TEXAS, Aug. 27.—(AP)—The oil wells in the Permian basin today were the most active in the world, according to the Railroad Commission. The commission reported that the Permian basin wells were producing 1,192 to 709,000 barrels of oil daily. The commission also reported that the Permian basin wells were producing 1,192 to 709,000 barrels of oil daily. The commission also reported that the Permian basin wells were producing 1,192 to 709,000 barrels of oil daily.

TERRELL HOPES TO CLOSE OIL HEARING TODAY

AUSTIN, Aug. 27.—(AP)—An allowable production of 250,000 barrels daily from the East Texas oil field is not high enough, Ben C. Belt, chief geologist for the Gulf Production Company, testified at the Railroad Commission hearing today. The Gulf Company is opposed to proration of the field as a unit and opposed to an allowable production. The basis for an appeal from the order of the commission governing the field was established yesterday when a long list of Gulf Company wells was read into the record and Belt testified they had not caused waste in the past and would not in the future if operated on an efficient oil and gas ratio.

Losing Tonsils, Discovered Voice States Estelle

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 26.—(AP)—A case of alling tonsils has been added to the list of purported reasons for the fit between Jack Dempsey, former heavyweight boxing champion, and Estelle Taylor, his actress wife. This angle was revealed here last night by Miss Taylor in discussing her husband's divorce suit in which he stated she had such a desire for a career in opera that he no longer wished to stand in her way. In the actress's own words her operative aspirations and their connection with her tonsils came about in this way: "I never had sung in my life. Then I got a sore throat and the doctor took out my tonsils. He looked in my throat when it was healing and told me I would have to take vocal exercises or my throat would be stiff. "So I went to a teacher and he had me sing. That was how I found that I had a voice."

Girl Prepares for Pacific Flight

Juanita Burns, Los Angeles pilot who plans to fly from Tokio to Seattle soon in the first non-stop airplane flight across the Pacific, is shown here taking lessons in navigation from Captain T. Cameron Wilkinson, formerly of Britain's Royal Air Force, with the aid of a celestial navigation sphere. She expects to make the trip in 30 hours and capture approximately $50,000 in prizes.

V. EARL EARP ELECTED HEAD TEXAS LEGION

EL PASO, Tex., Aug. 27.—(AP)—Soldiers of 1917 parted for another year today as they turned homeward from the convention of the Texas Department of the American Legion. Corpus Christi was chosen the 1932 convention city at the final session last night and V. Earl Earp, Sweetwater attorney, was elected department commander by acclamation. He succeeded Hal Brennan of Laredo. The delegates heard an address by Ralph T. O'Neil of Topeka, National Legion commander. He said there was much unemployment among the veterans and the Legion was working to relieve it.

Flays Martial Law

Alvin Owsley severely criticized Governor Sterling and East Texas martial law in an address at Palestine last night.

WINS ITS TEN MONTHS FIGHT WITH ELEMENTS

By W. W. CHAMLIN
NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—(AP)—Conquering at last its ten months' battle against fire, wave and wind, the gigantic flying boat DO-X arrived by a roundabout course from Germany today with 72 passengers aboard. Its 12 great American engines thundering low above the narrows—the Atlantic steamer's gateway to New York—the DO-X at 10:15 (EST) scudded through gray skies past the statue of liberty. The engines roar mingled with screaming sirens of ferry boats and other harbor craft and with the cheers from thousands gathered at the battery.

Speaks

stine
TEXAS, Aug. 27.—(AP)—Owsley of Dallas, Texas, flayed national commander of the American Legion, V. Earl Earp, for his proposal to place martial law in East Texas. Owsley said that martial law was a relic of the past and that it was not needed in the present. He said that martial law was a relic of the past and that it was not needed in the present.

REVOLUTION IN CUBA ON WANE

HAVANA, Aug. 25.—(AP)—Detention of four leading figures in the Cuban feminist movement and the bombing of a representative's home marked Cuba's waning revolution today. Those arrested were Mrs. Pilar Jorja de Tejada, Miss Perez Reyes, Miss Ana Quintana and Miss Leonora Ferrera. Police said they were searching for four more prominent Cuban women alleged to be furthering the interests of the revolt. They were taken immediately to the women's prison at Guanabacoa.

Geology Work Will Be Started At Once On Acreage Blocks

Drilling of a deep oil test in Brown county is soon to take its place as one of the realities. W. D. Gully announced today that funds sufficient to carry out the enterprise have been subscribed and that work on geology on the acreage blocks will begin at once. Work toward the actual drilling will be pushed as rapidly as possible. "It took an earthquake, the national guard and a few patriotic citizens to do it, but it is now assured," Gully said.

Work toward the actual drilling will be pushed as rapidly as possible. "It took an earthquake, the national guard and a few patriotic citizens to do it, but it is now assured," Gully said. "I looked like it was about to fall through," he continued, and at our darkest moment Mr. Franklin Canady, president of the Southern National Hotel Corporation, which owns and operates Hotel Brownwood, came to town. The proposition was outlined to him. Mr. Canady asked what the largest subscription was, and when told the amount said: "Put us down for double that amount."

Several boys received painful burns last Saturday afternoon when the corn popping machine at the Melba Theatre exploded. L. C. Featherston, Owen Clements and Edie Spokes were the ones burned the worst. None of the burns are of a serious nature but all are pretty badly burned about the face and chest. This is the second burn Dale Dyches has sustained in the last few months. He was laid up in a Temple sanitarium a few months ago by with burns on his face caused by a gasoline explosion. Roy Roundtree's garage burned Tuesday. It is not known how the fire started but the blaze was well under way when it was discovered. Several articles were stored in the garage, such as stoves and garden tools but the car was not in at the time of the fire started. There was no insurance on the building or contents and the loss will amount to several hundred dollars. District Clerk John S. Chesser and family visited relatives in Brownwood Tuesday. On Tuesday of last week forty men and women made an automobile tour of the pecan orchards in Big Valley. They report some fine and interesting work being done in the many fine orchards visited. After inspecting the trees and listening to the interesting talk made by Mr. J. Cockrell the party was treated to a watermelon feast at the Cockrell home. At George Robertson's they saw a beautiful 3-acre orchard of Oliver pecans planted 17 years ago. Something like four hours were spent on this trip and all seemed to think the time well spent. It was stated by one of the company that not one word of the much talked "depression" was mentioned during the whole tour. Several boys received painful burns last Saturday afternoon when the corn popping machine at the Melba Theatre exploded. L. C. Featherston, Owen Clements and Edie Spokes were the ones burned the worst. None of the burns are of a serious nature but all are pretty badly burned about the face and chest. This is the second burn Dale Dyches has sustained in the last few months. He was laid up in a Temple sanitarium a few months ago by with burns on his face caused by a gasoline explosion. Roy Roundtree's garage burned Tuesday. It is not known how the fire started but the blaze was well under way when it was discovered. Several articles were stored in the garage, such as stoves and garden tools but the car was not in at the time of the fire started. There was no insurance on the building or contents and the loss will amount to several hundred dollars. District Clerk John S. Chesser and family visited relatives in Brownwood Tuesday. On Tuesday of last week forty men and women made an automobile tour of the pecan orchards in Big Valley. They report some fine and interesting work being done in the many fine orchards visited. After inspecting the trees and listening to the interesting talk made by Mr. J. Cockrell the party was treated to a watermelon feast at the Cockrell home. At George Robertson's they saw a beautiful 3-acre orchard of Oliver pecans planted 17 years ago. Something like four hours were spent on this trip and all seemed to think the time well spent. It was stated by one of the company that not one word of the much talked "depression" was mentioned during the whole tour. The Mills County Teachers Institute is meet here Thursday and Friday, September 3rd and 4th. The program has not been made yet. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Featherstone last Monday a daughter. Mr. J. W. Griffith died at his home a short distance east of town last Friday and was buried Saturday. Mr. Griffith was one of the pioneer settlers of this county and has a host of friends who are grieved on account of his death. He had been a constant sufferer for several years and an invalid for some time. Several years ago he suffered a stroke of paralysis and never recovered but grew weaker and weaker until the end came. He leaves four children, Mrs. M. E. Simpson, O. B. and Dick Griffith and one other daughter, Mrs. James. To mourn his going. His wife preceded him several years ago. To the sorrowing ones we offer sympathy. A real good shower of rain fell here Saturday afternoon which was very beneficial. Mr. and Mrs. J. R. The Louisiana Plan

COMPULSORY abandonment of cotton planting throughout the Southern states for the 1932 season was advocated by the conference held at New Orleans last week with Governor Huey P. Long as its chairman...

Advocates of the plan for legislating Southern farmers out of the cotton business during next year believe their scheme could be legally accomplished...

If the plan were legal, however, it would not be a practical plan for Southern farmers. They can not exist if their acres are idle...

Farmers can not change their whole plan of operation over night. They need to release themselves from absolute bondage to cotton...

In the normal course of events, there will be a great reduction of cotton acreage next year, and the year following. The history of the cotton growing industry is that peak production and carryover, such as that of this year, is invariably followed by crop reduction...

THIS YEAR, as in other years, the most important function of the tax equalization board serving the City of Brownwood and the Water Improvement District which includes the area of the municipality, will be to equalize the assessments of property so as to eliminate inequalities and injustices that may have developed in renditions of property for taxation...

Tax Equalization

1 Used Pump Shot-Gun, $10.00 at McLeod's Hardware. WINDOW GLASS Get the new low prices on Window Glass from D. S. Camp at The Peerless Drug Co.

It seems to The Bulletin that there should be no arbitrary reduction of all property values to the extent of twenty-five or thirty per cent, as was suggested the other day when the City Council was considering this matter...

There has not been so great an actual loss of values in city properties during the past year, despite the apparent decline in market demand...

The equalization board should first of all erase all inequalities in the assessments of properties for taxation, and then should make whatever general reductions in assessments it may find necessary to bring the assessments down to the present day level of actual values...

When Winter Comes APPOINTMENT of Walter S. Gifford as chairman of the nationwide relief organization to function during the coming winter has been announced by President Hoover...

Mobilization of national, state and local agencies of every kind which will have charge of relief activities during the coming winter is the purpose of the President in the selection of Mr. Gifford for the post made vacant by the retirement of Col. Arthur Woods...

As winter approaches it is evident that the unemployment situation is going to be desperately acute, especially in some of the industrial states such as Pennsylvania, where there are now more than 900,000 unemployed who have no prospect of returning to work until the whole country recovers from the economic slump...

That the President does not intend to summon Congress in extra session to consider the problem of unemployment relief is abundantly evident, and the wisdom of the executive's decision is readily apparent. Congress will convene in December, and at that time can take whatever action it may find necessary to extend financial aid to farmers and other producers who will need assistance in financing next year's crop activities...

Plaintiff sues the defendant for the title to, and possession of, said lots and parcels of land, situated in Brownwood, Brown County, Texas, the same being lots 1, 2 and 3, in block 4, of Ford's addition to the city of Brownwood.

Plaintiff in his petition claims title to said lots and parcels of land not only by the regular and consecutive chain of title, but also by virtue of the sovereignty of the soil to himself, but also by virtue of the Statute of Limitation of five years, and ten years in this; That he, and those whose estate he has, and under whom he claims, claiming same under and through the said defendant, had had and held, peaceable and adverse possession of said lots and parcels of land using and enjoying the same, and paying all taxes due thereon as they accrued, for a period of more than five years, next before the commencement of this suit, and that he and those whose estate he has, and under whom he claims claiming to have good and perfect right and title to said lots and parcels of land, had had and held peaceable and adverse possession of same, using and enjoying the same for a period of more than 10 years, next before the commencement of this suit.

Plaintiff alleges in said petition that the defendants are asserting some kind of title to, or lien on or against, said lots and parcels of land, the nature and character of which, are unknown to plaintiff, that defendants have no valid claim to or lien on or against, said lots and parcels of land and have no right, title or interest therein, or right to the possession thereof, but are the trespassers thereon.

Plaintiff prays for judgment for the title to, and possession of, said lots and parcels of land, and for a writ of possession to same; that all claims and liens, asserted against same by defendants, or either of them, be cancelled and declared of no effect, and that all clouds cast upon plaintiff's title to said lots and parcels of land by reason of defendants' said claims and asserted liens be removed.

"Farm Relief"

The suggestion of the Farm Relief Board to the 14 governors of cotton growing States that farmers plow up every third row of their cotton, following which the board would withhold its 1,500,000 bales from market for 2 years, has been pronounced the most sane action the board has yet taken...

As the result of an eight months investigation of property valuations conducted by the Oklahoma Corporation Commission a gas company serving 75,000 of the 125,000 consumers in the territory has reduced the gas rate from 50 to 45 cents at a saving to consumers of $1,500,000 annually, according to the estimate of the commission chairman.

The Winter Garden Experiment Station is experimenting with cigar tobacco in the territory has reduced the gas rate from 50 to 45 cents at a saving to consumers of $1,500,000 annually, according to the estimate of the commission chairman.

Several Texas counties have reduced public expenses by cutting all salaries about 10 per cent. From the investigations made by the legislature it seems that many officials are getting fees in amounts that make salaries appear of little consequence.

With legislative committees declaring that the Texas judiciary is top-heavy and with many courts idle a great part of the time, it seems easy to get the legislature to establish a new court every time a group of lawyers request one.

A recent compilation shows that on a quota basis Texans are entitled to 1,728 places in the Government civil service, but that only 483 are now employed. Being out 1,305 places below the quota Texans are surrendering to employees of other States $2,510,000 annually, but maybe it is worth that much just to be privileged to continue to live in Texas.

A Copperas Cove family claims the championship in canning home-grown products for home use, having 700 cans of such products stored away for future use. That is not such a large quantity after all, but it must cause a comfortable feeling when others begin to talk about drought relief.

At least one city has adopted a suggestion heretofore made in this column and has decided to give its employees half-time work in order that more people may be employed. If this plan should be applied generally to both public and private employment, without decreasing the per diem pay, employees would be encouraged to acquire homes with sufficient acreage to have their own gardens, milk cows and chickens. With only half-time paid employment, the other half could be used in producing food for family use in sufficient quantities to offset salary or wage loss, and employees could have a sense of freedom that does not exist when they have no time they can call their own. The plan would largely relieve congested living conditions in the cities, for with cars and good roads suburban or country life would be possible and far more desirable, especially when giving promise of making a living at home.

There are advantages in building now. All building material is cheaper than it has been in years. Contractors are more anxious for work and are willing to take less profits than formerly. There are approximately 50 bidders for the $430,000 Federal building job at Brownsville and at other places builders have shown equal interest in securing contracts. If you plan building any time soon, you will find it to your interest to build now as prices seem to be at their lowest and laborers most anxious for work.

Back And At 'Em

The Texas Commissioner of Agriculture, probably recalling the results of a recent call of Southern States governors to meet in Austin, now suggests that the 14 governors meet again (?) and agree to have their legislatures make farmers reduce cotton acreage in their States to one-third that of 1931. With about all the Texas National Guards busy enforcing oil conservation laws in four counties of East Texas, and the legislature holding itself in readiness for special session calls, and politicians sounding the tocsin in next year's campaigns, where would the military forces be obtained to enforce farm regulation laws and collect the penalties?

While the great need of Texas is more factories, Texans should take a firm stand against being exploited under the guise of factory needs. In the past, shrewd salesmen have been organizing factory corporations with local citizens subscribing for enough stock to pay for the plants and the salesmen, or those for whom they have been working, retaining the stock. Often the second-hand machinery installed has been worthless junk. In many cases where new machinery has been used, the majority stockholders have mismanaged the business and wrecked it until local stockholders have been so discouraged as to forfeit their stock rather than pay additional stock assessments, whereupon the factories have been acquired by the exploiters and afterward conducted successfully. However eager a community may be to establish factories, it should first make certain of honest conduct of factory business in the interest of stockholders and the community generally.

At least one city has adopted a suggestion heretofore made in this column and has decided to give its employees half-time work in order that more people may be employed. If this plan should be applied generally to both public and private employment, without decreasing the per diem pay, employees would be encouraged to acquire homes with sufficient acreage to have their own gardens, milk cows and chickens. With only half-time paid employment, the other half could be used in producing food for family use in sufficient quantities to offset salary or wage loss, and employees could have a sense of freedom that does not exist when they have no time they can call their own. ### SEVERAL NEW COURSES WILL BE OFFERED HOWARD PAYNE NEXT SESSION, OPENING SEPT. 7TH

Howard Payne will open its fall session on Monday, September 7th, according to the announcements in the current bulletin of the school. The 7th and 8th will be given over to matriculation and classification of students with classes beginning on Wednesday at 8 o'clock. The school will open its 41st year of operation.

The remainder of the calendar of the year states that an Armistice program will be given in chapel on November 11. November 24 and 25 will bring final examinations and the close of the fall term at the Thanksgiving recess with the winter term beginning on November 30. On December 19 Christmas recess will start.

Class work will be resumed on January 4 at 8 o'clock. February 22 will be observed with a chapel program and on March 3 winter term examinations will begin. On March 7 the spring term will open with Austi nand its graduation credits are accepted in all Texas colleges.

In connection with the Academy the Howard Payne business school will again be operated under the direction of Mrs. Myrtle Jordan Brookshire.

Faculty members of the Academy include Mr. Hicks, McAdoo Keaton, Mrs. J. B. Cheaney and Mrs. Brookshire.

Reports Encouraging Dr. T. H. Taylor, president of Howard Payne, said today that prospects for a successful year were very bright at present with indications pointing toward a good enrollment for the 1931-32 term. He said that many inquiries had been received from high school graduates throughout this section and most of them had indicated that they planned to attend school this year. He said that he was surprised at the number who were planning to attend college this year.

He stated that he believed that although the depression would keep many away that a large number would attend schools this year and that from reports of field workers for the school that a large number of these would come to Howard Payne for the year.

Most of the students here last year are planning to return and several have stated that they will bring others with them when they return for the opening of school next week.

Dr. Taylor is really optimistic concerning the general prospects for the year, although it is still hard to determine just how many will be enrolled for the opening of the fall term.

Shelton Optimistic

J. Horace Shelton, field representative of Howard Payne and athletic director of the institution, said today that he believed there would be a good enrollment this year in all Texas schools. Mr. Shelton has spent most of the summer traveling over West Texas interviewing prospective students and he was jubilant over the prospects for the school year everywhere.

He stated that at most of the places where he visited this summer he found that most of the high school graduates of last year were planning to attend some school this year and that most of the students in colleges last year were also planning to return to school this year.

In speaking of the general outlook for Howard Payne he said that at most of the Baptist encampments visited by him this year he had found a number of students who were planning to return to school this year, and that he had the promises of many that they were planning to attend school in Brownwood.

In speaking of the athletic situation in his school for the year Mr. Shelton said that he had been receiving inquiries from a large number of high school football players from all parts of the state and that he believed a large number of high school athletes would be entered in his school this year for all of the major sports.

He said that most of the athletes of last year were planning to return and although the football team of last year was hampered greatly by graduation that most of the men on last year's squad who had not graduated were planning to return for the 1931 season and that all are anxious for the opening of school.

Schools and Colleges of BROWNWOOD

Will Open MONDAY, September 7

There are no better institutions of learning in the state, in cities of the size of Brownwood, than our Public Schools and our two Colleges.

You will make no mistake if you will arrange now to attend one or the other of these two colleges, if you have reached the college age.

Brownwood is readily accessible, by train, by bus, and by private car over as good roads as are in the state. You will find here all the conveniences of a large city, with few of the disadvantages.

In Brownwood you find a cordial people who are glad to extend a welcoming hand to any one seeking an education.

Come and enroll.

And whether you come to Brownwood as a student, or just as a visitor, we want you to visit our store. We are Outfitters for Women. We design and manufacture dresses. Ours is a woman's store, and we are equipped to take care of their wants at prices that are in reach of the most economically inclined.

Shop of Youth

J. C. Penney Co., invites all students to attend College in Brownwood

We are looking forward with pleasure to the time when the campuses of the two Brownwood Colleges will again ring with the voices of students who come from far and near to add to their store of knowledge.

It is our hope that every person of college age who lives in Brownwood, or in Brownwood's territory, will find it possible to attend one or the other of the two colleges here.

These institutions are worthy of your support. They are manned by capable and efficient teachers who give personal attention to each pupil under their care. The cost of attending one of these colleges is trivial as compared with schools at more remote points.

Brownwood is a healthy town; a place of churches; a central point easily reached by train or bus or private car. Its people are cordial, and are ever ready to extend a welcoming hand to the students.

Attend school in Brownwood, and when you come make it a point to visit our store. We shall be most happy to show you every courtesy possible.

Our stock is clean, bright, and fresh, and you will find here the very latest, most stylish merchandise, priced in line with the oats, wheat and cotton market.

IMPROVEMENTS IN SANITATION SCHOOLS GOAL

Soon thousands of schools over the State will be opening again, and in the meantime county superintendents and school boards are busily engaged in getting everything in ship shape. Defects in the school water supplies are being corrected, sanitary toilets provided, home-made drinking fountains installed to replace the old buckets and dipper, and the school grounds generally sanitized.

P. D. Pierce, county superintendent of Brown county, called on Dr. C. W. Gray, county health officer, this week and together they have mapped out a plan of improvements that can be followed at all country schools. The program involves more labor than money and should make an instant appeal to district trustees with plenty of labor available at the present time. They are fortunate also in having J. H. Winfrey, district sanitarian, representing the State and Federal health departments in this district to assist in carrying out a complete sanitation program.

Outline of Work
The following is a rough outline of the work that has been mapped out for the county schools:

Replace all broken window panes; clean out the stove and give it a good coat of paint; install drinking fountains where possible; see that the water supply is protected from surface drainage and a pump installed where feasible; install a pit toilet, or better, to replace the old surface privy too often tolerated at county schools.

School boards will also be urged to consider the matter of compulsory vaccination against smallpox. With the aid of the county nurse and county health officer, clinics may be held and immunization treatments administered to prevent smallpox, diphtheria, and typhoid fever. If parents cannot afford to buy the vaccines, the school board

After New York's Bandit War Ended With Six Dead

Here is the bullet-ridden auto from which two bandits spread a hail of bullets in a 30-minute running gun battle with police, firemen and pedestrians along a 12-mile front through upper Manhattan, killing six and wounding 12. The battle started when the gunmen deliberately shot down a payroll guard and ended when the bandits and their driver were killed. Detectives, who for hours after the daylight fight were unable to piece together the story of what happened, are shown beside the auto trying to identify the body of one of the gunmen. One of the victims was a four-year-old child.

or some public spirited citizen may be willing to provide for that. The county health officer and local physicians are usually willing to administer the treatment free, or at a small charge when group vaccinations are arranged.

Duties of Leaders
Leaders in parent-teacher organizations also have some preliminary duties. They may wish to provide equipment at the schools for serving at least one hot dish for each child at the noon meal throughout the school year. They might also adopt as their slogan: "At least a pint of milk a day for every child," and begin to interest the mothers in seeing that this is carried out. They should also insist upon a definite program of health teaching in the schools, in addition to daily health inspection through the elementary grades, and physical training. One thorough physical examination each year with defects corrected should be the minimum. Especially is this important if the children are to try for the athletic games. A standard plan for health teaching in all grades is now under preparation by Mr. E. H. Sandlin of the State Department of Education, and material on this will be available for teachers and school boards by the middle of September.

School boards are also encouraged to provide play equipment, supplies for health work, as scales for daily weighing, first-aid kits, etc. The playground equipment on hand should be put in good repair and when school opens so placed as to conform with principles of safety and sanitation.

County school trustees are urged to get in touch with their county superintendent, county health officer, nurse and sanitarian at once and plan for a general clean up and health program for their communities.

Public Health Work
From Report of the P. H. E. Section of the American Public Health Association and Conference of S. S. E. the following features are required in sanitary drinking fountains:

1. The fountain shall be constructed of impervious material, such as vitreous china, porcelain, enameled cast iron, other metals, or stone-ware.

2. The jet of the fountains shall issue from a nozzle of nonoxidizing, impervious material set at an angle from the vertical. The nozzle and every other opening in the water pipe or conductor leading to the nozzle shall be covered the stem of the bowl so that such nozzle or opening will not be flooded in case a drain from the bowl of the fountain becomes clogged.

3. The end of the nozzle shall be protected by nonoxidizing guards to prevent persons using the fountain from coming into contact with the nozzle.

4. The inclined jet of water issuing from the nozzle shall not touch the guard, thereby causing splattering.

5. The bowl of the fountain shall be so designed and proportioned as to be free from corners which would be difficult to clean or which would collect dirt.

6. The bowl shall be so proportioned as to prevent unnecessary splashing at a point where the jet falls into the bowl.

7. The drain from the fountain shall not have a direct physical connection to a waste pipe unless the drain is trapped.

8. The water supply pipe shall be provided with an adjustable valve fitted with a loose key or automatic valve permitting the regulation of the rate of flow of water to the fountain so that the valve manipulated by the users of the fountain will merely turn the water on or off.

9. The height of the fountain at the drinking level shall be such as to be most convenient to persons utilizing the fountain. The provision of several steplike elevations to the floor at fountains will permit children of various ages to utilize the fountain.

10. The waste opening and pipe shall be of sufficient size to carry off the water promptly. The opening shall be provided with a strainer.

ARMSTRONG JEWELRY CO. URGES YOUR ATTENDANCE

If you are planning to go to College this fall, keep in mind the fact that Brownwood has two colleges, Daniel Baker and Howard Payne, and that they are the equal of institutions of learning in Texas.

From the standpoint of scholarship, their graduates have gone over the state and have carved out enviable reputations in whatever line of work they have engaged.

From an athletic standpoint, no two colleges in Texas can show as good a record as can Howard Payne and Daniel Baker. Their athletes are recognized as leaders wherever they enter in competition with athletes from other schools of similar standing.

Brownwood is a good town. It is made up of home-loving people, who are glad to extend a warm welcome and greeting to the college student.

Our store is glad to be a part and parcel of Brownwood. We have been here more than a quarter of a century, selling jewelry to father and son, mother and daughter, catering to all, and pleasing all, both with our merchandise and our prices.

We want you to be here on opening day of the two colleges, Monday, September 21st, and if you find time, drop in and let us get acquainted with you. We have always counted as among our best friends and patrons the students of these two institutions, and it will be a sad day for us when it is otherwise.

MAKING PLANS FOR INSTITUTE SEPT. 11-12

Dr. Thomas H. Taylor, president of Howard Payne College, has been named as head of the Brownwood county teachers institute, to be held here Friday and Saturday, September 11 and 12. Dr. Taylor will have charge of most of the arrangement of the program.

Prominent educators and speakers are being secured for the two-day program and it is said one of the most interesting institutes in the history of the county is being arranged.

Teachers are urged to make arrangements now to attend the institute. City schools will open on Monday before the institute and teachers will be here for the meeting. A number of county schools will not open until several weeks later but teachers from these schools are urged to attend the institute. If some of the teachers who do not live in the county and who do not begin their schools until several weeks after the local institute will make application to the county superintendent they may secure permission to attend the institute in the county where they live. Mr. Pierce urges county teachers to do this if it is impossible to attend the meeting here.

PIERCE HOPES MANY OF YOUNG PEOPLE TO RETURN TO SCHOOL

County School Superintendent P. D. Pierce said today in speaking of the back to school movement now under way here that he believed all efforts should be made to get, not only college students but public school students into the schools for the coming year. Pierce said that there are many boys and girls of high school age who are not attending any school and who should be enrolled for the coming year.

He declared that through the efforts of the Rotary club and other organizations these students could be persuaded to return to the class rooms this year and complete their public school education in preparation for college work. He said that many students do not realize the value of a good high school education and that if they would stop and think of the many benefits to be gotten from school attendance, and that if they could know how what they will in future years, all school rooms would be crowded this year. One county school begins its 1931-32 term next Monday, this being the May school, and Mr. Pierce said that the teachers there were expecting a good enrollment. Plans for the school following the first two months have not been completed but it is believed that much work can be accomplished before the time for fall and winter farm work and that the early opening will aid the students.

Pierce said that he was heartily in accord with the efforts to get students into the Brownwood colleges, having been a student here himself. He is really anxious to see boys and girls enter the local institutions, because of his position as

Prison Physician Shot and Killed

MARQUETTE, Mich., Aug. 27.—(P)—Dr. A. W. Hornbogen, acting prison physician, was shot and killed by three convicts and a guard was shot in the leg during a disturbance at the Michigan branch prison here today.

The wounded guard is Joseph Cowling. Warden James P. Corgan of the prison said the names of the three prisoners were Germano, Dyer and Roburg. The warden said he had not determined how the men obtained guns. An investigation was started.

The warden said guards kept the disorder from spreading to other parts of the prison, although it was feared for a time a general riot might follow.

Texas Woman's College
of Fort Worth, Texas,
Offers Liberal Courses

Texas Woman's College of Fort Worth recognizes five definite purposes as its goal: 1. Building for health. Its courses in physical education aim to promote health and vigor, to correct common physical defects, to cultivate bodily control and poise. 2. Building for home. To this end it offers courses in foods, clothing, house planning, and child study. 3. Building for Christian womanhood. It provides opportunity for the study of religions, the Bible, and the ideals and principles of Christianity. 4. Building for worthy service. Its curricula of history, sociology, economics, and active student relationships are pointed to this end. 5. Building for culture and feminine loveliness. The study of languages, ancient and modern, of literature, of the fine arts, of the sciences are aimed to furnish a broad outlook on life, to understand processes of life, to develop a beautiful personality by the acquisition of knowledge and a refining of the feelings.

The College comprises two distinct schools with separate faculties. The following departments are maintained in the College of Liberal Arts: Art, including Public School Art; Bible and Religious Education; English Composition and Literature, and Public Speaking; Biology; Education, including Kindergarten Education; Journalism; History and Social Sciences; Home Economics, including household art and household science; Greek; Latin and Public School Music; Physical Sciences; Physical Education; Romance Languages. The faculty consists of twenty-one men and women, trained in the leading Universities of Europe and America who are recognized as leaders in their respective fields of knowledge. In the College of Fine Arts the following departments are maintained: Theory of Music; History of Music; Piano; Violin; Voice; Pipe Organ, Painting and Drawing. These departments are under the direction of artists of recognized musicianship and skill who have received their training under the great masters of America and Europe.

SCHOOL

IN BROWNWOOD THIS FALL

This year as never before Brownwood offers advantages for students. Two senior colleges and a public school system that is unsurpassed by any city in its class.

Investigate the faculties of Brownwood Schools, consider their past records . . . you'll find no better schools anywhere. Consider, too, the advantage of living at home where living conditions are excellent due to the comforts and conveniences of MODERN Brownwood.

In planning an education, give Brownwood FIRST consideration.

Brownwood's Fine Schools

Country, are justly proud of the system of fine schools located here. In addition to the very splendid public schools, the two Christian colleges are schools that any city might well be proud of.

For many years we have been employing young people from these fine schools. We are in a position to judge fairly of the merits of their claims. We are ready to say frankly that every claim made is merited.

The individual who finishes his or her education in a Christian school of merit has gained many things that are not possible in any State school. And these things gained stand out as pure coined metal in value when such individual takes a place out in the world. The commercial world values highly the finishing touches furnished by a good Christian school. Along with the education in general that the business world needs, the Christian school adds the refining and uplifting influence that goes to make staunch characters which will stand the test under all conditions.

The young person contemplating attending college will make no mistake in selecting one of Brownwood's fine Christian colleges. We have perhaps fifty graduates from these two schools on our pay rolls at all points. We have many from other good schools. We believe we judge fairly when we say Brownwood's fine colleges can supply your educational needs and you will always be proud of your Alma Mater.

Walker-Smith Company

TEXAS WOMAN'S COLLEGE

FORT WORTH, TEXAS

Education is divided into Occupational Education and Liberal Education. The two are not in conflict, but supplement each other. By many, the cultural education is considered the foundation for specialized education. Hence a woman should choose a college which will give contacts with what is good of the past, what is worth preserving of the present, and what is possible for the future.

In choosing a college, consider its location, its student organization, its standards of scholarship, the training and scholarship faculty, its emphasis on character above scholarship and its emphasis on humanity above its love of material things.

FORTY-THIRD SESSION DANIEL BAKER COLLEGE TO OPEN SEPT. 7; PROSPECTS FOR GOOD YEAR

The forty-third annual session of Daniel Baker College opens Monday, September 7, with prospects for a good year. A large enrollment is expected and one of the most successful terms of the college is expected. A number of persons have already enrolled and many inquiries have been received.

The college calendar is: September 4-5, 8:30 a. m. Entrance examinations; September 7-8, 8:30 a. m. matriculation; September 10, 8 a. m. faculty recital and reception to faculty and students; November 7, mid-semester reports; November 11, Armistice Day holiday; November 26-29, Thanksgiving holidays; December 24-January 3, Christmas vacations; January 4, 1932, classes begin; January 15-19, fall semester examinations; February 11, Founders' Day (not a holiday); February 19, oratorical contest; February 22, Washington's birthday holiday; March 23, mid-semester reports; the sacrifice of its founders and other faithful friends," state announcements from the school.

"In addition to emphasizing the importance of the generally accepted objects of an educational institution, and the benefits to be derived from the courses of study therein, the faculty and the board of trustees of Daniel Baker College recognize as more important the formation of Christian character, the establishment of such principles of manhood and womanhood as will give to the church, the state and the home the strongest, the most useful, the best. To this end, the desire always is to have as teachers, only men and women of Christian spirit as well as ripe scholarship, who will take an active personal interest in the development of the moral as well as the intellectual life of the individual student.

Wide Selection of Studies

"The foundation of the college is laid deep and broad, so that there may be a wide selection of studies to meet the individual taste and inclination. The courses leading in the degree of Bachelor of Arts are designated with such restriction as to discourage premature and unwise specialization, and conforms closely in requirements to those in the best colleges and universities in the south. Elective courses may include education, home economics, oratory, theory of music and business administration, as well as the regular liberal arts courses usually offered," further state college announcements.

Football Prospects Good

Ed Blair, head of the physical education department, said today the prospects for a fair football team this season are very good. He has had communications from most of the last year letter men stating they will be back this year. Football practice starts September 7 and the first game will be the night of September 17 when the Billies meet Simmons.

The faculty of Daniel Baker this year is as follows: S. E. Chandler, president, Bible and religious education; T. H. Hart, senior dean, philosophy and social sciences; C. W. McClelland, dean of classification, mathematics and physics; John Power, history and social sciences; R. E. MacKay, secretary of the faculty, French and Spanish; Helen M. Post, head of English department; Mrs. J. W. Trap, education; Sam R. McInnis, chemistry and biology; Janie Peavy, home economics; Kate Allen Horn, assistant in Spanish; Katherine C. Watson, oratory and physical training; Virginia Merton Hardy, voice and public school music; Mae Branon, violin and piano, director of orchestra; Ruby Eggleston Wiley, art; R. E. Blair, director of athletics and student activities, Alta M. Craig, registrar, and Mrs. Dora Hunter, matron girls' dormitory.

FATHER KNICKERBOCKER GETS SOME NEW BRIDGEWORK

Towering above the historic Hudson river—a mammoth link between New Jersey and New York—the George Washington Memorial Bridge is nearing completion. Above is a striking photo of two of the giant cables which support the great structure. Inset is a general view of the span, which is expected to carry more vehicular traffic than any other bridge in the world.

Harvey's objective. His past explains it. Brilliant and a keen student, he was admitted to the bar at the age of 19, and practiced law for five years in his native state of West Virginia and then moved to Cleveland, O., where he continued practicing.

Subsequently he moved to Chicago, to Colorado, and then back to Chicago, where he wrote the book which made him famous. Then, after rising to the crest of the wave in the latter nineties he dropped into oblivion in his Arkansas retreat. Alternately doubting that the present civilization could be saved, and hoping that it could, he determined to build the huge pyramid which would show future civilizations the folly of this one so they could escape the destruction to which he believes this one is doomed.

Creation of the New Political Party is a gesture toward saving the United States from itself. It is an outgrowth of Harvey's study of national finance. He believes that the time has come for the organization of the new party. Under present conditions he hopes to get the attention of the people. He hopes to prevent bank failures by government operation of banking systems. He dreams of formulating a "perfect money system," and to use public funds to employ idle labor in public improvements.

Another thing: He would submit to the people all such important questions as prohibition to be decided by referendum. He would reduce the number of office holders and the expenses of government to a minimum. Coin Harvey's final hopes for pulling the United States out of its slough of despond lie in the establishment of the new political party. He approaches the vast job of organization with confidence, feeling that in the success of this enterprise he will have succeeded in his idealistic life.

HERO BUS DRIVER

MEMPHIS—L. H. Byrd, driving a loaded passenger bus, turned out from behind a hay wagon to see another car speeding directly at him from the other direction. Byrd swung off the road, the bus and its 32 passengers toppling over. Before it fell, however, Byrd in a flash opened a broad door on the side of the bus. The door served as a prop and held the bus upright until the passengers unloaded.

GIFFORD SEEKS ESTIMATES ON FUNDS NEEDED

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—(AP)—An estimate of the total funds needed to prevent acute distress among unemployed next winter was sought today by Walter S. Gifford, national relief director, and his staff.

Among the evidence being gathered were statistics from the Children's Bureau of the Labor Department indicating distress will be materially greater during the approaching winter than last.

The Children's Bureau figures also indicated a larger portion of the burden probably will be borne by money derived from taxation than for voluntary contributions to charitable organizations. Gifford had not ventured a guess on the amount necessary to meet the needs of the jobless and their families but has devoted his time to making arrangements for the national drive for funds and to organizing a force to carry it out.

Miss Katherine Lenroot, acting chief of the Children's Bureau has been cooperating with the relief director in making his plans and has turned over to him data on conditions.

Experienced relief workers have advised Gifford the distress next winter is likely to be much more widespread in proportion to the number out of work than last year because of the exhaustion of reserve funds.

Miss Lenroot's figures also indicated that the proportion of tax money to the total relief funds last year was lighter than the year before, pointing to a possible increase during the coming months.

UNLUCKY DAY

AKRON, O.—A jury of ten men and two women brought in a verdict of guilty of first degree murder against Gust Tanguies. It is compulsory that the date of execution, in case of such a ruling, be set at least 100 days after the conviction. Friday, November 13, is exactly 101 days from the date the jury brought in the verdict. The judge set that "unlucky" date as the day Tanguies is to die.

WHAT "EMPIRE" SAYS ABOUT THE TWO COLLEGES

The two colleges of Brownwood, Daniel Baker and Howard Payne, will open their doors for the fall term on Monday, September 7th.

Preparations have been made for a good attendance. Complete and competent facilities have been retained, so that students may enter for any line of study and be assured of getting the very best.

You will make no mistake if you attend college in Brownwood. This is a cordial, home-like town filled with friendly people who leave nothing undone to make the pupils' stay in college pleasant as well as profitable.

Our store is glad to add its invitation to that of others. You will find that we carry one of the biggest, best assorted stocks of Furniture, Rugs and Draperies to be found in a city of this size.

Should you or any of your family need to buy a few or many articles of Furniture, you will do well to let us show you through our store. You will be surprised to see how far a few dollars will go.
