 2 each were Tammy Hennigan, Shauna Endres, Elizabeth Fuhrmann and Amanda Baldwin.

Lindsay JV 20, Collinsville 54

The Collinsville junior varsity proved too much for the young Knightettes. After tying the 1st quarter, the Lady Pirates got away from Lindsay, while the Lady Knights' shooting went cold. Lindsay was 12 of 17 at the free throw line. Michelle Secrest led the Knightettes with 11 points. Megan Sandmann, Carrie Hundt and Stephanie Stoffels each scored 2 while Amanda Hellinger added 1.

Interest is composite

Even though many producers of rebred cattle consider crossbred composite bulls nothing more than "mongrels," interest in composites is increasing rapidly, according to animal scientists at Texas State University. "Since crossbred and composite sires have become the norm in the beef industry, it would seem wise to ignore this interest in developing composites and using crossbred bulls," says Extension stock specialist Danny Simms and Ron Bolze. A crossbred is the result of mating individuals of two or more rebred varieties, while a composite is usually the mix of two or more breeds, which are then mated. In other words, crossing Simmental with a Red Angus produces a crossbred offspring; the herd is then closed and no individuals are introduced, crossing Simmental with Red Angus produces a composite, 50 percent Simmental and 50 percent Red Angus. Composites are not totally new to the industry, Simms and Bolze remind. The Brangus (62.5 percent Angus, 37.5 percent Brahman) and the Santa Gertrudis (62.5 percent thoroughbred, 37.5 percent Brahman) are well known examples. The idea behind composites is to capitalize on the strengths of the breeds involved, while hopefully minimizing the weaknesses. Using a composite bull instead of rebred crossing breeds gives the producer a much easier way of managing the livestock, according to the K-State specialists. Instead of having to sort the cows into small pastures for breeding as part of a systematic crossbreeding plan, the producer can leave them all together and get the proposed mixture by using the desired composite bull. Since the average herd size in Kansas is fewer than 50 cows, these small producers can take advantage of heterosis, or hybrid vigor, even in a herd that needs just one bull.

"Composites probably fit best in operations that are too small to run traditional crossbreeding systems," says Simms and Bolze. However, experts stress that developing a composite bull is not for small producers, because they won't have the numbers required to keep from inbreeding. Their figures show that a producer can expect as much as a 20.5-pound increase in weaning weights per cow bred to an eight-breed composite bull. For a three-breed composite bull, they predict an increase of 14.6 pounds in calf weight per cow bred.

Simms and Bolze suggest that breeders considering using composite bulls take a hard look at the breeding programs producing them. "Crossbred bulls will be no better than the genetic material that went into the cross," they say. "Ideally, crossbred bulls should have a sire and maternal grandsire characterized by high accuracy Expected Progeny Differences (EPDs), representing balanced trait selection, and from dams with a proven record of fertility, productivity, fleshing ability, udder soundness and disposition."

Producers look each year for alternative crops to use for rotation purposes and to extend cash flow. For the past several years we have been looking at the early Group 4 and late Group 3 Soybeans. Soybeans work well in a rotation situation and also are fairly economical to grow. The major limiting factor on these early group beans is the weather during the early summer when the beans are blooming and developing pods can cause some severe yield losses. This past year we experienced one of those summers in that June and July were extremely dry.

County Agent's Report

by Craig Rosenbaum

The Schumacher Brothers, Rudy and Gene, established an Early Group Soybean Variety Test on their lands near Era. It became dry and all the beans around the demonstration were baled. However, we left the plots and we did get a nice rain to go ahead and finish out the bean development of the plots. Producers interested in growing the early beans need to keep several things in mind. First, they must be planted early. In our county this means before maize planting but after corn planting. Soybeans can endure cold soil temperatures and fairly cold air temperatures. The early planting enables county producers to take advantage of the early summer moisture to develop the soybeans. Second, we feel that we need to look at green pods on these early soybeans. Most of the early soybeans are indeterminate varieties, meaning that as long as they have good moisture and growing conditions, they will continue to bloom and set pods. This has been a problem in past years because some of the upper leaves and pods soybeans make excellent quality hay if we get into a drought situation to where it appears the beans will not make, then producers have the option of baling the soybeans for hay.

The following chart relates to the various soybean varieties. This is only one year's results on many of these varieties and this data should be weighed with other data from various North Texas counties.

If you need additional information concerning any of these varieties, contact your local seed dealer or give me a call at the County Extension Office 668-5412.

THANKS!
JUSTICE PCT. #4 VOTERS
A long time friend of mine advised me the best way to thank a person is to open my mouth and say "Thanks". That's what I will try to accomplish with this advertisement. First, I want to thank God, who made it all possible. Then I would like to thank the voters. I will never forget who I serve. I would like to thank all the people who prayed about this race, and for the words of encouragement I received. I want to thank everyone for their advertisements and the payment of such. I would like to thank those people who allowed my sign placements and also those who made the signs. I would also like to thank everyone who assisted me in any manner that I have not mentioned. I deeply appreciate you all. Last, but not least, I would like to thank my entire family for their support and many helpful deeds. Throughout this slanderous campaign, they allowed me to keep my head above water, and I love them for it.
Sincerely,

are still green when the rest of the plant is ready to harvest. Grain buyers, in some instances, will not accept soybeans that have too many green pods because they are too hard to dry down. Another factor to consider in planting the early group beans is the pod height. Pod height is important in that much of our soils has rocks or is uneven and it's hard to get the combine table low enough to harvest all of the beans. And, always remember that Grime Fighter.

Outdoor grilling is a Texas tradition. You've probably collected lots of great recipes for barbecued ribs, chicken, steaks and burgers. But now there are two ingredients you won't need. Charcoal and lighter fluid. Both contribute to the grime of air pollution. So take a deep breath and fire up a propane grill. Grilling with propane is faster, cheaper and environmentally correct. Propane. The clear choice. The clear choice. Bon appetit!
